

SAYS ROMANIA WILL TAKE UP CAUSE OF ENEMY

Bucharest, Nov. 12.—(Delayed in transmission)—Former Premier Cury is credited by the newspaper "Adevartul" with the statement that Rumania will take up arms on the side of Germany in December.

Vienna, Nov. 16.—The full report of the commander of the submarine which recently sank the Italian liner Ancona in the Mediterranean has not been received, but the report, on which the statement sent out Sunday by the Austro-Hungarian admiralty, was based, showed, according to Austrian officials, that the loss of a single life was unnecessary.

It is alleged that the crew of the Ancona were panic-stricken from the beginning and actually lowered lifeboats while the ship was moving fourteen miles an hour. These boats naturally were swamped, but it is asserted that there were still enough lifeboats to save everybody. Furthermore the charge is made that the members of the crew preempted the boats and rowed far from the steamer, the captain of which had been allowed almost ninety minutes for the safe removal of those aboard.

An Austrian official remarked incidentally that the same panic-stricken conduct was reported in the case of the Italian crew of the liner Firenze, which was sunk after the Ancona.

It is pointed out in official quarters here that the commander of the submarine which sank the Ancona and no means of knowing whether that steamer was a peaceful outboard passenger ship or a transport, and it is deduced that he was even justified in suspecting her to be a warship, as she is listed in the international naval register, as an auxiliary cruiser, with a provisional armament of 12-centimeter guns.

"In any event," said the informant of the Associated Press, "the submarine commander did his duty in challenging, and when the ship started in flight he had no alternative but to open fire. Whether the submarine would have halted the Ancona, if it were known that she was a passenger ship, bound for America, is an academic question.

Government circles here say that no action will be taken by the United States.

GRAFT IN THE 33RD

London, Ont., Nov. 17.—A bold story of graft was told by witness after witness, at an inquiry into the affairs of the 33rd battalion on Tuesday. One after another admitted trafficking in the stores of the battalion, and on top of these confessions came revelations of what one of the court characterized as a "liquor supply depot," right in the quartermaster's store, where it was alleged several officers were accustomed to drink in violation of the regulations.

SMUGGLED GOODS MAKE TOWNS RICH

Profitable Contraband Trade By The Dutch

SCENES AT FRONTIER

How Customs Regulations Are Evaded by Shrewd Traders—Germany Needs the Goods

Amsterdam, Nov. 1.—(Correspondence)—The Amsterdam Telegraph has published a series of articles, based on reliable sources, dealing with the subject of the smuggling of contraband from Holland into Germany. It showed an endless train of wagons winding along a country road towards the frontier, each wagon loaded with cases labeled "Margarine" and "Soap" and the legend underneath the picture reads, "Fats and oils are contraband, but 'margarine' and 'soap' are all right, so here we go."

At the same time the Telegraph published a series of articles, based on investigations made by a member of its staff at the frontier, and these sufficiently give point to Mr. Reussner's cartoon. Other papers in Holland are also very outspoken on the subject of contraband.

I have recently returned from a rather extensive tour of frontier points. Up to a short time ago the best of these things had ceased, or at least diminished. What the smugglers are now doing is to smuggle margarine and soap across the frontier in grease and oil cans and fatstuffs. And one knows why this is so.

The Cologne Gazette recently published an article in which it pointed out the problem of procuring sufficient quantities of grease or lard for the German table as being a "heavy" matter. It explained that a certain amount of fat was necessary to human nourishment, and that, now that importation was impossible, the home supplies were "far from being enough to satisfy even the most urgent needs." It explained the scheme of "grease tickets," by which, as with bread tickets, the stock is to be economized. The article issued entitling each individual to sixty grammes of fatstuffs a day. The article makes various suggestions for increasing the domestic supply. It suggests, for instance, that the dead bodies of horses will furnish some soap and grease for industrial use, and even provided that the sanitary authorities consent, the manure of some noted communicable diseases, some considerable margarine.

Without stopping to consider how far the suggestions in the article are serious, the interesting point is that the writer evidently recognizes the fact that the "margarine" and the "non-communicable" "Non-communicable margarine," the soap which is used for washing, is a recent creation of the contraband blockade-runners.

As Mr. Reussner says, the export of margarine from Holland is not forbidden, and any man who chooses to visit, let us say, the High School, may see a spectacle of which the artist's cartoon is less a caricature than a study from the life. Entitled "The comes in with goods wagons—I speak only what I saw on one day—seems to contain a greater or smaller quantity of cases of so-called margarine. The platform is littered with them, the receiving room for goods parcels is piled up almost to the ceiling. Outside, the station yard is thronged with vehicles. When I was there I counted thirty-one carts, five hand carts, some carts drawn by dogs, and over ninety men on day-bicycles. The entire troupe is commonly referred to by the residents of Bergen as "the smugglers."

As rapidly as possible the cases are hurried out from the station on to the carts, and immediately the procession starts upon the road to the frontier. The road to the frontier, soon after leaving Bergen, bifurcates, one route going to Putte and the other to Sandviken, both frontier villages. Unhappily, the latter route bifurcates again, and a less important road also crosses the frontier where no village is. It seems that the regulations, or at least the practice, of the customs at the three points varies considerably, and if the authorities do not know which of the three roads it is that is followed by the majority of the margarine-loaded wagons, it is, at all events, common knowledge among the residents of the district.

Unstable "Margarine"

An authority whom I regard as competent assured me that on an average about 10,000 kilograms of "margarine" were sent over the frontier from Bergen-op-Zoom alone every day, as well as 1,000 kilograms of "soap." These figures also seem to be accepted as accurate by the Dutch newspapers. It is commonly asserted and believed that the so-called "soap" is quite useless for washing, being understood to be but a composition of linseed oil (which is strictly contraband), which is easily reduced again into its component elements. An official of the customs near Bergen told me that he had himself tasted the "margarine" and, quite uselessly, reported it as entirely edible. It is not of the comestible kind. It is said to be a composition of what, I do not know—waxes meant to be employed for lubrication or to be resolved into its elements and partly used as food.

