

JAPAN CANNOT HAVE TWO WAYS

Must Make Up Her Mind Whether She Will Be

ALOOF FROM NATIONS

Or the Avowed Champion of All Pan-Asiatic Ideas.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. LONDON, June 23.—The London Times prints this morning a long letter from Admiral Mahan, U.S.N., in reply to an article published by that journal from the pen of Sir Valentine Chirol, of May 19, on the subject of Japanese immigration to the United States. It will be noted by those interested in Canadian immigration that the admiral says like conditions exist in Canada. The admiral asserts that Chirol's article implied the endorsement of Japan's claim for free immigration of her subjects into territories of other great powers, with accompanying naturalization and the proceeds to come but this. His main contention is that while America is able and probably will remain able to assimilate the European emigration owing to their descent from a common civilization, "There are those who greatly doubt whether in view of the different foundations of these Japanese of this 20th century, and of the recognized strength and tenacity of character of the Japanese people, emphasized by strong racial marks, they could be so assimilated."

A Color Question. He denies that the question at issue is one of color and entirely rejects the assumption that the American race is superior to the Chinese or Japanese. "It is," he declares, "the recurrent problem which confronts Germany in Poland, Austria in her Slav provinces, Canada in her French population, South Africa in the Boers. America doubts her power to digest and assimilate the strong and tenacious racial characteristics which distinguish the Japanese, which are the secret of much of their success and which if I am not mistaken would constitute them continually a solid, homogeneous body, essentially and unchangeably foreign."

Clear Analysis. In an editorial, The Times describes the Mahan letter as "the clearest analysis that has yet been written on the American attitude," but declines to accept his interpretation of Chirol's article, the purpose of which it says was not to pronounce a final verdict. It quotes a letter written by Mahan himself ten years ago, in which he admitted the validity of Japan's claims, but says "we do not doubt Admiral Mahan correctly interprets the feeling of a bulk of his countrymen and we are not disposed to question the weight of the reasons he submits. It is tolerably clear that the opposing forces are essentially irreconcilable, and may some day present very explosive elements, but meanwhile the issue is not urgent and there is time to inquire whether Japan has a sufficiently plain idea of what she really wants. On one hand she demands recognition because her people are no other Asiatics; on the other hand her publicists are not assenting that to Japan is assigned the leadership in the claim of colored race against the non-colored."

WIFE OF PREMIER TO STAY AT WORK

But Will Give Her Salary to the Shorthand Writers' Fund.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. LONDON, June 23.—The Morning Post prints a Copenhagen despatch which says: "Members of the new radical cabinet, which took office yesterday, refuse to wear uniforms or decorations or accept the title of excellency. The wife of the premier, Mr. Zahle, who is a lawyer, is the official parliamentary shorthand writer, and she intends to continue this work. She is the first woman to hold this position and her salary is $22 a year. While her husband is the premier, she will present her salary to a shorthand writers' fund."

BUILDING VESSELS TO FIGHT TRUST

English Shipping Firms Form a Combine to Capture British Meat Market.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World. LONDON, June 23.—The Belfast correspondent of the Morning Post says that Harland and Wolff are about to build at least six vessels for a combine about to be formed of several leading English shipping companies interested in the South American chilled meat trade, for the purpose of fighting the American beef trust in the British markets. These vessels are to be of special design for use in the Panama Canal.

INCREASE OUTPUT OF ISLAND PLANT

Capacity Next Spring Will Be One Hundred Million Gallons Daily.

Mayor Hocken has announced that the waterworks plant at the island, which now supplies 40,000,000 gallons of water per day to the city, is to be increased to a 100,000,000 output, probably by next spring. Commissioner Harris and Dr. Hastings, M.H.C., will probably report before long that the experiment at West Toronto with a combination of mechanical and slow sand filtration is an unqualified success. This will likely assure the adoption of that process in the extension of the plant at the island. However, tenders will have to be called for, and this will admit of consideration of all processes.

STRAWBERRY RUSH JUST COMMENCING

Large Shipments to Local Market Will Be Made Today.

