

HOME RULERS TAKE DERRY WITH A MAJORITY OF 57

Ulster Unionists Defeated in By-Election After Hot Campaign—Great Demonstration Follows Victory, and Police Have Trouble With Rival Crowds.

[Canadian Press.]

Londonderry, Ireland, Jan. 31.—The Irish home rule party won a notable victory over the Unionists in the election of a member of parliament for the city of Londonderry, Ulster, yesterday.

The poll, which was a very close one, resulted as follows:
David C. Hogg, Nationalist, 2,699.
Col. H. A. Pakenham, Unionist, 2,642.
Majority, 57.

The seat had been held since 1900 by the Marquis of Hamilton, who was recently elevated to the House of Lords on the death of his father, the Duke of Abercorn. The victory of the home rulers gives them a majority of members of parliament from the province of Ulster in the House of Commons.

A CLOSE FIGHT.

Extraordinary efforts were made by both parties to bring every elector to the polls, and as a result of their exertions, out of a total electorate of 5,462 voters, 5,341 cast their ballots. Many of the sick and infirm inhabitants were taken to the polling booths in ambulances.

Much fear had been expressed that the election would give rise to serious disturbances owing to the feverish excitement prevailing in parts of Ulster at the present moment on the home rule question. A large force of the Royal Irish Constabulary had been drafted into the city, but their services were not often called into requisition.

BOTH PROTESTANTS.

The election on this occasion was made more interesting by the fact that both the Unionist and home rule candidates were Protestants. The Protestant and Catholic inhabitants of Londonderry are almost equally divided, and by putting forward Mr. Hogg as a candidate it was foreseen that he would carry some of the Protestant home rulers with him who otherwise would have abstained from voting, owing to religious differences.

The majorities in Londonderry elections have always been very small, ranging between 26 in 1885 and 105 in December, 1911.

RIVAL CROWDS CLASH.

The rival crowds of home rulers and Unionists came into contact at one point of the city. There was much stonethrowing, and the police were obliged to charge and disperse the people with their clubs.

WILD DEMONSTRATIONS.

The announcement of the result of the polling was followed by extraordinary scenes. The pent-up excitement of the populace was vented in wild demonstrations. A deafening tornado of shrieks, cheers, and hisses broke loose, and this was accompanied by the firing of revolvers in the air, while green and red handkerchiefs and Union Jacks fluttered over the heads of the surging crowds.

The Nationalists sang "A Nation Once Again," to which the Unionists responded with "Rule, Britannia!" and "God Save the King."

Mounted and foot police had to clear the way and form an escort round Mr. Hogg and Col. Pakenham, while they were on their way to their hotels.

The Derry by-election was particularly interesting, as being the first fought in Ulster since the introduction of the home rule bill. Derry City has always been very evenly divided between Nationalists and Unionists. In 1886 the late Mr. Justin McCarthy contested it as a Nationalist and was beaten by two votes. His committee, however, were convinced that he should have won by three votes, and on a scrutiny he was declared elected by exactly that majority. Contests since then have resulted as follows:

Victor.	Majority.
1892.....Unionist.....	26
1895.....Nationalist.....	39
1899 (By).....Nationalist.....	49
1903.....Unionist.....	67
1910 (Jan.).....Unionist.....	57
1910 (Dec.).....Unionist.....	105

There was no contest at the general election of 1906. The unusually large majority in December, 1910, was accounted for by the personal popularity of the Marquis of Hamilton.

WHITNEY HIGH-HANDED SAYS CONS. MEMBER

Henderson, of Halton, Declares No One's Rights Are Safe at Toronto and That Whitney Government Has Some Weak Men.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—A hot attack on Sir James Whitney by David Henderson, Conservative member for Halton, was the feature of today's sitting of the Commons banking and commerce committee, which was considering the Canada Permanent Mortgage Company bill. Mr. Henderson asked if consent of a company was essential before it could be acquired by another. The Finance Minister said that under the companies act a certain percentage of shareholders must acquiesce before a company could be acquired by another.

"At Toronto," said Mr. Henderson, "they don't do things in the fine copper-plate way you do here. They follow the high-handed method of Sir James Whitney and do business in such a loose way that no one's rights are safe."

In answer to the question, "Do they appropriate?" from Mr. Boyce, the member for Halton exclaimed: "They rob you. It is no use for an individual to fight against the Government authorities."

"Make violation of the act a jail offence," he remarked later. "There are some weak men in the Government at Toronto."

DR. ANDERSON ESTATE WILL HAND $5,000 TO HOSPITAL

Victoria Comes In For a Nice Legacy by Will of Old-Time Physician.

Mayor Graham today had a conference with Mr. R. A. Bayly, solicitor for the estate of the late Dr. Anderson, relative to the transfer to the city of a legacy of $5,000 for Victoria Hospital.

FIRM SIGNED PETITION NAME WAS OMITTED

McMillan-Calder Want More Information on Railway Scheme.

The name of the firm of McMillan-Calder, on Richmond street, was inadvertently omitted from the printed list of names signed to the petition presented to the London and Port Stanley board. The name of the firm was affixed to the petition regularly, but in some manner was omitted when the list was published. The McMillan-Calder Co., in common with 65 other large business houses, wish to have further information before the electrification scheme is submitted to the people.

based its cases. Many of the owners think that the order, stating that autos must not pass a standing car originated with the city council, but this is not the case, as the motor vehicle act passed by the Ontario Legislature contains this clause. The London and Western Motor Club, at its annual meeting, decided to ask the council to amend this legislation, and in the meantime the estate is being wound up. Mr. Bayly notified his worship that he was prepared to make the transfer, and Mayor Graham arranged for it today.

The money will be handed over to the hospital trust, and that body will decide what disposition will be made of it.

Purchase Carling Block and Widen Street Is Scheme For London's New Postoffice

Representatives of Government in City Urged to Adopt Scheme of Beautification of Principal Thoroughfare, Moving Building Line Back—Plan Likely To Be Adopted.

Representatives of the Dominion Government have been in London recently in connection with the sale of the Carling block as a site for the new postoffice to be erected here. They have secured prices and estimates upon the value of the property, and have gone into the matter with a number of prominent citizens as to the best course to be adopted. It is said that sentiment is strongly in favor of the Carling property and that there is every possibility of its purchase.

Frontage of Two Hundred Feet.

The block on Richmond street, between Carling street and Queen's avenue, has a frontage of practically two hundred feet.

The building would include the present Carling or Addison block, now occupied by stores and offices, and it is said to be the plan of the Government to carry into effect a scheme of beautification that will greatly enhance the appearance of London's business district.

Widen Richmond Street.

The plan suggested to representatives of the Government by some of London's leading citizens provides for a new building throughout, and for the extension of the quarters of the service over the whole frontage, with a depth of 141 feet in the new section, and a depth of 129 feet in the old part. It has been advised that the proper plan to pursue would be to move the building line back from the street a distance of from 25 to 40 feet, widening the street, and providing a building that would enrich the frontage from an architectural standpoint, and take an advanced step in bringing about an improvement in the appearance of the business district.

Would Beautify City.

The idea is that a large space should be left in front of the postoffice to be beautified by tasteful landscape gardening, with walks and stairways arranged in such a manner as to form the most imposing public building in London, or at least on a par with the city hall to be built on the Federal Square. A building set off with massive columns, and with a pleasing approach, and with ample space in front, would do a great deal towards changing the aspect of the central part of the city.

Building on the present site and the adjoining property would have the advantage of bringing about a change in the location of many offices and stores. There are half a dozen stores in the Carling block and many offices upstairs. The result would be to give impetus to the erection of new office buildings, and the general improvement to the whole city would be incalculable.

Present Quarters Cramped.

At the present time the employees of the postoffice are cramped to such an extent that it is difficult for them to transact the customary business. When any special rush is on, confusion and delay can scarcely be avoided. This is applicable to all departments of the office.

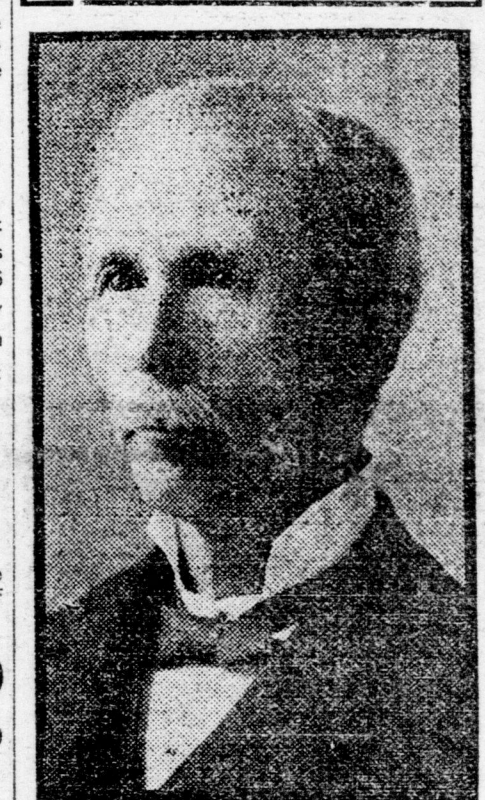

Businessmen have viewed with much favor the proposal to purchase the Carling block, and to go in for a scheme of beautification. The block would give land enough for all offices and afford space for driveways at the rear.

It is said that arrangements are nearing completion for the purchase of the property.

Improve Nearby Buildings.

In connection with the scheme it is said that other institutions in the immediate neighborhood would agree to undertake considerable improvement to their buildings.

A Dentist For Forty Years

LATE DR. L. McDONALD, He Had Practiced in This City Since His Graduation.

PRACTICED IN CITY OVER 40 YEARS

Dr. Lauchlin McDonald Died Last Night After a Ten Days' Illness.

A WELL-KNOWN SCOT

Was a Lover of Clean Sport and a Member of Several Societies—Funeral on Saturday.

Dr. Lauchlin McDonald, a well-known dentist in this city for over 40 years, died at his home, 200 Central avenue, on Thursday evening, following a ten days' illness.

Dr. McDonald, who was in his 73rd year, was born in Port Burwell, and spent his early youth in that village. After receiving his public school education there he attended college in Toronto, and received his degree of D. L. S. After graduating he immediately started to practice in London, and successfully continued until a few days ago.

The doctor will be long remembered as an ardent lover of athletics. He favored all kinds of clean, manly sports, but curling and golf were his favorites, and he was an adept at both of them. Dr. McDonald was one of the outstanding characters at any bonspiel or tankard contest held by the Thistle Club.

A Well-Known Scot.

He was a member of three fraternal societies—the Scottish Clans, St. Andrew's, and the Royal Arcanum. He was an adherent of the First Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Maud. The funeral will be held from his late residence on Saturday afternoon, and interment will take place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Rev. R. Whiting, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will officiate at the services. The funeral is to be private.

COST OF DYING MAY INCREASE AS RESULT OF CASKET MERGER

Seven Companies Get Together and Amalgamate With Capital of $1,500,000—The Globe Casket Co. of London Included in the Deal.

Though the Globe Casket Company of this city still refuses to make any statement in regard to the matter, Toronto business circles have announced that the merger of the Globe Casket Company with the other six casket companies in the city is a fact. The primary object of the amalgamation is to cut down expenses, but, on the other hand, "the cost of dying" will likely be run up through a jump in the prices of caskets.

The casket manufacturers have completed the merger of all their interests into one huge concern, which will have a capitalization of about $1,500,000. The negotiations among the various units have been directed chiefly by A. J. H. Eckhardt, of the National Casket Company, Toronto. The concerns entering the merger are as follows:

National Casket Company, Toronto.

Globe Casket Company, London.

Semmens and Ebel, Hamilton.

Christie Bros., Amherst, N. S.

Gird and Co., Three Rivers, Que.

Elliott & Son, Prescott.

Winnipeg Casket Company, Winnipeg.

With the exception of the Winnipeg Company all details associated with the amalgamation have been completed. The manager of the Winnipeg concern, however, will be in the city this week, when it is expected, any outstanding details in connection with his company will be completed. The organization meeting of the new merger will be held some day next week, when the general manager and other officers will be appointed.

The head office will be located in Toronto, and the merger will operate under a Canadian charter, the official notice of which will shortly appear in the Canada Gazette.

Successful At Last.

For four years efforts have been made to get the casket manufacturers together, but with the exception of this final effort, all previous attempts failed. Within the past year all the manufacturers were asked to submit an option for the sale of their property to an amalgamated company. In time all these were secured, and during the past week were all taken up.

The individual owners or companies were given the privilege of selling out entirely or accepting preference or common stock in the new concern. With one or two exceptions, it is understood, all the original owners have taken out stock, and those who have not done so will retire from the business. At all the above places factories are in operation, and these will, of course, be continued, though under different management—that is, all the concerns will be under one management from the head office, Toronto, though there will be local managers also.

The object of the merger, it is stated, is not necessarily to increase the price of caskets and other funeral paraphernalia, but to cut down overhead charges and eliminate needless competition. It is not expected that for the present, at least, the number of travellers will be reduced, though in time this may be done, it remains to be seen, however, whether or not the new merger will increase the cost of interment.

BOX FACTORY MAY GO TO EAST LONDON

Hon. Adam Beck Is Said To Be Negotiating For a Site.

