MR. SCHOFIELD IS READY TO GO TO CITY HALL

E. A. Schofield, president of the Schofield Paper Co., who protested against the issuing of $64,000 of bonds for the payment of the bill for current purchased from the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, as referred to elsewhere, said this morning that he would attend the committee meeting of the council tomorrow morning if his presence was desired, and he would be prepared to answer any questions which might be asked. His letter, he said, covered the ground very fully. He said he was especially pleased to note that misrepresentation was regarded as a serious thing, as he had found a number of misrepresentations in statements made by others.

TO THE ELECTORS OF SAINT JOHN

Ladies and Gentlemen— I will be a candidate for the office of Commissioner at the coming election. I thank you sincerely for the support which you have given me in the past, and trust that my record of service is acceptable. I will not expend words in proclaiming my efficiency—as I am to go before you—on a July—the 14th and 28th of April, and as every portion of evidence, (good and bad), concerning my public acts and life, has been submitted to you, through the press and other sources, I will leave the matter in your hands to determine whether I am worthy of your support and confidence. If I have found favor with you, a reasonable reward may be asked. Go to the polls and vote on the Primary Election, the 14th of April, a most important election, and the great determining factor in the Final Election. If elected I shall relax no effort to construct, maintain all essential works, and provide for all things which tend for prosperity and the public good. If you desire a conveyance to go to the polls, please telephone Main 415. Yours faithfully, JAMES H. PRINK 4-11

To the Electors of the City of Saint John.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been nominated for the office of Commissioner at the forthcoming elections, and respectfully solicit your support. I am not running on any ticket and am independent of any particular class or organization. During my term of office there have been a number of very important matters before the Council requiring very careful consideration, to all of which I have applied my very best judgment and have always made my decisions in what I considered was the best interests of the taxpayers of the City of St. John. While under present financial conditions, I am averse to contracting any further large liabilities, as I recognize the absolute necessity for very careful procedure, I would advocate any expenditures for improvements that are essential for the general good and which cannot in the common interest be further postponed. As indications point to an increase in our export trade I would strongly uphold any measure that may be presented looking to an enlargement of our harbor facilities. With regard to a change in the system of Civic Government, as advanced in some directions, should the people desire this, I will render every assistance in my power towards carrying out the wishes of the electorate. Trusting that I may be favored with a renewal of your confidence, Yours respectfully, JOHN THORNTON, 1122-4-13

WOMEN VOTERS ARE MUCH INTERESTED

NO CIVIC ELECTION IN MANY YEARS has meant more to female voters than that of next week. In a very short while, readjustment takes place all over Canada, St. John will be expected to take its place in the forward march of things as befits its station in the rank of Canadian centres. Hydro Electricity is now a very genuine and helpful utility in the home life of the community and its development will go on apace. After so long a drag after the war numerous other public utilities and family benefits will be brought into play to improve the condition of our people, not only from the home viewpoint but in a general public way. These improvements both Mr. McInerney, offering as Commissioner, and myself as Mayor—candidate, feel duty bound to consider promptly and carefully. It is up to the new blood in civic affairs to lift our good old city out of itself into the stride and vision of neighboring cities in the State of Maine and Upper Canada—indeed the "western spirit" as we often hear it termed. This is why we confidently expect the support of all thinking women. Are we wrong?

FATHER LEBLANC RECEIVES PURSE

Rev. Camille LeBlanc, one of the six priests ordained in the Cathedral on Saturday, celebrated his first mass on Sunday at Barchois, Kent county. After the mass he was presented a purse of gold and an address. Father LeBlanc will take a holiday for a month and will then become curate to Rev. D. LeBlanc at Shediac.

TO THE ELECTORS OF SAINT JOHN

Ladies and Gentlemen— I will be a candidate for the office of Commissioner at the coming election. I thank you sincerely for the support which you have given me in the past, and trust that my record of service is acceptable. I will not expend words in proclaiming my efficiency—as I am to go before you—on a July—the 14th and 28th of April, and as every portion of evidence, (good and bad), concerning my public acts and life, has been submitted to you, through the press and other sources, I will leave the matter in your hands to determine whether I am worthy of your support and confidence. If I have found favor with you, a reasonable reward may be asked. Go to the polls and vote on the Primary Election, the 14th of April, a most important election, and the great determining factor in the Final Election. If elected I shall relax no effort to construct, maintain all essential works, and provide for all things which tend for prosperity and the public good. If you desire a conveyance to go to the polls, please telephone Main 415. Yours faithfully, JAMES H. PRINK 4-11

To the Electors of the City of Saint John.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been nominated for the office of Commissioner at the forthcoming elections, and respectfully solicit your support. I am not running on any ticket and am independent of any particular class or organization. During my term of office there have been a number of very important matters before the Council requiring very careful consideration, to all of which I have applied my very best judgment and have always made my decisions in what I considered was the best interests of the taxpayers of the City of St. John. While under present financial conditions, I am averse to contracting any further large liabilities, as I recognize the absolute necessity for very careful procedure, I would advocate any expenditures for improvements that are essential for the general good and which cannot in the common interest be further postponed. As indications point to an increase in our export trade I would strongly uphold any measure that may be presented looking to an enlargement of our harbor facilities. With regard to a change in the system of Civic Government, as advanced in some directions, should the people desire this, I will render every assistance in my power towards carrying out the wishes of the electorate. Trusting that I may be favored with a renewal of your confidence, Yours respectfully, JOHN THORNTON, 1122-4-13

HON. MR. ROBINSON'S SPEECH

Hon. C. W. Robinson is one of the men in the Legislature who can be effective without being voluminous or brilliant. He has a deep and wide knowledge of provincial affairs, and in the House he is heard with attention and respect by friends and opponents alike.