Advices have been received by the wholesale fruit dealers that this week will be the biggest week in the year from a strawberry viewpoint. The fourth commandment put a stop to the picking on Sunday, but early yesterday morning the work was taken up again and at nightfall the railway stations in the Niagara peninsula were entrenched in berry crates piled high all over the platforms. These shipments will arrive in the city today and fruitgrowers say that they are the best berries that will be shipped this season. The rains of last week are responsible for the pickup in the crop. Early in the week the berries which reached the city were often small, green and dirty. The rain, however, came just in time to save the crop and the season will not be had as first anticipated. It is expected that the local sales will be heavy today and tomorrow. By Thursday, however, the rush will be over. The prices, it is expected, will run from 12 cents to 20 cents a box, according to quality.

WON'T PURCHASE SITE FOR WOMEN'S HOME

Property Committee Decide to Postpone Proposed Hundred Acre Deal.

Ald. Wanless proposed in the property committee yesterday that when the city architect's department is re-organized a branch be formed from which may be purchased plans and specifications for buildings that will conform to the bylaw. He contended that the plans would be put thru much more quickly and that the workmen would benefit. He asked for a report upon it from the city architect, but it was voted down. Commissioner Chalmers recommended against the purchase at present of 100 acres of land for a women's industrial farm. This was generally agreeable.

JUDGE MORGAN NOT ANXIOUS TO RETIRE

Whether Judge Morgan must retire or not under the new statute, he is not worrying. At 73 he feels that he is quite qualified to act for many more years, and declares that if he is retired he will not spend his days in idleness.

"It seems absurd for the government to compel me to retire on full salary and pay another man with less experience and no higher mental ability to do my work. I believe the intention of the act was merely to fix an age limit at which they could use their discretion about asking for a judge's resignation."

HEATED AIR EXPLODED CAUSING WALL'S FALL

Montreal Fire Chief Issues Statement—Civil Funeral for Victims.

—That the wall which fell during a fire here yesterday in the sash factory of Izveire and Sokakazin and killed four firemen and injured five others, was blown out by an explosion of heated air, was the statement issued by Fire Chief Tremblay this morning. The fire itself, which did damage now estimated at $150,000, was started, it is believed, by a cigaret butt carelessly hung into a pile of shavings.

—All the injured men were reported doing well this morning. A civic funeral will be given the dead firemen on Wednesday, and services will be held in the Roman Catholic and Presbyterian Churches they attended.

A benefit in aid of the Montreal firemen's benevolent fund, which was to have been held last night, has had to be cancelled, but the newspapers have opened their columns free for acknowledgment of subscriptions.

ELASTIC CURRENCY URGENTLY REQUIRED

President Wilson Points Out That Tariff Revision Means Great Strain.

MANN CAUSTIC CRITIC

Message is Chaste English, But Largely "Bunk," He Thinks.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—(Can. Press)—Bearing a personal plea for immediate action by congress to revise the banking and currency laws, that business may be aided in meeting tariff revision, President Wilson for the second time went to the house of representatives today and personally read his address on the subject to both houses of congress assembled in joint session. He appealed to every member of the house and senate to lay aside personal considerations and sacrifice comfort and even health, if necessary, to secure at once a revision and reform of the nation's banking system. Only in that way, he declared, could the country secure the benefits of the tariff revision soon to be completed.

"It is perfectly clear that it is our duty to supply the new banking and currency system the country needs, and that it will immediately need it more than ever," said President Wilson. "I shall hasten to change our tariff laws, and then be lagged about making it possible and easy for the country to take advantage of the change. There can be only one answer to that question. We must act now, at whatever sacrifice to ourselves."

The vigor and strength of his short message held the rigid attention of his large audience throughout its delivery. The president gave no direct endorsement to the Glass currency bill, which is to form the basis for the Democratic revision of the banking laws, but in indirect language made it known that it had been prepared with his counsel and approval.

NEWS OF WESTERN ONTARIO

ATTEMPT TO LURE INDIAN GIRLS AWAY White Slave Operations Are Suspected—Girls Return to Mohawk Institute.