It has been stated on good authority that Hon. Adam Beck is negotiating for land in the east End for an industrial site, and if a suitable piece of property can be secured will move his box factory away from Albert street and place it in East London. Railway advantages are being sought after by the firm, and it is for this reason that the Beck company desire to locate elsewhere. It is not known whether a site has been purchased or not, although several are reported to have been considered. The Glass property on Hilda street in Port Huron is one of the sites which has been considered with the story.

have been arranged under the main building and entrance is made through a suitable corridor from the tracks northwards. This accommodation contains every convenience and is artificially ventilated. The remainder of the huge basement is occupied by the boiler and coal room and the baggage department. The whole of the north wing is occupied by the baggage department with the exception of an allotment made to the Dominion Express for the carrying on of their extensive business. The exterior of the main building and the retaining wall running along Jasper avenue will consist of reinforced concrete with a certain amount of metal facing to relieve the dullness of the concrete. The wall will be specially treated with carborundum blocks. These will be used for rubbing the surface of the concrete smooth, giving the structure the appearance somewhat of a stone building. It will be in reality a monolithic structure, and its appearance depends a great deal on the manner in which the cement surface is finished by the carborundum blocks. The masonry which is to be erected at the main entrance, will be of cast and wrought iron, with a glass roof and supported on columns, which will stand out to the edge of the sidewalk. The interior of the waiting-room will be finished in Keene's cement, which has a beautiful white surface and is very attractive. It will wash and has the appearance of plaster, but is of a very much harder substance, while the base of the room will be of marble and a terrace floor will also be inserted. The wainscoting will be four feet high, and above this the walls will be finished in plaster and paneling with plaster cornices, and when colored or painted will give a very artistic effect. The front of the ticket office, which are in the waiting room, are also finished in Keene's cement and above the counter notably the iron grilles. There is practically no wood used in the waiting-room except the doors. The designs of the building were executed in the office of the superintendent of building construction at Montreal, and the work is being carried out under the superintendence of the chief engineer's office at Winnipeg.

EDMONTON TO HAVE A NEW STATION

Description of the Depot Now Being Erected by Canadian Pacific Railway.

One of the smaller works of construction which the C. P. R. is carrying out in the West is a new station at Edmonton, which is compulsory owing to the rapid growth of the city. The new station will have entrance both on Jasper avenue and Ninth street, but the main entrance will be on the latter thoroughfare, where a large carriage space has been provided. The tracks are elevated over Jasper avenue, and here a stairway entrance, which leads to the concourse, has been provided. At this point there is a turnstile exit from the tracks. The main entrance is provided with ample space for the posing and standing vehicles, with a sidewalk for foot passengers fourteen feet wide. The entrance from Ninth street into the main building opens directly into the waiting room, which is fifty feet square, and on one side have been conveniently placed the elaborate ticket office. Leading from the main waiting-room is a corridor thirty-four feet long, at the end of which is arranged the baggage room with large counter space conveniently located, and adjoining is the parcel room. On either side of the corridor is a waiting-room for women, and a smoking-room for the men has been provided, each fitted up with complete toilet service. Immigrant quarters

You Should Enjoy Your Meals

One of the Most Important Questions to Consider in the Search for Happiness and Health.

If your stomach cannot digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? The answer is in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach?

You Can Eat With the Appetite of a Lusty Youngster, if You Help Your Stomach.

Science nowadays can digest food without having it enter the stomach at all. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the result of this scientific discovery. They digest and digest thoroughly and well, anything and everything you eat.

The burning question to you is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health you are entitled to?" If not, why not?

No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, you are not going to be "youngster." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or sullen individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you.

So, if your stomach refuses to work or can't work, and you suffer from eruptions, bloat, brash, fermentation, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn, indigestion, or dyspepsia of whatever form, just take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and see the difference. It doesn't cost you much to prove it. Then you can eat all you want, what you want, whenever you want, if you use these tablets, and you can look the whole world in the face with a beaming eye and you will have a cheerful spirit, a pleasant face, a vigorous body and a clear mind and memory and everything will look and taste delicious to you. That's life.

Get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Husband Kills Wife and Self Rather Than Be Separated.

Paris, Jan. 30.—A double tragedy was occasioned here during the night by a doctor's order that a man and wife would have to be separated owing to the woman suffering from an incurable spinal disease.

The sick woman, Mme. Paul Carriere, the wife of a workman in poor circumstances, was laid last night by her doctor, after he had consulted some specialists, that she must be taken to a public hospital. Her husband then sent their son, aged 17, to stay over night with an uncle. The boy left his father and mother distracted with grief at their coming separation. She expressed the wish to die rather than be sent away from her husband.

This morning both were found dead in their home, the woman strangled, it is supposed by her husband, and the man hanging dead from a hook behind the door.

'13 LUCKY IN HISTORY

Many Great Events Have Occurred in This Year.

Paris, Jan. 31.—With the commencement of 1913, our prophesies regarding this year are being realized. The one regarding the end of the German Empire, which has already been cited.

One of the French papers has gone a step further and brought to the notice of this year's history. The results of this search are interesting. In the year 313 the edict of Milan was promulgated, officially authorizing the Christian religion. In the year 1492 the first excursion beyond the Pyrenees, while in 1812 the Bulgarians took Adrianople. Perhaps they will repeat in 1913.

Lyons was reunited to France in 1413, while one century later the French were defeated by the Swiss in Novara and thus driven from Italy. The Romanoffs, the ruling house in Russia, came to the throne in 1813, while in 1913 the peace of Utrecht was signed. England has occupied Gibraltar since that date. Finally, 1813 was the year of Napoleon's great victories in Prussia and his more glorious defeats.

VICE AT NEW YORK

Investigator Says Individual Police Share in the Grafting.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Jan. 30.—With his evidence reduced to the matter of fact form of a card index, Samuel H. London, formerly prosecuting attorney of El Paso, Texas, who said he was semi-officially connected with the department of justice at Washington, has laid before the aldermanic committee, which is investigating police conditions here, the result of his seven years' study of white slavery traffic. He called New York the capital of commercialized vice, and said that with the assistance of fourteen agents placed at his disposal by the Government, he had carried on investigations "from Fairbanks in Alaska to the canal zone." He declared that his census in New York revealed that there were 6,100 men profiting from commercialized vice in which 26,000 women were involved. He charged that the police often aided the traffickers, but he believed that only individual policemen were concerned in the business, and doubted that the number of these officers would exceed 100 out of 10,000 men on the force.

CONDUCTOR JAILED

Sentenced to a Month for Leaving a Train on the Main Line.

[Canadian Press.]
Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 30.—Andrew Methven, of Mimico, the Grand Trunk conductor, who left a freight train, of which he was in charge, standing on the main line in the Stuart street yards after completing his run, instead of waiting to see that it was shunted to a side track, got a month in jail today. Magistrate Jelfs told him that he was a "stupid fellow."

"I Hear Now Deafness All Gone"

Am Ticked to Death at the Miracle Catarrhzone Performed For Me.

At Seventy-Five Can Hear Like a Young Child.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Jan. 30.—"After suffering so long from a bad case of catarrhal deafness, it is no wonder that I am tickled to death at the miracle Catarrhzone performed for me," writes T. Y. Weightman, from Bridgetown. "I had dreadful head-noises, a continual buzzing in my ears. My trouble was due to catarrh of the head and ears, and it also affected my throat, which was irritable and sore. Catarrhzone seemed to reach to the very bottom of the trouble. It cleared up my throat weakness, rid me of catarrh, and as a result my hearing returned. Now at my age of seventy-five I can hear like a child, and I am thankful to Collins' drug store for having recommended Catarrhzone to me."

In case of deafness, asthma and bronchial irritation, nothing can equal Catarrhzone—every physician and druggist says so, and we advise our readers to try this treatment, large size containing a beautifully polished hard rubber inhaler and sufficient medication for two months' use, price $1; smaller trial sizes 50c and 25c. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers or postpaid from The Catarrhzone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

DUROCHER SURRENDERS

Warrant Charges Him With Ballot-Stuffing at the Capital.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 30.—Joseph F. Durocher, a civil servant, son of ex-Mayor Durocher, against whom a warrant was issued yesterday on a charge of ballot-box stuffing in the recent mayoralty election, surrendered to the police this morning. He appeared in the police court and was remanded until Wednesday next, without pleading. Six men, known as "repeaters," that he having voted for aldermanic candidates in more than one ward in a municipal election, were summoned to answer charges of voting more than once for mayor. Four appeared and were remanded, and a bench warrant issued for the fifth man.

WIVES "BATCHING IT"

Married Couples Living Separately in Order to Establish Land Claims.

[Canadian Press.]
Edmonton, Jan. 30.—Instances of man and wife living separated on isolated homesteads in the Peace River country in order that they may establish a claim to more land than would be possible if they remained together, are told by Rev. A. Forbes, Presbyterian missionary at Grand Prairie, who is here on his annual visit. Many of the settlers have the land hunger in an acute form, he said, and in their anxiety to possess themselves

LONDON, FRIDAY, JAN. 31.

ANOTHER BRITISH PROTEST.

Opposition to the Borden naval expenditure comes from a new but not unexpected quarter. The British Labor party, at its annual conference, protests against a "gift" of three battleships which "greatly adds to our annual expenditure." The same objection is urged by the most influential portion of the British Liberal press. It is shared perhaps by the majority of the British Liberal members of Parliament, but Canadian Liberals will admit that it would be impolitic for the British Government and House of Commons to look askance at any plan approved by the Canadian House of Commons. On the facts of the case, the Labor party is perfectly right. The First Lord of the Admiralty told the House that the money granted him would provide all the Dreadnoughts necessary. The Canadian Government proposes to trust the expense of three additional Dreadnoughts upon the British taxpayers. If the three ships are not superfluous, the First Lord of the Admiralty deceived the British Parliament.

The battle, however, must be fought out in Canada, not in Great Britain. The advocates of the servile policy of tribute try to obscure the real issue by false appeals to Imperial sentiment, but the question goes right to the roots of Canadian self-government. This is implied in the suggestion of some of Mr. Borden's supporters that his "permanent" policy will be the creation of a Canadian navy, but his speech in the House affords no such hope—quite the contrary. He now regrets the Canadian navy idea as expressed as he advocated it in 1909. It is a classic example of political opportunism, and must cost Mr. Borden the confidence of honest Canadians not blinded by party devotion. But more important than the Prime Minister's sacrifice of personal principle, and reversal of a particular policy, is the reversal of a principle which lies at the basis of British freedom and the unity of the British Empire. The policy of contributions has been abandoned by Australia. It will not be tolerated in Canada when the national self-respect is fully awakened. Mr. Borden may flout it for the present, but it will revenge itself if he persists.

MR. BECK AND THE GRAND TRUNK

Our local contemporary tries to explain away Mr. Beck's recent confession that he had lobbied members of the City Council against the Grand Trunk's plans for track elevation seven years ago.

Police Magistrate Judd, who was mayor at the time, is dragged in to the extent of two columns, but it is not easy to disentangle Mr. Judd's own statements from those interpolated by the Free Press itself. He will scarcely think that journal for involving him in contradictions by putting words into his mouth. He says he was not even spoken to by Mr. Beck during the negotiations with the Grand Trunk, and then is apparently made to say that Mr. Beck did interfere, though only after the Council had refused the company's offer to elevate its tracks through the city, and when the company asked permission to raise its tracks from Ridout street westward only. To quote the Free Press:

"Up to this time none of the aldermen had heard any suggestion from Mr. Beck, and it is admitted that Mr. Beck's alleged interference did not occur until the negotiations as to the portion of the work from Ridout street westward had been undertaken."

Admitted by whom? As Mr. Judd says he was not spoken to by Mr. Beck, he is not in a position to say at what stage of the negotiations Mr. Beck took a hand. Commenting on the matter the Free Press says editorially: "Mr. Judd completely vindicates Mr. Beck, and shows that, so far from interfering to prevent track elevation, had Mr. Beck's advice been accepted track elevation was inevitable. Mr. Beck's counsel, if he gave any at all, and Mr. Judd says he did not speak to him at any time, was not accepted, and the Grand Trunk secured certain privileges through South London, which solved their difficulties, upon which they determined to wait their own good time before completing elevation." Mr. Judd, of course, disputes the contention that the rights given the company through South London were of greater benefit to them than grades west of the Cove bridge would have been. But that is another matter.

This is confusion worse confounded. Between what the Free Press itself says, and what it says Mr. Judd says, we get the following conclusions:

1. Mr. Judd says he never received any advice from Mr. Beck.

2. Mr. Judd shows that "had Mr. Beck's advice been accepted track elevation was inevitable."

3. It is doubtful whether Mr. Beck gave any advice at all.

And this is Mr. Beck's vindication! As one whose business it is to weigh evidence, Mr. Judd must laugh at the claim. He is not responsible for this hodge-podge. The Free Press by mixing its own comments with Mr. Judd's interview has tried to put the police magistrate in the role of a special pleader for Mr. Beck, and has bungled the job. As Mr. Judd says he knows nothing of Mr. Beck's interference, who are the aldermen whom Mr. Beck confesses he lobbied?

AN EXTRAORDINARY BY-ELECTION.

The by-election in Londonderry, which has been won by the Nationalists, presented some serio-comic features. In no constituency in Ireland have party lines followed religious lines so closely, or the electors been divided so evenly between Protestants and Catholics. In the past twenty years the Unionists have won the seat four times (once by acclamation), and the Nationalists twice, not including the present election. The highest majority in any contested election was 105, given in December, 1910, to the Marquis of Hamilton, Unionist. As the present register showed 2,744 Protestants and 2,718 Catholics, every elector has been under the vigilant scrutiny, and a strong element of humor has been injected into the contest by the extraordinary concern for the health of the voters shown by the party managers and statisticians. Each side has been counting the number of sick, and has groaned in spirit whenever a voter of its own stripe has been laid in a sick-bed, or in the cemetery. The announcement of the death of two Unionists on the eve of the polling was telegraphed all over the United Kingdom, as though it might profoundly affect the destinies of the nation. Never before has the health of a British city been the object of so much concern. If the solicitude were permanent, the mortality rate in Londonderry would be a shining example. To be ill was almost a privilege for the average man for weeks before the voting. Such flattering attentions he had never received before.

The fact that 5,341 votes were polled in a total roll of 5,462, would arouse a suspicion, but for the rigor of British election laws, that some of the deceased voters marked their ballots. Seeing that there were scores of non-residents on the list, the total poll is proof of the energy of the party machines, and the political zeal of the city, which fired even the sick and the infirm, who were taken to the polls in ambulances.

