

Bury, Vice President Canadian Pacific, Says His Road is Making Extraordinary Preparations to Handle Crop and That He Expects no Congestion This Harvest

Mr. Bury, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway, is making special preparations to handle the crops in the western provinces, and he feels certain that there will be no congestion in the west during harvest time. Mr. Bury, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway, is the general manager of the company. "Our preparations are assembling all possible equipment in anticipation of heavy grain shipments, and we are adding new cars so that we may be able to take care of the harvest," he said. "It will be the biggest year in the history of the western provinces, but I believe the roads will be able to cope with the situation without much difficulty."

DOUBLE WITH THE MINERS IN SOUTH PORCUPINE

Those Who Delve Assert That Their Wages Have Been Reduced

Those affected: Porcupine, McIntyre, Jupiter, Plenarium and McEnany

Porcupine, Ont., Aug. 7.—Difficulties have arisen between the management of several mines at South Porcupine and their men. The labor department has been called in and has consented to a board of investigation. The mines concerned are the Precambrian, Plenarium and McIntyre. In the case of the McIntyre company forty men are directly affected. It is reported that the workers have been working under a larger number of persons and that the wages have been reduced. The men claim that the wages have been reduced. The companies contend that their proposed schedule of wages is identical with that of the Dome and Hollinger mines. The companies are offering to put the new schedule into effect first but as a result of communications from the department of labor they have postponed the date of the schedule going into effect until September 1, thereby giving the board of investigation time to operate.

GRUUPS CELEBRATE CENTENARY BY GIVING AWAY SOME MILLIONS

Essen, Germany, Aug. 7.—In honor of the centenary of the great Krupp works at Essen, the company has donated $5,000,000 to be distributed as gratuities to the 65,000 workmen, as well as funds for civilians and for the army and navy. Dr. Sydow, the Prussian minister of commerce who is here to attend the celebration, announced today that a large number of orders would be conferred on Krupp employees by the emperor, who will arrive here tomorrow for the chief celebration.

WHAT THE GREAT WEST DID YESTERDAY

Edmonton, former British Columbia, now on a Canadian Pacific farm, secured over two hundred bushels of potatoes in two days. The crop will bring over $100,000. A new vaudeville theatre is announced for Calgary. It will be a modern, two-story building. It is estimated that 2,500 men are expected to harvest the Manitoba crop. The first of the new steamships from Scotland arrived yesterday. A new lumber mill will be built at Kamloops, Vancouver Island, with a capacity of 100,000 feet daily. A bylaw has been adopted granting the Barker-Cats company a license to establish a mill at St. Mary's. The branch will be established in time to handle this year's harvest. Plans have been prepared for a two-story concrete candy factory.

TYPHOID CLAIMS TWO MORE VICTIMS; JOHN GRIMAKER, ANDREW SABE ARE DEAD

Board of Health Meeting, Called Wednesday, Will Not Be Held Until This Morning

Health Officer Says He is Making a Special Effort to Find Infection Source

Well Water, Dangerous as Poison, Should Not Be Drunk Without Boiling

Believed That City Water is Pure; No Germs in Tests Taken Prior to June 1

TWO more deaths from typhoid fever have occurred within the last forty-eight hours at the local hospitals, Andrew Sabe, 40 years old, at the Calgary General Hospital, and John Grimaker, 24 years old, at the Holy Cross Hospital. Mr. Sabe lived at 111 Eighteenth street north east. Mr. Grimaker came from Glacier. Another case was added to the list at the Calgary General Hospital when a chambermaid employed at Lincoln Lodge, 318 Fourth avenue east, was removed there yesterday, suffering from typhoid. Another local case also is reported to the Holy Cross Hospital and was expected to be taken there last night. The death of Mr. Sabe, leaves the number of local cases at the General Hospital the same, namely forty-five as against eight from outside. The number of cases at the Holy Cross hospital is increased to thirty-six, with the addition of the expected patient, and the number of outside cases decreased to fourteen by the death of Grimaker.

BERESFORD SAYS WINSTON CHURCHILL IS A FAILURE

Most Eccentric Individual Who Has Ever Been Entrusted With Naval Headship

Opposes Alliance With Foreign Country; Prefers Depending On Overseas Dominions

London, Aug. 7.—Lord Charles Beresford, speaking at Evesham last night, had many unkind things to say of Winston Churchill, whom he characterized as the most eccentric individual who had ever held office in the government. "He has occupied the position of eight months and proved a miserable failure," he speaks of looking at things with a modern eye, but the first necessity is to see straight. With unaccountable insouciance Winston Churchill took charge of the recent Spithhead naval review, which resulted in chaotic disorganization. The German menace was, in his opinion, so serious that to withdraw the whole fleet to protect the heart of the empire would mean leaving one frontier only. The alliance we should desire is the one with the overseas Dominions. He concluded that he did not fear invasion, but starvation. He would always be granaries in the country with three or four feet storage of food. "We have reduced our fleet, we have reduced our army, while other nations are forging ahead by leaps and bounds. I say stop fooling the people and tell them the truth."

SLEEPING MAIL CLERK, STARTLED BY WHISTLE, DASHES TO HIS DEATH

Vancouver, Aug. 8.—Startled by the shrieks of the locomotive whistle on train No. 13 at approximately 11:30 p.m., a mail clerk suddenly awoke from a peaceful slumber on the station platform and dashed, while probably half asleep, onto the track in front of the train. Before he gathered his senses enough to get out of the path of the train or before the engine could apply the brakes to stop the locomotive the unfortunate man was cut to pieces.

SEARCH FOR DICK LYONS PRACTICALLY GIVEN UP

Dick Lyons, murderer of Brakeman Roy J. Blair, of the Canadian Pacific, is still at large. Chief Cuddy's men and the mounted police have scoured the country between Morley and Calgary in search of the murderer, but without avail. The mounted police have practically given up the search, and the local police have forgotten the chase on Prince's Island and the north shore of the Bow River opposite. Whether or not Lyons ever reached Prince's Island will in all probability remain a mystery. Although reported to have been seen by several persons as he fled from the island across the stream, Lyons has not yet been sighted by the police. Inspectors Grison and Mason, of the custody of the government, are of the opinion that the fugitive has made his way to Vancouver.

NO TOLLS FOR AMERICAN SHIPS, SAYS SENATE

Washington, B.C., Aug. 7.—By a vote of 44 to 11 the senate late tonight refused to strike from the Panama canal bill the provision exempting American ships from payment of tolls for passage through the Panama canal. Debate on the question had continued from 1 p.m. until nearly midnight. The senate then adjourned until tomorrow without voting on the bill itself.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN THIS MONEY BYLAW?