BRANTFORD, June 23.—(Special.)—Authorities at the Mohawk Institute had a stern chase for two Indian girls, aged 14 and 15 years, whom it is alleged an effort was made to entice away from the institute. The girls were found in a house opposite the institute, and they jumped from the windows in an effort to escape. When caught tickets for Hamilton were found in their possession.

OWING to the character of the house in which the girls were found, the attempted abduction of the girls looked like a case of white slave operations, and action will be taken against the woman of the house. She left for Hamilton immediately after the capture of the girls.

MAY SECURE POWER FROM GRAND RIVER

BERLIN, June 23.—(Special.)—Government surveyors passed thru Group, two miles from here, having commenced at Lake Erie to find out the drop per mile. Given a rough estimate, they said it averaged 3.65 per mile, while between Galt and Chippewee it showed as high as eight feet per mile. As a result of this there are prospects that in a few years the Grand River will generate thousands of horse power and furnish the farmers with electric power all along its course.

It might be casually supposed that under his vigilant eye it would be a highly moral town. Likewise so the adjacent towns of Trenton, Westville, Stellarton, Pictou and other Pictou County places, all of which are under the Scott Act.

The reverse is the case. In New Glasgow there are at least 15 blind pigs and as many in Stellarton and Westville each. Within a radius of four and a half miles there are 60 known blind pigs in the guise of temperance drink places, restaurants and shops, all selling the worst grade of whiskey. No legitimate place is allowed to sell beer containing only a little more than one per cent of alcohol, but there is no difficulty in getting in the drug stores patent medicines containing from 30 to 40 per cent of alcohol, or buying whiskey from the blind pigs or from the hundreds of the pocket peddlers.

Same in Winnipeg.

Conditions in Winnipeg are much the same as in Edmonton. While there may be some hesitancy in regard to the sale of outside lots, city property is felt to be secure and building is going on as active conditions with regard to women are generally speaking, continually improving, owing to the strong suffrage feeling in the community.

Many of the press women of Winnipeg are absolute advocates of suffrage, Mrs. McClung, the authoress, being among them. One of the things recently obtained here is the Women's and Children's Maintenance Act. This provides that a man who deserts his wife and children, or both, may be brought back from any point in Manitoba, if he has not been in the city at its best until it is made Dominion. Meanwhile the women feel they have gained a great deal in having the act, even in its present shape.

There are still a few yet who are imbued deeply in the pessimistic line of some months back, which involved the general feeling in a black cloud of despondency. These will tell you that the situation is unchanged, but the feeling generally is that whatever despondency there is, it is being raised by the real estate boom to the degree of fever heat all over the country.

This is certainly a splendid week to take the little ones to Hanlan's Point. The circus bears are making more fun than a circus. The intelligent old bears can do most anything, including the turkey trot and play all kinds of jokes on their trainer. Then there are the cute little "Teddy" bears. They try to imitate the big fellows but are unable to do it, and laugh over themselves in such a comical way that everybody laughs and has a real good time. The Granddaddy band will give a concert to-night.

Do you know that the early sweet apples that are so plentiful this month can be cooked in many delicious ways, if a little lemon is added to give them necessary acid?

They can be baked, many people's opinion to the contrary, and make a dessert that will be remembered with longing until they come again next year.

Try this recipe: Core the apples with a cylinder corer and in the hollow stuff seeded raisins that have been plentifully dredged with sugar, cinnamon and all that's nice in the spice line; put in some bits of butter, too.

Arrange the apples in a baking dish, not too shallow, and pour a little water around them. Now squeeze the juice from a quarter ripe lemon over the apples and bake. Serve very cold with a sauce or whip cream. You will enjoy this dish as much as if you were a small boy eating sweet apples, and there will be no penalty to pay either, for over-indulgence.

Apple whip is a dainty dessert with apple sauce for its foundation. To the stiffly beaten, well sweetened whites of two, or three, eggs add a pint of finest flour.

