

SIX GERMAN DIVISIONS HURLED EASTWARD TO LEMBERG

AUSTRIAN ARMY OF GENERAL PLANZER IS CUT IN HALF BETWEEN KUTY AND SERETH

Resignation of Greek Ministry is Expected To-day; King Receives Zaimis

CZERNOWITZ ARMY IN ITS RETREAT IS CUT IN TWO, AND FACES DISASTER AND TOTAL DESTRUCTION

Russian Pursuit So Vigorous That the Austrian Troops Cannot Get Away, and Army Cut in Half—Six German Divisions Have Been Rushed Across to Lemberg.

By Special Wire to the Courier. LONDON, June 21.—Confirmatory reports of the cutting in two of General Pfanger's army in Bukovina are contained in a despatch to the Star from Petrograd to-day. When the Austrians retired from Czernowitz, says the correspondent, part of them retreating due south along the Rumanian border and others toward the Carpathians, there was no time to hold the Russians on the fortified line running from Kutly to Sereth along the Rivers Mikhodra and Sereth. But, despite the delay caused by the prolonged defence of Czernowitz, General Letchitzky threw his reserves upon the heels of the retreating Austrians at such speed that he succeeded in reaching that line simultaneously with them.

The result was that General Pfanger's forces were cut in half midway between Kutly and Sereth at Stroginet.

RUSHING TROOPS ACROSS NEW YORK, June 21.—A London despatch to a news agency here says: "Six German divisions (120,000 men) have been hurried eastward to check the Russian offensive bearing down upon Lemberg, Geneva despatches reported to-day."

A special cable to The World from Petrograd, under yesterday date, quotes General Shoovaloff, Russian Minister of War, as saying: "The Minister of War's Account. On June 3 on a front of some scores of miles between the Priepet and the Fruth is continuing with inflexible success. After a violent bombardment the line of the Austrian army in the region of Lutsk and of the River Strila was broken, its right wing torn from the centre and its left wing crumpled. Those who escaped were left to themselves and abandoning to the Russians immense spoils, are trying hurriedly to leave the battlefield. They have lost up to the present about 2,500 officers and 150,000 men taken prisoners.

Important Captures. The uninterrupted progress of the Russians in Volhynia and Galicia is accompanied by the occupation of a wide area covered with endless rows of trenches and possessing important strategical boundaries, railway and water junctions. The advance in the region of the Fruth and Dniester, notwithstanding the arrival of enemy reinforcements, is continuing quite successfully. We have occupied Zolochov, Sniatyn and Czernowitz. Large stores of engineering munitions have been captured.

Austrians All Driven Out. In general, the driving out of the greater part of the Austro-Hungarian army from a broad strip of land, thoroughly fortified, is practically completed.

Taking the initiative of action and having an outlet in the most important operative directions, after practically destroying the enemy, gives the Russians the opportunity of further actions which will take place under easier conditions than those of a position combat which changed the troops down during the previous period of the war.

The results attained more than answer for the heroic efforts of the Russian army, which is valiantly continuing to fight in exceptionally high spirits.

Constantine Had Interview With Zainis Expected Every Moment That Greek Ministry Will Resign.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Athens, via London, June 21.—The Neon Asty says that the resignation of the cabinet of Premier Skoufendis will probably be announced in parliament to-day.

King Constantine is taking up the question of the changes in the ministry as a result of continuation of the blockade by the allies. It is believed that former Premier Alexandros Zaimis will be asked to try and form a cabinet which will be acceptable to the Entente. It is understood here that the principal person in the present cabinet against whom the opposition of the allies is directed,

UNIVERSITY OF CZERNOWITZ HAD SUDDEN END

Shrapnel, Aeroplanes and Russians Disturbed the Academic Work.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, June 21.—(New York Times cable)—How the University of Czernowitz, which only re-opened this year moved in a hurry is told by Professor Kellner, who has just reached Vienna. The legal and philosophical faculties had opened the summer term, but the lectures, attended by a hundred men and women students, had been frequently disturbed of late by the thunder of cannon. The constant whir of enemy aeroplane propellers also handicapped academic work.

On June 4th the first real scare was experienced when Russian shrapnel burst in three parts of the town. Conditions became even less promising when refugees to the northwest corner of Bukovina began pouring in, with their pitiful household goods, cows and pigs, and selling of the frightful battle. The professors continued lecturing, despite the distraction of light rockets, searchlights, blazing villages, all around, and violent cannonading until the rector of the university received a sudden order from the military authorities to clear out.

At 1 o'clock in the morning professors and students trudged with their baggage to the railroad station, amid the roar of guns, and luckily caught one of the last trains out.

ITALIANS MAKE GAIN SOUTHWEST OF MONTE PURCHE

Alpine Troops Stormed Positions at the Head of the Posina Valley.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Rome, June 21.—The following report was given out by the war office to-day: "Between the Adige and Astico valleys, artillery actions occurred. At the head of the Posina valley detachments of our Alpine troops in the midst of a heavy storm captured a strong position southwest of Monte Purche. Engagements on the western slopes of Monte Cengio resulted in favor of our infantry.

"Southwest of Asiago on the night of June 19, the enemy attempted three successive surprise attacks, against our positions at Monte Magab and Oeschl. All were repulsed with heavy loss for the enemy.

"North of the French valley, we continued yesterday the difficult advance across the rough ground, hindered by the stubborn resistance of the enemy and driving back frequent counter attacks. On the remainder of the front there were no events of importance. Hostile air craft dropped bombs on our lines of communications, wounding a few persons and causing some slight damage. Squadrons of our Caproni and Savoia aeroplanes in which were 34 machines, bombarded the aviation stations at Pergine, at the head of the Sugana valley. They were fired on by numerous anti-air craft batteries and engaged by the aerial defense squadron of the enemy, but returned safely after bringing down three hostile machines.

The count in the indictment against Thomas Mott Osborne, which charges gross immorality while warden of Sing Sing Prison, was ordered struck out of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn.

ECONOMIC TIES MUST BIND ALLIES IN A CLOSE UNION

For Years After the War Friends in It Should be Friends in Trade.

CLOSING OUT ENEMY COUNTRIES

Question of Tariff Revision Causes Discussion in Britain.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, June 21.—New York Times cable)—The far-reaching resolutions of the Paris conference, as issued by the Board of Trade, form the chief subject of to-day's editorial comment in the London press. The Daily Telegraph says: "Taking a broad view of these sweeping recommendations, what is it they suggest? It is that the allies for long years to come must remain banded together by strong economic ties. That is the obvious meaning of the articles which advocate the establishment of a direct rapid land and sea transport service at low rates between the allied countries, and the assimilation, as far as possible, of the laws governing patents, trade marks, etc. Germany is represented as still remaining an enemy, and she cannot complain, for it is in her own interest that she has consistently represented herself. The allies lived for many years in a fool's paradise with respect to her commercial and political ambitions. In declaring they will do so no longer, they but follow the rule of self-preservation."

The tariff reform organ, the Daily Express, expresses the opinion that "even those British politicians who before the war were most enthusiastic free traders," will recognize the need of adopting the conference's recommendations. The Daily News says: "It is to the negative or hostile (Continued on Page 6)

Tattoo is on; Great Parade

Bad Weather Cleared Up, and Sunshine For This Afternoon.

With fitting ceremony, amid the music of three brass bands and the bugle bands, the military tattoo and garden party to the 125th Battalion was opened this afternoon, when at 2.30 the parade set forth from Victoria Park, under the gaze of thousands, who had gathered for the occasion. Leading the parade as guests of honor, was the brass band of the 133rd Norfolk County Battalion, followed by a detail of cyclists, also from the 133rd Battalion. At the head of the 125th Battalion marched the signal section under Lt. Thornburn, followed by A and B companies, then the bugle and trumpet band of the 215th Battalion, under Sgt. Dickson, the brass band of the same battalion under Bandmaster Waters, and the brass band of the 125th Battalion, under Bandmaster Sgt. Bartram. Then followed "C" and "D" companies of the 125th, led by their respective company commanders; the marching gun section, the stretcher bearers and the bugle band of the 125th, in charge of Bugle Major Mellor bringing up the rear.

The afternoon program rendered at Agricultural Park, comprised the march past by the entire procession; company and unit drill of various sorts, and a vaudeville performance. The murkiness and rain had stopped, and the sun was shining brightly.

ADVANCE IS SUCCESSFUL IN EAST AFRICA

London, June 21.—Allied forces which are invading German East Africa, are continuing the advance successfully. It was announced officially to-day that the column moving from the northeastern section of the German colony, has occupied Handeni. Another column, advancing from the south, has taken Alt Nyassas, near the head of Lake Nyassa.

2,000 Already Examined Nearly 2,000 horses which were to have been offered as fit for service in the European war have already been examined by representatives of the American army's quartermaster department, which has been seeking information as to the number of acceptable animals available in Chicago, East St. Louis and Kansas City.

An Appeal to France Paris, June 21.—Mexico is placing its case before the European public in the form of statements issued by Mexican legations on the continent, such a statement appeared in Madrid on Monday and a similar statement is printed in the French press to-day from the Mexican legation in Paris. It says the reports that war is inevitable and that General Carranza's attitude is due to German intrigue, came from American sources.

No Desire for War "Imputations against the government of General Carranza," it declares, "are unwarranted. Mexico has not wished, and does not wish, war with the United States."

The statement reviews the negotiations for permission for American troops to cross the frontier to pursue bandits and declares that the interchanges were interrupted by the sending of an expeditionary corps, constituting a violation of Mexican sovereignty.

America the Aggressor "We are authorized to state that it is not Mexico which attacks?" the statement continued. In ordering General Trevino to prevent American forces from advancing south, east or west, the attitude of the Mexican Government is purely defensive. This is established from documents in this legation which will be published at an opportune time."

AMERICAN PRESS THINKS NOTE TO MEXICO SHOWS SINCERITY AND STRENGTH; MANY OPINIONS

New York Papers Give Their Views of the Stand President Wilson has Taken in the Mexican Question—Much Interest on Question Taken in France and Sympathy With United States

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, June 21.—Editorial comment on the American note to Mexico in newspapers of New York City, credit it with sincerity and strength. Extracts from the principal newspapers follow: The World. "The American note to Mexico is the utterance of a nation that would be understood as a friend. Unlike recent expressions from General Carranza's capital, it is courteous, and, in still greater contrast, it suggests patience and determination rather than anger and defiance. Plenty of Excuses. If the excuses for hostilities were needed on our part, they could be found in abundance in the long list of grievances which Secretary Lansing presents. Only by self-restraint, by humane considerations and by benevolent purposes adhered to under difficulties, not less of which has been the shocking lack of appreciation of those who have profited by American policy, has an appeal to force been prevented. Puts Generalities Behind. The chief merit of Secretary Lansing's latest note to the Carranza Government is that it at last gets the administration's policy of intervention in Mexico planted on solid ground. It puts behind us—let us hope for good and all—the misapprehensions and delusions which have so grievously hampered our Mexican diplomacy in the last three years.