In his budget address yesterday he spoke with his customary moderation and thoughtfulness and his contribution was one of the best of the session. In regard to our financial position he outlined the House that the sinking and investments and the amount on deposit at Ottawa reduce our public debt by $2,000,000, and that $11,688,000 more of the debt is protected by special sinking funds, while the Crown land sinking fund provides for $3,885,000.

Government used $365,000 for sinking interest on the debt. Had there not been this call upon revenue the amount spent on interest would have been a surplus of $21,000 for the year. Thus the real provincial debt is only about half of the $29,000,000 so frequently quoted.

Mr. Robinson made a complete and admirable review of the situation of the Province as compared with the methods of its predecessors. The Minister of Lands and Mines expressed himself as in favor of public ownership of water powers, gave his support to the development of Grand Falls, and spoke in complimentary terms of ex-Premier Foster's policy in inaugurating the Musquash enterprise.

WAR—THE NEW MODEL

What is called a universal draft bill is being considered by the House Committee on Military Affairs at Washington. The plan under consideration is based on the statement of President Harding's statement that "if war should come again to America, we will not alone call to service the youth of the land, but we will draft every resource, every activity, all of wealth, and make common cause of the nation's preservation."

In urging the adoption of such a plan upon Congress the New York Times says if it were put through "no enemy would dare to attack us, and our influence in world councils could be employed decisively for peace."

What this "conscription of everything" would involve is explained by Bernard M. Baruch, who was chairman of the War Industries Board during the great war. The President would have authority to mobilize money as well as industries and men. Prices would be fixed for all commodities, output regulated, labor allocated.

all war-time profiteering, or, as the Times expresses it: "It would be for the industrial strategy board to say, when the draft had been made of the war strength of the country, from what industries men should be taken, and the proportion. If the War Industries Board had been able to function at the beginning of the world war as well as it did at the end of it, half the cost of the conflict could have been saved. All able-bodied men not needed for the army and navy. Wages would be adjusted to the cost of living, which would be regulated by price-fixing. One economic aim of such a plan is that no one, capitalist or worker, should receive excessive returns for the use of his money or for his labor. Rationing of food would be general. Thus everybody would play his part in the war without pecuniary advantage of any kind. Liberal pay for the soldier in the field and the men of the navy would have to be provided."

Other nations have given thought to some features of this plan, and some who advocate a complete mobilization of all the country's resources believe that to decide in advance upon such a programme would go far to prevent wars by confronting whole peoples with the knowledge that, according to the ability of each to serve or to sacrifice, the entire country would come under actual conscription. The plan has its merits, though of all the great Powers the United States is least in need of preparation for war.

TOURISTS AND INDUSTRIES

In point of cash value tourist traffic is now "the second largest industry" in the province of British Columbia, according to the President of the Vancouver Tourist Bureau. He told the City Council's committee on estimates last week that tourists visiting British Columbia last year left $17,500,000 of new money in circulation.

The Tourist Bureau has just decided upon a two-year campaign to cost $60,000 each year, in promoting tourist travel and seeking new industries. Mr. Crane, head of the bureau, says that one full-page advertisement brought 1,000 letters of inquiry from Canadian and American centres. Mr. Crane told the aldermen that the recent drive for funds by the Tourist Bureau netted $60,000, and he asked the City Council to add $30,000 this year and the same amount next year, the custom having been that the Council should contribute as much as more than the public subscribed.

The committee on estimates decided that the $20,000 given to the Tourist Bureau and the Chamber of Mines together last year should be repeated, and if it was at all feasible an additional amount would be granted the bureau. Several of those present, while highly commending the Tourist Bureau's work, thought it should devote more of its time and money to getting new industries, and the Mayor suggested that someone in the bureau should be responsible for providing visitors to the city with information relative to local opportunities.

Free as the air they breathe, these creatures—some of them possessing symmetry and substance, most of them grotesque and distorted through pro-breeding and hardships—have given way before the advance of civilization until they have nearly disappeared from most regions where they were once plentiful. Now, in one of his few remaining strongholds, the wild horse is designated for slaughter upon economic grounds that cannot be gainsaid. But this destruction will bring a pang to all who love the outdoors and the things that make it splendid.

STILL TUGGING AT THEIR BOOT-STRAPS

The failure of hundreds of banks and other enterprises of economic life in the Western States, where many paternalistic schemes to benefit the farmer have been tried, have evidently not yet brought a realization that permanent care cannot be effected by legislative palliatives. The latest experiment is the McNary-Haugen Bill by which it is proposed that Congress shall create a body which, with almost unlimited backing in public funds, shall go into the market end, by competitive buying, maintain prices for agricultural products. Any losses sustained are to be paid by the taxpayers of the country who, as consumers, will also pay the high prices which the government competition in the market will create.

The purpose of the bill is to restore prices for farm products to the same relationship to the general price level which they occupied before the war. The real danger in the scheme is that, like so many other economic short cuts, it seems inevitable that, in the long run, it will aggravate the situation which it professes to cure. The difficulties of the farmers are due to over-production. If the bill establishes false prices for many years it is possible that the situation would become so aggravated as to compel additional intervention by the government and an extension of the price-fixing principle and government control in other directions.

