P. E. ISLAND MERCHANT TELS OF EXPRESS TROUBLES

High Rates, Irregular Methods, and Much Annoyance Caused—Competition and a Better System Required

The railway commission session opened yesterday afternoon in the court house with Hon. J. P. Mabee, presiding. Thomas Potts complained of discrimination by express companies and said he could not import fruit in small quantities than a carload.

J. Frazer Gregory complained of the winter rates being higher than summer rates.

W. E. Foster, complained about the limitation of the express delivery and the rough handling of goods. There were no discussions given in these cases.

It was decided that the C. P. R., St. Railway and municipally paid equal shares for the maintenance of gates at the Fairville crossing. Complaints against the C. P. R. and D. A. R. by the local board of trade were withdrawn and complaints from Hatheway and Co., and John Hopkins were dismissed because of non-appearance of the complainants.

The commission resumed its session this morning. The witnesses who were examined complained of the methods by which the express companies conducted their business. Horace Hazard, a commission merchant, representing the Charlottetown board of trade, said he did as the business with the express companies as possible, because it has not been satisfactory. He has often occasion to send packages to the United States by express, and when he sends them he expects that they will be delivered to his customers free. But he has found that such is not the case. When the packages reach their destination the receivers are charged for the examination at Vancouver by the United States officials. There is no duty on tea going to New York, but the express companies charge for the examination at Vancouver and nearly a half a pound is taken from each parcel as a sample. Hazard wished to send a package from Charlottetown to Europe. He can get a through bill of lading and is satisfied that the goods prepaid are delivered free to the customer.

He showed that a package of tea sent to New York was taken from Charlottetown by the Canadian Express and handed over to the Adams Express Co. at Buffalo at an additional cost. What he wished to have arranged was that when he shipped from Charlottetown to the United States the express company would be able to tell him the full charges so that his customer would not be inconvenienced by a charge when the goods were delivered.

The express companies further claim that when they hand goods over to another company they do not assume any responsibility. He produced a letter showing that it cost $1.60 to send twenty pounds of tea from Charlottetown to St. John, a distance of 215 miles. Then from St. John to New York, a distance of 681 miles. It cost only 50 cents, and then 50 cents more for a 50 mile haul to a point east of New York.

Mr. Hazard also complained of the rates being higher in winter than in summer and showed that a farmer paying $1.50 for the shipment of two hams to a point in Nova Scotia could have the two hams sent back for a dollar. He said the winter rate to Charlottetown had jumped up to 50 cents a hundred pounds on merchandise. Further the express company was now employing the Government mail carriers and officers on the steamers, to do their work, and the increase in the rate may be for the payment of commissions.

He quoted the rates on packages to Fernie, B. C., from Charlottetown. For seven pounds and under the cost would be $1.10; for seven to ten pounds the rate was $2.50 and from ten to fifteen pounds $3.10. He showed by this that the goods if shipped in small parcels would be cheaper than if sent in a large parcel which might be more convenient. Mr. Hazard said that the Canadian Express Company have had a monopoly over the P. E. Railway since 1904. Before that the express business was handled by the Railway Company. Today S. R. Jenkins, a local man, states that should he wish to express a parcel of medicine he could not express it at the train a few minutes before it left, but must send the parcel to the express office first, which would be very inconvenient. A year ago last summer a man placed 200 pounds of cans in the baggage car and expected to pay 25 cents freight at Charlottetown, but was informed that the Express Co. had taken charge of the cans and charged him $1.20. He had to go to the express office for the cans and could not get delivery of them at the train.

THEY WANT SUNDAY OFF

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The call of the state will be closed to traffic from midnight Saturday to midnight Sunday if a bill introduced in the assembly today becomes law. The bill was drafted by the Association of American Masters and Pilots of Steam vessels and is designed to permit call men to rest on Sunday.

CALAIS HAD A BAD FIRE THIS MORNING

Was the First in Many Months

Flames Raging in Basement of Young Furniture Co.'s Store Discovered by Accident—Damage $17,000

ST. STEPHEN, Jan. 19.—The first serious fire in the St. Croix valley in many months occurred in Calais about nine o'clock this forenoon. When the driver of a coal team opened the coal chute at the store of the Young Furniture Co. he was met by a cloud of smoke which was the first intimation that fire was raging in the basement. Frank Stewart, the manager of the furniture company, started to descend the stairs but on opening the cellar door was met by a wall of flame, fanned by the draft from the coal chute. He was badly burned about the face and hands. The fire departments responded promptly and confined the blaze to the cellar of the furniture company though the smoke penetrated the upper stories of that store and of the store of Brono Kallah, a clothing dealer adjoining. A large quantity of furniture and supplies in the Young basement was consumed or damaged by smoke and water. The loss of the Young Furniture Company is estimated at $15,000 and of B. Kallah at $2,000, both probably covered by insurance.

ANOTHER SHOCK CAUSES ALARM IN MESSINA

American Relief Committee Dissolved—Supplies Arrive—Immense Relief Fund.

