"A Run on the Bank"

The way busy-men have come in lately for the new "Macey" desk file would make you think of a lively sprint for one of those large monetary institutions when rumors of "frenzied finance" fill the air.

While we still have plenty of these handy devices for any kind of a rush, yet some hundreds of lucky men have done their level best to reduce our stock of them to diminutive proportions.

For following up equities re-investments, or for the purpose of saving space, the "Macey" desk file is a most valuable asset to any busy man.

FEAST OF THE PASSOVER.

Customs Which Will be Observed in Week Beginning Wednesday.

The Feast of the Passover will begin on Wednesday evening and will last for seven days. The observance of the feast is one of the most important among the Jews, as it commemorates the liberation of the children from the judgment wrought on the first-born of the Egyptians.

On Wednesday evening, the head of every orthodox Jewish household will conduct the Seder service, which is a story of Israel's liberation in Egypt. The service is conducted by the father of the family, but every member takes some part in it, and between feasting, singing and drinking wine, it is a merry occasion which is eagerly looked for by all. The Seder night will be a busy one, for a long time before the feast is over, for a long time before the feast is over, for a long time before the feast is over.

Rebuttal evidence was called by I. H. Helmhuth, counsel for C. R. Jamieson, to show that the thesis of Mr. Jamieson was not a plagiarism. The commission was complete as far as the thesis was concerned, and that the commission was complete as far as the thesis was concerned.

While this is a large sum, it is known to be only a drop in the bucket compared with the total of the illegal profits which certain directors of the Equitable have made at the expense of the policyholders.

LA GRIPPE

Bronchitis, Pneumonia and Lung Troubles

Vin Mariani Absolutely Reliable in La Grippe Epidemics.

General Henry Libermann, M.D., who reached the distinction and honor of Surgeon-in-Chief of the French Army, writes:

"VIN MARIANI was the tonic absolutely relied upon in La Grippe epidemic in France, and had frequent deserved mentions in the medical press."

Holds the premier position as a remedy for La Grippe. Vin Mariani cures both as a preventive and a remedy to relieve and successfully combat this dread malady.

It cannot pass unheeded, even by the advisers of the czar.

It should therefore be noted that within six months from the present date peace negotiations will be in progress.

Small Conflict in Comparison, But Perhaps One of the Decisive Battles of the War.

Francis McCullagh, special correspondent of The New York Herald, writes as follows from Mukden, under date of Jan. 15:

On the southern bank of the Hun River, about 20 miles southwest of Mukden, there is an obscure village called Sandayu by the Russians, Shandayoo by the Chinese and Chenchiesoo by the Japanese.

At this village there was fought, in the middle of the Russian January, a battle which, the small in comparison with the Titanic conflicts that preceded it, may yet prove to be the most decisive battle of the war.

It is strange that a battle in which the Russians lost only 11,000 men (also considering the number of men engaged this loss is frightful) should be of such importance, but Sandayu was vitally important in this, that it proved the Russians were unable in spite of their numerical superiority and of the long period of preparation that had elapsed since the battle of Shaho permanently to drive the Japanese back a single verst.

The Russian had everything in their favor. They had intense cold, and they simply revel in cold which would kill the Japanese like summer flies.

More than that, they had at their backs the north wind, which blew snow into the faces of the Japanese. Previously the Japanese had always had at their backs through the three or four days that the battle lasted, a strong and an enormous force of cavalry—10,000 on all on their right flank, and as the ground and rivers were frozen, the horsemen had not to contend with all the difficulties they meet with in summer time.

There was even snow to deaden the sound of the horses' hoofs, so that all the favorable conditions for which in summer time they so ardently longed were at last present, not singly but all together.

How many hundreds of times did I hear at Tschichiao, Liaoyang, and Fenaihu that when winter came, and Kurospakin had succeeded in driving the enemy into the open, the inevitable Russian cavalry was free to operate, there would speedily be an end to the Japanese Manchuria.

We are now in the heart of the winter, Sandayu lies in a level plain, the conditions are about as favorable for the cavalry as they can ever be; we are stronger in infantry and artillery than the enemy, and yet we have lost. The logical conclusion is that we cannot beat the Japanese.

WOULD "BUST" TAX RATE FIREMEN TO LEAD ATTACK

Council Considers Estimates To-Day and the Adoption of a 19 Mill Rate.

The submitting of the whittled estimates to council by the board of control this afternoon promises to develop more opposition than was at first thought.

