Wedding at New Minas. Small and Big.

At the residence of the bride's parents, New Minas, on Wednesday evening, August 23rd, there took place the marriage of Miss Martha Josie DeWolfe, (Acadia, 1910) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney DeWolfe, to Chesley Gifford Moore, B. A. (Mount Allison, 1913) of Kentville. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis Armstrong, of Wolfville, assisted by Rev. J. C. Watson, of New Minas. The bride was escorted by her father, and the groom by his best man, Mr. J. C. Watson. The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, best man, and officiating clergyman. The ceremony was a simple and beautiful one, and was witnessed by a large number of friends. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and lace, and the groom wore a dark suit. The reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and was a most enjoyable affair. The bride and groom departed for their new home at New Minas, accompanied by their parents and friends.

Even a Bishop sang most beautifully "All Joy Be Thine." The wedding march was rendered by Miss B. Hop. The house was handsomely decorated with sweet peas and foliage. The bride and groom stood under a floral arch of sweet peas in the form of a true lover's knot. On either side were to find the initials of the bride and groom. The bride, who was the picture of girlish beauty, entered the parlors leaning on her father's arm. She was gowned in white Duchesse satin with a guimpe of rimon, hand embroidered in pearls. The bride veil was arranged to cap effect and held in place by a barbeau of pearls and orange blossoms. A spray of orange blossoms adorned the corsage. She carried a beautiful shiver bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of lavender silk and the groom's mother a gown of black silk and chiffon. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner, New Glasgow; Mrs. (Dr) Thomson, North Adams, Mass.; Mrs. Fred Forsythe, Greenwood; Miss Ida Mitchell, Wolfville; Miss Tivy Balcom, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Bishop, Lawrencetown; Miss Gladys Turner, New Glasgow; Mr. and Mrs. R. Mosher, Miss Kathleen Mosher, Mrs. G. W. Woodworth, Mrs. W. H. Seaman, Mrs. G. F. Roy, Mrs. (Dr) Parker, Miss Josephine Seaman, Harold Turner, 21st Battalion, all of Kentville; also many other friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The gifts were many and beautiful including a gold wrist watch from the bride's father; a beautiful upholstered chair from the groom's parents; many exquisite pieces of cut glass, silver, hand embroidered linens, champagne, gold and cutlery. The happy couple motored to Wolfville, and from there will spend their honeymoon camping at the Aylesford lakes. After a brief visit to the principal towns they will be at home in Truro after September 7th, where the groom will take up his duties as vice principal of Colchester academy.

The Pretty Girl.

Give the pretty girl her due. Why should she not have her share of honest praise? Too often when one comes to investigate he finds a half contemptuous note in the description of some girl whose beauty stands out so prominently that it blinds the observer to her other virtues. Yes other virtues. In itself beauty is a virtue, just as cheerfulness and usefulness and sincerity are virtues. It is almost as hard to cultivate these others as it is to take thought and add a degree to beauty. Often they are natural gifts, and yet a girl with these natural gifts is given credit for cultivating them, while the one who is "only pretty" has nothing to do with her looks, that heredity or luck or something else made her pretty, and that she is satisfied to be pretty and nothing else. Give the pretty girl her due. Admit that whether she will or not she is doing a service in the world, just as the rainbow or the violet or the mountain do their part. And admit, too, that usually she is glad to render her share to the joy of the world, that, sung but usually unappreciated, she is doing something for the good of humanity.—Columbia State.

Mr. Flatbush—I see during some recent explorations at Pompeii an ancient kitchen was unearthed. In the fireplace there was a kettle on the grate, just as it was left 1,846 years ago by some cook residing in that city.

Mrs. Flatbush—Such carelessness! You can't tell me she hasn't had an opportunity to put that kettle away in all this time.

Little Billie was lying quietly with eyes wide open, but apparently seeing nothing. After a while his mother asked: "Dreaming Billie?"