"a startling figure," according to the Toronto Globe. The City Council's committee on working conditions favors carrying on civic construction work even in mid-winter. Its verdict is that about seventy per cent. of the unemployed are bona fide.

Hon. Mr. Robinson: "Wild cats had been found to be the chief enemy of the game. A bounty of $3 was paid for each wild cat killed in the province, and about 8,000 wild cats had been killed and bounties claimed. In Maine a higher bounty was paid and he had been told that they had been quite an export of wild cats to Maine."

That is to say, Maine is gradually assisting us in defraying our wild cat bill. It's right neighborly. Church Union now comes out of committee into the Legislature. There are quite a few members who are not exactly yearning for a chance to deal with this issue. It has feverish qualities.

A tax of ten per cent. on Mah Jong sets worth five dollars or more is advocated by the United States Senate. Thus another great vote is alienated by the Republican party in a ticklish year.

HOW TO IMPROVE BUSINESS.

(Amherstburg Echo.) Don't sit around complaining that business is rotten. Stir up something to make business better. Railways on both Canadian Pacific and Canadian National lines is showing great improvement. Somebody must be doing the bigger business. Why isn't it you?

FROM FOUNDLING TO MINISTER.

(Ottawa Journal.) Fifty years ago a Liverpool policeman patrolling his lonely beat came upon an abandoned child five years. The child could not even lip who his parents were or where they had gone. The kindly policeman took it to the nearest foundling home, where it was kept until, at the age of fourteen, it was sent to work in a factory. Today that child is represented by the Right Hon. Stephen Walsh, Minister of War in the greatest Empire that the world has known, and British newspapers of all shades of opinion join in commending him upon the outstanding ability with which he deals with his department in the House.

WILD HORSES.

(New York Herald-Tribune.) That wild horses should be sufficiently plentiful in any part of North America, to constitute a source of crops and to pastures will come as a surprise to most people. The general view has regarded the type of disappearing and doomed race, as scarce as the buffalo which once roamed the Western plains in vast herds but is now represented by a few small captive bands.

It is in northwestern Canada that the extermination of the wild horse is demanded because of their depredations. The fact is interesting proof of the fertility of that portion of Alberta which lies under the protective shoulder of the Rockies, for, like other wild things in nature, the horse adjusts himself to conditions and seeks out the best that occasion affords.

Probably no member of the animal kingdom surpasses in grace and beauty the wild horse. There is a thrill in the thought of the monarch of the herd standing guard over his band of mates and his progeny. What blood-stirring tales have been built around the wild horse! Stories of battles between the stallions, of herds pursued by night and day till conquered and finally made subservient to man, to serve him fully until the call of his own kind lures him once again to freedom, are familiar in every language.

Free as the air they breathe, these creatures—some of them possessing symmetry and substance, most of them grotesque and distorted through pro-breeding and hardships—have given way before the advance of civilization until they have nearly disappeared from most regions where they were once plentiful. Now, in one of his few remaining strongholds, the wild horse is designated for slaughter upon economic grounds that cannot be gainsaid. But this destruction will bring a pang to all who love the outdoors and the things that make it splendid.

The theme of the sermon was "One thing thou lackest." Mrs. Bayard Stillwell sang. A. C. Eggers led the choir and H. J. Breen was the layman who presided at the service.

SIR CHARLES ROSS ASKS DIVORCE

Louisville, April 8.—Affidavits filed by attorneys here this week disclosed that Sir Charles Ross, British baronet, soldier, and military expert, has filed a petition in Circuit Court for a divorce from Lady Patricia Ross, formerly Miss Patricia Ellison of Louisville, on the ground of abandonment.

The action is a sequel to that filed by Lady Ross in London seeking a legal separation. The London action is based on incidents said to have taken place on a hunting expedition in East Africa in 1922, of which Sir Charles and a New York society woman were said to have been members.

Sir Charles in his counter action says he was abandoned by Lady Ross, whom he married in 1901, in 1917 while he was serving for the Allies in Washington in an advisory capacity. Sir Charles charges his wife is irresponsible in financial and business matters and that her personal habits and mental condition make it impossible for him to live with her. He asserts that he has settled upon her $20,000 a year during their separation, and that he is willing to deposit with the court $112,000 in United States bonds, the income from which she is to have under direction of the court. At her death, however, the principal would revert to him.

Lady Ross is a great-granddaughter of General Charles Scott, who served on the staff of General George Washington in the war for independence and who was the third Governor of Kentucky.

If you want to you can put your car on a boat at St. John, N. B., and continue via P. & N. to Digby, N. S., then continue via Annapolis Royal and Windsor to Halifax. This service is operated by the Eastern Steamship Lines. There are plenty of places to camp along the way, but we have no record of public camp sites. On account of forest fires through Maine and New Brunswick they are inclined to discourage promiscuous camping. It is, therefore, necessary in some parts of Maine and New Brunswick to obtain permits. The mileage on this route is about 700 miles. If you take the boat you will save about 200 miles."

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1924

DEATHS

John McKean

After an illness of about one year, John McKean, believed to be the oldest member of the Masonic Order in New Brunswick, died at his home in Keswick Ridge last night at the age of 87 years. Mr. McKean at one time had large lumbering interests but had retired from an active life years ago. He was a leading man in his own section of the province, a strong Conservative and for several years was county warden of York. He was well read and had travelled extensively. His kindly and generous nature had won for him a host of friends. His wife, formerly Miss Julia Grant, daughter of the late Jacob Grant, of Keswick Ridge, and sister of the late Byron J. Grant, of St. John, survive.

