

Technical and Bibliographic Notes / Notes techniques et bibliographiques

Canadiana.org has attempted to obtain the best copy available for scanning. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of scanning are checked below.

- Coloured covers /
Couverture de couleur
- Covers damaged /
Couverture endommagée
- Covers restored and/or laminated /
Couverture restaurée et/ou pelliculée
- Cover title missing /
Le titre de couverture manque
- Coloured maps /
Cartes géographiques en couleur
- Coloured ink (i.e. other than blue or black) / Encre de couleur (i.e. autre que bleue ou noire)
- Coloured plates and/or illustrations /
Planches et/ou illustrations en couleur
- Bound with other material /
Relié avec d'autres documents
- Only edition available /
Seule édition disponible
- Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin / La reliure serrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la distorsion le long de la marge intérieure.

- Additional comments /
Commentaires supplémentaires:

Canadiana.org a numérisé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de numérisation sont indiqués ci-dessous.

- Coloured pages / Pages de couleur
- Pages damaged / Pages endommagées
- Pages restored and/or laminated /
Pages restaurées et/ou pelliculées
- Pages discoloured, stained or foxed /
Pages décolorées, tachetées ou piquées
- Pages detached / Pages détachées
- Showthrough / Transparence
- Quality of print varies /
Qualité inégale de l'impression

- Includes supplementary materials /
Comprend du matériel supplémentaire

- Blank leaves added during restorations may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from scanning / Il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont pas été numérisées.

Hotel
Sorrento

(Madison Street at Terry)

SEATTLE

Recognized Throughout America as the Most Comfortable Hotel of the West

The Incomparable Scenic Hotel of the Pacific Coast

European and American Plan
Single Rooms and En Suite

“The DeLuxe”
Magazine

DAVID BISHAM.

Price 25 Cents

APRIL, 1914

Vol. 3. No. 2

COPYRIGHT 1914 BY ARTHUR F. WAKEFIELD
PUBLISHED BY THE "DE-LUXE" PUBLISHING CO., SEATTLE, WASH.
SECOND CLASS MATTER APPLIED FOR

Family Camp
July 1912

MRS. FREDERICK BENTLEY,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

A MEMBER OF THE MOST EXCLUSIVE SOCIETY CIRCLES; AS ARTIST AND MUSICIAN, MRS. BENTLEY IS ONE OF SEATTLE'S PROUDEST POSSESSIONS; AS FRIEND AND PATRONESS TO THE YOUNGER MUSICIANS,
SHE IS INVALUABLE.

IT WAS LARGELY THROUGH HER UNTIRING EFFORTS, SUPPORT AND ADVICE, THAT WE WERE ENABLED TO ENJOY A SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
FOR TWO YEARS, WHICH SAME UNSELFISH PATRONAGE SHE IS NOW GIVING TO THE PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA.

What the Publishers Have to Say

WE THINK this is the best issue given to the public since we started to publish the "De-Luxe" Magazine. The illustrations are as near perfection as the art of printing can make them, while the text matter is of a much more interesting nature than heretofore. We studiously endeavor to make each issue nearer perfection and the many congratulations we received upon the changes in the February number gave us an added impetus. Several suggestions were given us by our readers by which we could beautify the "De-Luxe," and we have gladly availed ourselves of them. There is nothing so appreciable as a suggestion made by one not financially interested. It stimulates to greater efforts; it also proves to us that the "De-Luxe" is well received, for it must be so to be worthy of their attention.

In this issue you will notice we have embodied the City of Tacoma. This was one of the suggestions we received from our readers and we are pleased to say it will hereafter become a regular feature of the "De-Luxe."

To our Victoria readers we must apologize for the omission of Social news in the last issue. While we dislike apologies, we feel it is due in this case; it was owing to a change in our Editorial staff on Vancouver Island, which made it impossible for us to get the material in time for the February number. This will not happen again, for we have acquired the valuable assistance of a well-known Victorian to handle the news of Vancouver Island, Mrs. C. M. Devlin.

Our readers will notice we have called this issue the April number. This, however, will not mean that subscribers will receive one copy less for the year's subscription comprises twelve numbers.

Editor's Note: Owing to an oversight we neglected to state in our last number that the French page was edited by Mademoiselle Denise Bringer.

SEA URCHINS OF THE PACIFIC COAST

MRS. CHARLES M. LEWIS,
OF
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY.

SEATTLE FRIENDS OF MR. AND MRS. LEWIS WERE DELIGHTED BY THEIR RECENT, THOUGH UNFORTUNATELY, BRIEF VISIT.

MRS. LEWIS, WHO IS A CHARMING TYPE OF SOUTHERN GENTLE-WOMAN, ENJOYS AS MUCH POPULARITY IN WASHINGTON, D. C., AS IN HER OWN HOME, AND AFTER A FEW DAYS IN CALIFORNIA, WILL GO DIRECT TO THE CAPITAL FOR THE REMAINDER OF THE WASHINGTON SEASON, WHERE SHE WILL DIVIDE HER TIME AS THE GUEST OF SPEAKER AND MRS. CHAMP CLARK AND COMMISSIONER AND MRS. CHARLES MC CHORD.

PHOTO BY JAMES AND BUSHNELL, SEATTLE.

THE SOCIAL MIRROR OF THE WEST

Volume 3

APRIL, 1914

Number 2

Copyright 1914 by Arthur F. Wakefield

Second Class Postoffice Privilege Applied For

CONTENTS

Our Photographs:

		Page.
Mrs. Frederick Bentley	1	Mrs. Charles H. Lilly..... 13
Mrs. Charles M. Lewis.....	3	Mrs. Charles L. Dunlap..... 15
Mrs. M. B. Augustine.....	7	Miss Winona Troup..... 25
Mrs. Edgar L. Webster.....	10	Lady McBride..... 26
Mrs. Gilbert Le Baron Duffy....	11	Victoria Ice Hockey Team..... 27

Men in the Public Eye:

Sir Donald Mann	35
What the Publishers Have to Say	2
Helen Igoe's Paris Fashion Letter—By Suzanne.....	16
"As Others See Us"—By Miss Jessie Allan	34

Society: The Social Mirror of the West.

Seattle	5	Olympia	21
Tacoma	17	Victoria, B. C.	23

Art, Etching and Engraving

The Theatre	31
Our French Page—Edited by Mademoiselle Denise Bringer.....	53

Serial Story:

"A Brigand in Love"—By Louise Winter.....	39
Woman as a Comforter	48
To Love, Honor and Obey	50
Book Reviews	55
Beauty Secrets for Women	60
David Bispham, Orpheum Theatre, Week of March 22nd.....	Cover Design

THE DE LUXE MAGAZINE

Published Monthly By
THE "DE-LUXE" PUBLISHING COMPANY,
522 CENTRAL BLDG., SEATTLE.

ARTHUR F. WAKEFIELD, Editor and Proprietor, 522 Central Bldg., Seattle
M. SHAPPEE, Secretary
Telephone Main 4384.

Victoria Representative, MRS. C. M. DEVLIN, 329 Michigan Street: Phone 3512-R

Twenty-five Cents a Copy. One Year, Two Dollars Fifty Cents.
Foreign Subscription, One Year, Three Dollars.

The "De Luxe" Magazine is for sale at all prominent news stands, trains, book-shops and hotels. In London at Hotel Carlton and Hotel Cecil; in Paris at Brentano's, No. 37, Avenue de l'Opera. The International News Company, 5 Breems Bldg., Chancery Lane, London, E. C. European Agents: The Puget Sound News Co., 802 Western Avenue, Seattle, Washington. American and Canadian Distributors.

Address all communications and make all checks payable to the
"DE-LUXE" PUBLISHING COMPANY, 522 CENTRAL BLDG., SEATTLE

SEATTLE

THOUGH unusually quiet all winter society folk have, nevertheless, welcomed the Lenten season, and except for the smaller, very informal affairs, are anticipating a real rest season. We seem, this winter, to have done everything by fits and starts.

