Coolidge and Dawes Elected With Huge Pluralities

The MacDonald Cabinet Has Resigned—Mutiny Reported in the Brazilian Navy—Ambassadors Representing France and Russia Have Been Appointed.

As a result of yesterday's election in the United States, Coolidge and Dawes, the Republican nominees for President and Vice-President, have been elected with huge pluralities. At 5 o'clock this morning a private wire gave Coolidge 300 votes in the Electoral College. New York State elected the Republican Congressional slate by 700,000 majority; but re-elected Governor Al. Smith, who is a Democrat.

SOUTH WENT FOR DAVIS.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4. Coolidge and Dawes have rolled up an overwhelming majority in the East and Middle West on the basis of incomplete returns from the general election. In all of New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, Indiana, and Illinois, the lead of the Republican nominees was mounting steadily upwards at midnight and both the New York Times and the New York World, supporters of John W. Davis, had conceded defeat by Mr. Coolidge. At the Democratic headquarters, however, party leaders still cling to a hope that the West would turn the trick, as it did for Wilson in 1912. Reports from most of the sections beyond the Mississippi still were of the most fragmentary character, but they gave President Coolidge the best of it in several of the larger states. A spectacular race for the New York Governorship was developing between Governor Smith and Theodore Roosevelt, with the Smith managers claiming victory, and some of the Republican leaders inclined to concede it. All the Southern States, including Tennessee, Oklahoma, Kentucky, and Missouri, were piling up majorities for Davis. The South apparently had returned by the usual vote its Democratic candidates for the Senate except in Oklahoma, where J. C. Walton was running behind two Republican Senators.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY CONCEDED.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4. The New York World in an election extra issued at 9:15 to-night, conceded the election of President Coolidge and claimed the election of Governor Smith in New York. The World is a Democratic paper.

COOLIDGE WINS.
HARDING PRECINCT, MARION, Ohio, Nov. 4. President Coolidge carried the home precinct of the late President Warren G. Harding by a massive vote that Harding did not lose. The precinct gave Coolidge 154, Davis 44, and LaFollette 13. Four years ago it gave Harding 145, and Cox 119.

RECORD BREAKING VOTE.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5. When the polls closed in New York State at six o'clock to-night, party leaders predicted that a record breaking vote of over three million had been cast. The weather was cool and clear throughout the State.

U. S. STAFF.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. The largest electorate that ever cast a vote undertook to-day the task of unravelling the most puzzling tangle in the modern political history of United States. With three major candidates in the field for President, with full membership of the House to be chosen, with 34 Senators and 34 Governors to be elected, and with thousands of lesser offices to be filled, twenty odd million qualified voters of the nation began their march to the polls at dawn throughout the length and breadth of the land under generally fair weather conditions. They continued all day to record their will. Four months of fervid oratory, charges, recriminations, accusations, claims, predictions and warnings, were stored in the thoughts of the voters as they marked their decisions on their ballots, while ringing in their ears were the final pleas of the three major aspirants for the presidency.

REPUBLICAN ELECTED.
IN DETROIT.
DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 4. Representative Frank W. James, Republican, was re-elected from the Twelfth District to the House of Representatives. In the last House Michigan was represented by 12 Republicans and 1 Democrat.

FIRST TO REPORT.
NEW ASHFORD, Mass., Nov. 4. The vote of this town, the first to report its returns in the Presidential election, gives Coolidge 20, Davis 4, LaFollette nothing. The 1920 vote was Harding 28, Cox 6.

GEORGIA REMAINS IN DEMOCRATIC COLUMN.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 4. Clifford Walker was re-elected Governor of Georgia by an overwhelming majority over his independent opponent, H. B. Taylor, to-day. The remainder of the Democratic state ticket was unopposed. Harris, Democrat, was elected to the Senate, and 12 Democrats to the House were elected.

ALABAMA VOTES DEMOCRAT.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4. Alabama elected Senator Heflin, Democrat; and ten Democrats to the House of Representatives.

ARKANSAS ALSO DEMOCRATIC.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5. Returns from the State of Arkansas received at 6:30 showed J. T. Robinson, Democrat, was re-elected for the United States Senate, and that all seven Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives were also returned.

ALL DEMOCRATS ELECTED.
IN SOUTH CAROLINA.
CHARLOTTE, S.C., Nov. 4. Senator E. D. Smith, Democrat, and all seven Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives were elected in this State to-day.

WILL HOLD TOGETHER.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4. Irrespective of the results of to-day's election the independent party, headed by Senator LaFollette, will be kept intact and will enter the next political fight in 1926 and the Presidential race in 1928. John Nelson, LaFollette's campaign manager, announced to-night. The headquarters of the organization will be moved to Washington and an effort will be made to strengthen the movement, while all LaFollette-Wheeler leaders throughout the country will be instructed to preserve their records intact and continue working in lining up the organization, he said.

A TRUE PROPHECY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5. George K. Morris, Republican State Chairman, at 1:20 a.m. conceded the re-election of Governor Smith, by a plurality of between 50,000 and 65,000.

SMITH IS HAPPY.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4. When informed by party leaders shortly after 11 o'clock to-night that he would carry New York City by a plurality of about 545,000 and the entire State by 180,000 Governor Smith issued the following statement: "The returns at this time indicate my election by a substantial plurality that gives me much joy, happiness and satisfaction." The New York Tribune which has been supporting the candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt, conceded the election of Governor Smith by 100,000 votes.

POLLING DAY CRIMES.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4. One man was killed, two others shot, several kidnapped, and scores intimidated with threats of death to-day in election violence in various parts of the city. John McKay was shot to death, while sitting in an automobile in front of a West Side polling place. His assailant fired from another car. Claude Mackay, who was with him, was seriously injured. Both were said to have had police records. Shortly after the polls opened a party of men opened fire upon a polling place near the Stock Yards, wounding one man, who is not expected to live. Nathan Finestone, a LaFollette worker in the 46th Ward, was slugged, suffering a fractured skull. His assailant escaped.

SHOT AFTER HE VOTED.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4. Anton Rudzinski was shot and probably fatally injured to-day after he had gone to a polling place to vote. The police began search for several men without any information as to the cause of the shooting.

FRANCE AND RUSSIA APPOINT AMBASSADORS.
PARIS, Nov. 4. Premier Herriot and Christian Rakovsky, the Soviet Charge in Great Britain, to-day settled the final formalities for a resumption of relations between France and Russia. Russia will accept Jean Herbat, former foreign editor of the "Temps," and well known as a military strategist as Ambassador to Moscow, and L. Krasin, the Bolshevik Commissioner of Foreign Trade and Commerce, will become Soviet Ambassador to France.

THIRTEEN KILLED IN RAILWAY SMASH.
LONDON, Nov. 4. Thirteen people were killed in a smash on an express train between Liverpool and Blackpool last night, and several others were injured, 3 of them seriously. The train left the rails at Moss Side, two miles from Laytham, and crashed into a signal cabin near the track. One of the passengers who was killed was Charles Gramme, commander of the liner Bardic. Another was Ernest Tonge, advertising agent, of Blackpool. The remainder of the killed include the engineer of the train, six women weavers, two of them sister goods clerks and seamstresses. Three residents of Blackpool were badly injured and may not recover. When the train struck the signal cabin it sent the cabin flying into a field. The signal man on duty at the time narrowly escaped death. He received only minor injuries. It is unknown what caused the train to leave the rails.

ANOTHER CROSSING TRAGEDY.
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 4. Only four of the fifteen persons in the bus struck by a Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train late yesterday at a blind crossing in Northampton, remained alive to-day, and only one of these, an infant, was thought to have a fair chance to recover. Eight were dead before the rescuers arrived and three others died shortly afterwards.

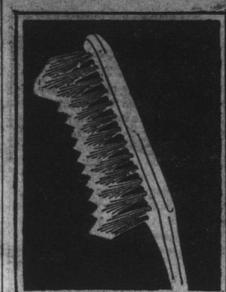

LABOR MINISTRY OUT.
LONDON, Nov. 4. The Cabinet of Ramsay MacDonald, Great Britain's first Labor Government, resigned to-day. King George accepted the resignation.

BANDIT SHOT BY POLICE.
NEW YORK, Nov. 4. Deserted by his companion who fled in a taxi cab, an unidentified bandit, who held up the cashier of a restaurant at the point of a pistol, in lower New York early to-day, was shot and killed as he fled before a fusillade of shots fired at him by two pursuing policemen.

TWENTY-FIVE HAVE DIED.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4. Four additional deaths here from what state and city medical men have diagnosed as Pneumonic Plague, brought the total mortality list, attributable to the disease since Oct. 19, to 25, according to an announcement by Dr. W. H. Kellogg, Director of California State Hygienic Laboratory.

LETTER NOT VERIFIED.
LONDON, Nov. 4. An official communique issued to-night says that the committee appointed by the MacDonald Cabinet to investigate the authenticity of the Zinovieff letter, the alleged propagandist document from the Moscow Internationale, has been unable to come to any positive conclusion. The communique states that the original letter has not been produced or seen by any Government Department, and the action (the publication of the letter) was taken on what was not claimed as more than a copy.

3 MORE CONSERVATIVES.
LONDON, Nov. 4. Sir Charles Oman and Lord Hugh Cecil, Conservatives, were re-elected to the House of Commons from Oxford University, according to the returns from last week's elections there which were announced to-day. Sir

You can't bluff your teeth

You might quiet your conscience with a lick-and-a-promise brushing, but you can't fool your teeth into thinking you have scrubbed them clean. Two essentials for clean, white, beautiful teeth are—get the right brush, and use it the right way. The Pro-phy-lac-tic Tooth Brush has saw-tooth-pointed tufts of bristles—sturdy and penetrating. The long end tuft reaches around your back teeth. Try scrubbing both gums and teeth with a Pro-phy-lac-tic. Then notice how fresh you feel, and how good-looking your teeth are.