"Not dreaming; thinking," replied Billie, impatiently, "and when anybody speaks to me it cuts the think right in two, and I have to begin all over again."

Why Aren't You Happy? This question is addressed to girls in small towns and on farms who have the blessed privilege of fresh air and abundant room, both indoors and out, good food, faithful friends and a sunny nature. Why aren't you happy? One answer is that you do not understand how well off you are. How should you, since you have never lived in the city and have no experiences with which you can contrast your present good fortune? Your idea of the city is drawn from a second hand source when people have told you, and in what you have lived and ignored the rest.

You can say that you know of a case where a girl went to the city, got well-paid work, advanced further and further until she was in business for herself and is now making a good income. Or you may tell of a girl who soon after she reached the city married a man who received a good salary, and she comes for visits wearing beautiful clothes and having a very sophisticated air. These cases are the exception and you do not know the price the two girls have paid for their success. But this aside, you ask yourself if you have the charm and beauty which might attract a well-to-do husband, also remind yourself of how much the element of chance enters in meeting a man whom you would care to marry or who would care to marry you.

How can you be happy? By making yourself like your life just where it is. You can do this by dwelling on your advantages and ignoring what else you might wish you had. As you practice happiness it will grow; you will give and gain love increasingly than which there be no greater blessing.—Woman's World.

Pale, Weak Girls. GROW INTO WEAK DEPENDENT WOMEN—HOW TO OVERCOME THE TROUBLE. Healthy girlhood is the only path to womanhood. Unhealthy girlhood lays a new tax upon the blood. It is the overtaxing of the blood that makes growing girls suffer from headaches and backaches, from paleness and weakness and weariness, from languor, despondency and constant ill health. Unhealthy girlhood is bound to lead to unhealthy womanhood and a life of misery. Nothing but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can save a girl when she undertakes the trials and tasks of womanhood. That is the time when nature makes new demands upon the blood supply. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich blood to meet these new demands. In this simple, scientific way Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give growing girls new health, and makes their dawning womanhood bright and attractive. Miss A. Steinhilber, Halesbury Road, New Lakeside, Ont., says: "I have much reason to be grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they restored me to health, it indeed, they did not save my life. In 1914 I began to feel run down and the doctor who was called in said that mine was a bad case of anemia. I lost flesh, always felt tired, and I got so nervous that I could not do my work. I had a cup to take a drink. My heart would flutter alarmingly. The doctor did not seem to be able to help me at all and my family and friends all thought that I was a decline and could not recover. I was in bed for some weeks when an aunt came to see me and urged that I try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My father had taken three boxes there was a noticeable improvement, and from that on I had continued taking the pills for some time longer, and they restored me to my old time health and strength. I shall never cease to praise this medicine, and to urge all weak girls to give it a fair trial, as I have proved in my own case their great merit."

You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Desertion is Such Wherever Battalion is.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—Considerable protest has come from the commanding officers of various camps to the recent publication in various Canadian papers of a despatch from Ottawa concerning the crime of desertion.

A police court case, the outcome of which, it claimed, pointed the moral that a man could not be a deserter unless his battalion was overseas.

The Militia Department emphatically calls attention to the fact that desertion is desertion whether from a battalion which is overseas or not, and it calls attention to an order-in-Council relating to absence without leave.

It is understood, says the Acting Minister, that the police court case referred to was decided solely in the absence of proof called for by the order-in-Council.

Clause 1 of the order says: "Every man of the active militia of the Canadian overseas forces who absents himself from the corps or unit to which he belongs without the leave of the Commanding Officer is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction under the provisions of part 15 of the criminal code to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years."

Potash in Wood Ashes and Feldspar.

Hardwood ashes contain from 18 to 40 per cent. of potash, while ashes from conifers contain from 14 to 20 per cent. The yield of ashes from wood is about 10 per cent. in weight and one cord of wood weighs approximately 2,100 lbs. Assuming that four-fifths of the potash in the ashes is leachable, the amount of potash recoverable from one ton of wood containing 15 per cent. of potash is 315 pounds.

