ALBERT CO. Hopewell Cape, April 27.—The funeral of the late Arvilla M. Edgett took place from the residence of her uncle, Asael W. Peck, Riverside, on Friday last, and was largely attended. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. I. B. Colwell. The deceased was the eldest daughter of Captain Hiram Edgett, and was a native of Riverside, though for some five years past she has been a resident of Moncton, where she died on Wednesday last after an illness of about nine weeks. Her life has been a most exemplary one. Three beautiful floral wreaths, one the gift of Moncton's B. Y. P. U., adorned the casket. The interment was made in the family lot in the cemetery at Albert.

SOME cuts have already been sown in the county. The country roads are in a very fair condition. The maple sugar season is about closing, and has been unusually good. The feet of plaster and timber carrying schooners plying in the bay is unusually large for the time of year.

CARLETON CO.

Hartland, April 27.—The water in the river is falling fast. B. W. Richardson's wood working establishment will begin operations this week. Farming is commencing. The season is not so forward as last. Hugh Hay & Son, dry goods importers, of Woodstock, have opened a branch retail store in Burt's hall. W. B. Jewett, jeweller, of Woodstock, will soon open a business in his line in Campbell's store. Hartland very narrowly escaped demolition when the ice went out. A big jam formed several miles below, and the back water overflowed the flats and entered stables and cellars. Messrs Boone and Miller were compelled to move out of their respective residences. The water was four feet deep on the floor of the former's house. The jam gave way just as the up river ice came with a flood of water.

KINGS CO.

Sussex, April 29.—Valley lodge, No. 23, I. O. O. F., celebrated the seventy-seventh anniversary of the order in America in their handsome lodge room last evening. About one hundred ladies and gentlemen from the elite of the place, who had been invited by the members of the lodge, were present, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The following programme was carried out: Quintette, male; I. Y. Anchor Down; O. Price, Dr. Daly, H. D. Thompson, C. B. Spear and J. The statue of Greeley there at Thirty-second street and Broadway, New York, hears many things, but last week the things it has heard are strange. Allentown, Pa., April 29.—Robert Emery Pattison was today unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed as the chief of the democracy of Pennsylvania for the presidential nomination at Chicago. The sound money and gold standard platform pledges the 64 delegates chosen today to earnestly support Mr. Pattison. Despite the apparent hopelessness of their cause, they had pledged themselves to support the platform adopted and speeches uttered by the democracy today showed no indication of despair.

DROUGHT IN SPAIN. Madrid, April 29.—A meeting of the cabinet was held today to consider the serious conditions in Spain due to drought, which has almost destroyed the cereal crops. The cabinet decided to enter upon the organization of relief works. Unless there is rain before the middle of May the loss from the drought will amount to $28,000,000.

BRITISH CHARTERED SOUTH AFRICA COMPANY SAID TO BE INVOLVED.

What the Condemned Man Liberated—A Batch of Rumors About Dr. Jim. (Copyrighted by the Associated Press.) Pretoria, South Africa Republic, April 30.—The consternation caused by the sentencing to death of Rhodes, Phillips and Farrar, and the subsequent commutation of their sentences, not only means worn itself out. Burghers of influence are flocking into this city from all sides and are begging the government to totally abolish the sentence imposed upon the reformers. What influence there will be upon President Kruger and his advisors is a matter which time alone will demonstrate. In any case it is currently being reported that the reformers are to be released from their sentences. In order to justify the severe treatment of the prisoners, it is said the executive council refers to the records of the trial of reformers. Telegrams are put in evidence which, from a cypher key discovered in Dr. Jameson's baggage when he was made prisoner by the Boers after the fight at Doodman's camp, proved beyond doubt that the company, it was claimed the complicity of the British Chartered South Africa Co. with the Johannesburg reform leaders and with the Johannesburg reformers, was the cause of the raid. The company, it was claimed, had furnished the Johannesburg reformers with the money to be used to organize the raid and sent a message saying that the "Times of London had a cable despatch from Cape Town saying that to delay the Jameson affair would be imprudent. The Times denies the assertion made by the Chartered company, according to the press in Johannesburg. It is added here, however, that the Transvaal government is in possession of the Johannesburg documents not produced at the trial, and that the Johannesburg reformers and officers in South Africa and elsewhere. It has been proved that telegrams in great numbers were exchanged between the reform leaders and Johannesburg. The Johannesburg reformers, it was already mentioned at Johannesburg, and Cecil Rhodes, then premier of Cape Colony, and Rutherford Harris, secretary of the British Chartered South Africa company at Cape Town, and Dr. Jameson when the latter was at Pitsani between Dec. 7th and Dec. 21st, when the raiders were being organized and actually in movement. Those who were in Johannesburg at the time, although in guarded language, evidently referred to the intended invasion of the territory of the Transvaal. The raid was alluded to under such expression as "shareholders' meeting," "company," "etc., etc." Mr. Hammond, it seems to be clearly established, played an active part in the preparation for the Transvaal force, although it is difficult to say how he could have done so, being the confidential employee of a friend of Cecil Rhodes, apparently, only attending, possibly too zealously, to the interests of his employer. In one cable mentioned at Johannesburg, Hammond was instructed by Dr. Jameson to inform weak hearts that "any delay would be injurious."