CONFIRMED.
BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 4. The Brazilian Embassy here to-day confirmed the reports that the crew of the battleship Sao Paulo had mutinied, seized the vessel and sailed outside to Rio Janeiro Harbor. The Embassy statement indicated that the battleship subsequently anchored outside and was being fired at this morning by the Harbor Forts.

THREE YEARS FOR CONSPIRACY.
TORONTO, Nov. 4. Three years in the Penitentiary was the sentence imposed by Mr. Mowat this morning on Peter Smith, former Provincial Treasurer, of Ontario, who pleaded guilty of conspiracy in connection with certain transactions with the defunct Home Bank. The proceedings were brief and no evidence was taken. Smith is already doing sentence of three years on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Province in bond sale transactions. Both sentences will run concurrently.

REVOLT ON BRAZILIAN WARSHIP.
BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 4. A report reaching here from Brazil to-day asserted revolutionary trouble had broken out in the Brazilian Navy. The battleship Sao Paulo was said to have rebelled with another ship from Rio Janeiro Harbor left for an unknown destination.

OUT ON BAIL.
BREST, Nov. 4. Max Jerome Pratt, German-American, on trial on a charge of complicity in piracy of the French steamer Mulhouse, which was looted of $6,000 cases of whiskey off the Canadian Coast last June, was released from jail yesterday, on 5,000 francs bail.

MRS. HARDING ILL.
MARION, Ohio, Nov. 4. New complications yet undefined, are causing considerable apprehension to-day to the physicians attending Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of the late President, who was taken ill yesterday at the Sawyer Sanatorium here, where Mrs. Harding makes her home.

Remember St. Joseph's Hall is close by the Curling Rink, so you will not have far to walk for a good old home to goodness time on Wednesday night.

English View With Alarm Passing of Old Landmarks

LONDON, Oct. 7 (A.P.)—Modernising English towns at the expense of historical monuments is being condemned throughout the country by civic societies and persons interested in keeping together the glory that was England's. This post-war unrest is particularly shown in smaller towns, where the authorities are destroying buildings and other historical monuments to make wide roads, parks and other necessities of modern municipal planning.

From Coal to Oil

The great oil-burning ships of today are a sort of stoker's paradise. The old dirt and raging heat of the coal-burning days have gone; and the mere turning of a tap is sufficient to spray the oil from the tanks under the boilers. From the point of view of the whole ship's company, too, "oil" in port is very much more pleasant than coal, which meant that the whole vessel, with everybody in it, was smothered in dust. Now, however, a tanker comes alongside the ship and fixes a flexible pipe through a hatch in her side. Presently the soft thud of the pump is heard, and the whole thing is soon over, without fuss or bother.

Flour Likely to Advance

It is not improbable that flour will take another move upwards in the local market. The American Elections

When the twenty million voters headed for the polls in the various parts of the United States on Tuesday morning, no one seemed capable of forecasting with any degree of certainty the result of the election.

Anyone who has followed the long campaign which has been conducted by the American press, and who is unfamiliar with the methods adopted to influence the electorate, would be led to believe that the people had to decide the issue by weighing the different offences with which the candidates were charged, rather than by summing up their respective merits.

The result of the election is similar in many respects to that of the British contest. The fears of the Communist element had its counterpart in the menace of La Folletteism in America, real or assumed.

The Police and The Public

Several cases tried in the Police Court recently have been the result of rowdiness on the public street. In a city such as St. John's, which contains at certain times of the year a large floating population, disturbances of this kind are almost inevitable, and it is to the credit of the police that they are not more frequent or more serious.

A matter which calls for more serious notice than the actual quarrels is the tendency which has shown itself of late to defy the police authorities when they have called upon the individuals involved to desist, and even to attempt to interfere with the officers when they have been compelled to make an arrest after more lenient measures have failed.

On Monday Judge Morris in dealing with a case of this kind, which was by no means the first, expressed in an unmistakable manner his opinion of such conduct, and clearly intimated that he was determined to uphold the police in carrying out their duties. It is certain that in exercising the full weight of his authority in punishing such offenders he will have the strong support of public opinion.

There is another matter in connection with these disturbances which cannot be overlooked, and which is not altogether to our credit as a law abiding community. At times the police, attacked by overpowering numbers, have been compelled to call upon spectators for assistance.

assistance. That help has not always been forthcoming, although it is well known that the officers are perfectly within their rights in demanding it and that citizens are bound to respond.

Apert altogether from the duty which devolves upon citizens in such a case, it should not be forgotten that as Britishers we love to see fair play, and that the laws which govern our actions are the very foundation upon which our freedom rests, and have been made by ourselves.

In no other part of the world can be found a more capable body of men than the London police, and the secret of their efficiency lies in the fact that the public are their staunch supporters. To them he represents the law which they regard as sacred and which must be upheld at any cost.

A moment's consideration is sufficient to convince us how strong are the claims which the policeman has upon our support. Day and night we rely upon him for protection and safety. We sleep peacefully in our beds because we know he is on his beat. We leave our stores and offices in his care at the end of the day, in the knowledge that they will be protected. We deposit our money in the banks with confidence, because we are aware that he is keeping a vigilant watch over those institutions.

He is at our beck and call at all times, and promptly responds whenever his presence is required. In particular he has in his care our women and children, and he is the chief factor in the suppression of crime.

In order that the force can carry out their arduous and responsible duties effectively, it is incumbent upon the public to see that the authority of the police is fully recognized and respected. Further if occasion should arise when that authority is challenged, there should be no hesitation on the part of anyone to respond promptly to the call for assistance.

A Correction

In our report yesterday of the opening of the big Mercantile Fair we inadvertently stated that Booth No. 32 was owned by A. Harvey & Co. This should have been Messrs. Harvey & Co. Ltd., which is an entirely different concern, and who are displaying a most unique and very interesting grocery exhibit consisting of such favourite household edibles as "Widow Patent" known to be Canada's best flour, Armada tea, Bowling Green the perfect roasted coffee, and Morris & Co's new style tinned meat products in their attractive alight parchment label.

The booth is unique in as much as it suggests a very clever representation of the monster "Hood" which visited our shores some two months ago. To visitors at this booth are being distributed daily (to adults only) lucky coupons for a Christmas drawing of valuable and seasonable gifts, the winning numbers of which will be announced in the Telegram on December 20th. Our readers should make it a point of getting one of the coupons when visiting this particular booth.

Fish Not as Dry as Should be. In a report to the Board of Trade forwarded by Messrs. Lind & Couto, Oporto, on October 15th, the following paragraph appears:—"Demand for British fish is still dull. Exchange continues to rise and dealers are therefore only buying sufficient for their daily requirements as they expect prices to come down still further. It is of course impossible to say what the future course of the exchange will be, and dealers are not taking any risks. We expect, however, in spite of the exchange, to see a fair demand for good qualities before Christmas time. In reply to your query we may say that generally Newfoundland fish is not as dry as it should be. This is a pity, as fish for our market should be as dry as possible."

Remembrance Day, 1924

THE CALL. In Flanders fields. In Flanders fields the poppies blow. Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, Swear heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe: To you from falling hands we throw The torch; be yours to hold it high If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders fields.

JOHN MCRAE.

Poppy Day in drawing near and we turn aside for a moment to reflect seriously on the grave responsibility which we must accept and on the duty we owe to the dependents of our gallant boys who faced death for our protection. It is the day when the Call goes out to the public for assistance to relieve the distress among those of our men who can no longer support their families and the News-papers present for general information the particulars of what has been accomplished as a result of the whole-hearted response from a grateful public on Remembrance Day 1923.

Now we are coming to another Remembrance Day and those who rest beneath the Poppies of Flanders are calling to us in spirit to keep faith with them. We have a pledge to keep—a solemn responsibility to assume—that of relieving our distressed comrades and in a practical way to radiate sunshine into sad hearts where the bread winner is handicapped by ill health and where warmth and food is needed to nourish the frail bodies of children whose father sacrificed his health for King and Country. We feel that as Poppy Day approaches, the spirit which animated our people in the past will respond to the Call of those who gave up their opportunities, offered their lives on the altar of sacrifice in order that our Empire could be saved, our children and women folk protected and the world be made safe for Democracy.

LET US NEVER FAIL IN OUR DUTY TO HELP THOSE WHO DID SO MUCH TO HELP US.

THE ANSWER. The Victory Emblem.

Oh! you who sleep in Flanders fields, Sleep sweet—to rise anew; We caught the torch you threw, And hold high that we kept The faith with those who died.

We cherish, too, the poppy red, That grows on fields where valor led, It seems to signal to the skies, That blood of heroes never dies. But lends a cluster to the red Of the flower that blooms above the dead In Flanders fields.

And now the torch and poppy red Wear in honor of our dead, And tell of you who have died for naught; We've learned the lesson that ye taught: In Flanders fields. M. MICHAEL.

GO TO THE FAIR

The following brief references dealing with the various exhibits at the Industrial Fair will be continued in subsequent issues of the Telegram until each display has been dealt with. It is impossible, however, to even begin to do full justice to the general excellence which is everywhere in evidence and our intention is to give those unable to attend an idea of what has been accomplished. To the others we say "Go and see."

A. M. PENMAN CO. A. M. Penman Company have a large booth in which is displayed a high grade Chesterfield Suit, locally manufactured, and several tables of dainty design and finish. On one side of the booth are to be found musical instruments representing the well known pianos of Hiltman, Toronto, Sherlock-Manning, London, Kahler & Campbell, New York, and Carl Ronisch, Dresden. Situated in the centre is a player piano, where an assistant is engaged to play any piece of music desired. The locally manufactured upholstery in particular has evoked very favorable comment.