Ratepayers who are interested in the fate of money by-law No. 1333 providing for sewer extensions at a cost of $80,000 should take the precaution to vote today. The by-law is up for passage or rejection and votes will be cast at the regular places provided by the city and outlined in the bylaw published four times. The $80,000 worth of extensions cover the following streets and lanes: Lane between Eighth and Ninth avenues, from Second street west to Sixth street east. Lane between Seventh and Eighth avenues, from Fourth street west to Second street east. Lane between Sixth and Seventh avenues, from Centre street to First street west. Fifteenth avenue from Sixteenth street west to Scarborough avenue.

LORD STRATHCONA MAY CONTRIBUTE $25,000 TO LOCAL UNIVERSITY

Lord Strathcona may probably contribute $25,000 to the Calgary University. T. J. S. Skinner, who is in London, attended a reception given by Canada's high commissioner recently. Mr. Skinner has written to a local friend that he approached Lord Strathcona on the subject of a contribution to Calgary's educational institution and was assured that when the people of Calgary evidenced their faith in the university the $25,000 would be forthcoming.

RICH 'HAT HERMIT DEAD

Medicine Hat, Aug. 7.—Henry Plozman, independently rich, was found dead in his shack today. In his pocket was a letter from his wife, the inmate of a London, England, workhouse, appealing to him for aid. Plozman lived in a hovel, notwithstanding his possessions. It is believed he drank himself to death.

COMMISSIONER CLARKE ANNOUNCES HE MAY RETIRE "WHEN HE GETS THROUGH THIS;" BELIEVES HE WOULD TRIUMPH OVER HIS ADVERSARIES IN CONTEST FOR PREFERMENT

"I think I will retire and tend to my own business when I get through here," remarked City Commissioner S. J. Clarke yesterday to a group of newspapermen gathered in the commissioner's office. The big commissioner's remark came as somewhat of a surprise, in view of his former uncompromising attitude of defiance to his opponents and the investigating committee. Mr. Clarke went on to declare, however, that he hadn't made up his mind whether he would run again for commissioner or not, but thought he ought to attend to his own private business. HOUSE OF COMMONS CLEARS DECKS FOR HEAVY AUTUMN SESSION

Will Then Force Through Home Rule, Welsh Disestablishment and Trades Union Bills

Government Organizers Announce Fall Session Will Sit Till That is Accomplished

Bill Modeled After Lemieux Act Is One Measure Forecasted For Next Year

Government Glad of Adjournment, as Session Has Been Hard

LONDON, Aug. 7.—While the house has not passed any important bills this session, it has cleared the decks for the autumn session, which will, according to the government organizers, continue until the home rule disestablishment, the franchise bill, and a measure to allow trades unions to contribute to the funds for the support of labor members of the house passed the house. All these bills have received a second reading in the lower house, and the home rule bill has had a few days in committee. The programme, however, is a heavy one for an autumn session, and especially when the importance of the legislation is considered and the fact that each bill will have to be forced through against the united opposition of the unionists.

MAJOR MITCHELL MAKES A HURRY TRIP TO EDMONTON TO GET ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

Believed That the Executive Will be Successful in His Errand of Money

Tight Money Situation is Costing Calgary About One Hundred Dollars a Day

C. P. R. Demands Better Water Supply and Main Extension For Shop District

WHILE Mayor J. W. Mitchell was in Edmonton yesterday, pulling the wires to have a $750,000 bond issue validated so that the city can get a little ready money immediately, contractors and other creditors of the city were camping on the trail of the city treasurer clamoring to have their bills paid. "Unless the Bank of Montreal comes through" pretty quick with the $1,500,000 loan which the city has asked for, all work on improvements throughout Calgary will have to be shut down. It is anticipated that Mayor Mitchell will be successful in his mission but even so, the $750,000 may not be available for three weeks or a month.

CITY'S SECURITIES NOT TAKEN

The financial bother is occasioned primarily by the present difficulty found in floating Western Canadian securities on the London market. At the present time, underwriters have succeeded in getting investors to subscribe to about 15 per cent. of the two and a half million dollars of Calgary debentures. While the city has borrowed almost a million (Continued on page 11)

THE CHATEAU OF MAISONS-LAFFITE, ONCE THE PROPERTY OF MARSHAL LANNES, WILL BE OPENED AS A MUSEUM SOON

Built in 1650, on the Orders of Marquis de Longueuil—Voltaire Was Entertained There—Tragedy of Brilliant Young Naval Officer

PARIS, August 8.—The beautiful little chateau of Maisons-Laffite, which was once the property of Marshal Lannes, and where Louis XIV. was entertained, was purchased by the state some seven years ago for the purpose of turning it into a museum, which is now about to be opened to the public.

The chateau was built between 1642 and 1650 by Mansard, by the orders of the Marquis de Longueuil, superintendent of the king's finance, and when it was finished the king and the Marquis received the whole country, including the King and Queen. One of the most famous guests at the chateau was Voltaire. He was entertained there by the grandeur of the original owner, and wrote his tragedy of "Marianne," and a part of the "Henriade" there. It was at the chateau also that he met the severe attack of smallpox, which almost cost him his life.

NEW YORK WORKERS PREPARE TO GO TO BOTTOM OF MONSTER POLICE GRAFT SYSTEM

Representative Citizens Issue Call for Organization to Probe Underworld

Alliance Between Police and Gamblers Will Be Investigated

No Expense Will be Spared; Best Legal and Detective Talent Engaged

Popular Subscription Will be Opened With Which to Finance Movement

New York, Aug. 8.—Citizens of New York, disgusted with the failure of the police to clear up the worst graft and municipal scandal in the city's history, today prepared to take matters in their own hands by the formation of an organization to investigate the corrupt alliance between the police department and the underworld.

A call for the organization of a great non-partisan, non-sectarian citizens' committee was sent out this afternoon, the movement being headed by Jacob Schiff, Felix Adler, Bishop Greer, Jesse Shau, Eugene H. Outerbidge, Dr. Henry Moskowitz, Allan Robinson and Henry Great. At the same time Mrs. J. Borden Harriman was asked to head an auxiliary committee of women, with Mrs. E. H. Harriman as president.

The state of lawlessness now existing in this city, under cover of which crimes are committed with impunity and criminals permitted to flourish, has reached a point where a public sentiment demands that the official police department should be reformed for the protection and well-being of our citizens. Such a sentiment is being expressed by the district attorney's office, which has been investigating the case of the late Mayor Gaynor.

