

A. F. & A. M. GRAND LODGE

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION AT MORTUORUTAL GARDENS.

Address—Intoxicating Liquors Decried at Subordinate Lodge Tables.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the grand lodge of ancient free and accepted masons of Canada, was opened in ample form in the pavilion of Hortuorutal gardens by M. W. Bro. Spary, grand master.

The principal business transacted before 12 o'clock was the reading of Grand Master Spary's address. From it is culled some information of public interest, including the following reference to Toronto's semi-centennial.

As we assemble in this our twenty-ninth annual convention in the city of Toronto, immediately after the celebration of the semi-centennial of its establishment as a city, it is with pleasure I welcome you and ask you to participate in this jubilee of the city within our jurisdiction, with its high schools, its universities, colleges, and many schools of learning—where earnest and learned men teach the children of the rich and the poor alike and fit them for the life of usefulness, and where the energy, public spirit and enterprise shown by its residents in advancing every proper enterprise, lead us all to feel proud of the progress made and heartily wish it may ever continue.

During the twelve months ended May 31 last, $6225 were expended by the grand lodge for benevolent purposes. It is recommended that in future the grand lodge continue all grants to social boards for transient relief, and make grants only to individuals, such grants to be larger in amount.

The receipts of grand lodge for year ending 31st were: From lodges, $12,844; interest on investments, 2,504; The expenditure for the same period was $16,478.

The grand lodge then adjourned to take place in the afternoon at Grand Master Spary's residence. The grand lodge adjourned to-day.

THE MASONS AT THE GARDENS.

Reception to the Grand Lodge Last Night.—A large number of the knights of the reception tendered last night by the fraternity of Toronto to the grand master and grand lodge of Canada was a brilliant and successful affair. A very large number of the order gathered under the pavilion to receive the members of the grand lodge and knights templar of Toronto and Hamilton, who just at 8 o'clock arrived, marching in handsome uniform.

After forming in lines they marched around the walks in the garden and then entered the pavilion, headed by the knights templar. The gathering of the craft was so large that they completely occupied the ground floor, while the galleries were crowded with a large and fashionable assemblage, some anxious to hear the musical program given for the occasion, and others still more anxious for the dancing which was to follow.

Grand Master Spary, Bro. J. C. Burns, D. D. U. M., and a number of other prominent masons occupied places on the platform. Bro. J. C. Burns acted as chairman, and after a few introductory remarks read an illuminated address which he presented on behalf of the masonic lodges of Toronto to Grand Master Spary. Bro. Spary, who was received with applause, thanked the brethren for their expressions of kindness, and complimented them on the faithful manner in which they at all times discharged their duty. He also paid a high compliment to the knights templar, whose higher duties were so well performed, and thanked those from Hamilton for honoring him with their presence. He also expressed his gratitude to the lodges of Toronto for the kindly welcome extended to the grand lodge.

The musical portion of the proceedings, under the direction of Bro. J. C. Burns, was then proceeded with. The Queen's Own band, under the leadership of Bro. J. Bayley, played several selections, and in addition to two male choruses by members of the craft, songs, duets and trios were given by Mrs. J. E. Thomson, Miss Berryman and Bro. Doward and Warrington. Mrs. Thomson received a hearty recall for a careful and artistic rendition of her solo "Cold as thou but know," by Bro. Warrington. "Non e vero" by Matti, in the style, and for an encore "True Till Death." Miss Berryman gave a pleasing rendition of "The Old Lock," by Walling, and joined Bro. Doward and Warrington in a trio, I Naviganti, which was rendered sweetly and with expression. "The Diving Bell" sung by Mrs. Thomson and Bro. Doward and Warrington, and "Master and Scholar" by Mrs. Thomson and Bro. Warrington created much merriment, and had to be repeated.

After the concert the floor was cleared and dancing was begun, and continued until an early hour. Large numbers

THE MACHINE WON'T WORK

CONVENTION OF WEST ONTARIO REFORMERS YESTERDAY.

Indignant Delegates Who Would Not Consent to be Manipulated—An Adjournment Without Action.