Secretary Lansing is to be congratulated on his latest Mexican note. At last light is dawning in Washington and the shallow sentimentalism which long befogged our Mexican diplomacy is being blown away. States the Facts. The reply written by Mr. Lansing to the defiant and somewhat impudent communication from the Carranza secretary of foreign relations states clearly and accurately the main facts of the position of our government and people. The note is perhaps, over-elaborate as a document insofar as it is intended to justify the past course of Mr. Wilson in Mexican affairs, but it interprets correctly the present spirit of the nation here confronting a serious situation. The country without regard to party is behind the administration, that utters this stern notification, and unless General Carranza and his advisers are crazy they will heed the timely warning. Leaves Nothing Unsaid. The Times. The note leaves nothing unsaid, it Sympathy in France. "New York, June 21.—According to a cable from Paris to The Herald, the Mexican developments are being watched there with keen attention and the American attitude is endorsed fully. The despatch says it is the unanimous opinion in Paris that many a responsible for the Mexican unrest. Carranza is regarded merely as Germany's tool, and consequently should war ensue the United States will be with the allies if not of them. The Hand of Germany. The Echo de Paris considers Carranza's ultimatum to be a German-American retaliation for President Wilson's denunciation of Germany. The press generally asserts that American action in Mexico will be loyally supported by France and England.

TAX ARREARS. Mr. A. G. Ludlow, head of the local assessment department, has been obliged to leave off his field work recently, for the purpose of making out a list of arrears of taxes in the city for the last three years. A great deal of labor is entailed in this work, as it is necessary to make out duplicate notices and serve them personally to both the tenant and owners of the property in arrears. The work will take over two weeks, and should Mr. Ludlow states, have been placed in the assessors' hands in April, as it is now interfering with the field work of the department.

Germany Takes Hope; Drive May be Over

"The Spirit of Our Troops is Excellent; They Are Full of Quiet Confidence and the Joy of Battle," Says Berlin Journalist, Who Tells of the Conquerors of Czernowitz Getting Stuck in the Bogs.

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, June 21.—The Times this morning publishes the following despatch credited to Wilhelm Hegele, of the Berlin Tageblatt: "Army headquarters on the Volhynian front, June 19.—After initial undeniable success, the Russian offensive has been slowing down to a tempo from day to day. West of Lutsk they only felt their way along with the utmost caution. In the region around Torchin, lively rearguard actions developed. "The reasons why the vast Russian human tidal wave has luckily ebbed so rapidly, are to be sought in the quality of the Russian army itself. Although because of their superiority in artillery and the use of colossal quantities of ammunition the first storm succeeded with relative ease, the Russian soldiers petered out in the later attacks. Moreover the situation is quite different from what it had been pictured to the Russian troops, whose officers, according to statements of prisoners, had told them the offensive would be a veritable parade. Instead, they found themselves facing sturdy and brave defenders. Again, their main army heavy artillery got stuck in the swamps, therefore it is not surprising that the German troops having been hurled into the battle, the Russian advance has come to a dead stop. It would be premature to indicate anything about events in the immediate future, but this much may be stated with satisfaction: "The spirit of our troops is excellent. They are full of quiet confidence and the joy of battle."

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. GEORGE SIZES OF SIMCOE LAST NIGHT

Stricken With Heart Failure and Passed Away Before the Doctor Came.

SON OF EDITOR IS KILLED

"D" Co. of 133rd Made a Fine March From Waterford.

Simcoe, June 21.—George SIZES died about nine o'clock last night of acute heart failure. He had been working all day down towards Dover and the call was so sudden that he had passed away before Dr. Richardson reached his home. As coroner, the doctor decided an inquest was not necessary. SIZES was about 45 years of age, and married, but had no children.

Presentation of Colors
—The local chapter of the I. O. E. D. E. received from Col. Logie, yesterday, advice that the presentation of the Regimental colors to the 133rd will take place between the first and fifteenth of July. This will be the premier local event for the 133rd, and Col Logie has consented to be present to make the presentation. The Lyndale syndicate has harvested a first crop of alfalfa from a field just east of the L. E. and N. depot.

Anxious to Serve
The young lad, Rodgers, was allowed to go free yesterday, after a hearing on the charge of perjury, later reduced to giving false statements in being attested for military service. He was only 14 years old at the time.

Trip to Waterford
D Company of the 133 returned from Waterford yesterday evening, after receiving a royal and hospitable welcome by Reeve T. C. Savage and the citizens. Dinner was served in the Town hall. The company returned in column of route under march discipline, and covered the 8 miles in one hour and fifty-five minutes. Capt. W. L. Heath was in command.

Motor Fines
While Squire Earles conducted a case against a Brantford man charged with driving an auto while in an intoxicated condition and handed out a fine of $50 and costs. Magistrate Buchanan imposed a similar fine against a local man, both courts sitting consecutively yesterday afternoon. At least twenty-six witnesses were heard in the latter case.

Hill's Son Killed
H. A. Harding, whose name appeared in the list of killed yesterday evening, is a son of Editor Harding of the Port Rowan News. He was killed in the outbreak of the war.

Arranging Field Day
Lt. Col. Pratt attended a meeting of the Ministerial Association held at Dr. Dey's last evening. The conference was with reference to the bill-of-fare for entertainment at the approaching field day. The matter is still under discussion with the clergy who claim that they have met an avalanche of protestation. The association has worked actively throughout the recruiting campaign, to assist the work, and hope to have some modifications made in the programme for the day.

Five Swedish Steamers, Laden With Coffee Seized by British.
By Special Wire to the Courier.
Copenhagen, via London, June 21.—The Berlingske Tidende says that five large Swedish steamers, have been seized by the British, and that the steamer Kronprinzessin Margareta, also laden with coffee, has been taken to Kirkwall. The action is believed to have been the result of allegations that German agents were gathering large quantities of coffee in Sweden for export to Germany as soon as the war is ended.

THE WAR LORD.
Kaiser (before Verdun)—"And when you are all dead we shall have advanced 200 yards.—La Victoire, Paris.

COMMANDER OF BRITISH A "ROUGH HEWN SOLDIER"

Sir Douglas Haig Makes One Brave to Look at Him Even.

HAS CHARMING MANNER

More of Oxford Than of Barrack Room About His Address.

"I have seen Sir Douglas Haig described as a 'rough-hewn soldier,' who, like Kleber makes you feel brave to look at him. If you meet him with that picture in your mind you have a shock of surprise. It is true that his bearing is gallant and soldierly, and that he conveys the sense of a man entirely master of himself and of his task. He is one of the youngest generals in the British army, but he is young-looking even for his years. This suggestion of youth is due not only to the rapid movements of the stalwart frame, but more definitely to the smooth, untroubled face. In profile it slants forward from the retreating brow to the adventurous nose and the big, strong chin. Seen in front, the face is square and massive, the mouth broad and decisive, the blue-gray eyes are calm and direct.

"But in his manner, speech, and habit of mind there is no trace of the 'rough-hewn soldier.' He is as remote as anything that can be imagined from suggesting the hard, merciless features of the typical Prussian, Mackensen or Falkenhayn, for example. Despite his uniform, he suggests Oxford more than the barrack-room, and one feels that he would be charming and reassuring by the bedside whether as the rector or the doctor. He irradiates a certain atmosphere of what I may call benevolent alertness. He wins one's confidence by his speech, is tolerant of a contrary opinion, and listens with respect to anything that deserves respect.

"But over-emphasis, cock-sureness, dogmatism have short shift from him. It is not that he rebukes them by word, but that he makes them seem false and crude by contrast with his own serene and confident manner. He is like the skillful horseman who rules his steed not by the whip and the spur, but by the subtle authority of a superior hand. He wins one's respect by the obviousness of his mastery. It has the art of evoking the respect of thought and directing it into any element of respect. It is the art of the judge who encourages the counsel to enlighten him, but preserves his right of judgment." (A. J. Gardner, in the July Century.)

GREAT FLOODS ABOUT FERNIE

On C. P. R. Main Line Culeverts Are Washed—Communications Cut Off.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Fernie, B. C., June 21.—From all surrounding districts reports of serious flood conditions were being received yesterday, until in the afternoon all telegraph and telephone communication was cut off. In the town of Natal, many buildings were reported greatly damaged. Heavy rains and warm weather was the cause.

TELEGRAPHERS SHOULD NOT FIGHT

Needed in Their Official Capacity, Says U. S. Telegraph Official.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
New York, June 21.—In a letter to a recruiting officer for the Plattsburgh military training camp, Clarence H. MacKay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable Company, declares that, from a national point of view, it is a mistake for a telegraph company to have its operators prepare for and enlist in the regular army instead of serving their country in the capacity for which they are peculiarly fitted.

The company has been asked to grant to some of its operators a four weeks' leave of absence to attend the Plattsburgh camps. In his reply, made public to-day, Mr. MacKay wrote: "It may not have occurred to you that telegraph operators are needed in time of war far more as telegraph operators than as soldiers or officers. The attendance of these operators at the camp at Plattsburgh would not aid the nation anywhere near so much as to have them available for telegraph purposes in case of war."

To emphasize his assertion, Mr. MacKay pointed to the action of the British Government in declining to enlist cable operators. He added that he was credibly informed that the late Earl Kitchener had impressed telegraph operators from the government telegraph offices at the outbreak of the European war, when he did not have enough operators for war purposes.

BI-LINGUAL AGITATION REACHES MANITOBA.

In referring, not long ago, to the impudent bi-lingual agitator who had started in Quebec, the Courier ventured the opinion that not only would Ontario be made the subject for assault in this regard, but also in all probability other portions of the Dominion.

Already it is very evident that Manitoba is likewise on the list. Recently a veritable bombshell was exploded in the office of court prothonotary, G. H. Walker, Winnipeg, when a statement of claim was tendered to him in the French language. Mr. Walker refused to accept the document on the ground that it was not written in the English tongue.

The plaintiff in the statement of claim is Joseph Dumas, member of the legislature for St. Boniface, and he had the statement of claim written in French and presented to the prothonotary in order to test the status of French as an official language in Manitoba. Mr. Dumas' legal representative is Albert Dubuc.

The case is likely to come up soon, and the claims of the French language will be upheld by Mr. Dubuc. It is understood that while the government was not aware of the action of Mr. Dumas and was not seeking a legal fight of this character, yet the challenge will be accepted and the case will be fought with competent counsel opposing Mr. Dubuc.

ENEMY WAS BADLY PUN

Canadian Dash R Most of the L Ground.

From "The Daily Chronicle" Correspondent, Philip British Headquarters Saturday

After a period of intense trenching on various parts of the front, the British during the past week, developed an important attack upon our trenches in the neighborhood of the distance of about 3,000 yds. by the Canadians, and subsequently taking temporary possession of portions of this front. Throughout the night it was continuous, the Germans to consolidate the position occupied on the previous hostile artillery barrage severe, and our artillery a heavy bombardment. During the course of the attack the Canadians launched a dash and gained a line of trenches in the neighborhood of the distance of about 3,000 yds. and hand-to-hand fighting progress, and at the time it is understood that no whole of the positions had taken.

