Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gaetz, of Moose Jaw, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper, and visiting other relatives and friends in this vicinity before leaving for their home about the middle of June. Mrs. Gaetz is a former Arkona girl, where her mother, Mrs. Peter Bearss, still resides. Mr. and Mrs. Gaetz have been on an extended tour since they left their home city in January, proceeding across the Rockies to Victoria, up the B. C. coast to Prince Rupert and back; thence down the Pacific coast, visiting Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, then down to South America, back up through the Panama Canal, spending some time in Florida, Cuba and the Bahamas, before sailing for New York, from whence they made their way to Western Ontario points. Their present plan is to motor back the balance of their journey, if they can get in touch with someone in this district going West who could drive part time and thus relieve Mr. Gaetz at the wheel. They have many interesting stories of their travels around North America, and although both are experienced sailors, they have had sufficient sea adventures for a time. At the same time of the terrible cyclone in the Central States at the end of March, they encountered a wild storm while coming from Havana to New York. The steamer was obliged to lay to and fight the storm for two days, before they were able to proceed.

The Kingston Whig and the Standard on Monday morning devoted nearly two columns to a report of the 51st anniversary of Bethel Congregational church, at which Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, of Watford, a former pastor of the church, participated. The following extracts are taken therefrom:—"The fifty-first anniversary of Bethel Congregational church was held Sunday, with large congregations at both services, chairs having to be brought for the evening service. Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, of Watford, a former pastor, was the preacher for the day, and gave two very forceful and helpful sermons. He was assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Miller." "The illustrated lecture entitled 'Heroes of the Cross,' given in Bethel Congregational church on Monday evening, by Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, of Watford, was indeed all that was claimed for it, and for two hours the audience sat spell bound as he related the story of the early Christians, which was illustrated by over fifty lantern views."

Snowflurries, Frigid Winds, Mar Observation of Week End Holiday

Snow flurries on Saturday night and near freezing weather on Sunday and Monday was the unprecedented offering of the weather man for the annual celebration of Queen Victoria's birthday here.

Late Snowfall.
Snow on the twenty-fourth of May is the latest date in the memory of some of the older residents that such unseasonable tactics have been employed by the arbiter of atmospheric conditions. There has been snow at later dates but not accompanied by frost and a continuance of a chilling wind for three days. The downfall was of sufficient duration to leave traces on the eaves of houses the following morning.

Some damage to flowers and tomato plants was reported in this district and householders with flowers set out took precautions to cover them up. Newspapers and cloth were employed to keep Jack Frost away.

Sports Handicapped.

Holiday travel, particularly on motor highways, was hard hit by the cold, and many prospective holiday activities were curtailed.

The pole was broken off and with the wires it fell in the opposite direction missing the car. Mrs. Collister was thrown against the windshield, sustaining severe facial cuts and bruises and badly shaken up. A heavy bumper absorbed the most of the blow and preserved the car and its occupants from more serious injuries.

The chief Liberal whip, Mr. George W. Kyte, in a speech at Windsor a few days ago, spiked rumors current that the King government would go to the people at an early date. Mr. Kyte stated that the government was not contemplating an early election and that the present administration will, in all probability live out its natural term. He asserted that, as far as he could judge, there would be no general election this year. One reason for this, he stated, was the recent government majority on the budget.

The Easiest Riding Car is a Ford H & D Equipped

Not only are the bumps and jolts ironed out but the car gets less wear and tear. H & D's ensure more real pleasure than any other accessory you can buy. They are built on the cantilever principle—do their work efficiently and satisfactorily—no interference with the Ford spring.

H & D's are a necessity with balloon tires. "Balloons" are not a substitute for shock absorbers, they are too "bouncy" on rough roads. But balloons and H & D's are the last word in easy riding.

The Vibraph (a machine for registering vibrations) has demonstrated that a Ford equipped with H & D's is the easiest riding car on the market.

Ask your friends how they like H & D's. They'll tell you they wouldn't do without them.

A Grateful Letter

From a Lady Made Well by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial." Thus writes Mrs. Louie Mitchell, Oak Point, Man., who further says:—"About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my stand-by in the future if ever my blood needs building up again, and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing a tonic."

