MUCH SUGAR ARRIVES BUT STILL SHORTAGE

Blame it in Boston Now on Soft Drinks and Confectionery TRY TO GET SOME FROM ST. JOHN

Baker Produces Wheatless, Eggless and Sugarless Cookies—Stringing and Striking Picture of Terrors Under Bolshevism

(Special to Times.) Boston, Oct. 30.—Millions of pounds of raw sugar come into the port weekly, but the stringency does not abate, and now the blame is placed on soft drinks and confectionery, instead of the fact that cargo after cargo is being shipped to Europe or sent back to Cuba after being refused. To add to the hardship it is not possible now to import from Canada, for many a man got in his supply that way. One citizen sought to obtain a lot from St. John last week and supposed that it could be sent by parcel post. To his horror he learned that the postage would be a cent an ounce, making the cost more than double, as sugar is now eleven cents a pound. That thousands of barrels are being held for higher prices is unquestioned, despite the law just put on the books that imposes a $5000 fine, two years imprisonment, or both, on speculators in the necessities of life. Another period of rationing is in sight and there is talk of three pounds a month a person, but the problem is to catch the sugar.

Try These, Housewife!

Wheatless, eggless, sugarless cakes and cookies, born of the necessities of war-time conservation, are the achievement with which Max Braun, a St. John baker, startled the veteran bakers at a New England convention yesterday afternoon.

Terrors of Bolshevism

"I wish some of our high salaried theological and college professors and writers, and other day-to-day political economists, so far away from the actual experience of Bolshevism, could see what we have seen, could hear what we have heard from the lips of those who suffered a thousand indescribable physical, mental and moral tortures because they would not submit to the Bolshevist rule of filth, beastliness, robbery and class hatred declared Lenin, H. Murrin, president of Boston University, yesterday.

TRAPPED IN MINE BY FIRE

Twenty-one Lives in Grave Danger in Ohio

Caught Back of Flames While Desperate Efforts at Rescue Are Made—Mule Drags One Man to Safety

Amsterdam, Ohio, Oct. 30.—With flames spreading back toward twenty-one miners trapped in the north passage of No. 2 mine of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company mine, officials last night felt no hope for the men. Rescue parties formed from other workmen were unable to remain in the mine only a few minutes because of the heat and smoke. Company officials say that the miners were entombed when an electric generator operating a fan exploded and set fire to the wood braces. It was said the flames started 200 feet from the elevator shaft. Partly suffocated and his clothing and hands burned, a trip driver emerged from the mine early last night. He related how he lay on the floor of a mine car and his mule pulled him to the shaft. He said that the other miners had started farther back in the burning passage. A crowd of more than 1,000 men, women and children thronged the entrance to the mine, watching the work of rescue, eager for any word as to the condition of the men back of the flames. No explosion had been reported last night. The rescuers late in the night had reached No. 14 entry, about fifty yards from where the men are believed trapped. They reported the flames had eaten away the timbers, which caused a cave-in and made the work of the rescuing party more difficult.

BAPTIST STORM FAILS TO BREAK

Everything Smooth at the Convention in Ottawa on Matter of Orthodoxy

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—The alleged dissension in the ranks of the Baptists of Ontario and Quebec regarding the question of the inspiration and authority of scripture, which by many was considered to be of such vital importance as to cause a split among the delegates now in convention, has been overcome and the aspect of "storm in a teacup."

They pleaded not guilty and were committed for trial at the November term of the king's bench.

Dredge Brings Up Skull And Rifle In Work At Sand Point

Probably Clears Up Mystery of Fate of Sentry J. D. Pike of Restigouche Who Disappeared on May 1, 1918 While on War Duty

That Pte. J. D. Pike of Restigouche, N. B., who mysteriously disappeared while on sentry duty at Sand Point on May 1, 1918, was drowned was proven almost beyond a doubt this morning when a man's skull and a military rifle were brought up in the bucket of the dredge Beacon Bar, which was clearing up in front of No. 6 berth.

It will be recalled that Private Pike was doing sentry duty along No. 6 berth during the early hours on May 1 and a few minutes before six o'clock spoke to another sentry, who was on duty on another section of the wharf. When the sergeant of the guard arrived to relieve him he was nowhere in sight and despite diligent search and enquiries no trace of him could be found and he was officially listed as having deserted his post.

At the time the general opinion prevailed that he had deserted and in order to clear up any doubt which might exist men were set to work grappling along the front and sides of the wharf. Their efforts, however, unavailing and it was generally thought that he had deserted. During the months that intervened the dredge was kept busy. The Gruesome Find. About 10 o'clock today when the dredge was working at the southeastern corner of No. 6 berth a Ross rifle with bayonet attached came up in the mud bucket and was noticed by Frank Lamoreaux, who was in charge of the dredge and taken on board the dredge and work was continued. The men took it for granted that a rifle had been lost overboard at some time during military operations and there was no thought of the unfortunate man who mysteriously disappeared. A few minutes later Mr. Lamoreaux noticed something in the mud on the top of the bucket and thinking that it looked out of the ordinary, called for the men to hold up a minute. He procured a pile pole and to his horror discovered that it was the skull of a man.

Private Sergeant W. J. Blackwell and then he sent a message to him. Military officials were also communicated with as was the fact that a rifle had been found and the skull and rifle would solve the tragedy which had been enshrouded in mystery for so many months. A little after 12 o'clock Captain G. Goodday, assistant provost marshal of Military District No. 7, arrived, accompanied by Staff Sergeant W. J. Blackwell. Upon examination of the rifle it was discovered that it was manufactured by the Ross Rifle Company and bore the following markings: 1911, C-R-C, 12, St. J. M. & D, 174, 1908, No. 309, 1919.

Upon examination of the skull it was seen without doubt that it was that of Pike. There were five teeth remaining in the jaw bones and all were filled with silver. Two of the eye teeth had quite fine silver fillings. The other three molars also had been filled with silver. Captain Goodday said that there was no doubt they were military fillings. MAKE PULP FROM OUR HARD WOOD

Word of Important Results From Experiments Reaches Department at Fredericton (Special to Times.) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 30.—Hon. E. A. Smith left for his home in Shediac this morning. The department of Lands and Mines has received a communication from the Laurentide Pulp and Paper Co. of Quebec, giving the results of a series of experiments with hard woods such as birch, maple, etc. The result has been to show that hard woods can be used to a remarkable extent in the manufacture of pulp and paper and that the company will proceed to use them. Hereafter the soft woods have been used exclusively in the manufacture of pulp. The information is of interest to New Brunswick as thirty per cent of the forests are hard wood, which heretofore have been used for fuel and little else. The department will follow up these experiments with a view to using hard wood in this province in the manufacture of pulp. Canadian Cottons Limited has subscribed $10,000 to the Victory Loan through the Maryville canvassers. The case of Samuel Johnston vs. Donald Ross was begun with a jury before Judge Barry today. The action concerns the sale of pulp wood. Nathaniel C. Dougherty was the guest of honor at Camp Sans Souci last night, a dinner being given in honor of his marriage at an early date to Miss Alma McFarlane, of this city. A traveling bag was presented to him. J. B. McNair, coach of the U. N. B. rugby team, returned this morning from Seakville, where he saw Acadia defeat Mount Allison 13 to 0 yesterday. Mr. McNair says the score indicated the relative merits of the teams. Acadia he characterizes as a heavy and aggressive team, while Mount Allison is not so good a team as that university has had in recent years. Sen. Major Aston, of the N. B. Military Hospital here referred the game. The Fredericton school board is confronted with a heavy increase in school registration on account of increase in the city population.

As Hiram Sees It "Hiram" said the Times reporter, "is there a skin of ice on the pool of water in the back of my head below the house?" "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "but it's as glare as a bottle." "I haven't tried it yet," said Hiram, "but I'll soon be as hard as the knocker's of Newgate." "I remember," said the reporter, "an interval that used to give me good skating when I was a boy. I remember it because of the extraordinary size of the lump on the back of my head one night when my heels started to rise in the world, and the stars I saw just before the back of my head began to project into the troubled future. But I also remember it because of the I had finally learned to skate on wood top skates, with straps and screws in the heels. I have no doubt some of the girls that day remember it also. I think I sat on several of them to rest when we were skating together. I wore homespun then, and thick wool mitts and a woollen muffler—and a cap with cat-tails on it—and woollen wrist-lets above the mittens. I wish I could go out to the Settlement and feel just as you do."

"You kin come to the Settlement," said Hiram, "but you can't get back the feelin's of a boy learnin' to skate—or of a boy when he feels safe to show off a little afore the gals. No, sir—that don't come back. But I'll be glad to remember even if you do think the boy was a foolish little feller to be proud of himself. But if you come out to the Settlement I've got skates, an' I'll be a try at it myself. By Hen! An' Hanner's got him an' a woollen blankets, an' a good fire. I'll let you know when the skatin' good."

"Hiram" said the reporter, "you give me a new interest in life. And be sure about the limblin'!"

