Friday a blaze was seen coming from the chimney of the Morgan house, rain had fallen, the roof was wet and no damage was done, but there might have been a bad fire, as buildings are so near the house.

We are looking forward to some very suitable way of observing the day Nov. 11th. The ladies of the Baptist church may perhaps, have something in the line of a Harvest Festival or a Turkey supper.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

For many years past the third Sunday in October has been observed by the Anglican Church throughout Canada, as "Children's Day."

The object and purpose of this observance is set out in Canon VII of the General Synod as follows:

1. Specific intercession on behalf of the home, the Sunday school and other educational agencies of the church.
2. Supplying information concerning the church's educational work.
3. Holding special services for children and adults.
4. Providing offerings on behalf of the work of the "General Board of Religious Education" (G. B. R. E.)

Each year a personal letter is written for the children by one of the leaders in the church and distributed to each one. This year it is written by the Archbishop of Nova Scotia.

A second pamphlet is written for general distribution this year, it is entitled "Our Greatest Responsibility and How to Meet it."

A third pamphlet is entitled "The Parent and the Sunday School." This title is suggestive of the people of the pamphlet. On page 7 are twelve questions for self-examination the last of which is:

"Am I teaching my children by my example that the joy of the Lord is my strength, the Lord's Day is my day of obligation, His House my spiritual home?"

Speaking on the subject of "Children's Day" last Sunday in St. James' church, Canon Underwood asked for a whole-hearted and enthusiastic observance of the day. First by a large attendance at the 8 a.m. celebration of the Holy Communion, then by a special effort on the part of parents to be present at the 11 o'clock service which will be under the auspices of the Sunday School, and in the evening when he will speak on "The Home, the Sunday School and the Church."

On Monday evening next there is to be held in the schoolroom (St. James) a conference of teachers, parents and all interested in work amongst the young, especially in and through the Sunday School.

The conference will begin at 8 o'clock, and the S. S. Superintendent and staff under whose auspices it is to be held hope for a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell and daughter of Weymouth, were guests at the Colonial House Thursday.

CRUSADE DAY W. M. SOCIETY

Address by Rev. Edward Morris.—Distinguished Visitors in Paradise—Personal and Social Notes

Paradise.—Crusade Day of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the Church on the afternoon and evening of Oct. 7th. The Society was fortunate in having Mrs. Ida Newcomb Gullison as special missionary guest and speaker.

A portion of the afternoon service was given over to an "Academy" programme, after which Mrs. Gullison spoke to the boys and girls present, telling the story of an Evangelical school boy named Ramaswan. Again in the evening Mrs. Gullison in her characteristically impressive and pleasing manner addressed a large audience on the work of the Bimilipat Field. Story after story of outstanding conversion of the loyalty and sufferings of many for the Gospel's sake, and of the gradual breaking down of "caste" under the leavening influence of the Gospel of Love, fully convinced a sympathetic audience that the life and work of a spirit filled missionary is second only to the life and work of the Master Himself, and that through our Missionaries we of the homeland, who are truly "standing by" our gifts, our prayers and our study of the needs, are "workers together with God" and with them. A very appetizing supper was served in the Vestry. The names of several new members were added to the roll-call and an offering of over $36.00 was realized for the work.

Rev. Edward Morris of Halifax, organizer and promoter of Protestant principles on behalf of the Orange Association for N. S. and P. E. I. held the pulpit of 5th. Mr. Morris is an able speaker. He is thoroughly conversant with his subject and is also a well known minister of the Anglican Church. His yearly visit to Paradise on behalf of the local Orange Lodge is thoroughly appreciated.

CHAUTAQUA CONCLUDES ENGAGEMENT.

Chautauqua has come and gone again and as usual was well patronized. This year, however, $50. more than in the past was asked from the guarantors and the season at which the performances were put on was not so favorable as dates in September as previously would have been. The result was that the guarantors were stuck but not for a large amount. Guarantors were secured for next year and it is expected that dates will be given in September.

The programme as a whole was quite up to that of former years and evidently pleased the various audiences.

The lectures were excellent and quite dissociated from the dryness which the name lecture calls up to the mind. Dr. Wellwyn Evans was particularly pleasing in his lecture on "Uncrowned Kings." On Friday morning he visited the High school and gave an appreciated talk there on the same theme with a short reference to the reasons which induced him to become a lecturer.

The Chautauqua performances ended with a playette "The Bubble" which was much enjoyed by the audience.

F. R. RISTEEN IS MURDERED

Killed by Wife's Par amour And Thrown into Pond.—Deceased Well Known Here And Bore Good Reputation.

Beverly, Mass.—R. Risteen, a former Nova Scotian whose body, weighted with cast iron, was found in Norwood Pond, North Beverly, eight days ago, was killed in a midnight fight with George W. Plummer, Jr., in the woods three miles from his home, Mrs. Marcen A. Risteen, widow of the dead man, and Plummer told the police today. Both were arrested last night, charged with murder.

According to the stories of Plummer and Mrs. Risteen, describing the events of the night of September 20th, when they said Risteen met his death, the victim died after striking his head against a stone in the course of a struggle with Plummer. Plummer then stumbled back three miles through the night to the home of Risteen, he told the police, and, according to Mrs. Risteen, induced her to accompany him back to the scene of the fight, took the body to the pond, weighted it and dropped it into the water.

Mrs. Risteen disclaimed all knowledge of the actual details of her husband's death. She said she feared to tell what she knew because Plummer told her to "keep her mouth shut" and had made threats, she said. Plummer said that the affair was "nothing but a drunken brawl," and that he regretted that he did not notify the police at the time.

Lawrence Plummer, 12-year old brother of the man held by the police, discovered the body of Risteen a week ago Saturday and notified the authorities. The identity of the dead man, who the Medical Examiner, said, had met his death as a result of strangulation caused by the wires which bound the weights to his body—remained a complete mystery and the body was buried.

On Saturday after the body had been buried five days and exhumed, positive identification was established by Mrs. Risteen, a sister of Risteen, and others. Mrs. Risteen fainted when she viewed the body.