There are many troubles due to weak, watery blood which can easily be overcome by a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The sole mission of this medicine is to enrich and purify the blood and when that is done all the varied symptoms of anaemia disappear, and good health returns. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why Have an Extra Bedroom?

The newest homes are arranged a more convenient way—

VERY cleverly they manage—the wise young home owners of today—to eliminate all the extra space that eats so voraciously into building and furnishing budgets, and that adds a daily burden in the way of caretaking. Where do they make their biggest saving? In the bedroom space.

It's wonderfully interesting the way they arrange for one less bedroom than you would expect. They don't really do without that bedroom. They merely smuggle it into the house, in the guise of a Kroehler Davenport Bed.

Everyone, it seems, has a Kroehler Davenport Bed these days, with the same low, easy lines, the same luxuriously soft cushions, the same wide, lounging seat as any other fine davenport.

How sensible it is—this universal vogue of the Kroehler Davenport Bed! Think how much space or rent it is saving every month for thousands of people in crowded homes or small apartments—how much extra work every week in the care of an additional room. Think how neatly it would solve your own extra bedroom difficulty.

PERHAPS you need this additional sleeping space only for emergency use. Perhaps you need it every night. But whenever you require it, this convenient bed is ready for your use.

A single, easy motion reveals the comfortable sleeping space with covers all in place. A real full-sized bed it is. The mattress is thick and soft. The springs are strong but yielding. You can buy Kroehler Davenports—with or without concealed beds—and matching chairs in interesting period or overstuffed patterns. For upholstery, there are silk damask, tapestry, mohair, jacquard velours, Chase Velmo or Baker Cut Pattern Velour, leather or Chase Leatherwove.

Important Hidden Qualities
The fine quality of Kroehler Living Room Furniture extends all the way through. The frame is of kiln-dried hardwood; the seat springs of heavy, high-carbon wire, flexibly interlocked; the filling of germ-cured flax fiber, best moss and cotton; the upholstery is given moth-proofing treatment.

Dundee Man Going Out to Join
Veteran Brothers in Canada

(Dundee Journal, April 18th)
Scotsmen are famous as adventurers and as pioneers, but surely few men have waited until they had passed the allotted span of three score and ten years ere they set out on their adventures, as is to happen in the case of Mr. Alex. Watson, retired mill engineer, Gibson Terrace, Dundee, who at the age of 74, is leaving for Canada to join his three brothers, who are farmers there.

Great as Mr. Watson's age is, however, he is the baby of the family, which has created something of a record in the matter of longevity. There are five members of the family alive, and their total years number 407. Of the three brothers in Canada—William is the oldest, and wants but seven years to make the hundred. He went to Canada 73 years ago. Second on the list comes Thomas, who has seen four score and three years, and who has been in Canada for 60 years, James has been in Canada for half a century, and he is 77 years of age. The remaining member of the family is Miss Watson, who lives at Montiel, and she is 80 years of age.

WISBEACH

Mr. Alex Watson and daughter Miss Eva Watson of Gibson Terrace, Dundee, Scotland, have arrived in Canada. They came to Peterborough where Miss Watson was married to Mr. James W. Gaul of that city, formerly of Dundee, Scotland. The marriage took place in St. Paul's Presbyterian church on Wednesday, May 20th, at ten o'clock. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's parents, and immediately after they took the train for Watford, accompanied by her father, Mr. Alex Watson, and are visiting at the home of the latter's brother, Mr. W. Watson and family. A reception was held on Friday evening, when about forty friends were present and presented them with many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. J. Gaul will be at home to their many friends after June 15th at 186 Reid street, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Macklin and daughter, Gladys, visited friends here on Monday on their way to their home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMillan went to London on Wednesday to attend the graduation of their daughter, Miss E. McMillan, who graduates at Victoria Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McGillicuddy and daughter Alma, went to London on Tuesday to attend the graduation of the former's niece, Miss Janes, of St. Joseph's Hospital.

Large bouquets of tulips and lily of the valley made a pleasing decoration. The president, Mrs. Wm. Gimlett, presided. The speaker, Miss Slieter, gave a very instructive address on "Avenues of Work for the Institute". Mrs. Galbraith gave a reading entitled "Mothers of Men", and a paper on "Etiquette in the home" was given by Miss Irene Eastabrooke, Miss N. Wilson favored with a piano instrumental. A very favorable report of the year's work was read by the secretary. As the hour was getting late the community singing was dispensed with. The hostess and members then served a very dainty lunch, thus ending a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Eldon Langford is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, London, where she underwent a very critical operation. We are pleased to hear of her improvement and hope for her speedy recovery.

