under the name and style of "The Ellora and 35 "Saugeen Road Company," and by that name

May hold real estate, &c. they and their successors shall and may have continued succession, and by such name shall be capable of contracting and being contracted with, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto in all Courts and places whatsoever, in all manner of actions, suits, complaints, matters and concerns whatsoever; and they and their successors may and shall have a common seal and may change and alter the same at their will and pleasure, and also that they and their successors by the same name of "The Ellora and Saugeen Road Company," shall be by law capable of purchasing, having and holding to them and their successors any estate, real or personal or mixed, to and for the use of the said Company, and of letting, conveying and otherwise departing therewith for the benefit and on account of the said Company, from time to time as they shall deem necessary and convenient:

Proviso. Provided always nevertheless, that the real estate to be held by the said Company shall be only such as shall be required to be held by them for the purpose of making, using and preserving the road hereby authorized to be constructed, and for objects immediately connected therewith.

Company authorised to lay out road. II. And be it enacted, That the said Company and their agents or servants shall have full power under this Act to lay out, construct, make and finish a planked, macadamized or gravelled, or a partly planked, partly macadamized and partly gravelled road, at their own costs and charges, on and over that part of the country in the said District of Wellington lying between the said point known as Card's Corner in the said Township of Guelph, by way of the said Village of Ellora, to the Township line of the said Township of Peel, in a direction towards the mouth of the said River Saugeen.

Company may agree with owners of III. And be it enacted, That the said Company are hereby empowered to contract, compound, compromise and agree with the owners and occupiers of any lands upon which they may determine to construct the said road hereby authorized to be constructed, either by purchase of so much of the said land and privileges as they shall require for the purposes of the said Company or for the damages which he, she or they shall and may be entitled to receive of the said Company, in consequence of the said intended road being made and constructed in and upon his, her or their respective lands; and in case of any disagreement between the said Company and the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful from time to time for each owner or occupier so disagreeing with the said Company either upon the value of the lands and tenements or private privileges proposed to be purchased, or upon the amount of damages to be paid to them as aforesaid, to nominate and appoint one or more indifferent person or persons and for the said Company to nominate an equal number of indifferent persons, who, together with one other person to be elected by ballot by the persons so named, shall be Arbitrators to award, determine, and adjudge and order the respective sums of money which the said Company shall pay to the respective persons entitled to receive the same.

IV. And be it enacted, That if after eight days notice in writing given to the party so disagreeing as to the value aforesaid, such party shall not nominate or appoint an Arbitrator or Arbitrators as aforesaid on his part, then and in such case the Judge of the District Court of the District of Wellington shall and may nominate and appoint one or more Arbitrator or Arbitrators to act on their behalf with the same powers and authority as if appointed by the party or parties so refusing or neglecting to appoint an Arbitrator or Arbitrators in his or their behalf, and to meet and ballot for the additional Arbitrator or Umpire.

lands through which the road is to pass.

Arbitrators to be appointed in case of disagreement.

Arbitrators to fix a day for hearing parties.

V. And be it enacted, That the Arbitrators so appointed shall fix a convenient day for hearing the respective parties, and shall give eight days notice at least of the day and place, and having heard the parties or otherwise examined into the merits of the matters so brought before them, the said Arbitrators or a majority of them shall make their award or arbitration thereupon in writing, which award or arbitrament shall be final as to the value so in dispute as aforesaid. 5 10

If party refuse to accept value ascertained by Arbitrators, Directors may occupy land valued.

VI. And be it enacted, That if the party so disagreeing refuse to accept the value of land or damage so ascertained by the Arbitrators aforesaid, till the end of the next ensuing Term in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in that part of the Province formerly Upper Canada, next after making the award and tender of the value thereby ascertained, then and in such case, the Directors for the time being shall be at liberty and shall have full power to occupy the piece of land so valued by the said Arbitrators, in the same manner as other portions of the said road. 15 20

Award may be pleaded in bar in actions against the Company.