TWO WEEKS YET AT OTTAWA FOR M.P.'S

Suggestion of Closure But this not Likely Unless There is Obstruction—Three Courses For Dealing With Recalcitrant Senators

(Special to Times.) Ottawa, Oct. 30.—It seems probable that the house will be sitting for the next two weeks. After ten days' deliberation on the Grand Trunk bill only three out of the twelve clauses have been passed, and the opposition appears to be ready to fight it all the way through. The government, according to promises, has been giving them all the leeway they require, and although there have been suggestions of the closure, it is not likely to be applied unless the opposition is so prolonged as to become obstruction. It will take hard driving to get the bill through the house this week.

The senators, who have been reported to be sharpening their axes for the bill at the other end of the corridor, are said to be showing signs of relenting somewhat in their attitude. There was a government caucus yesterday morning, and some of the others who have been criticizing it severely may agree to withdraw their objections. The government appears satisfied that it can secure a majority of five or six in the senate over all possible contingencies.

There were three courses suggested which the government might follow in dealing with the recalcitrant senators. They could create new senators to fill the four vacancies, they could threaten or they could compromise. The latter course mentioned was that they would appeal to the country if the senate killed the bill, but this course was probably not seriously considered. Finally, they could compromise, if necessary, and the suggested compromise was the withdrawal of the prohibition measure to which the senate is traditionally unfriendly. Whatever course they followed success seems to have attended the negotiations, and the bill is now likely to go through.

There will be still a good deal of work for the house before the session closes, but by reason of her industrial importance, will be entitled to a seat on the governing body, and Spain, being at the head of the list, will cease to be numbered among the eight. Now, the position taken by Canada is that she should share with the eight nations of the "chief industrial importance" and to that end she has deposited a protest.

The dominion government holds that she is entitled to a seat on the governing body, and this is expected soon, Canada's protest will be one of the first questions for adjudication.

Proceedings at yesterday afternoon's sitting of the international labor conference were continued largely to the reading and translating of the organizing committee's report, but speeches by delegates from Spain and from the Latin American republic led to exciting passages and tangles in procedure. French and English are the official languages of the conference, but the Spanish speaking delegates, saying that they numbered twenty-six out of the eighty-four present, loudly asserted that Spanish should be added as a third official language.

The question of whether draft of standing orders should be provisionally approved was under discussion. Mr. Rowell, Canadian government delegate, had moved approval. Viscount De Eza, Spanish government delegate, in a long speech in Spanish, demanded to know if approval would imply deferring the official recognition of Spanish until after the conference.

He was assured that the standing orders were merely provisional and that their adoption was necessary to enable the conference to proceed at all. The subject was still under discussion when M. Louis Guerin, employers' delegate from France, complained that proper report would take time. He suggested adjournment till Monday.

Immediately, Leon Jouhaux, secretary of the French confederation of labor and French workers' delegate, protested. He thought an adjournment till this afternoon sufficient.

The Polish employer delegate took exception to both. In his view delegates could make themselves sufficiently acquainted with the report by working at night. He suggested, amid considerable murmuring, adjournment until 9 o'clock this morning.

The discussion on adjournment was warmly proceeding when Mr. Rowell intervened on a point of order. "Is the question before the conferring not that of approving the provisional standing order?" he asked sharply. "I beg to submit that question as to when we shall meet again are not now relevant."

Mr. Wilson, United States secretary of labor, who is acting as chairman, ruled that Mr. Rowell's point was well taken and called a vote. Without dissent, the motion was carried, although one Serbian delegate complained that he had not had an opportunity to see the standing orders and therefore could not vote. The Spanish speaking delegates supported the motion.

Mr. Draper, Canadian workers' delegate, moved adjournment of the conference till this afternoon, and with the adoption also of his motion, the conference adjourned.

New York, Oct. 30.—Cardinal Mercier left New York for Ottawa last night and will start for his home from Quebec on Saturday. On Friday he will go to Montreal. He will be the guest of the Canadian government during his stay in the dominion.

Drastic reductions in the British war expenses are estimated at £16,000,000 to £21,000,000 sterling. The proposal is to be reduced in December 1915.

PROTEST IS MADE BY CANADA AT WASHINGTON

Wants Place on Governing Body of International Labor Office

BY RIGHT, NOT BY ELECTION

Some Exciting Passages at Sitting of International Labor Conference—Spaniards Wanted Their Language Recognized—Hon. Mr. Rowell's Point of Order

Washington, Oct. 30.—(By the Canadian Press)—Canada has filed a formal protest against the proposed composition of the governing body of the international labor office to be established under the League of Nations. The point at issue is regarded by the Canadian delegation here as of the greatest moment. It involves the right of Canada, by reason of her industrial importance, to name one of the members of the governing body, rather than to take her chance of election as one of the nations of lesser importance from the industrial point of view.

The international labor office, which will be controlled by the governing body, forms part of the permanent organization created for further application of the labor principles embodied in the peace treaty. Its governing body is to consist of twenty-four members. Twelve will represent the governments, six will be elected by employers' delegates to the international labor conference, six by workers' delegates to the conference.

Of the twelve government representatives, eight will be nominated by the members of the conference which are of "chief industrial importance." The remaining four will be nominated by the other government delegates to the conference.

The issue arises over which eight nations are of "industrial importance" and therefore empowered each to name a representative on the governing body. The organizing committee of the labor conference has reported in favor of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Japan, Switzerland and Spain.

If German delegates are admitted, Germany, by reason of her industrial importance, will be entitled to a seat on the governing body, and Spain, being at the head of the list, will cease to be numbered among the eight. Now, the position taken by Canada is that she should share with the eight nations of the "chief industrial importance" and to that end she has deposited a protest.

The dominion government holds that she is entitled to a seat on the governing body, and this is expected soon, Canada's protest will be one of the first questions for adjudication.

EMPIRE WOULD FALL IF NOT FOR THE NAVY

Beatty Says Sea Force Must Bear Share of Economy, But Wise Applied

London, Oct. 30.—(Reuter)—Admiral Beatty speaking to the Leather Miller Company stated that the navy must bear its share of economy but the wisest economy was essential. It was recently said everywhere that Britain lived by sea and that her future as an empire depended on the sea.

For security, the lines of communication linking up the great dominions with the mother country was necessary. The navy was traditionally unfriendly. Whatever course they followed success seems to have attended the negotiations, and the bill is now likely to go through.

They are May Anderson and Mathilda Julien of 69 A St. Norbert street, May Whelan of 1235 City Hall avenue, Nellie Murphy of 108 St. Antoine street, and Mire Rousseau of St. Denis street. Lord Birkenhead repudiated the extravagant charges against the government. He said that the administration in the last year had made a sincere effort to practice economy.

ACCOUNTANTS OUT WITH FACTS

Results Were so Gratifying From Taking Tanlac He Feels it Would be Selfish Not to Tell About it.

"I began taking Tanlac when it was first put on sale in Edmonton, and I have gotten such splendid results from it that I would feel selfish if I did not let others know about it," said A. C. Crookshank, who resides at 10154, One Hundred and Eighth street, Edmonton, Alberta, while in the City of Edmonton, Mr. Crookshank holds the position of accountant for the Edmonton Public Schools, and is a very popular. Continuing, Mr. Crookshank said:

"I had suffered for a number of years from indigestion and my condition, it generally brings on. I had to always be very careful in selecting my food and even at that most every meal would cause severe indigestion and suffering. What I ate would just seem to lie heavily in my stomach, causing a dull, sick feeling, and the fermentation would cause gas to form. The pressure of this gas against my heart would cause palpitation, and I believed for a long time that I had heart trouble. This condition brought on extreme nervousness, and it was very seldom I could get a good night's sleep. At times all this began to affect my general health, and I became so weak that the least little exertion would completely exhaust me—even walking a few blocks would tire me out.

"For years I tried to find something that would relieve my condition, but everything I tried failed to give me any relief. When Tanlac was first put on sale up here I didn't know anything about the merits of it, but saw that it was recommended highly by others who had been benefited by taking it, and I decided to try it. It gave me just the results I was looking for, and I am fully satisfied that they are permanent as it has been a long time since I have taken it. I have a good appetite and am bothered no more with indigestion. I enjoy eight or ten hours sound sleep every night and have regained my strength in general.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

Nearly Every Girl Can Make Herself Pretty and Attractive

SOME WHOLESOME TRUTHS EVERY GIRL SHOULD THINK ABOUT.

Probably you know just such a girl. Perhaps she is sixteen—good to look at, and pretty—quite interesting because she reflects the grace and charm that give promise of happiness to herself and others. But she is not strong. The color in her cheeks, once so rosy, has faded away—her eyes are listless—the buoyancy of spirit and vigor she once possessed are shilly lacking. Parents, friends, this girl needs Ferronone—needs it that her blood may be renewed—growth, study and the development of her fresh youth have exhausted. This girl will become a queen with Ferronone—which will restore her color—give brightness to her eyes and vivacity to her spirits. In Ferronone every girl finds strength—then she can do things. In Ferronone there is endurance—that drives away morning tiredness and languor. For the girl or woman that wants to be happy, healthy, winning—who values rosy cheeks, laughing eyes and abundant good spirits, nothing can compare with Ferronone. 50c per box, or six for $2.50. ### FARMERS AS LEGISLATORS

The Toronto Globe outlines some of the policies a farmers' government may be expected to promote, in co-operation with the Labor party in Ontario. The Globe says such a government will give its full support to the hydro-electric enterprise, to end or mend Government House as a too expensive luxury; to re-organize thoroughly the agricultural department along lines satisfactory to the farmers; and to put an end to the patronage or spoils system. It is not anticipated that there will be any class legislation directed against the cities or interests other than those of the farmers but rather that there will be a desire, heightened by a sense of the responsibility of office, to legislate in the interests of all. It will be a very interesting experiment, new to Canada, and it will be very instructive to the old political parties whose failure has made a farmers' government possible.

