EIGHTY PER CENT OF THE U. F. O. MEMBERS REFUSE TO ABIDE BY RECALL PLANK OF PLATFORM

J. G. Lethbridge of West Middlesex Among the Few Who Admit Having Signed Declaration Supporting Principle of Recall—J. W. Freeborn of East Middlesex Declined To Sign—Number Refuse To State Grounds For Their Decision.

Toronto, May 13.—According to individual statements made today, 80 per cent of the U. F. O. members of the Ontario Legislature refused to abide by the recall plank of their platform, or were requested not to do so by their constituents.

During the course of the canvass some of the members, after they had stated whether they had or had not signed the declaration, decided not to comment on the grounds as in their constituencies this might become known and might cause dissatisfaction among those who are under the impression that the recall was generally signed.

Only four members admitted having signed the recall. They are: Messrs. J. W. Widdifield, North Ontario; J. G. Lethbridge, Middlesex West; Hon. Peter Smith, and A. A. Hicks, the U. F. O. whip of South Huron.

Among those who said they did not sign were: J. Carty, South Renfrew; W. Montgomery, East Northumberland; W. H. Fenton, North Bruce; J. W. Freeborn, East Middlesex; G. D. Sewell, South Norfolk; Hon. W. E. Raney, Hon. Beniah Bowman; Malcolm MacVicar, East Elgin; F. G. Sandy, South Victoria; J. W. Webster, West Lambton, and others.

COUNCIL REFUSES TO CONSIDER CLAUSES IN CITY OF LONDON BILL

Attorney-General W. E. Raney Will Be Asked To Have Bill Finally Passed by Legislature—Three Aldermen Protest.

Reconsideration of the London bill was refused by the city council at a special meeting today at 1 o'clock. Attorney-General Raney will be informed immediately and asked to have the bill finally passed by the Legislature. Mayor Little ruled that a member of the council who voted in favor of the bill would have to move its reconsideration. Ald. Cameron Wilson appealed from the ruling of the chair, but it was upheld by a vote of eight to three. Ald. Cameron Wilson, Ald. F. R. Watkinson and Ald. C. G. Moorhead were the three members who voted against it. Ald. F. E. Harley was absent.

William Tite of the Independent Labor party, protested that the council did not always follow procedure rules as closely as it was doing in this case. He claimed that under Clause 104 of the procedure bylaw the council could not approve expenditure of more than $25,000. The London bill authorized several expenditures which were greater than this amount.

Mayor Little in explaining why the special meeting had been called said he understood the statement had been made in the Legislature that the London city council had changed its opinion on the clauses of the bill relating to the Ridout street bridge, storm sewers and London and Port Stanley expenditures. Following this Attorney-General Raney asked that the council give an expression of opinion on these clauses for the guidance of the Legislature. The mayor ruled that this was practically reconsideration of the bill and must be moved by some member who had previously supported the measure.

It proved impossible to find an alderman with these qualifications. Ald. C. G. Moorhead wanted to move "reconsideration," but he claimed that he had never voted on the measure at all, in that event his vote was negative. Ald. Watkinson was also willing to reconsider the proposal. Some members of the council thought that he had voted in favor of the bill, but he indignantly denied it.

That the opposition party had evidently caused the other group some worry was evidenced by the presence of Ald. W. A. Wilson at the meeting.

He has been ill for many weeks and has not attended council meetings. If Ald. Wilson had been absent, as well as Ald. Harley, and a vote had been taken, it would have stood about seven to three, compared to the previous vote of twelve to two. This might possibly have strengthened the opposition to the bill in the Legislature.

CIVIL SERVANTS IN ALL CANADA CONSIDER STRIKE

Protests Are Raised Because of Salary Schedule.

Vancouver, B. During the last few days, it is declared, telegrams have been dispatched between the eastern and western cities pledging full support to any action embracing the whole of Canada, which may be decided upon in protest.

Forced to Dodge Police Bullets To Win Wager

Driver and Reckless Passenger Placed Under Arrest.

New York, May 13.—The spectacle of a man perched precariously on the top of a speeding automobile, ducking bullets from his police pursuers, enlivened things for crowds going home from the "lobster palace" district early this morning. After two automobiles commandeered by policemen had chased the speeding car for fifteen blocks, its driver condescended to slow down and explain. It seemed that the young man on top was winning a wager made in a Broadway restaurant that he could not stick on top of the machine for "a short trip." Both the driver and his reckless passenger were arrested.

U. S. FARMERS INSIST ON RECOGNITION BY POLITICAL PARTIES

Decision Was Made At Close of Big Chicago Convention.

SEND REPRESENTATIVES

Direct Taxation of Wealthy To Pay Off War Debt.

Chicago, May 13.—Recognition for farmers will be asked of the platform makers of each of the two great American political parties at their June conventions by representatives of the vaarious farmers' organizations of the country. This action was decided on at the closing of the two-day meeting of the National Board of Farm Organizations.

According to Charles A. Lyman, national secretary of the board, it was the general opinion of the delegates that the food producers never had received the attention of either the Republican or the Democratic party to which they were entitled. It was their purposes, he said, to send representatives to the Chicago and the San Francisco conventions with demands that they be recognized in the formation of party platforms, and to throw the weight of their special support at the November election to that party which gave the greatest consideration to the farmer in the party declaration of principles.

Some of the main points on which farmers will insist follow:

Conservation of forests, with a view to keeping down the cost to consumers of print paper and lumber.

Payment of the war debt through direct taxation on "those best able to pay," meaning corporations and persons who acquired great wealth during the war.

Reduction of the high cost of living through elimination of the middleman and provisions for more direct dealing with the consumer.

Appointment of a secretary of agriculture who knows practical farm conditions. Arrangements for more elastic credits for farmers.

Opposition to universal military training if such is to be made a plank of party platforms.

FIVE LONDONERS FINED $600 EACH FOR FAILING TO FILE 1918 INCOME TAX RETURNS

Magistrate Graydon Allows Thirty Days in Which To Pay Money—Right of Appeal Granted to Three—Various Excuses Offered.

William E. Dodd, George T. Ross, Albert Cosho, Edward Brennan and Albert Powers each were fined $600 and costs in police court this morning for failing to file their income tax returns for the year 1918. They were given 30 days to pay the fine and an option of one month in jail if they could not pay.

Dodd claimed that he did not receive a registered letter sent to him in January until last Saturday, when he was summoned to appear in court. His wife had been holding it from him because he was suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Ross stated that the accountant at his place of business had filed his papers for him. The accountant declared that he had filled out the forms and that Ross had signed them. He then sent them with other papers from the institution to the inspector of taxation.

W. R. Meredith, who appeared for four of the accused, asked that Cosho, who is a Russian, be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty. This was refused by R. B. Law, counsel for the prosecution. Cosho was also forced to leave $200, which he had put up as bail, with the authorities. This will serve as part payment of his fine if he pays.

The right of appeal has been granted to Powers, Ross and Dodd. Brennan pleaded guilty and so has not that privilege.

WESTERN ONTARIO LIABLE TO FACE SERIOUS COAL SHORTAGE

Unless Railway Commissions in Canada and United States Come To Agreement Over Prepayment of Freight Charges.

Unless the railway commissions in Canada and United States come to an agreement soon, over the prepayment of freight shipped from the United States to Canada, Western Ontario is liable to be faced with another coal shortage, according to local railway officials. Because of an order issued lately prohibiting the acceptance of freight for Canada, unless the charges are prepaid in American funds, many cars of coal destined to points in Western Ontario are tied up at the frontiers. As a result of a protest lodged by Canadian coal dealers and other shippers, on the grounds that the order was unfair, because it meant that exchange rates would have to be paid on that portion of charges covering shipments in transit in Canada, the mines have refused to prepay freight on coal, farther than the American border.

Because of the orders issued, the Canadian railroads connecting with the American roads at the border terminals are refusing to accept the cars at those points. As a result, much coal is stalled at the borders.

The order was passed some weeks ago, but it immediately met with bitter protest on the part of the Canadian firms. A meeting of representatives from practically every city in Ontario was held in Ottawa a week ago to find some method of remedying the situation. A letter of protest was sent to the railway commission, who, it is claimed, expressed sympathy with the objections. Steps were taken immediately by the commissions of the two countries, and it is believed by the railroad officials here that they are still in conference over the matter.

The railways have received no orders, in spite of rumors to the contrary, to rescind the order, and it is being rigidly enforced. The situation at the present time is practically a deadlock. Coming, as it does, right on the heels of the tie-up resulting from the switchmen's strike, the shortage is liable to become serious if steps are not taken immediately to relieve it.

YOUNG GIRL IS SHOT IN CHEEK WHILE STROLLING NEAR COVES

Lad Who Does Shooting Apologizes To Miss Hattie Cooper, 178 Adelaide Street—22-Calibre Rifle Used.

While out walking at the coves at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, with her sister, Hattie Cooper, 178 Adelaide street, was shot in the cheek by a youth whose name is unknown.

Miss Cooper and her sister Eva, both of whom are about 19 years of age, were strolling along near the Cove road bridge, when the injured girl put her hand to her face and exclaimed, "Oh!" Two boys were some distance away with rifles in their hands. The one who did the shooting came over to the girls and apologized. The other boy did not approach them.

As she was excited, Miss Eva Cooper did not ask the boy, who appeared to be about 18 years of age, his name, nor did she get a description of him.

W. H. Shoebotham, who was driving toward the city, met them and took them home in his auto. He wanted to take her to a doctor before she went home, but she said that there was one near her house.

After Miss Cooper was taken into the house, her sister secured a doctor, who lived near by. He extracted the bullet, which is thought to be a .22-calibre one.

PREMIER BORDEN TO RETAIN HIS POSITION FOR SOME TIME YET

Has No Intention of Retiring From Public Life.

FOR SOME MONTHS

Budget Is Discussed At a Meeting of the Cabinet.

Ottawa, May 13.—Sir Robert Borden today presided over a meeting of the cabinet. Details of the budget which Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, is to present to the House on Tuesday, were, it is understood, under consideration.

Sir Robert's return has revived rumors in political circles of his impending retirement from political life. What the prime minister's intentions are in this regard, he has given no indication, but it is learned on high authority that Sir Robert has no intention of retiring for some months yet, at any rate. During his five months' holiday, his health improved wonderfully. Whether, however, it would be equal to a prolonged strain remains to be determined.

A caucus of Unionist supporters to discuss the situation will, it is expected, be called at an early date.

DANIELS SAYS THAT SIGNATURE ON WAR MESSAGE NOT HIS

U. S. Naval Secretary Refers To Cablegram at Sims Hearing.

CALLS IT FORGERY

Charge Is Made Before the Senate Naval Investigating Committee.

Washington, May 13.—Charges that a cablegram produced before the Senate navel investigating cimmittee during the testimony of Rear-Admiral Sims bore a forged signature, were made today by Secretary Daniels. He referred to a message which Admiral Sims had presenetd as part of his criticism of the navy department, and which purported to have been signed by the secretary.

"Somewhere somebody was guilty of signing my name to an official dispatch which the original, here produced, shows I never signed," Mr. Daniels told the committee, "or of altering a dispatch by erasing the real signature and substituting 'Daniels.'"

The concluding paragraph of the cablegram read:

"In regard to convoys, I consider that American vessels having armed guards are safer when sailing independently."

"The statement that this telegram was signed 'Daniels' is untrue," said the secretary. "No such telegram signed 'Daniels' ever was sent to Admiral Sims. In his testimony he reiterated over and over again that this dispatch made him 'about ready to jump overboard,' and that it was signed with my name, conveying the impression that the civilian secretary of the navy had personally passed upon the question of a particular method to protect shipping, and was resisting the adoption of the convoy system. I knew I never entertained the opinion stated in the dispatch he displayed."

Chicago, May 13—Headquarters would be provided for Canadian representatives in the Temple of Agriculture at Washington, which it was proposed to build, according to plans outlined at yesterday's meeting of the National Board of Farm Organizations and affiliated bodies. One million dollars will be raised by these organizations for the erection of the temple.

ITALIAN CABINET CRISIS GROWS MORE SERIOUS

Rome, May 13.—The cabinet crisis is considered most difficult to solve because the chamber is divided chiefly into two groups. Socialists and Catholics, neither of which is strong enough to constitute a majority, while an agreement between them is impossible on a common program.

In addition, the Socialists absolutely refuse to participate in a government. Otherwise, Signor Giolitti, with his own followers, together with a portion of the deputies who supported Premier Nitti, might have a considerable majority. Some of the deputies suggest a cabinet formed by Signor Meda, leader of the Catholics, with Signor Lonom, the present minister of war who succeeded the late Leonida Bissolati-Bergamaschi as leader of the reformist socialists.

NINETEEN POLICE DEPOTS BURNED AND GOVERNMENT OFFICES RAIDED BY MASKED BANDS IN IRELAND

Mail Cars Robbed and Official Papers Seized in Widespread Campaign of Destruction—Activities of Raiders Covered Wide Area—One Anti-Sinn Fein Editor Is Tarred and Feathered.

Dublin, May 13.—At least nineteen police barracks in various parts of Ireland were wiped out in the course of widespread destruction of public property and other activities by bands of armed and masked men in various parts of Ireland last night. Five income tax and customs offices also were raided and papers found in them burned.

Two mail cars and one mail train were held up and official papers taken from them.

One was killed in the outskirts of Dublin, where barracks were being burned.

The Rev. T. G. Wilkinson, one of the canons of Down Cathedral at Down Patrick, was shot and critically wounded while pursuing raiders on the street.

The houses of two newspaper editors were raided and one anti-Sinn Fein editor was tarred and feathered.

Some of the police barracks destroyed were unoccupied and others were inhabited only by the custodians.

The reports of the raiders' activities have been pouring in all day from numerous sections.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY AUTHORITIES HAVE A REAL PUZZLING PROBLEM

Nine Soldiers in Jail On Military Remand Since March 6—Who Will Pay For Upkeep and Why Are They Still Held in Durance Vile?

What to do with nine soldiers held under a military remand in the county jail since March 6 is the problem that is puzzling the Middlesex county authorities. The soldiers are not charged with offences under civilian laws nor held under remand from civil courts. Does the Government of Canada or the militia department intend to pay the board bill of these nine men in khaki? The county officials want to know.

There's lots of work to be done around the jail, but as the soldiers are only held under a remand, they cannot be placed at work, men only on trial or under remand being exempt from labor, according to the jail regulations.

Most of the nine soldiers are mere youths, obstreperous, mischievous, noisy, and a most annoying type of prisoner to have around, disturbing the religious quiet and pervading sense of propriety in all things to which the jail and jail officials have become accustomed. Frankly, those soldiers are getting on the nerves of everybody around the jail. They are "star boarders" with no visible assurance of paying their board or having it paid for them. Many of them have been sick, which has meant a great deal more work for the kind-hearted jail officials.

If They Would.

If the militia department would take them away, or if they could be brought under civilian working regulations, or if the Canadian Government would only pay their board in advance, the Middlesex county officials, as well as the jail officials, would be better pleased. Regular boarders of good old Castle Carter are fairly aching to get into the nice, comfortable cells in which the soldier boys are billeted.

"Why, we haven't had a prisoner from Carling street in two days," said Mr. Carter this morning, puzzled by the apparent law-abiding conversion of London inhabitants.

A Reason.

There's a reason that Mr. Carter didn't seem to grasp. The whiskey-traders, auto-snatchers and plain drunks and vags know all about the crowded accommodations at the jail and won't patronize the jail while the soldiers are there. When a man has got to be a confirmed and veteran jail patron, he doesn't like to be rudely awakened at midnight by soldiers rehearsing for a glee club. They're jolly boys, those nine soldiers, but as Governor Carter says with kindly Irish accent, they're "young divils."

Seriously speaking, apart from the serious disinclination of the Middlesex county taxpayers to provide a free boarding house for military offenders not charged with any civil crime, the moral justice of keeping the defenders of a nation in prison cells over two months, while the department at Ottawa is unweaving whole bales of red tape in order to decide what to do with them, is questioned by some civic officials. Only one of the nine men is likely to draw a term of imprisonment. Less drastic punishment is anticipated for the others, but actually they have all been imprisoned for considerably more than two months. Their offence was getting mixed up in the raid on the canteen last winter.

Historical Pageant Three Miles Long At Calgary Celebration

Calgary, May 13.—Not since the tercentenary of Quebec has there been attempted in Canada, it is believed, a historical pageant on the scale of that which was offered in Calgary yesterday afternoon in connection with the 250th anniversary of the Hudson's Bay Company. A pageant over three miles in length, taking an hour to pass, represented practically every feature of the history and development of the West since 1670. The Hudson's Bay section represented the history of the company from 1670, and the costumes were most elaborate.

FULL PUBLICITY FOR ST. RAILWAY REPORT

People Want Information and Will Get It.

Full publicity will be given to the report of the Ontario railway and municipal board on the London street railway, Ald. O. L. Cunningham, chairman of No. 1 committee, stated today.

"The people have been asking for light on the matter for some time, and I see no reason why we cannot give it to them as soon as the railway board has given us the information. The findings will likely be printed in full, so that any interested parties may obtain them."

No report has been made to the city yet, Mayor Little stated. It is not expected until next week.

On the new list only the name of one of the convicted leaders appears, that of Rev. Wm. Ivens.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 13.—Commander Hose, formerly in charge of the Rainbow, will leave shortly for England to arrange for the taking over of the three battleships which have been proffered to Canada by the admiralty to form the nucleus for the Dominion's navy. The vessels comprise one cruiser and two destroyers, and it is anticipated that they will arrive at Halifax early in July. The ships will be used primarily for training purposes until such time as Canada's permanent policy is decided upon, and more serviceable vessels are secured. They will probably be located at Halifax during the summer, and at Esquimalt during the winter.

VICTORIA GRADUATE CLASS LARGEST IN HISTORY OF SCHOOL

Customary Exercises Held On Centenary of Florence Nightingale's Birthday.

HARD TRAINING YEARS

One Member Gives Life, While Combatting Influnza Epidemic.

Never in its history has Victoria Hospital Training School turned out so large a class of graduate nurses as that which assembled for the customary exercises in Wesley Hall on Wednesday afternoon. The hall was crowded to capacity with friends and relations.

Following the opening prayer, Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, chairman of the hospital board gave an address. To graduate on the day of the celebration of the centenary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the Lady of the Lamp, was certainly a distinction, remarked the speaker. The class, he said, had passed through a harder training period than any previous one, because of influenza epidemics. One member of this class had given her life in fighting the disease. He referred to Miss Margaret Hogath, who died two months ago.

Raise Standard.

The nurses then repeated the Florence Nightingale pledge vowing to elevate the standard of their profession as far as possible, and to be loyal and faithful in their duties.

Col. Gartshore presented the diplomas, and Miss Stanley pinned on the badges.

Rev. Dr. Peever and Dr. G. C. Hale in short addresses referred to the high order of the profession, and reminded the graduates that their calling was one beset with difficulties.

A. D. Jordan added interest to the program by rendering organ solos. Miss Florence Eggleston and Miss Edna Bray also took a part in the musical end of the program. They were presented with bouquets of Richmond roses.

The Graduates.

Those who graduated are:

Anna Jane Windover, Mina Frances Sutton, Josephine Florence Campbell,, Madeline Garland Adams, Helen Waltalena Reaman, Ida Dunke, Mary Isabell Maddock, Gladys Thompson, Clara Jane Thomas, Augusta McLevin, Margaret Hornal, Alma Ethel Smith, Marjorie Helen Walker, Jean Marjorie McKelvie, Beatrice Aileen Smith, Iva Eleanor Levice Guest, Emily Irene MacLaurin, Ethel May Perrin, Mabel Irene Laur, Christena Catharine Gillies, Edith Marian Steven, E. Margaret McCulloch, Carolyn Anne MacRobert, Marjorie Sinclair Mason, Aimee Lois Pearce, Marjorie White, Gladys Isabel Tamlin, Kathaline Olivia McNally, Della St. Clair Foster, Mildred Irene Thomas, Edna Jefferson, Marjorie Edna Rowe.

In the evening the graduates and their friends participated in a dance at the Nurses' Home. Miss Stanley received the guests. She was attired in a handsome gown of silver grey net, with corsage of sweet peas. Col. Gartshore assisted her.

Graduate nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital will hold the customary exercises which always accompany their entering into the full practice of their profession, in St. Peter's Parish Hall on the evening of May 19, when Bishop M. F. Fallon will speak and present the diplomas. Dr. W. J. Tillmann will be in the chair. Among the speakers will be Dr. H. A. McCallum.

At a recent meeting of the alumnae of St. Joseph's the graduating class was introduced. It was decided at that meeting to tender a banquet at Wong's cafe on the night following the graduation exercises to the new members of the order. A number of interesting toasts have been arranged.

DIES DAY AFTER SON RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS

Alex Fraser Had Been a Resident of London 53 Years.

Alexander Fraser died at his home, 232 Central avenue, Wednesday night after several months' illness, but not before he had seen his son, Capt. A. G. Fraser, who had returned from overseas just one day previous to his demise. Capt. Fraser had been absent for three years.

Deceased was born in Inverness-shire, Scotland, 74 years ago, and had been a resident of the city for the past 53 years. At one time he was a member of the Fraser-McMillan Company, which later became McMillan & Calder.

Besides his wife and son, two daughters, Mrs. McCorquodale, of Montreal, and Miss Florence, at home, survive.

The funeral, which will be of a private nature, will be conducted on Friday afternoon by Rev. D. C. McGregor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Interment will be made in Woodland Cemetery.

FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS WEAKNESS AND SHORTNESS OF BREATH

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women become rundown and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes: "I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."

Price 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MRS. C. FRANK ADAMS DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF ONLY FEW WEEKS

Active Member of First Presbyterian Church, Will Be Greatly Missed by Host of Friends.

Mrs. Sarah Isabel Adams, wife of C. Frank Adams, business manager of The London Advertiser, died on Wednesday evening at her home, 409 King street, after an illness of four or five weeks. At first her illness was not considered serious, and was thought to be a general breaking up of her health, and consequently her death came as a shock to her many friends.

Mrs. Adams was born in Fingal, and later resided in St. Thomas, lasted coming to London where she had resided since her marriage. Her husband, C. Frank Adams, one son, Sinclair M. Adams, and two sisters, Miss Margaret and Miss Mame McLardy, survive her. Her two sisters had made their home with her for the past few years. Her son, Sinclair Adams, M. A., is lecturer in classics at Trinity College, Toronto.

Before her illness Mrs. Adams was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church. She will be missed from the Ladies' Aid Society of that church, having been very enthusiastic at all times in the work carried on by this society. Through her lovable disposition, Mrs. Adams had made a host of friends, who will mourn her loss deeply.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 3:30 o'clock from her residence, 409 King street. Rev. W. J. Knox will conduct the services. Interment will be made in Woodland Cemetery.

A MANY-EYED "SPUD"

A curiosity in the form of veritable octopus potato was brought to The Advertiser office Wednesday by David H. Couke from the farm of his uncle, Thomas Couke, of Embro. The potato, which weighs two and a half pounds, comprises one central tuber with six smaller tubers firmly attached to it, each of these satellites being average sized spuds.

A notable feature of the curiosity is the large number of eyes possessed by each individual tuber, just as though they had been developed to enable each one to keep a watchful eye on the "futher. A count of the eyes shows that between them the seven spuds possess no less than 35 sprouting eyes.

TRIP OF MEGANTIC RECALLS FORERUNNER THE "GOLDEN AGE"

Wooden Paddle-Wheel Steamer Ran in 1854.

Sydney, May 12.—(The Associated Press).—Departure from here recently of the White Star liner Megantic for Liverpool by way of New Zealand, the Panama Canal, the West Indies and New York, recalls her historic forerunner of 1854.

This vessel, the Golden Age, was a wooden paddle-wheel steamer, belonging to the New York and Australian Steam Navigation Company. The intention of the company was to run six vessels via Panama, the Panama Railroad, capitalized at $7,000,000, being the connecting link on the then undivided isthmus with the West India Royal Mail Steam Packet Company running from Southampton.

The Crimean War, yellow fever on the isthmus and other causes, conspired to defeat the company's plans. The Golden Age was commanded by Lieut. D. D. Porter of the United States navy, who afterwards became famous as a Union admiral during the Civil War.

The Golden Age left Melobrune for Panama, via Sdyney and Tahiti, May 5, 1854. She reached Sydney on May 11 with 300 passengers. Her cargo included a consignment of gold dust, and she reached England in 66 days.

CIVIC TAX EXEMPTION FOR RETURNED MEN PASSES FIRST STAGE

No. 1 Committee Recommends Council Pass Bylaw Sanctioning It.

400 APPLICATIONS

Enforcement of Early Closing Ordinance Subject of Discussion.

Formal procedure to exempt returned soldiers from civic taxation was taken by No. 1 committee of the city council Wednesday afternoon, when it recommended that a bylaw for this purpose be introduced. Under the bylaw soldiers owning and living on property assessed for not more than $3,000 will be exempted from all taxes except local improvement and school.