MESSINA, Jan. 18.—A strong undulatory shock this afternoon caused much alarm here and resulted in the fall of the remains of a number of shattered walls. So far as is known, no one was killed. The situation for the refugees is still very unsatisfactory. They have found shelter in tents but for the last day or two, a cold north wind has prevailed here and there has been a fall of snow, a very rare occurrence on the Sicilian coast.

ROME, Jan. 18.—The American relief committee, which organized to direct the American charities for the earthquake sufferers, has been dissolved. The committee met today. Ambassador Griscom presiding and decided that the purpose for which it had been organized had been accomplished—the giving of immediate foreign aid where aid was most urgently needed. The Italian authorities have now everything well in hand and the American committee was unanimously of the opinion that it would be better to withdraw than to continue such a policy indefinitely.

REGGIO, Jan. 18.—The thirteenth train of the Italian Red Cross which arrived here a few days ago, left tonight for Rome, having aboard fifty persons seriously injured.

NAPLES, Jan. 18.—The North German Lloyd steamer Barbarossa arrived here today from New York with large relief supplies on board, including 400 sacks of flour and numerous cases of sausage and clothing. The supplies were turned over by the American commission to the Neapolitan committee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—The Italian relief fund of the American Red Cross Society, passed the $200,000 mark today, $25,000 being the total of the day's contributions. Today the Red Cross received from the Christian Herald $5,000 for the fund for the widows and orphans in the earthquake district.

PLEASED WITH TEDDY'S WORDS OF PRAISE

LONDON, Jan. 19.—In an editorial this morning commenting on President Roosevelt's address at Washington last night, in which he referred to the successful administration of India by the British government, the Times acknowledges that it is deeply touched by the tribute, which, it says, is impressive proof that a happy change has occurred in recent years in the relations between Great Britain and the United States.

"None of his predecessors," says the Times, "could have ventured such a tribute, and high as President Roosevelt's eulogy is, he could not have ventured it himself, had he not known that the old prejudices cherished against his countrymen were fast withering away."

ROOSEVELT HOLDS UP WESTERN LEGISLATION

Bills Hostile to Japanese are Kept Back

Until the President Has a Chance to Say What He Thinks California Should Know.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 19.—The Sacramento Union today says: President Roosevelt has taken a hand in the Anti-Japanese Legislation now before the California Legislature and has asked the Governor to take steps to have all legislation held up until the President can be heard in the matter. In a telegram sent Saturday this request was embodied and a letter is enroute to Sacramento which will give the executive's views and wishes in the matter of legislation against the "Little Brown Men."

President Roosevelt's telegram follows: Washington, Jan. 18th. Hon. James N. Gillette, Governor of California.

"We are greatly concerned at newspaper reports on Anti-Japanese legislation in California's Legislature. Having written you at length on the subject earnestly hope that no progress will be made on bills until you have had a chance to receive my letter, and it is necessary to discuss its contents with leaders of two Houses. My knowledge of the international situation particularly with reference to emigration of Japanese laborers from United States settles me that a passage of a proposed legislation would be of considerable damage to the State of California as well as to whole union.

"Theodore Roosevelt, President of the U. S., Washington, D. C.

"Telegrams received, have caused bills to be held up until I can hear from you. Copies of bills introduced affecting Japanese together with briefs on same mailed you. (Signed) J. N. Gillette."

The Drew measure prevents ownership of property for more than seven years by alien and this measure was reported out of committee yesterday favorably and was then passed by the assembly. It was held up until Wednesday when it was made a special order of business and according to Governor Gillette will probably be postponed still further.

Governor Gillette said: "I received the message from President Roosevelt Saturday evening after dinner and answered after seeing Assemblyman Gillette who expressed his regret to the President.

"There is this about the matter, that it is not fully understood. "Japan does not look to any state of settlement of damages but to the head of the Government in Washington. In this way there is much known there of which different communities and states of the Union are ignorant. For this reason, as stated by the President, he knows so much more relative to existing conditions than his wishes can be represented.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 19.—Beside the measures introduced by Assemblyman Drew, deny aliens right to own lands in this state Assemblyman Grove L. Johnson has introduced two bills affecting Japanese.

The first of these specifies Japanese as in the already existing act, which segregates Mongolian children in the public schools. At the same time the Japanese school controversy, the Japanese declared that the act did not apply to their own lands in this state. Johnson's second measure introduced by Johnson seeks to prevent an alien from becoming a director in a corporation. Johnson also planned to introduce a measure similar to the Drew bill.

POLICEMAN ON TRIAL FOR KILLING A GIRL

Shot Her Because She Would Not Submit to His Attention—Fellow Officer Found the Body.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The trial of David E. Shollar, a former policeman, charged with the murder of Barbara Reig in a shelter house in Irving Square Park, Williamsburg, last July began before Justice Crane yesterday in the criminal branch of the supreme court. Brooklyn before court adjourned for the day the jury had been chosen and two witnesses for the prosecution examined.