PEACE PROBLEMS

Lord Robert Cecil, in a recent speech, gave the people of England food for serious reflection. He said: "Apart from the recent strike, no one who has recently discussed social or political questions with any of our fellow-countrymen can have failed to notice a deep underlying feeling of irritation and disappointment. It pervades all classes, and though its expression takes different forms, it all comes back to this: We hoped for a changed world, we were told that the armistice was the beginning of a new era; poverty, overcrowding, ignorance, preventable disease were to be driven out with the Hapsburgs and Hohenzollerns, England was to be made a land fit for heroes. But, in fact, everything is much the same as before. True, wages are higher, but so are prices and taxes. We see the same old disputes between capital and labor. Poverty and disease, overcrowding and insanitary dwellings are as bad as or worse than they were before, and heroes must be easily satisfied if this is all that can be done for them. Nor is the outlook abroad at all more comforting. Eleven months after the armistice was made and more of wars are still distracting Europe. In a word, men are beginning to ask whether posterity will really think the Treaty of Paris was any great improvement on the Treaty of Vienna."

A NOTABLE MEETING

The meeting held in the Imperial Theatre yesterday, with Hon. Dr. Roberts in the chair, and with representative women from all parts of the province in attendance, did much to focus attention upon a number of important matters. Beginning with nursing, which has to do with infancy, the discussion proceeded to medical inspection in schools, special provision for retarded pupils, and in which all must have shared, that a provincial programme for child welfare may be launched and secure universal sympathy and support. Dr. Mabel Hainington was able to tell of the benefits of medical inspection of schools and the need for better care of the mentally deficient. Mrs. Hainington of the Victorian Order of Nurses spoke of a public health nursing service and the relation of the Order thereto. What was said by the interested listeners to all parts of the province and mark the development of sentiment which will demand action. The public health department has here an excellent medium through which to deliver its message to the homes of the people. The child is the great asset of the province, and child-welfare a subject which has hitherto received far too little intelligent and organized attention.

ENGLISH WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

At the convention of Women's Institutes in this city some remarks made in Toronto last week at the University Women's Club by Mrs. Alfred Watt, M. B. E., are of special interest. A report says: "Mrs. Watt told the story of the founding of Women's Institutes in England, going on from the early days when everybody was enthusiastic about the idea, but unanimously decided it couldn't be carried out, till she saw the dawn of the war on the faces of women, who, when the war began, had had, perhaps, no knowledge of the village only two miles from them. She concluded her tale of the organization of women's institutes in every English village by an effective reference to the links, the simple, homely links that are being forged between the farm women of Canada and the farm women of the Motherland." "These links will be a steady and moderating force that will do more to make the bonds of Empire than all the councils of the Empire's statesmen."

WOMEN AND THE LAW

The Women's Court in New York is conducted by women. The appointment of a woman magistrate to preside has produced this result, as the prosecutor is also a woman. Mrs. Norris, the new magistrate, will also serve in the Court of Domestic Relations in Canada, the western provinces, women serve in some localities as juvenile court judges, and there is also at least one woman magistrate. In London, England, women policemen in uniform serve in the force and the number has lately been increased. Their work among women and young girls is of great value. There can be no doubt that a woman policeman in St. John would do a great deal to bring about better moral conditions. The time is past when it can truly be said there is no place for women in the administration of justice and in the protection of women and children from the evils of the street and the streets and affairs spread for them. Now that women have the ballot they may be expected to assert themselves, and society will be the gainer thereby.

Rippling Rhymes by Walt Mason (Copyright by George Matthew Adams)

With charity for all I walk the village street; I see a duffer fall, and lift him to his feet. I dry the widow's tears, and still the orphan's sighs; and when a bum appears, I feed him pumpkin pies. With charity on file, my failings do not count; my soul is every harbor-gulf in fabulous amount; but charity's a cloak that covers all my sins, and so through town I poke, and meet with friendly grins. With charity for all I go my modest way, and strive not to recall ill tales of yesterday; the rumpus foul and dire that smirch a fellow's name, and drag through muck and mire some once unpolluted fame, doubly base which make the victim sweat in anguish and disgrace. With charity I greet the fellows who have failed, and all whose fullest feet have to demerit trailed. I'm not so snowy white that I can sit on high, and hand out words that blight, to any erring guy. If charity is mine, I may have countless faults, but my white soul will shine, when through the Gates I wait.

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

THE MIMEMACS

(Continued from yesterday.) Early writers say that the Mimemac never cut trees or fashions them into logs for homes or defense purposes. But there is in existence a print of Champlain's day showing such methods of dealing with timber, so it is evident they were inventors of the white settlers down by the sea. They had pots of clay and pottery and copper knives and needles made from the Lunenburg deposit. The modern snow shoe is practically unchanged from the one used by the Mimemacs in the aboriginal period. They were great smokers, their pipes consisting of a small stone for the bowl of which they thrust a quill or a hollow reed for a mouthpiece. In their wars they used clubs, spears, bows and arrows and shields and sometimes a pole with a stone fastened to the end. As warriors they were well versed in strategy. For more than 100 years after the French came to the coast the Indians and the whites succeeded in keeping the peace with each other. But after 1710 there was a change in control and the great Indian wars broke out. So deadly were that rarely did an Indian live to be forty years of age; most of the braves which cannot be put down except by sympathetic co-operation such as made the Allies the victors in the great war.

THE PERFECT GENTLEMAN

(Selected definitions.) Define me, if you can, the elusive term of gentleman. Says Vere de Vere, "A man is he Of pure blue-blooded ancestry." Says Newman Prig, "He's best defined As one who has a cultured mind." Says Mr. Mas, "Culture? Blood? Pooh! The true criterion is cash." Says Books, "Whoever in his belt He never fails to pay his bet." "Tis bear enough he's one," says Shirks, "Who for his living doesn't work."

A WONDERFUL STATUE

(Detroit News.) The most marvelous workman in the world is Hamanuma Masakichi, of Tokio, Japan, who has carved a figure in wood so like himself that when the two are placed side by side it is said to be almost impossible to tell which lives and breathes and which does not. The figure is composed of 6,000 pieces of wood, dovetailed and jointed with such skill that no seams can be detected.

OTTAWA UNDER PROHIBITION

(Ottawa Journal.) In Ottawa prohibition has not been given even half a chance because of the fact that the intoxicating liquor can be obtained across the river. Yet who will seriously say that the appearance of the bars and the wine shops in Ottawa has not made for a better and pleasanter and happier Ottawa? Who shall say that life in such communities as Renfrew, Pembroke, Carleton Place, and Almonte, and other small towns and villages in the Ottawa Valley has not been improved by the elimination of the hotel bar and the wine shop with the influences they radiated? These are facts which should be of the people? You shall go into one of our moving-picture houses, jammed to the doors with men in the company of their families, and say it is not better that these men should be there than congregating in the unhealthy atmosphere of alcohol and bad language?

MORE FARMERS WANTED

(Halifax Chronicle.)—So it happens that a time when the price of farm products is so high as to make farming properly carried on, far more profitable than it has ever before been, the land is lying idle or being offered for a song because men for its cultivation are lacking. These are facts which should be well known to the Immigration Department. These are facts which should have moved its officials years ago to devote some attention to the requirements of the Maritime Provinces in the matter of population. They should at least have induced them to abstain from lending a hand in enticing to the West still more of our people.

A GRAND OLD MAN

(Halifax Chronicle)

Today Hon. M. H. Goudge, President of the Legislative Council, celebrates the sixtieth anniversary of his birth, and Nova Scotians in all sections will join in congratulations with the venerable President upon this happy event. Hon. Mr. Goudge was born in Windsor on October 22nd, 1859. For over half a century he has been active in the public life of the County of Hants, and his native Province as a whole. Fifty years ago he was elected to the House of Commons in the famous bye-election in the County of Hants on the occasion of Howe's entry into the Government of Sir John Macdonald. Mr. Goudge was defeated in that historic contest, but in 1873 and again in 1875 he was elected to the House of Commons, in which he sat for Hants until 1878.

He was appointed to the Legislative Council of Nova Scotia in 1884, and in 1903 he was elevated to the Presidency in which position he has maintained the best traditions of that ancient chamber of our Legislature. So for half a century Mr. Goudge has been serving his country in a public way, in one capacity or another, and his service has always been distinguished by a high sense of public duty and an inflexible loyalty to the public interest. Mr. Goudge is almost the last link between the old life of the province and the stirring events of the Confederation period. He has been fittingly called the "Father of the House" of Nova Scotia, by whom he is most highly honored. But he enjoys, in equal degree, and in his public services, worthy of the name of a statesman. His mind is still active, his voice as clear and his hand as steady as when he was a young man. It will be the earnest wish of his friends both in and out of the Legislature, who unite in congratulating him today, that he may long be spared to preside over the Council which he has graced for so many years, and that in the evening of his days his happiness may be brightened by the knowledge that he enjoys the respect and good-will of all his countrymen.