Great Gun Duel.
It was about 9.15 yesterday that the enemy's artillery fire upon our trenches was not only poured high explosive shrapnel upon the front lines, but put up a formidable barrage behind, and shell in the neighborhood in a way.

Our artillery retaliated the greatest duels of the war has been seen on our front line for several hot days. The enemy's fire little mid-day yesterday, and it made a strong attack upon our trenches, which had severely damaged. It seems nine German battalions to the assault, and it is they suffered severely in spite of the effects of the trench mortar fire. The enemy was able to enter our trenches.

Owing to the continuous advance was made by the Canadians fell back to the west of Hooge upon a hill 60, from which they were during the night and bombing attacks with the our.

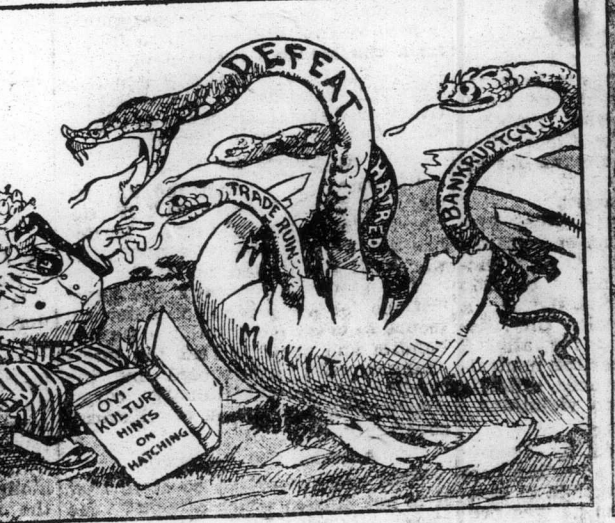

No further attack or advance was made by the bombardment on each side.

I am told that the gun attacks and counter St. Eloi, in which the were also engaged, was "play" to this in the neighborhood of the greatest of the front. Forces engaged behaved most devotion to duty, and gallantry was shown by the "signals" of the front. The German communications had no rest and pouring ceaseless fire from their guns that the enemy received punishment. Heads of German were found in Sanctuary day, and in our old line Cheers of Advancing.

The counter attack was high, shortly after half in the morning, Canadian vacated, cheering as they attacked in assaulting various points of the trenches on the northern side of the captured line y retaken, and the assault penetrated at each attack on the rest of the

THE SITUATION.
 For the first time in about three and a half months, neither Paris nor Berlin report any activity on the Verdun front. The conclusion is obvious that the Kaiser and his war lords have at last been forced to sit up and take notice with reference to the great Russian offensive, and to despatch troops to the aid of the sorely pressed Austrians. To those far away from the mighty chess board, on which the world's greatest war is being played, it looks as if an opportunity had now presented itself for a big offensive on the Western front, not alone because the Hun forces have been depleted to the extent of men sent, but also to prevent more from going. To the uninitiated, at any rate, this looks like a big chance to strengthen the hands of the plucky Russians. Meanwhile, it is reported that on General Brusilov's northern flank, that Austrians, helped by German reinforcements, are checking the Russian drive, while in other regions, the troops of the Czar are still sweeping forward and taking the usual toll of prisoners. Kovel is the present aim. It is stated to be the present point of inter-communication between the Austrian and German forces.

The Italians have caught their feet once more sufficiently to push back the Austrian front in spots but not to any appreciable extent. There are renewed rumors from Ireland that Sinn Feiners are again indulging in outbreaks, and parades with the rebel flag at the head. There were a lot of weak-kneed people who thought the Sinn Feiners were treated too harshly, as the result of the first round. They don't know the breed.

U. S. OFFICIALS THINK WAR IS INEVITABLE
 Under the heading "Still Mistress of the Seas," The Sioux City (Iowa) Tribune of recent date said: "No matter whether the North sea battle was a victory for the German fleet or the armada under Jellicoe and Beatty, the plain, blunt fact remains that it changed no marine conditions. Great Britain still blockades German ports; the German fleet still remains in jail at Heligoland and in the Kiel canal.

No more conclusive proof of England's mastery of the sea could be offered than the troop movement now going on from Russia to France. The recent destruction of a transport loaded with Russian soldiers near the island of Malta in the Mediterranean sea, lifted the veil of secrecy from the most stupendous movement of troops yet recorded in all human history. One hundred thousand Russian soldiers have been landed in the port of Marseilles, France, in the past 60 days. They embarked at the ports of Dalny and Vladivostok in Manchuria and Siberia, respectively. "Until this transport was destroyed, the general belief was that the Russians were being moved from Archangelsk by a wide sweep out into the Atlantic in order to avoid the German U-boats. The real route is now known. It is a 10,000-mile trip by way of the Suez canal. The British navy convoyed these troop ships, which are said to be still moving, and will continue to move, until 250,000 Russian soldiers are on French soil.

The record of the British navy in connection with troop movements in this war is without equal in history, and certainly upholds the traditions of the navy established by Drake and Nelson. It has moved 2,000,000 soldiers across the English channel, that at times was literally alive with hostile submarines, without the loss of a single transport. That has been its smallest achievement, great though it is in itself. It has moved troops from South Africa to France. It has semi-circled the globe and carried hundreds of thousands of colonials from Australia and New Zealand to fight in Europe, a trip of 11,000 miles. It moved its colonials from Canada to France and Gallipoli. It moved its Indian soldiers from Calcutta and Bombay to France. It moved its own soldiers from the British Isles to the Suez, to Aden, to Mesopotamian valley, to the Gallipoli peninsula, to Saloniki. All told, the British navy moved 3,000,000 soldiers from every quarter of the globe in the last twenty months, and did it with the loss of but two or three troop ships. In addition, it has kept the British Isles and the coast of France free from the menace of any hostile navy, bottled up the second largest navy in the world and swept the ocean clear of all enemy commerce.

England's navy has always been the model of the world; other nations have striven to imitate it, but none has ever equaled it. There has been no muddling in the British admiralty, due either to parsimony, politics or pork. Great Britain's naval preparedness saved not only her own shores from invasion, but it saved her allies from being reduced to the mercy of their common adversary."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.
 No use blinking the inevitable. All the babies from this on may be expected to arrive web-footed.

The Liberals who were howling about the depravity of a Dominion election during war time, have been springing provincial contests during the same period, wherever they have had the power. The only consistent thing about a Grit is his absolute inconsistency.

They have been having a provincial election in Nova Scotia, a not much account province, where Liberals have been in power for thirty-five years, and have just received another mandate to stay five more. Practically all of what 'Nova Scotia does amount to she owes to Conservatives, and then the people have the gall to go to the provincial polls and hand the great Tory party another jolt, such as that of yesterday. P.S. The letters, N.S. for that province stand for "No Sense."

They are considering a plan for the saving of Toronto Island. Said Island, be it known, is a red hot strip of sand to which citizens resort in summer and pant for breath, amid all kinds of inconveniences, while they make believe they are cooling off. At night, the mosquitoes are so strong and husky, that they turn down the bed clothes in order to get at their victims. By all means, save that Island.

"THE BLESSING OF THE CATCH"
 Unique Ceremony Preceding Departure of French Cod Fishing Fleet.
 Paris, June 21 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The ceremony of "the blessing of the catch" that precedes each spring the departure of the French cod-fishing fleet for Iceland waters and the banks of Newfoundland, has lost none of its interest and picturesque quality, though the fleets are considerably diminished, on account of the war.

The fleets of Fecamp, Palmpol, Saint Malo, Cancale, Saint Servan, and Granville, altogether are sending out about 100 vessels this year, as against 300 that composed the combined fleets before the war. The steam trawlers were nearly all requisitioned by the government, and a great many members of the crews were mobilized. This year 3,000 of these mobilized men have been given leave from the army in order to prevent the cod-fishing industry from declining to the point of disaster. The war has shown France the importance of her fisheries, and already ways and means of improving their facilities after the war are being discussed.

NEW COMMITTEE IS IN SESSION
 Results of Economic Conference Seen in Meeting in Paris Yesterday.
 By Special Wire to the Courier.
 Paris, June 21.—The permanent economic committee formed as a result of the recent economic conference of the allies held its first meeting at the foreign office yesterday under the presidency of Denis Cochin. Rosseront, Dagglade, the French diplomat, was appointed general secretary of the new organization. The resolutions adopted by the economic conference have been received with enthusiasm by the majority of the press. The newspapers declare that the conference has set forth in substance practical measures which can be applied to the defence of the allies against the commercial

COUNTY COURT.
Judgment was reserved in the case of the Oven and Rack Co. vs. the Brandon Shell Co., which was heard before His Honor Judge Hardy in the County Court yesterday afternoon. The case of Soldo vs. James, claiming damages for housebreaking and trespass, was heard this morning.

PROTEST ASSESSMENTS.
Appeals have been registered by the L. E. and N. Railway and the Brantford Municipal Railway against their assessments, fixed by the township court of revision on Saturday last. These cases, as well as that of the Brantford Golf Club will be heard some time in the future before His Honor Judge Hardy.

SAD FATALITY.
Mr. T. Johnson, formerly of Brantford, but now a commercial traveller in Vancouver, lost his wife in very sad circumstances, his many friends will be sorry to hear. Upon returning one day to his flat he found his wife lying dead, hemorrhage being the cause, the doctors stating, though no outward bleeding was noticeable. Mr. Johnson's mother resides in Brantford.

LIVE BANDS.
Five bands will take part in the military tattoo to be given by the 125th Battalion this afternoon and to-night, they being the brass and bugle bands of the 125th, the brass and bugle bands of the 215th, and the brass band of the 133rd Norfolk County Battalion.

SOME FAMILIES.
Ample proof that race suicide is by no means prevalent in Brantford, was discovered by the assessors of the city during their field work in the past few weeks. In Ward 4, four families were found, all residing within a radius of three blocks of each other, with a total population of 47 children residing at home. One family had 15, two more 11, each and one ten. This, it is stated by the assessors, is a record for Brantford.

THREE YEARS FOR BURGLARS.
Stole Jewelry in London Which Was Found in His Possession.
London, Ont., June 21.—James Lannin, who claims Wilkesbarre, Pa., as his home, was sentenced to three years in Kingston for burglary by Police Magistrate Judd yesterday. Lannin had an extensive criminal record in the aliases of McCann, Murphy and Kemp, with the Christian name Thomas in each instance. His finger prints tallied absolutely, but he denied that he was a man, telling a story of a twin brother whom magistrate had prepared a two-year sentence, but raised it a year when Lannin made his denials. He smashed a window in Julius Siskind's pawn shop here, and stole $200 worth of jewelry, which was found in his possession when he was taken into custody by the police at Napawan.

PROTEST ABOUT LICENSE FEE

County Council Objects to County Carters Paying City $25 Extra Fee.

The striking of the county estimates occupied the whole of this morning's session of the County Council, and was continued this afternoon, when it is expected that the tax rate will be determined. Yesterday's afternoon session was occupied with the reading of the communications and the following resolution was drawn up:

That the Council learns with regret that the City of Brantford are discriminating against residents of the county by charging $25 a team from the residents of the county as an extra license for doing business in the city.

