Notes and Quotes.

Children's Corner. Question 5.—How did God give us the Bible?

Answer.—The Bible was written by holy men, whom God taught and guided by His Holy Spirit.

The Collection last Sunday for the Convention Fund was $47.41, making a total of $262.28. This encourages us to believe that a large proportion of the balance, $147.72 will be handed in by July 24. There are over 60 persons who ought to be generous contributors to this fund, who have not yet given anything. This ought not to be. We can easily make up our allotment by July 24 if these will all contribute. Some will increase their offerings. Last year we raised only $288.63, but that is $88.63 ahead of this year to date. To-day and next Sunday will change the figures. Every one make an offering to the Convention Fund.

The Pastor and family leave Monday afternoon for Liverpool, where they remain the first two weeks of their vacation. The third week they spend in Bridgetown. The fourth Sunday, Aug. 14, the Pastor arranges for the supply from Port William Station. Convention Sunday, Aug. 21, he will be in Amherst, and the Rev. Mr. Stephens, of Philadelphia, will preach. The Deacons will also arrange for the pulpit supply on July 24, 31, and Aug. 7. All the Services of the church will be maintained.

Our Calendar will not be published again until Sunday, Aug. 28.

The Picnic was a great success. The North Church knows how to do things well.

The ladies once more request that the "Home Mission Barrels" be brought in on Tuesday afternoon of this week to the special prayer service in the church.

To all who go away during the summer, we say, "God bless you" on your trip. Be sure you keep up your church habits and make a point to do somebody good. Carry the blessings you have received at home, and scatter seeds of kindness. Come back sweet and happy. To all who remain at home, keep the spiritual life of the dear old North Church up to the high water mark. Good-by! We shall not forget to pray for each other.

Baptism to-night.

Deacon James Ross, born in Scotland and filled with his national characteristics has been a member of this church since 1862. He was baptized by Pastor Grant in Scotland, in 1860, and joined by letter. Of Presbyterian parentage and reared on the Shorter Catechism, he read the New Testament and was compelled to render obedience; so he was buried with Christ in baptism on his own profession of Faith. For some 19 years brother Ross was Church Treasurer and devoted much time and energy to the financial part of the Lord's work. He did not covet the Diaconate, but wears this honour with dignity. He deals in photographers' materials and is owner of considerable real estate.