The prisoner, who was the last person who saw the girl alive, in his statement, he indignantly declared the woman, after he had reported her, seized his revolver and shot herself. The prosecution will endeavor to prove that the former officer did the shooting and will lay stress on the fact that he himself did not report the tragedy, the girl's body having been found by another officer.

PRESBYTERY NOMINATED REV. CLARENCE MCKINNON

INSURANCE THAT DOES NOT INSURE

Western Companies Do Business on Small Capital

But Pay Large Dividends—Ontario Man Murdered—How a Boy Learned to Smoke.

GUELPH, Jan. 19.—In an effort to learn to smoke, the two and a half year old son of Mr. C. Kloepfer, ex-M. P., set fire to his father's house.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 19.—The senseless body of James Mansonth of Lindsay, Ont., was found yesterday in a dark corner of a hallway in the basement of the City Hall. Mansonth had been drugged, slugged and robbed and then dragged into the corridor not two hundred feet from the police station. The robbers took his watch, his fur overcoat and $15.

WINDSOR, Jan. 19.—Insurance which does not really insure has been receiving attention here and it has been shown that some of the companies with less than $10,000 paid up capital, $5,000 of which is on deposit with the Government, have over $800,000 insurance. The business is highly profitable to the companies but dangerous to the insured in case of conflagration. It is highly profitable to the shareholders and some of those with money invested are actually receiving 100 per cent per annum on it. One prominent citizen has a thousand dollars in one of these companies and this year drew out an equal amount.

MEDICAL MEN UNITED IN GRUESOME FRATERNITY

Society Which Exists for the Dissection of Bodies of Its Deceased Members.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The formation recently among Bohemian residents of the city of a cremation society has led directly to the revelation of a medical secret of thirty-one years' standing. A score of prominent physicians and surgeons admitted they are members of the Union Fraternity, a society having for its object the dissection of the bodies of its members after death and cremation of the remains.

This weird fraternity is of national scope. Secret chapters exist in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Detroit and other cities. The Chicago chapter being the first organized is called the "Prima Veritatem." Its high officers are known as the "Encephalon," the Greek word for head. Its other officers are named by relation to the parts of the human body. The members of the fraternity must undergo a preparation of apprenticeship of four years before they are admitted to full knowledge of its weird ritual.

BANDMANN BUILDS A THEATRE IN CALCUTTA

A clipping from the Calcutta Statesman, of December 26th, tells of the opening on a previous night of a very fine new theatre built by Mr. Maurice Bandmann and his partner, Mr. Steven. The building is described as a playhouse in which every vest meets the requirements of the most fastidious.

FAVOR TROLLEY MERGER

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Practically unanimously the stock holders of the Rochester andodus Bay Railway, Rochester and Eastern, and Rochester Railway Company, all trolley lines, have voted here in favor of the proposed merger of these companies into the New York State railways, which is designed to take over as a holding corporation, all of the Electric Railways in this state controlled by the Vanderbilt-Andrews syndicate. The companies of the Mohawk syndicate were recently merged into the Rochester and Eastern Railway Company, the latter companies capital having been increased to $15,000,000 for this purpose.

For Vacant Chair in Pine Hill Local Churches Will Not Unite—Want Representatives at Steamers

The Presbytery of St. John met at ten o'clock this morning in the parlors of St. Andrew's church. There were present: Rev. A. B. Dickie, moderator; Rev. Frank Baird, clerk; Rev. Messrs. J. J. McCaskill, H. R. Read, L. A. McLean, Gordon Dickie, David Lane, A. A. Graham, Jas. Ross, D. McOdum, L. G. Gibson, J. H. A. Anderson, W. M. Townsend, M. McKay, R. A. McDonald, C. G. Townsend, Dr. Smith, Hon. J. G. Forbes, and W. J. Parks.

The meeting was opened with prayer and the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The report of the treasurer regarding the Presbytery Fund caused considerable discussion owing the amount of uncollected arrears due from congregations it was finally referred back to the finance committee, the report of the ministers' travelling fund was adopted and Rev. Messrs. Anderson and McCaskill were appointed auditors.

The committee on Calvin and St. John Presbyterian churches reported through the convener, Rev. D. McOdum. It was to the effect that a proposal of union had been made by the congregation of St. John's church, but owing to the unwillingness of both bodies to give up their buildings the proposal for union had fallen through. The report was adopted and the committee discharged.

Rev. Jas. Ross reported on the case of Rev. D. Mullen that he had not yet received any answer from the government. Judge Forbes said that the government could appoint whom it pleased as magistrates empowered to solemnize marriages. He did not think the matter worth the powder and shot expended and moved that the committee be discharged. Carried.

The committee on the Fredericks memorial reported that nothing had been done. The report was received and the committee discharged.

