

LIBERALS CHEERED FOR CANDIDATE L. V. M'BRADY

Letters From the Dead in St. Pierre
Received in Paris, France.

Candidate in East Toronto Had Good Platform Support at First Meeting

Since L. V. McBratney accepted the Liberal nomination in East Toronto, the progress of his campaigning has not been heralded with any flourish of trumpets or beating of drums. It would look, however, as if his preliminary skirmishing had been well done, for his next words were in the same vein. "Whigman's Hall it was to a crowd which pretty well filled the place, and which waxed vigorously enthusiastic and vociferous at every excuse for an expression of assent.

J. P. Rogers presided, and in his opening remarks dilated on imperial matters, and addressed that the future of the Anglo-Chinese race might depend on the result of the present war. There could be no reason why the use of American capital in Canadian enterprises was to be deplored, for the United States had prospered exceedingly with English money and the influx of a foreign population.

from St. Pierre giving many details of the disaster, the people were struck by catastrophe. The most interesting of these is a letter from a young lady, who was among the victims, dated May 23. After describing the aspect of St. Pierre before dawn, the town being covered with a thick layer of ash and cane, everything covered with ash, and the people greatly excited, yet not panic-stricken, she said: "My calmness astonished me. I am awaiting the event tranquilly. My only regret is that I have no friends here. I travels everywhere, even thru closed windows and doors. We are all calm. Mamma is not a bit anxious. Edouard alone is frightened. If death awaits us there will be a numerous company. I am not afraid. I am not a coward. I or you? It will be what God wills. You shall have our last thoughts. Tell Brother Robert that we are still alive. This will, perhaps, be no longer true."

Mr. Mowat's Prophecy.
H. M. Mowat, K.C., contrasted past and present day campaign methods. To-day there was more business and common sense about it, and he was sure East Toronto had enough of the latter commodity to elect Mr. McBrady. [Applause.] Any- way, he could say for a certainty that no matter what the result in that riding might be, the Boer government had no rea-

The Edith mentioned was a lady visitor who was among the rescued. This and other letters enclosed samples of the ashes which fell over the doomed town. The ashes are a bluish grey-impalpable powder, resembling newly ground flour and slightly smelling of sulphur.

Another letter written during the afternoon of May 3 says: "The population of the neighborhood of the mountain is flocking to the city. Business is suspended, the inhabitants are panic-stricken, and the firemen are sprinkling the streets and roofs to

...to be alarmed at the outcome in general. [More applause.] He then went into the question of the Don improvements, the increased cost of which had come so heavily on cast end ratepayers. The only remedy was to invoke the kindness of the legislature to relieve them of the statute of 1886, by which they are bound to pay. "Who will you choose," he asked, "to represent you when that fight comes on, the man who has represented you hitherto or the able, energetic, and wise young councillor who now asks your suffrages?" And

These and other letters seem to indicate that evidences of the impending snow have not yet appeared before it occurred. It is difficult to understand how it was that a general snow of the population of Sierra did not take place on May 1st.

Still another letter says: "St. Pierre presents an aspect unknown to the inhabitants of the city. It is covered with grey snow, a winter scene without doubt. The inhabitants of the neighborhood, who are used to seeing the villas and cottages, and the felling to the city. It is a curious poll-melange of colors, and the appearance of peasants, big black fellows, loaded with household goods. The air is oppressive, your nose burns; what a tomorrow in store for you? a flow of lava, rain of stones or a cataclysm from the sky." "I am not a seer, but I have just thought if I must die, I will die."

then he went on to describe a picture show artist could paint of the time when, years hence, East Toronto electors would proudly tell their children's children how they had voted for "the Hon. Mr. McBrady," the time he won his first election.

Ross or Whitney—Which?

Rev. Dr. Dewart, who at first said he had only "come to see the fun," declared that it was a question of Ross and the worthy men behind him or launching a barrage on an unknown sea and drifting whither? From personal observation, he would say, conscientiously, it would be a curious case of Mr. Whitney or Mr. Ross, or Mr. Ross or Mr. Whitney.

A St. Pierre paper of May 3 announces that an excursion arranged for the next day to Mont Pelee had been postponed as the crater was inaccessible, adding that notice would be issued when the excursion would take place."

tr tremendous blow to the welfare and prosperity of the country if the change were made." It was ridiculous for Mr. Whitney to pose as a purveyor of politics, for he had no disposition to do right all round.

John A. Ewan devoted his time to discussing the Temiskaming Railway and the Conservative policy in regard to it and Ontario. Nothing held out such marvelous prospects for the future of this country as the development of New Ontario, and he predicted Toronto would double its population as a result of the settlement of the new land. Mr. Whitney's attitude in the case of taxing corporations led him to be described by Mr. Ewan as a "whirligig stationery."

