THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 25, 1885

TEMPERANCE

A meeting of the King's Co. Executive (Sect. Act) Committee was held at Coldbrook on Monday last when it was decided to amalgamate with the Nova Scotia branch of the Dominion Alliance.

SCHOOL MEETING

One of the most important, and should be the best attended, meetings of the year is the annual school meeting, which will be held in the several school-houses of the Province on Monday next.

THE LATE YACHT RACE

One of the most exciting events of the past few weeks was the race between the American sloop yacht 'Paritien' and the English cutter yacht 'Genesta' for the 'America's cup.'

Since writing the above we see that the 'Genesta' has beaten in several races in which she has sailed against American yachts, and while she is claimed not to be by any means the fastest English yacht she is probably fast enough for the majority of American yachts.

THREE THINGS.

There are three things in this world of ours which seem from their very nature fitted to surpass all others in their hold upon men and women; Love, Money, and Other People's Business.

Of the first perhaps information may best be gained by experience and we find it in everything around us. It binds us together in a common brotherhood. It is the light of our home, the joy of our youth, the hope of our manhood and the comfort of our old age.

Of the second, too, the more experience we have the better we like it. It is a kind of medicine best appreciated in large doses and often taken. The love of money is the root of all evil—another proof of the power of love and also a proof of the first assertion in our article.

To money we owe many things, and many people owe us money but it is surprising what a different face the two terms assume in our eyes. We might enlarge on this fact but we will pass on to other people's business.

Of this the less said the better, but it is to be regretted that more of the public and private mind to-day than any other topic, is vitiated and drunk and the different materials of its composition are rolled as a luscious morsel on the tongues of the old and young. It varies in consistency with every town and country and people. It occupies a prominent place in every sphere of life, and is eagerly discussed in every degree of society.

Some people take an especial interest in it and are ever on the alert for some fresh tidbit to retail to eager ears and inquiring minds. We do not hesitate to say that in point of energetic and unrelenting pursuit of his (or her) calling the busy body is a lion equalled, never exceeded. Nothing escapes their eyes. He is at the street corner. Mr. and Mrs. Blank pass down street. Instantly he sees an engagement and marriage and cake and disatisfied relatives and rejected suitors, and money considerations, and a host of other things, and away he goes to break the news gently at the sewing circle or the fireside or the corner grocery.

Busybody catches a merchant taking an inventory of his stock, or posting his books after hours, or perhaps in earnest conversation with a stranger over the best kind of cattle to feed on (or corn) and his active mind sees visions of failures, and assets, and liabilities, and preferential claims, and defrauded creditors, and five cents on the dollar; and as these, and the innumerable details which accompany them, assume shape in his brain (if he has one with him) he imparts them in solemn facts to his sub-agents, who spread the joyful news with a zest and vigor which would be admirable in any other cause.

Mr. Blank leaves home for a few days and fancy, (or the Devil) pictures before the eyes of Busybody, domestic infelicity and unhappiness, and that too goes the rounds. None escape. The innocent girl, the loving wife, the hardworking laborer, the weary merchant, the industrious farmer, all have their turn and come into notoriety through his influence and untiring diligence.

But why prolong it? The story is old and well known, and the query is, how can this fiend be exterminated. Stop now, dear reader; we are coming home. What did you suppose the other day when you heard that Mr. Soudan was doing such and such a thing and what remark did you make to your friend? There it is in a nutshell. We are all, or nearly all, in the same boat, and until we who despise the busy body, put a bridle on our own tongues we will be cursed with that large and influential body of people who have none of their own and always mind "Other People's Business."

THE MINING ENGINEERS.