RIVERSIDE WOOLLEN MILLS, LTD. The Riverside Woollen Mills have a booth arranged on a most elaborate scale. One side represents an up-to-date bedroom where the Riverside Blankets are prominently displayed, while on the other side are shown other excellent articles made by the Company, viz: Yarn, Wool, pieces of Swanskin-Mackinaws, Overcoatings, and Home-Spunns, Socks, etc. The local products, particularly the blankets, have only to be seen to be appreciated.

GADEN'S AERATED WATER WORKS. A booth which called for much favorable comment is that of Gaden's Aerated Water Works, where there is to be found a well arranged display of locally manufactured drinks of various flavors. All drinks are manufactured from the purest and best ingredients and a full stock of the samples on display can always be obtained at this old established firm, on Duckworth Street. The booth has attracted much attention and the owners are to be complimented on its excellence.

STANDARD MFG. CO., LTD. The display of the Standard Manufacturing Company is one of the best in the Exhibition. In the centre of the booth is situated a model dwelling house, surrounded by grass lawns and trees. Here can be found the various products of the Company, whose aim is to furnish the consumer with first class articles at a minimum cost. They consist of Matchless Paint "The Paint of Quality," and a special line of locally manufactured clothing.

"NONIA" "Nonia" is a word made up of the united letters of the Newfoundland Outport Nursing and Industrial Association. All those who visit the booth marked "Nonia" will find on display articles too numerous to mention, knitted or woven by the fisher-folk of the Island under instructions given by members of the Association. A list of the centres is prominently displayed on show cards at the booth, and the demand for the products of this industry is constantly increasing.

DICKS & CO. An attractive booth is that of Dicks & Co., Ltd., contains a display of office requisites. Amongst other articles on display is the Dalton Adding Machine, Columbia Graphophone and records, and the Royal and Corona portable typewriters for which the firm has the exclusive agency. The other exhibits are book-bindings, loose leaf binding and accounting forms, all of which is turned out by the local plant.

J. B. MITCHELL & CO., LTD. Messrs. J. B. Mitchell & Co., Ltd., have two nicely arranged booths at the Fair, one of which is situated in the western end of the Prince's Rink where Nugget Boot Polish is on display. Here two boys, blackened up, are engaged giving free shoe shines to those who desire it. The boys are very enthusiastic bootblacks and very quickly demonstrated the quality of the polish. Other lines carried by this firm will be mentioned in a later issue.

THOMPSON LEATHER CO., LTD. The Thompson Leather Co., Limited, of Hr. Grace, have on display different grades of leather made at their own factory in Hr. Grace. One of their latest products is known as the Anti-Rubber Leather, which are shown men's and boys' boots made from this material. In the same booth are to be found oil skins for the Fish-men, Canvas Jackets and Overalls, for the Tradesmen; all of which has been turned out by the Hr. Grace Oil and Clothing Company. The quality of the goods was the subject of much comment, and it certainly speaks well for the local manufacturers at the second city.

J. T. LAMB. The booth in which J. T. Lamb, the Watchmaker and Jeweller, is situated, is covered with a fine display of clocks, which were recently imported from England. Among them is the famous "Buclic" Clock, which is guaranteed to keep going for a period of ten years. Resting on a table at the entrance to the stall, is a "Curio," enclosed in a glass case. On one side of the Curio is engraved a picture of the "Queen's Eastern," which laid the first cable line here in 1854; while on the other is recorded the particulars showing the undertaking was successfully accomplished.

F. M. O'LEARY. Mr. F. M. O'Leary has a very attractive exhibit of goods for which he is the sole agent for Newfoundland. Amongst the exhibits to be found are Palmolive Soap, which millions are using daily; Pet Evaporated Milk, which has won popularity since it was introduced into the Island; Luxura Orange Pekoe Tea, grown in the best tea gardens in the world, and other well known articles, such as Sun-weet Prunes, Jellio-O, etc. Visitors to the booth were delighted with its attractiveness.

AYRE & SONS. Messrs. Ayre & Sons, with booths Nos. 1, 2, and 3, are situated in the eastern end of the Prince's Rink, and a full line of merchandise is on display. Included in the exhibits are Lachry and Eskimo novelties, too numerous to mention, besides a full line of jewellery. Those in charge of the booths are only too happy to give visitors all the information desired. One of the booths is used as a musical and song store, in which is situated a piano and all the latest song hits; while a lady attendant is there to play over any piece of music desired.

MARSHALL BROS. The enterprising firm of Messrs. Marshall Bros. has a booth stocked with a dainty assortment of millinery and dry goods that is bound to please. One of the features is a lady's hat and a pair of gold radius worked on black silk velvet. It has been turned out by the firm's millinery department and represents a rare combination of artistic taste and workmanship. Situated in the centre of the booth is a complete radio broadcasting outfit. During the nights of the Fair the latest musical selections are broadcasted from the stations abroad, and this gives everybody a chance of listening in on the concert.

The Rev. R. Newton Powell will be the special preacher morning and evening at the Thanksgiving Services next Sunday in the above Church. Mr. Powell is one of the strong men of Methodism in Toronto and has taken an active part in all the forward movements of the Church. He is a forceful preacher, strong in argument, happy in illustration and clear in sending home his points. His text for the morning service will be from Isaiah "A man shall be as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." In the evening he will speak from Jeremiah "The vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again, another vessel." The order for both services will be specially printed. After the evening service there will be a short vocal and instrumental recital. The collection at both services will be devoted to the reduction of the debt upon the Church edifice and in view of improved conditions it is expected that the response will be general and generous. Few holders are requested to be present at least ten minutes before commencement of service after which the Church will be thrown open so that visiting friends may be accommodated.

The Fair the Popular Attraction

The second day of the Mercantile and Industrial Fair was attended by even larger numbers than on opening day, and all who visited it spoke in the highest admiration of the booths. Yesterday afternoon close on one thousand people were present, included in which were a large number of children who were mostly interested in the booths where samples were distributed. At night the attendances was the largest yet. Both buildings were crowded with interested visitors at all times it was very difficult to move about freely. During the evening the C.L.B. Band and Prince's Orchestra rendered a select programme of musical airs, which was greatly appreciated by the large gathering. The dancing gallery was largely patronized, and increases in popularity as the Fair goes on.

Four Starving Sailors Tell Their Story

CREW OF DOROTHY M. SMART CLAIM THEY WERE SHANGHAIED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Four starving sailors who said they had been shanghaied into the Rum Row Service, compelled a reluctant skipper to surrender to the coastguard cutter Gresham, the natty two master, Dorothy M. Smart, of Newfoundland, and her cargo of brandy, Michael Gillam, of Halifax, was the Skipper's name. The crew was composed of Louis Conroy, mate, and Albert Edouard Burroughs, cook, both of New York, and Henry A. Gillis, of Perth Amboy, N.J., and Carl Jasper, of Boston, seaman.

Scouting between the rum fleet and shore, the Gresham's searchlights last night picked out the glimmering top lights of a craft that seemed abandoned. Her decks were deserted, her anchor chain slapped against the pitching bows, her rudder swung at the will of the waves, her masts were bare of sails. A British ensign hung up side down from a lanyard—the sign of distress. Under its weird, straggling, unceremonious signs—shirts and blankets, shredded and frayed.

The Gresham hailed the little two master and four despairing sailors answered. They announced that they had been without food and water for seven days; that their skipper refused to put them ashore. They pleaded to Captain Brockway of the Gresham to have them a line, tow them inside the three mile limit, take possession of the Dorothy M. Smart, and give food and water to her crew.

Captain Brockway consented to tow the craft and thus the cutter and her prize arrived to-day at the Battery where it was boarded by agents of the Department of Justice, who seized the twenty barrels of brandy in the vessel's hold and began an investigation of the shanghai story. "We shipped out of New York 23 days ago," was Mate Conroy's tale. "We were told we were signed up for the brick carrier Enterprise, sailing between New York and Cape May. They took us at night, in a speed boat, and when we woke up next morning we were on the Dorothy M. Smart, surrounded by casks of rum and in the midst of the rum fleet."

Orders to hoist sail for a voyage to Halifax the sailors countered with a demand that they be sent ashore at once, they said. The skipper refused and so they drifted for 23 days with sails furled. The anchor was lost, and a week ago the food and water ran out, and distress signals were run up. The sailors said they might have taken command of the ship and sailed her into port, but the skipper warned them that if they watched and drifted until at last the Gresham came to the rescue.

Captain Gillam declared he knew nothing of

Great Emotional Play at Casino To-Night

YOUNG-ADAMS COMPANY APPEAR-ING IN "EAST LYNNE."

To-night's production by the Young-Adams Company is that ever popular play, "East Lynne" which, whenever played has always been a tremendous success. Judging from the advance sale of tickets there will be an exceptionally large audience to-night. "East Lynne" is a strong emotional drama containing many touching situations together with startling climaxes. Marie Adams has a remarkably fine role in this play, that of Madam Vine and also the part of Lady Isabel. In these characters Miss Adams will be seen at her best. On Friday night the play will be the sensation of sensations entitled "Spooks," and the management requests that all should attend early and no matter what occurs in the hall during act one, no one should leave his seat. All the chills and thrills you have waited for are contained in this great play. New and classy vaudeville accompanies the production.

Saturday's matinee will consist of additional features for the children and a good time is promised them. Next Monday's bill will be a big dramatic offering "The Road to Ruin." St. John's is promised something unusual in this attraction and we all look forward to it with interest. The Armistice Day matinee will be May Tully's successful comedy "Mary's Ankle." On Wednesday night of next week the Young-Adams Players will present for the first time in many years that play which contains a great moral lesson, "Top Nights in a Bar-Room."