Rev. Frank Baird then reported for the committee on standing orders, and gave notice of motion to make the following changes: Sec. 1. That the meetings shall be held on the third Tuesday of March, the first Tuesday of July, and the second Tuesday of September and December. Sec. 2. That the meetings shall open at ten o'clock with prayer only, by the moderator, and that no member shall speak more than once on the same subject or for more than five minutes unless by special permission. Sec. 3. Provided for duties of the clerk. Sec. 4. Changing date of clerk's election from July to March. Sec. 5. Provides for duties of treasurer. Sec. 6. Regarding election of officers was struck out. Sec. 7. makes date of appointment of standing commissioners for the assembly by rotation they shall be taken from the top instead of the foot of the roll. A section was added providing for the duties of an interim moderator and the filling of vacant pulpits.

The meeting then took up the nomination of a professor of systematic theology for Pine Hill theological college. Rev. Gordon Dickie nominated Rev. Clarence McKinnon. The nomination was supported by Rev. Jas. McCaskill. Rev. Mr. Gibson wanted to know the special qualifications of Mr. McKinnon. Without reflecting on him the speaker thought some of this year's graduates might be better fitted for this chair as they would be fresher in the subject.

Rev. Jas. Ross, in supporting the nomination, said in the past these nominations had not been treated with much courtesy. The time had come for them to speak out and insist on receiving attention in this matter. He spoke highly of Mr. McKinnon's character and qualifications.

On motion, the nomination was unanimously approved.

The Presbytery on motion, then voted their objection to any change or delay on the part of the college board in appointing a professor.

On motion of the clerk it was decided to send $200 to the church at St. George from the augmentation fund.

On motion it was decided to dispense with the services of the student in charge at Sheldale.

Rev. Jas. Ross moved that an appropriation of $100 be asked for to pay for the services of a representative to meet the immigrants landing at this port.

Discussion was deferred until the afternoon session which commences at 2.30 p. m.

Contrary to reports circulated around town the statement recently made by Rev. Mr. McCaskill were not taken up by the Presbytery this morning. The letter sent to the morning papers by the pastor in question probably accounted for this.

THE PROHIBITION PLAN.

A meeting has been called for this evening for the purpose of selecting delegates to appear before the government in a few days, when petitions widely signed, asking provincial prohibition, will be presented. It is sincerely to be hoped that those who are promoting this movement have at least glanced at the possibilities, and will not allow themselves to be drawn into such a hasty and ill-considered course as that which was followed in the recent license-reduction campaign. For that failure—which was of course directly due to the hostile attitude adopted by the common council—the temperance workers were themselves largely to blame. While they deserve all praise for the activity displayed and the well-meaning earnestness attending their efforts, still it must be admitted that they exhibited a lamentable lack of ordinary common sense, and by reason of this were drawn into a blind alley, from which a dignified withdrawal was impossible. If these temperance workers were less idealistic and a little more practical, they would bring to their aid less theoretical reasoning and stronger business instinct, their progress might be greater. Secret meetings, leaders and workers pledged to silence regarding every step in the work, cannot bring about any good results and the absurdity of the original plan, tended in no small degree to the license reduction fiasco.

Temperance workers as such must learn what they as business men and professional men already know, that no one can expect very much for nothing. If a member of the Legislature is asked to support any particular scheme, he will naturally look for the approbation of some of those whose votes he meets. It is unreasonable to vote against a man, and then if he is elected demand something which may better be demanded of the Legislature. In order to make temperance a distinct issue—which it must be to succeed—there will need to be a stronger bond between the temperance workers, a bond which will overcome personal or political preferences. At present such a party does not exist. Those who so stoutly demand prohibition are brothers-in-arms so long as they are talking, but then separate and each man gives way to other sentiments which do not come his desire for restriction of the liquor traffic.

However, the question now under consideration is provincial prohibition. Presumably those who are asking for it, have carefully studied the situation. This is to be hoped, at least, for it will be in their own interests to present the strongest possible argument when they meet the government. Let there be no uncertainty as to the thorough presentation of the case, and let it be understood—if possible—that the request is backed by the support of a very large number of New Brunswick voters.

NEGLECTED SPORT.
St. John is the greatest skating town in America. At this distance we hardly know what is doing in Norway and Sweden, in Switzerland and in certain other European countries, where winter sports are made a popular feature of national life. But in this western continent at least, there is not a city which in proportion to its population, turns out as many fast skaters as does St. John. We have produced an almost endless list of champions, and the material is here for a great many others. Yet in spite of this St. John today is seldom credited with any honors in skating. There is a deplorable lack of interest on the part of citizens, and any young men who are anxious to shine in this particular sport find many difficulties. We look back with pride to the times of Hugh McCormack and Fred Breen and several of those other who became famous. But McCormack in his very best days was never a patch on Fen Parker, and Fred Breen could not have lasted very long against Fred Logan. This is of course in only a matter of opinion, but it is probably correct, for even if the young men of today may not possess all those particular qualifications which made the old time champions, they have the advantage of a more scientific system of training, which leads to a higher state of development.

