

ROSS RESENTS CRITICISM OF COMMOD. JARVIS

Promoter of Canada's Challenge for America Cup Relys on Canada's Spirit to Bring Home Trophy.

JARVIS LACKS FAITH IN CANADIANS

Plenty of Trust Companies to Guarantee Morgan's Club the Substantial Backing it Requires.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—A. C. Ross, of Montreal, challenger for the America's Cup, said this afternoon, concerning the statement made in Toronto by Commodore Amelius Jarvis, of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, to the effect that he was not favorably disposed toward the suggestion of a Canadian challenge for the America's Cup.

"The statement given out by the Queen City Yachtmen is exactly the agency required to give a boost to the projected campaign."

Continuing, Mr. Ross said that the idea behind the Maple Leaf challenge was patriotism as well as sportsmanship, and that he did not think that Commodore Jarvis was exactly the one to give an opinion how the people of New York felt about the challenge.

"As to the cost of defending the cup when it is won, Commodore Jarvis' remarks almost suggest a lack of faith in a true sport instinct among Canadians, as a people. Away with me he thought, when the formal challenge of the Royal Cape Breton Yacht Club, of Sydney, is in the hands of the New York Club, the latter will be fully seized of all conditions surrounding the proposal, and will be satisfied of the challenging club's 'bonafides.'"

"As a business factor governing the entire proposition, the several Trust Companies of Canada will be party to the necessary arrangements. The Toronto Commission hints that this thing may fall flat if carried out through the popular subscription plan. Can it be that so prominent and successful a Canadian has such a small idea of Canadian pride and self-respect? For my own part, I have an unbounded conceit of Canadian patriotism and Canadian steadfastness. I can never forget the second battle of Ypres. Where Canadians go in the war they are fully prepared and determined to stay. 'We took Vimy, we'll take the cup'—our slogan from this day onward."

The first ball has been delivered, the game is in full swing, the new America's Cup race will be the United States vs. Canada. No "cold water" from whatsoever source smashing will now fix the issue. This is a popular movement, it is in the hands of the Canadian public and Canada must win.

UNCERTAINTY EXISTS IN NORRIS GOV'T

The Outcome of the Conference Held Thursday May Spell Disaster to Gov't.

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—Supporters in the legislature of Premier Norris who were seen today expressed the opinion that the Government's position in the House had not been impaired by yesterday's conference of the Independent Farmer-Labor and Conservative groups. "As long as the three other factions in the House fall to come to an understanding, the Government's position is unassailable," said one member.

"We recognize that an alliance between the progressive farmers and labor will be the basis of future government, but the labor party has its principles and will stand by them," said W. D. Bayley, labor member for Assiniboia today.

"At Thursday's meeting no common basis of action was reached between the Labor and Farmer members. Labor will absolutely stand by its platform and what we have been struggling for years to attain will not be sacrificed just to get into power a few months earlier. Labor has a perfectly clear policy and there will be no divergence from it on any grounds."

A. R. Bovin, Secretary of the Farmer-Independent group, made official announcement this afternoon that no definite line of common policy was decided upon yesterday and that there would be another conference in October.

George Little, member for Deseronto, stated that the Farmer-Independent group would be a positive body in the legislature irrespective of the actions of Conservative or Labor members.

FOUR HIGH FINANCE KINGS NOW IN JAIL

Have Been Accepting Millions from Investors and Schemes Turn Out Contrary to Law.

Boston, Aug. 13.—Four men who had accepted millions of dollars from new England investors in the last few months, on promises of payment of fabulous interest, were behind the bars tonight. Charles Ponz, whose speculative financial dealings have made his name known the continent over, was surrendered today by the man who furnished $25,000 bonds for his release after his arrest by the Federal authorities yesterday. Unable to find another bondsman, Ponz was taken to the Middlesex County Jail at East Cambridge.

CARONIA AT HALIFAX WITH LARGE LIST

Landed 500 Passengers and 600 Bags of Mail — Proceeds to New York Today With 1,200 Passengers.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 13.—After a run of five days nine hours and forty minutes from Liverpool via Queenstown, the Cunard liner Caronia arrived in port late this afternoon and docked tonight. She landed 500 passengers and 600 bags of mail. The steamer had good weather until off the Newfoundland coast when she encountered heavy fog. She covered 252 miles at an average speed of 17.26 knots an hour.

BONAR LAW SAYS DOM. HOME RULE

Dublin, Aug. 13.—The Freeman's Journal announces that E. Wylie, legal adviser to Viscount French, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has presented his resignation. Rather than accept the resignation, Lord French has asked Mr. Wylie to remain in the House of Commons, has promised to pledge the Government on Monday to Dominion Home Rule with full fiscal authority. Of course, comments the newspaper, the question of Ulster will be subject to discussion.

BERGS AND GROWLERS REPORTED FRIDAY

OTHER ARRESTS EXPECTED FROM HIGH FINANCE

Following Ponz's Clean-up Authorities Going After Other Money-Making Enterprises.

RUN MADE ON ANOTHER COMPANY

Which Offered 100 Per Cent. Interest in Six Months — Depositors Storm Institution.

Boston, Aug. 13.—Other arrests are expected within twenty-four hours as the further result of the investigation of spectacular financing which began when Charles Ponz's securities Exchange Company fell under suspicion.

Ponz, who was arrested yesterday by Federal authorities charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud, later was taken into custody by state authorities and released on bail, was surrendered by his bondsman Morris Rudnick today. Rudnick had given bonds of $25,000 in the Federal action and $10,000 in the State court. Ponz was turned over to the custody of United States Marshal Duane.

With the matter of Ponz's affairs pretty well in hand, Attorney-General J. Weston Allen has turned his attention to other money making enterprises which, it is claimed, have been conducted in violation of the law and to the loss of too credulous investors.

Patrons of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company, which offered 100 per cent. interest in six months on money which has continued in operation during the investigation of Ponz's affairs, started a run on the company's office in Devonshire street today. The crowd became so large that policemen were assigned to keep the people in line.

Charles M. Brightwell, treasurer of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company, told those who demanded the return of their investments that payments had been suspended for three or four days by advice of counsel. Some of the note-holders took the announcement calmly and left the office, but others remained declaring they would not leave until they received their money. Early in the afternoon the offices of the company were closed and during the rush of people the glass in the doors was broken. After that an armed guard stood inside the locked door.

MISLEADING REPORT CABLED TO CANADA

Sir George Foster Says Dominion Has Not Lost Orders for Wheat Totalling $25,000,000.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 13.—(Canadian Press)—In reply to a cabled newspaper report that the Dominion of Canada had lost an order for $25,000,000 worth of wheat as a result of removal of Governmental control, Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, says the statement is misleading. Sir George, interviewed by the Canadian Press, said: "It occurred that the demand for wheat for import by Greece has not been altered, and the source of supply remains as before, and the matter is no doubt being taken up under the normal conditions of trade now that the Wheat Board ceases to function for the present season's crop. It is unfortunate that the cablegram referred to is misleading in its positive statement that the Dominion has lost a $25,000,000 order. The Greek Government's needs are the same as before, and their desire for Canadian wheat is presumably just as strong. The only thing which is likely to take place is the change of standard through which the purchase should be made. The gist of the statement by cable is only contradictory of what is already well known here, that the Government is not, through the Wheat Board, undertaking the sale of Canada's wheat for the present year and that such sale, in marketing, assumes the channels and methods of normal times."

TRANSPORT TROUBLE ABOUT SETTLED

New York, Aug. 13.—A rapid return to normal conditions in New York harbor was expected today as a result of the settlement of long standing differences between coastwise steamship lines and union teamsters. James J. Riordan, president of the U. S. Trucking corporation, who announced the terms of settlement last night, said that the settlement, which for five months had refused to haul goods to and from piers during the longshoremen's strike, would have the teamsters at work today.

Officers of the International Longshoremen's association announced that a meeting had been called for tomorrow night to vote on the question of the dockmen resuming work. ## LABOR TAKES POSITION THAT IS DANGEROUS

At a Meeting in London Yesterday Made Plans to Block Gov't Moves in Russia.

GAUNTLET THROWN DOWN TO GOV'T

Demand Immediate Guarantees That British Forces Will Not be Used in Aid of Poles.

London, Aug. 13.—The opposition of British Labor to assistance in the war against Soviet Russia was voted today with extraordinary vehemence at a special conference here representing all elements of the workers.

The resolutions adopted, "hailed with satisfaction in Russian government's declaration in favor of the complete independence of Poland," and pledged the British Labor Party to resist any form of military intervention against Soviet Russia.

The meeting approved the action of the Triple Alliance of labor organizations in forming a council of action to resist any form of military intervention from the government policy toward the war between Russia and Poland, and it recommended the levy of a half penny upon every member of the party to raise a fund for the requirements of the council.

James H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, one of the principal speakers at the meeting, said that if circumstances demanded it would be for the whole labor movement to decide upon direct action.

"Desperate and dangerous as is our method," he continues, "we believe that the disease is so dangerous and so widespread that it is only desperate and dangerous methods that can prevent calamity. The resolutions do not mean that it is to be a mere strike or a simple 'down tools' policy. If they are to be effective they mean a challenge to the whole constitution of this country."

DURAND GUARANTEES

The conference concluded by singing the 'Internationale' and cheering enthusiastically. By its resolutions the council of action was instructed to remain in being until it secured guarantees that the British forces would not be used in support of Poland, General Wrangel or any other military or naval effort (against) the Soviet government and the establishment of unrestricted trading and commercial relations between Great Britain and Russia.

PARIS POLICE OFFICIALS HAVE NO RECORD OF MAN SAID TO HAVE BEEN SEEN AT DEATH CHAMBER

Paris, Aug. 13.—There is no record of Ambrose Small, the Canadian theatrical man who disappeared last winter, at the Paris morgue.