In any case the mere fact that every day in broad daylight with a publicity which is almost tumultuous, great quantities of essentially contraband material, which Germany, by the confession of her own press, stands urgently in need, pour daily over the Dutch frontier under a disguise which, so far from deceiving anybody, is a common jest throughout the neighborhood.

Bergen-op-Zoom is not the only town in Holland near the frontier, though, from its accessibility from Antwerp, it is an extremely convenient point of export. It was on Bergen last year (October 8-10, 1914), that the terrible burden of that awful influx of refugees from Antwerp fell to rest here. As it was the easiest point for the fugitives to reach, it is now the easiest point for the smugglers to send their goods from. And Bergen today is reap-

MORE THAN 300 OF THEIR BOYS HAVE ENLISTED

Canadian Branch Catholic Emigration Association Proud of Record of Their Charges

(Ottawa Free Press)

The Catholic Emigration Association, whose duty it is to receive and superintend Catholic children sent out from Britain until they reach the eighteenth year, are very proud of the boys who are enlisting in the army and are joyfully installed into their homes in the Old Country.

Already the number of recruits from the Canadian branch numbers over 800. Besides these, there is a large number scattered over the dominion who have not reported their names to the home. Of course several have received promotion or distinction. Young Anthony Glinly, being one of them.

A constant correspondence is carried on with the English, French, Dardanelles and Bermuda. All write in excellent spirits, proud of their regiment, and the training and service they are doing in their adopted country, Canada. There is not a murmur in all the letters of the hardships incidental to active service, but a bright, happy, boyish spirit of fun, which turns difficulties into jest.

The training and the successful and sturdy Canadian farmer is of an invaluable benefit to them, and every boy looks back to returning to "his farm" as a school boy looks forward to his return home for his holidays.

London, Nov. 17.—Bishop Perrin, formerly of British Columbia, now suffragan to the Bishop of London, in a newspaper interview reproves "the exhibition of intemperance in eating and drinking as indicated by the Mansion House banquet." He declares it nothing short of outrageous, and thinks the Lord Mayor should have invited his guests to tea and coffee, followed by the customary speeches and then Mr. Asquith and others should have gone home to a two-course dinner. The king's lead in temperance, declares His Lordship, has been rendered impotent by His Majesty's ministers.

Afflicted with Lame Back

THREE YEARS AGO COULD NOT SWEEP THE FLOOR.

Women are coming to understand that weak, lame and aching backs from which they suffer so much exasperating pain and agony are due to weak action of the kidneys.

The kidneys are overtaxed—given more work than they can do, and when the back aches and pains it is hard for a woman to look after her household duties, for no woman can be strong and well when the kidneys are out of order.

On the first sign of any weakness in the back, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble, cure the weak, aching back, and prevent any serious kidney trouble liable to follow.

Mrs. L. Gossau, 683 Manning Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in writing you, making the best of it I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not even sweep the floor. A man advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and before I had used one I was a great improvement, and before I had used five I was cured. I highly recommend 'Doan's' for lame back. Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box, 8 boxes for $1.25; at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Miller Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 17, 1915
The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Campbell Street every evening Sunday excepted by the St. John Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

DOES THIS CONCERN YOU?

The business that is of most importance in the city of St. John at the present time is being done in the streets at the recruiting rooms. One by one or sometimes in twos, young men go upstairs to be examined by the doctor, and these are the young men who ought to be honored above others, but the people stroll carelessly past the door, and though a meeting is held there every night and brief speeches are delivered, the room is never quite filled. Why? There is also great difficulty in getting a little music at these meetings. Why? Are there not plenty of musicians in St. John who are not going to the front, and who might fairly be expected to do something at home to aid the cause? Evening after evening those who do attend see young men going up for examination, and applaud them as they go. All who try do not pass. One evening this week a boy in knickerbockers went up in the hope that he might be accepted.

THE WAR NEWS

The situation in the Balkans, from the standpoint of the Allies, does not seem to improve. The Serbians are fighting against heavy odds. The Allies are not yet able to afford the desired relief. The attitude of Greece still appears to be uncertain. Today's reports suggest that Roumania may join Russia next month, but that, too, is still a matter of doubt. In the meantime neither the British and French in the west, nor the Russians in the east, nor the Italians in the south have been able to create such diverging as would force the enemy to lessen its activities in the Balkans. The next few weeks will be a period of great anxiety. No one doubts the final result, but German intrigue and intimidation may be able to prolong the struggle. The interesting news comes from England that Mr. Bonar Law has come to the conclusion that conscription is not desirable at present. This will make it awkward for those Conservative journals which have been clamoring for conscription. Lord Derby's scheme of voluntary enlistment is not likely to be abandoned for the present. It has of late been producing more satisfactory results.

BOURASSA EXPOSED.