Many Applications.

City Clerk Baker stated that about four hundred applications for remission had already been compiled. The total amount of taxes remitted would be about $8,000. There were some sixty applications which had not been computed yet. Ald. O. L. Cunningham said that this sum was considerably larger than the amount which returned organizations claimed would be necessary when they asked that a bylaw of this kind be passed.

Penalties attached to the early closing bylaw can be enforced as soon as such a bylaw is in effect, City Clerk Baker informed the committee.

William Tite of the labor representation committee claimed at the last meeting that the penalties were not effective until a year after the bylaw was passed. He urged appeal to the Legislature to make them effective sooner.

Ald. Cunningham said he was not in favor of enforcing such bylaws too strictly, as it might force smaller merchants out of business. Ald. Bridge said that if the bylaws were passed the penalties for non-observance should become effective immediately. He was inclined to think that too much early closing was not a good thing.

Half-Holidays.

"The employees are entitled to half-holidays and so forth," he said, "but it is bad business to close the barber shops and other such establishments. There should be enough men employed to give each one a holiday without closing. Places like that are public utilities just as much as the street railway. The railwaymen get a holiday, but it isn't necessary to shut off the whole service to give it to them."

Land Annexation.

The resolution of the recent labor conference in the city, asking that the land between Springbank and the city in connection with the Springbank car line, be annexed, was filed. The labor representatives claimed that a lower fare on the Springbank line might be obtained in this manner.

City Engineer Brazier pointed out that if the land was annexed it would prevent the city getting further street car mileage in proportion to its size, as this line would then be reckoned as part of the city system. The city would also have to bear the cost of public improvement in the area.

No report was made on the city Gas Company's request for permission to increase rates, so consideration of the proposal was laid over.

MINUS THE CASH TO PAY $500 FINE

James Harcourt Decides On Jail Term.

James Harcourt was fined $500 and costs in police court this morning for having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling. He was arrested on the Grand Trunk station platform on Wednesday night in possession of 17 bottles in a club bag and suitcase.

"I haven't got the money," said the prisoner.

"Then you'll have to stay in jail until you get it," said the court.

COMMITTEE FAVORS JUNE SCHOOL PICNIC

By deciding to recommend that the public school picnic be held on June 4, the first Friday of the month, No. 1 committee of the board of education has added one more prospective joy to juvenile life, for the summer season. The momentous decision was made at a meeting Wednesday afternoon. As soon as it comes before the whole board it will be fully discussed and detailed arrangements made for it will be made. As usual Springbank will be the scene of the festivities.

The committee has also recommended that another male assistant be engaged in the public schools to commence his duties in the fall term. This is the third male assistant engaged this year.

C TUXIS BOYS S AND TRAIL RANGERS E BY Firelighter T

Work is being carried on by the Empress Avenue Trail Rangers for the raising of money to help along the general fund for a camp. The boys are collecting old paper and rubber, which they will sell, pooling the amount raised for the general expenses of the camp.

A firelighter will be appointed in each group for writing up the news of their camp. The appointments will date from the 1st of September.

All Tuxis boys should take an interest in gardening and go out to win the horticultural badge. The conditions under which he must win are given on page 413 of the Tuxis Manual.

"What shall I read?" That is the question a great any boys ask themselves when they have had a quiet evening to spend at home. Every C. S. E. T. boy should ask himself that question. The following list, although rather a long one, gives a wide field for boys of all kinds:

"American Boy's Book on Bugs, Butterflies and Beetles," by Beard; "Flower Guide" and "Bird Guide," by Reed; "Field and Forest Handy Book," by Beard; "At Home in the Water," by Corsan; "Camping and Outing Activities," by Cheley and Baker; "Shelters, Shacks and Shanties," by Beard; "The Boy Craftsman" and "Handicraft for Handy Boys," by Collins; "Harper's Wireless Book" and "Harper's Aircraft Book," by Verrill; "The Cameraman," by Collins; "Captains Courageous," by Kipling; "Treasure Island" and "Kidnapped," by Stevenson; "Tom Sawyer" and "Huckleberry Finn," by Mark Twain; "The Biography of a Grizzly," by Seton; "The Ransom of Red Chief," by O. Henry; "Boy Scouts' Book of Stories"; "Twenty Thousand Leagues" and "Mysterious Island," by Verne; "Around the Fire Stories," by Doyle; "Around the Fire" (stories), by Burr; "The Pennant," by Tomlinson; "Story of David Livingstone," by Golding; "Down to the Sea," by Grenfell; "Boy's Life of Roosevelt," by Hagedorn.

TRANSCONTINENTAL AIR RACE, NEW YORK TO ALASKA, PLANNED

Course Covers Distance of 4,780 Miles For Aerial Marathon.

TO START AT MINEOLA

Date of Hop-Off To Be Fixed Later, Probably Early in Summer.

New York, May 12.—A trancontinental air race from New York to Alaska, in part over Canadian territory, is among the numerous ambitious aeronautic events planned for this year. The course mapped out for this aerial marathon covers a distance of 4,780 miles. In making the arrangements for the race the American Flying Club is co-operating with the training and operations group of the United States army air service.

The aviators, according to tentative plans, will hop off at the Mineola, N. Y., field at a date to be fixed later, probably early in the summer. The course will be over United States territory to Minot, N. D., from which point the flyers will cross into Canada, crossing the provinces of Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia to Fort Egbert, on the Alaskan border. In Alaska the route runs to Circle, Fort Yukon, Fairbanks, by way of Fort Gibbon, and thence to Nulato and Nome, the latter point being the final landing place. Compulsory stops at an average of 150 miles apart will be arranged.

The present year promises to be a banner one in the history of aviation as a sport, both in America and Europe. So far as the United States is concerned, the first event of importance will be the flying field day of the Intercollegiate Flying Association at Mineola Field, May 7. Eleven American colleges and universities will be represented in a varied program of flying feats, concluding with a cross-country flight. The American Flying Club is also arranging for a seaplane race around Long Island early this summer.

In France a flying meet will be held at Juvisy, near Paris, May 22 and 23. The British aircraft exhibition will be held at London in July. In addition the British Government has offered several million pounds as prizes for various airplane sporting events to be held during the year. The Cape-to-Cairo route is being blazed. Between the two points the distance by rail, steamship or ground transport is approximately 8,223 miles. The aerial line is about 5,200 miles.

BURGLARY INSURANCE RATES GO UP SINCE SERVANTS ARE FEW

Employers Wink At Petty Thefts, Says Report.

PRIVILEGED CHARACTERS

Effort To Retain Services Causes Laxity Regarding Stealing in New York.

New York, May 12.—An increase of 25 per cent in burglary insurance rates which has just been put into effect has brought to light the fact that employers, made timid by the shortage of domestic workers, are tolerating thefts from their wardrobes and wine cellars in order to retain the few servants they have "in captivity." Officials of indemnity companies who give this explanation declare that in many cases employers have refused to allow the servants in their households to be questioned about thefts, through fear that they will quit if annoyed.

Emboldened by this situation, dishonest servants are reported to be helping themselves to their employers' effects, such as wine, clothing and jewelry.

"Servants are privileged characters in the homes of the wealthy throughout New York," said the head of one surety company. "In many cases holders of burglary insurance policies have canceled their claims against the company rather than to prosecute a guilty servant, knowing that this would mean ehe loss of his of her services."

One New York lawyer refused to allow his servants to be questioned regarding a $1,000 theft, saying: "Don't go near the house. If the maids suspect you, they will leave."

One investigator reported a case in which a young servant girl had in two weeks disposed of eight cases of champagne and eight cases of whiskey, by holding wine parties in the kitchen for her friends and entertaining them with choice liquors from her employer's private stock. Although the owner knew he could not replace the missing beverages, he refused to prosecute.

AMERICAN WHISKEY OF SHOCK VARIETY SAYS SCOT REPORT

Scottish Officials Puzzled At Composition and Effects.

Greenock, Scotland, May 12.—A report on American rye whiskey now being imported into Scotland has been filed by the chief constable of Greenock, who declares that the liquor is of the "shock" variety. The American tipple is known locally as "snakebite," says the chief constable.

The effects of pre-war whiskey, he says, even when it had not been bonded for three years before being sold at retail, were nothing as compared to the effects of some of the overseas brands.

"Whatever their composition," says the officer, "their effects are terrible. They not only poison, but madden. Their intoxicating effects have passed away."

WAITRESSES STRIKE WHEN ORDERED NOT TO POWDER FACES

Fairmont, W. Va., May 12.—Waitresses of the Watson Hotel here went on strike when the management undertook to interfere with what the girls believe to be "women's rights." The hotel authorities posted in the kitchen a notice forbidding the waitresses to "paint or powder their faces in the dining-room." Although the place was crowded with patrons at the time, the girls quit in a body. "Give us back our paint and we will give the public food," was the strike slogan.

NO STRIKE EXPECTED.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13.—Canvass of the offices of the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroads this morning developed that freight and passengers movement was going on as usual, and so far as was known there had been no attempt on the part of engineers and firemen to walk out. Reports from railroad centres in the Pittsburg district indicated a normal situation.

SASKATCHEWAN TOWN HAS MONSTER DEBT

Humbolt, Sask., May 12.—With a debenture debt of nearly half a million dollars facing a population of 1,500 working out at approximately $350 per head, the town of Humboldt has a long financial hill to climb ahead of it. The waterworks and sewerage scheme, initiated in 1913, in which there is a total capital investment of $156,395, is probably the greatest contributing cause to this condition.

MORE IRISH RAIDS.

London, May 13.—Reports of an unusual number of activities by armed and masked men in various sections of Ireland were in London today.

Income tax offices also were again attacked and many documents were destroyed. A notable instance of such attacks was a raid upon an income tax office in the heart of Belfast.

The reports of the demonstration followed closely the announcement made by Bonar Law in the House of Commons yesterday that Gen. Sir Neville Macready, military commander of Ireland, was inaugurating new plans through which it was expected conditions shortly would be improved.

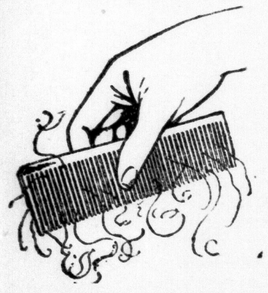

GOOD DIGESTION

To be able to eat what you want and to digest it properly is a priceless blessing. Good digestion is not appreciated until you lose it. Then you cannot afford to experiment, for strong medicines are hard on weak stomachs. If you have indigestion do not be persuaded into believing you can cure yourself by the use of pre-digested foods or so-called stomach tonics. There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every part of the body. It is through the blood that the stomach gets its power to assimilate and digest food, and as the blood goes to every part of the body any improvement in its condition not only results in strengthening the stomach, but every organ in the body. Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to good digestion. If your stomach is weak and you are troubled with sour risings in the throat, a feeling of pressure about the heart, or nausea after eating, try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. So many dyspeptics have been cured by this medicine that every sufferer from stomach trouble should try it. You will soon know the joy of good digestion and enjoy better health in other ways if you give this medicine a fair trial.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Tobacco Habit Dangerous

says Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo; the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Docter Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

MISS B. M'ARTHUR RESIGNS POSITION

Assistant Registrar, Middlesex County, Goes To Essex.

RETURNED SOLDIER

G. W. V. A. Secretary States One Will Be Available For Job.

Miss Bessie McArthur, who for some time past has been on the staff of the Middlesex County registry office, is resigning her position this week on account of her relatives removing to Windsor. Miss McArthur is accepting a similar position to that which she has held here, in the Essex County registry office at Sandwich.

Miss McArthur's appointment to the position here was questioned in the Provincial House recently. Premier Drury promised a reply on the matter when the circumstances had been fully explained to him.

It seems that the returned soldier who was given the position of assistant to Miss Walker quit his job without explanation, and she took steps to secure a successor.

Secretary John Cunliffe of the G. W. V. A. stated this morning that no trouble would be found in securing a veteran for the position made vacant by Miss McArthur's resignation.

OBJECT TO ORGANIST PLAYING IN THEATRE

Leslie H. Roberts Resigns His Position in Adelaide St. Baptist Church.

Opposition on the part of some of the church members to him occupying the dual position of church organist and player in a local theatre orchestra, has resulted in the resignation of Leslie H. Roberts as organist of Adelaide Street Baptist Church. Members of the church declined to discuss the matter beyond saying: "Yes, it's right that Mr. Roberts has resigned."

Not all local churches take such an attitude on such matters, for already another local church, which has the position of organist vacant, has entered into negotiations with Mr. Roberts, and it is regarded as likely that he will accept the new position open.

MICHAEL, MY BOY, WRITE TO ME!

Mayor Little received the following letter today:

"Honorable Sir,—I beg you to have published in the city newspapers the following:

"'My son, Michael H. Bass, age 26, left me in Chicago, Ill., in the year 1911, since which time the last word I had from him was a few weeks after his departure, in the city of Toronto, Canada.

"'My response to this letter was never delivered, and since then his whereabouts have been a mystery.

"'I have lately been informed that he settled down in your city, and it is in feverish hopes that he will read this, that I entreat of you to please have printed in the papers conspicuously the following plea:

"'Michael, my boy, write to me, for God's sake, before it is too late.'

"(Signed). B. BASS."

STRUCK BY MOTOR.—Lloyd Beach, 142 Clarence street, was struck and knocked from his bicycle by an auto at the corner of Waterloo street and Ottaway avenue at 10 o'clock Wednesday night. He was taken to Victoria Hospital, but it was discovered that his injuries were slight.

SPEAKS IN STRATFORD. — Col. Miller of the Salvation Army will address the chamber of commerce and the businessmen of Stratford tonight in that city. The address will be in connection with the self denial campaign in that centre. On Sunday Col. McMillan will address a mass meeting in Chatham.

CARELESS DRIVER.—William Ainsworth, 154 St. Julien street, suffered several lacerations about the scalp and hands when he was struck by an auto while waiting for a Normal car at the corner of Wharncliffe road and Askin street on Wednesday. The driver of the auto apparently did not know that the street car line turned there, for he swung his auto sharply in order to avoid smashing into the stret car. The injured man was taken to his home.

FINE PLAYLET.—"The Rebellion of Mrs. Barclay," staged in the King Street Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening, as the annual play of the young people, proved to be a delightful domestic comedy. It received a great reception at the hands of a large audience. The work of every member of the large cast was exceptionally good, but the comedy of Ella Loot, in the role of Mary Ann O'Connor, the Irish maid, rocked the house with laughter. Those who took part were: S. Campbell, Marshal Wilson, Stella Doan, B. McLeod, Effie Wilson, Mildred Skinner and Etta Staples.

MECHANICS WANTED

Government Employment Bureau Could Place Many of Them.

Skilled mechanics are wanted by dozens of manufacturing establishments in Western Ontario. If you are a skilled mechanic, there is no reason why you shouldn't have one of the best jobs going. In ordinary lines of work, there is not as much of the job-seeking-the-man, although there is enough work to go around, the Ontario Government employment bureau reports.

Six or seven men wer placed on farms yesterday, but it requires real salesmanship to sell a man a job on a farm, the bureau officials declare. There are a great many applications from farmers wanting help, but you have to persuade a man to go to work on a farm, despite the popular assumption that the farmers are getting rich.

Roscoe Finn of the local branch of the department of agriculture says there is a marked scarcity of farm help evident, but it doesn't appear particularly more acute than in other years.

So far no cases have been reported here to parallel a report from Lambton County that one farmer with 1,200 acres of land was only seeding 50 acres because he could not get hired help.

L. & P. S. RY. MEN VOTE UNANIMOUSLY TO STRIKE TONIGHT

Unless Unexpected Developments Occur Today All Employees Except Office Staff Walk Out After Midnight —Refuse To Accept the Award of the Conciliation Board.

All the employees of the London and Port Stanley Railway with the exception of the office staff, will go on strike after midnight tonight. Motormen, conductors, trackmen, linemen, freight handlers and other employees included in the union, numbering altogether ninety or more men, voted unanimously at a meeting held in the east end town hall last night to refuse to accept the award of the conciliation board and to strike as soon as twenty-four hours' notice could be given the public. Accordingly at 12 o'clock tonight the cars will be run to the barn and the men will take a holiday pending further negotiations and offers from the company.

The men stated to The Advertiser last night that they were notifying both the minister of labor at Ottawa and the Hydro Commission in Toronto regarding the situation.

Must Be For All.

While the employees are asking for a general increase of 25 cents an hour all around, it does not necessarily follow that they would refuse to accept a smaller increase, but it must be more than four cents, and it must be forthcoming for the other employees as well as for the motormen and conductors. This is one point on which the men appear to be firmly agreed, that all must share in the increases obtained.

The award of the conciliation board was exactly the same as the commission's offer of the four cents more an hour to motormen and conductors, but no increase was offered the trackmen and other employees who, even members of the railway commission have admitted, were worse off than the motormen and conductors. Intimation had been made by members of the commission that the lower paid men would be offered larger increases than the higher paid men, but this was not provided for in the award of the conciliation board.

Several Conferences.

Demand for higher wages was first made by the employees on December the first, and following several conferences between the commission and employees it was decided to call in the conciliation board, although the men had decided that in no event would they be willing to accept the fourcents-an-hour increase.

The men last night were unanimous for a strike, but felt that reasonable notice was due the traveling public. On this account the men will return to work as usual today, but the line will be tied up tomorrow unless unexpected developments crop up to make possible a further postponement.

No steps were taken today by the commission to meet the men in order to reach a satisfactory agreement or that the strike might be averted during the day, so that there is little possibility of the cars moving the road tonight tonight. No notification had been received by the commission from the men as to their intention to walk out, so that the members could make no announcement in regard to the situation.

It is felt by some of the commission, however, that a meeting will be held with the men at an early date, so that an agreement might be made. They expressed a desire to be fair with the men, and to do what they could to appease them. It was not believed, however, that the company could afford to offer higher wages, as the offer of a cent-an-hour increase was made with a full knowledge of the company's finances. The commission is awaiting the arrival of Sir Adam Beck before any steps are taken.

Sir Adam will not return to London before the calling of the strike. He will leave Ottawa some time today, but has to speak at Bowmanville at a public meeting tonight, and will probably not reach London before Friday night.

Some members of the commission contended that the men, in all fairness, ought to have given 30 days' notice. The commissioners contend that there is a moral obligation that the men should recognize and not take advantage of the road being under municipal control to strike on short notice. For a strike on electric roads under Grand Trunk control, or on the Preston and Hespeler road, for instance, 30 days would be required.

Would Not Quibble.

If the decision had been made against the commission, the directors would not have quibbled over the award, one member said. It was the unanimous decision of the commission, that if the board thought the men should receive higher wages their decision would have been accepted and the commission would have stuck to it for at least a year, even though it would mean a big deficit to the city. The citizens would know then that the members were seeking to do what they believed was right.

The 52 cents an hour, which was offered to the motormen and the conductors by the commission, and which the board agreed to, was as high as any wages paid on any electrical radial east of Port Arthur, he claimed. The working conditions were the best and the splendid equipment lightened the tasks.

The strike will mean a serious loss to the commission, as the road is exceptionally busy at the present time. Considerable coal and steel are being moved over the road from the lake ferry, and this will be at a standstill. As soon as the strike is called notifications will be sent out to all connecting companies. All Wabash, M. C. R. and Pere Marquette freight shipped from this city for connections at St. Thomas will be tied up.

TALK STRIKE AT NIAGARA FALLS.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 12.—A mass meeting of the Hydro-Electric Commission's employees is being held tonight, at which the question of a strike is being discussed. The men have offered to submit their grievances to a board of arbitration, but so far the commission has refused the proposal, claiming that it is not a case for the conciliation board. Dissatisfaction with the boarding-houses owned by the commission has caused 735 men to leave in the last six weeks.

The men's demands are for an increase of 15 cents an hour, and the commission has been offering about half that amount.

NOT CONSIDERED YET BY BOARD

Trustee Langford Speaks On Technical Schools For Basic Industries.

Establishment of provincial technical schools for basic industries, as suggested by Hon. R. H. Grant in a bill brought before the Legislature, has not been considered here, and members of the board of education are not familiar with the proposition.

Trustee A. A. Langford said that he thought provision for this could be made in the present technical schools.

"Most people do not know what a wide range of subjects are taught in the technical schools at present. I think the curriculum could be extended to include training in other industries if thought necessary, without establishing separate schools for the purpose," he said.

ALL HAVE CHANCE TO TENDER ON THE RIDOUT ST. BRIDGE

Ald. Ashton Thinks the Bridge Cannot Be Built Till Next Year.

No. 2 committee's action in calling for competitive plans of a new Ridout street bridge was upheld by Ald. E. R. Seabrook today. He claimed that the city made no engagement with the firm of Engholm & Partners of Toronto, who drew the plans and made the estimates on which a vote was taken in January. Frank Barber, another Toronto engineer, appeared before the city council last year and asked for permission to submit plans also. Ald. Seabrook claims that Mr. Barber was promised he would be given an opportunity.

"It would not be right for us to accept plans from this one firm without giving any others a chance," he said.

Ald. Cunningham stated that an examination of the bridge was made Wednesday by Mr. Barber. He concurred with other engineers in stating that if was unsafe for traffic, the alderman said.

Ald. John Ashton thinks there is a possibility that the bridge will not be built this year. He points out that it will require six weeks to obtain plans under the competitive system, and that another six weeks will elapse before a tender can be accepted. It will then be too late in the year for the work to be commenced.

BOY BURGLARS BUSY IN EAST END OFFICES

Epidemic of Petty Thieving in Vicinity of Adelaide Street and Hamilton Road.

Four or five stores and offices have been broken into within the past few days, but the fact that small articles were taken in every case, and that coal and wood offices and other business premises of comparatively easy means of access have suffered most from the depredations, leads the police to believe the crimes were committed by an organizd band of boy burglars. Practically all the cases are reported from the vicinity of Adelaide street and the Hamilton road.

In the office of the London Union Iron and Metal Company, they carried away stationery, paperweights, pens, pencils, some blank checks and other small articles, including some fancy work that the young lady in charge of the office had forgotten to take nome with her. It was really the most valuable article included in the loot from this office. Entrance to this office was effected by jimmying a side window open.

A flour and feed store was broken into on the Hamilton road, but despite the high price of foodstuffs, none was taken, the intruders preferring to despoil a case of cigars and tobacco, which were also sold in this store.

The office of D. H. Gillies & Son, coal and lumber merchants, was generally turned upside down, but very little of value was stolen. The office of Patterson & Co. has been twice broken into within as many weeks.

GAVE FRIEND ICE CREAM AND BREAD ON SABBATH DAY

Police On the Job, So Leslie Clark Lands in Police Court.

Leslie Clark was charged in police court this morning with allowing goods which had been sold to be carried away from his place of business on Sunday. The police claim that the alleged purchaser was carrying a loaf of bread and a pint of ice cream under his coat when arrested.

The defendant said that he had given the apprehended man some ice cream and a half loaf of bread, because the man, who was his friend, had not any bread left on Sunday.

Adjournment until Saturday was directed. E. W. Scatcherd is appearing for the defence.

HYDRO POWER IS AGAIN REDUCED

Ice At Niagara Falls Causes a Shortage of "Juice."

Regardless of what the power situation may be there will be no ice shortage in the vicinity of Niagara this year. A surplus amount of this cooling commodity is said to be responsible for a general power reduction on the hydro system today. London's allotment was reduced 40 per cent. Reductions locally were not carried on fast enough to suit headquarters, so the entire allowance was cut off for a couple of short intervals just to give a little encouragement by showing how the thing should be done.

As usual the domestic circuits formed the front-line trenches in the defences against the shortage. Electric cooking stoves, curling tongs and other household appliances were made useless through lack of power, but every effort was made to keep the wheels of industry humming. Street cars were reduced to half speed.

Excellent reports were read of the various departments, showing the church to be in a flourishing condition financially. An exceptionally good report of the forward movement canvass was given, showing that almost $2,000 beyond the objective was subscribed.

Following the business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

OFF THE RAILS

VERY FORGETFUL.

Probably the most astonishing thing in the way of human forgetfulness is shown by the many things that are checked in the parcel rooms of the railroads, and then are never claimed. One can hardly believe the large number of parcels, umbrellas, baskets and suitcases that are brought there and then forgotten, according to the local officials.

When a parcel of a bag is not called for within one month it is forwarded to headquarters, where in time it is sold to pay storage charges. A large book, where a description of these stray articles is entered when they are forwarded, is rapidly filling.

It is hard to account for these lapses of memory on the part of travelers, for many apparently valuable things are left. According to the officials it is quite probable that many are more or less under the influence of drink, and if they lose their check they cannot recall where they left their belongings. Often men will come to the rooms and exclaim, "Why there is the grip I have been looking for .I couldn't think where I left it." Of course, there may be other reasons why the articles are not claimed.

GRAIN.