GAS NEAR TILLSONBURG.
Flow Raised the 1800 Pound Sinker and Drove Out Rocks.

Mr. McBrady was given a truly flattering reception, and he proceeded to mix his metaphor a little by saying that even "the fierce rays of Old Sol could not dampen the ardor of the Liberals of this city." Quite a change has come over Mr. McBrady since the night he was asked to stand for the Tilsenborg, May 19.—A remarkable flow of gas has to-day been obtained on the Hawkins farm, a short distance north of this town, by Mr. Cuthbertson, manager of the numerous oil wells that have been sunk in this vicinity during the past few months to the southwest of the town. In drilling in this last well an unusual pressure of gas has been obtained, about 100 feet from the surface of the ground. The pressure was sufficiently strong to lift the sinker bar, weighing 1800 lbs., and throw portions of rock above the derrick, which is 53 feet high. This gas appears of excellent quality.

honors, for last night he expressed himself as superbly confident of the result. Personal visitation thruout the riding had filled his soul with delight, and were he offered any "safe" Liberal constituency in the country he would accept East Toronto in preference. "I am not afraid," he said,

"SPEC" SUED FOR LIBEL.

Hon. John Dryden Goes After It—City Gains Again.

A writ was issued yesterday against The Hamilton Spectator, claiming unjust damages for alleged libel, at the suit of the Reliance Loan and Savings Company of Ontario, whose head office is in Toronto. The charge of libel arises out of an article appearing in The Hamilton Spectator of May 3 last, imputing dishonest methods to the plaintiffs in their transactions with their customers. The article seems specially directed against Hon. John Dryden, Commissioner of Agriculture in the Ross government, who is president of the Reliance Loan and Savings Company. It charges that Mr. Dryden lends his name to a number of corporations in order to attract business from conflicting citizens of the country.

A specific charge is made that Mr. Dryden and his colleagues obtained the passage of a bill, which materially reduced the benefits which had been held out to investors in the company.

Chancellor Boyd yesterday handed out judgment, confirming in its most material points Reference Cartwright's award in favor of the city by its suit over the bill, which it claimed for taxes on the site occupied by it on the Esplanade.

The taxes which the city is thus able to levy upon the property amount to almost $5000 yearly.

Success Assured When the DIAMOND DYES Are Used.

Success in home dyeing depends altogether upon the quality of the dyes you select for the work of coloring.

Diamond Dyes are acknowledged to be the best in the world, as far as brilliancy and strength of color are concerned.

They always do perfect work, and never disappoint.

Diamond Dyes are sold at 10 cents per package, the same price that many people pay for imitation dyes.

The most progressive druggists and dealers will sell no other dyes but the Diamond, because the inferior dyes cause so much grumbling and loss of materials.

Do not accept imitations or substitutes from any dealer no matter how strongly he may recommend them. The poor dyes are sold simply because they pay large profits. See that the name "Diamond" is on each package you buy.

Send Postal Card with your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain-street, Montreal, P.Q., for Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Designs.

For the Deaf Convention.

The Transportation Committee of the Ontario Sabbath School Association met yesterday morning, and completed arrangements for the transportation of the delegates to the International Sabbath School Association at Denver, in June. The Ontario delegates will leave Toronto on June 29, in a western sleeper, and will travel via the G. T. R., Wabash, Chicago and North-Western, and the Union Pacific railways.

The steamer Argyle will run an excursion from Victoria, B. C., May 24, to Prospect Park, Ontario, leaving Victoria at 7:30 a.m. There will be a grand demonstration in the park, and no doubt a number of people will take this excursion in the steamer.

The steamer will also have an excursion at 2 o'clock to White, Ontario, and will arrive back at the city at 9:45.

ALDERMEN STILL TALK GAS

Special Meeting of the Council to Be Called to Further Consider the Agreement.

ESTIMATES READY FOR COUNCIL

Will Be Taken Up at a Special Meeting—Short Session of City Council Yesterday.

The Mayor was yesterday asked by the City Council to call two special meetings—one to go over the estimates and the other to once more discuss the settlement with the Gas Company. The Council meeting yesterday afternoon only lasted a couple of hours, and beyond a rather spirited discussion over the gas question and another over the position of the tenants of St. Lawrence Market who are in the way of the strike of the iron workers at the new market, the meeting was quiet.

Vice-Chairman McMurrich of the Board of Control submitted the estimates for 1902, and asked that a special meeting of the Council be held to consider them. He suggested next Monday night. His Worship the Mayor will decide. The Board of Control can say that their estimates "were before Council on May 19."