The present price of potash in trade centres in the United States is normal. The rate per ton is quoted from $4 to $50, but none is available. The price for the most common form, the muriate, or chloride, containing 60 per cent. of the pure salt (equivalent to 57 per cent. of K₂O) was $38 per long ton in July, 1914.

Canada possesses many deposits of feldspar with potash contents ranging as high as 15 per cent, thus constituting a considerable resource of potash which can be developed.

Several chemists are actively engaged upon this problem in the United States. Chemically it has been solved, but capital is still hesitant about investing heavily in any of the dozen promising methods which have been worked out on a scale little beyond simple laboratory experimentation.—W. J. D.

A soldier whose head and face were heavily swathed in bandages, and who obviously had had a bad time, was being tearfully sympathized with by the solicitous lady.

"And were you wounded in the head, my poor fellow?"

"No ma'am," Tommy replied. "I was wounded in the ankle, but the bandages slipped."

Mrs. Parker—"Now, young man why aren't you at the front?"

Young Man (milkng cow)—"Cos there ain't any milk at that end missus!"

Some Russian Proverbs. Justice. The cynical humor of the Russians is admirably illustrated by their proverbs, published by Frank Palmer. When money speaks, truth keeps silent. The German may be a good fellow, but it is better to hang him. Even in hell the peasant will have to serve the landlord, for while the latter is boiling in a cauldron, the former will have to put the wood under it. A woman's hair is long, but her sense is short. A fool shoots; God guides the bullet. The spoken word cannot be swallowed. The greatest king must at last be put to bed with a shovel. Dogs bark and the wind carries it away. A dog is wiser than a woman; he does not bark at his master. Where God builds a church there the devil has his chapel. A woman laughs when she can and cries when she wishes. If you go to war, pray! If you go on a sea journey, pray twice, but pray three times when you are going to be married. It is a stupid mouse that knows only one hole. It is a bad soldier who does not aspire to be a general. What is good for the Russian is death for the German. A gentleman who discovered that he was standing on a lady's train had the presence of mind to remark: "Though I may not have the power to draw an angel from the skies, I have pinned one to the earth." The lady excused him.

Each citizen wants to live as fully as his surroundings permit. This is an exercising joint control, are interested in seeing that, while each does not suffer from breach of the relations between acts and ends in his own person, he shall not break those relations in the person of others. The incipit and mass of citizens has to maintain the condition under which may gain the fullest life compatible with the fullest lives of fellow citizens. To maintain intact the conditions under which life may be carried on is a business fundamentally distinct from the business of interfering with the carrying on of the life itself, either by helping the individual or directing him or restraining him.—Herbert Spencer.

The process of re-breathing air that has already been used, if long continued, leads to asphyxiation and death. Much of the so-called "deca"cy," susceptibility to cold, languor, headache and nervous depression are due to the same cause. The secret of good ventilation is to renew the air in a room at least three times each hour, day and night, without creating a draught.

A Necessity in the House.

Most of the common ills of life arise from a torpid, sluggish condition of the Liver, Kidneys or Bowels, and, because they act on each of these organs in a direct and specific way, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills overcome serious and painful diseases over which ordinary medicines have no control.

Men are given to flattery for selfish reasons, and she is a wise woman who swallows what they say with a grain of salt.

The most common ailment and the greatest cause of disease and suffering to-day is constipation. Artificial food and sedentary indoor life combine to induce torpid, sluggish action of the liver, kidneys and bowels. As a result poisonous waste matter remains in the system and gives rise to pains and aches and affords a starting point for serious disease. Infectious and contagious diseases are little known to persons whose liver, kidneys and bowels are kept in healthful activity, for there are no suitable conditions for disease germs to thrive in. Even common colds usually take their start when they find the system in a constipated, poisoned condition.