STOYVILLE, July 9.—The convention in the common for West Ontario, called by the resignation of George Whaler, was held here to-day. Among those present were F. W. Glen, M. P., South Ontario; Wm. Mulock, M. P., North York; I. J. Gould, M. P., P. P., North York; Dr. Widdifield, M. P., P. P., North York; J. D. Edgar, Joseph Tait (the Yorkville baker), Geo. Whaler, ex-M. P., West Ontario; Wm. Macdonald, Toronto, and Joseph Gould, the president of the West Ontario reform association.

Out of 45 delegates allotted to the riding, only 39 were present, the absentees being mostly from Pickering. There was considerable indignation among the delegates at the action of the manipulators of the convention who had been in league with the machine in Toronto. They objected to the manner in which the convention had been called, and to the early day, the convention assembled in the forenoon, but owing to the number absent they adjourned till after dinner.

The president was asked how the meeting had been called, and he replied that it was at the solicitation of Mr. Whaler and R. D. Weeks, secretary of the Association. J. Robertson, barrister of Newmarket, got up and moved a resolution to the effect that the notice of the meeting had been insufficient and therefore that an adjournment be made until July 22. His motion was carried, and the meeting adjourned until July 22. He expressed strong indignation at the manner in which the meeting had been called. His motion of adjournment was seconded by Thomas Reddick, editor of the North York Reformer.

A lively time was about to ensue when those who represented the machine so in opposition to the reform party, were stored. A number of the delegates, when the convention was over, said that if the manipulators of the machine in Toronto, were going to do with the party organization, quite a number of the delegates also withdrew. Dr. Whaler, the president of the convention, was mentioned in connection with the machine, and a local candidate, and so also was that of L. H. Osborne of Uxbridge. The feeling of the meeting was that if Mr. Edgar did not resign the nomination as local reformer would run against him, and he would be a large share of the reform vote of the entire conservative vote as well.

After the adjournment a number of these present addressed the meeting. Mr. Edgar in the course of his speech said that some parties held that neither of the two political bodies were progressive enough, and irresponsible rage published in the city of Toronto was advocating the independence of the province. For that he thought the grand reform party was sufficiently progressive.

HAMILTON, July 9.—The field battery held a meeting last night and arranged to hold an entertainment Thursday, July 17, for the benefit of Gunner Lennox, who was hurt while in camp at Toronto. A little boy named Corner and a little girl named Smith were rescued from a fire on Sunday last. The boy and girl were rescued from a fire on Sunday last, and they sank several times before being rescued.

The little girl Lillie Deinan has been held in her brutal father's will and taken to the Mercer reformatory. They formerly lived in Toronto. The hospital committee will be called together soon to consider grave irregularities at the city hospital. Patients have complained of neglect, which in some cases has been the cause of death. It is being the head of the institution, is held responsible, and it is thought he will resign.

Old-fellow's Demonstration at Brockville. BROCKVILLE, July 9.—The first old-fellow's demonstration ever held in Canada opened here to-day under most favorable auspices. Lodges are present from Belleville, Oranby, and other places, though of course the bulk of the crowd will be from Brockville. The program of sports this afternoon was well carried out. At night the attractions were the electric light, display of fireworks and the inspection and drill of the Brockville fire brigade.

Condemned and Disqualified. MONTREAL, July 9.—Justice Macklin gave judgment yesterday in three cases against A. Legris, Jos. Pilon, and J. B. Bie. Bie is reported for corrupt practices at dominion elections. His honor condemned them severally in the sum of $400 and costs, each having been proved guilty of corrupt practices in two instances. The defendants were also pronounced disqualified for the space of eight years from voting or taking part in the elections in any manner, and from holding any office under the crown.

Fires in Quebec Woods. QUEBEC, July 9.—Serious losses have resulted from the recent fires in the woods, particularly in the vicinity of Baie St. Paul and St. Joachim. The severity of Quebec has alone lost some $40,000. The chapel built upon Cape Tourmente has also been burnt.

National Division 8 of N. HALEXAS, N.S., July 9.—The national division of sons of temperance of America opened its fortieth session to-day. The session was chiefly devoted to the management of business, reading reports, and initiating new members.

A DAY AT TRINITY SCHOOL.