Chill this and serve sponge cake with it. The early sweet apples are delicately flavored and do splendidly for this dessert.

If you have candied ginger at hand a bit of minced ginger and sprinkled indeed, lemon, ginger and apples combine well in all these recipes.

BUSINESS ASPECT OF CANADA'S WEST

Conditions Have Improved in All Lines Despite Recent Setback.

EDMONTON EXPANDING

Winnipeg is Also Forging Ahead, as Are All Other Places.

By a Staff Reporter.

EDMONTON, Alta., June 18.—Impressions are hard to eradicate. Facts are things difficult to controvert. When leaving Toronto one was filled with the idea that things and times were hard in the west. Naturally one was prepared for a realization of their impression, no matter how it had been obtained. As the members of the Canadian Women's Press Club travel further and further westward, this idea becomes fainter and more faint, and the fact that times and things are at least on the ascendant forces itself to the front.

To substantiate the truth or falsity of the so often repeated statement with regard to financial stringency in this part of the country, The World representative traveling with the Canadian Women's Press Club has interviewed several business and public men and women. One who seemed to have facts to back up his statement was Alderman Lundy. Lundy has interviewed many of the business men and public men in this part of the country in his home, the original home of the city, and has learned for him historic recognition in the city upon which he now spends his time and thought as a member of its prospective future. He has interviewed the party of which The World had the privilege of being a member, about Edmonton, the beauty and seeming prosperity of which are in themselves ample refutation of the pessimistic view of the situation.

Ald. Lundy's statement was that things are far from depressing in Edmonton. Proof of this was given in the illustration that the city had late in its sold millions of debentures at 94 in the market. It things had been considered shaky this could not have been done. English corporations are today way to buy a pig in a poke. Another fact for Edmonton is its fine back-land of live stock. In a decade of years since when a cattle and poultry show was organized, only a few depressing specimens were presented. Now one of the finest exhibits in the west is shown annually in the west. This was accomplished by a generous price list and by encouragement of every direction to those who raise stock.

"A frost might destroy the wheat," said our aldermanic guide, "but it would not matter how great the trouble may seem, do not be satisfied with 'about half milk' or 'a little lime water' or 'sweetened to taste.' Be accurate in this direction as an accurate and backing of no small weight.

Signs of Progress.

Another proof, and one visible at every hand, are the buildings and construction works in progress. The city is simply honeycombed with new buildings by gangs of men and horse teams on the roads, on bridges and on buildings, private and public. And to add to the testimony, are the homes of the hosts and hostesses of the Press Women, and of the entertainment provided for them; homes comfortable to luxury and an entertainment lavish to the point of being overwhelming.

A woman's standpoint was obtained from Mrs. Skinner, one of the best-known newspaper women of Winnipeg. Mrs. Skinner was the one chosen by the Winnipeg branch of the Press Club to move the resolution for the establishment of a beneficiary fund for the members of the national body.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 24.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH

For a second time since his inauguration as president of the United States, Mr. Wilson has addressed the two houses of congress in person, instead of communicating his views by a written message.

"No man, however casual and superficial his observation of the conditions now prevailing in the country, can fail to see that one of the chief things business needs now, and will need increasingly as it gains in scope and vigor in the years immediately ahead of us, is the proper means by which readily to vitalize its credit, corporate and individual, and its originality of brains."

"The tyrannies of business, big and little, lie within the field of credit. We know that. Shall we not act upon the knowledge? Do we not know how to act upon it? If a man cannot make his assets valuable at pleasure, his assets of capacity and character and resource, what satisfaction is it to him to see opportunity beckoning to him on every hand, when others have the keys of credit in their pockets and treat them as all but their own private possessions?"

The president, of course, could not refer to the details of the bill about to be introduced, but he frankly stated that he had conferred with the committee of the two houses and that he stood fully prepared to accept that responsibility for the coming currency legislation, which would develop upon him, not only as the chief executive of the nation, but as the leader of the political party in possession of the government.

