FIVE MEN KILLED; TRAIN STRIKES CAR.

The Smash-Up Occurs at Waterbury. Trolley Was Crossing Railway Tracks. Flagman and Conductor Arrested.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 29.—A shocking accident, in which five factory employees were killed, occurred about 6.30 this morning at the West Main street crossing over the Highland division tracks of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., when an extra Hartford-bound freight train crashed into a trolley car containing 25 persons bound for the pin factories in Oakville.

The car was struck with great force at right angles directly in the middle, and the dead persons were all badly mangled. Six others were badly injured and had to be carried to their homes.

The dead: Sarah Ryan, 20 years old; Annie Corcoran, 23 years old; Robert French, 20 years; an unidentified man, about 30 years; an unidentified woman, about 25 years.

It is not yet known whether any of the persons injured will die. A hurried investigation by the coroner resulted in the arrest of flagman John Flavin and Conductor John Dillon, of the trolley car. The motorman, Charles Leonard, was not held.

It is stated by those familiar with the facts that the wrecked trolley car was following closely behind another car, which had got safely over the crossing. It is customary to drop the gates at the railroad crossing on the approach of a train, but in this instance the gates were up. The flagman was on duty, but it is not known whether he waved his flag showing a clear track.

According to the rules of the Connecticut Company which operates the trolley cars here, a conductor must run ahead of his car as far as the tracks and ascertain whether a train is approaching. This, it is said, was not done in this case, which caused the railroad engineer to stop his train in time to prevent the accident. Although he applied the brakes, the engine crashed into the trolley car, smashing it to splinters and throwing the occupants in all directions. The screams of the victims could be heard for blocks and in a short time a great crowd had collected. Many of those injured were carried to nearby stores, while some were unable to walk were laid along side of the tracks until carriages and ambulances took them to their homes. The dead bodies were quickly taken from the wreckage and sent to morgues. The fragments of the body of the unknown woman were gathered in a basket.

The fact that the Oakville Pin Co. is running short handed at the present time probably accounts for the few fatalities for the car was about half full. Ordinarily, it is stated, these early morning trolleys are loaded with factory employees, the usual number of passengers being about seventy.

HUMMEL SICK.

The New York Lawyer Very Ill in Prison.

New York, Nov. 29.—Abraham H. Hummel, formerly a well-known lawyer in the Criminal and Divorce Courts here, is seriously ill on Blackwell's Island, New York city's prison. He was sentenced to ten years imprisonment recently, after conviction on charges of conspiracy in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce proceedings, a case which attracted much attention at the time. Hummel, the prison authorities said yesterday is suffering from kidney trouble and a weak heart, but a report, which gained currency, that he was dying, was denied.

TABLET IN DRILL HALL FOR SOUTH AFRICAN BOYS.

Local Patriotic Fund Committee Decides to Perpetuate Hamilton Soldiers' Names.

A meeting of the Patriotic Fund Committee was held yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to erect a magnificent tablet in the new Drill Hall in honor of all the Hamilton soldiers who went to South Africa to fight for their country in the recent war. The tablet will be on the south side of the new building, and will be of a beautiful military design. It will be 3 feet 3 inches by 6 feet. It is the desire of the committee that the list of names should be absolutely complete and correct in every respect, and the Secretary, Major Tidwell, 75 James street south, would be glad to hear from anyone who is entitled to go on this list, and who might have been overlooked, or any correction in initials or any information that would assist to make the list absolutely correct. As Major Tidwell has it, the list is as follows: First Contingent, 2nd Battalion, R. C. R.—Surgeon-Major A. B. Osborne, Lieut. W. Marshall, Sergt. T. H. Rutherford, Privates E. J. Caspel, M. Hendrie, A. Robinson, J. H. Sutton, W. C. Warren, W. H. Warwick. Strathcona Horse—E. M. Bland. Canadian Mounted Rifles—Pte. W. J. Anderson (killed).

DROPPED DEAD.

Was Watching a Football Game at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—Thomas P. McCutcheon, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and well-known manufacturer of this city, dropped dead yesterday in the grand stand at Franklin field while witnessing the Pennsylvania-Cornell football game. Mr. McCutcheon was accompanied by his son, Dr. Thomas P., also a graduate of the university.

LEPROSY CURE.

Experiments Will be Made With Twelve Lepers.

Honolulu, Nov. 22, via San Francisco, Nov. 29.—The Board of Health, on the petition of 527 of the lepers at the Mokuia settlement, have agreed to permit J. Lore Wellach to attempt the treatment of twelve lepers from the settlement. This is the result of agitation which has been carried on by Wellach and his friends for several months, during which he has persistently asserted that he can cure leprosy, and has aroused the hopes of the lepers and their relatives and friends.

PISTOL FIGHT.

Fifty Shots Fired and Several Men Wounded.

Oakland, Calif., Nov. 29.—A pistol battle between a deputy sheriff and a special policeman on one side, and a Chinese and four white men on the other, occurred in the park at Sixth and Alcot streets last night in which fifty shots were fired. Special Policeman D. G. Murdoch, W. M. Ryan, a non-combatant, and Wong Leong, the Chinese, were injured. Wong Leong was killed. He is in the hospital with nine bullet holes in his body. Murdoch and Ryan were both shot in the leg and are not seriously injured.

THREE FIRES.

Serious Fires in Two Cities—Man Loses His Life.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 29.—A telephone message from Cody, Wyo., says that practically the entire business portion of the town was destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss is roughly estimated at $100,000.

Lamp Upset. Leadville, Col., Nov. 29.—Fire started by the overturning of a lamp last night in a barber shop, may cause the destruction of Granite, a town of about 2,500 inhabitants, 20 miles east of this city. Four buildings are already in ruins, and the efforts of the volunteer firemen are being given to saving of nearby buildings. Communication with Granite has been shut off.

Jumped to Death. Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 29.—A fire in the Harvard House, here, early to-day, resulted in one death, several injuries, and property damage estimated at $15,000. A man, believed to be George Chambers, of this city, was killed by jumping from a window on the second floor.

The injured persons include several firemen, who, besides leg fractures, were overcome by smoke, and Mrs. Johnson, who was so badly affected by the smoke that at first her condition was regarded as serious.

Considering averages, the brain of a man is five ounces heavier than that of a woman.

YOUNGEST MATCHLESS IN ENGLAND. Probably the youngest matchless in England during the whole year will be Miss Doris Foster, the little lady who is photographed above sitting upon her father's knee. P. G. Foster is the Mayor-elect of Portsmouth, and so he is a Mayor. Little Miss Doris will act as Mayoress, and help her father in the duties of entertaining the town's guests.

MR. GUNN SPOKEN OF

As Possible Successor to Late Mr. Hugh Murray.

There is a good deal of speculation as to who will succeed the late Mr. Murray as Masonic Grand Secretary. The name of R. W. Bro. R. L. Gunn, chartered accountant and clerk of the Ninth Division Court, is prominently mentioned. Mr. Gunn is considered one of the best posted men in Canada on Masonic affairs, and it is possible he will get the nomination of the Hamilton fraternity. There is a feeling in some quarters that the position may go to a Toronto man and the office be moved to that city.

Husband—Darling, I believe that I am failing. Wife (in alarm)—Gracious! How often I have warned you, George, against your foolish speculations! Husband—I don't mean in business, dear; I mean I'm failing in health. Wife (relieved)—Oh, is that all!

FELL DOWNSTAIRS.

Clothes Took Fire and She Was Burned to Death.

Newburgh, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Mrs. Sarah Dixon, aged 52 years, was found dead at her home here yesterday. Some time during the night she fell down stairs with a lamp, which ignited her clothing, and she was burned to death. Her husband found the body.

STRINGENCY MONEY.

Manager Barry of Grafton's Exhibits a Sample.

Manager Barry has on exhibition in the window of Grafton's store, on James street, a sample of the certificates of currency used in many parts of the United States to tide over the present financial stringency, and it will prove very interesting to those who have followed the crisis in the money market across the border. The certificates are cashier's checks, on the Citizens' National Bank of Joliet, Ill. It is stipulated on them that they will be redeemed with money as soon as the banks resume payment in currency. The checks were issued at the request of the Joliet merchants and are somewhat of a curiosity for Canadians.

NEXT THURSDAY.

Liberal Night at Savoy Will be Important Event.

Next Thursday night, Dec. 5, will be Liberal Club night at the Savoy Theatre. Manager Appleton had a strong bill of high class vaudeville arranged for the week, but on account of the Liberals having one evening he wrote for some special, strong attractions, and had the satisfaction of getting the assurance that one of the best comedy acts in vaudeville would be added. This will make an especially strong bill. A large and fashionable audience is assured. The boxes have all been spoken for, and will be occupied by many of the leading citizens. The tickets are selling rapidly at 50 cents each. They may be had from any member of the executive, or at the rooms.

NOTHING DONE.

Hotelkeepers in Western Ontario Met Here Yesterday.

Mr. J. Malcolm, of the Welland House, Welland, presided at the meeting of hotelkeepers in western Ontario, held at the Hotel Royal yesterday afternoon to consider the question of increasing rates. All hotelmen who charge $1.50 a day and up were invited. There was a large attendance of Toronto hotelkeepers and quite a number from other points, but the meeting was not considered a thoroughly representative one, and no action was taken, although most of those present agreed that an increase of 50 cents a day should be made very soon. It was suggested that the new rates should go into effect on January 1st next. After considerable discussion it was decided to hold another meeting, on December 14th, and it was decided to issue another invitation to the bonifaces of the west to attend.

Nothing Done.

There is one thing that mothers have to worry them, and that is the "strangers" that children bring home. Some mothers have found out that Skidoon cleans children's heads and keeps the hair healthy, and these mothers never worry. Get a bottle of Skidoon for 25c. from Parke & Parke, druggists.

A Smoker's Christmas Box.

Some very choice cigars in small boxes are offered at peace's cigar store. He sells them for 50c, 60c, 70c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50. Select a Christmas box for a smoker at 107 King street east.

CUT THEM OUT.

Japs Doing the Ocean Trade From Hong Kong to Shanghai.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—That Japan is not only planning to outdistance the United States in the struggle for the commerce of the Pacific, but has already driven the steamship lines of every other nation out of the western Pacific, is the statement of H. L. Padlock, United States consul at Amoy, China, who arrived here yesterday on the steamer Korean on his way to Washington. "The Japanese have captured the entire ocean carrying trade of China from Hong Kong to Shanghai," he said. "The British lines, which some years ago monopolized this business, are doing nothing. The same is true of the German lines. All have succumbed to the competition of the Japanese, aided by their large subsidies and the low pay of their crews."

CHANCES TO SAVE.

Right House Offers Remarkable Bargains for Shoppers To-morrow

The reliable firm of Thomas C. Watkins announce in their big page advertisement in this paper scores of great bargain offerings in seasonable, stylish winter goods that every one needs right now. These are splendid Right House sales are appreciated is evidenced in the immensely increased business which this old firm is enjoying this season.

Further conversation with The Right House management brought out the fact that to-morrow's offerings eclipse, both in volume and excellence, all previous sales of the season. These splendid buying chances will be appreciated by thousands of people to-morrow and an early morning visit will be well worth the while. Many of the specials are for the morning only. Read the details in The Right House advertisement in this paper and tell your friends about the bargains. They will thank you.

Tempting, Isn't it?

VERY STRONG VIEWS

But the Judge Will Give Decision in Writing.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—"I have very strong views on this case, but I think it better to go through the cases referred to by counsel, and give my judgment in writing," said Mr. Justice Mabee this morning, after hearing the address of counsel in the suit of Mrs. Jane Jacques Stuart, of Hamilton, against the Bank of Montreal for the return of her estate valued at $250,000, which she claims she signed away without legal advice and without understanding the real nature of the document. She believed she was only guaranteeing the sum of $125,000, which her husband paid in connection with the failure of the Maritime Sulphite Co.

LATE MR. MURRAY.

Arrangements for the Funeral Tomorrow Completed.

Arrangements have been completed for the funeral of the late Mr. Hugh Murray, which will take place to-morrow afternoon. Rev. R. J. Treleaven will conduct the private service at the house at 2 o'clock, for members of the family, and the public service will be held at 2:30, in First Methodist Church, Anticipating a very large turn-out of Masons if the day is fine, the board of the church has decided to reserve the whole of the downstairs for them, except the two front rows of pews, which are for the immediate relatives, and a section on the west side for the members of the joint boards of the church, of which Mr. Murray was secretary, and the officials of the Sunday school, of which he was superintendent. Rev. Mr. Treleaven will officiate, and will be assisted by several former pastors.