Will all the members of the choir of the Methodist church please meet on Thursday evening at the church for practise.

Strong Argument for Urban Centres

Made by Deputation Which Waited Upon Minister of Highways, Urging the Government's Consideration of the Interests of Towns and Villages in the Designation of the Route for Provincial Highway Between Sarnia and London.

Watford and all the other urban municipalities vitally interested in the matter of the routing of the Sarnia-London provincial highway, sent a strong deputation to Toronto to confer with the Minister of Highways, the Hon. G. S. Henry. The deputation comprised about seventy representative citizens from Petrolia, Wyoming, Watford, Kerwood, Strathroy and Mt. Brydges, and was given a cordial reception and hearing at the Parliament Buildings. The Minister promised the visitors, who were introduced by Mr. George Elliott, M. L. A., for North Middlesex, that his department would give due consideration to the interests of the municipalities represented, as clearly and comprehensively set forth in the following argument, which was submitted.

Memoranda of submissions made by delegation from the Town of Strathroy, the Village of Watford, the Village of Wyoming, the Town of Petrolia, the Police Hamlet of Mt. Brydges, and the Police Village of Kerwood, to the Honorable the Minister of Highways, on Thursday, May 14th, 1925, at Parliament Buildings, Queen's Park, Toronto, with reference to the route of proposed paved road from Sarnia to London to amplify the Provincial Road System.

1. This delegation does not desire in any way to urge upon the Government the construction of more pavement in connection with the Provincial Road System at the present time, realizing that such construction is governed by financial considerations and traffic conditions throughout the province as a whole. This delegation, however, does believe that, ultimately if not in the near future, traffic from Sarnia to London will require a paved road, and that the route such pavement shall take is of vital importance to the towns and villages represented. It is desired to place before the government the views and interests of these places in connection with the route of such pavement, at the present time, before the Government is committed to any route, so that when the time comes that a definite route must be officially declared, the government will be cognizant of the special interest of the small towns along the route.

2. It is presumed that the existence of the small town, which has made such a valuable contribution to our national life in the past, is still necessary in our social organization, and greatly to be desired. At the present time, and for the past few years, the small town in Ontario is having a real struggle to retain its existence. Most have a business and social organization built up on the needs of the rural market, which is now greater than is required. Any further dwindling of markets will cause untold hardships.

3. In the rise and progress of the small towns, transportation has always been a vital factor. The route of railway construction, in the past, determined the ultimate fate of the urban centres. If a centre of population was served by a railway, it progressed. If it was cut off from the railway, it steadily dwindled.

With the motor car becoming an increasing factor in solving the present problem of transportation, the paved highway situation becomes analogous to that of the railway two generations ago. Business prosperity has its growth and continued existence in the ebb and flow of traffic. It is true that business demands transportation facilities, but it is equally true that transportation facilities create business. Upon this business the small town depends for mere existence.

4. For these reasons, whatever route a paved road from Sarnia to London takes, will vitally affect the towns along the way, all of which are here represented.

5. There are several possible routes for such a road:

(a) Along the Egremont Road, commonly known as the Sarnia Gravel.

(b) Along the Sarnia Gravel from Sarnia as far as the Wyoming side-road, then south to the Fourth Line at Wyoming, then east along the Fourth Line past Wanstead, Watford, to Strathroy, then south-east along the Mt. Brydges road, through Mt. Brydges, to strike the paved Provincial Highway into London, west of Delaware Village.

(c) Route (b) as far as Strathroy, but continuing east along the townline between the townships of Caradoc and Adelaide, to strike the Sarnia Gravel at Hickory Corners, then following the Sarnia Gravel east into London.

6. Taking as the maxim that the route shall be the one which will serve the most people in the best manner, the towns represented herein are unanimously in favor of route (b), and desire to place before the Honorable the Minister of Highways the reasons controlling their decision.

7. These are as follows:

(1) It would give an efficient local service, as well as an efficient through service.