The salient characteristics of the currency bill introduced by Chairman Glass of the banking and currency committee, are:

- (1) A government currency capable of rapid expansion to meet financial stringency or scarcity of money in any part of the country.
(2) Decentralizing the control of money to the end that large reserves will be accumulated in at least nine centres of population. The currency of the country is at present largely massed in New York; under the bill these reserves will be divided probably between New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco.

(3) The encouragement to outside banks and trust companies to join the Federal Reserve Associations and procure the national currency upon collateral. Under this bill the United States will have what the banks have long been clamoring for, namely, an elastic currency, safeguards against a money famine, and the extension of credits to those who have the assets and capacity to make them yield a good return.

The criticism of the bill from the banker's standpoint, just how, is that the government takes control and retains control of the situation. Except for this criticism the plan is widely commended as statesman-like and efficient.

serve bank, which would fix the rates of discount, rediscount securities held by other banks, and become the medium for distributing the national currency to the banks doing business in Canada.

Had this plan been adopted, there would today be more actual capital in the banking business, there would be more money available for the development of the country, and the credit of the nation would be freely employed in building up the Dominion.

Already the coming reforms in the United States are quickening the pulse of business. Canada should have led in this path which in time she is bound to follow.

DROPPING INTO POETRY.

The Telegram conducts its campaign, no doubt, to the best of its ability, but the weak spots in its defence are so apparent, and the lameness of its attack so obvious, that one does not wonder at the yearning it exhibits for poetic solace.

"I wish that there were some wonderful place Called the Land of Beginning Again."

Why not? There is nothing to prevent The Telegram making a fresh start and getting out of the bog into which it has stumbled.

That Mayor Hocken is the worst mayor that ever was born. That Tommy Church is the noblest work of creation, and that as a chairman and presiding officer, there has been none like him since Oliver Cromwell.

That Tommy Foster only needs a little more hair on his head to strike King Solomon in wisdom and strike the Queen of Sheba dumb.

That Sir William Mackenzie is the strap-hanger's friend.

That The World has pulled the legs of the experts who proposed the purchase of the street railway in their report; Mayor Hocken and Controller McCarthy, who put the proposal into negotiation; the city council which endorsed it; the Ontario Government, which facilitated the measure necessary for the negotiations; and all the citizens who want to know what it will cost them to be relieved of eight more years hanging to the straps.

No wonder The Telegram yearns for "The Land of Beginning Again."

Of course, none of these things are so. Even The Telegram knows that. But when you feel it to be necessary to holler, you must holler something.

And The Telegram does not like to holler that the Tommy Twomes want the citizens to hang on to straps for eight years more.

Our "dropping into poetry in a friendly way" has had such a painful effect upon The Telegram that humane considerations will make it advisable for us to stick to prose in future. Incantations evidently retain their ancient potency.

AN ABSOLUTE CLEAN UP.

Mayor Hocken's statement yesterday with regard to the street railway negotiations will confirm the citizens in the confidence they have reposed in him.

"Nothing short of an absolute clean up of the transportation and electric situation will suit us," he declared.

"The city must own every bit of radial track on the city streets. Then we could give Toronto what nearly every other city has, a radial terminus in the heart of the city. I am insisting on getting all this. If I can't get it, I'll go back to the council and say 'I've failed.' These are manly, straight-forward and sensible, businesslike words. They have no trace of the policy of selling out the city's interests which The Telegram is trying to convince its readers underlies Mayor Hocken's efforts."

The mayor is on the right line. He deserves to succeed, and we believe he will. And that means that he will make an agreement which must satisfy the city council, the Hydro-Electric Commission, the citizens, and even The Telegram; for, after all, we hope there still lingers a little bit of British fair play in the paper that professes to be the only out-and-out supporter of public ownership in Toronto.

chester street railways is nearly a million. The passengers carried for last year were close on 200,000,000. In connection with the system the city carries on a parcel delivery service, the growth of which has been phenomenal.

THE EUROPEAN POSITION. Rumors of war still pursue the statesmen of Europe and they will only breathe easier when the problem of distributing the areas of territory, conquered from the Turk, has met with a satisfactory solution.

