BRITAIN WINS OUT ON MOST IMPORTANT POINTS IN FISHERIES CASE

Hague Tribunal's Award Gives the British Best Two Out of Seven Points Decided.

AN EXPERT COMMISSION TO SETTLE REGULATIONS

THE HAGUE, Sept. 7.—In the gloomy little chamber of the permanent arbitration court, five judges, who since June 1 have considered the Newfoundland fisheries dispute between Great Britain and the United States, pronounced this afternoon their verdict. The decision gives neither principal a clear cut award, but of the seven questions decided, the tribunal supports the United States in five and Great Britain in the other two.

This decision determines finally the disputes arising from the British-American treaty of 1818, which have caused continuous diplomatic controversies. The British are pleased with the award because the three-mile limit is based on headlands instead of following the sinuosities of the coast, and in saving the sovereignty by having confirmed Great Britain's right to make reasonable fisheries regulations without the concurrence of the United States. These points were regarded as the most important.

The provisions of the award apply not only to future legislation by the imperial government and the colonies, but require that the existing statutes and regulations to which the Americans have objected be submitted to a commission which shall judge of their reasonableness, necessity and fairness in the light of the principles laid down by the tribunal.

In connection with its conclusion that the reasonableness of the fishing regulations must be determined through expert information, the tribunal directed the appointment of a commission of specialists, and calls upon Great Britain and the United States to designate their commissioners within one month. Dr. Hook, scientific adviser of fisheries of the Netherlands.

The court was unanimous on all questions except the fifth, as to which Louis Drago, the member from the Argentine Republic, gave a dissenting opinion, largely supporting American contentions.

The Findings.
The court finds that the claims of Great Britain to a right to prohibit American vessels from employing foreigners, and to impose light-house, customs and other duties, are unauthorized by the treaty of 1818.

The tribunal finds that the regulation of fishing which Great Britain or Newfoundland enforces must be reasonable and appropriate, but Great Britain cannot be the sole judge of their reasonableness. In case of disagreement the question must be determined by an impartial tribunal.

On question six, which presented the claim of Great Britain to the right to exclude fishermen from the bays and harbors on the treaty coasts of Newfoundland and the Magdalen Islands, the tribunal declared without qualification in favor of the United States.

The Important Point.
On question five, which was decided adversely to the United States, the court followed the strict letter of the British-American treaty, whereby America renounced the right to fish in bays on non-treaty coasts. The court holds that this renunciation applied to all bays, irrespective of their qualifications.

LOCOMOTIVES LEAVE ROOM FOR DOUBT

Employment of Foreigners on U. S. Vessels Should Be Better Defined — Press Views Incline to Accepting Award as Better Victory for Arbitration Than Great Britain.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)
LONDON, Sept. 7.—The British Colonial Office received the announcement of the Newfoundland fisheries decision at The Hague with considerable satisfaction.

The award in favor of this country on question one is particularly gratifying as the point involved is considered the most important of all those at issue. The colonial office was somewhat surprised at securing a favorable verdict upon the question of ways. Some disappointment is caused that the decision on the United States' right to employ foreigners, does not include the settlement of the question whether the Newfoundland Government is entitled to forbid Newfoundlanders to engage on American fishing vessels. It is thought that the point may leave room for further dispute.

Hope is Expressed That St. Alban's Cathedral Will Be Then Ready for Dedication Ceremonies.
HALIFAX, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—His Lordship of Toronto, Bishop Sweeney, had a large contract proposed to him this afternoon during the board of trade excursion around the harbor given to those attending the Church of England congress on board the "Lady Laurier." Bishop Worrell submitted a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, that a committee be appointed by the primate to prepare for another congress to be held five years hence. It was generally agreed, and added as a rider that the next congress be held in Toronto, and all who spoke desired that St. Alban's Cathedral be ready for dedication then, as Halifax Cathedral has been on this occasion. A wealthy diocese like Toronto should have no difficulty, it was believed, when such a comparatively small place as Halifax, with its fifty-five thousand, had succeeded.

Inquest on the G.T.R. Wreck Near Durand, Mich., Resumed — Employes Blamed.
DURAND, Mich., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The inquest into the wreck on the Grand Trunk at Durand, four miles east of here, on Aug. 26, in which nine passengers, many of them Canadians, lost their lives, was resumed here today. Both the state and the railway company were represented by an imposing array of legal talent.

Good for the Principle.
The Chronicle says the game is drawn in favor of Britain. It is a good thing for the principle of arbitration that the award admits of victory being claimed for a cause which transcends in importance the particular matters in dispute.

GREAT CRASH AT RECEPTION TO LEGATE

Brilliant Function at the Windsor, at Which Several Members of the Government Are Present — Cardinal Visits the Jail — Midnight Mass.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—(Special correspondence.)—Amid the pomp and splendor of the Eucharistic proceedings, the "little ones" of the community are not forgotten. Archbishop Bruchési is renowned throughout Canada for many virtues, but for none more than the care and solicitude he has always shown for those unfortunate who at times fill the wards of the jail at Montreal. Twice a year his grace visits this institution.

After mass, his eminence addressed the inmates, his kind words being interpreted by His Grace of Montreal. He had come, said the cardinal, at the invitation of the archbishop to speak to the men inmates were gathered in the chapel of the institution, and at 7.30 His Eminence Cardinal Vanuetti, assisted by Archbishop Bruchési and Mgr. Tampere, gave the eucharist. The distinguished party were received by Sheriff Lemieux and Governor Vallee.

Old Soul Deamed to Favor the Farmers
Finest Day Yet at the Fair Brings Out an Attendance That Hovers Around the 100,000 Mark, Eclipsing Last Year's Attendance for the Day by Over 15,000.
As a barometer indicative of the degree of prosperity enjoyed from year to year by the soil-tillers of Ontario, the Canadian National Exhibition has a value all its own. Blue book statistics tell the story with mathematical exactness, but it remains for the fair to give a powerful visual impression. The grounds yesterday with their teeming thousands, epitomized the year of successful effort, and with field crops of the province reaching this year a grand total of $202,000,000, it was natural that Farmers' Day should reflect the buoyant conditions.

HAMILTON APPENINGS

DISGRUNTLED RESIDENTS OBJECT TO THIS FACTORY

Call it Breach of Faith and Urge Protest to the Board of Control.

HAMILTON, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—A meeting of disgruntled southeast residents, who object to the establishment of the Appleton Counter Check Book Company's plant in their midst, was held this evening at the corner of Delaware and Sandford-avenues.

A resolution was passed appointing Mr. Bell as the spokesman of the kickers to-morrow morning, and to draw up a protest, to be signed by citizens and presented to council.

The local police have been asked by the Toronto police to look for a boy named Ernest R. Hunt, who left his home, 44 First-avenue, Toronto, on Saturday, to go to Hamilton, and who has not yet returned.

Asked regarding Toronto's harbor facilities, Mr. Borden said "Considerable work has been done during the present month without occasioning inconvenience. The series will probably be postponed to a later date."

TO ADMINISTER, NOT ENACT

The August number of The Canadian Law Journal has a good deal to say on the appointment of Chief Justice Meredith to the position of provincial commissioner, to draft a law to compensate workmen injured while working.

Inspector Carey, government fruit inspector, said that last year the yield only averaged thirty per cent. He asked that better quality fruit be aimed at. Dr. Hodgatta of Toronto said that Ontario fruit growers should pay attention to their output, or the western growers would begin to make inroads on their markets.

FALL FAIRS INTERFERE WITH MR. BORDEN'S TOUR

Autumn Series of Meetings Will Probably Be Held Later Than Was at First Arranged.

R.L. Borden arrived yesterday morning at the King Edward from Ottawa to visit the exhibition. Mr. Borden spent the whole day at the grounds. This evening he addresses the Conservatives of Central and South Toronto at the club on Simcoe-street, after which he will return to Ottawa by the night train. Seen last night, Mr. Borden said:

"I have just returned from a two month visit to Nova Scotia, where a great portion of my time was devoted to the rural parts of my constituency, which I had not visited for some little time. The rest of the time was devoted to a series of meetings, which were very successful and encouraging. I have been endeavoring to arrange a series of meetings in Ontario during the present month, but I find that the fairs are so numerous that it is difficult, if not impossible, to arrange any considerable series during the present month without occasioning inconvenience. The series will probably be postponed to a later date."

OVERCHARGE FOR CAB

Results in a Fine of Ten Dollars Against Driver.

In afternoon police court yesterday, Thomas Jordan, a cab driver, was charged with asking and receiving a guilty party, and the company who were driven from the Union Station to the Engineers' Club, 96 West King-street. The proper charge was 50 cents. Jordan pleaded guilty, and a fine was $10.

"I understand the Veral Company compel their drivers to make these overcharges. I spoke to a member of the firm about it some time ago, and he laughed the case off. The trouble is that the drivers are not the really guilty parties, and the company cannot be got at yet," said the inspector.

KINDNESS TO ANIMALS GAINED BY EDUCATION

Better Results From Instruction Than From Prosecutions—Federation of Humane Societies.

About 40 representatives of various humane societies of Canada assembled in the syndoc office yesterday at the Federation of Canadian Humane Societies. The chair was occupied by J. J. Kelso.

Reports were received from the Winnipeg, London, Ottawa, Halifax and other societies as to the methods of procedure in handling the societies' work, and the general feeling was that the most effective way of dealing with the cruelty to animals problem was thru education. The formation of bands of mercy and inducing ministers to speak on the subject was proving more effective than prosecutions.

With a view to encouraging a humane spirit among drivers, it was suggested that the society donate breast plates to be placed on the harness to those who have received special recognition as to proper treatment of their horses.