Fred R. Risteen whose unfortunate death is recorded above, was a native of Hampton and a son of the late Elijah Risteen and his aged mother still resides at the old home. Fred himself has lived quite a number of years in Massachusetts, where he married the woman, who it appears, was an accomplice in the sad tragedy which ended his life. Within the past few years they returned to Hampton and Risteen finished out his deceased father's contract term as rural mail driver. The wife, a woman of foreign appearance whom he met in Massachusetts, trying of the rural quiet of the portion of Nova Scotia in which her last was cast returned to the U. S. with her two children. Mr. Risteen worked for a time with Mr. J. C. Dalrymple and returned to Beverly about two months ago. He was well spoken of here, well liked by all, and his untimely end is regretted.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

From various and widely separated parts of the Province come reports of bootlegging and many are the cases related where sales by local vendors has greatly fallen off apparently as a result.

Just what remedies are to be effectually applied is a conundrum. For a time at least in some parts of the Province the reduction in the sale of liquor could be attributed not altogether so much to the difficulty of getting prescriptions, though a great many medical men are very chary about issuing them, some issuing none or practically none. The obtaining of a prescription makes the matter of purchase legal from any duly authorized Provincial Vendor and if any town wishes to have a vendor it is quite within its privileges in doing so. The matter of obtaining a prescription has perhaps not cut down the sale of liquor so much as its extremely high price. A certain proportion of citizens will have liquor anyway if they can get it and they usually can. If they can get it cheaply they will have more. The proportion of cases have more. The situation has apparently reached the point, the "tick" so called are not going to pay at the rate of $5 a bottle if they can get it for half that price or less.

The governments have a very serious and difficult problem on hand in this Province with its extremely long coast line and abundant opportunities of running ram cargoes. Once landed and stored the increasing number of autos owned by people who like to make quick money furnishes the means of distribution rapidly and effectually all over the country.

Activities of rum runners might be somewhat curbed if the using of numbers of large high-priced gasoline launches took the place of steamers employed in patrol service. There are too few of the latter to be in enough places at one time and any material increase in their number would involve tremendous expense for doubtful results.

Public opinion must be the great regulator. Not an opinion expressed by votes only, but one expressed by action. The latter is difficult to find for there is more hypocrisy among the public in connection with liquor matters than with almost any other question.

THE EXODUS FROM BRITAIN.

Manchester Guardian: Figures just published by the Board of Trade show that last year there was a marked rise in the number of engineers, builders and miners who emigrated. Scotland was the greatest sufferer. Her emigration total was the largest in many years and the increase mainly in skilled workers. The shipyards and engineering works of the Clyde gave up their craftsmen to the United States. It may be, of course, that the metal-workers trades have in the last decade attracted too many workers for the industry to support, except in times of boom, and emigration may be an inevitable method of securing balance. But there can be no assurance that when trade revival comes there will not be a shortage of those very classes who are most needed to maintain our manufacturing industries.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

CRANKS AND CRIMINALS.

New York Commercial: Something must be done in the United States to deter criminals who have for too long been encouraged by soft-hearted judges demoted with the idea that the way to reform the criminal classes is to kiss 'em back to goodness. Our record now is so bad that it shames us before the whole world, because it far surpasses anything of the kind that any other country can show.

STARVATION IN RUSSIA.

London Morning Post: If, for political reasons, the Soviet Government persists in exporting grain, it will be condemning more of its own people to starvation. The failure of the harvest in such large districts of Russia is due mainly to the effects of seven years of bad cultivation. Under Bolshevism the condition of the peasants has gone from bad to worse, and they have been reduced to scratching the soil, that has been allowed to go sour, for a bare subsistence.

BRITAIN AND PEACE.

Westminster Gazette: Even if our military expenditure were very much larger than it is and admitted of very considerable curtailments, how should we prevail upon Continental Powers to cut down their armaments in return for economies in our own? It is not Britain which threatens the peace and security of other nations. We contribute nothing to the nightmarish insecurity of the continent. Indeed certain Foreign Ministers have expressed their opinion that the general feeling in Europe would be much less alarmed if our army were larger and better equipped for war.

THE UGLY DUCKLING.

Baltimore Sun: There is no Republican leader so rash now as to call the League a sickly infant or to predict its speedy demise. Fifty-four nations are represented at the League meeting this year, and other than Germany and Russia the only great power conspicuous by its absence is this country. And it is only absent officially. In reality many leading Americans and many of the best Republicans are attending the Geneva meeting; and if Mr. Coolidge should be re-elected, he, or any other President, would find it almost impossible to resist the attraction of international gravitation toward the League. What has happened is that League theories have become world facts and that Republican blunders and Republican obstinacy must yield to our own welfare as well as the general welfare of mankind.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

Indianapolis News: The question of capital punishment has nothing to do with the Bible. All nations have practiced it, and it has never by any been thought of as murder. There are arguments against it, some of them of considerable weight, as there are arguments, many of them strong, in its favor. The question which the lawmaker has to consider is whether it is effective in deterring others from murder, or if not, whether any other penalty would be as effective. It is not forbidden by Scripture. Even in the New Testament we have the case of Ananias and Sapphira. In the Sixth Commandment forbids capital punishment, the very man who

A tar stain should be softened with grease then rubbed with a rag dipped in turpentine. After subsequent washing the stain will disappear.

Black kid gloves which have become shabby and rusty-looking may be improved by the application of a little black ink mixed with a teaspoonful of olive oil. It should be put on with a brush.

If you are renovating polished boards with a coat of stain, first see that the floors are well scrubbed with soda and water to remove all traces of grease and polishing cream. If this is not done the stain will neither dry nor present a flat surface.

Patent leather shoes should be kept in a cool, dry place. If warmed before putting them on, they are less likely to crack. When the leather becomes dull, a few drops of turpentine applied on a soft cloth improves their appearance. When patent shoes begin to look shabby they may be varnished. One coat of varnish should always be washed off before a second is applied.

To clean the white keys of a piano, rub with a soft piece of cloth dipped into a paste made of whiting and lemon juice, and afterwards polish with another piece of cloth and dry whitening. This method both cleans and whitens at one process.

Before cutting, first decide if a material has an up or down. This is done by rubbing the hand lightly over the surface, and when there is a nap it should run toward the bottom of the coat. The material is laid flat on a large cutting-table and the pattern of a section placed so that in every case the nap will run downward.