In St. John today there is one man, who in the opinion of many, is qualified to become the greatest skater ever produced in the Eastern provinces. This is Hilton Belyea of the West side. He is not a sprinter; on the contrary it takes him a quarter of a mile to get fully started, but when once Belyea settles down to speeding, his competitors have to move to keep up with him. Logan, the present champion, will shortly try conclusions with Walter Evans, who is this year said to be skating better than ever, and to be particularly good on short distances. Young Wright and Whitebone and a score of others who infest Victoria Rink are also rapidly coming to the front and will give the better known men some close contests.

But of what use is it all? No encouragement is held out to these young men, and in fact it is only with much difficulty that they are able to enter any of the more important events. Training costs money, which they cannot always afford to pay. They lose time from their work and the employers are often not sufficiently interested to permit the boys to absent themselves for the purpose of practicing and when it comes to entering outside contests it is, through the apathy of St. John, practically out of the question.

St. John skaters have won honors in the United States and in Upper Canada during the past few years, but they have not skated as St. John men, better governed athletic association here, in the greatest skating town in America, there is not sufficient sporting spirit to send these men abroad as representatives of home clubs. This is not sufficient pride in its own skaters, in its own hockey players, and in experts along other lines of athletics to assist them in every possible way. There should be a well organized, well governed athletic association here, under which all our skaters might appear, and which would retain for St. John the honor now passed along to other cities.

THE VOICE.
"Come out from the house of brooding,
Where life sits dumb and drear;
Come out from the shadow's menace,
From the sweating and the fear!
Come out from your fruitless waiting
The end of the world's despair!
There is a gleam across the heath
Which beckons through the night—
"Little one, what of the dark,
The quaking bog and the clutching stream?
Little one, what of the bones so stark
That hang from the gallows beam?"
"Christ welcomed a thief in heaven,
Though the crows might eat his flesh;
The dead swings free on his windy tree
While you writhe here in the mesh.
Better to dare the darkness,
Better the clutching stream,
Than never to know through wail and woe
The secret of the gleam!"
"Little one, what of the mist!
Darkling and drear, still home is home.
Nay, go not, little one! Little one, hie!
I'll come! Wait while I come!"
The small voice sang through the darkness,
And a child gleamed while at the door;
He knew not whose—not what drew him
As he followed it out to the moor.
And there was a sound of groaning,
Of water and earth at strife,
Yet never and never and never before
Had he felt such lust of life—
"Little one, is it far?"
He looked for the child, and he was gone;
Only a moving spark like a star
Beckoned him on and on.
Headless of swamp and shadow,
Headless of rock and thorn,
He followed the gleam through the clutching stream,
Weary and wild and torn.
The dead laughed out on his gallows—
And, lo! the ridge of a dawn.
And the spark he had traced by wind and waste
Was a star swung over a town—
Over a sleeping town
It swung in a silvery mist of light,
And straight, in a mood he never had known,
His tears fell fast at the sight.
For now he could read the secret
Hung up in the little window through which Death looks,
The wonder that never dies,
Oh, what, could he gauge the meaning?
So the gleam, the gleam were no longer a dream,
But dust and death and the end—
Little one, hie to the dark,
The quaking bog and the clutching stream!
Little one, hie to the bones so stark
That hang from the gallows beam!"
"Oh, the spirit of all flies on,
And no end is ever found,
No ring on a weary ring are we,
Travelling round and round,
But over by death and darkness
We pass to the never light!"
He kissed his hand to the merry star,
And he turned him home through the night,
His hand to the star he kissed,
And he went through the night and the rain;
And, lo! his own window through the mist,
And there was the gleam on the pane!"

FICTION IS STRONG IN SPRING BOOKS.
Publishers' Lists Contain Announcements of Many Interesting Volumes.

Bernard Shaw, Nietzsche, Anatole France and Other Philosophic Writers Examined by Alger Thorold

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Judging from the spring lists of books which are on the eve of appearing, publishers have far from reached the end of their resources, though it would seem certain agents would try to make out otherwise.

The fiction announcements will be found to be considerable both in numbers and interest for a spring season. Within the next few days Cassells will begin to publish their spring novels. One of these is a sensational story, "The Interrupted Kiss," by Mr. Richard Marsh. Another is a society story—at least there is a "society" in it—by Miss Katharine Tynan, entitled "Peggy, the Daughter."

THE ANIMALS' FRIEND.
LONDON, Jan. 18.—Police Constable H. Cotes obtained his 100th conviction for cruelty to animals at Brentford yesterday. No case that he has brought has ever been dismissed, and the persons who have been summoned have paid $100.00 in fines.

OPPOSE KISSING OF COURT BIBLES.
Sanitary Reasons are Urged Against the Practice.

