FIRE DESTROYS TWENTY HOMES IN FLORENCEVILLE

Dozen Buildings Burned in Carleton County Village-- Damages Estimated at $25,000.

Special to The Standard. Florenceville, N. B., Aug. 10.--A disastrous fire occurred here this morning, ten or twelve buildings being completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $25,000. The fire broke out about 7 o'clock in the general dry goods store of J. V. Carney. There is no fire engine here, and as the efforts of the bucket brigade were futile, the flames soon spread to neighboring buildings. In a short time the grocery store of H. P. Gillespie was in flames, and from there the fire spread to the Miller building which was occupied by Mrs. Gallop and Mrs. Perry. Other buildings in the same group soon caught, and the progress of the fire was only checked when it reached a vacant lot. Among the other buildings destroyed were the residence of Rev. Father Bradley, the residence of E. B. Gallop, and Dr. Hageman's drug store. All the contents of Mr. Carney's dry goods store and the drug store were destroyed. Some of the household goods in the residences were saved, but a good lot of the furniture left in the road was set on fire by the great heat. A number of stables and small buildings were also burned to the ground. The fire lasted for about four hours, and it was feared for a time that the village would be destroyed. All the people in the village were at the scene of the fire, and worked hard to check the progress of the flames and remove the goods from the menaced buildings. Valuable assistance was also rendered by people who came from Centreville, Enfield, Wicklow, and other places. But the fire spread so rapidly and the heat was so great that they could do little. The buildings destroyed were in the centre of the village on the west side of the river. There was a good deal of excitement as the fire gained headway, and the village was destroyed. Fortunately nobody was injured, though several men while attempting to salvage goods, had narrow escapes from the flames.

DR. EDWIN BATES WEDS MISS GRACE DEINSTADT

St. Stephen Scene of Popular Wedding-- Many Out-of-town Guests Attend--Valuable Presents Received.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., Aug. 10.--The hearty congratulations of an entire community go out to a popular young couple whose matrimonial barque was launched here this afternoon. The groom was Dr. Edwin Cassius Bates, of Houlton, Maine, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bates, of St. Stephen, and Miss Grace Campbell Deinstadt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Deinstadt, two young people who are justly held in high esteem. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride at 4:30 o'clock, only immediate relatives being present. Rev. Thos. J. Deinstadt, uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. Geo. F. Dawson. The bride, who is handsomely as well as charming, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchesse lace with veil of tulle cut with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. Marshall McKusick, of Vermilion, S. D., as matron of honor and the groom was supported by Dr. Frank Tarbell, of Byrns Mills, Maine.

LET US PRIZE CANADA AS MUCH AS TAFT DOES

The tremendous efforts that have been made to carry out the Continentalist policy in Canada have had one good effect for this country--they have turned the thoughts of Canadians upon their mighty national heritage, and have thus deepened their love of country and pride in it. For the host of newcomers the wide discussion of Canada's grand resources, of her wonderful progress, and of the future that is opening out for her as one of the very greatest nations on earth is educative. For the native-born, the attention, covetous as it is, that the United States is giving to their country cannot but make them prouder of it. When the President of the United States sinks for months all other public business, and makes the work of establishing his country's advantage in Canada the paramount issue; when he keeps Congress nearly a third of a year in extra session for the sole purpose of enacting the provisions of an agreement with Canada; when the two great political parties across the line unite to pass that agreement, and practically all the newspapers there join in supporting it, our people must acquire a new sense of the importance of their country. Let them admire it and prize it as the United States admires and prizes it, and then they will be sure of keeping it as their own peculiar national possession. There will be few Canadians to vote for the pact if the greatness of their country is as fully realized on this side of the line as it is on the other.--Toronto Mail and Empire.

LAURIER GIVES BRIBE TO THE NEW PROVINCES

Forced to Recognize Rights to Natural Resources by Fear of Elections--Cabinet Shuffle in Progress.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Aug. 10.--Wprd comes from Winnipeg that Premier Sifton of Alberta has announced that Laurier recognizes the rights of the prairie provinces to their natural resources. There is a string to the announcement but the general effect is that in the election campaign the Dominion government recedes from its stubborn refusal to recognize the rights of the new provinces to their public domain. It is an obvious bribe. Some such move has been expected in well informed circles here. The point that interests observers is that the government evidently thinks that the prairies need some inducement to vote liberal. But what of the loud assertions that reciprocity will sweep the prairies? The Laurier government will not surrender one atom of power and patronage without being forced to do so, and this move is regarded as proof that there is need to conciliate the prairies, that reciprocity is not sufficiently popular to be relied on to deliver the constituencies to the government columns. It further is noted that this is one more of Mr. Borden's policies which the government has been driven reluctantly to accept. The first part of the cabinet shuffle came off today when Mr. Brodeur resigned with a view to appointment to the supreme court. Mr. Lemieux will be moved over to the department of marine and fisheries and Dr. Beland will be appointed to the post office generalship. At least orders-in-council to that effect were passed; Mr. Lemieux and Dr. Beland have not yet been sworn in. The new minister of justice has not yet been appointed.

STABBED TO DEATH AFTER THE DANCE

Young Men in Ontario Have Fatal Quarrel Over a Girl--Police Searching Swamps for Slayer.

Orillia, Ont., Aug. 10.--The dead body of Ross Ford, a man twenty-three years old, was found on the roadside this morning with three deep stab wounds in the chest. Last night there was a dance at the Duff farmhouse, four miles north of the town, and Ford and another young man named Sheridan, were among the merry-makers. The gathering broke up at midnight and it was reported that Ford and Sheridan started home together. Ford's companion cannot be found now, and the police are scouring the swamps in the neighborhood. The police theory is that there was a quarrel between the young men over a girl. Dr. McLean will hold an inquiry tomorrow at Clarke's undertaking rooms where the body of the victim is at present lying. The out of town guests included Rev. F. J. Deinstadt and Miss Hazel Deinstadt, Mrs. G. O. Hannah and Miss Helen Hannah, of St. John; Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Deinstadt, of New York, and Miss Rebecca Morrison, of St. Andrews. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable and included silver spoons from the officers and fellow teachers of the bride in the Methodist Sunday school. Dr. and Mrs. Bates left this evening for a visit to leading United States cities.

HON. J. D. HAZEN HONORED BY NOTABLE GATHERING AT BANQUET LAST EVENING

Wonderful Tribute to Premier's Personal Qualities and Honest Administration.

Stirring Addresses Made by Men Prominent in the Life of New Brunswick.

Dr. Landry Declares Loyal Acadians Will Do Their Duty to the Empire When Time Comes to Pronounce on Reciprocity.

HON. J. D. HAZEN.

Never in the history of the city of St. John has a more notable tribute been given to a public man than was voiced in the banquet tendered last evening to the Honorable J. D. Hazen, by his friends and supporters in Keith's Assembly Rooms. It was not only a tribute to Mr. Hazen, the man, but also to the splendid work the government headed by him has done for the province of New Brunswick and an expression of satisfaction at the honest government which has been the province of the past under Mr. Hazen's administration.