Excepting dancing, however, to which we have been consistently loyal and for which we are still showing our enthusiasm, though in a quieter way as becomes the forty days of fasting and meditation. Even the most pronounced devotees of the Lenten season have been erratic in their playing this year. And though we have had a really successful Theatrical Season, we have scarcely had a full house anywhere, excepting at the Orpheum. This may, in a way, be accounted for by the lack of effort it requires to attend a vaudeville. Yet musically, Seattle may be proud of herself, for she certainly has turned out well to the many excellent concerts we have had, and her enthusiasm and appreciation have been most generously expressed.

We have had almost none of the large formal teas which were so popular a year ago. Hostesses and guests alike are gladly embracing the smaller, more informal affairs, where we can really be with, and enjoy the company we like. And how much more pleasure and benefit we get out of this intimate form of social intercourse. It is also due to this independent informality that we so frequently hear, now, such remarks as: "How delightful or how talented Mrs. So-and-so is. I really never knew her until winter."

Even dinners and luncheons have taken on this intimacy and we rarely now have affairs exceeding twelve or sixteen covers, where as we used, hardly to dignify such affairs as—dinners or luncheons—but rather referred to them as "small companies."

Our mental attitude concerning our Social life was cleverly summed up the other day, when some Eastern guests were asked how social Seattle impressed them, and one of the ladies spoke quickly and enthusiastically: "It's perfectly beautiful; it is even better than the South the way you let people right into your hearts and are still so splendidly and Westernly independent."

Interspersing our small teas, tangos and bridges, we have three or four larger affairs which have been all the more striking by contrast, a couple of real matrimonial surprises and numerous letters describing the wanderings of our many travelers. The splendid musicale, which Mrs. Charles D. Stimson gave February the ninth, was probably the most elaborate event of the month. Mrs. Stimson's home, on Minor Avenue and Seneca Street, which is always so hospitably beautiful, was gorgeous with masses of brilliant flowers in every room, each, however, having its own individual color scheme. Delighted exclamations were heard on all sides as one entered the reception room with its masses of exquisite American Beauty roses arranged with such beautifully artistic effect. Here we were greeted by Mrs. Stimson and Mrs. Willard Stimson of Los Angeles, and one forgot the beauties of the decorations in the sweetness and graciousness of the charming hostess and her Guest of Honor.

Entering the library, all aglow with the most wonderful pink chrysanthemums, the guests were undecided as to whether they were not more beautiful than roses. Then came the dining room, a perfect expression as a splendid climax of decorative art. Graceful swaying branches of white lilacs, brilliant yellow daffodils and deliciously sweet hyacinths, and one realized that spring is here.

The program which Mrs. Stimson had arranged comprised about a dozen numbers and was most satisfyingly given by Mrs. Lenore Gordon Foy, soloist, and Mrs. Inez Z. Morrison, at the piano.

De-Luxe Magazine

The rooms were filled but not overcrowded with a very appreciative audience.

The Junior Chaperon Club dance, Wednesday evening, February the fourth, which was given at Broadway Hall, was about the most enjoyable one of the series. Nearly all of the club members were there and as the guests were limited to out-of-town people, the hall was not uncomfortably filled for dancing.

The party took on rather the effect of a reception, as well as a dance, the guests being greeted by the officers: Mrs. Frederick Hall White, Mrs. James Macfarlane, Mrs. Henry C. Ristine, Mrs. George B. Harrington and Mrs. Paul Mandel Henry.

A buffet supper was served from an attractive table, with Mrs. J. Thomas Dovey and Mrs. L. B. Stedman presiding.

Preceding the dance, Mr. and Mrs. White entertained the committee of this and last year at the University Club Annex.

Around the spring flower-bedecked table they had with them Mr. and Mrs. George B. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. James Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mandel Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Ristine, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Jamieson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Tate Mason, Dr. and Mrs. Frank N. Chessman, Miss Eleanor Ristine of Crawfordville, Indiana, and Mr. Harvey Carr.

There have been a number of attractive luncheons, bridges and teas given at the Sunset Club during the month. The members are availing themselves of the pleasant rooms for entertaining, and nearly every day sees some form of festivity.

Wednesday, February the fifth, Mrs. Winfield R. Smith, president of the Club, entertained with five tables of bridge, followed by an informal tea for Mrs. Fred S. Stimson's house guests, Mrs. Marvin and Mrs. Waldron of Michigan. Mrs. Wallace Green Collins and Mrs. Fred S. Stimson presided over the tea table.

The following day Mrs. E. F. Blaine, gave a luncheon for the same Honor Guests, with sixteen ladies present.

And again on the succeeding Thursday Mrs. Fred Stimson entertained for her guests with a third luncheon. The unusually attractive table was dressed with a cover of cluny lace over pink satin on which was a low mound of hyacinths, daffodils and maidenhair ferns with corsage bouquets of the same flowers at the places of the fourteen guests.

Saturday evening, February the seventh, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sharpless used the club for their buffet supper. They had blue ribbon-bowed, tall-handled baskets filled with beautiful spring flowers centering the table, and presiding over it, Mrs. George H. Walker, Mrs. John Powell, Mrs. Dr. C. W. Sharpless and the hostess.

After the jolly supper the twenty-four guests played bridge, Mrs. Winfield R. Smith and Mr. L. E. Eyman winning the prizes.

Wednesday evening, the 28th, the members of the Wednesday Evening Card Club came as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pelly and enjoyed their regular evening at auction and dominos, Miss Ada Hanford and Mr. Charles D. Stimson winning the honors at cards and Mr. Reddick McKee the domino prize.

Mrs. Gallagher, wife of Major Hugh J. Gallagher, U. S. A., has with her, at her home on Harvard Avenue, her sister, Miss Paschel, and in her honor she gave on Saturday, February the seventh, a delightful luncheon of ten covers.

Miss Bernice Baker, of Tacoma, who is equally popular in Seattle, came over to be the guest of Miss Baillargeon for the Junior Chaperon Ball, and was Miss Baillargeon's honor guest at a dinner preceding the dance.

One of the larger affairs of the month was Mrs. Henry C. Hibbard's bridge afternoon at her home on Eighteenth Avenue North, February the fifth, when she had ten tables in play in rooms bedecked with pink carnations and delicate green foliage. Mrs. Alexander McClure Bell, who was Miss Ella Glispy, and Mrs. Wilmot Lilly, who was formerly Miss Beulah Yeakes, were assisting the hostess.

Miss Dorothy Stimson and Miss Florence Williams, who have been enjoying New York for several months, will remain there another month or so, but Mr. Thomas S. Stimson, who was with them for several weeks, has returned; and Miss Achsah Stimson, the cousin, who has been for the past few months in the Sacred Heart Convent in Ostend, Belgium, spent a week, the early part of the month, with Mrs. W. B. Robertson and her daughter Francis, in London, where Miss Frances is a vocal pupil with Mr. Frederick Powell, a former Seattle teacher.

MRS. M. B. AUGUSTINE,

FOR MANY YEARS ONE OF SEATTLE'S MOST BELOVED AND GRACIOUS HOSTESSES. MRS. AUGUSTINE'S AFFAIRS, WHICH PLAY A LARGE PART IN OUR SOCIETY LIFE, ARE ALWAYS CHARACTERISTIC IN THEIR ORIGINALITY AND THEIR INDIVIDUALITY.

PHOTO BY JAMES AND BUSHNELL, SEATTLE.

The Masque Ride at Sullivan's Academy drew an interested crowd Wednesday evening, February the fourth.

The riders showed real skill in executing waltzes, two-steps and even the modern tango.

The prize winners for the best costumes were Miss Mary Barlow Trimble, Miss Jerome Briggs and Mr. George Noble Skinner.

After the dancing there was a more general, but equally entertaining exhibition of jumping and obstacle racing. Taking part in these were: Miss Mary Barlow Trimble, Miss Helen Foster, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Juliet Atkinson, Mrs. James S. Goldsmith, Mrs. Dallas V. Halverstadt, Miss L. Armstrong, Miss Jerome Griggs, Mr. R. R. Frazier, Mr. Raymond Frazier, Mr. George Gund, Mrs. B. F. Fitch, Mr. Dan Hughes, Mr. James Clise, Mr. George Noble Skinner and Mr. H. H. Peck.