STORIES OF THE STREET

Some of Calgary's more serious-minded citizens were discussing the prevalence of typhoid fever in Calgary recently and some one suggested that the milkmen were largely to blame for the spread of the disease.

"Impure milk causes more typhoid than any other one cause," declared one.

Dr. Metzger—he's back with us again and incidentally declares that New York is too far from Calgary to be worth while—saved the conversation from flagging by explaining that he had visited a near-summer resort in Illinois that was blessed (?) with an almost-Melba.

CANADA, GERMANY AND OUR FOREIGN POLICY

WE Canadians are seeking a share in directing the foreign policy of the Empire.

This acceptance of responsibility, moreover, must go deeper than our public men. Our people must shoulder it, too. They must prepare themselves to see these international relationships—in which we demand a right to intervene—clearly, openly and steadily.

But, in the case of Germany, they can get no satisfaction. The Germans are an industrious, humane, and Christian people, who are doing precisely what we should do if we were in their places.

Edmonton, Alta., Aug. 7.—In connection with the reported disappearance of S. J. Knox, mayor of Wetaskiwin, who was rumored to be wanted by officers of the Crown for some supposed delinquency in the old country, it now appears from a letter which has been received by the late mayor's solicitors in Edmonton, that Knox, who

Wicked Willie Hungers For The Circus

"Once upon a time there was a little boy who had a broken leg." Willie always liked the old time-worn story start and he always snuggled up in a corner and relaxingly prepared to listen to all the wonderful, interesting, events that never happened in his life, like they did in the lives of the people who lived in "the once-upon-a-time days."

But this once-upon-a-time story is going to be about Willie himself. He was the little boy who had the broken leg and had to stay in bed and—there was a circus in town!

To a grown-up that's not even an event but to Willie the not being able to attend was a tragedy and Willie wept bitter, tragical tears, the kind that Juliet wept all over the face of her dead Romeo.

Just think of it! Lying on a bed with a leg done up in a spint!—You couldn't even kick with it to soothe the squirms of disappointment.

His mother propped him up in the pillows, where he could see immense covered-wagons go by the house and the cold, dark, mysterious howlings and gruntings from the "sweetest" carriages. They were all red and gold and the horses that drew them had the shiniest harness.

Then his mother told him in the afternoon there would be a parade and maybe it would go by the house.

It did. The steam organ steamed, "Everybody's Doin' It," in its most triumphal, thrilling, notes and Willie hungered with a heart hunger to be one of the "everybody."

Then followed the coon band which mocked forth and reiterated the invitation to, "Come On and Hear Alexander's Rag-Time Band."

Then followed the wobbly camels with their "camelous humps" and the "elephants." The way they held each other's tails made Willie think of the story of the monkeys.

"The horrible story told, when the twilight falls, "Holding each other's tails,"

"Holding each other's tails."

But time wore on and the parade passed away.

Then followed a series of seven-year-old critical "to-be-or-not-to-be" moments, when Willie's mother's weakness for circuses made her a kindred sympathizer with her son.

A happy inspiration came! She would get Johnny Jones to come and stay with Willie and she would go to the circus and buy Willie one of those ten-cent purple balloons that dangle so delightfully from string sticks, and one of those nickel whips that Willie could use on the bed-post which to Willie's imagination made the greatest kind of a horse.

As she walked to the circus she remembered how she always loved circuses and even if "it took her last cent" she would let any child of her's experience all the glittering delights of the show, all the pink-lemonade and peanut thrills, and all the wonder of seeing the new kinds of animals.

Why didn't every mother let her child go to the circus? Even if they only saw the parade, it pleased them so. And children can have just as keen heart-aches, even if they are not as lasting, as men and women can.

A Child's Recreation

- A department of interest to every home is that which concerns itself with the child's play. The hours of play are quite as important as the hours of work and it is foolish and short-sighted community which does not deal with this portion of wholesome and helpful recreation. The divisions of the department in the exhibition are as follows:
- 1. The abuse of the streets by children.
 - 2. City playgrounds, their establishment, furnishings, and supervision; organized play and sport of schools and schoolyards.
 - 3. Folk dances, organized indoor amusement, private theatricals, pageants, gymnastics, music, chorals, bands.
 - 4. Commercial recreations, moving picture and the theatre.
 - 5. Recreation facilities offered by the city, a recreation policy for the city.
 - 6. Boys' and girls' clubs, the scout and cadet movements.
 - 7. Social settlement movement.
- It will readily be seen that this is a most important division. If anyone has any views to express on any of these subjects letters will be gladly received at this office. The more the public is drawn into such movement as the child welfare movement, the better. No band of enthusiasts can do anything without the hearty co-operation of the parents and this co-operation is now asked by those who are promoting this exhibition.

Coming Events

- The Calgary Lawn Tennis Club will give their ball on Friday night at the Alhambra Temple.
- The ladies of the Central Methodist church will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Shoubridge this afternoon at 3:30. The Shoubridge Park car leaves First street west at 1:55 and 2:40 p.m.
- After the meeting the ladies will be entertained by Mrs. Shoubridge.
- Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Francis, who have been spending their honeymoon at the coast, are expected home today. A reception will be tendered by the congregation to Mr. and Mrs. Francis on Friday night at the Crescent Heights Methodist Church.
- Carbohydrates, phosphates, nitrogen and fat.
- To proportionate the elements, I scarce know where I'm at!
- Superfluous verbosity, not worth your little finger.
- Toasties crisp contain them all, and—the memory will linger!

SURPRISED AT THE SIZE AND RAPID GROWTH OF CALGARY

President of National Federation of Women's Clubs Expresses Regret at Not Meeting Local American Women

A well-attended and most satisfactory meeting of the American Women's club was held at the Public Library yesterday afternoon.

A letter was read from the president of the Federation of Women's Clubs in California about two months ago.

The delegates had been so charmed with Banff that they remained there longer than expected, and by the time they had got to Calgary they had retired, not expecting that they were to have any reception in Calgary.

The ladies read the booklets about Calgary, which the Calgary American club had given them, and they were great surprised at the size and rapid growth of the city. They were also delighted with the reception planned for them by their country women in Alberta.

After the reading of this letter, reports from the different committees were read.

This was followed by the reading of the bylaw which changed the day of the meeting from Tuesday to Thursday, because of being able to get the library hall. This change will take effect after the next meeting which will be the first Wednesday in September.

The nomination of officers, which were elected at the meeting, was also part of the business done.

A committee was appointed to discuss the planning of a social event to take place in the near future. The committee will meet on Friday.

EARLY CANNING.

