MARITIMES LACK FAITH AND PRIDE

Dr. MacDonald Tells Kentville Rotarians Maritimes Have Continent's Best British Stock

KENTVILLE, Oct. 16.—Dr. J. H. MacDonald, of Wolfville, was the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Thursday and he gave a most brilliant and illuminating address—his subject being "The Present Crisis in the Maritime Provinces". He said to be a citizen of the Maritime Provinces was something to be proud of, but it is a heritage we value too lightly. We have a magnificent ancestry and the most thoroughbred British stock of any place on the A. B. C. continent. We should be able to develop the finest type of citizenship. There is at present a real crisis in the provinces, he said, and trade is declining. Today there are 19 per cent. less men on the payrolls than in 1920. We have not learned team play in the provinces, Dr. MacDonald declared. British Columbia, the Prairie Provinces, Ontario, and Quebec, each speaks with one voice when advocating its claims. We do not have the faith and pride in our land that we should. The control of our great interests by the capitalists of Quebec and Ontario is a great hindrance to progress of our commerce. In this way trouble between labor and capital is intensified. There is tremendous need of being united, irrespective of party or creed, in order that the just rights of these provinces may be restored.

President Herbert Oyer was in the chair. Secretary D. G. Ross read a communication from the St. John Club inviting the members to be present at ladies' night meeting, Monday, Oct. 27. Rotarian E. B. Newcombe announced that the Halifax Club had extended an invitation to entertain the members of the Kentville Club and their wives, the first or second week in November. The invitation was cordially accepted. A hearty vote of thanks on behalf of Club members was extended by Chairman H. Oyer to Col. MacDonald for his able and intensely interesting address.

WOLFVILLE BOY MARRIED IN QUEBEC

(From the Stanstead (Que.) Journal.) Numbered among the early autumn brides is Miss Beatrice Redfield Parker, whose wedding at All Saints church, Bebe, Wednesday evening, September 24, is of interest to people in Bebe, Newport and Barton, where she is well known. The groom is Dr. Charles Good Schurman of Wolfville, N. S., and of Montreal, where he is seen on the staff of the Montreal General Hospital, and has also been connected with one of the hospitals in Buffalo, N. Y.

It was while Miss Parker was a nurse in training at the Montreal General that the romance began which culminated in the charming ceremony of last Wednesday evening. In the absence of her father, John I. Parker, of Pasadena, Calif., the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John W. Elder, of Bebe. The church was decorated with masses of hydrangeas, the bridal party approaching the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Fred Barre. The Rev. Edward Bull, rector of All Saints, and of Christ church, Stanstead, was the officiating clergyman, plighting their troth with the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Schurman wore a beautiful gown of gray georgette, beaded, and hat of the same shade and carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses. Her only attendant, as maid of honor, was Miss Thelma Haffner of Kingston, Ont., who wore a frock of rose georgette; beaded, a picture hat of black panne velvet, and carried a cluster bouquet of opelia roses. Mrs. C. G. Schurman, mother of the groom, wore a handsome gown of black lace over gold satin, with corsage of roses.

Dr. Schurman's attendant was a close friend, Dr. Frank Shaver of Montreal, and the ushers were Arnold B. Elder and John R. Stewart of Bebe. During the signing of the register by the contracting parties, Mrs. Charles Berry sang most delightfully, "At Dawning". A reception, attended only by the relatives and intimate friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elder followed the ceremony. The decorations were flaming gladioli and other autumn flowers, and roses adorned the dining room where ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Dr. and Mrs. Schurman will spend their honeymoon in Montreal and Quebec and on their return are to locate in Newport. Mrs. Schurman wore, when leaving, an ensemble costume of navy poret twill, with gray wolf collar, and a close hat to match.

The good wishes and congratulations of their friends have been expressed very lavishly in gifts of silver, cut glass, linens and substantial checks. Besides Dr. Schurman's mother, Mrs. C. G. Schurman of Wolfville, N. S., and aunt, Miss Good, of Burma, India, was also present.

GROUP OF C. G. I. T. ORGANIZED

The group of Canadian Girls in Training (C. G. I. T.) recently organized in connection with the Church of England Sunday school meets for its mid week session on Tuesday evening at the Parish Hall. The girls seem keenly interested and hope to meet the groups of neighboring towns in friendly games and social visits. A special meeting will be held on Thursday evening next at which Miss Trotter, the Provincial Organizer, will be present.

The officers of this group, which is known as "Soan go ta ka" (Strong hearted) are: President—Frances Sanford. Vice President—Frances Brown. Secretary—Jean Stewart. Treasurer—Cora Coldwell. Chairman Sports Com.—Mary Coldwell.

EQUAL RATES FOR ALL

In referring to the judgment of the Railway Commission on the Crow's Nest Pass agreement, Hon. J. B. Baxter said the decision vindicates the position he has taken on the question. He contends that railway rates should be fixed for every part of the country by the Railway Commission, and that neither West nor East should enjoy any special privileges. Hon. Mr. Baxter was Minister of Public Works in the Meighen Cabinet.

FUNERAL OF EVERETT W. SAWYER

The large place that the late Dr. Everett W. Sawyer held in the esteem of those who had been associated with him in the work of Christian Education and in the work of the Kingdom was shown at the funeral services conducted at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. George Parker, Woodstock, Ontario, on Monday, September 22nd. The pastor of the First Baptist church, Rev. Joseph James, conducted the service, and was assisted by Dr. J. H. Farmer and Dr. E. M. Kierstead, both of McMaster University, and Rev. S. J. Everett, of Woodstock College. Favorite passages of scripture of the deceased were read by Rev. E. Everett, some of his favourite hymns were sung, and Mrs. James sang the beautiful hymn, "Sleep on, beloved". Rev. Jos. James paid high tribute to Dr. Sawyer. He spoke of his work in Woodstock College, where he was universally beloved by his fellow-teachers and by the students. In the first Baptist church he had rendered faithful service as deacon, and his work as teacher of the Bible class had been of the highest order. His sound judgement, his integrity, his unflinching interest in the Lord's work, his courage and optimism, his faith in God, made him of great service in the college, the church, and the community. Mr. James read the following telegram from Acadia University, to which Dr. Sawyer had given twenty-three years of service: "Governors and Faculty of Acadia University extend sincere sympathy to you and the family in your great loss and sorrow. Dr. Sawyer was a highly esteemed teacher and worker here, and many students will remember his faithful work in their behalf."

Dr. Farmer spoke of the character and work of Dr. Sawyer, whom he described as a man of sound Christian culture, who had given his life to the work of Christian Education. Thousands of students had come under the influence of his personality, and had been blessed thereby. Dr. Farmer referred especially to the real and thorough scholarship of Dr. Sawyer, combined with genuine Christian character. With these, there was humble dependence upon Christ, through whom he had now obtained the victory.