The Ottawa Journal has neatly exposed an insidious attempt by Mr. Bourassa to arouse prejudice in the minds of French-Canadians. Mr. Bourassa proposed to have a collection for a Red Cross collection in Canada, a calculated affront to the French people. He therefore wrote: "Families and Malquist are simply defeats of the French armistice. Waterloo is the end of a man whose career was ended, the end of a dynasty without any roots, the destruction of a monstrous regime, of which France as much as any other nation in Europe had suffered. But Trafalgar. It is the defeat of France, the loss forever of its colonial power, it is the tragic ruin to the great benefit of England, of the dreams of Richelieu, Colbert, Duplex and Montcalm. And it is that day, nefarious amongst all dates for France in the history of its struggles against England, that they chose to ask the people of all parts of the Empire, to furnish India, to Australia, to South Africa, to Canada, a quarter of which is French, to throw gold into the coffers to assist the richest country in the world to help the army allied with France." The Ottawa Journal answers Mr. Bourassa by pointing out that the French-Canadians of that day regarded the war against Napoleon as a holy war, and that following Nelson's victory over the French fleet in Aboukir Bay, there was a great religious celebration in Quebec. The Journal says: "The British fleet under Nelson defeated Napoleon's fleet in Aboukir Bay, just as the same fleet under the same man in the same struggle defeated Napoleon's fleet at Trafalgar a little later. When the news of the Nile reached Canada, extraordinary action followed. The Bishop of Quebec addressed a mandement to all the clergy of his diocese calling upon all to celebrate solemn mass in their churches in thankfulness for the British victory, and to sing Te Deums. The mandement in question is from 'Pierre Desautel, by the Grace of God and the Apostolic See, Bishop of Quebec,' and is addressed to all the clergy. After a cluding to the victory, of which his clergy had been informed, and to the evils caused by the action of those dominating France, the mandement touches on the mischievous results of further successes of the revolutionaries, and with reference to Nelson's victory, says: 'But the God of armies has declared the justice of our cause.' The clergy are ordered not to fall to take advantage of the occasion to impress upon their parishioners the obligations they owe to Heaven for having placed them under the Empire and protection of His Britannic Majesty and to exhort them all anew to maintain it with fidelity and gratitude. Trafalgar Day, therefore, is not a day of grief among French-Canadians, and the little game of Mr. Henri Bourassa is fully exposed. But as the Ottawa Journal adds: 'The real character of Mr. Bourassa's assumed concern for France and French feelings, like that of Lord Col. Leveson, is illustrated by his peddling to let his mother country die under German boots rather than that French-Canadians should stir a hand.' In due time the people of Canada will attend to the case of Bourassa and Leveson, and those who have given them encouragement in the past and are afraid to denounce them in the present.

AT BRUSSELS.

(By Clinton Scollard.) Not under the light of the dawn was the deed of horror done, Nor yet in the blaze of the noon, under the gaze of the sun, But in the stealth of the night. Such is the way of the Hun! What saith the Word—As ye sow, thus shall ye also reap. Once, we read, there was one, a dastard who murdered sleep, And summoned the furies of hell from the vaults of the ether deep. Out of the nether gloom again shall the brood not come, Fury and lust and rage, rapine and sack and plunder, Cruelty and crime, from the time of Iscariot! Foul upon history's page there is written many a bolt, Fury and lust and rage, rapine and sack and plunder, Cruelty and crime, from the time of Iscariot! But naught more wanton than this under the eyes of the Lord, Naught to be more despised, naught to be more abhorred! What shall the woman he? What be the just reward?

WHILE PLUMS ARE ALL THE GO.

May—No, George, it cannot be. I am not good enough to be your wife. George—What nonsense, dear! You are an angel. May—George, even an angel could not be happy with a man who had only $1200 a year, and feathers the price they are!

BEAUTIFUL GIRLS ARE OFTEN FEEBLE MINDED
That the brains of the prettiest girl often cannot compare favorably with those of her less attractive sister, is what Dr. Walter E. Fernald, head of McLean Institute for the Care of the Feeble-Minded told Russell's girls at Cambridge, Mass., the other day. Mr. Fernald said that the pictures of several beautiful young women and added that while all of them were over twenty-five years of age, none of them had more mental power than a child of nine. To all appearances they were normal, he said, yet they lacked reasoning power and were guided by impulse and instinct rather than common sense.

INDICATIONS OF REVOLT AGAINST GREEK GOVERNMENT
Anti-dynastic demonstrations have occurred at Patras, Greece, one of the strongholds of Ex-Premier Venizelos. An organ of the ex-premier protests against mobilization of the forces during the election campaign, saying that fifty Venizelist deputies have been refused the postponement of their enrollment to conduct their election campaigns. There are approximately 12,000,000 acres of potential forest land in New York state.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN
Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dull eyes and languid feeling make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women. If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body forces to healthy action. Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, free from harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont.

WHAT GREAT BRITAIN WILL DO FOR US

Remarkable Tribute Paid by Former U. S. Senator

The following extract from a speech delivered twenty and more years ago by the United States Senator Frye is of interest at this time. A little incident with which you are familiar is a marvellous illustration of the protection which Great Britain gives to her subjects. The King of Abyssinia took a British subject, named Campbell, about twenty years ago and carried him to the fortress of Magdala upon the heights of a rocky mountain and put him in a dungeon. It took six months for Great Britain to find this out. Then Great Britain demanded his immediate release. King Theodore refused. In less than ten days after his refusal was received 10,000 British soldiers, including 5,000 Sepoys, were on board ships of war sailing down the coast. They disembarked and marched across that terrible country, a distance of 700 miles, under a burning sun. Up to the mountain they went, up to the very heights in front of the frowning fortress. Then they gave battle, battered down the iron gates and the stone wall, reached down into the dungeon and lifted out of it that one British subject, King Theodore killed himself with his own pistol. Then they carried that rescued prisoner down the mountain, across the land, put him on board a British ship and sped him to his own land in safety.

That cost Great Britain $25,000,000 and made Gen. Napier Lord Napier of Magdala. That was a great thing for a great country to do—a country that has an eye that can see across the ocean, all across the land, away up to the darkness of a dungeon one subject out of her 80,000,000 people and then have an arm strong enough and long enough to stretch across the same ocean, up the same mountain heights, down to the same dungeon and then lift him out and carry him home to his friends. In God's name, who would not die for a country that would do that?