The banquet was attended by upwards of 300 guests. The menu was all that could be desired, and the whole affair was characterized by an enthusiasm and good feeling that was most inspiring. While Conservatives were in the majority there were nevertheless a number of Liberals present, and they joined heartily in the expressions of appreciation which were accorded to the Premier and the other members of the local government.

The banquet was held in the large assembly hall while the smaller rooms were utilized as cloak and serving rooms. Appropriate mottoes occupied prominent places on the walls, among which were the following: God Save the King. Promises kept and pledges redeemed. The Highway Act, The Audit Act, The Workmen's Compensation Act, Cheaper School Books, Good Government, The Valley Railway, Welcome to New Brunswick's Premier, Aggressive Immigration and Progressive Agriculture, Honest Expenditure of Public Money.

W. H. Thorne presided and seated at his right hand were the guest of the evening, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Geo. W. Fowler, Hon. Bobo Stewart, Hon. John Morrissy, Recorder Baxter, Hon. W. C. H. While all the speeches were received with great applause probably the speaker who attracted the greatest attention outside of the premier himself, was Hon. Dr. Landry. Dr. Landry, who spoke both in English and French, made a telling address, and when he advised the audience to watch what the loyal French Acadicians would do to the reciprocity proposals the applause was deafening. The Toasts. The first toast was the King, which was drunk with musical honors. H. A. Powell then arose to propose the toast of the Governor-General. He said it was fitting on this occasion to drink to the health of one of the best links between Canada and the Empire. He also referred to the guest of the evening as a man who had done much to advertise the province in the old country during his visit at the time of the coronation. The people had reason to feel proud of Mr. Hazen, as a premier who had given to the province good government and honest administration of their affairs. He then proposed the health of the governor-general and the lieutenant governor of the province which was received with enthusiasm. W. H. Thorne then read letters and telegrams regretting their inability to be present from Senator Wood, F. St. Martins, and the following from Montreal--G. J. Doherty, K. C. F. S. McLennan, Col. Robert Gardiner, T. Chas. Casgrain. Mr. Thorne. In proposing the toast of the guest of the evening Mr. Thorne said there was cause for congratulation that the province had had such an able representative at the coronation ceremonies as the premier. He could safely say that no province in Canada was better represented than New Brunswick. Mr. Hazen had always had New Brunswick first in his mind, and had done his utmost to give the province a capable and honest administration. "We feel proud of J. D. Hazen, who took upon himself the reins of government and aided by his colleagues has given honest administration. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been saved through the removal of the old government. I hope the Hazen administration will continue until we can look forward with confidence to their successors."

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Aug. 10.--The list of returning officers was made public today. Those in New Brunswick, P. E. Island and part of Nova Scotia are: New Brunswick. Carleton--Wm. A. Hayward, Woodstock. Charlotte--Sheriff R. A. Stuart, St. Andrews. Gloucester--Jerome Boudreau, teacher, Elmtree. Kent--John B. Goggin, Cocagne. Kings and Albert--Sheriff Fred M. Freese, Sussex. Northumberland--Sheriff John E. O'Brien, Nelson. Restigouche--J. C. MacLean, Charlottetown. St. John, city and county--Alfred O. Skinner, St. John city. Sunbury and Queens--To be announced later. McLennan, Truro. Annapolis--Edmund Gates, Annapolis. Cumberland--Richard B. H. Davison, Amherst. P. E. Island. Kings--Sheriff Daniel F. MacDonald, Montague. Prince--Douglas Wright, Summerside. Queens--Sheriff George Coombs, Charlottetown. To say that his term had been a creditable one. In 1891 he was a candidate for the House of Parliament in St. John for the city and county, and was greatly surprised when he was returned at the head of the poll. That was the election when the battle over unrestricted reciprocity was fought. It had been referred to as the flag election and it was important at this time because he believed the people of the country were entering upon another flag election when the issue really would be not alone a simple trade pact but the question of "under which flag?" In 1891 the people had answered and he felt sure that they would do the same this time, and every man who valued his British connection and his citizenship would answer the question in no uncertain fashion. Visit to England. Referring to his visit to England he said he went there as the representative of the province, not alone of the government, but of the whole people. After he landed the exceptional honor was done him of being entertained at dinner in the Constitutional Club in London, by a brilliant gathering, at which the chairman was Mr. Bonar Law, a resident of this province, who had achieved fame in the Mother Country and who now was one of the most highly thought of members of the British parliament. On that occasion he took the opportunity of saying that not for one minute was he egotistical enough to think that the dinner had been tendered to him on his own account, but rather because the tenderers desired to do honor to the old Loyalist province of New Brunswick, which he represented. However, he thought that the banquet tendered to him on the present occasion was not only an expression of good will to himself personally, but a slight token of belief that his friends whom he saw about him believed that he and his colleagues had done their best to give to the province honest administration. It was a matter of no common pleasure to him to see about him every member of his government and a very large number of his supporters in the legislature. No man who ever led a government had received more loyal support from his co-workers than had been his portion in the present government of New Brunswick. They came into power as men who had no experience except in opposition and while they might have made some mistakes, he believed the best sentiment of the people of the province irrespective of their political leanings, would be that they had given honest administration. He challenged any one to point to an evidence of the contrary. In his visit to the Coronation he felt that more was expected of him than merely to attend the coronation attendant on it. He was expected to use every opportunity which presented itself to advance the interests of the province and this he felt he had done. He had felt that there was too little attention paid to the east of the Dominion and that western provinces advertised by the railway companies whose interest it was to carry their passengers as far across the country as they could, had been prospering while the eastern provinces had not received their share of attention, in spite of the fact that in many ways this province was better adapted to the needs and desires of the settlers from the Mother Land than the provinces lying farther west. Interviews. He took the opportunity by means

PEERS ACCEPT PETO BILL BY VOTE

House of Lords Ends Struggle by Deciding Not to Insist on Amendments--Vote Stood 131 to 114.