The contest aroused a fierce interest everywhere in the kingdom because of its coincidence with the passing of the home rule bill by the Commons and its bearing upon the situation in Ulster. The result, giving the Nationalists 17 Ulster seats, against 16 for the Unionists, is a hard blow at the Carson propaganda. The Nationalists showed prudence in nominating a Presbyterian, thus blunting the edge of the religious conflict. The handful of Protestant home rulers seems to have decided the election.

Most Canadians would prefer to see this open winter closed.

The latest siege of Derry will not figure in 12th of July celebrations.

The Turks have agreed to the surrender of Adrianople, excepting the Moslem shrines. Pious to the last.

Major Beattie is returning home for a few days. Perhaps he will make the overdue explanation of his share in the dismissal of Dr. Campbell.

The rejection of the third home rule bill by the House of Lords creates not a ripple of excitement. As the upper chamber has lost its teeth, no one fears its bark.

Ontario apple-growers are discussing plans to give the consumers cheaper apples without lowering the profits of producers. They were told in the last election that it couldn't be done, but it can. The removal of obstructions, tariff or otherwise, between the apple-grower and the apple-eater, will achieve it.

More trouble for Mr. Crothers. If the Farmers' Bank victims are recouped by Parliament the International Bank losers will have the same moral claim. But perhaps moral claims don't count for as much with the Minister of Labor as political claims. Farmers' Bank victims say they have both a moral and political claim for reimbursement, but Mr. Crothers has as yet shown no disposition to recognize either. He would like to forget his Middlesex and Elgin speeches.

CANADIAN AUTOMOBILES.

[Canadian Courier.] Experts in automobile statistics tell us that of the 50,000 motor cars in use in Canada 40,000 have been imported from the United States. For these Canada has paid the manufacturers of that country eighty millions of dollars, besides twenty millions in duty.

These figures, if accurate, indicate a great future for the Canadian automobile industry, if the manufacturer is alive to his opportunities.

EFFICIENT.

[Harpur Magazine.] The train robber suddenly appeared as many of the passengers were preparing to retire for the night. "Come, shell out!" he demanded, as he stood towering above an eastern clergyman who had just finished a devout prayer.

The minister looked at him sadly for a moment, then said:

"If I had such energetic fellows as you to pass the plate now and then, I might have something to give you."

HE SAW THE POINT.

Mr. Lloyd George, after reading the fine array of epigrams showered on him at the meeting of protest organized by the doctors at the Queen's Hall, might find consolation in a passage of one of Paul Louis Courier's pamphlets. "I should like to reply to this professor, but I fear he is angry with me. He calls me a Jacobin, a revolutionary, a plagiarist, a thief, a pisoner, a forger, a pestiferous person, a madman, an impostor, a slanderer, a scarecrow, a man of corruptio, a puffoon, and a raker in dustheaps. That is all, so far as I remember. I follow his meaning, he has discovered that he and I hold contrary opinions, and this is his way of telling me so."

TORONTO'S MILLION.

[Kingston Standard.] The Toronto Board of Trade is nothing if not ambitious. The plans that it is laying at present are formulated on the sincere belief that Toronto, in the not distant future will have a million population. Let us hope that this will prove to be so, for the growth of any section of Ontario must favorably influence the growth of all sections.

BATTLE OF WITS.

[Boston Transcript.] "Doctor, isn't your bill rather high?" "You must remember, sir, that you had a high fever." "True; but you said that my condition was very low."

"Ah, yes, of course. But, you see, my charges are based not upon the state of the patient, but upon the character of the disease."

MIDWINTER DAISIES.

[Chesley Enterprise.] On Friday, Jan. 17, 1913, don't forget the date—Mrs. J. Owens, of this town, plucked a bunch of daisies in full bloom, growing in the garden at her home, and sent half a dozen down to the city, where the world might know of the mild weather in midwinter in this part of old Ontario.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER.

[Bramford Express.] The inactivity of Hon. James Duff as a minister of agriculture for Ontario is called to notice by the Weekly Sun. However, Hon. James would scarcely be otherwise as a member of the Whitney cabinet.

HITS THE "LOILISTS."

[Stratford Beacon.] Earl Grey declared that he believes reciprocity would be good for both Canada and the Empire has been a sore blow to the politician trading on his loyalty. He realizes that with Grey against him he may not be able to work his game so successfully as he was wont.

A SAMPLE OF "HIGH FINANCE."

[Hamilton Herald.] In view of the grave charges made by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux in parliament in relation to the organization of La Banque Internationale, it is hard to see how the Government can evade its duty in the matter. Its duty clearly is to appoint a royal commission to investigate this apparent financial scandal. Although the failure of a banking institution is not involved, there appears to have been some resemblance between the methods employed in floating this "international" bank to carry on business in Canada, and the methods employed in floating the late lamented Farmers' Bank. At any rate, many French people, trusting to the soundness of Canadian banking laws, invested their money in the enterprise, only to discover to their cost a little later on that they had misplaced their confidence. For the good reputation of Canada in European financial and commercial circles, it would be well to have an investigation of this sample of "high finance" investigated by a judicial commission.

WEAK LINK IN THE CHAIN.

[Toronto Star.] Everybody seems to agree that there is too much concentration of money except the entirely affable and obliging concentrators.

A QUIET CALLOPE.

[Toronto News.] The Chicago Tribune says that Robert Service is a John L. Sullivan of poets. "He strikes his harp and it reverberates like a callope." And yet, Service is a quiet, modest sort of chap, except in his adjectives. And his signature, as reproduced in the press, is of a blonked lady-like that one would imagine the writer to be a Tea Service.

WHY MEN WORRY.

[Galveston News.] Another thing—if we let the women vote next year, how long will it be before they won't let us vote?

ENGAGED.

[Boston Advertiser.] "He's my ideal and I'm his idol," said the girl. "And your love affair?" "Is an idyl." "And your fiancé?" "Papa says he is idle."

ALWAYS THE WAY.

[Chicago Record-Herald.] "This, madam," said the ladies' tailor, producing the new fashion-plate, "is the very latest Paris creation." "Oh," she exclaimed with an ecstasy that she made no effort to conceal, "how delightfully ugly and awkward!"

A MODERN LINER.

[Pittsburgh Post.] "How are you going to amuse yourself this afternoon?" asked the first passenger.

Robert Service's American Rival

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

Robert Service, Canada's poet laureate, has an American competitor in Everard Jack Appleton, author of "The Quiet Courage, and Other Songs of the Unafraid" (Stewart & Kidd, Cincinnati). I like that sub-title, with its courageous note. It is a fitting epithet for all those poets who are scaled of the tribe of Kipling, and who hang their lyres with joyous abandon. Poet Appleton expresses his courageous philosophy in this four-line poem:

I have no fear. What is in store for me
I shall find me ready for it, undimmed.
God grant my only cowardice may be Afraid to be afraid!

From a man with a faith like this we naturally expect what he calls "man verse"; we look for poems which are full of the joy of battle, for instance, such realistic lines as these, descriptive of the "Fighting Failure":

And cheering with those that cheer success, he enters against the fray, Licking the blood and the dust from his lips, wiping the sweat from his eyes.

He does the work he is set to do—and "therein honor lies."
Brave they were, these men he cheered
—their is the winners' thrill;
His fight is lost—and he knows it is lost—and yet he is fighting still.

We are strongly reminded of Kipling's famous story, "With the Night Mail," in Mr. Appleton's poem, "The Driver." As he says, a Kipling:

This is the song of the man who drives his 'plane through the silent night,
Whose fear is dead, whose fate is sealed, ere ever he starts his flight!

The vigorous quality of this aeroplane ballad may be gathered from the following stanza:

There's the Night Mail's hum above me, and the French Express below, (O, you get to know the tunes they sing while learnin' how to drive!)

There's a wrecking storm ahead of us—
—my indicators show—
And there's going to be some trouble in Strata Number Five!

But Mr. Appleton is not always humming through the air or sweating in the front line of battle, for he likes to sing of Amoryllis, whose perfect lips are like the poppies red, "So like the misty dawn her filmy hair." Right glad I am to find that Mr. Appleton's poems of passion are not the least bit erotic. In fact, he writes a kind of love poetry that I heartily admire. One lyric is such a fine tribute to womanhood that I quote the whole of it:

And I Have You,
If you had never come into my life—
Had never let me look into your eyes,
Reading therein the hope that never dies,
But glows resplendent through all bitter days.

Then I had never known what Faith can do—
Had I not you!

If you had never walked close by my side,
And with those wondrous eyes, seen in my breast
The tiny flame that I had never guessed,
Burned there, what little good I do,
Had died.

You had such faith, you faltered not.
You knew—
And I—had you!

If you had never shown me life is just Living this day today—not far ahead;
That love is best, when all is done
and said,
Then would I still be trudging through the dust.

Lifting your own pure soul, you lift
me, too,
While I—have you!

Honorable mention  should also be made of Mr. Appleton's group of child poems. He is able to imitate successfully the juvenile patois, and such poems as "Minding Baby" and "The New Overcoat," and "The Little Fellow," are delightful pieces of verse. On the whole, Mr. Appleton is to be congratulated on his volume. It is full of originally and every poem is interesting.

Ivanhoe.

You want to make good and don't know how to do it?
That's rather a commonplace cry.
The main thing is just to get out and go to it,
Not sit around idly and sigh.
You'll never get far in the game, as I view it,
Unless you get busy—and try!

You want to be WELL—you are weary of ailing,
The world is all going awry?
The best sort of cure for that manner of failing
Is plenty of sunshine—and sky!
You want to be well—then forget all your wailing;
Just go and get busy—and try!

You're wanting a girl since the day that you met her?
The same simple rule will apply.
Indifference, some people say, is much better?
Well, I think that some people lie!
The manner of getting a wife is to get her;
Just cut out the dreaming—and try!

LONDON DEPUTATION SURE OF GOOD GRANT FOR FAIR

Secretary Hunt Says It Will Be a Substantial One, and the Impression Prevails That It Will Be Made an Annual Affair—Hon. Mr. Duff Gives His Promise.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Jan. 30.—The London deputation asking that the Government make a grant to the Western Fair, was favorably received today by Hon. James Duff, minister of agriculture, who promised that financial aid would be forthcoming. Mr. Duff said that he was not in a position to say just how much the grant will be yet, but he admitted that the Western Fair was all that the deputation urged and is doing a good work particularly along agricultural lines.

The deputation was introduced by Hon. Adam Beck and consisted of Mayor Graham, Mr. W. J. Reid, president, and Mr. A. M. Hunt, secretary of the Western Fair Association, also Mr. Wm. McNeil and W. W. Gammage, directors.

Secretary Hunt read a memorial pointing out that the London Fair was an outgrowth of the East Middlesex Fair, which was organized in 1868. Apart from a grant of $10,000 received many years ago it had always been a self-supporting enterprise. It was distinctly an agricultural exhibition with every attention given to live stock and farming interests. Recently a deputation had gone to Ottawa and interviewed Hon. Martin Burrell, federal minister of agriculture, who said he would be glad to acquiesce in any disposition Mr. Duff made of the federal grant towards helping London.

Mr. Reid followed, stating that the equipment at London was in need of repairs and additional buildings were necessary if the exhibition was to keep pace with the increase of patronage. Despite lack of Governmental assistance the prize list had been kept up, and results were always reported to be satisfactory from the exhibitors. If breeders were to continue their interest the prize list would have to be augmented by $2,000.

In asking for help there was no desire to shirk their own responsibility, said Mayor Graham, but they sought to broaden the work of the fair. From an agricultural standpoint the educational work of the London Fair was really part and parcel of the work of the department.

Mr. Gammage said Western Ontario was progressing rapidly as a fruit and flower growing country, and British Columbia was even sending exhibits into the country. Mr. McNeil declared that London was not "spoiled," like Toronto.

Londoners Are Hopeful.

That the Western Fair will receive a substantial increase in the annual grant from the Provincial Government was the opinion of the members of the deputation from the board, who went to Toronto yesterday to interview Hon. James Duff, minister of agriculture, and present the claims of London's great fair. They returned well satisfied with the result of their visit.

"We are going to get a good, substantial grant," declared Secretary Hunt. "Hon. Mr. Duff promised that such would be the case, and the impression prevails that it will be an annual thing, putting the fair on a sound and permanent basis. We were well received, and we came back delighted with the results of our visit."

In addition to the delegates mentioned above, Ald. J. H. Saunders, sec-

SKIRT AND TRAIN

Whatever may be said of the up-to-date skirt from a hygienic standpoint, grace is the last thing that can be claimed for it. We have sacrificed grace to cleanliness and health, and that most properly. None but a foolish woman could think otherwise. I doubt if even a foolish woman would willingly return to the long skirt for outdoor wear or for ordinary morning wear about the house. The short walking skirt is one of the most important of modern inventions and to renounce it would be to return to the Dark Ages! But the house dress for afternoon and evening wear is different. One cannot but mourn that the short skirt has here also created a revolution. There is no denying that the long softly clinging gown with its train gave a grace and a feminine charm that is entirely absent from the short skirted gown. Women who once looked tall and slender and graceful have now the appearance of having deducted a cubit—more or less—from their statures, and there is undoubtedly a consequent broadening of the figure which is entirely chargeable to the short skirt. Many women, even elderly women—if such there be in these days—have become so enamored of the comfort and convenience of the short skirt that they have not only afternoon house gowns but reception and even dinner gowns made trainless, and clearing the floor! It is true that some of the newest gowns are supposed to have the train. But can you call a train, a pointed piece of silk or crepe de chene, or chiffon, that starts out sharply from the hem of a gown and that darts spasmodically this way and that as the wearer walks? By no means! I was much struck with the lack of grace in the gowns worn by a number of women at a dinner

For the Brown-Eyed Slim Girl

Only a thin girl can wear this tailored suit, which is a design of Doucet's. It is of the new shade of blue rough silk. The skirt is narrow and caught up on one side much after the manner of a riding skirt. The coat is made with a full waist and wide belt. Upon this is sewed a deeply pleated peplum, which reaches to below the knees in the back and is rounded in a cut-away fashion in the front. The coat is lined with a darker blue silk than the outside. Dark linings are the fashion fancy of the moment. About the throat is the very latest neck piece; a wide turn-over collar of heavy blue uncut velvet embroidered at the ends and fastened with broad ties of Oriental crepe in brilliant colors. The simple hat is of black "hemp" trimmed with a black bird of paradise feather. If you are tall and slender, with brown eyes, this dress is for you.