That we do not believe this is in the public interest, and that in this time of stress of the empire, it would not tend to weld the county together by setting the residents of one municipality against another. While we do not think it is in the public interest to take retaliatory measures against such things, if they are persisted in, the county will have to protect its residents.

Copies of this resolution are to be forwarded to the city council, the police commissioners, the Board of Trade and the Trades and Labor Council.
County Clerk A. E. Watts, was, by a by-law, appointed arbitrator on behalf of the county for the purpose of determining the amount to be paid by the city and county respectively for the use by the city of the court house, jail and registry office.

Few Can Face Death With Less Fear Than K of K

Premier Asquith Pays Fine Tribute to the Departed General.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, June 21.—In moving a resolution authorizing the erection of a memorial to the late Field Marshal Earl Kitchener out of the public funds, with an inscription expressing admiration of the House for his illustrious career and gratitude for his services, Premier Asquith, in the House of Commons today recalled the recent meeting of the House which ended in the Field Marshal and his most persistent and irreconcilable critics parting on terms of mutual respect.

The Parting.
When Lord Kitchener said farewell to him after nearly two years of intercourse through all the strain and stress of the war, continued the premier, there was no thought of anything more than a temporary parting; no foreboding of a separation which neither time nor space could bridge.

The Hand of Providence.
"Providence," said the Premier, "was preparing for him a sudden relief from the burden of care and toil, and we who shared his counsels in the greatest emergency of our time, can only bow our heads before the supreme will."

Associated With Cromer.
Reviewing Lord Kitchener's career, Premier Asquith said his name was associated inseparably with that of Lord Cromer in one of the greatest achievements of the time, the emancipation and regeneration of Egypt. From Egypt, the premier went on, Lord Kitchener was called to cope with a great imperial emergency in South Africa, where in due time he brought hostilities to a close and helped lay the foundation of that great and rapidly consolidating fabric which has welded alienated races and given the great conflict of to-day an example of the services which local autonomy could render to imperial strength. In the next stage, he reconstituted and reorganized the armies, native and British, of India, and on being recalled to Egypt he was displaying the same

FATALITY AT PARIS; FIREMAN WAS KILLED

Robert William Chalk, on G. T. R. Freight Running North, the Victim.

(From Our Own Correspondent)
Paris, June 21.—A sad fatality occurred early this morning at the Paris depot, when Robert William Chalk, a fireman on a G. T. R. freight running from Port Erie to Stratford, was run down and instantly killed by a train crossing on the opposite track. The unfortunate man was cleaning out the ash pan of his engine at the time, and it is thought did not hear the approaching train coming. A sad feature of the case is the fact that the young man was soon to be married.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions, your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Get it today.

Roll Them All in One, Says Corp. Patte, and You Have a Bombardment.

The following interesting letter from Corporal George Patte, to his father, Mr. John Patte, Colborne street, gives his impression of the great battle the Canadians have just gone through.

June 7th, 1916.
Well, here goes for a few lines to let you know that all goes well so far, although we have been getting shelled on all sides this last few days. We were in billets the other night, and believe me, it was some warm spot best part of the night. They opened up on us again next morning, and they certainly had one beautiful variety of goods to show us. Coal-boxes, minnow wafers, rum jars, grenades and sausages, and you can take it from me that it was sure hell for about five hours. I wish that it was possible to explain just what one of these bombardments are like. No use trying, though, a fellow has to go through on to realize the damage they can do in a short time, and the noise they make. You just think there is an earthquake on all the time. It sounds as if there were express trains, brass foundries and machine shops flying through the air all the time, then a bang, and the earth trembles. She is some life, all right. They have nothing on us, though. They always get back more than they send now. We were all pleased when the later reports of the naval engagement came out, it certainly didn't sound any too good at first. Leave it to those boys in blue. They will make Fritz run for his hole every time.

Give my regards to all.
GEORGE.

Seventh Day Adventists are Increasing One Thousand a Month Be- ing Added to Their Numbers.

The annual conference of the Seventh Day Adventist is now in full operation and a large delegation is present. The grounds, located near Rawdon street, on Colborne street East, are splendidly laid out with tents of various sizes. One large canvas pavilion occupies the centre where the general work of the conference is daily being carried on; another for the youth, many of whom are present, and although a number of living tents are on the grounds, these being insufficient to accommodate the large number in attendance, the people of the city have gladly opened their homes for that purpose.

The Adventist people consider their conference as being of vital importance, being as it is a time when plans are made for the further progress of the work in the province and according to statistics of our people are rapidly increasing throughout the world at the rate of over a thousand per month.

They have entered every place on the habitable globe, and are strictly common with all other evangelical bodies that Christ is their only Saviour, that the Bible alone is their guide. They differ, however, in some other points, one of which is the binding claims of the Ten Commandments, and particularly the fourth command, which teaches that the seventh day is the Sabbath or Saturday.

Interesting speakers are now in attendance from various places. Professor Kern from Washington, D.C., spoke in the afternoon. His theme on the three specific phases of the Kingdom of God especially appealed to all.

In the evening at 8 o'clock, Elder M. J. Allen of Toronto spoke very enthusiastically on "The soon coming of Christ." He brought out many points that proved the event near. A large crowd was present and manifested more than an ordinary interest. A cordial invitation was extended to the people of this city to hear Elder M. M. Campbell Wednesday night. Mr. Campbell is the president of the Eastern Canadian Union Conference.

Joe Opechany appeared in the police court this morning, charged with theft of a number of articles of furniture. He was remanded until Friday. Annie Harr, on a charge of stealing flowers, was warned and allowed to go. A charge of assault preferred against Joseph Harridean, was adjourned for a week. A drunk was assessed $3.

DEAF MUTE IS DETERMINED TO BE A SOLDIER

Turned Down by the 215th,
He Met With Like Fate
From the Bantams.

LATTER OBTAINING MEN STEADILY

Half Holiday For the Men To-day in Order to Attend the Tattoo.

The local depot of the Bantam battalion yesterday received an application for enlistment from a deaf mute, who expressed in writing his desire to become a soldier. "I am not afraid of war," he stated, "I can nurse or cook, if I can't do anything else." Having been previously rejected by the 215th Battalion, but believing it to be because of his height, and being anxious to serve king and country, he applied to the Bantams, but was once more rejected, appearing to be deeply grieved. It is not every man who makes such efforts to don the khaki, but the example of this man should prove an inspiration to many who are physically fit.

Two recruits yesterday, through the energetic campaign now being prosecuted by the Bantams, most of whose time is devoted to recruiting. A list of eligibles has been obtained and is now being thoroughly checked over, every man upon it, wherever possible, being accosted personally and reasoned with courteously yet persuasively. With what results, is readily being seen in the fact that in the last four days seven recruits have been obtained, with many more still in view.

Lieut. McKissock is in Simcoe on business to-day. The work of the local squad continues, however, in his absence. A lecture upon "Duties" was delivered this morning by Serg. Denning, following which the men engaged in recruiting. The afternoon is a holiday in order to enable all to attend the military tattoo.

Some Competition.
Another bantam roster has been obtained, and will be placed in the hands of the others very shortly. The slogan of "One recruit for every egg; an egg for every recruit," is being kept in mind. The Bantams and their khaki-clad rivals, the latter being considerably in the lead at present. It is expected that a brood of chicks will be added to the exhibit in the window very shortly.

Corp. Gwyn is ill.
Corp. Gwyn, who returned to duty in Toronto last week, after some weeks sojourn in Brantford, is at present in the military hospital, Exhibition Camp, where on Monday he underwent an operation for peritonitis. He has the wishes of many local friends for a speedy recovery.

Camera Man at the Tattoo

Great Affair To-day, and Points of Interest as Well, to be Screened.

Thanks to the enterprise of Mr. C. J. Mitchell, a moving picture operator representing the Ford Monthly News is here to-day to take pictures of the great tattoo at Agricultural Park. He will take pictures of the 125th battalion and all the field sports held at the park this afternoon.

To-morrow he will proceed to take pictures with all other evangelists, such as the Bell homestead, Mohawk Institute, the Bell memorial in course of construction, the post office, the fire hall, and also the 215th battalion.

By Friday or Saturday of this week the pictures will be ready for the screen, and will be shown at the Brant, every day continuously for probably a whole week or even longer.

The republican candidates have practically started their campaign, and there will be no let up until election day.

FIGURES FOR ASSIGNED PAY

New Government Regulation Limits Amount For Each Month.

Lt. S. W. Seago, of B. Company, 125th battalion, has been detailed to take charge in future of the interior economy of the Base Details.

Evidence not being ready, the court of enquiry fixed for June 13 was dissolved. A new court will assemble tomorrow morning in a company orderly room for the purpose of investigating the illegal absence of a Paris member of the 125th battalion, Major Shultz, Lt. Oxtoby and Lt. Andrews will constitute the board.

Ptes. R. Ritchie and R. Kingdom are the winners of the compasses donated by Chas. A. Jarvis for the men obtaining highest marks in signalling classes. It is notified for the information of all concerned that commencing May 1st, 1916, the maximum amount of pay which a non-commissioned officer or man of the C.F.P. may assign is placed at twenty days pay of rank (exclusive of Field Allowance) per month.

All assignments of pay now running, which are above this maximum, will be reduced to the proper amount, beginning May 1st, 1916.

The monthly assignments for the different ranks, should not exceed the following:

Private	$20.00
Corporal	$22.00
Sergeant	$27.00
Staff Sergeant	$29.00
Bn. Q.M. Sergeant	$36.00

Where working pay is drawn, it may be assigned in addition to the 20 days pay of rank.

A bird, King of Rome, owned by Mr. C. H. Hudson, of Derby, flew in the same race, and won it by flying a distance of 1,091 miles in much less time than the Durham arrival. A hen pigeon, Her Majesty, flew from Bordeaux, in the South of France, to her loft at Aberdeen, a distance of 854 miles, but took several days over the journey.

TELLS OF GERMAN PLOTS IN INDIA

Rev. Roy C. Benson, B.A., Gives Interesting address at Fiverville Baptist Church.

In an address given under the auspices of the B.Y.P.U. of the Riverdale Baptist church, Rev. R. C. Benson, B.A., of Vuyyuru, India, a missionary of the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, told of attempts of German agents to stir up strife and sedition in India at the beginning of the war. Mr. Benson said that there were thousands of German spies there when the war began, and a mighty sigh of relief went up all over the country when it was felt that these were behind wire entanglements in internment camps.

He declared that India was not yet ready for self-government because of lack of education, lack of aggression and initiative. Custom and caste also held India in their grip. The loyalty of India to the British crown could not be questioned. The native princes had promised to send men and to open their money chests if money were needed for a victorious issue of the war.

In conclusion Mr. Benson told of some of the difficulties met by the missionary in the proclamation of the Gospel. But all these were gradually being overcome by the steady persistent teaching and preaching of Christ and His power to meet the needs of the people.