London, Aug. 10.--Premier Asquith's government tonight enforced its will upon the peerage by the narrow vote of 131 to 114. By this vote the House of Lords decided to accept what the Liberals contend is the will of the people and took Lord Morley's view not to insist upon the lords' amendments to the parliamentary bill, which practically limits the power of the House of Lords to a two year suspensory veto and vastly increases the prerogatives of the House of Commons. The great constitutional struggle, which began when the House of Lords nearly two years ago rejected the budget of David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, is ended for a time at least, with the greatest change to Great Britain's working constitution since the passage of the reform bill. The Voting. The process of voting consumed nearly an hour and the result trembled in the balance. In the last moment the "Die Hard" mustered greater strength than the prophets had anticipated, and the government owes its victory to votes of between about 20 and 30 Conservatives, who threw in their lots with the Liberals to save their caste from loss of prestige by a great increase in their numbers, and the King from the possibility of the use of royal prerogative from which everyone believes he was most anxious to be saved. The Archbishops of Canterbury and York and nine bishops also lined up with the government, although the Ecclesiastical Lords generally keep aloof from party questions. The Bishops of Bangor and Worcester went with the Halyburts "The Last Ditchers." It was noticeable that the highest rank of the nobility furnished the fewest supporters of the government. The Dukes of Norfolk, Leeds, Marlborough, Newcastle, Northumberland, Somerset and Westminster, voted with the opposition, while the remainder abstained from voting. When the voting began a thrill of excitement marked the appearance of each notable, but none showed any greater when Lord Rosebery appeared as a supporter of the government. As soon as the result was known several members of the House of Commons rushed from the galleries and into their own chamber and whispered the news to the members. A great cheer followed the announcement of the government's victory. The question of the hour is, what effect tonight's decision will have upon the future fortunes of the Conservative party? Viscount Morley's announcement that enough peers would be created permanently to swamp the house if the government did not prevail apparently swayed a few waverers and decided the issue. of interviews in newspapers of wide circulation, and in other ways of pointing out and drawing attention to the resources of this province, and he was happy to say that something had been accomplished in this way. He felt that the province of New Brunswick was never as well known in England as at the present time. In the month of July much of his time had been spent in the New Brunswick offices where he had met a number of men who intended to come to Canada, and he had pointed to whom he pointed out the resources of the province. As a result of this some of them had signified their intention of visiting the province before going further west. A number of gentlemen who were interested in the sporting possibilities of the province were also seen and he could say that many English sportsmen would come here this season in quest of the big game with which the province abounds. The New Brunswick offices in London were he thought admirably located for their purpose, and in this regard they had advantage over the province of Nova Scotia, and also over the great province of Ontario. He had also taken occasion while in England to call attention to the many excellent opportunities here for the investment of capital and this he hoped would also have satisfactory results. In short he thought he could say that while others might have done more, he had done all he could. The ceremonies and the festivities in London during the coronation were such as to make one feel that it was good to be a Canadian. Canada engages more attention than ever in the old land, and the Britons are now looking to Canada as the greatest supporter of the Empire in the near future. The Coronation. Mr. Hazen took part of the coronation ceremonies in the historic old abbey which he had the privilege and pleasure of attending, and of the great naval review at Portsmouth, where he saw 268 British warships ready at an instant's notice to go to any part of the Empire where the British flag was threatened. He also described the gala performance at Covent Garden and the garden party at Buckingham palace, which was attended by 200 guests. He met many New Brunswickers abroad including Dr. G. R. Parkin, who is so ably administering the educational fund left by the late Cecil

HON. J. D. HAZEN HONORED LAST EVENING

Continued from page 1. Rhodes. There was also present at the banquet tonight a New Brunswick... who had achieved prominence in the financial world... person of Mr. Dunn, of the banking firm of Dunn, Fisher & Co., of London. Turning to the record of the provincial government he referred to the motto on the wall, which called attention to the promises kept and pledges redeemed. This was applicable to the present government, as they had kept all the promises made while in opposition. They had a hard task to take up on coming into power, for they found things in a terrible shape, but as soon as they could get straightened away they started on the work of cleansing the Augean stables. They incited a systematic plan of book-keeping by which the money paid in the province was honestly accounted for, and such things as suspense accounts made impossible. At present, and ever since his government took control, every dollar was honestly expended and accounted for. They made the auditor general an independent official who can only be removed from office by the vote of three-quarters of the house, and they did away with the former loose methods.

Pledges Redeemed.

The government promised to reduce the price of school books and this pledge had been kept. It was with mingled feelings of gladness and regret that he had learned that his friend T. A. Hart, of Charlotte county, had been nominated by the people of Charlotte for the Dominion House for Mr. Hart more than to any other man in the province was due the breaking up of the school book ring in St. John. The people of the province now got a reduction of 50 per cent. on their school books from the prices paid under the former government. Honest collection of public revenue.

had resulted in an increase of the revenue collected from stumpage until at the close of the year on Oct. 31, 1910, the amount collected was $173,000 in excess of the amount collected in 1907 although not one stick of lumber had been cut in excess of the season of 1907. The difference was made up through honesty in collection. This was largely due to the splendid work of Mr. Grimmer, and the manner in which he had administered his department.

Wharves and bridges had been found in shameful shape when the government took charge but through the good work of Mr. Murray they had been repaired and rebuilt until he could say that by the end of the present year practically every bridge would be in good condition. The wharves had been improved until even political opponents had congratulated him on the good work done in this respect.

The Highway Act.
The government had repealed the old highway act and had framed a new one through which the road money of the province was placed under the control of a highway board appointed from the country and was spent for the good of the roads instead of for the political advancement of the parties in power. The introduction of the motor car had made better roads necessary and they would be provided as soon as possible. Motor car owners were taxed this year, and the tax produced a revenue which would be applied to the roads.

The Valley Railway.
Mr. Hazen then dealt with the negotiations in connection with the Valley Railway. While in England he had negotiated with a company which was prepared to undertake the building of the road if they got the Dominion subsidy of $6,400 per mile, but the Dominion government had refused to grant this. Finally, however, they had agreed to some modifications in the contract under part 3 of the agreement, and to the operation of the road as a part of the I. C. R.

These negotiations had proven satisfactory. He could assure his hearers that the financial end of the matter would be well looked after. The construction of the road would be of the greatest importance to St. John as it would give a shorter line to Quebec and the West than by any existing route. In conclusion, Mr. Hazen referred to the coming election and the opportunity afforded to strike a blow at the reciprocity pact. He had been asked to be a federal candidate in several constituencies, but while he would under other circumstances be quite willing to step in and fight the battle of British Connection, he felt that it would be unfair to the people of the province if he were to resign his present trust to enter Dominion politics until he had seen the St. John Valley Railway assured and in operation. (Applause.)

George W. Fowler.
George W. Fowler proposed the toast of the Dominion and provincial legislature. In reference to the Dominion legislature he said it was an old and classical saying, to speak no evil of the dead. Of the Dominion legislature half of it was dead and the other half moribund. The provincial legislature, led by Mr. Hazen, was, however, very much alive. He coupled the toast with the names of the members of the Hazen government, Dr. Daniel and J. A. Murray.

Dr. Daniel.
Dr. J. W. Daniel on rising to reply thanked those present for the honor conferred upon him. He agreed with all that had been said regarding the ability and honesty of the Hazen administration. In reference to the Dominion parliament the toast was a very hollow one to respond to, as parliament had been dissolved. In reference to his visit to the Coronation he had the pleasure of meeting the Duke of Connaught who will be Canada's next governor general and who the speaker had listened to in a most eloquent address. When the Duke of Connaught came to Canada he would not be put in the shade from any of the illustrious governors general who had preceded him. The Duke of Connaught was the most popular man in England and Dr. Daniel felt sure that after a term of four or five years he would be the most popular man in Canada.