Mrs. Waldo Richardson, who was Miss Ora Brown, Mrs. Amos Brown's daughter, was hostess Wednesday afternoon the fourth of February, at a bridge-tea in her home, 2816 Tenth Avenue North, entertaining twenty-four guests for the game, the prizes going to Mrs. Clare Farnsworth, Mrs. William Chester Keith, Mrs. O. W. Crockett, Mrs. J. A. Paine, Mrs. E. P. Mulvey and Miss May Goldsmith. A large number of guests came in for tea later, when Mrs. Michael Earles, Mrs. Alfred Battle and Mrs. Clarence B. Lamout presided over a table made attractive with pink carnations, surrounded by pink candles in crystal holders and tied with pink tulle.

Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Lamson, who were recently married and are making their home at the Perry Hotel, were honored by Mrs. M. B. Augustine, with a dinner of fourteen covers, at the Hotel Sorrento, Thursday, February the twelfth.

Mrs. Lamson is a vivaciously charming and talented little woman and has already won the hearts of many Seattleites who are eager to welcome her and to help her to become acquainted in her new home.

The new series of the Hotel Washington dansants is proving, if anything, more popular than its predecessors. This may be due to the easy familiarity everyone is beginning to feel with the new dances, or it may be that we are getting used to dancing in the afternoon. In any case each Saturday brings out a larger attendance and it has become quite a usual place for people to drop in for a cup of tea and an excuse to keep in "dancing form," as one young man expressed it the other day. Then there have been a number of people taking advantage of this easy form of entertaining and the tables are usually surrounded with congenial little groups, with an occasional larger party, such as Mrs. Arthur Wilson Denny gave February the eighth, when she had twenty young people with her in compliment to Miss Julia Hendry, recently of New York, but now of this city.

The following Saturday there was a slight variation made by introducing bridge before the dancing hours, twelve hostesses, each entertaining a table. On this afternoon Mrs. Hendrick Suydam also entertained a large number of young people.

Mrs. Suydam has made a real success of these affairs and we are wondering if her departure for New York will mean their cessation.

Neighborhood entertaining, which has always been so popular in Seattle, has fallen off, decidedly, this winter. And in each section we hear complaints of inactivities in this line.

Capitol Hill, which has probably enjoyed more card and dancing clubs than most any other locality, has felt this very much. So many of the attractive homes have been unoccupied this winter, except by servants. Among those who have spent most of the winter out of town are The E. A. Stuarts with their debutante daughter Katherine; The Thos. Bordeaux; The Samuel Hedges; Mrs. David Edward Skinner; The David Whitcombs, who have returned for a week now and then between trips; The Frank Roddics; Mrs. E. B. Burwell; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McCaughey, and many others.

The Calico Ball, given Shrove Tuesday, proved a decided novelty and success. There were about three hundred guests present. The girls—and they seemed to be all just girls and boys—were mostly arrayed in calicoes and cool summerish-looking dimities and the like, while the boys were gayly garbed in white flannels, ducks and some in overalls. It seemed that the servant problem could and should have been settled once for all, that evening, while there was such an abundance of available housemaids, milkmaids, properly uniformed and attractive maids in every guise, as well as abundance of, at least, useful-looking is such a blessed and pleasant every kind of frivolity and ec- and every one entered into the the occasion, until it was hard to at they were not a crowd of rol- boys and girls enjoying a real barn the supper which was served dur- evening in the adjoining banquet a real country spread, served from counter placed on one side of the draped in yellow and white bunt- ht up here and there with clusters shioned daisies.

menu itself was beautifully appro- and consisted of great red apples, sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee, Mrs. Anna Thomsen Melburn dis- smiles, pleasantries and genuine hos-

Among those attending were seen d Mrs. George B. Kittinger, Mr. s. William Pitt Trimble, Mr. and Joshua Green, Major Hugh J. Gal- U. S. A., and Mrs. Gallagher, Mr. rs. James D. Hoge, Judge and Mrs. s Burke, Mr. and Mrs. William S.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Russell, d Mrs. J. Tate Mason, Mr. and E. A. Fransioli, Judge and Mrs. R. inger, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Taw- r. and Mrs. James E. Morgan, Mr. rs. Henry R. Harriman, Mr. and George F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. ck Suydam, Mr. and Mrs. Charles d Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul el Henry, Mr. and Mrs. L. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradley ger, Col. Richard H. Wilson, U. S. d Mrs. Wilson of Fort Lawton, E. W. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. A. awley, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Hem- Mr. and Mrs. George Hyde Pres-

Miss Katherine Kittinger, Miss Emma rgeon, Miss Marjorie Kittinger, Edwina Danner, Miss Janet Danner, Hazel Archibald, Miss Katherine Miss Clara Weston, Miss Theresa sen, Miss Dorothy Winslow, Miss orie Capps, Miss Ada Hanford, Miss Gazzam, Mrs. Marshall Peterson, Dora Ranke, Mrs. John T. Cam-

Mrs. Anna Thomsen Melburn, Miss a Meacham, Miss Marguerite Ausias urenne, Miss Cowgill, Miss Hazel es. Miss Imogene Carraher, Miss Miss Marion Fry, Miss Dorothy Miss Katherine Esterly, Miss Mil- Prosser, Miss Dorothy Fay. Mr. Perry, Mr. John Baillargeon, Mr.

Frank Bell, Mr. Homer Dawson, Mr. Ted Owens, Mr. Henry Weston, Dr. A. B. Linne, Mr. Robert Capps, Prof. Milnor Roberts, Dr. T. F. Davidson, Mr. Carl Ballard, Mr. Gerald Shannon, Mr. Harvey Carr, Mr. Clarence Hanford, Mr. Edmund Bowden, Capt. Percy L. Mills, U. S. A., and Capt. McNab, U. S. A., of Fort Lawton.

Many of the people who attended the Calico Ball also enjoyed the Mardi Gras Ball, which was given at the Rainier Club the same evening.

For several years the club has made a feature of these most festive occasions, and they are about the only time during the year when the members really forget their dignity, at least in the club house, but they seem then to make up for the staidness of the whole year. The ball was preceded by the usual dinner, the carnival spirit holding sway throughout the evening.

The main dining room was filled with many tables made attractive with brilliant nosegays, while the rest of the room was banked with palms and bay trees, with flags—large and small—everywhere. The guests made gay with their paper hats, black masks, whistles, horns, fans—and even mirrors as favors.

Among those present were Judge and Mrs. Burke, Major Hugh J. Gallagher, U. S. A., and Mrs. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. William Pitt Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Green, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blethen, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chiberg, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard Stimson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Broderick, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Webster, Mr. Clare E. Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Douglas, Mr. H. V. Houser, of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Charles Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pye Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Taylor, Mrs. Agnes Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDermott, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Foster, Miss Llewellyn Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hudson Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Harbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mor- ton, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swalwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Frink, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowman, Mr. and Mrs. George Butler Lamping, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hurlbut,

MRS. EDGAR L. WEBSTER,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

PETITE, DAINY, ATTRACTIVE MRS. WEBSTER, WIFE OF EDGAR L. WEBSTER, PRESIDENT OF THE ARCTIC CLUB, IS A MOST DELIGHTFUL HOSTESS AND AN EQUALLY CHARMING GUEST.

PHOTO BY JAMES AND BUSHNELL, SEATTLE.

MRS. GILBERT LE BARON DUFFY,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

SEATTLE IS INDEED FORTUNATE IN HAVING MRS. DUFFY MAKE HER FUTURE HOME HERE, WHERE AS MISS FLORENCE BLETHEN, HER POPULARITY IN-SURES HER ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME TO THE RANKS OF THE YOUNG MATRONS.

To have that "right" look to your feet. To promenade your own highway of fashion in shoes that are right in style, fit, wear and price. This model is deserving of your attention.

A patent colt button boot with moderately long vamp, whole quarter of brocaded vesting in light gray, brown or black; has light-weight hand-welted sole and Spanish Louis heel. Priced at $5.95.

MacDougall-Southwick

SECOND AVENUE AND PIKE STREET
SEATTLE, WASH.

and Mrs. H. Logan Geary and Captain Mrs. Lynn.

and Mrs. William N. Redfield, their charming twin daughters, Miss and Miss Edith, are being eagerly welcomed home after their six months' sojourn abroad.

The young ladies were two of the most popular of last season's debutantes and have been sadly missed this winter.

