ITALY MAKES BID FOR MORE OIL

Appeal to Lloyd George by Ambassador

SUPPORT OF BRITAIN IN THE RUSSIAN MATTER CITED—BRITISH PREMIER ON A THREE WEEKS' HOLIDAY

London, Aug. 19.—Italy in return for her constant support of Great Britain since the armistice and principally at the recent summer resort conference, is urging Great Britain to alter her agreement with France so that Italy may have a larger share of oil from the territories over which Great Britain holds mandates.

The Marquis Di Francavilla, Italian ambassador to Great Britain conferred with Premier Lloyd George yesterday on the eve of the premier's departure for a three weeks' holiday.

It is reported that he urged upon Lloyd George Italy's need for fuel, pointing out, if only incidentally, that Italy considers that the fuel badly in the Spa coal decision and now she is the only one of the Allies openly backing Great Britain's policy in Russia, notwithstanding the fact that Italy has less interest in Russia than any of the other Allies.

What promises, if any, the premier gave the ambassador, are unknown, but when he left London, it is said that Lloyd George expected to see M. Giolitti, Italian premier, at Lucerne, when all undoubtedly would be one of the foremost matters in the discussion.

Vienna, Aug. 19.—A Bucharest despatch says the cabinet council has decided to place oil and its by-product under government monopoly.

The industry is a valuable source of revenue as the country ranks fourth in production with a possible annual output of 2,000,000 tons.

RUSSIAN WAIFS ON JOURNEY HOMEWARD

Last Chapter in History of Wandering and Adventure for Red Cross Warids.

Washington, August 19.—Yoyaging around the world to reach their homes, 180 Russian waifs, all that has been accounted for of probably 6,000 children sent to Petrograd by the Red Cross when revolution gripped the old Russian capital, are on their way from San Francisco to New York by way of the Panama Canal.

They came from Vladivostok under the care of the American Red Cross, which they have been wards for two years. They are going back to Petrograd after suffering and wandering that for some of them have blotted out every recollection of their parents, the places of their birth or even of their own names.

Speaking of the experiences of the children, who range in age from 3 to 17 years, a statement by the Red Cross said:

"The long sea journey writes the last chapter in a history of wandering and adventure in a revolution-torn country, that can hardly be matched in the whole record of world upheavals in the last six years," the announcement says. "It seems almost a tale out of the Old Testament of Greek Mythology and the thousand years from now, it is perhaps not too much to say, the Russian with their dramatic instinct and mysticism will have made it a part of their rich folklore."

When the revolution broke out in Russia, the report continued, many parents in Petrograd decided to send the youngsters into peaceful Siberia "until the trouble was over." They were sent east in charge of nurses and teachers.

Later, a barrier of fire marking the battle lines of the opposing Russian and Czech armies had been stretched between the youngsters and their homes. Months passed. Later arrived, funds were exhausted and hunger and war horrors menaced the wanderers. The Omsk government, appealed to for help, passed it on to the Red Cross.

Group after group was taken over by the Red Cross, which established colonies in western Siberia and had apparently solved the problem of caring for its charges when the battline swung eastward and the Bolsheviks captured town after town. Groups of the children barely escaped capture. Finally it was decided to take them to Vladivostok.

PREMIER'S VISIT TO ST. JOHN HAS BEEN DEFERRED

NEW DESIGNS FOR CONVICTS' CLOTHES

Department of Justice Decides to Abolish Striped Uniform in Canada.

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Believing that the old striped uniform in which all convicts in penal institutions have been previously garbed has a tendency toward degrading and hardening prisoners, the Department of Justice, after much deliberation, has decided to abandon it. In the future, two uniforms, one for summer wear and one for winter, will be supplied to take its place.

Made from durable, uncolored brown denim, the new summer uniform will consist of jacket and trousers, cut in conventional pattern, with none of the hitherto distinguishing features. The huge painted numbers which, in the old uniform, adorned the back and chest of the wearer and which were necessarily conspicuous, will be abandoned. They will be replaced with small, metal metal number plates, secured to the back and breast of the jacket, quite inconspicuous and equally effective. Straw hats will be worn as headgear with the summer uniform.

The winter clothing will be made from French blue cloth, while numbers similar to those on the summer uniform will be affixed.

Round cloth caps, similar in design to the forage cap issued by the German government to field regiments, will complete the convicts' winter equipment. The usual issue of boots will be continued.

The most radical change, however, will be made in the provision of food. In former years the government has been wont to provide grey tweed suits, badly cut and absolutely unattractive to residents of prison cities. These suits will be replaced by well-tailored and modern garments in many varieties of texture and coloring. They will also be made to order, and when the prisoners are discharged, they will be given a complete wardrobe in clothing which will not betray the fact of his misfortune to the first woman who may meet upon the street.

"While I," said the reporter, "will be enjoying what I picked myself, and along with them a memory of this landscape and sky, and the glory of the summer—and of that other section of pie—thanks, yes, I'll take it now."

"Wash it down quick," said Hiram. "You got another ten quarts to pick yet." "A mere trifle," said the reporter. "I shall sleep tonight the sleep of childhood. Give me that basket."

EXODUS OF AMERICANS
Nearly 100,000 Have Bought Canadian Farms
Nearly 100,000 American farmers have purchased approximately 8,000,000 acres of land in Western Canada since the beginning of the year, according to a Winnipeg dispatch to The Calgary Daily Herald, which goes on to say that thousands more are expected during the harvest season to inspect the famous wheat belt and purchase land on which to settle next year.