WESTMORLAND CO. Moncton, April 29.—Four Scott acts cases were disposed of by Stipendiary Writman here yesterday. A fine of $50 and costs was imposed in each case against the Queen and LeBlanc hotels, and O. S. Legere and J. Thibideau. Another summons has been served upon the new Windsor hotel at Dorchester. J. H. Eaton, who left home a week ago last Saturday night for Boston, on account of differences with his wife on religious questions, has decided to return home at Mrs. Eaton's request. Brooks Peters has been reappointed organist of St. George's Church, England at a salary increased from $100 to $200. Work on street railway construction was commenced in a day or two ago last Saturday. It is intended to have the line in operation about two months hence. A siding is being put in on the I. C. R. at Main street, and it is the intention to deliver ballast direct from the cars along the streets traversed. The rails are expected shortly. The service will consist of three cars for the present. The rails will be made by Rhodes, Curry & Co. of Amherst.

YORK CO.

Fredericton, April 29.—Solomon Howland of Waasli, Sunbury county, lost his dwelling, barn and outbuildings by fire last night. With the help of neighbors some of the furniture was saved. The goods in the cellar, including potatoes, etc., were destroyed. A large quantity of hay, farming implements and machinery and one cow were destroyed in the barn. The loss is estimated at between $2,000 and $4,000. John Toomey and Annie Welch, both of this city, were married at St. Dunstan's church this morning by Rev. J. C. McDevitt.

The Y. M. C. A. athletic team, thirty strong, with the City band, left for Woodstock tomorrow for Aberdeen. They give an exhibition there tomorrow evening. The University Glee club promises an interesting programme for their concert tomorrow evening. Billy Keefe and a brother of Jack Burke arrived here from Lynn this afternoon. Keefe is a trainer of some note and his business is to put Burke in shape for his fifteen round bout with Power on May 13th. They will locate at Springhill.

Fredericton, April 30.—The Hatt estate, consisting of a freshhold property on Queen street and water lot on Campbell street, were sold at noon today on Phoenix square. The Queen street property was purchased by W. H. Vanwart at $2,700, and the Campbell street lot by Fred W. Willmott at $610. The Queen street property is now occupied by Hatt, Morrison & Co., Ltd. They will probably remove the business in a few days to the corner of Queen and York streets. The University home examinations begin this week. Enocha falls upon May 28th. Isaac Burpee is the class valedictorian. Prof. Downing speaks on behalf of the faculty and the students of the institution, and it is expected that Dr. T. H. Rand of Toronto will deliver the alumni oration.

Northumberland Co. Northesk, April 25.—Elmer Porter of Douglastown, who has been ill all winter with consumption, became very much improved on Thursday, when his sister, Miss Porter, a teacher in Strathadam, was sent for. She arrived a few hours before he died. Shepherd McKay, who has been long ill, died at his home on Saturday, the 18th. His remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery at Whiteville. Rev. James Crisp, Methodist minister of Newcastle, officiated. Mr. McKay being one of his church members. He leaves an aged father, a wife and three children to mourn their loss. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Queens Co. Salmon Creek, April 27.—Thomas Elliott, who has been spending several years in Wisconsin, has returned home. Coal Creek stream is the scene of busy work this season, and can compete with any of the larger streams in its lumber operations. For the past few weeks upwards of 150 men have been engaged in driving. A house owned by Mrs. William Darrin in the vicinity of Chatham was totally destroyed by fire the other evening. The occupants succeeded in saving their lives. News has been received of the death of Dr. George Johnson of New York, formerly a resident of this place. Deep sympathy is felt for his mother.