Mr. Ed. Miller, West Flamboro, Ont., writes: "I can truthfully say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me of constipation almost ever since I can remember, and for four years has pains at the left side of the back. I walked across the kitchen floor I would have to sit and rest. That, I think, was terrible for a woman of twenty years. The condition of my blood was shown by pimples breaking out on my face. I suffered so much from pains and stiffness in the back, I am sure my system was full of poison. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have entirely cured me, and I feel better than I have felt for many years."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills stand alone, for by their action on the liver they awaken the activity of this organ, cause a good flow of bile, and hence remove the cause of indigestion, for bile is nature's cathartic. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all have cured me of constipation. I suffered with constipation almost

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., SEPT. 1, 1916

Editorial Brevities.

Some of the opponents of the daylight saving scheme are finding evidence of its unpopularity in the fact that some of the cities which have been operating the saving during the summer are now returning to the old order. This clever argument would apply with equal force to the straw-hat or tennis racket.

Complaints having been made as to the difficulty experienced in distinguishing between the ordinary two-cent stamp and of the two-cent postage and war tax stamp, it has been decided to issue a new stamp of the value of two cents and surcharged in a manner similar to the one now in use, the only difference being the color which is brown instead of red.

The Dominion of Canada and every Canadian province should follow the British precedent and enact legislation making necessary within a limited period an election in any vacant constituency. The right of representation is a right those in temporary authority should have no control over. If there was a law compelling an election, say, within two months of a vacancy, justice would be done the constituency and the opportunity now afforded for political juggling would be ended. A real political reform would be the enactment of legislation such as Great Britain enjoys in this respect.—E. X.

These are butterless days in Germany. Even the hotels and restaurants must not serve butter other than three days a week. A despatch says:

The new regulation applies to the most expensive first-class hotel as well as to the smallest lunch counter and to private families, according to the degree. There was some grumbling at the innovation, and not a few curses were hurled at England, at whose door all the privations of the civil population are laid.

In not a few hotels here persons who have managed to get eggs from the country or elsewhere contrive their breakfast themselves by cooking their own eggs on an electric or spirit cooker. Now butter for breakfast in hotels will also depend largely upon individual efforts to obtain it outside.

A steel steamship which the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co. is building to operate in the coal trade along the coast is of about 2,000 tons dead weight capacity, 220 ft. long, 35 ft. beam, and 20 ft. moulded depth. She will be built to Lloyd's classification, with the scantlings 10 per cent in excess of classification requirements. The stem, stern post and rudder forgings, all propelling shafting, propeller and all fittings, all the frame angles, floor plates, etc., are to be made by the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co., at its New Glasgow works. The propelling machinery will consist of a 1,000 h. p. De Laval geared turbine, geared to the propeller shaft through two sets of gears. This will, it is said, be the first vessel built in Canada with a geared turbine, and it will also be the first vessel to be equipped with a De Laval geared turbine for driving the propellers. The equipment will also be unique in regard to the auxiliaries having a rotary pump and centrifugal circulating pump driven by a single engine. Work is in progress on the building yard.

Save the Trees.

MORE ATTENTION BEING PAID TO THEIR PROTECTION BY RAILWAYS AND OTHERS.

That the shade trees increase the value of property and adds much to the beauty of surroundings is being more and more appreciated. Municipal corporations are encouraging the planting of trees in greater numbers, as well as protecting those they already have.

Many estimates have been made as to the actual cash value of a growing shade tree, but all concede that its aesthetic value exceeds its monetary value. In the transfer of real estate, a favorably situated shade tree will enhance the value of the property on all proportion to the intrinsic value of the tree. From a financial standpoint, therefore, the shade trees should be protected.

Several railways are giving careful attention to the trees. Not only are they protecting, by special patrols and otherwise, the forests along their lines, but, at no inconsiderable expense, they are protecting them on their rights-of-way. One railway line was diverted from its originally planned route to save two handsome maple trees. Considerable attention has been bestowed upon this considerate action of the railway corporation.