AMERICANS PRAISE MARITIME ROADS

The following from a Quincy, Mass. paper shows that Americans are commencing to advertise the good roads in the Maritimes:—
Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Jordan and their family of Ruggles Street, Quincy Point, have just returned from a 3200-mile auto trip through New Hampshire, Maine, and all the counties of Nova Scotia.

The roads throughout the province are only in fair condition right now, but permanent construction work on new highways in all sections is moving along so fast that in another year this country will have roads they can well feel proud of. The party reports the scenery in all parts of Nova Scotia is sublime, and the sunsets are one grand spectacle, especially through Cumberland county section, where are located extensive coal mines.

Mr. Jordan is cashier and office manager of the South Shore Bulck Co., and is widely known in Quincy and throughout the motor car industry.

NO REASON FOR "HARD TIMES" TALK.

It is time for all to drop the wall of pessimism and cry of hard times which is too often heard. The reason for that is that the outlook is most encouraging and ere long money will be more plentiful.

We do not attempt to minimize the present agitation for Maritime Rights. Our Maritime Provinces have suffered because our members of parliament have not unitedly asked for equal privileges being granted us when Western members were obtaining concessions for their own provinces. We regret that our vanishing industries have caused our people to seek a living abroad. But our whole trouble is not lack of Maritime Rights. We are too apt to think and talk that our life is a hard one. The trouble is that our lack of money is an account of our habits of extravagant spending incurred during the war and carried on to the full. If we have money and hear the cry of bad business and hard times we hold on to it, but when we realize that prosperity is approaching or at hand we freely spend what we have, expecting that more will soon be found.

We have this year an excellent crop of apples of fine quality and extra good prices. We have never lowered our estimate of a crop of 75 per cent. of last year. The fruit is growing so large and picking off so much more than expected that the quantity exported will be little short of last year. Orchards of good qualities and clean fruit are selling at $2.75 per barrel tree run; some have assured us that higher prices have been offered.

We venture the opinion that by the first of 1925 this Valley will be in the best financial position of any agricultural or fruit district in the Dominion.

Good times are coming—Talk it believe it, and you will help to bring it.—Advertiser.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The Forest And Outdoors Column.

Cost of Planting.

Q.—Our County Council is planning to reforest 100 acres of waste land. Is this an expensive proposition?
A.—You can get your trees free from your Provincial Government nursery. Two men will set out between one and one and a half acres of trees in a ten hour day. That means 1,500 trees to the acre. Added to this will be the cost of ploughing furrows five to six feet apart. You will readily see that reforesting waste land is nothing like planting an orchard. Write your Provincial Forester for further details.

Newspapers And Forests.

Q.—Can you give me some indication of the pulpwood requirements of a group of metropolitan papers?
A.—The newspapers of New York use up about 1,500 tons of newspaper daily, which means that more than 150 acres of forest land is stripped seven times a week to keep the presses running in the one metropolis.

How to Make Forests Perpetual.

Q.—What is meant by "silviculture"?
A.—Silviculture deals with the continuous operation of a forest for a sustained crop of wood. When Canada's forests are operated so as to produce repeated crops of timber on the same area without diminishing the "capital stock" we can boast of our forest resources being under a system of silviculture. Just now the big national job is to prevent the public from burning up the timber resources. Until fire is blocked scientific operation is not possible on a large scale.

Why Lumber is Not Cheap.

Q.—With modern machinery and efficiency methods why is it that lumber maintains its high prices?
A.—Because production costs, chiefly labor, refuse to tumble and raw materials, namely timber, is more inaccessible than ever. The lumber business as a whole in Eastern Canada is hardly breaking even on production costs and foreign competition is hitting harder than anticipated.

MORE AND BETTER HOTELS NEEDED SAYS THIS EXPERT

Automobile Blue Book Representative Enthuses Over Nova Scotia's Tourist Possibilities.

"There is something very unusual in Nova Scotia in that you combine scenic beauty with historic interest and a type of country entirely quaint compared with the usual summer resort. Certainly, Nova Scotia is a safe bet for the tourist," declared Charles F. Crooks who arrived at the Halifax Hotel Wednesday, travelling through Nova Scotia in the interests of the Automobile Blue Book, Incorporated, of Chicago, a large publication which is devoted exclusively to detailed information of countries of America in which the motorist will find good roads and good hotel accommodation.

"The Blue Book was attracted to Nova Scotia by the report of the improvements which have been made here on your highways," said Mr. Crooks. "Hitherto we were not interested. The next thing you require is better hotels. I assume they will follow the improvement on your roads, for it will be of economic advantage to people to invest in them. The hotel business is changing in that the old phase of having summer guests stay at one hotel for three, four and six weeks of a summer is largely passing, and tourists are coming in greater numbers to stay shorter visits."

Advertising of the Province should be taken up with energy and persistence. Mr. Crooks said, for as a tourist country it was little known in the United States. "But," reverting to the hotel conditions, "better and more accommodation must be provided." Mr. Crooks came in the Province by way of Amherst, Parrsboro, Truro, thence to Halifax and down the South Shore as far as Liverpool, across to Annapolis Royal and Digby, and again to Halifax through the Evangeline route. He said he was particularly impressed with the picturesque country from Halifax to Liverpool along the Southwestern route, and felt that there was a considerable future before that section of the country as an attractive tourist ground.

Incidentally speaking of the condition of the roads Mr. Crooks said that he had noticed that "wash board" effect in sections of the new roads, but did not think too seriously of that as he said he easily overcame the unpleasantness of it by deflating his tires, and through driving an Ash roadster, a fairly heavy car, he kept his forward tires at only thirty pounds and his rear tires at only forty pounds. Were the car heavier he would add only another five pounds, and this offset the rough effect which the "wash board" sections of road gave to a car which had its tires more heavily pumped. He did not look upon such a condition very seriously.

Mr. Crooks left Thursday for New Glasgow. He expects to confer with A. G. Watson, President of the Nova Scotia Motor League before leaving Halifax. He spoke very highly of the excellent signs which that organization had placed throughout the country.—(Chronicle.)

MOIR'S, LIMITED, ENLARGING PLANT.

Another Story is Added to the Building on Argyle Street.

Fairly extensive enlargements of the Halifax plant of Moir's Limited are now under way, an additional story being erected to the Austen building and the block south of it, both on the Argyle Street side of the big plant. The steel girders for the frame-work are being put in place now. This addition to the plant will give much needed accommodation for the offices, and mean a general enlargement of the plant brought about by the rapidly increasing business.