We have had a number of notable out-of-town guests during the month. Miss Anna Hay, daughter of the late Governor, has been spending some time with Mrs. Edward Chilberg. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis, of Louisville, Kentucky, spent a few days here with The Henry Harringtons on Capitol Hill. Most of their time was spent in sight-seeing, but Mrs. Harrington got a hurried company together Sunday evening with an informal supper and Monday, before they left on the Pullman Limited, there was an equally informal breakfast at the Washington.

Mr. Jafet Lindeberg of San Francisco, a guest of The Chilbergs and entertained a number of dinners and dances here and very kindly left with us the new dances, which are now being danced in San Francisco.

Two real surprises came in the wedding of Miss Dorothy Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lilly, and Miss Juliet Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Atkinson.

Both engagements had been formally announced and we were beginning to anticipate large formal weddings when we picked up the morning papers and found that Miss Lilly had been suddenly and secretly married at home the night before. We gasped, for some were already planning what to wear at the wedding, while others planned the clever congratulatory remarks they were going to make.

But now, when we stop to think, we realize that Miss Dorothy was always an independent young lady, with the courage to do what she wished even though it might be novel and unexpected.

MRS. CHARLES H. LILLY.

Miss Atkinson had gone to New York for a visit and her wedding, while there, was quite the logical thing, as the groom was a resident of the far East. We are very sorry, indeed, to lose her and we shall miss her dreadfully.

This coming week we have the wedding of Miss Mabel Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barber, of Denny-Blaine Park, and Mr. George Donald McDonald, of Omaha, Nebraska. This will also be a quiet home affair with only the bride's pretty sister, Ruth, in attendance.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamont gathered at their home on Capitol Hill to help celebrate Mr. Lamont's birthday. They enjoyed the usual jolly time, which The Lamonts have the knack of giving their guests.

There were cards and dancing, the card honors going to Mrs. John H. Ballinger, Mr. C. M. Seeley and Mr. and Mrs. Julius H. Bloedel.

Everyone is looking forward to the Charity Ball which—judging from the standard established by the preceding ones, and from the list of prominent patronesses and ladies having the thing in charge, is bound to be a great success.

Mrs. Thomas Burke joined the many Seattle travelers in California this week. She will spend some time with her mother, Mrs. McGivray, and then will go on to Florida, where Judge Burke will meet her, and they will then go north to Washington, D. C., and New York.

We are relieved to get word from Santa Barbara, California, that Mrs. Helen Lindler is slightly better. Though the improvement is but slight, we are hopeful of her recovery. Seattle needs her.

Really, Del Monte has seemed like a Seattle hotel this winter, so many of our people are there, and on the golf links you could almost imagine you were at the Highlands. Those who are now returning report a "splendid season." Among these are The Dave Mosses, and, by the way, he is looking much better than when he went away; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Henry; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stewart; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blothen; The Elton Answorths; The Shallenbachers; The R. D. Merrills; Mrs. Walter Fulton and her parents, Captain and Mrs. James Nugent.

There were a number of pleasant parties that took place St. Patrick's Day, foremost among which was the large bridge Mrs. Richard Ballinger and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Bradley Ballinger, gave at the home of the former in honor of the Misses Purdy of Bellingham, who, by the way, we are beginning to feel belong almost as much to us as to Bellingham.

Then there was the large charity bridge for the benefit of the Seattle Day Nursery, at which the committee in charge had at least a hundred tables. Mr. Frank Mc Dermott, who is always so big-hearted and charitable, gave the ladies the top floor of the Bon Marche for this and also furnished all the decorations and accommodations.

Shop For Women

HELEN IGOE

THE OPERA

THE OPERA HOUSE
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1910
8:00 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1910
8:00 P. M.
THE OPERA HOUSE
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1910
8:00 P. M.

THE OPERA HOUSE
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1910
8:00 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1910
8:00 P. M.
THE OPERA HOUSE
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1910
8:00 P. M.

1512 SECO

SEATTLE

MRS. CHARLES L. DUNLAP,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

DUNLAP'S WEDDING, WHICH TOOK PLACE AT 10
FEBRUARY EIGHTEENTH, WAS AN AFFAIR OF SOCIAL IMPORTANCE IN UNIVERSAL

Helen Igoe's Paris Fashion Letter

BY SUZANNE

Paris, March 2, 1914.

La semaine dernière j'ai eu sous les yeux une procession sans fin de mannequins étalant les modes du printemps.

Les fameux couturiers de Paris exposent en ce moment le dernier cri de leur art.

En commençant avec les costumes tailleurs: Le drap feutre semble être le matériel en vogue.

Les jaquettes sont très amples et les manches droites ainsi que les manches kimonos sont également portées. Quelques modèles sont courts; genre boléro, tandis que d'autres sont longs derrière et courts devant.

Les jupes sont loin d'être simples; elles sont drapées au dos; draperies qui sont souvent faites avec une étoffe écossaise ou d'un matériel à rayures; ces étoffes dépassent l'ourlet sur le devant de la jupe; les jupes sont aussi garnies de volants, mais même avec les volants on conserve les draperies du dos légèrement relevées.

Les derniers cols sont hauts sur la nuque, quelques-uns ont la ligne très sévère tandis que d'autres sont très gracieux et très fantaisie.

Une bande de velours autour du cou est maintenant en vogue. Le taffetas est employé pour robes avec jaquettes assorties aussi bien pour le soir que pour l'après-midi.

J'ai vu aussi beaucoup d'attrayants manteaux, très amples aux épaules et en tombant très gracieusement; ces manteaux sont souvent garnis de bouillonnements de fronces et de choux du même matériel.

Quelques robes du soir et quelques robes d'après midi ont le genre basque un peu modifié c'est-à-dire, pas serré à la taille mais assez ample; quelques robes d'après midi avaient la basque assez longue, plus bas que les hanches, serrée avec une ceinture.

Avec ces basques j'ai vu des jupes très serrées autour des hanches et retenues avec un chou tandis que d'autres

(Continued on Page 20)

Paris, March 2, 1914.

The past week I have been viewing seemingly endless processions of manikins displaying the Spring fashions. The famous designers of Paris have opened their doors and are displaying the latest achievements in their art.

To begin with the tailored suits—gabardine seems to be the favorite material—a kind of whipcord. The jackets are all loosely fitted and both kimona and set-in sleeves are shown. Some models are short—bolero effect—while others are long in the back and short in the front.

The skirts are anything but plain; they are draped up in the back, frequently showing a plaid or striped material, which also shows below the hem in front; or, they show circular flounces; but even with these flounces the effect is that of being draped up in the back—if only slightly raised.

The newest collars are high in the back—some quite severe in line, while others roll gracefully. The band of black velvet around the neck has returned to favor.

Taffeta is used for frocks with jackets to match, as well as for afternoon and evening gowns. I also saw many attractive wraps in this material—hanging quite full from the shoulders and frequently trimmed with shirrings and puffings of the same material.

Some of the afternoon and evening frocks displayed the basque effect modified—that is, not tightly fitted, but quite loose. In some of the afternoon frocks the basque was quite long—well down over the hips, tied with a sash in the back.

With these basques I saw skirts drawn around the hips quite closely and fastened in the back in a puff, while others had a narrow skirt with a tunic. Both at Premet's and at Lavin's I saw modified hoop skirts with many flouncings and Premet presented the pantalette with these frocks. In fact all the Spring fashions seem to be a revival of bygone days—a revival of several periods.

An attempt has been made to revive the Marie Antoinette fashion of powdered hair.

(Continued on Page 20)

TACOMA

VERILY Tacoma has had her share of social functions during the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Blanchard entertained February the 14th at a handsome dinner dance at their home on North Yakima Avenue, honoring Mr. and Mrs. F. Walker Foster, whose recent marriage was an interesting event in society. The appointments were meticulously carried out with Prussian red and cupid favors of St. Valentine's

The two dining rooms of Mrs. Richard's beautiful home were thrown together for the dancing between six and after dinner. The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Walker Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison G. Foster, and Mrs. W. C. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hale, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson, and Mrs. Howard Plummer, Mr. and Mrs. S. Morley Jackson and Dr. and Mrs. W. Mowers. Other guests joined the party later for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drury spent the latter part of last month in Olympia, guests of Governor and Mrs. Lister at the mansion from Monday until Thursday. Mr. Drury, during a recent trip East, visited Mrs. Florence Lister at the Ingleside school in Connecticut from which she will graduate in June. Mr. and Mrs. Drury were the guests at a big card party at the residence Monday evening and were in the driving line with Governor and Mrs. Lister at a handsome affair given at the Chamber home in Olympia Wednesday evening.