Chicago, May 13.—Efforts which western roads appeared to have begun for the purpose of enlarging the movement of grain to terminals tended today to ease the corn market somewhat. Opening prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to one cent lower, with July, $1 77@1 77¼, and Septmber, $1 63@1 64⅜, were followed by a moderate setback all around.

Oats displayed relative firmness in the absence of any pressure to sell. After opening ⅜c off to ¼c up, including July at 92⅞@93¼c, the market scored a slight general gain.

Winnipeg, May 13.—July oats opened unchanged at $1 08⅜; October ⅛c lower at 87¾c. July barley opened 1c lower at $1 65¼. May flax opened unchanged at $5 12.

PRISONERS CLAMOR FOR DEATH PENALTY

Inmates of the Los Angeles County Jail Hostile To Bluebeard.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 13.—"Bluebeard" James P. Watson, confessed bigamist and murderer of eight of his twenty-five wives, who was sentenced yesterday to spend the rest of his life in San Quentin Penitentiary, will begin his prison term on May 15.

Many women and girls, eager for a glimpse of "Bluebeard," tore their way into the densely-crowded courtroom when the wife-slayer was brought in to be sentenced. Those who could not get in thronged the windows of the jail for a sight of the convicted man.

"Bluebeard" verged on collapse as the penalty was imposed. Because of his weakened condition, he was unable to stand to hear his fate. His face was ashen as he rose from his chair to be led back to the county jail. When he entered his cell, supported by two court attaches, fellow prisoners joined in a hostile uproar because the death penalty had not been imposed. The man, whose record Judge Frank Willis, declared was the "most heinous in the history of crime," lowered his head and sank, trembling to his cell cot.

Names of Victims.

The arch monster received the life sentence in return for the confession of the murder of Nina Lee Deloney, one of the eight wives "Bluebeard" said he murdered. He recently led officers to a lonely spot in Berego Valley where the body, enveloped in a shroud, was unearthed.

The names of three of the murderer's victims have just been revealed. One is Marie Austin of Calgary, Canada. Harvey beat her to death with a rock and threw the body into Lake Coeur d'Alene. Another, Agnes Wilson, was drowned in Lake Washington, Seattle. Eleanor Fraser of Calgary was drowned in Spokane Falls, near Spokane, Wash.

Harvey was first arrested on a charge of bigamy. Shortly afterward he attempted suicide, as he was being taken to San Diego to face another of his victims. Many women have since appeared to tell their stories of marriage and desertion.

How They Line Up on Question of Great Lakes Ship Canal

FOR A JOINT WATERWAY—

Ontario and the western provinces seeking a more direct outlet for Canadian grain and other products.

Fourteen western and middle western states which desire to get their products through direct from Great Lakes to foreign ports. These states are: Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Montana, Colorado, Indiana, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, Idaho, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wyoming. They represent one-third the United States in area, population and wealth, and two-thirds of the United States in iron, corn, wheat and coal reserve.

OPPOSED TO A JOINT WATERWAY—

Port of Montreal, which sees its supremacy as the ocean outlet of the St. Lawrence and Great Lakes threatened by the proposed plan.

Port and State of New York, which support the Erie Canal as building up New York harbor, and which wishes to protect an investment of $150,000,000 in the New York State barge canal.

TAXPAYERS, ATTENTION

The delinquent taxpayer is having a troubled existence at the present time. Federal authorities are on his trail for failure to make income tax returns, and now the city assessment department is getting after those who have failed to make a return for local income taxation. The notices stating that the taxes were due were sent out early in the year. Another letter asking that these be returned immediately is now being sent out.

Attached to the bottom is the pleasing information that "any person who, having been duly required to deliver or furnish any written statement of information, makes default in delivering the statement in writing, shall incur a penalty of $100 and an additional penalty of $10 for each day during which the default continues."

MINISTER CALLED BY BUXTON AND RALEIGH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES

Rev. George Murray, B.A., Served Overseas With Q. U. Hospital.

BLENHEIM, May 12.—At a largely-attended meeting on Monday afternoon the congregations of Buxton and Raleigh extended a unanimous call to the Rev. George Murray, B.A., a recent graduate of Queen's College, Kingston. The stipend offered is $1,500 with manse and glebe with four weeks holidays. Rev. Murray is a very promising minister. He served his country with over three years in France during the war in connection with Queen's University Hospital, which was bombed seventeen times. The Buxton and Raleigh people are looking for an early settlement, as he is most certain to accept the call. Rev. Dr. J. P. Smith of Blenheim, who has acted as interim moderator since the resignation of Rev. Dr. Hay, the former pastor, presided at the meeting.

INCREASE PASTOR'S SALARY.

At a recent meeting of the quarterly official board of the Methodist Church a resolution was carried unanimously increase the salary of the pastor, Rev. A. E. Jones, from $1,450 to $1,600.

The congregation hold their annual congregational meeting on Friday evening, when reports from the organizations of the church will be given, besides an interesting program and lunch.

An interesting illustrated lecture was given in the Methodist Church last evening by Rev. Henry Godfrey of Huffmans. The subject of his lecture was "Labrador and its People." Rev. Godfrey was a minister for a time in this part of Canada and was able to give at first hand some interesting and astounding information in reference to their struggle for existence. He showed a number of views, which added much to the value and interest of the lecture.

FARM WORK PROGRESING.

Farm work has been progressing during the past week at a very rapid rate, and many who were thinking they were almost hopelessly behind now see their way clear to get their seeding done much better than they had anticipated. The cool weather, while not being conducive to growth, has made it comfortable for horses to do more than usual. Corn planting and sugar beet planting is in order, oats and barley having all been completed. A refreshing rain today will help materially the wheat and meadows, which were beginning to show a backward movement as a result of the cold, dry winds.

Carpenters and masons have their full share of work. No less than five new residences are under course of construction here at the present time.

WOOL GRADERS ARE BUSY AT GUELPH

GUELPH, May 12.—First shipment of wool to reach the Winter Fair building in connection with the annual assembling under the auspices of the Ontario Sheep Breeders' Association, arrived today. There was about 19,000 pounds in the consignment, and it is expected that from now on daily shipments will arrive. Messrs. F. Jennings, and J. Thompson, Dominion Government wool graders, arrived in the city this week, and will again grade the wool for the association.

MAY UPSET BYLAW FOR PASTEURIZATION

BRANTFORD, May 12.—Mayor MacBride and M. O. H. Dr. Hutton are at loggerheads over the question of the enforcement of the pasteurization bylaw. The mayor has requested postponement of prosecutions until the next meeting of the council, and the M. O. H. has replied that good faith must be kept with those milk dealers who have already established their plants.

An effort is to be made to upset the bylaw, but in the meantime all dealers will be required to sell only pasteurized or certified milk.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.)

A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury, but care should be exercised to get real delatone.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

GIRLS! USE LEMONS FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try it! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

UNIONISTS BROKE SOLEMN PLEDGE, SAYS M'KENZIE

Had Written Agreement With Liberals To Enact Franchise Act.

BUTTS ATTACKS FIELDING

Fred Pardee Clashes With Guthrie Over "Plugging" Votes.

OTTAWA, May 12.—Again in the House today the franchise bill held the stage. During practically the whole afternoon and evening one clause was under discussion in committee—the clause providing for the preparation of voters' lists. Discussion ranged chiefly around a suggestion by Hon. W. S. Fielding that in Nova Scotia provincial lists would be used. The suggestion was combatted by the solicitor-general. He did not think that Nova Scotia lists would be satisfactory. For one reason, appeals in Nova Scotia went to a sheriff, who generally had no legal training, and was not qualified to give an opinion on a legal point.

A rather prosaic day was interspersed with lively incidents. Early in the sitting R. H. Butts of Cape Breton attacked Hon. W. S. Fielding. When prime minister of Nova Scotia, Mr. Butts declared, Mr. Fielding had disfranchised British subjects. Now Mr. Fielding was leading the cause of the alien. "In '90," shouted Mr. Butts, "you were taken by some freak of fortune into the Laurier cabinet." The chairman intervened, but banging his desk, Mr. Butts demanded an answer. "No," Mr. Butts called out, "don't answer me! If you do, I will drag you across to the library and show you Hansard of the debate." But Mr. Fielding payed no attention to the attack.

Roused Committee.

D. D. McKenzie roused the committee by declaring that when leading the Liberals he had a solemn agreement with the Government that a franchise act would be placed on the statute book. He produced a document and passed it across to the solicitor-general. Mr. Guthrie, reading from the document, argued that Mr. McKenzie had been merely proposing a franchise act to cover by-elections until after next session of parliament.

Later Mr. Guthrie had a sharp clash with Fred Pardee of West Lambton. It was over "plugging" votes.

Mr. Guthrie had remarked that he could not teach Mr. Pardee anything in elections. Mr. Pardee, indignant, wanted to know if an imputation was intended that he had "plugged" votes. There were interchanges of compliments and finally Mr. Guthrie observed that he had meant his remark as a good-humored joke. Mr. Pardee accepted the statement and the incident closed.

Finality In Lists.

Mr. D. D. McKenzie asked when finality in the lists would be reached. Mr. Guthrie replied that unrevised lists would be in the candidates' hands on nomination day and revised lists five days later. Jacques Bureau protested that the biennial revision of lists in Quebec cities would cause a hardship. Mr. Guthrie asked that the clause pass as standing without the schedule, and then a conference be held on the proposals made in regard to the needs of different provinces. In regard to classification of polling districts as city or rural, Mr. Guthrie said the chief electoral officer must be required to state which were rural and which were urban.

After discussion the chairman ruled the schedule was not part of the clause. Mr. Bureau persisted that his amendments would come in the clause on which reconsideration would be necessary. The clause was finally allowed to stand and the House adjourned.

Senate amendments to the maple products act and Government resolutions on industrial alcohol and other schedules are to be taken up on Friday, Hon. C. J. Doherty states.

REGISTRARS WOULD BE PAID CANVASSERS, DUNCAN ROSS CHARGES

OTTAWA, May 12. — Hon. Arthur Meighen secured first reading of a bill which seeks to give municipalities the same rights as hitherto enjoyed by provinces in the matter of regulating employment offices.

When Hon. C. J. Doherty's bill to amend the supreme court act was brought up for second reading, D. D. McKenzie suggested that the interpretations and rulings of the supreme court were the implements of the lawyer's trade, to the use of which they had accustomed themselves only after years of study. Only a genuine necessity for changing the practice of the supreme court would justify interference with the precedence surrounding the practice of that court, which might render useless the textbooks written around the act, and the valuable precedent contained in privy council rulings on supreme court procedure.

Mr. Doherty said that he shared Mr. McKenzie's objection to a modification of the supreme act insofar as the constitution of the court was affected. The object of this bill was quite different.

Simplified Definition.

It simplified the definition of the court's jurisdiction and made uniform the application of supreme court jurisdiction to all classes of a similar character, irrespective of what province these cases originated in. The act had been introduced at the instance of the judges of the supreme court themselves, and contained provisions based on the court's experience.

The bill was reported for committee.

The franchise bill was again taken up in committee. Clauses 44 and 45 carried with slight amendments, and the House passed to clause 32, dealing with the provincial lists where such were not more than one year old.

C. G. Power (Quebec South), protested against the provision that lists should be available to anyone on payment of a stated fee to the custodian. He objected to these lists being prepared by the Government and then distributed by the custodian to merchants or liquor dealers who wanted to circularize the district. Hon. Hugh Guthrie could see no reason why these lists should not be available to anyone.

Clause Amended.

On the motion of Mr. Guthrie, however, the clause was amended so as to provide that lists could be obtained by any person applying therefor "for the purposes of this act" on payment of a fee.

Duncan Ross (Middlesex) said that under the act, registrars would be paid canvassers for the Government in power. "If," he said, "we are to have public faith maintained in our representative institutions, we must see that voters' lists are absolutely fair, that they are not prepared in a partisan way."

The preparation should be in judicial hands and not left to the discretion of a partisan officer.

Mr. Ross indicated that he would probably bring in an amendment later to use either the municipal of the provincial lists.

ADDITIONAL TROOPS TO OCCUPY IRELAND, IS UNOFFICIAL WORD

General MacReady, Military Commander, Is Mum About His New Plans.

LONDON, May 12.—Gen. Sir Neville MacReady, military commander of Ireland, has framed new plans, by which he believes better order will be established in Ireland shortly. Mr. Andrew Bonar Law announced in the House of Commons today that the plans had been approved by the cabinet.

The Government leader's statement followed questions regarding the sensational murder of two police constables at Cork last evening, and queries as to whether Gen. MacReady had taken steps to co-ordinate the police and the military forces.

Mr. Bonar Law said that the military commander has already taken most important steps, and at the cabinet meeting yesterday had proposed others, which met with the approval of the Government. What these steps were, Mr. Bonar Law did not say. He declared, however, that the Government would take any action which in its belief would restore decent conditions.

Gen. MacReady is at present in London for consultation with the officials and the newspapers predict important developments. In this connection it is unofficially stated that additional troops are to be sent to Ireland, and that the Government is prepared to give the Irish executive all assistance necessary to suppress lawlessness.

LAND CONFLICTS IN IRELAND ADDING TO PEOPLE'S TROUBLES

Organized "Cattle Drives" Intimidate Some Owners.

DUBLIN, May 4.—(Associated Press)—Conflicts over land, attended by organized "cattle drives," to intimidate land owners and compel them to sell, have been added lately to Ireland's other troubles. The disturbances are a revival of conditions which prevailed 30 or more years ago, when farmers and graziers were forced by similar methods to sell their land holdings.

The malcontents complain that most of the good land in the south and west of Ireland is being used for grazing purposes, and that they are unable to purchase it. Consequently they have resorted to the "cattle drives" and threats of bodily harm to the owners. It is very difficult to police all the country, and many of the drives have resulted in three or four farmers losing all their cattle at one swoop.

The intimidators are represented as renters, who are demanding longer leases of land, small owners and a certain number of holders of comparatively large tracts who believe their neighbors' land used for grazing is more suitable for tillage than the ground they are trying to cultivate.

"It's the same story again of the eighties," said a former south of Ireland land holder. "They forced us to cut up our large holdings then by use of the same methods now employed."

The land troubled shonid not be confused with crimes resulting from the political unrest. It is separate and distinct and shows evidence of being on the increase.

YOUTHFUL BURGLAR GETS THREE YEARS

Stanley Iddenden Severely Dealt With by Magistrate At Sarnia.

SARNIA, May 12. — The hand car burgiars, a trio of youths, arrested in Wyoming a month ago, were sentenced by Magistrate Gorman, who gave Stanley Iddenden a term of three years in Kingston. Harry Miller and Llewelyn Appleton were given an indeterminate period in the Ontario Reformatory of not less than one year and not more than two years, less one day.

Iddenden's extra year in Kingston was the result of his leading in a plot to break jail here, which was frustrated by the prompt action of the jail officials after the trio had broken up all the cell furniture. The young men, prior to their arrival in Sarnia, came from Toronto, Winnipeg and London.

CALLS MORRISON RASPUTIN BEHIND DRURY CABINET

R. R. Hall Condemns U. F. O. Secretary For Writing Letters.

MOVE TO DEFEAT BILL

Says "Dictator" Would Cause Overthrow of Present Government.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, May 12.—Condemning J. J. Morrison, United Farmers of Ontario secretary, as the "Rasputin" behind the Drury Government, R. R. Hall, Liberal member for Parry Sound, arose in his seat in the Legislature today and demanded that the Government take steps to "suppress" the letter-writing activities of that gentleman.

"For the last several days," declared the fiery northerner, "I have been receiving letters asking that I should vote in a certain direction that I should vote against the honorable premier's bill and against the Government. It seems to me a very high-handed proceeding. It seems to me there is something wrong somewhere, and after making inquiries I find that this thing emanates from one man. The key to the whole thing will be found in the Farmers' Sun in the last issue where we find a letter over the signature of one J. J. Morrison."

Read Circular Letter.

Mr. Hall proceeded to read a circular letter which he had received from the U. F. O. secretary, which concluded: "We hope and pray you will do your best to defeat the bill," referring to Bill 151 regarding superannuation allowance for civil servants."

"I have no desire to defeat this bill," he continued. "I have spoken in favor of it, and I am not going to retract, but there is something behind it that is important to the Government. It is a matter of government in or government out.

"Here are men who say the present Government is their government; that they elected the gentlemen to the positions which they now fill, and here we have a man behind the throne, the 'Rasputin' of the farmers' union, a man who assumes the role of dictator; a man who is not satisfied to dictate to his own class, but who undertakes to dictate to those who are not of his class, and also to dictate to those who are farmers and who are now in the pay of somebody else to obtain a livelihood. I farm for my living, and I am not going to permit J. J. Morrison to think for me.

"The bearing of this conduct on the Government is very serious matter for the province at large as well as for the Government. If the people responsible for this thing would think for one moment what it means these letters would never have been issued. It means that this bill, which they hope and actually pray I will have commonsense enough to oppose and to vote against, will be lost; it means the defeat of the Government if there are enough of us here to pronounce on the bill in that direction. It would be tantamount to a vote of want of confidence, and no self-respecting government could remain in their seats. It would have to go back to the country, and the country would be put to the turmoil and expense of a new election."

"I think," he concluded, "it is up to the Government to do something to suppress this kind of thing. It is worse than newspaper talk. I hope somebody will teach this man a little commonsense if he has not it."

NAVY LEAGUE WOULD SPEND $25,000,000 ANNUALLY ON NAVY

Resolution Also Favors Coast Fleet Units At $25,000,000 Each.

TORONTO, May 12.—Declaring that nobody wanted war, but that provision for war must be made, and that a strong merchant marine, a strong navy and a strong naval policy for Canada were essential, Hon. Dr. H. J. Cody, former minister of education for Ontario, in addressing a convention of delegates to the Navy League of Canada, Ontario branch, here this afternoon, urged the importance of training boys to man the merchant marine, which was vital to commerce, he said, and which became an internal part of the navy in time of war.

"To us sea power is the very breath of our political and national existence," Dr. Cody said.

President Aemilius Jarvis, in his annual report, scored the Dominion Government for its failure to acquaint the people of Canada with the retails of Admiral Jellicoe's four alternative naval schemes which were presented to the Government some time ago.

A resolution was passed calling for the adoption of the Jellicoe scheme of having a fleet unit on each coast, to cost $25,000,000, also a resolution calling for the acceptance of the scheme outlined by Admiral Jellicoe, which entail an annual expenditure of $25,000,000.

Aemilius Jarvis was re-elected president of the Ontario branch. Mrs. Harry Burkholder of Hamilton was elected vice-president.

STRATFORD MAN IS FATALLY INJURED

William Rockey Struck in the Abdomen by a Piece of Steel.

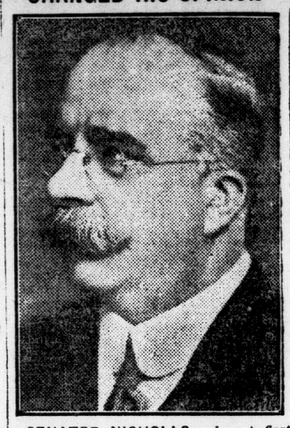

STRATFORD, May 12.—Following injuries sustained while working in the Stratford chair plant, William Rockey died in the general hospital. He was working a sticker machine when a piece of steel struck him on the abdomen, causing severe internal injuries. He was born in Devonshire, England, 31 years ago, and was a British reservist, and saw five years service. His wife and one child survive.

Stratford will have a fire prevention and clean-up campaign during the week of May 24, the board of works has decided. The request of the chamber of commerce that waste paper containers be placed in the street, will be acted upon. A petition against the paving of Erie street is likely to cause the holding up of the work.

WERE FINED $600 EACH.

STRATFORD, May 12.—W. J. Flanigan and Fred W. Sayers were each fined $600 and costs in police court today for failing to make returns of their 1918 income to the Government. They were notified three times. A similar charge was laid against D. Townsend, but it was not proved, as the registered notice went to his son in Toronto, according to postoffice reports.

U. S. GOVT. CAMPAIGN TO DEPORT RADICALS LIKELY TO COLLAPSE

Secretary of Labor Wilson Gives Communist Labor Party Clean Bill.

DEPORTATION GROUNDS

Membership in Party Held To Be Insufficient Reason For Exile.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The Government's campaign to deport alien radicals and stamp out bolshevism in the United States stands in danger of complete collapse as the result of the action of William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, in giving the Communist Labor party a clean bill of health.

Ruling in the test case of Carl Miller, a German, who had affiliated himself with the Communist Labor group, Secretary Wilson held that membership in the organization did not constitute grounds for deportation under the provisions of the act of October 16, 1918. It was the opinion of the secretary of labor, whose word is final in deportation cases, that the Communist Labor party differed from the Communist party of America, which he outlawed last December, in the matter of tactics. While both subscribed to the principles of the thir dinternationale of Moscow, Mr. Wilson averred, the communist laborites were not pledged to force and violence, as were the members of the Communist party of America.

Given Out by Post.

The ruling, although signed by Secretary Wilson, was made public in the form of a memorandum to the commissioner of immigration from Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of labor, whose administration of the department during Secretary Wilson's recent illness has been the object of attack by officials of the department of justice and investigation by a congressional committee, looking to Mr. Post's impeachment.

The direct result of the ruling will be to cancel deportation warrants from more than 160 members of the Communist Labor party arrested in the December raids, and the calling off by the department of justice of a roundup of other members of the organization scheduled by the department agents for the near future.

Officials of the department of justice made no secret of the fact that the decision has dealt the Government's position a heavy blow, from which it cannot recover without additional legislation.

Haven for Reds.

"Every radical, I. W. W., communist or what not," said Ffancis P. Garvan, assistant attorney-general, in charge of the Red investigation, "will now find in the Communist Labor party a haven where he can continue agitation without abandoning one of his theories or purposes."

Mr. Garvan, who was unable to say just what the next step of the department of justice would be, asserted flatly that the law enforcement division of the Government could not easily follow Secretary Wilson in the distinction he had drawn between the two communist groups.

"Both subscribe to the principles of the third internationals, which advocate world-wide revolution of the proletariat, the use of force and violence. To subscribe to these principles is enough in either case, for no real distinction can be made between principles and tactics where the third internationale is concerned.

Case Falls Flat.

"Because of the interpretation placed upon the deportation law by the head of the department of labor, the case of the department of justice against the members of the Communist Labor party and other communists, as well, has fallen flat."

Swinburne Hale, former captain in the army intelligence service, and counsel for the Communist Labor party, was at the department of labor to receive the decision, and announced that he was seriously considering the advisability of asking Secretary Wilson for a rehearsing in the case of the Communist party of America, which he also represents. Mr. Hale quite frankly said he could see no difference between the two parties.

THE PLAGUE OF PIMPLES

Body Covered With Them.

The primary cause of pimples arises from the blood not being in a good condition. When the blood becomes impure you will find that pimples will break out all over the body, but more particularly on the forehead, nose and chin, and although they are not a dangerous trouble they are very unsightly. What you need when pimples or boils break out is a real good blood purifying medicine such as Burdock Blood Bitters.

This preparation has been on the market for over 40 years and is the most reliable remedy for all troubles arising from a bad condition of the blood. It removes all the impurities from the system, and will leave a clear, healthy skin.

Mr. Emerson G. Goodwin, Cambridge, N. B., writes: "For nearly two years I suffered from boils and pimples on my face and neck, and nearly all of my body was covered with the pimples. I tried most everything, but got no relief. One day a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using three bottles the pimples and boils had all left me and there is no sign of them returning. I can strongly recommend B. B. B. to anyone who is troubled with skin disease."

CARRANZA PARTY LEFT MEXICO CITY ON FRIDAY MORNING

Rebels Entered Same Afternoon Without Bloodshed, Says Report.

MEXICO CITY, May 12.—(Via Dallas, Tex.).—The Carranza Government evacuated Mexico City Friday morning and the advanced forces of the revolutionists, led by Gen. Pablo Gonzales, entered the capital that afternoon. Gen. Obregon followed Sunday morning at the head of 10,000 troops.

The occupation was effected with perfect order and there was no shooting in connection with the change in government.

Carranza's Government officials were forced to abandon the city when they learned that 40,000 revolutionists were marching on the town. Less than ten thousand troops at the capital are reported to have remained loyal to the Carranza Government.

Increases Your Weight, Restores Lost Strength, Prevents Illness

Every day come new converts to that great army of men and women who rejoice in new-found health that came to them through the use of that wonderful blood-renewing preparation called "FERROZONE." Very simple how it acts. All you have to do is take two small chocolate-coated tablets with a sip of water at the close of each meal.

Ferrozone is a marvel. It contains just what thin blood lacks—lots of iron, but mark you, the kind of iron your blood is able to absorb. Ferrozone puts life and vim into the blood. Makes it rich, red and nourishing. Naturally the body is better fed and grows stronger day by day.

Of course digestion must be improved, and probably the stomach will require aid as well. Ferrozone serves the purpose admirably. Those who use it enjoy appetite and digestive powers far beyond the ordinary.