Seven Places to Wear a Watch Where Do You Wear Yours?

[By Cynthia Grey.]

You probably have noticed that the women who wear watches pinned on their breasts are just now hopelessly in the minority and out of date.

Madame Society Matron carries hers in the gold locket with which she puts Mrs. Climber in her place by raising it to her eyes when she wants to snub her. When she is shopping she may wear the watch bracelet which bids fair to be as popular as was the breast pin watch. If she is very up to date, however, she has a watch set in her cigarette case.

The daughter of the woman who wears her watch in a cigarette case is very apt to go mother one better and plant her watch on the toe of her dainty slipper, and I have seen two or three lately that are to be placed amid the shining jewels of a fanciful garter buckle. When I remarked to the sales woman that these would be "as handy as a pocket in a shirt," I was informed that they were to be worn with the evening dresses that were split up at the side.

Even the young men have decided that watches in the waistcoat pockets as father used to wear his, are much too slow for them, and they have adopted bracelet watches. They wear them, however, in leather bracelets, not having quite nerve enough yet to add the fanciful gold decorations with which sister beauties hers.

Quite a number of young women are also wearing their watches in anklets. This is rather a chic idea if one has a dainty ankle and can afford silken hose of the finest quality. Watches in vanity cases and shopping bags are so numerous that people have ceased to remark it.

You can wear your watch any old place provided that you make it conspicuously individual. But don't think of wearing it on a chain and tucked away in a watch pocket as grandmother did or even pinned to your breast as mother seemed to think was the right way to carry her timepiece.

COMMENT

By "The Nomad."

Is it not curious how quite ordinary things or everyday happenings frequently recall most vividly personal experiences of the past. How some of our fondest memories and most intimate recollections rush unbidden to our minds at the sight or sound of something that to other folks is extremely commonplace and uninteresting.

For instance, I read the other day of an old woman who "couldn't abide blue" because when a child a schoolmaster who wore a bright blue cravat had whipped her unjustly. Again, there is the enthusiastic little bride who "just loves cigar smoke," for the first time she saw John he was smoking such a nice-smelling one. In fact, in many ways are we brought in touch with this, shall I call it, phenomenon? The voices of children, a whiff of perfume, the sound of distant music, the stirring of the wind in the trees, any of these at times sufficient to awaken memories that we had thought vanished and forgotten.

It was just today while walking on Dundas street I noticed several piles of lumber standing ready for use on a new building. Ordinary, prosaic boards they were, and yet it needed but a whiff of the scented hemlock to reverse Father Time's clock, and whirl me back two years, to a sunny spot at the end of a lumber dock along Lake Huron's shores. At the foot of a huge pile of lumber two day-dreaming girls sat in contented idleness, taking in great breaths of the pine-scented air, while at their feet the sun-flecked waters ripple past, and far out over the blue, white-winged gulls soar as if in rivalry of the glistening sails scattered over the bay.

Happy memory of happy vacation! And all conjured in the twinkling of an eye by the magic of the fragrant boards. What a pity the pleasing picture could not last longer. If I pass that way tomorrow will the cherished recollection return as vividly, or shall I merely see in the wholesome looking lumber so many feet of a building commodity necessary in the construction of a very commonplace factory? Who shall say?

A tablet in memory of Mrs. Isidor Straus and of the devotion which led her to stay by her husband's side when the Titanic sank was unveiled at the Home of the Daughters of Jacob last week in New York in the presence of a large number of prominent Jewish citizens. The tablet bears the head of Mrs. Straus in relief and describes her life as beautiful and her death glorious. Mrs. Straus died heroically by the side of her husband, refusing to leave him. At the time of the Titanic disaster, however, more was written about some of the wealthy nobles who escaped because of their sex than of the example set by this unselfish woman. So the world was.

A member of the local W. C. T. U. in answer to the question, "What would become of the babies when women had votes?" gave a clever reply in verse to the effect that "They'd leave them where they left them when they went to pay the taxes."

This raises the question in our mind where do the women who have to "go out washing" leave their babies? Do they take 'em with them, or does the fond husband and father stay at home to mind the little ones?

Problems of the Fair Sex Solved by Cynthia Grey

Fashion Hints for Mary.

Dear Miss Grey: Having been a constant reader of The Advertiser for four years, and have never bothered you with any questions before, so I thought I would write and ask you to help me:

1. I have a new pair of black suede shoes. I wore them to a party the other night and got the toe cape much wax. Could you possibly tell me of anything that would clean them?

2. Could you tell me what will be the fashionable color for spring?

3. Are shirtwaist skirts going to be fashionable this summer?

4. Are the Robespierre collars as fashionable as ever?

5. Was thinking of getting a brown satin dress; what do you think would be pretty to trim it with?

Hope to see this in print at your earliest convenience. MARY.

A.—1. Place the shoes near a steady heat for an hour or so, and as the wax softens carefully remove what you can with a blunt knife. To remove the final stains, try rubbing well with a clean rag dipped in benzine and polish with a soft cloth.

2. Tones of blue, tan, prune and violet, with threads of another color, will be very popular.

3. Yes, especially in the one-piece wash dresses. In the separate skirts, though, the waistline will not be as high as last season, being but slightly raised above normal.

4. Yes.

5. Venise banding, or any of the fancy-colored galloons should go nicely with the satin.

Do not wait for another four years before calling on the column. Come as often as you like, whenever we can be of any service to you.

Sends Complexion Beautifier. Dear Miss Grey: I have been an interested reader of your answers for a long time, and I am coming forward for the first time to offer and to ask a little help. I want to ask "Ugly Duckling" to try my cure for a mucky complexion. I am forty, but my complexion is often the envy of women much younger. I keep it clear by eating freely once a day of raw Spanish onions. This I have proved many times in my own case. Now please, Miss Grey, do you know of any set of exercises, or any other remedy that will reduce a too prominent abdomen? Hoping I have not made my letter too long, and that you can help me, I am, yours truly, MARY.

A.—I have heard that professional beauty doctors sometimes recommend the eating of onions for the complexion, but this is the first time I have met with anyone actually doing it. Your hint is cheerfully passed on to the readers of this column.

You might try this exercise. Do not keep it up too long for the first few practices, as it is rather strenuous. Bend the body forward from the waist, then move it to the right, back, and left, before straightening it. Reverse the direction and sideways to the left. You should not raise the trunk to an erect position until the end of each set. A good time to practice this exercise is half an hour before breakfast and just before going to bed in the evening.

The kimono sleeve is still in evidence, but the kimono portion is set on to the drooping or extended shoulder and brought down into fitted form.

What the Baby Knows

[Copyright.] Nobody knows how to form a habit better than the baby. As soon as the nurse holds out the little soft warm blanket to receive her precious charge from the doctor's hands, at that moment the baby's "horoscope" should be cast, so to speak, by making a timetable to fulfill the requirements of sleep and nourishment.

If the birth has happened say at 10 p.m., and the baby is given to the nurse a few minutes later, then those who are caring for the mother will have made her thoroughly comfortable by the time that the baby has been bathed and dressed in its first clothes ready for the mother to see it. If the mother has in the mean while had a little rest, and been able to take a cup of tea or some other simple nourishment, then the baby may be placed at the breast for a few moments, just to get the habit. It will nurse instinctively and almost at once. But if the duty is deferred till the next day, the baby, having smacked its lips in vain, has lost the first keen instinct for nursing. On the other hand, if it is allowed to nurse a few minutes, everything begins auspiciously. The baby may now sleep if possible, until about 6 a.m. The mother has a good night, and the baby has already begun to form a second habit—that of going without nursing from about 12 midnight to 6 a.m., a great comfort to everybody. For a baby forms habits almost instantaneously as everyone knows who has ONCE walked the floor, or taken to constant rocking, with the well-meant intention of soothing the crying infant. The baby has a great power of habit-forming.

USEFUL RECIPES

Apple Roly Poly.

One and one-half cups flour, add pinch salt, one level teaspoonful soda, and two rounding teaspoonfuls cream tartar. Stir and mix in thoroughly with hands one tablespoonful cold lard. Mix with cold water and roll thin. Three large apples chopped fine spread on crust, sprinkle with three tablespoonfuls sugar and a little cinnamon. Roll up like jelly roll. Put in a well-buttered, round pan (large size), spread on top one-half cupful sugar, one tablespoonful butter and a little cinnamon and pour on enough boiling water to well cover crust. Bake until a rich brown. Serve hot.

Stuffed Potatoes.

Bake potatoes of equal size; when done and still hot, cut the potatoes in two, scoop out the inside, work very smooth, and to each four good-sized potatoes allow two tablespoonfuls of cream, salt and pepper to taste. Put the mixture in a saucepan, stir over the fire until hot, and if not soft, add more cream or milk. Remove from the fire, stir in one egg beaten light, without separating. Fill the shells and broil in a quick oven. One tablespoonful of grated cheese can be added to the mixture if desired.

Figs for Dessert.

Figs cooked tender in boiling water, with a little sugar added at the last of the cooking, are good cold with cream. The figs with the addition of white, orange or lemon jelly, cut in cubes and whipped cream, make an elaborate dessert dish.

Amsterdam Steak.

One pound lean beef chopped fine, three thin slices of bacon chopped fine and seasoned with salt, pepper and a few drops of onion juice. Shape the meat into small round cakes and brown in a hot, greased frying pan. Garnish with parsley and serve.

DILGER PRIZE
WON BY ALLENLondon Club Weekly Bonspiel
Last Evening Was Big Success, Despite the Fact That Ice Surface Was Sloppy.

Food Allen's rink captured the Dilger prizes at the London Club bonspiel yesterday. Skip Allen's men owe their victory to the fact that they were able to leave their stones from one end of the rink to the other, despite the fact that so much of the ice surface was covered by a thin layer of water. Some of the other rinks found it a difficult proposition to get a stone over the hog line.

The conditions, however, did not lessen the enthusiasm of the players one whit, and it was a merry crowd that participated in the games. Play started about 4:30 in the afternoon, and supper was served shortly after 6 o'clock. The ice grew worse toward the close, but the curlers were in great shape, and were undaunted by the moisture. Skip Allen won with a score of plus 14, while his team was closely crowded by Norton, whose rink had a plus score of 10 points. Skip Terry carried off the booby prizes with a score of minus 8.

The scores were as follows:
Dr. Hawkins, P. McKay, Coombs and A. N. Allen, skip, 14 plus.
Ashplant, Currie, White and N. Wanless, skip, 11 plus.
Walker, Livingston, Highway and Dr. Wright, skip, 10 plus.
Anderson, Lawrie, Willgoose and McKay, skip, 8 plus.
Ferguson, Boyle, Copeland and Backus, skip, 5 plus.
McLeod, Wanless and Cox, skip, 4 plus.
Tollie, Wyckoff, Shaw and Treblecock, skip, 4 minus.
P. Jackson, Mills, Sanders and Strong, skip, 2 minus.
Johnson, Patrick, P. Smith and Nicholson, skip, 2 minus.

STRATFORD JUNIORS
WON IN OVERTIME

Defeated Seaford on Seaford Ice by Close Score of Seven to Six.
Seaford, Jan. 30.—Stratford continued their winning streak tonight, when they defeated the locals by 7 to 6 in ten minutes overtime in a Junior O. H. A. game. The ice was in bad condition, and as a result poor hockey was in evidence, which stood them in good stead. There was not much difference. Stratford scored one in the first five minutes of the overtime, while the locals failed to score, and there was no score in the second overtime period.
The line-up:
Stratford—Goal, Roffey; point, Lynch; cover, Burdette; rover, Viclan; centre, Lavelle; left, Boles; right, Todd.
Referee—A. Kinder, of Preston.

Still Another Firm to Manufacture Knights.

The Edwards Motor Car Company of New York is now added to the list of firms using the Knight Motor in the United States.

The recent successes and triumphs of the Knight Motor in the United States, Canada and on the continent, have led this firm to undertake the manufacture of a Knight four-cylinder, Model 25. On the single chassis six body styles are mounted.

Many new and exclusive features, developed specially for Knight. Engines, find a place in this new Knight type motor. A starter of the flywheel type has also been installed.

It is interesting to note here that so many firms have desired to obtain the license for the manufacture and sale of the Knight Motor, that Mr. Knight is making arrangements whereby the use and manufacture of the Knight Motor will be broadened far beyond the original intentions of the owners of the Knight patent.

The adoption by this American firm is especially interesting and goes to show that non-poppet valve systems other than the Knight are being taken up very slowly.

HYMAN TEAM MAY ENTER
INTER-CITY BASEBALL LEAGUEWill Play Independent of Local Leagues This Coming Season.

The Hyman baseball team, winners of the City League championship last season, will turn semi-professional this coming season and endeavor to arrange an inter-city series with Woodstock, Strathroy and probably St. Thomas teams.

The Click of the Steel Shoe

St. Michaels have scored 55 goals to their opponents' 15 so far this season.

Tommy Smith, of Quebec, still leads the goal-getters in the N. H. A., with 20 to his credit.

Tecumseh have released Strike and Laddition to the Halifax Crescents, and have signed Dumart, of Berlin.

Already Toronto fans are figuring T. R. and A. A. and St. Michaels for the senior O. H. A. finals, with the latter as favorites.

The moving of Harry Hyland to centre ice in place of Ernie Russell has made a world of difference in the playing of the Wanderers.

"Mawk" McKenzie, rover of T. R. and A. A., is the original hornet and is very troublesome to the net guardians with his backhand shots.