During the same week a brilliant throng of society people dined and danced in the ever filled, brilliantly lighted dining room of the Tacoma Hotel. A great red heart with a cupid arrow piercing it was suspended at the center of the room and from it radiated scores of colored lanterns in festoons. The women were all in elaborate evening costume and the scene was indescribably lovely. Among those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilkeson, John S. Baker, Mrs. Charles Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hellar, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Rice, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bakes, Donald McFadon, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Parsons, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Grosscup, Clarence H. Lind, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Thompson, Mrs. H. C. Potter, Chauncey Howe and Ben Norman.

Mrs. Charles Richardson entertained a party of twelve young people in honor of the birthday of her son, Peter Richardson. The guests were Miss Hudson, Miss Loose, Miss Raze, Miss Baker, Miss Jones, Miss Kershaw, Messrs. Mitchell, Keyes, Lyle, Hudson, Caldwell and Hayden.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilkeson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Law, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pulford, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Fransioli and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Griggs.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Burke entertained at their table Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Baker, Miss Lee and Jason Moore.

John S. Baker had as guests Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Burrill, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hacker and Major and Mrs. Everett Griggs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Morley Jackson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Harvey, Miss Margaret Smith and Mr. Claggett.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carstens entertained Mr. and Mrs. Allen V. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knapp Monroe and Mrs. J. Howell as their guests.

Charles H. Lind entertained at his table Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Jones and Miss Chapin of Portland.

Of the many many dances of the last month the closing dinner dance of the series given at the Tacoma Hotel was pre-eminent, both in beauty and appointments and smart attendance, and in every way quite outshaded the previous dances of the series.

De-Luxe
Magazine

The big dining room was for the time being the merry-making place for the wealth and fashion of Tacoma. The beautiful women of the smart set vied with each other in the daring styles of their costumes and in the grace of their dancing. During the dinner hour the seductive strains of "A Little More Ginger," the "Maurice" tango and "The Ragsman" were wafted above the tinkle of glasses and the clink of silver and china and with siren voice invited the diners into the pleasures of the dance. Between courses the rhythmic castle walk and the dainty hesitation held sway. A pretty touch during the dinner hour was the entrance of a flower girl in peasant costume with a huge basket of violet corsage bouquets and carnation boutonnières, the favors for the guests.

More than the usual number of handsome gowns were worn and attracted quite as much attention as the lovely dancing. Mrs. Everett Griggs, who is just home from abroad, wore a striking Parisian costume of the brilliant new green shade, with soft billows of white lace, that was most becoming to her type. Mrs. Robert A. McCormick, who is just back from the fashionable Southern beach resorts, wore another of the gowns that received much attention, one of the new orange shades, combined effectively with black velvet. Mrs. Paul J. Fransioli looked very stunning in a gown of old gold tone that just matched the sheen of her hair. Mrs. Horace Fogg was a charming picture in a smart white satin with a minaret of myrtle green, edged with mink. Of the young girls, Miss Grace Potter was a picture in a debutante gown of white, especially lovely with her blonde beauty, and Miss Marie Taylor, in a dainty accordion-pleated dancing frock of white chiffon, was noticeable both by the prettiness of her gown and the grace of her dancing.

Governor and Mrs. Ernest Lister visited in Tacoma during the past month, guests at the Tacoma Hotel. They attended a banquet in Puyallup Friday evening, February the twentieth, and later joined in on the dinner dance at the Tacoma Hotel and remained over for the Shriners' minstrel show at the Tacoma Theatre.

Among the more prettily appointed of the pre-Lenten parties was the linen shower and buffet luncheon at which Miss Blanche Sprague was hostess Saturday evening February 21st, at her home on South Ninth Street, honoring Miss Myrtle Graham, who will be an April bride. Decked in blossoms of crimson and yellow and artistically festooned in green, the rooms were spring-like and lovely, affording a delightful setting for the dainty party frocks worn by the eighteen more intimate friends of the bride-to-be, who were invited for the occasion. In the parlor ropes of ivy interlaced with red hearts were suspended from the chandelier to the room corners, while a similar scheme, with golden daffodils and greenery, was carried out in the dining room.

Clever and merry were the guessing games, honors going to Miss Mamie Foley and Mrs. Ernest Dreher. From a table pretty in appointment a charming buffet luncheon was served late in the evening. The central motif was a white and gold bridal cake from which fluttered tiny white doves as a favor for each guest. Contained within were the traditional ring, thimble and dime.

At the close of the luncheon a basket of handsome embroidered linen was placed at the feet of the bride-to-be, who ing much entertained in view of her approaching marriage.

Mrs. J. M. Dougan entertained Tuesday noon, February the 24th, at her handsome home on Prospect Hill at one of the elaborate of the pre-Lenten bridge complimenting 60 guests. The spare rooms with their artistic furnishings like a spring bower with masses of red and yellow daffodils in baskets and vases and jars. Mrs. Dougan received her guests in a beautiful imported gown of white lace over white silk with touches of red.

In the receiving line with her was Mrs. C. G. Arnold, gowned in champagne red broadcloth, with chiffon draperies and a Persian girdle. Twelve tables for auction were scattered through the rooms. Honors for high scores were taken by Mrs. M. J. Johnson, Mrs. G. L. Denman and Miss Hazel DeHuff. All during the afternoon an orchestra played a pretty program of music. After the game refreshments were served by caterers at the individual tables. A number of guests who did not receive cards came in for tea in the later part of the afternoon. Many handsome gowns were worn in honor of the occasion and the afternoon was exceptionally delightful.

Mrs. G. Coe Norton entertained March 1st at a prettily appointed luncheon of twelve covers complimenting Mrs. R. T. Buchanan. The table was adorned with low jonquils and the yellow color scheme was otherwise carried out in the appointments. The afternoon was spent informally with needlework. Covers were placed by Mesdames Buchanan, Herbert Hunt, M. J. Davis, C. Newcomer, William Staatz, M. J. Annard, C. J. Pugh, Harry Kirkpatrick, M. J. Newcomer, Miss Woodard, the hostess, Mrs. Norton, and her mother, Mrs. M. J. Chapman.

Miss Bernice Baker was unanimously elected to the presidency of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club at its annual meeting, Monday afternoon, March the second, at the club house and all the officers and members of the board were chosen from among the club's younger members. Miss Baker has served on the board and in official capacity for several years and her experience, coupled with her executive ability, fits her especially for the position which has many responsibilities in connection with the summer tournaments which center interest during the summer months. Other officers elected are: Percy Tyler, first vice-president; Mrs. Jack W. Browne, second vice-president; J. T. S. Lyle, secretary; Barton Kauffman, treasurer; members of the board of trustees, Miss Kathleen McMahan, Miss Ruth Davis, Mrs. E. E. Horgan, Mrs. John Dempsey, Miss Geneveive Wilson, Dr. Funk, Donald McFadon, Lambert Davis and Henry Pringle.

The club usually opens in May and during June, July and August is the gathering place for society. The club house, with its wide veranda, is the scene of many teas, and during the tournaments, which end in the big Pacific Northwest meet in August, is the recreation center of society.

The St. Cecelia Club is making arrangements for its annual concert, to be held April 14th, in the Tacoma Theatre, and the associate membership list is daily being increased by music patrons who greatly enjoy the club's beautiful concerts. This year the seats will be reserved and the gallery will be closed, precluding the crush that last season packed the theatre to the doors. To facilitate matters music lovers planning to attend the concert are asked to take out their memberships with the club treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Dickson, as soon as possible. The club is at work under the direction of Frederick W. Wallis and is preparing an exceptionally fine program which will have many attractive and novel features. Mrs. Miles L. Clifford is the club president.

