No. 252

OTTAWA, October 9, 1935.

SIR,-I have the honour to refer to my despatch No. 126,* dated the 17th May, 1935, and to the Civil Procedure Conventions which have been concluded with 1935, and to the Civil Procedure Conventions which have been concluded with Estonia, Denmark, Finland, Lithuania and the Netherlands, all of which have been signed and duly ratified.

I have the honour to state that His Majesty's Government in Canada desire that, in accordance with the stipulations therein contained, these Con-ventions shall be extended to Canada by notification to the respective Govern-ments ments. Such extension should, if it is possible, come into force from a fixed date. date and it is desirable that that date should be the first day of January, 1936. If, however, the adoption of a fixed date is impracticable, the date of ratification ^{would} be satisfactory; and, further, if the date suggested is not satisfactory, a later date satisfactory; and further, if the date suggested be adopted.

later date, say the first day of February, 1936, should be adopted. The authorities to whom judicial and extra-judicial Acts and Commissions Rogatoires are to be transmitted will be, where action is to be taken in any province: in the North West Province in Canada, the Attorney-General of such province; in the North West Territ Territories, the Commissioner of the North West Territories; and in the Yukon Territories, the Commissioner of the North West Territory. The language in which Territories, the Commissioner of the North West Territories; and in the Tukon Territory, the Gold Commissioner of that territory. The language in which communications to such authorities, and translations, are to be made, will be English, except in the Province of Quebec, where they may be made either in English on in Derech . In order to insure due execution, Commissions Rogatoires English or in French. In order to insure due execution, Commissions Rogatoires should contain full and complete interrogatories.

I have included a tabulated list of the Authorities, together with their addresses, in my despatch No. 251 of even date, herewith.

I shall be obliged, therefore, if steps will be taken to make the necessary ¹ shall be obliged, therefore, it steps ^hotifications to the interested Governments.

I have the honour to be,

Sir.

Your most obedient,

humble servant,

- (3) Through the post; or
- (4) By any other method of service which is not illegal, under the law existing at the time of service, in the country of execution.

(b) All documents served in the manner provided in (1) of the preceding paragraph shall, unless the recipient is a subject or citizen of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document to be served emanates, either be drawn up in the language of the country of execution or be accompanied by a translation into such language, certified as correct, as prescribed in Article 3 (c).

(c) The High Contracting Parties agree that in principle it is also desirable that the provisions of paragraph (b) of this Article should apply to documents served in the manner provided in (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of this Article. Nevertheless, in the absence of any legislation in their respective territories making translations obligatory in such cases, the High Contracting Parties do not accept any obligation in this respect.

 $^{(d)}$ It is understood that the question of the validity of any service effected by the use of any of the methods referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article will remain a matter for the free determination of the respective courts of the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their laws.

ARTICLE 5

(a) In any case where documents have been served in accordance with the provisions of Article 3, the High Contracting Party, by whose Consular Officer party any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country of execution to the persons employed to effect service, and any charges and expenses incurred in effecting service in a special manner. These charges and expenses shall not exceed such as are usually allowed in the courts of that country.

(b) Repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the competent authority by whom the service has been effected from the Consular Officer by whom the request was addressed, when sending to him the certificate provided for in Article 3 (h).

(c) Except as provided above, no fees of any description shall be payable by one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the service of any documents.

III.—Taking of Evidence

ARTICLE 6

(a) When a judicial authority in the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the other High Contracting Party, such evidence may be taken, whatever the nationality of the parties or witnesses may be, in any one of the ways prescribed in Articles 7, 8 or 9.

- (b) In Part III of this Convention, the expressions-
- (1) "Taking of evidence" shall be deemed to include the taking of the statements of a plaintiff, defendant, expert or any other person on oath or otherwise; the submission to a plaintiff, defendant, expert or any other person of any oath with regard to any legal proceedings; and the production, identification and examination of documents, samples or other objects.
- (2) "Witness" shall be deemed to include any person from whom any evidence, as defined above, is required to be taken.
- (3) "Country of origin" shall be deemed to mean the country by whose judicial authority the evidence is required, and "country of execution" the country in which the evidence is to be taken.

(a) The judicial authority of the country of origin may, in accordance with the provisions of the law of his country, address himself by means of a Letter of Request to the competent authority of the country of execution, requesting such authority to take the evidence.

(b) The Letter of Request shall be drawn up in the language of the count of execution, or be accompanied by a translation into such language. Sub translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer for the count of origin. The Letter of Request shall state the nature of the proceedings is which the evidence is required, giving all necessary information in regar thereto, the names of the parties thereto, and the names, descriptions and addresses of the witnesses. It shall also either (1) be accompanied by a list of interrogatories to be put to the witness or witnesses, or, as the case may he by a description of the documents, samples or other objects to be produced identified or examined, and a translation thereof, certified as correct in the manner heretofore provided; or (2) shall request the competent authority if allow such questions to be asked viva voce as the parties or their representative shall desire to ask.

(c) Letters of Request shall be transmitted-

In England by a Lithuanian Consular Officer to the Senior Master the Supreme Court of Judicature.

In Lithuania by a British Consular Officer to the President of the Court of Appeal; in the case of the Territory of Klaipeda (Memel)

the President of the Landgericht.

In case the authority to whom any Letter of Request is transmitted ^b not competent to execute it, such authority shall (except in cases where executive is refused in accordance with paragraph (f) of this Article) of his own motion forward the Letter of Request to the competent authority of the country of execution.

(d) The competent authority of the country of execution shall give effect the Letter of Request and obtain the evidence required by the use of the same compulsory measures and the same procedure as are employed in the execution of a commission or order emanating from the authorities of his own country except that if a wish that some special procedure should be followed is expressed in the Letter of Request, such special procedure shall be followed in so far as it is not incompatible with the law of the country of execution.

(e) The Consular Officer, by whom the Letter of Request is transmitter shall, if he so desires, be informed of the date when and the place where the proceedings will take place, in order that he may inform the interested party of parties, who shall be permitted to be present in person or to be represented, they so desire, by barristers or solicitors or by any representatives who are competent to appear before the courts either of the country of origin or of the country of execution.

(f) The execution of the Letter of Request which complies with the $prec^{e^{t}}$ ing provisions of this Article can only be refused—

- (1) If the authenticity of the Letter of Request is not established;
- (2) If, in the country of execution, the execution of the Letter of Request in question does not fall within the functions of the judiciary;
- (3) If the High Contracting Party in whose territory it is to be executed considers that his sovereignty or safety would be compromised thereby

(g) In every instance where a Letter of Request is not executed by the authority to whom it is addressed, the latter will at once inform the Consular Officer by whom it was transmitted, stating the grounds on which the execution of the Letter of Request has been refused, or the competent authority to whom it has been forwarded.