NO RECORDS OF SMALL AT MORGUE

Paris police headquarters, the Canadian Commissioner and the British Embassy have no trace of Small.

A report was published yesterday that Louis P. Verande, a French impresario, who knew Small, had identified the theatrical man's body at the morgue.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—At the annual meeting of the Ontario Steel Products Ltd., at Gananoque, the proposal of the directors to increase the capital of the company from $1,500,000 to $2,750,000 was unanimously ratified. The old board of directors was re-elected.

LIBERALS USING N. S. FARMERS AS CATSPAW

Gilbert N. Allen, M. P. P., Leading Winning Farmer Candidate in Cumberland Co., Gives Views.

DESCRYS ACTION OF FARMERS THERE

Murrayism Allied With Ottawa Liberals Main Force Behind Colchester County Farmers.

Truro, N. S., Aug. 13.—"What do you think of the action of the Colchester Farmers?" was a question put to Mr. Gilbert N. Allen, M. P. P., of Cumberland County, and Farmer M. P. P. elect for that County, last evening, at a meeting of the Truro Farmers' Association to oppose Hon. F. B. McDurdy in Colchester.

"I am opposed to the action taken," said Mr. Allen decisively. "Let me tell you why. I came to Truro to point out certain palpable facts in the interest of the Farmer movement in Nova Scotia, and I have done so. These are they:—

"In the first place, I denounced Murrayism and joined the Farmers in Cumberland, because Murrayism is causing stagnation in Nova Scotia. It is made up of coercion, confiscation, cheap parish politics and contemptible wire pulling. The Provincial Conservative Party is no better in ideas and performance. But it has passed off the stage."

"The Farmer movement was started I saw an opportunity to join for something better. We won in Cumberland by eschewing Murrayism, and combating the Conservative Machine with headquarters in Amherst. The verdict of the people there was not so pronounced as in Cumberland. But it was signal enough. There was this difference though—the Liberals did not oppose the Colchester Farmers in the Provincial fight. But the Liberal party in Nova Scotia elsewhere fought us; and when, as a general result, the head way we made was not shown to be pronounced in favor of Messrs. Fielding and Macgregor King joined Mr. Murray and the Morning Chronicle in justifying our non-success."

"Now I came to Truro with a very fixed suspicion in my mind that the abstention of the Liberals from opposing the Colchester Farmers was not altogether animated by friendship. We had speakers from Colchester in Cumberland during the campaign just closed. Their silence respecting Murrayism was absolute. And now I find that opposition to Mr. McDurdy, and not friendship for the Farmers, explains the lack of Liberal candidates in the fight just finished. An entangling alliance, eh?"

STMR. MORTARA TOTAL LOSS

NO DECISION ON RY. RATES

It is understood that the board arrived at a decision this afternoon regarding the application of the American Railway Association, but it was not made public. ## BOLSHEVIK CLOSING IN ON WARSAW

Little Doubt is Felt That They Will be in the Capital Before Peace Negotiations Are Ended.

Paris, Aug. 13.—Closing upon Warsaw from the north, east and south-east, the Bolsheviki hosts are now within twenty miles of the capital and little doubt is felt here that they will be in the city before the peace negotiations are concluded.

General Haller's army, holding positions along the Vistula, Narow and Bug Rivers in a country offering few natural advantages for defence, is being relentlessly pushed toward the capital by the Bolsheviki who are speeding up their advance.

The Northern Reds, according to the latest news reaching Paris tonight, had passed Pivkai and were marching southward on the capital down the valley of the Narow. Another column was advancing between the Narow and the Bug, while south of the Bug the enemy had reached and passed the line running from Tusscz through Pivkai, Dobro, Kaluszyn, Tseglow and Latowich to Latowich to Zaleschoff.

FORMER RUSSIAN OFFICERS URGED TO ASSIST REDS

Bolshevists Appeal to Them to Help Save Russia from Invasion.

CLAIM POLISH AIM IS MORE TERRITORY

Profess to be Only Fighting to Preserve Boundaries of Great Russian Empire.

Public Ledger Bureau, Washington, Aug. 13.—The text of a remarkable appeal addressed to all former Russian officers by the special advisor board attached to the headquarters of the Bolsheviki armies, have been received in official circles here. It follows:—

"The free Russian people have freed to its own desire. Impulses of conscience compel us, too, to work in the interest of and for the freedom and glory of our native land. This is especially urgent in the present stormy times when the brotherly and dear to us, Polish people, but who also suffered much from foreign oppression, were suddenly possessed of the desire to wrest from us lands populated from time immemorial by Russian elements."

"No matter under which flag and with what promises the Poles march against us and the Ukraine, no matter what the official pretext for this war, the real aims of the Polish campaign is exclusively the restoration of aggressive designs on Lithuania and White Russia, which they wish to swallow up, and the exclusion of a portion of the Ukraine and a new Russia with a port on the Black Sea. It is their ambition to acquire a frontier from sea to sea."

"We, your senior comrades at arms, address ourselves, in this critical moment to our country, to your sense of love for and devotion to your native land and appeal to you to forget all the grievances however and wherever inflicted on you and invite you to come voluntarily compelled by self-abnegation to join the Red army and of take service at the front or behind it wherever the Russian Soviet Government of workmen and farmers may assign you."

FRANCE IN TOW IS CHARGE BY FRENCH SENATOR

Henry Berenger Complains That Lloyd George Leads Millerand.

ATTACKS FOREIGN POLICY OF FRANCE

French Offices Have Been Closed and All the Information Comes from the British Press.

Paris, Aug. 13.—Senator Henry Berenger, wartime chief of the army commission of the Senate, today in the Paris Midi put into words what many Frenchmen are thinking concerning the present political situation, following the same line as the recent utterances of Jules Cambon, president of the council of ambassadors to the Public Ledger.

Senator Berenger under the heading "France in Tow" writes: "One more Millerand has been sent to England to learn from Lloyd George what the latter has decided or has not decided from his conversations with the Soviet representatives. Afterward, France will be more or less informed—less rather than more—and more or less engaged—more rather than less. It was thus that matters were arranged at Spa with the Germans. Lloyd George decided and Millerand followed. Afterward the French Parliament was crossed with Lloyd George—who is responsible only to the British Parliament. Anyhow M. Millerand sent the French Parliament on a vacation, no doubt because he can conduct our foreign policy when testate only with President De Gaulle.

"The result: Germany of Spa promised to disarm within six months, but since then she again menaces us with war, Germany as Spa promised to furnish us, against a billion marks in gold, half of the coal provided under the treaty without this billion as ransom. That is the boche side of the story. The boche side is a pleasing one. Whereas Millerand struts about saying I do not talk with the Soviet, Lloyd George talks with them—of our little affairs as well as England's. Red Russia now has been able to invade Poland, talk with Austria, talk with Italy, talk with Germany, talk even with the Right Honorable Lloyd George without France taking part in any talk except by invitation of Lloyd George to Millerand to come to the villa of Philip Sassoon.

"This has been the result of the towline from the Pas de Calais to the Vistula, crossing both the Rhine and the Danube. Lloyd George, after the game of gold, placed before Millerand the accomplished fact, which are then 'communicated' to the French Parliament—when it is in session. This is what we call in our democracy of victory keeping a promise.

"We are in tow. Whither goes our tugboat? "Lloyd George says he will tell it to the House of Commons. We will learn it from the British press, for it is evident that not in the palace of the Elysee or the Palais Bourbon, or the palace of Luxembourg will France stand a chance of getting information. All these establishments are closed for the summer.

"And the League of Nations takes hats at St. Sebaste. "Happily on the east there is the wireless of the San Calottes, of Moscow, and on the north the bulletin of the weekly variations of Lloyd George. Without these republican France would finish by knowing no more of what is good for her than the carp at Rambouillet."

Golf Championship Goes To England

Edward Ray of Great Britain Did the Trick With a Score of 295 for 72 Holes.

Toledo, Aug. 13.—Edward Ray of Great Britain today won the United States open golf championship at Inverness with a score of 295 for 72 holes, thus carrying the cup to England for the second time. Harry Vardon having won the title twenty years ago and holding only two strokes of capturing it again today. It was only by a stroke that the long driving British snatched the honor. Leo Diegel and Jack Hutchinson, Chicago, and Jack Burke, St. Paul, missing long putts by inches to tie the score of the winner, who also outstripped his countryman, Vardon, by a single stroke. Vardon seemed to have the title clinched nearly a day ago, starting only slightly behind this morning and leading by a stroke at the end of the first 18 holes with 213. Leo Diegel and Jack Hutchinson had 219, and Ray 220. Vardon increased his chances by scoring 36, one over par on the first nine of the last round, but he began to miss his shots both from the tee and on the green, taking six on the 522 yard twelfth and the 430 yard seventeenth, and three fives for a 42 on the final 9.

Ray said he had expected to win from the United States contestants, but had felt that he would outplay Vardon, especially after Vardon led him at the end of today's first round. He accepted the cup emblematic of the title with brief words of thanks and the trophy will repose at Okeby Club, England, until someone else wins it. Ray has gained a reputation as a long driver, but he did not extend himself during the contest, taking more care to keep in the narrow path out of trouble. His putting was good nearly all the time, and he sank a forty foot one in the forenoon. His irons were well cut and for the most part well judged for resistance. He was tied for the prize winners by rounds and total for 72 holes: Edward Ray, Eng., 74 73 78 295; Harry Vardon, Eng., 74 73 71 294; Leo Diegel, Chicago, 74 73 72 294; Jack Burke, St. Paul, 77 72 72 296; J. O. K. Hutchinson.