The Hyman team does not intend to enter the East End League next summer. This has been positively decided upon by the officers of the Hyman club. The team is a strong one and well able to cope with any of the teams in the above places. If an inter-city league is not formed, the Hyman team intends to play independent ball, with most of their games away from home.

Practically all of last year's team will be available next year, and with the addition of a couple of good pitchers, the Hyman team should give a good account of itself.

amateurs, has joined the Wanderers, and will likely be given a trial against Toronto tomorrow night.

Stratford Juniors are making up for the weakness of their seniors, and have an unbroken record of victories in their section. They were forced to play overtime to win from Seaford last night.

The seven-man style of hockey takes the place of the six-man style in the N. H. A., commencing tomorrow night, and the local followers will see how the "long rushers" fare with an extra man on the ice.

Michigan Soo are leading in the Western group of the International League, with three wins and no losses. North Bay and Sturgeon Falls are tied in the Eastern group, with two wins and one loss each.

Every game but one played in the O. H. A. last night was decided by shut-out scores. This is something of a record.

Los Angeles, Jan. 30.—The reform wave has hit Jim Jeffries. During a conversation today with Barney Oldfield, the speed motorist, "Jeff" promised to make the pledge and go one year without touching liquor or cigarettes. Barney immediately bet the former champion he couldn't keep the resolution, and the wager was gobbled up. "Jeff" started on the straight and narrow this morning.

PRESTON BEAT PARKDALE
IN STRENUOUS CONTEST

Toronto Team Could Not Get Going on Slow Ice.

Preston, Jan. 30.—For the first time this season, the Preston seniors, intermediate champions of last year, proved victors, when in a strenuously-contested game they defeated Toronto Parkdales by 2 to 0. The locals were in good form, but the visitors did not show the class they exhibited in the match with Preston at Toronto. On the slow ice the city septette could not make sufficient pace in the first period, and many shots fell short of their mark. Etherington, the little Preston centre, was the best man on the ice, while Walker and Mulroy, of the home team, also gave a good account of themselves.

The teams:

Preston—Goal, Shortt; point, Bowman; cover, Palmer; rover, Etherington; centre, Walker; right, Rahn; left, Mulroy.

GRAND OPERA SET
RECORD AT OTTAWA

Broke the Former Track Mark on the Opening Day of the Races.

FAST TRACK PREVAILED

Perfect Weather Greets Opening of Ottawa Ice Races Before Good Crowd.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Perfect racing weather and a fast track prevailed for the opening events today of the Hull Driving Club meet. The feature was the lowering of the track record, formerly set at 2:15 1/4, and held by Hal Jun, to 2:14 1/4, by Grand Opera.

Forced to extend himself, in the third heat of the 2:14 pace stake, by Captain Larabee and Clara Paul, the Toronto pacer covered the mile faster than he has ever done before. It is not a Canadian record, however, as the mile was paced by Royal Gratian at Dufferin Park two weeks ago, in 2:13 and a fraction. Grand Opera won the stake in straight heats, while The Gleaner, a promising trotter, purchased by Cliff Tressider at the Old Glory sale, took down the Classified Local after four heats.

The free-for-all trot was unfinished, Monarchial Lady, owned by Faulkner, of Ottawa, capturing the first, while Margot Leonard, owned in Toronto, won the second and third. The race will be finished tomorrow. The largest crowd in the history of the track witnessed the opening day's sport. Summary:

2:14 pace, stake $1,000—Grand Opera, Smith and Proctor, Toronto, 1 1 1

CITY LEAGUE ASSISTS O.H.A.

Passed a Motion Permitting One O. H. A. Junior on Each Team, So Local Hockey Club Could Use Buchanan and McPhillips in Ingersoll Game.

After a strenuous discussion the City League executive last evening so amended the constitution that each team in the league is permitted to play one junior O. H. A. player. This action was taken by the league in order that McPhillips and Buchanan, two City League stars, could play with the London juniors against Ingersoll in the remaining game, and not alter their standing in the City League. The question was thoroughly discussed from every angle, and for a time it appeared as if the matter would be held up and nothing in the way of an agreement reached.

First Motion Withdrawn.
A motion to give special permission to Buchanan and McPhillips was first put before the meeting, but the Orient Club moved an amendment that one junior player be allowed on each team. A long argument ensued, and the talk became so heated that a couple of the representatives started to walk out. However, the original motion was finally withdrawn and the amendment voted on. It was carried by a vote of 4 to 1. The Seventh Regiment was not represented at the meeting, but the officers of this club declared before the meeting that they were agreeable to anything that the league executive decided upon. The teams voting for the amendment were the Orient, First Hussars, A. M. C. and Meds. The Hyman team refused to vote on either the original motion or the amendment.

As a result of the meeting, McPhillips and Buchanan will both be eligible in the City League, no matter how many O. H. A. games they play, and the Orient, while the Meds. can play either Betteridge or Acheson.

GUELPH JUNIORS WON AGAIN FROM HAMILTON

Game Was Nip and Tuck All the Way.

Guelph, Jan. 30.—Playing nip-and-tuck all the way, Guelph Victorias again defeated Hamilton, whitewashing them by 2 to 0 in a junior O. H. A. game here tonight. The score does not represent the play, for at times the Hamilton team had the better of the play, though poor in their shooting. Grant and Sloan, the respective goalkeepers, put up a wonderful game, especially Grant, who in an accident yesterday had his right eye cut badly, closing it, and his work under this handicap was marvellous. Hays, Foster and McKen, starred for Guelph, and Skelly, Boyd and McClung for Hamilton. The teams:

Referee—Harry Sproule, Toronto.

Sarnia, Jan. 30.—The Sarnia intermediates O. H. A. team tonight whitewashed Strathroy in an exhibition game here by the score of 13 to 0. The ice was soft, but the playing was good in spots. The rink was packed with about six hundred fans.

SMALLPOX IN WATERLOO; HOCKEY GAME CANCELLED

All Churches, Poolrooms, Schools and Skating Rinks Closed.

Waterloo, Ont., Jan. 30.—Smallpox reigns supreme in Waterloo. The junior O. H. A. game, scheduled for tonight between the Waterloo and Waterloo hockey teams, has been cancelled by order of the town fathers closing all churches, schools, poolrooms, club rooms, picture shows, skating rinks, etc., for the next two or three weeks in order to give smallpox a knockout drop.

DOINGS IN CITY HOCKEY CIRCLES

The A. M. C. team has signed up Barney Clarke, of the Lawson & Jones team, of the Manufacturers' League. Clarke is one of the best wing men in the Manufacturers' League.

The Hyman team is making a big effort to secure Morenz, the local junior O. H. A. player, who has been signed up with the First Hussars since the first of the season. But the Hussars have refused to release him as yet.

The Manufacturers' League games of last evening were called off at the last minute owing to the softness of the ice. Manager Lancaster decided to take no chances in having his sheet spoiled.

This is the last day for the signing up of City League players. All the teams must have their men signed up before tomorrow in order to make them eligible.

City League managers are reminded

Greys..... 1 6 0 5 1—13

SMITH AND LITTLE WON IN ST. ANDREW'S LEAGUE

Clare Slater's Team Defeated By a One-Sided Score.

Ernie Smith's team defeated Clare Slater's team by the somewhat one-sided score of 43 to 5 in a St. Andrew's Church Senior Boys' Basketball League game on Wednesday evening. The game was rather a poor exhibition, owing to the superiority of Smith's team over Slater's.

In the second game, Lorne Little and his players won a fast game from Wilfred Anderson's aggregation, the final score being 22 to 19. This game was closely contested all the way.

EASTERN OLYMPIAD OPENS AT MANILLA

Chinese, Japanese, Siamese and Philippine Islanders Are Entered.

Manila, Jan. 31.—Athletes from China and Japan and other Oriental nations, gathered here for the first Eastern Olympiad, were welcomed today by Governor-General William Cameron Forbes. There are 36 Chinese and 15 Japanese athletes entered, as well as representatives of Siam and many sections of the Philippine Islands. The games begin tomorrow and continue for a week.

The program includes interscholastic games for the islands only, and the annual far eastern championships open to every athlete resident in the Orient. It is hoped that the contest will bring out material for the next world Olympiad in Berlin. Although the Oriental territory has a population of nearly 600,000,000, the athletic organization has never been developed along western lines, and it has never produced an athlete who won a place in a world Olympiad.

That all contract books must be handed in next week. Lists of the players signed by each team will be made out and distributed to the clubs as soon as all the books are in.

The City League schedules will be ready for distribution by tomorrow. The printing of these has been delayed owing to some changes in the make-up of the card.

Parker, the Preston junior player, signed up by the First Hussars, played point for the Preston team against New Hamburg in the latter village last night.

The Hussars lost a good man in Parker, the former Milton O. H. A. player. He has been transferred to his home town by the Bank of Toronto and will spend the rest of the winter there.

Jack Trace has been given his release by the A. M. C. team and will likely sign up with the Orient or the Seventh Regiment team.

WILKS' HORSES SOLD BY AUCTION

Greatest Gathering of Buyers at Greatest Sale of Standard Breeds Ever Held in Canada—Big Prices Paid.

Toronto, Jan. 31.—The greatest gathering ever brought together on such an occasion witnessed the greatest sale of standard-breeds ever held in Canada, when Miss K. L. Wilks' fine horses were sold at the Repeator yesterday. The sale was conducted by the proprietor, Mr. C. A. Burns, in his usual excellent manner, and his extensive knowledge of standard-bred blood enabled him to do full justice to the merits of the choicely-bred horses in this sale. The arena and stables had been beautifully decorated by the Robert Simpson Company. The horses were paraded at 11 o'clock sharp, and there was not the slightest hitch in the management of the sale from start to finish, each horse being brought out as quickly as the hammer fell on the preceding one. The horses brought grand prices, Miss Wilks having such a reputation as the owner of the best of standard-bred horses to say that if there had been 150 of these horses instead of 50, every one of them would have been sold as easily.

Some of the buyers and prices were: Euky, gray horse, to A. H. Ancaster, $650; Crayke Mikado, the famous trotter, brown horse, to J. Fortune, Toronto, $520; Oro Boy, black horse, to J. E. Walker, Newmarket, $300; Bingen Trot, brown horse, to J. Fortune, Toronto, $350; Katherine Todd, bay filly, to J. Goodson, Sarnia, $550; Emma Hoyt, bay mare, to W. J. Cowan, $400; J. H. H. by Oro Wilks, J. Sparrow, Varna, $240; Oro Magracia, A. C. Orr, Bronte, $350; b. h. Jim Shell, R. Welsh, Hastings, $215; bay colt, Jim Sphinx, P. Kling, Seaford, $225; bay filly, Jimmie Todd, J. Goodson, Sarnia, $325; bay mare, Fane Adams, Kerron, J. Goodson, $225; chestnut mare, Gismondia, James Hutchinson, Montreal, $205; bay mare, Mary Leonard, James Hutchinson, $220; brown mare, Baroness Dossie, James Hutchinson, $305; bay filly, Louisa M., R. Welsh, Hastings, $155; bay mare, Sister Peters, Dr. Campbell, St. Peter, $215; gray mare, Sphinxine Lambert, W. R. Payne, Toronto, $210; br. m. Dossie Magracia, Daniels, $130; chestnut filly, Laura Estill, W. Munro, Alvinston, $255; bay filly, Lady Jewry, Jas. Hutchinson, $140; bay filly, Rose, $130; bay filly, Sarah Todd, bay mare, H. Phillips, $130; chestnut mare and foal, H. Usher, of Queenston, $185. The bay stallion, Stewart, was sold to P. Kling, Seaford, for $300; black stallion, Haid Todd, to W. Hezlewood, for $300; brown gelding, E. Devine, Toronto, $205; brown gelding, Clifford, to H. Yates, for $250.

Mr. Charles Boyle, the veteran owner of the Woodstock Stable, one of the best-known horsemen in America, remarked that he had never seen a finer sale anywhere in the country. He said that his experience, and also said that if Miss Wilks had had 200 horses for disposal every one of them would have been sold by a good figure at the auction, as a better assemblage of buyers could not be brought together.

After a long rest it is reported that R. C. is getting over his lameness and that Murphy will try the plow horse again.

The Cleveland syndicate did not do very well with the trotter, Sir Thomas Lyton, 2:15 1/4, a horse who has been back in the stable of Herman Tyson. By the way, Tyson won 41 races in 1912.

The roan trotter, Nell Oloott, 2:28, which showed inside of 2:10 and a half, has joined the Murphy stable at Poughkeepsie.

"Red" Gerrity, whom many think should have won the M. and M., is at Memphis, with Blaine Holt and other members of the Schlesinger stable. Geers has put one of his best caretakers with Barney Gibbs, so that gelding is to be started next year.

Frank Jones, ever a four-year-old that he says can trim the freak trotter, but time will tell.

C. W. Lazell, who had much satisfaction in the showing of Nowaday Girl this year, thinks that she is another grand two-year-old for 1913 in a colt by Henry Setzer, out of Bonnie Way.

Rhine Maiden, 2:12 1/4, by Bingen, dam by Arlon, took the fastest record of any newcolt in the half-mile race this season. Trainer Colville says that she was a 2:07 or 2:08 trotter, and that 2:05 will not stop her next season.

Edward F. Geers was 62 years old Saturday.

New racing systems now are the vogue. Next summer the three in five will be the popular one.

The Empire City track will be the scene of a big horse show during the grand circuit meeting in August.

The very latest about Millard Sanders is that he is going back to California, where he made much of his fame.

It is said that if the New York bubble should happen to be punctured the date will be taken by Poughkeepsie.

Among the pupils at the Andrew's school is the 3-year-old colt Macdonald, by John A. McKerron out of Lou Dillon.

Dick Wilson is coming back from the coast and will open a public stable at Indianapolis, his old stamping ground, in the spring.

Owners and trainers have kicked because of the limited earning capacity of the trotter, and now the grand circuit wants to cut it down.

