LOOKS BAD FOR THE GREEKS.

Are Matched Against Turks Who Fight Like Devils.

KING GEORGE'S MEN LACKED ARTILLERY.

The Milouna Pass, the Strategic Point, is Now in the Hands of the Moslems.

Turkish Forces Will Push on to the Greek Headquarters at Larissa - All Greek Countries Have Been Ordered Under Arms to Protect Their Country Against the Invaders - Turkey Wants Bulgaria as a Vassal to Join Hands - Turkish Commander Appeals to the Religious Fanaticism of His Men. Who Laugh and Shout When Facing Greek Bullets - A Greek General's Fatal Misinterpretation of an Order - How the War Affects the Markets.

Athens, April 20. - (6 p.m.) - All the members of the gendarmerie and other police forces, military organized, are now going to the frontier. The citizens have volunteered to guard the town and the same state of affairs prevails in the other towns of Greece. On all sides there is a firm determination to resist the Turkish invasion, and every man who can be spared and who can bear arms is going to the front. The Athenian ladies, under the patronage of the Queen, have converted the steamer Thessaly into a floating hospital. Three hundred beds for the wounded have been fitted up on board and she is now proceeding to Volo.

All Greek Citizens Meet. Headquarters of the Greek Army in Thessaly, Larissa, April 20. - The Mayor of Larissa has issued a proclamation, calling upon all citizens to arm themselves in defence of the country. Every step possible is being taken to defend this place against the Turks, who are reported to have captured Tyrnovo, ten miles from here, and to be pushing on to Larissa. The Ministers of the Interior has issued orders to the prefects throughout the country to send upon them to arm all able-bodied men in defence of Greece, now invaded by the Turks. It is reported that the Greeks captured 200 Turkish prisoners at Volo.

WHAT THE TURKS CLAIM. Say They Have Repulsed the Greek Fleet at Prevesa. Washington, April 20. - According to official despatches received by Mustafa Bey, the Turkish Minister, from Constantinople, under date of April 20, the Turks have not only gained some slight advantage along the north-western frontier in the neighbourhood of Milouna Pass, but have repulsed the attack of the Greek fleet on Prevesa. The commander of the Turkish forces at Eleusina reports that all of the Greek positions commanding Tyrnovo next to the last fortification outside of Larissa have been captured by the Ottoman troops. The Greeks evacuated their camp equipment, 20 cases of cartridges and several muskets.

The position of Vithiko, which was occupied by bands of Greek irregulars, has also been recaptured by the Turks. The commander assures the Porte that the forward movement to Tyrnovo (Tuesday) is the most important yet attempted and is expected to result in a decisive and important Turkish victory.

The Turkish commander of the army at Janina reports that the Greek naval force, which had bombarded Prevesa, both from the sea and gulf sides, has been dispersed, one section retreating up the Gulf of Arta, and the other steaming away to sea in the direction of the Ionian Isles. Contrary to the claims of the Greeks, the Turkish commander reports the Prevesa despatch, mentioning the naval bombardment.

GREEK GETS THE BLAME. For the outbreak of hostilities - Will the Turks Win? Vienna, April 20. - The Neue Presse, in an article on the Turco-Greek war, and the causes which led up to it, expresses the opinion that Greece is wholly answerable for the outbreak of hostilities. There would have been no war, it declares if Greece had not declared this battle does occur, it will result in a victory for the Turkish army. The only danger for the Turks may be that they will be unable to maintain their position.

Views of the British Press. All Seem to Side with Turkey - What Will the Powers Do? London, April 20. - The Globe, a consistent Philo-Turkish organ, says that Turkey practiced exemplary patriotism in her present provocation and attack, and the just interest of the powers now lies in localizing the war. The Progressive Unionists, urges Lord Salisbury to depart from the concert of Europe, and declares that the resolution of Turkey to settle her quarrel with Greece by the sword should be considered the position of adhesion to the concert of the powers, which was only justified as preserving European peace, wherein it has failed.