The Masons will take charge as soon as the religious service is over. If the weather is favorable they will walk from the church to the cemetery, but, in case of bad weather, they will walk to the Terminal Station only, where cars will be in waiting to take them to the place of burial. W. Bro. Ernest E. Linger, Master of Acacia Lodge, in association with M. W. Bro. A. T. Freed, Grand Master, and other members of the Grand Lodge, will officiate.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

Particulars of the Bill Now Before Parliament.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 29.—(Special)—The bill which the Government will introduce this session in regard to old age annuities is about the same as that which Sir Richard Cartwright laid before the Senate last session. The object of the bill is to encourage the opening of savings accounts by the working classes so that they may have provision for old age, say, at the age of 60. If a man begins paying at 20 an annual contribution of $13, he will be entitled to $229 a year when he reaches 60. Or if the payment is deferred until he reaches 45, then they have $200 a year. Payments will be made for annuities in the local post office, and the Government will allow interest thereon, compounded half yearly, at either 3 1/2 or 4 per cent. The Government will undertake the task of management, and payment of annuities will not be subject to seizure for debt or any other cause, and will not be transferable. No annuity can be taken for more than $400 per year.

LARGE TRANSFORMER BURNED.

Shortly before 9 o'clock this morning the current passing through a large transformer at the Cataract power station at Irondale short circuited, and the transformer was burned out. The fire department was called, but after the long run in the muddy roads there was nothing to do. The loss will, however, run into the thousands in all probability, as the transformers are very expensive.

HIS HEAD HURT.

W. Smith, 5 Pine street, was removed to his home in the ambulance yesterday afternoon from the T. H. & B. roundhouse, on Garth street, suffering with an injured head. He was carrying a heavy weight, when he stumbled and fell, and his head was caught under the weight, which crushed him rather badly. He will recover, however, and the doctors say his skull is not injured.

P. C. VENARD HURT.

Constable Jas. Venard, Westworth street south, met with a slight accident yesterday afternoon, falling from the step of a street car while attempting to alight at Westworth and King streets. His chin was split rather badly, and it required three stitches. He lost a couple of teeth, also.

WILL WORK ALL WINTER AND MAY INCREASE STAFF.

Rumor About Harvester Works Closing Down Caused Uneasiness, But is Not True.

The temporary closing down of the International Harvester plant yesterday, following rumors of hard times, the financial crisis in the United States and talk of other manufacturing establishments here reducing their staffs, caused a story to be circulated to-day that the twelve hundred hands employed at the Harvester works would be out of employment for the winter. A persistent report to this effect caused some uneasiness, but that there is no foundation for it the Times was assured by Superintendent McAllister to-day. "There is absolutely no truth in the report that we are closing the works," he said. "There was a little stock left in the west, but it will make no material difference with us. Conforming with a general order from headquarters at Chicago for all the plants to close down for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, we decided to give the hands three

T. Barnes Ordered to Disconnect Sewer.

Barton Township Said to be Behind Him.

Overdraft, Mayor Says, Will be $30,000.

The long threatened legal clash between the city and the township of Barton over the rights of people living outside the city limits to connect with the water mains and sewers, will probably result from an order issued by the city officials directing Thomas Barnes to disconnect his private sewer on King street east, from the city's sewer. The connection was made without the city's permission, the officials say, but it is understood Mr. Barnes made an agreement with the township, and had been advised by officials of Barton Council that he is within his rights. Mr. Barnes has about a hundred and fifty lots, the sewage from which the city would be expected to treat, as soon as the survey was built up. This would have to be handled at the Wentworth street works, which are already overcharged, the city officials say, until the annex sewer is completed. Aside from this, they declare Mr. Barnes has no right making any connection without an agreement with the city. If he refuses to disconnect the sewer, it is likely the engineering department will send men down to do it.

Mayor Stewart made an endeavor to-day to find out what the general overdraft would be at the end of the year. It is very difficult, he says, to get exact figures at present, but he estimates that it will be between $25,000 and $30,000, a considerable amount of this being caused by the unlooked-for expenditure, such as the Main street paving job, which cost $10,000.

City Engineer Barrow announced this morning that seven tenders for the electric pumps to be installed at the Beach had been received already. Some are from the United States and one from London, England. The time for receiving tenders expires on Dec. 21.

The city's outside work for the year has practically been completed, with the exception of the new sewer. The connection of this with the Berlin Machine Company's big plant will be made on Monday, and the work will be stopped within a week, the sewer being sufficiently advanced by that time to accommodate the Berlin company.

The Parks Board will meet at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon to hear the deputations from the Board of Trade in regard to the scheme to secure all the mountain brow property from the eastern to the western city limits for a driveway.

Chairman Baird, of the Sewers Committee, who has been mentioned as a candidate for the position of burser at the Asylum, declared to-day that the first he knew about it was what he had read in the paper. "But if there is to be a vacancy," said the doughty alderman, modestly, "I don't know of any man better qualified to fill it than myself."

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1907

Love and Crime

In his most verbose and mellifluous English...

And the first lines of that letter contain such a startling, awful suggestion...

CHAPTER XXI.

With a vague impulse of rushing somewhere, or doing something—he can scarcely imagine where or what—Mr. Blamire starts up from his chair...

The slow, labored throbbing of that over-taxed heart of his, well-nigh worn out by hard, mental labor...

Lady Christabel, who has been somewhat indisposed lately, will, we understand, absent the discreet St. Cray's Observer...

"What am I to do?" he gasps in agitation, reading over again Roderic Lindsay's letter.

"So this is what Miss Surtees meant by her high-handed behavior lately!" Mr. Blamire, of the firm of Feardon & Blamire...

"For this" runs as follows—surely as perplexing and alarming a suggestive message as a letter could well convey to a man in his position...

"Three days ago he had read in the Times, with feelings of unmingled astonishment, the announcement of the marriage of Ruthven Charteris Lindsay, Earl of Cardonnel, to Lydia, only daughter of the late Michael Surtees...

"Dear Mr. Blamire: If you have had a personal interview with your client, Miss Lydia Surtees, since the date of my visit to your office on the eighteenth of August, I should be glad if you will consider the remainder of this letter as meaningless and purposeless—the result of temporary aberration of intellect, or anything you please—and, having burned it, forget that you ever received it."

"To Mr. Blamire's first feeling of incredulous astonishment at this totally unexpected news, is naturally enough added deep mortification, that the daughter of his old client, and to whom, himself had been a faithful legal adviser ever since she came into uncontrolled possession of her fortune, nearly ten years ago, should take this, the most important step in her life, without so much as acquainting him with her intention..."

"I have only this morning, in a conversation with a fellow passenger—a Mr. Henry Smith, of the firm of Smith & Derrison, of Melbourne—discovered that the woman on whose track I came to Europe, and whom I have employed detectives to hunt down—the murderer of my unfortunate cousin, Alce Lindsay—'Geraldine Sinclair,' formerly an actress, always a daring and unscrupulous adventuress, forger and thief—was in England under the name of 'Lilith Scrope' in August last. 'Lilith Scrope' was the name of the woman who was companion and attendant to Miss Lydia Surtees, and a series of circumstances amply warranting my suspicions have made me believe that the woman who is buried in St. Cray's Churchyard is 'Lilith Scrope'—her real name, 'Geraldine Sinclair'."

"And there, hidden too deep for me to see it quite plainly yet a while, lies the secret reason for all this extraordinary behavior!" he says, in a tone of conviction, after long and patient thinking over the affair in all its bearings, as he sits alone in his gilly office in the bright September weather.

"What's he talking about! That man is crazy!" Mr. Blamire mutters, thrusting back the thin, grizzled hair from his temples, and looking at the necktie of which a sudden choking sensation. "By—Le wady, now I think of it, he says, gasping in sudden excitement. 'What did Miss Surtees wear with that two thousand pounds' worth of Pennsylvania Railroad bonds that she directed me to lodge with those bankers in Cornhill, instead of with the old firm her father always employed? I thought it was odd at the time, but, there, what on earth am I thinking of! Fear was right, my nerves are decidedly shaky. He tried to laugh in scorn of himself, but his voice died away hoarsely in his throat, and his heart throbs faster as his eyes dwell on those blackly underlined words of Roderic Lindsay's letter."

"His clients are all in the country, enjoying themselves; but he, the hard-working, conscientious man of law, stays in town patiently enough attending to his affairs. He vaguely promises himself a run somewhere for a fortnight before the autumn sittings begin."

"I know you will pardon a groundless suspicion, which has been confided to you alone," the letter continues, "as has harassed me terribly, and will harass me until I can receive from you a message that it has been 'groundless'; that one word will be enough. Please cable, and draw for expenses on Mr. Luton, Sir Roger Allison's agent. Yours very sincerely, Roderic Lindsay."

"Indeed, the whole subject worries him so much that his senior partner advises him to take that 'little run somewhere' at once."

"For full ten minutes does Mr. Blamire pace up and down his room, his hands clasped behind his back, his brown deep-wrinkled in an anxious frown. He opens the window and leans out in the crisp, golden sunshine of the October morning, and looks unseeing at the mist wreathed pine slopes, and the dim, ghostly whiteness of the great peaks, cloud-swathed and partly concealed, that from the background to the view everywhere."

"The pure, icy freshness of the air rushing in over his hat brow is like an exhilarating draught. His brain clears, his spirits rise, and his nerves grow steady."

"I'll start for Florence at once!" he decides, with a grim smile. "Wild-goose chase, or hunting for a mare's nest, or whatever other ignis fatuus sort of business it is that I'm bound on, I'll see the end of it now, at once, and not weary my brain with any more perplexing or nonsensical suggestions. What excuse I am to make for intruding on her ladyship in her honeymoon retreat, I don't know, and I don't care! I'll invent one on the way."

"A week later he is comfortably installed at the Swiss pension, with visions of the snow-clad Alps and the silver lakes, instead of Bedford Row and Gray's Inn Road."

"Your friend, Miss Surtees, always has that room when she comes. She will have no other room. She thinks that room is the best in the house, she says!"

"Oh, Miss Surtees, of course! I gave her your address, I believe, some six or seven years ago!" Mr. Blamire says, starting. "Of course, you know Miss Surtees very well, I believe, madam."

"She is wearing a plain velvet gown, well made and extremely becoming, and is looking her best. The photo is that of a sensible, clever-looking woman, middle-aged, ladylike, well dressed. Just that and nothing more."

"I believe it's from Roderic Lindsay!" he exclaims, with a half smile of curiosity. "I wonder if there is any solving of the mystery concerning her ladyship, Lydia, Countess of Cardonnel, in this letter?" he continues, as he unfolds the thin, rustling sheet of foreign letter paper.

"Half an hour later he is on his way, journeying in search of his 'lordship's' villa near Florence, where the Earl of Cardonnel and his fair young bride are spending those first halcyon days of their honeymoon."

"He does not, however, discover the villa near Florence, where Lord and Lady Cardonnel are staying, until two days later."

"The tears come into madam's eyes as she gives another farewell glance at the face of the picture. Lydia Surtees in past days has indeed been a most generous friend in an hour of need to poor madam and her husband."

"I am going to ask you a great favor, madam," the solicitor says, thoughtfully, gazing at the photograph. "If you will not grant it I cannot be displeased, but if you do I shall be extremely grateful to you. Will you lend me this picture of Miss Surtees for a few days, until I return from Italy?"

"Certainly, Mr. Blamire," madam says, with rather a reluctant glance at the photograph, however. "But you will take great care of it, will you not? I value it very much. Miss Surtees is a friend greatly esteemed and her picture is one great treasure."

KILLED FINANCE MINISTER. Bandits in Bokhara Robbed Treasury of $90,000.

St. Petersburg, Nov.—The despatch received here eight days ago from Bokhara, Central Asia, relating that the treasury there had been robbed was mistaken in some of its details. It now appears, according to more complete reports, that a number of bandits attacked the palace of the Ameer, killed the Minister of Finance and made their escape on horseback, with a sum of money equal to $90,000. Cavalry men pursued the robbers and captured one of them, who proved to be a soldier attached to the railway battalion.

FIVE DROWNED IN COLLISION. Belgian and Italian Steamers Crashed Near Gibraltar.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Herald has received the following cable despatch from Cartagena:—A fatal collision occurred last Thursday evening 35 miles east of Gibraltar, between the Cap Negro, a Belgian coal steamer, bound for Marseilles from Sunderland, and the Helvetia, an Italian steamship bound for Lisbon from Marseilles. The Belgian vessel's bow crashed into the Helvetia's starboard side, sinking her.

TWENTY-TON GIRDER FELL. Carried Twenty Workmen Into the Thames—Two Drowned.

London, Nov. 28.—A twenty-ton steel girder, upon being placed in its position to-day in connection with the widening of Blackfriars Bridge, collapsed and carried down with it the surrounding staging. Twenty workmen were plunged into the river. Several were pinned down in the water under the wreckage. All, however, were rescued except two, and these lost their lives. Several of the men were seriously injured.

ALAS, POOR JOE! Balfour's Chamberlainism is a Diluted Sort. (Montreal Star).