Austria-Hungary holds the keys of peace and the trouble is not so much direct as indirect. For some years past Russia and the centre of diplomatic antagonism. What the Balkan war has done, apart from its immediate result, is to make clear the fact that Russia has in large measure recovered from the blow inflicted by the Japanese war.

Toronto will have dealt with the problem of garbage disposal for some time. The city council has authorized a study of the policy of commercializing garbage. MARSHALL DIED OF SKULL FRACTURE Inquest Failed to Clear Up Mystery Surrounding Prisoner's Death.
IN JAIL FOR SIX DAYS
Parkdale Station Officers Swore That Man Was Intoxicated.

That Charles Marshall came to his death at the General Hospital on the 15th of June, death was caused by a fracture of the skull, received from some unknown cause.
The above verdict was returned by Coroner J. W. Russell's jury, empaneled last night to investigate the death of Charles Marshall, who on June 3 last was arrested for being drunk, released from No. 6 station on the morning of June 4 and rearrested at noon on the same day on a similar charge. He was arraigned in police court the next day, where he pleaded guilty to a charge of being under the influence of alcohol, and was remanded for a week in jail to recover from the effects of his spree. At the jail he showed signs of being unwell. He was then removed to the General Hospital, where he died on June 15.

That Marshall died from a fracture of the skull, situated behind the left ear, was the statement of Dr. Mayhew, who performed the autopsy. This injury on the outside of the head was indicated by a black discoloration of the skin. There was considerable hemorrhage at this site, both above and below the covering of the brain. Softening of the brain was in evidence as a result of the hemorrhage.
All efforts failed, however, to find out from what source Marshall had received the blow which had caused his injury. Sergeant Verney and all the constables at No. 6 station who had anything to do with the prisoner at the time, swore they saw no discoloration or injury of any sort on the man. According to the sergeant, the man repeatedly declared he wanted nothing, would say nothing as to how he felt, and would not say what he had been drinking.
Tablets which were discovered in a bottle in his pockets were found on examination to be an ordinary mild laxative. The sergeant said he was undoubtedly drunk. P. C. May said a valuable gold watch, $20 gold pieces and over $6 in cash were found on him when searched.

Deputy Crown Attorney Norman G. Shaver, questioned each constable closely as to whether any violence had been offered, but every witness declared the man was as meek as a lamb and appeared only too glad to be taken care of.
Dr. Chambers, governor of the jail, declared that the man on being questioned, merely feigned consternation, "yes, yes," to all interrogations. Here it was that the discoloration behind the ear was noticed for the first time. Dr. Chambers said his bookkeeper called his attention to it. According to the doctor, Marshall came into the jail on June 5 and was re-

MOVED to the hospital on the afternoon of the 11th.
Dr. Parry, the jail surgeon, stated that Marshall was really removed to the hospital to die. He attended the man for three days, but he appeared to get much better. Then he began to get considerably worse, and he, seeing he was going to die, had him removed to the hospital. Everything was done for him at the jail that could have been done at the hospital, he said.
Not a Heavy Drinker.
T. Howard, an acquaintance of Marshall's, swore that although not a teetotaler, Marshall was not given to excessive drinking. Marshall, he said, was respectable and well liked by his fellow-employees at Eaton's drug department.
Now that the inquest has failed to solve the mystery of the man's death, it is not at all unlikely that further investigations will be made by friends of the dead man.