It was decided to establish a literature department in connection with the federation, and to publish a special journal. The date of next meeting was referred to the executive. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Her Excellency Countess Grey; president, Bishop Sweeney; vice-presidents, Adam Brown of Hamilton and J. J. Kelso of Toronto; general secretary, P. C. Laverton of Toronto; organizing secretary, Mrs. J. H. Ridout of Toronto; hon. solicitor, R. H. Murray, Halifax. Executive committee: S. M. Wetmore, St. John; J. R. Vickers, St. John; J. W. WELL ASK LEGISLATORS PEEN BY OWNERS

Effort to Eliminate Houses of Ill-Fame by Making Property Owners Responsible For Their Removal.

Considerable time was given yesterday at the closing sessions of the Moral and Social Reform Board in devising means of abolishing houses of ill-fame, and in generally checking the immense white slave traffic. Rev. Dr. Shearer reported for the law amendments committee regarding the action of parliament at the last session, in connection with the legislation, and also referred to legislative action adopted by some of the American states regarding houses of ill-fame, in which the owners of the property where such illegal traffic was carried on were penalized. Dr. Shearer submitted the opinion of R. U. McPherson, L.L.B., that similar legislation lies within the power of the Canadian Parliament. The board directed that Mr. McPherson should professionally draft a bill for this purpose, to be submitted to the legislative council at its next session for enactment. Special consideration was given to the social evil and the white slave traffic, and the tenement house problem. The board directed that the American Purification Society had arranged for a series of conventions on purity in Western Canada and in the western states, and that the secretary, Dr. Shearer, had been invited to attend these meetings as a lecturer. The executive was authorized, in obedience to the instructions of the General Assembly, to appoint a woman worker to labor among the women of the church, with a view to awakening interest in the suppression of the white slave trade, and to direct rescue work among fallen women or girls. The board was also gratified to learn that the W. F. M. S. would co-operate in this work and share the expense. Investigate Labor Bureaus. The committee on temperance reported, thru the Rev. G. A. Woodcock, that the literature committee was issuing the literature and the inauguration of a campaign of education, with total abstinence as its object, among the young people and adult of the church. Dr. Shearer reported for the committee on industrial problems, and recommended that the committee investigate the various provincial government labor bureaus thruout the country; to learn if they are found defective, and if so, to propose their organization more generally, and also to assist in the promotion of the Workmen's Compensation Act in connection with the investigation of the various house laws. In this connection a special committee is to be appointed to draft a declaration of Presbyterian social faith and to report to a future meeting of the board. On motion of Rev. E. B. Horne and seconded by Judge McKay, it was directed that the literature committee be instructed to inaugurate a national campaign to emphasize the mission of the church to the general, social and recreative life of the people. A special committee was appointed to give more study to the city downtown conditions and to recommend to the board the use of not only their own power, but also to urge a policy for the solution of the various downtown problems of city life. The following committees and respective members were appointed for the coming year: Sabbath observance, Rev. R. G. MacBeth, Paris; temperance, Rev. R. G. Woodside, Owen Sound; housing, Rev. J. G. Woodcock, St. Catharines; political purity, Rev. Thurlo Fraser, Portage la Prairie; labor, Rev. Enoch Barber, Toronto; education, Rev. W. J. Orton, Ontario; amusements, Rev. J. G. Inker, London; gambling, social vice and immoral practices, Rev. J. G. Shearer. The executive committee will meet to arrange for a vacation for the secretary, and to make this possible by furnishing necessary assistance. The meeting was presided over by Rev. Charles Gordon, Winnipeg.

ROOSEVELT IS FLOATED BY SOCIALIST MAYOR

Control Ward Gets a Resolution to That Effect Thru the Board of Control.

The question of the city taking over the Toronto Street Railway came up before the board of control yesterday morning, when Controller Ward introduced a motion to this effect. The motion reads: "That the city solicitor be requested to prepare the same bill for the expropriation of the Toronto Railway Co. as was presented at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, with instructions to make application to the coming session of the body for the same legislation."

Altho Mayor Geary thought the matter should stand over until the special evidence on tubes had met, and the other members also thought he should wait, Controller Ward determined and the motion was passed. He did not think that his motion bore any relation to the tubes.

The street railway receipts for August were $38,805.93 and the city's percentage is $7,341.19, or more than double the amount for August six years ago.

Control Ward Gets a Resolution to That Effect Thru the Board of Control.

The question of the city taking over the Toronto Street Railway came up before the board of control yesterday morning, when Controller Ward introduced a motion to this effect. The motion reads: "That the city solicitor be requested to prepare the same bill for the expropriation of the Toronto Railway Co. as was presented at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, with instructions to make application to the coming session of the body for the same legislation."

The street railway receipts for August were $38,805.93 and the city's percentage is $7,341.19, or more than double the amount for August six years ago.

Note and Comment

Rochester and Newark are settling the pennant by conflicts in their own sections, and they are finding that they are by no means at home among friends. Toronto and Providence have welcomed both this week, and there may be more in store. And, whether the season is better or not, remains to be seen, but with some of the Husters' best men out of commission the task looks fair for the Ginnity.

Rochester has twenty games left, including four at Buffalo and five in Toronto, and four or five in Montreal. The rest are in Rochester, with Montreal and Buffalo. Newark has a far better-looking schedule to finish up with—six games at Baltimore and Jersey City and ten or a dozen at home with Baltimore, Jersey City and Providence. Thus it looks at this distance no worse than an even break for the Iron Man, and an interesting fight for the flag.

For the first time in many years a horse race with open betting was seen at Hawthorne track, Chicago, on Monday. There was only one event, but it provided a test, it is said, James O'Leary, the well-known bookmaker, took possession of the betting ring and made a good business. Bets were made in large numbers and were settled in cash. There was no interference by the authorities, and the impression gained among those who were in the Windy City under certain conditions. The race took place at Washington Park in 1894, but the tracks did not close their gates until 1904.

New York Sun: "We've got the laugh on New York fellows," says Harry Edwards, the Philadelphia boxing promoter, to several New Yorkers Monday night. "We are allowed to have this fight in our city after it was driven out of your town, and we can also bet money on the result without the slightest fear of interference. These cops here are to preserve order and protect the promoters, not to make trouble of any kind. The ring used by the fighters was loaned to the club by the police, for that matter. They use it in their gym. New York, not Philadelphia, is slowtown nowadays."

The society for the propagation and encouragement of boxing should lose no time in securing Al Kaufman and Bill Lang, the better work of those who sit around the ring when these two big men, both aspirants for championship honors, boxed six lumbering rounds before a crowd numbering about 800 people, among whom were quite a collection of women. The gate receipts amounted to about $5,000, of which the fighters each received 30 per cent, the management taking the remaining 40 per cent.

Kaufman received the popular verdict by reason of his victory in the final round when he had decidedly the better of the Australian. The Californian also did the better work of the two in the opening round, as well as in the fourth, but Lang had the better of the second and third rounds and on one or two occasions battered Kaufman about the ring in a way that made the latter look what he really is—a slow-thinking, slow-moving fellow. The fifth round was about even, with no damage done on either side. After five rounds had been fought the referee announced that Lang was changed on execution, but the sixth round changed the complexion of affairs completely. It was a most harmonious fight all the way through.

Cobb Has a Bad Eye. CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—Tyrus Cobb, outfielder on the Detroit-American League team, is in danger of losing the use of his right eye in the opening round of the four-game series which opens to-day, but remained in Detroit to consult a specialist. If the specialist makes an adverse report, Cobb will not play again this year. The Detroit management may send Cobb to New York to be examined by specialists there.

"But they can smoke 'DAVIS' PERFECTION' all day and all night if they want to without any ill effects."

"That's right, Fred. I never looked at it that way. Send along enough 'DAVIS' PERFECTION' for six."

ROCHESTER WINS LAST NEWARK TAKES A FALL

Orleans Defeat Sketers in Extra Innings—Royals Trim Bisons—At Buffalo To-day.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Joe Kelley's men finished up their work for the season in Rochester this afternoon by losing to the Husters by 2 to 1. It was a first-class ball game from beginning to end, Edward Lafitte having a shade the better of Ed. Killian in one inning. Otherwise the pitching was unclass. The Leafs fielded perfectly, and seasonally at times.

Umpire Murray called a hard strike on the Leafs, and in the first inning the third strike to Fitzpatrick led to the banishment of Joe Kelley. The Toronto manager was on the coaching line when the last ball was pitched, but he was not on the bench, as he could not stand to watch the last ball with a double to the fence. Subsequently Dick Carroll joined the batter, and he, too, was chased from the park.

The Leafs made more hits off Lafitte than the Husters did off Killian, but the former had a hard job bunching them. In the second inning Simmons opened the last half with a double to the fence, and Alperman followed with a single to right. Following Spencer's out (Statter, unassisted), Blair singled, to score Simmons and Alperman. That ended Rochester's activity in the run column. They made but two scatterings after that, so five was Killian's pitching.

Toronto had three wide-distributed hits before the seventh, and also had a pass and man safe on an error. None of these, however, was so profitable that a lead got as far as second.

The seventh was started by O'Hara's single. Statter fanned. O'Hara attempted to steal second, and would have been out, but for Kooly's muff of Blair's throw. Miller's infield out put O'Hara on third, from where he scored when Fitzpatrick singled. This score was left, as Vaughn flied.

In the eighth, Tomeman singled to begin the round, but did not advance any further. The score:

Pat Powers and Other Candidates League Presidency

Rochester Union and Advertiser: The Eastern League political part has been boiling merrily for ten days and the results are beginning to show on the surface. The trip to Toronto was made around the circuit was not without reason. It appears that Mr. Powers will be a candidate for re-election next fall, when the league convenes in New York. He may not be alone in the field, but he will be a candidate. A dispatch from Toronto says that Powers denied that he said last fall that he would not ask for another term if elected. He says that story was fabricated in Buffalo.

The faction termed "insurgents" has passed the name of Cummings as a candidate. Cummings was formerly a newspaper man in Baltimore and is now employed by Sporting News. Ed. Barrow of Montreal and Joe O'Brien, late president of the American Association, are the other candidates named. The situation was put up to President C. T. Chapin of the Rochester Exhibition Company yesterday. Say the Rochester Club now expects to vote for Mr. Powers and believes he will be the next president of the Eastern League. Till have to refer to Jersey City and Providence to get an answer for themselves.