OUR WILD FLOWERS.

I. ALLEN JACK.

INTRODUCTION. The following papers are not written for botanical purposes...

In the earnest hope that, through the use of his little knowledge, he may enable those who know less than himself to share the pleasure which he has derived from the consideration of an extremely captivating subject...

Almost all the flowers described and mentioned may be seen in the vicinity of Saint John, for whose inhabitants the papers are primarily though not exclusively written...

In the treatment of the subject, although the Latin names are used they are almost invariably accompanied by the common English appellations...

These stanzas from Horace Smith's Hymns to the Flowers form a fitting prelude to the subject...

1. To compel the admission of doubters in our midst that they are surrounded by floral beauty.

2. To dispel some errors with reference to the qualities of our flowers.

3. To make the general public better acquainted with flowers which they have seen but never known.

4. To indicate the seasons when and the places where rare or comparatively rare flowers may be found.

the mysterious inner consciousness becomes an actual agent...

Again, man can learn from plants something of the benefit of obedience to law, and although, unlike them, free to think and act for himself...

In this and in the following papers the writer makes no attempt to do more than follow in the paths which he has specifically indicated...

Unable to perceive the necessity for authorizing reasons, he fearlessly dogmatizes. He who loves not flowers is like "the man that hath no music in himself..."

If men and women would only exercise their ordinary faculties they would discover countless sources of pleasure, at the same time innocent, and also, a matter of no small importance to so many, inexpensive.

How few there are who avail themselves of delicious summer days to ramble through the woods...

And what may not be said of the possible ministrations of our sweet wild flowers? The mere memory of them is a valuable possession...

name of its discoverer or cultivator to procure gold is worth the seeking.

It is therefore not hard to understand that, as we grow older, we are led to cast aside things which we once prized, from learning to believe that we never had a good reason for thinking highly of them...

To those who are truly influenced by the love of beauty flowers must always be a means of gratification...

Diogenes with his lighted lantern seeking for an honest man has his counterpart in the botanist who has kept his eyes fixed on the flowers...

And truly, if there is any bond of sympathy between plant and human being, the botanist may say with Terence, homo sum et nihil humanum a se alienum esse putem...

The knowledge possessed by the ordinary citizen of the wild flowers of his own garden is very meagre.

It is the intention of this series of papers to treat, not of the pampered and spoiled plants of the city...

GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

Shock Felt Throughout Cincinnati and Many Killed.

Not One Brick on Another Left in Walls of Five Story Building.

While Walking Along the Street One Man Was Hurled Under a Street Car and Killed.

Cincinnati, May 4.—At 8 o'clock tonight the five story building at 480 and 482 Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was blown to the ground by an explosion of gasoline...

The explosion took place four doors from the intersection of Fifth and Walnut streets, where the post office is located on one side and Fountain square on the other...

There were reports at first about fireworks being stored in the building and about dynamite and ammunition, so that there were several speculations about other explosions likely to follow...

Several people were slightly hurt in these stampedes. The ground story at 482 Walnut street was occupied by A. C. Drach as a saloon...

The upper floors of the five story building were occupied as flats. It was known how many people were in the flats...

The firemen were working in the rear and on both sides of the block, while the police are keeping the place clear and protecting the work that is going on to rescue the victims...

The excitement was the more intense because it could not be definitely learned from the witnesses who caused the explosion...

The firemen were soon assisted by some expert engineers, who made openings through the basement walls of adjacent buildings, and were recovering some of the victims in that manner...

Although all possible efforts were made to clear up the place, it is considered that it will be impossible to ascertain the loss of life tonight...

John James of the Salt Lake City Herald was just leaving the Gibson house at the time of the explosion, and with his heavy grip was blown into the doorway of an adjoining store...

He was knocked senseless, but afterward recovered sufficiently to take the train thought for St. Louis on his way west...

Gal Grim, a well known detective man, who worked up the evidence against Scott Jackson, was walking for the murder of Pearl Bryan...

At 12 o'clock there were twelve injured persons at the hospital. None of them were considered seriously injured...

Women whose husbands and sons had not reached home by 10 or 11 o'clock came to Fountain square and filled up a space about the government building where they were weeping and crying about their friends being in the wreckage...