PIGEON FLYING RECORDS

The best record for long-distance flying is held at present by Messrs.
Vester and Scurry, of Spennymoor,
Durham, who possess a pigeon named Prince of Rome which flew from Rome to its loft in 1913, a distance of 1,093 miles, when competing in a test race.
A bird, King of Rome, owned by Mr.
C. H. Hudson, of Derby, flew in the same race, and won it by flying a distance of 1,091 miles in much less time than the Durham arrival. A hen pigeon, Her Majesty, flew from Bordeaux, in the South of France, to her loft at Aberdeen, a distance of 854 miles, but took several days over the journey.

A very satisfactory feat was performed by a bird owned by Dr. Barker, of Clitheroe, Lancs, which, when liberated at Mirande, in the South of France, flew home to Lancashire and entered its loft the day following the loss. The first English-bred bird to fly from Spain to England was a dark chequer cock named Alfonso, which in 1907 flew from San Sebastian to the loft of its owner, Mr. T. H. Burton, in the South of France, to her loft, a distance of 705 miles, homing on the third day following the loss, and thus winning the first prize in the Manchester Flying Club. Birds frequently flew from Paris to their lofts in France, to Yorkshire lofts, and reached home
the same days as the loss or, in bad weather, early the next morning.

Trade Worth While
Dr. M. Clark, M.P., writes: I sometimes tell them in the House of Commons that I wish the apple growers of British Columbia and the manufacturers of Ontario would take a leaf out of the book of the grain growers of the plains and the cattle raisers of Alberta. What is that leaf? Why it is this: That we raise such fine wheat and such beautiful beef that we defy competition, let it come from where it may. That is the kind of man the world has got to beat, and that is the kind of country one would be proud to inhabit.

Diseases of Calves
White scours or cholera is caused by a germ which enters the body of the calf shortly after birth. The symptoms generally appear when the calf is about three days old and death occurs shortly afterwards. The only method of avoiding this disease is by having the calf dropped in a clean stall and making sure that it does not come in contact with silt, or manure until the navel cord is dry.
At birth the cord should be tied and disinfected.

MOVIE MAN TO "TAKE" 215TH

To-morrow Morning Parade
Battalion Will Parade
For the Camera.

The muster roll of the 215th Battalion this morning stood at 507, although the actual strength is a few men over that figure. To-morrow morning, weather permitting, a most novel event will take place, when a moving picture will be taken of the full battalion on the march. For this purpose, the men have been called in to the city from Burford, St. George, and Scotland, while the Paris quota will arrive in the city early in the morning. With the companies now fully organized, men will no longer be stationed at Burford, Scotland and St. George, but will be united with the other squad. The Burford section will go to Paris, there to form a part of B Company, under Captain Pearce—the company being 125 strong—while the others will be annexated into A and C companies in the city.

A system of military police has now been established by the 215th Battalion, a squad of six men having been detailed for the duty, under the command of Provost Sergt. Arthur
C. R. Jones.

Economic Ties Must Find Allies

side of the proposals that our chief attention will be directed. The enemy countries are to be denied the favoured nation treatment during a certain unspecified number of years, and it is proposed that customs duties or prohibitions of a temporary or permanent character shall be adopted.

"On the question of prohibition, we shall be able to judge when we know what it is proposed to prohibit. As to tariffs, we do not think that an antiquated machine will be found very serviceable in practice.
Our allies have tried it and have failed with it. In our hands it would be a weapon against the allies as well as against ourselves. It would offer them tariffs where hitherto there were to be had free markets, but its most disastrous effect would be upon this country. What is the real factor that is enabling the allies to last out a war of endurance? It is the credit of one country, and that country is free trade England. It is the resource of free trade that enabled us to bear the strain of this unprecedented struggle. It is the resources of free trade which will finally give us victory. That is the fact which parliament will have in mind when it comes to the consideration of this great subject."

CHURCH ADVERTISING

"I believe," says Dr.

if churches spent as much for advertising as they do for music, they would have larger con-

If great causes were

Coal-boxes, minnow wafers, run jars, grenades and sawages, and you can take it from me that it was sure hell for about five hours. I wish that it was possible to explain just what one of these bombardments are like. No use trying, though, a fellow has to go through one to realize the damage they can do in a short time, and the noise they make. You just think there is an earthquake on all the time. It sounds as if there were express trains, brass foundries and machine shops flying through the air all the time, then a bang, and the earth trembles. She is some life, alright. They have nothing on us, though. They always get back more than they send now. We were all pleased when the later reports of the naval engagement came out, it certainly didn't sound any too good at first. Leave it to those boys in blue. They will make Fritz run for his hole every time.

Give my regards to all. GEORGE.

Seventh Day Adventists are Increasing One Thousand a Month Being Added to Their Numbers.

The annual conference of the Seventh Day Adventists is now in full operation, and a large delegation is present. The grounds, located near Rawdon street, on Colborne street East, are splendidly laid out with tents of various sizes. One large canvas building occupies the centre where the general work of the conference is daily being carried on; another for the youths, many of whom are present, and although a number of living tents are on the grounds, these being insufficient to accommodate the large number in attendance, the people of the city have gladly opened their homes for that purpose.

The Adventist people consider their conference as being of vital importance, being as it is a time when plans are made for the further progress of the work in the province and according to statistics derived from some of their prominent men on the grounds, the Adventist people are rapidly increasing throughout the world at the rate of over a thousand per month.

They have entered every place on the habitable globe, and are strictly a missionary people. They hold in common with all other evangelical bodies that Christ is their only Saviour, that the Bible alone is their guide. They differ, however, in some other points, one of which is the binding claims of the Ten Commandments, and particularly the fourth command, which teaches that the seventh day is the Sabbath or Saturday.

Interesting speakers are now in attendance from various places. Professor Kern from Washington, D.C., spoke in the afternoon. His theme on the three specific phases of the Kingdom of God especially appealed to all.

In the evening at 8 o'clock, Elder M. J. Allen of Toronto spoke very enthusiastically on "the soon coming of Christ." He brought out many points that proved the event near. A large crowd was present and manifested more than an ordinary interest. A cordial invitation was extended to the people of this city to hear Elder M. M. Campbell Wednesday night. Mr. Campbell is the president of the Eastern Canadian Union Conference.

With the City Police. Jos. Opechany appeared in the police court this morning, charged with theft of a number of articles of furniture. He was remanded until Friday. Annie Hill, on a charge of stealing flowers, was warned and allowed to go. A charge of assault preferred against Joseph Harridean, was adjourned for a week. A drunk was assessed $5.

DEAF MUTE IS DETERMINED TO BE A SOLDIER

Turned Down by the 215th, He Met With Like Fate From the Bantams.

LATTER OBTAINING MEN STEADILY

Half Holiday For the Men To-day in Order to Attend the Tattoo.

The local depot of the Bantam battalion yesterday received an application for enlistment from a deaf mute, who expressed in writing his desire to become a soldier. "I am not afraid of war," he stated, "I can nurse or cook, if I can't do anything else." Having been previously rejected by the 215th Battalion, but believing it to be because of his height, and being anxious to serve king and country, he applied to the Bantams, but was once more rejected, appearing to be deeply grieved. It is not every man who makes such efforts to don the khaki, but the example of this man should prove an inspiration to many who are physically fit.

Two recruits yesterday. The local depot of the Bantam battalion yesterday received an application for enlistment from a deaf mute, who expressed in writing his desire to become a soldier. "I am not afraid of war," he stated, "I can nurse or cook, if I can't do anything else." Having been previously rejected by the 215th Battalion, but believing it to be because of his height, and being anxious to serve king and country, he applied to the Bantams, but was once more rejected, appearing to be deeply grieved. It is not every man who makes such efforts to don the khaki, but the example of this man should prove an inspiration to many who are physically fit.

Lieut. McKissock is in Simcoe on business to-day. The work of the local squad continues, however, in his absence. A lecture upon "Duties" was delivered this morning by Sergt. Lenning, following which the men engaged in recruiting. The afternoon is a holiday in order to enable all to attend the military tattoo.

Some Competition. Another bantam rooster has been obtained, and will be placed in the window with the others very shortly. The slogan of "One recruit for every egg; an egg for every recruit," is exciting keen competition between the feathered bantams and their khaki-clad rivals, the latter being considerably in the lead at present. It is expected that a brood of chicks will be added to the exhibit in the window very shortly.

Corp. Gwyn is ill. Corp. Gwyn, who returned to duty in Toronto last week, after some weeks' sojourn in Brantford, is at present in the military hospital, Exhibition Camp, where on Monday he underwent an operation for peritonitis. He has the wishes of many local friends for a speedy recovery.

Great Affair To-day, and Points of Interest as Well, to be Screened.

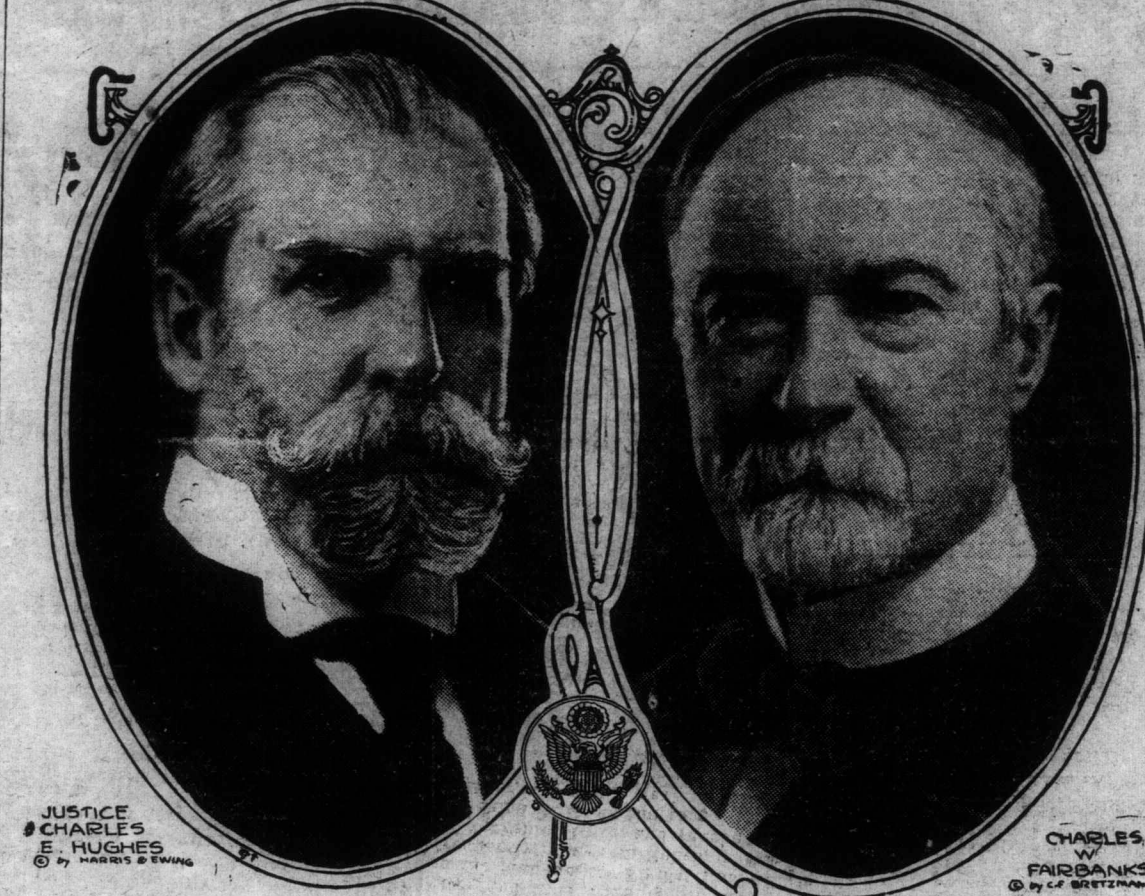

Thanks to the enterprise of Mr. C. J. Mitchell, a moving picture operator representing the Ford Monthly News is here to-day to take pictures of the great tattoo at Agricultural Park. He will take pictures of the 125th battalion and all the field sports held at the park this afternoon.