"Oh, yes, I noticed it," replied Mr. Chapin, "and smiled when I did so." And he smiled again at the recollection. The Rochester Club with Jersey City and Providence, is reported to be for Powers. How about it?

President Eby of the C. L. A. has ordered the following semi-finals to be played Oct. 17—Toronto at Capital. Tuesday, Sept. 21—Sudden-death game, Braebroke vs. Newmarket, at Braebroke. Wednesday, Sept. 22—Owen Sound vs. St. Mary's at Brampton. The winners of these play for the junior championship. Juvenile. Sept. 10—Toronto Capitals at Galt. Sept. 17—Owen at Capital.

The St. Mary's and Galt played at St. Mary's yesterday. The St. Mary's team could have scored forty goals, they were putting shot after shot at goal, and all St. Mary's, the Alerts showing great form throughout the whole match.

On Owen yesterday, in a semi-final Inter-A. match, played at Owen, the visiting team won by a score of 9 to 7. As Hanover defeated Owen Sound last week, it is to be expected that the two teams will play the fastest kind of lacrosse and a worthy support. Several of the Young Texts are booked for the senior team next season. Prior to the main event Capitals and Maitlands will play off for the City League championship.

More Pennant Winners. The Tri-State League season closed yesterday. Altoona won the pennant easily. Lancaster, Johnstown, Harrisburg, Reading and York finished in the order named.

At a special general meeting of the Normal Model School Boys' Rugby Football Club was elected captain, Robert King was elected captain, and Seaverly Garrett secretary for the season.

C. C. Association Unable to Get Term

Trip to England—Seems to Have Satisfied the Cricketers, as on Other Occasions.

Dr. W. E. Dean, president of the Canadian Cricket Association, announced last night that the annual match between the United States and Canada had been called off on account of the inability on the side to get a team. Winnipeg, Ottawa and Montreal were all sought in vain, while the members of the Toronto Zimari denied that they had already had sufficient cricket for the year. A specialist of fact Dr. Bennett of Parkdale was the only member of the selection committee accepting the honor.

Away back in 1887 the match was abandoned for the same reason as this year. The first time the match was called off was in 1888 when the Quakers cancelled the match for a similar reason, as their eleven were in the old country. That was the last break till 1910.

In the last ten years the United States have won eight times, the Canadians won last year in Montreal and in 1902 by an innings and 29 runs.

The semi-final and final games in the druggists' doctors' and dentists' tourney, postponed from last week, were played yesterday afternoon on the Granite lawn, and the handsome pair of trophies donated by the Dixon-Watson Company of Toronto were won by the Carrahan Bros., who were one shot ahead of Hargreaves and Walton after an extra and had been playing for some time.

The runners-up in this competition get the four pairs of Jaquies bowler donated by Ferber & Co. of London, England, which were one shot ahead of Hargreaves and Walton after an extra and had been playing for some time.

A large crowd of bowlers were present to witness the games and cheer for the players; and the final game especially was one of the finest exhibitions of bowling seen in any tournament during the season. End after end the last player drew the shot, and the result was always in doubt till the last bowl had been played, after which the following is the result of the games:

CALGARY SOCCER TEAM TRIM FORT WILLIAM

Score Was 2 to 0—Calgary Meet Winner of Hamilton Teams in Final on Saturday.

Calgary, by the score of 2 to 0, defeated Fort William yesterday at Scarborough Beach, in the semi-final of the People's Shield, both goals being scored in the first half by the winners. Due to their fast playing up of two costly mistakes by the Fort William back.

Despite the shut-out, Fort William were the aggressors all thru, especially in the second half, but poor shooting by their forwards saw them remain in the knocked-out column. True, Fort Williams missed many chances by only a hair-breadth, some of which might be termed hard luck, but it was their forward's inability to locate the direction of the goal that cost them the match. However, give all credit to the winners, whose defence played a steady game through, while their forwards were dangerous. Fort William is the second half had a penalty awarded them, but the shot was right at Ross, the Calgary goalkeeper.

Calgary will meet the winners of the two Hamilton teams on Saturday for the final of the championship. The teams are Calgary (Goal, G. Ross; backs, J. Ross, A. Stewart; forwards, F. McEwen, A. Walker, J. Hall; forwards, B. Blair, W. G. Johnston, W. Nuttall, P. McKeown, N. MacKay).

Fort William (Goal, Lawrence; backs, Ferguson, Murray; halves, Walker, McEwen, A. Stewart; forwards, Gibbon, Bain, Stinhouse, Potter, Sinclair).

The Victoria quizzing tournament was continued yesterday. The best game of the day was between Walter Carlyle of the Victoria Club and the veteran quizzing expert, Robt. Callender of the Maple Leaf.

Walter Carlyle, Victoria, by a score of 13 to 7, defeated Robt. Callender, Victoria, by a score of 13 to 7. The championship match starts today at 2 p.m.

Attel Beat Leader. CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 7.—Abe Attel won the lightweight championship of Canada by defeating Billy Leuder, a local man in what was to have been a 15-round fight. For the first three rounds it was an even affair, but after the Leuder began to show signs of distress, and apparently even a fainting fit, the Leuder began to retreat until the gong saved him in the sixth. In the seventh he took the count of nine and then went down for the full count.

THE FISHERIES AWARD.

International arbitrations have usually ended in compromises more or less equitable, but perhaps more frequently arranged on grounds of expediency. This was almost inevitable, since boards appointed only for one particular purpose could scarcely be expected to assume the responsibilities of more permanent tribunals conscious that their decisions would necessarily become precedents for guidance in subsequent cases involving questions of similar or kindred character. It is this element of permanency that has rendered the establishment of The Hague International Court of unusual importance, since it means that as the principle of arbitration becomes of general acceptance, there will be gradually built up a canon of interpretation that will do for international law what the ordinary courts do for the country of their origin.

Britain has not had any too satisfactory an experience with the matters it has referred to arbitration. In fact, the decisions on questions submitted have been on the whole adverse, occasionally to a degree which evoked unfavorable comment. It is, therefore, an agreeable surprise to find that substantial success has been gained in the fisheries case. Judgment was pronounced yesterday, sustaining the British case in the two most important points submitted—that involving the sovereign power of Great Britain to regulate the use of the fishing grounds, and the other regarding the true interpretation of the word "bays" in article I of the treaty of 1818. The remaining five points, where the United States contentions were conceded, are relatively of much less account.

The Hague tribunal evidently recognized their responsibility as members of a court where rulings must stand the test of legal principle. This is all the more noteworthy since the decision was practically unanimous, dissent being taken on only one question, and that by an independent member. The British and United States representatives agreed in the findings, a fact that will prevent any misconception or reflection. Altogether, the nations concerned have every reason to feel gratified that the disturbing and even dangerous controversies of the past have been removed with so little friction. Nothing could have been better than the whole tone and temper of the long debate. In which some of the keenest and most acute legal minds from among the English-speaking peoples participated. The slight breeze that occasionally ruffled the judicial calm were only enough to give a relish to the logomachy.

Cordial acknowledgment is due the admirable presentation of the British side of the case. Special credit must be given the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, who acted as agent and upon whom, with Mr. Ewart, the arduous task devolved of collecting the historical and other data which formed the basis of the argument. Without this assistance counsel would not have been able to stand up as they did against the heavy weights of the United States. By common consent Sir Robert Finlay, who opened for the British states, reached the high water mark of his distinguished career. Mr. Ewart supported him in a speech full of strength and sound reasoning, and the attorney-general, Sir William S. Robson, one of the finest debaters in the imperial parliament, fully sustained his high reputation. Canada and Newfoundland were well served through by all concerned in this historic arbitration, before a board of judges who have set a splendid example to succeeding Hague tribunals.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANISM. In an article contributed to The Man-to-Man, formerly Westward Ho, magazine, Judge Miles Polindexter, one of the insurgent leaders in congress, explains what progressive Republicanism stands for. He puts in the first place the conservation of the natural resources of the federal domain as opposed to the standpoint policy of parceling out to private interests, without restriction and without adequate compensation, these vast possessions of the people. Continuing, he names strong and effective government control of railroads and the regulation of rates thereon, as opposed to the reactionary policy of non-interference. Next comes competition in trade as against the machine policy of monopoly, enlarging the scope of the Sherman Anti-Trust law and the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The appointment of impartial and unbiased federal judges is favored as is the dealing with wealthy criminals the same as with poor men and the punishment of criminals as well as their tools and dummies.

Progressive Republicanism further favors waterway improvement and the appointment of a permanent tariff commission with full power to investigate and report all facts necessary for the preparation of an enlightened tariff schedule. It wants a reorganization of the United States Senate, so that the interests and the sections that have so long controlled it shall share their influence with the entire country. It asks that the house of representatives be restored to the position intended by the constitution and made responsive to public opinion. Judge Polindexter declares that fundamentally and generally speaking the difference between the progressives and reactionaries is that the former stand for the American principle of equality, while the latter stand for special interests of vast accumulated wealth. Progressive Republicans, concludes the judge, contend and know that the main purpose of government is the protection of the weak against the strong, and that while all interests should be treated with justice, the central principle of all legislation should be the public good and not private aggrandizement.

The Canadian Associated Press service yesterday, in transmitting in full from The Hague to Canada the complete text of the important fisheries decision, was a stroke of real enterprise. No other cable service attempted to cover the decision in such a way.

PAYING PRICE OF PESSIMISM

Western Farmers Should Have Called for More Help.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 7.—Up to the present 9800 farm laborers have been brought into the west from eastern provinces by the C.P.R. Up to this time last year the number exceeded 20,000. The cause of the falling off is attributed by the C.P.R. officials to the fact that farmers, during the early part of the season, estimated that their crops this year would not be up to the standard of last year. On these grounds they did not make application early in the season for men.