Dr. Landry.
Hon. D. V. Landry, commissioner of agriculture, spoke briefly. He corroborated what had been previously been said as to the pride which the people of New Brunswick felt in the manner in which Mr. and A. B. Crosby were chosen as candidates to represent the party.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION IN BLACK REPUBLIC

General Fouchard, Former Chief of Haytian Army, will Try to Overthrow Provisional President, Leconte.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 10.—Gen. Callis Thene Fouchard, Haitian Minister to Germany, and former chief executive of army of the Island Republic, is expected to arrive here soon, and shortly afterwards to sail for Hayti with the purpose of overthrowing Gen. Leconte, the new provisional president. General Fouchard arrived in New York last Monday from Hamburg.

Prominent Haytiens say that Gen. Fouchard's chances to overthrow Leconte are rosy in view of the fact that the entire south of Hayti from Geresme to Aux Cayes took up arms for him in the revolution of 1908. They say also that Fouchard has powerful friends in the capital, and that the south is not likely to accept Leconte over him.

The trouble in Hayti is believed not to be ended. The railway concession granted to an American syndicate caused the late revolution of hostilities. The Fouchardists are sure to request its cancellation. This, it is thought by the Haytiens, would result in an early resumption of hostilities.

The opposition in the Dominion parliament deserved the gratitude of every Canadian for if they had not done anything else the fact that they had forced the government to face the people on the reciprocity pact justified their existence. They had been called obstructionists but if they prevented the transaction of public business it was because they had a sacred duty to perform and they had performed it. Reciprocity, he believed, would prove that the entering wedge of commercial union with the United States.

Referring to the St. John Valley Railway he traced the negotiations which had been carried on between the Dominion government and the provincial government and showed that the delay from 1909 to 1911 was due to Mr. Pugsley's desire to get the Valley Railway to connect with the G. T. P. at Grand Falls and receive there the traffic from that road. "That was one of Pugsley's dreams," said Mr. Fleming, and continuing he pointed out that it would be impossible to get the Grand Trunk Pacific to turn their traffic over to the Valley Railway at Grand Falls and receive there the traffic from the Valley Railway steel to the seaboard. As the result of the negotiations conducted the present summer the Minister of Public Works had been induced to remove the block to the construction of the road which he had caused to be put in the contract in 1909. This year Pugsley's dream was wrong he had done two years before.

Mr. Fleming.
Hon. J. K. Fleming added his tribute to the ability and honesty of Mr. Hazen, and voiced the admiration of the members of the government for their leader. The members of the government made a happy family, and he doubted if any seven men could sit about a council table more harmoniously.

He especially referred to the excellent work done by the Acadia member of the government the Hon. Dr. Landry. Criticism had been made because the premier had placed a physician in charge of the agricultural department. It was a happy choice as the department was dying and needed attention. Dr. Landry provided that attention and the department now was in flourishing shape.

Hon. John Morrissey and Hon. W. C. Borden also spoke briefly, outlining the work which had been done in their departments.

Mr. Landry.
Hon. D. V. Landry, commissioner of agriculture, spoke briefly. He corroborated what had been previously been said as to the pride which the people of New Brunswick felt in the manner in which Mr. and A. B. Crosby were chosen as candidates to represent the party.

SALARY BILL PASSES BRITISH PARLIAMENT

London, Aug. 10.—Resolution to pay members of the House of Commons $2,000 annually for their services was carried by a vote of 256 to 185. The resolution was moved by Chancellor David Lloyd-George in the House of Commons today. The chancellor said that Great Britain was the only country in the world that did not pay members for their work in parliament, which nowadays was so strenuous that the members had little time to attend to anything else.

The Unionists opposed the payment on the ground that it would be a violation of the principle of gratuitous public service as well as improper for members to vote themselves salaries. Arthur Hamilton, Liberal Unionist member for the Fareham division of Hants who moved the official Unionist amendment against salaries, argued that the effect of the chancellor's bill would be to keep out the best types and fill parliament with professional politicians.

James Ramsay MacDonald, labor leader denied that the measure would cause corruption and said that it would tend to help the tide of publicity which is flowing over American politics.

POPE'S CONDITION REPORTED BETTER

Rome, Aug. 10.—The condition of Pope Pius tonight was better and for the first time since he was taken ill recently with laryngitis which later became complicated by an acute attack of the gout, his holiness was considered as having made a step toward recovery.

Drs. Petacci and Marchisfy visited their patient tonight. They reported his temperature still was only slightly above normal and that his condition, considering the heat, was satisfactory.

The other members of the cabinet had told what they had done but he could say he was feeding them all. When he entered the agricultural office all he could find there were the pictures of his two predecessors. When he wanted to write a letter he was forced to send out for stationary and ink. He found that the agricultural societies had decreased from 30 to 60 odd. He started in to inspire the farmers and the result was that the number of agricultural societies had increased as well as the membership. As a result practically all the farmers of the province are now banded together working for their mutual benefit.

Dealing with reciprocity and the effect it would have on British connection he said when the time came the Acadians of the province would show the people where they stood on it. "Just watch us" was the way he concluded amid great applause. He also spoke for a few minutes in French.

J. A. Murray, M. P. of Kings county said the completion of the Valley Railway would do more to build up St. John than all the wild promises of the Minister of Public Works. He also proposed the toast of the city of St. John which found an able sponsor in Recorder Baxter.

The gathering then dispersed with cheers for Mr. Hazen. It was the most successful gathering of the kind ever held in St. John.

EMMERSON NOMINATED.

Moncton, Aug. 10.—Westmorland Liberals today nominated Hon. H. R. Emmerson. His name was the only one suggested. It was an open convention, no delegates being regularly appointed.

HALIFAX CHOOSES CANDIDATES.

Halifax, Aug. 10.—At the Conservative convention held here today, R. L. Borden and A. B. Crosby were chosen as candidates to represent the party.

Pugsley for City, Lowell for County

Liberal Convention Chooses Candidates—Edward Lantulum Squared at Eleventh Hour—His Supporters in Bad Humor—Evidences of Dissatisfaction, with Party Managers at Ratification Meeting.

At the Liberal convention, held in Queen's Rink last evening, Hon. Wm. Pugsley was chosen to contest the city, and James Lowell the county of St. John. The convention was not exactly harmonious, and evidences of dissatisfaction with the party management were manifest at the ratification which followed. Edward Lantulum attended the convention and announced that he had experienced a change of heart, and urged the delegates to obey the will of the managers and make the nominations unanimous. This was done, but not until several of Mr. Lantulum's friends had made a great virtue of his surrender of his claims to consideration.

At the ratification meeting which followed there was a good attendance. John Keefe presided, and announced the selection of candidates. W. H. Barnaby moved that the action of the convention be confirmed, and this was carried by a standing vote.

The chairman then said it was in order to elect an executive committee to manage the campaign. Mr. Knowlton read a list of about 25 names, and moved that they be elected to the executive.

Mr. Lantulum said some sections of the electorate were not sufficiently represented. He moved that 25 more names be added to the list read by Mr. Knowlton.

The chairman—The committee has power to add, Mr. Lantulum. A suggestion was made that a small committee be appointed to select the list.

Mr. Hennessey objected to this suggestion, saying that it was not a committee, he said. The chairman put Mr. Lantulum's motion and declared it carried.

Mr. Lantulum then suggested that a committee of three be appointed to select the campaign executive.