Good Road Day at the Provincial Exhibition.

'Good roads for Nova Scotia' will be the slogan on Friday, September 15th, at the Provincial Exhibition in Halifax. Everyone interested in this important matter is urged to make it a point to be in the city on that important day. A business meeting will be held in the Board of Trade rooms at 10 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of effecting the organization of a Provincial Good Roads Association. Moving pictures on the subject will be shown in the afternoon at the exhibition, and it is probable that something of interest will be arranged for the evening. Remember the day, Friday, September 15th.

The Care of the Cemetery.

We are so engrossed with the many cares which meet us at every turn in our daily routine that we forget the claim the cemetery, where lie our honored dead, has upon us.

Visitors to the town of Wolfville are fond in their praises of our well kept streets, lawns and premises. While we may deserve some laudation for improved streets, tidy lawns and the general cleanliness of our environment, yet, when we reflect upon the neglect and indifference manifested in the past in regard to our cemeteries, we are conscious of reproach. We receive commendation for the effort in making our town inviting, having neglected a very important and positive duty in the care and upkeep of the cemeteries.

Two years ago we endeavored to arouse an interest in those whose relatives were buried in the old Wolfville cemetery, with the result that sufficient funds were raised to enclose the grounds with a durable enclosure, raise and put in place fallen and sagging monuments and repair and improve the main avenue leading into the cemetery. By an act of incorporation the town has taken over the old cemetery and is doing its part to make it creditable to the town and more worthy of the name.

Within the past year our attention has been centered upon the Willow Bank cemetery of our town. Our efforts in this direction have been largely called forth by an incentive which some of us have received from the marvellous change and improvement made in recent years in the Riverside cemetery, at Bridgetown. My memory easily reverts to fifty years ago when the Riverside cemetery was unkempt, undrained, delapidated and little done for its improvement. Within recent years the skill and loving hands of the workman and artist has wrought a wonderful and desirable change.

A few days ago it was my privilege to motor to Bridgetown in company with Messrs. W. H. Chase and G. H. Hilsley, the former a director of the Willow Bank cemetery, and there acquire some knowledge of the methods and principles governing the care and upkeep of the Riverside cemetery. We were fortunate in meeting the president, Dr. Armstrong, Mr. Hicks and Mrs. Warren, who went with us and explained the plan and means used in bringing the cemetery from its old and untidy condition to its present state of efficiency. Our visit was a revelation. The level plots devoid of unsightly mounds, the luxurious and beautiful preservation of flowers, a cabinet of inspiration of the organization and tribute to the dead; the fountain with its perpetual flow, bidding us again to look through and beyond the seen to the unseen, the 'Mountain Eternal'; the lots designated by numbers; the laying out of sections; the carefully kept avenues and neatly lawned lots; and the improved shrubbery marking the line between sections; was an inspiration to us.

Fortunate indeed is the place that possesses the head and heart who was inspired to lead on to the culmination of this tribute of beauty and perpetual remembrance of the beloved ones who have gone before.

It is, however, of the Willow Bank cemetery I wish to speak. All are aware of the loose and indifferent method which in the past has obtained in the care and upkeep of the cemetery. About a year ago a reorganization of the cemetery's management took place. Since then a competent man has been employed most of the time to look after and improve the grounds. Dead trees, old and unsightly shrubbery have been removed, the avenues cleaned of herbage, lots lawned and renovated, monuments reset and straightened, and about four acres of additional ground cultivated to make ready for new sections and lots.

A new set of regulations and by-laws have been prepared. The management is directly under the control of the directors, of whom there is a managing director, secretary and treasurer. All lotholders have been notified by the secretary that an assessment of $2.00 per year upon each lot is required for the general upkeep and care of the cemetery. Many have paid the amount, some have not yet done so. We trust that all lotholders may realize that $2.00 per year is a small sum to ask from each in consideration of the amount of work necessary to be done. We not only hope to receive all assessments from the lotholders for the general care of the cemetery, but to raise a permanent fund from the lotholders for the purpose of preserving and caring for their lots. Some have already contributed generously to this object.