Route (a) does not touch an urban centre between Sarnia and London, it lies one and a half miles from Wyoming, and three miles from Watford and Strathroy. It is too far away to give any local service, and would carry through traffic past their doors, thus thoroughly isolating them from any direct benefit of a paved road. Route (b), however, would give a maximum of local service to every urban centre between the two cities.

It is pointed out that the increasing business traffic is that of trucks. There is at present an extensive truck business from London to Sarnia, practically all of which now takes route (b) to touch these towns. This traffic will always use route (b), even should the road to the north be paved, and will thus leave a heavy maintenance charge for that road on the counties of Middlesex and Lambton.

In every town is considerable truck traffic, which is yearly growing in volume. Local mills, both lumber and grist, creameries, gasoline and oil services, commission firms, as well as freight trucks, operate trucks locally. Route (a) would give no service to this traffic, while route (b) will always have to be maintained to take care of this business.

(2) It would give a more efficient through service than route (a). From Sarnia to London route (b) is about two miles further than (a), an inconsiderable difference through traffic. Route (a) is a sixty-three mile jump without any tourist accommodation save a few gasoline stations, three general stores, and one hotel of meagre accommodation. The (b) route places a town with good accommodation such as stores, refreshment places, hotels, garages, at the convenience of through traffic every few miles. It is pointed out that such business places are already established and require increasing patronage to insure continued prosperity.

Much stress is being laid at the present time on the value to the province of tourist traffic. This revenue producing traffic is of little value unless the business facilities to obtain the revenue are placed at the disposal of the tourist. This can only be done by putting tourist traffic in touch with the established business communities such as the small towns along the way, unless it is the intention to give the larger cities a monopoly of such benefits.

(3) It would be much more economical and entail much less expense to the province and to the respective counties to construct. Route (a) requires construction of pavement from nine miles out from Sarnia to within two of London, in all some fifty-two miles. Route (b) requires construction from the same point out of Sarnia to touch the provincial highway near Delaware, an approximate distance of forty-four miles. Route (a) in all probability requires two large bridges, one at Melrose and one at Poplar Hill, which would not be required in other route.

In this connection, it is pointed out that the small town is a heavy contributor to county expenditure on roads, with little direct benefit. Their large benefit comes indirectly by way of improved business. Unless there is that improved business accruing, road construction to the town is a heavy expense, and if turning business in another channel, a serious drain. Through its business organization, under the present system of taxation for provincial purposes, the town is a heavy contributor and should be carefully considered in the construction of paved roads.

(4) It would leave the present Sarnia Gravel one of the best gravel highways in the province, intact to give a local service. With the heavy Sarnia to London traffic taken off, it is believed that a gravel highway can be kept up without undue expense, and will serve the community as efficiently as a paved road. This is a direct gain to the district road system. With route (b) paved, the district is supplied by a paved road and a first-class gravel highway, ample for its needs for a generation to come. With route (a) paved, the district is served by a paved road, and a county road which will be expensive to maintain, and to which through county contributions the government will give assistance.

8. To these submissions this delegation from the small towns lying between Sarnia and London would respectfully ask the Honorable the Minister of Highways to give careful consideration, when the time comes for the government to decide upon a route for a paved highway between the border at Sarnia to connect with the provincial highway leading to Toronto.

Mr. Joe LaMantia, Strathroy, fruit merchant, had an expensive accident last week. Late Saturday night he placed his cash, some $280, in an envelope and dropped the envelope into a wastepaper basket in his store for safe-keeping over the weekend. He never thought of the money at any time while he was in the store during the first part of the week. When he went to get it, he discovered to his horror, that the contents of the basket had been burned by his clerk in tidying up. About $30 in silver was salvaged from the ashes, but the bills were a total loss.