This information was given out by L. A. Walsh, head of a big American company, organized some time ago to handle farm lands, who declared that this great influx of new settlers has been the trend toward British Columbia. There has been a large emigration from Winnipeg. Most of the American farmers who purchased land this year will not settle on it until next spring or later, the move from their present homes depending upon circumstances.

Reports obtained from the Dominion Immigration Department in Winnipeg show that only about 16,000 Americans who came into Western Canada made definite declaration that they were taking up residence in the country this year. More than $2,500,000 in actual cash was brought into Western Canada by these settlers while their effects are valued at more than $1,700,000, according to statistics furnished by the immigration department. During March, 1920, cars containing settlers' effects arrived.

Nearly 2,000 of the new comers settled in Manitoba, the remainder taking up farms in Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and Western Ontario.

SILVER MARKET

New York, Aug. 19.—Silver, domestic 99 1/2-2, foreign 98 1/2-2.

WHEAT, CORN AND OATS

Chicago, Aug. 19.—There was a lack of pressure at the start of the wheat market today, which caused initial prices to be firm. First quotations were unchanged to quarter cent higher with December $2.29 to $2.30 1/2, and March $2.41.

HOUSES WITH EASTERN CONNECTIONS were in the market early but when corn started downward there was free selling by local traders causing prices to take a sharp dip, which caused commission houses to buy on resting orders. They soon absorbed the surplus in the pit, and a rally set in and framed the market.

Corn was under pressure at the start and September led the futures in the slump, the range being 1-8 cent to 1-8 cents lower, with September $1.44 to $1.44 1/2 and December $1.22 to $1.22 1/2.

Oats were off with corn, first quotations being down 1-8 cent to 3-8 cent, with September 67-3-4 and December 68 to 68 1/2.

Provisions were weaker and lower with hogs and grains.

William Rockefeller, her husband, was named as the sole legatee. The estate consisted of $880,712 in cash, $257,789 in jewelry and furs and $48,000 in wearing apparel. Among the articles of jewelry were four strings of pearls, one containing sixty-five pearls, valued at $45,000, and another of fifty-four pearls, appraised at $40,000. The other two strings were valued at $72,100. She had no diamonds.

These films soon will be released for free exhibition throughout the manufacturing houses of the United States and the British Empire, and the efforts to promote good-will and comradeship between the two nations by this means will be watched with interest.

RARE DISEASE KILLS DENTIST

SIXTH VICTIM IN AMERICA

Yorkshire, England, 18—Robert Streety Carman, forty-nine years old, prominent dental surgeon, of 29 Overbrook Terrace, died at the Homeopathic Hospital from Reynaud's disease. He is said to be the sixth victim of this malady in this country.

About a year and a half ago Dr. Carman was attacked with the disease. Specialists attempted to stop its progress amputated the left leg. His right leg was amputated a month ago.

Dr. Carman, wife and one of the best known dental surgeons in Westchester county, where he practiced more than twenty-two years.

Born at Cananahogue, N. Y., Dr. Carman was graduated from the New York Dental College. He was a member of the American Dental Association and a member of the Elks' Lodge here. His wife, one son and three sisters survive him.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF CAPTURE OF FORT GARRY.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 18.—Winnipeg will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the capture of Fort Garry on August 24, with a banquet for the survivors in this district of the Red River expedition, who live in and around Winnipeg. The banquet will be held under the auspices of the Army and Navy Veterans.

It was just fifty years ago that the expedition under Lord Wollesley, then General Wollesley, came up from Fort William over the Dawson route to wrest Fort Garry from the French and half-breeds, holding the post during Reil's rebellion. It took the expedition three months to make the trip and a sharp battle to take the post. Many survivors of the expedition are still alive and probably fifty of them are in this province.

Winter Furs at Summer Prices

PERSONAL comfort is an important consideration with everybody. When Winter winds begin to blow, one naturally thinks of the cozy comfort of nice, warm furs. But how much more practical and economical it is to think of Winter comforts while still enjoying the warmth of Summer.

Our August Fur Sale

offers many opportunities for the exercise of this practical policy.

Pre-season selling helps to reduce the costly overhead of idle sales periods in Summer. This saving is passed along to our customers in lower prices that will be out of the question this coming Winter.

That is putting the facts plainly—but why shouldn't you see the truth? Those who fail to buy furs now are sure to pay more for them next Winter, for higher prices on furs are inevitable.

Practical economy should prompt you to anticipate your Winter needs and buy furs at Summer prices.

HARBOR PLEDGES

On the eve of the elections of 1911 Sir Robert Borden gave a pledge that the harbor of St. John, in fact all of the leading national harbors, would be nationalized if his party came into power. That pledge was carried out, or is in process of being carried out, so far as Halifax is concerned. But it was not carried out in the case of St. John. In the case of Halifax the terminals have been constructed at national expense not through charging interest and sinking funds against the port's traffic.

In the case of St. John it is proposed not only that the harbor traffic shall pay interest and sinking fund upon all new improvements, and upon the $2,000,000 worth of property which the commission is to take over, but also that the traffic must provide for three per cent interest upon the cost of all existing government property which is to be transferred.

This existing government property, presumably wharves, dredging, elevator, the marine wharf included, was provided at federal expense as a national work for the benefit of national transportation.