NEWFOUNDLAND PROHIBITION RESULT DELAYED BY STORM Unable to Collect Ballot Boxes on Northern Coast—Belief That "Drys" Have Won. St. John, Nfld., Nov. 16.—Owing to bad weather the steamer which was collecting the ballot boxes from the fishing villages along the northern coast ran short of coal and was obliged to return to Bay of Islands to replenish her bunkers. This means that the final figures in the prohibition election may be postponed for several days, until she makes another trip. It is, however, generally conceded that the district will give enough votes to carry prohibition.

SOCIETY GIRL'S AMAZING STORY

Wooded and Wedded Creature of Her Imagination

TOOK A DEAD BODY HOME

Told Family Husband Had Been Killed in Railway Smash—Calloused Hands Led to Denouncement

Chicago, Nov. 16.—How a girl, well known in society circles of Atlanta, Georgia, came to Chicago, identified the body of a man killed on the Illinois Central track as that of a "sweetheart," who existed only in her own imagination, so as to carry out a deceit she has practiced on her family, became known tonight. The case discloses one of the most astonishing psychopathic incidents in the memory of Chicago officials. The girl concocted a tale of meeting a Dr. Alleyne Hensley, of his persistent wooing, of his gifts of flowers and candy, his fervent letters, proposals, acceptance and then his tragic death.

Here is the story as told in tears to Dr. Bates Block, an alienist of Atlanta, whose sharp questioning brought the truth from the girl, who is Miss Julia Chest Crumley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Howard Lee Crumley. The idea was conceived while the girl was a patient in Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, after being operated upon for a minor ailment. On her return to Atlanta the young woman told friends that she was in love with the surgeon who had saved her life. She gave his name as Dr. Hensley, and said he was a widower with one child, a son. He lived, she said, in Quebec, Canada.

There came to her letters from Quebec which contained fervent messages of love. Flowers and candy were delivered to her by stoopkeepers on telegraphic instructions from Quebec, signed by Dr. Hensley, and money was forwarded by telegraph in each instance to pay for them.

Finally she told her closest friends that the surgeon had proposed to her and she had accepted him. The marriage was to take place November 17. She went to New York to purchase her trousseau, meet the future bridegroom, and bring him back to Atlanta to meet her parents and friends.

On Saturday she telegraphed from New York that her fiancée had been killed in a train accident near Chicago, and she was on her way to Chicago to recover his body and bring it to Atlanta. She arrived here on Monday morning and went to the undertaking establishment of the Western Casket Company, where was the body of a man killed several days before on the Illinois Central tracks.

"I am looking for the body of my husband, Dr. Hensley," she said, although she previously had given her name as Miss Crumley. "I traced him here, came New York. The Paullist Fathers, to whom I appealed, directed me to the corpse's of

PURE, RICH BLOOD MADE BY HOOD'S

Pure blood enables the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, sometimes faintness, a deranged state of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so very successful in the treatment of so many ailments. Get it today.

So, and from there I was sent here. I was told you have a body here which, I believe, is that of my husband."

She was shown the body of a man found on the Illinois Central tracks nearly a week before. It was to have been sent to the county morgue next day. She took only one quick look; that was her husband's, she said, and at once became hysterical. After identifying the body, she paid the undertaker $100, and left for her hotel, still sorrowing.

The hands of the dead man were calloused and rough, not those of a surgeon. Finally, the Rev. Mr. Crumley asked Dr. Bates Block, an alienist, to visit his daughter and talk to her. The doctor first viewed the body and then told Miss Crumley that she had deceived no one by her duplicity. Miss Crumley burst into tears and confessed the entire story.

She had concocted the story of the supposed wooer and suitor. The letters sent to a woman whose name she had read of in a Canadian newspaper, to whom she paid to remail the missives to her. The candy and flowers had come from the same sources. Telegraphic advices received here tonight from Quebec state that no Dr. Alleyne Hensley is known in that city.

DR. CATHERINE TRAVIS NOW PRISONER OF BULGARIANS

When Lady Ralph Paget made one of the supreme sacrifices of the war and refused to desert the wounded Serbian soldiers in her hospital at Uleub, thus falling into the hands of a ruthless enemy, among those who elected to remain with her was a former Hampton girl, Dr. Catherine Travis, who has been in Serbia on Lady Paget's staff for some months.

Lady Paget and her staff were given an opportunity to escape but a few hours before the Bulgarians occupied the town and this is told in a special graphic despatch dated November 15, from W. G. Shepherd who is at Montclair for the United Press.

HOPE TO HAVE Y. W. C. A. BUILDING

Interesting facts concerning girls' work which undoubtedly will eventually result in the erection of a Y. W. C. A. in this city will be brought to the attention of the St. John public at meetings to be held in the city during the present week. The speaker at these meetings will be Miss Una Saunders, national secretary Y. W. C. A. for Canada, who arrived in the city yesterday, and is the guest of Mrs. James F. Robertson.

Speaking of the possibility of erecting a Y. W. C. A. in this city, Miss Saunders last evening said that in her opinion there was need for such an institution, and that there ought to be no difficulty in undertaking the idea in a city the size of St. John. She pointed out that in Halifax there are two separate and distinct Y. W. C. A.'s, one affiliated with the young ladies' college and the other a public city institution.

The attention of the pressing need of Y. W. C. A. Miss Saunders said was before brought to the notice of the St. John public, although not publicly.

GAINING SKILL IN AIR FIGHTING

French Work Out Tactics With Great Precision

SERVICE WELL ORGANIZED

Wireless Outposts Enable Communication to be Kept up 220 Miles From Home Station of Flying Craft

Paris, Oct. 28.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Now that France has developed an aerial force with battle-planes, cruiser-planes, scouts, and lesser aircraft, which the officers refer to as torpedo-planes, it has been necessary to organize this overland service with the same exactness of details that armies and fleets are organized, with tactics and manoeuvres of advance and retreat, attack and defense. Unlike an army or fleet, which can move only in one direction, parallel with the surface of the earth or water, a fleet of air warships can move in any direction—upward, downward, forward or backward, and at any oblique.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When Constipated or Bilious Give California Syrup of Figs

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is fretful, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of California Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

REINDEER HERD IS WIPED OUT

Attempt to Settle Them in Peace River District Fails—Flies Drove Them Frantic—Stampeded and Were Shot by Indians

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—The efforts of the government to propagate reindeer in the Peace River country and in the Great Slave district have proven unsuccessful and of the original herd of fifty, which were sent north from Labrador in 1911, there is now but one lonely survivor. He is at present lord of all he surveys on an island in Great Slave Lake.