Dr. Kierstead, who had known Dr. Sawyer for fifty years, spoke with intense feeling, and referred to the place that Dr. Sawyer would hold in the history of the Baptist denomination as an educationalist of the first rank. Brilliant as a student in Acadia and Harvard Universities, he had given rich service as a teacher through nearly forty years, in Acadia University, Okanagan College, and Woodstock College. "He rendered invaluable service to the church and to the country. His work is ended, but his influence goes on. He has entered into the more immediate presence of the Redeemer."—Ex.

"THE SOCIAL CODE" HAILED AS VIOLA DANA'S GREATEST

It will be most welcome news to the film fans of this town to learn that Viola Dana in "The Social Code", her latest Metro feature, is coming to the Orpheum Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. Wherever it has been shown to date, "The Social Code" has been hailed as Miss Dana's finest contribution to the screen and in it she forsakes light comedy to give a remarkably clever performance in a tensely dramatic offering.

The story of "The Social Code" is an adaptation of Rita Weiman's story, "To Whom It May Concern", one of the finest things this noted author has ever written, and it is safe to say that no more absorbing drama has been seen on any screen in many months. Sumptuous settings, showing the homes and clubs of Long Island society folk, provide an elaborate background for the thrilling story, and it permits the star to wear numberless fashionable gowns that are sure to delight the feminine eye.

Miss Dana's supporting cast is sure to find favor among the patrons of the silent drama. Malcolm McGregor plays the leading male role, while Huntly Gordon is another prominent member of the cast. Cyril Chadwick is seen as the blackmailing clubman, while Miss Dana's sister, Edna Flurath, appears with her for the first time in several years and, strangely enough, enacts the role of her sister in the film.

ACADIA STUDENTS HOLD RECEPTION

Pleasant "At Home" Given by Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association of Acadia University gave an "At Home" Friday evening, in the Memorial Gymnasium, to the Faculty and students of the University. The main gymnasium floor was transformed into a reception room, with garnet and blue streamers extending from a selection on the ceiling nearly to the floor.

An address of welcome was delivered by E. M. Perry, President of the Student Christian Association. After the first topic Elizabeth Murray, member of the General Committee of the Student Christian Association of Canada, gave an interesting account of the Student Christian movement conference at Toronto last summer, at which she represented Acadia.

Harry Mullins gave a vocal solo, Doane Hatfield, a shortreading, A. M. McLaughlin, a selection on the bells, and Miss Helen Simms a solo. Professor McKenzie's quintette rendered an excellent instrumental number. The other artists besides Prof. McKenzie were, Miss Thretheway, Miss Vogler, Ben Gullison and A. N. Goudy. Representing the Faculty, Prof. J. M. McL. Rogers gave a talk on "Making this an Acadia Year". The chaperones were Miss Ocker, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Balcolm, Miss Cutler and E. M. Perry. The introducing committee were, Misses Price, Brady, McLean, Smith, Freeman, DeWolfe, and V. C. Small, Mr. K. E. McKenzie and O. A. Noble.

HAS THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Mr. Arthur Hunt Chute, writer of sea tales, who went from Halifax to England on the sailing ship Snowdon, for experience, has received a heavy dose of it, according to a letter home. Three times on the trip the captain gave the order to brace the yards and heave to, to ride out the storm. "The worst thing about a sailing ship is that you are utterly at the mercy of the winds, and if they are contrary you are helpless. From the point of view of a writer looking for material, this eventful voyage has abounded in thrills. Captain Black says that it has been his worst sustained experience of the Western Ocean—a succession of bad times from Halifax to the Irish Sea, and the deck cargo, part of which was jettisoned off Halifax in the hurricane, began to give cause for alarm."

Finally, the captain ordered all hands to pitch off all the rest of the deck cargo. By this time we were being tumbled under the sea, and the sea was so high that solid sea, well over a man's head. Hence the job was fraught with danger, but everyone went to it. Before long I, too, was set to work, and it was clear to all that we were at it for our lives.

Our worst experience came when most of the lumber was off. Then, with every roll, the pile of deals would come crashing to leeward. To be in the middle of a charge of a few thousand pieces of timber, weighing three to four hundred each, is by itself enough to make your hair curl. To have to stick there and see the lumber being led aboard, backed up with the fury of a boarding sea, makes a man into a pigmy. Whenever a sea broke inward all leaped for the rigging, or the poop, every man for himself.

Mr. Chute, having safely survived these harrowing experiences, is at present enjoying the political fight being waged in London. He will return to New York by liner.

BOYS' WORK NOTES

The Property and Equipment Committee of the Boy Scouts Association met at the club room on Friday evening. It was decided to grant the use of the building to the Cubs and Scouts of the Anglican Troop on Tuesday evening. Those of the United church will meet with them for the present.

On Monday evening the new organized Troop committee of the United church met and sent in an application for a charter. This Scout troop will be known as No. 2, Wolfville. Mr. Waldo Davidson, Scoutmaster, and Messrs. Paul Davidson and Angus Elderkin, assistants.

Last Saturday some of the Scouts of the Anglican troop visited Sunken Lake and completed their log cabin on the property adjoining that owned by the Wolfville Scout Association. They expect to put on an entertainment before long to raise funds.

ACADIA ACADEMY LOSES TO HALIFAX

In the Semi-finals of the Nova Scotia High School Rugby League

An interesting game of football was played at Windsor last Saturday between the Acadia Collegiate and Halifax Academy teams, which resulted in a win for the latter by the score of 8 to 0. This was the semi-final match for the Nova Scotia High School Rugby Championship, and the winner is qualified to meet the winner of the eastern section.

Saturday's match was played on the King's campus and was witnessed by a large crowd, including a number of the members of both teams. The Halifax players made their two tries in the first period, and were able to convert one of them. In the second period the Acadia players put up a strong defensive and the winners were unable to increase their lead. Mr. Finch, of M. Dockyard, Halifax, acted as referee.

WOLFVILLE MUST NOT LAC BEHIND

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was called for Tuesday evening at the Council Chamber. The chief object was to take into consideration such action as will place Wolfville in line with other towns of the province in the matter of providing funds to assist the Nova Scotia Publicity Bureau in the splendid work which is being done to advertise our attractions as a tourist resort. So far Wolfville has done nothing while other sections whose interests are affected in no greater degree have contributed very materially towards the support of the undertaking. It is proposed in the near future to call upon citizens in support of this worthwhile work in order to secure an amount that will be creditable to our town. The co-operation of all citizens is invited and it is hoped that little difficulty will be experienced in raising the required amount.