FUEL SITUATION IN CANADA

Use of Coal in Pulverized Form Will Make Available Large Supplies Now Valueless. (Commission of Conservation.) The fuel situation in Canada is one which must be faced in an effort to overcome the annual threatened shortage and the constantly rising price of coal. Canada possesses immense coal reserves. Unfortunately, much of it is unusable for locomotive purposes, owing to its high moisture content, it rapidly disintegrates on exposure to the atmosphere. Again at the mines, both below and above ground, in mining the coal and in handling it, a vast amount of slack is created, which up to the present, has been considered as waste. A process for utilizing this slack coal, as well as run-of-mine coal, has for some time been under development. By this method the coal is pulverized until approximately 80 per cent will pass through a 200-mesh screen, and the residue through a 100-mesh screen. After the coal has been pulverized, it is fed from the bins by screw conveyors and blown into a large cylindrical chamber. Good results have been secured by the Commission of Conservation, Ottawa, has issued a report on "Pulverized Fuel: Its Use and Possibilities." W. J. Dick, M. C., which explains in detail the use of pulverized coal and its advantages.

A ROAD OF EPSOM SALTS

A road of Epsom salts is an attraction Texas can soon hold out to tourists, according to the state highway department. Ten miles of road out of Rockport are being surfaced with a material which analyzes more than one-fourth Epsom salts. The material is a mixture of salt water, which is constantly evaporated off, leaving a hard, porous surface. The salt water has left strongly impregnated with salt, and the Epsom variety predominates. Highway engineers say the mixture forms an excellent road surfacing material. The salt absorbs enough moisture from the air to keep the roads from becoming too dry and firm on the driest days. One trouble, however, is that the road becomes very slippery during wet weather, but this is overcome by adding a small proportion of shell and regulating the slope of the surface.

SLAVERY TO COAL

Winnipeg Tribune—Canadian roads in the distant future should not burn a ton of coal except on the Prairie provinces. Hydro-electric power is at the track side in both Eastern and Western Provinces. In Canada the power of coal strikes when the power of hydro-electricity can be eliminated. It is possible that Sir Charles Parsons foresaw the ever-present menace of coal strikes when he recently pointed out that industrial supremacy would eventually be the fortune of those countries that possess the resources for developing hydro-electric power, and that the future workshops of the world would locate at the great falls and rapids long before the time that rail sear-

WOMEN AND PROHIBITION

Hamilton Spectator—The result of the prohibition referendum is an unmitigated victory for temperance. How far the women's vote is responsible for the outcome cannot be definitely known, though undoubtedly it has counted for very much. There is a tendency on the part of certain disgruntled male voters to recast this very strongly as an infringement of their rights. They argue that because the women do not themselves care for or approve the use of liquor that is no reason why they should be given the power to deprive others of it. But this is an age of sex equality, and legislation must be uniform for all. The lesson is being formed here upon humanity that we cannot live to ourselves. As civilization moves to higher and higher heights the duty of civility, of consideration for others, becomes ever more plain. If a personal habit of another has a clear right to enter an emphatic protest. The abuse of liquor affects the domestic relationship. It would be very surprising, therefore, had the women declared themselves otherwise than they did. And surely no one has a greater right to a vote on this question than she.

RESULTS DISCOVER GAVE

(London Times.) Dr. R. R. Marett, describing before the British Association for the Advancement of Science recent archaeological discoveries in the Channel Islands, said that in 1914 a party of Jesuits discovered a cave on the north coast of Jersey which could be entered by means of a rope from a hole in the cliff side. They preserved their secret until 1918, when the Rev. Father Morin handed over the spoils to a local society. Examination of these has made known a very puzzling geological fact. There were teeth, bones and pieces of the antlers of extinct deer, of the Auvergne. The specimens occurred in hard breccia, associated with stalactites and would seem to show some kind of land connection with France. H. W. M. de Guerin described the discovery of a sculptured human figure of the under surface of the second capstone of the central chamber of the dolmen of Debus in Guernsey. The figure is supposed to be the image of a divinity worshipped for a long period in Guernsey, and is closely similar to figures of the late neolithic age in the valleys of the Seine and Marne. The speaker believed that there must have been trade intercourse between Guernsey and France at the end of the neolithic age and in the bronze age.

THE MILLENNIUM—IF

If all that are good could be clever. And all that are clever good. This world would be better than ever. We thought that it possibly could. But, alas! it appears that they never lift off as it seems that they should. For the good are so hard to the clever. And the clever so hard to the good.

LOOPS THE LOOP 624 TIMES

Madrid, Oct. 29—Alfred Flanval, a French aviator, looped the loop 624 times in a single flight in a military airplane here. The previous record was a little over 800. Flanval was in the air two hours. He descended owing to a leak in his petrol tank.

Heals Inflamed Nostrils

Stops Catarrhal Discharge, Cures Colds Quickly

Poor remedies have given Catarrh the reputation of being incurable. But it is curable, easily and quickly, if the right method is employed. Snuffing a powder or ointment up the nose won't cure Catarrh, neither will tablets, douching, or stomach medicines. These treatments fail because they only affect local conditions, they do not remove the cause, which is germ life established in the lungs, bronchial tubes, and nasal passages. Ordinary remedies do not reach these remote parts, but Catarrh does, for it is breathed through the inhaler into every air cell in the lungs, into every air passage in the head and throat. No matter where the Catarrh is Catarrhinase will reach it. It kills the germs, heals sore spots, clears the nose and throat instantly. Universally used, pleasant and clean, guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Don't be an object of aversion to everyone you meet—get Catarrhinase today and use it regularly; it will cure your Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Trouble, spitting and gagging. Large size lasts two months, price $1.00; small size, 60c; sample size, 25c; at all drug stores.

Is Your List Made Up?

It is quite possible that many people will be sadly disappointed next December. They will find that some of the things they intended to get at Birks are sold out.

We ourselves will be sorry, too—but all this can be avoided.

Allow us to explain—Manufacturing conditions this year are such as will make it impossible to duplicate certain lines which are now complete and awaiting your order.

To make sure that your order is shipped exactly as specified, write for the Birks Year Book today.

Make up a list of the Christmas presents you intend to give—then send us your order right away.

In other words, make November your Christmas Shopping Month—everything will be attended to at once, and without any fear of your choice being "out of stock."

McKel poured the tea and Misses Howie, McKel, McGuire and Mitchell served. An apron table was in charge of Mrs. Robert Bartlett; a domestic table, Mrs. Thomas Stears; candy table, Mrs. Chas. Hill and Mrs. Cecil McKel; and a junior goods table was supervised by Mrs. W. P. Dunham.
Musical selections were given by the orchestra of the church and the numbers were heartily applauded. The whole affair reflected great credit on the W. A. and the president in charge, Mr. Bender. COUNCIL AGAIN TALKS ON THE PAVING QUESTION
Whole of Douglas Avenue Being Done Next Year
Shortage of Curbing—Street Engineer Expresses Views; Millions of Paving Blocks For Halifax
Commissioner Fisher again brought his paving programme for next year before a committee meeting of the common council this morning. Considerable discussion as to the streets which should receive priority was indulged in but no definite decision was arrived at. The mayor presided and all the commissioners and the street engineer were present.
Commissioner Fisher first took up the matter of Douglas avenue. He said that by doing half of the pavement there next year and the balance the following year, a great saving in expense would be effected. He said that the programme presented at the last meeting of the council included about half the work which was outlined in the programme for the next four years, which he had brought before the council some time ago.
Mr. Fisher said he was prepared to recommend that in the track section in Douglas avenue asphalt paving be used, which would save half the cost of brick paving. Legislation was pending in which the street railway would pay the cost of foundation for the curbs and an part of the cost of the paving. In the meantime he did not intend to spend money which might be saved to the city for three years in succession.
The street engineer said that he was favorable to doing the work in two instalments as it would make a better job and would interfere with traffic for a shorter time each season, and the interference would be less in each case. In fact, the engineer thought the street car traffic would not be greatly disturbed.
He said that both Douglas avenue and City road should be done as soon as possible. Tenders should be called by Jan. 1 or there would be difficulty in getting curbing and other material.
Commissioner Jones thought that granite curbing should not hold up the work—that concrete curbing should be used if granite was not available.
The engineer was of the opinion that Prince William street should also be paved as soon as possible next year and that it should take precedence over the March road.
Commissioner Jones moved that the engineer be instructed to prepare estimates for the paving of Douglas avenue next year.
This motion was still being discussed when the meeting adjourned, the commissioners being divided in their opinions as to whether the whole street or only a part of it should be done next year.
In speaking of the matter of granite blocks and curbing, Commissioner Fisher said that he had only enough curbing under contract to do about half of Douglas avenue. With regard to the blocks, the engineer said that the people who supply the city had contracts with Halifax for somewhere in the vicinity of 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 blocks and if St. John was to do any paving with this material next year the tenders for the material would have to be arranged for immediately.
The engineer said that the retaining wall running nearly the whole length of Brunels street was badly in need of repair before pavement could be laid.
The matter was laid over until next meeting.