Systematic Thieving Punished. Admitting systematic thefts from the captain of the R. & O. steamer Toronto, Fred Penn and Fritz Hess, butcher and cook on the steamer, were sent to the Central for six months, and Dennis Holloway, ship's baker, to jail for 40 days. Lattie is married and was given an easier sentence. Stephen Dalrymple, a chef, takes a jury trial, and so do Charles Lewis and Andrew Tuttle, restaurant keepers, charged with receiving stolen provisions.

Thirteen Were Drowned. COMANCHE, Texas, Sept. 7.—Communication with the flood-swept district near here was restored this afternoon. Details of the disaster show that 13 persons were drowned in their homes along the South Leon River, 13 miles east, when a wall of water 25 feet high swept down on 15 houses while the occupants slept. The floods came suddenly as the result of a cloudburst.

A Costly Drive. W. J. Elliott owns a farm near East Toronto and had a dozen head of celery to deliver a mile away, within the city limits, but he didn't have a license taken out for the wagon which drove them. A policeman caught him. He pays a fine of $2 on a charge of delivering them in the city limits without a permit.

TEXT OF THE FISHERIES AWARD

The following is the text of the general arbitration treaty of 1818 between Great Britain and the United States.

QUESTION 1.—To what extent are the following contentions or either of them justified? (1) The part of Great Britain that the exercise of the liberty to take fish, referred to in the treaty (of 1818) which the inhabitants of the United States have forever in common with the subjects of his Britannic Majesty, is subject without the consent of Newfoundland in the form of municipal laws, ordinances or rules, as for example, the regulation in respect of (1) the hours, days or seasons when fish may be taken on the great coast; (2) the methods, means and implements to be used in the taking of fish or in the carrying on of fishing operations on such coasts; (3) any other matters which are relating to fishing such regulations being reasonable. It is contended on the part of the United States that the exercise of such liberties is not subject to limitations or restraint by Great Britain, Canada or Newfoundland unless they are appropriate and necessary for the protection and preservation of the common rights in such fisheries, and unless they are reasonable in themselves and fair as between local fishermen and fishermen coming from the United States and not so framed as to give an advantage to the former over the latter, and unless their appropriateness, necessity, reasonableness and fairness be determined by the United States and Great Britain by common accord and the United States concurs in their enforcement.

Answer to question 1: The right of Great Britain to make regulations without the consent of the United States as to the exercise of such liberties to take fish referred to in article I of the treaty of October 20, 1818, in the form of municipal laws, ordinances or rules, is not subject to the sovereignty of Great Britain. Limited by Treaty. The exercise of that right by Great Britain, in the form of municipal laws, ordinances or rules, in respect of the said liberties therein granted to the inhabitants of the United States in that such regulations which are (1) appropriate or necessary for the protection and preservation of such fisheries, or (2) desirable or necessary on grounds of public order and morals, without unnecessarily interfering with the fishery itself, and which are equitable and fair, as between local and American fishermen, and not so framed as to give unfairly an advantage to the former over the latter, are not in violation of the treaty, and are not in violation of the question whether a regulation is or is not reasonable, as being or not in accordance with the dispositions of the treaty and not in violation thereof, the treaty of 1818 contains no special provision. The settlement of differences in this respect that might arise hereafter, was left to the ordinary means of diplomatic intercourse by reason of the form in which question one is put, and by further reason of the admission of Great Britain, by her counsel before the tribunal, that it is not now for either of the parties to the treaty to determine the reasonableness of any regulations made by Great Britain, Canada or Newfoundland.

The reasonableness of any such regulation, if contested, must be decided, not by either of the parties, but by impartial authority in accordance with the principles hereinabove laid down, and in the manner proposed in the recommendations made by the tribunal. In virtue of article 4 of the agreement, the tribunal further decides that article 4 of the agreement is as stated by counsel of the respective parties at the day of the arbitration, and is not terminable by the expiration of the day of the arbitration.

Employment of Crews. QUESTION 2.—Have the inhabitants of the United States a right to employ as members of the fishing crews of their vessels persons not inhabitants of the United States? Answer to question No. 2: Now, therefore, in view of the preceding considerations, this tribunal is of the opinion that the inhabitants of the United States, while exercising the liberties referred to in the said articles, have a right to employ as members of the fishing crews of their vessels persons not inhabitants of the United States, but in view of the preceding considerations, the tribunal, to prevent any misunderstanding as to the effect of its award, expresses the opinion that non-inhabitants employed as members of the fishing crews of United States vessels derive no benefit or immunity from the treaty, and it is so decided and awarded.

Customs Requirements. QUESTION 3.—Can the exercise by the inhabitants of the United States of the liberties referred to be subjected, without the consent of the United States, to the requirements of entry or report at custom houses or the payment of light and harbor or other dues, or to any other similar requirement or condition or exaction? Answer to question No. 3: The requirement that an American fishing vessel should report, if proper conveniences for so doing are at hand, is not reasonable, for the reasons stated in the foregoing opinion. There should be no such requirements, however, unless there be reasonably convenient opportunity afforded to report, in person or by telegraph, either at a customs house or to a customs official, but the exercise of the fishing liberty by the inhabitants of the United States should not be subjected to the usual commercial formalities of a report of entry and clearance at a customs house, nor to light, harbor or other duties not imposed upon Newfoundland fishermen.

Admission to Harbor. QUESTION 4.—Under the provision of the said article that the American fishermen shall be admitted to enter certain bays or harbors for shelter, repair, wood or water, and for no other purpose whatever, but that they shall be under such restrictions as may be necessary to prevent their tiding, or harbor or other duties, or any other manner whatever abusing the privilege thereby reserved to them, is it permissible to impose restrictions conditional upon the payment of light or harbor or other dues, or entering or reporting at custom houses or any similar conditions? Answer to question 4: And it is decided and awarded that such restrictions are not permissible unless American fishermen entering such bays for any of the four purposes aforesaid and remaining more than 48 hours herein should be required, if thought necessary by Great Britain or the colonial government, to report either in person or to a customs official, at reasonably convenient opportunity therefor is afforded, and it is so decided and awarded.

The All-important Question. QUESTION 5.—From where must be measured the three marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks or harbors referred to in the said article? Answer to question 5: From the low water mark in case of bays, the three marine miles are to be measured from a straight line drawn across the body of water at the place where it ceases to have the configuration and characteristics of a bay at all other places; the three marine miles are to be measured following the sinuosities of the coast, now this tribunal hereby recommends for the consideration and acceptance of the high contracting parties the following rules and methods of procedure for determining the limits of bays hereinafter enumerated: (1) In every bay, not hereinafter specifically provided for, the limits of exclusion shall be drawn three miles seaward from a straight line across the bay in the part nearest the entrance at the first point where the width does not exceed ten miles. (2) In the following bays where the configuration of the coast and the local climatic conditions are such that foreign fishermen, when within the geographic headlands, might reasonably and bona fide believe themselves on the high seas, the limits of exclusion shall be drawn in each case between the headlands hereinafter specified as being those at and within which such fishermen might be reasonably expected to recognize the bay under average conditions. For the Bay of Chaleur the line from the light at Birch Point on Miscou Island to Macquereau Point Light; for the Bay of Miramichi, the line from the light at Point Eumacinae to the light at Grand Point; for the Bay of Fundy, the line from the light at Gully; for Esquimaux Bay, in Prince Edward Island, the line from the light at Cape Esquimaux to the light at West Point; for the Bay of St. Anne, in the Province of Nova Scotia, the line from the light at Point Anconi to the nearest point on the opposite shore of the bay; for the Bay of St. Lawrence, in Newfoundland, the line from the Head to the light on the southerly end of Brunet Island, thence to Fortune Head; for or near the following bays, the limits of exclusion shall be three marine miles seawards, from the following lines, namely, for and near Barrington Bay, in Nova Scotia, the line from the light on Stoddart Island to the light on the south point of Cape Sable, thence to the light at Baccaro Point at Chenabouet and St. Peter's Bay, the line from Cranberry Island light to Cape Jordan and at Flacout Bay in Newfoundland. The line between Point Rouge for Mira Bay; the line from the light on the east point of Red Island, thence by the most southerly point of Merasheen Island to the mainland. Long Island and Eyer Island, on St. Mary's Bay, in Nova Scotia, shall, for the purpose of delimitation, be taken as the coast of such bays.

It is understood that nothing in these rules refers either to the Bay of Fundy, considered as a whole apart from its bays and creeks, or as to the Innoent Passages thru the Gut of Canso, which were excluded by the agreement made by exchange of notes between Mr. Bacon and Mr. Bryce, dated Feb. 21, 1909, and March 4, 1909, in which the United States agreed to accept the decision of the privy council in the case of The Direct United States Cable Co. v. the Anglo-American Telegraph Co., in which decision the United States have acquiesced.

U. S. Fishermen's Rights. QUESTION 6.—Have the inhabitants of the United States the liberty to take fish in the harbors and creeks on that part of the southern coast of Newfoundland which extends from Cape Race to Rameau Island, or on the western and northern coasts of Newfoundland from Cape Race to Quirpon Island, or on the Magdalen Islands? ANSWER 6.—Therefore, this tribunal is of the opinion that American inhabitants are entitled to fish in the bays, creeks and harbors of the treaty coasts of Newfoundland and the Magdalen Islands and if it is so decided and awarded.

QUESTION 7.—Are the inhabitants of the United States, whose vessels resort to the treaty coasts, entitled to have for those vessels when duly authorized by the United States on that behalf, the commercial privileges on treaty coasts accorded by agreement or otherwise to United States trading vessels generally? ANSWER 7.—For these reasons this tribunal is of the opinion that the inhabitants of the United States are so entitled in so far as concerns this treaty, there being nothing in its provisions to disentitle them, provided the treaty liberty of fishing and the commercial privileges are not exercised concurrently, and it is so decided and awarded.