Mr. Hennessey contended that the 25 should be selected by the house. The chairman urged the acceptance of Mr. Knowlton's list.

The speaker complained that the list was about the same as last time for representation on the executive. Jack Barry complained that the Young Liberal Club was not represented in the proposed executive.

The chairman said the executive would have power to add. Mr. Barry—Then let us add them now. We've been fighting for five years for representation on the executive for the Young Liberals.

The chairman said the better way would be for the Young Liberals to select their men themselves instead of allowing the house to do it.

Another speaker complained that none of the workers, the men who went to the polls and did the fighting, were on the executive.

Mr. Pugsley as Pacemaker.
Mr. Pugsley then stepped into the breach and suggested that the meeting authorize the executive to add members which would be selected by the Young Liberals and other organizations.

A motion was then adopted authorizing the Young Liberals to add 16 men to the executive.

The chairman then asked the gathering to accept or reject Mr. Knowlton's proposed list for the executive as the candidates wanted a chance to speak and a motion to accept the names was then adopted with the understanding that others should be added.

W. J. Mahoney then proposed a resolution endorsing reciprocity which was carried.

W. H. Barnaby then made a speech, he said Mr. Pugsley had looked after the interests of St. John and would do better in the future. St. John was on the eve of great developments, thanks to its own expenditures mainly, but now that they had Pugsley they could look forward to the realization of their expectations. He then moved a resolution expressing confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his staff, which was also adopted unanimously.

Walter Foster moved another resolution expressing confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Pugsley and this was also adopted.

Mr. Pugsley was then called upon for a speech. On rising he was given an enthusiastic reception. He spoke for some time, dealing with the reciprocity issue. He hoped the time would come when time would enter the American markets at a lower rate of duty and claimed that the Liberals had secured reciprocity in all other natural products of N. B. in regard to Courtenay Bay he said that in his great enthusiasm he expected that work would be started sooner, but his colleagues wanted information, and the work of convincing them of the need of providing for the export trade of Canada had been somewhat difficult.

He said he had just received a telegram from his deputy minister, stating that tenders for the work at Courtenay Bay had been received from three of the greatest construction companies in the Empire, but until they were considered by the cabinet he was not at liberty to disclose the names of the tenders or their estimates of the work.

Mr. Pugsley as a Knocker.
In conclusion he said he did not believe in the let well enough alone policy of the Conservatives. "As a citizen and property owner of St. John, I am not prepared to say that we will with St. John," he said, "in spite of the great increase in the value of real estate due to the great developments projected by the Liberal government, the value of real estate in St. John is not within 50 or 100 per cent. what it ought to be. In many cases property is worth less than it was 30 years ago. The government was offered a building for a post office in St. John for $40,000, hardly one-fifth of the value of land in Calgary. I understand the census will show a material increase of population in St. John, while in some of the counties in this province there has been a decrease of population."

When Mr. Lowell rose to speak, Dr. L. M. Curran, on behalf of the candidate's friends in the county presented him with an address.

Mr. Lowell spoke briefly, promising to support Mr. Pugsley like a little man.

After singing the National Anthem, the meeting broke up.

SETTLERS FROM THE STATES OPPOSED TO RECIPROCITY

Farmers Fear Rule of Trusts and Believe in Fostering Canadian National Spirit—Throw their Influence Among the Grain Growers Against Putting Up Separate Contracts.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 9.—The most persistent advocate of reciprocity with the United States today in the Prairie Provinces is the salesman for farm implements whose manufacturing plants are located in Chicago, Moline, Ill., St. Louis, St. Paul, and other big centres of the machine industry on the other side of the line. It is difficult for the eastern farmer to realize how powerful is the influence this class of business men have in Western Canada and are probably more numerous than all other classes of travelling men combined in the trade of the Prairie Provinces. These men are advocates of reciprocity, first, last, and all the time. They have every stock argument at their disposal and they know how to use them, and they know how to impress the farmer. Since the day the reciprocity negotiations started, this army of salesmen has been busy with the Canadian farmer, for eastern Canada must appreciate that a vast quantity of American farming machinery and other heavy pieces of household use are sold in Western Canada by American manufacturers. The farmer, though, is the man these American salesmen try to impress, and it is in his interest to vote for reciprocity.

Opposed to Reciprocity. The ex-American farmer, however, of the Prairie Provinces is opposed to the reciprocity pact. This has been demonstrated hundreds of times during the past few months in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta. He has entered into the national spirit on this side of the line, and prefers to build up home industries. He is the type of man who stood for the enormous tariff in the States under the impression that it was in the interest of the nation to build up home industries. He does not want that tariff, but he is so high that the trust will rule the land, but he does believe that a national spirit is essential to the success of the nation, and that Canada can never be a nation in the best sense of the word if she is to be supplied with all her manufactured products by a foreign country. The ex-American farmer is an active factor in the Grain Growers' Association of the Prairie Provinces, and his influence has been cast with that section of this powerful organization, which does not believe in putting

Hub to Have World's Biggest Birdcage — Japanese Dainties for Impetuable Togo — Art Parties Proving Popular

Boston, Aug. 9.—Art parties are proving more permanently fascinating than May parties or candy pulls to many of the Hub's youngsters. Through the generosity of one of the trustees of the Museum of Fine Arts, groups of children are being brought to the Museum each morning during July and August to listen to stories about famous objects of art, and to see a trained story teller, Miss Dorothy Hopkins tells the engaging tales. Each morning about half-past nine the children are gathered in the lecture hall, a lantern slide is thrown on the screen, showing some painting or piece of sculpture, and while the story is being told, the children are shown a photograph of the object. At the close of an hour the members of the class are taken to see just those objects, and are given each a postcard with an illustration of one of them.

The children are gathered in groups of about fifty from the school playgrounds of from various settlement houses. Free transportation to and from the Museum is furnished, and the children are in competent hands until their return home. The scheme, which has never before been tried on such a scale, suggests possibilities for smaller cities where there is a local museum or a public collection of paintings.

Franklin Park. A visit to Franklin Park is always entertaining, for of the exquisite reservations of which Boston is proud contains more of scenic beauty; the easily accessible Roxbury reservation is particularly interesting this summer to the many people who are looking forward to the opening of the municipal zoo, which will greatly help to popularize this park. Work in August is progressing merrily on the two first installations of this much needed project. The zoo is being largely through the efforts of the Massachusetts Zoological Society.

At one place four rows of eight foot holes have been drilled in the solid rock of Long Crouch Woods to accommodate the steel framing which will soon cover the largest flying case in the world, one nearly two hundred feet long and tall enough to shelter four great elm trees in whose branches the birds may rest and nest. Not far away from the site of the flying case the contractor is filling and drilling and blasting, with every effort to do no unnecessary damage to the landscape while he prepares the ground for the new aviary.

The enclosures are not only extensive, but all are well shaded by the trees that are part of the park park. Each enclosure will have a den, a place for the building stone, and in the fore part there will be a good sized circular pond in which the birds and their family may perform their morning ablutions.