Long before July was over magnificent peaches, large and fine, were being put up in peaches that are likely to cost $2.50 a bushel in September. There were fine cool days for putting them up, but the growers had to split their big baskets and sell out the fruit in dozens, because most women believe peach canning time is in September and that only the peaches which come from a certain season are canning peaches.

The art of canning is hard to learn. A grower's hard to learn. The business of canning has inevitable times and seasons for putting up different fruits, being governed by the climatic conditions of the section of the country in which they lived. Now our great transportation systems make us independent of climate, as far as our fruits and vegetables are concerned. We accept for daily use these things that push the season forward or extend it, but when it comes to such fundamental operations as canning, preserving, and pickling we cling to the old set lines.

The marketmen in vain make us offer that ought to make us jump at the chance of so great a saving and also the chance of being forehanded, but we are blind to an advantage that does not fit our calendar of operations.

Great heads of cauliflower have fairly flaunted themselves in women's faces at 10 and 15 cents a head, but when the majority of women get ready to make cauliflower pickle the demand is so great that it will have made the price soar up to 25 and 30 cents a head, and they will be scarce at that. Beans, when the demand is heavy, we often have to pay for what the market man lost when he could not sell his goods even at cut price. As he will say, preservation is the first law of nature. He would be glad to do a more thrifty business if he could get his goods at cut price. As he will say, preservation is the first law of nature. He would be glad to do a more thrifty business if he could get his goods at cut price. As he will say, preservation is the first law of nature. Willian Beauty Russell's Secrets

The Rainbow of Peace

When studying character in the human face, few give any importance to the eyebrows. To my thinking, they are an important feature of the face.

The arched eyebrow is the rainbow of peace. When contracted, it is the strain of wrath. Anger first shows itself in the contraction of the brows, then in the color of the face. Nothing is so devastating to health and beauty as anger.

A person with a kind disposition will always wear a smooth brow, free from lines or wrinkles.

The beauty of the eyebrows consists in having them moderately thin, especially in the centre, directly over the pupil of the eye, the outer extremity tapering to a point with soft, silken, regular hairs of a color a shade or two darker than the hair of the head. They should always be separated on the bridge of the nose, and with their edges clearly defined against the skin.

When the eyebrows join above the nose, it is an indubitable sign of a sensitive nature. Such brows are not pleasant to look at, and their appearance is a sign of perpetual frowning. The fact, however, can be overcome by pulling the hairs over the nose with tweezers.

The brows should first be bathed with hot water, and then with a piece of soft linen. And then rubbed with a little cold cream before the tweezers are used. In pulling out each superfluous hair care should be taken to pull the hair in the direction in which it grows.

Bathe the cleared space with a little witchhazel immediately after.

Some barbers have the eyebrows. That is dangerous for the feminine gender, for the brows grow again they are inclined to grow coarse.

A little brush should be used to cleanse the brows from dust and powder. When the brows are soiled and gently rubbed into the skin every other night. Always, when wiping them, rub in the direction in which the hair grows from the nose outward, never in the opposite direction.

The eyelids should neither be widely opened nor half closed. The former habit gives a half-seared expression, and the latter a heavy-lidded look that is unattractive.

The eyelids are the most sensitive portions of the face. They are the seat of disease and disfigurement, sleepless nights and bodily fatigue, worry and anxiety, before any indication appears in any other part of the face. They are a veritable barometer of condition. Disipation and overfeeding will puff the eyelids and thicken them permanently.

Then there are the wrinkled lids that come from reading at night by artificial light, or from an indication of the sun with many wrinkles on the eyelids you may be sure that he read him.

Every person should use a mild eye wash with an eye cup twice a day, and gently rub the eye into the skin lines which deepen into the eye socket with the rubbing of the eye. A soft drop of water in a solution of boric acid and water should be applied over and under the eyes after every reading or day.

This will prevent many of the annoyances which cause embarrassment to people who desire to look their best.

Remember: The cleaner the lamp, the clearer the light, either mental or physical.

For the relief of the eye, the formula calls for castor oil. You may also omit the oil of cloves if desired.

ALPINE CLUB IN CAMP ON VERMILLION RIVER

Alpine Club of Canada Camp. Main Range, Canadian Rockies, Aug. 7.—The Canadian Alpine club this year has pitched its camp just by Vermillion pass, on the line of the route to be followed by the road builders who are now at work preparing the motor road from Banff to Windermere. The camp consists of about seventy tents pitched in a beautiful wooded valley by the Vermillion river, a small stream with milky waters. It is slightly over eight miles south of Castle station on the Canadian Pacific railway. The altitude of the camp is about 5500 feet. The first camp was pitched by the club in 1906. It was then a party of five men, including the club's secretary, Dr. Macdonald, editor of The Toronto Globe, was the first woman to reach the camp. After a brave and stormy night. The return was quickly made in a downpour of rain and accompanied by thunder and lightning.

Professor Coleman of Toronto University was in charge of the trip.

SASKATOON GIVES BONUS TO QUAKER OATS

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 7.—By a vote of 713 to 34, Saskatoon ratemakers yesterday passed a bylaw making an agreement with the Quaker Oats company under which the latter will locate the western Canada plant in Saskatoon. The city gives $20,000 to purchase a site, fixed assessment and a rate of 14 cents a kilowatt for power or less as the cost may be shown. The company will accept present plant of the Canadian Milling Company and erect a new oatmeal mill, agreeing to employ 100 hands. The vote was the largest ever recorded at a municipal poll in the city.

THE IMMIGRATION BUILDING PLANS NOT UP TO LOCAL LAWS; WORK STOPPED

Because of objections raised to the plans for the new Dominion government building of the type planned by the government, objections also raised to the lantern style of roof, permissible only on five store buildings, under the city's bylaws. Furthermore, as the number of buildings designed for each floor, the building perfectly fitting under the provisions of the present building regulations, was planned to cost about $80,000 and is located at Tenth avenue and First street east.

The Danger of Imitations.

An Ohio druggist writes to "The Practical Druggist," a prominent New York Drug Journal, as follows: "Please furnish formula for Castoria. All the formulas I have worked with are either ineffective or disagreeable to administer."

To this "The Practical Druggist" replies: "We do not supply formulas for proprietary articles. We couldn't if we wanted to. His experience with imitative formulas is not surprising, but just what is to be expected. When Castoria is wanted, why not supply the genuine. If you make a substitute, it is not fair or right to label it Castoria. We can give you all sorts of laxative preparations for Children, but not Castoria, and we think a mother who asks for Castoria would not feel kindly toward you if you gave her your own product under such a name."

No mother with a spark of affection for her child will overlook the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher when buying Castoria.