THAT MATTER OF MACHINE GUNS

(Ottawa Free Press)

Four months ago the government encouraged Ottawa press correspondents to advise the public of the money for the purchase of machine guns. For four months contributions have been pouring in; the government has received and acknowledged them; it holds over a million dollars in cash sent in by the municipalities, provinces and even from the employees of departments of the federal government.

SMOKE GIVES RANGES

Another strange device used in these battle tactics is a battery of twelve small smoke shells, each of which, when fired, reaches the operator.

The latter fires over the enemy's lines, the purpose being to confuse the enemy's batteries how their shots are taking effect, thus giving them the exact range which they are aiming at. The shells explode five seconds after the cork is drawn, emitting a little round puff of smoke, which is seen from a distance. This is aerial telegraphing. The smoke puffs are dots; the smoke trails are dashes. Thus they make back to the far-away battery, in dots and dashes of smoke, telling the watchers that their shots are too high, too low, or too far to the left or right, and thus giving them the exact range.

TWO UNITED STATES SUPER-DREADNAUGHTS TO BE BUILT AT ONCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Bids will be opened at the navy department tomorrow for the two 32,000 ton super-Dreadnaughts authorized by the last congress. The act limited the cost of these ships to approximately $15,000,000 each.

The two new ships will be built on plans prepared after secret experiments to develop means of lessening danger from submarine attack. These experiments are continuing, and are said to be meeting with marked success.

NORMAN ANGELL WARNS UNITED STATES OF JAPAN

English Author Predicts That Japs Will Wage War on Americans

New York, Nov. 16.—This country is bound to be led into a war with Japan in the opinion of Norman Angell, the English author and newspaper man who believes that now is the time for the United States to frame a real international policy. He advocated preparedness in policy, before the Women's Peace Party at the Educational Building, saying in part: "The advocates of American preparedness seem to imply that American policy in no way touches the rest of the world and that American military force can only have one object to repel predatory raids upon American territory. These advocates seem to say: 'All we ask of the foreigner is to kindly keep out. And as we don't intend to argue about that, why need worry about a foreign policy?'

"SOME FIGHTERS, YOU CANADIANS"

German Pay Flattering Tributes to Men Who Wear Maple Leaf—Enemy Knew Them

London, Nov. 17.—A numerous party of wounded men of the second Canadian division, has reached Cliveden, with a number of sick cases. "All the boys are just fine," said a man from Preston, Ont. "Our battalion has been taking a turn recently in the trenches, not 40 yards from the Germans. We had been warned to keep quiet about our arrival, but as soon as we reached the trenches the Germans shouted: 'Hallo, Canadians!' and yelled out the number of our regiments, too. However, we are top dogs, and if tomorrow we were ordered to take the German trenches in front of us we could do it. We had not been long in the front line before the Prussians decided to treat us to an offensive movement. Our officers knew their intentions and got busy. Our artillery poured shells and we kept up a continuous fire from our trenches. The action continued four hours. Then the Germans found there was nothing doing. Their offensive movement collapsed because we forestalled them.

"The Germans vary rifle fire occasionally with flatting and jelly as a bit. 'Some fighters, you Canadians!' they shout. They like our dietary table better than they do us, and we have been rather concerned for the reputation of the German sausage after the way the Germans appeal for our bully beef. 'Canadians, throw us across a piece of bully,' they shout, and we'll let you have the 'wurst' next month.' We had orders, though to stop feeding the Germans.

COMMON COUNCIL

Mayor Frink at yesterday's meeting of the city council recommended that nothing be done for the present to make up the lack of a sinking fund for several of the debture issues of the schools of the city. The amount necessary to provide for the issues of 1906 and the many others prior to that date back to 1898 would be $170,076. The total sinking fund at present is $27,089.

On the recommendation of Commissioner Potts, however, the matter was left over for further consideration at the next meeting, after the commissioners have been supplied with a copy of the figures on the subject.

Commissioner McLellan proposes to put up two five lamp standards at the King street entrance to King Square, similar to those at the pathway leading to the Imperial Theatre. It was decided to grant half-pay to employees of the public works department who have not to may henceforth enlist for overseas service.

There was a full meeting of the council, the mayor presiding, with Commissioners McLellan, Russell, Wigmore and Potts, and the common clerk.

The proposed new lights are designed as a safeguard for people using the stone steps at the entrance to the square, as in winter they become ice-coated.

NORTH SHORE WILL RAISE BATTALION

Col. George W. Mesereau to Command the 132nd—Leo Rush of 26th Wounded—Sixteen Recruits at St. Stephen Last Evening

Another New Brunswick battalion is to be raised, the 132nd, to be commanded by Lieut. Col. Geo. W. Mesereau, of Chatham, N. B., and to be composed of North Shore men and officers. Col. Mesereau is now in Halifax conferring with the authorities there in respect to the unit which, when recruited, will be quartered in Campbellton, Chatham, Newcastle, and Richibucto. Already many have volunteered for the new regiment.

Leo K. Rush of Fredericton, is included in today's casualty list as wounded in action with the 26th Battalion, and Corp. Arthur McDonald, Amherst, N. S., reported wounded with the 28th.

Lieut. Chester Hughes, nephew of Sir Sam Hughes, has been killed in action in France. He went with a Toronto unit.