ROCKEFELLER GIVES $375,000 TO ACADIA UNIVERSITY

A special meeting of the Board of Governors of Acadia University was held in the College library yesterday afternoon. The most important feature was the announcement made by President Patterson of a subscription of $375,000 toward the $1,500,000 of the new Acadia Forward Movement. This subscription had been made by John D. Rockefeller.

Dr. Buttrick, Chairman of the General Education Board, and Mr. Theobald, Treasurer of the Board, had visited Wolfville in the early summer and had made a careful study of the work and of the financial standing of the institution. This gift grows out of the investigation. This brings the amount subscribed to the new Forward Movement up to $800,000. The building will be pushed to an early completion and will be available for classes on February first. The new auditorium will be ready for use by next Convocation.

While $700,000 is yet to be pledged, the generous response that has been made is a guarantee of the ultimate success of this campaign.

DR. MANNING'S LETTER APPRECIATED

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN Dear Editor.—Permit me, please, space in your paper to express my appreciation of the letter which appeared in THE ACADIAN recently by our venerated and highly esteemed townsman, Rev. Dr. Manning. Because of the fact, which I well realize, that those who disagree with him, and some others who are not courageous enough to stand beside him, will not be slow to criticize his manly course, I feel it my duty to say "Well done."

While I make no pretence of being better than others, and hold views on some matters that would hardly be endorsed by many of the steady churchgoers, I do admire a man who has the courage of his convictions, and who is fearless enough to stand up and protest against the things which he considers wrong. As I understand it this is the spirit which animated the prophets and teachers of bible times, many of whom suffered because of their boldness, but who today are counted among the notables of earth.

It is a pity that among those who profess to be leaders in the things which make for the betterment of mankind there are not more of those who are of the same ilk as Dr. Manning. They would find that it cost them something, but in the long run the world would unquestionably be the better for because of their sacrifice.

Black Cats!

Carload lots of hay and oats are stored for the horses in Moirs' stables. To keep rats and mice away cats are necessary. These are all black to match the black horses used in Moirs deliveries.

Frank Boutillier, noted horseman, takes a loving pride in the selection and care of these horses and sees that the men clean harness and wagons daily so that all teams will stay spotless.

SIR DOUGLAS MACLEAN

President of the Scottish Liberal Federation, has relinquished his candidature in the Kilmarnock division of Ayr and Bute, and has gone to Cardiff, Wales, in search of a constituency. This is in accordance with the agreement reached between the Liberal and Conservative parties to avoid three-cornered fights wherever possible, to prevent the chance of a Labor candidate being elected. It is the desire of both Conservatives and Liberals to make it a straight fight between Labor and a Tory or a Liberal.

CHARLES COWLEY BROWN

The announcement of the death of Mr. C. C. Brown in Dartmouth, N. S., on Oct. 15, at the age of 75 years, caused a wide-spread feeling of regret throughout our neighborhood, and it is safe to say that every man or woman who had ever known him paused a while on hearing the news, to think reverently and fondly of the life of that good man and his influence among us. They spoke of his courtesy—so unfeeling; of his honesty—so much a part of his very nature; of his geniality, and of his patriotism. On all sides one heard incidents related illustrating all of these, but as one friend said in speaking of eulogies: "He was modest, and so are the members of his family, and when one has said that his memory is enshrined in the hearts of his neighbors one has said enough to indicate all the rest."

Mr. Brown's native place was Haverfordwest, Pembrokeshire, Wales; the quaint old town where Lloyd-George spent his boyhood in a place where such quaint and ancient customs as that of "Guy Fawkes' Day" are still celebrated in the days of old. Mrs. Brown was from the county of Wiltshire, in England, and they with their eight children left Haverfordwest about thirty-two years ago, and came to Greenburg, Kings Co., N. S., where they bought Mr. John Pudsey's farm. Here their youngest child, Gwendolyn, was born; and here also Mrs. Brown died about ten years ago.

When the Great War called two of his sons to offer themselves for the defence of the Empire, Mr. Brown shared their enthusiasm, and up-borne by patriotism he watched them go—his eldest son John who died at Ypres, June 16, 1916, and Alban, who had come back from the Canadian west to enlist. After the war the latter returned home with his Scottish bride and now lives near New Glasgow.

After six years ago, having sold his farm to Mrs. John Murphy, of Halifax, Mr. Brown and his second wife (nee Miss Emma Davis, of Kentville) removed to Hantsport, N. S. Free from the activities of farming and orcharding the quiet pursuits of his old age were characteristic: the reading of many kinds of books, the committing of more and more of Shakespeare to memory, and the practice of amateur drawing and painting. He never forgot a friend, and until he became too weak to receive them his old neighbors always met with a warm welcome in his new home.

From the time that his illness became very serious until his death he was with his daughter in Dartmouth, N. S., whence his body was brought to Greenburg; and here in the United church, which he had joined years ago, the funeral was held on Friday, Oct. 17, at 2:30 p.m. The service was attended by a large number of friends from near and far, and the fine address by the pastor, Dr. D. B. Hemmeon, gave deep satisfaction to all. Mrs. Currie, of Sunnyside, sang "I'm Looking Beyond". The interment was at "The Oakes" in Kentville, where the mother of his children lies buried.

He had five daughters and four sons as follows: Letty, (Mrs. Jas. Harvey, Greenburg); Annie, (Mrs. Elliot Fuller, New Minas, died in 1920); Charlotte, (Mrs. Robert Reid, New Glasgow); Dorothy, (Mrs. Arthur Leslie, Dartmouth); Gwendolyn, (Mrs. Cecyl Hiltz, Kentville); John (died at Ypres); William, of Aylesford, Alban, of New Glasgow, and Frank of Washington State, U. S. A. Seven of these his second wife and eleven grand-children survive him.

ACADIA GRADUATE WRITES ON PACIFIC COAST EXPLORATIONS

V. L. Denton, a graduate of Acadia in the class of 1903, now vice-president of the Victoria (B. C.) Normal School, has just published a new and interesting story of Pacific Coast explorations, from the Canadian viewpoint. "The West Coast" is the title of the book, and it portrays in the language of the sea the voyages and explorations of Cook, Juan de Fuca, Vitus Bering, Mearns and Captain Vancouver. It indicates that the author has delved into the archives for material which he has put into splendid form.

The book is specially designed to help the teacher in his search for material. Mr. Denton was born in Wolfville, N. B., and for a time followed the sea. His wife is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eston, of this town.

PUT UP APPLES IN SMALLER PACKAGES

A PROPOSITION has been made by a Vancouver sales expert which may be considered with profit by the apple growers of Nova Scotia. This is no less than that apples must be put up in dollar packages if they are to meet with any greatly increased demand in that city.