Quite as important as Mr. Balfour's speech at Birmingham, which has now reached Canada verbatim, is the editorial of the London Times, dealing with it, in which the Thunderer lays particular emphasis upon Mr. Balfour's contention that those within the Unionist party who are not tariff reformers should not be driven forth on that ground. The Times says that Mr. Balfour on this point as follows: "He declines to be a party to the ostracism of those who cannot yet accept tariff reform in its entirety. He is not a believer in the processes of the court-martial. He declares it impossible to lay down a black and white the precise doctrine which entitles a man to be regarded as a member of the Unionist party; and he knows that in every party there are men who belong to it from the most various motives and on the most partial apprehension of its total record. Those who lag behind are to be forgiven, and the Unionist requirements from Montreal were not so great. Prices ranged from $12 to $30. The bulk of the best and finest was sold at 15c to 20c per cwt. with a very few at 25c to 30c per cwt. with a very few at 35c per cwt. THE HAMILTON TIMES

FRIDAY, NOV. 29, 1907.

THE FRENCH TREATY.

The Government has lost no time in informing the people's representatives about the trade treaty with France.

CHEAPER LAW.

The demand made by Mr. A. G. MacKay, M. P., Liberal leader in the Legislature, for such a law reform as will cheapen legal processes and render it possible for the average man without involving himself in ruin, to secure justice at the hands of the courts which administer the law, is one that appeals strongly to the Canadian public.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Still, one Tory out of eighteen members from Nova Scotia is not so laud.

Will Parliament in defence of its own good name take up the case of W. F. Maclean, M. P., against whom the Globe recently published such damaging charges?

Mr. Borden has got one Nova Scotia follower, Colchester, which with the exception of last campaign has always been Tory by 114 to 803 majority, returning Stanfield, the Conservative candidate.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux has been at luncheon with the Japanese Emperor, the Emperor being confined to his room by indisposition. The Japanese ladies are said to be very fetching. Rodolphe, old chap, no flirting, please.

Having made the hearing of the case for the Crown in the London bribery prosecution as long and spectacular as possible, the authorities are now forced to hear the defence. And it may make some things look different.

The Hydro gold-brickers excuse their refusal to consider the vastly better offers by the gas producer people by saying, to quote the World, "the experience of men with a professional reputation at stake is quite as good as the testimony of a promoter with machinery to sell."

The Guelph Herald and some other Tory contemporaries refer to "the phantom post office surplus," excusing the term by the statement that the capital invested in buildings, etc., and repairs and deterioration were provided for there would be no surplus. Now, if our clever contemporaries, most of which are sworn to the public ownership and operation "principle," will agree to apply that ordinary rule of business ventures to publicly owned and operated ventures they will discover that about 99 out of every hundred of them are running the people more deeply into debt every year.

HALF MILLION WENT TO BAD.

HOW JOHN AND MRS. STUART'S FORTUNES DISAPPEARED.

The Maritime Sulphite Concern Gobbled Up All—Mrs. Stuart Was Being Advised by the Bank's Solicitor.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—The hearing of the suit of Mrs. Jane Jacques Stuart, of Hamilton, against the Bank of Montreal to have certain documents signed by her declared invalid was concluded yesterday, but not in time for Mr. Justice Mabee's judgment to be given. The suit involves $250,000.

for so long," to which he had replied that it would be the better course, "as I am acting the matter on behalf of the Bank of Montreal." The extent of the losses of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart in the ill-fated Maritime Sulphite Company was very graphically brought out by Mr. Helmuth's cross-examination of Mr. Stuart during the morning sitting.

MEN OF THE CHURCH.

James Street Baptist Brotherhood Organizes New Department.

The Brotherhood of James Street Baptist Church have organized a social department for men of the church. An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Brotherhood parlour, when the following officers were elected:

KNOX YOUNG MEN.

Younger Members Had Interesting Debate Last Evening. Knox Church Young Men's Union held its weekly meeting last night and there was a good turnout of the members.

D. A. Wilson and T. M. Wright, after due consideration, brought in their decision in favor of the negative, which met with the general approval of all. Challenges for debate have been received from societies in Oakville and Toronto for which arrangements will be made later.

Early Morning Bargains.

Shoppers cannot afford to miss the bargain list that Stanley Mills & Co. have prepared for the early morning hours to-morrow. This firm believes in starting the ball rolling early in the day, especially during the Christmas shopping season, and the extraordinary bargains they will offer from 8:30 until 11 a. m. to-morrow will certainly repay shoppers for the effort of getting out a trifle earlier than usual.

LITTLE BARK ON ROUGH SEA.

Matrimonial Sailing Not Smooth in These Two Cases.

Magistrate Jells, as Ever, on Side of Conciliation.

Driver Was Fined $5 For "Cutting the Corner."

Two cases of unsettled married life were before Magistrate Jells at the Police Court this morning and he dealt lightly with both erring husbands.

William Skingley, 205 Barton street east, was charged by his wife with non-support. J. L. Counsell appeared for him and pleaded not guilty. Mrs. Skingley, a pretty girl of tender years, said that she was married to Skingley about a year and a half ago, and that last July she went to visit her mother in Buffalo. When she got back her hubby refused to support her. Mr. Counsell said there was no reason why she should not be supported, and he himself was willing to support her if she would wait till he got work. She said her husband was working at the Rolling Mills and the Magistrate told them to get together and settle matters; in the meantime hubby will have to pay $3 per week.

Alfred T. Neville, 70 Napier street, was allowed to go free this morning, after being kept in the cells all night on a charge of assaulting and threatening his wife, because when Neville was so affected by the prospect of sending her husband down that she was too faint to talk. She managed to articulate that she was willing to forgive, if the Magistrate was—and he was.

Edward Trebilcock, 7 Nightingale street, was given a warning and a talking to, after going in the box and swearing that a constable brought him into court for no reason whatever. The constable, H. Smith, was told to try and get a witness who saw the offence, and that if he was able to do so Trebilcock would be indicted for perjury. The offence was that Trebilcock, while driving east on King street west, cut over the corner of King and James street in front of the ticket office. Trebilcock stuck to it that he did not cut the corner, but the constable managed to persuade the Magistrate that he did. The fine imposed was $5 and costs.

James Brown, no address, was judged for vagrancy when he applied for lodgings at No. 3 for the third time last night. He was given a warning and allowed to go.

William Taylor, 127 Charlton street east, was sued by three of his employees for wages, as follows: E. Soak $17, H. Rosenthal $22, and Mary Chirnecks $6.50. The cases were allowed to stand till to-morrow, as the defendant was unable to appear, having met with a slight accident yesterday, in which his head was injured.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Hurled to Death by Yellow Car in Sight of Her Parents.

Niagara Falls, Nov. 28.—Returning from a Thanksgiving Day celebration with her parents and brothers, Alice Chapman, 16 years old, was struck by a yellow car at the Tompkins street crossing in La Salle at 9 o'clock to-night and instantly killed. The girl was thrown 40 feet into the air and her body was terribly mutilated.

Just what prompted the girl to rush ahead of the rest of the party and endeavor to cross the tracks is not known. Leaving the rest to follow, she ran out onto the tracks just as a Buffalo bound car approached the crossing. When she reached the centre of the tracks the rapidly moving car struck her in the back, throwing her high into the air before any of the family realized what had happened. When the girl was picked up it was found that her skull had been fractured and that her entire body was mutilated.

THE WEEKLY REST.

LORD'S DAY ACT HAS SECURED IT FOR THOUSANDS.
 Ontario Lord's Day Alliance and Toronto Branch in Annual Session—Amendment to Appeal Clause Desired—Officers Were Elected.
 Toronto, Nov. 28.—In the report of the Legal Committee of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance, presented at the annual convention in St. James' Square Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon by Mr. John A. Paterson, K. C., gratification was expressed that the Provincial Government had shown its willingness and determination to prosecute offenders, and had always accepted the responsibility.
 In this connection Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer stated that the policy of the Lord's Day Alliance had always been not to ask the Crown to take legal proceedings except in extreme cases.
 The Treasurer, Dr. Ches. J. Copp, reported contributions of $7,378.95, with a balance at the beginning of the year of $386.13. The disbursements included $3,600 to the work of the Lord's Day Alliance of Canada, $1,500 salary of the Secretary, Rev. T. A. Moore, and various other expenditures. A balance of $62.12 is carried over to the next year.
 On recommendation of the Legislation Committee, for which Mr. J. K. Macdonald reported, the Dominion Government will be asked to amend the act so that appeals in Ontario from Magistrate's decisions shall go to higher courts than the Division Court Judges; thus removing a discrimination at present existing between this Province and others.
 The report of the retiring Secretary,

Rev. T. A. Moore, who was prevented by serious illness from being present, showed that 75,000 toilers have by the act been given their weekly day of rest; over 75 per cent. reduction has been made in the importation of objectionable Sunday newspapers, very few being brought in on the Lord's Day, and the Sunday sale and delivery of newspapers and magazines has been almost entirely stopped; more than 7,000 druggists and druggists' clerks have given full freedom on Sundays to have their hours of attendance greatly reduced; and many thousands of railway employees now enjoy a weekly rest day.
 The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. H. Francis Perry, D.D.; Vice-Presidents, Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Rev. A. Garman, D.D., Right Rev. W. L. Mills, Bishop of Ontario; Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., Rev. L. Norman Tucker, D.C.L., Hon. E. H. Bronson, Chancellor A. C. McKay, L.L.D., Mrs. Gordon Wright, President of the Ontario W. C. T. U.; Treasurer, Dr. C. J. Copp; Secretary, Rev. W. G. Hanna; Associate Secretary, Rev. T. A. Moore; Auditors, Messrs. Robt. Rae and A. C. Crombie. The conveners of the committees are: Legal, Mr. J. A. Paterson, K. C.; Legislation, Mr. J. K. Macdonald; Organization, Rev. Dr. W. Snider, Mount Forest; Finance, Mr. John E. Brown, Hamilton.
K. OF P. MAN DEAD.
 Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 29.—General Leon Jarenski, a confederate veteran, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Louisiana and formerly a Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the U. COLCHESTER TORY.

AT LAST BORDEN GETS NOVA SCOTIA FOLLOWER.
 Liberals Say Election Will Be Protested—Mr. Charles Hill, Liberal Candidate, Takes Reverse Cheerfully—Majority 203.
 Halifax, N. S., Nov. 28.—Mr. John Stanfield, Conservative, was elected in the Colchester bye-election, defeating Mr. Charles Hill, Liberal, by 203 majority. The town of Truro and the town of Acadia Mines gave Mr. Stanfield 437 majority, offsetting the vote in the rural districts, which favored Mr. Hill. A large Opposition vote in both places accounts largely for the change.
 The total vote was: Stanfield, 2,437; Hill, 2,234. In Acadia Mines the iron workers voted almost solidly against the Liberal candidate. In Truro the vote is most surprising. The Tories refused to accept the proposal of the Liberal candidate to put the Kingston plant into operation, and the Liberals charge that there was wholesale bribery in certain districts of the town. The Liberals conducted an absolutely clean campaign, and did not use one dollar or a single bottle of liquor.
 The election will no doubt be protested. Mr. Hill takes his reverse cheerfully.
 Colchester had been a Conservative seat for just thirty years, when Mr. F. A. Laurence, the late member, captured it from the picturesque and fire-eating Mr. Seymour Goulay in the election of 1904. Mr. Laurence had 191 of a majority. Before that time the Conservative majority had ranged from 803 in 1891 down to 114 in 1874. That Dresses of the Ladies at the Opening of Parliament.

 Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The scene in the Senate Chamber this afternoon was one to be remembered. Not for many years has there been such a galaxy of beauty present at the opening of Parliament. After the formalities were over most of the capital's elite and visitors from a distance repaired to the Speaker's chambers, where Hon. R. F. Sutherland, Mrs. Sutherland and their daughter received.
 The Countess of Grey entered the Senate Chamber on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's arm, and after her came Lady Sybil Grey and Mrs. Choate, daughter-in-law of the former American Ambassador, Lady Evelyn Grey and Miss Hanbury-Williams.
 Lady Grey wore an exquisite gown of black velvet, trimmed with beautiful panne velvet on the corsage and a beautiful necklace and tiara of diamonds.
 Lady Sybil Grey wore a lovely gown of black Oriental satin made in empire effect, with sleeves composed of black tulle and spangled net and narrow shoulder straps of diamonds, beautiful spray of flowers of corsage, pearl necklace, diamond and deep pearl brooch.
 Lady Evelyn Grey was in white duchesse satin, trimmed with beautiful old lace corsage embroidered in pearl sequins, necklace of pearls.
 Lady Laurier wore a very beautiful Parisian gown of violet chiffon velvet, skirt elaborately hand-embroidered in shaded mauve, accordion pleated, chiffon, and hands and corsage draped with old rose point, tiara and necklace of diamonds.