GRACE AND COMFORT PERFECTLY COMBINED. Torpedo Bodies on Russell-Knight Cars Are Greatly Admired at the Exhibition. No improvement in automobile design since the adoption of the side entrance tonneau has been so immediately successful as the torpedo body, which so many makers are now fitting on their cars. Its graceful lines and smooth side walls give a sense of snugness and protection, and the same high doors and hooded dash, which add so much to the appearance, protect the occupants from swirling dust and draughts. But it is perhaps the motorist with an eye for a rakish and dashing looking machine that the torpedo body suits best, and given a striking and high grade car like the Russell-Knight 23, his or anyone's taste is sure to be suited. Two models of this car with torpedo body are to be seen at the exhibition, and they are easily the most striking features of a most attractive display. One, a four-seater, is finished in French gray with striping, gray leather upholstery, and nickel plated metal work. It has flat sweeping mud guards that enhance the effect of the graceful sunboot lines of the body, and the back sweep of the dash gives comfortable protection to the occupants of the front seat. The other is a torpedo roadster, finished in a rich London coach green and the same general design has been adapted to a stylish two-seater. This model is fitted with Rudge-Whitworth dependable wire wheels. A choice of either car is offered for $3500, and the power plant is the famous Silent Knight motor. Denounced His Parishioner. BOUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y., Sept. 7.—That Rev. William H. Hubbard, former pastor of the fashionable Mill-street Baptist Church of this city, was well within his rights when he denounced from the pulpit Mrs. Helen H. Leading members of the church say they will withdraw and start another church if the trustees obey the mandate of the Baptist Association.

FARMERS SHOULD HAVE CITY'S CONVENIENCES

Will Induce More People to Go to the Land, Says R. L. Borden at the Exhibition.

That the conveying of city comforts to the life of the farming community and the improvement of highways were necessary to promote the "back to the land" movement, were sentiments strongly expressed by R. L. Borden, K.C., leader of the opposition in the Dominion House, at the exhibition directors' luncheon yesterday. Other chief guests were Hon. A. J. Matheson and Hon. J. R. Stratton, M.P.

Mr. Borden remarked that in his "missionary tours" throughout Canada he had enjoyed special opportunities to study Canada's agriculture, and had been impressed with the country's heritage of varied resources. In a country like Canada agriculture must be deemed the basic industry.

Canada had before it a problem not so accentuated as in other countries, but still existent not only in keeping people on the land, but to induce them to go to the land in even greater numbers than in the past.

"This problem can be met in only one way," he declared, "that is, to give to the man who tills the land in as great a measure as possible all the conveniences and comforts of modern civilization. Canada affords opportunities not excelled elsewhere in the world."

Mr. Borden had been impressed in the Niagara district with the comforts on the farms which equalled those of the city. Electric trains passing their doors, electricity lighted their houses. They drew water from the adjoining hills, and they had immediate transportation of their products to the great cities. This was a realization of what might be expected in all parts of the country in the early future.

A great authority had said there were three standards by which to measure a nation, respect for the laws, progress in education and the standard of public highways.

"We should, as far as possible in Canada, surpass the highways that are to be found in any part of the world. I believe that this suggestion is one that will not be lost sight of by the provincial governments and the federal government as well."

In speaking warmly of the development and management of the exhibition, Mr. Borden declared that one very useful object was that of making the people better acquainted. There was more national spirit in Canada than 15 years ago, but there was room for improvement and in this respect the United States set an example. The ideal of the young man of the United States should be the ideal of Canada's youth.

A Building for Ontario. Hon. Col. Matheson, acting premier of Ontario, spoke briefly of the success of experimental farms, which he hoped to see established all over the country.

President Gooderham having gently suggested that the Ontario Government should erect a separate building, Hon. J. R. Stratton, Peterboro, was called upon. Mr. Stratton termed himself a farmer, and to support his argument that the farmer had the biggest stake in the country, pointed out that while the assets of the banks were 110 millions, and 800 millions were invested in manufacturing, there were 1800 millions invested in farming, 1200 being in Ontario.

In England the production of grain per acre averaged 32 to 33 bushels, and in Canada only 18, which showed how much room there was for improvement with proper attention.

John Farrell, of Forest, on behalf of agricultural societies, expressed appreciation of the exhibition treatment.

Exhibition Notes

Personally Conducted Homesekers' Tour to Alberta.

Anyone who is thinking of buying property in the west should consult with Thos. G. McPherson, president of the Lamont, Alta., Board of Trade, and president of the Northwest Live Stock Co., who is at the exhibition with a view to personally escorting any intending purchasers back with him. He can be seen in the C. N. R. section of the railway building. His agents come into personal touch with the farmers of Central Alberta, and are in a position to know all the snags in land values. These can save a purchaser from $500 to $1000 on a quarter section. Those desiring to take advantage of this exceptional opportunity should call on the agent for a list of hand experience and knowledge, free of charge.

Nasmith's Superior Meals.

The best restaurant on the entire exhibition grounds is situated at the western end of the grand stand, and is run by Nasmith & Co. This firm is exceedingly popular with Torontonians, but for the sake of visitors who are perhaps not familiar with the city, a recommendation is necessary. This firm serves nothing but the best quality of food, and the lunch room under the grand stand is the largest and cleanest at the big fair. Call around when you're hungry.

"Dominion" Piano Exhibit Attracting Much Attention.

The exhibit of "Dominion" Pianos and Organs is attracting a great deal of attention from the many people who have heard of the wonderful tone and matchless beauty of the high grade instruments produced by this famous old factory. In the past forty years over eighty thousand "Dominion" pianos and organs have been placed in Canadian homes, a record of which the makers may well feel proud. It is only natural to assume that "Dominion" quality and price were not so attractive to the public, no such record would be possible. The modern prices charged for these high grade instruments are explained in the fact that no expensive show rooms are maintained, and no high salaries are paid to salesmen. The instruments are sold direct from the factory at Bowmanville, Ontario, where no local agent handles them. Catalogue and prices may be secured free.

Welcome to the Nation's Tillers of the Soil.

And here's wishing you bumper crops for next year, was the greeting extended yesterday to our bread winners at the Lipton booth in the manufacturers' building and that Sir Thomas J. Lipton struck a responsive chord in extending greetings to them and by donating to the Sick Children's Hospital the proceeds of the sale by the cup of his tea, etc., as served at his booth here, was very manifest by the large number of visiting agriculturists who took occasion to refresh themselves with a cup of tea or coffee and express their pleasure at being able to secure such good tea, while at the same time assisting an institution in which it was evident from their remarks, very many took a great interest.

"Peerless" Furnace Features.

All the distinctive features of the Peerless furnace are being explained at the exhibit of the Peerless Furnace Co. in the stove section of the process building. This furnace is famed for its extra deep radiator and enormous heating surface, likewise its practical triangular quick removable grates, its convenient ash pits, its jointed fire-pit and its dust-proof flues, which do not permit dust to escape into the cellar.

HON. DUNCAN MARSHALL SETTING PACE FOR WEST

Great Work Accomplished in Prosperous Alberta by New Minister of Agriculture—Proves His Theories on Splendid Model Farm.

When all has been said, it would occupy volumes on the attractiveness and advantages of the Canadian northwest, one of the most important will be found conserved in the magnificent and boundless domain, characteristic for the development of leading men. It is doubtless a treasury on that leaders are born, not made. Those who have sprung to the front in the west, and stood the test of public scrutiny, both in their personal and the quiety their public service, are, in the very nature of things, newcomers to the vast new territories that yesterday erected into provinces. Here success is the result of the west have invariably given some promise in their nature, promise of a genius for public affairs. The allurements of the west in this respect robbed Ontario in particular of many of the most enterprising and able young leaders in the spheres of industry and commerce, which even a child could comprehend and work at his ease. But Mr. McQuinn figures that evidence is better than theory and has on exhibition a series of his products, which constitute a showing most deserving of commendation. Among these are several columns of exceedingly graceful and artistic Corinthian style. Many of these have been bought by visitors to the fair, and the rest bid fair to go, too. These columns are the product of the Toronto Exhibition. Come and see them and manipulate them yourself. The exhibit is held in a tent just east of the process building.

Cement Building Block Machine.

For the past nine years there has been on exhibit on the grounds which has aroused considerable interest, that of the combination cement building block machine of Thomas McQuinn. This year, however, it has attracted particular attention, as holders are beginning to realize to what practical and efficacious purposes the machines are adaptable. They are constructed on an adjustable, sectional plan, so that any size, shape, square or angle block required for building may be moulded as desired. The outfit is equipped with an ingenious parallel mechanism which even a child could comprehend and work at his ease. The I.O.F. Tent.

A picturesque spot in Society Row is the I. O. F. enclosure. "Enclosure" is largely a figure of speech, because nobody is excluded from the I. O. F. tent. Everybody is welcome. The word "picturesque" is used advisedly, because the ornate is almost as prominent as the hospitality. Beautiful flowers charm the eye. A refreshing coolness adds to your comfort, and if you are so inclined, Mr. George A. Mitchell, superintendent of field forces, or one of his able and courteous associates will tell you about the order itself.

The I. O. F. is a great order. One secret of its greatness is the basic principle that no one is barred from membership on account of race, religion or politics.

In the immense array that follows the I. O. F. banner are men and women of various nationalities and creeds. In the I. O. F. ritual there is nothing to wound or offend. The I. O. F. has already paid out thirty millions to beneficiaries of disabled brethren. Besides this significant outlay, there is another eloquent fact: The I. O. F. has added $18,885,000 to the treasury of the world. Thousands have called at the I. O. F. tent. The stream of visitors continues hourly. When you call, you get a button. It costs nothing, and it's a decoration everybody is pleased to wear. Assisting Mr. Mitchell at the I. O. F. tent are Messrs. James Henderson and John T. Thompson. From these gentlemen you get a souvenir button that has the likeness of the late Dr. Oronhyatekha, founder of the I. O. F., and on the face of the same button is a picture of his successor, Elliott G. Stevenson, the present supreme chief.