For her class of Annie Wright seminary girls, Mrs. Metcalf entertained March the seventh in her home, 911 N. Eleventh Street, at a pleasant little party. The afternoon was merrily spent with a guessing contest. The guests found some difficulty in deciding what kind of cake would be appropriate for a long list of people, and it was not every one who realized that flannel cake was proper for babies, Johnny cake for dudes, puffs for advertisers, cup cake for old-fashioned doctors, that carpenters wanted plane cake; tanners, pancake; republicans, gold cake; lovers, kisses, and jewelers, gems. The prize in the contest was a cake. The guests were the Misses Marie Louise Jackson, Anna Allen, Dorothy Davis, Beatrice Outcalt, Elizabeth Smith, Deborah Allen, Catherine Henley, Charlotte Caldwell, Etta Hubley, Martha Albertson, Elizabeth Dover and Marguerite Grimes.

The same day Mrs. John H. Williams gave a charming five o'clock tea at her home on Tacoma Avenue honoring one of the season's brides, Mrs. Harry Pratt, and

Madame Amsbary

362-3-4 Empire Building

Phone Elliott 1788

Seattle

charming visiting girl, Miss Katherine Seymour of New York City. Mrs. Williams' guests were the younger matrons and girls. Serving at the tea table were Mrs. W. P. Reynolds and Miss Hudson, assisted through the dining room by Miss Kathleen McMahan, Miss Baillie, Miss Dorothy Kershaw, Miss Ava Raze, Miss Bernice Baker and Mrs. Clarence Post. The rooms were fragrant and lovely with decorations of the early spring blossoms.

One of the smart affairs of that week was an evening at cards given by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Cole at the Youngs' residence on North Proctor Street. The rooms showed an attractive decorative motif suggesting St. Patrick's Day, with green carnations and potted ferns. The score and place cards were decorated with shamrocks and the menu showed the shamrock designs. Honors at cards were taken by Mrs. Hugh Adams and Mrs. Paul Cole and Mrs. Clarence Yeager.

Helen Igoe's Paris Fashion Letter

(Continued from Page 16)

avaient une jupe étroite avec une tunique.

Chez Messieurs Premet et Lanvin j'ai vu des jupes panier modifiées avec beaucoup de volants et Monsieur Premet montrait les pantalettes avec ces robes.

Au fait toutes les modes du printemps sont un retour aux modes anciennes; un retour de plusieurs siècles.

Un essai a été fait pour faire revivre la mode: Marie Antoinette, des cheveux poudrés; effet produit en portant une perruque blanche. On montre aussi les perruques de couleur qu'on porte avec les robes de même couleur, ces perruques sont, cela va sans dire, portées seulement le soir; et l'effet qu'elles produisent est très chic, mais cette nouvelle idée sera-t-elle généralement acceptée? Cela reste à savoir.

Pour le moment, les chapeaux chics sont petits, mais la mode des chapeaux est très changeante et les grands chapeaux seront peut-être à la mode un peu plus tard.

On montre aussi plusieurs modèles style Louis XVI ces chapeaux sont relevés derrière.

La paille et la soie sont très employées et comme garniture les rubans et les fleurs sont très en vogue.

Je dois dire en passant que les petits produced by the wearing of a white wig. Colored wigs are also shown, corresponding in color with the gown with which they are worn. These wigs are, of course, only for evening wear, and they are rather effective; but it remains to be seen if this novel idea is generally accepted.

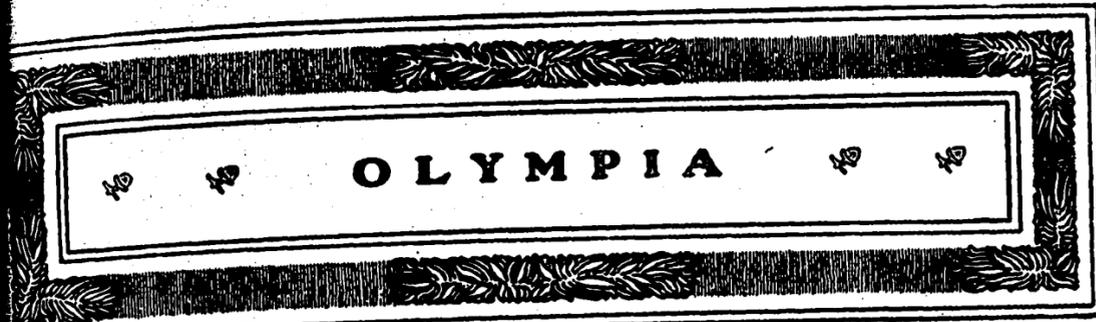

For the present, the chic hats are quite small, but the fashion in millinery constantly changes and the larger hats may be brought forth later. Many models are shown of the Louis XVI style, turned up in the back. Straw and silk are used for many of the effective novelties and for trimmings, ribbons and flowers are quite the vogue. I should also remark that the new small hats leave free much more of the hair—also that the tendency now is towards colored hats, instead of the eternal black. Dark blue and dark brown seem to be the favorite shades at present.

SUZANNE.

chapeaux laissent les cheveux plus libres.

La préférence est maintenant donnée aux chapeaux de couleur au lieu de l'éternel chapeau noir. Bleu marine et brun sont, je crois, les couleurs préférées de la saison.

SUZANNE.

APITOL society had one of the most notable affairs of the month in the marriage, Monday evening March second, of Miss Harriet Chadwick, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Stephen J. Chadwick, of the Supreme Court to Arthur T. Karr, North Yakima, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Karr, of that city. The Rt. Rev. Frederic W. Keator, Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, performed the ceremony in the music room of the Chadwick home in Olympia in the presence of about one hundred relatives and close friends.

The home was elaborately and tastefully decorated, the colors being green and white, with huckleberry, carnations, and narcissus predominating. The Episcopal ring service was read at an altar of palms and greens about which the bridal party gathered. Lilies of the valley made the dining room exquisite for the serving of the buffet supper, and the other rooms of the Chadwick home were prettily arranged.

The bridal party approached the altar just 8 o'clock, Miss Margaret Rankin playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Miss Chadwick entered on the arm of her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Chadwick, maid of honor. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white brocaded charmeuse with an overdrapage of rose point lace, and court train. The filmy tulle veil was delicately hand-embroidered and caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her sister, as maid of honor, was gowned in lace over pale green satin and carried a flower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses.

The groom was attended by his close personal friend, Bruce Beck, of Seattle.

Judge and Mrs. Chadwick were assisted in receiving the guests by Governor and Mrs. Ernest Lister, Mrs. H. A. Chadwick of Seattle; Mrs. F. L. Carr of Montevideo and Mrs. John W. Roberts of Seattle. Mrs. Horace Rand, Jr., of North Yakima, presided at the bride's table during the evening, assisted by Misses Mabel Springer, Elsie Doragh, Bess Cromble and Georgia Springer. Mrs. Wallace Mount, wife of Judge Mount, presided over the wedding cake, to which were attached many small envelopes in which were the favors for the close girl friends of the bride. The many beautiful gifts received were shown by Misses Beulah Partlow and Edna Crombie. Miss Lorraine Percival received the guests at the door. During the evening Miss Katherine Claypool sang a number of beautiful soprano solos.

Many beautiful gowns were worn in honor of the nuptials. Mrs. Chadwick was appropriately gowned in black charmeuse with an overdrapage of gold net.

The groom's wedding gift to his bride was a handsome lavallier of platinum and diamonds.

The groom is a graduate of the State University in the class of 1908. The bride is a graduate of the Olympia High School and of Chevy Chase.

Among the gowns worn were:

Mrs. Ernest Lister—Pale blue crepe de chine, trimmed in real lace and pearls.

Mrs. H. J. Maury, sister of the bride—Brocaded silk, with lace and fur trimmings.

Mrs. Mount—Apricot brocaded silk, trimmed in lace and black jet.

Mrs. Main—Brocaded yellow satin, trimmed in princess lace.

Mrs. Parker—Black charmeuse with lace and bead trimmings.

Mrs. Crow—Yellow brocaded satin.

Mrs. Ellis—White charmeuse, draped with white lace.