The top floor of the enlarged building will be used as an additional space for biscuit and bakery department; the second floor will be used for office accommodation, and the lower floor will be used jointly for a dining room for help and as an additional space for the bread shipping department. It is the intention of the firm to vacate the old office space exclusively with an entrance from Argyle, utilizing the old office space for cake and pastry room.

Moir's Limited has recently taken on a considerable number of hands, and the payroll of the company now numbers over 1100 men and women.—(Chronicle.)

U. S. Will Not Change Immigration Laws.

Chairman of House Committee Does Not Fear Effect of Alien Smuggling.

Washington.—Despite much complaint against the drastic nature of the new immigration law which was passed by the last session of Congress, there is no prospect of its relaxation. This is the opinion of Representative Albert Johnson of the state of Washington, who is chairman of the House Immigration Committee.

Representative Johnson says there is more or less smuggling of immigrants across the Canadian and Mexican borders but he does not think there is any more than usual. In fact, he believes smuggling under the new law and with an increased force of inspectors and agents along the border has been made more difficult.

He pointed out today that under the new law the burden of proof is on a person entering the country to show he has been lawfully admitted. He can be apprehended in this country by authorities at any time and place and unless he can show he is lawfully in the country is subject to deportation.

Representative Johnson said immigration to this country now was almost at a standstill.

While the new quota is but 2 percent, on the basis of the 1890 census, Mr. Johnson says this is enough. He declares that in 25 years more the population of the United States will have increased 40,000,000 and will be over 150,000,000 and he believes that when this fact is considered the United States should go slowly in the admission of large numbers of immigrants. He expects no new important legislation on immigration the coming winter but does expect new naturalization legislation.

DALHOUSE IS BEST SPARROW DECLARES

Cambridge Debater Thus Passes Judgment on Canadian Teams.

(Toronto Globe)

"Dalhouse is the best debating team which we have yet encountered in this country," said Gerald Sparrow, Cambridge debater. He seemed rather amused at the tactics adopted at Bates College in Maine, which holds the reputation of being the foremost debating team in the country. Speaking of the Bates team he said:

"It is a strange thing to see them entering the debate as some form of contest. They have a manager, a trainer (who I suppose rubs them down) and a most peculiar card index system. When they desire a rebuttal to any point they look up Index "A," Section 3, Sub Section 7, and there it is. Our only form of protection is to treat the debate humorously using a fine Italian hand against a sledge."

Bates does not rank as high as the Dalhouse team in Sparrow's estimation.

Ottawa.—Marvellous results achieved in the realm of radio are indicated in the report made to the radio branch of the department of Marine and Fisheries by Operators Coast, of Toronto, and R. Finnie, of Ottawa, who returned from the far north on the Canadian government steamer

Arctic. The picture of officers of the Canadian vessel, far away in the northern ocean, listening to reports of the Wills-Firpo fight, broadcast from Pittsburgh, is drawn in one of the brief paragraphs of the report. Messages were received over a distance of 2,100 miles and could probably have been received over a further distance, states the report.

All normal activities were temporarily suspended in the busiest quarter of Genoa, Italy, when a swarm of bees suddenly descended upon the streets, buzzed excitedly among the pedestrians, who took to their heels, and finally mixed themselves in a gigantic cluster to a single lamp-post. There they remained until the street lamps were lighted and then disappeared.

LINING THE CONNAUGHT TUNNEL

Upper left.—In spite of heavy snowfalls and below zero weather the work of lining the Connaught Tunnel is continued throughout the winter months. The closed-wrapped bridge of Mount Abbott and Ross Peak stand at western entrance of the little town.
Upper right.—Glacier, B.C., showing Mount Macdonald, 9,832 feet, through which the five mile Connaught Tunnel passes. Eagle Peak, 9,350, is in the centre of the picture and Mount Sir Donald, one of the most beautiful peaks in the Canadian Rockies, with its altitude of 10,838 feet, is in the distance.
Lower left.—The resident engineer's bungalow nestles among giant evergreens on the banks of the Illecillewaet River, which ventilates the "big hole."
Lower right.—Western Portal of the Connaught Tunnel, showing the fan house and the two huge 14 ft. steel fans which ventilate the "big hole."

High up on the crest of the lofty Selkirk with half a dozen of the finest mountain peaks in the world hunching their snow-clad shoulders about its rows of trim brown houses, lies the picturesque town of Glacier on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway through British Columbia. Three and a half miles distant from this little construction centre, which has virtually been called into being through the lining of the Connaught Tunnel, hangs the great Illecillewaet Glacier on the slopes of Mount Macdonald and two miles nearer nestles Glacier House, the annual mecca of thousands of summer tourists. Few of the surrounding peaks at Glacier are less than 9,000 feet in altitude. The famous Cheops, Mount Sir Donald, Ross, Eagle and Abbott Peaks encircle the little settlement. In winter time a blanket of snow enfolds town and mountains alike. In spring the brilliant yellow slide lilies follow the ever-receding snow line as it climbs higher and higher up the mountain sides. Life is enlivened in the summer time by the crowds of guests who throng Glacier House and transform the scene again with generous splashes of orange, crimson and russet.

Common interest in the great engineering project under way has brought about a very definite community spirit at Glacier. For almost every youngster's daddy works in the big tunnel in one or other of the various branches of work which the lining demands, and every household is regulated by a schedule of working hours which begin at 8 a.m. and end at 4.15. Half a hundred children attend the little brown school house and various clubs for the grown-ups provide interests of a recreational and cultural nature.

Engineers, foremen, carpenters, machinists, drillers, electricians, laborers and train crews make up the wage earners among the 500 residents of Glacier. Single men live in a well ordered camp. Here, as in the little homes where the men with families live, all the conveniences of a modern city are enjoyed including electric lights and running water piped from a nearby mountain stream.

The lining of this five mile tunnel, the longest on the American continent, with a steel reinforced concrete jacket represents one of the most interesting engineering projects now under way anywhere in the world.