The people of St. John certainly never contemplated that interest charges on the cost of such government works would be made a charge against the port's traffic under harbor commission, but such is to be the case if the act is accepted.

The citizens are entitled to know how all these proposals compare with what has been done at Montreal and Quebec and what is being done in Vancouver. It has been openly stated in Parliament that in the case of Quebec the government has not insisted upon the payment of interest. Citizens will not readily see why one policy should be applied to Halifax and another to St. John. They learn from the act that no new construction will be undertaken here until the harbor commissioners have satisfied the government that the revenue from port traffic will be sufficient to finance the new work, in addition to meeting the fixed charges upon all the existing property taken over. They naturally ask themselves whether a better arrangement can be obtained.

As to the absolute need for harbor development here in the national interest there can be no question. It may be cheerfully assumed that advocates of the present harbor commission act and its critics alike are equally sincere and anxious to have the harbor facilities enlarged so that they will be adequate for the national trade through St. John. Remembering what happened in the case of old pledges, new pledges may be regarded as pledges merely. The present act loads the harbor traffic with too great a burden at the start. And thus far neither the government nor any official spokesman for the act has held the people of St. John just what additional facilities will be constructed here, or within what time they will be constructed—provided always that the port charges are great enough to finance new work in addition to old.

QUOITS

At a meeting of the St. John Quoit Club in Halifax the other day a man was welcomed who had joined the club fifty-five years ago. Mr. Justice Longley has been a member for thirty-four years. In various parts of Nova Scotia are living men who at one time or another were members of this club.

The game of quoits deserves to flourish, but is wholly neglected in St. John. Who, that has lived in the country has not pitched quoits with horse-shoes—or even with flat stones? One can hear the shout that greeted the man or boy who made a "ringer." The game trains the eye, the hand and the muscle. It is more edifying than most other contests, but has a fascination of its own. The Improvement Leagues are missing an opportunity to arouse the sympathetic interest of the older men by their failure to provide quoit beds. There is a comradeship and joviality about the game that has made it survive in Halifax, and brought to a recent tournament three competitors from other towns. The quoit pitcher gets healthy exercise in the open air, with the exhilaration of a good game and enjoyable companionship. One rather envies Halifax its St. John Quoit Club and the good times its members have enjoyed for so many years.

NOVA SCOTIA'S WARNING

It has been said that no great public question was involved in the provincial elections recently held in Nova Scotia. It would be nearer the truth to say that no sharp local issue was involved. What happened in Nova Scotia, however, means a great deal more than general satisfaction in the province regarding the Murray administration. The Ottawa Citizen points out that Nova Scotia is an intelligent province and one keenly interested in the general political situation in the Dominion, and it argues that the verdict of the elections there is of the utmost federal significance. The Citizen believes that the Nova Scotia voters seized the opportunity to express their opinion of the government of Canada, the result being that the Conservative party, "representative of the policies now prevalent in the federal administration, has been almost completely wiped out." In the former legislature the Conservatives held thirteen seats. Today they hold only one, and it is to be kept in mind that a change of seventeen votes in that one constituency would have left the Conservatives without a single representative in the next House. The Citizen proceeds to apply the lesson to Dominion politics.

"The lesson of Nova Scotia is plain. It is a forerunner of what may be expected all over the country when the present federal administration ventures to face the electors. In view of this test it is hardly likely that the government will be induced by any prospect to bring on a general election. Such a step would mean the complete annihilation of the present makeshift administration. But, on the other hand, delay will not make matters any better. In 1916, after five years of federal Conservative rule in the Dominion, Nova Scotia elected thirteen Conservative members to its provincial legislature. In 1920, after nine years of Conservative rule in the Dominion, it elected one Conservative member to the House of Commons. The most shortsighted partisan must be able to read the handwriting on the wall when written in characters as large and clear as this."

Whatever may be the dangers of delay—and undoubtedly they are many—Mr. Meighen evidently prefers any risk to that of an early general election. He has seemingly made up his mind that the outlook for the success of his party is hopeless unless he can succeed in borrowing a great deal of strength from Liberal Quebec, and that province is to receive persistent overtures in the hope that it may be persuaded to give aid to the cause of the protectionists. The country sees clearly that the Meighen government, which has no mandate from the people, will defer the elections as long as possible. And the public at large knows well how to interpret such an attitude.

THE NEW PARTY

Ontario National Liberal and Conservative members of the House of Commons and senate met in conference yesterday in Ottawa. The primary object of the gathering was to arrange for a party convention in Ontario, this being the first step taken in the organization programme for the new party. The programme will embrace the appointment of a national chairman or organizer, the appointment of a director of publicity and propaganda, and the summoning of conventions in each of the provinces of the supporters of the new party.

Dr. W. J. Black has resigned as chairman of the Soldiers' Settlement Board to become director of the organization work of the new party.

At a meeting held in Sutton, Ont., on Tuesday night, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King asked if the Conservatives had a voice in the creation of the new party. He answered his own question in the negative and declared that the new party and the new policy was the line of a friend of mine.