VII. And be it enacted, That in any action of ejectment or other action, real, personal or mixed, for or on account of such occupation by the said Company, their servants or agents or other person or persons using the said road, the said award shall and may be pleaded in bar of such action at any time after the said Term of the said Court of Queen's Bench, notwithstanding any defect in form or substance in the said award: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the party or parties interested in the land mentioned in the award or their agent by counsel, at any time before the last day of the said Term next ensuing after the same hath been made, and the amount of the value awarded tendered, to move the said Court of Queen's Bench to set aside such award for corruption, or any other matter or thing for which awards are now subject to be impugned. 25 30 35 40

ed by law: Provided also, that if the first award be so set aside by the Court of Queen's Bench, the matter in difference may again be submitted to other Arbitrators, and so on till a satisfactory award be made between the parties.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall have full power and authority to explore the country lying between the said point known as Card's Corner, in the said Township of Guelph, by way of the said Village of Ellora to the Township line of the said Township of Peel, in a direction towards the mouth of the said River Saugeen as aforesaid, and to designate and establish, and it shall be lawful for the said Company to take, appropriate, have and hold to and for the use of them and their successors, the requisite lands upon the line, and within the limits of the said road hereby authorised to be constructed: and for the purposes aforesaid, the said Company and their agents, servants and workmen are hereby authorised and empowered to enter into and upon the lands and grounds of and belonging to the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or any person or persons, body or bodies corporate or politic.

IX. And be it enacted, That whenever the said road passes through or by any wood or standing timber, the said Company may cause the trees and underwood to be cut down for the space of one hundred feet on each side of the said road, leaving the said trees and underwood when so cut down, but without paying any indemnity to the proprietor or occupier of the land, and for this purpose the said Company may enter upon such land (doing no further or unnecessary damage) without any previous notice or leave from such proprietor or occupier.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Company or any contractor or contractors employed by them from time to time to enter upon any lands adjoining to or near the said road and to take therefrom such stone, gravel or other like material, as may be required for the construction, maintenance or repair of the said road, paying to the owners or occupiers a reasonable compensation therefor, and that in case of disagreement as to the amount of such compensation, the same shall be decided by arbitration, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided in the case of disagreement between the said Company and the owners and occupiers of lands on the said road, and that every clause and provision of this Act relative to such last mentioned arbitrations shall equally extend and apply to any such arbitrations as in this clause are first mentioned.

Directors may release, &c., tolls.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors of the said Company from time to time to fix, regulate and receive the tolls and charges to be received from all persons passing and repassing over the said road hereby authorized to be constructed, or any part or parts thereof, as the same shall from time to time be constructed.

Provision when tolls collected shall exceed a certain amount.

XII. And be it enacted, That whenever the tolls collected on any part or parts of the road hereby authorised to be constructed before the entire completion thereof, shall exceed in amount a sum sufficient to defray the expenses of maintaining and repairing the said part or parts of the said road, and to afford an annual income to the said Company of six per cent on the capital actually expended on the construction thereof, then and in such case the overplus revenue of the said tolls shall be applied to the further construction and completion of the said road hereby authorized as aforesaid, until the whole work shall be completed.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the road and materials which shall be from time to time got or provided for constructing, building, maintaining or repairing the same, and the 5 tolls as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby vested in the said Company and their successors for ever.

Road, &c, vested in Company.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors of the said Company shall 10 have full power to erect such number of gates in or across the said road, and fix such tolls as they may deem fit or expedient to be incurred at each, (which rates or tolls may be altered from time to time as circum- 15 stances may require) and to erect and maintain such toll-houses, toll-gates and other erections as to them may seem necessary and convenient for the due performance of their business, and change the position of 20 the same from time to time: Provided, that no such toll shall be levied until at least three miles of the said road shall have been completed.

Toll-gates may be erected across the road.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any per- 25 son or persons shall cut, break down or destroy, in any way, any of the gates or toll-houses to be erected by virtue of this Act, every such person so offending and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be guilty of 30 a misdemeanor, and that the same shall be triable at the Court of Quarter Sessions for the said District, and be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either, in the discretion of the Court: and if any person or 35 persons shall remove any earth, stone or timber on the said road, to the damage of the same, or shall forcibly pass or attempt to pass by force any of the gates, without having first paid the legal toll at such gate, 40 such person or persons shall pay all damage by them committed, and shall forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding five pounds, nor less than five shillings currency, to be recoverable on the oath of any one credible witness, before any one Justice of the Peace for the said District of Wellington.