MANAGER BISHOP

Honored by the Toronto Police Athletic Association.
 Tangible recognition of the indebtedness of the Toronto Police Amateur Athletic Association to General Manager Bishop and Mr. E. Callaghan, the Toronto agent of the Hamilton Steamboat Company, Limited, was given last night at the Inroquois Hotel, when Deputy Chief Stark, honorary president, presented them with gold watches. For years the Hamilton Steamboat Company has placed their boats at the disposal of the association to entertain the visiting athletes in connection with the police athletic meet, and the presentations last night were in appreciation of the kindly efforts of the steamboat men. Inspector Dickson, president; P. C. Snell, Treasurer; License Inspector Johnston, and well-known police officials were present at the presentations.
THIRTY YEARS' SERVICE.
 Anniversary of Premier's First Election.
 Quebec, Nov. 28.—Thirty years ago to-day Sir Wilfrid Laurier was first elected to the House of Commons for Quebec East. The anniversary was made the occasion for a big meeting of Liberals to-night in St. Roch, under the auspices of the Laurier Club. Nearly a hundred of those prominent in the election of Sir Wilfrid thirty years ago were present and occupied seats on the platform. Among those who delivered addresses were Premier Gouin, Messrs. Roy, Devlin and Kaine. Sir Wilfrid was unable to be present owing to his Parliamentary duties at Ottawa.

An Enormous November Business

Attests the Worth of Grafton Clothes

Think of it! In spite of a warm November and notwithstanding all the financial wars and rumors of wars our business has shown a decided increase.

You know why—if you know anything about us. And if you don't know GRAFTON CLOTHES and GRAFTON METHODS you'll be better dressed and better off when you learn.

We design, make and sell the most attractive, best fitting and best wearing clothes there are—a fact that makes it very much worth while to wear GRAFTON CLOTHES.

Winter Overcoats $18

More styles, more kinds of cloth, more Overcoats than you'd imagine any one store could have. "What are you going to do with them all?" some body asked the other day. Going to sell them—every blessed one of them. Going to make men look well. Going to make men feel warm. And the Coats are going to put a new feather in the Grafton cap.

Winter Suits $18

If it's brown for yours, let it be brown from here—then you'll be sure it's right. Other colors—certainly. And every color and combination worth liking. Coats with big massive shoulders and full chests—that impart an air of sturdiness to their wearers.

If $16, $15, $14, $12, $10 or $8.50 Is What You Want to Pay

We're fully ready—with Overcoats and Suits that are great at their price. Sooner or later every man is going to try the Grafton Clothes.

SHORT ENDS.

Little Paragraphs of Sport From Far and Near.

Brighton, Nov. 29.—Doc Wilson, of this town, will attempt to establish a walking record from Brighton to Colborne and return, sixteen miles, to-day. He will start and finish in front of Fletcher's barber shop. New York, Nov. 29.—Tommy Burns has written to friends in this city advising them to bet on him in the coming match with Ginner Moir. He is training at Wembley and says he generally has been the outsider in the betting in his fights with Hart, O'Brien and Squires, for instance, and that he expects to be the second choice in the go with Moir. Woodstock, Nov. 29.—E. MacJannet, a local butcher, is willing to wager $25 that he can outwalk the winner of the Williams-Tooley race. MacJannet comes from Toronto, and is employed by J. Hopkins. It is said that he is a pedestrian of some ability, and if the winner of the Williams-Tooley race accepts his challenge an interesting event is assured. Ingersoll, Nov. 29.—The walking fever has broken out here in a mild form. Leslie Daniels, the long distance runner, proposes to walk from the post office in Woodstock to the post office in Ingersoll next Sunday, if the weather is favorable. Montreal, Nov. 29.—The first hockey match to be played in Montreal will be for a very worthy purpose. It will be known as the Hod Stuart memorial match. Everything in connection with the match has been promised free, even the ice surface and the amphitheatre of the arena.

HORGAN WON.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—In the 33rd game of the tournament for the three-cushioned billiard championship last night, John G. Horgan, of Elmira, N. Y., defeated Lloyd Jevic, of Chicago, 39 to 37. Morgan's high run was 5, average .82. Jevic's high run was 3, average .49. A private telegram received here last night from Colter, the Burlington runner, stated he was disqualified at the 20th mile in the race at Yonkers yesterday. Parkdale next! If the O. R. F. U. clubs keep on going after eastern scalps soon all that will be left of that once great body will be a few championship trophies and Joe Hay's smile.—Toronto Telegram. There is a very fine exhibition of pit games at the Hamilton Poultry Association's show, which is now on. Some of the birds have been greatly admired by the sharps. Mr. Jack Murphy's pretty matron, "Miss Lee, of Boston," won first prize in the old hen class. Shrubbs is certainly the limit. Recently in a Boston paper he was credited with writing an article of perhaps two columns in length under the caption: "How I defeated Longboat." Shrubbs goes on to tell of how he defeated the Indian in numerous trials. Shrubbs never raced with Longboat as a matter of fact. The once mighty Lamplighter, the horse that Pierre Lorillard paid $30,000 for at one time, was sold yesterday at the closing day of the Lexington thoroughbred sale for a paltry $100, going to W. R. Schroder, of Grove Court, Mo. Lamplighter, by Spendthrift-Torchlight, by Speculum, is now 18 years old. Since the Canadian Rugby Union does not make the rules under which its members play, and since it cannot decide its own championship, will some one say just what function it does fill? Speaking in regard to the C. A. A. U. affairs, the Globe says: "Weakness and imperfections there will always be in the operation of any form of government in human affairs. It is not possible for human nature to avoid error, but no thoughtful person finds in the existence of infractions of the law a sound reason for the abolition of the law itself. The prisons may be filled with the lawbreakers, yet no one would say that all restrictions and penalties should be swept away because a small and undesirable section will not respect them. The governing body will make mistakes in athletic sport, too, but it is not reasonable, nor will it better the situation to say we will demand perfection or we will stand aloof. Osler and his 60-year-old theory doesn't cut very much ice when we consider the feat just completed by Weston, the veteran walker. The old man's wonderful walk must be looked upon as the most remarkable athletic feat of the decade. "I never sleep," said Mr. A. H. Payne, in his letter to Tom Flanagan, of the Irish-Canadians. "Maybe I've kept him awake," says Tom C. Flanagan. "Didn't the Six Nation Indians christen me Hiawatha, 'The Keeper Awake'?" Because he is black, J. B. Taylor, the crack runner of the University of Pennsylvania, is barred from ever again taking part in an amateur meet in the United States. The new rule, innocent enough on the first reading, has a deeper import than first appears. It was put through by southerners, and briefly is this, that no college athlete can compete in any amateur meet other than intercollegiate events, and after leaving school he can only compete for the club of his home district. If he is located where a good strong club is located, well and good so far as that club is concerned. If not, well, the staff's all off. As Taylor lives in a town so small that it cannot support an athletic club he is down and out, for it would be hard to find an American athletic club which would take him up even if it could, and he cannot run as an independent athlete.

ANGUS POINTER BID IN.

New York, Nov. 29.—Just before Angus Pointer, 2:04, the unbeaten pacer of the past three seasons, was brought before the auctioneer in the Old Glory sale yesterday, Lotus Crabtree, the noted actor, appeared in the Garden to bid for him, and being accompanied by the manager of her racing stable. The bidding on the pacer began at a lively gallop, and soon reached to $1,000, rather a very stiff price for an outclassed pacer being sold, but it soon developed that the reader bidder was the secretary of the company. Lotus's agent made a final bid of $7,500, which the bidder quickly bought for $100, and the horse went home. "Lotus" left the Garden at once, apparently much disappointed. W. E. D. Stokes and Trainer Billy Andrews went and heavy over Grace Bond, a 9:04 winner of the 1904 Kentucky Futurity, which was knocked down to the former at $1,000. Mr. Stokes also purchased from James V. Gatecomb's consignments the pacer mare Phyllis, 2:46, for $2,500. The two-year-old Major Arrowby, by Arrowby-Mendoza M., went to E. R. Cleveland, of Danville, Quebec, for $500.

SIX-DAY TOURNAY.

Toronto Irish-Canadians Have Big Meet on Foot. Toronto, Nov. 29.—The biggest undertaking in the way of an athletic meet ever attempted in Canada is contemplated by the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club. It is proposed to hold one solid week of nightly competitions in the St. Lawrence Market arena, where the Horse Shows are held. The seats and boxes are still intact from the last show, and a nine-lap track can be laid out on the big floor. A six-day go-as-you-please contest for amateurs, two hours each night, will be the feature. Tom Longboat is carried to attack the indoor records from one to fifteen miles during the week in the ring, during the endurance grid, six track and field events will be put on each night. As the only recognized indoor Canadian championship record is that for five miles, the C. A. A. U. will be asked to sanction the meet, in order that indoor championship marks may be set. In the weights, Con Walsh of the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association will be the champion. If the result of further inquiries into this matter warrants its being carried out, it is expected to prove a very popular attraction. WILL WALK EMERY. AL. KAUFMAN GOT DECISION.

Jack "Twin" Sullivan Went the Distance, However.

Shrubbs Won a Race at Fall River—To ronto Irish-Canadians to Hold a Six-Day Tournament—Parkdale Paddlers to Meet 'Varsity III for Junior Honors.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Al Kaufman, of this city, was awarded the decision over Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of Boston, at the end of 25 rounds at the Colma Athletic Club yesterday afternoon. The fight up to the tenth round was practically an even affair. After that, however, Kaufman forged to the front, and was never in danger again. Sullivan did his best work in the early rounds and for a time it looked as though he might win. It was a give and take affair up to the tenth, with Sullivan having the better of it. But in the sixteenth round Kaufman forced Sullivan from one end of the ring to the other, landing almost at will with lefts and rights to the jaw. He tried to put Sullivan out and in doing so weakened himself and showed that he lacked the one requisite—a knockout punch. From this time on one round was a repetition of the other. Sullivan showed great gameness the rest of the fight. In almost every one of the subsequent rounds it seemed certain that he must go to the mat from the grueling shower of rights and lefts swung to the jaw, but he always toed the scratch, although apparently in great distress. He stalled continually to save himself from punishment. Kaufman thereafter devoted himself to Sullivan's stomach, and in the last few rounds got in several vicious punches, every one of which seemed powerful enough to put out any ordinary man. The fight so far as Kaufman was concerned was a great disappointment to the spectators, for it showed that the Californian does not display the championship calibre with which he has been credited. The fight also showed that Kaufman lacks both vim and viciousness. After the fight Sullivan said that he injured his right hand in the sixth round, but if such was the case it was not apparent to the spectators. Kaufman clearly out-fought Sullivan in all but a few rounds. The men entered the ring at 2:15 p. m. The audience numbered about 5,000. Billy Roche was referee. Time was called at 2:30 p. m. The men sparred cautiously for a few moments, then Sullivan sent a good right to Kaufman's ear, and they clinched. More sparring followed by each man landing several blows. Sullivan appeared the more clever of the two in the first round. The second round was Sullivan's. Kaufman went to his corner with his nose hard. Sullivan slipped to his knees momentarily. Kaufman placed his left foot on the stomach and left to the jaw repeatedly. Kaufman followed Sullivan, landing lefts to the jaw at will. Sullivan held on in the clinches, but fought back. Sullivan was carried to the ropes. They were in a clinch at the close of the round and the fight.

As Referee Roche rendered his decision in favor of Kaufman, Sullivan threw his arms round Kaufman and kissed him on the cheek. BURNS IS THE FAVORITE. London, Nov. 29.—The betting on the fight between Gunner Moir and Burns is 3 to 4 on Burns.

Y. M. C. A. ATHLETICS

Muscatine Basketball Team is Coming Next Month.

One of the greatest factors of the Y. M. C. A. is the extension work that is being done along physical, intellectual and spiritual lines. One of the special objects of D. M. Barton's health lectures is to educate the masses on the proper care of the body, and at the same time he always keeps to the front the real purpose of association work. Mr. Barton has made it possible for every man and woman in Hamilton to attend these lectures. There will be six hundred free seats each night and three hundred at fifteen cents. All unused tickets for previous lectures will be accepted either night.

Bobby Kerr received his diamond from the I. C. A. for breaking the Canadian 100 and 220 yards.

A business men's indoor baseball team will be formed, to play Thursday at 8 p. m.

Mr. Barton is coaching the new men in basketball Mondays and Fridays at 9 p. m.

The Muscatine basketball team who play Monday, December 9th, are one of the fastest teams in the west.

Members may arrange for physical examinations Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8 to 9 p. m.

BROKE A RECORD.

Clell Turney Won a Good Race at Bannings Yesterday. Bannings, D. C., Nov. 29.—Before an immense Thanksgiving Day crowd, numbering many society folk, Clell Turney, at 5 to 1, with Swain up, easily won the tenth Washington Cup, at 2 1/2 miles. Ironides, the odds-on favorite, got the place. The Junior Steeplechase for three-year-olds resulted in a close three-horse finish. Economy finished first, but the place was given to Sandy Crescer, on a claim of foul. Clell Turney in winning the sixth race, a handicap at a mile and 1/4 yards, in 1:56 4/5, clipped one-fifth of a second off the track record for the distance. London Light, at 12 to 1, in defeating the favorite, Yalobdala, in a driving finish in the opening event, furnished the surprise of the day.