BOARD OF TRADE

At a council meeting in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday morning the report of the harbor committee regarding proposals made by Hon. R. W. Wignore was heard. The report favored the leasing of the wharves at Negro Point and decided that the floating grain proposal should have more consideration before being disposed of. R. E. Arras, strong submitted a report on the freight rate hearing at Ottawa. A letter was read from the Quebec Board of Trade, to the effect that the Atlantic ports of Canada were not receiving their share of western grain. Plans for an extensive advertising campaign to place the vessels on the market are under way, he said, and actual disposal of them will start soon. The necessary details have been completed. An active campaign to sell the wooden ships will be launched also.

The board's fleet of more than 1,200 steel vessels, approximating 5,000,000 deadweight tons, will be sold to private interests under the new merchant marine act. Bids for the vessels will be entertained at minimum prices of $160 a deadweight ton for coal burners and $170 a deadweight ton for oil burners built on the Great Lakes, to $175 for coal burning vessels of over 10,000 deadweight tons. Terms of sale call for ten per cent of the purchase price in cash upon delivery, installments of 5 per cent in six, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months thereafter and the remaining 70 per cent in equal semi-annual installments over a period of ten years.

Purchasers must agree, Chairman Benson said, to maintain such routes and service as the board considers desirable.

FINDING EMPLOYMENT FOR YOUNG WORKERS

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 18.—Officials of the city of Winnipeg and the province of Manitoba have inaugurated for the first time in Canada a survey to determine the best plan for handling the employment of young workers systematically. Letters have been mailed to more than 1,000 employers asking for information concerning the employment of the juvenile workers. In each letter was a questionnaire for the employer to fill out, and a number of blanks for the young workers themselves to fill out. After reports have been received a series of committee conferences will be held to outline the best plans for aiding the workers under eighteen years of age to get a proper start in life and to gain the right kind of employment.

GOVERNMENT

"Wise government can do a lot to brighten up our days; wise government will hit the spot in fifty-seven ways. And still we'll have to buckle down and saw our share of oak, if we'd have credit in the town and not be always broke. Good government will help us all, if we should help ourselves, and we'll have pictures on the wall, and pies upon the shelves; and we're secure in what we own of land or hay or gold, and when we earn a shining dime, it's ours, to have and hold. And we're protected in our car, and in our bed, at rest; good government will go that far, when it is at its best. But it won't take the place of toil, by which the prudent thrive; it will not hoe the weedy soil, or keep the corn smooth; it won't depend on man-made laws to help me dodge life's ills; the noblest statue in the book won't keep the wolf away, or buy a sack of spuds to cook, if I loaf round all day. I won't my stack at morning, bent on hours of usual toil; I don't depend on government to make the kettle boil."

Commission Happenings of Other Days

FORT TALBOT

On August 19, 1814, when the United States and Britain were at war with each other and the battles were being fought on Canadian territory, the Americans made a raid from Amherstburg upon Fort Talbot, southwest of the city of London about eight miles from Port Stanley. A detachment of about 100 men from Detroit and a force of Indians forced the assault on the little village. The place consisted of about fifty unwarmed huts. The invaders robbed the houses and carried away what they could carry away, even to household furniture and wearing apparel. The number left behind in the village was forty-nine men, thirty-seven women—five of whom were seventy years of age, and 148 children. The principal inhabitants were carried off as prisoners of war, among them being a member of the legislature. Although at the time he was suffering severely from fever and ague, it was through the good offices of the British that he survived. The British had inflicted a sharp defeat on the Americans, but they were not so satisfied when they cut out two armed vessels—the Somers and the Ohio—under the guns of Fort Erie. An attack upon the place a few days earlier had failed; this had aroused the fighting spirits of the English and the British had been carried about eight miles and launched to attack the three American boats which lay under the guns of Fort Erie. In fact, considerable loss on the British. The attack was carried out in the dead of night, the British attacking the side of the enemy by answering the sentry that they were provision boats. The Somers had been on the water for some time with little trouble. The third would have shared the same fate if its commander had not allowed it to drift away. The Somers carried two twelve pounders and the other ship one or two. Each had a crew of thirty-five men and officers. The capture was made with the loss of two men killed and fifteen wounded. The prisoners were taken to Frenchman's Creek, while the prisoners were sent to Fort George.

POPULAR TEACHERS RETURNING HOME

Wisconsin's eleven most popular school teachers were among the cabin passengers who reached Montreal on Sunday night on the regular Dominion liner Saturnia from Glasgow. The party, of which ten members belonged to the fair sex, were returning from the University of Seattle, Dean of the School of Journalism of the University of Washington, and the late Joseph L. Spence, editor of the American newspaper having had the greatest influence for good during the year.

In February, 1918, announcement was made that the prize had been awarded to the Journal for its work of rallying public opinion in the State of Wisconsin, many of whose citizens are of German birth, to the support of the Government during the war. The Journal thereupon asked the people to select by a general vote the state's most popular school teachers, who were sent overseas to see for themselves the damage wrought by the Hun.

The party sailed on June 26th, from New York, and visited, in addition to the battlefields of France and Belgium, Paris, London, and Edinburgh, also spending some time in Switzerland. Members of the party returned to their homes with the conviction that the war was even greater than they had believed possible, the work of rehabilitation was now well in hand.

News Notes About Prominent Baptists

Maritime Baptist
The members of the church and congregation of Bloor Street are greatly enjoying the ministry of Rev. Dr. Bowley Green, of Montreal, N. B., who is visiting the church during August. Those who are not in attendance, we are assured, are missing a rare treat—Canadian Baptist.