Shameful Neglect Of A Gallant Soldier
Lieut. Col. Brown, D. S. O., of The Fighting 26th Still Waiting For Postion
A feeling of growing and intense indignation has developed in St. John because of the treatment given by the militia department to Lt.-Col. W. R. Brown, D. S. O., commander of the 26th Battalion.
Ever since his return to this province with his family he has been waiting for a position and has now the last months of his gratuity, facing the prospect of having to return to England. Were that to occur it would be a disgrace to Canada.
Lt.-Col. Brown had an assured position in England, but received what he regarded as absolutely safe assurances from influential men in this province that if he would bring the battalion home he would be looked after. He decided to do so, and brought his family with him. Recently, as the period of his gratuity was near its end, he presented the case to Premier Foster, who at once wrote a strong letter to the minister of militia, pointing out that there was no available office at his own disposal suitable for a man of Lt.-Col. Brown's record and attainments. The only reply was a letter from the minister's secretary telling of the few offices and the many applicants. Very soon afterward, however, the appointment of general staff officer in St. John, which should have been given to Lt.-Col. Brown, and for which there is no better qualified, was given to an officer from another province.
Lt.-Col. Brown did not desire that publicity should be given to the unfortunate situation in which he finds himself as a result in the first place of apparently mislaid confidence, and secondly, of official neglect in high quarters; but the matter will not end here. The people who give such a welcome to a living, on every hand where the facts are known there are expressions of a determination to see justice done.

OFFICIALS REPLY TO CITIZEN'S INQUIRY
Matter of Disinfection of The Rooms in The City Schools
The Times yesterday received a communication asking if the citizens knew that the "walls and ceilings of our public schools are not washed down with disinfectants after being used by the many children, both sick and well, in some cases for eighteen years? It was also asked "Are the walls scraped and tested for bacteria at least once a year?"
Dr. Mahel Huntington, medical inspector of the schools, when this matter was brought to her attention, said that she thought the system of disinfection used in the schools was satisfactory. They were the best aired sections of the community. When necessary, after a case of disease has occurred, the school was thoroughly disinfected, the ceiling, the ceiling and walls was a procedure not adopted even in most private buildings. It would be a large order, she thought, and one entailing great additional financial burden, to have the walls and ceilings of 174 school rooms kept scraped and cleaned in addition to their being thoroughly disinfected every time a case requiring disinfection arose.
Dr. A. E. Emery, chairman of the board of health, said that what she said Dr. Huntington had said was correct. He wondered what the purpose of anybody getting some information from that official on the subject.
"Is it information the writer wants?" he asked. "If it is a knowledge of how disinfection is carried on why could he not have gotten in touch with the board of health or school trustees? But aside from this—in answer to the query I may say that when it is necessary the schools are disinfected thoroughly and properly. I have confidence enough in the way the board of health looks after such things to know it is done well. I don't think complaint can now be found as to the practice."
Doctor Emery said he could not see the necessity for scraping the walls and ceilings of a school building or other public building, church, theatre, or any other for bacteria. He did not think it was the proper procedure—the city has a special health officer to see that the pupils in the schools were protected in such matters—perhaps the writer could get some information from that official on the subject.

WORD FROM SPORTSMEN WRITERS IN OUR WOODS
Col. Bozeman Bulger, sporting editor of the New York Evening World, who has been one of the party of writers who went into the Nova Scotia hunting country as the guests of the Canadian Pacific Railway and later into New Brunswick under the guidance of Harry Allan, will return to New York this evening on the Boston train from Fredericton Junction.
Report says the party has had a wonderful good time, topping it off by getting their share of the game which abounds throughout the province.
Irwin S. Cobb, Damon Runyon and William Macbeth will come out of the woods on Saturday and leave for New York the same night.

IRISH PARLIAMENT HELD LONG SESSION
Dublin, Oct. 30. (By the Associated Press.)—The Sinn Fein press bureau says the Irish republican parliament met in private session at the Mansion House on Monday evening.
There was a full attendance of members.
It was announced that Irish trade representatives had been appointed and were working in France, Italy, Switzerland and Argentina, and that J. L. Fawcett had opened offices as Irish consul general in New York city.
The press bureau adds that the session lasted from seven o'clock in the evening until one o'clock the following afternoon.

So off comes tie and collar, on goes house jacket, out comes Friend Pipe—and you're ready to begin.
You stand there just trying your new Chesterfield. Then you cross to it, turn it a bit so the light will fall properly, and gingerly sit down on the middle cushion. You sink deeper than you expected to—and a flicker of surprised hope comes into your face!
You lean back until your head falls comfortably on that wide, soft Pillow Arm, and your back sinks gracefully and appreciatively into what seems like a roomful of feathers!
Then your tired legs and feet just naturally seek the yieldingness of the other cushion—one elbow dips easily into the springy softness of the back, you settle into place all over—and your surprised and pleased body goes sailing away over billows of softness—while your mind gets its recreation in the story and "your nose knows" the flavor of that favorite tobacco!

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1919

MacADAM HEAD OF MOVIE LEAGUE

lin referred to a deferred motion of last year pertaining to the maritime league's affiliation with the American Exhibitors' Association, a national body. Mr. Spedon of New York explained that national associations in America were now in a rather dormant state and that exhibitors were organizing along state lines which might eventually be merged into more comprehensive bodies. Mr. Franklin then moved that the motion of last year be stricken from the minutes. The motion carried.

Mr. Franklin then reported with regard to a meeting which he attended as a delegate in Toronto, at which it was proposed to organize exhibitors of Canada for the marketing of their own films.

The New Officers.
Mr. McKay appointed Mr. Franklin, F. G. Spencer and Dr. Daley as nominating committee, and they presented the following slate of officers for the ensuing year: President, R. J. Macadam, Halifax; vice-president, F. G. Spencer, St. John; secretary, J. M. Franklin, Halifax; treasurer, W. C. McKay, St. John; vice-president for New Brunswick, Dr. Daley, Sussex; for Nova Scotia, L. R. Acker, Halifax, and for P. E. I., J. J. Gaudet, Summerside. This report was adopted.

Mr. McKay, as retiring president, before surrendering the chair to the new incumbent, referred to the vicissitudes of the business during the last year, and said he felt that, even though the league had not been particularly active, the fact of its remaining firm to its principles and in a state of preparedness, made it a valuable organization for the safeguarding of entertainment for the province.

The retiring secretary, Mr. Golding, complimented the league upon its new officers and said he felt that a better choice could not have been made in the interests of exhibitors and public.

The New President.
Mr. Macadam was enthusiastically received as he took the chair. He said that in the three years of the existence of the league its record was most creditable and it could be said to be the only combination of exhibitors on the continent that had successfully combated several oppressive measures proposed by film traders to be placed upon the business and it had also made suitable arrangements with rental concerns that lightened the burden on numerous small houses. Therefore, Mr. Macadam thought, the league members could look back with pride on the achievements and with a sound hope for the future.

Discussion continued for some time on the question of patronizing film concerns which did not hesitate to invade the territory of their patrons with theatres of their own, and also in the matter of musicians' organizations. It was decided to leave several contentious matters relating to film service for today's conference with film managers.

The Matter of Taxes.

J. M. Franklin introduced again the matter of the fifteen cents a reel tax on motion pictures, as imposed by the department of inland revenue, saying it was a hardship on small exhibitors, from whom this amount of money sometimes took all their net earnings. It was decided that the league respectfully request the federal government for a more equitable plan of collecting this tax. Considerable resentment was expressed over a reported remark of Sir Thomas White, late finance minister, who was said to have told an Upper Canadian delegation that moving picture entertainment was a non-essential. It was the opinion of those taking part in the discussion that the picture theatres had been a most potent factor in successfully selling the government loans to date, and in recruiting and other patriotic work. As an outcome of this discussion it was moved to memorialize the government that they remove all film taxes from towns of 5,000 population or less. Vice-President Spencer was delegated to carry this request to Ottawa in person.

For Welfare Work.

President Macadam solicited the co-operation of the league in forwarding the work of the Child Welfare League and asked that theatres, through the medium of their screens, support this movement to the fullest in the interests of a healthier and happier Canadian citizenship. This was put in the form of a motion and carried unanimously.

W. H. Golding moved that the government be assured of the league's hearty co-operation in launching the carrying out of the present Victory Loan, which also was carried unanimously.

W. C. McKay thought something should be done by the league at once along the lines of affiliation with other exhibiting bodies throughout Canada so that in event of unfair and oppressive legislation aimed against the interests of so many people in the picture business, their case could be presented with a united front, and in a business-like manner.

the league against the methods employed by the Chautauqua which, it was held, camped in small communities and worked havoc with the bread and butter of exhibitors and their employees. He spoke of exemption from taxes, financial guarantees, public aid, and other advantages given them and argued this to be inconsistent with good Canadian citizenship. He said municipalities should protect tax-paying showmen of their own towns, not only against Chautauqua but also against small circuses and carnival shows which took much money out of the country and left nothing, in comparison, behind.