At 10.30 o'clock the three year old boy of John Drach was taken from the ruins so badly burned that he is not likely to live...

Mr. Anglin was born in Conkly, Cork county, Ireland, on August 18th, 1822, where he received his earlier education. In 1848 he left there and went to St. John, New Brunswick, where he settled for a number of years.

There he married Miss McLeod in 1852. He founded the Morning and Weekly Freeman in St. John and became editor and proprietor. In 1877 the office was destroyed in the big fire of that year.

He was a member of the Executive Council of the province and was also a member of the executive council of New Brunswick in the tenth administration for a few months in 1866.

Mr. Anglin then moved to Toronto in 1883, and became editor of the old Tribune. Later on, about 1888, he was attached to the staff of the Toronto Globe for a time as editorial writer.

After the general elections of 1878, he was re-elected speaker on February 7th, 1878, and held the office until the dissolution of parliament. He was re-elected speaker on February 7th, 1878, and held the office until the dissolution of parliament.

And he has received the information that he resented about the case, and that he has been advised to take the case to the court.

A WORD FROM MR. AITKEN. The Rev. W. H. Aitken, in a recent letter about his Canadian missions, published in the Christian, London, England, says: "I am sorry I cannot speak as hopefully about the work in Toronto as about any other mission that we held. I think this was perhaps not difficult to explain, but nothing could be gained by attempting to explain it. It will be wiser thankfully to acknowledge that good was done, though not as much as we had fondly hoped for. The disappointment that we suffered there has been compensated by the good news that has reached us since of the blessed work that God was pleased to use our beloved brother, Rev. George Grubb, to do there. We rejoice to find that Toronto did not miss a big blessing after all, though it did not come through us."

THE PROMPT RELIEVER AND CURE FOR ALL THE BRUISES AND SWELLINGS OF THE BODY.

Rev. P. C. Hadley, 67 Huntington Avenue Boston Mass., "I can fully endorse the written testimonial of Mr. George Adams, D. D., of Annapolis, Md. of all the 'prompt relievers' I have known, K. D. is the best. It is the only one that I recommend K. D. is very strongly. It could do nothing else to give relief, it is a prompt remedy."

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 26, 1896. THE CAMPAIGN OPENED IN ST. JOHN.

Thursday's convention of the liberal conservative party of St. John was probably the most thoroughly representative nomination meeting ever held in the city.

Mr. Hazen, who was the choice of three-fourths of the delegates from the city and county, was fairly entitled to re-nomination.

Mr. Chesley came into the house of commons with the third session of the late parliament. While he was new in parliamentary work, he had already seen a great deal of public service as an alderman, warden, and mayor.

Two other names were brought before the convention. Mayor Robertson, who certainly was not a candidate for nomination, and who, if we are rightly informed, did not consent to the use of his name, received a flattering tribute in a vote which gave him the second place to Mr. Chesley.

As Mr. McLeod, who during the late parliament ably represented the city constituency, had announced his determination to retire from political life, his name was not presented.

The liberal conservative party in St. John ought to win this election. It stands in this city, as elsewhere, for progressive measures and enterprising administration.

Mr. Deloy, a man of good ability, has been in charge of a department requiring the very highest qualifications. His successor is believed to be a man probably better capable than he of dealing with the knotty problems that belong to the great west.

and to have their full share in the achievements of the next five years. No place in Canada is a stronger material interest in this line of development, and no where does a patriotic policy appeal more strongly to the sentiment of the people.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

On Monday of last week Sir Mackenzie Bowell retired from the premiership and Sir Charles Tupper was asked to form a government. The new ministry was sworn in yesterday.

The Tupper ministry differs most from the Bowell ministry in the stronger and more impressive personality of its leader. Sir Charles Tupper has always been a great force in Canadian politics, and though he has reached an age when most men lose their vigor he seems to be as able to direct, as resourceful to perform, and as true in his judgment as in earlier days.

There is no change in the maritime province representation in the cabinet and only one change in Ontario. Mr. Tisdale, who, as was foreseen, has become a minister, takes the cabinet vacancy caused by the retirement of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, though with a different portfolio.

Mr. Anglin has not yet had his fair chance in the federal arena. But he has a brilliant Quebec record both as a legislator and as a campaigner. He has taken the grip with some strong men in his day and has never been fairly beaten. His heroic contests with Governor Letellier and with Mr. Mercer have had the effect of inspiring his opponents with a wholesome respect.