SIX-DAY TOURNAY.

Toronto Irish-Canadians Have Big Meet on Foot.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—The biggest undertaking in the way of an athletic meet ever attempted in Canada is contemplated by the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club. It is proposed to hold one solid week of nightly competitions in the St. Lawrence Market arena, where the Horse Shows are held. The seats and boxes are still intact from the last show, and a nine-lap track can be laid out on the big floor. A six-day go-as-you-please contest for amateurs, two hours each night, will be the feature. Tom Longboat is carried to attack the indoor records from one to fifteen miles during the week in the ring, during the endurance grid, six track and field events will be put on each night. As the only recognized indoor Canadian championship record is that for five miles, the C. A. A. U. will be asked to sanction the meet, in order that indoor championship marks may be set. In the weights, Con Walsh of the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association will be the champion. If the result of further inquiries into this matter warrants its being carried out, it is expected to prove a very popular attraction. WILL WALK EMERY. Toronto Globe.—Louis Emery, of Hamilton, has challenged Percy Warwick, of this (Continued on page 9.)

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm. The story of the "Semi-ready" idea in men's tailoring has been told and inspired by the enthusiasm of its creators.

Keeping in tune with the ever-changing fashion, refraining from that which is loud and strident, the Semi-ready Company have studied and improved their original conception of making fine clothes for men, using the choicest fabrics, they are ready for your inspection at the stage that will require at the most two hours to finish the Suit or Overcoat to your exact physique type.

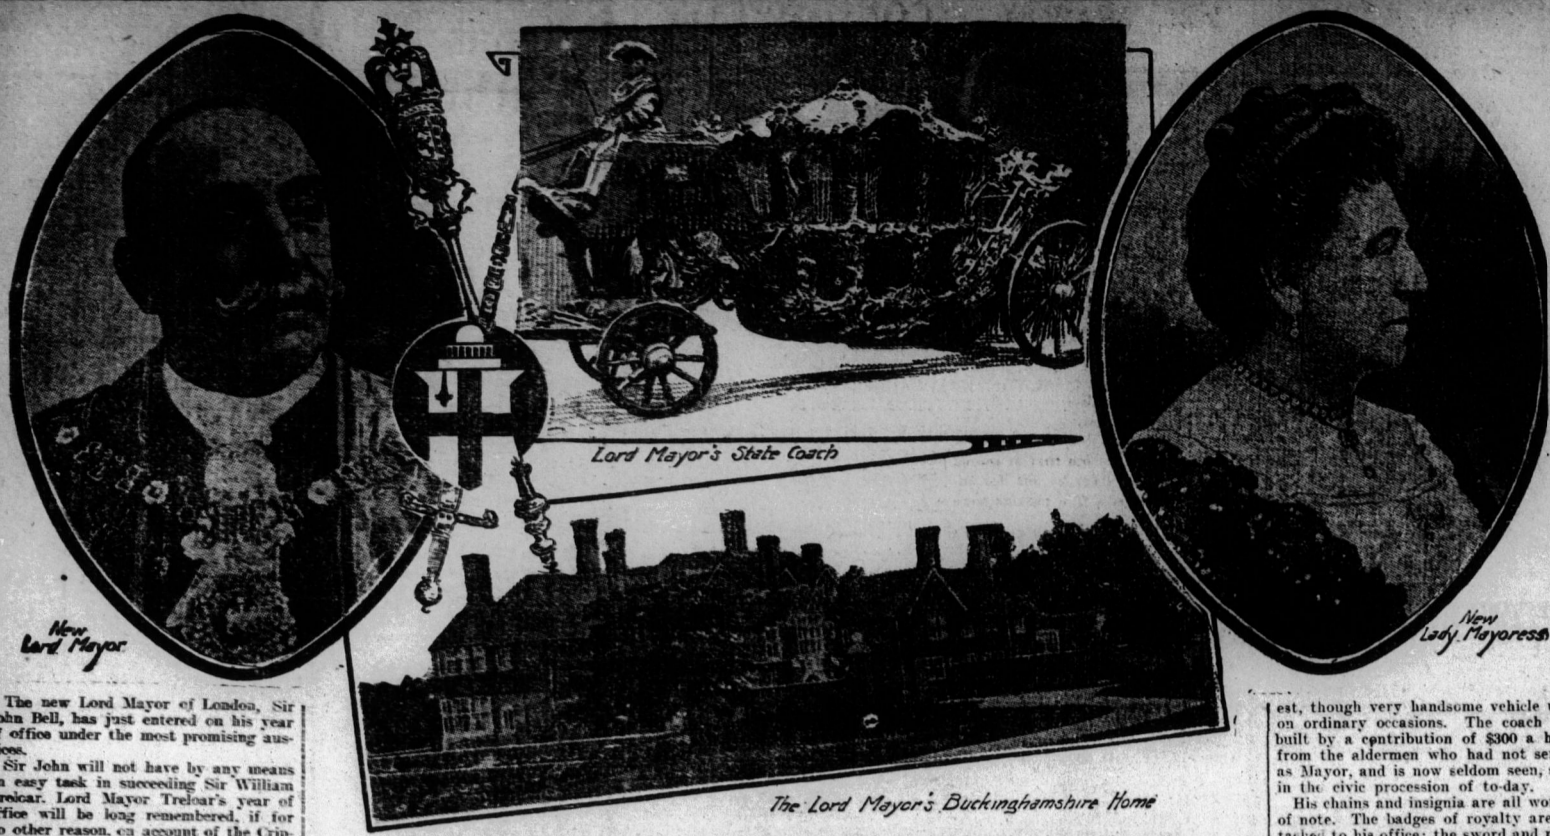

It has been a great achievement and has revolutionized men's tailoring.

MUSICIANS AND PRAYERS

The first of a series of dramatic recitals, under the direction of Mr. Martin Leworth, was well attended last evening in the Conservatory of Music recital hall. It was given by Mr. Cleworth, assisted by Misses Ethel and Minnie Ross, Miss Andrews and Mr. James Thompson, and it was very satisfactory. The programme was: Monologue, "My Missing Spectacles," Miss Hilda Andrews; comedieta, "A Figure of Speech," Mr. Thompson and Miss Minnie Ross; sketch, "A Household Fairy," Mr. Cleworth and Miss Ethel Ross. Miss Andrews scored a hit with the audience in the monologue, which was new. Both skits were well received, and showed a great deal of originality. Mr. Thompson took the place of Mr. Harry Eckstein, who was unable to attend, on account of business matters. Mr. Thompson was very successful in his part.

Sousa Seriously Ill.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—John Philip Sousa, the noted bandmaster and composer, is seriously ill at the Ambrose Hotel here from the effects of pneumonia contracted in Milwaukee two days ago. He was unable to conduct the concert given by his band here last night, being confined to his room in the care of a physician and trained nurse.

At the Savoy.

Fo. spectacular effect and elaborate stage settings the act presented by Miss Ida Fuller, who will head the Savoy's bill next week, is said to be far in advance of anything shown on the stage yet. The great fire dance, "La Sorciere," which is Miss Fuller's own creation, and which she has fully protected by patents in Europe and America, is reputed to be one of the most artistic and beautiful novelties yet presented. With the aid of many mirrors and kaleidoscopic lights a fascinating and vivid scene is produced that arouses the greatest enthusiasm. The added attraction will be Delmore and Lee, who have one of the prettiest and most thrilling aerial novelties before the public. They have just returned from the Berlin Winter Gardens after a successful tour of the old country.

The show this week continues to draw big business. Julian Rose, the great Helweg comedian, brings the house down at every performance, and the dancer, Schiller, acrobatic troupe is scoring a most decided hit. Mme. Emme's pets, a pretty animal act, that appeals especially to children; Willard Newell and company, in his laugh provoking sketch, entitled "Last Night," Newbold and Carroll, representing "An Interrupted Arguing Party," a pretty and dainty novelty; Josephine Ainsley, the singer of advanced songs; Sidley Gibson, a singing comedienne, and one of the best seen here this season; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shaw, a clever dancing team, and the pictures.

There has been a record advance sale for Liberal night, Thursday next.

A Voice From Dundas.

The Dundas Banner says: "It is creditable to the music-loving people of Dundas that the first name that appeared on the guarantee list at the Grand in Hamilton for the Ellen Beach Yaw concert was that of a Dundas musician, Miss Bibby. It shows the Valley Town people appreciate art."

Guy Brothers To-night.

The attraction at the Grand to-night will be Guy Bros. Minstrels. Local theatregoers are aware of the merits of this performance, which has been given for many years and a large audience is always present. The company is said to be bigger and stronger than ever.

At Bennett's Theatre.

Bennett's continues to do big business, the success of the week being in no small measure due to the popularity of the St. Patrick's Club, under whose auspices the performances have been held. High praise is still lavished upon the big type numbers, "The Military Overture" and "Howard's Circus," which are sure to receive favorable reception at both afternoon and evening performances, as they appeal to old and young alike. The rest of the bill is considered as strong as ever seen in the city, and the standing room only sign is being carefully dusted for exhibition for the remaining show.

Next week one of the most attractive acts will be the Sixty String Quintette, Victor Herbert's charming music is to be played by the orchestra, and all lovers of light operatic airs will not miss the opportunity of hearing them played, and played well. Mr. Herbert has himself arranged and rehearsed the musical numbers from his best operas, to be played by the quintette, which comprises four cellos and a harp. The act takes place in a giant sea shell, with gorgeous electrical effects. The remainder of the bill will consist of the following: Samson and Douglas, comedians; C. W. Williamson, ventriloquist; Stanley and Goswell, a Klaw-Erlander act; Stanley and Goswell, burlesque artists; Louise August, juggler; The Four Girls, dancers and singers; Laura Ordway, monologist, and the O'Samoys, a Klaw-Erlander act, tumblers.

In Honor of R. S. Ambrose.

Messrs. Arthur Ostler, Harold Reed, Wm. Ostler, Adair Blaatz, Wm. McDougall and Alex. Neligan, of this city, constituted the orchestra that played at the first concert of the Ambrose choir, of Collingwood, the leader of which is a former Hamilton musician—Mrs. Celestie V. Keltie. They all speak highly of the work done by the chorus and say great credit is due the energetic leader. The concert was given in the Grand Opera House and was a great success.

The programme supplied contained the following notices: "The Ambrose choir is named in honor of R. S. Ambrose, of Hamilton, who, as a composer, may justly be termed 'The Grand Old Man of Canada.'" Author of many celebrated sacred songs, a particular gem—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," having been dedicated to Celestie V. Keltie. Through now in his 84th year, he still evinces a keen interest in everything pertaining to good music."

MUNDT-WAY

Pretty Wedding at Bride's Home, Cannon St. East.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Way, 417 Cannon street east, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Annie Inard Way, was married to Mr. Arthur J. Mundt, both of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Williamson, of Emerald Street Methodist Church. Miss Ethel Way, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Harry Olinson was best man. Miss Eva Way, another sister, was flower girl.

The bride was becomingly gowned in Swiss organdie, with Valenciennes lace over white silk. She wore the usual veil with orange blossoms, and carried white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaid wore a suit of blue nun's veiling.

There were about seventy guests present from all quarters, including Milton, Toronto, St. Catharines, Winona and Stoney Creek.

After the wedding dinner the happy couple went to their new home on Chatham street.

The presents, which were both numerous and costly, including gifts from London, England, British Columbia, Winnipeg, Sarnia, Detroit, St. Catharines, Toronto and other places.

The bride's friends in the buttonhole room of the Sanford Manufacturing Co., where she was formerly employed, sent her a beautiful rocking chair as a token of the esteem in which she was held. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a pearl earring, to the best man a pearl stickpin, and to the flower girl a prayer book.

The many friends of the young couple join in wishing them prosperity and happiness in their married life.

MRS. BRADLEY

TOLD DOCTOR SHE WOULD FORCE BROWN TO WED HER.

He Thought Her Father or Brother or Somebody Would Do Brown Boddy Harm—Another Doctor Says She Was Sane When She Shot Brown.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Mrs. Annie Bradley's trial for the murder of former Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah in this city, Dec. 18, 1906, was resumed at 10 o'clock today.

Dr. D. K. Shutt, the jail physician, continued his rebuttal testimony begun Wednesday.

Before Dr. Shutt began his testimony, District Attorney Baker submitted to the court the Government's prayers in the case, saying that they did not cover the case of murder in the first or second degree, that that point be left for instruction of the court. The prayers were not read.

Dr. Shutt's testimony developed nothing new.

Rev. David H. Uter, pastor of the Unitarian Church of Denver, Colo., formerly of Salt Lake, who performed the marriage ceremony between Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, then took the stand.

Following a long conference between counsel court, counsel retired, from the room for a further conference, after which Dr. Uter testified that during a conversation with Mrs. Bradley he expressed to her his belief that Brown would not marry her. He urged her to give up her idea of marrying Brown. He replied:

"When it comes to a test and the gun is pointed at him Brown will accede."