When you talk to an I. O. F. man, you are impressed by his enthusiasm. The I. O. F. is a fraternal order. "Our membership is an evidence of our progress," he will tell you. "Our members come from the 'home' class of the community. They are 'home' people and 'the people' and they cooperate us. It's interesting to know that the insurance carried by our members is greater than that carried by the members of other fraternal orders."

Sound business principles are characteristic of the I. O. F. management. These principles have marked the I. O. F. since its organization thirty-six years ago. The history of the I. O. F. reads like a romance, but it is true. The pioneers believed in their theory. This theory became a condition. The founders were joined by others. They believed in the theory, and here again appears the reason why the I. O. F. has waxed great as a fraternal order. The founders' idea was not a chimerical one. It was business-like.

HON. DUNCAN MARSHALL SETTING PACE FOR WEST

Great Work Accomplished in Prosperous Alberta by New Minister of Agriculture—Proves His Theories on Splendid Model Farm.

When all has been said, it would occupy volumes on the attractiveness and advantages of the Canadian northwest, one of the most important will be found conserved in the magnificent and boundless domain, characteristic for the development of leading men. It is doubtless a treasury on that leaders are born, not made. Those who have sprung to the front in the west, and stood the test of public scrutiny, both in their personal and the quiety their public service, are, in the very nature of things, newcomers to the vast new territories that yesterday erected into provinces. Here success is the result of the west have invariably given some promise in their nature, promise of a genius for public affairs. The allurements of the west in this respect robbed Ontario in particular of many of the most enterprising and able young leaders in the spheres of industry and commerce, which even a child could comprehend and work at his ease. GOOD EXHIBITION OF TAYLOR SAFES

TAYLOR SAFES

At 141 - 147 Front Street East

ESTABLISHED 1855

Alberta's Wonderful Growth. Alberta is five years old this month. On Sept. 1, 1905, C. Rutherford assumed office as premier, and Alberta took her place as a full-fledged province of Canada. The population was 80,000. The next decennial census will be taken in June, 1911. It is confidently predicted that the population will be 400,000.

The area sown to spring wheat has increased from 75,000 acres in 1905, to 290,000 acres in 1909, averaging over twenty bushels per acre. Fall wheat dates from 1903 when the total area was three thousand acres. Last year one hundred and five thousand acres were threshed, averaging twenty-three bushels. The oat yield has risen from one million to twenty-five million bushels in nine years. The production of barley has trebled in the same time. Last year the crop acreage passed the million mark for the first time in the history of the province, being 1,101,481 acres. The province contains 1,000,000 acres of this area, 100,000,000 acres are fit for cultivation. During the last five years the crop area has quadrupled, and if the same rate of increase is maintained for the next five years, the total yield of all grains will approximate 160,000,000 bushels. At the present time 34 per cent of the crop acreage is sown to fall and spring wheat. If the same proportion is maintained for five years, Alberta will be producing 56,000,000 bushels of wheat and wheat of the arable land is brought under cultivation, Alberta will be producing 350,000,000 bushels, placing the yield at 20 bushels per acre. A similar calculation in oats results in the almost incredible quantity of 1,200,000,000 bushels. The minister of agriculture is accompanied by Mrs. Marshall. They are staying at the King Edward.

This became evident in course of time. The membership climbed. The area of activity widened. Being a fraternal order, reciprocity was the object aimed at. It was attained. As the order grew, its resources kept pace with its influences, the widow and the orphan felt a strong arm of the order. The disabled learned to lean upon, not charity, but something to which he was in numbers. The funds increased. The sphere of mutual helpfulness spread. To anyone unacquainted with these facts, the membership of the I. O. F. is amazing, and its popularity astounding. If you follow the I. O. F. in its policy, in its effort, its achievements, you see exemplification of the order's cause and effect. There is a great deal in "knowing" all about a subject. In this case, it makes the splendid success of the I. O. F. one of the most natural things in the world. In the I. O. F. tent is a book. It's not the book of facts, rather the book of names of the people that call. Many of these people will join the I. O. F. Facts and figures are given to them. The facts and figures are authentic. The facts and figures are authentic, and the sermon they preach bears fruit. This exhibition, this I. O. F. tent is the exhibition grounds, will leave its imprint on the expansion of the order. You are not urged to join against your will, but you see what joining would mean to your wife, parents, children. It's made clear to you. You do your own thinking from the information given to you. When you become a member of the I. O. F., you are a member of the order, and here again appears the reason why the I. O. F. has waxed great as a fraternal order. The founders' idea was not a chimerical one. It was business-like.

Important from the standpoint of reserve force, but it's comprehensive in the matter of benefits. It protects the insured and his or her beneficiaries in more ways than one. The death claim is not the only item. The disability provision is another, and even now the half has not been told. A cordial invitation is extended members and their friends, when Mr. R. H. Matheson, supreme secretary, holds a reception between the hours of 3 and 4 p.m. to-day. Go to the tent. There accept the invitation to rest. Then, if you wish, hear the story of the I. O. F., if you do not already know it. If you do know it, why, in all probability, you go as a member.

Something New in Machinery. The Cowan Company of Galt are operating some interesting novelties in the mechanical line in their exhibit in the machinery hall of this year. One of these is a chain saw mortiser. The machine embodies the best principles of rapidity, accuracy and convenience in manipulation. It's not built for shops where light work is called for, and where speed is a high requisite. It has every possible application to facilitate work, and nothing intricate or difficult of access. The table-lifting mechanism consists of a friction stop tightened or loosened on a slowly moving drum. When tightened it causes the table to ascend, and when loosened to descend. So powerful and precise are these movements, but slight effort is required of the operator. The machines are well worth your examination.

Canadian Pacific Railway Exhibit. This great railway company has always a good exhibit, but this year surpasses them all. Upon entering, one is awed by the immensity of the grain dome; this feeling changes to one of delight at the exquisite color scheme. A study of detail shows a working model of elevator D, Fort

William, with a capacity of 8,500,000 bushels. And up at the elevator is a steamer which is being loaded. The pictures of steam and other power plants, harrowing and seeding are a revelation of modern prairie work. There are exhibits of British Columbia, of the Granadier Guards' Band at its dust. There is a honey from Manitoba, some from wild flowers and some from cultivated.

There is ilmenite iron ore from Quebec, containing 40 per cent of titanium and 50 per cent of iron values—92 per cent metallic values. There is a most interesting fish and game section. As usual, the attendants are well informed farmers and the C. P. R. industrial and colonization agent are there to give information about resources and openings along the entire line of railway. An eloquent admission of the value of this exhibit is made by the Chicago Land Show authorities, who positively refused to allow it a place at their exhibition.

Delights of "Victor" Booth. There is more high-grade music than that of the Grenadier Guards' Band at the exhibition. A visit to the booth of the appointed booth of the "Berliner" Gram-o-phone Company, Limited, in the manufacturers' building, will readably prove this, and a listener to the remarkably faithful reproductions of the music of the great bands and orchestras, and of the world's most famous tenors, basses, sopranos and contraltos, as they float upon the air, so gloriously, sweetly, brilliantly from the Victor records, will stand entranced as if he were in the opera house under the spell of the living instrumentalists or vocalists.

The World representative was delighted with the new records, especially three, which seemed to be the favorite with crowds of music lovers. These were the compellingly beautiful "Gloconda Air," sung by the world's greatest tenor, Enrico Caruso; John McCormack's tender new ballad, and the electrifying coloratura solos of Mme. Tetrazzini, the most brilliant coloratura that has ever lived. The bird-like, silvery notes of Nellie Melba are heard, too, in new records of ethereal beauty, and the greatest exemplar of the Italian bel canto, Mme. Sembrich, seems in one's very presence as the sweet runs, trills and roulades of her unequalled art are reproduced from the "Victor" records with all the original beauty and brilliancy of the famous diva's astonishing voice.

At the "Victor" booth there is also to be heard the delightful music of the new style "Victrolas." The "Victrolas," taken simply as a piece of furniture, lends beauty to any finely appointed drawing or music room; and as a mechanical music maker it is perfect, so much so that it has found an exclusive place not only in the homes of music lovers throughout the world, but also in the leading conservatories, colleges and universities, and in the studios of the leading music teachers and concert artists. The improved sounding board in the new style amplifies the sound waves and reflects the instrument's beautiful, rich tones, which are readily made loud or soft by opening or closing the modifying doors. If you love music, then visit the "Victor" booth.

Scientific Character Reading.
Madame Baxter is again on the Midway with her staff of scientific readers. They read your life in an open book. Mystery in the life of man they cannot unravel.

"Gay Paree" on Midway.
The "Gay Paree" show on the Midway is the most pretentious presentation of Parisian life ever attempted. W. H. Smith, the proprietor, has gathered together a bunch of dancers that have no rivals in the vaudeville art. The three vaudeville turns put on are of the very best and never fail to bring a laugh. Don't fail to visit this stupendous production.

Automobile News.

Yesterday was Farmers' Day, and they were out in force, not only all thru the grounds, but the automobile exhibits received their share. One well-to-do farmer said: "It won't be many years when we out in the Alberta country will do without horses like we do now without rain. The horseless carriage and the motor car will displace the horse and cart the same as it has the oxen and hay racks."

There is a feeling among the exhibitors that they are not allotted space commensurate with their requirements. A number have suggested a meeting on Saturday and petitioning the fair commissioners for an agreement for more space.

"Why," said one of the principal auto men, who is a large manufacturer, "I have not had an opportunity to show half of my stock. To my mind, said he, 'the transportation building should not include anything outside of automobiles and kindred vehicles.'"

Notes and Personalities.
Mr. A. M. Thompson, general manager of the Dominion Automobile Co., assumed charge of their elaborate exhibit in person, and the number of visitors who congregated to admire the beautiful Peerless limousine car put one in mind of a down town matinee.

Mr. Ghroy, manager T. Eaton Co., Winnipeg, and Mr. J. C. Eaton, were callers at the Dominion exhibit yesterday.