We are sure that the Quebec ministers are honest and good men. We hope that they may prove to be an effective campaign team.

Mr. Deloy, a man of good ability, has been in charge of a department requiring the very highest qualifications. His successor is believed to be a man probably better capable than he of dealing with the knotty problems that belong to the great west.

MR. ANGLIN.

Though nearly fifteen years have passed since Hon. T. W. Anglin left this province to take up his residence in Toronto and engage in a new journalistic venture there, the news of his death will bring to scores of his friends in New Brunswick a sense of personal loss. He has been long enough removed from the political strife of this community to allow his former opponents to forget whatever bitterness may have been occasioned by past conflicts and to impress more and more strongly upon his former associates that he left here no man quite capable of filling his place in their front ranks.

During the stirring period before confederation he took a large personal share in politics and was one of the leading men in the house of assembly. The defeat of the government in the first election on the confederation issue was probably due more to him than to any other man, for he was a strong and resolute anti-confederate, and it is perhaps not too much to say that he wielded stronger personal influence and has larger following than any other opponent of union.

Mr. Anglin sat in the house of commons through four parliaments, and in the third occupied the honorable position of speaker. As late as 1878 he had himself recorded in the parliamentary campaign as a conservative, and he was one in the derivative sense of the word. He was inclined to oppose new departures and ambitious public enterprises. He was an opponent of confederation, of the Canadian Pacific Railway project, of the national policy, and of the New Brunswick school law.

As a journalist and politician, Mr. Anglin, a devout Roman Catholic, was regarded in this province as the champion of the rights and claims of his church. Among the citizens of his own communion, and especially among the Irish Catholics, his influence was enormous, but he did not use it in such a way as to alienate political supporters of other faiths. This is shown by his election to the house of commons by the Protestant constituency of St. John. Mr. Anglin was an easy and fluent public speaker. He had the advantage of a wide and varied knowledge and a phenomenal memory for facts and figures and language. His style as a newspaper writer would perhaps be considered a little ponderous in these days, but readers then were willing to spend more time over a paper than they are now.

Mr. Anglin was a man whom every one liked. Mr. Anglin was an elderly man when he went to Toronto. He was mistaken in supposing that there was a field for a new paper there, but the proprietors of the Toronto Globe were glad to avail themselves of his services as a political writer. The Ontario government has employed him in a number of positions of trust and honor. He has filled a considerable place in the political and religious history of Toronto and will be sincerely mourned in at least two cities.

SUPREME COURT APPOINTMENTS.

Some important changes in the constitution of the supreme court of this province are announced today. The chief justice, Sir John C. Allen, is forced by age and ill-health to retire after thirty years of service on the bench, during twenty years of which time he has been chief justice. Sir John Allen has been ten years a member of the legislature and had filled the positions of speaker of the house, solicitor general and attorney general before he became a judge. He is now in his seventy-ninth year and has earned by long, faithful and capable service the right to be free from public duties for the remainder of his days. We can offer no more kindly wish for the success of the new chief justice than is expressed in the hope that when his work as a judge is done he may enjoy and deserve the respect that lawyers and laymen feel for his predecessor.

Though Mr. Justice Tuck, who becomes chief justice, has been only eleven years on the bench he is made the senior member by the retirement of Sir John C. Allen. The appointment of Judge Fraser to the governorship, the promotion of Judge King to the supreme court of Canada, and the retirement of Judge Palmer through failing health, have left the province with no supreme court judge of twelve years standing. The advancement of Judge Tuck will be approved, not only on the ground of his seniority, but also because he is a man whom everybody likes, and because he is an energetic and efficient judge, who has no sympathy with the idea that the law ought to delay. The Sun offers its congratulations to the learned and genial chief justice that is to be.

The vacancy on the bench is filled by the appointment of Mr. McLeod, lately member of parliament for the city of St. John. Elsewhere is given some account of the professional and political career of the new judge. We are quite sure that the lawyers generally will commend this appointment on professional grounds, and that the business men of the city, among whom Mr. McLeod has carried on a large practice as a commercial lawyer, will be well satisfied. The only complaint will be made by the liberal conservative party, which loses a skilled and safe advisor and a reliable fellow laborer. This regret is shared by the Sun, which has found in Mr. McLeod a party man of sound judgment and unwavering fidelity; one who could always be relied upon in the most unpromising circumstances, whose counsel was usually safe and always disinterested. It is also due to Mr. McLeod that those who have worked with him should testify that he has in the party as well as in public been an advocate of straightforward politics and of honest government.