Beneath 6,000 feet of mountain the Connaught Tunnel cuts under Mount Macdonald between the stations of Connaught and Glacier. With the opening of this underground short-cut in 1916 the Canadian Pacific Railway overcame the many difficulties which the old Rogers Pass route had presented. Track curvature to an amount corresponding to seven complete circles was eliminated; the summit attained by the Railway was reduced by 552 feet; the trackage was shortened by four and a half miles and more than four miles of snow sheds which had been necessary on the slopes of Mount Macdonald were dispensed with.

Ottawa.—"Canada is prepared to put into effect the Canadian-Australian trade treaty tomorrow, provided that Australia is ready," said Hon. J. A. The treaty extends to Australia the entire British Preference, Mr. Robb said.

RHEUMATIC PEOPLE CAN NOW FIND RELIEF
 By Driving the Poisonous Acid From the System.
 Rheumatism attacks people when the blood is thin and watery, or charged with impurities, thus setting up inflammation of the muscles and joints. Cold, wet weather or sharp winds may start the pains, but the cause is rooted in the blood and to get relief it must be treated through the blood. As a blood builder and nerve tonic Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unsurpassed, and for that reason do not fail to give relief to rheumatic sufferers when given a fair trial. Among the rheumatic sufferers who have proved the great value of this medicine is Mrs. Simon J. Tatom, Indian Head, Sask., who says:—"For over two years I was an intense sufferer from rheumatism and until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills no treatment that I took helped me any. The trouble grew so bad that I could not move around the house without help, and finally I had to give up and go to bed. Words cannot tell how much I suffered, and I could not bear to have anyone come near me. Finally one of my neighbors strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to do so. In the course of a few weeks I could feel an improvement, and I was able to get up. I kept on taking the pills until all traces of the trouble were gone, and I could again do my housework, feeling like a new person. Three years have passed since that and there has never been the slightest return of the trouble so that I feel safe in saying that the relief brought by this medicine is permanent."
 You can get the pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

FALLACY OF BUYING BY MAIL

How would you like to journey to the nearest city for a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke? And how would you like to make the trip when you need a prescription filled in a hurry, with death running you a race? You would make some noise if forced to such an extremity—and then more noise. You would say—and justly so—that a town in which you cannot buy a pound of sugar, or a yard of muslin, or a spool of thread, or a smoke or even get a prescription filled, is a mighty poor excuse for a town and not worth living in. Yet our merchants can only afford to keep these things for your conveniences as long as you buy other things from them. It is not doing this town any good to buy the little things here and then send to a catalogue house when you want something on which the merchant has a chance to make a dollar. Neither is it doing you any good for the prosperity of each citizen is dependent to a large extent upon the prosperity of the community as a whole. We are not telling you something you do not know. We are simply refreshing your memory in hopes the time may come when our people will conclude that a town that is worth living in is worth trading in. That's all.

ANOTHER AUTOPSY. Beverly, Mass.—At the request of the counsel defending Mrs. Risteen and Plummer another autopsy was ordered today on the body of Fred Risteen.

The autopsy, the third to be held since the body was found is based on the woman's claim that Risteen met death by striking his head against a rock when he fell during a fight with Plummer. Medical Examiner Stickney, of Beverly, had found that death was due to strangulation. A piece of telephone wire was wound tightly about the neck when the body was taken from the water.

Funeral services, arranged for this afternoon at North Beverly, were postponed in consequence of the autopsy order.

N. S. MAN ARRESTED.

John F. Todd Charged With Jewel Theft, Totalling $100,000.

Boston—John F. Todd, former Nova Scotia, known to the police as the "man with a toupee" was arrested in a hotel here Saturday on charges of breaking and entering and larceny of more than $100,000 worth of jewelry from summer homes on the New England coast.

Because he was said to have always worked alone and to have several times eluded police cordons in the high powered car which he always parked near the scene of his operations, he was widely known as a romantic figure.

About fifty years of age and a painter by trade, Todd is said to have served time in Sing Sing and Connecticut state prison. He became bald several years ago and his attempts to disguise this earned him his police sobriquet.

APPLE SHIPMENTS HEAVY AT BERWICK

Berwick—Apple picking is well under way in this part of the Valley. The earlier varieties are about all gathered, and a good start has been made on the later kind. The fine weather has been most favorable and has greatly expedited the gathering of the crop, and the rather unusual amount of bright sunshine, has given the fruit an exceptionally fine coloring.

Picking and packing the fruit gives employment to a large number of people. S. B. Chute, alone, has sixty pickers at work in his orchard. There are six big apple warehouses in the town, and these employ over ninety workers. Graham's Evaporator, which opened last week, has a staff of thirty-five. Then there are, in addition, a large number of orchardists in the immediate vicinity of the town who employ a good many hands during this season.

Shipments of fruit from this station have been large. Up to Sept. 30th, 124 car loads were shipped out. This has been reconstructed for religious which is a pretty good showing from one station in practically the first month of the shipping season.

SALT WATER CANOEIST ARRIVES AT NEW YORK FROM CAPE BRETON.

New York.—A sun-tanned Canadian voyager came unheralded to the large office at the Battery here Thursday. Forty-two days ago George Smyth, of Toronto, 33 years old, left Sydney, C. B., in a fifteen foot open canoe. He paddled 2,350 miles in salt water and claims to have set a record. The feat, he says, was performed on a wager. Only one mishap occurred during the trip. This was when the canoe was overturned by a wave as Smyth was trying to make a landing in a cove. Severe storms were encountered during the trip, Smyth said, and he was held up at Dartlett's Reef Lightship for three days. During the storm off Chance Harbor, N. B., on August 26th, he was forced to throw over part of his provisions to keep his craft from sinking. By balling rapidly for about an hour, Smyth said, he saved the canoe from going down.

Used in turn as a town jail, almshouse and tobacco shop during its 400 years' history. The chapel on the old stone bridge, Rotherham, Eng., means 28,344 barrels, and 428 boxes, which is a pretty good showing from one station in practically the first month of the shipping season.

COL. E. C. PHINNEY IS NEW PRESIDENT.

Elected at Meeting of Directors of The Bear River Pulp Company.

Toronto.—At a meeting of the directors of the Bear River Pulp Company, of Bear River, Nova Scotia, Colonel E. C. Phinney of the firm of Daley, Phinney, Walker and Valr, of Halifax, was elected president. During the last year this company has been re-organized and upwards of half a million dollars of new capital has been secured. The plant at Bear River will start operations before the end of the present year.