To-morrow he will proceed to take pictures of a general nature, such as the Bell memorial in course of construction, the post office, the fire hall, and also the 215th battalion. By Friday or Saturday of this week the pictures will be ready for the screen, and will be shown at the Brant, every day continuously for probably a whole week or even longer.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES HAVE STARTED CAMPAIGN

The republican candidates have practically started their campaign, and there will be no let up until election day.

FIGURES FOR ASSIGNED PAY

New Government Regulation Limits Amount For Each Month.

Lt. S. W. Seago, of B. Company, 125th battalion, has been detailed to take charge in future of the interior economy of the Base Detail. Evidence not being ready, the court of enquiry fixed for June 13 was dissolved. A new court will assemble to-morrow morning in a company orderly room for the purpose of investigating the illegal salary of a Paris member of the 125th battalion. Major Shultis, Lt. Oxtoby and Lt. Andrews will constitute the board.

Ptes. R. Ritchie and R. Kingdon are the winners of the compasses donated by Chas. A. Jarvis for the men obtaining highest marks in signalling classes. It is notified for the information of all concerned that, commencing May 1st, 1916, the maximum amount of pay which a non-commissioned officer or man of the C.E.F., may assign is placed at twenty days pay of rank (exclusive of Field Allowance) per month. All assignments of pay now running, which are above this maximum, will be reduced to the proper amount, beginning May 1st, 1916.

TELLS OF GERMAN PLOTS IN INDIA

Rev. Roy C. Benson, B.A., Gives Interesting Address at Fiverville Baptist Church.

In an address given under the auspices of the B.F.P.U. of the Riverdale Baptist church, Rev. R. C. Benson, B.A., of Vuyuru, India, a missionary of the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, told of attempts of German agents to stir up strife and sedition in India at the beginning of the war. Mr. Benson said that there were thousands of German spies there when the war began, and a mighty sigh of relief went up all over the country when it was felt that these were behind wire entanglements in internment camps.

He declared that India was not yet ready for self-government because of lack of education, lack of aggression and initiative. Custom and caste also held India in their grip. The loyalty of India to the British crown could not be questioned. The native princes had promised to send men and to open their money chests if money were needed for a victorious issue of the war.

PIGEON FLYING RECORDS

The best record for long distance flying is held at present by Messrs. Vester and Scurr, of Spennymer, in Durham, who possess a pigeon named Prince of Rome which flew from Rome to its loft in 1915, a distance of 1,893 miles, when competing in a test race. A bird, King of Rome, owned by Mr. C. H. Hudson, of Derby, flew in the same race, and won it by flying a distance of 1,001 miles in much less time than the Durham arrival. A hen pigeon, Her Majesty, flew from Bordeaux, in the South of France, to her loft at Aberdeen, a distance of 854 miles, but took several days over the journey.

A very satisfactory feat was performed by a bird owned by Dr. Barker, of Clitheroe, Lancs, which, when chased at Mirande, in the South of France, flew home to Lancashire and entered its loft the day following the loss. The first English-bred bird to fly from Spain to England was a dark chequer cock named Alfonso, which in 1907 flew from San Sebastian to the loft of its owner, Mr. T. H. Burton, of Liverpool, a distance of 705 miles, homing on the third day following the loss, and thus winning the first prize in the Manchester Flying Club. Birds frequently flew from Rennes, in France, to Yorkshire lofts, and reached home the same days as the loss or, in bad weather, early the next morning.

Trade Worth While. Dr. M. Clark, M.P., writes: I sometimes tell them in the House of Commons that I wish the apple growers of British Columbia and the manufacturers of Ontario would take a leaf out of the book of the grain growers of the plains and the cattle raisers of Alberta. What is that leaf? Why it is this: That we raise such fine wheat and such beautiful beef that we defy competition, let it come from where it may. That is the kind of man the world has got to beat, and that is the kind of country one would be proud to inhabit.

Diseases of Calves. White scours of cholera is caused by a germ which enters the body through the navel shortly after birth. The symptoms generally appear when the calf is about three days old and death occurs shortly afterwards. The only method of avoiding this disease is by having the calf dropped in a clean stall and making sure that it does not come in contact with filth or manure until the navel cord is dry. At birth the cord should be tied and disinfected.

Scholar and Cricketer. Dr. Edward Lyttleton, who retired from the headmastership of Eton, will be always remembered as a cricketer. He was a captain of the greatest eleven that either University has turned out, the 1878 Cambridge team, which never lost a match and beat the Australians.

MOVIE MAN TO "TAKE" 215TH

To-morrow Morning Whole Battalion Will Parade For the Camera.

The muster roll of the 215th Battalion this morning stood at 507, although the actual strength is a few men over that figure. To-morrow morning, weather permitting, a most novel event will take place, when a moving picture will be taken of the full battalion on the march. For this purpose, to men have been called in to the city from Burford, St. George, and Scotland, while the Paris quota will arrive in the city early in the morning. With the companies now fully organized, men will no longer be stationed at Burford, Scotland and St. George, but will be united with the other squads. The Burford section will go to Paris, there to form a part of B Company, under Captain Pearce—the company being 125 strong—while the others will be amalgamated into A and C companies in the city.

Economic Ties Must Find Allies

(Continued from Page 1.) side of the proposals that my chief attention will be directed. The enemy countries are to be denied the favored nation treatment during a certain unspecified number of years, and it is proposed that customs duties or prohibitions of a temporary or permanent character shall be adopted. On the question of prohibition, we shall be able to judge when we know what it is proposed to prohibit. As to tariffs, we do not think that an antiquated machine will be found very serviceable in practice. Our allies have tried it and have failed with it. In our hands it would be a weapon against the allies as well as against ourselves. It would offer them tariffs where hitherto there were to be had free markets, but its most disastrous effect would be upon this country. What is the real factor that is enabling the allies to last out a war of endurance? It is the credit of one country, and that country is free trade England. It is the resources of free trade that enabled us to bear the strain of this unprecedented struggle. It is the resources of free trade which will finally give us victory. That is the fact which parliament will have in mind when it comes to the consideration of this great subject.

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER EVERY YEAR EVERY MONTH EVERY DAY CHURCH ADVERTISING

"I believe," says Dr. Talcott Williams, "that if churches spent as much for advertising as they do for music, they would have larger congregations and better worship." "If great causes were to spend more money in the public press instead of depending on begging for their support, they would undoubtedly come much nearer to success." Thought is moving in this direction. The churches are using more and better advertising, while many public movements have been successfully carried on through the advertising columns of the daily newspapers.

Vienna, June 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The general state of belligerency in Europe has not only modified the material course of life, but has had such an influence on the psychology of the public that after two years, a state of war has become an almost normal condition, according to a writer contributor to a prominent Polish newspaper.

GUNS CAN FIRE THOUSANDS OF SHELLS. Pairs, June 21.—The number of shots that can be fired from one of the French 3-inch guns before it is worn out has, in at least one instance, been found to be as high as 18,830, according to the actual count kept by a young artilleryman, who has sent these figures in from the front. While the three-inch was known to be robust cannon, the theoretical estimate before the war was that a thousand shots would probably be the limit of its efficiency.

Big Bank to Help Trade

New Organization is Said to Have Been Started in London.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, June 21.—Although the London morning papers all deny reports of a new international banking house with an initial capital of £10,000,000, under the supervision of the government to assist British traders and manufacturers to secure a big share of the trade with the allied countries after the war, it appears that tentative plans for some such organization are being discussed in high financial quarters. It is felt that a great bank of this type, co-operating with similar institutions in France, Italy and Russia, would enable British traders to participate to the exclusion of the Germans, in the enormous work of restoring the ravaged portions of Europe.

The Daily Telegraph says that Sir Edward Holden, head of the largest bank in the world, views with great interest the efforts being made in this direction. "The Times" says: "We believe that the proposed banking institution is needed, and that some form of co-operation between the present English banks, brought by government intervention will be the best basis for its creation."

KAISER'S DOOM IS CERTAIN

Revolution at End of War Expected by Many Experts.

HE HAS TAKEN PRECAUTIONS

Failure to Win War Means End of Hohenzollern Dynasty.

The inevitable deposition of the Kaiser and the precautions he has taken to ensure his personal safety in view of a popular revolution in Berlin are disclosed in a remarkable article in the "New York Herald," by Mr. F. Cunliffe-Owen, the writer, until the outbreak of the war, was a personal friend of the Kaiser, and owing to his acquaintance with the eminent German-American financiers and others is closely in touch with the real conditions in Germany.

The Kaiser's failure to bring the present war to a successful issue means the disappearance of the Hohenzollerns from among the reigning houses of the Old World, he writes. Neither in the Seven Years' War, nor in the beginning of the nineteenth century, when the First Napoleon laid so heavy a hand upon Prussia, were the people confronted by such appalling ruin as that which now stares them in the face.

Germany's Confidence Shattered.
The German people are heartily sick of the war. Popular sentiment is in favor of its speedy termination, no matter at what cost. That intense aversion from any further continuance of the struggle prevails throughout the minor sovereign States of the German Empire, as well as in Austria, Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria, and even Prussia, is an acknowledged fact.

All the confidence that prevailed in Germany in the ultimate victory of her cause and in the invincibility of her army has disappeared. The most cherished illusions of the people in this connection—illusions in which they have been reared from their earliest infancy—have been rudely shattered.

They have reached the conclusion that any further struggle is hopeless and that in the circumstances the only thing to be done is to secure an early peace on the least onerous terms. Germany is face to face with the prospect not only of receding no indemnities from the hostile Powers but even of being called upon herself to pay overwhelming indemnities.

Faced With National Ruin.
This spells national ruin. The expenditure already incurred by the imperial government in connection with the war is of such altogether phenomenal size that the revenues even in the most prosperous years prior to the present conflict, would not be sufficient to meet the obligations.