Trouble feared on the United States Side of the Line.

Ottawa, May 2.—Advices from Sitka, Alaska, via Victoria, which were received here today state that trouble is imminent between Indians and whites over the acquisition of an Indian man who brutally killed an Indian while an Indian is now awaiting execution for killing a white on provocation. As a force sufficient to handle the Indian outbreak is not maintained there by the United States government, residents are apprehensive. The scene of the trouble is off the coast and several hundred miles distant from the Canadian frontier. However, there by the United States government, residents are apprehensive. Gleason was completely buried, and when extricated it was found that he had received several scalp wounds. There were no fractures, but he was badly shaken up. James Carleton was found with his head and shoulders completely buried. When extricated he was removed to Samuel Lockhart's, where Dr. Gray attended to his wounds. At the time of the accident Thomas Marshall and William Palmer were directly under the staging hoisting up brick, and hearing the cracking of timber above their heads sprang under the arch and escaped injury. Considerable difficulty was experienced in extricating the men. Carleton displayed great nerve. He said he was conscious from the time the staging gave way until he reached the ground. He tried to extricate himself, but was unable to do so. He could hear the men talking about Gleason and himself. Gleason was taken to his home near by. Dr. Matthew Macfarland attended to his injuries.

THE RING. The Canadian Defeated. Buffalo, April 28.—Before the Michigan A. C. last night C. C. Smith, the "colored thunderbolt" of this city, fought black Frank Taylor of Montreal. Taylor weighed about 150 pounds, while Smith weighed close to 200. The Canadian had no license to be in the ring with Smith, but hung on gamely for four rounds. At the end of the fourth a member of the club said that it had been learned that Taylor had agreed to lay down before Smith between the fourth and sixth round. This was probably said for the benefit of the referee, who was expected to announce no contest and hereby save a purse, but during the pandemonium which reigned after the astonishing disclosure, the usual conference was omitted and on the refusal of Taylor to continue Referee Schultz awarded the fight to Smith. The latter raised emphatically that any agreement had been entered into between himself and Taylor and attributes his not forcing the fight to an injured leg.

P. E. ISLAND. Charlottetown, April 29.—The electric railway bill has been withdrawn and the waiting ring of the legislature will not be heard on our streets for the present. The Sunday clause and the twenty years monopoly were the destructive items. The idea of Sunday cars and a desecrated Sabbath was too much for the moral conscience of this city, and the deputations of leading men of the church, and the Protestant clergy of the city (who were kindly received by the legislators in the council chamber on Monday last) was too much for the bill and it collapsed. Mr. Washburn has the sympathy of the city in this respect, but with some amendments it is hoped the matter will come up again next session of the house.

THE CIRCUIT COURT. In the circuit court on Saturday, in Humphrey v. Haggart, Judge Vanward delivered judgment, finding for the defendant. His honor decided that there was no intention on the part of Postmaster General Haggart to enter into any contract other than a temporary one; that such contract was subject to cancellation by the Hon. Mr. Haggart in the way in which it was done, and that there was no intention on the part of defendant to lead plaintiff to believe that an order in council authorizing the contract had been passed. His honor was strongly of opinion that the course of circumstances had put the plaintiff to considerable inconvenience and loss, and thought that he might fairly be entitled to assistance from the government upon a consideration of his case, though a court of law could not afford any redress. An appeal is contemplated. Wm. Pugsley, Q. C., plaintiff; J. A. Belyea and L. A. Curry, Q. C., for defendant.

ELECTRICITY WONDERS.

The Electrical Appliances Exposition Opened on Monday. The Electricity Generated by the Waters of Niagara River. Gov. Morton From New York Fires Guns in San Francisco, Augusta and New Orleans.

New York, May 3.—Monday night Governor Morton will open the National Exposition of Electrical Appliances in the Industrial Arts building in this city. Elaborate preparation has been made for the occasion, and it is expected that the attendance will be large and include some of the most distinguished electricians in this country. The convention is that of the National Electric Light Association, to which delegates have been sent representing more than ten thousand electric lighting plants in the United States, whose aggregate capital is in excess of $75,000,000.