New Aquarium. The practical details of these first two installations are being supervised by John T. Benson. For the past fourteen years superintendent of the street railway zones at Norumbega and Lexington parks, just outside Boston, Mr. Benson's remarkable success in maintaining and exhibiting animals at these popular resorts has led to his appointment as superintendent of the Franklin Park zoological garden, which, of course, is expected to become one of the leading animal collections of the country.

Progress toward a cosmopolitan new aquarium building is being erected at Marine Park, South Boston, and the park privileges enjoyed with small expense of money or time, thanks to Boston's admirable street car system.

Highbrow hobbies cluster around everything Japanese, so that whoever is invited to partake of chop suey with Togo will probably swear that the diet resembles nothing so much as the anarchy and pestiferous conditions of Young America is more honest, however, in its attitude toward far eastern feeding. A small boy who this summer spent a week at a local Japanese family confesses to the feeling of rapture he experienced when on the third evening there appeared broiled beefsteak and French fried potatoes.

The First Meal. The first meal had begun with an oily soup at the bottom of which the Yankee lad had seemed dimly to discern a handful of wriggling mudworms. The latter came a salad whose solid portion was overlaid with little strips of furry leather which might easily have been peeled from a rodent. A concoction of starchy meat and vegetables was wrapped in seaweed that had evidently lain for weeks on the beach. Even the chop suey contained enigmas of form and substance, and the raw fish had a slimy way of slipping between chop sticks.

The one bright spot of the dinner, from the American boy's viewpoint, was when the servant brought in a chief operator of the Georgia extraction. With some such feast as this the local Japanese are preparing to greet the impeturable Togo.

ETHEL ANGLIER. The party was held yesterday at Jubilee, and was well attended. The organization has been increased by fifteen new members, which fact afforded gratification to the minister, Rev. Geo. Partridge, and his adherents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram H. Chute, who have spent a pleasant vacation with old friends here and at Digby, returned to their Boston home by the Inter-national steamer from St. John on Saturday evening last.

Rev. Mildred Walker and family are occupying their summer home at Lakeside, after spending the winter and spring in the South.

A WELL MERITED HONOR.

The complimentary banquet tendered Hon. J. D. Hazen, Premier of New Brunswick, is a fitting tribute to a man who has given as much, if not more, of his time to the service of his country than any other man in public life in this Province. Premier Hazen is still a young man, but he has been prominently before the public for more than a quarter of a century. In July, 1885, two Provincial by-elections were held, one in Kings and the other in York. Hon. William Pugsley was a candidate in Kings County and Premier Hazen, then 25 years old, was one of the contestants in York. He has been mayor of Fredericton, sat in the House of Commons for St. John, and now represents Sunbury, the county of his birth, in the Legislature of the Province. In all the years he has held representative positions, no scandal has ever attached to his name. He has been a clean politician and as such is held in the highest esteem, both by opponents and his colleagues and supporters.

When Mr. Hazen entered the House of Assembly, the cause of the Opposition seemed utterly hopeless. The late Hon. A. G. Blair handed over to his successor a strong and united party, but with each change in the premiership the party weakened, and it took some years of diligent fighting to bring about a change in sentiment throughout the Province. Mr. Hazen, however, was not discouraged, and the signs of the times showed an unrest in the public mind regarding the methods, or more properly speaking the madness, of the old Government. There had been gross mismanagement of the financial affairs of the Province for years, but a skillful manipulation of the accounts long prevented the public from getting at the actual financial standing of the Province.

When the awakening did come in 1898, and the people became fully aware of the manner in which they had been deceived and their interests exploited for private gain, only four constituencies in the whole Province sustained the old Government and in one of these Hon. C. W. Robinson, the new premier, and F. J. Sweeney, Surveyor General, were candidates. Another county elected independent voters who became supporters of the Opposition. Eleven constituencies out of sixteen elected Hazen representatives.

Such a notable victory gave Mr. Hazen an opportunity to carry out the reforms he had advocated when in opposition. In doing this he had the loyal support of the members of the House elected on his ticket. There has been an undoubted change for the better in the administration of the affairs of the Government since Mr. Hazen has been in charge, and in no department has there been more marked than in the collection and expenditure of the revenues of the Province. There has been an attempt on the part of some members of the House to charge extravagance against the Hazen Government. Nothing could be more absurd or further from the truth. The Hazen Government has certainly spent more money than their predecessors, but it must be borne in mind that under the old regime all of the expenditures on current account never appeared as such, but by a system of chicanery were added to the permanent debt. The total amount of these expenditures in the last five years of the old Government was upwards of $750,000 if not in excess of that sum.

The Hazen Administration has not pursued this method. It was neither honest nor was it necessary, although spending more for education, agriculture and public works, the increase in the revenue due to an honest and more systematic method of collection provided for all the increase. Had the old Government pursued the same course in collecting the revenue, not a single dollar of this $750,000 need have been added to the debt. Through political favoritism, a few individuals got the benefit and the people of the Province have to pay the scorching which for interest and sinking fund amounts to $37,500 a year.

The Opposition are constantly asserting that the Hazen Government have received the benefit of the increased Dominion subsidy. Had the affairs of the Province been honestly conducted, this would be true, but the greater part of that increase is necessary to pay the interest on the public debt added in the last ten years of the administration of the Old Government. That the Hazen Government has been able to spend more on the important public services of the Province is due to their own efforts rather than to the exertions of their predecessors.

Mr. Hazen has given the people of the Province honest clean government for the past three years—something they did not have in the preceding ten years. For this alone he is entitled to the good-will of all who are interested in the present and in the future of the country. His has also been a progressive administration. Today the Province of New Brunswick is better known abroad than ever before. Greater effort is being made to develop its natural resources than at any period in Provincial history. While in England, attending the Coronation of the King Mr. Hazen had frequent opportunities to tell the people of the Homeland something about the Province he represented and in consequence of his efforts interest in New Brunswick has been greatly stimulated. The Premier's trip abroad will not be without results, a fact that is plain from his address at the banquet last night.

Mr. Hazen expressed his personal gratification at the large attendance at the banquet to do him honor, but he did not claim all the honor to himself; he ascribed much of what he had been able to achieve in so short a time to his colleagues and supporters. The occasion was not only a pleasant and happy reunion, but will be remembered as one of the most important of its kind ever held in the city. Mr. Hazen has earned the honor by honest effort on behalf of good government, and is deserving of all that has been said in his praise.

A PARTIZAN FOR RETURNING OFFICER.

For the first time in the history of St. John the High Sheriff of the City and County of St. John has not been appointed returning officer for the Dominion election to be held September 21. Since the formation of the Province it has been the custom to appoint the High Sheriff of each county as returning officer at all elections, and what was the custom before Confederation has been generally followed since. In the City and County of St. John there has never been an election which was not presided over by the Sheriff. Why was the change made this time? Why has Mr. A. O. Skinner, a bitter partizan and himself a twice defeated candidate, been selected as returning officer by the Minister of Public Works? These are questions which the public naturally ask. They are questions that may very properly be asked, and deserve an answer.