Our store is already leased to other parties, and they want it sooner than we expected, consequently we have to get out quick. We have until Wednesday Noon, August 14th, to get rid of as much of this stock as possible. We've got to sell thousands of dollars worth of merchandise every day.

IT WILL BE FIVE BIG DAYS OF SENSATIONAL SELLING

Everything in this store from basement to garret is priced to sell; everything must find a new owner at any price. And it's up to you now to get here with both feet and dig in and get your share of the big things. This is our last and final appeal to the public, and it will be up to you now. There will be great selling—a week's business done every day. Come in the mornings, avoid the crowds of the afternoons.

On Wednesday, August 14th, at 1 p. m., this store will be closed to the public and Robinson & Co. will be no more. Come and bid farewell to Robinson & Co. Bargains in everything. Better buy now than wish you had. It's your last chance.

OUR TIME IS SHORT -- WE ARE AFTER BIG THINGS NOW -- ITS OUR LAST AND YOURS

Come, and Come With a Full Pocket Book, for You'll be Buying-- You Can't Help it

Thousands of dollars worth of Dress Goods, Silks, Linings, etc., trimmings, at prices to clear up this stock. Buy now what you'll need for this coming fall and winter. We still have a good assortment to choose from. Yards and yards of serges, venetians, broadcloths, chevots, tweeds, fancy fabrics, light goods for evening wear, etc. Think of what you'll save by buying now.

Remnants! Remnants! Remnants! Five Thousand Remnants Marked at Half the Regular Remnant Price

Think it over, and think what it means! Half of Remnant Price. There are dress goods, silks, muslins, prints, cotton, flannellettes, etc. There are many pieces here that you could hardly call remnants, for they are lovely big pieces, many a length here for a whole dress, for a shirt, for a waist. But out they must go. Heavy selling these past two weeks has been the cause of this, but it's a feast for the economical women. You who can put to good use a short length of goods will find here many a treasure.

Tables piled high with lovely remnants all ready for your choosing. Come, you can look them over and mix the map to your heart's content, till you find something to your liking. Of course, it will be the same in this as in other things, the first comers get the cream.

Some Women have been Here Every Day Since this Sale Started-- and They'll be here Again

They realize what this sale means to them in the way of saving money on goods they need for themselves and their home, and need we remind you that it's not cheap goods that you get here, but the very best money can buy. Come for bargains in muslins, cottons, cretonnes, wash goods, prints, lawns, shirtings, flannelles, flannellettes. You can buy now at prices lower than you ever dreamt of paying in this western country.

This is our Last and Final Appeal

Come and help yourself to some of the goods. There are still lots of it here, just the sort of goods that you need now and will be needing later. It's your last opportunity to buy at such prices. Come and take a look around, we will give you a surprise that will bring on a smile.

The Ready-to-Wear Section Has Been a Busy Place Ever Since This Sale Started

It's surprising where all the garments that a few weeks ago filled our racks and tables went to. They are gone; sold at the smallest prices ever named. Still there are lots of dresses, skirts, coats, undershirts, bathing suits, kimonos to be cleared out.

We are making our last stab at the prices to make a good clean-up. Now is the time, ladies, to purchase that garment which you thought you could not afford. You can have it now; just find your way to our mantle section and price a few of the garments. You will wonder what it all means.

In the Millinery Section all Trimmed Hats go at half price and many less. Untrimmed Shapes at 50¢. All Flowers at exactly half price. Everything goes. No reserve.

It's the Last Farewell to Robinson & Company

WEDDING A SAINT

This is a time in most every young man's life when he reverts to the sort of girl whom he will marry. It is usually the saintly young creature who appeals to him and who through her way with stately grace through his castles. Once in a while these young men will marry just the kind of girl.

But somehow the young man does not find the paradise on earth that he expected. We all are told that the saintly young lady makes the only wife worth having. Still there must be other elements in her nature to make her life with her a happy one.

She must be "too good to be true." She must be as saintly as the angels and as loving as she is saintly. An admirable quality like the last shall be carried too far. No man likely to be constantly reminded every day of his life in his home that his wife is a saint and he is a sinner because he does not show as much interest in church work as she does not regarding all the money which he can make or scrape to the heaven.

While he believes in the wholesome goodness of wives in general, as he grows on in years he sees the advantage of the standpoint of happiness in a merry-hearted, sympathetic, congenial woman who finds amusement in laughing at the jokes they are a bit spiteful—instead of being shocked at his being amused at them.

He believes that there are more good-hearted saints than gloomy ones, and that the dove for the perfect saint is not on this workaday planet with its demands and human struggles.

It does not follow that the women who are not saints are sinners. For many of them they are simply good, noble, kind, laughing and a trifle of temper, but they are not the kind of woman who are in health and vigor, then all that is satisfactory in their nature predominates and they become the kind of woman to the stricken ones whom they love.

All women are three-fourths good, and one-fourth vapid by nature. She should be only too happy to gain the love and be glad to take them as they are. The man who looks forward to wedding a woman who is all saint

He's So Worried

"Dear Miss Libbey: Could you help me to decide what to do, as I am so worried? I am a young man 38 years old. I live in a small town of 300 inhabitants. My folks live on a farm two miles from town. I am rather looking, but do not take well with the girls. Some people think I am so silly. I am an auto driver by trade. I keep company with a young lady. She is a school teacher and teaches fourteen miles from my home. I go after her every Friday evening, rain or shine. She visits at my home till Sunday evening. I am just crazy about her. I love her, but I don't think she loves me. I go with her regularly. I went with her once before and quit her, for I didn't think she loved me. I tried to put my arms around her and kiss her, and she wouldn't let me. Do you think she loves me? After I quit her I went with another girl. But I came back to her again. Before I went with this girl I went with her sister a long time and quit her. My girl's home is in a town of 3,500 inhabitants. Do you think she has another fellow there? The first sweetheart I ever had and dearly loved, and yet, lives in the same town my girl now lives in. My former girl clerks in a store there. She is a lot better looking girl than the one I have now. It makes my heart ache to see her, for I love her so. If I could only go with her I would turn this girl down too quick. Now do you think I love this girl enough to marry her? And do you think she loves me? I am so puzzled and worried please advise me what to do."

Poor "Suits"

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a young man of 26. I am attending college and about two weeks ago, while attending a dance I fell deeply in love with a beautiful young lady. I am about five feet six inches tall and of rather slender build. I have dark hair and blue eyes. The young lady objects to keeping company with me because I am so tall and slender. What can I do to overcome this feeling?"