We trust, now that the good work has commenced, that a general interest will be manifested in a practical way by those interested in Willow Bank cemetery, and not left to two or three who cannot, without their hearty support and co-operation, do for the cemetery all it demands and deserves of us. The Kaiser's Lament.

The German Kaiser is reported to have declared in an interview that he has upon his conscience. He would be quite right in saying that he alone is not responsible for the war, but he cannot evade his share of the responsibility—a share that is proportionate to the influence he has exerted over the German people. He is right, however, in saying that the war was inevitable. So long as the German people believed in war and entertained the fallacious but supremely necessary. Germany's success in all fields of effort turned the heads of philosophers and teachers, and resulted in a literature that exalted the German idea, and led the people to believe the things the war-lords wished them to believe. The superman was born, destined to world dominion. There is no reason at all to doubt that the Kaiser in imagination saw himself dictating world-policies and laid his plans to have Austria kicked out of the North German Confederation. When this was accomplished the next step was to pick a quarrel with France; and, as a result of the war of 1870, being the South German states into the union and founded the German Empire with the King of Prussia at its head. Through all those years the Prussian army was being made a more efficient fighting machine and Prussian influence, made more powerful by victory, was extended throughout the other German states. The rapid development of industry and commerce followed the imperial organization, and the prosperity that followed brought greater prestige to Prussia. Colonies were secured, and ambition grew with the years. While the military machine was made even more effective and every boy as he grew up was compelled to submit to military training, and every effort of science was directed towards perfecting instruments of deadly warfare, a navy was also established; and grew to ever larger proportions. The amazing progress made between the early sixties and the beginning of the present century encouraged the military leaders, from the Emperor down, to believe that Germany had a great world-mission; and that she would be justified in overcoming every obstacle, even though war became a

Corbitt-Jordan.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan, Main street, Kentville, on Wednesday evening of last week, at 8 o'clock. The contracting parties were Mr. Karl Everett Corbitt, of Halifax, and Gladys, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy Heskney, of Wolfville, under a prettily arch of flowers and a wedding bell tastefully arranged by the girl friends of the bride. The bride was unattended and was given away by her father. Her wedding dress was of white satin with pearl trimmings and bridal veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. The travelling suit was a blue broadcloth, tailor made. After the ceremony a reception was held and refreshments served and the bridal party started in an auto on the wedding trip to include the towns of Western Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside at Halifax, where Mr. Corbitt has a Government position. About forty guests were present being the near relatives of the families.

Mrs. Corbitt has been one of the very popular young ladies of the town and will be very much missed. The wedding presents included a large sum of money, a cabinet of silver and other valuable silverware articles, cut glass, hand painted china, table linen and other articles of use and ornament.

Have you tried Lynchs.—White and Brown Bread also Plum Loaf and Colonial Cakes. WILLIAM BRACKNEY, Sawyer-Heckman.

The marriage was solemnized quietly last Saturday morning in the First Baptist church, Halifax, of Miss Nellie B. Heckman, daughter of the late J. Wesley Heckman, and Mr. Bernall Sawyer, son of Prof. Everett Sawyer, of Sumnerland, B. C. and formerly of Wolfville. Rev. Dr. Chute, of Acadia College, was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who was unattended, looked very charming in a tailored suit of navy blue, with which she wore a French hat of blue to correspond.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer left on the Lunenburg for Kegedagoose, where they will spend a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Bedford.

A large and beautiful collection of gifts were received from their many friends, including a number of cheques. Both the bride and groom were former residents of Wolfville and a host of friends here will join THE ACADIAN in best wishes.

Those interested in building lots at the west end, would do well to confer with C. Johnson, as he is now offering for sale the only available lots at this center.