The mention of carnival shows and miniature circuses aroused a very lively discussion of the undesirable class of people which sometimes characterized this brand of entertainment. It was felt that the authorities should investigate alleged percentage agreements with local bodies under whose auspices these shows crept into a community. The recent action of Moncton in presenting to a local organization the estimated amount they expected from a travelling show of this kind and then refusing to allow the show to enter the city was quoted in support of the argument offered.

Committee Appointed.

Mr. Spencer moved that two strong committees be appointed to discuss with the governments of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick the advisability of shutting out undesirable travelling shows. Those appointed were W. H. Golding, F. G. Spencer, W. C. McKay and W. H. O. Penney, L. R. Acker, J. M. Franklin, J. P. O'Connell and M. Herschorn.

Merchants of St. John

YOU are urgently solicited by the Executive Committee to lend a prominent portion of your window space in order that the posters of Victory Loan, 1919, may be effectively displayed during the approaching campaign.

These posters are designed by noted commercial artists, and are attractive enough to make a most striking window display by themselves.

Your customers will appreciate your public-spirited co-operation in this connection. They know that all good citizens are behind Canada's effort to clean up her war obligations and to provide for the expansion of trade and the maintenance of good times.

And the public generally will take for granted that behind your windows are splendid stocks worthy of their confidence and selection.

So you will lose nothing by this temporary sacrifice of your window space, but in reality will gain immensely in the esteem of your fellow-men. Merchants may obtain posters at Victory Loan Headquarters, Chipman Hill.

It is suggested that merchants prepare a Victory Loan window on Saturday night next for display Sunday. All churches are observing next Sunday as Victory Loan Sunday.

"COMMON CLAY" POWERFUL PICTURE

Imperial Crowded Yesterday When the Great Harvard Prize-Play Was Shown.

It is estimated that "Common Clay," the Harvard prize play by Cleves Kinkaid, which is now being shown at the Imperial and in which Jane Cowl achieved one of her most notable successes, has been witnessed by more than five million persons. Under the direction of A. H. Woods, it ran for a full year as a Broadway attraction, playing to the capacity of the house. During the three years following it was interpreted by six companies throughout the United States and Canada and everywhere attracted large audiences. Now that A. H. Woods has produced a screen version of this masterpiece, it is figured roughly that, in all, about ten or twelve million persons will watch it on the silver screen. The estimate includes a large percentage of those who witnessed the stage presentation and naturally will be curious to see how more fully it may be done on the screen, and the millions of moving picture lovers who are alert for the coming of a really imposing feature. "Common Clay" is one of these and care was taken to surround Miss Ward by a most capable cast of specially selected players. The star and her support under the skilled direction of George Fitzmaurice combined in making a perfect performance, rich in faithful character study, human feeling and human falling and compelling emotional appeal. The general consensus of opinion yesterday was that this screen version of the great play is gripping, absorbing and sensational.

DEATH OF NURSE

(Frederick Gleason)
The death occurred at the Red Cross Convalescent Hospital, Washington, recently, of Miss Anna B. West, daughter of E. L. West, of Centreville, N. B., aged thirty-four years.
Miss West was a graduate of the Provincial Normal School and after teaching school for two years went to Boston and entered the Massachusetts General Hospital. After graduating she followed her profession until February, 1917, when she enlisted as a Red Cross nurse and sailed for France. She was in Belgium for some time, serving at the front.

After the armistice she went to Germany with the American Army of Occupation and while serving as a nurse was stricken with meningitis. She rallied sufficiently to be brought to the United States and taken to Washington, where everything possible was done, but the complications which set in baffled the best medical skill and she passed away.
The deceased is survived by her father, E. L. West, of Centreville, a step-mother, one sister, Miss Frances West, superintendent of one of the departments of the Massachusetts General Hospital, and one brother, Charles F., of the Star-Herald Publishing Company, Presque Isle. The body will be brought to Centreville for interment.

IMPORTANT MEET OF MEDICAL SOCIETY

Members Guests of Staff of West Side Hospital

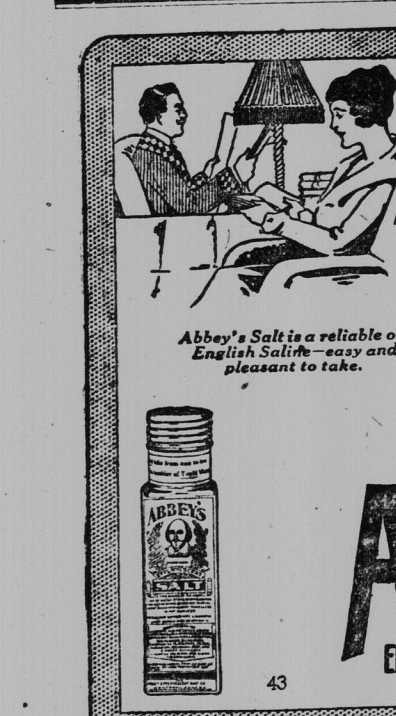

Dr. Charles MacKay, Dr. W. W. White and Dr. J. A. McCarthy Tell of Work Being Done—Visitors Impressed With Institution

The St. John Medical Society met last evening as the guests of the staff of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment Hospital, Lancaster, with the president, Dr. A. E. Logie, in the chair. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Charles MacKay, unit medical director of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, who told of the work being done by his department and especially the work being done to establish returned men in civilian occupations.

That is your absolute safeguard.

way, prepares meals that the men rave over at 20 cents per meal), was served. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and several other minor business matters had been transacted, three new members were elected to the society, namely: Doctors A. F. L. Brown, B. F. Johnston and G. B. Peat. It was moved by Dr. Curran and seconded by Dr. White that a committee of two be appointed to look into the revision of the constitution and report at the next meeting. Dr. White and Dr. Barry were appointed by the chair.

Speaks of Work. Dr. Charles MacKay, unit medical director of the D.S.C.R., then delivered an address. He said that in 1918 the military hospital commission was established to look after the returned men. This went along until February 1918 when it was decided to create the department of "givers" (civil re-establishment). "A great many fall to grasp the significance of this department," said Dr. MacKay. "It deals only with men after their discharge and arrange for artificial limbs, etc., and for the vocational re-education of men who are unable to follow their previous occupation." He said that the department taught some 250 different trades and that there was also the information service branch which arranges the employment of returned men who have difficulty in securing work.

Dr. MacKay said he would answer any questions that were asked him and in answer to several he volunteered the information that all returned soldiers were treated free for a year after discharge irrespective of whether or not they had contracted the disability while in the service. He said that a man with a disability contracted on service would be treated for an unlimited period after discharge. Patients could also be treated by private physicians and the government would pay the bills but in cases where it was possible to do so the patient should have attendance by a doctor of the department. "The patient is always given the benefit of the doubt if the circumstances of the case warrant it," said the doctor, referring to cases where men had been discharged "A1" and had not reported any ailment for months afterwards. He said also that there would have been in all cases a long board when the men were discharged, instead of a short board as was the case, and that the forms should have been filled out as positive instead of negative and there would have been no question as to whether a man deserved treatment at the expense of the government or not.

Dr. John A. McCarthy, of the hospital, then gave a talk on his actual experiences in the hospital. He said that the hospital had been taken over on July 1 by the department; 218 patients had been treated in the hospital and 288 had been treated in the department. Some clinical cases were brought forward to be examined by the doctors. One was a classical case which Dr. White had operated upon with success, removing two wire loops from the collar bone which had been there to hold it in shape. Another was an emphysema case and the third was an anemic case which all three of the doctors as no solution could be found.

Building Inspected. A tour of the hospital was then made. The hospital contains three large surgical wards and four medical wards. The surgical wards were inspected first and Dr. White explained several interesting cases to the visiting doctors. The operating room which is a model one and fully equipped, was then visited. Dr. White explained that since the hospital had been taken over he had the windows all around the room put in and a very powerful electric light installed. The ward next visited and it is from here that the patients are really ruled for they eat only what the dietitian prescribes, but the men all claim that their diet is the very best.

The eye and ear ward was also inspected and the third floor which is allotted to vocational training was inspected. It is here that the men make all the things which most people thought before the war it was impossible for a male to attempt. The diet kitchen in the basement which is not yet completed was also visited and the dietitian explained that she supplied 130 meals a day at twenty cents a meal, which caused great amazement and shows that the H. C. L. can be reduced by care.

After this inspection the members of the society and guests adjourned to the dining hall where they had an opportunity of testing the dietitian's art. A triumph of the culinary art was served, consisting of a fruit punch, chicken, ham, vegetables, etc., pumpkin pie of the kind that mother used to make, cake and coffee. After the supper, a toast was drunk to the D. S. C. R. and Dr. MacKay responded briefly, voicing his appreciation of being present at the society's meeting and expressing the hope that he might soon again have the opportunity of meeting them.

Dr. Mackay, who has his headquarters at Fredericton, also made the statement that New Brunswick had the best report at Ottawa of any province in the Dominion as regards the D. S. C. R. and Dr. White remarked that this must be the reason why they get everything they want at the Lancaster Hospital.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE. Frederick S. Kelle, M.D., Editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who" says that weak, nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nerve force, should take a 5-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate just before or during each meal. This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals. If you do not feel well; if you tire easily; do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week.