Dr. Uter said that during a conversation with Mrs. Bradley in 1905 he expressed the opinion that Brown would not marry her, and he said that Mrs. Bradley declared she would force him to do so. Mrs. Bradley did not say she would shoot Brown herself, and the witness got the impression that in order to justify the children either Mrs. Bradley's brother, father or somebody would be brooding bodily harm.

Mrs. Bradley's reputation for peace and good order, he testified, was good.

Dr. Edward S. Brush, of Baltimore, a Government expert, declared that in his opinion when Mrs. Bradley shot Brown she was perfectly sane.

CONSUMPTION SANITARIUMS.

WANT ONE EACH FOR EASTERN AND WESTERN ONTARIO.

Woodstock Meeting Resolves to Ask Whitley to Establish Them—County and City Councils to be Asked to Take the Matter Up.

Woodstock, Ont., Nov. 29.—(Special)—At the meeting in the Court House here yesterday afternoon, it was decided to start a movement for the establishment and maintenance by the Provincial Government, of two sanitariums for the treatment of consumptives, one in eastern and one in western Ontario. Communications will immediately be sent to the County Councils and City Councils of all the municipalities in Ontario, asking them to operate with the Western Ontario municipalities, which have inaugurated the movement and appoint delegates to form a big deputation to wait on the Government and press the claim for such institutions. It is the idea to have the deputation go to Toronto before the beginning of the next session of the House of Commons. The proposal meets with favor for legislation for the construction of the necessary building work done next year. The meeting was called by a resolution of the counties of Oxford, Perth, Waterloo, Wellington, Elgin, Brant and Norfolk, but after discussion, which lasted the greater part of the day, the larger proposal was decided upon, as preferable, as providing sanitarium conveniences for a big proportion of the population of the province. If the Government does not take the matter up, then the other proposal will be gone into by the seven counties involved. Those present yesterday were Warden Oliver and Mayor Patterson of Paris, representing Brant, Warden Hoelting of Perth, Dr. Leckhart, of Hespeler, for Waterloo, Miss Buchanan, of Fanning and Falden, for Oxford.

CONCLUSIONS OF A STUDY OF THE GREAT INDIAN CHARACTER.

(Principal H. F. Gardiner.)

Brant assisted in translating the prayer book and portions of the Scriptures into the Mohawk language, and after he came to reside in Canada, his efforts for the moral and religious improvement of his people were indefatigable. One of his first stipulations with the commander-in-chief, on the acquisition of his new territory, and for the building of a church, a school house and a flouring mill and he soon made application for a resident clergyman. It is no less interesting than true that the first Episcopal Church erected in Upper Canada was built by Brant, from funds collected by him while in England in 1789. The communion service, in his own language, each piece bearing an inscription stating it to have been given to the Mohawks for the use of their chapel by Queen Anne. The church bell was made by John Warner, Fleet street, London, 1786. Brant died at Wellington Square (now Brantford) on Nov. 24, 1807, at the age of 64, and his remains were interred by the side of the Mohawk Church on the Grand River.

As a warrior, Brant was cautious, sagacious and brave; watching with sleepless vigilance for opportunities of action, and allowing neither dangers nor difficulties to divert him from his well settled purpose. His constitution was hardy, his capacity of endurance great; his energy untiring, and his firmness inimitable. He was at once affable and dignified, avoiding frivolity on the one hand and stiffness on the other. His temperance was decidedly amiable; he had a keen perception of the ludicrous, and was both humorous and witty himself. In his dealings and business relations he was prompt, honorable and exact, and a pattern of integrity. The purity of his private morals has never been questioned, and his house was the abode of kindness and hospitality.

POLICEMAN DID IT.

Cousin of Italy's King Kidnapped and Tortured.

Naples, Nov. 29.—A dramatic and sensational kidnapping has occurred here, the victim being Marquis Giuseppe Cito, a member of the most ancient aristocracy and a cousin and aide of the King. The Marquis was seized and carried off to a grove where he was tortured and a letter to the Marquisesse demanding $500 extorted from him. He was found half frozen and badly injured, and his condition is now considered desperate. One of his assailants was disguised as a policeman.

The kidnapping of Marquis Giuseppe Cito has caused great excitement through the discovery that the organizer of the plot is in reality a policeman. On being arrested he confessed. The British Embassy is interested in the case, as Marquis Cito is a trusted antiquarian for several sovereigns, including King Edward.

LADIES' AID SALE.

St. Andrew's Church Ladies' Aid Society held a sale of work yesterday afternoon and evening, and supper was served during the evening. There was a large attendance, notwithstanding the state of the weather, and the entertainment furnished was of the best. A 50-cent supper at 15 cents is no small attraction, and the good ladies fairly excelled themselves in catering to the healthy appetites of their guests. A considerable sum was realized for the society's funds, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The instrumental and musical programme was entirely impromptu, and was much enjoyed. Mrs. Wallace, the President, and her devoted working force are to be congratulated on scoring a great success.

OBITUARY.

The funeral of Patrick Kenney took place this morning from Dewey's Undertaking rooms, to Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Father Savage conducted the services at the grave.

The remains of Mrs. Charles De Villier were shipped to Quebec last evening at 7 o'clock for interment.

The funeral of Neil McNeil took place this afternoon from Blachford & Son's undertaking rooms, and was in charge of St. Andrew's Society. The remains were buried in the society plot in the cemetery.

BURGLAR SHOT.

Proprietor Kills Man as He is Crawling Through Window.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—An unidentified burglar, caught prowling through the corridors of a hotel at 134 West Harrison street, was shot and killed early today by Jesse Lewis, proprietor of the place. The man was shot as he leaped through a second-story window to a roof below.

The burglar was encountered in a hallway and fled when he was accosted. The man was crouching in the dimly-lighted hall when the proprietor threw open his door.

The police have been baffled in discovering the identity of the man who was killed. He was unarmed and had apparently just broken into the place when he was shot down.

The dying burglar was taken to the County Hospital, where he died within a few minutes. One of the bullets had passed through his head behind the right ear.

The man was about 28 years old and well dressed. There was nothing by which he could be identified.

He was five feet eight inches tall, weighed about 160 pounds, had dark hair and complexion, a short black mustache, wore a black sack coat, black trousers, and soft black hat.

THE REASON WHY.

Will Applegath, 85 James street north, explains his reason for selling his new stock of men's furnishings at such ridiculously low prices. This sale has created a great sensation, the store having been continually packed to the door.

After Christmas this store will be turned into an exclusive hat store, handling the latest and best hats at popular prices. In the meantime the extra stock of furnishings must be cleared out and a glance through Mr. Applegath's advertisement, which appears on another page, will satisfy you that you can save money by purchasing your Christmas gifts at 86 James street north, opposite Hotel Royal.

CHILDREN'S SPECIAL.

To-morrow morning, Saturday, Nov. 30, a special children's session will be held at the Alexandra Rink. A competition will take place for the best skater, boy or girl, big or little. Two prizes will be given. The land will also be in attendance.

He works for his board—the lumberman. They come high, but we must have them—clouds.

LEATHER GOODS.

W. E. Murray Adds New Lines to His Fine Stock.

A speaker who addressed a public meeting in this city about a week ago said that the manufacturer who made the most artistic useful articles captured the lion's share of trade, and the same might be said of the merchant. He who stocks his place of business with artistically made useful articles attracts the largest share of business, for he caters to the best class of trade. Realizing this, W. E. Murray, the well-known dealer in leather goods, has put in a line of novelties in fancy leather, in addition to his big stock of suit cases, travelling bags, trunks, etc., that is attracting considerable attention. His offering of ladies' hand satchels, in hornback alligator, is one of the best that has ever been made in this city. These articles are of the finest workmanship and display a taste that at once commends them to all who admire the artistic. The makers have a patent method of preserving the skins with heads, tails and feet attached, and have made some unique and attractive satchels that are specially suitable for Christmas gifts.

Mr. Murray has also put in a big stock of fancy leather purses and other small articles in leather, of the best class in a position to satisfy the best class of trade. His store has been fitted up with handsome quartered oak showcases, in which his goods are displayed with taste and to good advantage, and all who desire to see something first-class in leather goods, should inspect his stock.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD.

The regular meeting of St. Paul's Young Men's Guild was held on Tuesday evening. President Soule occupied the chair, and after the minutes of last meeting had been read and the evening's business disposed of, a very enjoyable programme was presented. Mr. Marshall gave a talk on "The History of the Guild," which proved very interesting, and Mr. Geo. A. Young gave a comedy reading. Other taking part were: Messrs. Sloane, Campbell and Soule. The critic's remarks concluded the evening's programme.

A debate has been arranged for the meeting of Dec. 10th. "Resolved, That the city of Hamilton should own her electric power and street railways." A lively time is looked for and a large attendance is assured.

NOT THIS ROBINSON.

To the Editor of the Times:

SI.—In last evening's Spectator appears a special news item from Kingston, headed, "Robinson Finned," which proceeds to inform the public that W. J. Robinson, organizer for the International Tailors' Union, was fined (along with one Geo. Leader, a local man) $100 for intimidation.

Kindly permit me to correct the same by informing your readers that a grave error of fact was committed, and evident has been sent out with malicious intent to discredit myself and my work in the labor movement, by attaching to the official position of organizer of the International Tailors' Union to the name of the party fined. I wish to disclaim any knowledge whatever of the matter contained in the special news item. Having just returned home from attending the A. E. U. convention at Norfolk, Va., I would respectfully request the newspapers on your exchange list give the same publicity to this disclaimer as they did to the special news item referred to. Thanking you and them in anticipation of the same, I am, yours truly Hugh Robinson, general organizer, International Tailors' Union.

PAARDEBURG CHAPTER.

The regularly monthly meeting of Paardeburg Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, was held Thursday in the Y. W. C. A. parlors. Mrs. Atkinson, regent, presided over the meeting, which was largely attended. The financial standing of the chapter was found to be very satisfactory. A number of new members were proposed and elected. It was decided that about the first of the year the chapter will take up some very important work. After singing the National Anthem the meeting adjourned.

A NEW BEE.

Last evening the Emerald Y. M. U. held its regular weekly meeting, which was fairly well attended. After the regular business readings were given by some of the members, and very much enjoyed. The most important event of the evening was the first issue of the Union's new paper, which it is thought will be a success, as well as a benefit to the union. Mr. Menary, the editor, has decided to call the paper the E. Y. M. U. Bee. There was also a discussion on "Capital vs. Labor." Next week will be the Union's regular monthly business and social evening.

GIRL BACKED OUT.

PLIGHTED TROTH BROKEN ALMOST AT THE ALTAR.

Two Days Before Wedding Was to Have Taken Place, Emma Ryan Flees From Her Intended Husband.

Buffalo, Nov. 29.—Shattering a romance extending over a period of eight months Miss Emma Ryan, who was to have been married to a wealthy Pennsylvania farmer on Thanksgiving eve, suddenly left her home at 190 Niagara street last Monday without confiding her destination to any of her friends.

With her secret locked in her heart, Miss Ryan, who is a pretty young woman, fled from the brink of the altar after all arrangements had been made for the ceremony. It is said that the friends who were to make up the wedding party had already been notified. The departing bride-to-be carried her trousseau away in her trunk.

James Crowley, of Union, Pa., had already arrived for the marriage, happily in the thought that he was to secure a charming wife. He returned to his farm crestfallen and vowing his faith in wankind shaken for all time to come.

The couple were to have been married in St. Joseph's Cathedral Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The bans had been published twice and all the friends were positive that the marriage would be performed.

Miss Ryan had lived at 190 Niagara street for seven years. It was there that she met Crowley a year and a half ago while he was visiting relatives. Their acquaintance soon ripened into courtship and finally their engagement was announced.

It is said that they had planned their honeymoon, which was to have been spent in New York. After that they were to be at home at Mr. Crowley's farm. Crowley arrived in Buffalo last Saturday prepared to go through with the ceremony. He visited his fiancée again on Sunday, but Monday she was not awaiting to greet him when he called.

Mrs. John J. McCarthy, who conducts the hotel where Miss Ryan lived, is unable to explain the cause of the abandonment of the marriage plans.

"I think she may have gone to visit her sister who lives somewhere in Michigan," said Mrs. McCarthy. "We all expected her to be married, but she must have changed her mind suddenly. I do not know what came up to prevent the ceremony. She was not quite sure where she was going when she left."

OVER RIGHT OF WAY.

The attention of the High Court non-jury sittings, with Justice Falconbridge presiding, was devoted to the case of Dickson vs. Manning to-day. The action arose over a dispute as to the right of way over the Manning property, on the outskirts of Dundas. J. W. Dickson said that Robert Manning had no right to block traffic on a road over the Manning property. Mr. Manning's defense is that he did not think the road was a public one. W. E. S. Knowles is acting for Dickson, and J. W. Nesbitt, K. C., for Manning. The case was continued this afternoon.

BOTH DROWNED.