Penalty on persons turning out of road to evade toll.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall after proceeding on the said road with any carriage or animals liable to pay toll, turn out of the said road into any other road, and shall enter the said road beyond any of the gate or gates without paying toll, whereby such payment shall be evaded, such person or persons shall for every offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten shillings, to be recovered before any one Justice of the Peace for the said District of Wellington. 5 10

Penalty on persons permitting others to pass through their lands in order to evade toll.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons occupying or possessing any enclosed lands near any toll-house or toll-gates, which shall be erected in pursuance of this Act, shall knowingly permit or suffer any person or persons to pass through such lands, or any gate, passage or way thereon, with any carriage, horse, mare or gelding, or other animal liable to the payment of toll, whereby such payment shall be avoided, every person or persons so offending, and also the person riding or driving such animal or animals or carriage whereon such payment is avoided, being thereof convicted, shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding currency, to be recovered before any one Justice of the Peace for the said District of Wellington. 15 20 25 30

Judges may commit to prison in case of non-payment of fine.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if any person summarily convicted under this Act, shall not pay the fine or penalty, together with the costs, if awarded, (which costs, the convicting Justice or Justices are hereby authorised to award, if he or they shall think fit,) either immediately after such conviction, or within such time as the said Justice or Justices shall appoint, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to commit the offend- 40

er to the common gaol, there to be imprisoned for a term not exceeding two calendar months, the commitment to be determinable in every case on payment of the 5 amount and costs, or such penalty and costs may be also levied and collected by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under the authority of any warrant or warrants to be issued by such Justice or Justices,
 10 who are hereby authorised and empowered to grant the same: and that all such moneys arising from any fines, penalties or forfeitures; under this Act recoverable, whether summarily or imposed by any Court,
 15 shall be expended on the said road, or towards discharging the debts thereof, and that the evidence of any Stockholder of the said Company shall be admitted in proof of the offence, notwithstanding the application 20 of such moneys.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all persons, horses or carriages, going to or attending or returning from any funeral, or any person with horse or carriage going to or returning from Divine Service on the Lord's Day, 25 shall pass the gate free of toll.

Persons attending funerals, &c., exempt from toll.

XX. And be it enacted, That the said Company or their agents or servants at any time after the passing of this Act, under and 30 by virtue of its provisions, shall and may contract, erect and build a road as aforesaid, and also that the said road contemplated by this Act, shall not in any degree interfere with, or encroach upon any fee simple,
 35 right, or private easement or privilege of any individual now holding and enjoying the same, or entitled thereto, without permission first had and obtained by consent of the owner thereof, or by virtue of the express provisions of this Act.
 40

Road not to encroach on private rights without permission or arbitration.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the property, affairs and concerns of the said Company shall be managed and conducted by Affairs of Company to be managed by Directors.

Election of Directors, &c.

seven Directors, (one of whom shall be chosen President) who shall hold their office for one year, which said Directors shall be Stockholders to the amount of at least ten shares; and the first election of such Directors shall take place at the said village of Ellora, on the first Monday in the month of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, at the hour of twelve at noon, and thereafter the said Annual Election of Directors shall take place at the said village of Ellora, on such day and at such hour as a majority of the Directors for the time being shall appoint, and public notice thereof shall be given in any one newspaper, that may be published in the said District of Wellington, at least one calendar month previous to holding the said election; and the said election shall be held and made by such of the Stockholders of the said Company as shall attend for that purpose in their own proper persons or by proxy, and elections for such Directors shall be by ballot, and the seven persons who shall have the greatest number of votes at any election shall be Directors; and if it shall happen at any such election, that two or more have an equal number of votes, in such a manner that a greater number of persons than seven shall, by a plurality of votes appear to be chosen Directors, the said Stockholders hereinbefore authorised to hold such election, shall proceed to elect by ballot, until it is determined which of the said persons so having an equal number of votes shall be Director or Directors, so as to complete the whole number of seven; and the said Directors so chosen, shall, as soon as may be after the said election, proceed in like manner to elect by ballot, one of their number to be President; and if any vacancy or vacancies shall at any time happen among the Directors, by death, resignation or removal from the Province, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled for the remainder of the year in which they may happen, by a person or persons to be nominated by a majority of the Directors.