The guest list follows:
Judge and Mrs. Stephen J. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maury of The Dalles, Oregon; Master Mathew Fontaine Maury, and Miss Elizabeth Chadwick, constituting the immediate family of the bride with the exception of Stephen F. Chadwick, her brother, who is attending Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., Mrs. Jane A. Chadwick, mother of Judge Chadwick, and his sister, Miss Chadwick, both of Salem, Oregon; Mrs. W. T. Gray of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Chadwick of Colfax, Mrs. F. P. Maring of Seattle and Miss Plummer of Portland, Ore., sisters of Mrs. Chadwick; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Karr, parents of the groom; Miss Karr, his sister, of North Yakima, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKee of Hoquiam, Governor and Mrs. Ernest Lister and Supreme Judges and Mesdames Herman D. Crow, Wallace Mount, John F. Main, O. G. Ellis, E. N. Parker, M. F. Gose and G. E. Morris; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Meigs and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rand, Jr., of North Yakima, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Roberts, Lauron Hanford, Percy J. Perry, I. C. Parker, Miss Clara Nelson and Miss Janet Gray, all of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John March, Miss Florence March, Gordon March and Douglas, Judson, all of Tacoma; Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Carr and Miss Carr, of Montesano; Messrs. and Mesdames George Draham, Byron Allen, Edward Meath, Herman Ross, Wood J. Doane and O. C. Hanson; Misses Blendine Hays, Katherine Claypool, Beulah Partlow, Lorraine Percival, Elsie Doragh, Lucile McKinney, Edna Crombie, Bess Crombie, Gladys Clark, Elizabeth Streets, Margaret Rankin, Mabel Springer and Georgia Springer, and Messrs Noyes Talcott, Thomas L. O'Leary, John N. Donovan and John Van Etten, of Olympia.

De - Luxe
Magazine

The bridal couple left by auto for California on a wedding tour. They will return by way of Spokane, and will be at home after April fifteenth, at 614 South Sixth Street, North Yakima.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. MacR. F. Gose of Olympia, their only daughter, Lelah Vyvien, was married to Charles Allen McCleary, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCleary of McCleary, on Wednesday, February eleventh, at 7 P. M. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Lemuel H. Wells of Spokane, a lifelong friend of the family, assisted by Rev. Morrison of Olympia. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Maurine Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Campbell of Portland, one of that city's sweetest singers, sang beautifully, "Beloved, It Is Morn," after which Miss Erna Muehlenbruch, the talented Tacoma pianiste, played the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus," during which the bridal couple entered unattended. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful gown of supple charmeuse with rose point lace and pearl trimmings, and her veil, arranged in Dutch cap fashion, added to her radiant beauty. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley and Cecil Brunner roses. Their vows were plighted under a flower trimmed arch of lilies and carnations. The home throughout was artistically decorated with roses, carnations, violets, palms and ferns. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends from Olympia, Tacoma, Seattle, Portland and Pomeroy witnessed the ceremony. A bridal collation was served from a table handsomely decorated in cluny lace, pink roses and pink shaded candles, at which Mrs. Edward Miller, Jr., of Tacoma, and Mrs. J. R. Stevenson of Pomeroy, presided. Many beautiful gifts in silver, cut glass, pictures, Oriental rugs and checks attested the esteem in which the young couple are held. Immediately following the ceremony they left on their wedding journey, their destination being kept secret. They will be at home after April 15th, in their beautiful new home, 101 Sherman Avenue, Olympia.

The Society Stationery Shop of Seattle is now showing the newest style of Engraving for 1914 and 1915, it is known as Astor Text and appears to special advantage on the wedding announcements made in the panel effect which is a style recently adopted by the most exclusive engravers in the U. S. A. It also presents a very pleasing appearance on ladies' calling and reception cards.

VICTORIA, B. C.

THE most prominent social event of the past month was the ball given by Division B of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police Veterans' Association in the Alexandra Club on February 18th. The scene was a brilliant one, many uniforms adding to the gaiety of the scene.

It was a matter of extreme regret to the members of the Royal N. W. M. P. Veterans' Association that the serious illness of Colonel McIllree prevented his appearing at this, their first ball. Not only is Colonel McIllree one of the oldest timers in the N. W. M. P., but also one of its most popular officers. His kindly manner, charming personality, and big heartedness winning him many friends. It can be truly said of him that "He is every inch a soldier." In his absence, Mr. H. N. Nash also an old member of the R. N. W. M. P., assisted Mrs. Illree, and Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Griesbach, in receiving. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Paterson were present, the latter becomingly gowned in white satin with gold lace. Sir Richard and Lady McBride were unable to attend, to the regret of many.

Mrs. McIllree, looking very handsome and distinguished, wore a beautiful gown of rich black brocaded satin with berthe of exquisite Irish lace, held with a diamond butterfly, her ornaments being diamond necklace, pendant, and ear-rings.

Mrs. Griesbach was exceedingly well-gowned in black satin, draped with black silk point desprit and gold embroidered trimmings. Colonel Herckmer, who is head of the R. N. W. M. P. Veterans' Association in Vancouver, owing to his recent illness, was unable to attend, much to the disappointment of his brother officers and friends. Mrs. Herckmer, however, was here, and was much admired in a lovely French gown of pale blue chiffon, worn over shell pink charmeuse, gold embroidery and real lace. Her ornaments were a very handsome diamond and turquoise necklace and ear-rings. A string of tiny rose diamonds was worn in her hair with a pale blue osprey. Mrs. Ashe (whose husband, Captain G. P. Ashe, is an ex-member of the R. N. W. M. P.) wore a most graceful gown of blue silk, with lace overdress and touches of black velvet. Mrs. Adamson (wife of Captain Adamson, R. N. W. M. P., Edmonton), was in black chiffon velvet, with jet trimmings and shadow lace, and wore a lovely necklace of antique pearls. Mrs. Meakin, wife of Captain Meakin, ex-member, R. N. W. M. P., and daughter of Colonel and Mrs. McIllree, was sweetly pretty, wearing her wedding gown of white satin and Maltese lace. Mrs. (Colonel) Coy was exquisitely gowned in an imported creation of mauve brocaded chiffon velvet, gracefully draped in becoming effect, the décolletage exquisitely jeweled.

Among the many former Calgarians were Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Edwardes in salmon pink charmeuse, with overdress of pink sequin and bodice of shadow lace and red roses; Mrs. D. Forbes, pale blue silk, with overdress of real lace; Mrs. W. W. Foster, rose pink silk and chiffon with touches of black velvet and crimson roses; Mrs. E. F. S. Hodder, maize-colored brocaded satin with real lace and hand-embroidered gold trimmings, and wearing a diamond necklace and ear-rings, and Miss Isabel Monteith, in cream satin and pearls and scarlet carnations; Mrs. William Roper, flame-colored satin charmeuse with beautiful Irish lace overdress; Mrs. Cuppage, in white and silver; Mrs. Carlin, in white satin; Mrs. Charles Wilson, in black velvet and silver; Mrs. Wardle, in draped black satin charmeuse; Miss Lorna Dunbleton, shaded mauve ninon over satin; Miss Marian Pitts, white lace over pink brocade; Mrs. Stanley Wheatley, handsome in black brocade with long train; Miss Whearley, cerise satin and overdress of blue marquisette and marabout; Miss Honor Nash, emerald green satin and overdress of silver; Miss Gaudin, black satin and overdress of hand-painted chiffon; Mrs. J. S. Harvey, paddy green brocade and real lace; Miss Muriel Rant, old rose satin; Miss Marjorie Rant, pale pink charmeuse and shadow lace; Mrs. Sidney Asser, French gown of gold charmeuse, with lampshade tunic of bronze green chiffon; Mrs. A. H. Lawder, pale pink satin and pearl trimming with corsage and tunic of real lace; Miss Dora Lawder, a charming debutante in a simple gown of soft white satin and shadow lace and white carnations; Miss Evie Floyd, in white satin and touches of scarlet.

The ushers and stewards, all ex-members of the R. N. W. M. P., wore badges of scarlet and gold, the colors of the Veterans' Association. A unique feature was the dance program of white with gilt edge, with the crest of the R. N. W. M. P. and V. A. at each side in scarlet and gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Jamieson, of Honolulu, are the guests of Mrs. Jamieson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fitz-Herbert Bullen, Esquimalt Road.

Mr. F. M. Rattenbury gave a very jolly stag dinner during the past month at his residence "Iechineel," Oak Bay, in honor of Mr. Harry Bullen, who is leaving shortly for the Mediterranean.