Baden is safe and sound in Russia, where they like him, although they think that Jay McGregor is the finest steeple chaser ever imported.

The Kentucky folks have convalesced from their attack of two-in-three heats, and have gone back to the original three in five for 3-year-olds.

There is a 3-year-old trotter in Connecticut by The Abbe out of Dainty Daffo, 2:13 1/4, by Wilton, that looks good, and will be trained for the stakes this year.

Lon McDonald gave up the idea of a trip to Georgia because of the heavy express charges. He will ship from Indianapolis to Memphis about Feb. 1.

A. J. Keating has been engaged to act as presiding judge at both of the Detroit grand circuit meetings, also at Cleveland, Salem, New York and Grand Rapids.

ST. THOMAS MEN GREATLY PLEASED

Deputation Visited Alexandra School To Get Pointers on Manual Training.

SAW THE LAST WORD IN SCHOOL ARCHITECTURE

Visitors Made Addresses in Which They Praised All They Saw in This City.

A deputation of twelve gentlemen interested in education in St. Thomas was conducted through the Alexandra school last evening by Principal Beal and members of the local board of education. The visitors came to London to get suggestions for the new manual training school to be erected in St. Thomas, as the present quarters there have been outgrown.

The members of the St. Thomas party were greatly surprised and pleased with the building and equipment of the local school.

"It is the last word in school architecture," was the statement of Inspector of Schools Taylor. Other like compliments were made the different visitors.

The deputation was conducted through both buildings, and in each department were shown a class at work under competent instructors. Much interest was taken in the cleaning and ventilation systems, as well as the method of lighting the classrooms.

Education in St. Thomas. Following the tour of inspection addresses were made by some of the visitors and local educational enthusiasts. Dr. Voden, principal of the collegiate institute in St. Thomas, stated that night industrial classes had been opened in that city in November, with a registration of 245 in some seven or eight subjects. The mechanical drawing class was a great success, over 50 pupils being present every night.

Inspector Taylor was greatly pleased with the building and equipment, which he was almost beyond improve. ment. Dr. Bennett, the chairman of the manual training committee of the St. Thomas Board of Education, stated that the visit was merely one for enlightenment, and that the board of St. Thomas would undoubtedly take advantage of many of the improvements shown in the construction of Alexandra school.

Among the other speakers were Trustees Shaw, Strong, Greenlees, and Messrs. L. H. Martin and H. B. Archer of this city; Mr. Webb, master mechanic of the New York Central lines in St. Thomas; Mr. Moffatt, teacher of manual training in that city; Mr. Harbour, Mr. Thomas and Mr. Beal.

CHANGED HIS MIND IN ACT OF SUICIDING

Mourned as Dead, Man Turns Up and Confesses He Was a Coward.

New York, Jan. 31.—Mourned as a suicide, John McGowan, who leaped from an East River ferryboat on Wednesday evening, turned up at his tenement home late last night while his young wife, with her baby, was searching the river front for his body. A vision of his little family left to starve or accept charity had turned McGowan's intended self-destruction to eagerness to live.

A photograph of McGowan's wife and baby was found on the ferryboat after he had leaped overboard in the darkness, leading to his identification. Reporters were waiting at his home last night to learn further of the suicide when, during Mrs. McGowan's absence in search of the body, McGowan, a tall, muscular chap, walked in.

"I simply couldn't stand being without work any longer," he said. "I went to the ferryboat and waited until it was in the middle of the river. Then I took off my coat and hat and dived into the water. I must have been pretty close to the bottom of the river when I realized what a coward I was. I was al-

FIRE HORSES WILL SOON BE THING OF THE PAST

Chairman Rose, of No. 3 Committee, Says Motors Necessary in London Now.

A POLICE STATION IN EAST END HALL

City May Sell the Old Building and Put Up a New One.

A tour of inspection of the fire halls of the city, and an investigation into the new territory annexed to the city to discover how many more lights would be needed to light the new district properly, were made by No. 3 committee yesterday afternoon.

The fire hall No. 2, at the corner of Baiting and Chelsea Green, were found to be in good condition. A coat of paint was needed on most of them, and No. 4 required draining, but on the whole the repairs necessary are slight.

At No. 2 station in the east end, the committee may install a motor truck. To do this alterations would have to be made, and more room given to the firemen. The committee found that by altering the building somewhat, the necessary room could be obtained. Temporary quarters could be provided for the police department also. Cells were placed in the building many years ago and they are intact. With some slight changes the police could have a very comfortable station there.

The members of the committee also looked into the suggestion that this building be sold, and a more modern structure erected in the vicinity of the present hall. Some of the east end residents do not relish the idea, however. A suitable lot can be purchased within a reasonable distance of Rectory street.

Twenty Miles Around City. The dimensions of the city are rather startling when one drives about it. The aldermen travelled about 20 miles on their trip, and at that did not take the longest route. They might have added quite a few more miles had they desired to do so.

West London was not gone into, at all, but Knollwood Park, Pottersburg, Baiting and Chelsea Green were all visited. It was found that the new districts need many lights. In some cases there were poles, but not sufficient to furnish light to the people. Hydrants were out of the question, there being none in any of the districts. The roads were found to be in fairly good condition, little money being needed to put them in good shape.

The Lighting Problem. "The lighting problem is quite a big one," declared Ald. Rose, chairman of the committee, on his return. "There is a large area to go over. Of course, it will be out of the question to cover it all, quite a large section being vacant land. However, where the population is thicker, we will have to put some lights. This is a real big city now. The suburbs are growing rapidly, and in a very few years there will be little vacant land. We will have a report prepared on the number of lights needed. It is quite an undertaking, but we will endeavor to supply the needs of these sections shortly."

Use Motor Apparatus. "As for the fire department, our trip convinces me that we will soon have to get rid of our horses. The distances are too great to be covered by animals, and it will not be many years until we have nothing but motor-driven apparatus. With a tractor, we could get our aerial truck and fire engine to every large fire, no matter where they break out."

Ald. Ashplant was somewhat surprised at the area of the new district. "We might as well take in Lambeth while we are at it," he commented.

"It does not seem to be very far away. We have a very large city now," declared Ald. Green. "The bridge is not a very strong affair, and Fire Chief Aitken is not in favor of driving some of his heavy apparatus across it."

"That bridge is none too safe," he declared. "If it were replanked it might do better, but at best, it is far from satisfactory."

Those who went on the tour were Ald. Rose, chairman, Ald. Stein, Ald. White, Ald. Ashplant, Fire Chief Aitken, and City Engineer Brazier.

STEAMER MEXICO HELPLESS AT SEA

Sends Repeated Wireless Calls for Aid While Off Sable Island.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Jan. 31. — Although the officers of steamers docking today reported the Atlantic Ocean as at last becoming docile after a display of violent temper for the last three months, the French liner Mexico, which sailed from here a week ago, is still helpless at sea off Sable Island.

The Mexico is a passenger carrier of the second class, but there are no passengers aboard for this trip. Agents of the line here declare that they have no fears for the vessel's safety.

NEARLY 400 MEN AT THURSDAY NIGHT CLUB'S BANQUET

A Remarkable Assemblage Sat Down to Spread in Cronyn Memorial Church.

STRIKING WORDS OF TWO MINISTERS

Bishop Williams Pays Tribute to Rev. Mr. Norwood and Rev. Mr. Heakes, His Assistants.

Nearly four hundred men of the congregation of the Cronyn Memorial Anglican Church were entertained to a banquet by the Thursday Night Club in the schoolroom last evening. Every seat was taken, and 40 members of the Junior Branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew occupied the platform. The occasion was one of the most interesting in the history of the church. His Lordship Bishop Williams was present, and delivered a strong address to the men.

The arrangements were made by the rector, Rev. R. Norwood, his assistant, Rev. S. R. Heakes, William Stewart, the people's warden, and a small committee. The ladies of the church offered to assist, and as a result of the combined efforts of these energetic committees, the function could not help but be a most pronounced success.

A very delicious dinner was prepared by the committee, and served in an excellent manner by the ladies. During the evening, Tony Cortese's orchestra rendered a very fine program of music.

The Toast List. When the edibles had been disposed of, Mr. F. G. Jewell, the toastmaster, introduced the toast list. He was glad to see such a representation of the men of the congregation at the banquet. He had been a member for a great many years, and he could say truthfully that this was the finest gathering he had seen in the church in this period.

He was a decided tribute to the splendid work being done by Rev. Mr. Norwood, and his assistant, Mr. Heakes. Memorial Church was very fortunate in having two such men with them, and the great work already done was but a token of the far greater work to be accomplished in the future.

After the health of the King had been drunk, Lionel Shoenbom presented the greetings of the Junior branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in a very clever manner.

Bishop Williams' Address. Mr. P. P. Betts, K.C., proposed the toast to "The Diocese of Huron." It was no mean diocese, indeed was one of the best, if not the best in the Dominion. It had produced many bishops and dignitaries in the church, and stood in the van of the Anglican Church.

Bishop Williams made an excellent address in reply. The gathering was the finest he had addressed in any church since coming to Canada. It was an inspiration to him, and augured well for the future.

"It is easily understood, however," said his lordship. "You have the finest team to minister to you of any church in Canada. They are doing a wonderful work, and we all rejoice in it."

Men were no longer shrinking partners in the church. The women had always done their part in church work, but the men for many many years had kept out of its activities. Now they were coming back. They were being persuaded, gradually, but surely that to belong to the Christian Church was a really thing. The need of men in the church was evident. They were photographs of the men of tomorrow, and their example would have much to do in moulding the life of the future.

The Diocese of Huron. His lordship appreciated the fact that the Diocese of Huron was no mean diocese. It had produced ten bishops. The general synod was born in it, the late Mr. Imbach and Mr. Charles Jenkins, of Petrolia, being largely responsible.

Bishop Williams declared that the organization had a great field of work. It should be God-centred, and consecrated to service. The social life of the day was largely pagan. It was reminiscent of the days of the Roman Empire. The industrial system was frankly selfish.

The Christian spirit was not to be found in politics. The possibility of exerting the sovereignty of God was open to such an organization. The awakening of China and India, and the revival of the Mohammedan propaganda, constituted great dangers, and the duty of every Christian to do his utmost in spreading the Gospel to the nations of the earth. Canada was at a critical stage in its development.

Teaching the Foreigner. The great influx of foreign population created grave problems, which must be met bravely and courageously by Canadians. His lordship pointed out that there was a great field of endeavor for the young men among the foreigners in the city. He recommended that classes be formed, where these men could be taught English, and the nature of Canadian institutions.

Mr. P. E. Leonard proposed the toast to "Memorial Church." He referred to its excellent history, and the strategic point it occupied in the life of the Anglican Church of the city.

A Popular Rector. Rev. R. W. Norwood delivered an excellent address in reply. He was gratified at the large attendance. Credit must be given to his assistant, Rev. S. R. Heakes, who was largely responsible for the brilliant success the club had proved. Mr. Heakes was indeed a find for the church, and his brilliant gifts, consecrated to Christ and the church were certain to bring great results.

Mr. Norwood did not believe in sensationalism, or in sentiment in religion. His ideal of Christianity was more vigorous than that, Christ came to bring a sword, and His appeal was to the strong, fighting qualities of men. He was calling to the militant qualities of men and women everywhere. Men were beginning to realize that there was a great battle to be fought. Memorial Church was not going to measure its success by its sentiments, but by its achievements in civic and national life.

The Ladies Toasted. "The Ladies" was proposed by Mr. William Stewart, and responded to by Rev. S. R. Heakes. The latter paid a graceful tribute to the great work being done by women in the church. During the evening, solos were rendered by Mr. W. A. McCutcheon, H. Wheatcroft and Carl Ludlow, Toronto. All acquitted themselves most creditably.

The watch was recovered, but the medal had been melted by a jeweler.

The Diocese of Huron. His lordship appreciated the fact that the Diocese of Huron was no mean diocese. It had produced ten bishops. The general synod was born in it, the late Mr. Imbach and Mr. Charles Jenkins, of Petrolia, being largely responsible.

Bishop Williams declared that the organization had a great field of work. It should be God-centred, and consecrated to service. The social life of the day was largely pagan. It was reminiscent of the days of the Roman Empire. The industrial system was frankly selfish.

ARTISTIC PRESENTATION BY A SPLENDID CAST

"A Pair of Spectacles" Pleased
Audience at the Grand
Last Night.

The young people of the Western University certainly added to their laurels last night in the presentation of their play, "A Pair of Spectacles," in the Grand Opera House. For several years past the university literary society has exhibited the dramatic talent of its members by presenting a play before Londoners, and never have those taking part appeared to better advantage than last night, and never has their selection of a play been happier.

It is a story of the dangerous power of influence and suggestion, and depicts how the mind of a man once poisoned by suspicion will believe evil of those he loves best and misjudges the motives of his true friends. Gregory Goldfinch, shrewd, money-loving and cynical, while on a visit to his brother Benjamin, whose character is exactly opposite, plants the seed of suspicion in the latter's heart against his youthful wife, his oldest friends, his butler, the trades people, and in fact everybody and everything excepting Gregory himself. By a chain of circumstances these suspicions appear to be justified, and within a few hours the trusting, benevolent, innocent-minded man is led to adopt his brother's views and "see nothing but what he sees."

It is while looking through Gregory's spectacles, his own having been broken, that the transformation takes place. Benjamin secures the keys of the household, insists upon an examination of the housekeeping books, commences to weigh the provisions, steals his own love letters to his wife, believing them to be from the curate, and refuses a large temporary loan to a friend, whose sailing vessel is supposedly lost.

This unhappy state of affairs does not, however, last long, and the genuine devotion of wife, son and friends, when they believe him to be in adversity through the failure of a bank, soon succeed in restoring Benjamin's old-time confidence in human nature. The reward of his former self is doubtless aided by the turning of his own spectacles and by the proof of the better side of the craft Gregory, who rises to the occasion with a brotherly offer of assistance.