The Industrial Art building, which is located at the corner of Lexington avenue and 44th street, has been the scene of great activity during the past ten days and nights and an enormous force of electricians and mechanics has been at work. The principal feature of the opening exercises will be the turning on of a current of electricity generated by the waters of the Niagara river in the great power house of the Niagara Power company, which current of electricity will be transmitted by an ordinary wire of the Western Union Telegraph company. The insulation of this wire is such that no considerable amount of electrical energy for power purposes can be transmitted during the use of a recently invented two-phase Tesla system enough energy will be transmitted to establish beyond question, it is claimed, the feasibility of transmitting electric power over a commercial basis. This line will be four hundred and sixty-two miles in length. The longest line heretofore ever established was from the Falls of the Necker to about one hundred and ten miles distant.

The governor will use upon this occasion the gold key with which President Cleveland put in motion the wheels of industry at the World's Fair. Governor Morton also, at the declaration that the exposition is open, will discharge four pieces of artillery, one stationed in the public square in San Francisco, one in Augusta, Maine, and in front of the public buildings of St. Paul, and the other in a public park in New Orleans. This discharge is also with the sanction of the secretary of the navy, who has authorized the use of the public buildings of St. Paul, and the other in a public park in New Orleans. This discharge is also with the sanction of the secretary of the navy, who has authorized the use of the public buildings of St. Paul, and the other in a public park in New Orleans.

The current of electricity which is transmitted from Niagara will be used in putting in motion a model of the Niagara power plant, recently constructed by a syndicate at a cost of upwards of $5,000,000. This plant consists in a tunnel 8,000 feet in length, entered by a wheel pit 186 feet in depth, at the bottom of which are mounted the turbines, which operate a shaft on the top of which are immense electrical generators, with a capacity of 5,000 horse power. The total weight of the turbine shaft is estimated at upwards of 100 tons. This model, which is shown and operated with Niagara current, is a cross section view of the prime mover, including the machinery, the shaft, the turbines, and the generator, and the Canadian frontier.

Surrounding this model will be a series of telephones which will be connected with receivers placed in Victoria park, on the Canadian side of the Niagara river. All present, as they witness the movement of the machinery, will hear distinctly the roar of the cataract.

There will also be exhibited and operated a miniature section of the Erie canal, showing the cable way system of electrical canal boat propulsion recently adopted by the state of New York, and soon to be put in operation upon the Erie canal. Floating on this miniature canal will be a fleet of model canal boats of various design, propelled by the electric motor, which travels upon the cable by means of the electric current.

Another feature of unusual interest will be the closing of a circuit around the world, by which a cable message will be sent by the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew over the cables to Lisbon, through the Mediterranean, and the Suez canal and the Red sea to Aden, thence to Ceylon and Australia, returning by way of the Cape of Good Hope, the African coast, the Brazilian cable, the land line to the City of Mexico, thence by way of San Francisco to New York.

This message Mr. Depew will send from a cable which will be placed in a gallery of the exposition building. It will be addressed to and received by Edward D. Adams, the distinguished financier and president of the Niagara Power company, whose reply will be transmitted to and read by Dr. Depew, who will follow with a brief address on the electric era.

There will be in attendance besides Governor Morton and his staff a delegation of state officials, representatives from neighboring states, a personal representative of Secretaries Lamont and Noble, Nikola Tesla, Thomas A. Edison, and the Hon. Arthur Croker of New York, Prof. E. H. Thomson of Lynn, Mass., Herbert Lewis of Wrentham, B. B. Delaney, Horace Leonard, Alexander Graham Bell and other distinguished guests.

Gov. Morton has addressed the following letter to the reception committee: Executive Chamber, Albany, N. Y., April 30, 1896. Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to accept your kind invitation to be present at the opening of the National Electric Light Association's exposition on the evening of May 4th, and to relay the message of current generated by power taken from the Niagara grand cataract. As you are doubtless aware, I am but how under a great pressure of official duties, but the cause of electrical science involves such manifold and important interests in the scheme of our civilization and most progress that I feel honored and pleased by your request that I shall perform this conspicuous and interesting service.

It is my duty to the association my thanks for their courtesy extended to me and believe me, very truly yours, LEVI F. MORTON.

BRITISH COLUMBIA INDIANS.