Many London Magistrates Favor Change, Though Some Say Objections are Made Only by Faddists.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The ancient controversy on the none too savory subject of the English manner of taking the oath, an agitation against the practice of kissing the Testament in court, has reached a new stage. The magistrate looking oners of some of the police court Bibles, which involved heavy expense for treatment, and the loss of her occupation as a direct result of kissing a filthy court Testament.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 18.—Since the opening of the Turkish parliament no session has been so remarkable and interesting as that of today, when Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha made a statement of the government's policy and received the hearty endorsement of the deputies. The Chamber was crowded hours before the House was called to order. Several imperial princes and all the Ambassadors were present. The Grand Vizier's lengthy statements reviewed domestic history of the past five months, emphasized the Sultan's recently expressed determination to uphold the constitution, gave a hopeful prospect of a re-organization of the finances by the help of English, German and French capitalists, and declared that he looked forward assuredly to seeing Turkey on a level with the other great European nations.

How I Cure Without Drugs

A great many men are doping their stomachs with drugs, trying to overcome some chronic disease or weakness, and wonder what makes them so nervous, restless and unable to think clearly. They naturally blame the disease for it. It's easy and sure to be cured by Electricity, and the cost is not half an ordinary doctor bill.

Dear Sir—I must say a few words about your famous electric appliance. It has made a wonderful change in me. I haven't had to take a cent's worth of medicine since I first wore your Belt, and today I am feeling stronger and better in every way, from the sole of my feet to the crown of my head. I have tried all kinds of patent medicines without benefit. I am feeling just like you told me I would. I know now that it is true, and you do not praise your Belt half enough.

ENGINE CRASHES INTO GROUNDED EXPRESS CAR

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON SALLYBURY AND HARVEY ROAD YESTERDAY

HOPEWELL HILL, Jan. 18.—The Sallybury and Harvey train from Albert this morning met with a bad accident on the Steeply marshes a few miles out from Albert, which resulted in the death of the passenger car which was at the rear of the train, being smashed in and one passenger, who jumped from that car, being badly injured. The train, which left Albert at about the usual hour, and which was followed by a light engine, was just crossing the Englewood Creek bridge when the coupling between the locomotive and train broke. The cars, by the automatic application of the air brakes, stopped short right on the bridge. The engine which followed was so close behind it was impossible to avoid a collision, the light engine crashing into the rear of the car, where the passengers sat, smashing in the door and tearing up the floor of the car.

RYAN IS SENT TO WEST

Maurice Charged With the Murder of His Brother Joseph

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Esthela Turk of Hamilton, aged eighty-five, set fire to her dress while standing in front of the fire today, and rushed down stairs enveloped in flames. Her daughter smothered the flames, but not in time to save the old lady's life, and the younger woman was badly burned in her effort. Maurice Ryan was committed for trial today at North Bay for the murder of his brother, Joseph. Strong evidence was given for the crown by Nora McKewen, the witness who disappeared and turned up again. She was housekeeper for Joseph Ryan and said when he prisoner, who told her he would see Joseph safe on the train, Joseph told her not to sell the furniture, and not to let Maurice have anything to do with the property, saying when he got settled he would write instructions to her. She had a half interest in the furniture. When Maurice returned he repeated the statement about seeing Joseph safe on the train. Maurice then took possession of the effects and sold them, she being too ill to prevent him. Maurice Ryan had no money when his brother went away, but afterwards was seen with a hundred dollar bill, and Joseph had several bills of that denomination when she saw him last.

The railway service is interrupted in Alberta and Saskatchewan and trains are tunnelling their way through the snow at certain points. An express train was held eighteen hours at Swift Current and short lines in Manitoba are completely tied up. The snow is blowing into the tracks faster than gangs can remove it. Farmers are compelled to tunnel their way to stables to attend their stock.

YOUNG GIRLS GET TIPSY ON BRANDY CHOCOLATES

Startling Discovery Made by the Montreal Police.

MONTREAL, Q., Jan. 18.—Brandy chocolates, with more than half a teaspoonful of brandy in each and 25 to 30 of the chocolates in each half-pound box, sold extensively in the city at 60 cents a pound, led to action today on the part of Chief Archambault of the provincial revenue police. One of the largest chocolate manufacturing establishments in the city is concerned in the action. On Friday afternoon 100 cases with four or five pounds of these chocolates in each, according to the statement of Mr. Archambault, were seized by the revenue police on the premises of Walter M. Lowrey Company of Canada, and from 25 to 30 gallons of brandy in a cask which was confiscated in the same establishment. Following this a tour of city confectionery stores was made by revenue officers with the result that this afternoon thirty warrants against as many petty store proprietors issued in the police court. The charge in each case is "selling liquor without a license," this being the only accusation on which actions of the kind can be entered. A similar charge has been entered against the Lowrey company. The complaints regarding the sale of the chocolates were received by Chief Archambault last week and a campaign was at once instituted. Numerous cases of boys and young women having bought half-pound boxes of the chocolates and afterwards noticed in a state of intoxication have been reported. The largest sale was in the neighborhood of East End theatre and picture show, matinee girls being the most noticeable purchasers.

YUKON INDIANS DYING OUT

Not Like Other Tribes—Have the Color and Beard of a Jap.