Mr. H. T. Scott, general sales manager of the Dominion Motor Cars, Limited, established a valuable agency at South St. Mark, and sold a line of cars for immediate delivery.

The Sunday World will contain a number of photographic illustrations of the important automobile exhibits and a review of the past two weeks, which will be found interesting to all concerned.

Motor Boat Victims Found.
BROCKVILLE, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The bodies of J. J. Letolle and N. C. Brander, the victims of yesterday's motor boat accident, were taken from the St. Lawrence this afternoon, in close proximity to where the craft foundered in the gale. Letolle's body will be shipped to Ottawa, and Brander's to St. Paul, Minn. Thiel Agency Inspector Smith's Thiel Agency has arrived in town to take up the unfinished work of Detective Letolle in the matter of the contemplated prosecutions arising out of the riot at the G.T.R. depot during the strike.

An Organ in Your Home for 25 Cents.
What is the greatest sensation of the week is the clearing of about one hundred slightly used organs of leading manufacturers by ye olds firms of Heintzman & Co., 115-117 King-street west, on payment of twenty-five and fifty cents a week. Each organ is marked at a fraction of the original price, and all are guaranteed in first-class condition. They have been thoroughly overhauled before they are put out for sale. The early removal of Heintzman & Co. to their new warehouses, 192-197 Yonge-street, makes this clearing imperative.

Putting Screws on Contractors.
ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 7.—Admitting that at least 50 per cent. of the good roads contracts had been raised during the administration of Frederick Douglass, at state engineer's office in 1907 and 1908, William Travers Jerome, counsel for Skene, in his address today to the jury trying the charges of a bribery, contended that Charles P. O'Neil was made confidential assistant to Skene by the power of Tammany Hall for the purpose of "putting the screws to contractors."

To Suspend Gold Coinage.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Gold coinage will be suspended in the United States for an indefinite period if present plans are adopted by the treasury department. By the submission of gold certificates for all bullion turned into the mint $300,000,000 a year will be saved. It has been found that foreign markets to save expense to themselves use U. S. gold to settle commercial balances.

Young Man, Would You Sell Yourself For $50,000?

Suppose you are a handsome young man, of fine attainments, but uncertain future, would you allow yourself to be put up as a prize in a Matrimonial Lottery and agree to marry whoever might get the winning ticket, even if you were paid $50,000 for your part in the game? Would you do this if you were actually in love all the time with a young lady of your own choice? Would you carry out your part of the contract if the "winner" looked like the young woman whose portrait appears here?

Young Woman, Would You Marry a Man Who Was Offered to You as a Lottery Prize?

Of course, he's good looking, amiable, of good family and fair prospects, but he's in love with another girl.

THAT'S the problem set forth in "THE LOTTERY MAN," a clever American farce to be presented at the Royal Alexandra Theatre all next week. The play ran all of last year in New York, and the Shuberts are sending it here with the original cast of players including Cyril Scott as the Lottery Man and Helen Lowell as "Lizzie," the original Miss Hazy of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." The sale of seats commences this morning at both the box office of the Royal Alexandra Theatre and Bell Plano Company on Yonge-street. The prices are $1.50 to 25c evenings, and $1.00 to 25c at matinees.

SATISFACTION AT OTTAWA

The Fisheries Award is Generally Pleased.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The decision in the fisheries case at The Hague is generally regarded here as a distinct victory for the British case. The establishment of the claim of complete autonomy in framing regulations, so long denied by the United States, is regarded with extreme satisfaction.

In the absence of an official intimation from Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, J. S. Dewart, K.C., Canadian counsel in the case, would express no general opinion on the award. Mr. Dewart spent 18 months in preparing the case and is openly disappointed at the failure of the tribunal to unanimously declare the meaning of the word "bay," and expressed a hope that the text of the award might throw light upon the decision in that regard.

Railway News.

The new C.P.R. train No. 98, which arrived at North Toronto from Montreal at 7.50 yesterday morning, brought in over a large crowd that went out on the corresponding train Tuesday night.

The arrival of this train at West Toronto at 8.05 brought to light another advantage in its favor. The passenger who leaves Montreal by No. 5, the old train, at 1.30 a.m., reaches the Union Station at 7.45 a.m., and West Toronto at 8.17, while a passenger by the other train leaves Windsor-street at 10.45, arrives at North Toronto at 7.50 and West Toronto at 8.05. This gives a clear saving of nearly an hour of time between Montreal and West Toronto.

Last night's train from the north side carried two coaches and two sleepers for Montreal, one coach and one sleeper for Ottawa, and one of the new combination smoker and second-class cars. This equipment will be the regular make-up of the new train on ordinary days. The new combination cars are very handsomely finished, with leather upholstery, and in the smoking section and rattan upholstery in the second-class section.

Speaking about the conditions at the examining warehouse, referred to in Monday's World, the collector of customs said: "The handling of goods is not quite as fast as it should be, and makes it out to be. The warehouse does not open until 8 a.m., and the appraisers who examine the goods do not get down until 9 a.m. These are hours fixed by the department at Ottawa. The railway companies send several loads of goods to the customs between 7 and 8 in the morning, and more between 8 and 9, and there is no doubt that at the latter hour there is some congestion, which is relieved, however, shortly after 10 a.m. Between 12 and 2 little or no goods come for examination at all, yet a full staff is on hand to handle them. On the whole, between 25 and 30 loads are handled per day, and each day's work has to be cleaned up before the staff is allowed to leave, and in no case are there delays of hours, unless it would be where a team got to the custom house some time before 8 in the morning."

The collector said that when duty has been paid and the required portion of a consignment is delivered to the consignee at once, and not retained in the freight sheds.

The board of control have now decided to call the attention of the Dominion Railway Board to the delay on the part of the Grand Trunk in carrying out the order for depression of the tracks west of Bathurst street. Although ordered to begin work before May 1, Controller Ward said he understood that only a little bit of survey work had been done. He thought the Grand Trunk might be making an excuse for delay out of the smoke prevention bylaw.

Property Commissioner Harris said he had notified the G. T. R. to make provision for smoke prevention while depressing the tracks in Parkdale.

"If they don't, that section of the city will be under a constant smother of smoke," said Mr. Harris.

"I don't think the Grand Trunk will have the nerve to work the smoke racket, after they were shown up in the East Toronto case," observed Mayor Geary.

Altho the city engineer's watchman has been removed from the Lake-street region for several days, the C.P.R. has made no move towards proceeding with the work of laying the new 1200-ft. bridge at Ottawa, or at any rate to let the railway commission to proceed with the work.

Mayor Geary yesterday received a letter from Dr. McNicoll, vice-president and general manager of the C.P.R., referring to the railway board's order for the construction of the high level bridge at the Don, which is to carry the highway and the Toronto and Ontario tracks over the C.P.R. G.T.R. and C.N.R. tracks. Mr. McNicoll recalled the fact that the railway board had extended the time for the completion of the bridge until July 1, 1911.

"I am advised," he wrote, "that no work in connection with the construction of the bridge has been commenced. This company has work in contemplation which will be affected by

FOUND DROWNED

Body of Mrs. Margaret McWille Recovered From the Bay

Floating in 30 feet of water in the Long Pond at Centre Island, the body of Mrs. Margaret McWille, widow, 60 years of age, was found at 10 a.m. by Ralph Gates of the yacht "Florence." The body was only partially dressed, but the rest of the clothing was found on the shore nearby. In a purse was $48.50 and two bank books showing balances of $5000 and $200.

The remains were identified by S. J. Rathford, 32 Bincarth-road, who knew her well when her sons, McWille Bros., had a large grocery business at Yonge and Richmond-streets. It is known that the clothing was found on the shore nearby. In a purse was $48.50 and two bank books showing balances of $5000 and $200.

Her address in the city was not ascertained. The bank gave it as 446 Church-street, but there it was said that she had moved two months ago, having disposed of her property to the late Mrs. Cartier Block purchasers, and was believed to be in Brantford.

She leaves three sons, Alexander, a traveler for "Tibby-McNeil" in Chicago; David, secretary-treasurer for a La-Crosse, Wis. concern, and another who is a medical missionary to China and who is on his way there now, having been home on a holiday.

LORD BERESFORD'S RELICS

An Interesting Historical Feature of the Exhibition.

Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford's loan of relics amassed during his career with the British naval brigade in Egypt has attracted no end of attention in the transportation building, where it is on exhibition. One is a fragment of a 64 pound shell fired at Port Marabout in an action on the Nile in 1882, by Charlie's famous ship, H. M. S. Condor. The shot passed thru the roof of the fort's magazine and burst on the other side. The captured colors of the fort are also on display.

But by far the most interesting feature of the collection is the large painting, by Dickinson, entitled "Running the Gauntlet," which vividly illustrates the battle between H. M. S. Salafin and Fort Wad El Habeshi in the Soudan, in 1885.

When, on Feb. 1, 1885, news reached Goubat of the fall of Khartoum and of the fact that Sir C. Wilson and a party of survivors were stranded on an island up the Nile, Lord Beresford, with a crew of picked men, mounted a couple of guns on the wooden steamer Salafin, and proceeded up the river to their relief. Early the next morning a strong earthwork with four embrasures was discerned on the starboard bank, with Sir C. Wilson's ship lying on the rocks about a quarter of a mile beyond. The enemy opened a terrific fire on the Salafin and bullets, canister and shrapnel rattled about the boat like hail. "Charlie" responded by letting his howitzers blaze at the enemy's guns, and so accurately did his gun crew work their guns that the passage of the ship was effected without a vital detriment.

They had scarcely gone 200 yards, however, when a final shot from the shore entered the boiler in the engine room and the boat came to a standstill with her beam bearing on the enemy's batteries. At the sight of their plight these redoubtable fire and 800 riflemen, under Amir Nur Ago, poured a continuous stream of lead into her side. It took three hours for the boiler to work upon it. As all the artificers and men in the stokehold had been scuttled by the explosion when the shot entered, the engineer had to do all this alone. With his own hands he had to shape the plate to cover the puncture, bore holes in it and the boiler and run down the screws. It took him ten hours to accomplish his repairs. At Another resolution adopted was that the Municipal Act be amended to provide that upon a petition of 25 per cent. of the electors being presented, the council must submit a bylaw for election by wards.