In his portrayal of the role of "Ben" Goldfinch, Mr. Bert Hannah gave a most finished performance. His ability in the dramatic line is well known in London, and last evening nothing could have been more satisfactory than his character sketch. Mr. A. S. H. Cree, as Gregory, shared the honors with Mr. Hannah, and most deservedly. The abrupt father, the worldly wise man, "the curate," were all well brought out in Mr. Cree's acting. His conception of the role was most admirable.

The ladies of the cast are also highly deserving of praise. Miss Kathleen Bodrick, as Mrs. "Ben" Goldfinch, was the sweet, loving wife to perfection, and Lorimer, Percy Goldfinch, the role of Lucy, was all that could be desired. Both ladies looked extremely winsome, and their acting was most natural. Miss Bertha Fraser, the third lady in the cast, filled a minor part of Charlotte, a maid, very capably.

Much credit is indeed due to all the members taking part. The cousins, Percy and Dick Goldfinch, were ably represented by Mr. R. E. Charles and Mr. P. B. R. Pococke. Mr. W. F. O. Smith's impersonation of Bartholomew, an impetuous shoemaker, and tenant of Benjamin Goldfinch, was capital, and the same might be said of Joyce, the faithful butler, in the person of Mr. E. N. Stephen.

The remaining roles were exceedingly well taken by Mr. R. J. Kahn, as Mr. Lorimer, Ben's friend, and friend of Lucy, and Mr. G. H. Vrooman, a second shoemaker.

The entire performance was good, and to those taking part great credit is due. The audience was a large one, and showed their appreciation unreservedly throughout the evening.

MURDER CASE "HUNG UP"

Jury Fail to Reach Agreement in the Trial at Regina.

[Canadian Press.]
Regina, Sask., Jan. 31.—A little before 8 o'clock Thursday evening, after listening to the addresses of counsel for the prosecution and the defence, and the summing up by Chief Justice Thiel for murder, retired. At 12:30 they reported they could not agree, and were discharged. The court throughout the trial was crowded with spectators. Thiel is a German-American charged with killing William Parkin, a farmer, who employed him, and with wounding Lee Prince, Parkin's foreman. He escaped to the bush at the time of the murder, but was cornered nine days later.

PUBLIC OPINION DEMANDS PEACE

The Powers May Bring Further Pressure To Bear on the Turks.

A SHREWD TURK MOVE

Proposal to to Adrianople Would Give Them the Lion's Share of the City.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Jan. 31.—The overwhelming strength of public opinion throughout Europe in favor of peace in the Balkans is exerting a profound influence on the delegates in London to the allied Balkan States, and the European ambassadors here will, it is expected, shortly make themselves the mouthpiece of this widespread sentiment to convince some of the more unyielding spirits among the representatives of Bulgaria, Greece, Montenegro and Servia.

The European diplomats take the view that Turkey, especially after the revolutionary movement which has been brought into power men who are considered irreconcilable on the question of Adrianople, could not offer more than what was contained in yesterday's reply to the European powers. This, they think, at least justifies the resumption of negotiations between the Balkan allies and the Ottoman Empire.

Turk Is Shrewd.
The Turks with their usual shrewdness, instead of simply asking for the holy shrines and a few more monuments of historic or religious character in the city of Adrianople, suggested dividing the city by the River Maritsa. They taking the part situated on the left bank, the river would mean that they would leave to Bulgaria the railway station on the line communicating with Macedonia.

This, however, does not mean nor does the Turkish reply say, that it is their irreducible concession, so that the way to an accommodation between the parties may still be left open. It is thought that the men now ruling at Constantinople wish to have at least the appearance of not ceding as much as their predecessors.

Berlin Pessimistic.
Berlin, Jan. 31.—Great pessimism regarding the Balkan situation is displayed in official circles here owing to Bulgaria's uncompromising attitude in conjunction with the other powers is doing her best to persuade Bulgaria and Turkey to attempt to reach a compromise, but the resumption of hostilities on Monday next is regarded as highly probable. The situation causes considerable concern to the German Government, which fears that if the war should be resumed Bulgaria may push matters beyond her own interests.

KILLED HIS WIFE AND SWALLOWED PARIS GREEN

Couple Lived Apart and Slayer
Had Been Drinking Heavily.

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Jan. 31.—Cyrille Lepage, aged 40, a laborer at the Booth mills, who came here from France, was shot and killed his wife, Marie Lepage, committed suicide by taking Paris Green from their room. The man was found by his neighbors at 11 o'clock, shortly before noon today. According to woman's mother, Lepage came home this morning and was going to kill his wife and himself. The mother rushed out to summon the police, but when she arrived the woman had been taken poison.

Up to yesterday Lepage and his wife had not been living together. He had been drinking heavily. He had left a note reading: "I beg to tell you that I have killed my wife and myself. I leave $12 for burial expenses. No more place to live."

RESUME WORK AT SARDIS

Princeton Excavation Expedition
Gets New Turkish Permit.

London, Jan. 31.—All doubt as to whether the excavations at Sardis, in Asia Minor, which were started by a Princeton University expedition, would be stopped because of the Balkan war, was dispelled today by the receipt of a cablegram from Mr. Rockefeller, the American ambassador at Constantinople, to Professor Howard Crosby Butler, of Princeton University, announcing that a new trade had been issued authorizing the professor to continue his researches.

The professor is delighted over the news from Constantinople. He says that since his arrival in London all the English, the Germans and others have been asking him that Turkey, with a war on her hands, would not be taking an order allowing his expedition to go on, make up his mind to abandon the excavations.

The professor considers the new permission a nice compliment to the United States for its disinterestedness in the war, and in appreciation of the value of the work accomplished at Sardis.

IMPORTANT EVIDENCE IS BEING CONCEALED

All Efforts to Obtain Cause of Baby's Injuries Proved Fruitless.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Melbourne, Jan. 31.—"That Verma Hill came to her death from injuries received in a manner not yet disclosed, and we believe that some of the witnesses are withholding facts which if disclosed would explain the cause of her death."

The above verdict was returned by the jury, which, under Coroner Dr. Woods, of Mount Brydges, investigated the death of the seven-months-old child of Mrs. Charlotte Hill, an Indian woman, here, last evening.

Crown Attorney McKillop, of London, who was present, rigidly questioned the mother, but could not get any admissions from her. She said that on the Friday evening she was at the home of Miles McDougall. The baby was with her. About 4 o'clock in the morning she wanted to go home, and Mr. McDougall drove her. The baby was all right then. This was corroborated by Mr. McDougall.

He did not know that anything was wrong with it until she awakened and found the child cold. She did not see any marks on its body, and did not know how any got there.

The report of Dr. Dewar, who conducted the post-mortem, showed that the cause of death was a ruptured kidney caused either by a blow, kick or fall. The child had bruises on its face, right side and arm.

MOTOR OWNERS COMBINE

Plan to Make Auto Owners Independent of the Oil Trust.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Jan. 31.—A London cable says: A prospectus has been issued for the motor owners' oil combine, some particulars of which have already been given in dispatches.

The share capital is £300,000 ($450,000). The directors include the Earl of Carrick and Lord Arthur Cecil. The company's object is to enable motorists to become independent of the oil trust and obtain some of the profits which are being made by the groups controlling the existing supplies.

They will acquire oil wells and petroleum mining rights, extending over 2,000 acres, erect a refinery at Thameshaven and build their own fleet of steamers if necessary. The net profits in 1914, according to the prospectus, will be £201,571 ($1,008,150).

FREE LIST UNDER FIRE

Congressional Tariff Hearing Drawing to a Close.

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, Jan. 31.—The free list of the tariff furnished the concluding chapter today of hearings before the House committee on ways and means. The free list, the administrative features of the Payne-Aldrich law and miscellaneous matters in connection with customs duties were under fire, with prospects for winding up of all the tariff hearings tomorrow. Half a dozen witnesses were on the stand today. The free list covers articles in 1911 was $1,159,000,000 and consumption in 1912 was $1,159,000,000 and production in 1911 was $1,159,000,000 and consumption in 1912 was $1,159,000,000.

In 1911, Congress passed and President Taft vetoed the free list bill framed by Chairman Underwood's committee. That measure proposed to put on the free list agricultural implements, cotton baling, cotton ties, leather, boots and shoes, fence wire, cereals, breads, flour, timber, lumber, sewing machines, salt and other products. President Taft's veto was on the ground that the bill would diminish the revenues by from $10,000,000 to $14,000,000.

Democratic leaders now figure on putting on the free list at the coming extra session substantially the same articles that were on the original free list two years ago.

WEST LONDON WILL ASK AID OF THE LABOR MEN

People Desire That the City Shall Repair the Breakwater at Once.

The West London Progressives appreciate the efforts of the board of works in giving their attention to and taking steps to repair the breakwater in West London. The embankment problem is a vital one to the residents in the west side of the city, and they desire radical measures to be taken now in order that they may be fully protected from any spring freshets.

At their weekly meeting on Wednesday evening, Messrs. Pocock, Dexter and Churchill were appointed a committee to wait on the Trades and Labor Council next Wednesday evening and urge on the labor members in the city council to advance the construction of a permanent breakwater as soon as possible.

On a motion by Messrs. A. Clark and E. Pudney, the secretary was instructed to write to City Engineer Brazier and bring his attention to the unsightly condition of some streets in West London, which were said to be littered with paper. The members of the association claim that the West End is being made the dumping ground for all the industrial concerns in the city.

A petition will be circulated among the residents, requesting the city council to erect a new flight of steps leading from the Blackfriars bridge on to Central Avenue. It was pointed out that the old steps are in a dilapidated condition, and need immediate attention.

Twenty-six new members have joined the association during the past two weeks.

PERMITS ARE SLOW NOW

But They Will Be Plentiful Enough Shortly.

Building permits for the month of January, 1913, will show a slight falling off compared with the same month in 1912.

Last year, the permits for January totaled $12,147. This year so far they reach only the magnificent sum of $11,785, a difference of approximately $362.

"The demand is a trade slack just now," explained Building Inspector Piper. "We need not worry, however. There will be enough building next summer to give employment to all the masons and carpenters there are here."

ROBINSON--McCALLUM

A Very Pretty Wedding at the Talbot Street Baptist Church.

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday in the Talbot Street Baptist Church by the Rev. H. H. Bingham, when he united in marriage Evelyn May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Robinson, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly of St. Thomas, Ont., to Lorne McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McCallum, of Gladstone, in the presence of a very few of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony and congratulations the bride party drove to the Tecumseh House, where dinner was served.

The bride and groom left for Ottawa and points east for a short honeymoon, and on their return they will call at home to their friends at Gladstone after Feb. 13.

CEMENT PAVEMENTS

Engineer Brazier Says They Have Passed the Experimental Stage.

City Engineer Brazier has returned from Detroit and Windsor, where he has been investigating the cement pavements laid in these cities. In his opinion this kind of road has passed the experimental stage and is giving excellent satisfaction in many places.

The first pavements were laid in three layers, but this method did not prove satisfactory. There were many cracks in the road, and in other ways, it did not prove equal to expectations. Later two layers were tried, but this did not remedy the faults to any appreciable degree, with the result that at the present time, one layer only, generally 8 inches, is being put down. The pavement gives very good satisfaction, as a rule.

"I saw some pavements that have been laid 14 years," said Mr. Brazier. "They seemed to be in good condition. The only difficulty about them is that they wear and break at the joints. Otherwise they seem very hard and durable. I am preparing a report on my observations, and will present it to the board of works."

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Had Rheumatism WAS CONFINED TO HIS BED FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Mr. W. H. Riley, Russell, Sask., writes:—"It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could go about quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

Rheumatism is caused by the presence in the blood of uric acid, and the kidneys not working properly is the sole cause of this, and unless you remove the acid by flushing the kidneys, there is no possible chance of getting rid of rheumatism.

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, and thus clean out the kidneys, and dispel the rheumatism from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 80 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

London, Jan. 25.—As "Diamond King" Joe Lewis' eight-year struggle to keep his beautiful wife, the former Fanny Ward, of St. Louis, from returning to the stage ended, so ended his four years' fight to win her back. FROM the share of the footlights—in complete failure.

All his millions, his mansions, yachts, his diamonds couldn't keep his actress wife at home, and couldn't win her back after she had left.

A divorce decree separates them, and the diamond king goes back to his diamond mines, and the "prettiest woman on the English stage" stays there—on the stage.

Leaving a whole battalion of beaux and admirers behind in St. Louis, Fanny Ward went to New York and the stage. She came to London, and except for her striking beauty won little of the comment and less success as an actress.

Joseph Lewis, a partner of Cecil Rhodes and Alfred Beit, in South Africa, immediately lost their lure for him. In 1900 they were married; a year later a daughter was born. Eight years they lived together, while the call of the stage was growing stronger and stronger in the breast of the St. Louis girl. Four years ago she left her husband for the footlights.

The first night she appeared in Drury Lane theatre in a million dollars' worth of real diamonds and a diaphanous Venus costume, Fanny Ward Lewis blazed before all London as a star of the first theatrical magnitude. Since then she has appeared in America.

The diamond king offered to lay his wealth at her feet if she would come back to him and leave the stage forever. She stoutly resisted.

"My heart and soul is in the theatre. I can't leave it. I would rather be what I am than have all the money in the world to spend and not be permitted to act," she said. After she had told Lewis that for four years he lost hope. The divorce suit, undefended, followed.

The officers elected for 1913 are as follows: Hon. president, Mrs. C. W. Barrows; president, Mrs. McPhail; Barrows; president, Mrs. Sumner; secretary, Mrs. Kemp; treasurer, Mrs. McFarland; financial secretary, Mrs. Pirie. Eight ladies were appointed to the collecting and visiting committee.

INGERSOLL GUN CLUB TO BE RE-ORGANIZED

Much Interest Being Shown in Trap Shooting in That Town.