That tired feeling is replaced by the buoyant, joyous sensation of health and vigor. Day by day as your strength increases, you feel new energy surging through your veins, and know that a great tonic of great merit is at work.

No remedy more nourishing or uplifting, no treatment so sure to bring lasting health, good spirits and contentment. Ferrozone contains just what run-down folks need; it cures because it supplies more nutriment than you can get in any other way. 50c per box or six for $2.50 at all dealers, or by mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

BEWARE OF TENDER GUMS

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. HELENE'S MARRIED LIFE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

LXXI.—Alice's Conclusion.

"What's that?" I cried, clutching the arm of Travis Lloyd so vigorously and so unexpectedly that we almost skidded into the ditch. "What is it?"

He righted the wheel with some dexterity, and said:

"It's only a boulder of rock—an old landmark. Don't be frightened."

I felt ashamed of my absurd display of nerves. I relapsed into silence for the rest of the ride.

But thankful was I to see the lights of Anstruther Lodge at last!

As we whisked up the carriage-drive I told myself that though the country-side might have its charms, old London Town was safer, after all.

I hurried into the wide, comfortable hall. There, to my surprise, was Alice, no longer in the wondrous Lucille frock, but in a trim, dark serge dress that looked immensely business-like—therefore unlike its wearer! She had come home to help with her husband's packing.

"Good gracious, Helene, where have you been?" was that lady's greeting, voiced rather snappishly. My interference with her pleasure still evidently rankled.

"Oh, Alice," I faltered, all my poise gone from me, "I—I've had an awful time—"

"So I should think—splashing around the country roads at night! And all alone! Really, Helene, you ought to be more careful!"

Alice's air of righteous condemnation would have struck me as funny at any other time. But I was in no mood for humor.

"I wasn't alone. I was with Mr. Travis Lloyd," I began.

"That's worse and worse," interrupted Alice, still with that absurd air of righteousness on her babyish, petulant little face. Considering her recent romantic session with Tony, I thought the righteousness misplaced. But now was not the time to tell her so.

"I—there was an accident—"

"Good gracious me! Tripped over a tree-trunk, did you? Or fall headlong in a puddle?" Alice was apparently in a nasty mood.

"No. I was shot at," I said brusquely.

Alice gave a small, affected scream. She stared at me as though I were out of my right mind.

"Shot at? Heavens! By whom?"

"By someone who was hiding by the roadside. The bullet whizzed across my shoulders, only scratching me. But see—the trenchcoat is ripped open." I twisted round so that she might note the damage.

"Was Mr. Lloyd with you?" Alice looked really scared.

I told her the whole history, including the weird apparition which had appeared for a moment at the window of the gamekeeper's cottage.

"Oh, Helene," Alice shuddered. "What a ghastly experience to undergo! It would have killed me! But why on earth didn't Travis Lloyd dash out and catch the apparition?"

"The gamekeeper told him that he'd better not. That it wasn't safe for him—"

"But you said it was a woman—" Alice's eyes were opened wide.

"I'm positive it was a woman," I repeated, "a strange, wild, distraught creature, with murder in her eyes."

Alice shivered.

"Ugh, how terrible! Helene, I won't sleep in my bed tonight! Why do we have to live in this benighted spot? And my husband going off tomorrow morning! Oh, it's too cruel—"

She looked ready to burst into tears. I regretted my readiness to recount the tale to Alice. I might have known that she would act this way.

"It's too late to stop your husband going. We've got to make the best of it," I spoke prosaically.

"Helene, we'll go up and stay in town, just as soon as the young St. Aubyns fellow is fit to be moved." Alice's face set in determined lines. She can be very obstinate. "I detest the country, anyway. And this shooting business puts the lid on everything."

At this point her husband came out to the hall. I thought he looked a shade more cheerful than he had at dinner. Alice's return had evidently pleased him.

There and then she recounted the whole tale to him.

"And I don't think you'd better go and leave us," she concluded.

Though the motive of the last remark had been her own personal safety, it must have gratified her husband.

"I wish I could stay, dear—but it's too late now. I can't back out at the eleventh hour." He patted her on the shoulder. "I'll get the best detectives down from Scotland Yard, and we'll soon have this 'Bolshevistic person on the mat! Don't worry!"

"But it wasn't a Bolshevistic person," said Alice, peevishly. "I've my own opinions on the subject." She pursed her lips up in a knowing way.

Her husband looked first at Alice, then at me.

"Well, fire away." He turned to her again.

"You'd better ask Mr. Travis Lloyd," said she. "I'll bet he knows who did the deed. And he won't tell—"

"He won't tell? Why?" repeated her husband, bewildered.

Alice smiled triumphantly.

"Because he daren't!" She spoke slowly and emphatically.

"Alice, what do you mean?"

"Just what I say."

"He—daren't?"

She nodded.

"Helene's assailant was a woman. That's enough for me. I always imagined there was a mystery about this Travis Lloyd—a liason of some sort. Well, now I'm satisfied. It was too bad that poor Helene should be the scapegoat, though!"

Her husband's jaw fell in an astonished way. He evidently has some respect for Alice's conclusions.

"You mean this—this woman—was jealous—of Helene?"

Again she nodded.

"Certainly she was!"

"And so she fired at her? It seems too—too desperate a step—"

Alice smiled at her husband with a little air of superior wisdom.

"Hell holds no fury like a woman scorned!" she quoted.

"But—but Alice," I cut in, "this wasn't like an ordinary woman! She wasn't young—and she looked terrible! Her face was wild, distorted—her hair all matted—and her eyes were glaring as though she were insane—"

"And so she was," said Alice calmly. "I should say that Mr. Travis Lloyd's to blame—that unrequited love had driven the woman crazy!"

How Old Are You By Your Hair?

You may be thirty in years, but if you are bald-headed, grey, or your hair is dry, brittle, scraggly and ugly-looking, people will surely take you to be many years older.

When your hair becomes faded, dry, streaked and scraggly, when it falls out badly and new hair does not grow, the roots should be immediately vitalized and properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage (liquid form) which you can get at all good drug and toilet counters.

It's guaranteed to abolish all dandruff—stop scalp itch and falling hair and promote a new growth or money refunded. It's in great demand by discriminating women because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively and appear much heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, and delicately perfumed—an antiseptic liquid free from dangerous ingredients and guaranteed not to change the natural color of the hair. If you want good-looking hair and plenty of it by all means use Parisian sage—a little attention now helps insure beautiful hair for years to come.

WOMEN BACKING THE SOLDIER BOYS

When the history of the war has been written, the work done by the women at home will impress itself upon this nation as few even now realize. Literally, millions of women left their homes and took up war activities into which women had never before been called, and many more at home devoted long hours at work in knitting and preparing surgical dressings for the boys "over there." Some may have worked at the expense of health and are now suffering from headache, backache, dragging-down pains or some derangement. It should be remembered that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for more than forty years has been restoring such women to health and strength, and is now recognized as a standard remedy.

KINCARDINE YOUTHS SENT TO BURWASH ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Younger Brother Also Admits He Was Carrying Loaded Revolver.

GODERICH, May 12.—William Bell and Ivan Bell of Kincardine, aged 19 and 22 years, appeared before Judge Dickson this afternoon on three charges of housebreaking and theft. William Bell was also charged with carrying a loaded revolver when the two young men were arrested in a hotel in Brucefield a week ago for breaking into and stealing from the houses of Harry Chesneys and William Logan, also with breaking into a schoolhouse in Stanley Township.

When arraigned today they pleaded guilty to all charges, and counsel for the crown in moving for the sentence of the court, produced a record of the boys, showing they had been in police court in Stratford a number of times on simiiar charges.

Judge Dickson sentenced them to six months and not more than two years less a day at Burwash farm on each of the charges, to run concurrently. He also sentenced William Bell on the charge of carrying a loaded revolver to six months and not more than two years less a day at Burwash farm, this also to run concurrently.

WIRELESS EXPERTS PUZZLED AT SILENCE OF MOSCOW STATION

English Newspapers Fear That Polish Successes May Have Caused Trouble.

LONDON, May 13.—At 2.28 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Bolshevik wireless station at Moscow suddenly stopped sending in the middle of a sentence, and since then has been silent.

Wireless experts in all the stations of Europe are puzzled over this fact, according to a representative of the Marconi Company in an interview with the Daily Mail.

"They are all asking one another if they are able to explain the situation," says the Daily Mail. "Something unusual has happened. The Moscow wireless was busy with all kinds of messages. It operated ceaselessly throughout the revolution and during the Bolshevik regime, and apparently being a most efficient station likely would have had an emergency installation which could have been operated in case of need. But the fact that no emergency installation had been used suggests that the interruption is due to some extraordinary cause."

The Daily Mail, in speculating on the explanation of the silence of the wireless, refers to the report received from Moscow Tuesday saying there had been a series of explosions in the military depot near the radio station and aerodrome last Sunday, but asserting that the radio station escaped damage.

The newspaper refers also to recent arrests of leaders of the Russian Co-operative Societies by the Bolsheviki, against whom the Co-operative Unions apparently were hostile, sympathizing with Gen. Denekine, and Gen. Yudenitch.

The Daily Mail suggests also that the Polish and Ukrainian successes may have given the Co-operative Societies and other enemies of the Soviet Government an opportunity to attack the Bolsheviki.

RUSH FOR INCOME TAX FORMS IN BORDER CITIES

Result of Recent $600 Fines Imposed For Neglect of Duty.

WINDSOR, May 12.—As the result of the imposition of a series of $600 fines, the maximum permitted by law, for failure to render income tax returns, and with still other charges pending in the various courts of the border cities, Windsor postoffice was again besieged today with applicants for forms to be filled out in compliance with Dominion regulations.

Mayor Donnelly of Sandwich today appeared in Sandwich police court in defence of his son, charged with failure to fill out necessary blanks, while Clarence Trumble, proprietor of the Chappell House, a roadhouse at Sandwich, was among those who were fined $600.

WILL REPLACE WOODEN BRIDGE WITH STEEL AND CONCRETE STRUCTURE

Wingham Youths To Appear Before Magistrate Gourman For Examination.

WINGHAM, May 12.—At a special meeting of the council it was decided to replace the wooden bridge which was carried away with the dam on Monday with a steel and concrete structure. The county road and bridge engineer is expected here today to look over the ground and advise the council on the necessary work and its cost.

The washout of the dam lowered the water in the upper reaches of the river so suddenly that many parts of the river bed, now dry land, are covered with rotting fish and other refuse, the smell from which is very unpleasant.

Several local youths have been ordered to appear before Magistrate W. H. Gourney in respect to the robbery at the house of Galvin Wilson, of which they are believed to have some knowledge. The house had been left vacant following the death of Mrs. Wilson a few months ago and when visited recently it was found that entry had been made and a number of valuable rings are alleged to be missing.

DUBLIN VOLUNTEERS ATTENDED FUNERAL OF HUNGER-STRIKE VICTIM

DUBLIN, May 12.—The funeral of Francis Gleeson, who died after an operation for appendicitis following upon the Mountjoy hunger strike, was made the occasion of a great Sinn Fein demonstration this afternoon. A procession of volunteers in military formation marched three miles through the principal streets to Glashevin Cemetery, where the body was buried in the Republican Circle.

CHINAMAN ALLEGED TO HAVE ACTED AS FENCE FOR BORDER CITY CROOKS

WINDSOR, May 12.—Half a dozen Detroit and Windsor merchants identified goods found in the basement of the Dominion Cafe by police officers of the two cities, when charges of receiving stolen goods were preferred against Charlie Lee, a local Chinaman, were heard in Windsor police court today. Lee is alleged to have been operating a "fence" for crooks. His activities had been under close surveillance for some time. He was remanded for another week.

DEATH OF MRS. J. E. SCOTT.

INGERSOLL, May 12. — Word was received today by B. L. Scott, announcing the death at Salem, Oregon, of his brother's wife, Mrs. J. E. Scott. Deceased, who was 60 years of age, was formerly Miss Grace Trick, and was widely known here. Besides the husband she is survived by three children.

J. H. GUNDY of Toronto, who is now on his way to England, is said to be the representative of Canada at the financial conference of the allied nations at Brussels.

REVEALS STARTLING CONDITIONS IN TIMBER LIMITS OF ONTARIO

Judges Bare Awful Irregularities Allowed Under Tory Government.

SUDBURY, May 12.—"A loose, slack system" was John McGaw's characterization of the manner in which logs were scaled on the Mississauga reserve, when testifying today before Justices Riddell and Latchford, the commission investigating the returns made to the Government from the interior limits in the north.

Mr. McGaw is an employee in the Crown Timber office of Sudbury, and he made the somewhat startling statement today that so far as he knew there had been no check on the scalers on the Mississauga reserve and sometimes he had imagined that the scale showed a small average for the number of logs that must have been cut. As all the returns made to the Government as to the number of logs cut on the Crown reserves were "based on the scalers' scales, not on Government books or anything else," witness McGaw expressed the view that there should be more supervision over the scalers.

John Spavin, who said he had acted as culler and camp clerk at the same time for the Spanish River Lumber Company, told the commission that he had been instructed by Mr. Hunt, the company's head bookkeeper, to make a reduction from the log-makers' returns, and he had reduced them from five to eight per cent. In his capacity as clerk he had entered the lower figures in the shanty book.

A feature of the morning session was the testimony of Stonewall J. Hawkins, crown timber agent at Webbwood.

Hawkins said he had always understood that when a man signed his name to an affidavit that this was all that was necessary. He had not thought an oath on the Bible necessary, he said.

MANY TURKEYS LOST DURING THE WINTER, MAY MEAN SHORTAGE

CLANDEBOYE, March 12.—The fall wheat is looking good. Though the first part of the seeding was done under discouraging conditions of cold and wet, most of the spring crop has been put in with the ground in splendid shape and weather perfect. The acreage compares favorably with that of other years.

Economical feeding was the rule all winter, but cattle are going on the grass in quite satisfactory condition.

Clover seed is scarce and dear, but a considerable amount is being sown.

Judging from the truckloads of cream cans being distributed among the farmers, butter should be plentiful.

Potatoes are selling at from $4 to $4.50 per bag.

The price of eggs is advancing steadily at local points, indicating smaller supply, also hatching-time. Most farmers reduced their flocks of hens by one-half or more, when grain prices went up. Orders are coming in already from city buyers for eggs for packing.

Reports of losses of turkeys through the winter may mean considerable shortage in the turkey crop this coming fall.

W. E. Williams is still shipping eggs from his flock of purebred Anconas to the hatchery at a considerable advance over local prices. Mr. Williams advocates the keeping of purebred fowl in view of the demand for eggs from the various hatcheries.

M. Laughton has planted over a quarter of an acre with onion seed.

Wm. Abbott reports the bees as having come through the winter in good shape.

The school children are already planning their exhibits for the school fair.

Good fishing in the Sauble River is reported.

Tonsilitis is holding a protracted session in the neighborhood.

SESSIONS OF SYNOD OF HURON CONCLUDED

Bishop Williams Declares It the Best in Many Years.

BRANTFORD, May 12.—Discussion of the divorce court question took up much time of the Synod of Huron today. Appreciation of the splendid service rendered by the treasurer in supervising the finances of the diocese was expressed by Bishop Williams of Huron, and the hope expressed by resolution that he would continue such supervision. Representative laymen declared that they would support the clergy to the limit in meeting the budget calls.

Rev. R. J. Perkins, honorary clergymen's secretary, and Mr. R. T. Davis, honorary lay secretary, were re-elected to these offices. The election of officers was followed by a motor tour of the city.

"Synod a Success."

At the close of the synod at Grace Church tonight Bishop Williams expressed the opinion that this year's session had been the most successful in many years, and pointed out the thoroughness with which business pertaining to the Forward Movement had been dealt with.

Votes of thanks were passed, expressing appreciation for the kindness shown by various church and social organizations of the city which had assisted the synod.

English Only Language.

Rev. E. Appleyard of Woodstock introduced a resolution which passed the synod unanimously, memorializing the Government in regard to bilingualism in Canada and reassuring the stand taken by the synod of last year that English only be the language of instruction in the public schools of the Dominion, with the exception of Quebec, and that all examinations be conducted in English.

WITH NEEDLE FROM SHIRT FACTORY, MAN GETS OUT OF PRISON

Picked Way Through Soft Piece of Steel Over Drain.

RAWLINS, Wyo., May 12.—With a needle obtained in the prison shirt factory as his only tool, Bert Loften has escaped from the state prison here. William Smith, his companion, was captured while trying to scale the prison wall.

Lofton and Smith were confined to the death house cell because of their known desperate character. Lofton found that a soft piece of steel covered a drain. With his great patience and skill, he slowly cut a hole through the steel with the needle. After removing a pipe and a plate they crawled through the hole, picked the lock of a steel door connecting with the main corridor of the prison, scaled the tiers of cells, cut holes through the slate roof and dropped to the ground. In the prison yard, they found a steel bar, which the prisoners bent into a hook, to fasten an improvised rope on the prison wall.

Lofton escaped, but Smith was caught by a guard.

SCIENTISTS URGE EQUALITY OF SEXES

Probers' Findings Support Manual of Mother Church.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Supporting the manual of the mother church and the Christian Science organization as projected by Mary Baker Eddy, the church committee on general welfare, after five minutes' investigation of the denomination's affairs in Boston, made public a majority and minority report here today. The findings aggregate 18,000 words and are said to be "encouraging and constructive."

Among the recommendations are: That no member of the mother church shall receive for official services in excess of an aggregate of $10,000 a year; that there be "closer and more open relationship between officials and members"; that officials of the mother church should discontinue class teaching during their term of office; that "as soon as present conditions will permit, rotation in office and equality of the sexes where permissible, be applied to all the official positions of the mother church."

In the last-named recommendation much would apply to directors, the period of service in a particular office would be limited to five years, and the totality of official services not to exceed ten years.

The majority report was signed by Richard P. Verrall, chairman, New York; Martha W. Wilcox, Kansas City; Jacob S. Shield, Chicago; Henry Deutsch, Minneapolis; Mabel S. Thomson, London, England; and Edward E. Norwood Washington, D. C.

The minority report differs from the majority report primarily on account of the opposition of Edward D. Dickey, secretary, to the findings made public to the membership instead of only to the board of directors. Both majority and minority reports sustain the manual and the recommendations are said to be in conformity with the manual.

AUSTRALIAN TARIFF IS NOT INTENDED TO ENCOURAGE LAZINESS

Manufacturers Must Not Be Slothful, But Hustle.

Sydney, Australia, May 12.—The proposed new Australian tariff is not intended to encourage manufacturers in "slothful ease" or to enable them to operate on any other basis than merit, declared Prime Minister Hughes at a luncheon given here by the Australian Industries Protection League.

"The manufacturers of Australia," he said, "must take advantage of the opportunity which now unfolds itself before them. The Government intends to lay upon the table of the House a tariff bill which has been carefully prepared with the deliberate intention of encouraging effectively the industries of Australia; but I want to tell the manufacturers that they must not think to find a safe and permanent shelter behind that tariff wall.

"You must live on your merits. The manufacturers of Australia must realize, as some have already done, that the bulwarks are imposed by the sparseness of our population. They must build their plants with the fullest intention of competing in the markets of the world. The tariff can set you on the road; but you must walk alone."

CURRIE FOR McGILL.

In accepting the principalship of McGill University General Sir Arthur Currie has a noteworthy precedent in the case of another great general, Robert E. Lee. When the Civil War came to an end in April, 1865, Lee had no other desire than to retire from public life and spend in rest and retirement whatever there might be of years left to him. Yet from the very close of the war positions of trust of one kind and another were pressed upon him for consideration, some of which would have been exceedingly lucrative. He said in response: "I am grateful, but I have a self-imposed task which I must accomplish. I have led the young men of the South in battle; I have seen many of them die on the field; I shall devote my remaining energies to training young men to do their duty in life." In that spirit Robert E. Lee accepted the presidency of Washington College. For five years he gave the best that was in him to the institution which today has coupled his name with that of its original founder, and all the qualities he had displayed on the battlefields were displayed with richer and more fruitful effort in the ways of peace.

We may well believe that it is in such a spirit that Gen. Currie has accepted the presidency of McGill. No higher task could be taken up by the leader of Canadian youth in the era of war than their leadership in the better days of peace.

FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.

When Florence Nightingale, as a little girl, rescued her doll from a dog, mended it almost perfectly, and restored it as her favorite in her doll family, she was beginning her wonderful life-work. Flowers that needed particular care were cultivated by her as a child, and a daisy bruised by a passing cart-wheel lifted tenderly to a safe distance from the roadway. Her childish care of wounded animals brought to her father's notice the skill she possessed, and, encouraged by him, she was soon made sensitive to the needs of sick and poor people of her neighborhood. From these humble beginnings she developed into the wonderful woman, who, after over twelve years of travel and study, chose nursing as her life-work, and in the extreme need of the British nation answered their appeal for her services in the military hospitals, during the Crimean war.

It was the first time female nurses were admitted into military hospitals, and Florence Nightingale became the heroine of the war by the skill and efficiency with which she revolutionized the methods and provision for care of the helpless and wounded soldiers, and won the interest and trust of the British people to the extent of gifts of funds and linens, some of the latter even from the royal palace. Broken in health after the war, she used the gift of the people for her services for reformation of hospitals in England, and made nursing the fashion, so that women of education and skill took up the training. Her book, "Notes on Nursing," is spoken of as a classic. Her devotion to her art speaks in her own words: "Nursing is Art, and, if it is to be made an art, requires as exclusive devotion as any painter's or sculptor's work, for what is the having to do with dead canvas or cold marble, compared with having to do with the living body, the temple of God's Spirit?"

It is fitting that the keeping of the centenary of her birth in 1820 should be marked by nations, and that her beauty of character and life, her name and her unselfish and heroic service and gift to the world should live as a sacred memory. The wonderful proficiency and perfection of equipment of our modern hospitals and skill of their management and staffs bear perpetual tribute to the strength and purpose of Florence Nightingale's dream of what the future could bring to suffering humanity.

A GREAT NOVELIST PASSES.

William Dean Howells, for many years foremost of American novelists, has just died at New York in his 83rd year. He was of the school of realists, a master-hand at depicting contemporary life of his country. Howells was for truth above all things. He wrote of men and affairs as they were, but he was never brutal, unwholesome or dirty. For a time he was editor of Harper's Magazine, the dignity of his style and his ideals doing much to win for that fine publication the high position it has long held amongst American periodicals. Howells' fiction was sane, clean and uplifting. He has secured for himself a distinguished place in the literature of the English-speaking peoples. His novels, essays and editorials will live.

BORDEN AND PENSIONS.

An Advertiser correspondent sends the following:

"The Borden Government spent nine months during the last session handing millions of the taxpayers' money to Mackenzie & Mann, while heroic soldiers and their dependents struggled with poverty on the inadequate pensions of the Government. Borden is promising now to commence to take some action. Why did he not take it before?"

The following remarkable excuse for the Government's action was given by Hon. Dr. Reid, speaking on behalf of the Government:

"The reason no pensions bill was submitted this session is that we have not had an opportunity of submitting one. I think every member of this House would agree that we have had most important legislation from the time the prime minister came back in May down to the present moment, legislation that had to go through, legislation that could not wait. The financial bills and the other bills had to go through. There can be no doubt about that. Even the Canadian Northern bill was a bill which had to go through, otherwise there would have been a financial crisis in the country."

Mr. Macdonald: "It is going to make one, anyway."

Mr. Reid: "No, it will not."

Mr. Macdonald: "It will make a worse crisis than if nothing at all had been done."

Mr. Reid: "No, that bill had to go through, and the other bills had to go through, and this session has been kept busy. I believe that in the twenty-six years that I have been here there never has been so much important legislation passed as during the present session."

Mr. MacDonald: "There never was so much bad legislation."

In other words, the question of caring for the dependents of the soldiers was subserved to the question of providing relief for the Government's coterie of financial friends in Toronto.

Since then an indecent attempt has been made to influence the soldiers' vote by the passage of a pre-election order-in-council, providing for certain flat increases, which have no regard for special cases. The matter of adjusting the present inadequate pension provisions will be left for another parliament.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Hearst Government must have been exceedingly popular with the timber limit gentry. The last few years seem to have been a heyday of easy pickings for these friends of the Government.

The Drury Government is not going out of its way to dig up scandals of the late regime, but quite enough is coming to light to show that a rotten administration fell to the ground in the elections of 1919.

WOMAN'S WORK.

[La Presse.]