At a recruiting rally addressed by Capt. Tilley, M. P., and Sergt. Knight, in St. Stephen last night, sixteen young men volunteered for service with the 115th.

Honors for 26th.

Only two D. C. M. medals have been given to the second Canadian division, and of these the 26th got one. Sergt. Ryer being the proud possessor. The whole battalion has been mentioned in despatches.

An officer of the 19th Battalion, writing to a friend here, tells of having seen the 26th going into action, and says that they have made good. The officers with Col. McAuliffe, he said, acted like veterans under fire, and the showing of the men was admirable.

Recruits.

The honor roll of the 115th yesterday was signed by W. H. Stubbs, Wells, Kings, N. B.; Ernest F. Patten, Geo. W. Donaldson, John Boyd McAuliffe, all of St. John; Saul Duncan, Apohqui; John W. Gould, Moncton, and Lloyd Taylor, Grand Manan.

At last night's recruiting meeting in the Mill street office, Rev. R. P. McKim and A. M. Belding gave addresses. R. T. Hayes presided. A large gathering was present, and the addresses were followed with appreciative interest.

Sir George at Imperial.

A patriotic address by Sir George Foster affords an exceptional opportunity to hear one of the most gifted public speakers in Canada. Sir George will speak under the auspices of the local recruiting committee at the Imperial Theatre Thursday evening at 9 o'clock, immediately after the close of the usual first performance.

Additional interest will be added to the occasion by the presence of Col. Hay and officers of the 22nd battalion, who have been specially invited to take seats on the platform, and the fine band of the battalion, which will also be present. The chair will be taken by Mayor Frink.

The meeting will be one of unusual interest, even in these times of great public assemblies.

having come to the attention of the authorities that the presence of these men in their localities is having a detrimental effect on recruiting, instructions were issued to their disposal.

Any such men in the province of New Brunswick are required to report without further delay to Lieutenant-Colonel B. R. Armstrong, O.C., 3rd Regiment, C. G. A., at St. John. The public are requested to assist in the removal of this detriment to recruiting by reporting any such cases they know of to Colonel Armstrong as well as any cases of apparent desertion from any units not yet gone overseas.

The Badminton Club, of St. Andrew's church entertained the soldiers of the 22nd Battalion in the church school room, last night. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a programme of vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed, with the soldiers taking a leading part in the entertainment. Sergeant Carson and Private Campbell were heartily encored in solo.

News comes from the firing line that Captain T. S. Powers who went to the front with the first contingent in command of No. 1 Company, Canadian Signal Corps, has been promoted to major. His company is now, as formerly, with the 1st Canadian Division.

BRITISH STEAMER ABANDONED; EIGHTEEN MEN MISSING.

London, Nov. 16.—The representatives here of the Monarch Steamship Company say that one boat with eighteen men from the British steamer Indian Monarch, which was abandoned on the 420 miles south of St. Helena, November 9, is missing. The captain and 17 members of the crew of the steamer were landed at St. Helena Monday.

The Indian Monarch was bound from New York for Auckland (N. Z.)

British Have Counter-mined Fields Protecting Their Channels—Dogger Banks Was Final Engagement

London, Nov. 17.—The Daily Express in the course of a discursive article on the navy, asserts that it is allowed to reveal a secret long known in Germany to the effect that the British mine fields have been embraced in the German mine fields protecting their channels and harbors and that unless their ships are scrapped for making war material they will stay in the Kiel Canal until the end of the war.

The writer declares, nevertheless, that plenty of space is left to enable them to engage and fight if they wish, but that they must fight in a place the British navy's choosing. The British armada of patrol boats is equipped with wireless to ensure against surprise.

He declares confidently that there will be no Trafalgar in the present war. The great final naval engagement of the war, he says, was that of the Dogger Banks in January. He adds that a map showing the German submarines captured recently was shown to newspapermen visiting Admiral Jellicoe's fleet. The map covered only the captures up to June. The operations since then, the writer says, have been far more successful.

Throw your orange peel into the water jug instead of into the fire, and it will perfume the water as well as soften it.

GIRL SHOT; MOTHER LOSES MIND; FATAL QUARREL OF RIVALS

New York, Nov. 15.—A dead 15-year-old girl, a demented mother, and two sailors, one crying and the other locked up charged with homicide, figure in a tragedy which occurred at 428 West 125th street.

Nellie Khatoolian had two sweethearts. One was Michael di Cuccio, a boarder at her home, the other Kalus Devittian, a carpenter living at 305 East 38th street. The two met in the Khatoolian kitchen and quarreled over which one the girl was to marry.

The rest of the family had gone to bed in the front room. There were the mother, whose name is Mary, and three younger children—Mary, 10; Rose, 6, and Harry, 8 years old. The noise of the quarrel aroused Mary, who lighted the gas as the two men and Nellie came into the front room.

It is Mary who tells the story. Di Cuccio, she says, was brandishing a revolver and Devittian told him to put it away. In reply, she declared, di Cuccio turned the weapon at Nellie and fired twice. One bullet went wild the other lodged in the girl's head and killed her instantly.

"I shot and killed her," Mary says di Cuccio shouted, "and I don't care what happens to me, even if I go to the electric chair."

Devittian and di Cuccio then began to fight for possession of the revolver, while Mrs. Khatoolian and the children screamed until they were heard on the street and two policemen arrived on the scene. Di Cuccio was caught as he was leaving the premises.

The mother was taken to Bellevue hospital, violently insane. Cuccio is held for the coroner's Court and Devittian, and another boarder Pasdon Janoujian, are held as material witnesses. Devittian was a cousin of the dead girl. Di Cuccio asserts, the police say, that his shot was aimed at Devittian, who had attacked the girl.