It has never been charged that as returning officer the Sheriff of the City and County has ever acted unfairly in any election held since Confederation. Partisanship has been studiously avoided by all who have held this honored and important office. No matter which party appointed the Sheriff all parties trusted him, and it is only right and proper to say that, as returning officer, no Sheriff of this constituency has ever violated his oath or given cause for complaint. It is because the Minister of Public Works and his colleague hope to profit by having a partizan of their own—a man who has profited politically through the good offices of both and is therefore under obligations, that he has been chosen rather than the man holding the office of Sheriff and bound in honor and precedent to favor neither party?

Mr. S. S. deForest, the High Sheriff, is well known in the city of his birth by all classes and conditions of citizens. He is regarded as a man of honor and probity, who could not be coaxed, cajoled or threatened into doing other than he considered right and in accordance with the law of the land. Both parties could rely on getting fair treatment at his hands. He is a public official and bound to hold the balances even.

The selection of a partizan to the position of returning officer will be resented by the people of this constituency because it is a departure from all former precedents. It will arouse suspicion that the rights of the minority are to be ignored and set aside in the interests of the majority. When the Provincial election was held in St. John County two years ago, the late High Sheriff Ritchie, although not an appointee of the present Administration, was selected as returning officer by his conduct during the election, although the candidate of the Government was defeated.

There is no doubt that a partizan returning officer, if he so desires, can do much to assist his party in an election. He has the appointment of the polling clerks and their assistants, and himself a partizan, what more likely than that every polling clerk, assistant and constable will be as partizan as he? The choice of Mr. Skinner, who has no particular qualifications for the position of returning officer, which are not possessed by the High Sheriff, will be regarded as nothing short of an attempt to secure all the advantages of a partizan election board, to win by any means, fair or foul.

The Minister of Public Works can hardly be congratulated on his first move in the campaign. It is establishing a bad precedent, for which he must take the full responsibility. He will possibly try to seek cover by explaining that the office of High Sheriff was vacant for a few days following the death of High Sheriff Ritchie, but this will avail nothing, as the appointment of a successor was made with promptitude by the Local Government. Such an excuse amounts to nothing and is no answer to the appointment of a partizan instead of following the usual precedent and giving the office to the High Sheriff in whom the whole of the people would have placed the utmost confidence. It is not in the order of things that the Conservative party should accept without protest and without suspicion such an appointment as that of Mr. Skinner, who has held nearly, if not every, office in the Liberal executive at one time or another in the past quarter of a century.

MR. JAMES LOWELL SELECTED.

There was consternation in the Liberal ranks all day yesterday because it was asserted that Mr. Edward Lantaulum insisted that his name should be placed before the convention last night for nomination as one of the Liberal candidates in the approaching election. The nomination had been promised to Mr. James Lowell, M. P. P. by the party bosses, and the presence of Mr. Lantaulum in the field was extremely awkward. The convention was called for 7:30 o'clock, but before that hour it was whispered about the street corners that Mr. Lantaulum had been satisfied and would withdraw. Whether he is to dispense the patronage instead of Mr. Lowell, or is to get a seat in the Senate or both, in the event of the success of his party, is not made public, but the fact remains that Mr. Lowell has secured the nomination and will be the Liberal candidate for the City and County of St. John, Hon. Mr. Pugsley accepting the nomination for the City.

What ever qualifications the Liberals may have discovered in Mr. Lowell to entitle him to a nomination for one of the seats in this constituency, he certainly was not selected because of his abilities as a public speaker. He has been a member of the Legislature now for several years and beyond an interest in the Suspension Bridge has not taken a prominent place in that body before or since the change of government. His politics are of the parish variety and scarcely suitable to a constituency like St. John. He is in no sense a representative man and he thinks has displayed a greater interest in getting good things for himself and securing the appointment of political friends to office than in anything else. Such qualifications may appeal to the Liberal party, but they are not likely to be taken seriously by the people of St. John.

Current Comment

(Winnipeg Telegram.)
It is not right that the harvesters should be disfranchised, but that is an unavoidable consequence of holding the election on September 21st, and is merely a negative injury, compared with the positive opening for corrupt practices to which it affords an opportunity. Anyone who thinks that the followers of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's white plumes in the path of honor will not stoop to such practices need only remember the famous cruise of the Minnie M.

(Rochester Post-Express.)
It is clear that Canada is a very prosperous, a very rapidly growing country. Her purchases from the United States average $32 for each man, woman and child. It is perfectly clear that our exports to Canada, which have actually doubled in ten years, will continue to increase as that marvelous country continues to increase in wealth. Now, then, can there be any doubt about the wisdom of closer trade relations?

"LEST WE FORGET"

Under the above caption the Calgary Herald publishes a letter from an American citizen now living in Alberta who takes a deep interest in the subject of reciprocity. It is somewhat out of the ordinary run of contributions on this much-discussed question, and is well worth reading. This American writes as follows: "American reciprocity involves a great deal more than merely more friendly trade relations with the great republic just across the international line. It means a business partnership with a nation ten-fold stronger than Canada, in which the balance of power will be irrevocably handed over to the dominant partner. This would involve dangers enough to a nation with all its future before it, but the partnership strikes deeper than that. A business partnership with America means for Canada, the wide open door to the 'American spirit'."

Wide Apart.

The line which separates the American republic from Canada is for the most part neither a range of great mountains nor a great river; but no boundary ranging north and south ever separated two peoples of different races.

a common tongue more widely spart in their traditions, principles and ideals, than are the two great English speaking nations of the American continent. And the hope of Canada today is something to which America has not yet come and which Canada is in danger. "Lest We Forget" It is the foundation of sound, substantial and enduring morality which lies beneath every institution in this great Dominion.

Canada's Position.

"It may be said that Canada rests upon a three-fold foundation; the support of the laws of the Dominion, the Sabbath, and sound business methods. And at the heart of these is the shrine which lies at the heart of the British Empire, the British flag, which glories by the many men of every generation and made divinely beautiful by the love and consecration of the Dominion's mothers, who were under the protection of the British flag, the survival of the fittest, and the traditions of the Empire, which underlie the Canadian nation are but the result of ten centuries of nation building.

"Who would exchange the universal respect for law which abides throughout the British Empire today for corporation control at the national capital and liquor control in the great cities? Who would exchange the beautiful spirit of Sabbath observance, which means more to the boys and young men of Canada today than any but its mothers know, for the Parisian Sunday of Chicago and New York? Who would exchange the substantial business methods of Canada, which are so well expressed in its great banking institutions, its Dominion land laws, and the whole commercial organization of the Dominion, for 'show-string' methods of speculation and the fantastic dreams of J. Rufus Wallingford? And, finally, who would exchange the sacred atmosphere of the Canadian home for the spirit which so lightly regards the marriage vow and makes the divorce court its final confessional.

Easy to Tear Down.