There is talk of a strike on the part of the firemen, and the board of control is to be the storm-center. Members of the fire and light committee state that they are firmly united in opposition to the wage cuts provided for in the board of control estimates.

Sufficient other aldermen have hinted, directly or indirectly, that they will support the claim of the committee to give assurance that the board will not be one-sided. Ald. Coatsworth, as a member of the committee, expressed emphatic views last night on the wage cuts, which mean about $12,000 being tacked on to the estimates.

He pointed out that the police department salaries as recommended would be on a higher rate of increase, involving an added expenditure to the city of $135,000. He said that the board of control had what had been fixed upon a week ago.

What a like firm stand of the other committee members whose recommendations have been pruned is not so confidently expected. It is certain that individual members will have some pointed criticisms to offer.

Ald. Jones, as chairman of the board of control, said last night that while he could not speak for the whole committee, he was in favor of the items of $600 for two groynes, $1200 for a new shelter at Centre Island.

Among the items of expense that will be supported will be $1200 for public lavatories, as passed by council, and for two new waterworks engines. The tax estimates as they will be presented to-day are:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Board of control, Works, special, Fire and light, Property, Island committee, etc.

Firemen Are Anxious. The fate of the recommendations of the fire and light committee concerning salaries is being awaited by the firemen almost with bated breath.

To talk with a fireman nowadays is to hear a good deal about the bona fides of the large members of the council. The men of the department consider that they have gone about their business in so far as seeking their own ends as is concerned, in a fair and honorable way.

"Of course, it looks like lobbying, but what can we do? So long as we are dependent on aldermen for the size of our salaries, what can we do?" is the way they look at it.

As a matter of fact, it is said that the mayor had expressed his disapproval of the firemen's attitude, and that some would have to give up their jobs.

The firemen expect that every man in council this day will do his duty, and they look for the adoption of the committee's recommendations.

FIND BOGUS BALLOT BOX CORROBORATING LOTT'S STORY

Farmer Near Stirling Locates It Partially Hidden in Grass, But in Perfect Working Order.

Belleville, April 15.—(Special).—The bogus ballot box sensations still crop up in this district. It will be remembered that Phil Lott told how his brother-in-law had a ballot box, alleged to have been secured from the Liberal headquarters in Toronto, which worked with a spring in connection with the lock.

This box had been destroyed by the fire on Saturday last. A farmer named Patterson, who lives about a mile away from the town, while taking a walk around his fields, discovered partially hidden in the dead grass a bogus ballot box.

The box is different from the last improved kind, made in Watertown, and the original of the box is in perfect working order. The discovery of this box, it is believed, goes some way towards corroborating Phil Lott's story of what his brother had done.

The box is in the possession of a citizen of Stirling. The discovery of this box, it is believed, goes some way towards corroborating Phil Lott's story of what his brother had done.

St. Catharines Engineer Asks for Special Council Investigation.

St. Catharines, April 15.—(Special).—Rumors, which have been going the rounds the last day or two affecting a sewer-pipe contract, culminated today in Mayor Street receiving a letter from City Engineer Spakman, requesting a special meeting of council at the earliest possible moment, in order to have a thorough investigation made.

"I have also to request that Charles A. Wilson be invited to attend, and that he be required to substantiate the charges made by the council. The instructions to the editor of the Standard against my honor and integrity, having been informed by the editor that the imputations were made by him," writes Mr. Spakman.

Mr. Wilson is an ex-alderman. The regular meeting of the city council is on Monday evening.

ARE YOU WEAK?

Nature intended you to be strong. You have the physique, the constitution, and yet you do not feel the vim, the sand, the ambition one would expect in a person of your age. What is it? Why, a lack of vitality—the foundation of strength.

You have lost it, no matter how young, set young. Life is beautiful when you have health. I can cure you with my

WAS ALL RUN-DOWN. Newmarket, Ont., March 14, 1905. Dr. McLaughlin: Dear Sir,—I was run down and all used up when I purchased your Belt about two months ago. Since then, I have done a wonderful lot of good, as I feel quite well and strong again, and I can thank you for it. I will be only too glad to tell you how the good your Belt has done me. Yours very truly, WILLIAM SUTTON.

GOOD HEALTH AND SUCCESS

Go Hand in Hand When the Blood is Kept Pure and Rich by

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Red blood means health, strength, courage, cheerfulness, power of endurance, and a well-nourished brain that likes to accomplish things.