THE HUMAN FACTOR.

The Province of Ontario is to pay more attention to the care of delinquent and subnormal children. Addressing the Rotarians of Guelph recently, Premier Ferguson made a very strong plea for a deeper public interest in this matter. There are said to be 10,000 abnormal children in Ontario needing institutional care. The Hamilton Spectator says—

"The erection of a training school at Bowmanville has already been planned by the Government, and it is interesting to note that it is to be known as a training school and not as a school of correction. The Mimico Industrial school, the institution to which errant boys from this section of the province were consigned, has signally failed to correct, because it has been more of a prison than a school. How many of the boys who passed through this institution later took post-graduate courses, as hardened criminals, in the penitentiaries of the continent will never be known, but the list is unquestionably extensive. If the Provincial Government operates the training school at Bowmanville in the spirit of constructive leadership toward practical ideas of useful citizenship, as intimated by Premier Ferguson, a far advance will have been made. The Government seems to be awake to its responsibility. The human factor is of paramount importance."

The Province of New Brunswick has an Industrial school for boys, but it has no adequate provision for the care of the subnormal of either sex. It is a reform which must come ere long, and expense ought not to stand in the way, since it will yield large dividends in human welfare.—St. John Evening Times.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

The question of compulsory voting is attracting much attention throughout the United States. The indifference of the electors there to public questions and the records which show that but a small percentage of those qualified to vote exercise the franchise have aroused the attention of public men and thinking citizens to the necessity of some method of obtaining a larger voice on public matters. One of the outstanding public men of the United States declares that as a citizen is required to pay taxes he should be required to vote. Citizenship spells duty and statutes which have broadly determined what the citizens shall not do may wisely be exploited to determine what the citizens should do. At the present time in this country when we require a number of citizens to act upon grand and petit juries, we do not hesitate to notify them to attend, and if they fail to do so the judge is empowered to penalize them. But the men selected for jury duty have come to realize that it is part of their citizenship. They are not paid any amount which compensates them for even a portion for their time. They are subject quite frequently to inconveniences, forced to leave their business and, in serious criminal cases, not permitted to communicate with their fellow citizens or with their families while the evidence is under consideration. Surely when we can say to a considerable number of the people what they should do in his regard, we might be permitted to say also that when an election comes around perhaps every two or three or four years they would see to it that their vote is polled. Years ago there were many people who were not permitted to vote. Manhood franchise or woman suffrage had not been won, with laws upon the statute which permit every man and woman who arrives at the age of twenty-one years to have a voice in the affairs of the country it is essential that that voice be exercised. When people refuse to do what they should, then the law should step in and compel them. There is no doubt but what compulsory voting would result in vigorous protest on the part of the great majority of the citizens, but when almost every get anything that was worth while without a protest at first by a majority of the people. Little by little objections are overcome and, when the electors realize that they must vote they will accept that situation just as readily as they have many others which at first were thought ridiculous and impossible.

Toronto Mother Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ontario.—"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a splendid medicine to take before and after confinement. A small book was put in my door one day advertising Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines, and as I did not feel at all well at the time I went and got a bottle of Vegetable Compound right away. I soon began to notice a difference in my general health. I was full of aches and pains at the time and thought I had every complaint going, but I can truthfully say your medicine certainly did me good. I can and will speak highly of it, and I know it will do other women good who are sick and ailing if they will only give it a fair trial. Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills are splendid for constipation. You are welcome to use my letter if you think Mrs. Westwood. It is but one of a great many, all telling the same story—beneficial results.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for use during this period. The experience of other women who have found this medicine a blessing is proof of its great merit. Why not try it now yourself?"

ANNAPOLIS I. O. D. E. RESUMES ACTIVITY

Annapolis Royal—Fort Anne Chapter, I. O. D. E. held their first meeting since the summer vacation, on Tuesday afternoon, at the Assembly room in the Academy, and various business matters were discussed. It was decided to hold an evening meeting each alternate month, for the benefit of members who cannot attend in the afternoon, and the next meeting will therefore, be held at the home of the Secretary, Mrs. T. Ross Hamilton, on Nov. 4th, at eight o'clock.

RISKS OF EXCESSIVE SPEED.

In addition to the risk of some part of a motor breaking under the extra strain of excessive speed which would inevitably result in a serious, if not fatal casualty, there is always the risk of meeting an inexperienced or incompetent driver who may be disconcerted by the speed of the approaching motor, may miscalculate the time necessary to give the right of way and may necessitate the speed cars swerving near enough the ditch to go over.

The most serious risk of all is the sudden stop that may be required without more than a second or two of notice, by an approaching train or by an auto unexpectedly at an intersection. Sudden stops are so frequently necessary in street motoring that drivers come to think they are simple and easy without taking into account the extra distance required on account of the excessive speed.

The accident bulletin No. 87 of the U. S. A. interstate commission calls special attention to this. They keep closer tab on accidents over there than in Canada, probably because they are so much more frequent. In 1917, 59 per cent. of those killed or injured at railway crossings were occupants of motor cars. Five years later the percentage had risen in 81. In 1922, 454 motors ran into passing trains. The conclusion of the commission of investigation is that in most cases the collision was the result of the motor requiring longer distance in which to stop than was reckoned by the driver. There may also have been a miscalculation of distance. This conclusion is confirmed by the frequency with which motorists have crashed into gates that were down at the railway intersection.

All motorists should know with distance they require to come to a stop at any given rate of speed. If they try it out most of them will be greatly surprised to find, that if they require ten feet when going 10 miles an hour, they will require 20 when going 15, and over 80 when going 30; that is, going only twice as fast they will require at least four times the distance. Then to be in the safety-first class they'll not take any chances of seeing how nearly they can run up to a passing train without hitting it.

To avoid casualties play safe. In case of doubt give yourself the benefit of it.

An attempt to make "pals" of a German police dog, 2 1/2 months old, and a prairie wolf, 3 months old, is being made by Mrs. Eunice Wallin Pomeroy, 700 State avenue, Kansas City, Kas. The prairie wolf is one of nine puppies captured near Topoka, Kas., after the mother wolf had been killed. The wolf pup and police dog pup have been together two weeks now. They play together as if they were pups of the same species, Mrs. Pomeroy says. The wolf pup will eat out of Mrs. Pomeroy's hand.