Rev. J. E. Goslin, pastor of the Spring-Kars churches, spent a pleasant holiday on the Miramichi. He is back again at work preaching Sunday at St. John's, Springdale, and Hatfield. He expects to close his work on that pastorate at the end of September.

The most recent regular pastoral oversight for more than a year, are now rejoicing in the prospect of again settling a pastor. Rev. T. D. Bell, who has been laboring on the Temperance Vale field, has accepted a call to Hampton and will begin there the first Sunday in September. We are sorry to learn that Rev. Calvin Currie has concluded the state of his health makes it unwise for him to continue his pastoral labors with the Newcastle Bridge and Newcastle Creek churches. He has moved to Fredericton, where he will remain for the winter, at least.

Rev. John B. Champion (Dr. Champion, we should say) is now pastor of the Baptist church at White Plains, New York. He is enjoying as one of his vacation experiences an automobile tour—in his own car, too, a fine one which was recently presented to him by his church. He is a New Brunswicker and in his early ministry held successful pastorates at Sussex and Gibson. He is a graduate of the U. N. B.

Rev. G. Groucher, D. D., veteran pastor of the Baptist church at St. Stephen, is receiving congratulations from here for the honors won by his eldest son, F. S. Groucher, Ph. D., formerly of New York, but now of London. He is now manager of the branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Channel, N.B. He had been enjoying a brief vacation at his home in Woodstock. But this time he had some further object than to see old friends, for he is accompanied on his return by one of Woodstock's fair daughters. So we will have in future another reader if not another subscriber in Newfoundland. We tender our best wishes and congratulations.

NOT DISTURBED BY REQUEST OF MILLIONS TO HIM

New York, Aug. 18.—Arthur T. Walker, obscure secretary to whom Edward F. Scaries left the bulk of his $50,000,000 estate, sat at his desk in the office of his late employer, 71 Broadway, apparently unconcerned at his sudden rise from insignificance to the rank of multi-millionaire. He refused to talk to reporters or discuss a possible contest of the will which names him residuary legatee and cuts off half a dozen relatives without comparatively small bequests. Later at his home, a two room apartment at 25 Pierpont street, Brooklyn, he denied himself callers. A colored maid who takes care of the rooms said he was busy "tending to his own business." Scaries, himself a poor man, inherited his fortune from the widow of Mark Hopkins, whom he married quietly in Methuen, Mass. He gave a million dollar schoolhouse and several churches to that village and was known for his benefactions. In his will, however, no provision was made for institutional gifts. A cousin receives $100,000, her son $250,000, a nephew $500,

UNITED STATES TO "BLACKLIST" ITS WAR DESERTERS

New Fewer Than 173,911 Reported to Have Failed in Duty

Will Be Hunted Down — All Subject to Courts-Martial and Will Be Denied "Unjustifiable Leniency."

Washington, Aug. 19.—The War Department will soon publish to the country the names of 173,911 men who are listed in the records of the department as men who "willfully failed" their country in its hour of peril. The records of the department, it is said, show that this army of deserters, who total in number more than six full war strength divisions of troops, were called to the colors, and that in each instance the man called willfully refused to respond. It is understood that the names will be grouped by localities and as soon as this is done the lists made public every loyal American will be called upon to aid the government in bringing the deserters to justice.

The rounding up of the deserters will be a man hunt, the like of which probably never took place in any country in the world. The War Department, it is officially stated, will not pursue a policy of "unjustifiable leniency" in dealing with these persons who are scattered in all parts of the United States and in many instances have sought refuge in foreign lands, particularly in Mexico and other Central and South American countries.

The statement issued today from the office of the secretary of war, in part reads:—"Out of over 24,000,000 registrants, the maximum number chargeable with willful desertion is 173,911, considerably less than one per cent. of the total registration, and a tremendous improvement over the draft record of the Civil War. The War Department, in the near future, will publish to the country a list of men classified as willful deserters, and desires to obtain the cooperation of the various state and local officials, patriotic societies and other agencies, including the Department of Justice, in bringing about the apprehension of these men. Assurances of such co-operation have, in many cases, already been given. Exact copies of the list of names, grouped by states, or other convenient divisions, will be available for postmasters, police stations and other agencies."

Pending publication of the list of deserters, any man charged with draft desertion who wishes to avoid the humiliation of arrest may voluntarily surrender at the nearest army post, camp or station, in order that his case may be investigated and his status definitely determined. In the event that any man's case shall have been finally disposed of, prior to the publication of the list of deserters, his name will be omitted from that list.

"Any draft registrant who is in doubt as to his status may write to the Adjutant General of the Army, Washington, D. C., and find out how he is classified, notwithstanding the fact that ignorance of such status is the registrant's own fault, because of his lack of interest in keeping track of his obligations to the government.

"The War Department wishes it clearly understood that men who are guilty of willful desertion will not be relieved of the consequences of their misconduct, nor will they be discharged merely because they write to the Adjutant General of the Army and request a discharge."

"While the War Department is prepared to give full information to the draft registrants requesting it, as to what evidence will be required in order to obtain a discharge, the documentary evidence required will be most rigidly examined when it is submitted, and must show conclusively that no injustice is done to the government in granting a discharge."

CITY EMPLOYEE GAINS 20 POUNDS

Logan Felt Like His Time Was Near Before He Began Taking Tanlac.