As previously announced by the city papers, a number of the members of the American Institute of Engineers arrived at Halifax on the 16th inst. and held their first session in the Legislative Council Chamber, which was largely attended by ladies and citizens. Mr. Jamine, chairman of the executive committee, after welcoming the visiting engineers, introduced Sir Adams G. Archibald, chairman of the general committee, who addressed them, and on behalf of the whole people of the Province, tendered them a cordial welcome. In the course of his remarks, which we regret that for want of space we are unable to publish in full, he said: "That good-old King George, although one of the most frugal, honest, and conscientious of sovereigns, even if the most obstinate and self-willed, had not a very reputable family of sons, and notwithstanding his frugality wasted millions on millions on war, and this obstinacy cost England the thirteen states which formed the nucleus of their great country. And all the results of his conscientious and honest efforts to bring up his sons in the fear of God tended to make them scoundrels and spendthrifts. After the death of the good old man, his son George reigned in his stead. The new King, while Prince of Wales, was habitually over head and ears in debt. Among his brothers, the Duke of York was perhaps the most extravagant and had managed to incur a frightful amount of debt, which the sovereign was advised to pay by a grant to the Duke of all the mines and minerals of Nova Scotia. The advice was acted upon and the grant passed on the 26th of August was transferred to his creditors on the 12th Sept. and within four months after the Duke was in his grave. In this grant the whole of our mines and minerals were disposed of in one fell swoop. For thirty years the mining question was a battle ground. The combatants were, the Legislature of Nova Scotia, the general mining association, and the colonial office. At length two delegates were sent to England and an agreement was ultimately entered into and the Legislature stepped in and by statute vested in the owners of the land all the baser minerals, all, indeed, except gold and silver, lead, copper and coal, tin, and precious stones. Whoever, therefore, now owns or shall hereafter own the soil in any part of Nova Scotia owns also all the minerals except those just named, which belong to the Province, for whose benefit they are reserved. Collieries are worked in six of the eighteen counties of the Province; gold mines opened in 12 proclaimed districts. Already 100 coal leases have passed the great seals and the leases of gold mines are innumerable."

After the address delivered by Sir A. G. Archibald, Mr. Jamine introduced his wife, the mayor of the city, who addressed them in a few well-chosen words of welcome. After which the president, J. C. Bayles, responded on behalf of the engineers. Dr. Gilpin then read a paper on the gold mines of Nova Scotia, and Dr. T. Staryy Hunt presented a verbal extract of his paper entitled studies of the apatite deposits of Canada.

Between 400 and 500 persons took advantage of the pleasure trip on the harbor in honor of the engineers, on the steamer 'St. Pierre' which left Corbi's Wharf at ten minutes to three and turned her bowsprit toward the 40th and steamed up the harbor. The first points of interest visited were the war ships, 'Canada', 'Dido', and 'Northampton', which were jostled in the order named, each vessel dipping its Union Jack in deference to the Stars and Stripes which floated at the foremast of the 'St. Pierre'. The next object of special comment was the draw of the narrow bridge which was pronounced by all on board to have been efficiently executed and well-suited for every purpose to which it may be adapted. The Charger of H. M.'s dockyard was an object of much curiosity. The trip occupied some three hours and all expressed the opinion that it was one of the pleasantest sailings they ever experienced.

The guests were divided into different parties; one going to Cape Breton and Pictou; one to Grand Pre and the Annapolis Valley; and one to Spring Hill, Londonderry and the Joggins. That portion of the Institute detailed for the West left by the regular W. & A. Railway train on Friday Morning; at Newport station they were met by the vice-president and on arriving at Windsor were received by a committee of leading citizens of the town and the party was at once directed to the gymnasium where they spent an hour or so most agreeably. Returning to Windsor dinner was partaken of at the Victoria after which a special train was got ready and the party started westward. They stopped a short time at Grand Pre and visited several imaginary places that have a reality only in the credulity of the beholder such as the forge of Basil the Blacksmith, the cottage of Evangelina etc. Arriving at Wolfville a halt was made and the party was taken in charge by the learned professors of Acadia College which institution they visited and inspected its library and museum. Kentville was next reached where they were detained for some time waiting for the train from Annapolis. As it did not come they took the train started for Annapolis and arrived at about 3.30 p.m. having spent a short time at Aldushot. On Saturday morning the visitors were escorted to the several places of interest in and about the town and at 2 p.m. embarked on board the 'Empress' for St. John N.B.

The Acadia will be sent to any part of Canada or the United States for $1.00 in advance. We make no extra charge for United States subscriptions when paid in advance.