With very much truthfulness and purpose, Miss Marie J. Gerin-Lajoie reminded a meeting of the St. Jean Baptiste National Federation that the social question interests the women quite as much as the men—that "whether we will or not, we are in the conflict." It is important, then, that Canadian women should be enlightened on their social duties in order that they may be helpful, in their own proper sphere of action, in finding a solution to the numerous, difficult and often agonizing problems which confront legislators, economists, sociologists and others who are seriously engaged in an endeavor to improve the condition of the people of this country. In this work of the reformation of the public conscience, a woman, whether she be wife, mother or maiden, is in a position to accomplish in her own home circle with an efficiency all the greater because, in the normal order of things, it is she who sows in the hearts and minds of those who depend upon and look up to her high ideals and principles which will direct them throughout life. The thirst for pleasure which has taken possession of the world, more particularly since the war—the desire, to live an intense, fast life—threatens to rot the modern woman—and, perhaps, the Canadian woman—of a true idea of her social duty. It is opportune that she should pause and reflect, and then, when she has realized the road she ought to take, to follow it resolutely, determined that she will exercise nobly and in a manner most useful to the race, all her forces and faculties. This is, happily, an appeal that French-Canadian women are still capable of hearing.

WHAT ABOUT THE SYSTEM?

[The Statesman.]

"I shot to save British rule and protect Englishwomen." So says General Dyer, who gave the order to fire into a crowd of civilians at Amritsar, India, and has been ordered to resign. "It was my dirty duty," was the angry comment of Dyer in explaining his order in India to a small squad of troops to fire into a crowd of 5,000 Indian civilians at Amritsar in April, 1919. Dyer's men kill 500 and wounded 1,500 in less than a quarter of an hour. First praised for his action by his chief, then, when after nearly a year's complete suppression of the affair, the world learned of it, reprimanded, investigated and ordered to resign, General Dyer has arrived in London to protest against what he considers being made the scapegoat. "I am a soldier," he said. "It took me thirty seconds to decide that the shooting was necessary to save British rule in Punjab. It has taken the government a year to decide that I did wrong. I shot to save British rule, to preserve India for the British Empire, and protect Englishmen and Englishwomen who lived under my protection. Now I am told to go. Every Englishman I have met in India approved of my act, horrible as it was. What would have happened if I hadn't ordered my men to shoot? My little force would have been swept away like chaff before the wind. Thousands of natives were marching on the city. At the time no one in authority condemned me. On the contrary, I was given command of another operation afterwards, as a result of which I was complimented by the general officer commanding the troops in India. Lord Hunter's commission afterward condemned me," he added bitterly. "I should have been court-martialed, but there never was any suggestion of that."

Sympathy will go out to the scapegoat, but what can be said in defence of a system of government that inculcates such ideas of military duty in officers?

CONCLUSIONS.

[Hamilton Spectator.]

A couple of old-timers were exchanging views on the spirit of unrest that prevails all through this beautiful Canada of ours, and here are a few of their conclusions:

Too many diamonds; not enough alarm clocks to start a ten-hour day's work.

Too many silk shirts, and not enough blue flannel ones.

Too many serge suits; not enough overalls.

Too much decollete, and not enough kitchen aprons.

Too many satin-upholstered motor cars, and too few cows.

Too many consumers, and not enough producers.

Too much oil and blue sky stocks, and so few savings bank accounts.

Too much envy of the results of hard work, and too little desire to emulate it.

Too many desiring short cuts to wealth, and too few willing to pay the price.

Too much of the spirit of "get while the getting is good," and not enough of the old-fashioned Christianity.

Too much discontent and unrest that vents itself in mere complaining, and too little effort to remedy conditions.

Too much class consciousness and too little effort to remedy conditions.

Too much class consciousness and too little common democracy and love of humanity.

From Here and There

BOLSHEVIKI—HOW DO YOU SAY IT?

[Charles Irvin Junkin.]

The village Wise Men, at the store,
Engaged in serious disputation,
Agreed in patriotic zeal,
But differed in pronunciation.

The Old One, oldest of the old,
The ancient known as "Uncle Dickie,"
Spoke first, with great authority:
"They're crazy—them old Bowl-she-vick-kee!"

The Emporium's boss, brand new in town,
And sometimes known as "Bargain Ikey," Who'd lived in foreign parts, declared:
"You got t' vatch dem Boll-she-vie-kee!"

The Veteran's brow was stern and high,
Although his voice was rather squeaky,
But all men nodded when he cried:
"They'd oughter shoot them Bawl-she-vee-kee!"

And I? Oh, I just held my tongue,
Although I rather hate to tell it.
I never tackle words like that—
It's all that I can do to spell it!

NO USE FOR BORDEN.

[Hamilton Times.]

We do not know what success will attend Mr. Rogers's attempt to thus revive the old Tory party, but the attempt at least shows that there is a large section of the Tory party that has no use for Sir Robert Borden's aggregation, and that this will make it all the more difficult for Sir Robert to make a permanent organization out of the present Union Government and party.

OLDEST DRAWINGS IN THE WORLD.

[Montreal Gazette.]

The oldest drawings in the world are believed to have been made about 25,000 years ago by prehistoric man in the caves of the Pyrenees Mountains, says Boys' Life. Some of these pictures show remarkable skill in drawing, suggesting that civilization was comparatively well advanced at this period. From the relics of this period it is believed that these men had a religion of some kind, that they buried their dead, were governed by chiefs, and made instruments of flint. Examples of their paintings and sculpture have been found. As man goes about the earth analyzing and dissecting every object, a great amount of scientific information is being gathered which will some day enable him to solve this great mystery of his early history.

TRYST AT TWILIGHT.

[Clinton Scollard.]

Cool and sweet the twilight falls,
And the hidden wood-thrush calls
With its flute-note from the shadows
At brief intervals.

Tremulous within the West,
Where the sun has gone to rest,
Hangs the love-star, a fire-opal,
Upon evening's breast.

Will she come, where amethyst
Spreads the curtain of the mist,
Down the scented garden pathways
To keep lover's tryst?

See! a fluttering of white,
Where the glow-worm glimmers bright,
Then two arms and lips uplifted,
Bringing me—delight!

THE SADDLER'S BLUNDER.

[Westminster Gazette.]

Bawtry, in the Doncaster district, has had one of the too familiar postoffice outrages. The fact recalls an old Yorkshire saying, which might have been heard years ago in what might now be described as anti-pussyfoot circles: "The saddler of Bawtry was hanged for leaving his ale"! The explanation is simple, and goes back to the old days of execution by the roadside. On the way to the gibbet where Bawtry malefactors expiated their crimes, it was the custom to halt the procession and give the criminal a farewell drink of beer. A saddler, marked for death, contemptuously refused the proffered draught; the journey to the swinging rope was hastened because the man would not stop, and he was promptly hanged. By just as many minutes as he had declined to dally, a breathless horseman arrived with a reprieve!

THE SAME IDEA.

[Hamilton Spectator.]

A bull fight, graced by the presence of the King and Queen of Spain, has just taken place in Madrid for the benefit of the Red Cross. This might be placed in the same category as a gambling scheme designed to raise money for the church.

PERHAPS.

[Ottawa Citizen.]

The League of Nations has been pronounced upon by John Kendrick Bangs, humorist, as a huge joke. He is reported to have dealt with the international situation in an address at the Empire Club in Toronto, one paragraph of which began: "If people would stop talking about fatuous ideals and get down to business and reconstruct and maintain the alliances which up to this time have made the world safe . . ." And so on. The lives of 900,000 British men sacrificed in the European war is evidence, of course, that alliances "up to this time have made the world safe" for John Kendrick Bangs. After this weighty pronouncement at the Empire Club, people like Viscount Grey, Lord Robert Cecil, William Howard Taft and Jan Christian Smuts will doubtless "stop talking about fatuous ideals"—the League of Nations—"and get down to business" as per Bangs.

UNNECESSARY CLOTHES.

[London Daily Mail.]

When we read that in America the high price of men's clothes is being countered by a resort to overalls, we begin to ask ourselves whether we are not habitually an overdressed people. Up to the time of the Norman Conquest, if not later still, men wore only one garment of wool, leather or velvet next to the skin, and from all accounts they were just as healthy as we are.

Then somebody with an eye to business invented the shirt, which was at first worn only by the nobility. The waistcoat followed, and breeches, trousers and overcoat and other superfluous garments quickly succeeded, till we arrived at the present overdressed state, with all the petty ailments that proceed from it.

O TEMPORA! O MORES!

[I. G. M.]

When Grandma danced the minuet, full many a year ago,
The width of her beruffled skirt was twenty yards or so.
Now damsels "shake the shimmy," and find room to twist and dip
In garments not so wide by half as Grandma's pillow-slip.

When Grandma sang to her guitar, full many a year ago,
'Twas "O Fond Dove" or "Nellie Gray," in accents soft and low;
But, to a jazz accompaniment, the songs our daughters choose,
Are such as these: "I'll Say She Does," or "The Hesitation Blues."

Ah, well, it's rather out of date to like the old times best.
Folks have to speed things up a bit or fall behind the rest.
Poor Grandma sighs: "The way folks act is something to deplore!"
(But Grandpa says he only hopes he'll live a few years more.)

SHIPBUILDING ACTIVITY.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

To Lloyd's Register of Shipping we are indebted for some interesting figures relative to the industry. Exclusive of Germany, figures for which country are not yet available, there were under instruction in different countries during the quarter ended the 31st March, 1920, no less than 2,205 vessels, of a gross tonnage of 7,941,950, or an increase over the previous quarter of 67 vessels and 80,587 gross tons. For Britain the number of vessels was 865 and the tonnage 3,394,425, or an increase over the previous quarter of 108 vessels and 400,000 gross tons. In the United States 535 vessels were built during the period, holding a tonnage of 2,537,000, or a decrease of 112 vessels and 393,000 tons. In Canada 77 vessels were built, having a tonnage of 132,623, a decrease of two vessels and 55,752 tons. It will thus be seen that while in Britain there is still an increase in the turn-out of shipping, there is a decrease in both the United States and Canada.

Poetry and Jest

PORTRAIT OF AN OLD LADY.

[Aline Kilmer.]

Early one morning, as I went a-walking,
I met an old lady so stately and tall,
The red of her cheeks gave a quiver of pleasure,
Like the sight of red hollyhocks by a grey wall.

Fragrance of lavender clung to her, telling
Of linen piled high on immaculate shelves;
You could fancy her tending her garden, or strolling
Among the proud roses that grew by themselves.

When I'm sorrowful, dreading the future,
Thinking of days when my hair will be grey,
It cheers me to think of that lovely old lady,
Lavender-haunted and hollyhock-grey.

AN OPTIMISTIC BABY.

[Toronto Telegram.]

Recently a baby was born in Ohio with three well-developed teeth. There is an optimist for you! Coming into this world expecting a lot to eat at present prices.

THAT'S THE TROUBLE.

[Chatham News.]

The average telephone system would be all right provided so many people did not have the fool notion that it should be used for telephoning.

OUR FIRST HOME.

[Edna Mead.]

Four little rooms fast bound by narrow walls,
High set above the city's clamoring run—
Yet no vast palace of the world enthralls
As these four rooms have done.

A scapegrace wind in summer finds the way,
Though heat-dazed streets go staggering below—
On winter morns the ledges hold that gay
Unfrequenter of cities, virgin snow.

Old boards creaked loud in the complaining floor,
When, joy-urged, first we entered this abode,
And I shall keep that creaking evermore
Deep, with glad laughter, in my memory stowed.

The walls were never lovely, yet I press
Them with the consciousness that where my hands
Touch they have heard our secrets; my caress
Is given because their muteness understands.

Four little rooms that guard our dreams from strife,
Far from the mire, and near to sky and sun,
No heaven can wait in any rooms of life
More fair then these have won.

WRONG KIND.

"Got a hacking cough and a headache."

"Well, I've a little wood you could back, and it might cure your head."

"Much obliged, mum; but my 'eadache ain't of the splittin' variety."

IGNORANCE.

[Tyrihans, Christianla.]

"Daddy, who was Hamlet?"

"Aren't you ashamed of such ignorance at your age? Bring me a Bible and I'll soon show you who he was."

LITTLE BOY BLUE.

[Eugene Field.]

The little toy dog is covered with dust,
But sturdy and staunch he stands;
And the little toy soldier is red with rust,
And his musket moulds in his hands.

Time was when the little toy dog was new,
And the soldier was passing fair,
And that was the time when our Little Boy Blue
Kissed them and put them there.

"Now, don't you go till I come," he said,
"And don't you make any noise."
So toddling off to his trundle-bed
He dreamed of the pretty toys.

And as he was dreaming an Angel song
Awakened our Little Boy Blue—
Oh, the years are many, the years are long,
But the little toy friends are true.

Aye, faithful to Little Boy Blue they stand,
Each in the same old place,
Awaiting the touch of a little hand
The smile of a little face.

And they wonder, as waiting these long years through
In the dust of the little chair,
What has become of our Little Boy Blue
Since he kissed them and put them there.

CHANGED TIMES.

"Motoring has changed things."

"Yes, my wife formerly had to have seven dresses to go to one hotel."

"Now how is it?"

"Now she has one dress and we go to seven hotels."

JUST BEFORE.

[Robert Louis Stevenson.]

Though he that, ever kind and true,
Kept stoutly step by step with you,
Your whole long, gusty lifetime through
Be gone a while before,
But now a monument gone before,
Yet doubt not, soon the seasons shall restore
Your friend to you.

He has but turned a corner—still
He pushes on with a right goodwill,
Through fire and marsh, by hedge and hill,
That selfsame, arduous way—
That selfsame, upland, hopeful way,
That you and he, through many a doubtful day,
Attempted still.

He is not dead, this friend—not dead,
But in the path we mortals tread
Got some few trifling steps ahead,
And nearer to the end.
So that you, too, once past the bend,
Shall meet again, as face to face, this friend
You fancy dead.

Push on gally, strong heart! The while
You travel forward mile by mile
He loiters with a backward smile,
Till you can overtake;
And strains his eyes to search his wake,
Or whistling, as he sees you through the break,
Waits on a stile.

RESERVED SEATS.

[London Blighty.]

The Amorous One—Do you ever peep through the keyhole when I am sitting in there with your sister?

Small Brother (with a burst of candor)—Sometimes—when mother ain't there!

BLESSED ARE THEY.

[John Oxenham.]

Blessed are they that have eyes to see.
They shall find God everywhere,
They shall see Him where others see stones.

Blessed are they that have understanding hearts.
To them shall be multiplied kingdoms of delight.

Blessed are they that see visions.
They shall rejoice in the hidden ways of God.

Blessed are the song-ful of soul.
They carry light and joy to shadowed lives.

Blessed are they who rejoice in the power of prayer.
They draw very near to God.

Blessed are they who know the power of Love.
They dwell in God, for God is Love.

When Should the Old Man Retire?

Nearly everyone who has the habit of taking a long vacation once a year knows from experience that it is a bad habit. Doctors find an unseemly lot of work to do right after the annual vacation orgy. The recuperation appears to be too strenuous. The dose is too large. It is better to divide it into twelve or fifty-two small doses. Fifty-two half-holidays a year, if devoted to work or play that is a radical change from the regular vocation, or a week off in each of the four seasons, instead of a month of summer vacation; moderate doses at more frequent intervals are better for the health.

By the time a fellow is 40 he should be fairly decided as to his vocation, if not well launched on it. But he should be no monocule. A man needs a vocation to keep him from going to the dogs. And he needs an avocation to keep him young.

Work hard when you work. Sail in and make the dust fly. Even if you are working for someone else there is an extraordinary amount of satisfaction for yourself, and you never can tell when it may even be noticed by the boss, if you work hard. Loafing on the job is much harder than burning the job up all the time. Work hard when you work. Don't be afraid of that bogey of "overwork." "Overwork" is just a convenient bit of camouflage used to explain misfortunes which are none of the public's business.

If you know how to live, overwork need never worry you. But you must know how to play, as well as you work. There's where a lot of old geezers fall down badly. They get married to their work, and after they've lived with it a few years they find it has them tethered.

Cultivate an avocation which will usurp more and more of your interest and time as the years roll along. Something modest to begin with, something in which there is room to grow, something as foreign as possible to your ordinary pursuits. Oh, there are thousands of fine avocations. Take hold of one before you arrive at the "sot" period of life. Let it encroach insidiously upon your regular occupation. Eventually let it usurp your chief interest, displace you vocation, so that your friends will never know just whether or when you retire. Let your avocation sustain your income or not, as may be necessary, but let it be the means wherewith to forestall that void which comes with sickening abruptness upon him who retires from busy life to a life of idleness.

Theodore Roosevelt set a perfect example in this up to the time of the accident which terminated his glorious career. He balanced politics and statesmanship against literature, hunting against history, and he retained the vigor and courage of youth at sixty.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Johnny, Cough for the Ladies.

I want you to write me everything there is to know about neurasthenia. I want all the facts, with no reservations. Go into details and make it perfectly clear to me. I want to know just how it should be treated, the diet, medicines, baths or other treatments. Write me fully about this.—C. D. M.

Ans.—You remind me of the little boy who had an elephant cough. His mother used to call him in from his play when visitors were present to cough for the ladies.

My dear friend, I should be delighted to give a private song and dance for you if I thought it would do you any good. If I have a mission, it is to suggest health, not disease.

Have a Sex, Have a Sex.

Dr. Brady begs thoughtless correspondents to have a sex. It is sometimes important to know whether a thoughtless correspondent whose name is merely O. G. Whizz. Everyone is either Miss, Mr. or Mrs. O. G. Whizz, and it is useless to try to be neutral.

Eggs and Meat.

Are eggs injurious to the blood if eaten three times a day in place of meat?—R. O. E.

Ans.—Not to the blood particularly. Eggs are meat, to all practical purposes, and three times a day is three or four times too often for any but a muscular worker to take meat. Twice a week is often enough for sedentary adults to take meat. School children or growing children should have meat, eggs, fish or cheese once a day.

On Going to Court.

It may interest you to know that certain articles you have recently printed staved off a bitter lawsuit. The writer had fully determined to bring an action for malpractice against two leading surgeons and an internist with a wide reputation. It was all a misunderstanding, and your explanations made it perfectly clear. You have a knack which one could wish more of your profession might acquire, of explaining things in words a mere layman can understand.—P.

Ans.—Probably four-fifths of all such lawsuits are founded on false premises, either misunderstanding or willful desire to have a fancied revenge. The majority of all malpractice suits are brought for fracture cases—there being a popular notion that if a fractured member is not restored to its pristine beauty and usefulness the doctor must have malreated the case. Eliminate these suits, and fake actions brought by people who simply hope to evade paying the physician's bill, and the courts would enjoy a deserved rest.

For Chapping and Irritation.

What do you recommend for chapping and redness or irritation of the skin?—D.

Ans.—Boric acid, 4 drams; glycerin, 1 ounce; tragacanth (in scales), 80 grains; water, 1 pint. Boil, stirring constantly, until all is dissolved. The result should be a jelly of fluid consistence. Apply some to the skin two or three times a day after bathing and while the skin is still moist. This tends to whiten the skin.

No Substitute for Milk.

Is there any substitute for milk and butter in the diet of a boy 14 and a girl 11 years old? Would a diet of bread, oleo, jam, coffee, meat, fruit and cereal home-cooked for breakfast, fresh vegetables daily, be all right for such children?—West Eleventh.

Ans.—In my opinion there is no substitute for fresh milk and butter in the diet of persons under 25 years of age. The diet you mention is all right, except that butter should be used instead of oleo, each child should have at least one pint of fresh milk every day, and no coffee or tea should be given children under 16. Cocoa may be allowed children over 12 years, though the less cocoa and the more milk the better.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

MURIEL.

The quaintly demure Muriel is one of the oldest and most beloved of English names. Its earliest form, Meriel, is still in common usage abroad. It signifies "myrrh," the precious perfume of early biblical days and a special reverence attaches to the name, since myrrh was one of the gifts brought by the Wise Men to the new-born babe in the manger at Bethlehem.

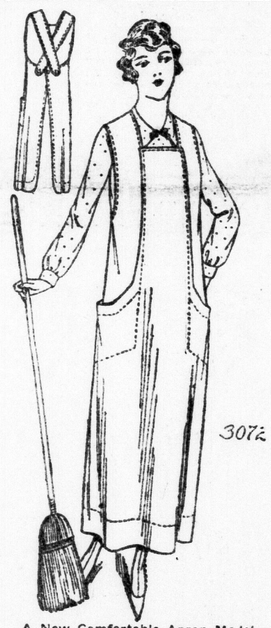

Seldom in the history of etymology has a name preserved its original identity so faithfully as Muriel. It has suffered no change, since Merial was first taken from the Greek word meaning myrrh. Nor did it leave its native heath to undergo transformation by another language. No other country has an equivalent, even America transported it intact.

The moonstone is Muriel's talismanic gem. According to an old legend, it will endow her with the purity and beauty of the moonbeams, which the ancients believed were imprisoned in the stone. It is likewise said to give her the gift of prophetic vision whereby she may read the future. Sunday is her lucky day and 2 her lucky number. The cornflower is her special bloom.

MRS. D. MACARTHUR PRESENTED WITH A SILVER TEA SERVICE

Appreciation of the Military Patients At Byron.

Mrs. Duncan Macarthur (formerly Miss Floy Lawson), was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday when she received a lovely silver afternoon tea service and a silver cake plate from the military patients at the Byron Sanatorium. Mrs. Macarthur before her marriage was in charge of Red Cross work at the Byron Sanatorium, and during her work there she became much interested in helping and entertaining the military men at the sanatorium.

Accompanying the tea service and cake plate was an address in which the men thanked Mrs. Macarthur for her work among them. The address read as follows.

"To Mrs. Macarthur:

"The military patients at the Byron Sanatorium cannot allow this happy occasion to pass without expressing to you their sincere wishes that your future may be one of good luck, prosperity and happiness, and as a slight token of our appreciation of your valuable and loving service you have rendered us, we ask you to accept this afternoon tea service and cake plate. It has been a real pleasure to every man to be allowed to contribute, for all of them fully recognize your good work in connection with those, who through broken health, have been laid aside. We trust this offering of our appreciation will remind you of those to whom you were a constant spirit of cheer.

It is called a yard of kittens, and used to be given as a premium from the Comfort Soap Company. It has an old cat and her seven kittens, and is so cute. Would be willing to pay 25 cents for it (without frame). Will leave address with Miss Grey. MAE.

I see that so many write to your page for help, I decided today that I would write, too. Could you or any of your readers tell me where I could get some patterns for hooked rag mats? Would like awfully well to find out, as I would like to make some after the spring housecleaning is done.

I have long wanted to join your circle, but felt that I should not take up such valuable space. If anyone wishes patterns for tatted edgings I could send a few; also some tatted medallion directions, and in return I would very much appreciate a tatted yoke pattern.

LOVER OF THE FARM.

I want a favor, so I'm coming, as usual, to the Mail-Box full of willing helpers. It's just a crochet pattern I want, of a triangular medallion, and it's on the cover of Old and New Designs by Sophie T. La Croix, Book No. 2. I've tried several times to get the book, but could not, so if any of the readers have it and would sell it, I'd be willing to pay the 25 cents for it, or if anyone would send me the written directions of the medallion or a pattern I would be so glad to get it. I'll not stay, as it's housecleaning time and everyone is busy. Another request. I'm very fond of music, but as I go out very little I don't hear all the later pieces as they come out, so I don't know which ones to buy. So could some one of the music-loving readers tell me the names of some of their favorites. I'm very fond of waltzes, also two-steps or marches, if they are pretty. I would like to get some nice instrumentals, as I am no singer. SERENE.

Could any of the readers supply me with the music of "The Band Played On." I would return it in a couple of days. I have tried to get it at the music stores, but have failed. I am a newcomer, so I do not want to wear out my welcome. LOVE APRIL SHOWERS.

Can anyone tell me how to take the mark of a bad scorch out of a navy blue serge skirt? CORA.

Have You Ever Tried?

Lemon Cheese Curd.—Three eggs, 6 oz. sugar, 3 lemons, ¼ lb. butter (melted). Put the butter in double pan to melt; grate rind of lemons, squeeze juice of two, then add sugar, then eggs (well beaten). Drain, scoop out centres of each to leave a cup. Mix—One cup chopped meat, ham is preferable, 1 cup fine bread crumbs. Melt 2 tablespoons butter, ½ teaspoon salt, and onions that were removed. Refill onion cups with mixture until rounded. Pour 1 cup rich milk over onions. Bake about 25 minutes, basting two or three times with liquid in dish.

Housecleaning and gardening is the order of the day on the farm. This is a good hint to take old wall paper off: Put on a boiler of water on the stove, and leave the lid off, and boil for a couple of hours. The steam dampens the paper, and it comes off easily. I also read in a book not so long ago that a little rosin put in the paste made wall paper stick. I am going to try it in my paste. TIPPERARY MARY.

Comic's Method of Bread-Making.

Good home-made bread makes life's path rosy hued. It is nature's perfect food, and a glory to any housewife that has mastered the art. The greatest comfort in any home, as it is used more than anything else on our tables, gives satisfaction when nothing else will. One never need run short of bread and it cuts the bill in two. The very best of flour is the cheapest, for with good bread little pastry is needed.