This advertising man fully recognizes the fact that bought singly or in lots of one or two pounds at a time the consumption of apples is nothing like what it would be if there were in the house a larger package, but he declares that it is impossible to persuade but a small percentage of housekeepers to accept apples in as large a package as the standard box used in the Western province.

Annapolis Valley growers are perhaps too prone to be content to ship their apples to the British markets at the risk of the price there being sufficient to provide for the cost of production, the excessive transportation charges and return them a profit.

FUR FARMING A PROFITABLE INDUSTRY

IN SOME sections of the Valley fur farming is today receiving considerable attention. Practical men who have made the experiment state definitely that scientifically carried on the industry is destined to be a profitable as well as an interesting one.

Nothing could more forcibly evidence the profitable venture which many have found in late years in fur farming in Canada than the increasing popularity of the novel industry. The steady enlistment of new followers of this unique branch of agriculture is well illustrated in a survey of the statistics for the year 1923, which record an increase of more than twenty per cent. in the number of fur farms over the Dominion and a further expansion in the varieties of animals to come within the scope of domestication.

The fur farming industry of Canada which has passed questionable stages in its brief history must now be considered as definitely established as a new branch of national activity to become with the passing of the years an increasingly important source of revenue.

WE ARE DEPENDENT UPON ONE ANOTHER

EVERYWHERE people are coming to realize more and more how inter-dependent we are upon each other. The only individual who is self-sufficient is a hermit.

The keynote—the foundation of civilization—is the family. We all concede that. And we're coming to realize that our own community—is a home town family—simply the family unit a little bit extended through neighborly cordiality, friendship, and pleasant social intercourse.

Common goodwill and recognition of our human obligation is a deeper currency than any money system ever invented. But it is also to our advantage on the material side of life—it redounds in better practices, living conditions, more generous impulses. It makes Wolfville a better place to live in.

Let's make our community unit closer knit. Let's be generous with our goodwill—realizing that the prosperity of the individual is directly reflected in an added prosperity to our community.

NOT GOOD ADVERTISING

IN ANOTHER place in this paper appears a statement concerning the quality of our Nova Scotia apples by a prominent grower of the Valley. It is taken from a British Columbia exchange which copied it from a St. John paper. While it looks very much like a knock we give it place because of the lesson which it teaches. The publication of such matter should operate only for good if confined to our own section but is very bad advertising when it appears in other provinces of the Dominion and in foreign countries.

In evidence of the vast amount of effort which is going to waste and might be profitably applied, an estimate is made by a United States exchange that the handshaking employed at any presidential election would milk every cow in that country twice.

If you don't believe in newspaper space and printers' ink as business getters, then you had better take lessons in how to succeed from the man who failed.

FEEDING OF BEES

Two of the essentials for good wintering of bees are young bees and ample stores. To secure the first, young bees, a natural fall flow or an artificial flow produced by feeding is required to stimulate brood production. If ample stores are lacking, they must be provided by feeding.

The feed supplied may be either a honey or a sugar syrup, and in making the latter none but the best of white granulated sugar should be used.

For stimulative feeding, a light syrup of approximately one part honey or sugar to one part water is best. This syrup may be given to the bees in various ways, but the one most generally used is the honey pail method, which consists in inverting a 5 or 10 pound honey pail of syrup over the frames, the cover of which pail has 3 or 4 holes in it pierced by a fine nail.

Colonies wintered in cellar should weigh 60 to 65 pounds, without hive cover, and those wintered outside 70 to 75 pounds. Any deficiencies should be made up by feeding one pound sugar for every pound lacking in stores. The syrup given in this case should consist of 2 parts sugar to one part water, or 5 parts honey to one part water, and should be fed from 10 pound honey pails, as above described, each pail having 40 to 50 small nail holes in its cover. Feed may be given either hot or cold. When fed hot, however, there is a greater danger of granulation but the syrup is more readily taken down by the bees.

Feeding should be done about the first of October, as rapidly as possible and in the evening to avoid disturbance.

A. H. W. BIRCH, Apiarist.

A BISHOP WHO LIKES SHORT SKIRTS

Short Skirts Better Than Bangs of Old: Scant Skirts Superior to Hoops.

Chicago, October 3.—Bobbed hair, short skirts and songs like "Yes, We Have No Bananas" were defended against banged hair, hoop skirts and "Pharaoh's Daughter on the Fence, Little Moses in the Pool," by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of the Methodist Episcopal church in an address here last night.

"We criticize their hair, their skin, their stockings, their shoes, their skirts, their cosmetics and their manners," he said speaking of modern young people. "I suppose when you middle-aged people were young, to hear some of you talk, you would think you were gentle little angels sitting around on sofas with your hands folded on your laps."

"We never had a finer set of young people in the Methodist church than we have today. More than 30,000 of them attended institutes this summer and 96 per cent. of the number listened with attention to serious lectures."

"Don't you remember when the young people used to bang their hair—let it fall all over the forehead? As between banged hair and bobbed hair, I take the bobbed variety. "Remember those balloon skirts? When two women met on the sidewalk, one had to step off to let the other pass. As between the old hoop skirt and the present styles, give me the short skirt of today."

"I have heard it stated that the song, "Yes, We Have No Bananas" was a sign of the degeneracy of the times. But what were you singing, you pious old steward and you staid old church trustees when you were young? You were singing: "Pharaoh's Daughter on the Fence, Little Moses in the Pool; She Fished Him Out With a Telegraph Pole, and Sent Him Off to School."

"Now let us be fair. As between taking sacred characters of the Bible and making hilarious songs about them and the song "Yes, We Have No Bananas," I prefer the bananas."

FAMOUS MISTAKES OF FAMED WRITERS PUBLISHED IN BOOK

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Famous lapses of famous men, as revealed in some of the most famous works of the world's literature have been collected and published in the periodical "Bimini" by L. W. Thal.

Even the most noted of authors apparently have made their mistakes.

Flaubert in his famous romance "Madame Bovary" has a person change 85 francs—all into two franc pieces.

Walter Scott has the sun SET in the East.

Zola, the strict naturalist, tells of the last rays of the sun that tinged the summer landscape—at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Heine, in his book "Le Grand" puts the Island of St. Helena in the Indian Ocean.

Schiller in his "Don Carlos" designates the Infanta Clara Eugenia as a child of 3 years; in the piece itself however he writes that the child was born last New Year.

Dumas gives the heroine of one of his romances wonderful black hair in the first chapter, only to speak of her "wonderful golden locks" in the fourth chapter.