—We are told by the census of 1881 that there were in that year 11,000 new orchards in the Province of New Brunswick. Let us suppose that quantity can be doubled and that the new orchards would be all of first class fruit, and we have this result. Eleven thousand acres give ample room for one million trees, and these one million trees in from ten to fifteen years will average a barrel per tree, worth to the farmer on the farm $2.00 per barrel or in all $2,000,000. The market is unlimited. Canadian apples were preferred in England to those raised in the United States and the fact that the northern fruit commands the highest prices in the United States cities is a proof of its excellence. There would, no doubt, be a quick sale for this million barrels of apples if they were of popular varieties, and it is not perhaps too much to estimate that they would yield to the province allowing for the carriages of the railway, and vessels in carrying them, the manufacture of barrels and the profits on the sales, over $2,000,000, or within one million dollars of the total value of lumber exported from the province last year.—York Gleaner.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.—1. Please write on one side of the paper only. 2. Give full name and address, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. 3. Do not expect anonymous communications to be noticed. 4. Mark letters "Printers' Manuscript," leave one end open and postage will be only 10c per half column.

FRUIT EXHIBITION.

To the Editors of the ACADIAN. SIRS.—As anticipated in a former communication the following extended list of prizes has been received from London, containing, as may be seen by comparison with the first published, an additional sum of two guineas in Class A and the addition of Class C. Fruit exhibited in the latter Class will be sold for the benefit of the exhibitors and account of sales rendered in the regular way. We have received from the manager of the W. & A. R. and the agents of the Furness and Anchor lines the very generous offer to carry all fruit for the C. P. Show, freight free. Entries should be made here with the secretary F. G. A. on or before the 7th October, and it is hoped that the opportunity thus offered for the advertising of our fruit may be widely taken advantage of.

I am etc. C. R. H. STARR, Sec. N.S. F. G. A. Port Williams, Sep. 21st.

CRYSTAL PALACE, LONDON.

A show of Nova Scotia and Canadian Apples will be held on November 6th, 1885, and following days. The Crystal Palace Company will give 11 guineas, Messrs. Nuthard & Lowe 2 Silver Cups, and Messrs. Sewell, Cotton's Wharf, 2 guineas, to be awarded as follows: Class A.—Best collection of Nova Scotia or Canadian Apples, not less than 70 or more than 60 sorts, 6 fruits of each sort. First prize, 5 guinea cup and 3 guineas; 2d prize, 3 guineas; 3d prize, 2 guineas; 4th prize, 1 guinea. Class B.—Best collection of 24 dishes of Nova Scotia or Canadian Apples, 6 of each sort. First prize, 3 guinea cup and 1 guinea; 2d prize, 2 guineas; 3d prize, 1 guinea. Class C.—Messrs. Adams & Ronaldson, with the desire to encourage the best method of packing Apples to insure their sound delivery, will offer for competition a prize of the value of five guineas for the two best packed barrels of one sort of Nova Scotia Gravenstein, King Tomkins, Blenheim, or Ribston Pippins. Messrs. Nuthard & Lowe will give a second prize in this class of 2 guineas.

N.B.—Entries to be sent in not later than October 21st, to Messrs. Nuthard & Lowe, or direct to Mr. Head, at the Crystal Palace. The exhibits to remain during the following week.

W. G. HEAD, Crystal Palace.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

—On Monday Richard Howell beat Fred Wood's world record for a mile of 2.35.5 on the bicycle. Howell succeeded in cutting 1-5 of a second from the record.

—On Tuesday a five-mile roller-skating race took place at Bangor, Me., between E. L. Maddock, of Boston, and Lev Saunders, of St. John, and was won by Saunders by about ten feet. Time 19.40.

—The steamer Republic, of the Inman line, and the Aurania, of the Canada line, collided in New York Harbor on Saturday last while outward bound. The Republic was considerably injured and put back for repairs. The Aurania proceeded on her voyage.

—Desperate symptoms, low spirits, restlessness, sleeplessness, confusion, sour stomach, pain in the bowels, sick headache, variable appetite, raising food, oppression at pit of stomach, low fever and languor, Parson's Purgative pills give immediate relief and will ultimately cure the disease.

—During a heavy rain storm at Dublin, Miss, last Saturday, lightning struck a cotton house in which were sheltered Chas. Smith, his wife and son, Henry Isaac, and Tom Neely. Smith's wife and son were killed, and their smiles, Smith and Isaac were knocked senseless but soon recovered.

—Duncan McNeil who resides in Hamilton, Ont., has in his garden an apple tree of the golden pippin variety, which was planted in the year 1821, it then being three years old, thus making it sixty-five years of age. The tree has grown to be a very large one, the trunk measuring six feet six inches in circumference, and the diameter of the ground which the branches cover is forty feet. The tree is still bearing good fruit, and a few years ago produced the large crop of five barrels.