New York, Nov. 29.—Two firemen of the giant turbine Mauretania on their way back to the steamer early today, after a night of shore leave fell from the pier in the darkness and were drowned. Another fireman Hal Kelly, plunged in after the men but could find no trace of them. It is believed they were carried underneath the vessel by the strong tide.

OUR TREATY WITH FRANCE.

Lower Duties on French Laces, Silks, Etc.

Light Wines Will Also Be Made Lower.

Canadian Farmer Gets Reciprocal Advantage.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The Franco-Canadian treaty which was brought down to Parliament to-day was concluded at Paris on September 19th. Following the form in which the treaty was signed in both the English and French languages, the treaty, or convention, as it is technically called, is printed for distribution in the two languages, side by side. The English version is headed, "Convention respecting the commercial relations between Canada and France."

The convention supersedes the old treaty, which was signed February 6th, 1863, and approved by the Canadian Parliament in its session of 1894.

The old treaty gave to Canada in the French market the minimum tariff rates on a number of articles, chiefly the products of the fisheries and the forest. It gave to France in the Canadian market special rates of duty on a number of French specialties, of which the most important were champagnes and wines.

A Big Preferential List.

The new treaty gives to France in the Canadian markets the benefit of the Canadian intermediate tariff on ninety-eight tariff items. In addition to these, concessions below the intermediate tariff are granted to France on a number of French specialties. The rate on champagnes remains the same as in the old treaty. The duties on light wines are graded in proportion to their alcoholic strength. Those containing more than 23 per cent. of alcohol and not more than 20 per cent. remain at the same rate of duty as now—namely, twenty-five cents per gallon.

The lighter wines containing only 20 per cent. or less of alcohol are to come in at fifteen cents per gallon. Those containing more than 20 per cent. and not more than 23 per cent. of alcohol are to bear duty at twenty cents per gallon.

Canned vegetables, except tomatoes, are to bear duty at one cent per pound. Anchovies, sardines, etc., two cents per box. Novels or works of fiction, etc., unbound or paper bound, printed in the French language, 15 per cent. ad valorem. Other books in the French language, 5 per cent. ad valorem. Liquid medicines, not containing alcohol, 25 per cent. ad valorem. Olive oil, 15 per cent. ad valorem.

The Ladies Will Benefit.

Embroideries, lace, manufactures of lace, nettings of cotton, linen, silk, etc., 27 1/2 per cent. ad valorem. Pure silk and silk fabrics, 20 per cent. Ribbons of all kinds and materials, 25 per cent. Manufactures of silk, 25 per cent.

In several of these cases the duties are the same as in the British preferential tariff, and in one or two cases they are lower than the rates of the British preferential tariff, but these are cases in which Britain does not produce the goods. In any case where the British preferential rate is higher it follows that it will be reduced to the rate of the French treaty. In the case of embroideries, laces, velvets, and silk goods the treaty rates are above those of the British preferential tariff.

Where the Farmer Benefits.

On the other hand, Canada is to enjoy the benefit of the French market at the rate of duty in the French minimum tariff upon 152 tariff items. These include nearly all the products of the farm, meat, fish, wool, goods, pulp paper, and a considerable line of manufactured goods, some of which are already exported from Canada and others are of a class which might in future be exported.

In the case of a number of these items which are printed in italic in the treaty as brought down, the rates of the French minimum tariff are the same as the rates of the French general tariff, but by putting them in the list Canada is assured of the benefit of any reduction which may hereafter be made on such items.

In the old treaty Canada received guaranteed treatment in France as respects the particular articles mentioned in the treaty, while France, on the other hand, received guaranteed treatment in all tariff and commercial matters.

On the Specific Articles.

In the new treaty the conditions are reciprocal. France receives favored-nation treatment in Canada on the list of articles mentioned in the schedules. Canada receives favored-nation treatment in France on all the articles mentioned in the schedules. This clause opens the way for negotiating further trade treaties with other countries without having any reduction in the tariff rates given them apply necessarily also to France.

The Shipping Provisions.

In the old treaty the benefit of the reduced rates on Canadian products was limited to such articles when sent to France by direct ship, while France received concessions on the articles when coming into Canada, irrespective of the route. In the new treaty the conditions are reciprocal in which an article now exempt from duty in France is hereafter made dutiable, Canada is assured the most favorable rate granted to any foreign country.

Reciprocally, if any article which is now free from duty under the Canadian intermediate tariff shall hereafter become liable to duty, France is assured of the most favorable rate granted to any foreign country. The treaty applies to Algeria, French colonies and possessions, and the territories of the protectorate of Indo-China, as well as to France proper.

Liberal Trade Regulations.

Canada and France undertake not to establish one against the other any prohibition or restriction of importation, exportation or transit, which shall not apply at the same time to other countries. Except as regards tariff provisions, Canada and France accord to each other reciprocally the most favored-nation treatment in either in relation to trade. Provision is made that neither country will establish any exceptional internal taxation against the goods of the other. Drawbacks on exportation allowed by either country are not to exceed the duty collected on the articles or materials used in their manufacture.

Terminable on Year's Notice.

The convention is to be approved by the French Chambers and by the Parliament of Canada, after which ratifications are to be exchanged at Paris, and the treaty will then come into force. Reference is made to a period of ten years as the contemplated period of the treaty, but either party may terminate the treaty at any time by twelve months' notice.

The French commissioners strongly urged when the treaty was in course of preparation that France should get the whole benefit of the British preferential tariff, but the Canadian commissioners would not agree to any such proposal, with the result that the tariff against British goods will be in nearly every item of importance to the British manufacturer considerably below the tariff against French goods.

The gradation in the wine duties is made with a view to encouraging the importation of light wines rather than heavier wines.

To Build Up Canada's Ports.

The provision with respect to goods coming direct to Canadian ports will help to build up Canadian shipping and Canadian ports. The total value of the Canadian exports enumerated in the treaty as getting the preferential French rate amounts to about two hundred million dollars. The reduction in duties given by the advantage of the minimum French tariff, as compared with the present schedule, varies from about five to twenty-five per cent. On agricultural implements, for instance, Canadian manufacturers would be allowed to export goods to France at a lower rate of duty than afforded the manufacturer of the United States or any other country.

Canadian Goods at the Minimum.

The principal items of Canadian products which will enjoy the benefit of the minimum French tariff when the treaty is ratified are as follows: Horses and cattle, poultry, meats, dairy products, honey, fish, grain, malt, pulse, potatoes, table fruits, such as apples, pears and peaches, syrups and candied fruits, preserves, tar, woods rough or sawn, charcoal, vegetables fresh or preserved, fodder, including hay, spruce, wood pulp, mineral waters, emery in any form, cement, coal, cast iron, wrought iron drawn in bars, angle and T iron, axes and types in the rough, sheet and plate iron, steel wire, iron or steel rails, steel in bars, sheets or bands, copper ore, etc., lead, nickel, crude or refined, antimony, compound medicines, starch, incandescent electric lamps, yarn of hemp for manufacture of fishing lines and nets and of cordage, paper or card, cardboard goods and ornaments, skins and hides, boots and shoes, gloves, transmission belts and other articles of leather, peltries, locomotives and traction engines, agricultural machinery, sewing machines, dynamos, linotypes, general machinery, tools, wire gauze, iron castings, for machinery or for ornaments, wire nails of iron or steel, lead pipes, electric accumulators, furniture, doors, wainscoting, etc., small wooden wares, pianos, organs and instruments, with iron metallic rods, carriages for rail uses, seagoing ships of wood, river boats of any size of wood, manufactures of India rubber and gutta percha, mica, and typewriters without nickelled parts.

MAY LOSE CITIZENSHIP.

Question of U. S. Citizens Who Vote in Canadian Elections.

Winnipeg, Nov. 27.—American citizens who poll votes in the coming municipal elections forfeit their right to citizenship in the United States by participating in politics foreign to the United States, and become alien to the land of their birth. The question has been raised lately by American citizens who have overlooked the fact that the municipal act provides that only British subjects are entitled to vote, or who claim, as many of them do, that they were not asked as to their nationality when they applied for registration or for the ballot. In many cases they did not understand that they had to be British subjects, and considered the ownership of property and payment of taxes the only required qualifications. This affects a very large number of residents of Winnipeg and western Canada.

Consul Jones states that in his opinion such an action as voting places the person doing so in a position where he cannot be regarded as an American citizen. Leaving aside the offence of voting in contravention of the laws of the Province, the Consul said: "This is a question that I cannot decide, it being a matter for the courts; but I do think that an American citizen who votes in Canada at municipal, Dominion or Provincial elections jeopardizes his American citizenship. This, of course, is based upon the law of Canada, which requires a man to be a British subject to be entitled to vote at any election, and it necessarily follows that where an American participates in an election in a foreign country he identifies himself with that country."

The Commissioners Will Visit Quebec Bridge To-morrow.

Quebec, Nov. 28.—The bridge commissioners returned to Quebec this morning to-day had a conference with Mr. Hoare, Quebec bridge engineer. To-morrow they will go to Belair to inspect the material in the yards there. Another visit will be paid to the bridge on Saturday, and the commission expect to go to New York next Monday night to conclude the examination of Mr. Cooper. The commission expect to complete their investigation and present a report to Parliament within three weeks.

DROWNED WHILE SKATING.

S. Earwaker Went Through Hole in Ice Near Kenora.

Kenora, Nov. 28.—What is regarded as a drowning accident occurred Tuesday evening when S. Earwaker left home for a skate on Lawrence Creek, near the lake here. Not returning, a search was instituted and a hole in the ice was discovered. The creek has been dragged, but so far there is no trace of the body. Earwaker was about 30 years old. His wife and family joined him here from the old country a few months ago.

MOTOR FIENDS PASSED ON.

Killed Man in Race at Baltimore, But Did Not Stop.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 28.—During a race between two high-powered automobiles at an early hour to-day, James F. Grinnel, colored, was struck and instantly killed by one of the machines. The cars were driven by Frank J. Brown, son of former Governor Brown of this State, and James Elliott, a sporting man of Washington, D. C. Neither one stopped after the accident, but continued on their course. The police later arrested young Brown and his chauffeur.

Brown did not deny being involved in the affair, but declared that it was Elliott's automobile that struck Grinnel. He and his chauffeur were arraigned in court, and released on their own recognizance for a hearing next Monday. The police were unable to find Elliott.

STILL AFTER MR. C. B. SMITH.

Controller Baker, Winnipeg, Will Move for His Dismissal.

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—On account of the absence of Controller Cockburn from the Board of Controller meeting this morning Controller Baker decided not to make his motion for the dismissal of Chief Engineer Cecil B. Smith. Controller Baker, however, has not at all changed his mind in regard to his proposed action, and will move that Mr. Smith be notified that his services are no longer required at the first full board meeting.

Mayor Ashdown, in discussing Mr. Smith's letter to the press on the power question, said he considered it most improper for any civic official to enter an election contest, such as he had done, and characterized the Chief Engineer's action as very injudicious.

Suit Against City of St. Thomas.

St. Thomas, Nov. 28.—Ernest Siple, a farmer on River road, Southwell Township, and his wife have issued a writ against the city of St. Thomas, claiming $1,500 damages for injury to their health and damage to lands and stock by the pollution of Kettle Creek from city sewage. They also ask for an injunction to stop the city from dumping sewage into the creek. The Provincial Board of Health was recently complained to in regard to the matter.

THE OLD LAND.

Many Interesting Happenings Reported From Britain.

Mrs. Chrissie Price, a former hospital nurse and the daughter of a Welsh Methodist minister who was arrested in evening dress while at dinner in Birkenhead, has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment at Nottingham Assizes on charges of defrauding local tradesmen.

Mrs. Price, who married the son of a Sussex clergyman, has led an adventurous career in various parts of the world, and has described herself, among other things, as a niece of the claimant to the Lovat peerage and estates.

The prisoner told a romantic story in the witness box. She described her early connection with Nottingham as hospital nurse, and said she married Frederick Rowan Bonamy Price six years ago, his father being a clergyman and Master of Arts, St. John's College, Cambridge.

Mrs. Price, who married the son of a Sussex clergyman, has led an adventurous career in various parts of the world, and has described herself, among other things, as a niece of the claimant to the Lovat peerage and estates.

Returning to England, they went to Nottingham last July, her husband intending to start an engineering business. She had money of her own, and also had expectations. Her husband got acquainted with friends at the hotel. She intended taking a nursing home in Birkenhead, and she intended paying for goods she obtained in Nottingham, when she received money from her friends.

Detective Superintendent Parnham informed the commissioner that the prisoner was the daughter of the late Rev. Simon Fraser, of the Isle of Anglesey.

In 1898 she was arrested in Edinburgh on a charge of fraud, and sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment. On her release she was rearrested, and at North London Sessions was sentenced to seven months' hard labor for fraud and larceny.

After her visit to Madinetra, she represented she had £2,000 in the bank at Tunbridge Wells, and succeeded in borrowing £1,500. Subsequently she obtained a motor car from a London firm, who accepted a post-dated cheque.