Other resolutions passed were: That the provincial government should establish institutions to which members of families who fail to provide for them thru inebriety, can be confined for treatment.

That municipalities be allowed a share of licenses and fines collected from motorists to be used in road maintenance.

That the Assessment Act be so amended that where a block of land faces on more streets than one, the assessed value can be divided and placed on the different streets.

That section 35, sub-section 1 of the Assessment Act, be so amended that in towns and cities bylaws may be passed for the collection of rates on business and income assessment immediately after the confirmation of the assessment roll, at the current rate of taxation.

That the Good Roads Act be amended so as to require all streets thru towns and villages, not separated from a county, which are a continuation of roads forming a part of the good roads scheme, to be maintained and kept in repair as part of the said scheme.

That section 153, sub-section 2, of the Assessment Act be amended by providing that goods and chattels should be responsible at all times for the taxes on them, whether they had been disposed of or not.

That in the examination of the assessment rolls of towns, villages and hamlets, business assessments and assessment for income shall not be taken into account.

That the Ontario Drainage Act be so amended as to make Indian lands amenable to that act.

That the Libraries Act be amended so that municipal councils must provide library boards with money required for maintenance from February 1 to October 1 in the year in which such public library is established, the amount not to exceed two-thirds of the sum required.

Gounod's immortal "Faust" will be the offering of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company to-night for its sixth performance at the Royal Alexandra Theatre. A particularly promising feature of the occasion will be the return of Edith Helena to the cast for the role of Marguerite. "Faust" will have but this one performance.

At the Princess. Frederic Thompson's theatrical productions are invariably high class in every respect, and his latest offering, a drama entitled "My Man," which will begin a week's engagement at the Princess Theatre on Monday, will be no exception to the rule. "My Man" is a powerfully written drama of everyday life from the pen of Forrest Halsey. The trend towards realism so marked in the modern drama is clearly evident in this play.

At the Gayety. The Fads and Follies Company will appear at the Gayety Theatre next week. The costumes and scenery are described as unusually beautiful and attractive.

"The Brigadiers" Coming. Alf and Anna Meek Bonner, appearing with "The Brigadiers" at the Star Theatre next week, have a novel and laughable new sketch, bearing the somewhat odd title, "Drunk Again." It permits Miss Bonner, who is a handsome young woman if imposing appearance, to appear to good advantage.

At the Majestic Theatre. The Walker Troupe, a quartet of comedy cyclists, headed by Bill Walker, a pantomimic dancer on roller skates, will be the feature attraction next week at the Majestic Theatre. MISS NIGHTINGALE'S SPIRIT

Extract From Old Letter Emphasizes Her Beautiful Life.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Some extracts from a number of hitherto unpublished letters, written by the late Miss Florence Nightingale, some of them in facsimile, are published in the current number of The Christian Commonwealth.

Addressed to Surgeon Jas. Paterson Walker in India, the letters were written more than forty years ago, between nine and twelve years after Miss Nightingale's return from the Crimea.

For the most part they refer to hygienic and sanitary matters, but some interesting side lights and personal matters are included.

It is remarked that "there is not one unkind sentence in any of her letters." A reference to a certain highly placed official as an "enob" is followed by an apologetic parenthesis—"which is a very disrespectful form of speech on my part."

Much the most interesting is the last letter of the series. It was written on Aug. 10, 1858, and in the course of it the writer says:

"It is also eleven years this very day since I was taken ill with the illness for five or six months, which I never again. You see how much I have to thank God for, who has indeed led me by a way which I have not known. At the largest, I have been fit to send my troubles and trials, like waters which one could not cross, were one to look down into them. I am almost the least survivor of my fellow-workers in England, more doing than I have, but little older than I. And this very year has seen the death of the best and most of my pupils, my 'Unas,' who were larger and braver than I."

"Life, under this discipline, loses shall I say—or gains all its value. It is a part of eternity. And past and future seem almost more a reality and a presence than they present, were it not for pressing duty."

Larger Interest Now Taken in Domestic Stocks

Stock Values Harden Slowly Business is of Small Value

Wall Street a Traders' Market Pure and Simple Thrust Session—Prices on Up-Grade at Toronto Exchange.

World Omeo, Wednesday Evening, Sept. 7.

The largest buying movement at the Toronto Exchange since the improvement in prices has taken place occurred 10-day.

Up till the present time a good deal of the buying on the domestic market has come from investors, but to-day's market would indicate that the speculative public have begun to take a greater interest in securities.

The prime activity was in Mackay shares, the common being especially favored. From 35, the first sale in New York this morning, the price advanced four points and closed bid at the highest price of the day.

Rumors which have been circulated in connection with the Mackay securities lately has had much to do with the demand for the stock and in financial circles it is asserted that the common shares will reach par within a short time.

There was a good demand for Duluth-Superior, Rio, Sao Paulo, Twin City and Maple Leaf, but orders were general throughout the market for a large proportion of the listed stocks.

Money was reported to show signs of a little more firmness to-day, but on gold collateral is still available at 5-1/2 per cent.

The market as a whole is still pretty bare of most of the active stocks, and unless some strong reasons can be assigned, there is little promise of any volume of realizing at present prices.

DOMINION STEEL CO.'S OUTPUT.

The output of the Dominion Steel Co. for August shows 22,775 tons of pig iron and 27,600 tons of steel ingots, while the wire mill produced no less than 5740 tons, on 15 tons better than any previous month.

STATE OF THE IRON TRADE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Iron Age to-morrow will say: The reduction in pig iron output in August was insignificant, the core and anticrete furnaces producing 2,100,000 tons, against 2,148,000 tons in July. Our pig iron production in August was smaller than in any month since July 1909. As a condition of state, definite information is lacking. The pig iron trade is not building high hopes on the activity developed in spots in the past two weeks. The basis of sales for 1911 is the chief matter of moment now. Sellers want from 50 cents to 1 1/2 advance from the low level, but buyers are not ready to pay an advance.

Several sales of basic iron have been made, including 10,000 tons in northern Ohio, for shipment to Chicago, and 5000 tons at Philadelphia, the latter at less than $15. In finished materials manufacturing and consumption are in close relation. Some good business in rails under negotiation and in structural work the chief new item is 5100 tons of bridges for the Oregon Trunk Line taken by the Pennsylvania Steel Co.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED.

The regular dividend was declared on Rogers yesterday.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1-1/2 per cent. was declared on New York Central.

American Tobacco Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 1-1/2 per cent. on its preferred stock, payable October 1.

Intercontinental Rubber Co. directors declared initial dividend on common stock of 1 per cent. and decided to retire $1,000,000 of the $3,000,000 outstanding preferred stock.

CHATS ON CHANGE.

Erickson Perkins & Co. wired J. G. Beatty the following: The stock market showed considerable resisting power to-day, and after the regular American Smelting common dividend was announced in the last hour, hardened slowly. Doubts about the Smelting dividend caused a halting tendency at midday. Despite opposing prices were a little higher for many issues. We think the market should work somewhat higher to-morrow, unless new disturbing elements arise.

Our suggestion that the Vermont election tended to clear the atmosphere proved true. After all, we think too much stress is laid on politics, too many will fall to be convinced that such is the case. The corporate world may well contend that they have little to gain from either party, according to the bankers. If so, why worry over a change in congress? The little prospect of rejuvenation, the block legislation, thereby warding off many hostile measures. Stocks ought to break and sell on rallies, accepting profits of a point or two.

J. P. Bickel & Co. had the following: The market was a nominal affair after 12:30 p.m. Business about 12 per cent. bigger than yesterday, with traders largely on the bull side discounting a probably favorable government grain crop report to-morrow. One feature of the times is the order by the General Motors Company for re-entrance in production. We can see nothing but that traders' market until new developments are important to our banking interests take hold.

SPECULATION IN REAL EARNST.

World Office
Wednesday Evening, Sept. 7.

As forecasted in these columns for over two weeks now, speculation has entered in real earnest into the securities on the Toronto Stock Exchange. To-day's business was the largest in months, and seems to be the beginning of a big broad market. Any news on the exchange was thoroughly indefinite, but a scarcity of stock, rather than bullish information, was responsible for the further advances made. A large number of people with money to invest have been waiting for some indication of confidence. This is gradually coming along, and it is buying evolved from this trend of thought which is responsible for the strength thruout the listed securities. There are no signs that the market has discounted the incoming volume of buying tributary to the Toronto exchange.

Affairs of Postmasters

Will Hold Annual Meetings at Various Places Hereafter.

The Ontario Postmasters' Association yesterday decided to hold its annual conventions hereafter at various Ontario points, but will be back again to Toronto next year just the same.

The meeting will be held the first Tuesday in June, 1911. The association consists of 1800 members, all postmasters or acting postmasters, of whom about 100 are attending the present convention. President George H. Burgar of Welland occupies the chair.

Secretary Proctor's report referred to pensions for long service postmasters, the placing of postmasters on the civil servants' insurance list, and more remuneration for postmasters whose duties were increased by reason of rural mail delivery. Promotion of postmasters from smaller offices to larger offices was advocated and the opinion expressed that the department should make it clear to civil servants, and especially the postmasters that their positions were permanent, and that they were not likely to be dismissed for any other than substantial reasons, and that the system among postmasters should be made something on a par with banking institutions, railways and other large corporations.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—Geo. H. Burgar, Welland.
Vice-President—Jas. St. Clinton, Wm. Hamilton, Uxbridge; Wm. Forbes, Grimsby.
Secretary-Treasurer and organizer—H. E. Proctor, Aurora.
Assistant Secretary-Treasurer—Miss M. J. Dubeau, Warren.