FORD PLANT FOR AUSTRALIA.

The Plan Involves the Expenditure of Millions of Dollars.

Windsor, Ont.—Details of a far reaching plan that involves the expenditure of millions by the Ford Motor Company of Canada Limited, were announced today by W. R. Campbell, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Corporation. It is, in a word, the establishment of the Ford Motor Company of Australia, with a capitalization of $5,000,000, "the setting up of five assembling plants and a body plant with a fixed investment of approximately $3,300,000 and the spending of a similar amount for floating materials, in all $7,000,000.

The company's move has been under consideration for nearly two years and by easy stages, has been brought to the point of consummation.

NO INDICTMENT AGAINST SQUIRES.

St. John's, Nfld.—A Grand Jury investigating charges against Sir Richard Squires, former Premier of Newfoundland in connection with alleged irregularities in the course of his administration, returned no indictment Thursday night. The Grand Jury held that evidence in support of charges of larceny and of receiving money in the testimony of Mrs. Jean Marsant formerly Secretary to Squires, was insufficient to warrant finding a true bill.

The former Premier was placed under arrest last April on charges of larceny which were the immediate outgrowth of report of crown commissioner, T. H. Walker, K. C., recorder of Derby, England.

NIGHT LIFE IN MONTREAL IS TERRIBLE.

American Detective Tells Special Investigator of the Scenes of Vice.

Montreal.—Montreal's night life, its moral turpitude and its temptations; harpies who frequent city cafes and pursue their sordid profession unpoliced by the police; restaurants whose management act as "procureurs" for these patrons; taxicab drivers who advance to their passengers the inducement of taking them to places of ill repute; drunken revelries and scenes of vice were detailed to Mr. Justice Coderre, investigating commissioner, here Thursday by Chicago Detective who has undertaken a round of the city's vice districts last March and who appeared to present evidence at the enquiry into Montreal police affairs.

Since the United States Detectives were still continuing their investigation into the morals of the Metropolis, counsel both for the petitioners and the defence agreed that they should give their evidence to a clear court, only newspaper and court officials being present.

The Americans had come here, they said, at the request of Dr. Haywood, of Montreal, and had visited many places in Montreal where they had witnessed disgusting laxity of morals. One of the Detectives, who gave the name of George Haddock, outlined his own experiences, naming some of the city's well known restaurants where he had been served drinks outside of lawful hours, where the management had informed him that they could procure women by telephone at fifteen minutes notice, where the management acted as intermediary between the patron and the unclothed women who frequented the place, where in one instance a policeman, whose number was given in evidence, had entered, been given a drink and had gone on his way, and where in another case young women had openly taken narcotics and been carried out.

The "Red Light District." He spoke of houses of ill fame and gambling joints whose proprietors he said had declared that the authorities were "fixed" and of young girls of immature age being solicited in these houses of vice. Mr. Haddock will continue his testimony tomorrow.

Owen Dawson, of the Committee of Sixteen, gave evidence of commercialized vice and of the fruitless campaign waged by the committee to stamp it out. As far as he knew, there were three hundred disorderly houses in the "Red Light District." Warrants had been issued in a number of cases of girls under sixteen found in these houses, he said, but seldom anything resulted. Either the party jumped her bail or got off or the record was lost, or something happened to spoil the proceedings.

Mr. Dawson estimated that $6,000,000 were spent in this district on vice and liquor. He declared that the certificates of health given to inmates of disorderly houses by medical men were a farce, the doctor he said, writing a certificate and charging fifty cents for it without ever examining the woman at all. He produced documents to show that one doctor had given a woman a clean bill of health, and two days later had charged her $15 for medical treatment.

He cited cases where men were paid from $200 to $500 each to procure girls for these places, and that "high class houses" had to turn their stock of women onto the streets and purchase a new stock every six months or so in order to keep their clientele. He told of little boys as well as grown men and women earning money as touts, and how taxicab drivers and sleigh drivers were paid liberal commissions for bringing customers.

Glad to report Mrs. Lewis Acker home from the V. G. Hospital, where she underwent an operation, and doing nicely.

The farmers in this district are at their busiest, endeavoring to get the apples picked before the early freeze-up which is predicted.

Avard Nelly is improving his residence by the addition of a verandah. Among those who attended the Exhibition at Yarmouth were the families of C. S. Rogers, Avard Nelly, E. A. Nelly and Henry Lockwood.

The W. M. A. S. met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Allister Mosher. Owing to several being at Yarmouth, and several others entertaining apple pickers the meeting was not large but was very interesting in spite of that, and the tea served at the close of the meeting was excellent.

Our pastor Rev. Mr. Allan and his wife are enjoying a few days moose hunting. We wish the nimrods success.

QUEER TELEPHONE QUESTIONS.

There is no doubt that the telephone exchanges in every city are asked many queer questions.

The records kept by the New York telephone exchange contain many amusing samples. The New York Times says: Queer questions pour daily into New York telephone exchanges. A large proportion of those asking for information seem bitten with the idea that information is merely a delightful convenience for every occasion. An exchange where a record has been kept of unusual inquiries may be taken as a fair sample. Whether the foolish questions arise from misunderstanding, carelessness or mere mischief is difficult to say. One may decide for himself, after glancing over the following actual quotations:

"Information, will you do me a favor? I am going to the butcher and I am afraid to leave baby alone. If I put the receiver to his ear will you entertain him while I am away?"

A subscriber who asked for a certain person, added: "I don't know his address, but he lives next door to the Post Office."

A woman called up with the question: "Can you give me the name of a poultry farm that sells chickens and eggs?"

Perhaps it was a budding financier or a gardener who inquired: "Who is considered the Onion King on the Stock Exchange?"

One bashful young lady stammered: "Is it appropriate to wear a blue serge suit and tan shoes to a graduation? What would you suggest?"

Somebody else asked for the address of a theatre, what play was there and if a certain actor was still in the cast.

A subscriber who wanted to speak with a Mrs. Smith was asked by the operator for Mrs. Smith's initials. "Why, Central," came the reply, "she hasn't any initials; she's a widow."

A travelling salesman's wife called up with the remark that her husband would be in town for only a few minutes and she wished to dine with him. Would Central please send a girl who would take care of the baby about two hours?