Chicago, 69 76 74 77—296; James Barnes, Chi., 74 76 78 298; Louis, 76 70 76 76—298; Bobby Jones, Atlanta, 78 74 70 77—299; Willie Macfarlane, 76 75 74 74—299; N. Y. Y. Hackney, 76 75 74 74—299; Bob McDonald, Chi., 73 78 71 78—300; W. Walter, Hagen, Detroit, 74 73 77 78—302; C. W. Hackney, 78 74 74 76—302; P. McLeod, Wash., 75 77 73 79—304; M. J. Rain Interferes With Grand Circuit Races

Another Record Went by the Boards Yesterday, Juno Stepping Mile in 2.02 3-4.

North Randall, Cleveland, Aug. 13.—Rain, which came up late today, caused a postponement of the Grand Circuit racing here after three races had been decided and Juno had won two of the three heats in the Leader Purse of $5,000, for 2.08 paces. The third heat is to be raced tomorrow to decide the money division. The rain came just after Favoian, odds-on favorite, had won the second and deciding heat of the News Sweepstakes, purse $2,250 for two year old trotters.

Another record went by the boards today when Juno, in stepping the first mile of the 2.08 pace in 2.02 3-4, set a record for the stake. Juno came from behind in both heats. In the second heat practically every entry took a turn at setting the pace. Foxy Ann, Red Lancelot and Calgary Earl went into breaks, but Red Lancelot, favorite, came with a rush in the stretch and landed third place. Foxy Ann, Tommy Murphy's horse, driven by V. Fleming, was distanced in this mile after finishing third in the first heat. In the second heat it was necessary for the judges to pick out the second and third horse which finished close behind the leader. Both divisions of the 2.14 pace on today's card were postponed until tomorrow. Eight races will be decided tomorrow weather permitting. All will be raced on a two heats of three basins. Summary:

"Pretty Kitty Kelly"

HERE'S a new song by wonderful new tenor, Hugh Donovan. It is a typical Irish song with a sweet melody, and the introduction of "My Wild Irish Rose," adds a pleasing and finishing touch. "Tripoli" on the opposite side, is a dreamy waltz number, sung with good effect by the same artist.

 A. Montague, One of the Greatest Long Distance Men in England, is Out of the Game Owing to Weak Heart.
 Antwerp, Aug. 13.—The Olympic stadium was well filled with spectators to see the athletes of many nations practice in track and field events. The workouts occupied several hours, the athletes representing Egypt, South Africa, France, Japan, England, the United States and Czechoslovakia. The international stars were watched and timed by rival coaches. B. G. D. Rudd, the Oxford sprinter and middle distance runner, representing South Africa, worked out impressively. Joe Ray, the United States miler, breezed a half-mile just outside two minutes, while Guillemot, ran 4,000 metres in wonderful form and finished strong.
 The Swedish track team, 63 strong arrived in Antwerp Tuesday evening in charge of coach Ernie Hjertberg, famous as a distance runner years ago.
 The manager of the Japanese team, after seeing the other athletes work out declared that the best chances that the Japanese had in the Olympia were in the marathon and in the 10,000 metres race.
 The advance guard of the English team says that the team will be a small one, but five entrants are of high class calibre. A. Montague, one of the greatest long distance runners in England, has been ordered retired from the team on account of a weak heart.

Cyclists Having Stiring Times

Antwerp, Aug. 13.—Canadian bicyclists did not win places in the Olympic velodrome events. Georges, of Belgium, won the 50 kilometre race in 1 hour, 16 minutes, 43 seconds. Alden, of England, was second, and Keilar, of Holland, was third.
 Herbert Macdonald, of Toronto, was placed fifth in this race, but the other Canadians who were entered dropped out or were outdistanced.
 Out of twenty-four starters in the race, only ten finished, most of the others being carried off by the truck. Ryan and Lence, of England, won the tandem race in 2 minutes 49 1-5 seconds. Smith and Walker, the South Africans, rode a steady race and looked like the winners, but were pocketed near the finish line, where occurred what proved to be the worst of the day's many spills.
 The team pursuit final was won by Italy. Though the English team was first, it was put out on a protest. The winning time was 5 minutes 13 4-5 seconds. Canada was eliminated from this race Monday.
 The velodrome resembled a wartime field hospital at the close of the events. Although no one was seriously injured, there were a number of nasty spills.
 The fifty kilometre race entailed 125 laps on the steep track. There was much rough riding in this, as well as in the other. A White, an English contestant, was struck over the heart by the set of another competitor during the pursuit race. He was laid out for two hours and when he gained consciousness had to be carried away.

Polo Grounds May Be Site For Fight
 New York, Aug. 13.—Champion Jack Dempsey will probably fight Bill Brennan on October 12 at the Polo Grounds in New York, according to reports today. Articles for the fight were signed Wednesday by the managers of the two heavyweights, the place and date of the bout remaining to be chosen.
 The International Sporting Club will be given the opportunity of staging the bout, in case the New York State law governing boxing matches is effective by that time. October 12, Columbus Day, is a holiday in New York.
 Although no fights have ever been staged at the Polo Grounds, it is understood that the present management is not averse to permitting use of the stadium for boxing.

Door Slammed in Face of Protes Servers—Physician Claims Illness for Baseball Manager.

New York, Aug. 13.—District Attorney Swann announced late today that he would present to the Grand Jury, without further effort to interview J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, the case of John C. Slavin, a actor, who was found Sunday night unconscious in front of the McGraw home.
 Assistant District Attorney Unger said that he would issue subpoenas for all witnesses, save McGraw, to appear before the grand jury next Tuesday morning.
 Mr. Swann made his announcement after McGraw today, for the second time, had failed to appear at the District Attorney's office to give his version of how Slavin received a fracture of the skull after leaving the Lambs' Club-house with him in a taxi-cab. The only word received from McGraw today came from his physician who sent a special delivery letter to Mr. Swann stating that the baseball man was under his care and too ill to leave the house. A subpoena server, previously sent to the McGraw home, reported to Mr. Swann that he had had the door slammed in his face and had been unable to serve the "request" subpoena with which he was armed.
 Mr. Swann, who has charged that an attempt is being made to "cover up" in the Slavin case, showed no disposition to accept the physician's note at face value, and this afternoon sent a county medical examiner, one of his own assistants, and a stenographer to the McGraw home. They were refused admittance. It is expected representatives of Mr. Swann will attempt tomorrow to question Slavin further regarding the manner in which he came by his injuries. Slavin's condition today was reported improved.

MacKinnon Stables For St. John Races

Special to The Standard.
 Mooncton, N. B., Aug. 13.—Major D. A. McKinnon, who won distinctions in the Canadian Artillery in the war and who has been a prominent figure in harness racing in Prince Edward Island and throughout the Maritime Provinces, announced here this evening that his stable would go to St. John for the Maritime Racing Association's first meeting on August 26th, 27th and 28th. White Sox, 2:03 1-3, is a member of the McKinnon stable, and the inclusion of this mare means that the Royal Hotel purse of $600 for free-for-all pacers is bound to have a good field. Mayor Todd, 2:15 1-4, a veteran trotter, and Dick C., which had a racing record of 2:19 1-4 before being converted to a pacer, are also members of the stable. Orwell Bell, another P. E. Island trotter, as well as Corwin Hat, 2:13 1-4, the sensational eleven-year-old pacer, and Miss Elred will be among the other Island horses at St. John. There is every indication now that the St. John meetings will both have good entry lists, as the campaigning horsemen are rallying to the support of the management.

"Mugsy" Defies All Authorities

Antwerp, Aug. 13.—(By Canadian Associated Press)—The Canadians here took a last spin this afternoon. Manager Merrick in an interview said that, despite indifferent training facilities, the team was as fit as smoke. Phillips had injured his knee and MacDiarmid had strained his back but all had recovered. Prospects are good. Their nearest competitors are the Swedes, Finns and Americans.
 Meet Likely.
 The young woman who is heard to remark that for a week she must hunch on a roll and a glass of water is probably accumulating a vacation fund, or has just returned from visiting a summer resort.

SENSELESS OPPOSITION.

The nomination of Captain Dickson to oppose the Hon. F. B. McCurdy in Colchester is just as ill-timed and ill-advised as opposition to Mr. Wigmore would be in St. John. Flushed, we presume, with its recent victory in the Provincial arena, the Farmers' party in the constituency is apparently under the impression that it can carry all before it. This party is to be assisted by the Labor Union, and between them they expect to win out.

Just what the farmers and labor have in common is not easy to understand, and such an alliance can hardly be described as a natural one. Still, a combination of farmer and labor members has enabled Mr. Drury to carry on the government in Ontario, without it he could not have lasted. But the aims of the Farmers' party are certainly not those of organized labor. One of the chief purposes of the labor leaders is to restrict the hours of work to less than the ordinary time. The farmer, on the other hand, finds all the available hours too short a time in which to accomplish all he has to do. If class interests have to be considered, the interests of the farmers and those of the laborer are likely to be found in conflict.

What, we may ask, is steadily drawing the young men from the farms? The lure of high wages? What is the one end and aim of labor at this juncture? Increased production? There is no evidence of it. The one object sought is still higher wages. Why is it that with wages in the country as high as they now are, it is impossible to obtain trained help? Because even these high wages are looked upon as inadequate by unskilled labor. If, then, it is possible for the farmer and the trade-unionist to work together, since their interests are so diametrically opposed?

Sensible farmers will at once insist upon the immediate dissolution of the unnatural alliance between their party and the labor unions. The farmers' true interest is with that class that holds to the sacred right of private property. When the alliance was first formed, the farmer was led into a trap, which will, if he does not take care, sooner or later destroy him. Labor unions cannot help him. Shorter hours will ruin him; a minimum wage dictated by a walking delegate would lead him into bankruptcy. A strike of transportation workers at a critical season would kill his season's work; every strike by increasing wages without corresponding production hits the farmer. Which ever way he looks, he stands to lose.