XXII. And be it enacted, That each Stockholder shall be entitled to a number of votes Votes to be in proportion with number of shares. 5 in proportion to the number of shares which he or she may have in his or her own name, and shall have had at least one month previous to the time of voting, according to the following rules; that is to say: one vote for 10 each share, not exceeding four: five votes for six shares: six votes for eight shares: seven votes for ten shares, and one vote for every five shares above ten.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That on the Election of Directors. 15 said first Monday in May, a meeting of the Stockholders shall be held at the said village of Ellora, as hereinbefore mentioned, who shall proceed to elect seven persons: to be Directors, who shall elect by ballot one of 20 their number to be President, and shall continue in office until the first Monday in May, next after the day of election, and who, during such continuance shall discharge the duties of Directors of the said Company as 25 aforesaid.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in case it Default to elect not to operate dissolution. should at any time happen, that an election of Directors should not be made on any day, when pursuant to this Act it ought to have 30 been made, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall and may be lawful, on any day, to hold and make an election of Directors in such manner as shall be regulated by the 35 By-laws and Ordinances of the said Corporation: or if such election be the first, then on any day of which notice shall be given, as hereinbefore required for such first election.

40 XXV. And be it enacted, That the Directors for the time being, or a majority of Directors to make By-laws, &c. them, shall have power to make and subscribe such By-laws and Regulations, as to them shall appear needful and proper, touching the management and disposition of the stock, property, estates and effects of the said Company, and touching the duties of the officers, clerks, and servants thereof, and all such other matters or things as appertain to the business of the Corporation, and also shall have power to appoint as many officers, clerks and servants, for the carrying on the said business, and with such salaries and allowances as to them shall seem fit. 5 to be £10,000.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the whole Capital Stock which the said Company may have, or hold, by virtue of this Act, shall be ten thousand pounds currency, with power to increase the same to double that amount, if found necessary for constructing the said road: and that the shares of the Capital Stock, shall be composed of shares, of the value of five pounds currency each; and such shares shall be personal property, and may, after the first instalment thereon shall have been paid, be transferable by the respective parties subscribing and holding the same, to any other person or persons; and such transfer shall be entered and registered in a book or books to be kept for that purpose, by the said Company: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorise the said Company to carry on the business of Banking. 15 20 25 30

Proviso.

Directors may call for instalments.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That so soon as Directors have been appointed as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them to call upon the Stockholders of the said Company, by giving thirty days notice thereof in any one newspaper that may be published in the said District of Wellington, for an instalment of twenty per cent upon each share which they, or any of them may respectively have subscribed for, and that the residue of the sums or shares of the Stockholders shall be payable by instalments, in such time, and 35 40 in such proportions as a majority of the Stockholders, (at a meeting expressly convened for that purpose), or at a meeting held for the choice of Directors as aforesaid, shall agree upon: Provided however, that no such instalment, subsequent to the first as aforesaid, shall exceed five per cent, nor become payable in less than thirty days after public notice, in the newspaper or newspapers as aforesaid.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That of the persons as aforesaid nominated and balloted for in manner aforesaid, those seven shall be deemed elected, who shall have the greater number of votes, according to the shares held by the voters respectively, as hereinbefore prescribed, at each and every such election of Directors, and that at every such election in every year as aforesaid, after the ballot shall have been kept open for three hours, the seven persons having the majority of votes in manner aforesaid, shall, so soon after as convenient on the same day, be declared the Directors chosen for the ensuing year; by two or more Scrutineers, who shall have been previously nominated by the Stockholders, for the purpose of nomination and report of such ballot: Provided nevertheless, that the Stockholders present at the place of ballot shall, in the nomination of scrutineers, vote per capita, and not by shares.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Stockholder or Stockholders, as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to pay at the time required any instalment or instalments, which shall be lawfully required by the Directors, as due upon any share or shares, such Stockholder or Stockholders so refusing or neglecting, shall forfeit such share or shares as aforesaid, with any amount which shall have been previously paid thereon, and the said share or shares may be sold by the said Directors, and the sum arising therefrom, together with the amount previously paid thereon, shall be accounted for, and applied in like manner as other moneys of the said Company : Provided always, that the purchaser or purchasers shall pay the said Company 5 the amount of the instalment required, over and above the purchase money of the share or shares so purchased by him, her, or them as aforesaid, immediately after the sale, and before he, she or they shall be entitled to 10 the certificate of the transfer of such share or shares, purchased as aforesaid : Provided always, that twenty days notice of the sale of such forfeited share or shares shall be given in any one newspaper that may be 15 published in the said District of Wellington, and that the instalments due may be received in redemption of any such forfeited share at any time before the time appointed for the sale thereof, or the said Company may sue 20 for and recover any such instalment or instalments, in any Court having jurisdiction in matters of debt or contract, according to the amount.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the several persons who have subscribed any money 25 towards the undertaking, or their personal representatives respectively, shall pay the sums respectively so subscribed or such portions thereof as shall be from time to time 30 called for by the Directors; and with respect to the provision in this Act contained for enforcing the payment of calls or instalments, the word "Stockholder" shall extend to and include any person who holds stock in the 35 said Company, or who may have subscribed the original Prospectus of the Company, or Stock Book or agreement to take stock therein, and shall also extend to and include the legal personal representatives of such Stock- 40 holder or person as aforesaid.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Stockholder do not pay the amount of any call or instalment to which he is liable, before or liable to pay interest thereon.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if default shall be made by any Stockholder in the payment of any call at the time appointed by the Directors for the payment thereof, then it 10 shall be lawful for the Company to sue such Stockholder for the amount of such call, in any Court of Law in this Province (having competent jurisdiction in regard to the amount to be recovered,) and to recover the same 15 with lawful interest, and if the Company shall elect to sue any Stockholder under the authority of this Act, such suit shall not in any way interfere with the forfeiture of the share or shares of such Stockholders as provided 20 by the section of this Act.