"My health had just about reached the point where I could stand the strain no longer, but Tanlac has practically made a new man out of me and I'm now feeling fine," was the enthusiastic statement made by Stephen Logan, well known resident of a Wellington Row, St. John, N. B., who is in the water supply department of the city.

"For over three years I was in such a terrible nervous condition that I was wasting away to a shadow. My appetite was very poor, and my stomach and nerves were in such awful condition that they worried me nearly all the time. When I ventured to eat a little heavy food it just seemed to lie in my stomach in a lump and sour. I had severe pains in my stomach, and they would often hurt me so bad that I almost doubled me up like a jackknife. I would blast up with gas so tight that I would have to loosen my clothes, and my heart palpitated so badly and I had such sharp pains around it I didn't dare take a deep breath.

"My nerves became so shattered that I was a trembling nervous wreck, and sleep was almost out of the question. Why, many times I would have to sit up half of the night unable to sleep, and the least little noise would completely upset me. I just didn't know what to do, and my condition finally became so bad that I began to feel like my time for this world was getting short."

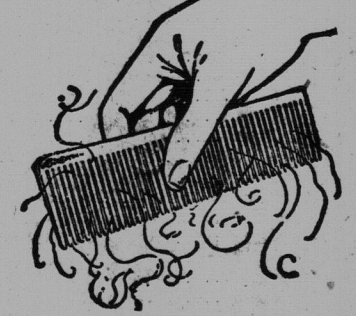

"One day my son, who is a great believer in Tanlac, said to me, 'Dad, why don't you try Tanlac and see what it can do for you?' Well, I started right in on it, and it's a fact before I had finished my first bottle I could eat and enjoy my food as I hadn't done in years. I just kept on taking the medicine until I have now finished my seventh bottle, and my appetite is so splendid and everything agrees with me so well I have actually gained twenty pounds in weight. My digestion seems to be perfect, my nerves are as steady as a rock, and I never have a pain of any kind. At night I sleep like a log, and there's no use talking, Tanlac certainly has shed me up. Why, my friends all stop me on the street and congratulate me on my wonderful improvement, and I never hesitate to tell them Tanlac is what did the work for me."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munroe; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Evans; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, Debec; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Chatham Station, and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Adv.)

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides reveals new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

THE PATRIOTISM AND UNIVERSAL DESIRE of the people to see no draft deserter shall go unpunished, it is believed, will be sufficient incentive without the offering of a reward for the apprehension and surrender to military authorities of these draft offenders.

"The compilation of the records which disclose the names of willful deserters has been a job that has required nearly two years to complete. It was necessary to segregate the cards of the willful deserters from the great mass of more than 24,000,000 cards issued to men who registered for the draft in 1917 and 1918. The local draft boards reduced the number of suspected cases to 480,000 and the war department eliminated from the willful class all but 173,911 of those."

A WOMAN'S TESTIMONY

Mrs. Etta Warren, a farmer's wife of Emmitsburg, Md., openly declares how she has found health through reading a newspaper advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So great is her relief after fifteen years of suffering that she asks to have this information published.

CANADIANS ARE STAYING HOME

(Old Orchard, Me. Despatch)
Main summer resorts, and particular Old Orchard, are being hit hard by the pacifically wiped out Canadian tourist business.

In former years hundreds of Canadians from Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa have come to Old Orchard, many of them staying the season, and have brought with them a goodly supply of Canadian dollars. Old Orchard hotelmen felt that they were better off than they were generally more of them and Canadians are notoriously good spenders.

Now are the hoteliers and stores the only ones to grieve. Many an international match has had its inception at Old Orchard, where American down-patrons were wont to bring their charges for a closer association with the handsome young men from over the border.

FEED NERVES PLENTY OF PHOSPHATE IN SUMMER

Keen Minded Men, Energetic and Successful Rely on It, Asserts Prominent New York Physician.

Men and women, nervous and fretful, easily upset and often fatigued, need plenty of organic phosphate, and the sooner they heed this advice the better their health will be.

Every one of the millions of cells that make up your body, phosphorus is a most important part.

Your nervous system, your brain, your blood and even your bones must have a sufficient supply of phosphorus or weakness, nervousness and general downward condition, as well as lack of normal mental power is sure to result.

Big men of affairs—mighty men who control industries because of sheer will power and nervous force, know this, or if they don't, they are clever enough to have a physician who does.

Physicians more and more are realizing that Bitro-Phosphate, as dispensed at drug stores, is a necessity to over forty per cent. of men and women, because present day foods do not contain enough phosphate to feed the body and especially the nervous system the supply it needs.

Speaking on this very subject, Dr. Frederick S. Kelle, Editor-in-Chief of Physicians' "Who's Who" and a nationally known author of medical text books, in a most emphatic statement said:

Letter, Dr. Kelle said: "When the nerve tissue begins to lose its vitality, woman begins to lose her youth and vivaciousness. Her lively, pleasant disposition fades away—she becomes irritable, uncompanionable, moody and despondent. It would indeed be a godsend if more men and women were aware of the efficacy of Bitro-Phosphate."

Hot weather is dreaded by men and women who are weak, thin, nervous, timid and lacking in vigorous development because it saps their vitality almost to the breaking point.

To all such people Bitro-Phosphate is recommended because it is the one organic phosphate which, when absorbed by the system, will supply the element necessary for a vigorous, healthy body free from any suggestion of weakness or disordered nerves.

Your druggist has Bitro-Phosphate in the original package with complete instructions for best results.