Complaint of a Wife

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am one of a number of women who if we have companionship must seek it outside our homes. We take our work and meet at each other's homes for a social time while our husbands are at lodge. They seem almost lodge crazy, spending at least four nights a week giving and taking degrees. They always have a spread of banquet, and seldom get home before 12, and often after 2 o'clock in the morning. Now they are building expensive lodgerooms, fitted up most beautifully and with every comfort and convenience far better than in our homes.

What Shall She Do Now?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am an orphan girl of 26. I work in private homes for a living. I have been acquainted with a perfect gentleman, whom I respected highly but did not love. Some months ago he made a habit of calling upon me, through no fault of mine, as I did not encourage him in the least. At his last call he told me that he loved me. I became angry and told him I could never think of becoming the wife of a man of his religion, as I am too strict in my belief and promised my parents to remain true to my church. I said a number of other things which hurt his feelings very much. Shortly after this he left town. I located him and sent him two letters of apology. He never answered, but find now that he does love me and can't live without him. Do you think there is any chance of winning him back, or should I try to forget? I am positive that he loved me. Was right to send those letters?"

Her Parents Insulted Him

"Dear Miss Libbey: I have been corresponding with a young man, out of town, for about a year, during which time he visited her twice. About three months ago he came here again and after calling at the house several times my parents insulted him. They meant it for my good, but went into the matter too deeply. I just wish I could have a heart-to-heart talk with you and tell you what they said. I can assure you that had I been in his place I would have felt more offended than he did and have told them a word or two. He says that through respect for myself and himself he kept quiet as he did. After this occurred we went out together several times; he also called me up daily, as before, but he would not call at my home. He told me that after thinking over all that had said it was a hint to keep away. His calls became less frequent until finally I did not hear from him for about three weeks. I wrote him a formal note, and he answered that his thoughts of me were the same as ever, but that he could not call at the house and asked me what to do. I simply told him to brace up and ignore them, and that if his thoughts of me were as he said this should not hinder him from calling. He failed to answer my letter, so I got angry and returned his photo, also a friendship ring he gave me, telling him that I wanted to forget him. "A day before he left for his home town he called me up, saying he was sorry and asked when he could see me, as he wanted to talk the matter over. I was stubborn and refused to see him. Now I do love this young man dearly, and know that he loves me, but I thought that if I had consented to see him, he might think I was running after him, which I have too much pride to allow. Try as hard as I could to forget him, I found I cannot, and still love him. Now, what would you advise me to do? Should I write to him, and what shall I say?"

Doesn't Want a Beau!

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am about 17 and do not want any beau. I like boys and want them to be friends of mine, but no more. Here is my perplexity. I have various fellows whom I regard as friends with whom I correspond. One in Illinois, one in the west, and one up north. Now, I never thought they fell we were ever to be more than friends, but for Christmas I received a box of household flowers from one, and a book from the third. I never would accept gifts of jewelry or personal things from any fellow, but

He Will Be Disinterested

"Dear Miss Libbey: You no doubt think it strange that a man should write you for advice, but I have read your good advice to others, so think you may be able to help me. I am a young man, 25 years of age, of a good old family, and wealthy. There is no one in the family but my mother and myself, and here is where the trouble arises. The last winter, while in the south with my mother, I met a mighty charming young lady of a refined nature who through a misfortune was forced to go to work in a clear stand in the hotel where we were stopping. I am desperately in love with this young lady—in fact, have asked her to call at my home

He told me that after thinking over all that had said it was a hint to keep away. His calls became less frequent until finally I did not hear from him for about three weeks. He Wants to Win Her

"Dear Miss Libbey: There is a certain young girl that I have known for the last three months. I do not think she knows I care for her, nor do I know whether she cares for me. She does not speak to me much because I have been told that she thinks I am too young. I would consider it a great favor if you would tell me in which I could convince her that I care for her and that I am as old as she is."

He Speaks to Her

"Dear Miss Libbey: I should a young lady do if, walking along a street alone, a young man speaks to her? I had not even seen him when he spoke, but turned and saw it was nobody I had ever seen. I paid no attention, but walked on as if I did not see or hear him. This was about noon and on a much frequented avenue. I thought the best way would be to ignore it. What can a girl do? Should not he be able to walk quietly along the street without being insulted? A policeman appeared around the corner just after he spoke to me, and would probably get into the paper, and rather than this I said nothing. Please advise me in case it ever should occur again what I could do."

MUCH WORRIED

"You should have requested the officer to warn the fellow that if he ever repeated such actions he would be arrested."

She Is a School Teacher

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am in love with a young lady who is a school teacher. I really love her and I think she loves me, too. Some time ago she near me, and because I did not invite her to call on me she took offense and hasn't spoken to me since. Now, do you think I should have asked her to call on me?"

IGNORANT LOVER

"It is not your place to invite the girl to call on you. You might have asked her permission to call upon her. She is a peculiar sort of girl, I think."

PERFECT WEATHER AND LOCAL CRICKETERS MADE CENTURIES YESTERDAY

Third Days' Play Brought Forth Crowd of Spectators, Who Witnessed Fast Games

O'Grady and A. Toole vs. Wheatley and Napper Proved Best Match of the Day

Out of Town Visitors Showing Up Well; Events Narrowing Down to Finals Soon

It is natural for local supporters to be pleased when they see their own team come out on top and Alberta people, and people of Calgary especially, were overjoyed with the performances of their team yesterday in the cricket championship tourney of Western Canada. Not only did both carry off the honors in their respective games but they did it in such a decisive fashion that the championship seems certain to go to either the Alberta team or Calgary.

The good weather and the interesting play of the day brought out a large gallery in the afternoon and the spectators were well rewarded for their attendance. Until as late as eight thirty, there were a number present watching the finish of the splendid double match between O'Grady and Arch Toole against Wheatley and Napper.

This match was perhaps the feature event of the day. The men playing are regarded as being in the race for first honors. Mr. Wheatley has a fast, well controlled service and he and his partner play a masterly net game. This team elicited rapt attention and applause by precise driving and quick recovery of the net position after being driven away by lobbing.

Mr. O'Grady has a smashing back-hand service that brought his side out of the hole a number of times. Mr. Toole's back-hand returns from difficult positions were very spectacular at times. The latter team played the lobbing game from the start and this was the only thing that broke into the play.

Red Deer Man Beat Champion

The Blytheman, the champion of the province of Saskatchewan, was defeated in an straight sets by Red Deer. Mr. Blytheman showed some fatigue due to having just come from the tournament of the neighboring province. However, he was ever first class and the well deserved his victory by his sharp volleys and his accuracy of the ball with respect to the side lines and the extreme corners of the court.

Out of Town Visitors

There are a large number of contestants from out of town. The Edmonton club has a round dozen entered here. There are several from Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, Red Deer and other towns.