LOOKS BAD FOR GREEKS. Greeks Lacked Artillery in the Milouna Pass and Turks Were Victors. Summit of the Milouna Pass, Monday morning, April 19. - The Turkish army of occupation in Greece, so that he may co-operate in the defence of the country, the powers might doubtless strain a point and let him out, but if this is the object the Greek Government should say so. Until they do, the powers are not in the least likely to modify their action in Greece.

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY. Turkish Preparing to Advance. Milouna Pass, April 20, morning. Active preparations for a general advance have been in progress since dawn. During the night the Greeks established themselves on the last height near Tyrnovo, opposite the position which the Turks captured last evening. Nectas Pasha opened the attack upon this position this morning with a brisk firing from behind the defences. The combatants have not yet come to close quarters. The Greeks brought up several pieces of artillery, which were speedily silenced. The Greeks are now concentrated near Tyrnovo, whether in great strength or not is not known here. Greek reinforcements have been sent, and the plan in the direction of Tyrnovo. Three batteries of Turkish artillery have arrived from Monastir. Grunioff Pasha is now with the Turkish troops.

Greek Position Near Arta. Athens, April 20. - An official despatch from Arta says that after crossing the Arachos at Bani, the Greeks occupied the villages of Nigkhor and Salkalama, where they strongly entrenched themselves. Col. Manos is now advancing northward in the direction of Paraskovi. The Greeks repulsed an attempt of the Turks to cross the bridge at 5 this morning. A number of Greeks, among them several officers, were killed and others wounded.

The Turkish Fleet Moves. London, April 20. - A despatch to the Daily Chronicle from Athens says that the Turkish fleet has left the Dardanelles.

GREEKS VICTORIOUS. Captured and Burned Damasi after a Desperate Struggle. Athens, April 20, midnight. - News has just reached here that the Greeks, after a desperate battle have captured and burned Damasi, a village in the north-western part of Greece. A number of Greek troops, it is reported, has traversed the Revent Pass and captured three blockhouses. This division has almost reached Damasi, where it will effect a

 A WONDERFUL SUCCESS.
 The marvelous drawing powers of Henry Arthur Jones' great drama of human interest, "The Middleman," has hardly ever been equaled by any other play. It was originally produced with Mr. Willard as Cyrillus Blenkart at the Stratford Theatre, London, England, in August, 1886. Up to that date nothing produced at the Stratford seemed to meet with success, but this drama, as both play and actor made an impression on the minds of the audience that has never been forgotten. By camera free. Six months ago Dr. H. G. Cameron of Victoria, B.C. was brought here on a warrant charging him with the killing of W. L. Howland. Howland appeared here two terms without the plaintiff going ahead with the case. Judge Wray to-day discharged the ball and the doctor returned to the coast a free man. It is quite likely that actions for false arrest will follow.

NICHOLAS FLOOD'S HOT SHOT

The Corruption in Saskatchewan Shown Up.

PEACEMAKERS MADE MIXES

And Instead of Healing the Breach Made Matters Worse.

The Finance Minister Interposed and Called for Mr. McPhail, Who is to Be the Liberal Candidate in the Next General Election—Some of the Big Guns Took a Hand in the Discussion, but Nothing Came of It—The Regiment for England Will Be Confined to the 300—The Franchise Bill Talked Out for the Present.