George Street Church Sociable

A sociable held in the basement of George Street Church last evening brought together a very interesting combination of talent, both instrumental and vocal, while an interesting playlet was produced in a very creditable manner by Misses E. Marshall, M. Green and A. Taylor. Among the soloists were Misses J. Taylor and M. Joffe; Messrs. F. Wylie, Horsley, Courtenay and Ruggles. Mrs. A. Mews gave two very striking piano solos. Mr. Mayers, accompanied by his sister on the piano, gave Cello solos of great merit. Miss Murray delighted the audience with her recitations. H. G. Christian accompanied the soloists with a technique and finish that was delightful. Most of the singers are well-known favorites, but two at least are rather new to a St. John's audience, viz. Messrs. Horsley and Wylie, and their talents are a distinct and important contribution to musical entertainment here. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Women's Guild of George Street. Mrs. John E. Angel, President, and her committee of ladies displayed great tact and efficiency in all the arrangements and were successful in making a most pleasant and entertaining evening for a large audience.

POMP AND PRIDE.

It may be hard to play the game and never score the goal;
To live with want ungratified is trying to the soul.
But I would rather trudge along with good friends at my side
Than turn my back upon them all to walk with pomp and pride.
It may be hard to strive to climb, yet never reach the top;
To see the pleasures by the way yet have no time to stop;
But I would rather never reach the height for which I've tried
Than have to bear the loneliness which comes with pomp and pride.

Oh, there is pain in poverty and hurt in failure's stride;
But keener pain and deeper hurt a swift success can bring;
And I would rather, while I live, in humbleness abide
Than turn my bid-time friends away to walk with pomp and pride.

Formidable Cotton Tails

ELMIRA, Ont., Oct. 23—(Canadian Press)—A year ago Elmira startled the world by statements that the cotton-tail rabbits were so thick in this district that they were stalling the motor cars on the country roads and blinding the drivers with the clouds of dust thrown up as they scamped along in herds. Apparently they have not diminished any this fall.

The other day a big fellow did the bunny hug down Arthur Street, dancing along the asphalt road with no concern whatever for busy shoppers.

This story is vouched for by one of the Elmira ministers, but a local merchant goes him one better and declares that a big and hungry cottontail bearded him in the lane beside his home and actually chased him to his store. The effects of the hops of these rabbits on the home brew problem is being hotly debated.

Portsmouth Naval Memorial

LONDON, Oct. 25—(A.P.)—Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Canadian Minister of Defence, was present when the Duke of York unveiled the Naval Memorial here. The memorial is one of three erected by the Imperial War Graves Commission to commemorate the losses at sea by the Royal Navy and sister services.

The memorials are built of Portland stone and stand some 100 feet high. The design represents a column at top of which are four bronze figures, representing the four winds, the column being topped by a copper sphere. Round the base are 22 large bronze panels, on which are recorded the names of the missing from the manning ports concerned.

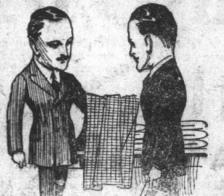

The Portsmouth memorial commemorates approximately 9,700 officers and men.

Minority Governments

Ottawa Citizen: Government by the House of Commons rather than by a party is not a passing phenomenon. It shows signs of becoming a permanent condition of public life in the British Empire as in other countries. And it may be no bad thing provided the House of Commons is itself fairly representative of political thought within the nation. Given a Parliament which reflects in miniature the practical thought of the nation, a minority Government will then be as stable, if not more stable, than a Government holding a majority of seats to which it is not entitled.

Our Montreal Letter

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
THE ACTIVITIES OF THE KIWANIS.
"When all your dreaming—all your scheming Proves to be in vain; You're tired of trying—feel like crying."
Hopes are on the wane; Don't show the world your aching heart.
In Life's great Game—just play your part— You'll find happiness very near."
There should be something in a man's life greater than his occupation or his achievement, greater than acquisition of wealth; higher than genius, more enduring than fame,— deeds that will endure for generations. A thought for the happiness and welfare of others goes a long way to help and cheer on those who need it.
"I slept and dreamed that life was beauty. I woke and found that life was duty."
Co-operation is a comparatively new word in the world's history, but it is a word that is growing in power and that holds much of the world's hope. Co-operation in every movement that has for its object the betterment of the cause of humanity in morality, character and citizenship, should be a bounden duty for all. Then and only then, are you in life's great game just playing your part. In every community you'll find many hearts to cheer, which, in the end, brings happiness to you. Looking over the report of the Kiwanis Club for 1923-24, I find that for activity, generosity, sacrifice and devotion in good and lasting works, the Kiwanis Club is a good object lesson and worthy of the greatest praise and imitation.
Over $20,000 have been expended by the Montreal Kiwanis Club on various causes, in activities outlined in a statement issued for the work of the 1923-24 season.
Standing out as the most important piece of service work in years is the Kiwanis Hut adjoining the Children's Memorial Hospital which is valued now at $17,500 and on which the Kiwanis expended $9000. Among their other notable achievements is the Hostel for Immigrant Boys on Osborne Street, which cost $7,200, a new barn at Sweetburg at the Girls' Industrial School costing $2,500, an expenditure of $1,000 on underprivileged children in the local hospitals and the sending of some of them to the mountains, a contribution of $1,200 to the Shawbridge Boys' Farm and the distribution of Christmas baskets to 663 families. In addition to this there has been the participation of the members in numerous other activities, particularly for the disabled ex-Servicemen at Ste. Anne de Bellevue Hospital.

THE CORNER STONE OF A NEW BREWERY LAID.
The first Dow brewery was established in 1790 at Laprairie. In 1895 the plant was moved to Montreal, situated at the corner of Chabollez Square and Coburne Street. The laying of the corner stone of a new brew house, which will treble the capacity of the present plant, took place lately. The ceremony was performed by Miss Dow, niece of the late William Dow, who wielded a silver trowel, made for the special occasion, and declared the stone "well and truly laid."
In 1909, "Wm. Dow & Company" joined the merger, which is now "The National Breweries, Ltd." The new brewery will have a capacity of approximately 30,000,000 gallons per year, and will be fitted with the most modern plant of its kind. The record of 134 years in the business is one of the oldest on the continent.

THE EXODUS TO THE STATES HAS BEEN LARGE.
The Louisville Courier-Journal says: The southward trend of Canadians has been steadily maintained since 1921. In that year the number of Canadians admitted to this country was approximately 58,000. In 1922 it rose to 62,000. In 1923 the number leaped to 181,000. For the first six months of 1924 the exodus from Canada to the United States amounted to 96,000. Of immigrants to this country few are more desirable than these Canadians, whether they be the thrifty French-Canadians of the New England States, or the dominantly British-Canadian of Ontario, or the Americanized Canadian of the western province. Wherever they settle, these Canadians become law-abiding, order-preserving, industrious and prosperous inhabitants of the United States. Men like the late James J. Hill, J. Graham Bell and Senator Couzens of Michigan bring with them to the United States a spirit that spells nation-building.

IN TWO COLLISIONS IN THREE MINUTES.
The old adage, "Trouble Never Comes Alone," was fully exemplified in the case of a farmer who was in two collisions in three minutes. The "Patron of Industry" was returning from Bonsecours Market to his home in the country, and as he was on Victoria Bridge, his wagon collided with an automobile at 11 o'clock at night. The farmer was hurled to the ground and escaped with a few bruises. The auto was badly damaged, but the farmer was able to continue the journey. Three minutes later, an autobus from Malocheville crashed into the wagon, with the result that the glass windows of the bus and two passengers suffered cuts. The farmer was also cut and bruised, likewise his horse, and the wagon was reduced to wreckage. It certainly was an unlucky time for the farmer.

THE GREAT PROBLEM OF THE BOY MOVEMENT.
The Franciscan Review speaking of the "Boy Movement," says:—The key of success to this up-to-date problem rests with the thoroughly "trained leader," think the K. of C. And they are right in thinking so. It seems as if too many unprepared men, not to say freaks, fools and knaves, have taken upon themselves, this weighty responsibility far beyond their intellectual and moral powers. They ignore that "Boy work" is first of all a character builder and that religious training is a vital element in a boy's life. If the boy movement aims at any thing, it surely aims at making a boy mentally bright, physically strong, and morally straight. Who will succeed in this arduous task? Thoroughly trained leaders, and they alone will have authority enough to say "Boys, be white!"

TWO DISASTROUS FIRES DURING PREVENTION WEEK.
During Fire Prevention Week three disastrous fires took place, totalling a loss of $625,000. The first took place on St. Paul Street in a wholesale Drug establishment, and the two others at Malocheville in the East end of the city, destroying a large lumber company, a confectionery company, the ice house of the Montreal Dairy Company, hay barns and buildings. Three alarms were turned in when the fire was discovered in the lumber yard. The beginning of the next week saw the Montreal Abattoir Co., damaged to the extent of $200,000. In ten years there has gone up in smoke in Canada over three hundred million dollars' worth of property, and over three thousand five hundred human lives were sacrificed. During that period, Montreal has lost over forty million dollars in fires, and about one hundred lives.

THE LONG WINTER IS NEAR.
The Indian Summer has come and gone. The weather grows cool. The leaves are dead on the trees and are scattered in every direction with the wind. The aroma of the burning leaves permeates the air in many parts of the city, and Autumn with all her gorgeous colors of scarlet, bronze and gold is drawing to a close. In the words of the poet:

"Autumn has come and the leaves are turning brown,
How they come whirling—down,
down, down,
Cool winds are sweeping through the forest aisles.
Decay comes when Nature wears her brightest smiles.
All things around us look bright and gay,
Yet soon will King Winter again hold sway."
R. J. LOUIS CUDDHY.

