In the hope our readers will be inerested to hear something of the great Bay of Notre Dame, I avail myself of the earliest opportunity to publish a few lines, not anent mining matters which are already sufficiently public, but regarding the agricultural resources of the Bay, which do not seem so wel known, or if well known, do not seem to be so appreciated by our people as they deserve. Now, with regard to think it beyond question that many in this Bay have practically proved the fact that the land is able to support for some years to come the soil will be the auxilary of the fisheries, but the time will most certainly come when the fisheries will be the suxilary of agriculture. What I mean is this-in the future agriculture will be and musbe the main industry of the country and the prosecution of the fisheries only a valuable industry. In no place was so much convinced of this as in Fortune Harbor, a very flourishing set seem, to judge from the numerous well tilled farms, which I saw there o devote much timo to the cultivation if the land. Having enquired of one or two of the settlers as to their profits from their farms, I was told that without them it was impossible for them to live exclusively from the fishe

The Thomas Roy, Capt. Colin Locks, sailed from St. Pierre on Saturday, the 20thinstant, iu ballast, dound for Halifav, N. S. Next day the wind blew hard, increasing s towards evensng to a gale. At 2 o'clock on Monday morning while hove to, aj tremendous sea broke over the schooner washing everything moveable off the deck and inrowing her on her beamsends. In this position she remained for some time with uttle possility of 'coming up" without the loss of her spars, when Capt, Locke ordered the two masts to be cut away. This order was promptly obeyed and the schooner slowly "righted," but the heavy sea continued to wash over her. Daylight broke without one ray of hope. The hull entirely unmanageable and exposed to all the fury of the gale, with no friendly sail in sight and the stock of provisions already so much exhausted as The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct al to make it necessary to put the crew on bonear, on her way from Sydney with a in one hundred yards of the Thomas Diseases it is no equal.