Effect of the Strike.
The contractor for the fitting up of the stalls in the new St. Lawrence Market had nearly all his materials ready and was commencing the erection of the steel hangers when the strike of the iron workers started, and as it is doubtful how long the strike will continue, Ald. Lamb moved that the City Solicitor be instructed to rescind the notice to quit which was given to the lessees of the old market last month, and that the monthly leases should be paid as a condition of their being allowed to remain until the stalls in the new market are ready and that the City Treasurer be authorized to collect all rents now due and to become due from time to time.

This led to a general mix up. The Mayor declared the motion out of order several times, but without avail. Ald. Spence moved in amendment that the Board of Control have power to dispose of the matter, but another amendment by Ald. Richardson that the Property Committee deal with the matter carried.

Gas Question Again.

Ald. Spence, seconded by Ald. Frame, moved to the effect that the City Clerk be instructed to print the proposed agreement with the Consumers' Gas Company, as amended by the committee of the whole of the City Council, and that the City Clerk be authorized to call a special meeting of the Council to further consider the agreement.

Ald. Hubbard was more than usually bitter in a few remarks against Ald. Spence's motion. He upheld the agreement made by the Board of Control last year, and accused Ald. Spence of having gone back on it afterwards. "Who were they?" he asked. "Ald. Spence and Ald. Hubbard," he replied. "You know, if you don't, you can easily find out if you want to." He predicted further remarks from the same side in an effort to get such a settlement with the Gas Company. Ald. Hubbard stated plainly that the city had had no offer from the Gas Company, but that the Board of Control had made a reasonable offer.

Said There Was a Letter.

Ald. Burns referred to Ald. Hubbard's anxiety to "champion the cause of the Gas Company" and Ald. Dunn supported him. As far as Ald. Dunn was concerned, there was no agreement between the Gas Company and the city. Ald. Hubbard said a misstatement had been put upon his former statements, and he intimated that a letter had been received from the Gas Company signifying its acceptance of the old agreement.

After an exchange of compliments, Ald. Hubbard, Ald. Spence, and Ald. Richardson, the latter pressed an amendment which provided that the proposed agreement with the Consumers' Gas Company of January last be referred to the Corporation Counsel, together with the subsequent correspondence, instructions to submit them to the Gas Company and report to the Board of Control such agreement as can be settled and the counsel of the Gas Company.

Spence's Motion Carried.

On a division the Richardson amendment was defeated, the vote being: Ayes (4)—Ald. Lamb, Burns, Richardson, Hubbard; Nays (3)—Ald. Spence, Dunn, Curran. The motion was then voted on, and only Ald. Hubbard dissented, all the other aldermen voting in his favor. The Mayor will decide the fate of the special meeting.

Mr. Kemist's Complaint.

Fred Kemist, 248 Brook-avenue, gave an indignant letter complaining of the routing of his horse to the roadway in front of buildings in course of construction. While wheeling on Shaw-street he ran into a brick and took a trip over the handle bars. There was, he says, no red light. He thinks he should be allowed the price of his suit, which was damaged, and also threatens that if anything happens to him as a result of the fall the Council "will know a thing or two."

Hotel Transfer Granted.

The transfer of the license of the Globe Hotel, at Yonge-street and Wilton-avenue, was granted by the Board of License Commissioners at a meeting held yesterday. Fred Moscop has purchased the Victoria Exchange Hotel from James S. King. The price is said to be $17,500.

Communications were received from J. P. M. Stewart, secretary of the Toronto branch Canadian Manufacturers' Association; Paul Jarvis, secretary of the Board of Trade; J. A. Dougan, secretary of the Building Trades Council; Samuel Moore, president, and D. W. Kennedy, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council; Charles Goldsmith, secretary of the Brotherhood of Bookbinders; all protesting against the reduction by the Board of Control of the estimates of the Technical School Board.

Cost of Extra 2c an Hour.

Ald. Oliver tried hard once or twice to get a chance to show the Council that instead of costing $50,000 a year to give laborers a 2c-per-hour increase of wages would only cost $14,888, or about 1-8 of a mill in taxes. He had figures from the heads of departments to substantiate his claim, but was unable to get them before the aldermen.

Are Now City Streets.

Violet and Lundy-avenues at Kew Beach will be accepted as city streets. The water mains will be laid forthwith.

Ald. Sheppard secured authority for the Legislature and the Toronto Committee to make arrangements for the reception of the Toronto Lacrosse players who are about returning from England.

The Reports of the various committees.

The reports of the various committees were adopted by the Council without any change.