Ingersoll, Jan. 31.—Interest is being revived in trap shooting, and at an early date an effort will be made to re-organize the Ingersoll Gun Club. A number of the shooters are anxious to look over the sights regularly, and to have the club occupy the prominent position it did a few years ago. At one time the Ingersoll shooters were affiliated with the Western Ontario Trap-

Shooting League and they turned out regularly to practices. For the past year interest has waned, until the sport has simply been sacrificed. Some of the more enthusiastic ones, however, are desirous of keeping up the interest, and with this object in view it is the intention to hold a meeting shortly and reorganize. There are many ardent shooters here, and it is believed the membership of the club can be materially increased.

It was moved by A. W. Austin, seconded by E. W. Hamber, that Sir Edmund B. Osler, M.P., do take the chair, and that Mr. C. A. Bogert do act as Secretary.

Messrs. A. R. Boswell, K. C., and W. Gibson Cassels were appointed scrutineers.

The Secretary read the Report of the Directors to the Shareholders, and submitted the Annual Statement of the affairs of the Bank, which is as follows:

THE SHAREHOLDERS:
The Directors beg to submit the Forty-second Annual Report of the affairs of the Bank, and the result of its operations for the twelve months, ended 31st December, 1912, which they feel will be received with satisfaction by the Shareholders:

Balance of Profit and Loss Account 30th December, 1911.....	$ 500,116.10
Net profits for the year, after deducting all charges and making full provision for bad and doubtful debts.....	901,529.44

Balance of Profit and Loss carried forward.....	$ 688,109.01

RESERVE FUND.
Balance at credit of account 30th December, 1911.....$5,702,799.37
Transferred from Profit and Loss Account.....297,200.63
$6,000,000.00

There has been a further gratifying increase in the business of the Bank, as evidenced by the figures in the Statement presented. The prosperity of the country, and the consequent demand for banking accommodation permitted the employment of its unusual advantage throughout the year, resulting in earnings sufficient to enable the Directors to distribute a bonus of 2 per cent. in addition to the usual dividend of 12 per cent.

To meet the general expansion of business in Canada, in which this Bank continues to participate, your Directors decided to issue to the Shareholders of record of the 15th of February, 1913, a further $1,000,000 of new Capital Stock, at a premium of 100 per cent.

This issue is a part of the $5,000,000 of New Stock authorized by the Shareholders at the Annual Meeting of the 26th January, 1910, and duly approved by the Treasury Board at Ottawa. Particulars of this allotment will be given forthwith to the Shareholders by circular. When payment of this issue has been made in full, the paid-up Capital of the Bank will amount to $6,000,000, and of the total Authorized Capital of $10,000,000, there will remain unissued $4,000,000.

Owing to the growing importance of the Bank's business the Directors considered it advisable to recommend an increase in their number from nine to eleven, and a Bylaw will be submitted to you covering this change.

You will also be asked to give your sanction to a Bylaw increasing the remuneration of the Directors, made necessary by these additions to the Board.

In connection with Bank Premises, the year just closed was one of unusual importance, several transactions of great moment having been brought to completion.

You were informed at the Annual Meeting in 1911 of the purchase of the property on the Northeast Corner of King and Yonge Streets, Toronto, for the purposes of Head Office premises, as your Directors were at that time unable to acquire sufficient land immediately adjoining the present site. Last year, however, they succeeded in purchasing the property directly south of that now occupied, and extending to Melinda Street. A sale of the Northeast Corner was subsequently effected at a satisfactory price.

Plans have been prepared, and it is the intention to begin active operations at an early date for the erection of a building that should meet the Bank's requirements for many years to come.

Necessary outlays have been made for improvements to several Offices already established, for new Branches opened, and for the purchase of the premises, which the Bank has for many years occupied at the corner of Queen and Sherbourne Streets, Toronto, and at Oshawa, Ont.

Sites were also secured at West Toronto, Edmonton South (formerly Strathcona), Elmwood (Winnipeg), and additional property was acquired adjoining our Windsor, Ont., Branch.

Branches of the Bank were opened in 1912 as follows: In Ontario—Dupont and Christie Streets, Roncesvalles and High Park Avenues, Dufferin Street and Lippin Avenue, Dufferin Street and St. Clair Avenue, Toronto; By-Ward/Market Branch, Ottawa; and Port Arthur.

In the Western Provinces—Swift Current, Moosejaw (South Hill Branch), Saskatoon, Edmonton (First Street Branch), Calgary, (Riverside Branch), Alberta, North Vancouver, British Columbia.

New Dundee and Malton Ont., and Wawota, Sask., Branches were closed in 1912.

Every Branch of the Bank has been inspected during the year by Head Office officials, specially qualified for such duties, and, as a summary, the Balance Sheet of the 31st December, 1912, including the Cash Assets and Investments of the Institution, has been verified by a Committee of your Directors.

Toronto, 29th January, 1913.
The Report was adopted.
A Bylaw was passed authorizing an increase in the number of Directors from nine to eleven.

The thanks of the Shareholders were tendered to the President, Vice-President and Directors for their services during the year, and to the General Manager and other Officers of the Bank for the efficient performance of their respective duties.

The following gentlemen were duly elected Directors for the ensuing year: Messrs. A. W. Austin, W. R. Brock, James Carruthers, R. J. Christie, J. C. Eaton, J. F. Foy, K. C., M. L. A. E. W. Hamber, H. W. Hutchinson, W. D. Matthews, A. M. Nanton and Sir Edmund B. Osler, M.P.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors Sir Edmund B. Osler, M.P., was elected President, and Mr. W. D. Matthews Vice-President for the ensuing term.

SYRUP OF FIGS IS BEST FOR A CHILD
If the Little Tongue Is Coated, Breath Feverish, Stomach Sour and Bowels Clogged.

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of tender bowels so promptly, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well, resting nicely, eating regularly and acting naturally, it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged-up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children; being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. This is the delicious, tasteful, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

DOMINION BANK IS A STRONG INSTITUTION

Net Profits for the Year Were $901,000 and Assets Over $79,000,000.

With net profits of over $901,000 for the year ended Dec. 31, 1912, and total assets of over $79,000,000, the Dominion Bank ranks as one of the strongest and most progressive of our financial institutions. The net profits were at the rate of 18.38 per cent on the paid-up capital, and show a gain of almost $200,000 over the earnings for the previous year. The bank had $1,698,000 available for distribution at the close of their year, made up of a balance carried forward from 1911 of $500,000, net profits of $901,000, and premium on new stock of $297,000. After paying the regular dividend of 12 per cent and a bonus of 2 per cent, the bank contributed $25,000 to the officers' pension fund, and transferred $297,000 to the reserve fund, leaving a balance carried forward of $838,000.

During the year the bank increased its paid-up capital to $5,000,000, and its reserve is now $6,000,000. It made large gains in circulation, in deposits, and in total assets. The deposits now stand at over $150,412,000—a gain of $5,300,000 during the year, an indication that the bank is growing in favor and in the confidence of the public. The extent to which the Dominion Bank is providing for the business needs of the public is shown by the fact that the outstanding loans amounted to $46,415,000. This indicates that the bank is doing an increasingly large business in the communities where its branches are located, which is further evidenced by the fact that the paid-up capital is being increased by $1,000,000, to be issued at $200 a share, thus giving the bank additional facilities of $2,000,000.

An analysis of the report shows that it is particularly strong in specie, bullion and other quickly available assets. These amount to 43.58 per cent of the total liabilities of the bank.

Another proof of the bank's rapid growth is shown in the large increase in total assets. These amount at the present time to $79,224,000—a gain of $9,000,000 during the year. Altogether the showing is a highly creditable one, and reflects favorably on the management of the bank.

It is apparent that the bank's business in the west is growing in importance, as two new directors were appointed—one a resident of Winnipeg, and one of Vancouver.

BOARD WILL NOT WAIT FOR SEWERS

Decide To Go Ahead With Permanent Works That Will Later Be Torn Up.

CARLING CREEK TROUBLE

Action Is Threatened Against the City By the Owners of the Stanley Estate—A Meeting Last Night.

The condition of the city streets and the urgency of repairing the thoroughfares came under discussion at the meeting of the board of works Thursday night. Those present were: Ald. Bennett, Ald. Glass, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Robinson, City Clerk Baker and City Engineer Brazier.

The committee deemed it absolutely necessary to repair some of the streets this year, and all work to be done is to be advertised and tendered for without delay.

That portion of Queen's avenue from Maitland to Adelaide street, and Waterloo, Colborne and Maitland streets, from King street to Queen's avenue, were the principal streets which were introduced into the discussion, and steps will be taken to have asphalt pavement laid on these.

The board decided not to wait until the storm sewers are put down.

Ald. Saunders stated that delay in paving these streets was proving costly. The street railway is to be forced to pave its share of Ridout street, extending from Horton street to Elmwood avenue.

A Threatened Suit.
The proprietors of the Stanley estate on Colborne street, in the vicinity of the C. P. R. tracks, are threatening the city with legal proceedings on account of the floods of Carling's Creek. The land on this part of the estate is very low and much damage is wrought.

Engineer Brazier considered that the city could not be held liable. The creek ran in its natural channel, and he was sure that it was not the fault of anyone that the stream overflowed its banks.

The matter of granting the application of the Bell Telephone Company to erect telephone poles on certain streets was laid over until the city solicitor is heard from and states the legality of such action. The company claims that the application is only a matter of form.

The sum of $27.26 will be recommended as a rebate by the board to George Roberts, of Edward street, who requested the reduction in the cost of a storm sewer constructed in 1908. Mr. Roberts failed to bring this matter before the court of revision, and the matter of a refund has thus been delayed.

Pay for Steam Roller.
Thomas Martin, a road contractor, who had an account for $120 rendered to him by the city engineering department for 12 days' use of the steam roller, objected to paying the full amount.

Mr. Martin declared that he had only used the roller at certain times, and should only be charged for three days. Owing to the disagreeable weather he found it was impossible to work on the roadway, and hence the roller lay idle.

City Engineer Brazier pressed the claim, and stated that the roller had been used on ten different days, and that Mr. Martin should keep to his agreement.

Ald. Saunders and Ald. Robinson both considered that the contractor should not pay the full amount of $120. Ald. Bennett advised Mr. Martin to pay the full amount and dispute the claim in the council. The matter will come up at the next meeting of the council.

$1,000 GRANTED FOR MIDDLESEX PUBLICITY PLAN

County Council Voted This Sum at Its Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

CONTINUATION SCHOOL QUESTION UP AGAIN

A Deputation Waited on Councilors and Asked That Change Be Made in Nissouri.

The first report of the finance committee, as presented at the session of the county council yesterday afternoon, recommended that a grant of $750 be given to the Greater Middlesex Publicity Campaign. A number of the advocates of the scheme, however, wished that the grant be increased to $1,000, and the council went into committee of the whole to discuss the question. Mr. J. W. Laidlaw acted as chairman.

Several of the councillors were of the opinion that the grant should not be increased as the city of London was expected to give assistance. When the vote was finally taken the council was in favor of making the grant $1,000, by a vote of 16 to 13. The grant of $200 made at the December session was withdrawn.

A List of Grants.
The finance committee also recommended that the council make the following grants: $50 to the Salvation Army Rescue Home, 25 cents per day to the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Twenty-sixth Regiment who attend the annual camp of instruction in June; $25 each of the Farmers' Institutes of North and West Middlesex, and $25 to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. They also advised that no action be taken in regard to "B" Squadron of the First Hussars.

Three deputations appeared, and each one, after presenting its case, was promised the careful consideration of the council. A deputation from the vicinity of Middlesex asked that the county co-operate with the county of Elgin in erecting a bridge, the estimated cost of which was $17,000, to replace the present low water bridge, which is in a dangerous condition.

The annual deputation of those interested in a bridge at Glensies also renewed their plea that a bridge be constructed at that point. The members of the deputation stated that the erection of the bridge would be of great benefit to the people in the southern portion of Caradoc, as it would bring them from one to seven miles closer to the London market.

Against the School.
Over thirty ratepayers of West Nissouri asked the council to rescind the bylaw making that township a continuation school district. When the bylaw was passed, it was stated, the majority of the ratepayers were in favor of the school, but as they found out that the cost of building and maintaining such a place of education had been misrepresented to them, they were now greatly in favor of discontinuing the school. The matter will come up later.

The report and account of the superintendent of Victoria Hospital was referred to the committee of the county by the city of London.

Mr. Turnbull stated that last year there were 96 county patients in the hospital, for a total stay of 4,106 days. The account of the county amounted to $42,114.50, of which $1,511.46 remains to be paid. Mr. Turnbull said that the cost of county patients in the hospital during 1912 would be from 15 per cent to 20 per cent lower than in 1912, on account of the annexation of certain parts of the county by the city of London.

The request of the Children's Aid Society that the annual grant be increased to $100, was referred to the finance committee.

Martin vs. Middlesex.
Solicitor J. C. Elliott addressed the council and asked that a new committee be appointed to consider the judgment in the case of Martin vs. Middlesex. Mr. Elliott also stated that he had interviewed the city solicitor in connection with the resolution of the council passed in December condemning the city roads, and that the city wished to have the roads referred to specified. In the opinion of the solicitor litigation would not be needed.

Reeve Laidlaw, of Westminster, asked if the city had power to bar county pupils from the schools in the newly-annexed districts before any settlement had been made. He had been told that all the pupils residing Engineer's Report.

The report of the county engineer was referred to the board for consideration. That official stated that at present there were 13 wooden bridges in the county and all needed repairs. He recommended that those that were in decay be replaced by new structures.

The first report of the board of road directors was adopted after it had been amended in committee of the whole. The committee recommended that the designated road in Metcalfe Township be left as previous to the passing of Bylaw 710, but the council decided to change the road, as suggested by Reeve Toohill, of that municipality. The council was even divided in regard to this clause, and Reeve Hawshaw, who presided, cast the deciding vote.

A large amount of business was transacted at the evening session, including the reading of the report of the physician attending the house of refuge and a discussion of the good roads system. A number of resolutions were also passed.