Ottawa, April 20.—(Special.)—Mr. Davin was instrumental this afternoon in exploiting what he characterized as the alarming and disgraceful state of things in North-western provinces, especially mentioning that of Saskatchewan, in which more than one Minister of the Crown was implicated. In June last Mr. Laurier was elected by a small majority there. There was evidence in the Conservative ranks to disturb him in his seat. When Mr. Laurier decided not to sit for the constituency a fierce fight arose. Mr. Sifton, brother of the Minister of Interior, as the Liberal candidate, was elected as well as to make the strife worse than ever. A leading official of the Liberal party, Mr. McPhail, was elected to induce the Liberal to accept Mr. Sifton as the Liberal candidate in matters up to make them worse. Then came the split, and the result of the election, resulting in the return of Mr. Davin. A petition was filed against his return, but the Finance Minister refused to entertain it. Mr. McPhail received a telegram from the Finance Minister to the effect that he did so and the outcome was a corrupt arrangement with the Minister as a result of which Mr. McPhail withdrew his petition.

Mr. Davin, "which has disgusted not only Conservatives alone, but the respectable Liberals of Prince Albert and the Saskatchewan." (Derisive cries from the Government benches interrupted him.) "Although my friends oppose me," returned Mr. Davin, "I can assure them there are no Liberals in the Saskatchewan." (Laughter.)

Mr. Davin went on to read from the Saskatchewan Times the terms of this corrupt bargain, the effect being that the Government had agreed to support Mr. McPhail as the Liberal candidate at the next general election, and that the Government would not be made and no tenders let in the constituency without the consent of a committee of the Government, consisting of Messrs. William Knox, Graham, Nelson, Alexander S. Stewart, Joseph McPhail and John A. Macdonald, besides there was a promissory note from Mr. Davin to Mr. McPhail, Donaldson and Mack, as to the existence of this agreement.

Mr. Davin then interposed with the observation that when an hon. member desired to make charges affecting the standing of another hon. member he should only do so by formal notice. Mr. Davin went on to explain that he had only taken the earliest opportunity to bring this matter of the alleged corrupt bargain to the attention of the Government, in order that they might refute them if it were possible. Mr. Davin returned to be his duty as a member of the House.

Mr. Charles Tupper, speaking to the point of order, ventured to express the hope that Mr. Speaker would not permit Mr. Davin to continue his observations. The invariable practice, he said, was that an hon. member should be allowed from his place in the House to draw attention to any matter affecting the Government or any member of the House. This would allow the Government or the member concerned such an explanation perhaps as would settle the whole subject.

Mr. Laurier said that charges were never made against any member of the House except upon the personal responsibility of the Government, and that he believed them to be true, and that he would refer them to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

When Mr. Davin was prepared to take that course the Government would act, but it would not act upon references to the mere gossip of scurrilous newspapers.

Mr. Foster pointed out that this would effectively gag the Opposition and prevent their discussing any question affecting the administration of the Government, particularly if the hon. member were inferentially involved. It would not be open to the Opposition, or Mr. Martin, to call the Government to account that the Government had entered into a corrupt bargain for the calling of a prorogation. At this point the Postmaster-General interrupted, and Mr. Foster was proceeding to speak upon the subject of liberty in such matters that Mr. Mulock insisted on in Opposition, when Mr. Davin raised a point of order.

Mr. Davin quoted from Bourinot's Parliamentary Procedure in support of his position, and in the case of the Caron charges in 1891, for which the hon. member making them was held responsible, and said Mr. Davin, "that hon. member, I believe, now occupies the Speaker's chair." Continuing, he claimed that in the interests of the country, it would be well justified in bringing the matter before the House as he had done.

Mr. Davin said he had a few minutes' notice that this matter was coming up to-day. As regards the present agitation, he could only say it was known up there that Mr. Davin had offered to give up money on the protest, as he wanted a show-off. (Laughter.)

Sir Charles Tupper thought the Government ought to give some answer to this grave charge, and he said that he would not be satisfied until Mr. Davin had surrendered his position as a member of the House. Mr. Laurier said he had to repeat that he took no stock in newspaper reports, and that people should be able to believe them.

Mr. Quinn thought these charges were of a very serious character, and called for an answer or action from the Government. After observations from Mr. Plint, Mr. Davin re-asserted his right to bring the matter up as he had done. He pointed out that the agreement covered contracts, and therefore demanded action by the Government. The motion to adjourn the House was defeated.