—There is an active revival of the project to run a line of passenger steamers from Milford Haven, in Wales, across the Atlantic to Newfoundland, transport the passengers across Newfoundland by rail, and to convey them thence to New York by a connecting line of steamers. It is claimed that by this route the normal time of making the trip from England to New York would be only six days. The Great Western railway company is said to be prepared to subscribe to the new enterprise. The Liverpool Post says it learns that the promoters of the proposed company mean business, and will issue an alluring prospectus as soon as trade revives sufficiently to warrant the expectation of investments.

—We are told by the census of 1881 that there were in that year 11,000 new orchards in the Province of New Brunswick. Let us suppose that quantity can be doubled and that the new orchards would be all of first class fruit, and we have this result. THE ACADIAN

Local and Provincial

Don't fail to attend the school meeting next Monday evening.

Burpee Witter's Millinery Department is filled with all the novelties of the season.

The Provincial Exhibition at Kentville next week promises to be by far the most successful ever held there.

Street Jerseys beautifully trimmed at Caldwell & Murray's.

See our special offer to send the ACADIAN and Detroit Free Press for four months for 40 cents.

John Vaughan, of Wallbrook, has a plum tree which shows a growth of wood this year of 7 feet, 6 inches.

Messrs Blenkhorn Sons, of the Canning Edge Tool and Axe Factory, commenced work again last Monday.

Buy Rockwell & Co's Scribbling Books (two sizes), got up expressly for students' use.

PAINTER—Mr J. L. Wickwire, of Canby, has had his house newly painted. The work is done in a tasty manner and does credit to the artist.

Look out for Carpets. Caldwell & Murray have marked their whole stock of Carpets down ten per cent. Now is the time to buy.

PEACHES—Mr Wm Follett brought into our office on Wednesday a fine large greenish apple that was grown from a graft put in this spring.

Gents' Furnishings in great variety at Borden's.

LARGE PUMPKIN—Mr Stephen Sheffield, of Canby, has a pumpkin that he raised in his garden this season that weighs eighty pounds. Who has a larger one?

TOWELS, TOWELS—Splendid new stock of Cotton, Linen and Damask Towels at Caldwell & Murray's.

The apples in this county, although not very plentiful, are, as far as we have heard, very large and of excellent quality. We were told of one man who had twenty barrels of greenish apples, eighteen barrels of which were No. 1's.

Lumber, Shingles and Bricks for sale low at S. R. Sleep's.

While at the tea-meeting at Grand Pre on Thursday last, the idea occurred to us that it would be a good idea for the different churches here to erect some protection against storms for the teams of people attending the services.

JUST RECEIVED—2000 Choice Imported and Domestic Cigars, for sale low, J. M. Shaw.

The other day while in Kentville we called in at J. McLeod's jewelry store and found him with a large stock of silverware and jewelry and doing a good business. We would advise our readers to call on him while at the exhibition.

MAPLE LEAF FLAG—The banner of the Maple Leaf Division will float over the largest and best-stocked restaurant on the grounds of the Provincial Exhibition at Kentville next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. All are invited to patronize them.

S. D. Scott, late editor of the Halifax Mail, was married on Wednesday at River Herbert, Cumberland Co., to Miss Emma Wood, daughter of J. W. Wood. The bride and groom proceeded to St. John, where Mr Scott enters at once upon his duties as editor of the Sun.

A heavy stock of Mantle and Underclothes at Burpee Witter's.

On Wednesday we had a call from an old friend, Mr W. L. Walsh, who is visiting in this part of the Province for a few weeks. Since his last visit here he has been promoted to the honorable office of Grand Conductor in the Massachusetts Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance.

Now is the time to get your pictures framed. Rockwell & Co. are doing them cheaper than ever.

J. A. Cogswell, a Nova Scotian who was recently employed on the Minneapolis Tribune, was drowned in Massachusetts the other day. He was about 35 and had been a newspaper man for some years.—His Herald.

Mr. Cogswell is well known in this county having been engaged in the newspaper work here for a number of years. He learned the printing business on the Acadian published in Wolfville by M. J. Thomson and was afterwards publisher of the Western Chronicle at Kentville and the Eastern Icon at East Haverbury. We are sorry to learn of his sad death.

Rockwell & Co's is the cheapest place to buy your School Books and School Supplies.