Mrs. J. P. Coszolino

News of the sudden death of Mrs. James P. Coszolino was received here late yesterday from Chicoutimi, Que. In a telegram to relatives, Mrs. Coszolino's home was in Sydney, N. S., before her marriage nearly three years ago, she was Miss Regina Allingham, and was widely known. She had been on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, and was one of the most popular bank employees in St. John.

Mrs. Coszolino had been in the province of Quebec during the last year, her husband being engaged there with his father, Thomas Coszolino, in construction work. News of her death was a tremendous shock to relatives in St. John.

Besides her husband and two children, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Allingham, and three sisters, the Misses Josephine and Alice, of this city, and Mrs. William Phillips, of Greenwich, Conn.

Donald Morrison

The death of Donald Morrison, one of the members of the original 28th Battalion, C.E.F., occurred at the St. John County Hospital Monday night after a lingering illness. He was a native of Stonoway, Scotland, and joined the 28th here in 1915. He was awarded the Mons Star. Before his health began to decline he was employed as an engineer in the Atlantic Sugar Refineries. He is survived by his mother and two sisters in Stonoway, and one brother in Chicago.

John A. Lovatt

John A. Lovatt, a life-long resident of Tynemouth, passed away at his home "Creekside," on Monday, April 7. Mr. Lovatt was 78 years of age. He was for many years engaged in the ship building industry here in company with his father, but for the past two years he had been an invalid. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Forbes, residing in the United States, and several nieces and nephews. The only remaining brother, George T. Lovatt, family home. They lived together for many years, neither of them having been married.

Mr. Lovatt was cared for in his last illness by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell, who were faithful to their charge.

George Kyffin

E. J. McMannus, St. James street, received word yesterday that George Kyffin had passed away at Pasadena, Cal., following a three months' illness. Mr. Kyffin was formerly a resident of this city, 23 years old, and was a son of Thomas Kyffin, formerly employed at the Union Depot.

Mrs. George Bettles

News of the death of Mrs. Emily Bettles, which occurred in Montreal on last Sunday, brought sorrow to many friends in St. John. She was the wife of George Bettles, and for many years had spent the winter months here with her husband, who is head checker for the C. P. R. Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter. Deep sympathy for them in their great loss is felt by those who had come to know her and respect her highly for her admirable qualities.

DENIES PURCHASE RUMOR

HERTZ, FAMOUS MAGICIAN, DIES

London, April 8—Carl Hertz, world famed illusionist, has just died in Coventry. Carl Hertz, who was 64 years of age, was one of the foremost illusionists of the modern stage. He had been a "magician" for 40 years.

Twenty-five years ago Mr. Hertz was giving performances of card manipulations in London, but it was his famous "canary trick" which made his reputation. This was his finest illusion, and he performed it before the Select Committee of the British House of Commons on the training of performing animals. Mr. Hertz was allowed to do this trick before the committee to refute the suggestion that he killed a canary each time he performed the trick. He would hold a canary in a collar, and in a flash the whole lot had disappeared. In a moment the conjurer would produce the canary from behind a curtain, quite well and at ease. Other Famous Tricks Another famous trick of Carl Hertz was his Indian rope illusion, for the execution of which Lord Lansdale offered $8,000 in India without success. This trick took Hertz ten years to perfect. A coiled rope would rise into the air, a lad would climb up it, the boy would vanish and the rope fall to the ground. Vanishing ladies were made popular on the stage by Mr. Hertz. Two assistants used to take an empty case, show it inside and out, and then a woman would step out of it and afterwards disappear. His "Merry Widow" illusion was to produce a woman out of a tent on a pedestal.

During his long career Carl Hertz traveled all over the world, and performed before more than one reigning sovereign, and during his work was seldom "let down." There is one recorded instance of a small boy beating the conjurer. One night he was performing a favorite trick—squeezing a marked half-dollar out of an orange and then producing the coin from the pocket of a person in the audience. To a small boy on a far seat he called out: "I think you will find I have passed the coin into your left hand trousers pocket." After fumbling nervously, the lad brought out a quarter and two 10c pieces. "That's not the 50c," said Hertz un- easily. "No," said the boy, "I was so thirsty I took yours to the bar as I came in, and had a bottle of ginger beer."

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

WAKE UP FRESH AND VIGOROUS AFTER USING VEGETABLE SYRUP

Many people here are neither very well nor very sick, but never really feel their best at this time of the year—due to a sluggish liver. If you often wake up dull and tired. You will feel badly until your liver has been properly cleaned and toned.

LACK NOTHING ON WORLD CRUISE

Word From St. John Travelers on Round the World Trip.

The Times has received from Mrs. A. Atherton Smith a copy of the daily bulletin issued by wireless press on the S. S. Empress of Canada on her round-the-world cruise. This bulletin was issued on February 26, when the steamer was in the Red Sea. Mrs. Smith writes on the margin:—

"Very warm here, but pleasant. There is a dance on deck at this moment, 10 p. m., and a Mah Jongg progressive party in the card rooms." The bulletin contains short dispatches from London, Montreal, New York and Nice, and the price of leading stocks at the close of the New York stock exchange. It also tells how three Canadian Pacific steamers patrolled a portion of the Red Sea in 1914-15, went later to China, and then to the Atlantic to convoy American troops to France.