Ladies' Open Singles

Miss Sparrow beat Miss Daniels, 6-2, 6-1.

Gents Doubles Open

R. C. Carille and J. Toole beat W. W. Cary and J. M. Adie, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

HAMILTON WANTS TO STAGE HENLEY REGATTA

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 7.—This city is going to make a strenuous effort to secure the Henley Regatta for next year. It has been decided to celebrate next year the city's centennial, and in connection therewith to hold a regatta for a week. Among other things, the city wants to "have water sports" and it has been decided to get after the Henley events. Other features will be an industrial exhibit, an old boys' reunion, historical pageants, the commemoration of the battle of Stoney Creek, and a labor demonstration.

Shoes that are Correct

Men of position, of influence, are careful that every part of their wearing apparel is absolutely correct in style. They consider their personal appearance an asset and never let anything detract from it. Doesn't it strike you that there is logic in their reasoning?

You are meeting strangers everyday.

Is Your Appearance For You Or Against You?

One of the most important parts of your wearing apparel is your shoes. Wear Gold Bond, Crawford or Liberty shoes.—Buy them at Richardson's—and you may be sure that anything you may select from these lines will be absolutely correct. The makers of these shoes are specialists in their business. They combine correct style with comfort and quality, giving the buyer a shoe that is well worth the price he pays for it.

Our showing of Gold Bond, Crawford and Liberty low cut footwear surpasses anything we have hitherto attempted. Drop in and see them. There is lots of summer weather coming yet and oxfords are the correct thing this season for summer wear.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION SOCIETY OF IRELAND INTERVIEW ASQUITH

Urges Premier to Modify Irish Parliamentary Plan So as to Insure a Fair Representation for the Minority

DUBLIN, August 8.—"You have time and opportunity before you," said Sir Asquith in a sympathetic reply which he gave to a deputation which waited upon him from the Proportional Representation Society of Ireland...

Similarly, the county of Cork is divided into seven constituencies, returning in all 11 members of the Irish house of commons, but several of the constituencies are grouped into a single constituency for electing a member of the imperial house of commons...

What hinders the acceptance of this simple solution? Sir Asquith has on more than one occasion declared his sympathy, Mr. Asquith recognizes the special need of Ireland, Mr. Redmond declares that he desires justice for the Cork constituency...

CITY BRED YOUTHS MUST HAVE SPECIAL TRAINING IN ORDER TO COMPETE WITH BOYS FROM COUNTRY

That is the Decision Which the Educational Committee of the London County Council Arrives At; Comprehensive Scheme Contemplated

London, Aug. 8.—The announcement that the London county council education committee has decided upon a comprehensive scheme for training London boys, particularly in the building trades, to enable them to hold their own against the flowing stream of young men from the country...

But is the London lad such an inferior being industrially, and does he really stand in need of this special effort on his behalf? This question was put yesterday by a standard representative to an educator whose labors bring him into intimate contact with both classes.

However much the London youth may resent the suggestion that the 'yokel,' as he may contemptuously call him, is ahead of him, I am afraid, he confessed, 'that in a great many directions the country boy is ahead of the London lad in the large provincial town, for he is more or less handicapped as the Londoner—has, if he is not better educated, and I think he is beginning to realize it more and more, an excellent chance, even though, or rather because, he begins in a small way, when the regiment breaks camp, to make his home town to face charges of appropriating bonds belonging to a trust estate.'

Excusing himself for a moment from a constable who accompanied him, he entered the lavatory of the car just before the train pulled into West Philadelphia station. A moment later a report was heard and his body was discovered with a bullet through the head.

Col. Cornwell was a partner in the business founded by his father, which represented a number of large estates. While the regiment which he commanded was in camp one of his clients died, leaving a will in which other executors were named for the estate which he held in trust.

Edmonton, Aug. 8.—General Superintendent Wilcox of the C. N. R. says that all of the construction work at the Athabasca Landing branch is practically completed, and as soon as permission has been secured from the railway commission the company will be ready to give a regular passenger and freight service to the farthest railroad point north.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The treasury board will in a few days have before it for consideration the application for the amalgamation of the Royal and Traders banks. The final word, however, as to whether the cabinet council will agree to the merger lies with the government, but it is expected it will be guided largely by the recommendation of the treasury board.

SUFFRAGETTES WHO COMMITTED ATROCITIES IN IRELAND SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS

DUBLIN, Aug. 7.—Mary Leigh, the suffragette who was tried today on the charge of wounding John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party with a hatchet she had thrown at Premier Asquith's carriage, July 10, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Gladys Evans, whose sentence was yesterday reserved after she had been found guilty of setting fire to the Theatre Royal here, July 18, in which Mr. Asquith was scheduled to speak the following day on home rule, also was sentenced to a term of five years. Lizzie Baker charged with being an accomplice of Gladys Evans, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment. Mabel Capper, who was accused of being an accomplice of Gladys Evans, was discharged for lack of evidence. Mary Leigh addressed the jury in her own defense. She attempted to justify the militant methods of the suffragettes because peaceful methods had failed to gain votes for women. The attorney-general for Ireland, C. A. O'Connor, spoke strongly of the horrors which would have attended a theatre fire saying that was a price which was too high to pay for votes for women. The verdict of guilty returned by the jury was received with applause by the spectators in court. The judge said it was his painful duty to pronounce a sentence which would have a deterrent effect.

COL. SAM HUGHES MAKES MILITANT TALK BEFORE VANCOUVER CONSERVATIVE CLUB

VANCOUVER, B. C., August 8.—A well attended public meeting held under the auspices of the Vancouver Conservative Club tonight, Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia-declared his views on the defence of Canada and the empire and enthusiasm reached a high pitch as he put with soldier-like bluntness the position in international politics as viewed from the standpoint of a Canadian cabinet minister. That Canada must get in line with New Zealand, South Africa and Australia in combining with the mother country in the general scheme of defence and that Germany, from whom danger is to be expected, must be taught that the dominions are as one with Great Britain in defence, were sentiments expressed by the colonel, who declared emphatically that it was the duty of every Canadian to learn to bear arms in the defence of his native land and the empire. He had scathing remarks to make of the loyalist who cheered, but who refused to be trained and he declared that untrained loyalists were a menace to the country. They pooh-pooh the idea that this country will ever be invaded. Gentlemen, never underestimate your foes, more unlikely things have happened.