Their Gift to Queen Victoria Duly Recognized by Her Majesty. Ottawa, May 3.—In 1889 Chief Sushkash of the Kithikan band of Indians of British Columbia handed to Rev. Mr. Gurd, the Church of England missionary at his agency, $100 in gold to be sent to Queen Victoria as a mark of his loyalty to her and his empire. The following year, 1890, Mr. Gurd, gave the money to Charles Todd, the government agent of the reserve. A year later Mr. Todd forwarded the gold to A. W. Vowell, government superintendent at Victoria. Then for some reason, unaccountable for by the department here, the money lay at Mr. Vowell's office in Victoria until October last, nearly five years. On December 30th by an order in council it was forwarded to the Queen, with Chief Sushkash's expressions of loyalty. Her Majesty was prompt in her acknowledgment. Yesterday there reached here a return present to the chief, consisting of a steel engraving of the Queen and two Scotch plaids. The picture is two feet ten inches wide and three feet eight inches long, enclosed in a heavy gilt frame, which is surmounted by a crown in relief. The presents have been forwarded with a letter from government house, which it is understood, includes an autograph letter from the Queen. The department officials here say the blame for the delay is not attachable to them in any way, and the matter will be explained to the chief.

A letter will be published tomorrow from Sir Oliver Mowat to Mr. Laurier announcing the former's intention to enter the senate as leader of that body and a member of the government in case of the success of the liberals in the coming elections.

Hon. Mr. Dickey left for Amherst last night. The cabinet met yesterday when several important questions were under consideration, including the drafting of an electoral manifesto. Hon. Messrs. Tupper, Macdonald and the Quebec ministers left for Montreal after the council, but will return tomorrow.

Messrs. Tupper, Macdonald and Prior go to Winnipeg Tuesday. Sir Charles Tupper addresses a meeting in Winnipeg next Saturday.

Toronto, Ont., May 3.—It is understood on good authority that Sir Oliver Mowat has decided to accept Mr. Laurier's invitation to join the cabinet in the pending federal campaign. Sir Oliver will not at present, however, resign the premiership of Ontario. Instead the attorney general will, while retaining his present position, enter actively into the campaign as Mr. Laurier's right hand man in Ontario.

Montreal, May 3.—The Canadian press minister made his first statement to your correspondent today regarding the prospects of the party at the polls.

"Our friends," began Sir Charles, "need have no apprehension as to the outcome of the great contest now so near at hand. My information from the maritime provinces goes to show that the government will come back just as strong as in the last campaign. Everything indicates that Quebec will nobly respond to duty's call," and then Sir Charles turned towards the great premier province of the confederation and said: "I think, perhaps, the greatest surprise will come from the province of Ontario, where we have the best possible news. Ontario will certainly send a strong conservative delegation to the next parliament, as she did in the last. We may possibly lose certain counties, but where one is lost two will be gained. As for the west, Sir Charles said that the acceptance of office by the son of the late lamented leader, Sir John Macdonald, had produced the best possible effect, and the prime minister predicted a decisive triumph beyond the great lakes for the old party, the old flag, and the old cause. There is no doubt, whatever, concluded the great leader, that the present government will be strongly supported by the polls and their policy vindicated by a large majority in the house of commons.

In an interview Hon. Hugh John Macdonald stated that he had no doubt that Mr. McKay would easily defeat Hon. Mr. Laurier in Saskatchewan.

Montreal, May 3.—It is stated on very good authority that Sir Donald Smith, high commissioner for Canada, will be created a peer of the United Kingdom on the Queen's birthday. The new honor will be richly deserved and Sir Donald Smith will receive universal congratulations.

Montreal, May 3.—Messrs. Donald MacMaster and John S. Hall, Q. C., the rival conservative candidates in St. Antoine division have retired and Dr. Hoddie has accepted the nomination. It looked a while as if Sir Charles Tupper was to be the candidate, but the choice fell upon the doctor.

Chas. E. Nell, Fredericton's crack rifle shot, has received a letter from Col. Bacon, secretary of the Dominion Rifle Association, informing him that thus far fourteen persons had accepted places on the Biele team, two had declined, and the other four were doubtful. This leaves at least two vacancies to be filled from the waiting men, of which Mr. Nell is one, holding fifth place. There is very little doubt now but what he will be one of the team that will sail for England in June.—Herald.