BASEBALL Victory for International

New York, Nov. 13.—The passing of the Buffalo Feds is a victory for the International League and partially squares accounts for elimination of President Barrow's club in Baltimore and Newark. The Buffalo Internationals, managed by Pat Donovan, who received much financial aid from the big league managers, won the pennant this year. Donovan conducted a first class team which won much of the pennant this year. Donovan conducted a first class team which won much of the pennant this year. The Feds spent big money to secure the services of Hal Chase, Harry Lord, Heine Schulz, Russell Ford and other former stars, but Donovan's team played better ball and the Buffalo fans appreciated it. The Buffalo Internationals made some money, too, while the opposition was driven to the wall. Barrow is entitled to some credit for the credit for the victory. He worked diligently to keep Buffalo in his circuit in the face of many obstacles and next year will have plain sailing. The International League will soon recover the lost territory in Baltimore and Newark where the fans at ready have been convinced that minor league ball is the best they can get.

Against Exhibition Games

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball League voted late last night at the annual meeting to close the gates of all coast league parks against all exhibition games. It was announced that major league clubs no longer would be welcomed to coast league cities for such contests.

FOOTBALL Harvard Squad Ready

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 10.—The last days of practice for the Harvard football squad before the game with Yale Saturday finds the players and the undergraduate body enthusiastic, but cautious. Any feeling of over-confidence that may have existed disappeared after the Blue disposed of Princeton last Saturday.

It was regarded on Tuesday as practically certain that the line-up would be the same as used in the Princeton game. All the men are in excellent shape. Several former Crimson stars have arrived to assist in the final polishing of the team and for three days more they will be put through hard work. Thursday night the team will go to Tyngs Island in the Merrimack river near Lowell, to rest and play golf until Saturday morning.

Tickets for the game numbering about 80,000 were distributed Monday, and Tuesday. According to Fred W. Moore, graduate manager, more than 100,000 would have been needed to satisfy all who expressed a wish to see the contest.

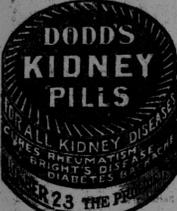

Yale Improving Attack

New Haven, Nov. 16.—Coach Tom Shevlin and his corps of assistants began on Tuesday further developing the Yale football team for the game with Harvard at Cambridge on Saturday. Special attention was to be given to improving the attack and the defensive work of the ends. The Blue's offensive against Princeton is considered to have been only elementary and it is understood that Shevlin has some new plays involving the forward pass which will be used against the Crimson. Little scrimmaging was looked for during the remaining days of practice.

ATHLETIC Athletes Roll of Honor

London, Nov. 13.—D. Lambert, a famous English international and Harrogate Rugby footballer, has been killed in action in the recent fighting in north France. By his death the number of international players has now been increased to 31 killed or missing in the war. One of the finest three-quarter backs who ever played under the Rugby code, Lambert represented England in the international games on several occasions, three times against France, Wales twice and Ireland and Scotland once each.

Leon Comas, famous cycling champion of France, has also been killed. He was in the same aeroplane in which Leon Hourley lost his life. G. B. Davis, a Cambridge University and Essex County cricketer, is reported missing. W. N. Riley, a Cambridge University and Leicestershire County cricketer, has had to have a leg amputated owing to terrible wounds received in action. Among other well known athletes whose names have recently figured in the casualty list are R. G. Thompson, the Cambridge University soccer player, and the Hon. T. E. Vessey, the well known polo player and G. Darwin, the champion London Athletic Club weight-puller, all of whom are wounded.

Only One Cause

Could have brought the people from all parts of our city and suburbs to our store as they have been coming since Thursday last. Even in spite of the dreadful storm on Monday, they came in large numbers, and that cause was the drawing power of reduced prices on high-grade goods. Not on questionable qualities or poor styles, but on our regular stock of high-grade fall, 1915, lines. Now a poor article, or an article you do not want, is dear at any price; but the goods we are selling are goods you do want and ones you can be proud of anywhere.

Could have made us reduce the prices the way we have on high-grade footwear. It seems almost a crime to be offering reasonable, highest merit goods at less than you would pay for an inferior line of footwear. Only one reason for it, and that is that I am going away January 1st to take a military course, and must leave my business cleared out before I go. That is the reason for it. I have less than six weeks in which to dispose of all the Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Overboots and Footwear generally in my store and store-rooms. It has kept us busy for five days now, it will keep us busy for some time to come.

This Has Always Been The Young Man's Store

For some years back now the young men have been coming to our store for High-class, Dressy Footwear. This year our stock is bigger than usual, for we bought heavier and better, you know, many of our best customers are in uniform and we cannot supply their footwear wants, and from the letters we receive, many of the boys wish they were wearing a pair of our Famous Gold Brand Boots, or one of our other specials. However, the prices have been cut.

Overheard in the Store

People seem to be inclined to give Mr. Steel a chance to get away, the way they are buying his boots.

I will take those three pair. They will keep me wearing a time.

I only bought one pair of rubbers last year. Give me another pair just like them. They suit me.

I am sorry you are going. We have always bought our boots here. You could fit us so nicely—then your boots did wear.

That boot I have on I bought here last December. I have had it half soled three times. That is what I call wear.

I always send the children. They get just as good a fit as if I came with them.

SAYS ATTACK ON GOULDING IS AN OUTRAGE AND DISGRACE

Toronto Telegram—The attack on George Goulding is an outrage and a disgrace. The great walker is as clear an amateur as sport ever had in any line. He is the cleverest heel and toe artist the world ever saw and is worthy of greater things than having cars bark at his heels. An approximate expense account for a trip to New Brunswick, N. J., and return, of $50 is as close to the bare figures as anyone could make it. Two days in New York and $30 railroad fare doesn't mean much room for graft. And then he got, all told, the magnificent sum of $1.55. Canada has been in the habit of importing a dozen American stars in a bunch for its athletic and boxing meets and their expenses were paid in full and not stunted either. Neither was there any yelping if our boys were beaten. In fact we always expected they would be.