Mr. Commissioner Atkinson, in passing sentence on the prisoner, who displayed a cool demeanor throughout the proceedings, described her as "an accomplished swindler."

A daring robbery involving the loss of 2,000 half sovereigns is at present engaging the attention of the detective departments of the city of London, city of Liverpool and the London and North-western Railway police.

The other afternoon a messenger, with an innocent looking hand-barrow, arrived at 13 Eastcheap, one of the city receiving offices of the London and North-western Railway. On the barrow were four small boxes, some ten inches square, each weighing about 40 pounds. Two men standing by casually watched the removal of the boxes from the barrow to the office counter, saw eventually a receipt handed over by the clerk, and then went away.

The boxes contained gold coin, sovereigns and half sovereigns, to the amount of £4,000, consigned by a local bank to the Para, Brazil, branch. The men standing casually by were detectives, charged with the safety of the gold until it was in the hands of the railway company. Later in the day it was despatched to Euston.

The same night the four boxes of gold coin formed part of the contents of the brake van on the Liverpool express.

On arrival at Liverpool one of the boxes was missing, and although a whole week has elapsed, Detective Inspector Murphy, of Old Jewry, and Detective Sergeant Dyke, of the railway police, have not a single clue as to its whereabouts.

The way in which the coin was conveyed through the streets on a hand-barrow has drawn attention to the vast wealth which is daily carried through London streets. A banker estimates that the amount thus carried every day is:

Gold transferred between banks, commercial houses and railway stations £ 7,000,000 Jewellery 2,000,000 Securities and other valuables 1,000,000

Total £10,000,000 Not only are hundreds of men employed to do nothing other than guard valuables in transit, but most banks and wholesale jewellers carry "floating" insurance policies against street theft.

TWO FUNERALS FOR ONE MAN. Curious directions for the disposal of his remains were left by Mr. John Robert Pringle, of 308 Stanstead road, Catford, and late of 14 Gloucester square, Southampton, who died on Sept. 30 last, aged 75 years, leaving estate of the gross value of £8,049 3s. 3d. The testator directed:

"After my decease, I desire that a competent and trustworthy doctor of medicine shall, by any experiment he may deem suitable, thoroughly satisfy himself that life is absolutely extinct. My carcase is to be cremated, and the residuum thereof deposited in two metal urns, numbered respectively 1 and 2. On the ashes in No. 1 are to be placed a packet, which will be found in my desk, and my miniature portrait scarf pin, and on the ashes in urn No. 2 a similar packet, which will also be found on my desk, and my miniature portrait finger ring."

He directed that the urns were then to be soldered down, and No. 1 buried in his mother's grave at Newbury, Pagnell, and the other in "my dear Lizzie's grave" in the Streatham Cemetery at Tooting.

AGITATORS RELEASED. The British Government has released the Indian agitators Lajpat Rai and Ajit Singh, who were summarily deported from the Punjab to Burma in the summer. The step has caused much rejoicing in native circles, and it is generally believed that the natives generally believe that the King's clemency, and Hindu priests are leading singing parties through the streets and invoking blessings on the King. There is a general feeling in the air that the unrest will pass rapidly away.

The Bengalis are greatly struck by the dramatic collapse of the extremist party.

Advantages of Buying at Grafton & Co's. Big Stores.

Anticipating the needs of many customers, Messrs. Grafton & Co. are putting on a great sale to-morrow that will be a hummer in point of values and success. It will be an 18 day, which, however, does not infer that everything in suits and overcoats are that price, but the firm has gathered together a great assemblage of clothing which will be offered at that figure. The character sticks out of every garment made by Grafton & Co., and the styles are the very latest. This great firm operates two big factories and has seven stores of its own in Canada, so that the buyer takes no chance and will get what he gets the best goods at lowest prices because there is no middleman's profit to share. Their stores, 20 to 24 James street north, are packed with handsomely tailored tweed suits, all colors and sizes, winter overcoats that give the full chest and easily shoulder effect and these are genuinely made and will wear well. The men of Hamilton should make it their business to call at Grafton's to-morrow and see the values. Read advertisement.

HAD NO CRUCIFIXION PICTURE. And Did Not Try to Christianize the Hebrew Children.

Miss Florence Sims, a teacher in the Elizabeth Street School, in whose room it was said by Rev. Mr. Wilson that a religious picture had been turned to the wall, writes to the Globe as follows: "As my name appeared in your paper this morning in connection with having a picture in my room of Christ on the cross, I think it is only fair to myself to state there is some misunderstanding about a very simple matter. The facts are as follows: I considered it my duty to Christianize the Jewish children, it was such a small matter I am not surprised at him forgetting what I really did say, which was this: That as the children were too small in my room to read the Bible, I told them the Bible stories as much as possible in the words of the Bible, substituting an easy word for a long one, starting at the first chapter of Genesis and finishing with the last chapter of Acts. This is all I have ever done. I do not nor ever shall consider it my duty to Christianize the Jewish children, but I certainly would not mind trying the man from Birmingham. Allow me to say a conclusion the relations in our school between the Christians and Hebrews are most friendly."

A Popular Shopping Place. Finch Bros. are greatly pleased with the great success of their store on the south side, that it is a popular shopping place is acknowledged by everyone. Competition or weather conditions appear to make no difference and scores of new customers are added to their long list almost every day, and the business keeps going ahead rapidly. For the coming Christmas and holiday season they are making great preparations for a large business. Large departments have been made and many new departments have been opened and just now the store is all in Christmas attire and every Saturday shoppers should pay this store a visit. Read their large advertisement to-night giving particulars of their many lines of goods on sale Saturday. Their advertisement is always interesting and full of good things and big savings. Saturday will be a busy day and a good time for shopping is in the morning. Open as usual at 8.30 and close at 10 p. m. Make a special visit to the store in the morning.

WINDSOR BOY SHOT IN LEG. Comrade Accidentally Felled Him While Rabbit-Hunting.

Windsor, Nov. 28.—While out rabbit-hunting this morning Harry Pringle, a twelve-year-old boy, residing on Elbian street, was shot in the left leg just below the hip. The shooting was purely accidental, and occurred while Roy Edwards, one of the party, was handling the gun. The injured youth was brought into the City on a hand-car, and received prompt medical attention. He will recover.

CUT HIS THROAT. Dr. Robert Wilson, of Toronto, Attempted to End His Life.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—Dr. Robert Wilson, veterinary surgeon, living on Berkeley avenue, off Kingston road, was brought to St. Michael's Hospital in a cab yesterday afternoon with a bad wound in his throat, caused by a razor, the result of an attempt to end his life. Dr. Wilson has been unwell for the last week or so, and has been very despondent. Yesterday morning his wife was out and a veterinary student assistant was staying with him.

He left the room for a few minutes, Wilson had dressed and had gone down stairs. Following him down, he arrived just in time to prevent him making a second cut at his neck with a razor. Dr. Brown, of Kingston road, was summoned, who dressed the wound and advised that he be taken to the hospital.

Dr. Wilson's life is not despaired of, as the jugular vein was not cut.

THAT PICTURE. TORONTO BOARD OF EDUCATION DISCUSS THE SUBJECT.

Mr. Kent and Dr. Ogden Exercised Over Incident in a Public School Involving the Treatment of a Picture of Christ—Miss Sims' Denial.

Toronto, Nov. 20.—That Canada is Christian and our schools must stand by Christian institutions was apparently the prevailing sentiment of members of the Management Committee of the Board of Education, as indicated by a discussion during yesterday's session. In answer to instructions given by the Chairman of the Board, Inspector Hughes explained to the committee the removal of a picture of Christ from one of the class rooms in a certain public school. Mr. Hughes in his explanation declared that he was acting with a view wholly to preserving "harmonious relationship between Jews and Gentiles in the schools."

Mr. Kent had been laboring under the belief that the face of the picture had been turned to the wall, "if that picture was turned to the wall the teacher should be turned out of the school," he thundered.

Mr. Hughes explained that such was not the case, adding, however, that he did not think it a good picture to have in a school.

"I never could consent," retorted Dr. Ogden, "to any course which would mean the removal of such things. I think," he continued, with rising voice, "that this is a Christian country. We are not pagans nor Jews here. That picture should not be removed, and I would not follow the example of New York city under any circumstances."

Inspector Hughes—The Jews have never objected to singing our songs or to taking part in our devotional exercises. They have been most amiable.

"But," insisted Dr. Ogden, "a move was made against the picture of Christ. I can't approve of the removal. It was a degradation we ought not to allow."

Dr. Hawke thought that our schools were not denominational. It appeared strange to him that the picture should be placed in this school and not in others.

Mr. Parkinson wanted to know who made the objections.

Inspector Hughes—One of the visiting British teachers. He noticed it in the room, and said such a thing would not be allowed in England. Then he went to Rabbi Jacobs, and so the matter came to me.

Mr. Parkinson—H'm! Went to the Rabbi.

Inspector Hughes was careful to state that he, in advising the removal of the likeness, wanted to preserve good relations with the Jews. Referring to the British teacher in question, he said: "He was a man of high intelligence and wide experience."

Mr. Kent expressed his satisfaction in the fact that the picture had not been turned to the wall. Dr. Ogden promised a personal talk with the inspector.

GOLDEN WEDDING. Former Hamilton Minister and His Wife Celebrate.

Rev. Dr. Robert Cade and Mrs. Cade, of 103 Coburn avenue, Toronto, yesterday celebrated their golden wedding, friends from all parts of the city and many adjoining towns calling to congratulate the well-known, much-loved old couple.

The marriage of half a century ago took place in Yorkville, and the bride was Miss Mary A. Edmond, daughter of Mr. John Edmond, general storekeeper, of that place.

Rev. Mr. Cade was pastor of the Primitive Methodist Church in this city about 35 years ago.

BE WELL DRESSED. The last Saturday in November will be a money making time for the man who is wise enough to take advantage of Begg & Shannon's startling offer on the back page of this issue. SALE OF WORK.

MacNab Street Ladies' Have Fine Display.

At 3.30 this afternoon the sale of work under the auspices of the Senior and Junior Mission Bands of MacNab Street Presbyterian Church was opened by Rev. Mr. Ketchen. A beautiful display of all the dainties imaginable was seen. The proceeds, which will apparently be very good, judging from the amount of goods and the number attending, will be devoted to the support of foreign missions. Those in charge of the bazaar deserve great credit for the work they have done to make it the success that it is expected it will be. The tables were presided over as follows:

Senior Work Table—Misses Murphy, McQueen and Smith.

Home-made Table—Misses Henderson and McKellar.

Flowers—Miss Anderson.

Tea Table—Mrs. Meston, Mrs. Kilgour, and Misses Menzies, Gentle, Macdonald, Ferris, Hope, Glasco, Ramsay, Cannon and Black.

Junior Work Table—Misses Leitch, Davidson, Lawrock and McQueen, and Mrs. (Rev.) H. B. Ketchen.

LOCAL OPTION.

Ptolemy Wants to Know Status of Burlington Beach.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Col. Ptolemy and Mr. Bridgeman, of the township of Saltfleet, called on Mr. Hanna, the Provincial Secretary, this morning. They requested that a postponement of the vote on a local option by-law in that municipality be arranged. The object of the delay is to learn the status of part of Burlington Beach in regard to the question.

Don't Follow the Crowd.

Notes.

A GOOD NUMBER.

The Christmas number of the Canadian Magazine is a highly creditable production, and should win for its publishers the good-will of patriotic readers. The poetry is above the average. An example is "The Prospecter"—which is given below:

THE PROSPECTOR.

I played the Game with a steadfast hand,
With the rocks and the hills for dice;
While the flame of the sun in a northern land
Burned the gathered morn on the ice.

I played the Game with a clean, strong mind,
With the law of man for guide;
When the knives of the world were smitten hind
By the glare of the gain, and died.

I played the Game with a sturdy heart,
With the beasts of the bush for mates,
Till the flesh bled raw, and the lights went out
And my hopes met the chill, hard fates.

I played the Game with a losing hand,
By the stakes I sought to claim;
And the darkness had dropped on my square
of land,
But I knew that I played the Game.

—Walter Corah.

A Sunday school teacher was giving a lesson in Ruth. She wanted to bring out the kindness of Boaz commanding the reapers to drop large handfuls of wheat. "Now, children," she said, "Boaz did another nice thing for Ruth; can you tell me what it was?" "Married her," said one of the boys.

LATE SPORTING NEWS

London, Nov. 29.—The fight for the heavyweight championship of the world between Tommy Burns, America, and "Gunner" Jim Moir, England, is scheduled to take place at the National Sporting Club, Dec. 2nd. The event is exciting the liveliest interest here, and high prices are being offered for seats. The public, however, will have little chance of viewing the fight, as members of the club will occupy all the available space. The betting this afternoon was 5 to 4 on Burns, who expects to enter the ring weighing between 168 and 175 pounds. Moir will weigh in at about 180 pounds.