The best results are gained from having everything in connection with the setting of the sponge quite warm, and keeping it warm. The warmest corner in the house is none too good for the sponge while rising, for we have the whole week after to enjoy or regret the care for a few short hours of attention. A small board about 12x18 inches is large enough to mould the loaves on and handy too.

Here is Comic's method of making yeast and bread. I often make the yeast two or three days before I need to set bread, but the only object in doing so is that there will be no chance of being caught short. We never know when a neighbor may borrow a loaf, or sandwiches be called for on short notice. But to make the yeast the day or evening before is quite as good.

Yeast—I save the potato water and when the potatoes are taken up for dinner I leave two tablespoonfuls in the pot. After dinner I mix one tablespoonful of flour into the potatoes and add about two cups of the water, stir well and boil it, set off to cool. Then soak one-third Royal yeast cake in one-quarter cup of warm water. When batter is ready beat in the yeast cake (and beat for 5 minutes as though it were whites of eggs), then pour it into a quart jar and put jar into cosy and leave in a warm place to rise, turning sometimes to get even heat. The yeast will rise and then fall; then I put it away where it won't freeze until needed.

To Set the Sponge—Into a small quart measure I put ½ cup of white sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, ½-inch slice of butter or other shortening. Half fill the measure with boiling water and stir to melt it. While cooling, put about five quarts of flour into kneading pan, set it on the stove and stir constantly till quite warm. Place dish on a chair with a hot mat or paper under it. Make a hole in the flour by lifting out some into another dish, and empty measure contents into the hole, put yeast into measure and fill up with warm water, and put into flour also. Knead stiff, put on lid and warmed cozy (and in this cold weather a warmed 'Piser or two under an extra wrap. In half an hour knead again. In three hours, often less, it is ready for the pans. Roll into four loaves, let rise one hour or less (depends on surrounding heat), then bake from 45 to 60 minutes.

Only five hours from start to finish. Just takes 15 minutes to warm flour and set sponge. I have set the sponge any time from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., but chiefly at 10 a.m., and often make six loaves by having the measure full twice. I have tried many methods of making bread, but this recipe is just O. K.

To make brown bread I take out 3 cups of flour and put in 3 cups of bran.

Bran or Graham Biscuits.—Two cups of flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ inch slice of butter or other shortening. Mix coarsely. Add 1 cup of brown sugar, 1 cup of bran or graham flour, or half of each, 2 full teaspoons of baking powder, enough milk (any kind), or even water to make a stiff dough. Roll out, cut any shape, and bake 15 minutes in hot oven. Biscuits always rise best, I think, when the powder or soda is added last.

We never tire of those biscuits. COMIC.

Cosy Corner Chats.

I am taking the pleasure in writing to you. It is my first attempt, although I take a great interest in your Page. I saw Gloma's request in Mail-Box, so I am sending a letter, hoping you will forward it to her. I will try and be some help next time. Excuse writing, Miss Grey, as I am so busy, because I take a hired man's place on a farm. Thanking you very much for your trouble. A BUSY BEE.

Ans.—Letter forwarded to Gloma. Don't work too hard, Busy Bee. Try and have a little play. Folks like you deserve recreation.

I've long been a reader of your Page, and once before got help. Never was the Page better than this year in my estimation. Is it really possible that there may be a Page cot in the new hospital? I'm inclosing 10 cents for S. F. pattern, also little girl's apron pattern for Ever Ready Helper, and a boy's Oliver Twist suit pattern for someone else who asked for it. Would like a few velvet or plush patches to finish a lounge cover if someone has same. NUN.

Ans.—Encouraged by the amounts already contributed through the Mail-Box, we are beginning to dream of a cot named for us in the Children's Hospital. Thank you for your appreciation and patterns which have been forwarded.

I am inclosing money for the wonderful fund, "C. H. F." I do love kiddies, and I am so glad the Pageites don't want to do away with Santa Claus, as it would not seem like Christmas without the dear fellow. I wonder if Captain Charles or Lonely Bachelor would care to correspond with me, providing they have not too many now? If anyone cares to correspond I will send another envelope when they write. I have quite a number of old sheets of music which anyone can have for the asking. OLDTIMER.

Ans.—Pattern you wished will be mailed you in about ten days after receipt of your request.

Just a few words for the first time. Oh, how I enjoy the Mail-Box! That is the first page I turn to read. I will not call long this time, so you will let me come again. Miss Grey, I saw some time ago where one of the correspondents asked for the address of a Women's Exchange in London. If I see this in print, I will have more courage and send you some recipes next time.

CLINTON GRANDMOTHER.

Where has Mere Man gone? I have been watching and waiting for him to write, but he seems to be waiting for some more remarks. A Regular Girl told him the plain truth, I think, and he has turned into a very shy person. Hope he shows his colors soon or his class will be looked at with scorn.

FREDDIE BLOOMERS.

Peewee! Peewee! Peewee!

This is my second letter to your Mail-Box and since I wrote nearly all my feather companions are here. How are all the other birds of the Mail-Box? Won't we all make a great overture now that the fine weather is here! Let us all fly to Little Cripple's dooryard and sing some of our choicest songs to cheer her lonely hours. No doubt, as she lies on her couch by the open window she would welcome these noisy songsters. I hope Ima Tease won't come near to frighten us away with her salt shaker. Maybe Musical Harry would also help us to cheer Lonely. Won't you introduce yourself, Musical Harry?

Please forward the inclosed to Ima Tease, and accept ten cents for the dear wee kiddies. PEEWEE.

In a recent issue of The Advertiser, Elizabeth Ann asked how to make vinegar of a barrel of cider she has in her cellar. I do not wonder, for who wants to risk being found with a barrel of hard cider in their cellar these days? Here is my grandmother's method: If the cider is very strong and bitter add some strained soft water, say 25 per cent. Place the barrel where it will be warm enough to ferment freely and add a quart or so of good yeast. Then wait patiently until it is "sharp." If A Handy Mother will send me her address and the age and sexes of her children, I may be of some help to her. I also have a few months' copies of Every Woman's World, 1920, for anyone who would like them. MARY ELIZA.

Puppy Stories (by Vincent G. Perry)

THE STORY OF PETE.

Part Seven.

Pete Meets With Bad Luck.

It seems that chickens were always getting Pete into trouble. Let us hear how he had bad luck through them this time.

Pete had traveled for nearly a day and a half when he arrived in a village, where Bixo, a bad-natured dog, lived. Now, Pete did not know that Bixo lived in this village, and in fact he did not know that such a dog as Bixo lived anywhere. But Pete did know that dogs should not chase chickens, for was that not what he he had been separated from his mother through.

Bixo, of course, was not a puppy, and knew that he should not chase chickens, but that only made him chase them the more, for he was a bad dog that liked to do bad things. So this day when Pete hove in sight there was Mr. Bixo chasing some beautiful hens.

"Let those hens alone," ordered Pete as he stopped. Now, you will remember that Pete had grown to be a big dog and was much larger than Bixo. Like most bullies Bixo was a coward at heart, and after giving one poor little hen a nasty bite jaunted off. The squawk of the poor hen caused Pete's blood to boil over with anger, and he ran after Bixo. How Bixo did run! Just as Pete was about to catch the bad dog, a man ran out of the house, a gun over his shoulder. He took aim and fired.

There was a burning sensation in one of Pete's legs, and he fell down in a heap. He had been shot in mistake for the dog that had harmed the chickens.

Four Runs in 8th Gives Cockneys Second Victory

Manager Krapp Gets Bouquet and Exile Handed To Him All in Little While—Neitzke's Single Responsible For Starting Ruptions.

Neitzke's three-bagger in the eighth yesterday over at Tecumseh Park started the procession of four runs, which beat the Custers 6—4, and gave Wetzel's outfit the second game of the series with Battle Creek. Up to that time "Rubber" Krapp, besides being on the rubber for his own help, had had the game practically handed to him in the third, along with a bouquet of flowers from admiring Sarnia fans, and with another run added in the fourth stanza, seemed to be well away. After that Lady Luck gave him the frozen stare, ending up with his final banishment from the field when he vociferously gave voice to his disapproval of a decision of Umpire McKee on a called strike.

London gathered two runs in the second inning. Kennedy sent one right at Jewell, which he failed to handle fast enough, and went to second on a bunt; Briger walked and Neitzke's single filled the bases. Shay lifted one to the right garden, scoring two. The crisis was over when Neitzke was out stealing third and Pittenger and Dowling were out on flies.

Carmen pitched a nice game, except in the third, when he passed Jewell, and Kaylor singled. He grooved one for Stupp, whose single scored the rare one. Then Kelly got the one he was looking for and his triple scored Kaylor and Stupp.

Strikeouts were not numerous again yesterday, both teams having their eyes on the ball rather accurately. Carmen allowed six clean ones, while his opposition, Krapp, who apparently will do the saliva-ing for his team this season, was handing out seven.

TILBURY SECURES BALL PLAYER FROM CHATHAM

TILBURY, May 12.—Now that Walter Hull, a crack second baseman and hard hitter, of Chatham, has been secured for the Tilbury aggregation, the battery and infield will present a strong defence against any team in the Essex County League. With Rice in the box and Daigneau and Howell alternating behind the bat, Mather or Underwood on first, Hull on second; Rankin at short and Birchfield at third, the local fans are anticipating fairly airtight baseball by the home team this season. With King, Ouellette, Osborne, Vanavory and a number of other good men for outfield work, Tilbury will start the league season with a team that is at least 1,000 per cent. on paper, faster than the outfit that entered the race for this town last season.

HIS YANKEES LOOKING BETTER

Miller Huggins

Miller Huggins has been pursued by various streaks of bad luck ever since the season opened, but it looks as if he was getting out of the rut now. Ruth is hitting his stride with the bat, and the whole line seems to be getting pepped up.

12 Players Out at First Lacrosse Workout; Practices All This Week

Hopes of Lacrosse Enthusiasts Go Up With an Unexpected Turnout—Ingersoll, Sarnia and London Group Still in Abeyance.

Twelve players were out at the first lacrosse practice held last night over at Tecumseh Park. It was an unexpectedly large turnout for the first one, and as a result, the hopes of the lacrosse enthusiasts have gone up 1,000 per cent.

The field is in fine shape over at the West Side resort, and the outfield gives the players plenty of room without encroaching on the diamond. Last night, Coach Donahue just let the squad ramble all around the field, but in a few nights will begin inistilling some lacrosse into them.

There was a fair sprinkling of juniors among those out last night, and as soon as the game gets going, it is expected that any practice night will give an opportunity for staging games.

Thus far, word from Sarnia and Ingersoll regarding entering a three-team group in the Intermediate O. A. L. A. has not been received, but the local club is getting in touch with both towns. The O. A. L. A. executive is willing to make any adjustment to get the new group.

The practices will be held all this week. Tonight a still larger number of players are expected to turn out, and by the end of the week, there is no doubt but that the game will be going in full swing.

Glints From Mint Diamonds

"Rubber" Krapp didn't miss much of the game when he was motioned outside the park. If there were any knot-holes vacant at that time, all he would have seen was the crowd following him out.

Kuhn, the big first-sacker, looked much better yesterday. He made a nice one-handed catch of Wilcox's sizzler in the third, and was thwacking them a bit. The one he drove at Krapp in the seventh was meant to hurt anyone getting in the way of it.

The London crowd confirmed their suspicion yesterday that Wetzel had gathered around him a real bunch of ball players.

That's two southpaws. Wetzel's got one more to trot out before the fans in Weinke. This boy, lobbing them around the other day in practice, looked to have nice action, and if he is as good as the other two, the crowd can wait while some right-hand twirling is put on for a change.

Neitzke proved yesterday that Tuesdays are not the only days on which he hits well. Looking him over yesterday, we'd say he does fairly well on Wednesdays.

It is likely Belotelle or Grimm will be started tomorrow against the Aces. With this series finished, the fans will have a pretty fair line on what the M.-O. has to offer this year.

Buzz may have had some headaches wondering what he would do with Neitzke, but probably the last two days have helped him out. Crichlow, who is on the bench, is a Texas leaguer, and this cold weather doesn't suit him at all.

Carmen used a wind-up yesterday that ought to be accompanied by the "Old Oaken Bucket." As a change of gait it's good, but otherwise must be tiring.

The Krapp incident in the ninth frame wasn't much, but just served to show the circuit have umpires this year who have the head of the league and the league as a whole back of them. Don't remember seeing a sign of relenting in McKee's face while he digited the Battle Creek manager homeward.

Shag must have assumed that hand-on-hips pose when he connected with that one on the jaw yesterday. Just blow after blow for Shag these days.

Brantford's good start will be popular all over the circuit. The Red Sox weren't figured on as being quite up to the mark, but they went good yesterday.

Soccer Off Sides

A large crowd of fans of the Princess Patricia and Army and Navy Veterans attended the soccer game staged at Carling Heights last Tuesday evening when the teams clashed. However, the Army and Navy Veterans did not have the defence that the Princess Pats had, and therefore they had to take the small end of the score. In the first half of the A.-N. vets were severely handicapped by only having nine men, but in the second half they played the ten men.

In the first half the Pats tried hard to score, but the defence of the Vets kept them from taking the sphere to their goal. The second half found that the Pats were at their game, and after three minutes of play the sphere found a few minutes' rest in the goal of the Vets. They kind of conceived the idea after this, and scored three more, chiefly through the efforts of Lieut. James, Lieut. Allan, Sergt. Balley and Pte. Leigh. Capt. Colquhoun of the Pats saved the game many times through his splendid goal-keeping. "Scotty" McQuire handled the game very satisfactorily.

The Pats will meet the Grand Trunk team on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. The oftener the Wasps play the better they look. Now they have a good combination that should bring them well up in the league, and maybe show some good results in the W. F. A. group.

Jimmy May and Bobby Wallace, the only surviving members of the late 33rd Battalion champion soccer team, will don the glad rags and play against the 2nd Machine Gunners for the Great War Vets on Friday night at Carling Heights.

Another league game will be played on Saturday afternoon at Springbank Park, when either the McClarys or the Grand Army United Vets will meet the Emma Gees. Barney Devlin will be likely to handle the game.

Victoria Day will be kind of gala day in soccer circles. The international game between England and Scotland will be called at 2 p.m. A pick of the league will represent both elevens. This game is looked forward to to be one of the fastest played this year. At 3:45 the Wasps of the Grand Trunks will meet the St. Thomas Rovers in a W. F. A. fixture.

A social evening and a dance will be staged by the league in the near future.

The P. P. C. L. I. lineup for Saturday is: Capt. Colquhoun, goal; Capt. Edgar, back; Sergt. Wright, back; Pte. Thewles, half; Lieut. Allen, half; Pte. Oliver, half; Corp. Woodward, forward; Corp. Armstrong, forward; Sergt. Dalley, forward; Lieut. James, forward; Pte. Lee, forward.

SARNIA BOWLERS HOLD SCOTCH DOUBLES MAY 24

SARNIA, May 12.—A Scotch doubles tournament will be staged at the Sarnia Lawn Bowling greens on Victoria Day, as the opening event of the season.

A large entry list is anticipated from the surrounding clubs of the district, to whom a welcome is extended, as the event is open to all of them. Play will begin at 9:45, Sarnia time. Entries are to be sent to J. W. Whitcombe, secretary.

Knotty Lee's Red Sox Drive in Opening Win in 10th

Kitchener Beavers Split Even With Aces, While Shag's Men Drop Another To Vehicle Men From Flint.

BRANTFORD, May 12.—Brantford won from Bay City here today in the opening game by a score of 3 to 2 in a 10-inning duel between Pitchers Tom Estelle and Riek. Estelle was better supported, the Red Sox playing fine ball in the field. Whaley's hitting for the visitors featured the contest. Three errors and two hits gave Brantford two runs in the fifth, while a hit and two sacrifices evened up the score in the seventh.

Brantford filled the bases in the tenth, with no one out, Stapleton driving in the winning run.

The paid attendance was over 3,000, and the usual frills and ceremonies for opening day were observed. Aldermen Kelly and Simpson, with President Fosse of Bay City officiating. Manager Lee got a bouquet of American Beauties, the occasion being his 43rd birthday.

Shag Got One On Chin; Went Down; Lost Game As Well

HAMILTON, May 12.—The Hamilton Tigers were beaten again today, thus losing both games of the opening series to Flint. The score was 7 to 4, but that wasn't the worst thing that occurred during the afternoon. A free-for-all fight in the fourth inning, started by Manager Shaughnessy of the Tigers and Catcher Johnson of the visitors, proved much more exciting than the game itself. Johnson charged Shaughnessy with interfering during a play on Conley at the plate, and he hit the big Hamilton leader on the chin. Shaughnessy went down with a crash, and the row was on. Almost every player on both teams got mixed up in it, and the bleacherites rushed on the field to help the combatants along. It was fully ten minutes before the police were able to clear the field. A fight at any time is bad business, but with President Maines of the M-O League looking on it was much worse. It was the wretched fielding of the Tigers that accounted for their defeat, the infield contributing no less than seven errors.

Double Plays Help Lefty Rose Out When He Weakened

KITCHENER, May 12.—The Kitchener Beavers split even with Saginaw in the series by winning today's fixture by a score of 5 to 3. Lefty Rose was in the box for the Beavers and was hit quite freely in the late stages of the game, ten hits being gathered off his delivery. He tightened up with men on bases, and several fast double plays helped him out of critical positions. Dodge was hit opportunely by the locals, who also excelled the visitors in base-running. Eckstein carried off the batting honors with three singles. Lipps and Wineburg in the outfield for Saginaw made a number of sensational catches.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd. The score:

LEW TENDLER KNOCKED OUT FRENCH LIGHTWEIGHT

Frenchman Is Completely Outclassed, But Showed Gameness.

JERSEY CITY, May 12.—Lew Tendler of Philadelphia scored a technical knockout over Georges Papin, the French lightweight boxing champion, in the sixth round of a scheduled 12-round bout here tonight.

The Frenchman had been knocked down four times in the fifth round. At the beginning of the sixth round he became the aggressor, raining right and left hand blows to Tendler's head. Suddenly he stopped and dropped in the ring from exhaustion without having been struck by Tendler.

Papin, who is making his first ring appearance in this country, put up a plucky fight and displayed considerable gameness. Honors in the first round were even with Tendler, a left-handed fighter, exercising unusual caution. In the second round, Tendler cut loose, scoring rights and lefts to the Frenchman's head and knocking him through the ropes with one of his blows.

Tendler continued his tactics in the third and fourth rounds, in which he excelled, although Papin gamely assimilated the punishment. In the fifth round Tendler shot a left to the body just over the heart, and the Frenchman dropped for the count of nine. He got up on his feet and was knocked down again with a right-hand blow to the head. He rose on the count of nine, but within a few seconds went down the third time for a count of four. Once more the plucky Frenchman rose to his feet. Tendler immediately began scoring rights and lefts to the head, and Papin again dropped for the count of nine. He got up slowly and the bell saved him from further punishment.

In the sixth round Papin started, forcing the fighting and aimed several rights and lefts to Tendler's head. After a few passes he dropped and the referee counted him out. The "knockout" came after two minutes and thirty seconds of fighting. Papin weighed 135, and Tendler 131 pounds.

Two Englishmen Score Knockouts.

Jack Blumfield, an English lightweight, also scored a technical knockout over Jack Hanlon of Brooklyn. The referee stopped the bout in the fourth round, the Brooklyn pugilist having received a severe beating.

Tommy Noble, an English featherweight, made an excellent showing against Tony de Oro of Panama, who was completely outclassed in all eight rounds. It was the Englishman's first ring appearance in the United States.

Rapidly Vanishing Majority Chills Welcome to Borden On His Arrival in Commons

Much Courteous Studied Desk-Thumping, But None of Old-Time Cheering — Sight of New Progressives' Party Not Pleasant To Premier — Budget Again Postponed Until Tuesday.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, May 12.—Sir Robert Borden is back again. He re-entered the bosom of his party this afternoon, and was received with what may be called a decorous embrace. In other words there was much desk thumping, in which the Opposition courteously took part, but it cannot be said that the hearts of Sir Robert's followers and colleagues thumped in unison. There was none of the cheering which in times gone by has welcomed an absent leader back, none of the spontaneity of acclaim which in other days has rocked the roof. It was a studied effort and not prolonged. The premier received the welcome with a smile, remained in the chamber in a pre-occupied attitude for a little space, talked to a few of his next-door desk mates, crossed the floor and shook Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and other members of the Opposition by the hand, and went out.

Budget On Tuesday.

Afterward it was announced that the budget would not be brought down until Tuesday. This is the fifth or sixth time of postponement.

The prime minister looks well, but there is a strong impression that he will shortly again resort to the south. On his breakfast table this morning when coming up from Montreal he was regaled with an editorial from the Montreal Gazette to the effect that the Conservative revival was the natural and logical consequence of the failure of Union Government to adequately realize the hopes of those who gave it their confidence during the early reconstruction period, in the belief that its administration would meet the requirements of the country.

On another page of the same paper, a former strong supporter of the Government, he read from Ottawa that his followers expected that he would shortly retire outright, and let somebody else take the position in an active capacity.

Welcome Is Chilled.

On his arrival at Ottawa the warmth of the welcome he received was chilled by the Ottawa Journal (traditionally a supporter of his Government), which declared that it had been a mistake for him to have reconsidered his intention of retiring five months ago, which recalled the defeats and defections which had occurred since he went away with the premiership still in his pocket, and which consigned him to Washington, or London, or somewhere where he would be out of the Canadian political limelight.

Such was his welcome back to Canada. In the House it fell to D. D. McKenzie, on the Opposition side, to utter the only spoken words of welcome which he received.

This is his first appearance in the new House. Since he sat in its last his party has lost five by-elections. Five of his ministers have drifted away from the cabinet. A new party with fourteen members has been formed against him. And the once magnificent majority of 72, which he secured in 1917, has dwindled to little more than a score which can be depended upon. A cheerless home-coming indeed.

Go To Washington.

It is rumored that he will shortly go to Washington to become the Canadian minister plenipotentiary there. According to a statement made in the House by Sir George Foster recently, negotiations have been completed with the home authorities for the creation of the new post. That is all that Parliament knows about the job. Parliament will later be called upon to vote the sum of $50,000 to provide for the position, but that is about all Parliament will have to say in the matter.

No particulars have yet been given as to the status of the Canadian representative, though it is rumored that if Sir Robert is chosen he will practically have charge of the embassy. The salary has not yet been stated, though it is rumored that it will be $50,000 a year, with $2,000 a year for expenses. And the premier himself is a very rich man.

Other Aspirants.

There are other aspirants for this well-paid and honorable position. Mr. Speaker Rhodes would dearly like to escape the evil day which awaits him in Northumberland County when next he must face the electors, and betake himself to diplomacy. Hon. N. W. Rowell, president of the privy council, would also like to get away. He has been making a study of Canada's new status for some time past, and would like to illustrate it in a personal capacity at Washington. But if Sir Robert wants the position the ambitions of these two will have to be put aside.

UNLESS COUNCIL OBJECTS, LONDON BILL WILL PASS

Could Still Be Referred Back To Legislature For Amendment.

STRONG CASE REQUIRED

If Council Not Unanimous Against Three Clauses, the Measure To Go Through.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, May 12.—The London City bill is still in that situation where it could be referred back to the committee of the whole House for the amendments suggested by Dr. Stevenson, the member for London. Hon. W. E. Raney told The Advertiser correspondent this evening that this was still possible. Unless London City Council takes a decided stand in favor of Dr. Stevenson's objections, the dropping of the three clauses has few friends. Indeed, the House seems unanimous in letting the bill go as it is unless London city fathers have a unanimous and strong case for throwing out the three clauses.

PROVINCE TO START TECHNICAL SCHOOLS IN BASIC INDUSTRIES

Grant Bill Would Permit Specialized Training Under Commission.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, May 12.—Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, introduced a bill into the Legislature today which will permit the establishment of provincial technical schools, particularly for basic industries. The bill, it is understood, opens the way for the Government to establish such schools by agreement with the industries affected, and the cost will be borne by both the province and the industries. The administration would be under a board or commission composed of representatives of both employees and employers.

The chief industry concerned at present is the textile industry, it is understood. The establishment of such schools of specialties would interfere in no way with the present technical schools. The Government has received numerous requests to start a scheme of this kind.

MENNONITES FAVOR STAYING IN MANITOBA; WOULD MOVE COLONY

Want To Get New Land and Special Privileges.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 12. — The Mennonite situation took a further new turn today, when it was learned that during the past four days despite reports to the contrary, it has become evident that the Mennonites in Manitoba do not wish to leave the province, but would prefer to make a change in the location of their colony from the present well settled district to some more remote portion.

They have asked the Provincial Government, it is said, to go over the map of the province, and if a tract of country could be found where there was no settlement and where settlers would not go because of the rigors of the climate or the poorness of the land, to allow them to take it over with the privileges of education and religion which are denied them in their present location in Southern Manitoba.

The Mennonites, it is declared, possibly have in mind the large tract of country bordering on the Hudson Bay. The Provincial Government, however, has not entertained for a moment any idea of making such concessions.