Breed to Walter 2nd, 2.05 1/4

The best bred pacing stallion in Canada sired by Walter Direct 2.05 1/4. The leading sire of the world of 2.05 pacers and stands second to Peter the Great for 2.10 production. Sire of Napoleon Direct 1.59 1/4. Grace Direct 2.00 1/4. La Paloma 2.01 1/4 and 10 others in the 2.05 list. Grace Direct being the world's champion pacing mare over half mile track in 2.02. Walter 2nd 2.05 1/4, is the only horse in Canada that is bred from blood lines of production, that has produced better than two minutes speed on both his sire and dam's side in the first generation. As his sire, Walter Direct 2.05 1/4, produced Napoleon Direct 1.59 1/4; his dam Erma Hall being by Brown Hall 2.12 1/4 who produced Star Pointer 1.59 1/4. The Direct-Hall cross is today the greatest strain of pacing bred in the world. Walter 2nd, 2.05 1/4 was bred by The W. M. Tully Stock Farm, Columbia, Tenn., foaled 1913, stands 16 hands and weighs 1175 lbs., dark brown in color and a perfect disposition. Has a race record of 2.05 1/4, trial of 2.03, half in 58 1/2 seconds. A free legged pacer, wears nothing but his harness, and a horse that Mr. E. T. Gurs gave his record and regarded him as being perfect in gait, had a world of speed, and was game, what more could a great man say about a horse. And as Walter 2nd 2.05 1/4 has already demonstrated himself as a sire with three year olds in the 2.10 list, only make it more certain that you cannot afford to let the opportunity go by of breeding to Walter 2nd at the very reasonable service fee of $25.00 payable by cash or note at time of service to insure a standing foal, with return privileges with same or other mare until standing foal is obtained. MRS. AGNES VOKES
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Agnes Vokes, dearly beloved wife of the late J. T. Vokes, for many years a highly respected merchant of Strathroy, took place on Tuesday, May 12, to the Arkona cemetery. Mrs. Vokes was ill for some time with gangrene in her foot, but when pneumonia developed the end came quickly. Thirty-four years ago, the marriage of J. T. Vokes and Agnes Bowes was solemnized. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Vokes returned to her home at Wisbeach, where she has since resided with her sister, Miss L. Bowes, at the old home where their parents settled so many years ago as pioneers in Warwick township. For over fifty-nine years Wisbeach post-office was in charge of the Bowes family from the starting of the stage route between London and Sarnia until rural free delivery was started. During her residence in Strathroy, Mrs. Vokes made many friends by her kindly deeds and truly Christian character, which endeared her to all who knew her. Born in Lanark county, eighty-seven years ago, at sixteen years of age, she came to Warwick with her parents, John and Jean Bowes, who were among the early settlers there. At a very early age Mrs. Vokes joined the Methodist church and was a consistent, faithful member all her life. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Moore of Arkona, assisted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Arkona, and interment was made in Arkona cemetery. The pallbearers were all close neighbors: Geo. Conkey, Robert and John Watson, Wm. Parker, Wm. Howden, and Andrew Iles. The remaining members of Mrs. Vokes family are Emerson Vokes and Mrs. George Smith of Duluth, Minn.; and Mrs. Simon Shrier of West Adelaide. Among the friends from a distance present at the services were five grandchildren: Mrs. S. Walters and Mrs. W. Beddow, of Detroit; Mrs. W. Davis of Strathroy; Miss Olive Shrier, of Windsor, and Stanley Smith of Sarnia. Much sympathy is felt for Miss L. Bowes in the loss of her sister, as she is the last member of the Bowes family left. The funeral sermon was preached from Revelation 14 and 13, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

The Women's Institutes had an important task in introducing labor-saving devices into farm houses. Through gentle agitation as a body of women, the Institutes persuaded the men of the farms to see that labor-saving devices were as important in the farmhouse as out of doors. As a result, housework on the farm has become easier and the farmer's wife has more time to take her place in the community. And all this because a little group of women with vision began the Women's Institute movement at Stoney Creek over 25 years ago.

Mr. Joe LaMantia, Strathroy, fruit merchant, had an expensive accident last week. Late Saturday night he placed his cash, some $280, in an envelope and dropped the envelope into a wastepaper basket in his store for safe-keeping over the weekend. He never thought of the money at any time while he was in the store during the first part of the week. When he went to get it, he discovered to his horror, that the contents of the basket had been burned by his clerk in tidying up. About $30 in silver was salvaged from the ashes, but the bills were a total loss.

HELP! We're Busy

Help Us by Giving Your Printing Orders Early

APRIL and May have been exceptionally busy months in your local printing plant and many of our customers have been considerably inconvenienced for a few days by our being unable to get their orders through on time.

While we have constantly endeavored to give all our customers prompt delivery of their printing orders, the capacity of any plant, no matter how large, can be easily taxed.