Moreover, a further indication of the rift that lies between the interests of these parties is to be found in a recent article in the Toronto Farmers' Star, the official organ of the United Farmers of Ontario, which characterizes the demand of the railway workers for increased wages as "simply outrageous." "A farmer," says the writer, "on 100 acres of good average land does well if his income, representing the wages of himself and family, and allowing nothing for interest on a $10,000 investment, equals that demanded by a railway switchman. That farmer would be considered in the plutocratic class whose yearly income, on the same basis, equalled that of a freight conductor."

In view of Mr. Mackenzie King's request to his followers that they should oppose the re-election of members of the Government, it may be asked why does the Liberal party stand aside in Colchester, and leave the fight to the farmers? And what do the latter expect to gain if they should elect a member to replace Mr. McCurdy? The Farmers' party in Parliament, such as it is, is an entirely negligible quantity, utterly unable to do anything except blindly oppose the Government. Mr. McCurdy is in a position to help his constituency; his former opponent will be as helpless in this direction as a baby in arms.

RAILWAY RATE INCREASES.

According to Mr. D. B. Hanna, of the C. N. R., the costs of operation of all Canadian railways in 1916 was 68.9 per cent; for the year ended June 30th, 1919, 89.26 per cent; and at the present time it must be close to 95 per cent. Mr. Beatty, of the C. P. R., says that as far as that road is concerned the operating expenses in 1916 were 63.87 per cent; in 1919, 81.85; and for the year ending June last, 83.27 per cent. Mr. Beatty further says that with the increase in wages sanctioned by the McAdoo award, the revenue of the C. P. R. will not be sufficient to pay the cost of operation, and also fixed charges and dividend, even with a 20 per cent. increase in freight traffic and a 10 per cent. increase in passenger traffic.

The C. N. R. is, of course, in much the same plight, but with this road it is a matter of choice whether the de-

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Railway Wages. (Hamilton Herald.) General Manager Hanna of the C. N. R. tells us that out of every dollar earned by the National railways 30 cents go for wages. When some labor leaders learn this they may demand to be informed why the railway workers are being robbed of that remaining 70 cents.

He Should Have. (Hamilton Times.) Premier Drury has granted a large slice of New Ontario, including Kapuskasing, to an American syndicate, which will build a mill and manufacture pulp and paper. We hope he has seen to it that no abuses can creep into the bargain.

Sour Grapes. (Halifax Herald.) The truth is, no doubt, that Mr. Dewar's bitter hostility to the U. F. O. is a case of sour grapes. If the farmer-member had accepted him as their leader, all would have been well and they would have been splendid specimens of Canadian manhood in his eyes.

The Quebec Language. (Toronto Globe.) As a mark of courtesy to the Imperial Press Conference, Le Canada of Montreal printed in the English language its article welcoming the delegates to the city. The article, incidentally, corrects a common error: "Those among our visitors who know French—and they must be the majority—will find that the language which our people speak contains no patois whatever, but the French spoken in France, with an accent to be found more especially in Normandy and Picardy."

Are We Brutal?

(Saskatoon Phoenix.) Four million men are still at war in the world. We are in no wise, however, inclined to despair. The transition from world war to world peace cannot be made in a day. The trouble with war is that it lets loose all the brutal predatory instincts inherent in our blood which usually lie dormant in times of peace. Hence the inevitable outcropping at present of ancient grudges the world over, and even communities hitherto peaceful are divided into numerous feuds and factions. The fact is that there is not, perhaps, a man amongst us, however cultured he may be, who is not at the present time more uncivilized and brutal as the result of the late war than he would otherwise have been. The only cure we know is the foolishness of preaching, and the will to patiently work for peace.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE MADONNA OFF THE CURB.

I. On the curb of a city pavement, By the ash and garbage cans, In the stench and rolling thunder Of motor trucks and vans, There sits my little lady, With brave but troubled eyes, And in her arms a baby That cries, and cries, and cries.

II. She cannot be more than seven, But years go fast in the slums, And hard on the pains of winter The pitiless summer comes. The wall of sickly children, She knows, she understands, The pangs of puny bodies, The clutch of small, hot hands.

III. In the deadly haze of summer, That turns men faint and mad, She tells the peevish urchins By toiling a dream she had— A heaven with marble columns, And ice, and a singing fan, And a God in white, so friendly— Just like the drugstore man.

IV. Her rugged dress is doleful Than the perfect robe of a queen, Poor little one, who knows not The blessing of being clean, And when you are giving millions To Armenia, Pole and Serb, Remember my pitiful lady— Madonna of the Curb! —Christopher Morley.

THE LAUGH LINE

Hopless. Will reading about those Paris silk stockings at $200 a pair discourage any young man from getting married? —Boston Globe. Not so long as they see hosiery on display in the five and ten cent store windows.—Portland Evening Express. The newly-married husband will find it pretty hard work to convince wifey that love is behind his suggestion that she wear the ten-cent kind.—Lewiston Journal.

Most Likely.

The young woman who is heard to remark that for a week she must lunch on a roll and a glass of water is probably accumulating a vacation fund, or has just returned from visiting a summer resort.

Making Himself Useful.

"Golly, but I'm tired!" exclaimed a tall and thin negro, meeting a short and stout friend. "Well, if you been doin' to get tired," demanded the other. "Well," exclaimed the thin one, drawing a deep breath, "over to Brother Smith's are mesurin' de house for some new carpets. Dey haven't got no yardstick and I've just exactly six feet tall. So to oblige Brother Smith, I've been a layin' down and gettin' up all over de house." —Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

Chance for Women.

"One-man cars are to be introduced here," remarked the girl who clutched a stray. This will be welcome news to women who find all the seats occupied by men at present.

Resigned to It.

They had just become engaged, when the fair young thing said shyly: "I have a surprise for you, dear. I can cook just as well as I can play the piano." "It doesn't matter, dearest," said the man, who had heard her play. "We can live in a boarding house, you know." —Stray Stories.

MOSCOW A PICTURE OF DESTRUCTION

Member of Lithuanian Peace Delegation Opens up on Conditions There.

POPULATION LESS THAN ONE MILLION

Starvation Everywhere Evident—Lenine Employs Army of Spies and Populace Terrified—Streets in Filthy Condition.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.)

Copenhagen, Aug. 13.—A prominent member of the Lithuanian peace delegation to Russia, after returning from Moscow, sent the following description of conditions in the old Russian capital to the official organ of the Danish government, "The Berlingske Tidende."

"Moscow, the sacred city of old Russia, whose population before the war exceeded two millions, has now considerably less than one million inhabitants but as all wooden buildings have been demolished and used for fuel during last winter, there are practically no vacant houses.

"There is one armed Red Guard for every fifteen civilians and, besides these 70,000 Red Guards, Lenin employs 30,000 spies and secret agents to discover possible counter-revolutionary plots.

"The streets, which recently were filthy beyond description, have now been cleaned to a certain extent by forced labor on the part of men and women belonging to the best classes of society, but all refuse from the houses is still thrown into the streets, swept together in piles and burned on the spot, filling the air with a stench that chings to you for days.

"Before the war there were very few motor cars and cycles in Moscow, now every Bolshevik owns at least one, part of the booty from the fights with the armies of Denekine and Koltshak or the British troops. All Bolshevik secretaries are wearing British Uniforms.

"As business activity is concentrated around Suckareva Paschnia Square, where merchandise valued at 25 million roubles is dealt in daily. A dog costs 20,000 roubles, cats are used only for sausage meat, while beef has long ago disappeared, but some horse meat is still to be had.

"By the orders of Lenin all work begins at sunrise, but the entire lack of coal has paralyzed all industry, and the factories are closed. The principal work done is the cutting up of timber for fuel and the repairing of locomotives.

"Typhoid fever is raging throughout the city, but even more dangerous to the young generation is jaundice, which claims thousands of victims daily. There are plenty of schools, but no pupils attend, as everybody is busy getting the means of keeping body and soul together.

"Lenin is a past master of the art and tricks of Potemkin, and whenever a delegation of foreign visitors is expected, his stage managers get to work, as was seen during the visit of the representatives of British labor factories, carefully selected and cleaned, are filled with prosperous-looking workers, coal is brought from the hoarded stores of the Bolsheviks and the machinery is set humming. Schools are filled with clean, healthy children, carefully rehearsed, and the farce is kept going until after the inspection, when everything immediately disappears again.

"We were apparently permitted to go wherever we pleased, but our every step was doored by spies and I was glad to shake the dust of Moscow on my feet.

"In anti-Bolshevik circles a sudden overthrow of Lenin and his government is considered impossible, as no other party would dare take the responsibility of governing, and all citizens of prominence have been wiped out. The Bolsheviks have entirely annihilated the intelligent classes. In Moscow alone 30,000 have been executed, while the total number murdered throughout Russia is estimated at nearly 200,000. Many thousands have been deported to the Siberian mines. Lenin has promised to restore personal freedom and private initiative as soon as the Poles shall have been definitely vanquished."

Harvesters Leaving For The Far West

Number Leaving the City Last Evening Not as Large as the First Lot—Empress Brought Large Number from Digby.

The number of Harvesters who left yesterday for the West by the two C. P. R. trains, leaving at eight and eleven o'clock last night, numbered 1,925, about half the number of those leaving by the first excursions. The number going via the C. N. R. were about the same as the first excursion, some forty five, making a connection via McGiveney and Moncton.