On visiting the garden of Mr Fred Mitchell, of Wallbrook, a few days ago we were shown a plum tree of the "Weaver" variety, planted by Mr Mitchell in the autumn of 1860, which for beauty of symmetry and luxuriance of growth we have never seen surpassed. We were unfortunately a little too late to see it under its load of fruit, but Mr Mitchell informed us that he gathered from it 2 1/2 bushels of the sum of $10.60, or at the rate of $4.75 per bushel.

Western Book & News Co. are selling 5 quires of note paper for 20c.

Local and Provincial

We will send the ACADIAN from now until the end of the year for 25c, in advance. Try it!

Communication from "A Councillor" received too late for this issue; will appear next week.

PERSONAL—Mr H. Stairs, of Hillside Farm, returned home last week from a trip to Canada. He brought with him another Polled Angus bull.

Straw Hats selling at cost at Caldwell & Murray's.

The most violent storm of wind and rain of the season visited us on Wednesday morning and did a considerable amount of damage to the fruit crop.

250 Fine Envelopes for 25 cents at Western Book & News Co's.

Rev. T. A. Higgins has been away from Wolfville for a few weeks, during which time his pulpit has been filled by Rev. Maynard Freeman. Mr Higgins returned this week.

Room Paper at cost at Western Book & News Co's.

We understand that Judge Westbury is de-termining a large area of his farm at Grand Pre this season. We had a call on Wednesday from Mr. Christie who is superintending the work.

C. H. Borden has just opened a splendid assortment of Men's Wool Underclothing.

We saw the other day at the hardware store of G. E. Clark, Kennebec, Knight's Patent Window Sash Supporter and Fastener. It was invented and patented in Nov. last. It does away with weights and supersede everything in the sash fastener line ever made; is cheap and ornamental. All interested in the use of the article as builders or householders will do well to see and get it. Mr Calkin is the sole agent for this County.

Scotch, Victoria, Royal, and Peacock Yarns just opened at Burpee Witter's.

We had the pleasure of attending the tea-meeting held at Grand Pre on Thursday evening last and spent a very enjoyable evening. The tables were spread in the new shed, which has just been erected as a protection for horses during the church services, and were filled with everything tempting to the appetite. The interior of the building was tastefully furnished with wreaths, etc., giving it a very pleasing appearance, and everything was done that could be made to make people enjoy themselves. We believe the neat sum of $150 was realized after all expenses were paid, which is to go towards paying for the erection of the shed.

Be sure you inspect Borden's stock of Gents' Wool Underclothing before purchasing.

Sheffield's Mills.

There has been some excitement caused here by the report, that the Towley estates in England are about to be divided among the three heirs. Some of the heirs are very enthusiastic over it; one in particular, when very ill, was informed that she was to be made very rich, immediately recovered and is now hale and hearty. Some of the said heirs are planning what they will do with so much money. They have built most elegant air-castles, tower and piazzas all complete. In fact it has chased away all feelings of hard times; but I am afraid they will have to chase a long time after the property before they get it.

Death has lately taken away one of our most respected citizens, Mr J. K. Dickison. He had been a sufferer for several years, but was not confined to his bed until a few weeks before he died. The Rev. Mr Lane was to preach the funeral sermon here Sunday evening, but failed to keep his appointment. The ministers that had to preach to us have served us the same way of late. Whether they think we are good enough without being preached to or not, it is difficult to state; but some people are hard-headed enough to say that it is not to the minister's pecuniary interest to do so. I do not think it is right for our neighboring preachers to desert us altogether, and let us go to our own destruction without a word of warning; for, in all communities, an occasional expounding of the gospel truths has, at least, some salutary influence.

A shocking accident occurred at Pictou on Saturday last resulting in the instantaneous death of Sergeant William Davy, one of the best known men in the town. As far as known, Mr Davy was preparing a gun in his dwelling house, at which work he was quite an expert, and, having the muzzle close to his mouth, the contents of the load— a weapon in some mysterious manner exploded, and entering the mouth penetrated clean through the head, a large hole being pierced in the skull. The report of the rifle called his wife to the scene of the terrible accident, who arrived in time only to see her husband writhing in the agonies of death. Davy was fifty-one years of age and a veteran soldier, having served twenty-five years in the British army. Besides his wife he leaves a married daughter, who resides in Truro.