"The Yukon Indians are fast passing away," writes a trapper in Fur News. "The squaws are living the children in creases, apparently, but among the men, old and young, you hear the hollow cough of lung trouble. "The Pelly River band had in 1899 twenty children, twenty squaws and fourteen men. That winter ten of the men died of pneumonia. You see the reason why they are dying out. They are a broad scar across the neck and throat, where the old scrofula has healed up. "More than one half of the adult Indians on the coast have this brand, called by this name because of the frightful disease brought on this coast 100 years ago, by the sailors from Boston under Capt. Grey and from Liverpool by Capt. Vancouver, from Spain, in fact all over the world, and spread by the employes of the Hudson's Bay Company among the natives when after fur. The Russians did more than their share. "The Yukon Indian is not like other North American red men, he is different in build, habit and certainly inferior to the average Sioux or Chippewa or more tribes of the Northwest. He is more like the Jap; has the same complexion, beard and hair, is a little taller and not so clean. The people are light built, undersized and great bearers. A few work at logging and wood cutting, but generally they are lazy and indolent. "There are less than 1,000 big and little in the Yukon country, and about 2,000 dogs. The dog sleds and toboggans are the only things they have to move with, never a horse or ox. "They never have vegetables unless eating with a white man. Every tribe could raise vegetables at their summer camps if they would. They have good soil and every chance to raise radishes, lettuce, cabbage, turnips and sprouts, as white men are raising all of these here for market and their own use. "The tribes are small, from twelve to fifteen families, they are found in places from 100 to 200 miles apart. They live near a stream or lake when at home, but when winter comes they go for fur and meat. They travel all winter with the whole family outfit of kids, dogs, squaws and some old people, going from 200 to 500 miles on these winter trips, generally in a great circle. "They will stay a few days in a place, build new camps and make new trails and find new game. They live on meat they kill and fish they catch with nets. When good luck comes with meat or fish in plenty they dry and smoke a large quantity and put it in log pens where nothing can get to it. This pen is called a cache. "These Indians kill fur at all times of their winter catch in March; after that they have plenty to eat, so what is the use of trapping? They just lie around camp and smoke. "One Ind about 20 years of age shot a black fox and sold it for $90. It was worth $1,000 or $1,250. He bought $200 worth of calico, tobacco by the candy and two blankets at $50 each. This young man, a full-blooded Indian, could talk a little English, wore hat, coat and vest, short breeches with knee straps, had a watch and chain and a new model Winchester rifle. They are inveterate gamblers and will lose their last cent at cards and don't care, but keep coming to the limit."

SAVANNAH'S CREW SAVED BY STEAMER DOMINION

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 18.—The steamer Dominion arrived here today with the captain and crew of the British ship Savanna, which it rescued off Flatport yesterday. The rescue was accomplished with the greatest difficulty. A heavy sea was running and the Savanna, which was unladen, became waterlogged. Her crew, who numbered thirteen, were obliged to jump into the sea and swim a long distance to reach the boats of the Dominion, which the steamer sent to their aid. On their return to the steamer it was necessary to pour oil on the waters before the boats could come alongside. The Savanna had been drifting helplessly for two days. The pumps had been rendered useless, and the men were all wearing lifeboats so that they might leave the vessel at any moment. The fate of the ship is still unknown, but it is feared she has gone to pieces. Two tugs that went out to search for her have not yet returned and may possibly have her in tow.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 18.—The schooner Jas. W. Cousins, Capt. Ross, master, of Yarmouth, which sailed on Saturday, ran ashore on Old Man Point, Lobster Bay, on Sunday and is a total wreck. The men took to their boats and with considerable difficulty landed with fisherman, who kindly carried them to their last night. The loss is estimated at $4,500 for vessel, but the fare of fish and gear will total about $6,000. There was no insurance on either vessel or cargo.

NEW PRESIDENT NOT APPOINTED

A meeting of the general committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement held in the Stone church yesterday afternoon with William Downie in the chair. The main purpose of the meeting was to elect a chairman in place of the late T. S. Simms. It was considered advisable to defer the appointment of a successor to Mr. Simms for a time. A representative will also be appointed at an early date to the Baptist church to succeed Mr. Simms. Routine matters were also discussed at the meeting. Percy J. Steele acted as secretary.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN CAPTAIN

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 18.—Captain Frederick A. Prince, a former resident of this city, died today in Newark, N. J., after a sickness of two years. Captain Prince was past 70 years of age and is well known in shipping circles. In 1852 he commanded the steamer Montreal, which carried passengers between Boston and Portland, subsequently commanding a steamer between Boston and St. John, and then went to Calais, Maine, where he organized the Frontier Steamship Company, which operated between Calais and Eastport. He next went to New York, where he entered the jewelry business and continued it until two years ago. The body is to be brought here tomorrow for burial.

Advertisement for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Text: 'Chamberlain's Cough Remedy WILL CURE Your Cold. Try It. The uniform success that has attended the use of this remedy in the cure of bad colds has made it one of the most popular medicines in use. It can always be depended upon to effect a quick cure and is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. Price 25 cents. Large size 50 cents.'