BRENDA MACRAE
IN SONG RECITAL
Toronto Singer Has a Voice of Remarkable Purity of Tone.
SINGS MOST CORRECTLY
Should Be Able to Go Upon the Operatic Stage.
Miss Brenda Macrae gave a song recital at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club last night, which was attended by a large and highly fashionable audience and included a large proportion of the city music lovers. Miss Macrae is a mezzo-soprano, and the song truly describes her type of voice with its full-bodied lower register and an upper range of considerable volume and purity. Her middle register with the higher and lower tone, and there is a certain colorfulness in the quality throughout which renders it most effective in a particular class of compositions. Miss Macrae sang most correctly and with excellent taste and culture, but in temperament, as in figure and attractiveness of appearance, she recalls Mary Anderson (Madame Novarro). It is noted that Miss Macrae is lacking in warmth, for she can uncover a vein of tenderness, of pathos, or even of passion; but she naturally falls into the grand manner as in the dramatic but remote music of "The Eagle" in Schaefer's setting. Miss Macrae splendidly visualized Tennyson's great lines, and her conception was elevated as the snows of the peak and almost as cold. She struck the grand note from quite another key in the sustained pathos of Hue's "J'ai pleuré en riant," with its final forceful "Toujours." Gena Branscombe's "Serenade" was also adapted to Miss Macrae's style. At the same time there was sympathy in her rendering of Strauss' "Zigeuner" and poetic feeling in the same composer's "Traum durch die Dammung"; and she discovered herself in Turner Salter's "Hier Liebt die Sonne" in an other number, and it was correspondingly successful. She can be dainty and winning, as in Brewer's "The Fairy Pipers," but the impression remains, as in Ferget's "Die im m'ami," that she was more bent on correct execution and careful phrasing than in putting her soul into the music. And soul she put into her singing. Miss Macrae was showered with bouquets and the recital was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS
STARTING WORK ON NEW SURVEY
For Street Railway Line on Pacific Avenue in Ward Seven.
Work was started yesterday on the survey for the proposed new street railway line along Pacific avenue, south of Anne street. The sidewalk on the east side of the street has been moved some yards farther in and now runs in many places only a few inches from the doorsteps of several of the houses on that side. The work on the west side will also have to be done in order to make room for the single track of the Toronto Suburban Railway Company. The line when completed will extend north from Bloor street to Dundas street on Pacific avenue and west from Pacific to Jane street on Anne street.

"SALES EXCEED TWO MILLIONS A MONTH"

ACTUAL SIZE

There must be something fine about a cigar to boost its sales up into the millions. It might not be so wonderful for a short period; but, both Tuckett's "CLUB" and Tuckett's "MARGUERITE" are old favorites. They are sold by tobacconists all over the country and have been for years. Clear Havana "filler"—Flor de Vuelta tobacco—which attains a mildness, sweetness and ripeness known to few other places in Cuba, these cigars have consistently maintained a standard that has given them the preference amongst good smokers everywhere.

They may be had from any of the following gentlemen, who constitute the and Toronto in August.

The Australians came off as expected in their first game at Philadelphia. They are playing there again. It is later in the tour that they will play three test matches against all-America teams. These probably will be the most interesting cricket matches ever held in the United States. The first match will take place on July 4, 5 and 6, in Philadelphia; the second on Aug. 1 and 2, in New York, and the third on Aug. 21, 22 and 23, in Toronto. Last week's score:

LARGE-ENTRY LIST
FOR GOLF TOURNAY

Canadian Championships Attracting Unusual Interest—G. Lyons
Out to Win for Eighth Time.

The local end of the golfing game will likely be well held up at the Canadian amateur championship tournament, which is to be held at the Toronto Golf course, commencing on July 1. It is expected that about one hundred will enter in the handicap tournament, which consists of 36 holes, medal play, and most of these will be from the Queen City Clubs. As yet the outside entries are coming in but slowly, but when the entries close there ought to be fifty or sixty ready for the championship (see Geo. Lyons has recovered from his illness completely, and is banging away at records already. The other day he went round the Toronto course under eighty.
Fritz Martin of Hamilton will be here and expects to make his bid side partner play phenomenal golf to capture the silverware this year. Gerald Lees, who was the champion such a score a few years ago, has written that he will be on hand, while Hulton, the winner in 1911, will make another effort to win the honors. Ottawa and Montreal as usual will be well represented.
The players ought to see W. A.
and D. Laird and E. Legge of Winnipeg come east, as they are considered three of the best when on their game. The course is improving daily, and unless a spell of dry weather happens along the greens should be in excellent shape.