STRONGLY OPPOSED TO JUMPING PRICE OF NATURAL GAS

Meeting Held At Brantford To Discuss the Situation.

BRANTFORD, May 12.—Only representatives from Woodstock and Ingersoll arrived here today for a conference on the gas situation. The Woodstock and Ingersoll men strongly oppose the proposed increase in the price of gas, but the Government's attitude may effect some change in policy. This attitude is to permit the company to cancel all present contracts and sell its commodity in the highest market.

It is understood the Brantford gas committee is inclined to permit the increase in price rather than have the pipe connections removed and the gas sold to other places. It is said that other municipalities are clamoring for all the gas they can get, even at 85 cents per 1,000 feet.

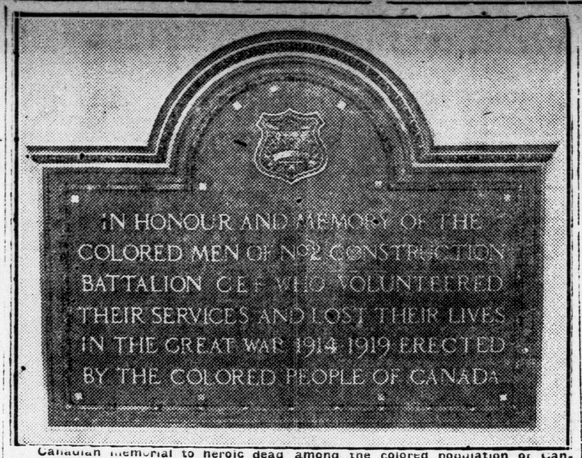

The meeting here today called on Premier Drury not to pass legislation cancelling all contracts with the gas company, and the delegates showed defiance to the company's threat to increase the price. A deputation will be organized to go to Toronto. Commissioner Estlin was also subjected to criticism at the meeting.

NEW STEAMER LINE TOUCHES MONTREAL

MONTREAL, May 12. — A new freight steamer line for this port will be inaugurated next week, when service between Montreal and Antwerp will be commenced by the Red Star line, which is part of the International Mercantile Marine Corporation. The first sailing will be the Western Star, which will leave here about May 22 for Antwerp. It is intended there shall be three sailings a month. All of the ships are from eight to ten thousand tons.

Wandering of Adventurous Bee Saves Life of Robin

CLANDEBOYE, May 12.—Birds and bees are not usually associated with the minds of mere humans as having any interests in common, or indeed, as having any influence on each other's lives, but recently in this vicinity a honey-bee was the means of saving a robin's life.

An Ambitious Bee.

The bee, an ambitious fellow, went adventuring after honey before the weather was warm enough, and as a result got thoroughly chilled and finally found his way to the refuge of a friendly-looking window.

Fortunately for the bee the window belonged to D. Collins, a retired farmer, who used to keep bees and understands them thoroughly. Mr. Collins recognized the visitor as a honey-bee and took it in to warm and feed before returning it to its hive.

Wanted His Own Home.

The robin, busily hunting building material, was attracted by a string used to fasten down the lid of a beehive. Not being able to loosen the string, the bird became flurried, got entangled in the string, and was nearly exhausted when found by Mrs. Collins, when on her kindly errand of restoring the adventurous bee to its hive. Mrs. Collins had considerable difficulty in freeing the robin, but finally let him loose, a happy, though badly frightened and much tired bird.

The Time, the Bee, the Bird.

Since the owner of the bees does not reside near his apiary, but visits the hives at intervals, the robin would, except for the bee's wandering leading him to the window of a good samaritan and the opportune return of him to his hive, have undoubtedly died a victim of his home-making desires.

Bowl Goes Again

TORONTO, May 12.—Some restaurants in this city have returned to the war-time sugar restriction and withdrawn the sugar bowl from free use by their patrons. The Small paper parcel containing about a teaspoonful of sugar has come into circulation again.

Piece of China Went Down With Pie---Gets $300

Beamsville Man Sues For $500 For Injuries From Swallowing Crockery.

HAMILTON, May 12.—James Konkle of Beamsville sued Garnet Wong, proprietor of a restaurant here, for $500 damages. The claim was based on injuries alleged to have been suffered by plaintiff Konkle by swallowing a large piece of china while eating a piece of pie in the defendant's restaurant.

The china, which went down with the pie, according to Konkle's evidence in the court today, when the case was being tried, measured one and one-quarter inches one way, one inch and one-eighth the other way, and was one-sixteenth of an inch thick.

"You must have had a considerable wad of pie in your mouth to have swallowed that," commented the counsel for the defense.

"Well, it wasn't a whole pie," replied the plaintiff.

Konkle was awarded $300 damages.

STREET RAILWAY MAY BOOST SARNIA FARES

Company Claims It Would Cost $11,000 To Grant Wage Increases.

SARNIA, May 12.—In a statement made public tonight officials of the Sarnia street railway stated that it would cost them about $11,000 to increase the wages of their employees, and to this end they would ask the council to allow them to charge 7-cent fares in the Imperial City.

A meeting of all returned soldiers will be held Thursday night in the city hall, when plans in connection with the formation of a soldiers' home will be discussed. A committee will be elected to deal with the trustee board appointed by the War Chest fund, which has $15,000 for this purpose.

ONLY 50 ACRES OUT OF 1,200 SOWN TO CROP

Shortage of Farm Help in Plympton District Blamed by Farmers.

SARNIA, May 12.—Shortage of farm help is keenly felt throughout rural localities. So acute has this become that a largely-decreased acreage sown is the alternative resorted to and grave results are likely to follow.

One prominent Plympton farmer states that in 600 acres of fine farm lands on the right of his farm and 600 to the left, an area of 1,200 acres, only 50 acres in all are sown to crop.

Showers and warm weather are badly needed for crops and grass. Although the present date is the usual grazing date when cattle are turned out for the summer, there is practically no growth, consequently continued feeding of costly fodder must be carried on for some time yet.

Milk consumers in the city were agreeably surprised Monday to find a drop in the price of that commodity to 12 cents per quart, instead of 14 cents, as formerly.

The local bylaw forcing dogs from the streets during the months of May and June in now in effect, and a clearing out of undesirable wanderers is the result while gardens are young. Some of the canine captives make night and day hideous with their prolonged howls of protest.

TWO GIRLS ARE BADLY INJURED IN AUTO SMASH

Car Crashed Into Telephone Pole In Sandwich—Totally Wrecked.

WINDSOR, May 12.—When an automobile driven by Alfred Hewson, Cameron avenue, crashed into a telephone pole at the junction of London and Sandwich streets, Sandwich, early today, two girls riding in the car with Hewson and his companion, were seriously injured and were rushed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital. The car was practically cut in half and wrecked, but the men escaped serious injury, although both were badly shaken up and bruised.

FINED $600 FOR NOT MAKING RETURNS OF THEIR INCOME TAX

Court Figures the Fines At Rate of $100 Per Day.

WOODSTOCK, May 12.—Six hundred dollars and costs was the fine imposed on T. B. Jenkins, a former merchant of this city, and now of Detroit, and Thomas H. Virtue, a Blandford Township farmer, on charges of failing to make their income tax returns for 1918. Harry Sykes and James McHardy, of this city, appeared on similar charges, but offered plausible defences and their cases were adjourned for the time being. Assistant Inspector of Taxation, J. W. Plewes of London district, and L. B. Law, solicitor of the finance department, Ottawa, were present to press the charges.

The magistrate figured the fines at the rate of $100 a day for each day the delinquents were late in making returns. Mr. Plewes stated that it was the intention of the department to check up closely all delinquents.

"The general public is favorable to the income tax as a means of raising revenue, but they object to that happily small minority who evade doing so," said Mr. Plewes.

It is to protect those who do, he stated, that prosecutions are being followed out in all parts.

FISH PLENTIFUL IN LAKE HURON.

SARNIA, May 12.—The fishing in Lake Huron at present is the best it has been for some years and large catches are being reported. This week Gallie Bros. shipped eighty-seven boxes, mostly pickerel, from one haul.

PALE, ANAEMIC CHILDREN NEED VINOL

It Makes Puny, Thin, Ailing Children Strong, Robust and Rosy.

Physicians Recommend It and Druggists Guarantee It.

Rapidly-growing children need a great deal of vitality. They not only grow fast, but play hard and work hard at school and often are tired, thin, pale, worn and listless when they should be strong, robust and rosy.

If mothers could only realize how VINOL will build up strength for thin, pale, delicate, ailing children, create a hearty appetite, sound flesh and muscle tissue, rich, red blood, and make them strong, robust and rosy, they would not rest until they had started their little ones taking it.

It is the medicinal, body-building extractives of fresh cods' livers, aided by beef peptone and tonic iron, three of the oldest and most successful tonics known to medicine, that act so quickly in VINOL, and you know what you are giving your little ones.

If VINOL fails to benefit them, your druggist will return your money.

CURRIE, NEW HEAD OF M'GILL, PRAISES WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

First Speech Since Installation Made At Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 12.—(By the Canadian Press).—The first public speech made by General Sir Arthur Currie, following his installation as principal of McGill University, was made tonight as the guest of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the second annual meeting held in the association's building on Drummond street. Sir Arthur said that he regarded the Young Men's Christian Association as an integral part of the Canadian corps, "just as necessary to their success as any other branch of the service." He added that "in any militia organization we have or in any preparation for the future of the army there must always be a place for an organization like this."

ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT.

MONTREAL, May 12.—At the close of an historic convocation of McGill University Acting Principal F. D. Adams announced on behalf of the board of governors the appointment of General Sir Arthur Currie to the principalship of the university.

Sir Arthur, rising to reply, was greeted with an ovation that lasted several minutes. In a brief speech that carried to every part of the hall, he said that he had already had many McGill men under him for five years during the war. "For the future," he continued, "we have to face unrest, but we need not face it in a spirit of pessimism provided we have the proper regard for the lessons of the war."

He showed the analogy that exists between discipline in the was and discipline in private life with obedience to the dictates of reason and conscience.

PLEASES OTTAWA G. W. V. A.

OTTAWA, May 12.—The Ottawa executive of the Great War Veterans' Association at its meeting tonight passed a resolution noting with pleasure the appointment of General Currie to the principalship of McGill University, and expressing confidence that the general's remarkable power for organization will prove of the utmost benefit to the furtherance of the educational facilities of the university and congratulating the faculty on its foresight in selecting this distinguished Canadian to the eminently responsible position.

(The Turkish peace treaty was delivered to the Turkish plenipotentiaries in Paris yesterday afternoon.)

MEMBERS WANT MORE TIME ON COMPENSATION

Debate On Second Reading of Amendments To Act Is Adjourned.

ROLLO DEFENDS THE BILL

Minister of Labor Says Increases Would Work No Hardship On Employers

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, May 12.—On the plea that the members had not the necessary time for consideration of the bill, the debate on the second reading of the act to amend the workmen's compensation act was adjourned tonight just after Hon. Walter Rollo, minister of labor, had explained and defended the amendments.

Hon. Mr. Rollo sought to show that the proposed increases would work no hardship on the employers. In the first year of the operation of the act the cost for compensation had been $1.64 (estimate), for every $100 of payroll. The next year it went down to $1.27, and continued to go down, until in 1917 it was 98 cents per $100 on the payroll. In 1918 there was a slight increase, and in 1919 it reached $1.22, and yet that was below the cost of the first year to the manufacturer.

Encourage Malingering.

The minister of labor could not agree with the argument put up by manufacturers that the higher rate would encourage malingering by workmen. Workmen, he contended, would rather work for full pay than receive a portion in compensation. He contended that malingering which did exist was not by skilled mechanics. It was the foreign laborer who was the malingerer.

He argued that because of the increased cost of living that the compensation should be higher. He quoted the figures from the report of the workmen's compensation board that in 1913 the average wage of those paid compensation had been $13.27, and in 1919, $24.80. This increase, he contended, was not in proportion to the increased cost of living. Therefore, he argued that 55 per cent compensation was not sufficient.

Would Not Hurt.

The increases would not hurt the manufacturer, the miner, or the builder. Mr. Rollo got into a little trouble with the Opposition when he made a general statement that some manufacturers would rather pay the compensation rate than install safety appliances.

Mr. Dewart said that the statement was unfair, and asked for specific cases. The minister could remember none. He then stated that this had been told him, and he admitted that most manufacturers did do their best. However, he hid not place any more credence in that statement than he did in the statement of manufacturers that malingering would be increased by a higher rate. He thought that Ontario should have the best compensation law, because it was the greatest manufacturing province. There was no intention to make anything retroactive, but they did desire to make the widows' allowances equal.

COUNTY JUDGES TO HEAR CASES UNDER O. T. ACT

Brackin Gets Promise From Raney of Probable Amendment.

PROOF OF INNOCENCE

Dewart and Labor Members Denounce Law As Against British Justice.

TORONTO, May 12.—As a result of a speech by R. L. Brackin, West Kent, in the Legislature this afternoon, it is practically decided that the Ontario temperance act will be amended, so that breaches may be tried by and appeals from convictions heard by county judges. Heretofore, police magistrates have been the only administrators of the Ontario temperance act, and the only tribune of appeal was the Ontario Board of License Commissioners.

The only really contentious clause in the Sandy bill stopping the short circuiting of liquor was that placing the onus of proof on the defendant in court actions, when it came up in committee of the whole today. H. H. Dewart, K. K. Homuth, Labor member for South Waterloo, and M. M. MacBride, Labor member for Brantford, complained that, when existing and proposed temperance legislation places upon defendants the onus of proof that liquor in their possession was legally shipped to them and is not for purposes of resale, it violates the basic principle of British justice.

Mr. Homuth moved for the rejection of the clause, but his motion was lost on a vote. Every farmer member present voted that the clause remain. Labor, with the exception of the two cabinet ministers who were present, voted for the Homuth motion. Liberals and Conservatives split. The bill will come back to committee again, but it is thought that its next appearance will be but a formality, and then it will get third reading.

Before Found Guilty.

Mr. Homuth opened the discussion when he complained that men were being practically convicted of breaking the O. T. A. before they had been found guilty by a court. "The whole onus of proof," he said, "is on the defence, and that is absolutely wrong." The Labor member said he was prepared to cite cases where men, unable to clearly establish their innocence, were convicted on that grounds.

Mr. Dewart expressed himself as in entire sympathy with Mr. Homuth's views.

"I should hate to see this House," said Mr. MacBride of Brantford, "so far depart from the basic principle of British justice as to pass any act which shall say a man is guilty unless he proves himself innocent. Surely to goodness all the agencies of the laws should be able to obtain sufficient evidence to prove a man guilty if he is guilty."

Admits Departure.

The attorney-general defended what he admitted to be somewhat of a departure from the usual principle of justice. The liquor laws of the province, he declared, were the most difficult of all the laws on the statute books to enforce. He started to say he had received no complaints concerning the deviation from the usual course in respect to the liquor laws of the province, but Mr. Dewart interrupted with an expression of disbelief.

"Well," said Hon. Mr. Raney, "of course, every rogue who feels the halter drawing makes complaint. But who has heard of any honest man making complaints?"

Mr. Dewart protested to the attorney-general's inference, and Mr. MacBride, Brantford, was on his feet to say that he had found honest men in the majority in the province. "I evidently have not met as many rogues as the attorney-general," he declared.

"There have been no cases of injustice brought to my attention," insisted Hon. Mr. Raney, to which the member for West Kent retorted, "There would be no use."

Protect Criminals.

"I am so finicky," said the attorney-general, "about these matters, I am inclined to think the law is for the protection of criminals, for it really has been carried too far."

The attorney-general scorned to make reply to Mr. MacBride's query as to whether he would apply the principle of a man proving his own innocence in a murder case.

Mr. Brackin attacked the O. T. A. from a new angle, that of permitting inexperienced and often prejudiced country magistrates to convict with no outlet of appeal. Many of these magistrates, utterly opposed to any man having liquor in his possession, legally or illegally, convicted as soon as it was admitted that the defendant had liquor in his cellar.

"In nine out of ten cases," he declared, "it is personal prejudice with these magistrates. Defendants should have the right of appeal to the county judge in their own county.

Curse of System.

"The curse of our judicial system," he continued, "is this everlasting concentration of everything down in the city of Toronto."

When Dr. Stevenson,? London, interrupted to remark that he did not know there was any curse attached to the judical system, the West Kent member agreed that there was not outside of London, and he did not believe the curse there was in connection with the judiciary. Mr. Brackin, in quoting injustices of the O. T. A., referred to cases where individuals had sold thousands of cases of liquor and made four and five thousand dollars and gladly paid the Government its $1,000 "commission."

When Mr. Brackin had finished, Hon. Mr. Raney said he agreed with the views expressed, and would be glad to consult the provincial secretary with an idea of making the suggested amendment to the Ontario temperance act.

AMALGAMATION OF BORDER CITIES GETS DECIDED SETBACK

Walkerville and Ford Follow Example Set by Sandwich.

WINDSOR, May 12. — Refusal of Walkerville and Ford councils to appoint delegates to attend the joint meeting of representatives of the various border municipalities, scheduled to have been held in Walkerville town hall tonight, has temporarily, at least, rendered amalgamation negotiations which were to have been opened impracticable.

Sandwich Took Lead.

Sandwich took the lead in opposing the move, and when Walkerville and Ford announced they would follow suit, the conference summoned by the Border Chamber of Commerce was called off.

Ford, Walkerville and Sandwich councils voted unanimously against the plan, Windsor's high tax-rate proving the drawback. A move is now on foot the object of which is the joining together of Walkerville and Ford into one municipality.

Must Come Eventually.

"Just what step will now be taken is not known," M. G. Campbell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, told The Advertiser tonight. "There is a strong sentiment in favor of amalgamation, and while it must come eventually, it is much nearer consummation than these councillors seem to think.

ANALYSIS SHOWS DOG HAD RABIES

WOODSTOCK, May 12. — Official notification has been received from Dr. J. H. Tennent of London that the dog which died here recently after acting queerly and biting a horse was suffering from rabies. This conclusion was reached after an analysis of the head by pathologists. Dr. Tennent was in conference with the local medical health authorities here today, and as a result it was decided to quarantine the horse bitten by the dog. No muzzling order will be put in force, but in the meantime the city bylaw preventing dogs running at large will be rigidly enforced.

EXPRESS WAGON, MAN AND BOY IN MIXUP ON BUSINESS STREET

St. Thomas Citizens Complain of Danger of Wagons On Sidewalks.

LOOKING FOR CARS

Autos Stolen in Windsor Believed To Be in Railway City.

ST. THOMAS, May 12.—Another pedestrian was knocked down on Wellington street today by a lad's express wagon, and both the boy and the man had a narrow escape from severe injuries. The man fell over on the lad and the boy, man and wagon rolled over the curb. The people using Talbot street sidewalks are daily complaining of the stunts atempted by the lads, and the danger they are putting up with notwithstanding the bylaw passed by the council prohibiting the use of boys' express wagons on the business thoroughfare. The man who went overboard this afternoon would have asked that the police interfere, but for the fact that the lad was about as much frightened and hurt as he was. The chief will be appealed to to enforce the ordinance.

THE HOLSTEIN SALE.

A large number of Holstein cattle breeders attended the annual sale of the Elgin County Pure-Bred Holstein Breeders' Association this afternoon at the Granite rink. There were some fine specimens of Holsteins offered and were taken at fancy prices. About 60 head of registered cattle, among them some select heifers, the choice of some of the best herds in the country, were offered.

The gathering of the breeders marks the sixth consignment sale of the association and was amongst the most successful of the series. A banquet followed in the cafe of the Hotel Talbot and was as interesting as it was enjoyable the toast list having much to do with Holsteins and dairying interests.

BIG SALES OF PROPERTY.

Ex-Mayor S. Chant has sold his store on Talbot street east to Miss Medlyn for $9,000.

H. Henderson, Talbotville, has disposed of his farm of 50 acres to a Mr. Doan of British Columbia, including stock and machinery, for $14,000; $9,000 for the buildings and land, and the balance for the machinery, etc.

Lands in the vicinity of Talbotville to the value of $100,000 have changed hands this spring, the greater number of farmers coming to city to find new homes.

WILLIAMS AGAIN CHARGED.

The former employers of Charles Williams, the Ross street plumber, Ingram & Davey, have preferred a second charge against their former foreman of stealing $2,000 worth of goods while he was in their service for twelve years. Williams will be given a preliminary hearing on this charge Monday morning, as well as for the alleged theft of $3,000 in electrical materials from Lester & Son. A search warrant sworn out by Ingram & Davey was the means through which considerable plumbers' good were found in the attic of Williams' premises.

ST. KITTS MAN FINED.

A man from St. Catharines named Makepiece was fined $10 and costs this morning for getting away from the speed limit, and William Haight of Yarmouth Centre paid $10 and costs for reckless driving in the city Saturday night.

John Lock, an elderly newsboy of Port Stanley, was fined $4 and costs by Squire Hunt for riding on the sidewalk.

STOLEN CARS.

The police were advised by the Windsor chief to watch for a couple of stolen cars, one a Ford sedan, and the other a Chevrolet touring car, which would likely pass through St. Thomas or were remaining over in the city.

BULK SALES ACTION IN ST. THOMAS DIVISION COURT

First of Its Kind Heard in the Local Court—Adjourned.

ST. THOMAS, May 12.—A case of unusual interest was entered for hearing at the division court today, being a claim under the bulk sales act, the first of its kind heard in the local courts.

Ernest Boughner put in a claim of $79.50 for soft liquids sold J. H. Switzer, when he was proprietor and licensee of the Loney House, Port Stanley. The claim was made by Solicitor Maxwell that the case come under the bulk sales act, Switzer having sold out his interest in the hotel and is now residing in St. Thomas. That counsel for both parties may look into the section alleged to apply to the action the hearing was postponed to the next sittings.

LANDLORD SUES TENANT.

James Beal, a contractor, sued his tenant, Claud Dunn, a M. C. R., employee, at the division court to recover $22.50, and Mr. Dunn put in a counter claim of $21 for time lost in moving and for a stove now held by the plaintiff. The case was not concluded owing to the absence of documentary evidence.

"HELL-FIRE CORNER" IS INSCRIPTION ON SIGNPOSTS OF WAR

Imperial War Museum Has Odd Collection of Exhibits.

FIRED THE FIRST SHOT

Gun From Decks of Destroyer Lance At Mine-Layer Koenig Louise.

London, May 12.—Signposts bearing the inscriptions: "Hell-Fire Corner," "Piccadilly" and "Haig Avenue," erected by British troops just behind the front lines in France, are among the more than 1,000 exhibits being assembled at Crystal Palace, London, to form the Imperial War Museum. It will be opened by the King in June, and will continue for four years.

Exhibits innumerable have been gathered from every land where the war cast its trail to show the common effort of the Empire during the great conflict. Shortly after the signing of the armistice, the memorable signposts mentioned were found discarded as lumber. In addition to those bearing "street" names, which, to many of the men who knew them best, had meant so many direction posts to avenues of agony, there was found the rallying trench sign of Verdun with its "No thoroughfare." They were all rescued, and are now to be preserved as relics of posterity.

There will be on display the gun that fired the first British shot in the war—from the decks of destroyer Lance at the minelayer Koenig Louise; the E Battery gun that opened the military hostilities; the anti-aircraft pom-pom which, mounted at Gresham College, fired the first shot ever directed at a foreign foe from London since the days of the Romans—the occasion being the zeppelin raid in September, 1915—and scores of other entries which have equally vivid associations.

The larger pieces of ordnance, some of which weigh 14 tons, are being arranged on the floor of the spacious hall. But the galleries will hold displays of equal, if not greater interest. These include war paintings and trench implements, realistic scenic models and protective devices and curios that throw an illuminating light on conditions which existed in the German army. Some of these are amusing, some tragic.

There is a cycle with a dynamo attachment for lighting an officer's dugout upon which two of the worst offenders had to sit in shifts and pedal in order that those within might have illumination while they devised new plans of aggression.

Far less amusing is a specimen of the enemy's "bear trap." A soldier exploring No-Man's-Land might step into its ugly spikes, concealed in the grass, and escape from their grip was virtually hopeless.

Looking at the lifebuoys of the Lusitania, the shattered funnel of the Vindictive, the portion of the Zeebrugge Mole, and the formidable mines that bestrewed the Dardanelles, the exhibit will recall to "those who were there" many chapters of a great epic.

RIOTING AND FIERCE FIGHTING IN STRIKE OF INDIAN COOLIES

Trouble in Fiji Islands, Sydney Reports.

BLUEJACKETS INTERVENE

Disturbances Did Not Cease Until New Zealand Armed Force Arrived.

Sydney, N. S. W., May 12.—Rioting and fierce fighting marked the strike of Indian coolies in the Fiji Islands, late in February, according to advices received here. The disturbances did not cease until a government yacht arrived from New Zealand with artillerymen and Lewis gunners aboard, followed by a mine sweeper from Sydney, with a force of bluejackets.