Palpitation of the Heart.

One of the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or again, there may be a most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visible pulsations of the arteries. The patient may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief that no one need suffer. Mr. Sylvester Smith, Hampton, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with palpitation of the heart and tried doctor's medicines, but they only gave me temporary relief. I heard of your Heart and Nerve Pills and bought two boxes and before I had used them I was completely cured and would recommend them to all similarly afflicted." Price, 50 cents per box, or 5 boxes for $2.50 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A PENSION REVELATION.

Fishman Proves to Have Lived 111 Years in One Parish.

Many a romance is being revealed through the investigation of the claims for old age pensions. Among the applicants in Ireland is Charles Kelly, who lives in the parish of Inver among his wild mountain neighbors in the little town of Mount Charles, Donegal. This wonderful old man has reached the remarkable age of 111, but his sight and hearing are still fairly good, and his interest in the working of the little holding on which he resides (and which is now owned by his youngest son, a sprightly youth of sixty) is unabated. Mr. Kelly was born about three miles from Mount Charles, and has never lived out of the parish of Inver. He practically created the little house and holding out of the barren mountainside on which it stands. His jokes with criticism on the labors of his early days, when he carried on his back from the adjoining moors every stone for the construction of his house, seen from a distance the little farm, marked by a few trees, stands out like an oasis amid the desert of barren brown heath with which it is surrounded. The old man had a vivid recollection of the struggles he underwent in tiding over the awful years of the Irish famine, but, remote as he has always been from towns and unable to read or write, he has but little recollection of historical or political events which took place during his life.

NELLIE SHAKESPEARE

FIGURES IN DIVORCE

Named in Suit Brought by Mrs. Burke-Roche

Batony

RECALLS CAREER

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Among the four correspondents named by Mrs. Burke-Roche in her second suit for divorce against Aurel Batony is Nellie Shakespeare, formerly of Philadelphia, and who has figured many times in print.

Mrs. Batony is a daughter of Frank Wink, a millionaire.

One of Mrs. Shakespeare's most remarkable appearances in the public eye was in connection with "Sir" Henry Cavendish, the millionaire who married a New York woman out of many thousands and who was later locked up in France and in London on charges of swindling.

She was the wife then of James H. Shakespeare, one of the leading lawyers of Philadelphia. To Mr. Shakespeare she was the paragon of every perfection, and he indulged every whim she expressed.

Afterward the friendship between Onqui and Mrs. Shakespeare became so closely cemented that it is said they were married.

Mr. Shakespeare had no suspicion of any wrong and continued to visit his wife once a week.

But when last his wife fled with Onqui, who also had a matrimonial impediment in the way of two living wives, Mr. Shakespeare's mind gave way, and he died soon after helplessly insane in the Friends' Asylum at Frankford, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Onqui afterward abandoned Mrs. Shakespeare penniless in London, where he was subsequently arrested on the charge of swindling a baronet.

Mrs. Shakespeare's next appearance in public was when she sued Roderick W. Richardson, a rich broker, for $15,000 damages for an alleged beating.

She testified that Mr. Richardson had agreed to marry her, but had changed his mind and given her a beating in the street.

The jury's verdict was for $15,000 in favor of Mrs. Shakespeare.

STANDARD OIL STEAMER

RESCUED MANY AT MESSINA

Blankets, Sheets, etc., Given to Naked

Women to Make Clothing for Themselves and Children.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—How the British tank steamer Chesapeake rode out the tidal wave in Messina harbor which followed the earthquake, and how her captain and crew aided in succoring many injured persons, is related in a letter received today by Philip Rupprecht, agent of the Standard Oil Company's tank line. The Chesapeake, under charter to the Standard Oil Company, arrived in Messina from New York December 24, four days before the big upheaval. The letter was written by her commander, Captain H. L. Mowat.

"We had finished discharging the night of the 27th," Captain Mowat's letter says, "and were ready to sail at daylight next morning. At 5.30 o'clock p. m. the earthquake shocked the whole place, and in less than a quarter of an hour the town of Messina was gone, and in its place a mass of ruins. The tidal wave succeeded it; it lifted our ship some twenty feet, and our masts, rigging and a three-inch wire were gone. No damage was done to the vessel. The authorities asked if I would take aboard a committee of women and children. Many of the women were practically nude. So for humanity's sake I gave them my own property in the shape of blankets, rugs and sheets to make clothing for themselves and children. As for the men, we managed amongst us to fix them up.

Among the refugees on the Chesapeake, the letter says, was the American consul (Stuart K. Luton).

Captain Mowat says most of the refugees remained on board his vessel until the 31st, when they were taken over by the British warship Minerva.

As a result of the recent severe cold snap, the Norwegian steamer Odians, Capt. The united efforts of two or three harbor tugs failed to move her until last night when she was reported all clear at 11 p. m.