Point Road, July 9.—The friends of Trinity school flocked here in large numbers to-day to attend special-day exercises. The usual early opening took place at 7.30, with Rev. Dr. Bethune as celebrant. At 11 matins was sung by Rev. John Pearson, Toronto, Rev. Professor Schneider, Trinity college, and Rev. J. Burke, Belleville, reading the first and second lessons respectively. Rev. C. P. Emery, Comptrol, preached the sermon. The offertory was in aid of the chapel organ fund.

After matins an adjournment was made to the spacious speech hall for the distribution of prizes. The bishop of Toronto presided, while on the dais with him were Mr. Martin, Esq., Q. C., Lieut. Col. Harry Gilmore Defeats Jack King. About 200 sporting men gathered at Albert hall last night to witness the eight-round sparring match between Jack King of Cleveland and Harry Gilmore of Toronto. A post-punchment is a bad thing for a sparring match, and if the original intention had been $100 instead of $200 the contest would probably have been decided by a fall blow. The usual preliminary heavy-duty exhibitions were given by local pug. Before the event of the night came off 2 and 3 to 1 were being offered on King, with few takers. George Cooper was referee, and announced that the contest would consist of eight rounds of three minutes each, with minute rests between the rounds, points and endurance to count. Harry, who was ably assisted by King, a giant bellowed Gilmore, Joe Popper secured the Toronto man and Jim Foster the Cleveland man. Remitting and Gobbling.

This may seem a strange heading, but it has a certain true inwardness which let us endeavor to bring out.

It is a certain true inwardness which let us endeavor to bring out. Suppose that some one or other of us were to import some duties or charges heretofore imposed upon trade and transportation, or either wholly remitted or materially reduced.

that fighting England is hopeless for the people. On his return he may perhaps see the "enterprising" Maori go in as he usually does, and so forth.

An exchange from down by the sea observes that the liberal grant made by parliament to entertain the British association is to be largely expended in a trip to the Rocky mountains, to the neglect of the maritime provinces.

The star of empire does not always take its way westward. Some Montreal capitalists have addressed a letter to the agent general for New Brunswick with a view to secure a tract of public land in that province for colonization.

Owing to slackness in the stove trade over the border 800 men have just been discharged from Buffalo foundries. It will be in order, now, for somebody to say that the American N. F. is a failure.

The Canadian Gazette (London, England) says that a well-known provincial stockbroker has made as much as $150,000 by "bearing" Grand Trunk stocks; and that an equally well known speculator in London must have made a very large sum.

Hamilton has opened her precious Gore to the public. For this small mercy let the public be thankful.

We rather object to the Montreal Herald's way of putting it. Speaking of reciprocity, our contemporary says: "alongside of us is a nation of over 50,000,000 people, who wish to exchange natural products with Canada."

Canada may never become a part of the United States, but it is just as certain to be independent as anything can be that man is interested in.

Mr. Anglin pays a poor compliment to the good sense and intelligence of Ontario auditors, and plays recklessly with their ever reputation as a public man he may still possess, when he leaves the ground of fair and honest statement, and exhibits such poor toggery for genuine garments.

World's letter calling attention to the fact that it quite agree with the writer as to the conduct of the girls behind the counter. If they would attend to their business, and less of their male necessities it would be to the advantage of the numerous borrowers of books, who are so often kept waiting for a single hour, or the latest "trash" are being recouped.

How to Advance the Independence Cause. To the Editor of The World. Sir: It is abundantly evident from the editorial and other-written letters in The World and other independent papers, that an considerable amount of public opinion in favor of Canada's independence.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WORLD. Sir: I thoroughly agree with the remarks of a Student in The World of this morning, regarding the public library and some of its officials. TO THE EDITOR OF THE WORLD. Sir: As to the public library, I have been only a visitor in Toronto, I have seen plenty of your free library, and have been somewhat disappointed that no public some what substantial general management of the institution has hitherto been made.

MR. GORDON'S DISCOVERY.

"Yes, mother, I think that will be our only way, until I can get something to do," said Nellie Gordon, a beautiful girl of 14, to her widowed mother, as they spoke of the future—a future so lone and drear to their bereaved hearts.

They were poor now. Six months only had passed since Nellie's father's death, but during that time what sad changes had swept away the happiness of the late Judge Gordon's home! Husband and father, brother and son, the homestead and its furniture sold—yes, even the family portraits too—to satisfy clamorous creditors.