We appreciate the splendid co-operation and consideration extended to us by all our customers after they were aware of our splendid rush of business; we also appreciate the compliments extended by many who were apparently surprised with such service as they received under the circumstances.

The month of June is always a very heavy one for printers, and this year promises to be no exception to the rule. WE WOULD, THEREFORE, ASK ALL OUR CUSTOMERS TO PLACE THEIR ORDERS AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, in order that we may maintain that prompt delivery service which is so essential to both the customer and ourselves.

SHORT LESSONS IN LAWN TENNIS

by Captain R. Innes-Taylor (Copyrighted 1925)

16. Follow Through.
We come now to one of the most difficult things for the beginner to learn, namely to continue the stroke after the ball has been hit. A beginner will feel after he has hit the ball, that as far as he is concerned he cannot control it any further, and he will proceed to recover his balance as quickly as possible. Although it is obvious that after the ball is hit your continued swing does not fundamentally govern the ball's flight, the mere fact that you carry through ensures your applying the stroke perfectly at the moment of impact. If you just strike the ball without any follow through it has the effect of drawing the racquet away before you have exerted your maximum power. It is exactly the same as in golf. In both golf and tennis the stroke must be conceived and carried out as a whole, and to rob it of concentrated effort in its final stage is to induce a state of mental slovenliness which is almost certain to react on perfect execution up to and at the instant of impact.

17. Volleying.
After you have more or less mastered your fore and backhand drives, and have achieved consistency in your service, you may take up volleying. Volleying differs very much from driving in that there is very little stroke in the blow. Good volleying consists rather of rapid and clever anticipation of where the ball is going to drop so that your racquet, firmly held, can intercept it at the correct angle.

You need to use your wrist in volleying and the racquet should be held at a point further in front of the body than for a driving stroke. Incessant practise is essential to successful volleying. Get your young brother or sister, or any member of the family, to come out on the court and throw balls up in the air for you for a quarter of an hour every day. Gradually you will come to judge the speed and position of the ball; you will time it properly, balance yourself, and at the psychological instant in its downward flight give it a smart, swift blow, downward and forward. And be sure to carry through.

18. Volleying After Service.
If you have developed a service so good that it justifies you following it up to the net, you will have many chances to cultivate your volleying. It is quite useless to go to the net on a short ball, whether it is a service or a drive, but whilst you are practising it is well to go up on everything as it will help you develop a service that will justify your going to the net.

Possibly the best service to go to the net on is the American service, which was first invented by Holcombe Ward. This service has not only break but kick as well. It was developed in a great degree by Morrice McLaughlin and in these days, probably Patterson has the best service of this kind. I am not, however, advocating that this service should be used alone. It is very tiring, and I have often seen players, who used it, completely exhausted before the end of the match.

This service is made by swinging the arm behind the back and striking the ball as it swings upwards and forwards and from the right to the left as the racquet passes from behind the right shoulder till it passes in front of the head. The ball must be struck as the racquet has this upward movement. This produces the over spin which is essential to the American service.

19. The Lob.
Should your opponent run up to the net to volley, there are two things you can do. Either lob the ball over his head or, if you are expert enough, endeavor to drive so fast and accurately that you pass him down the side line without your ball going out of the court. The mistake most players make in lobbing is that they do not hit the ball high enough in the air. A good lob should be well out of reach of your opponent and should drop near the corner of the base line on your opponent's court from which point it is much more difficult to make an effective return than from the centre of the court.

The Kinsey Brothers of California have been ranked in the last few years, quite high in the United States, and their success is much due to effective lobbing at the right moment. They lob high and put a bit of running under-top on, which makes the ball jump forward when it hits the ground. Colonel Foulkes, who has won more championships than any other Canadian, relies much on the lob, at which he is an expert, and which has enabled him to defeat many fundamentally more brilliant players.

20. Fancy Strokes.
I cannot impress too strongly on my readers the fallacy of attempting fancy strokes. The simpler and orthodox strokes are much easier to learn and much more effective in practise. Had the player who makes a point of attempting slashing strokes all the time and hitting the ball as hard as he can, is sure to make a failure of the game.

It will take you thousands of practise strokes to learn to master one orthodox stroke effectively. And it will take you even just as much time to acquire proficiency in any fancy strokes. As the latter can at best be used only occasionally in the course of a game, you would need to have unlimited time at your disposal, indeed, to warrant your devoting much attention to them.