A GRATEFUL MOTHER
Letter From Mrs. Ayars Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Two Other Letters Tell of Benefits Received
Spring Valley, Saskatchewan.—"I took the Vegetable Compound before my last confinement when I got to feeling so badly that I could not sleep nights, my back ached so across my hips, and I could hardly do my work during the day. I never had such an easy confinement and this is my sixth baby. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the 'Farmer's Telegram' and wrote you for one of your books. We have no druggist in our town, but I saw your medicine in T. Eaton's catalogue. I am a farmer's wife, so have all kinds of work to do, inside and outside the house. My baby is a nice, healthy girl, who weighed nine pounds at birth. I am feeling fine after putting in a large garden since my baby came. (She is as good as she can be). Yours is the best medicine for women and I have told about it and even written to my friends about it."
Mrs. ANNIE E. AYARS, Spring Valley, Saskatchewan.
Baby Healthy As A Trout
Mount Forest, Ontario.—"I am proud today to think I have a fine big baby boy, as healthy as a trout, and I never felt better myself. Before I took your medicine I felt weak and miserable and had pains all through me. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to get stronger and those pains all left me. I am glad I found out about this medicine. I think there is none other equal to it for women who have troubles of this kind. I cannot praise the Vegetable Compound too highly for the good it has done me. Whenever I know of a woman suffering I am glad to tell her of it."
Mrs. Wm. RIDSDALE, R.R. No. 1, Mount Forest, Ontario.
Toronto Mother Writes
Toronto, Ontario.—"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a splendid medicine to take before and after confinement. A small book was put in my door one day, advertising Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines, and as I did not feel at all well at the time I went and bought a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I soon began to notice a difference in my general health. I was full of aches and pains at the time and thought I had every complaint going, but I can truthfully say your medicine certainly did me good. I can and will speak highly of your medicine, and I know it will do other women good who are sick and ailing, if they will only give it a fair trial. You are welcome to use this letter if you think it will help any one."

Raid on Schooner
Frances E. Moulton
Inspector Tracey Found Liquor on Deck, Belonging to one of Crew.

Inspector Tracey, accompanied by a number of Customs Officers, paid a surprise visit to the schooner Frances E. Moulton, at present tied up at the Ferry wharf, yesterday afternoon, and as a result W. Parsons, a member of the crew, will appear in the Police Court this morning charged with violating the Customs regulations.
On boarding the schooner the visiting officers found that there were only two men on board, the captain and one watchman, the remainder of the crew having been discharged when the schooner came here after a trip to Rum Row. On searching the schooner a salt bag containing ten bottles of liquor was found under a coil of rope on top of the forward house. This was seized by the raiding party and Parsons was placed under arrest, following an investigation which satisfied the officers that the captain had nothing to do with the liquor.
Parsons afterwards admitted that he had stolen the liquor from the cargo while off Rum Row. He said he had kept it hidden since that time in the salt bag.
The schooner is expected to sail to-day for St. John's, Nfld.—Morning Chronicle, Nov. 1.

Bank Barnjum Puts Up "For Sale" Notice

Discouraged by Lack of Support Pulpwood Embargo Proposal.

Montreal.—It is already apparent from press comments and private communications that Frank J. D. Barnjum's letter on the forest problem of Nova Scotia has aroused more attention than any previous contribution he has made on the subject. Mr. Barnjum admitted frankly that the campaign for the pulpwood embargo has been a waste of time and money fighting for it and he intends to retire from the fight. He says, offer all his properties in Canada for sale and "Join the trek to another country." Since writing his letter, Mr. Barnjum has actually sold his properties for sale. These include pulp mills, timber lands, farms, motor boats and other property in Nova Scotia.

It is learned, though, that this is not Mr. Barnjum's last word on the pulpwood embargo is shortly to be order-in-council he intends to remain in Canada and continue as a leader for forest protection.

His letter, which has been extensively published, Mr. Barnjum asks the following striking questions: Do the public know that an aerial survey of the territory north of the Lawrence and east of the Saguenay revealed the astounding fact that the whole territory is seventy-five per cent. burnt?

Do the public know that in the space of one year, between six and nine million acres were burned during the single season of 1923, and that three million acres are being burned by the government of that province (which is, God knows, sufficiently appalling) and that despite the perfectly colossal shrinkage in standing supply, exports of raw wood go on unchecked?

Do the people know that the very life of the great pulp and paper industry is threatened, not only by the premature exhaustion of raw material supply, but through the competition brought about by furnishing of cheap raw material to competitors in the United States?

Do the people know that there is a Canadian mill have been reduced to a capacity of 80 per cent, or less of their capacity. American mills, owing their existence entirely to imported Canadian wood, are running 100 per cent. and upwards?

Do the people know that there is a pulp company in Canada that is not any profits—many being already in the hands of a receiver—and the paper companies, if they were being off adequate amounts for taxation and depletion of their timber limits through insects, fungi, fire, and cutting, would be running at a loss?

Do the people know that pulpwood imported to the United States cost the Americans only $9.77 per cord, while wood used by Canadian mills cost Canadian manufacturers $13.30 per cord? (These figures are both taken from the report of the Minister of Trade and Commerce.)

Do the people know that a cord of dried wood leaves in Canada a profit of $10, while a cord of wood manufactured into paper enriches the country to the extent of $50 to $60?

Do the people know that our wood industries are second only to agriculture as revenue producers and that the failure of the pulp and paper industry alone would bring this country close to bankruptcy?

Supreme Court.

THE KING VS. JAMES WHITEFORD McNELLY.

Judgment of Mr. Justice Kent.

When the proper time came to draw the Grand Jurors for this Session, the Sheriff waited upon the Registrar for an appointment to draw the Grand Jury, but the Registrar was personally unable to attend, and the Deputy Registrar was absent, being at that time with the Supreme Court on Circuit, and not likely to return before the opening of the Session in St. John's, the Registrar deputized the Chief Clerk in his office, Mr. Kent, as his Deputy, to perform the duties prescribed by the statute to be performed by him. Mr. Kent accordingly attended, and though no comparison of the cards with the revised list was then made, the cards were in the box and the first twenty-three names were drawn in his presence. The names of the twenty-three persons first drawn were subsequently checked by the Sheriff with the revised list, and it was found by him that all these twenty-three names on the cards were also on the revised list; he was therefore satisfied that all these twenty-three names were the names of qualified jurors and appeared on the revised list as received by him from the Revising Magistrate. These twenty-three persons whose names were thus first drawn were, subject to what I shall say later when dealing with objections, 3, 4, and 5, summoned by him to attend and serve as Grand Jurors during the Session. The jurors all attended and served, with the exception of three who were absent from the city, and dealt with several bills of indictment preferred before them by the Crown. Later, Counsel for the Crown brought to the attention of the Court the fact that no comparison of the names on the cards had been made by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the Court and that on occasion the cards were not put in the box or the names of the Grand Jurors drawn in the presence of either of these officials, but in the presence of the chief clerk, Mr. Kent, the Court thereupon held that, under the circumstances, as they appeared at that time, the Grand Jury was validly constituted. In consequence of the above omissions and neglect, the Registrar decided to personally make a comparison between the cards in the box and the revised list; he did so with the Sheriff and the result showed that there were no cards in the box to correspond with names of twenty-five persons upon the revised list, and that there were no cards in the box containing the names of any person not on the revised list, and all the names on all the cards were those of qualified jurors, whose names were on that list. For the purpose of discovering an explanation of the discrepancy between the cards and the revised list, the Registrar examined the various panels of special juries that had been drawn during the year, and he found that twenty of these twenty-five missing names were those of jurors who, during an Easter Session of the Court, had been summoned to serve on special juries and had not afterward been returned to the box. It has also been shown on further enquiry that of the other five, one had left the jurisdiction, is now living in the United States, and that another was dead. Three cards containing the names of three jurors were therefore missing with no apparent reason to explain their disappearance, except that they must have gone astray while some one or more of the previous juries were being drawn. These are the facts and circumstances disclosed by the evidence. They show want of care on the part of the Sheriff in handling the cards in the discharge of his duties whenever it became necessary to draw them from the box, and in carrying out the directions given by the statute as to checking the cards with the revised list and drawing the juries, but is not suggested that he was at any time actuated by and from intent or improper motives in not observing the details prescribed by the statute or in handling the cards or the list of jurors. On the contrary, it is quite clear that apart from the carelessness to which I have alluded, every jury including the Grand Jury serving during the present session were honestly drawn with absolute bona-fides on the part of all the officials concerned. The impartiality of the Sheriff is not denied. Under these circumstances was the Grand Jury legally constituted? Was it competent to perform the functions it was called upon to perform? or were the drawing and summoning of the twenty-three men whose names were first drawn abortive, so that the Grand Jury never had any existence as a Grand Jury and all its acts null and void? If the provisions of the statute are honestly and substantially complied with and the jurors of which it is composed are all qualified men, impartially drawn by the proper officer, more technical objections, or objections based on the non-observance of regulations that are incidental rather than fundamental, should be looked upon with disfavor by the Court, provided the accused is not deprived of his substantial right to have the indictment preferred against him found by a grand jury composed of qualified and indifferent men, impartially drawn by lot in compliance with the provisions of the statute. It seems to me that the failure to compare the names on the cards with those on the revised list did not in any way affect the qualification of the Grand Jurors or the constitution of the Grand Jury by whom the indictment against the accused was considered and found, for although the scrutiny to which the list and the cards would thereby have been subjected would have disclosed the fact that twenty-five cards were not in the box, still the jury as finally constituted was composed of none but duly qualified jurors impartially selected by lot as prescribed by the statute, whose names were drawn from a box containing the names of substantially all the qualified jurors, in total ignorance of the fact that the twenty-five cards were missing and in the honest belief that the box contained names of all qualified jurors, and did in fact contain the names of none but qualified jurors. I cannot believe that a jury so drawn is so defective as to have no legal existence whatever. The substantial right of the accused was to have the indictment preferred against him found by a Grand Jury composed of upright and qualified men. This the accused, in the present case, had. The jurors were selected by lot with absolutely bona-fides by the proper officer, and the jurors who served on the Grand Jury were fully qualified and no objection can be maintained against them. In my opinion these objections to the constitution of the Grand Jury are not of a fundamental character, but that whatever omissions or neglect may have been committed, by the sheriff or the Sheriff's officers, the accused had all that the law had entitled him to, namely to have the bill of indictment preferred against him considered by a Grand Jury composed of duly qualified jurors and of none but qualified jurors selected by lot honestly and impartially from the general panel of qualified grand jurors. Everything else is incidental or directory rather than fundamental or mandatory. I therefore hold that under the circumstances disclosed by the evidence, the present Grand Jury was legally constituted and competent to perform its functions and that the indictment found by it against the accused is valid in fact and in law. As to 3, 4, and 5. These two objections are also related in that the statement that of the twenty-three persons whose names were first drawn from the box only eighteen were summoned to serve on the jury is explained by the allegation that the persons whose names are mentioned in the fourth objection, were not summoned. It is not questioned but that the twenty-three persons whose names were first drawn from the box consisted of the eighteen admitted by the defendant in his third objection to have been properly summoned, and the five persons whose names are given in his fourth objection. Summons to attend Court were regularly issued in the names of all these five jurors as they appear on the revised list of jurors, and delivered to bailiffs to be served upon them; in the case of three of them, namely George Baird, Archibald Forbes and J. Penney the bailiffs went to their several places of residence and found that they were absent from the city and could not be here in time to attend Court on the day of the return of the summons, he then returned the summons to the Sheriff; this has been the practice followed for a number of years in the case of absent jurors. It is clear from the evidence that had the summons been left at the residences of these jurors they could not possibly have appeared in Court in response to these summonses on the day of their return. It is equally clear from the terms of the statute that "the first twenty-three persons whose names shall first be drawn from the box—shall serve as grand jurors during such Session," that is during the Session of the Court for the purpose of which their names were drawn by the Sheriff. Now it must be borne in mind that by Order 56 rule 2 it is provided that there shall be three Sessions of the Court in St. John's in each year, to be called respectively, the Winter Session, the Spring Session and the Fall Session, to commence and continue on the dates and for the periods therein-after prescribed. The period during which the Winter and Spring Sessions shall respectively continue is prescribed by rules 3 and 4 of Order 56. The Fall Session for the purpose of which the present Grand Jury was drawn, continues under rule 5 during the months October, November and December for the present year. The grand jurors drawn at the commencement of the Session are required by the statute to serve as grand jurors during the session and "shall if required serve and attend at any time from the commencement of one Session to the next Sessions. These three persons having been drawn as grand jurors are grand jurors for the present Session of Court and might be required to serve and attend as such at any time during the Session. The accident of their inaccessibility for a particular sitting of the Grand Jury does not discharge them from the panel or enable the Sheriff or the Court to elect a substitute for them. Should they be accessible for other sittings they are liable and entitled to attend and serve. Their absence does not effect the constitution of the jury or prevent the other Grand Jurors, who attend, from performing their proper functions, provided, however, that no bill of indictment can be found against an accused party unless a majority of at least twelve Grand Jurors attend and concur in finding such bill. In my opinion, therefore, the absence of these Grand Jurors, who are regularly on the panel, does not affect the validity of the bill of indictment found against the accused. The other two jurors, to whom objection is taken, namely, Francis Cooper and William Chancy, are in a somewhat different position. It is said they were not summoned