THE MARKETS

WHEAT MARKET IRREGULAR AT CHICAGO PRICES IRREGULAR ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

Merchandizing Demand for Quick Shipments and Raise in Freight Rates Figured

One Held Prices Up; Other Gave Bears an Inning, But Market Closed Firm

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Actual merchandizing demand for quick shipments made the wheat market irregular. The close was 1/2c net higher for September, but later months ranged from a shade to 1/4c down. Corn finished 1/4c to 1/2c off to 1/4c and 3/8c advance, and oats at a decline of 1/4c to 3/8c.

Most of the cash wheat sales were for export. A prominent concern professed ability to dispose of all the wheat that could be forwarded from here, but there was no call after the month. This situation resulted in much covering by shorts, especially in the September delivery. On the other hand, hedging sales from the northwest bore heavily on the December and May options.

Wet weather on both sides of the line tended to give firmness to early prices until advices were received that the moisture had not stopped harvesting in the Red River valley and that the Manitoba outlook was equal to last year's average. An advance in eastern freight rates turned the advantage for a while to the bear side, but export demand improved as values declined, so that the market closed firm. Rains in Missouri and elsewhere southwest weakened the new crop months in corn. A healthy cash demand upheld the September delivery. Although receivers were looking for much larger receipts of oats next week, that cereal today remained comparatively steady on account of a substantial investment inquiry due to the exhaustion of stocks and to the unusually low level of prices.

OPTIONS TRADING DULL

Prices Higher at Winnipeg Opening, But Declined; Cash Demand Good

Winnipeg, Aug. 7.—On the wheat market today trading was exceedingly dull in options, although prices on opening were 1/4c higher for both months. Following the opening there was a decline of 1/4c for October and 1 cent for December on the favorable news generally on the export market. Continental cables were unchanged, excepting Paris, which closed 1/4c to 1 cent down. Liverpool kept closed 1/4c higher to 1/2c lower, with steady undertone.

Winnipeg closed 1/4c lower for October and December. The spread in October today was 1 1/2c and December 1 cent. Americans opened stronger for the near month and undecided for the distant months. Minneapolis closed 1/4c lower for September, 1/2c lower for December and 1/4c lower for May. Chicago closed 1/4c higher for September, unchanged for December, and 1/4c lower for May. The cash demand was good for No. 1, 2, 3 and 4 grades, but lower grades were not inquired for, offerings for the former being scarce. Prices were unchanged to 1/4c higher. Oats and flax were extremely dull, few inquiries for either during the whole session. Receipts were light, 98 cars only being in sight for inspection today.

SAO PAULO AND RIO ACTIVE

Featured the Toronto Security Market; Confidence in Their Future Seems Returned

Toronto, August 7.—The greatest strength on the local security market with the most activity was in Sao Paulo and Rio. These issues, however, were not specially active, but confidence seems to have returned with regard to their future. Other issues were at 93 1/4 to 98 1/2, and Electrical development bonds were in demand with sales at 97. Bank issues were steady, confined to Imperial, Commercial and Traders. No trading in Canadian Pacific railway and the stock closed 1/4 higher. Rio sold up to 150 and deposit receipts to 149 1/2. The trade in this issue amounted to 835 shares. In Sao Paulo some 313 shares changed hands at from 257 to 269 1/2, closing at 258 1/2, a net advance of 2 points. Toronto railway was dull and 1/4 lower. Winnipeg Electric, unchanged. City Dairy rose a point and Sawyer Massey as much. Money can be had at 5 1/2 per cent on call.

MONEY PLENTIFUL IN LONDON

London, Aug. 7.—Money was plentiful and discount rates were easy today. The stock market was generally dull and uninteresting. Home rails were irregular and shipping shares were moderately active an dealer, but the buying of Keffer's subsided, causing a sagging tendency. American securities quiet and featureless during the forenoon. Realizing depressed C. P. R. in the late trading and the rest of the list declined in sympathy. The closing was easy.

Chicago Livestock

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Cattle receipts, 21,000. Market steady; 10 to 15 cents higher for fancy; others 10 to 15 cents lower; beefs, 575 to 10.25; Texas steers, 500 to 580; Western steers, 600 to 800; stockers and feeders, 400 to 700; cows and heifers, 250 to 510; calves, 650 to 10.00. Hog receipts, 2,500. Market weak, 10 to 20 cents lower; light 780 to 845; mixed, 740 to 840; heavy, 720 to 820; rough, 725 to 745; pigs, 650 to 820; bulk sales, 745 to 820. Sheep receipts, 38,000. Market 10 to 15 lower native; 220 to 470; Western, 240 to 460; yearlings, 440 to 580; lambs, native, 440 to 750; Western, 480 to 760.

TWO COBALT HIGHGRADERS ARE ARRESTED

Caught Stealing Silver Metal by Inserting Steel Bars in Melting Furnaces

Houses Searched in an Effort to Recover Part of the Stolen Metal

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 8.—Two high graders were arrested here today charged with stealing bullion from the Nipissing mines. A remarkable method was employed of obtaining the metal. One of the men in charge of the furnace where the bullion was melted, would dip a cold steel bar into the molten metal and a certain amount of silver would congeal around the bar. This would then be drawn out, several pounds at a time being obtained this way, and the process repeated. The losses were noticed and a watch set. Provincial Officers McKay and Lebovere watched an last night, hidden near the doors of the refinery, but failed to locate their men. Their homes were then searched and a quantity of bullion discovered. It is probable that other arrests may follow in the case, and the police expect to secure more of the bullion. It is not known how much silver was stolen by this means.

The vast number of families and business concerns who live and conduct businesses in rented quarters are alert to rental opportunities that are brought to their attention through the Wants.

C. P. R. IS BUILDING NEW DEPOT AT LACOMBE

Lacombe, Aug. 6.—The present freight depot and trackage have proved inadequate to handle the increased freight traffic at Lacombe, and the C. P. R. today started work on their new freight depot at this point. It will be located one hundred yards south of the large passenger station built last year and will be served by three additional tracks. An additional track to accommodate passenger trains over the east branch is also being laid. Upon completion of the work now in progress the C. P. R. will park their station grounds, and will have at Lacombe the largest and most commodious station between Calgary and Edmonton. At a meeting of the shareholders of the Lacombe Brick, Tile and Cement Company it was voted to increase the capital stock from $20,000 to $70,000. This action was taken as the company is at present unable to supply the de-

OLD COWMAN DISCUSSES STAMPEDE

THE Old Cattleman sat back in his chair and skillfully utilized his fork to pry shreds of meat from the interstices between his teeth...

"I had rather go down to defeat with Col. Theodore Roosevelt than to victory with any other presidential candidate..."

"I made no reply at all, excepting to an empty convention hall littered round with state standard leaning at various angles..."

"I hope nothing happens at this Stampede next month like I see happen this one..."