Practise your forehand and backhand drives by knocking the ball against a blank wall, as Wilding did in his early days; this is not only the best way to perfect your strokes, but will give your eye proper training and teach you quite a bit about the bound of the ball and its flight through the air. The latter are two points to study. You have to judge the distance on every stroke for if you let the ball get too close to you, you will not be able to stroke freely.

21. Pace.
A great many players consider that for pace it is necessary to use the wrist, and although both the wrist and fore-arm play an important part in adding pace, in that they help to give the proper top to the ball at the last moment by bringing the racquet above the ball, it is, however, the proper use of the body swing and follow through with the racquet that really gives speed to a return.

S. H. Smith, probably had the finest forehand drive that has ever been seen in lawn tennis and his wrist was quite firm at the time the stroke was made. Smith, by the way, never took any notice of the man on the other side of the net when playing a shot, particularly if he was running up to the net. He would simply send his return down to a certain spot as fast and as truly as he could and whilst he was playing on the English Davis Cup team, defeated quite easily the best volleyers that the United States had.

Perfect timing with body swing and follow through, have more to do with pace than anything. H. L. Doherty got more pace on the ball with less effort than any player I have ever seen, just from perfect co-ordination of these principles.

PAINS ACROSS THE BACK

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mitchell, Ontario.—"I have taken your medicine for a number of years. I do not take it steady all the time, but I am never without it. I always keep it in the house. I took it first for pains in the abdomen and bearing-down pains, headaches and pains across the back. I have my home to look after and many a day I could not get up at all. I saw the advertisement in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Mrs. John Miller told me about it, too. Every time I take it, it makes me feel better and I always recommend it to my friends. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about this medicine and you may use this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. F. J. WASSMANN, Mitchell, Ontario.

The merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is told by women to each other. Many women know by experience what this medicine will do and they are anxious for others to know.

Such testimony should cause any woman suffering from the troubles so common to her sex to give this well-known medicine a fair trial.

Do you know that in a recent canvass among women users of the Vegetable Compound over 220,000 replies were received. To the question, "Have you received benefit by taking this medicine?" 98 per cent. replied "Yes."

This means that 98 out of every 100 women are in better health because they have given this medicine a fair trial.

OCTOGENARIAN OF LAURA IS BURIED

Thos. Cummings, Sr., Laid to Rest; Came to Saskatchewan Fifteen Years Ago.

The following dispatch, taken from the Saskatoon Star of May 14, will be of interest to many old residents in and around Watford. Mr. Cummings was for many years a resident of this district, and moved to the West about fifteen years ago.

"A large crowd from Tessier and Laura gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cummings, a few miles north of Tessier on Wednesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Thomas Cummings, Sr., who died on Tuesday morning at one o'clock. Mr. Cummings had reached the ripe age of 82 years and until comparatively a short time before his death enjoyed remarkable health. He lived in Laura until a few weeks ago when his son took up residence on his homestead to attend the spring work. The family were to return to Laura at the completion of the spring term. The service was conducted jointly by the pastors of Tessier and Laura, Revs. Andrew Walker and Phos. Curran.

"Mr. Curran voiced the sympathy of the large number of mourners present mentioning the various qualities which characterized the life of the departed as a friend and neighbor. Mr. Walker at the graveside gave a brief account of the last conversation he was privileged to have with the departed.

"The chief mourners were Herbert Cummings, Alsask; Tom Cummings, Laura; Lorne Cummings, Saskatoon; sons; Mrs. J. W. Wilson, Saskatoon; Mrs. F. Rogers, Laura; Mrs. G. Anderson, Birdview, granddaughters. Mrs. W. Parker of Carstairs, Alta., was prevented from attending through sickness. Mrs. John Hodgson jr., and Mrs. J. Hodgson, sr., both daughters, living at Regina, visited their father on Saturday and returned just before his death.

"The floral tributes were received from the family, and from Mr. and Mrs. C. Lawton, Tessier; Mrs. J. W. Parker and daughters; Knox Church, Tessier.

"The late Mr. Cummings was born at Orangeville, Ont., and came west in September 1909 settling at Tessier and residing there until his removal to Laura a few years ago."