The steamer Empress on her arrival in the city last evening had over four hundred passengers, and the greater majority were harvesters and many of these were returned soldiers. A fine looking lot of men bound to take in the harvest in the voyage across the bay. On the west were well looked after during arrival here two gangways were put out and the many passengers were quickly discharged, there was no delay and in a few minutes after the ship was made fast to the pier the passengers were on their way to the depot and all ready for their long trip to the West.

Police Court Cases Yesterday

Annie Baxter Charged With Larceny of Carpet and Oil Cloth — Liquor and Other Cases Dealt With.

Annie Baxter, 345 Brussels street, was sent up for trial by the police magistrate yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing carpet and oil cloth to the value of $25 from Mrs. Addison, Brussels street.

The complainant said she had been absent from her home for some time having an injured hand treated at the General Public Hospital and on her return home found a roll of carpet and another of oil cloth missing and reported the matter to the police.

Detective Biddiscombe stated he received a report of the theft from Mrs. Addison on the 8th of August. Accompanied by Detective Donahue he went to the house of the accused on the 13th and recognizing some oil cloth on the kitchen floor as that described by the complainant. He asked the prisoner where she got it and she replied she found it in the yard. When asked if she had found anything else she said no. A further search was made of the house and a roll of carpet was found at the foot of one of the beds. It also answered a description furnished to the department. When questioned as to the carpet defendant stated she had also found it in the yard. She was then arrested and brought to the police station.

Detective Donahue corroborated Detective Biddiscombe's evidence.

The accused said she found the carpet and oil cloth in her yard when she went out to empty some ashes. She had never been in Mrs. Addison's house and did not know the goods were hers until a Mrs. Grear said so.

The magistrate said it was unfortunate that stealing was becoming so prevalent in the city that not only men but young boys and women were committing thefts. He then sent the prisoner up for trial.

A case against Louis Hurutz, 25 Long Wharf, charged with having liquor in his possession was concluded, and the defendant allowed to go on a deposit of $50 for his future appearance when needed.

E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendant and held that the information had been laid on the grounds that the defendant's was a lodging house as there were four lodgers. It had been proved that the fourth lodger was an imbecile and was kept through charity, so that the house was not a lodging house within the meaning of the act. He moved that the case be dismissed.

W. M. Ryan for the prosecution contended that the fact of the lodger's paying or not paying in no way changed the status of the house.

The magistrate reserved his judgment on the point raised and asked that the case be sent to the Supreme Court as a test case that a ruling might be obtained.

A case against William T. Bell charged with selling liquor was allowed to stand until this morning at ten o'clock.

The case against Hyman Taxar charged with receiving stolen goods knowing them to be stolen was resumed by the prosecution and Heber S. Keith for the defendant.

A case against Arthur Bastard charged by his wife with attacking her was postponed for a week.

Carl Poterneck charged with being drunk and also with shouting on Brussels street, pleaded not guilty. A fine of $8 or two months in jail was imposed for each charge.

James Demain, charged with interfering with a police officer in the performance of his duty was allowed to go on suspended sentence. Inspector Merryfield said that as there was a position waiting for the man and he had been in jail for some time already he did not wish to press the charge. A fine of $80 or ten months in jail was struck, but allowed to stand.

The case against Frank Doran of supplying liquor illegally was postponed till Monday at ten o'clock and he was allowed to go on putting up a deposit of $200 for his appearance.

Two protectionists were held for investigation.

FINAL PRICES WENT SKYWARD

Market Gave An Impressive Exhibition of Strength Yesterday.

New York, Aug. 13.—The stock market gave an impressive exhibition of strength today. Final prices went 1 to 7 points higher for many fractional shares. The rise effaced the greater part of the week's earlier loss and carried many leaders well above last Saturday's close.

Buying had its origin in the opinion that the market, at least for the time being, had been liquidated and that a turn for the better had set in. Inquiry embraced practically the entire list. The steels, oils, chemicals, shippings, equipments, tobaccos, food, motor, rubber, textiles and high and low priced railroad shares, were purchased on a steadily ascending scale.

When speculators for the decline began to cover, they found stocks scarce and were forced to bid up prices rapidly to secure a sufficient supply. Total sales, approximated 400,000 shares.

Foreign news was relegated to the background as a factor, and there was more inclination to take account of the strength of sterling and the plentiful supplies of call money for speculative purposes.

Reports that the long pending merger of various chemical corporations would be completed and the declaration of a 300 per cent. stock dividend for the Standard Oil Company of New York were additional stimulating influences. Improvement in the high-class railroad shares was attributed to purchases by investment interests.

Bonds maintained their recent uneven course. Foreign issues were well sustained, but Liberty and Victory issues continued to give way. United States old governments were unchanged on call. Total sales, par value, $7,500,000.

MARKET HELD TONE OF STRENGTH

(McDougall and Cowans.)
New York, Aug. 13.—The market held its tone of quiet strength in the early afternoon even though trading was not very active. A few specialties made rather sharp advances but for the most part stocks held their morning gains or added slightly to them.

In the last hour call money loaned at 6 per cent, after having ranged at 7 per cent, early in the day and this, together with the firmness of the foreign exchange market brought added pressure upon the shorts to cover.

Generally speaking the best prices of the day were made in the late trading and at the close of the exchange the active list showed net gains ranging from fractions to two points or more. There was little in the afternoon news either foreign or domestic to exert a positive influence upon security prices.

Sales, 395,000.

London, Aug. 12.—The five secret Sinn Fein documents considered at the Sinn Fein meeting in Dublin, which I am able to cable today, tell the story of Irish war on Great Britain, of the Irish boycott of the Royal Irish Constabulary, of methods used to care for the wounded and to guard their identity. They reveal the difficulties of the Irish volunteers, whose leaders, in increasing number, are being arrested by the

Activity Among Women This Year

Number of Very Important Conferences and Meetings of All Kinds Held for Consideration of Reforms and Improvements—More Important Gatherings Scheduled.

This year has been characterized by a number of very important conferences and meetings of all kinds for the consideration of reforms and improvements. Among those of interest to women were the National Council of Women sessions in St. John at which women from all parts of Canada were present, the Daughters of Empire annual session in St. John, the International meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in London, England, and the most important of all in regard to widespread interest and attendance the International Suffrage Convention which met at Geneva, Switzerland, in the month of May.

The next noteworthy gathering of women which is to be held at Christiania from September 8th to the 17th. At this convention, representatives from a number of nations will be present and as an evidence of the interest being taken many resolutions have been sent to the National Councils as Preliminary Agenda.

Evening meetings have been arranged in co-operation with the Norwegian National Council of Women who are also planning for social gatherings on some of the evenings. The members of the International Council who have the right to vote at this convention are as follows: General Officers of the International Council; conveners of the International Standing Committees; the Hon. President of the International Council; the President and nine Delegates appointed by each affiliated National Council. Certain other members have the right to take part in the discussions but not to vote while all members of the National Councils can attend the meetings but cannot vote or take part in the discussions without the special invitation of the President.

At the National Council of Women held in St. John in June Mrs. E. Atherton Smith was appointed one of the delegates to attend this meeting.

Agenda
The agenda includes resolutions on The League of Nations; the Consideration of National Peculiarities; International Legislation and Regulations; an International Bureau of Education; International Exchange of Public School Teachers; Training in Citizenship and Instruction of Girls in Laws Affecting Women and Children; An International Movement for Child Welfare; the Formation of a Standing Committee to Study and Watch Over the International and National Rights and Interests of Children; Laws of Nationality; Women Married to Aliens; Nationality of Married Women; Public Health; a Uniform International Standard of Medical Examination of Emigrants; Encouragement of Motherhood; Women on Public Committees and Jurorship; the Economic Position of Wife; the Elimination of Private Profit from the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors; an International Language; Equal Moral Standard and Suppression of Degenerates; Better Segregation of Degenerates; Better Films; an International Standard of Weights, Measures and Money Values. Finland sent in a recommendation wishing to have discussion arranged as to schemes which will bring together women of different social positions for purposes of education and culture and also as to the rights of women to have the opportunity of earning an independent living.

Resolutions were forwarded from the National Councils of Norway, New South Wales, Denmark, Great Britain and Ireland, the United States, Italy, Switzerland and the International Council of Women.

A TONIC FOR THE NERVES

The Only Real Nerve Tonic is a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood.

"If people would only attend to their blood, instead of worrying themselves ill," said an eminent nerve specialist, "we doctors would not see our consulting rooms crowded with nervous wrecks. More people suffer from worry than anything else." The sort of thing which the specialist spoke of is the nervous run-down condition caused by overwork and the many anxieties of today. Sufferers find themselves tired, low-spirited and unable to keep their minds on anything. Any sudden noise hurts like a blow. They are full of groundless fears, and do not sleep well at night. Headaches and other nervous pains are part of the misery and it all comes from starved nerves. Doctoring the nerves with poisonous sedatives is a terrible mistake. The only real nerve tonic is a good supply of rich, red blood. Therefore to relieve nervousness and run-down health Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be taken. These pills make new, rich blood, which strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite, gives new strength and spirit, and makes listless despondent people bright and cheerful. If you are at all "out of sorts" you should begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicines, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MUST STILL DEPEND ON COAL FOR FUEL

British Fuel Research Committee Finds That Industrial Alcohol Cannot be Produced in Large Quantities.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Company.)

Washington, Aug. 12.—The British fuel research committee appointed to investigate alternative fuels for petrol has reported the production of power alcohol from food stuffs is not economically possible in England and that production in other parts of the Empire on an adequate scale is not yet practicable, according to word received here. The committee emphasized the fact that since the world's output of petroleum is only about 75,000,000 tons, while coal is in the region of about 15,000,000,000 tons a year, there is no alternative at present, except to concentrate all energies on the adoption of the products of coal since coal is the largest as well as the cheapest source of fuel for transport purposes. The production of vegetable materials in England from which alcohol could be extracted is not sufficiently high to allow of their use for purposes other than foodstuffs, while the production of alcohol in other parts of the Empire where vegetable is plentiful will depend on a cheap and simple process on the spot which does not yet exist.