During the early part of the past month Mrs. James Dunsmuir gave a smart "at home" at her handsome residence, "Westover." The artistic rooms were beautifully adorned with flowers. The drawing room and hall were arranged with large bowls of Callas and Pussy Willows. The tea table was most effectively arranged with masses of pink carnations and maidenhair fern, and a delightful orchestra played from the staircase landing during the afternoon.

Mrs. Dunsmuir received her guests in a handsome black and white gown, and was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Elinor and Muriel Dunsmuir.

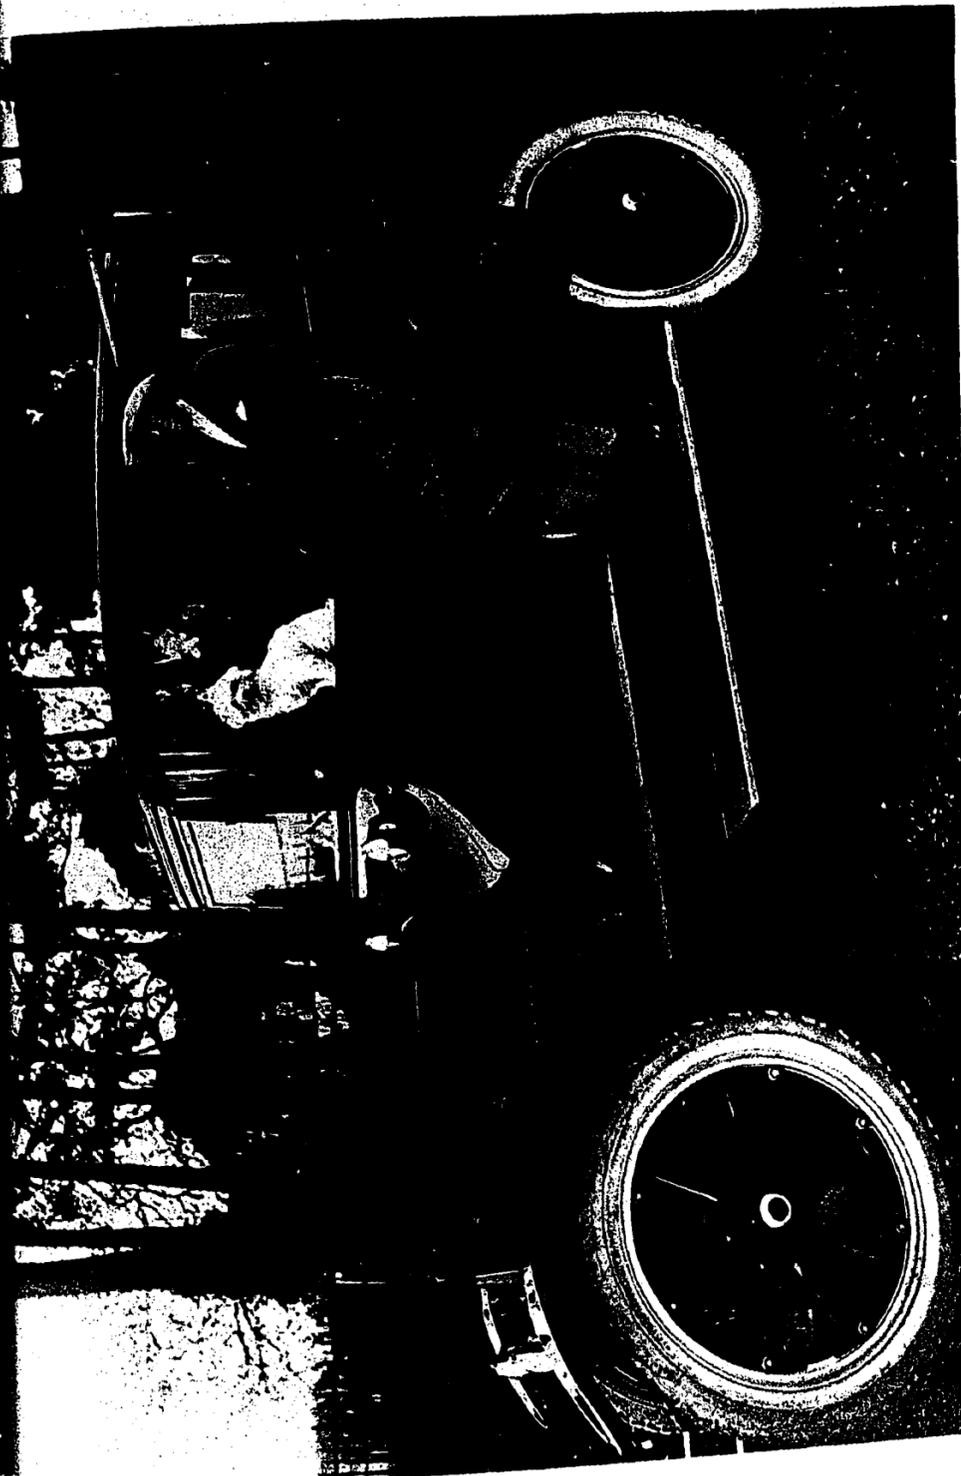

Among the numerous guests were Mrs. Paterson, Lady McBride, Mrs. Wasson, Mrs. Gordon Hunter, Mrs. Charles, Mrs. D. M. Eberts, Miss Eberts, Miss Mabel Eberts, Mrs. Burke-Roche, Mde. Martin and Miss Martin, Mde. Roy and Miss Roy, Mrs. Gavin Burns and the Misses Burns, Mrs. Richard Jones, Mrs. Helmcken and the Misses Helmcken, Mrs. Rome, Miss Marjorie Rome, Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson, Mrs. J. E. Wilson, the Misses Jones, Mrs. E. V. Bodwell, Miss Innes Bodwell, Miss Brownie Bodwell, Mrs. Thomas Pooley, Mrs. Cecil, Mrs. Charles Pooley, Miss Pooley, Miss Violet Pooley, Mrs. Charles Innes, Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mrs. Hebdan Gillespie, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Alexander Gillespie, Mrs. William Roper, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. J. Raymur and Miss Raymur.

The "Dausante" at the Empress on Saturday, February 14th, was one of the most delightful society functions of the season, and Mr. Jackson is to be heartily congratulated on having introduced a feature which evidently appeals to Victoria society. The beautiful ball room presented a perfect picture with its three hundred guests and a few colored decorations to relieve the dull white of the room. Mrs. Jackson entertained a few personal friends and there were numberless private parties scattered about the room. The center was kept clear for dancing, and Mrs. Lester and Mr. Ransford gave a finished display of tango dancing. A number of the guests also took advantage of the opportunity to waltz.

Mrs. Bernard Heisterman gave a smart tea on Friday afternoon, February 13th. Amid a perfect wealth of lovely spring flowers in the spacious dining room, Mrs. Jack Rithet and Mrs. T. O. McKay poured tea. Mrs. Heisterman wore a lovely white accordion pleated gown with real lace overdress. Among the guests were Mrs. David Ker, Mrs. R. Brett, Mrs. Tom Pooley, Mrs. Garnett Hughes, Mrs. Beauchamp Tye, Mrs. A. Robertson, Mrs. Grisley, Miss Gladys Peters, Mrs. H. Heisterman, Miss Heisterman, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Wilmot, Mrs. Jack Templeton, Mrs. Rispan of Chatham, Ontario, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Despard Twigg, Mrs. Maurice Cane, Mrs. Charles Wardle, Mrs. Lampman, Mrs. B. Prior, Mrs. A. Gillespie, Mrs. Spalding, the Misses Eberts, Miss Vera Mason, Miss Bodwell, Miss E. Hannington, Miss Troup, Miss Cecelia Helmcken, Miss L. Scott, Mrs. C. Payne, Miss Blackwood, Miss Cross, Miss N. Holmes, and the Misses Lawson.

Mrs. Jack Rithet entertained a large number of friends at her residence "Gisburn" on Wednesday afternoon, February 18th. The drawing room in which Mrs. Rithet received was a perfect bower of daffodils, and the dining room beautiful with clusters of pink and white roses. A lovely Flemish lace cloth covered the tea table, which was daintily done in pink and white sweet peas. In the conservatory, Turner's Orchestra gave some delightful selections. Among the guests were Mrs.

MISS WINONA TROUP,
VICTORIA, B. C.

PHOTO BY ARISTO STUDIO, VICTORIA.