Eat less; chew your food thoroughly, and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months; if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality; your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing. It is sold by the Ross Drug Co., in St. John and all good druggists.

A Happy Family

A happy family is one that can sit down to the table with keen appetites and good cheer. Plenty of the out-of-doors and cleanliness, inside and outside of the body, will make for health, wealth and happiness. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache to the most serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. The first thing to do in case you feel mean, lousy, dull, perhaps feverish, is to flush the liver and kidneys, drink plenty of water, and take a dose of castor oil, or something better, made of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and long sold by almost every druggist as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. This may save you from a fit of sickness, remove the poisons from the system and give the tissues of the body a chance to build up and rest disease.

The Intelligent Way To End Corns

Not by paring. That's a risky makeshift, and results are brief. Not by harsh, haphazard methods made by non-scientific men. Not by padding. Pads are unsightly, and they simply coddle corns. Expert Methods. Blue-jay was invented by a scientific expert. It is made by a house famed for its surgical dressings. It embodies the up-to-date method, the right method of corn treatment. Apply it and the pain stops instantly. Forget it for two days. Remove it, and the corn is gone for good. One corn in ten may need a second application, but that's all. Millions of corns have been ended in this way. Aching corns are unknown to its users. These are facts known to your own friends and neighbors. It is time that you knew them. Try Blue-jay tonight.

One thing there's no substitute for: ENO'S FRUIT SALT—the World's natural aperient

THIS world-famous natural aperient for over 60 years has been the standard remedy for constipation, biliousness, impure blood and indigestion. Its pleasant and convenient to take, gentle in action, positive in results. The safest and most reliable digestive regulator.

PRENTICE BOYS FAIR. There was an even larger attendance than usual last night at the Prentice Boys' Fair, in aid of the Protestant orphanage. The door prize, a lot of the coal was won by Miss Viola Howard. The other prizes were won as follows: Excelsior, electric heater, by Miss E. Thompson; ten pins, toilet set, by H. Norris; devil-among-the-tailors, electric heater, E. Fuller; flood gates, silver cup, R. H. Topley; bagatelle, umbrella stand, H. Rose; ladies' bean tons, cushion, Mrs. J. Donnan; hoop-la, silver pickle dish, Mrs. Mabey; gent's air gun, umbrella, H. Robinson; ladies' air gun, fancy muffler, Mrs. W. Warlock.

NOT TEACHING THERE. Harold Drumme called at The Telegraph office last evening in reference to a paragraph in the report of the school board meeting on Tuesday. He wished to deny the statement that he was occupying Miss Hay's position on the High school staff, saying that he had not taught in the High school at any time. The mistake occurred through a misunderstanding on account of it being brought out at the meeting that he had been offered the position by the superintendent, but had not taken over the duties.

MEDIAEVAL LACES. New York, Oct. 29.—Hundreds of patterned laces, dating from medieval times to the present, which is represented by a piece of war finery, are shown at an exhibition here in the Bush Terminal Building. The collection is one of the rarest ever gotten together. Among the most interesting pieces are a lace gown worn by Empress Eugenie, a Chantilly scarf worn by the late Dowager Empress of Russia, and a white lace gown worn by the Princess Ekahale at the ball given for her at the Waldorf-Astoria. An Irish crocheted coat, which took a woman seven years to make, represents the Creation of the World. There are a border of animals around the bottom, the signs of the zodiac at the back and various birds on the front and sides.

Do not suffer another day with itching, bleeding, swollen, sore, and painful piles. Do not let your condition require surgical operation. Dr. Chase's Ointment will relieve you at once and as a certain cure you can get it at any druggist, or Education, Ross & Co., Limited, Toronto. Sample box free if you mention this paper and enclose a stamp to pay postage.

NUXATED IRON. Increases strength of delicate, nervous, run-down people in two weeks' time in many instances. Used and highly approved by former United States Senators, Judges and Members of Congress, well-known physicians and former Public Health officials. Ask your doctor or druggist about it.

Too Ill to Work

Scores of Women in homes, stores, offices and factories are not fit to be at work. They toil on day after day and year after year suffering with distressing weaknesses and derangements, hoping against hope that they will soon feel better, but how can they hope to do good work or escape permanent invalidism? Such women are in danger of derangement of women's functions. They owe it to themselves to try that good old fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been restoring Women to health and strength.

Here is a Notable Example. St. John, N.B.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for bladder and kidney troubles and backache and find it the best medicine I ever took. I used many other remedies with very little result. I had two miscarriages and would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your medicine. I always keep a bottle of Vegetable Compound in the house, and I feel fine to do my work for five in the family. I have recommended your Compound to many people, and you may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."

And Another. Regina, Sask.—"I was going through the Change of Life and suffered two years with headaches, nervousness, sleepless nights and general weakness. Some days I felt tired and unfit to do my work. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and found good results. I also find it a very helpful spring tonic and useful for constipation from which I suffer much. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to several friends and am willing you should publish this."

RING.

Dempsy to Meet Unknown? New York, Oct. 29.—Jack Dempsy may return to the ring for his first fight since the Toledo battle in New York on December 2. Dave Mackay, Newark promoter, who has staked several big bouts recently, is dickering with Jack Kearns for the services of the champion in an eight-round mill which is the limit in New Jersey. Mackay has not announced his prospective opponent but it is said to be Fred Fulton, of Minnesota, who is about to return to his native land after several successful fights in England.

Gibbons and O'Dowd. St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 29.—Mike O'Dowd, middleweight champion, and Mike Gibbons, the former title-holder, have been matched for a ten-round bout here, November 21, according to Promoter Reddie, who has their signatures on a contract.

Carbone and McDonald. Halifax, Oct. 29.—Frank Carbone of New York was given the decision over Roddy McDonald of Glace Bay in the thirteenth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout last night. There was some controversy as to whether the blow which won Carbone the decision was a foul or not. Roddy took the count on one knee and the referee gave Carbone the decision. In the second round Carbone routed McDonald, who limped to his corner, and the referee then gave Roddy the decision on a foul, but Roddy was willing to continue after a doctor had examined him and told him he was in no condition to go on. The referee then withdrew his decision and the fight proceeded.

Fourteen of the fifteen started.

for export to foreign countries, which should give a decided stimulus to breeding and racing the light harness horse. Buyers from Italy, Denmark, France and England are securing the country for horses suitable for breeding and racing overseas.

Up to the middle of this month, the export agent of the National Trotting Association had issued sixty-seven certificates for the shipment of standard-bred horses from the port of New York, and as the foreign buyers have been extremely busy during the past few days, it is expected that all previous records for shipment during one month will have been broken.

BASEBALL. Favors Montreal in League. Jack Dunn says he is not paying any attention to the criticism being made about President Fultz of the International League. He says Fultz is the right man in the right place, and that there are enough votes in the league to re-elect him for another term.

The appeal which Pitcher Pol Perritt of the Giants made to the National Commission for a full share of the Giants' prize money for finishing second in the National League races has been dropped. The New York players voluntarily consented to let Perritt have a half share rather than carry the controversy to the commission. The Giants were not at all pleased over Perritt's action, because he pitched only nineteen innings all last season and was on the voluntarily retired list after Aug. 15.

All Stars Not 300 Hitters. A baseball player's ability to hit over 300 for several seasons does not necessarily stamp him as a useful player to his club. There have been many stars in the national pastime who have been able to get into the 300 class only once in their diamond careers. Tommy Leach, the old Pittsburgh outfielder, was considered a star in his day, but he was in the 300 class only once in his twenty years in the major leagues. Fred Merkle, the former first baseman of the Giants, has been in the major leagues eleven years, but only once, in 1912, did he get into the 300 class. Joe Tinker was a star in his day, but he got into the 300 class only once, that was in his last year in the majors, 1918. Terry Turner played with the Cleveland club for fifteen years and got into the 300 class only once.

Other players who got into the 300 class on only one occasion are: Scoops Carey in 1919; Harry Hooper, in 1911; Briscoe Lord, in 1911; Artie Hoffman, in 1910; Joe Birmingham, in 1911; Bob Bescher, in 1918; Jake Stahl, in 1912; and Jim Slagle, in 1902.

Acadia Defeats Mt. A. The western section of the Intercollegiate Football League was auspiciously opened at Sackville yesterday afternoon when Acadia lined up against the Mount Allison fifteen. The game resulted in a win for the former by a score of 13 to 0. The winners showed a decided superiority both in the scrim and in the back men, although the losers fought gamely to stave off defeat. In the first half Acadia scored two tries and converted one, making the score 8 to 0. In the second half weather over the Mt. A. goal line for another try, which was also converted. A large crowd witnessed the game.

ONTARIO NOT IN SYMPATHY

Deprecates Western Laxity—
Valuable Recommendations
Adopted by A. A. U.
Branch.