In view of the rapidly increasing consumption of petrol, says the report, and the possibility of a shortage in the near future which has served to emphasize the necessity of investigating all available substitutes, the production of a cheap and efficient substitute is of great importance, but the finding of the committee will come as a surprise to many who were hoping for great things from the wider use of power alcohol which has attracted universal attention.

League of Nations

The resolution regarding the League of Nations is from the National Council of the Women of the United States and reads as follows:

"That the International Council of Women strongly endorse the programme for the rights of all nations and for a League of Nations to prevent further strife and secure the well-being of the world."

This council also sent in an appreciation of the work of Lady Aberdeen and her colleagues in Paris in the Spring of 1919 for the welfare of women and children. There was also the resolution regarding better films.

The National Council of Great Britain and Ireland sent in the resolution regarding the elimination of private profit from the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Doubtless the discussions on these varied and important subjects will be full of interest and the reflex influence of the deliberations on the matters will be felt in the various countries which will be represented.

SEASONABLE RECIPES

Spiced Gooseberries.
3 quarts green gooseberries.
2 cups brown sugar.
2 cups vinegar.
6-inch piece stick cinnamon.
3 tablespoons whole cloves.
Small piece of mace.
Remove stems and blossoms of gooseberries; put into preserving kettle with sugar, vinegar and spices (which have been tied in a piece of cheesecloth or mosquito netting); bring to boiling point slowly and boil 1 1/2 hours, skimming carefully. Pour in wide-mouthed bottles while hot that have been sterilized; cork or cover with paraffin and tie or paste paper over top. This makes a delicious accompaniment to cold meat, cherries or currants can be done the same way.

Preserved Green Goose Berries.
Remove blossoms and stems from the gooseberries; put into strainer and plunge into cold water. To every quart of cleaned gooseberries allow 3 cups of sugar. Put berries into kettle; cover with boiling water and boil 3 minutes. Drain; put the 3 cups of sugar in with 2 cups of water; boil 5 minutes; then add the gooseberries and simmer slowly 20 minutes until they are quite clear. Be careful not to break the berries. Fill into glasses or pint jars that have been dipped in boiling water. When cold, cover with paper or paraffin. These are exceptionally rich and very attractive looking if carefully done.

Gooseberry Jam.
1 quart gooseberries.
2 cups sugar.
2 cups water.
Remove blossom and stem from the berries; cut in half; put in preserving kettle. Add the water and boil slowly until tender; then add sugar and boil ten minutes. Fill into glasses, which have been dipped into boiling water. Cover with paper or paraffin. This jam, when made in small quantities, is very good for getting dinner. It takes less time if berries are cut in half.

Blueberry Jelly.
Put the berries into a saucepan and add a large sliced lemon to every three cups of fruit. Crush the fruit slightly and let stand for an hour. Bring slowly to a boil and strain through a jelly bag when the fruit is quite soft. Return the strained juice to the fire let boil for six or seven minutes and add one cupful of heated sugar for each cup of the juice. Boil for two or three minutes longer and pour into glasses. Cover when cold with paraffin.

Preserved Blueberries for Pie.
Add one cupful of water to each four quarts of fruit; turn into a preserving kettle and add a cupful and a half of sugar to each two quarts of berries. When the whole boils hard, fill sterilized jars to overflow and seal airtight as for canned fruit. Store in a cool, dark place. When making pies from these berries add a little sugar for each can and a little lemon juice to the syrup before putting on the upper crust of pastry.

The Fitting End.
It was most fitting after all that Archbishop Mannix, who set out to look for trouble, should have been met by a British warship.

BABY'S GREAT DANGER DURING HOT WEATHER

More little ones die during the hot weather than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, infantum and stomach troubles come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the house where there are young children. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

HE WAS A PROFESSIONAL TOO

Bert Lytell tells how he obtained one of the most effective scenes in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" picture and some experience in criminology.

The young Metro star was listening to the "life story" of an anemic looking young man who accosted him in the lobby of a Los Angeles hotel and braided him for the price of a meal. "I'm just out of jail," confessed the stranger. "Do a stretch for robbery. But I'm going straight now." The star handed the ex-convict his card.

"I'm working in Paul Armstrong's play for the screen," he explained, "and when we shoot the scene in the warder's office in which Dick, the Rat, forces a patent lock with a hairpin, you can show us if it can be done—ah how?"

"The upshot of it was that the young man was given a job at the studio the next day. An actor played Dick, the Rat, the sneak thief in the drama, and the stranger's hands were photographed in the close-up showing the manipulation of the lock with a hairpin. He received a generous wage for the day's work."

The next morning, Fats Fox, who scenarized "Alias Jimmy Valentine," congratulated Lytell on his find. "The stuff looks great on the screen," he said. "He worked like a professional."

"Yes," replied Bert, gloomily, "but before he left the studio he used the same hairpin to jimmy his way into my dressing room. I lost $50."

FILM CENSORS HAD BUSY YEAR

Viewed Four Million Feet of Motion Picture Films, Passing on an Average of 350 Per Month.

Does the thought of watching four million feet of motion picture film make you feel dizzy? Well, that is the average length viewed by the New Brunswick Board of Motion Picture Censors in one year. The average number of films censored by these four men in 1919, though in some months they have looked at 600. Taking 6,000 reels as the average number for a year and 800 feet as the average length of a reel, if you can do a simple sum in multiplication, you will find that 4,800,000 is the answer to the question asked the chairman of the board: "How much film does your board view in one year?" Four million feet of film would make something like 757 and a fraction miles. Just imagine, 757 miles of Charlie Chaplin's antics, Constance Talmadge's vamping, Pauline Frederick's emotions, Mack Sennett's comedies, and all the baseball games, processions and varied happenings of the world which pass before the vision of the board. Like the policeman of whom the Gilbert and Sullivan Opera states, "A policeman's life is not a happy one," the censor's lot has its monotony and one wonders if they ever drop into a moving picture theatre for pleasure.

They Are Satisfied. British workers who unquibingly won one war, seem quite disinclined to win any more.

ENGLISH IMPRESSIONS OF AMERICAN STORES

Struck Particularly With Their Immense Size—Think Perfection of Service Has Been Reached.

(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.)

London, Aug. 13.—Miss Dorothy Cook, one of the party of English merchants who have just returned from a tour of the United States, inspecting the large retail stores of the cities, was "rather overawed" by the immense size of the stores, particularly in the West and Middle-West.

"They did not," she said, "show much in the windows—priced articles, I mean—but my! What did they not have inside! The stores' principal feature, I think, are the vast open entrance halls. No sooner do you get inside than you are shot up to the top of their way to find what you want." In the most breathless manner. The shop-girls and salesmen are exceedingly polite and well trained and go out of their way to do what you want."

Mr. F. W. Cook, of Dudley, chairman of the Drapers' Chamber of Trade, said the organization and development of the tremendous stores in the United States have been reached by the perfection of the services rendered to the public. Manicure, dentistry, children's nurseries, cafes, restaurants, rest rooms, post, telegraph, phonograph, picture shows, candy stores—everything is placed in the service of the stores. The buildings are palaces and occupy the best positions in the cities.

Answers To Letters

Dear Boys and Girls: In some of your letters this week you have spoken about the heat and I hope you had the nice rain which came to us in the City on Wednesday and that you enjoyed the coolness and watched the plants and trees take on brighter colors after the refreshing showers. I hope the hay was safely in the barns.

HAROLD T.—You must have had a fine camping trip and those are the kind of outings that a fellow remembers right through the long winters. I appreciated your letter so much and was pleased you took the time to write such a full account of it.

EDITH M.—What a lovely trip you must have had and indeed you are lucky to have such an opportunity. Do not worry over the school year, that would only spoil your vacation. Enjoy all you can while you can.

DOROTHY S.—So pleased with your nice long letter and all the news about yourself. You must enjoy the hay-making time when you little folks have such nice rides with the loads. I remember what good sport that used to be.

ROY D.—Not every boy has been salmon fishing so you had an uncommon piece of sport. I am sure your letter was great and I enjoyed it. Send along another soon.

MARGARET F.—Very pleased to have you join us when you send your birthday date and age, we will be able to enroll you.

ESTHER L.—With so many pets to care for and amuse you the lonely hours must be few. Of course you love them all that is quite natural, and they all love you for the good care you give them.

JIM R. W.—Thanks for the good words in your letter. I am always glad to hear of the boys' work and pray and of course you are no exception. You seem to be full of business and are ambitious anyway, that is a good way to be and generally means success. Good luck to you anyway.

LILLIAN B.—How nice of you to do such a kindness as you wrote me about. You are one little friend who took the hint from my week's chat and used it to very good advantage.

TEDDY C.—It must be a lively time on your farm with so many people at work and so much to do. You have your share to do too and that is right, while having lasts it is fun and work both. Pleased to get your nice cheery letter and to know so much about your doings.

MAUDE E.—You have not written the C. C. for so long that one would almost think you had forgotten about its existence. However, better late than never, and you are very good to write such a nice letter.

"Well, do you know what poor animal it is that has had to suffer in order that your mamma might have the furs with which she adorns herself so proudly?" "Yes, sir. My papa."

"What do you mean?" demanded the woman. "Why, he forgot to pay his bill," replied the husband.