Mr. Laurier asked if the Government intended to visit England in connection with the Queen's Jubilee, as the Government had done in 1894. Sir Richard Cartwright said Mr. Laurier's Government were extremely pleased and gratified by the evidence of zeal and patriotism which they had seen in the two battalions to England, and that he would not be surprised to see them on this occasion. Canada's representation must be confined to a contingent of about 300 men, and a representative of all branches of the service.

Major Hughes asked if the Government intended to visit England in connection with the Queen's Jubilee, as the Government had done in 1894. Sir Charles Tupper, resuming the discussion on the franchise bill, read in view of the announcement made by the Government, and that the Government would not advance any argument in support of the amendment now before the House. As regards the bill itself, he had still hopes that the Government would not be so obstinate, but that during recess a serious attempt would be made to devise a uniform franchise for the Dominion, and further, the ultimate decision of a judge. The only objection to the present law was that it was not uniform, and that the result of which revisions had not been as frequent as was at first intended. In his opinion, a good, simple, workable measure equal in all its beatings to all parts of the Dominion, was imperative. The bill now before the House was characterized by a lack of uniformity, and that it was not a uniform franchise, and that it was not a uniform franchise, and that it was not a uniform franchise.

GERMANY HATES GREECE.

All the Ambassadors Except Germany's Made Marvellous Forecasts.

Constantinople, April 20.—Edhem Pasha has wired the Sultan that he gained several notable victories yesterday, occupying all the fortified positions commanding Tyrnavo. He reports that the Greeks evacuated their entrenched camp, leaving behind 50 cases of cartridges and many rifles. The Turks, he says, have taken Volos, which the Greeks surprised and captured on the first day of frontier aggression. The Turkish commander at Janina announces that the Greek fleet, which has been bombarding Preveza, has been compelled to retire, on account of withdrawing to the interior of the gulf and the larger ironclads outside sailing for the island of Paxos and Mauros.

An official telegram from Zante asserts that the Greeks who landed at Eieutheroport and reached Goufat near the railway were attacked and defeated by a Turkish force of 2,000 men, and that 100 Greeks were killed. A second telegram from Zante reports that the Turkish squadron for the Golden Horns Turkish squadron for the Golden Horns. It consists of the ironclad Omer, the corvette Mansoura, five torpedo boats and two steamers, which have been converted into cruisers, but full details are not obtainable here. The firing ceased at 5 o'clock yesterday, but the Greeks lost in the various engagements in the Milosna bay estimated here at 1,000 killed and 2,000 wounded.

The losses of the Turks are declared to be heavy, and that those of the Greeks are not so great. Prince Constantine has returned to Laseo from Grizova, where he witnessed some severe fighting. The Greek reverses at that place were generally modified. Both the Greek and Turkish forces are retreating, and the Turkish force is retreating to Grizova, pursuing the retreating Greeks, killing a few and with their rifles at the hands of the General Mastropas brigade later rallied and made a stand. In the meantime, the Turkish force was moving forward to the assistance of General Mastropas and General Mastropas, formerly Greek Minister of War, succeeded in forcing the enemy back.

LUMBERMEN UP IN ARMS.

If the United States Put a 20 Duty on Lumber They Want Import and Export Duty on Sawlogs.

A largely attended meeting, including the heads of nearly all the great lumber concerns in Toronto operating in the Georgian Bay, was held in Toronto yesterday afternoon to consider the course that ought to be taken in view of the proposed American lumber tariff.

The meeting was unanimous in its opinion, which are set out in the appended report. A bill is now under consideration in the United States which provides an import duty of 25 per cent on sawlogs, and an additional duty of 25 per cent on lumber. The lumbermen are opposed to the proposed American tariff, and are demanding that the United States should have a duty on sawlogs, and that the United States should have a duty on lumber.