Auerbach, whose Rabbi Isaak is pictured in the first chapter as a small, shrivelled man with a red beard, has grown into a handsome tall man with a black beard that falls to his chest in the eighth chapter.

Thackeray in his "Henri Esmond," kills off the Dean of Winchester in the sixth chapter, only to have him write a letter in the ninth chapter.

If a girl is perfectly satisfied with her one-piece bathing suit, she is perfectly satisfied with herself.

INTERESTING COMMENT ON NOVA SCOTIA APPLES

(From the St. John Telegraph.) A prominent Nova Scotia fruit grower from Berwick, who has for twenty-five years been Secretary of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association, told The Halifax Herald that only certain varieties of apples lent themselves to box packing.

Three of them at least, the Delicious, Winesap and Jonathan, are favorites in British Columbia, and they are the rosy cheeked, uniform apples that may be seen in the shop windows in St. John, Halifax and other cities and towns in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Parker says that the Maritime Province climate is too dark and dull to produce that desirable color and that the only kind grown here that can be bought to good advantage are the Gravenstein and McIntosh Reds.

This makes plain what we have all been wondering about, as to why the far-famed apples of the Maritimes are not shown and sold in the stores of the Maritimes. We pay big prices for Ontario and Western fruit and the dealers say that they can be boxed and prepared just for that kind of a market. It is something to find the Secretary of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association admitting that the question of flavor has been over stressed and that Nova Scotia apples have not the finest flavor in the world. The English market requires low grade apples and the Province of Nova Scotia is in a position to produce and sell them. They bring good prices overseas and Mr. Parker, in making this statement, produced as proof the fact that the Berwick Fruit Chamber has shipped this year 40,000 barrels, only 20 per cent. of which were No. 1's, 15 per cent. No. 2's, 25 per cent. No. 3's, and the remainder were domestic. British Columbia, he says, ships nothing but No. 1's to England, the excessive freight rates making it necessary to ship only the superior kind of apples.

TURNIP FEEDING

One of the most annoying of flavors in milk and cream at this season is that which comes from the feeding of turnips, tops and all. We would not breathe a syllable to discourage in any way the raising and feeding of turnips. It is a line in which milk advance could be made, especially in western parts of the province. Certain precautions can easily be taken however to avoid the contamination of milk.

One is to feed the turnips immediately after milking, not before or during that process. Another is not to allow a pail of milk to stand in a stable or elsewhere where there is an odor of turnips or other vegetables. A third is thorough ventilation of the stable where turnips have been fed and the cleaning up of any leavings from past feeding. One of the sources of strong odor of turnips is the practice in some instances of leaving turnips and tops in a heap so that heating takes place and the process of decomposition begins. A little care along such lines as these will prevent a disagreeable taste and odor in the milk.

ADVERTISING NOVA SCOTIA APPLES

(By E. D. Halliburton in The Farmers' Guide.)
Would advertising apples pay? The query is as interesting as it is inexhaustible.

Advertising does pay of course. The business man who would declare that ordinarily he does not believe in advertising would merely make himself ridiculous.

Farmers, however, are not always business men, and there are farmers and fruit-growers who are almost violent on the subject of advertising.

Such an aggressive plan of action may have served in the '60's and '70's when some of these men were young and apples were being exported by the thousand where they are now being shipped across by the million.

The manufacturers of Zig-zag tooth brushes in Seebrook, Illinois, would never have been compelled to enlarge their plant until it extended over so many acres, if they had adopted the bright scheme of letting one tooth brush sell another.

Somebody may retort that tooth-brushes and apples are distinctly different commodities.

Wheat and its products are an ever more essential human food than apples, yet the miller who neglects to advertise courts disaster.

The work of the California Fruit Growers is even more to the point. What they have accomplished ought to establish the value of advertising fruit, beyond all doubt.

One is tempted to trace a parallel between the problems confronting our apple growers and those overcome by the raisin growers.

Apples are good for the complexion. Then why not tell the ladies how to keep the school girl complexion.

Overproduction is a bogey. Every time that there is a normal crop in all the producing areas, an overproduction is heralded.

Third point is in the package. In conjunction with their advertising campaign, the raisin growers put their product up in packages, not simply to

BARON ISHII

One of the Japanese representatives at the League of Nations Assembly in Geneva, who compelled a modification of some of the proposals regarding compulsory arbitration of international disputes.

What advertising methods could Nova Scotia use? That of course is a problem for the leaders of the industry.

British people are always intensely interested in the Dominions and, taking a hint from British Columbia, perhaps the most effective and cheapest way of keeping them interested in our apples is by making them interested in Nova Scotia and particularly the Annapolis Valley.

This assertion was criticized. It is the worst kind of a half truth. It is true only so long as the growers believe it and continue to present the British dealers with tangible evidence of their belief.

As a matter of fact we export Gravensteins, Kings, Northern Spies, Russets, Macintosh Reds and Cox's Orange and other varieties of dessert apples. Yet to all intents and purposes they are lumped with the cooking apples.

Here is where advertising would come in, must come in. Nothing else on earth will eradicate from the mind of the English dealer and consumer that Nova Scotian apples are only for cooking.

A few years ago, the pessimist who is prone to prophecy, reckoned that there were too many trees set out and that there would never be a market for all the apples.

She has done it by advertising abroad, by careful selection and skilful packing at home. Nova Scotia can do the same. If she is to get-most out of the apple business, she will

British Columbia has been served by a corps of splendid publicity agents all actuated by that boosting spirit so general in the West.

The Nova Scotian grower should lose no time in reminding the apple buying public that the Annapolis Valley specializes in raising apples.

All apples which can better be recommended for cooking purposes should be so marked. Honesty is essential.

What advertising methods could Nova Scotia use? That of course is a problem for the leaders of the industry.

British people are always intensely interested in the Dominions and, taking a hint from British Columbia, perhaps the most effective and cheapest way of keeping them interested in our apples is by making them interested in Nova Scotia and particularly the Annapolis Valley.

Such a pamphlet would help to bring about that desirable subconscious connection of Nova Scotia with good apples. The cost of such a booklet would be negligible if the United Fruit Companies and some of the other big shippers would combine in its purchase.

As an alternative, if the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association would adopt some such plan, they might so urge it upon the Provincial Government, that that body might consider it worth while

YES-They all know you're in business

That is, they did know—you have told them so in times past—but do they all remember it? We all know that Ivory Soap floats, and that Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, and that children cry for Castoria and the kind of soap that makes a skin you like to touch, etc., etc.—and we're not going to forget about them for a minute, because the manufacturers spend millions of dollars a year telling us about them, day by day, and week by week, and month by month. They take no chances on being forgotten. How about your business? Isn't it just as important that you be kept in mind by the buying public in your territory as it is to the national advertiser that his product be remembered? You can cover your trade territory more easily, more cheaply in proportion, and more thoroughly than the national advertiser can cover the whole country. But you've got to keep it up to get the results that he gets. And you can't expect to advertise in flush times and live on the memory of it when you're hard up.