The bulletin is not without its share of advertisements. One tells the passengers that on Deck A, at certain stated hours they may get masquerade fancy dresses, oriental curios, kimono, perfumes, bathing suits, ornamental jewelry, postcards, candy, kodaks, films and binoculars; and may have films developed, optical repairing done, and group photographs taken. Other announcements tell of the barber shop, with manicurist in attendance, the ladies' hairdresser and beauty parlor, the gymnasium and swimming pool, the laundry, shore information, and the tender service at ports of call.

Of course a newspaper, even as small as this bulletin, must have some local news, and here is what the reporters turned in for this issue:—

The Local News. "Among others who slept on the Sahara desert Saturday night and who were awakened Sunday morning by the blowing of their tents from over them were Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hubbell of Melford, Me., Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Shuttleworth of Jersey City, and Mrs. Gard Foster of Syracuse, N. Y. The experience was too much for Mr. Hubbell. He left Cairo without claiming his valuables in the safe at the Hotel Continental, but was spared further humiliation when his wife confided to him, just as he was about to develop his instructions, that she had brought them.

"There is no truth in the report that

Moses' chariot, or even a wheel, was found on that a white cross on the beach marks the spot when Jonah swallowed the whale. Both reports have been officially denied by the chairman of the rumor committee.

"When the Chinese crew produces another play later during the cruise donations will be asked to defray costume costs and other incidental expenses. What remains of the sum received will be turned over to the Canton Charities by the chief purser.

"Passengers who have taken books from the ship's library are asked to remember, please, that others may want to read them and that they should not be retained more than a week at a time.

"James J. Torrey of Vancouver, popularly known as 'Barney Google,' reports that his reputation as a mountain climber remains intact and unimpaired. He negotiated the Great Pyramid of Gisch in fifteen minutes, Arab time.

"Those wishing to participate in the progressive Mah Jongg party tonight should go to the smoking room, with these bets, if any, promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

"All the filtered water in the water coolers that appeared on deck for the first time yesterday was brought from New York and was prepared for this special use.

"Reservations for India sidetrips positively close tonight. No changes or transfers can be made later."

Would Have Ticked Pharaoh. Of course the menu is a matter of absorbing interest when people are on shipboard touring the world. Here is what the travelers had before them on a day when they were yet in the land of Egypt:—

- Salted Almonds, Hors D'Oeuvres Variet, Consomme Port Saide, Cream Omelet, Baked Fresh Turbot, Hop-Mou, Fillets of Flounders, Nephys, Oyster Patties Lila, Veal Cutlets Bihan-El-Molouk, Saddle of Southdown Mutton, Israel, Braised Surrey Capon, Mahomed, Smoked Ox Tongue, a la Apis, Potatoes: Boiled, Browned, Mashed and Anna, Stuffed Green Peppers, Haricot Verts, Boiled Rice, From Silver Grill, 10 Minutes, Devilled Squash, Aroeris, Cold Buffet, Prime Roast Beef, Ga'stines of Chicken, Oxford Brawn, Salad Alexandria, Souffle Pudding Cleopatra, Pyramids Petit Fours, Pear a la Rhamese, Welsh Rarebits, Prunes, Mixed Nuts, Figs, Canton Ginger, Fruit, Fromage, Coffee.

OBSEVE 23RD ANNIVERSARY.

Callum Lodge, L. O. B. A., celebrated its 23rd anniversary last night in Temple Building, Main street, with an excellent entertainment. Mrs. D. Jewett, acting worthy mistress, was in the chair. Among those present were F. L. Pyle, J. Starck, J. G. G. Commissioner Thornton and Harry Sullivan, Mrs. Stevens, W. M. of Lodge No. 19, and Mrs. J. McKinnon, W. M. of Lodge 18. Thanks were extended to those who took part and at the close of the programme refreshments were served, a birthday cake being a special feature. The delegates appointed to attend the meeting of the provincial grand lodge in Moncton on April 16 and 17 were Mrs. D. Jewett, Mrs. Dryden and Mrs. J. Silphant.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

PAYS TRIBUTE TO OLD BALL PLAYERS

Writer Expresses a Few Thoughts on Present Day Veterans.

The baseball teams are turning north, playing as they come, and with them are the old boys for whom every April our hearts are urged to throb with sympathy.

They are the veterans who, according to that merciless institution of analysis known to sportswomen as the dope, are about to slip. Mr. Stocum, of the New York Herald-Tribune, looking them over, tells of the old boys on the Chicago White Sox. Father Time is resting his hand on the outstanding players of the White Sox. Eddie Collins at thirty-six is still as spry as many players in their twenties, but he is a marvel. Hooper and Faber and Schalk and Strunk have long since passed the peak of their careers. Hooper, at thirty-six, is near the end of the big league trail. Faber is thirty-five and Schalk is thirty, but they have been entering in the majors for thirteen years, and this work wears out a player. Strunk at thirty-five is counted on for utility outfielding.

At thirty, thirty-five and thirty-six let these aged gentlemen limp a bit, or drop a thrown ball, or misjudge a single high fly, and the cry goes up: "Throw them out!" They gamely show up for spring practice, though they know it may be for the last time. They play as if the bench and the ultimate release were the last things on their minds. A tragic scene indeed.