There had been unrest among the Indians for some time, and they launched their strike when the islands were isolated by a marine engineers' strike in Australia. Practically all the Indians in Fiji, numbering about 60,000, were involved. They expected the aid of 80,000 Fijians, but in this they were disappointed. The strike began in January on the Rowa River sugar fields, where the Indians are mostly employed. The Indians in public meetings declared themselves "as good as whites," and demanded equal rights Coolies who remained at work were clubbed by the other coolies or hideously mutilated by women with knives. The disorders were started by a false report that a white man had beaten a "boy" (laborer).

At one time the situation was critical at Suva, the capital, there being 30,000 riotous coolies inside the town, and 1,000 whites, including women and children, inside it. Returned soldiers, native policemen, regular and special, and a small improvised cavalry force held the Indans at bay until the arrival of the New Zealand artillerymen. Meantime, the infuriated coolies blew out bridges, cut telephone wires, and did other damage to property.

More than 250 Indians are to be tried for rioting.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS E. DRIVER.

PALMYRA, May 12.—The remains of the late Thomas E. Driver, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Driver of Palmyra, were laid to rest in Trinity Cemetery, Talbot Street, on Sunday afternoon. Deceased left Palmyra in June about a year ago, accompanied by his wife, Marie Carey, daughter of Mrs. Thomas L. Carey, of this place, for Phoenix, Arizona, hoping that the change would restore him to his usual health. Until a short time ago reports seemed promising, when complications set in and he was called away. Rev. Dr. Brown conducted service at the house and the C. O. F. of Palmyra, assisted by Ridgetown representatives of the order, at the cemetery. Six cousins of deceased acted as bearers, F. L. Sifton, Harry Sifton, Roscoe Miller, James Gray, Joseph Irvine and William Patterson.

CONFERENCE IS POSTPONED.

WALL STREET.

New York, May 13—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Lack of buying power effected further shrinkage of quoted values at the market's early opening today. Investment rails lost ground on prospects of a new strike in the Middle West, and specialties reflected additional liquidation.

Noon.—Selling of steels, equipments, motors and shippings continued during the first hour. Dividend-paying rails scored additional losses. Canadian Pacific declining 3½ points. Atlantic Coast Line 2, and Union Pacific, Illinois Central and Louisville and Nashville 1 point each. Commission houses traced most of the offerings, other than those of professional origin, to interior points, where restricted credits, labor disturbances and reduced business activity now prevail. Towards noon oils led a rally, in which recoveries ran from 1 to 3 points with a gain of 5 points for Atlantic-Gulf. Demand loans were unchanged from yesterday's ruling rate of 8 per cent, but British exchange eased.

1:30 p.m.—Liquidation ceased at midday, and gains of 1 to 2½ points over yesterday's final quotations were made by Crucible and Republic Steels. Baldwin Locomotive, American Car, Mexican Petroleum, American Woolen and Corn Products, while United States Steel recovered its loss of a point. Trading became very quiet on the rebound.

Won't Stay Planted—

DOMINION SEEDS

They Come Up—

When your garden is planted with Dominion Seeds you had better be prepared to hoe and cultivate the young plants, because Dominion Seeds "won't stay planted, they come up." In fact Dominion Seeds cannot be covered up by the earth. "They come up" like sunrise.

SARNIA VETERANS DEPRECATE ACTION OF GENERAL M'LEAN

Strongly Condemn Recent Utterances As Likely To Cause Trouble.

SARNIA, May 2.—Despite the fact that General W. S. McLean has smoothed things over regarding his famous Ottawa issue, Sarnia Grand Army of United Veterans tonight issued the following official statement: "Be it resolved by the members present that Listening Post No. 12 of the Grand Army of United Veterans, deprecate the action of Brig.-Gen. W. S. MacLean, on the re-establishment committee, and strongly condemn his utterances in his attempt to raise class distinction between the widows and dependents of our fallen comrades, officers and men who lie in foreign lands."

In a resolution the veterans approved the actions of Cols. Peck, V. C., and Cooper, and will forward these two officers word of the resolution and will also dispatch copies of both resolutions to the Dominion headquarters at Ottawa.

SEED POTATOES FROM QUEBEC WOULD COST $6.50 A BAG IN GALT

Mayor Has Made Careful Investigation Into the Situation.

GALT, May 12.—While a mass meeting of women of the city passed a resolution requesting the city council to buy a quantity of seed potatoes and their action was indorsed by the G. W. V. A., Mayor A. W. Mercer in an announcement today said that following a careful investigation he was unable to secure a supply in any quantity of seed potatoes in the provinces and that potatoes obtained at Rimouski, Que., would cost $5.62 a bog, f. o.b., which would bring the price to more than that being asked by the dealers now, varying from $6.50 to $7.25 a bag.

Organization has been completed for the campaign on Monday next to raise $4,000 for the Salvation Army jubilee self-denial fund. Ald. S. L. Clark is chairman of the executive.

Under the auspices of the Grand Army of United Veterans, Fred J. Marshall, provincial organizer, and Rev. J. S. Tupper, addressed a public meeting at the city hall this evening in the interests of this organization.

An important event in the history of Lincoln Avenue Methodist Church took place tonight, when to celebrate the clearance of all debt on the church erected a few years ago as a mission the mortgage was burned in the presence of a large audience. Following this ceremony a program of speeches and music was given, the speakers referring to the splendid progress made by the church and to the liberality of the members.

FOURTEEN KEGS OF WHISKEY DISAPPEAR

Owner Claims They Were Stolen—License Officials Are Dubious.

KITCHENER, May 12.—Emil Freedman, a local carters' employee, charged with selling fourteen kegs of whiskey which mysteriously disappeared from his cellar, pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Magistrate Weir in police court this morning.

Defendant claimed the booze had been stolen from his cellar, but License Inspector Beckette, in the box, declared he examined the door through which the thieves were supposed to have entered and found no evidence of a forced entry.

Michael Jeffrey, representing the license board, contended Freedman was merely trying to conceal a violation of the act. Magistrate Weir reserved judgment.

POLYGAMY IS DYING OUT IN PERSIA OWING TO ADVANCING COSTS

Impossible To Maintain Wives Amid High Prices.

Teheran, April 19.—Polygamy is dying out in Persia—another result of greatly advanced living costs, together with jealousy, which is becoming more marked a characteristic of Persian wives with the permeation of western ideas and standards in the east.

With this change has come another—the custom of having family names. A year ago the Persian Government made it compulsory for people to adopt a surname. Before that only peasants had any common name in the family, the upper classes possessing only one. A man, for instance, might be called Ghaffar simply, and his son Hassan, with nothing to show their relationship.

ONE BIG UNION OF CITIZENS PROPOSAL UNDER INVESTIGATION

Would Protect Communities From Fuel or Food Famines.

COMMITTEE INQUIRES

New York Chamber of Commerce Is Looking Into Feasibility of Scheme.

New York, May 12.—An investigation of the "one big union of citizens" idea and its feasibility in protecting American communities from possible fuel or food famines during strikes, is now under way by ten members of the New York State Chamber of Commerce recently appointed by the president of the organization as a "committee on public welfare."

Revolutionary labor upheavals and strikes designated as "outlaw" walkouts by union officials and the employment of volunteer Americans in keeping the channels of communication and transportation open, are the object it is said, of the chamber's present inquiry. The chamber for several weeks has been listing and classifying volunteers who, with no antagonism toward unions or partisan interest in labor quarrels, obligate themselves to operate motor trucks or do any other work necessary to keep the nation's commercial arteries open in times of stress. To prevent the "tying up and throttling of whole communities," the committee has received hundreds of responses to blank questionnaires specifying the ability and equipment of the various volunteers. Their occupation, home addresses and telephone numbers together with other similar data are in possession of the committee which, in time of crisis may be utilized.

The chamber at a recent meeting authorizing the appointment of the committee by President Alfred E. Marling, passed resolutions in which it said that "civilization is now menaced by false and distorted and political ideas, and the public welfare demands that the men and women of the nation, who hold to high ideals of personal and political conduct, who believe in sound economic principles, and in constitutional government, shall undertake more resolutely to fulfill their civic duties." The resolutions further declared that "the structure of government, and society as a whole" was imperilled by the interruption of the normal channels of communication and public service due to "an irresponsible minority of the population of the United States." It further stated that the duties of the committee on public welfare should be to draw up "a plan of organization and co-operation whereby the public may, by volunteer service, aid in maintaining the uninterrupted use of public utilities and assist the duly constituted authorities in preserving law and order."

Many interesting letters accompanied the applications of volunteers. A doctor who formerly was a telegraph operator offered his services in any capacity for "the maintenance of social equilibrium against the rebellious and misled small minority." He said "that the movement deserved the support of all right-minded citizens who are the backbone of the country."

A Russian refugee, a major-general in the former Russian army, "who has suffered the loss of everything I possessed through the Bolsheviki," said he felt in duty bound to offer his services. He wrote: "I am perfectly familiar with the beginning of the Bolsheviki, a movement in Russia which started, as you know, with strikes, uprisings, and the curtailment of food. I know thoroughly the Bolshevists of other countries as well as Russia and their methods and, since I am the guest of America and everybody has been so very kind to me, I wish to do all in my power to help America."

A man, a consulting engineer, 67 years old, in "fair health and vigor," wrote: "I am fully in sympathy with your apparent theory that the way to combat 'outlaw' or even 'inlaw' labor obstructions to public activities is to develop a strong and widespread sentiment among the masses of right-minded citizens against such labor disturbances. Also that the best way to develop this sentiment among right-thinking people is to permit them to take part in combating lawlessness, and to aid in the carrying on of public activities which may be interrupted by labor disturbances."

A lawyer wrote enrolling his name "as a member of your organization which has for its purpose the preservation of the national life. "No other country," he added, "gives to its citizens and others so large an amount of freedom and privilege as does America, yet many of those within our borders fail to appreciate that with liberty also comes responsibility towards others. It is high time that the true American citizen awakens to the conditions that threaten and rallies to the support of law and order."

The committee on public welfare is expected to make a report of its investigations and progress in the near future.

AERIAL ROUTE FROM PACIFIC TO AMAZON TO SURMOUNT ANDES

Former Member of Royal Naval Air Service Proposes Plan.

London, April 28.—(Associated Press). —Establishment of an aerial route from the Pacific to the Amazon as a means of surmounting difficulties of road travel among the Andes, is advocated by G. M. Dyott, until recently a squadron commander of the British Royal Naval Air Service.

"There is no serious difficulty in the way so far as the scheme's practicability is concerned," Mr. Dyott told the Royal Geographical Society. "We have heard of the great height of the Andes, but there are low altitudes at which they may be crossed. One of the Andes ridges can be negotiated at a height of 7,000 feet, but there is another rising to 15,600 feet.

"Peru," he continued, "is peculiarly suitable for aerial traffic. Aerial highways will undoubtedly play a large part in the future development of that country. It is of importance that rapid communication should be established between the interior and the coast, and in order to do this the aeroplane must come to the rescue."

Discussing the difficulty of traveling by road, Mr. Dyott said that it took him five days to travel from one part in the Andes to another, whereas the aeroplane would cover the distance in fifteen minutes; and in another stage of the journey it took him exactly a week to travel a distance which would be negotiated by the aeroplane in 30 minutes.

At The Theaters

AT THE PATRICIA.

The Patricia Theatre announces that it will present June Caprice Thursday, Friday and Saturday in her first Albert Capellani picture as a star in her own right. "In Walked Mary" is the title of this dramatic romance in which Miss Caprice plays the role of a Dixie maiden whose innocence and unsophistication lead her into difficult situations and out again.

Thomas Carrigan, one of the screen's most popular leading men, enacts the role of Dick Allison, a wealthy New Yorkers who meets Mary Ann while recovering his health in the southern mountains. He returns to New York and forgets all about Mary Ann until she walks into his home and announces that she's come to stay awhile.

To a bachelor about to wed a widow, pretty, unchaperoned young girls are not the most welcome of guests. He turns her over to his fiancee, who is marrying Dick only for his money. Her hero's engagement to another is a sad blow to Mary, but when she learns the truth of the situation she has walked into, she does her utmost to right it, and then walks out. But, paradoxically speaking, when she walked out she walked into Dick's heart, satisfying everyone concerned.

AT LOEW'S.

How much work would you get done during the day if your sweetheart were your stenographer? Charlie Ray tries it in his new picture, "Red Hot Dollars," at Loew's Theatre the balance of this week, and the experiment is far from successful. He finds it extremely difficult to think of business only while she's around, and he's just as well satisfied when her father patches up an old business quarrel and she doesn't have to work any more.

"I understand now what a woman means when she says she 'won't be dictated to," says Charlie, "and even in the picture it's hard to keep your mind on your letter-writing when the typist is a fluffy-headed little beauty."

You'll agree with him after you see Gladys George as the stenographer. "Red Hot Dollars" presents Mr. Ray in a characteristically youthful part. He stars as a young machinist in a foundry, saves his employer's life and becomes his protege, and finally wins a pretty girl and makes peace between two ancient enemies. It is a thoroughly enjoyable Paramount-Artcraft picture.

Five acts of Loew's extraordinary vaudeville, and a funny Hank Mann comedy, "The Billposters," and the popular Loew Pictorial completes an excellent bill for week-end patrons.

COMING TO THE GRAND TODAY.

The minstrel fans of this vicinity will be pleased to learn that one of the very best and largest minstrel organizations on the road is to visit the city.

Possibly certain people have forgotten that they are minstrel fans because it has been so long since they had an opportunity to see a really first-class minstrel. However, the fever of minstrel microbe will get them when the richly-dressed parade of Harvey's Greater Minstrels pass over our streets at noon each day they appear here.

The amusement question has by some people always involved the "questionable amusement" question, but that theme is never aroused by the coming of a high-class minstrel. Baseball games, a good circus, and an up-to-date minstrel show seem to be at least three forms of amusement which are never questioned by the most scrupulous.

Laughter, the creating of laughter, is the purpose of the minstrel, as well as the rendering of tuneful music and pleasing songs.

The minstrel man has been known from almost the beginning of the world's history, and was well known by the writers of Biblical affairs. It is this very characteristic of the minstrel which makes it capable of appealing to all classes, and when Harvey's Greater Minstrels appear at the Grand today, tomorrow and Saturday, twice daily, matinees at 2:30 and evenings at 8:15, there will be seen hundreds of people in the theatre who are not habitual theatregoers.

SHE DANCES IN A WISP OF GRASS AND YOUTHFUL INNOCENCE, "THE IDOL DANCER."

Clad only in youthful innocence, a wisp of tropical grass, a leaf of the fig, and beads for ornament—flashing flesh, shining eyes, flying feet, flaunting the youths who would win her, worshipping her devil-devil god with sinuous dances apart from the eyes of man; this is Mary, Little White Almond Flower, the character of "The Idol Dancer," which is the stupendous film production packing the Allen this week with the most enthusiastic audiences on record. Sprite of the sands, plaything of the waves, coveted and fought for by the renegades of the exotic South Seas. Heroine of the strangest tale of love and adventure—a tale of strange lands and rebellious men, a tale of heart throbs, of fighting, but withal a tale of redemption and beauty most thrilling. A tale peopled with cannibals and headhunters and blackbirders, a tale of a human derelict, magnificently reckless, defying fate to redeem him, and finding his redemption in the heart of "The Idol Dancer." The exotic settings, the frenzied love story, and most of all the dance motif, which runs through the entire film, were obviously woven around beautiful Clarine Seymour, while Richard Barthelmess, as the handsome scowling young derelict, presents an artistry which holds one enthralled.

The great augmented orchestra engaged to present the musical score which D. W. Griffith had written for this big spectacle is one of the most delightful features of the program, the Hawaiian Band carrying the theme of weird South Sea melodies through the picture, and Allen's big concert orchestra emphasizing the many tense, dramatic moments. The beautiful prologue of Miss Madeline Boyd's graceful dancing on the stage, her graceful youthful charms shown to splendid advantage in the Devil-Devil Dance, as Miss Seymour does it in the picture, is another revelation of artistic achievement.

ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER.

"Enlighten Thy Daughter," the big morality film showing at the Majestic all next week, treats in a fearless and convincing manner the most unconventional problem with which society has to grapple. It is a photodrama that no one should miss. The story deals with two girls, Ruth, brought up in the atmosphere of loving parents who guide her every footstep; Lillian, brought up in an equally loving atmosphere, but through a sense of false modesty the mother hesitated enlightening her daughter—until it was too late.

The disaster that befalls Lillian and the influence it works directly upon Ruth's life tells a powerful screen story that will never be forgotten. It is a story that we see in every day life, but goes unobserved—until brought home forcibly to us.

"Enlighten Thy Daughter" reveals it to you with a shock. It handles a delicate problem in a way that tells the truth, missing nothing, yet without offense.

This wonderful picture will be presented every afternoon and evening next week in continuous performances.

MARCUS LOEW ADDS THREE MORE PLAYHOUSES TO HIS BIG CHAIN

NEW YORK, May 12.—Marcus Loew added three more first-class theatres to his fast-growing string, when he purchased control of the Regorson Corporation in Rochester, N.Y., owning the Regent, the Piccadilly and the Gordon Theatres, said to be among the best photoplay houses in Northern New York. They will pass to the Loew control as soon as necessary alterations and a new plan of photoplay presentation is installed. The Loew executives from the New York office have already left for Rochester to assume control of the new additions.

OVERSEAS NURSES HONORED BY WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

Serbian Order of Mercy For Mrs. Donald MacLean and Mrs. A. T. Edwards.

GOOD WORK APPRECIATED

Dr. Edna Guest Tells of the Work Done in War Zone.

On Wednesday night, the centenary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the Women's Canadian Club entertained 48 of the 68 nurses who went overseas from this district, at a banquet at the Tecumseh House. Dr. Edna Guest, a native of London Township, was the speaker of the evening. Miss Grace Blackburn, president of the club, received the members and guests of honor.

During the evening Miss Dulmage, Miss Bertha Smith, Mrs. Charles Lamb, Miss Vera Keene, Miss Ora White and Miss Hilda Stuart gave five-minute speeches regarding their experiences overseas. Some portrayed the sad and pathetic side of their service. Others spoke of the hospitality of the English and the delightful times they spent while on leave visiting various places of interest. Each speaker was introduced by a member of the executive, and on arising was given applause.

Were Introduced.

Other military nurses and V. A. D.'s were seated with members of the club at individual tables and were introduced to the club by a club member sitting at the head of the table. The ladies introducing these were Mrs. F. Hughes, Mrs. E. C. Bowker, Mrs. H. B. White, Mrs. W. E. Saunders, Miss Yeates, Miss Weir, Mrs. T. H. Baker, Mrs. Bapty, Miss Graham and Mrs. T. H. Carling. A tribute was paid to Miss Ella Davis and Mrs. J. B. McKillop, who have been in charge of divisions, and to Miss Stanley of Victoria Hospital, who was also a guest.

Miss Blackburn said that not much poetry had been written about nurses, but that she had selected a piece. "Jessie Inglis," which was most appropriate, and recited it to the club.

Dr. Edna Guest was introduced by Miss Blackburn, and having rendered such valuable service overseas and been born in London Township, the club gave her a great ovation.

Tells of Natives.

Dr. Guest told very interestingly of her work as a doctor among the natives working under the English Government. The queer customs, religion and general life of the natives was given, and their love for fighting described. Dr. Guest said that the natives were very much excited when war was proclaimed, and were very anxious to get to the fighting centre.

"They were very much surprised at the scientific way Germany conducted the war, and they found themselves much more adapted to the ways of figthing in Mesopotamia."

Dr. Guest said it was impossible to try to describe the magnificent work of the Red Cross, and she humorously remarked that she knew that London sent over a great many thousands of pairs of socks. She described, too, the work of the Scottish hospitals in Serbia.

Highly Honored.

At this juncture, Mrs. Donald McLean surprised the club by announcing that only last week she had received a letter from the King of Serbia through the consul at Ottawa that the Serbians had so appreciated the work of the Canadian Club during the war that the Serbian Order of Mercy would be conferred upon Mrs. A. T. Edwards, who was at that time secretary, and Mrs. Donald McLean, at that time president. The full names of these two ladies were requested by the consul, and these have been sent. This announcement received a great deal of applause. It will be remembered that the Canadian Club during the war devoted a great deal of time to working for the Serbians. Substantial contributions of money were sent and many bales of clothing. The club little thought that its work would be recognized by the King of Serbia.

Many Difficulties.

Dr. Guest told of some of the difficulties under which the medical men and their assistants worked, and the shortage of nurses. Her tribute to the work of the V. A. D's was one of the highest.

Those who arranged the delightful reception in honor of the V. A. D's and members of the nursing profession of the city who went overseas were: Miss G. Blackburn, Mrs. F. E. Leonard, Mrs. T. H. Baker, Miss Weir, Mrs. A. B. Greer, Mrs. E. Hughes, Miss F. McColl, Mrs. H. B. White, Mrs. H. Coleman, Mrs. Seaborn, Mrs. T. H. Carling and Mrs. Donald McLean.

BIRD NOTES

(Contributed by McIlwraith Ornithological Club.)

This morning (May 12) we noted four new arrivals, the Tennessee Warbler, the Magnolia Warbler, the Blue-Headed Vireo and the Olive-Backed Thrush. The club has dates of arrivals for 32 years of the Tennessee Warbler and has 40 years' record for each of the others. The Blue-Headed Vireo is six days behind its average date, the Olive-Backed Trush and Tennessee Warbler are respectively three days and one day ahead of time, while the Magnolia Warbler arrived exactly on time.

While these were the only new birds noted within the last few days, many of the earlier arrivals have become more common. For example, the Yellow Warbler, first reported on the 6th, is now common all over the city. The first Myrtle Warbler appeared on April 22, but was not seen again until May 1. Since then it has steadily increased in numbers until it is our most abundant Warbler. It seems to be the habit with many of our birds for individuals to migrate ahead of the mair body of the species. Those single birds are often overlooked by the bird lover with the result that migration dates appear to vary more than they really do.

The reverse occurs at the end of the migration period of the species. A few birds may linger after most of their kind have passed on. This season the Ruby-Crowned Kinglet was abundant from April 22 until May 4, but we still notice one or two usually silent birds each morning.

MUSIC CLUB FORMS FUND FOR TUITION OF NEEDY SCHOLAR

Mrs. Victor Blackwell Elected President For Coming Year.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Music Club held yesterday on the suggestion of the retiring president, Mrs. C. E. Wheeler, it was decided to set aside $25 to form the nucleus of a fund to provide musical tuition for some needy child who shows indications of talent.

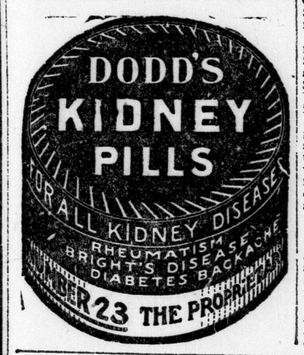

The club will make the offer to the board of education with the request that the selection be made through the music department by E. W. G. Quantz.

If the offer is accepted by the board the candidate will be tested not by his attainment but by his musical capacity as demonstrated by Dr. Carl Seashore's test on that subject. This will be a new departure in Canada in musical competitions.

The members decided to donate $25 towards the new children's hospital.

An interesting address was given by Miss Carling on the history of the club, which has just completed its 25th year.

Officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, Miss Carling; president, Mrs. Victor Blackwell; first vice-president, Mrs. Edwin Paull; second vice-president, Mrs. R. E. Davis; third vice-president, Mrs. C. R. Somerville; fourth vice-president, Mrs. Wainwright; recording secretary, Miss Elsie McDermid; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. E. Grant; treasurer, Miss Mabel Stevens; assistant treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Richmond; press secretary, Mrs. R. Orr.

LOSS AND DAMAGE OF FREIGHT ENTAILS ENORMOUS CLAIMS

Railways During Past Year Paid More Than $105,000,000.

The total amount paid last year by railways of the United States and Canada in claims for loss and damage of freight was over $105,000,000, E. Arnold, Grand Trunk freight claims agent, told an audience of shippers and manufacturers in the Chamber of Commerce board room Wednesday afternoon. John M. Dillon presided.

The claims bill met last year by the Grand Trunk Canadian lines alone was $1,430,000, or 2.34 per cent of its total freight earnings.

Included in this amount were the following items: Unlocated damage, $341,000; unlocated loss of entire packages, $288,000; loss from packages, $183,000; straight robberies, $161,000. Wrecks also provided a considerable item.

Because fewer claims are made on goods shipped in strong containers and strapped packages, Mr. Arnold stated that Canadian and American roads were contemplating fixing two different freight rates, one on strapped and the other, higher rate, on unstrapped packages.

PRESENTATION OF JEWEL.

Past-Master William Boler was presented with the jewel of his office at an entertainment of Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 298 on Tuesday evening. He made a suitable reply. During the evening progressive euchre was played. After a good musical program refreshments were served to the large gathering.