John Bowers is given this role to enact, and those who have seen his portrayal claim it to be the finest he has yet given the screen.

TWO SHADES OF GREEN EXPLOITED IN JERSEY FROCK FOR THE SMALL GIRL

There is no material more practical or becoming than jersey for the small girl's frock. This amusing little model sketched above is made of jersey in dark and light green. Dark green wool stitching outlines the points where the dark green hem joins the lighter part, and the same green wool outlines points on the lighter green body of the frock. The same model would be effective in two shades of blue jersey, or in browns and yellow.

Miss Ada Harris, Upper Canard, is spending a few weeks in Halifax, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chappel. Mrs. Hannah Margeson is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Kinsman, Medford. Miss Redding, Lockport, is spending several weeks in Upper Canard, guest of Miss Bessie Harris. Miss Gladys Dickie, Upper Canard, spent a few days in Halifax last week, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dickie. Mr. Alfred Thomas, son of the late John Thomas, of Canard, is visiting old friends in Canning and Canard, after an absence of thirty-three years. Mr. Thomas, who is receiving a warm welcome, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burbridge and Mrs. Dr. Levi Clarke. Dr. Goforth, Missionary of China, gave a very stirring and interesting address in Upper Canard Presbyterian Church Thursday evening, Oct. 16, the vestry being filled. The speaker chose for his text, "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ", and reviewed the great change wrought by the power of the Gospel. He quoted the lives of those who had been and are leaders in Chinese life, who having come under the power are examples to us who have lived under Christian influences from childhood. An expression of appreciation was extended to Dr. Goforth for an evening of unusual food for thought, the course of addresses which are being given by Dr. Goforth will do much toward making us realize the result of our attachment in the work which has been so greatly blessed.

LOSS AND GAIN

Do men lose nothing but money. Is not modesty to be lost? Is not decency to be lost? Or may he who loses these suffer no damage? You, indeed, perhaps no longer think anything of this sort of damage. But there was a time when you accounted this to be the only damage and hurt; when you were anxiously afraid lest anyone would shake your regard from these courtesies and actions. See! It is not taken by another, but by yourself, right against yourself. Recover your right to decency, to modesty, to freedom.—Epictetus. A flat pocketbook and a flat tire are about the worst combination.

ACADIA BEAT KING'S IN EXHIBITION GAME

In a practice game here last Thursday afternoon, Acadia College Rugby squad defeated King's by a 14 to nothing score. The day was ideal for fast Rugby and the field was in fine condition.

From the kick-off the game soon went to King's territory, where good tackling by the visiting fullback saved the situation several times. After a few minutes of fast playing, the Acadia half line broke through and scored the first try of the game during a mix-up. Davidson failed to convert. A free kick saved King's from being scored on again a few minutes later, but the King'smen were unable to keep the locals out and Elderkin plunged over for a try, which was successfully converted. G. Moore, of King's, was injured during the first period and had to retire.

B. Elderkin added three more points to Acadia's total after about ten minutes of play in the second session. The try for a convert went astray with the wind. King's outplayed the locals for a short time, but were unable to break through for a score. McLatchey completed the scoring a few minutes before the game ended. The try was not converted and the final score was 14 to nil for the locals. During the last few minutes of the game the players kicked freely and there were many free kicks awarded.

The Elderkin brothers, Davidson and McLatchey were the pick of the locals, while Rockingham and Moore played well for King's.

The teams: King's—Walsh, Coleman, Knickle, G. Moore, Kehle, Nelson, Wolliver and Bliss, forwards; Rockingham, Thompson and Wickwire, quarters; R. Moore, Jackson, Coster and DeWhite, halves; Jakeman, fullback. Acadia—Estey, Taylor, Anderson, Cleveland, A. Noble, Warren, Shaffner and Heavner, forwards; Davidson, McLatchey and J. Elderkin, quarters; Barteaux, McWha, B. Elderkin, Cox and Brady, halves; O. Noble (Captain), fullback.

CAN'T BE OVER-WATCHFUL

The smooth and easy operation of an automobile is dependent on the electrical system, and the motorist, who lacks appreciation for the adventurous possibilities in being stalled on some lonely road in a winter night, looks over this part of his car occasionally to see that it is in good condition.

There are a number of little things that the motorist can do that will keep the "nervous system" of his car ship-shape. Go over it every now and then, and see that the wiring is not chafing against some metal which will soon cut through the insulation and give you a short circuit. See that all lamp connections are tight and that your lamps burn brightly. See that the signal horn has been properly wired. But more than anything else, see that the generator is clean and actually charging the battery.

The motorist who does not care to do these things himself, usually finds it convenient and inexpensive to have them attended to. Many dealers are accommodating and will examine the car, believing that anything they can do to promote greater owner satisfaction is only so much "bread cast upon the waters."

NEW STEAMER LINE

Yarmouth May Have Direct Service to New York Next Summer

YARMOUTH, Oct. 10.—Yarmouth, and the people of Nova Scotia generally, will be interested in learning that the Boston and Yarmouth Steamship Company is seriously considering putting on a direct line of steamers from Yarmouth to New York. This service was in operation for several years but terminated in 1907. At that time, one round-trip was made every five days, and if the service is resumed it doubtless will be much the same as before. The resumption of the service would be a distinct boom to tourist travel and would have the effect of inducing a good class of summer visitors. No definite plans have been completed, but it is hoped that the service may be put into operation about May 1, to continue through the summer months.

BAD FIRE AT SCOTTS BAY
CANNING, Oct. 21.—Sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Tupper, Scotts Bay, whose residence and barn with five tons of hay and sixty-one barrels of potatoes were completely destroyed by fire which broke out at four o'clock, Saturday, Oct. 18. Nothing saved neighboring properties but the prompt action of the fire fighters, as a high wind was sweeping over the country. The household furniture was saved. The loss is partially covered by insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Tupper are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tupper. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Enoch Bishop, of Wolfville, auctioneer, very kindly gave his services and by his witty remarks kept things came and assisted with the entertainment. Everybody seemed to enjoy the evening and were glad of the chance to help Acadia.

Mrs. Stoddart, of Halifax, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Barkhouse.

Mrs. N. H. Newcombe is visiting her uncle in Bridgetown. Mr. Newcombe will go down in November and with her spend a month or so with relatives.

Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Bermuda, was a week end guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Chase at Church Street. While taking this trip through the province Dr. Marsh has delivered several lectures on Astronomy, on which subject he is a recognized authority.

Miss Alice Lockwood, who has been at her home since her mother's death, returned on Wednesday to her position with Jensen & Mills, Halifax.

Mr. S. L. Gates spent several days this week on a business trip to Great Village, Colchester county.

Mr. Grant Murphy returned home on Wednesday from a short vacation spent in Boston. It is with genuine regret that the public in this vicinity learns of his being transferred to the D. A. R. station at Kentville. His strict attention to his work and unwillingness to fail in the public made him popular with any who did business at Port Williams station.

The service next Sunday evening will be in charge of the World Wide Guild and will be a Harvest and Thanksgiving program. The platform will be decorated with fruit and vegetables which will be donated to the Children's Hospital, Halifax.

On Tuesday a surprise party was held at the parsonage, it being the 28th anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Chipman's marriage. It was called a pound party but some of the donations would tip the scales at over a cwt. There were a large number present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The prepared program consisting of a piano solo, Miss Lucy Cogswell, reading, Miss Bessie Frazer, vocal solo, Miss Annie Pearson, reading, Mrs. Cogswell, piano and violin duet, Lucy and Mason Cogswell, was given after which several humorous clippings were read by different ones and some games were enjoyed. The address of congratulation, with a handsomely decorated cake bearing the dates 1896-1924, the gift of Mrs. S. L. Gates, was presented by C. A. Campbell, and responded to by Mr. and Mrs. Chipman, after which all joined in singing Auld Lang Syne.

Miss Joyce Harvey, one of our young girls who is now teaching school at Glenmont, spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey, having come home to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Brown.

A few from here attended and enjoyed the Acadia Social at Port Williams on Friday evening.

Mrs. Cecyl Hiltz, of Kentville, who has been a patient at the home of Nurse Andrews, returned to her home on Sunday afternoon with her infant son, Robert Arthur Brown Hiltz. Much interest was felt by all in this community on arrival of this baby, as his mother is a real Greenwich girl, this being her birth place.

An enjoyable "Sing" was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fenwick on Sunday evening with a good attendance.

On Tuesday morning, Oct. 21, our first snow of the season fell with hail at times during the morning. The snow melted as fast as it fell. Farmers here are busy picking their late apples and shipping them.

A Kansas editor got gay and made caustic criticism of the practice of bobbed hair. The poor editor soon found his patronage gone and himself scorned by the women of the town. In disgust and despair, the editor tried to regain the patronage and good will of the women by apologizing, and this is what he said:

"We like bobbed hair. Bobbed hair is sanitary. Bobbed hair looks cute. Bobbed hair makes business good for the barbers, and we love the barbers. Bobbed hair makes old women look older, giving them that good, girlish, grandmother appearance. Biscuits with hair in them are not as numerous as they were before the bobbed hair craze. If there are any, they are shorter and easier to get out. Therefore, we apologize for what we have said in the past about bobbed hair."

GREENWICH

Mr. Lorne Pudsey, who has been suffering for months from a bad accident which resulted in his leg being broken near his hip, up in the States, and has been out over a week although having to use crutches. He is a guest at the home of a cousin. His friends here hope for a steady and complete recovery to his usual health.

The death of Mr. Charles C. Brown, of Hantsport, a property owner and resident here for many years, caused genuine sorrow and regret from many true friends here. Mr. Brown was past 75 years of age but retained his mental faculties well, and up to a short time before death tried to paint, an art he dearly loved. It had always been his ambition to someday be able to paint a real worth while picture. He always had a gifted and wonderful mind, loved books, and Tennyson's poems were favorites of his. He was a real gentleman and loved by all who knew him. Many in this place will in memory treasure his friendship as the best. He had a genuine affection for Greenwich and hoped to be well enough to come back. Thus it seemed most fitting that his funeral should take place from the Methodist church here, of which he was a member, on Friday afternoon.

The choir sang "O, Love that will not let me go", "Abide with me", and Mrs. William Curry sang in her pleasant contralto, a solo, "The City of Light". The draping of purple and white in front of pulpit, back of the casket, was an effective touch to the service of our departed friend. His two sons and four sons-in-law were those who gently placed him in his last resting place up at The Oaks, beside his first wife. A good life ended but not forgotten.

Mrs. Charlotte Reid, of New Glasgow, who attended the funeral of her father, the late Mr. C. C. Brown, visited friends here and her sister until Monday morning.

The pupil of the Baptist church was sung on Sunday evening, by Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Wolfville. Mr. R. G. Burns effectively rendered the solo, "Babylon," by Stephen Adams.

Mrs. Laura Rice returned home recently from New York, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. W. T. Shaw entertained a number of children on Thursday in honor of the eighth natal day of her little daughter, Isabelle.

It was with exceeding regret that the citizens of Hantsport learned of the passing away of a very highly esteemed citizen, Mr. Charles Brown. Mr. Brown removed to Hantsport from Greenwich about three years ago, and made many friends while residing here.

Miss Davis, of Boston, arrived in Hantsport last week, being called home on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Julia Davis.

Dr. and Mrs. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Bishop, of Berwick, and Miss Helena Bishop, of Kentville, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradshaw on Tuesday.

Mrs. Annie Stevens, of Poplar Grove, was a recent guest of her friend, Mrs. E. N. Forsythe.

Miss Queenie Stevens, of Wolfville, spent Sunday at her home here.

Mr. T. Patton, of New Glasgow, was home for the week end.

At the jubilee service of the Presbyterian Synod held recently at New Glasgow, an interesting list of veterans, still living, was submitted, two of whom are residing in Hantsport, Dr. A. B. Dickie, 62 years of service, and Dr. Joseph Annand, 52 years.

Miss Gladys Marsters left last week for Boston, where she plans spending the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. Outerbridge left last week for Montreal, where they will spend a few weeks. They will also visit in Boston before returning.

Mrs. (Capt.) Steele, a former resident of Hantsport, is seriously ill at the Westwood Hospital, Wolfville. Her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Allen, of Lethbridge, Alta., is with her mother.

The government wharf here is undergoing extensive repairs under the management of William Coober.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week the regular monthly business meeting of the W. M. S. of the Presbyterian church, was held at the home of Mrs. B. Davison. The meeting was presided over by the Vice-President, Mrs. W. Bradshaw, in the absence of the President, Mrs. (Dr.) Dickie. A most interesting and stirring address on missions was given by Mrs. Florence Clarkson, of Truro. At the close a social hour was spent over the tea cups.