The White Sox are rather heavily loaded with this thirty-five and thirty-six-year-old material. Therefore, we cannot help a sympathetic turning toward this team, though it is officially of Chicago and not of New York. May the old boys of the White Sox and of every other team have a grand year. May each one of them win plaudits in the game until—well, perhaps, until his match in the third round and consolation. Eric Thomson of New York, failed to get started. He lost his match in the third round and consolation. Eric Thomson of New York, failed to get started. He lost his match in the third round and consolation. ERIC THOMSON FORFEITS MATCH

Inhurst, N. C., April 8.—(Special) L. Weller of Hamilton, Ontario, and three to Allan Prentiss. Prentiss came right back in the moon and defeated Walter O'Connell of New York, by 1 up at the hole in his match in the third round and consolation. Eric Thomson of New York, failed to get started. BELYEA IN GOOD PHYSICAL TRIM

Hilton Belyea tipped the scales at 170 pounds soon after leaving here on the C. P. S. Melita last march on his way to the Diamond Sculls and the Olympic, and was able to complete the sea voyage without taking on any additional weight, according to a letter received by Mrs. Belyea from her famous husband yesterday. Hilton says he did considerable work on the rowing machine during the trip and believes this is the reason for his keeping down surplus poundage. He wrote entertainingly of the concerts and dances given on board and said he felt in great shape.

SEVEN TEAMS WILL FIGHT FOR RUNNER-UP

Montgomery, April 9.—Comte Mack concedes the American League pennant to the Yankees. "I don't see how any team can beat them," admits the leader of the Athletics. As to the rest of the field, the scramble for positions looks like a toss-up to Mack. "I think our team has a fine chance to finish second," says Comte. He could say the same thing about the six other clubs, the strength is so evenly distributed.

Rookies Older Than Manager

Tampa, Fla., April 9.—Stanley Harris, the 27-year-old Washington manager, is the youngest team leader in the majors. By an odd whim of fate, two of Harris' most promising "rookies" are well beyond the 30-year-old mark. One is Joe Martina, a right-handed pitcher, who came up from New Orleans. Martina has been pitching for 14 years. Yet Harris thinks he has enough stuff to stick. The other ancient rookie is Thompson Prothro, who is to start the season at third base, the weak spot on the Washington team. Last year he was the star third baseman in the Southern League.

BOWLING MATCHES CREATE INTEREST

Inter-Alley League Roll-off—Elimination Matches for Tournament.

Bowling will hold the chief centre of interest in sport for the next few weeks. This evening will start "the ball rolling" when the Victoria alley team and the Y. M. C. A. quietest meet to decide the championship of the City Inter-Alley League. This game will be played on the Imperial alleys and is creating considerable interest. The probable lineup of the teams will be as follows: Victoria—Thurston, Winchester, Slinson, Sumnerville and Covey. Y. M. C. A.—Either Roy McEwen, Gamblin, Foslay, Copp and Sullivan, the old Sweeps, Ineup, or Foslay, Ross and Covey. In the Y. M. C. A. team is used it will be the same as that which won premier honors in the City League in former years. The Victoria is going into the deciding game with a two-point lead, so in order to win the Y. M. C. A. team will have to take all four points, or three to tie, in which event a special roll-off would be necessary. In addition to this big feature game there is another interesting series pending, namely an elimination contest between teams from Blacks, Y. M. C. I. and Imperial alleys to decide which will represent the city in the Brunswick Balke Colander trophy tournament, which is to be held in Brown's alleys in Eastport on April 22, 23 and 24. The team will play six home and away games at a recent meeting it was decided that the total pinfall of the six games would determine the winners and not the result of individual games or points.

TEMPERANCE AND TIMBER, HYDRO AND HEALTH, RECEIVE MINISTER'S ATTENTION

Hon. C. W. Robinson Believes Members of Temperance Alliance Mix Too Much Politics With Propaganda—Supports Hydro Development and Public Ownership—R. T. Hayes Also Speaks in Debate.

Fredericton, April 8.—The Legislature was treated to an essay this afternoon. Hon. C. W. Robinson was the author. No speech during the session has been listened to with keener attention or better appreciated. Speaking in his usual conversational tone and sometimes reading from carefully prepared notes, the Minister of Lands and Mines discussed prohibition; the public debt at its various stages since Confederation and the reasons for its being at the present time; hydro development; public ownership of the Department of Public Works; as well as Government economy and the sinking fund. During this speech he took occasion to pay a warm and cordial tribute to ex-Premier W. E. Foster for introducing hydro during the period when he was leader of the Government.

The Opposition members frequently looked as if they would have liked to applaud had it not been against the traditions. "Almost persuaded" would be a true term to apply to them. Mr. Robinson is never harsh in his criticism and today was no exception. His facility in disarming his opponents with a pleasant laugh when necessary was never shown to greater advantage, and the happy way in which he dealt with Mr. Peck's unfortunate remark that the sinking funds were all on paper, and the proof he adduced that the sinking fund of the statement was that the province had received over $40,000 of interest from its sinking fund bonds last year.

Temperance Alliance.

While he handled the delegates of the Temperance Alliance who appeared in the Legislature earlier in the session with kindly words, yet his criticism of them and their methods was none the less to the point. There was no doubt he felt that the advocates of prohibition were mixing too much politics with their propaganda and his reference to the letter of Rev. Mr. Marshall, recently published, in which he attacked the Premier, was effective and conclusive. Anyone who listened to his analysis of the public debt and what it amounted to before Confederation and the different stages by which it has grown during successive governments since that time would almost expect to see it disappear as if by magic. The sinking fund situation and its very satisfactory condition was explained so fully by the member from the city of Moncton that no one who heard him could reasonably doubt but that these funds were being very substantially added to every year.

Would Have Left $21,000.