(Toronto Globe.)
The tenth annual meeting of the Ontario Branch, A. A. U. of C., on Saturday night was the most progressive and enthusiastic held for some years. The membership committee report as presented by Chairman J. De Gruchy showed an increase in membership of 80 per cent. over the preceding year.
President Armstrong presented his report, thanking the delegates for their confidence and assistance during his term of office. The report of the secretary, W. J. Smith, was full of timely subjects and suggestions for increasing the scope of the work.
Resolutions were presented by the secretary calling for an increase in sanction fees to non-members of the union, and the appointment of a finance committee to inquire into the condition of the branch funds, and recommended means for replenishing same. The members placed themselves on record as deprecating the wholesale reinstatement of a number of professional hockey players by some of the western provincial branches. The reported action of these branches in attempting to hoist the reinstatement of professionals such as "Mickey" Mackay, Barney Stanley and others on the shoulders of the union is contrary to the spirit and understanding given the western delegates before the special autonomy was granted the west. It tends to weaken the influence and confidence of the athletes at large in the union, and does not meet in any way with the approval of Ontario.
To conform with all other provincial branches it was the expression of opinion by the delegates that all athletes in every line of amateur athletics should take up registration cards with the branch. This is undoubtedly the ideal system, as it centralizes registration and is very satisfactory in results all over the Dominion. Certificates would only be granted by the different organizations on filing such cards. The onus of deciding the amateur status of any athlete then devolves on the union. Cards would be issued annually at a fee of 25c. The delegates were all in favor of the plan

YANKEES TO FIGHT FOR SERIES SHARE

To Base Action on Justice
Wagner's Recent Decision in the Mays Case.

New York, Oct. 28.—The owners of the Yankees expect that Judge Wagner's recent decision restraining President Ben Johnson from interfering with Carl Mays' contract with the New York club will result in the National Commission turning over to the players their share of the world's series receipts.
Colonel T. L. Huston, who with Colonel Jacob Ruppert owns the club, has just returned after a hunting trip in Canada, and said that the club would take immediate steps to see that the players got their money. The Yankees share of the world's series spoils has been held up pending the protest of the Detroit club of the games which Mays played. President Navin maintained that the Mays victories should be thrown out and that place awarded to Detroit.
The Yankees officials now take the stand that the permanent injunction insures the Yankees' share of the world's series. The club has not yet decided just what steps will be taken to force the payment. Colonel Huston said yesterday that the New York club would make demands on the National Commission to pay over the money to the New York players.
"A court decision backs our claim for third place," said Colonel Huston. "We will make formal demand on Mr. Johnson, and I am sure there will be no further recognition of Detroit's claim. Just as soon as a favorable reply is received from the American League we expect that the National Commission will pay over the money."
"Of course, we are pleased with Judge Wagner's decision," continued Colonel Huston, "but I could not see where we could lose after the evidence was presented. I intend to see that our players get the prize money as they merit."
Baseball men who were asked about the decision yesterday were inclined to think that President Johnson would not set the Mays case rest on Judge Wagner's decision, but would appeal the case to a higher court. If Johnson takes an appeal it will mean that the money will be held up for an indefinite time.

and it has been left over for an expression of opinion from the different organizations at their first meeting.
Owing to the retirement of President Armstrong and Secretary W. J. Smith a change in officers necessarily followed. The new officers are as follows: President, J. W. Ward of Hamilton; vice-president, J. De Gruchy; second vice-president, W. J. Smith; secretary, W. F. Trivett; treasurer, R. Hunt.

WILL MANAGE
CUBS AGAIN

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Rumors that Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago National League baseball club, would be supplanted before the next spring training season have been put to rest with the announcement that Mitchell would guide the Cubs' destinies in 1920. He already was under contract, but following a stockholders' meeting at which all the old officers and directors were re-elected, it was decided to pass a vote of thanks to Mitchell for his efforts the past year, and expressed confidence in his ability to land a pennant next year in order to silence the rumors. No financial statement was made public, but directors said a substantial profit was shown for the first time in several years.
Mitchell was formerly of the old St. John Alerts.
Three Sundays a Week.
Sarajevo, Bosnia, Oct. 30.—Sunday is observed three times a week here. Because there are 5,000 Turks in the city, Friday is the first Sunday. Then all the Turkish stores close and one day to some of the hundreds of mosques whose slender minarets gleam white against the green background of the hills.
Because 200 years ago a group of Spanish Jews settled in Bosnia, Saturday is Sunday for many Sarajevans. Then all the Jewish stores are closed and the Jews of the city crowd the big yellow synagogue of the main street.
Because all the rest of the 54,000 inhabitants of Sarajevo and hundreds of peasants from the hills around are Serbs and Bosnians, following both the Roman Catholic and the Greek Orthodox beliefs, the Sunday Sabbath is the biggest holiday of all in Sarajevo.
All the stores except the Turkish are closed. The churches are crowded with people dressed in every style from the latest Belgrade fashions to homespun trousers for both men and women, with huge headed shoes and wooden trousers. After that modern Sarajevo walks about the modern quarters and old-fashioned squares dance the "holo" in the big squares of the crowded Turkish bazaar.

Party of American Tourists

Violations Are Reported.
(Special to The Telegraph.)
Frederick, N. B., Oct. 26.—Cheaper shoes in the near future are a myth, according to a manufacturer of boots and shoes in this city. The reason why there can be no reduction in prices, he says, is that leather has advanced in price and the advance will be reflected directly in the price of the finished product. Stock which is being worked up into goods now for the spring trade cost the manufacturers fifty per cent more than did stock made up into goods sold for the trade this autumn.
This statement is not in accordance with the published accounts of lower prices for hides and leather. The manufacturer in question states that there is no basis for such stories and the public is being misled by them.
Five Friday night destroyed the barn belonging to Mrs. Jane Collett, Woodstock road, about two and a half miles from the city. How the fire started is not known, but the building and its contents including two horses, hay, oats and feed, were burned. The times were kept from the house by neighbors.

Exponents of Game.
New York, Oct. 28.—Charles F. Mathison writes in the Sun:
In view of the statements circulated regarding the American heavyweight wrestling title, a few facts and figures may be appropos. Earl Caddock of Annis is the holder of the American championship, and any claims made on behalf of Strangler Lewis, Joe Stecher, or Vlades Zbyzsko will not stand the test of an inspection of the records.
Caddock has beaten all three of the wrestlers named, and under conditions prescribed by promoters of the matches. Caddock met Joe Stecher, the body scientist expert, in a championship match at Onaska, in April, 1917, the conditions calling for the best two in three falls, first fall in 1 hour and 22 minutes, but Caddock came back and captured the second fall after a desperate struggle of 1 hour and 40 minutes. When the contestants were called for the third and decisive fall Stecher did not answer, and the referee necessarily awarded the fall and match to Caddock.
Beat Zbyzsko.
Caddock defeated Zbyzsko two out of three falls at Des Moines, Ia., on February 8, 1918, and again on May 8 of the same year Caddock defeated the Polisher on points after 2 hours and 30 minutes on the mat, the agreement being that if neither man gained a fall in the time limit of two and a half hours the referee was to select the winner on the basis of points, the same as in a boxing contest.
Caddock and Lewis met at Des Moines June 21, 1918, and Caddock defeated the Strangler on points in a contest lasting 2 hours and 20 minutes without either man scoring a fall.

Jockeys Return Home.
New York, Oct. 28.—Two prominent American jockeys who have achieved a high degree of success on European race tracks during the season will return to this country for visits in the immediate future. Frankie O'Neill, who rides for William K. Vanderbilt and who has piloted more than fifty winners out of 200 mounts, will return to his home on this side early in November, with his wife, for two months' vacation.
Matthew McGee also expects to return to America with his wife, and will visit his family in Cincinnati. McGee rides for Baron Edouard Rothschild and rates third this year among the jockeys on the French turf. He has ridden forty winners among 180 mounts, and only O'Neill and an English jockey named Bellhouse rank ahead of him.
Still another American jockey, Guy Garner, has had a great amount of success on the French courses. Garner ranks fifth next to an English jockey named Sharp. Garner rides for the Sknayan Stables.

TO ONE I LOVED.

When winter's winds are piercing chill
 And snows lie deep upon the ground,
 With solemn steps I tread the hill
 Where once we used to play around.

Alas! how changed since those glad days
 When daisies whitered all the land,
 And happy birdies' blithesome lays
 Sounded, to us, like a fairy band.

But you are gone, and now I stand
 Alone, upon this snow-clad hill,
 I long for the touch of your gentle hand,
 And my heart will not be still.

I long for the glance of your bright dark eyes
 And the sound of your happy voice,
 I long for the love I learned to prize
 Till it made my heart rejoice.

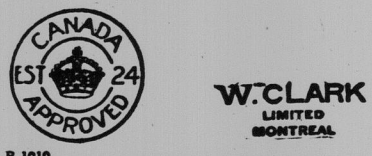

And I will miss you more, my love,
 Until that happy day
 When the gates of heaven are opened above
 And our hearts are light and gay.

CRYSTAL WHITE.

No long detailed argument is necessary to prove the attractiveness of Victory Bonds paying 5 1/2%.

You know this is a good rate of interest. You know it is nearly double the rate paid by Banks on savings.

Victory Bonds pay 5 1/2% and—it is what Victory Bonds pay IN ADDITION to 5 1/2% that you should keep in mind.