WILLIAM FRIZZLE

The sad intelligence was received here on Thursday of the death of Mr. William Frizzle, of Natick, Mass. Mr. Frizzle with his family left Hantsport last spring to make his future home in Mass. He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Josephine Bishop, of New Minas, Kings Co., two sons, Ernest and Percy, and one daughter, Eva of Natick, who have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

TOWBOAT BURNED

Flames Destroy the Hilma While Lying Aground at Partridge Island

PARRSBORO, Oct. 17.—During the height of a storm this morning the tug Hilma was burned to the keel while lying on the beach at Partridge Island. She had arrived yesterday from Hantsport towing a scow which was being loaded with gravel. As the tide was out, no water was available for an attempt to quench the flames. Consequently, the hull burned itself out. It is a total loss. A survey will be held tomorrow morning. The boat, which was owned by Captain William McKinlay, of Mt. Denson, N. S., was built in 1913 and is insured.

MRS. JULIA DAVIS

The community was saddened on Friday evening to learn of the death of Mrs. Julia Davis, who resided with her daughter, Mrs. Brownell. Mrs. Davis sustained a fall several years ago, leaving her an invalid, but was most kindly and lovingly cared for by her daughter.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Brownell, of Hantsport, Mrs. Palmer and Miss Davis, of Boston, a son having predeceased her several years.

The funeral services were held from the residence of her daughter on Sunday evening at 8.30, conducted by Rev. Mr. McLeod, of Wolfville, a former pastor of the deceased. The hymns sung were, "I am Thine, O Lord" and "On Jordan's Stormy Bank I Stand". Miss Marguerite Lawrence rendered the solo "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere". The remains were conveyed on Monday to Sackville, Halifax Co., to be interred in the family lot.

HANTSPORT NATIVE KILLED IN HAWAII

Word was received here by relatives on Friday of the death of Master Sergt. Charles L. Rupert and his wife, Mrs. Estella (Bent) Rupert, in Honolulu, Hawaii. Sergt. Rupert and his wife were killed in an automobile accident, when their machine was struck by a train near Schofield Barracks, where Sergt. Rupert was stationed with the artillery.

When the U. S. entered the World War Sergt. Rupert enlisted. He was assigned to the 76th Field Artillery which went overseas shortly after he enlisted. He saw 18 months service in the trenches, took part in many important engagements and escaped without a scratch. He was cited for bravery and received five military bars for service in battles he fought in.

Sergt. Rupert was born in Hantsport, N. S., his mother, Mrs. Emma Dow, was Miss Emma Lawrence, of Falmouth, and his father was a brother of Mrs. Thomas Morgan, of this town.

NARCOTIC DRUG-RING BROKEN UP

(Dr. J. G. Shearer, Social Service Council of Canada.)

Cheering progress is being made in suppressing the terrible traffic in the strong narcotic drugs, opium, cocaine and their derivatives. A recent interview with the Chief of the Narcotics Division of the Federal Department of Health brought to light some exceedingly encouraging recent developments.

Within the past two years no less than three hundred traffickers in drugs big and little have, after conviction and imprisonment, been deported to the country of their origin. About 50% of these were Chinese and 25% Americans. The others were from various lands.

One, the head of the greatest ring known to the Department, an Englishman, who has gone under twenty-five or thirty aliases, has just been deported to the Motherland. This ring controlled 75% of the traffic in Canada and probably as large a proportion of the traffic in the U. S. A. He, the chief of it, lived in a palatial residence in Montreal, with servants and automobiles to satisfy the most extravagant multi-millionaire.

There were ten members of this gang of highest-ups. Seven of these have now been caught and put out of business so far as this country is concerned. Two or three of them are being executed for murder in a notorious bank-rob hold-up in Montreal streets. Only three remain at large. It has taken years of painstaking and expensive effort to accomplish this. But it is accomplished. Two of Winnipeg's most notorious traffickers have died also. It has long been known that Vancouver and Montreal were the double headquarters of this traffic for Canada if not for the continent. Considerable improvement is reported in Vancouver, and great improvement in Montreal. This is due to aggressive effort and close co-operation by the Federal and Municipal Police forces. In Montreal, too, much help has been given by Dr. Haywood of the General Hospital, where numerous addicts have been treated and valuable information obtained.

This leads us to report what has been undertaken by way of compulsory treatment of the unfortunate victims in different Provinces. This is a Provincial matter. The Federal Department of Health, however, drafted a model Act providing for compulsory treatment, which was sent to all Provincial Governments and its enactment

HUGE DIRIGIBLE MAKES TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT

On Sunday, October 12th, at 6.35 a.m., this giant Zeppelin ZRS, left Friedrichshafen, Germany, bound for Lakehurst, N. J., where she landed at 9.16 a.m. on October 15th. This photograph shows the dirigible flying over Berlin. The safe arrival of the ZRS marks the fourth successful attempt of humans to span the waters of the Atlantic Ocean in non-stop flight. Experts now regard the success of dirigible flight as evidence that the dirigible is destined to be the inter-continental passenger ship of the near future. The British dirigible R34 in 1919 made the journey from England to Long Island, after battling through a bad storm off the Canadian coast. A few days later the R34 made the return journey without any troublous incident. The first and only non-stop air plane flight across the Atlantic was made by two British aviators, Alcock and Brown, in June 1919.

HANTSPORT BOY A SUCCESSFUL AUTHOR

Mr. Frank C. Davison, a former Hantsport boy, is meeting with success as an author. His most recent book, "Solo", the romance of a young man in search of happiness, whose wanderings take him from Nova Scotia to the ends of the earth and through the whole gamut of human experience, is written under the nom de plume of "Pierre Coalteet". Mr. Davison is on the staff of "The Forum", and has recently sailed for Europe, continuing as their literary editor while at the same time engaged in his own creative work.

YOUR JOB

How do you like the job you're at? Throughout your working day; When the whistle blows and you're ready to quit; Do you think you've earned your pay? Do you think you have given the best you've got? To this job that is yours to do; If you had to sit down and balance accounts, What credit is comin' to you?

Are you puttin' your shoulder behind the wheel? And pushing with all your heart; Or are you just laying down on the job, Lettin' someone else do your part? Do you think of the fellow beside you, The one who'll contest your crown; He may look to you for example—Are you helpin' him up or down?

Are you thinkin' in terms of tomorrow, In this job that is yours to do; Do you know that the world is dependin' On just such chaps as you?

There's only one way you can answer, Keep pluggin'—your pulses will throbb When you find you're on top of the ladder— Through stickin' right close to your job.—Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

It has been very justly said that the small town newspaper of the present day contains more news than did ten metropolitan dailies of thirty-five or fifty years ago. It contains more information, more features and informative editorials. In plain terms, the general average of the weekly press is as high as the highest standard of a quarter of a century ago.