THE WESTMONT BOYS' CLUB STORIES

The Amateur Detective

(By Jack Humphrey.) CHAPTER I. Leslie Not Wanted. "I say we don't want him in our club," asserted Larry Evans, setting himself more firmly in his chair, "not that I have anything against him personally, but you know he wouldn't fit in with us at all." The Westmont Boys' Club was holding a brief business session for the purpose of deciding the fate of several boys who desired admittance and the name that seemed to meet with the most opposition was that of Leslie St. John. The boys so they thought, were justified in their opinion that Leslie was not of the right timber for the club, of robust physiques themselves and adroitly incited they had only a tolerant contempt for any boy that differed from them, such as Leslie for instance. Picture to yourself a tall slender boy of delicate constitution, caused by much earlier sickness; wearing heavy gold rimmed glasses, rather more fond of reading than was good for one, and impatiently, "We'll finish it by a

SEA HORSES

A long time ago, a very long time ago, there lived a Magician under the sea. And when the Sea People wanted anything from an ivory palace to a baby's rattle, they used to ask him for it. Generally they got what they wanted. One day they all went to his house and banged the door. "What is the matter now?" asked the Magician rather gruffly, for he was hungry and supper was cooling on the table. "We want horses," they all cried at once—"horses to ride and drive and play with. Land people have them, why not we?" "They shall be yours," said the Magician, "when you have brought me one thousand white horses, and horses to magic with—not before." So they went away, and sent east and west and north and south, and gathered they collected nine hundred and ninety-nine white horses worth, and ninety-nine white horses worth, and they marched all the horses together to the Magician's house. "Are they all white?" asked the man of magic coming to his front door. "As you see," answered the man who had done the whitewashing. The Magician knew at once, of course, that one of the horses was really brown, but he kept smiling in his face, though in his heart he felt very angry. "You shall have your sea horses to-morrow," said he, and everybody went away very pleased with themselves, particularly the whitewasher. Then the Magician made a mambo-jumbo so that the waters raged and boiled, and the thousand horses jumped and foamed and reared. And the next day the sea was covered, as far as you could look, with snow-white horses that rode the waves, their wild white manes streaming in the wind. But when the people tried to mount them they melted into foam, and the people all fell down and bumped themselves dreadfully, as you do when you sit on a chair that is not there. And everybody went again to the Magician and asked: "What is the use of a horse that cannot be ridden?" "I will tell you a little story," said the Magician in reply. "Once there was a man, and he wanted one thousand white horses. And he found nine hundred and ninety-nine, and when it came to the thousand—"

WHEN WAS HE BORN.

Request anyone in the room to write down the number of the month in which he was born. Next ask him to multiply this by 2, add 5, and again multiply by 50. Then add his present age and subtract 255. You then announce that if he will favor you with the result of his calculation, you will have pleasure in telling him his age minus 6, and the name of his birth month. Add 115 to the total, and the first two figures will give you the number of the month, and the last two will give you his age. Suppose, for example, the person's age is 17, and November the month in which he was born. He writes down the number of the month, 11, then multiplies it by 2, making 22. He next adds five, making 27. This he multiplies by fifty, making 1350; he then adds his age 17, making 1367, and, finally, subtracts 255, leaving 1102. This is the total given you, and if you add 115, giving a result of 1217. You are now able to announce that the man was born in November, and that his age is 17. Whenever three figures appear in the answer, only the first figure refers to the month. Suppose the number given is 115. This means 11, the month was January and the age 5. A visitor to Shakespeare's birthplace, Stratford-on-Avon, whose heart was in better condition than his head, walked about the town really thrilled with rapture and awe. When she reached the little railway station, where her train had not yet arrived, her enthusiasm was not abated, and she looked about her with brimming eyes. "Ah," she said, "I think this place affects me more than all! Here he must have come to take the train to go up to London!"

A Final Favor. "My darling," said a fond mother, who believed in appealing to children's tender feelings instead of punishing them, "if you are so naughty you will grieve mamma so that she will get ill and have to lie in bed in a dark room and may die and have to be taken to the cemetery and be buried, and you—"

The child had become more solemn, but an angelic smile crept over his face at his mother's last words, and throwing his arms about her neck, he exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, and may I sit beside the coachman?"

Spare The Round And S

By Ring W. Lardner. I have received a letter from the Editor who signs herself Worried Mother that wants information in regards to how to handle her 3 kids that seems to be a kind of a wild pair and in the best of other parents that may be in the same predicament, it looks like I should ought to print her letter to me and my reply to same as follows: She writes, in a kind of a flatterer way, "Dear Sir, I been informed by the authorities that you have 4 children that probably the best behaved children this side of the reform school. Well, Mr. I haven't only 1-3 as many children, 1 of them a boy 4 yrs. old and the other a girl 1 and 1-2 yrs. old and I can't do nothing with either 1 of them. "For inst. in the 1st. place the lit-

WHAT KINGS CANNOT DO

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS. The International Sunday School Lesson for August 15 is "The Sins and Sorrows of David."—II Samuel 12: 9, 10:18-1:15.

Two tremendous truths for this time are expressed by the old story of King David. They are so important and so pertinent that, even if they had not been David's admission to the centuries gone, they have today a peculiar value to the present situation.

When a King Collapsed. Strong men have weak hours. The shining spirit of King David, Israel's hero-minister king, fell into the black mire of foul and unseemable sin. True, the doctrine of "the divine right of kings" which puts the bearer of a scepter above the laws that rule ordinary mortals, was a real factor in the fall of David.

What the Centuries Say. Travel, if it be wide and open-eyed, and close to the life of all the peoples it touches, teaches one to have respect for certain sanctities. The stay-at-home person may not know the world, and who have never seen life.

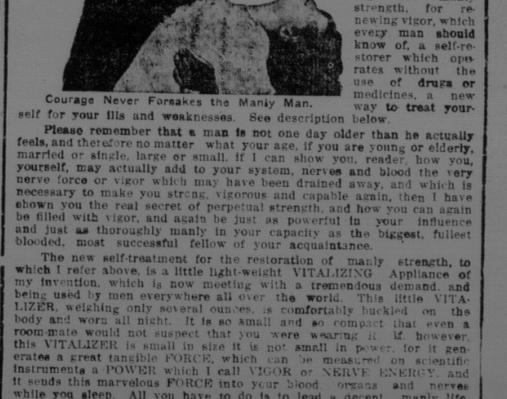

Bigger Than The King. There is no need to rehearse the details of the tragic tale of David and Bathsheba. David stabbed Uriah's name before ever he caused him to die in the battle. How sins and crimes are linked together!

The Second Sanctity. Uriah proved more of a man than King David. His sturdy devotion to duty, and his refusal to enjoy the pleasures of home while his fellow soldiers were in the field against the country's enemy, mark him as a patriot of highest order.

As On Chinese New Year. Once a year, when New Year rolls around, the Chinese settle all their outstanding accounts. Every debt is then paid; a Chinese in an American city last year committed suicide because he could not pay his debts for the new year.

The Great

"I am not sure," Seaman reflected, "just the terms you are on with Lady Dominey make very much to any one. So far as regards the Princess, she is an impulsive and passionate person, but she is also a grande dame and a diplomatist. I see no reason why you should not marry her secretly in London, in the name of Edward Dominey, and have the ceremony repeated under your rightful name later on."
They had paused to help themselves to cigarettes, which were displayed with a cabinet of cigars on a round table in the hall. Dominey waited for a moment before he answered.
"Has the Princess confided to you that is her wish?" he asked.
"Something of the sort," Seaman acknowledged. "She wishes the suggestion, however, to come from you."
"And your advice?"
Seaman blew out a little cloud of cigar smoke.
"My friend," he confessed, "I am a little afraid of the Princess. I ask you no questions as to your own feelings with regard to her. I take it for granted that as a man of honor it will be your duty to offer her your hand in marriage, sooner or later. I see no harm in anticipating a few months, if by that means we can pacify her. Terrell would arrange it at the Embassy. He is devoted to her, and it will strengthen your position as his rival."
Dominey turned away towards the stairs.
"We will discuss this again before we leave," he said gloomily.
Dominey was admitted at once by her maid into his wife's sitting-room. It was a charming morning. She was pale blue lined with grey fur. She held her hands to him with a delighted cry of welcome.
"How nice of you to come, Edward!" she exclaimed. "I was hoping I should see you for a moment before you went off."
"He raised her fingers to his lips and kissed them, by her side. She seemed entirely delighted by his presence, and he felt instinctively that she was quite unaffected by the event of the night before."
"You slept well?" he enquired.
"Perfectly," she answered.
He tackled the subject bravely, as he had made up his mind to on every opportunity.
"You do not lie awake thinking of our nocturnal visitor, then?"
"Not for one moment. You see," she went on conversationally, "if you were really Edward, then I might be frightened, for some day or other I feel that if Edward comes here, the spirit of Roger Urdank will do him some sort of mischief."
"Why?" he asked.
"You don't know about these things, of course," she went on, "but Roger Urdank was in love with me, before I married Edward. I think I told you that much yesterday. After I was married, the poor man nearly went out of his mind. He gave up his work and used to haunt the park here. One evening Edward caught him and they fought, and Roger Urdank was never seen again. I think that any one around here would tell you," she went on, dropping her voice a little, "that Edward killed Roger and threw him into one of those swampy places near the Black Wood, where a body sinks and sinks and nothing is ever seen of it again."
"I do not believe he did anything of the sort," Dominey declared.
"Oh, I don't know," she replied dubitantly. "Edward had a terrible temper, and that night he came home covered with blood, looking—awful! It was the night when I was taken ill."
"Well, no more tragedies," he insisted. "I have come up to remind you that we have guests here. When are you coming down to see them?"
"She laughed like a child.
"You say we just as though you were really my husband," she declared.
"You must not tell any one else of your fancy," he warned her.
She acquiesced at once.
"I quite understand," she assured him. "I shall be very careful. And, Edward, you have such clever guests, not at all the sort of people my Edward would have had here, and I have been out of the world for so long, that I am afraid I shan't be able to talk to them. Nurse Alice is tremendously impressed. I am sure I should be terrified to sit at the end of the table, and Caroline will hate not being hostess any longer. Let me come down at tea-time and after dinner, and slip into things gradually. You can easily say that I am still an invalid, though of course I'm not at all."
"You shall do exactly as you choose," he promised, as he took his leave.
So when the shooting party tramped into the hall that afternoon, a little weary, but flushed with exercise and the pleasure of the day's sport, they found, seated in a corner of the room, behind the great round table upon which tea was set out, a rather pale but extraordinarily childlike and fascinating woman, with large, sweet eyes which seemed to be begging for their protection and sympathy as she rose hesitatingly to her feet. Dominey was by her side in a moment, and his first few words of introduction brought every one around her. She said very little, but what she said was delightfully natural and gracious.
"He has been so kind of you," she said to Caroline, "to help my husband entertain his guests. I am very much better, but I have been ill for so long that I have forgotten a great many things, and I should be a very poor hostess. But I want to make tea for you, please, and I want you all to tell me how many pheasants you have shot."
Terrell seated himself on the settee by her side.
"I am going to help you in this complicated task," he declared. "I am sure those sugar tongs are too heavy for you to wield alone."
She laughed at him gaily.
"But I am not really delicate at all," she assured him. "I have had a very bad illness, but I am quite strong again."
"Then I will find some other excuse for sitting here," he said. "I will tell