When one considers that even in the years immediately preceding the war the financial condition of the imperial Treasury was already a

GASSING HIM
What now?—Halifax Herald.

source of profound anxiety to the government, that the annual taxation had to be increased to an absolutely crushing amount, and that in 1913 the Government was obliged to have recourse to the extraordinary measure of imposing a heavy and graduated special levy on all capital and property, some notion may be obtained of the economic crisis that faces the Kaiser and his Government.

Revolution Inevitable.
Moreover, since the State has mobilized all specie, all foreign, domestic industrial, and commercial securities, and even all feminine jewelry and silver plate, and since most industries are at a standstill, every foreign market being closed, there is nothing of real value left among the people with which to pay the taxes.

All are anxious to suspend further hostilities and to obtain the best terms possible from the enemy, and it is the Berlin Government persists in continuing the struggle we are likely to witness in the very near future a secession from the Central Power alliance not only of Austria, Hungary, Turkey, and Bulgaria, but even of the southern States of the German Empire, each endeavoring to obtain an independent peace on the least onerous terms.

Nowhere in Prussia—in fact, nowhere in Germany—is the Kaiser the object of more profound resentment than in Berlin. His has for the last 25 years been so convinced that sooner or later he would have to face a popular revolution at Berlin that he has reconstructed at enormous cost the entire system of barracks in the metropolis, so as to facilitate the movement of the picked troops which are always kept in Berlin to deal with any rising.

He knows full well that a Berlin street mob is more formidable than the populace of any other European capital, and has organized all sorts of contingents for his personal safety in view thereof, including subterranean passages from the opera and from the palace to the strongly defended arsenal, while a few miles out of the city, on an island of the Havel, he has built for himself a stronghold to which he and his family could retire in times of danger.

Old Prophecies Coming True.
The Germans and specially the Prussians, even still more so the Berliners, ascribe to William the first by which they have been overtaken, all their economic disasters, and, above all, the failure to achieve the promised victories in the present war. They have lost faith in him.

All the glamor and prestige with which he had formerly managed to envelop himself have disappeared. He stands in their eyes as a failure and as the author of all their present troubles and of those still worse which they know are in store for them. There are many old-time popular prophecies, according to which he is destined to be the last ruler of his race, the last of the Hohenzollern Kings of Prussia. These prophecies are now within measurable distance of their fulfillment.

NEEDS FORTITUDE TO STAND TRIALS

King of Bavaria Calls on the People to Endure Famine.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
Berlin, June 19 (New York Times cable)—King Ludwig of Bavaria in a speech at a celebration of the Bavarian Candle Day at Munich said: "The German Empire with its allies is fighting almost the whole world, and it is clear that one cannot get done with it in six months. Since our enemies are unable to conquer us by force of arms, they seek to compel us through hunger and need to make a humble peace. It is the task of those remaining at home to endure these times of trial. At that they will have far less to undergo than those standing before the enemy, particularly those fighting around Verdun."

"We must hold out. It necessarily involves great difficulties to adjust the interests of the individual states and of the several circles of population, but it must and will be done. Above all, patience and endurance is required. One's courage must not be allowed to sink by those at home any more than by our brave comrades facing the enemy."

"This great and burdensome war has at least taught us one lesson. We must see to it that we can in future feed ourselves without any outside help. That will only be possible by encouraging farming. As you know, I myself have for a long time been engaged in farming, and from my own experience it can only prosper when practiced intensively."

CAMP BORDEN ABOUT TO OPEN

Advance Parties of Special Services Leaving For New Area Friday.

STAFF GOES THERE MONDAY

By July 11th All Units Will be Transferred There.

Toronto, June 21.—The definite announcement that Camp Borden will open on Friday of this week, when advance parties from the Engineers, Army Service Corps, Ordnance Corps and Army Medical Corps will leave for the camp, was made last night by Brig-Gen. W. A. Logie, G.O.C. the military district, who, in company with the heads of all departments on the headquarters staff, spent part of the day at the camp making a general inspection of the arrangements for the troops. Gen. Logie, with Lieut.-Col. H. C. Bickford, G.S.O.; Lieut.-Col. H. Osborne, D.A.A., and Q.M.-C., Major G. S. Milford, A.D. S. and T., and other officers of the headquarters staff, will move to the new camp on Monday next, and on Wednesday of next week the advance parties of the first battalions to enter camp (which, according to present arrangements will be those from Exhibition Camp) will leave for Camp Borden, with the battalions following a few days later. A steady movement of troops will then follow until July 11, by which date Gen. Logie expects all units now ready will have moved to the new area. Railway facilities will permit of the handling of only four battalions a day, so that it will take some little time to move all units from the different parts of the military district into the new camp.

It was said by officers who made the tour of the new training area yesterday that the camp is getting into very fair shape, with the water supply already adequate for a considerable number of men, three of the wells already being in shape and a fourth in process of being bored. A temporary pump is filling the storage tanks, and water is already in the mains. The sewers are also nearly completed, and many of the buildings for the different departments are ready. The work has been severely handicapped owing to the persistent bad weather, but a few clear days will permit of a great deal of the work being completed.

In discussing the medical arrangements for the new camp, Col. F. W. Marlow, A.D.M.S., stated that he anticipates very little sickness in proportion to the number of men who are to be at Camp Borden, since the sandy nature of the soil will prevent any trouble from rain. It being found yesterday that the ground was quite dry although so much rain had fallen recently, the splendid air of the camp, which is approximately on the same level as Lake Simcoe, is expected also to have an important effect on the health of the men. For the camp hospital a good position has been selected within easy access of a siding so that patients may be sent to Toronto daily, and for this purpose a hospital car will be run each day from the camp to the city.

No details have yet been arranged as to the manner in which the different units will be brigaded at the new camp, but this matter together with a number of others, will be taken up to-day when the Minister of Militia is to be at Niagara to confer with Brig-Gen. Logie and other officers of the headquarters staff.

GENERAL PFANZ AUSTRIAN AR DIVIDED

Russians, Despite Moving Forward Lemburg and Prisoners Upward

Petrograd, June 21.—On the northern flank of General Brusilov front, the Austrian resistance considerably stiffened by the arrival of a large number of German reinforcements, succeeded, momentarily, checking the Russian drive between Lutsk and Kovel, which, directed against Vladimir-Volynsk, has been destroying the Austrian communications between Kovel and Lembe. But in spite of the violent Austrian counter-attacks, one which broke through the Russian lines, the latest reports are to effect the Russians have again summed progress in this sector, at taking the usual toll of prisoners. On the southern flank the Austrians have been unable to check, even momentarily, the Russian advance toward Kolmea and toward the first Diester fortification of Halich.

GENERAL PFANZER'S SOUTHERN AUSTRIAN ARMY IS IN FLIGHT; DIVIDED INTO TWO PARTS

Russians, Despite Local Checks, are Moving Forward Steadily Towards Lemberg and Have Gathered in as Prisoners Upward of 170,000 Men.

Petrograd, June 21.—On the northern flank of General Brusiloff's front, the Austrian resistance considerably stiffened by the arrival of a large number of German reinforcements, succeeded, momentarily, in checking the Russian drive between Lutsk and Kovel, which, directed against Vladimir-Volynski, aims at destroying the Austrian communications between Kovel and Lemberg. But in spite of the violent Austro-German counter-attacks, one of which broke through the Russian lines, the latest reports are to the effect that the Russians have again resumed progress in this sector, after taking the usual toll of prisoners. What every Mother should know Every mother should know that Dr. Cassell's Tablets are just as suitable for children as they are for grown-up people. Their special nutritive and strengthening properties overcome any tendency to nervousness or weakness in the little ones, and lay the foundation of a strong constitution for after years. They make weakly children thrive.

Dr. Cassell's Tablets should be given to all children who are in any way delicate, fretful, or of weakly build. The results will be improved assimilation, a well-nourished frame, and bright, happy child health. There is no difficulty in getting children to take Dr. Cassell's Tablets. Full directions and dosage are given with each packet.

Dr. Chas. Botwood, D.Sc., Ph.D., &c., an English Scientist, says:—"As a safe and reliable remedy for loss of flesh and vigour, nerve affections, and bodily weakness, Dr. Cassell's Tablets appear to be unique. I have no hesitation in recommending them for young or old."

Canadian Order of Foresters

37th Annual Meeting of the High Court— Over Five Hundred Delegates Present

The 37th Annual Meeting of the Canadian Order of Foresters convened on Tuesday afternoon, the 20th of June, in the Masonic Hall, in the City of London, Ont., at 2 p.m. Delegates are in attendance from all parts of the Dominion, every province being represented.

The following officers of High Court were present at the opening session: J. A. Stewart, High Chief Ranger, Perth, Ont., in the chair; J. A. A. Brodeur, High Vice-Chief Ranger, Montreal, Que.; Robert Elliott, High Secretary, Brantford, Ont.; Dr. U. M. Stanley, Chairman of the Medical Board, Brantford, Ont.; W. G. Strife, Superintendent of the Order, Brantford, Ont.; W. L. Roberts, First High Auditor, Brantford, Ont.; J. P. Hoag, Second High Auditor, Toronto, Ont.; W. A. Hollinrake, High Court Solicitor, Brantford, Ont., and A. R. Galpin, London, Ont.; F. H. Davidson, Winnipeg, Man.; A. R. Corfin, Truro, N.S.; A. E. Wright, Toronto, Ont.; Dr. J. C. H. H. Hamilton, Brantford, Ont., members of the executive committee.

In addition to the above, D. Creighton, Dist. H. C. R., Brandon, Man.; John Murray, Past Dist. H. C. R., Hamilton, Ont.; and D. E. McKinnon, District High Secretary, Winnipeg, Man., representatives from the District High Court for Manitoba, were present.

The annual reports of the different officers of this Order are of a very satisfactory nature, showing that the steady progress which has been its characteristic since its inception in 1873, was continued in the year 1915. This order confines its business entirely to the Dominion of Canada, and notwithstanding the tremendous handicap imposed on the work of the year just closed shows splendid progress.

The increase in the Insurance Fund during the year amounted to $446,000. This is the largest addition to the fund in any one year in the history of the Order. The standing of the Fund at the end of the year after the payment of 1915 Death Claims, amounting to $69,173.88, showed a balance on hand of $5,295,368.32, the amount at the present time being $5,385,688. The yearly revenue derived from the investments of the Order now constitute a very substantial amount of the Order's income. Interest earned on investments of Insurance Funds during 1915 amounted to $251,432.51, and paid 42.45 per cent of the total Death Claims on the Order.

In respect to the matter of investments, it is interesting to know that the fund to Government Bonds and Municipal and School Debentures in the Dominion during the year 1915, the last two years, with an exceptional market in such direction from the investment point of view, the Executive Committee has been able to take very extensive advantage of the increase in the price of Government War Bonds issued by the Dominion Government in the latter part of 1914. The Sick and Funeral Benefit Fund shows a larger net increase than that experienced in any previous year in the Order's history. The increase for the year being $55,398.81. Interest earned on investments of Sick and Funeral Benefit Funds (these investments being of a similar nature to those made on the part of the Order) amounted to $2,746.97, and after the payment of 1,472 Sick and Funeral Claims amounting to $1,814,924.56, the amount standing at the credit of this fund was $66,823.37, the fund at the present time standing at $67,609.55.