When Appetite Fails And Health Declines Follow This Suggestion

A New Blood-Food Called Ferronose Sure to Restore You Quickly.

Every day comes the good news of wonderful cures with Ferronose.

In Peterboro' it worked marvels for Louis Meehan—put him right on his feet—made him entirely well.

"About three years ago," says Mr. Meehan, "I had the Grippe which left me in a very run-down condition and I was unable to eat a few things and had a craving for acid. I gave up treating with the doctors because they did not help me and on the advice of a friend used Ferronose. It not only cured me of Dyspepsia and Biliousness, but has built up my strength to what it was before I had the Grippe. I can recommend Ferronose as an ideal restorative."

Ferronose gives you force, energy and vim. It strengthens the stomach, cures indigestion, prevents headaches—guarantees good health.

Thousands use Ferronose—they all feel better; try it yourself—sold in 50c. boxes, six for $2.50 at all dealers or direct from The Cataractose Co., Kingston, Ont.

SINGS PRAISES OF THE R. N. W. M. P.

Rev. R. G. MacBeth Writing History of the Force — Forty-Seven Years of Service.

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 18.—The traditions of forty-seven years of service in western Canada, have been upheld by the devoted duty of Corporal Usher and Constable Bailey, who were killed while attempting the arrest of the train bandits at Bellevue recently, said Rev. R. G. MacBeth, historian of the old Royal North West Mounted Police. Rev. Mr. MacBeth is editor of "Scarlet and Gold," the organ of the association of ex-mounted policemen, and is now engaged in writing the history of the old force. He has been in Ottawa delving into the archives.

"The incidents at Bellevue," he said, "show three characteristics of the force in their refusal to count odds when duty had to be done, in their refusal to take human life unless unavoidable and in the determination to secure the arrest of a criminal if he had to be followed to the ends of the earth."

In connection with this second characteristic, police sent to arrest men have often lost their lives rather than be the first to shoot. One case is that of Sergeant Odebrook, who was killed by "Almighty Voice" a few years ago near Prince Albert, although the sergeant was warned by the interpreter he was risking his life in approaching the desperate Indian.

"The case of Sergeant Wild, of High River, was also mentioned. 'Wild,' who was following an Indian outlaw, might easily have taken his life but he preferred to wait and bring the man to justice. The Indian turned suddenly and shot the policeman."

A case of local interest is the one in which Inspector Spalding, then a sergeant-major, and two men were sent to capture a horse thief, Lafrembyse, a half-breed, who was in a Saskatchewan half-breed settlement. It was on New Year's day when many of the men were celebrating by heavy drinking and showed a decided disposition to annihilate the few mounted policemen. But the arrest was made by Spalding and the criminal taken and afterwards received five years."

Rev. Mr. MacBeth continued: "The important thing in connection with the dominion-wide organization is that the high prestige of the force for maintaining law and order be maintained in Canada. The police have never played favorites and never stood for nonsense."

HAVE REAL BEER AGAIN. Berlin, Germany, Aug. 19.—The German people are cheered by the news of better and cheaper beer in sight. Breweries at last are in a position to discontinue the manufacture of weakling war beer. Today full strength beer is on tap.

Champion Insulators have always stood up well under temperature changes. But Champion 3450 Insulator has Three Times the Resistance to extreme temperature variation compared with the best previous insulator.

Always Dependable, Champions are now Super-Dependable. Insist on Champions for your motor. See that Champion is on the insulator as well as on the box. See our Market Square window.

PLANS FOR WORK ON THE ISLAND

Government Officials Here Relative to Facilities for Immigration Business.

Dr. J. D. Page of Quebec, a representative of the department of immigration, and B. Evan Parry of Ottawa, an architect in the employ of the dominion government, are in the city in connection with proposed changes in and additions to the detention station on Partridge Island, in St. John harbor.

Dr. Page, in conversation with a Times reporter this morning, said that $84,000 had been appropriated for the work on the island, but that this would not be nearly sufficient for the amount of work that is to be done there.

He said that a new disinfecting plant would have to be completed before the coming winter and that additions would be necessary to the present detention sheds. If a new plant was not available, considerable additions would have to be made that at present in existence. He said he hoped a start would be made on a new hospital there this fall and had under consideration the erection of a building to take the place of that destroyed by fire during the summer and occupied two years ago. In the case of the latter an understanding between the immigration and military departments would have to first be reached regarding the payment of the cost of replacement.

SUGAR CASE IN POLICE COURT

Small Quantity From Refinery But Counsel Asks for Conviction as Example.

In the police court this morning Charles Froese was charged with the theft of a small quantity of sugar to the value of less than $1 from the Atlantic Sugar Refinery. He had been given in charge by officials of the refinery. F. R. Taylor, K.C., appearing for the company, said that the company was making an effort to stop persistent thieving. The theft in itself was small but there was much of it going on. He pressed for a conviction on the ground that an example had to be made, and while he did not wish to inflict individual hardship, he felt that now was the time to act. The defendant pleaded guilty and was remanded.

JUNIORS AND BASEBALL

The Juniors want a letter show to develop in baseball so that in time to come there will be good material for senior teams. A correspondent writing to the Times offers as a suggestion that some interested should offer a cup for a Junior championship. He writes:—

"Is it not possible to establish a Junior league so that St. John may have a senior league to be proud of in time to come. It would be very nice if some of the big firms of this city would offer a cup for the best junior teams. It would be very nice if the East End and the St. Peter's grounds could be loaned to the Junior teams."