"It is much easier to tear down than to build up. And a single decade of 'commercializing' Canada would destroy what it has taken a thousand years to make. The American nation is the product of but a single century. It is the most heterogeneous aggregation of humanity on earth. The democracy of Thomas Jefferson has become the individualism of today, which finds its expression all the way up or down from the ward-heeler to the trust magnate; the principles and methods are the same all along the line. Every thoughtful American knows that the United States is 'sowing the wind to reap the whirlwind.' And Canada owes an obligation to its sister nation across the line, and it is an obligation which the American nation need add commercial opportunities. It is the obligation of good example. As for Canada, she needs a new birthright for the hope of gold. Canada has greater needs than an American market for her products. And Canada had better pay for the maintenance of a safe and sound price of the safety of her sons and daughters."

Supreme Court Chambers.
In the supreme court chambers yesterday morning before Mr. Justice McKeown, M. N. Conour, K. C. of St. Andrews, on behalf of Floyd Brown and Chapman Cheney, two prisoners belonging to Grand Manan, who are now confined in the Charlotte county jail awaiting trial on a charge of breaking and entering a store and stealing a sum of money, made application for an order to admit the prisoners to bail until time of trial on Oct. 3rd. The order was granted and the amount of bail fixed at $500, $400 for each prisoner and $200 for two sureties in each case.

SHIRTSLEEVED LEGISLATION IN THE BRITISH COMMONS.

London, Aug. 9.—"Shirtsleeved" legislation made an appearance for the first time in the House of Commons this afternoon. The heat was intense, 95 degrees Fahrenheit being recorded in the shade and 131 in the sun. During the sitting of the Grand Committee a member suddenly threw off his coat and declared that he would not put it on again even if objection was made. His colleagues were momentarily appalled at the innovation, but soon all were legislating in their shirtsleeves. In the law courts, wigs and gowns were generally discarded.

SIR JAMES WHITNEY.

"I feel a little hurt that it should be said of me that I needed, in the greatest crisis which a British people has faced, pressure to induce me to come out on the right side. I wonder if they would say that pressure was brought to bear upon Sir Edmund Walker, Mr. J. A. Lash, Mr. Jack Eaton and other prominent Liberals, who have condemned the government's policy."

"They are right when they say we will throw the weight of our organization in favor of the Dominion Conservative party and no government ever had such an organization as ours. Our organization—the only organization we possess—consists of the people. When the time comes the people of Ontario organize themselves and they tell the remnants in this province who do not want good government that they shall have good government."

A large part of the recent selling has been genuine liquidation and as the supply has not come from commission houses there is room for the belief that some large interests have become disgusted with the situation.

MARATHONS WIN IN CLOSE GAME FROM FREDERICTON

Greeks Victorious by Score of 1 to 0 at Capital - George Winter Did the Trick--Pitched Winning Game and Batted in Winning Run--Close Race for Championship.

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 10.—The Marathons recovered from their slump just in time to win the best game of the season here from the Fredericton club by a score of 1 to 0, thus tightening up the race for the New Brunswick and Maine league championship.

George Winter, the former big leaguer, and Stanley Bates, the young southpaw, fanned out to the Fredericton team by the Lowell club of the New England league, were the pitchers, and both twirled the best kind of ball, only six hits being made off each pitcher.

Timely hitting won the game for the Marathons, hits by Lynch and Winter following up the race for the championship.

Fredericton had a fine chance to even the score previously when Bob Conley, the first man up in the fifth, sent a long triple to deep left centre. He was nipped at the plate, however, as Callahan's fast rap to Fryer a moment later.

In the ninth with one down White, a new outfielder from the Lowell club, was sent in as pinch hitter for Callahan and made good with a fine single to left garden, but was caught stealing a moment later, while Tift, who batted for Griffin, tied out to Connelly.

The result of the game does not lose the leadership of the league for Fredericton, according to the official records of the league, which give Calais credit for the protested game with the Marathons and St. Johns until the protests are finally settled by President Lynch of the National League.

According to the official records Fredericton leads with 12 games won and 7 lost, their percentage being .625; Marathons second with 15 games won and 9 lost, their percentage being .625.

Today's game was evidence of how evenly matched the clubs are, and great contests are expected when they meet at St. John on Saturday and here next Tuesday.

The winner of the Lowell club will join the Fredericton team in a day or two and will play either second base or shortstop.

The box score of today's game is as follows: Marathons. ABR H P O A E; Fryer 2nd b. f. 4 0 1 1 2 0; Williams 3rd b. f. 4 0 1 1 2 0; McCarry 1st b. f. 4 0 1 3 0 0; Nelson c. f. 4 0 1 2 0 0; Riley ss. 4 0 1 3 0 0.

ST. JOHN'S DEFEAT CALAIS BY SCORE OF 7 TO 3

Victory Due to Heavy Batting by Page's Nine -- Callahan Pitched Star Game -- Best Seen on Calais Diamond -- Four Maine Pitchers Found for Twelve Hits.

Calais, Me., Aug. 10.—Joe Page and his men carried a good luck horseshoe with them to Calais diamond this afternoon where they outplayed a fast Calais team with a seven to three score.

The game was lost to Calais in the second for Chief Mitchell twirled great ball, having only one bad inning when a double and two errors were responsible for two runs.

Five runs after two out was the husky Indian flinger was sent to the mound to relieve Keill, Ramsey connected with Mitchell's delivery and went out on a pop fly to Cobb, ending the inning.

No change to batter until the Calais pitcher broke the tie by hitting Callahan in the stomach with a ball.

TROTTERS TIE WORLD'S RECORD AT CLEVELAND

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 9.—The North Randall track is fast. If there are any horse fans sceptical on this point just let them look over the cold figures of this afternoon's programme and be convinced.

The pacing heats were slower than the trotting events, the side-wheelers averaging 2:07 1/2 while the trotters averaged 2:05 1/2.

The fastest heat in the race was 2:14, trotted by Snyder McGregor in the second heat, but today Joan trotted the second heat in 2:04 1/4, while the average for the four heats was 2:06 1/2.

With Joan, Dudie Archdale, Grace Girle, Spanish Queen, Hallworthy and Sterling McKinney in the hunt for honors, it was a contest that brought the most able spectator to his feet before the first heat was finished.

Joan trailed Dudie Archdale to the three-quarter pole, where relinquish hold. Here Joan was pocketed, and to get out McDavit had to take the mare around Hallworthy, Spanish Queen and Dudie Archdale.

This heat took much out of Joan, but at that the holder of the world's record for 4-year-olds won the second heat in 2:04 1/4, which reduced her former record by half a second.

Two hard heats took the steam out of Joan and after Grace Girle came back and won the deciding round, today, Miss Lena Wilson, Glen Ridge, N. Y.

The St. John's and the Marathons will play an exhibition game of ball on the Marathons grounds this afternoon for the benefit of Fraser. The second baseman who unfortunately broke his wrist in a game of ball a few days ago, Fraser, is one of the most popular players who has ever played in the province and is a favorite with all players and fans.

The same thing this afternoon should be a hotly contested one, as both teams have a winning streak on just at present, and they are expected to put up a good fast game. Both sides will put on their strongest lines on the diamond and a large crowd of spectators may be expected to witness the game.