grand jurors during the session and "shall if required serve and attend at any time from the commencement of one Session to the next Sessions. These three persons having been drawn as grand jurors are grand jurors for the present Session of Court and might be required to serve and attend as such at any time during the Session. The accident of their inaccessibility for a particular sitting of the Grand Jury does not discharge them from the panel or enable the Sheriff or the Court to elect a substitute for them. Should they be accessible for other sittings they are liable and entitled to attend and serve. Their absence does not effect the constitution of the jury or prevent the other Grand Jurors, who attend, from performing their proper functions, provided, however, that no bill of indictment can be found against an accused party unless a majority of at least twelve Grand Jurors attend and concur in finding such bill. In my opinion, therefore, the absence of these Grand Jurors, who are regularly on the panel, does not affect the validity of the bill of indictment found against the accused. The other two jurors, to whom objection is taken, namely, Francis Cooper and William Chancy, are in a somewhat different position. It is said they were not summoned though their names were amongst those of the twenty-three first drawn from the box by the Sheriff. What happened was this: these two names appear on the revised list of grand jurors for the current year, the addresses and occupation being given in each case; the names having been duly drawn from the box by the Sheriff, summons were issued and served at the address given on the revised list, and in answer to those summons the persons living there answered the summons, and upon their names being called in court they drew the attention of the Court to an error in their Christian names. Francis Cooper said his name was Terence G. Cooper, and William Chancy said his name was Wilbur Chancy; the Court was satisfied that there was a mistake in the name but not in the person and in each case directed them to serve on the jury, and they were sworn and served accordingly. It is quite clear that this direction was in accordance with the facts, for further enquiry it turns out that the occupation and address of these two men correspond with those given on the revised list of Grand Jurors, and that no other person corresponding either in address or occupation with that given is known to exist. Clearly, therefore, these are the right persons to serve on this Grand Jury. No question of personation of a juror by some one else arises, the proper person, in both instances appeared and was sworn by his correct name. A distinction must be made between the case of the misnomer of a jury man regularly summoned and that of a person appearing and serving instead of him who has been regularly summoned; in the one case the proper person attends and serves, in the other an entirely different person does so. No objection to the proper person can be supported in the first case; the other does not arise at present. I am of opinion therefore that these two jurors were regularly drawn and summoned and are Grand Jurors for the present Session of the Court, and were properly sworn under their proper names, namely, Terence G. Cooper and Wilbur Chancy, and that the objection to the bill of indictment found against the accused cannot be supported by these men having served at Grand Jurors.

As to the 6th objection: This is based on an allegation that certain names upon the revised list of Grand Jurors had been altered by persons unknown. Three such alterations are stated to have been made, but as none of the persons whose names are supposed to have been so altered were drawn or summoned or attended on the present Grand Jury the relevancy of the objection to the validity of the indictment found by the present Grand Jury against the accused is not apparent. However, as the application may be attended with serious consequences if it should turn out to be well founded, evidence was taken as to what really happened in connection with these names, and it was satisfactorily proved that in the case of Joseph Perry or Perez and in the case of Edward Perry or Perez, that these are their correct names; in fact the names of these jurors who are brothers, both being sons of a former Spanish Consul is Perez, and their addresses and occupations were well known to the sub-Sheriff to correspond with those given on the revised list as they had served as Grand Jurors in other years, the handwriting in which the revised list of grand jurors was written being difficult to read, the sub-Sheriff, for clearness, and to prevent mistakes, wrote the proper name "Perez" over that given in the revised list. No person other than the two brothers exists having names as addresses or occupation corresponding to those given on the revised list of Grand Jurors. In the case of Archibald S. Lewis, it was proved that the juror being summoned on a previous grand jury attended Court in answer to the summons, and stated that he name was Archdale S. Lewis, not Archibald S. Lewis, and the Court being satisfied that he was the right person, corrected his name accordingly, the correction was made in the revised list of Grand Jurors by writing the word Archdale over that of Archibald in order to prevent a like mistake occurring again. I cannot see how these facts support any objection to the Jury or to validity of the indictment found against the accused.

Supreme Court.

As to the 7th objection: It is quite true that Thos. James is now a Customs House Officer, but he was formerly a Master Mariner, and as such he is described in the revised list of Grand Jurors for the current year. A Customs House Officer is an officer belonging to a civil department of government, and as such he is exempt from serving as a Grand Juror, but he is not disqualified. The section of the statute which creates exemption from serving as grand jurors, provides: "If any of the persons in this section exempted shall be summoned and shall attend to serve on any jury the Court may, upon or without the application of such person, release him from service. If any person so exempted shall serve on any jury, such exemption shall be no ground of objection to his so serving or to the panel of jurors on which he may be." Thomas James was a qualified juror. He attended in answer to a summons and was duly sworn and served. The fact that he might claim exemption from service is therefore no objection to the validity of the indictment found against the accused. For these reasons I am unable to accede to the applications made by the accused to quash the Grand Jury or to allow his challenge to the array, and I think the plea in abatement to the indictment is not well-founded.

JUDGMENT OF CHIEF JUSTICE.

With the exception of the cases of the jurors Cooper and Chaney, whom the defendant claims were not summoned, the matter which the defendant has pleaded in abatement in paragraphs numbered 1 to 4, inclusive, have already been dealt with by the Court in the judgment delivered on the 13th day of October.

The other matters pleaded are as follows:—

(5) That two persons, namely, Terence G. Cooper and Wilbur Chaney, whose names are not upon the present revised list of jurors have attended and taken part in the deliberations of the alleged Grand Jury and were parties to its finding of the present alleged indictment.

(6) That the cards in the box did not correspond with the revised list as furnished by the revising magistrate because since the list was revised the following changes have been made by some persons unknown:

- (a) The name of Joseph Perry has been struck out and the name of Joseph Perez substituted;
- (b) The name of Edward Peary has been struck out and the name of Edward Perez substituted;
- (c) The name of Archibald S. Lewis has been struck out and the name of Archdale S. Lewis substituted; which said alterations are apparent upon the face of the revised list.

(7) That Thomas James, one of the alleged Grand Jurors, who has attended and taken part in the deliberations of the Grand Jury and has occurred in his findings, is a person holding an office of emolument under and at the will of the Crown, namely, Customs Officer, and therefore is not a proper person to be a member of a grand jury in a prosecution by the Crown.