The secret of health is, after all, in the blood. For with an abundance of rich red blood, the nervous system is nourished and sustained, the lungs, liver and kidneys are filled with the vigor and energy necessary to accomplish their work, and there is no room for weakness and disease.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food builds up strength and invigorates the whole human body because it actually forms rich, red blood.

Indigestion, sleeplessness, nervous headache, irritability, nervousness, lack of energy and strength, and failures of the bodily organs to perform their functions are almost invariably the result of poor, watery blood.

The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food completely overcomes these symptoms, and by filling the whole system with new vigor, gives new hope and confidence and replaces weakness and disease with health and strength.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $3.00 at all dealers. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $3.00 at all dealers. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

MARCHMONT'S NEW PLAY

AUTHOR TELLS ABOUT IT

Author of "By Right of Sword" Has Dramatized "The Courier of Fortune."

Arthur W. Marchmont, novelist and playwright, is at the King Edward.

As a writer of striking romance, Mr. Marchmont is well-known on this side of the Atlantic, he being one of the rather limited number of British novelists of the day whose books find a general measure of favor abroad as well as at home.

The author of "By Right of Sword" has just published a new play, which he has dramatized from the novel "The Courier of Fortune."

The play, which Mr. Marchmont has just published, is a story of the life of a man who has been a prisoner of war, and who has been a prisoner of war.

Queer Stories Concerning His Conduct Which Are Said to Be Believed in Europe.

New York, April 16.—The American prints the following from Berlin: Rumors that the czar is losing his mind will not do, particularly since various German insanity experts have gone on mysterious missions to St. Petersburg. It is claimed that Grand Duke Paul advised the czarina that the czar is suffering "from a deep mental depression" that brought on a kind of stupor, and that, in the meantime, she had the czar's bodily and mental strength to the point of exhaustion.

From another source it is learned that, among the symptoms submitted to a well-known expert, was this: The czar spends hours kneeling before his icons, mumbling prayers. "When his wife or ministers suggest the pressure of business he flies into paroxysms of rage."

It is reported that when M. Witte talked to the czar privately the other day on the necessity of making peace, Nicholas interrupted him with the words: "Stop your noise—it hurts my head." Witte felt so insulted that he replied: "Under these circumstances it will be very hard for your majesty's ministers to do anything."

During the same session he called his ministers harsh, accusing them of withholding the truth from the czar and similar fits of temper are steadily on the increase.

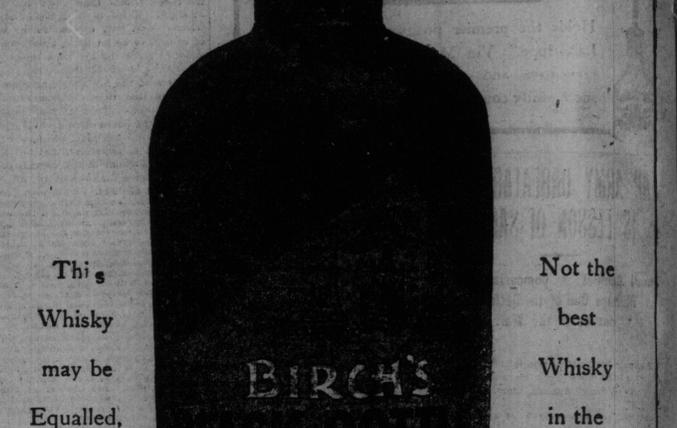

The czar characterizes his more or less voluntary stay at the country place as imprisonment imposed by a clique of scheming politicians, and he seems to have confidence in no one but John von Kronstadt, who is forever inventing prayers for the emperor.

When these reports were submitted to a diplomat, who has seen much service in Russia, he said: "Such stories and rumors coming from Russia are most ominous—they indicate that the clique of grand dukes and other leading politicians intend to get rid of the monarch. Just before the czar was elected to the throne by his own officers, every European court echoed with stories of the eccentricities and despotism of the czar."

This hurried journey on so auspicious a day was such a striking lesson in party loyalty. Sir William Arrol, 67 years of age, that his brother Unionists, to the number of 350, spontaneously subscribed to a tangible acknowledgment of the event.

"No doubt Unionists strive to emulate Sir William Arrol's example," said Premier Balfour in making the presentation, "but it is indeed a rare example of a man who has acted in this way."