MAYOR'S REPORT ON ONE MAN CAR

His Observations While at Levis, as Told to Commissioners and Representatives of Company and Carmen on Tuesday.

The following report on the question of one-man cars was presented by Mayor Schofield at a conference held in his office on Tuesday afternoon, attended by the commissioners and representatives of the N. B. Power Co. and of the street railwaymen's union.

While on my recent trip to Quebec, I learned that the one-man cars were in operation in Levis, and I took the opportunity of crossing the river and examining into the workings of the same. I called at the head office and the assistant manager was very good to call on me in person, who accompanied me to the car barns and brought out one of the one-man cars and took me over the greater portion of the road, explaining the various operations of the car as we went along. We passed around many very short and sharp curves and down grades fully the equal of the grades in this city. I would think. Quite a portion of the road bed is along the river front with high cliffs rising alongside and one can easily imagine that all kinds of trouble from snow and ice might prevail in the winter.

I learned from the superintendent that no trouble of any serious nature has developed in the operation of this car. It is fully equipped with all the numerous safety devices and is under almost complete control while being operated and in the event of anything happening suddenly to the operator and he takes his hand off the power handle, the power is immediately disconnected and the car comes to a stop inside of twenty or twenty-five feet, and as far as I could judge the car was absolutely as safe as any car could be, though it must be borne in mind that I do not pretend to be anything more than a layman.

I would judge that any of our men would be satisfied to operate this car, as I saw nothing about it that would cause any inconvenience, nor anything to prevent any of our men from operating all parts of it with ordinary experience and the superintendent had himself instructed all his men, one at a time and all are now working on it, and are paid $6 an hour extra over the two-man cars.

It must be borne in mind however, that the car is equipped in a very much better manner than the present cars as suggested for St. John, and even the uninitiated, like myself, can easily recognize the difference and the increased danger in operation of the two cars.

The conclusion I came to, though I wish it understood that I can only judge without the necessary practical knowledge and that I can only give it as my personal expression and in no way binding the council's opinion, that a one-man car equipped with the appliances as seen on the cars in Levis could be operated here to advantage during the slack periods of the day and night and it would result in a saving of increased fares to the car users in this city, that the operator would be willing to operate it in the interests of all concerned.

I would be of the opinion that all the cars of the present type should be equipped with all the appliances as noted on the cars at present operated in Levis. These cars were informed that each cost $8,000 each, new and fully equipped; if that is correct, I would think it possible that one or two might be purchased and operated as a sample, as I am sure no operator could object to them, and then the persons who operate them would be able to more up to date, if it were possible to dispose of the old style cars to advantage, that new safety cars be purchased to replace the old ones.

I am of the opinion, so far as our own city is concerned, that if the management and operators would get together with a third disinterested party, but one having a technical knowledge of the workings of these various cars, they could easily come to a reasonable understanding and settlement, as many of the points are beyond a layman to discuss, and as they have already signed an agreement to that effect, no harsh measures should be anticipated.

SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY

Cases of Theft From the Algonquin Hotel in St. Andrews.

Margaret Costello appeared before Judge Carleton in St. Andrews, N. B. yesterday and pleaded guilty to a charge of theft from the Algonquin Hotel. She was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Florence Cluqmans, a waitress, also appeared before the court and pleaded guilty to a similar charge. She was given two years suspended sentence and bound over in $500 to be of good behavior.

It was brought out during the trial that houses had been searched in Montreal and a quantity of the property recovered. It was said it had been sent there through the mails by the defendants.

Eva Byrne, another waitress in the Algonquin, appeared before Magistrate Stoop in St. Andrews yesterday and was found guilty of taking articles under a value of $10. She was given two years suspended sentence and bound over for a sum of $500 to be of good behavior for two years.

H. C. Lowe, inspector of the C. P. R. Investigation Department of this city, and Constables Leggett and McKinnon were present at the trials in the interests of the prosecution.

AT CITY HALL

At the committee meeting of the common council this morning, Commissioners Jones and Frink reported jointly on an investigation of a complaint from W. E. Lane of Wright street, that water was leaking on to his property. It was reported that the property was below street level and that the sidewalk gutter, and retaining wall were in good condition and there were two catch basins to take away drainage. The commissioner of water and sewerage agreed to examine the situation to see if a leak existed in the vicinity.

The mayor read a letter from the board of assessors recommending the payment of overtime for four clerks who were employed at nights during the time the tax bills were being made out. The mayor agreed to investigate the matter and report.

ONE HAS TO BE RICH TO AFFORD CHEAP FURNITURE

Furniture that is made "for a flash and to sell at a price" does not wear long. It becomes "wobbly," the joints open, the finish wears off, it becomes an eyesore about the home and must soon be replaced.

Then, if cheap furniture is bought the second time the same thing happens. So you see how expensive it is to buy this cheaply made, flash-appearing so-called furniture.

A true artisan will not work in a factory where "plunder" is made. He takes pride in his work, visions the room and the home which is to be influenced by his handwork; pictures the pleasure and comfort it will bring the whole family—with the result that you get furniture that must be bought but once!

Is there anything more important to you than environment in your own home? We think not.

We will consider it a pleasure if you will let us plan with you—and this entails no obligation to purchase.