The General Fund is also in a satisfactory condition, the increase for the year, connected with the war and the arrangement for carrying enlisted members heretofore, referred to, have been arranged without any inconvenience to this fund.

In respect to membership, substantial progress was also made; the membership at the end of the year 1915 standing at 62,000.

Besides the ordinary benefits from its life insurance and sick and funeral benefit departments, special provision is made for assistance to those of its members suffering from tubercular trouble of any kind. A special grant is made extending over a period of six months, with a view to assisting to defray the cost of treatment in any of a number of sanitariums in Canada making a specialty of such cases, and the membership is urged to take advantage of such treatment in the incipient stages of the disease.

It is gratifying to note, after a perusal of the reports of all the officers, the far-reaching benefits that are being derived by the membership in the various directions in which the society endeavours to be of assistance to the individuals who compose it. Since 1873, about eleven million dollars have been paid out in benefits by this Order, and in fact, the whole record of the Order is well worth the perusal of those who perhaps have been sceptical regarding the permanency and stability of fraternal features of this kind. The reports furnish evidence of careful management in the conduct of the Order's affairs, and reflect credit on the officers of this Order.

A point of general interest, as indicated in the preceding report, is the "death rate." This for 1915 was 1.20 per thousand, but if we deduct the war claims paid it would have been .820, and the average death rate since the inception of the Order, for a period of nearly 47 years, is 1.31 per thousand.

In closing the report of the superintendent, the superintendent reports that he has been able to report the satisfaction of thirty-four (34) new members to establish agencies as new members are being added to the Order. He also reports that the Order has opened up Particular Attention is evidently being paid to establishment of Subordinate Courts only in such places as offer a reasonable prospect of permanency.

The statement that this Order has accorded to those of its members who have enlisted for overseas service has been most liberal. The insurance of all members who were in the Order prior to the 1st of August, 1914, and who have enlisted for overseas service, is kept in force without any increase in rates. In addition to this, the Order has provided for the insurance and sick and funeral benefit arrangements of such members were made out of the General Fund of High Court. On the 1st of February, 1916, this policy was slightly changed, and the Order has provided for the insurance of those who are serving in the Empire, and who have enlisted since the 1st of August, 1914, and who have made all insurance premiums or assessments, providing he was in the Order prior to the declaration of war. At the present time there are about 2,000 members of the Canadian Order of Foresters actually overseas, who are presenting an insurance of $2,000,000.00, which is being carried by the present Order. It is expected that the number of those who are serving in the Empire, and who have enlisted since the 1st of August, 1914, will be increased to more than 300 members. This means more than $100,000.00 of war insurance paid by the Order.

As usual on such occasions, a very considerable amount of business was transacted, and the sessions will probably occupy their attention till the 23rd instant.

The arrangement for carrying enlisted members heretofore, referred to, have been arranged without any inconvenience to this fund.

TRADE RELATIONS AFTER THE WAR

London Chamber of Commerce Has Ideas on the Subject.

London, June 21.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The London Chamber of Commerce at a recent special meeting adopted resolutions favoring reciprocal trading relations between all parts of the British Empire; favorable treatment of neutral nations; regulation by tariff or otherwise of trade relations with all "enemy countries" to render impossible a return to pre-war conditions, and for stimulating the development of home manufactures and the consequent increased employment of native labor; and that steps should be taken to prevent dumping (and under valuation) of "enemy goods" into British markets after the war.

It was suggested that a tentative tariff for five years on an ad valorem basis might be applied, subject to negotiations with all parties concerned for the settlement of a scientific tariff with specific duties, if the latter should be considered preferable. The Dominions should however, be left free to determine their fiscal relations with Allied neutral and "enemy" countries, unless it were agreed that the Home and Dominion Governments should act together in the negotiations. After consultation with various interests a committee drew up a tentative tariff, the duties under which vary from 30 per cent maximum, to 10 per cent maximum ad valorem, for wholly manufactured goods, to five per cent maximum on raw foodstuffs (some being admitted free). Raw materials would be exempt from duty. Alcoholic drinks, tobacco and other articles now subject to duties would bear an extra fifty per cent when imported from enemy countries and a substantial duty would be imposed on German and Austrian mineral waters.

The statement that this Order has accorded to those of its members who have enlisted for overseas service has been most liberal. The insurance of all members who were in the Order prior to the 1st of August, 1914, and who have enlisted for overseas service, is kept in force without any increase in rates. A REVIVAL OF PEDESTRIANISM

Paris Women Making a Fashion of Going Walking.

Paris, June 20.—Pedestrianism is being revived in France. The women particularly are taking to walking, even though they may have ample means to indulge in motoring, both for the healthful exercise and the economy. The new and more commodious styles of women's skirts make walking easier, and there is a certain amount of rusticity about the new fashions that does not go well with the motor car, and it is suggested that this latter point has been an aesthetic reason for the revival of walking.

Every morning the popular alley of the Bois de Boulogne are turned into training quarters by these new adepts of pedestrianism. The reduced number of motor cars flying around Paris and the consequent diminution of the dust nuisance on the suburban roads has made walking to Saint Cloud and other delightful spots more comfortable.

Maine's Nominee

Carl E. Milliken is Republican Choice for Governor.

Portland, Me., June 21.—Carl E. Milliken, of Island Falls, was nominated by the Republicans for governor at the state primaries yesterday. With 100 towns missing, Frederick Hale, of Portland, had an apparently safe lead for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

There was no opposition to the re-nomination of Governor Oakley C. Curtis and of the present Democratic representatives to Congress.

AFTER EVENT OF A BOXING BOUT

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, June 20, 2.50 p.m.—The death of Valentine Hood, a pugilist at the National Sporting Club early today after a boxing contest in which he had been engaged with Charles Hardcastle had a sequel in Bow St. police court this afternoon, when Hood was sentenced to six months in the National Sporting Club; J. E. Douglas, referee; the timekeeper of the bout and two seconds, together with Hardcastle, were jointly charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Hood. They were remanded for a week, bail being allowed.

Hood was knocked out in the 14th round last night and died early this morning.

MILITARY CROSSHERO

HOW LIEUT. MCARTHUR CAPTURED A TRENCH AND 45 GERMAN PRISONERS. DECORATED BY THE KING.

It was announced recently that Second-Lieut. William B. McArthur, of the 1st Battalion Royal Scots Fusiliers, second son of Mr. and Mrs. McArthur, of Danbury, Montserrat, New Malden, has been awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry at the front. The deed for which he received the award is officially described as follows by the "Surrey Comet" of May 29th last:—

For conspicuous determination when in charge of a working party of men from a trench and brought back as prisoners over forty armed enemy. The gallant officer, who is 22 years of age, returned on leave from France last week, and by Royal Command, attended at Buckingham Palace on Wednesday morning to receive his decoration at the hands of His Majesty the King, along with a number of other young officers.

The full story of the young officer's gallant deed may now be told—a deed in which he displayed a coolness and presence of mind which enabled him to extricate himself and his small party of men from a perilous position and at the same time capture as prisoners-of-war no fewer than 45 armed Germans!

In the early morning of March 27th it was decided to explode three mines in the St. Eloi salient, and Lieut. McArthur, with twenty men of the Royal Scots Fusiliers, were entrusted with some dangerous work in the vicinity of these mines. Before the Lieutenant and his men could return to safety the mines exploded and the contour of the ground was so altered by the explosions that in the darkness the party lost their way. As they were proceeding cautiously in what they thought was the direction of the British trenches, five figures suddenly appeared in front of them. Immediately on Lieut. McArthur challenging the strangers, "Who goes there?"—an illuminating shell burst and revealed the helmet of a German officer who was the leading man of the five.

"Halt!" shouted Lieut. McArthur, at the same time drawing his revolver and dropping on his knee. Two shots rang out in the darkness, and the German officer fell, mortally wounded; with the remainder of the off-icers a number of the off-icers were accounted for. A corporal with the party then came from behind, and Lieut. McArthur, on his (the Lieutenant's) shoulder, the fifth man was disposed of.

While the German officer was lying on the ground, the corporal, using a British officer's coat to him, "Suspecting treachery, however, the officer demanded if it was possible not to comply with the request, and proceeded with his duties. As the call for the British officer was repeated, the corporal eventually went to ascertain what the German officer wanted. On reaching him the German took the iron cross off his breast and handed it to the corporal.

Being called to dinner by the striking peal of a bell made of a cannon shell was a novelty in use in Toronto. The bell shown in the sketch was made of a 3-inch brass shell, and when struck with a gavel gives out tones that penetrate throughout a large house. The cap piece was removed at A, and an eyebolt fastened in place with a nut on each side. The gong was suspended from a wall bracket made of a band of brass fastened to the wall—Popular Mechanics.

FOOLISH PARROTS
New Zealand Natives Catch Them Cleverly and Easily
The New Zealand kakaapo, or large parrot, with all its credit for brains, allows itself to be caught in a very simple manner. In the dusk of the early dawn the Maori, carrying tame kakaapo tied to long sticks, set off to hunt. These are the call-birds used to attract by their screams the large flocks of kakaapos flying overhead. When one Maori tethers the call-birds by the leg, and sets them screaming to the full extent of their lusty lungs, another cuts as many perches as there are men in the hunting party from the neighboring bush. By means of a large flock of parrots, hearing their cries, penetrate through the trees. Each perch is so fixed that it can be drawn into the "whare" through the roof. On the perches are placed running nooses of flax, and when all is prepared, each Maori sits quietly within the "whare" with his flax cord in his hand ready to pull at the right moment.

In Front of the Cultural Park, the Brant Battalion Exhibitions of Order Drill, Manly Practices—Vaudeville and Good Natured Wonderful Shows

Exhibitions of various kind of drill given by 125th, both a term and evening. Thousands upon thousands people at both performances. Grand attack at night of fort held by Germans on the dyke with its capture and demolition. Midway and vaudeville features strongly in evidence. No disorder of any kind manifested during the day. Grand parade from Victoria Park to grounds afternoon evening. Battalion bands, including 133rd Battalion band, and every military man in Brantford in attendance.

If there is such a thing as the realization of a wish, then Brantford was privileged to witness such things yesterday under the auspices of the World Patriotic League, a grand military tattoo was held at Agricultural Park, Brantford, Ontario, on Tuesday evening, June 20th, 1916. The 125th Battalion, Brantford, was the main attraction. The military exercises, the function took the form of a military exercise performance of the companies and platoons of the unit. The performance in the afternoon, except that a display of fireworks was held, the whole function was concluded a brilliant spectacle and a triumph by a number of soldiers strongly decorated German officers for the occasion upon the day.

Tremendous Crowds. An incidental phase of the day the devotion of the proceeds of two performances towards the purchase of a field kitchen for the 125th was shown by the military crowd which honored the tattoo by its presence. It is years since such numbers have gathered for a military exercise.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Supplying Coal for the Dominion Buildings, 400 P.M. on Wednesday, June 22, 1916, for the supply of coal for the Public Buildings throughout the Dominion.