It was quite a surprise, however, to learn from him that, had no sinking fund been laid aside at all last year and had the money used for that purpose been placed in ordinary revenue, the whole half million over-expenditure caused by the freshet damage and the Valley Railway deficit would have been paid to the last dollar and left $21,000 to the good.

Hon. Mr. Robinson left no doubt as to his stand upon public ownership and hydro development. He even went further and expressed his opinion that Musquash was by no means a failure because it had already brought untold benefit not only to the southern part of the province but to Moncton, Sussex and many different sections between St. John and the railway city. "Musquash," he declared, "was just a promise of what is to come in the future."

Grand Falls Development.

And then in careful terms he spoke of Grand Falls and his belief in public rather than private ownership as well as his confidence that the great development when transmitted through the province would be eagerly seized upon by the people and pay for the money invested. In this connection he made an interesting suggestion that over and above the cost of energy that should be so much per horse power, one or two dollars, set aside for the purpose of introducing the current into remote sections where perhaps the people could not afford it. Grand Falls, in his opinion, was a feasible proposition. His reference to the health and agriculture departments and the activities of the Minister of Public Works were complimentary and encouraging, and touching his own department, that of lands and mines, he spoke of how rigid their economy had been, of the low salaries paid to his head of the departments, of the waste in the years after Confederation of large areas of crown lands, and his belief that at the present time they were not spending

TO STOP PLAYERS GOING TO STATES

Prevents Drastic Action to Prevent Migration of Hockey Stars.

Soo, Ont., April 9.—President W. A. Fry of the Ontario Hockey Association in presenting the Allan Cup to the Seattle Ste Marie Greyhounds at their fourth annual banquet intimated that the O. H. A. could not be much longer expected to stand for the migration of senior players across the border in face of the fact that United States clubs did nothing to support junior and intermediate teams, and thus gave nothing to the sport.

DIFFICULTIES OF INSPECTORS.

As a member of the Government he was compelled to accept his full share of responsibility but at the same time he could not but shut his eyes to the real situation. He did not think the officials of the Temperance Alliance quite appreciated the difficulties encountered by the inspectors and the Government in their efforts to enforce the law. Human nature in New Brunswick was much the same as human nature in other provinces and in the states of the union. If the law enforcement in New Brunswick was so much more lax than in other places he might be willing to agree that the Government was largely to blame, but his observations did not lead him to

News Notes Gathered From World of Stage and Screen

MARRIES FORTUNE FOR SECOND TIME

Mrs. Ben Teal, Many Times Arrested, Weds Egyptian Multi-millionaire.

New York, April 8.—The former Mrs. Ben Teal, once wife of the noted stage director, whose fame as an actress in world-wide, has just made the coup of her amazing career.

Although an admitted swindler, an inmate of several jails, figure in several hectic divorce cases, she has succeeded in marrying W. H. Howells, the multi-millionaire shipping king of Alexandria, Egypt.

She is her second marriage to a millionaire. After her divorce from Teal she married, in 1918, Dr. George E. Padelford, a partner of T. L. Dooney in the oil business.

Before marrying Dr. Padelford she had served a year on Blackwell Island, in New York, on a charge of perjury in connection with the divorce case of Mrs. Frank J. Gould against her husband. It was proven that Mrs. Teal had hired a girl to give false testimony against Gould.

Soon after her release from jail she became involved with August Schneider, the head waiter at the Hotel Astor. Exposure results in divorce.

Then she went west and married Dr. Padelford. He installed her in a magnificent home in Hollywood, Calif., and all was rosy until five years ago when she returned to New York on a visit.

While at the Hotel Plaza she became involved in a lawsuit and her husband was convicted. Dr. Padelford sued and obtained a divorce.

She obtained a sizable money settlement and went to Europe to seek objects to conquer. While in Zurich, Switzerland, she was arrested for fraudulent transactions. Jumped her bail and went to Budapest, Hungary.

There she fell into the toils of the law and was given a long sentence. Franz Lehár, the composer of "The Merry Widow" and other operas, finally put up the money to get her out.

Capitalizes Her Shame. Later she succeeded in raising some money by selling the history of her scandalous career to a New York newspaper.

Women Endorse Film Censorship

The Women's National Republican Club of the U. S. has gone on record as favoring the retention of the present motion picture censorship law and as opposing the Jencks bill sponsored by the Women's City Club of New York.

The Jencks bill would permit the entrance of minors to motion picture theatres without being accompanied by adults, and would segregate the children under the chaperonage of a matron employed by the theatre.

Two arguments were made against the bill—first, that many of the pictures shown were a moral hazard to young children, and, second, that in case of fire a matron employed by the theatre would not be able to control children as would their natural guardians, who should accompany them.

Theodore's Pluck Pulls Him Through. New York, April 8.—"There certainly had my goal in Pittsburgh and now I hope they keep it," writes Theodore Roberts, screen star, from his bed in Hollywood to Cap Higgins, the artist, in this edition of "The Merry Princes Play."

The three of us (Higgins, Mrs. Higgins, and baby Higgins) pretty nearly lost me. Three separate times I got into the edge and tangle of Beestub on the tip of his feather and each time they pulled me back before he could grab. It's a great game, this dicing.

"It would have done you good to have seen them putting me through the window of the drawing room on the stretch. The man was plenty wide, but my nose wouldn't quite clear and it took some diplomacy.

"I am home now, looking out upon the landscape I love best and enjoying the sunshine as only the hungry prisoner can enjoy it who has served his term of 14 years—for every week in that horrible hotel in Pittsburgh was a year of agony for me.