To proceed to remain in Boston, where she had moved among the highest, Mrs. Gordon and Nellie had come to New York to seek a livelihood in the humble life, and under an assumed name. Having rented a small room, Mrs. Gordon had gladly accepted the position of housekeeper in the family of Mr. Love, and returned to inform her daughter.

"Yes, Nellie, there are but three in Major Love's family besides the servant: himself, his daughter Lottie, and a little boy.

"A sad change it is for me, my child. A few months ago the world was a popular and supposed wealthy judge, and now to become the housekeeper of a stranger, as poor, penniless Mrs. Black."

"God helps those that help themselves," replied the widow, as she kissed the weeping girl. "You must remain here, I fear, for a few days, for I am obliged to begin my services to-morrow."

"They parted, and Nellie went forth to seek employment. Disappointment and grief had almost crushed the spirit of the young girl, when her eye caught this advertisement:

WANTED—A YOUNG LADY AS COM- PANION FOR AN OLD LADY, who is liberal, and treatment as one of the family. Apply at No. 8.

The blood rushed warmly to Nellie's pale cheek as she read this, and she murmured: "If I can but obtain that place! It is not far from where dear mother died. It is probably filled by this time! I must try—I can but fail, as I have been failing all day."

for six months after, I was in Europe as the time.

Tears started in Major Love's eyes as he continued: "I loved Henry Gordon, and I have heard that his creditors behaved more like wolves than Christians. I wish I could describe the family. You resemble my class-mate Gordon very much."

"I am his son," replied the young man, whose manly and handsome face was clouded with disappointment.

"What! His son Harry, of whom he used to speak so much?" cried Major Love. "The young Gordon who went to the war, and was reported dead?"

"The same, sir. I was sorely wounded, and left for dead. A kind-hearted Southern family took care of me, but months passed of which I have no recollection. I was unable to leave my bed for more than a year. I never received a reply."

"As soon as I was able I returned to Boston, and found that my father had died, my mother and sister greatly departed. I have a friend who has aided me to search for them, but I can no longer dream on his purse."

"I have a fortune in the bank for you, your mother and sister. Your father deposited over a hundred thousand dollars in my hands a year before he died. That was one reason why I advertised. Come, we will put our heads together and seek for the missing ones. Here is the number of my residence; you must make my house your home while you remain in New York."

"By the way, we will not speak of business to-day—time enough for that to-morrow. This is my daughter's birthday. I have a little party at my house in honor of the event to-night. You promise to come? To-morrow you shall come and live with us, and we will move heaven and earth to find your mother, poor lady! Here, you may need money to pay your friend who you owe him."

"This is my friend," said Harry Gordon, as a tall young man entered the office. "Captain Waverly, Major Love. We fought against each other for four years; but the war is over now, and we both believe the north and south should be brothers again. To his care I owe my life."

"Almost every person has some form of scrofula, poison latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, ulcers or eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism or organic disease, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system."

Ice-cream makes it hot for the young man's spare dime. A York street girl went into a spa-mat last night. Investigation showed that she had been taken out to ice-cream for three nights.

IT LEADS ALL. No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been prepared, which so completely cures the various forms of scrofula and the general public.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list of truly scientific preparations for all blood diseases. It is the only medicine that cures scrofula about the face, and expels it from your system. It cures scrofula of the blood, which is the cause of all the eruptions of the skin, and is the only medicine that cures scrofula of the blood, which is the cause of all the eruptions of the skin.

The weather at Calgary appears to have been much the same as that which prevailed throughout the so-called "sterile" region along the Canadian Pacific. Says the Calgary Herald, June 25: "Throughout the season, with the exception of about a fortnight at seeding time, we have had, at intervals of not more than two or three days, copious showers of rain, and as a result all kinds of grain and roots are growing with amazing rapidity. Our farmers have great cause for thankfulness as they have not suffered from frosts, which we regret to say have done very much damage throughout Ontario and the eastern states. Should the season continue as favorable as it has been up to the present, we will have no reason to complain. From present indications we are to reap a bountiful harvest of all kinds of grain and the coarser roots."