"An interesting conversation in which my name has not been mentioned?" she repeated satirically, before very long, Dominey asserted her. His Excellency warned me that she had said so far as merely the prelude to a matter of larger importance."

Stephanie smiled.

"Dear Maurice is so diplomatic," she murmured. "I am perfectly certain he is going to begin by re-arranging the furniture."

She made a little grimace. In her wonderful fur and Russian turban she had the made rather a striking picture against the background of snow.

STILL ANOTHER KICK

A letter received yesterday by the Board of Trade from a New Brunswick wicker in London contained a vigorous attack against the present office of the Agent General of our Province, in that city as not worthy of the splendid Province we have here.

VERY HEAVY TRAFFIC

Very heavy traffic was responsible for about an hour's delay in the arrival of the Halifax train last evening. The Boston train was held over to make connections with the Halifax train and the Digby boat which was also late in reaching the city.

DISCUSS EMPIRE AFFAIRS

The Board of Trade yesterday received an invitation from the Imperial Motor Transport Council to send a representative to the next meeting of the Council which will be held in London in October. At this meeting matters affecting imperial motor transport and supply will be discussed.

HAVE PURCHASED HOME

The Young Men's Hebrew Association, who for some time past have occupied the H. J. McLean residence on Hornsfield street as tenants, have now purchased the building for the sum of $8,000 and it is their intention to fix it in the very best style as a home for the organization.

LONG BUGGY TRIP

To travel over a thousand miles in a buggy is something of a feat and this has just been done by William Neary and his wife who drove all the way from Newark, N. J., to St. John, with a horse and buggy. The distance covered was 1,276 miles and they have been on the road since June 14th. Mr. Neary is visiting his brother, who resides on St. Patrick street.

INVESTIGATION TRIP

In the morning he paid an official visit to the post office and in the afternoon to the Custom House. He was hearing complaints of government employees who feel that they have not been properly placed under the new classification of the new civil service regulations. He looked into each individual case and made himself familiar with local conditions so that when formal complaints reach the appeal board he will be in possession of first hand knowledge. There is comparatively little dissatisfaction as regards the act locally.

During the trip they will stop at Augusta, Maine, for a couple of days.

The Harvesters Were Indignant

A party of harvesters who were in the city last night awaiting the departure of their train voiced their indignation of a mean trick played on them by a taxicab driver. He had contracted to take them to an up-town cafe and to call within a certain time and carry them back to the depot. The driver had been paid for the fare both ways. The young men finished their meal and while waiting the time waiting for the taxi man to call for them. Like the once famous Jim Jeffries the "clever" taxi driver never came back. One member of the party had fortunately taken a note of his car's number and his ematser was reported to the police.

FRIGHTFUL HAPPENING AT WEST ST. JOHN LAST NIGHT

Orlo Brown Electrocuted and Three Other Boys Burned and Shocked by Coming in Contact With Wires, Forming Foul Fence on Ball Field, Which Had Become Surcharged With Electricity from High Power Wires—Salvage Corps With Pulmotor Summoned But Was Unable to Save Boy's Life—Jury Empanelled to Consider Case.

As the result of coming in contact with the wire nesting back of the home plate on the Queen Square diamond, West St. John, which was charged with electricity, Orlo Brown, 13 years old, son of W. A. Brown, 22 Water street, W. E., was electrocuted last evening, and three other West Side boys, Roy MacLeod, aged 11, of 153 St. John street, Roy O'Reilly, 12 years old, of 14 Woodville Road, and Joseph Coram, aged 8, of 265 Lancaster street, were shocked and burnt by the high-powered electric current. The accident occurred at 8:12 o'clock while a number of boys were playing ball on the diamond. The Coram boy started to watch the others from the sidewalk, and through the foul fence, he placed his hands on the wire netting and was immediately knocked off his feet. Brown and MacLeod were the first of the boys to notice the mishap and ran to the fence from the field side and looked through at Coram, at the same time taking hold of the netting. O'Reilly was right behind them, and his elbow was the first part of his body to touch the fence, and the shock on contact threw him off his feet and clear of the fence. The Queen Square car happened to be passing at the time, and Conductor Crane, seeing the little group standing helplessly, with great presence of mind ran to aid the boys clinging to the fence. He brought his broom from the car, and with its aid shoved both the boys off the netting. The dry broom completely insulated him from the current.

The wire netting was charged by four high-power wires of the N. B. Power Co., which pass through the foul fence and came in contact with the wire netting. The action of the wind had gradually worn the insulation from the wires, and the dampness caused the current to run to the ground through the netting. After the two boys were shoved from the wire, Brown fell to the ground in an unconscious condition. MacLeod was shocked and dazed but semi-conscious, and was taken to his home. First aid was applied to Brown, while Dr. F. L. Kenney was summoned, as was also No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Police from the East side of the harbor. Driver Rudolph, with other members of the corps, hastened to the scene as fast as they could reach the Queen Square via the ferry. The pulmotor was used by the Salvage Corps men on Brown without avail. It was used for some time, and Brown did not recover. Empress of Britain Now An Oil Burner

Big C. P. O. S. Liner Makes Her First Trip from Liverpool Next Month — Trial Trips Next Week.

The C. P. O. S. liner, Empress of Britain, which is being renovated and changed to an oil-burner, will make her first trip from Liverpool on the first of next month, and it is expected that the trial trips will take place next week. The Empress of Britain will be the first oil-burning liner to make a trip up the St. Lawrence when she comes therein September. The liner will leave on her most recent trip from Quebec on September 15th, and the majority of the Imperial Press delegates will go back to England on her. The list of delegates will not be as large as that which came over on the Victoria, as some have already left on the Empress of France and several more will leave on the Pr. Fr. Wilhem next week.

The changing spirit of the times may be also noticed in the better accommodations that are being provided for third-class passengers aboard C. P. S. ships, especially in regard to bedding arrangements. The old straw mattresses have disappeared and hair ones have been put in their place, and feather pillows have replaced the flock-stuffed variety of former times. These and other improvements bring the third-class accommodation to a state that compares favorably with the second-class of yesteryear.

Speaking with the mayor after the meeting he informed the Standard that a very profitable afternoon in his estimation had been spent and they had arrived at a definite idea of what the company were prepared to do and how much water they would use. The matter will again be taken up after the return of the city engineer who will be asked to give a further report on the amount of water available from Spruce Lake.

Temple of Honor Supreme Council

August 24-27, Dates Set for Delegates to Assemble in St. John—Excellent Programme Has Been Arranged.

August 24-27 will be red letter days for the members of the Temple of Honor in St. John, for on those dates they will have the honor of entertaining the Supreme Council of the Order.

The delegates from the United States will arrive on Tuesday at noon and it is expected the sessions will last until Friday at noon. The St. John Templars are preparing to give the visitors a good time and with no weather expected to show the scenic beauties of the surrounding country.

On Tuesday evening there is to be a reception at which the mayor will extend a welcome on behalf of the city. Hon. W. R. Wigmore, M. P., Minister of Customs, and Hon. W. F. Roberts, M. L. A., Minister of Public Health, are both expected to be present. On Wednesday afternoon a ball on the river and dinner at Gondola Point are on the programme and between times it is hoped to give the visiting Templars some auto, rides to the surrounding country.

The wire netting was charged by four high-power wires of the N. B. Power Co., which pass through the foul fence and came in contact with the wire netting. The action of the wind had gradually worn the insulation from the wires, and the dampness caused the current to run to the ground through the netting. After the two boys were shoved from the wire, Brown fell to the ground in an unconscious condition. MacLeod was shocked and dazed but semi-conscious, and was taken to his home. First aid was applied to Brown, while Dr. F. L. Kenney was summoned, as was also No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Police from the East side of the harbor. Driver Rudolph, with other members of the corps, hastened to the scene as fast as they could reach the Queen Square via the ferry. The pulmotor was used by the Salvage Corps men on Brown without avail. It was used for some time, and Brown did not recover. The Queen Square car happened to be passing at the time, and Conductor Crane, seeing the little group standing helplessly, with great presence of mind ran to aid the boys clinging to the fence. He brought his broom from the car, and with its aid shoved both the boys off the netting. The dry broom completely insulated him from the current.