TEMPERANCE AND TIMBER, HYDRO AND HEALTH, RECEIVE MINISTER'S ATTENTION

(Continued from preceding page) Every member of the Government was actuated by a desire to lend his voice and influence to every movement that would in any way contribute to the betterment of the province and its citizens, and promote sobriety, health, industry, prosperity and happiness throughout the land.

The most important feature of the Crown Lands was the lumber that was taken from them. The present Government had increased the stumpage rate from $1.50 to $5.00, and had then reduced it to $4.

Steps had been taken to investigate the resources of the province of New Brunswick in regard to the Crown lands. It was fair to classify the balance of the lands upon the same basis as the survey already made.

CROSSING BY FERRY TO P. E. I. IS AN ADVENTURE. The car ferry made several trips on Sunday, says the Charlottetown Guardian of last Saturday. There has been a congestion of freight at Tormentine and Borden. Early last week there were one hundred cars freight at Tormentine awaiting shipment to P. E. I.

The crews of those days had to endure many hardships and were often hours out in the Straits suffering from exposure and hunger. The passengers who could pull besides paying their fare had to work their passage by rowing or helping to drag an anchor. MANY FIGURING ON HOTEL WORK

Architects' Representative From Montreal Busy—Interest Grows.

One of the busiest places in the city this morning was the office of Thomas, Armstrong & Bell, Market square, where Gilbert Townsend of Montreal, representative of Ross & McDonald, architects, is meeting local contractors who propose bidding on the work of erection of the new Admiral Beatty Hotel. Mr. Townsend is supplying a set of plans to each of the proposed contractors, but he ran out of copies early this morning and had to wire to Montreal for more.

Many Applications.
 The interest in the new hotel is not centred alone in the building of the structure. Already many applications have been made for the rental of the stores, the barber shop, news stand and cigar stand and letters from all over the country have been received, asking for positions on the staff of the new hotel.

The tenders for the hotel will close in Montreal at noon on April 24. The contract will be let to the whole job, but it is thought likely that much or most of the work will be sub-let to local contractors. It is understood, however, that several local contractors are figuring on the whole building, and in this they will have the same opportunity of getting the work as any of the large outside contractors, nine of whom are said to be submitting tenders.

Three people have already made applications for the privilege of operating the barber shop and at least twenty firms have made bids for leases of the three shops which will be located on the ground floor.

The Plans.
 A member of The Times writing staff called upon Mr. Townsend today and looked over a copy of the plans, which were explained by the architect.

The main building which is of eight stories will be L-shaped, one section each on King square and Charlotte street. Extending back from the King square section will be a two-story wing, housing on the ground floor the kitchen, boiler and pump room. The front of the building will extend for 148 feet on King square and 98 feet on Charlotte street, but the end facing the Trinity rectory will be constructed in such a way as to allow further extension in the direction, should that expedient be advisable later.

Two Entrances
 While the main entrance will be from the square, another means of entry will be from Charlotte street. Both lead to a central foyer. Entering from King square one faces the offices; on the right are two passenger elevators and the stairway leads to the top of the house. On the left is the grand stairway leading to the second floor only, where most of the public rooms are located.

On the left is also located the main dining room, facing the square, with kitchen and other service rooms behind it. Grouped about the corner are the three shops and on the Charlotte street side is a cafeteria, served from the same kitchen as the main dining room. Behind the office is located barber shop with shoe shine and toilets. The news stand is located in the end of the main chute, which extends to the top floor. Between the hotel and Trinity rectory the service drive is located and there all supplies will be brought in. A receiving clerk's office is located alongside the entrance and there he will receive supplies, check and weigh them.

The Second Floor
 The second floor is reached by the grand stairway, the elevators or the general stairs. Ascending the grand stairway, a visitor reaches first a large foyer. Immediately over the main dining room is a banquet and dance hall, 40 by 68 feet, served from the kitchen below. Facing the square is a four-room suite, consisting of two bedrooms, dining room and living room with three baths. Also opening off the foyer are the lounge, billiard and club rooms, facing on Charlotte street. Just to the rear are three private dining rooms, which can be converted into one by means of folding doors. Behind the elevator helps lockers, check rooms, laundry and store rooms are located.

Third Floor
 Thirty-two rooms, known as "sample" rooms are provided for the third floor. In each of these is a bed, so constructed that it can be made up, folded and raised into a closet in the wall, thus making the room serve double purpose. This innovation, Mr. Townsend said, was found in all the latest hotels.

The Other Floors
 On each of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth floors are 92 rooms, each with its own bath and air ventilator. From the elevator each room is reached through one of two long hallways, which run in a straight line through each section of the building, thus making the elevator entrance visible from the doorway of every room. The rooms on the corner of each floor are so laid out that they can be converted into two, three or four room apartments. Besides the passenger elevator and stairs a service elevator and service stairs connect every floor.

 "Why do you think that?" asked the reporter.
 "Well," said Hiram, "them there fellows that send the news over here killed it a dozen times to my knowledge—and it ain't dead yet. Why don't you cable over an' tell 'em to let it totter for a spell—for a change. I been sorta thinkin'—it wasn't done 'too bad'—seein' that the other parties couldn't do nothin' at all. Who's-a-gonto take its place? Anybody in eight months? Well, no," said the reporter—"unless you and I go over and straighten things out. You remember we were going to do that several times during the war."
 "I know," said Hiram. "But I guess Old John Bull don't need us after all. An' he ain't a bit heart 'o' that Labor Government—nuther."