Company may sue Stockholders neglecting to pay.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That in any action or suit to be brought by the Company against any Stockholder to recover any money due for any call, it shall not be necessary 25 to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient for the Company to aver that the defendant is the holder of one share or more (stating the number of shares) in the Capital Stock of the Company, and that he is indebted to the Company in the sum of money to 30 which the calls in arrear shall amount in respect of one call or more upon one share or more (stating the number and amount of each of such calls), whereby an action hath accrued to the Company by virtue of this Act. 35

Not necessary to set forth

shall be sufficient evidence of holding stock to the amount subscribed) and that such call was in fact made, and such notice thereof given as is required ; and it shall not be necessary for the Company to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call or any other matter whatever, and thereupon the Company shall be entitled to recover what shall be due upon such call with interest thereon, unless it shall appear either that any such call exceeds the prescribed amount or that due notice of such call was not given, or that a meeting of the Stockholders was not expressly convened for the purpose of deciding on the time of payment, and the amount of such call in cases where such meeting is required.

Directors to specify, in their notice, on what days, &c., calls are to be paid.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That when calls shall be made by the Directors, it shall not be essential that the notice of such call should specify on what days or at what place or to what person the calls are to be paid, but that all calls shall be payable to the Treasurer of the Company for the time being, at the expiration of thirty days from the first day of publishing the notice.

Company may borrow money

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Company to borrow on mortgage or bond, such sums of money as shall from time to time, by an order of the general meeting of the Company, be authorized to be borrowed for the purpose of carrying into effect the undertaking, and, for securing the re-payment of the money so borrowed with interest, to mortgage the tolls and future calls upon the Stockholders, or to give bonds in such manner and with such conditions as may be ordered by the Company at a general meeting.

Mortgages for money borrowed to be by deed under seal of Company.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That every mortgage and bond for securing moneys borrowed by the Company shall be by deed under the common seal of the Company, wherein the consideration shall be truly stated, and a Register of such mortgages and bonds shall be kept by the Secretary, and within fourteen days after the date of any 5 such mortgage or bond, entry or memorial, specifying the date of such mortgage or bond, and the sums secured thereby, and the names of the parties thereto shall be made in such Register, and such Register may be 10 perused at all reasonable times by any of the Stockholders or by any mortgagee or bond creditor of the Company, or any persons interested in such mortgage or bond.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted; That the 15 said President and Directors, if they think proper, may commute tolls with any person or persons, by taking from him, her or them a certain sum either monthly or annually in lieu of such tolls, and that the said President
 20 and Directors shall affix in a conspicuous place at all such toll-gates a Table of the rate of tolls to be exacted and taken, to be plainly and legibly printed.

Tolls may be commuted.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall 25 be the duty of the Directors to make annual dividends of so much of the profits of the said Company as to them or a majority of them shall seem advisable; and that once in each year an exact and particular statement 30 shall be rendered of the state of their affairs, debts, credits, profits and losses, such statements to appear in the books, and to be open to the perusal of any Stockholder, at his or their reasonable request.