GILBERT'S GROCERY

The Man In The Street

No, Dear Reader, these civic debentures which went down with the Hectorian cannot be said to constitute a sinking fund.

If the future supply of woollen goods and dye-stuffs is as scant as dealers say, may we look forward to the day when we will have to fall back on our pyjamas for business and social wear?

Seems to be as many changes in the Grecian situation these days as there have been in the St. John police force.

First thing you know the Kaiser will be offering to bribe King Constantine with a gift of the Philippine Islands.

Of course he does not own them but a little thing like that did not prevent him from offering Gibraltar to the King of Spain.

Financiers and statesmen are warning us that we must economize during war times. That's right; we must, if we hope to be able to pay our bills at war time prices.

The man of the street does not seem quite as anxious to get away from St. John as they were when they first arrived. Perhaps they have found the city more attractive than their first impressions led them to believe.

Morning paper refers to a soldier who has been transferred to one of the infantry battalions from the batteries on Partridge Island. Sounds as if he had been picked for a pinch hitter.

Banking Arithmetic.

London banks will close an hour earlier "because of the depletion of their staffs through enlistment." Apparently working on the theory that the less men they have the less time it will take them to do their work.

That diamond crossing for Douglas seems to be being avoided with much eagerness as if it were a real diamond company is providing for the patrons of the street.

Just about the time the street railway gets its through service to West St. John completed some one will be ready to organize a jitney air-bus line in competition.

HON. GEORGE J. COLTHER IS DEAD

Brother of Post Office Inspector Passes Away at 75

Hon. George J. Colther, former chief commissioner of public works in the provincial government, died this morning at his home in York county, after a illness from cancer. He was a native of Sheffield, but for the greater part of his life resided on a farm at the Mouth of Keswick. He represented the Parish of Douglas in the municipal council for many years and in 1882 was elected to the legislature. In May of that year, he was sworn in as commissioner of public works in the Harrington government and held the portfolio until March of the following year, when the ministry resigned and gave way to the Blair government.

In 1896 he was again a candidate for the legislature and was defeated. At a bye-election in 1899 he unsuccessfully contested York as a member of the famous Big Four ticket against Premier Blair and his colleagues. He continued to take an active interest in public affairs and for some time was president of the York Liberal-Conservative Association.

He was reported to be the wealthiest man in York county. He was seventy-five years of age and leaves one son, Ashley A. Colther of this city, three brothers, Dr. N. B. Colther, post office inspector, St. John, James of Fredericton and Thomas of the Mouth of Keswick, and two sisters, Mrs. Allanson McNally of St. Mary's and Mrs. Thomas Murray of Fredericton. The funeral will take place at Mouth of Keswick on Friday afternoon.

WOULD HAVE BEEN A COSTLY GIFT OF TOBACCO FOR HIM

Wounded Soldier Writes That He Was Asked to Pay $5.70 Duty on Three Pounds

Attention has been drawn in several issues of the Times to the matter of duty being charged on parcels of tobacco sent to soldiers in England, whether in hospital or just discharged from hospital. Apparently the practice is being continued, for in a letter received last week by Robert Beckett, 22 Brunsate street, from his brother Private John Beckett, he reported having been asked to pay $5.70 on a package of tobacco weighing three pounds.

"I am now out of hospital," wrote the soldier who left with the first contingent and was severely wounded and taken prisoner in Germany, "and compelled to hobnob about on the continent. I expect soon to be invalided home to Canada as I have already been passed upon by the board. I received a parcel of tobacco lately but could not take delivery of it or rather I would not for I did not wish to pay duty for it."

"Friends of soldiers' families in Canada working why some agreement is not made as to soldiers getting such packages free of duty."

LETTER TO HOME FROM KENNETH LINTON, A FAIRVILLE SOLDIER

Mrs. A. Linton of Main street, Fairville has received a letter from her son, Private Kenneth, of the 29th Battalion. In part it was as follows: "I am well and getting along. We are getting used to trench life now. We have six days in the trenches and six days out for a rest. When we come out we generally go about five miles back of the trenches. There we get a bath and a change of clothes. They are certainly looking after us pretty well.

"One of our men has won the D. C. medal for killing eleven Germans and rescuing one of our men. It seems that each time we go into the trenches someone has got to get it. The last time we were in the trenches we were pretty lucky; of course we are not allowed to mention the number of casualties. It is not so bad in the trenches as I thought it would be. We have little dug-outs to sleep in when we are off duty.

"Well, mother, I hope this letter will find you all well and happy, don't worry about me, I will get along all right. If I hadn't enlisted when I did I wouldn't have gone later. I would be ashamed to walk the streets in civilian clothes. They are having a hard time to get recruits, but if some of them saw the grave yards out here I don't think they would be satisfied to stay at home, they would want to have revenge for our brothers who have gone before us. Remember me to all the boys."

Private Linton refers to a treat which followed receipt of a box, cake and candy, by Tom Rowley. He asks for a pair of shoe packs, reaching to the knees, for protection in the wet weather. Candy, chocolate, socks, gloves, writing paper, cookies, cakes, Oxo tubes, handkerchiefs, chewing gum, preserves, and condensed coffee, also are welcome.

CLAN MACKENZIE AND LADIES ENTERTAIN SCOTTISH MEMBERS OF THE 52ND BATTALION

The members of the Clan MacKenzie and their ladies auxiliary entertained a large number of the Scottish members of the 52nd Battalion at an informal entertainment and dance in their rooms in Germain street last evening. An impromptu programme was arranged in which several of the soldier guests assisted. Among the features of the programme was a sword dance by Private Duncan of the 52nd and the Highland fling by Puck-Chief MacDonald of the clan. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed about midnight, after an evening which was thoroughly enjoyed by both the guests and their hosts.