"Information," one woman asked, "Mrs. Smith told me she once had a maid who lived on Morningside Avenue. Can you tell me how I can find her?"

"What is the name, please?" Information inquired.

"Really, I don't know the maid's name, Mrs. Smith has forgotten, but I thought perhaps you might know. The woman across the street has a telephone. Probably you can tell me what her number is."

"Do you know her name?"

"No, but I think she lives somewhere near 114th St."

Another seeker after knowledge exclaimed: "A cheque was returned to me marked 'no funds.' What does that mean?"

A little boy called up. "Can you find my dog?" he said. "His name is Jack and he has a black patch over his ear."

An excited woman cried: "Please tell me who has a $38. I found that number in my husband's coat pocket and I think it is the number of some hussy."

A young man wanted to know if he might have his nickel refunded. "I called up a girl for a date," he said, "and she wouldn't go out. My call did no good, so I think I am entitled to my money back."

Many inquire about the weather, but the best information can do is to connect them with the weather forecaster.

Such questions as "Who won the race?" "Why are the whistles blowing?" "Did the Giants win?" are common.

A woman asked: "Can you tell me what the thermometer registers out of doors? I want to put my canopy out, but I am afraid it is too cold."

worried mother, called up to say that her little boy had failed to come home from school, and asked information if she would suggest a place where he might be found.

"I want to talk to a man who is laying a cement walk on 41st street, between 6th and 7th avenues or somewhere around there," said one inquirer. "Just connect me with one of the houses along the street and they will call him in."

"Our house is quarantined for scarlet fever. Is it all right to use the telephone?"

"Information, please give me the number of a lady who lives on 8th street, just off 5th avenue. She is an artist and her husband an editor. I thought you could find it because very few editors live in that neighborhood."

Arduous as Information's labors are, they do not go without reward. One man, pleased by a quick connection, wanted to show appreciation. He called Information back: "You gave me fine service," he said. "I want to show you my gratitude. Here goes a tip in the quarter slot. Thanks!"

A notable instance of one possessing a large number of living descendants is that of Mrs. Milledge Schofield, of White Rock. Mrs. Schofield, who has almost reached her eighty-fifth birthday, is remarkably active and well for her years. She has eight sons grown to manhood, seven of whom are married. She has fifty grandchildren and forty-five great-grandchildren, all living. Her husband died a few years ago, and one of the sons with his family resides with his mother in the old home. This, we imagine is an unusual case—even in the fine old country of Kings or province of Nova Scotia.—(Wolfville Acadian.)

William Mitchell a few days ago secured the first moose shot this season on the North Mountain section near Bridgetown.

The Berwick evaporating plant of Graham's Limited commenced operations on Thursday, under the management of H. A. Thacker. Providing sufficient apples can be obtained, it is the intention of the Company, we understand, to keep the plant in operation throughout the fall and winter months. About thirty-five hands are at present employed by this concern.—(Berwick Register.)

Some idea of the extent of the fruit industry in this section of the Valley may be obtained from the fact that of six fruit warehouses now being operated in Berwick, a total of ninety hands are at present employed. And this number, we understand, will likely be considerably augmented as the season advances. In addition to the warehouses, the Evaporator, which is now in operation, has a staff of thirty-five employees, while Sam Chute, whose extensive orchards are situated in the South Berwick and Rockland districts, are employing no less than sixty men during the apple picking season.—(Register.)

From August 15th to Sept. 20th, 124 carloads of apples were shipped from Berwick station as compared with 92 carloads for the same period last year.

Officers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are reported to have captured $5,000 worth of rum and assorted liquors in the vicinity of Windsor on Monday.

Rev. P. R. Hayden has the thanks of the editor for a choice moose steak. Mr. Hayden and his brother have had a most successful trip from the former's old home in Shelburne county.

It is said that week before last the consumption of gasoline in the four town districts of New Glasgow, Stellarton, Westville and Trenton, reached its highest mark—Sixty thousand gallons at an approximate cost of thirty cents, totalling twenty thousand dollars worth for the week.

Mr. J. Herbert Hicks has purchased from Inspector M. C. Foster, the half of the self-contained double house owned by the Inspector on East Grandville Street.

The beautiful weather of the first week in October was broken on Wednesday last by rain. Cloudy and disagreeable weather has prevailed nearly ever since, much to the inconvenience of orchardists.

John Gilliat, Chief of Police at Annapolis Royal, has resigned and Fred Riley has been appointed in his place till the end of the year at a salary of $75. per month. Gilliat has during his period of service been very active against speed fiends.

 George E. Fox.

Middleton.—The death occurred Sunday afternoon at the home of his son, Frank, of George E. Fox, at the age of 89 years. The deceased was born at Habitant in the County of Kings, the eldest and sole survivor of a family of eleven children, whose parents were Edward M. and Mary Pineo Cox.

Mr. Cox lived at Hortonville and spent until fourteen years ago, when he was removed to Middleton. He was a Baptist in religion, having been a deacon of the former "Free Baptists." He was a man of intellectual tastes, widely read, with considerable practical ability, and a character of fine integrity. He filled the office of Justice of the Peace for many years in his native county, and was also a member of the old Court of Sessions. He was known as a "Joe Howe Liberal" in earlier days and followed Mr. Howe into the Liberal-Conservative Party.

He leaves a family of six children, one son predeceasing him a year ago. The others are: Frank, Fred, Florence and Effie, of Middleton; Dora, of Tacoma, Washington; and Ashley, of Avonport. Interment took place at 3.30 Tuesday afternoon at Pine Grove Cemetery.

MOTHERS LIKE TO TREAT COLDS WITH VAPORS

Direct Treatment with Vaporizing Salve Immediately Reaches Inflamed Air Passages.

It is no longer necessary constantly to dose the children in treating croup, bronchitis, sore throat, or deep chest colds. Mothers know the "outside" remedy, Vicks VapoRub, for the cold troubles of all the family, because it is just rubbed over throat and chest—there is nothing to take. When so applied Vicks gives off medicated vapors which are inhaled directly into the inflamed air passages, loosening the phlegm and making the breathing easier.

At the same time Vicks is absorbed and stimulates the skin like a liniment or plaster and thus aids the vapors inhaled to break up the congestion.