With respect to Messrs. Cooper and Chaney, the evidence taken by us leaves no doubt as to the identity of these jurors. The jury list gives the name of Francis Cooper, address, Freshwater Road, occupation, clerk. Mr. Terence G. Cooper, Freshwater Road, clerk, deposes that he was called to serve on the Grand Jury; the summons was made in the name of Francis Cooper but Terence was written underneath in lead pencil. He has lived in his present home on Freshwater Road for eight or ten years and nobody of the name of Francis Cooper has, during that time, lived on Freshwater Road, nor does he know of anybody of that name ever having lived there. The witness says that he brought it to the attention of the Court when he was summoned, that he had been summoned by a wrong name and his name was then called properly as Terence G. Cooper; that there was in the city a Frank Cooper but he was not a clerk and never lived on Freshwater Road.

In Chaney's case the evidence of G. Wilbur Chaney, 120 Hamilton St., accountant, is that he was summoned under the name of William Chaney; that there are two persons by the name of William Chaney in St. John's: One, a cousin of deponent, living on Alexander Street, an engineer; the other is deponent's father, a retired dry goods clerk, who lives on Pennywell Road. Mr. Wilbur Chaney has lived at his present address for two or three years and nobody of the name of William Chaney has resided there. He called the attention of the Court to the fact that his name had been wrongly written, and he was sworn as Wilbur Chaney. The address on the jury list is William Chaney, 120 Hamilton Street, accountant.

As has been observed by Counsel for the Crown, the name of Terence might easily have been taken, in copying, for Francis, and the confusion between William and Wilbur may be similarly explained. We find that both Terence G. Cooper and Wilbur Chaney are duly qualified jurors, clearly identified by their occupation and address; that there is no possibility of their having been confused with any other juror of a like name, and that the misspelling of their Christian names cannot have the effect of disqualifying them.

The objection (8) that the cards in the box did not correspond with the revised list as furnished by the magistrate, seems to be without substance. The name Joseph Perry was put on the list for Joseph Perez, and Edward Peary for Edward Perez, as is apparent from the statement of residence and occupation. Messrs. Perez, the sons of a former Spanish Consul here, gave evidence that they were duly qualified grand jurors and that the proper spelling of the name was Perez. The correction was made in the list by the Sub-Sheriff. Mr. Archdale Lewis proves that during the present year he had been summoned as a juror under the name of Archibald S. Lewis. He objected in Court to the misspelling of his name and asked that it be corrected. Mr. Lewis' address is 22 King's Bridge Road, accountant, and he knows of nobody by the name of Archibald S. Lewis; nobody of such name has lived in his house during his six years' occupancy, nor has he heard of anybody of that name ever having lived there. Neither Mr. Lewis nor Messrs. Perez have been empowered to serve upon the present Grand Jury.

The 7th objection is that of Thomas James, because he holds office of emolument under the Crown, is not a proper person to be a member of a Grand Jury for a prosecution by the Crown. The holding of office at the pleasure of the Crown does not disqualify a juror. Mr. James is a juror whose name appears upon the revised list and who, when called in Court, did not claim exemption. He was sworn and served upon the present Grand Jury, taking part in their deliberations upon the first bill of indictment submitted to them. On the second occasion when the jury was called he claimed to be exempted. The Court, in the circumstances, decided that his claim should not be entertained. The Judicature Act, Sec. 8, provides that "officers and clerks belonging to the department of His Majesty's Government shall be exempt from serving on juries but 'if any person so exempt shall serve on any jury, such exemption shall be no ground of objection to his so serving or to the panel of jurors on which he may be.'"

These are all the objections first raised by the defendant to the indictment, and in the course of the evidence taken herein, it appears that a comparison of jury cards with the revised list had recently been made by the Sheriff for the purpose of ascertaining whether they correspond in all respects, and a discrepancy was discovered. The defendant has, in consequence, added two further objections, namely:—

(8) That the said alleged Grand Jury was not drawn from the box containing cards bearing names of all the qualified grand jurors set forth in the present revised list of grand jurors; but that twenty-seven of the said names were missing from the box when the said alleged Grand Jury was drawn.

(9) That it is certain, whether the names of all the qualified grand jurors upon the revised list were in the box or not when the said alleged grand jury was drawn, because it appears upon the evidence of the Sheriff that upon various occasions when panels of special jurors were drawn from the said box since the last time the contents of the said box were compared, namely, January, 1924, the cards comprised in the said panels were afterwards returned into the box without being counted or checked or compared with the revised list of grand jurors or any other list.

The number in question is twenty-five, not twenty-seven. Of this number twenty were taken from the box, having been drawn on special juries during the year and these cards were not returned.

It is suggested that some of the others might have been removed for the same purpose and the Sheriff reports to us that of the five cards unaccounted for, one contains the name of Hugh Carter, cooper, 5 Colonial Street; and the other the name of Richard F. Joy, journalist, 15 Garrison Hill, and that the former of these jurors has died since the list was made out and that the latter has moved to the United States. The fact that on the occasion of the checking those twenty-five cards were not in the box cannot invalidate an indictment found by the required number of Grand Jurors, all of whom were competent grand jurors, summoned by the Sheriff, called and sworn in Court, and asked to consider the Bill. The statute provides that "irregularities in compiling, revising or returning jury lists shall be no cause of challenge or other exception; and that irregularities in drawing, summoning and returning any jury panel shall be subject in exception on challenge only, and not otherwise."

JUDGMENT OF MR. JUSTICE JOHN-SON PREPARED ON OCT. 15th. FILED ON NOV. 4th.

The King vs. Meaney. In the matter of facts suggested to the Court by counsel representing the Attorney General.

and In the matter of the Grand Jury called for the present Session.

The Judicature Act Cap. 65 having in contemplation the jury lists provided in the preceding paragraphs provides, as to the revised list of names of qualified grand jurors, as follows:—

1. Each name on the list shall be set on a separate card.
2. At least seven days before the first day of each session of Court the Sheriff or Sub-Sheriff shall attend before the Registrar or Deputy Registrar and produce the cards containing the names of all the grand jurors;
3. The Registrar or Deputy Registrar shall compare the cards with the said list of grand jurors;
4. The cards shall be put into a box in the presence of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar;
5. The twenty-three persons whose names the Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff shall first draw from the box shall be summoned at least two days before the session opens and shall serve as grand jurors during the session.

This rigid code has been the law for almost a century. Twenty of such a jury were sworn on the first day of the present session; they proceeded with an indictment for murder sent to them; found a true bill, whereon the accused was arraigned and pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for the 15th inst. On the 9th of October five other bills of indictment were sent to the same grand jury, as to one of which they have found no true bill.

When Court opened on the 10th of October, counsel speaking for the Attorney General read, under caption in this indictment, an affidavit made that day setting out that the deponent had been informed and believed that the grand jury had been irregularly summoned in that points 2, 3 and 4 above quoted had not been complied with. On Saturday, the 11th inst., the same counsel on behalf of the Attorney General moved that the grand jury should be discharged.

In the facts before us I am of opinion that the grand jury was not duly drawn; that attendance by the Sheriff or Sub-Sheriff before any but the Registrar or Deputy Registrar is not such attendance as the statute prescribes; that comparison by any but the Registrar or Deputy Registrar is no comparison; that the cards were not in this instance put into the box in the presence of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar. It appears that at this so-called comparison there was no comparison of the cards with the jury list, but comparison only as to the twenty-three cards first drawn by the Sheriff.

In my opinion it should be held that a grand jury for the present session never came into existence, and that all done thereon from the date of the supposed drawing has been nullity.

St. John's, 13th Oct., 1924.

JUDGMENT OF MR. JUSTICE JOHN-SON DELIVERED NOV. 4th. The King vs. James Whiteford McNelly.

I was unable to concur in the judgment pronounced by the majority of the Court on the 13th of October, in the application made in Rex vs. Meaney as to the sufficiency of the Grand Jury, because I considered the irregularities then disclosed in affidavits filed by counsel for the Crown, as to and preceding the drawing of twenty-three names of grand jurors, material as to void that drawing.

In the present application wherein this defendant seeks the benefit of (a) challenge to the array of grand jurors; (b) that the indictment be quashed; (c) to plead in abatement thereto, his counsel relies upon six points of irregularity in addition to those to which that affidavit referred. The first three were:

1. That the cards containing the names of all persons qualified to serve as grand jurors were not compared with the revised list as the statute provides;
2. That the names of all the qualified grand jurors were not put into the box or drawn in the presence of the proper officer;
3. That of the twenty-three, whose names were first drawn by the Sheriff twenty only were summoned;
4. That added points are that five of the twenty-three were not summoned;
5. That two persons whose names were not on the revised list took part in the revised Grand Jury's deliberations and were parties to the finding of this McNelly indictment;
6. That the cards in the box did not correspond with the revised list because alterations in that list had been made subsequent to the revision.

7. That Thomas James, one of the alleged grand jurors, was a Customs Officer and such, not a proper grand juror;

8. That the alleged grand jury was not drawn from the whole revised list, because twenty-seven cards were missing from the box;

A Pipeless Furnace

WHAT IS IT, YOU ASK?

The most modern and inexpensive heating appliance on the market. Thousands being sold throughout Canada and the United States.

HOW IS IT INSTALLED AND OPERATED?

In most cases can be installed in one day, causing no interruption or inconvenience in the house. It is placed in the basement immediately under the floor of the hall. It sends a flood of heat all up through the house, into every room and corner, and at the same time draws all the cold air back again from the house, heats it and sends it back into the house again. It is thus a circulating system, which re-heats the air four to five times an hour in an average house.

WE INSTALLED—

"Enterprise Pipeless Furnaces"

(Made of all Cast Iron)

In several homes in the city last year, and the owners speak in highest praise of the absolute comfort and dependability of having the house warm in the coldest weather. All of this with a minimum of fuel. Burns any kind of fuel, and simple to operate.

THE MAKERS' GUARANTEE—

These furnaces are guaranteed to be of finest manufacture, absolutely dust-proof, and when installed according to our approved specification, to give entire satisfaction in every respect.

All enquiries given prompt and courteous attention, and fuller explanation furnished from illustrated circular.

Also highly recommended for heating churches, halls, schools and stores. A size for every purpose.

neither the Registrar nor the Deputy Registrar was present, but the Sheriff and the clerk from the Registry only.

Not even suspicion of mala fides attaches to either the Sheriff or the said clerk in respect of what was done in or about the drawing of the 23 names; but they ignored the specific requirements of section 65.

The remaining six points are very material in view of the imperative nature of the provision of section 65 that the cards containing the names of all the jurors of the grand jury panel shall be put into the box in the presence of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar on the occasion when the 23 cards are to be drawn before each of the three annual sessions of court.

The presence of officials of the status of the Registrar and Deputy Registrar, the Sheriff and Sub-Sheriff, was the specific safeguard which the Legislature provided for the constituting of such a high body as the grand jury; it therefore made use of the mandatory phrases of section 65, observance of which is the adequate security from the difficulties and malfeasances which might otherwise ensue.

In my opinion it should be held that a grand jury for the present session was not duly constituted, and that the present indictment should be quashed and the accused not called upon to plead thereto.

The grand jury functioning during the current session being in my opinion a nullity ab initio because of non-compliance with essentials prescribed by section 65, this my conclusion will apply also to proceedings had on any other indictments purporting to be found by that jury.

BETWEEN EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION AND L.S.P.U.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 23, 1924.
Avalon Goodridge, Esq.,
Sec. Employers' Association.

Sir.—At a special meeting of our Union held on October 23rd, it was unanimously adopted, that on and after November 3rd, 1924, up to April 1st, 1926, the regular working hours of our Union will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. That is, all work is to be suspended at 6 o'clock.

Yours very truly,

Secretary L.S.P.U.

28 October, 1924.

Mr. Thomas White,
Secretary L.S.P.U.,
City.

Dear Sir.—We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of October 23rd, which was discussed at a representative meeting of the Employers' Association, and to inform you that the feeling of the steamship agents is that the number of hours of work cannot be diminished if the operation of the steamers to this port is to be continued.

We enclose copy of a telegram received from Messrs. Furness Withy & Co., Ltd., which conveys very clearly the feeling of the owners on this point, and as we feel that the interest of the Longshoremen is vitally concerned in the continued operation of the steamers, we think that you should reconsider the decision conveyed in your letter. We judge from the tenor of your letter that all time worked after 6 p.m. and before 9 a.m. would be over time.

It is important that the Employers are notified at once if this is your contention.

Yours truly,
AVALON GOODRIDGE,
Secretary.

Furness Withy & Co.,
HALIFAX, Oct. 27.

On account of winter conditions important vessels receive quickest despatch possible. We have tried to operate regular service all through year, but if any delay owing to working conditions especially during winter when it is important on account of ice conditions steamer should be ready for sea quickly we may have to consider omitting call at St. John's. This should be fully explained to Longshoremen who should take reasonable attitude and not do anything to hurt the interest of the port.

Dear Sir.—We enclose for your guidance a copy of a telegram received by the general agent here from R. B. Teakle's General Manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, which is in accord with the message received from Messrs. Furness Withy & Co., Ltd., copy of which you have sent bears out the contention of the Employers in their letter to you of 28th last, namely, that the suggested change in working hours is likely to react detrimentally on your Union.

We would ask you to give this matter your serious consideration and to reply to our first letter to you as promptly as possible.

Yours very truly,
AVALON GOODRIDGE,
Secretary.

Sir.—In reply to your letter of the 27th asking for a consideration of the eight hour day, I am directed by the L.S.P.U. to notify you that it is our contention to work the same hours as you were notified about last week, that is, from the 1st of Nov., 1924, to April 1st, 1925, the regular working hours shall be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

November 4, 1924.
Thomas White, Esq.,
Secretary L.S.P.U., City.

Dear Sir.—Your communication of October 29th, in which the demand is put forward that the working hours for Longshoremen shall be restricted to eight hours in any one day, viz., from nine a.m. to six p.m., and that no over-time shall be worked, has been duly considered at a meeting of the Employers' Protective Association.

The owners of the Steamships and the Agents and Employers are unanimously agreed that the proposal that you have made cannot be accepted because it would be utterly impossible to operate steamers coming to St. John's upon these terms. The schedule of sailings could not be maintained and the loss of time in port would be so serious that great advance in freight rates, which the public would have to bear, would be necessary, even if it were possible to maintain the services at all.

We have forwarded you cables received by the several agents of the Steamships Lines here, showing what the feeling of the owners on this point is. The employers of labour on fish wharves require over-time worked only on rare occasions, but when it is needed it is absolutely necessary that it should be available, because otherwise the steamers that are to carry the fish to market would be seriously delayed in port.

It is, moreover, a recognized fact that the men engaged in this work are both ready and anxious to work over-time when they are given the opportunity to do so, and as an evidence of this, they were actually engaged at work of this sort when they were knocked off by the Delegate of the Union.

In the interest of the Longshoremen's Union, we may point out that St. John's already labors under great disadvantage in its labor conditions as compared with the outports. The cost incurred in loading steamers and in handling fish in St. John's is greatly in excess of that in the outports, and the result of this is shown in the fact that in each succeeding year greater quantities of fish are being shipped direct from the outports and less from St. John's. This is, unquestionably, the effect of the higher cost of labor in St. John's and the vexatious restrictions which have been imposed, and are being added to from time to time by the action of your Union.

As the matter stands no other course seems to be open to the employers except to endeavour to carry

To-morrow, there is a change of programme. Screen lovers will see the dashing Harry Carey in his strongest and best role in "Desert Driven." More than three hundred extra actors were engaged to play convicts in the prison scenes in "Desert Driven." Harry Carey's spectacular western film drama, which will be presented at the Majestic Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, Director Val Paul rehearsed the actor convicts for several days in their manner of walking and executing their prison labors before he turned a camera on a scene. The convicts were thoroughly rehearsed in prison etiquette before any attempt was made to stage any of the dramatic scenes. Marguerite Clayton plays the leading feminine role, with the supporting cast including George J. Wagner, Chas. J. LeMoine, Alfred Allen, Camilla Johnson, Dan Crimmins, Tom Lingham, Jack Carlyle, Jim Wang, Ashley Cooper, Jack Dillon and Otto Meyer.

Railway Fatalities in Britain

There were 743 persons killed and 23,240 persons injured on British railroads in the year 1923, according to a statement just issued by the Ministry of Transport, and reported to the Bankers' Trust Company of New York by its English Information Service. These figures compare with 728 killed and 19,462 injured in the year 1922 and with an average of 1,008 persons killed and 26,628 persons injured in the ten years from 1912 to 1921 inclusive. Of the persons killed in 1923, 78 were passengers, 248 were employees, and 417 were other persons, not passengers, such as those killed through collisions of trains with road vehicles or at crossings, or persons travelling on business in trains, such as Post Office employees. Only 3 passengers were killed and 449 injured as a result of train accidents. 66 were killed and 2,362 were injured by what the report called Movement Accidents, that is, accidents due to passengers attempting to enter or alight from trains or falling off platforms and being struck or run over by trains, falling out of cars during the running of trains, and by the closing of car doors.

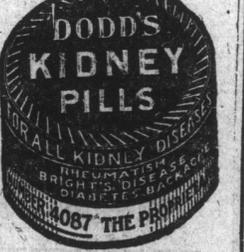

The closing of car doors accounts for the greatest number of injuries to passengers, 1,993 passengers having been injured from this cause in 1923. The next largest number met with their injuries while attempting to enter or alight from trains. These figures do not include any statistics for railways in Ireland.

What the Press Says About "Out to Win"

THURSDAY'S BIG ATTRACTION AT THE NICKEL.

"Daily News" (London)—"A life and death struggle at midnight in an airship flying over the English Channel provides a really magnificent thrill in 'Out to Win.' Clive Brook acts splendidly, the photoplay is good, and there are glimpses of beautiful scenery."
"Westminster Gazette"—"An unusually healthy and robust sequence of lively incidents... a struggle between hero and villain in the gondola of a burning airship is surely an exceptionally exciting bid for realism."
There is conspicuously clever acting by Clive Brook, who is enabled by the camera to 'double' the two heroes—a strenuous business—and Norman Page figures vividly as the most crooked of crooks ever conceived on the grand scale.

"Morning Advertiser"—"Filled with exciting incidents, including a hand-to-hand fight in a blazing airship, the cast in which Catherine Calvert and Clive Brook take the leading parts, have succeeded in making the film very realistic." A film none can afford to miss.

Mr. Olford writes: "I had a very bad cold and had several treatments from a doctor. I used a sample of Vicks Vapo-Rub, according to directions, and found it doing me some good. I secured a large pot from my druggist and in a week I was quite well again. For a great many years the medical profession realized the need for a more 'direct' way to treat inflammation of the air passages commonly known as 'cold.' Medicines taken internally have to be first absorbed by the stomach and then pass into the blood. A Chemist's Discovery. Finally a chemist in the States found a way to combine Menthol, Camphor, Thyme, Eucalyptus, Juniper Tar, and other time tested remedies in ointment form so that, when rubbed over the throat or chest for sore throat, chest colds, bronchitis, or croup, the ingredients are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors, passing up by the mouth and nose, are inhaled with each breath directly into the affected air passages, reducing the inflammation and breaking up the congestion. At the same time the ointment is absorbed and stimulates the skin like a liniment. This discovery was called Vicks Vapo-Rub. In Canada and the States it is so popular that over 17 million jars are used annually in the treatment of all forms of cold troubles. Vicks is especially fine for children as it is 'just rubbed on.' There is no dosing."
