"Fiume or Death" Is the Cry Of an Italy Prepared to Fight

London, April 24.—Public opinion in Italy, according to a wireless message from Rome, is much excited against the peace conference for refusing to recognize the Italian claims. Apparently there is a complete truce in party politics and the newspapers are unanimous in blaming the allies. It is declared that feeling is running so high that it might have disastrous influence on Anglo-Italian relations.

CONFERENCE PROVES ABORTIVE ORLANDO LEAVES FOR ROME

Premier Orlando in Statement Rebukes Wilson and Asserts Claims

Paris, April 24.—A statement issued by Premier Orlando today gives Italy's case concerning Fiume and the Dalmatian coast and does not appear in the form of an ultimatum. Premier Orlando declares that President Wilson's proclamation is an attempt to place the government in opposition to the people. "He is treating the Italians," adds the premier, "as if they were a barbarous people without a democratic government."

Will Temporarily Leave Sonnino and Other Italian Delegates in Paris—Discussion With Premiers and Wilson Was Entirely on Question of Prestige—Held Conference for Two Hours.

Paris, April 24.—Premier Orlando and Signor Barsilali will leave for Rome tonight. This decision was announced after Premier Orlando's return from a conference with the other members of the council of four, at which, according to the Italian premier, only questions of principle, and not territorial questions, were discussed.

Rome, April 24.—Gabriele D'Annunzio the author-aviator, has sent a message to Fiume reading: "I will be with you in a war cry into action needs to fear nothing. I promise you victory. I will be with you in the supreme moment. Watch and be silent."

MISSING WARD ALIVE AND WELL

The World yesterday received reports from more than one quarter that Miss Knowles, who disappeared from Guelph on Easter Saturday, is alive and will undoubtedly communicate with her friends. However, as she has not yet done so, the World was able to give reassuring news to those who were in anxiety. The manager of the Merchants Bank in Georgetown cashed a cheque for Miss Knowles on Saturday before closing hours. The cheque was found to be quite in order at the bank of deposit at which a telephone inquiry was made. The bank manager saw the man in question and communicated with the Guelph police. Miss Knowles then stated she was going to Toronto and on her return to Guelph she would be in contact with her friends. This information upon being conveyed to parties who had requested the assistance of The World was declared very satisfactory, and it was expected that a day or two will put an end to the suspense.

BRITISH PRESS ON ITALY'S CLAIM

Several Papers Point Out That They Will Cut Both Ways. London, April 24.—All the London evening newspapers devote their leading columns to President Wilson's appeal in connection with the situation at the Paris conference and to Premier Orlando's decision to withdraw from the conference. The Westminster Gazette endorses the statement of the American executive, noting that Italy in her claims went beyond the treaty of London in claiming Fiume as well as the Trentino, and other territory assigned her by the London pact.

EXECUTION DATE TO BE EXTENDED

If McCullough Not Captured, Courts Will Take Action to Obviate a New Trial.

Ottawa, April 24.—If McCullough, the escaped murderer from Toronto, is not captured before the date set for his execution, a reprieve will be granted in the courts extending the date for the execution. The matter has been before the justice department, but the action will be taken within the next two weeks by the provincial authorities. The criminal code provides that the trial judge or any judge of the same court may grant a reprieve for any cause. This would mean simply fixing another date for the execution. The process can be repeated from time to time, and in this way if the man be caught, and in this way if the man be caught, a new trial would be obviated.

Toronto Traveler Spends Night With New Artist Friend, Forgets a Roll of Bills. Montreal, April 24.—Last night a local artist was introduced in a Montreal hotel to a young man who claimed he came from Toronto, and the west. They became friendly and the artist invited the visitor to his place to spend the interim before the departure of his train for Toronto. This morning the local man found a roll of bills, worth $2500 in the flat, and he does not recollect the name of his visitor. The artist told of his predicament to a reporter, who in turn asked the Canadian Press to send word of the find to Toronto in the hope that the owner of the roll can be located.

ITALY'S KING COMMENTS ATTITUDE OF ORLANDO

Paris, April 24.—King Victor Emmanuel has telegraphed to Premier Orlando commending his action and insisting that there be no recession from the position Italy has taken. FRENCH COMPOSER DEAD. Paris, April 24.—Camille Erlanger, the composer, died today.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

The Associated Press issues the following: Vittorio Orlando, the Italian premier, has delayed his intended departure for Rome long enough again to sit in conference with the other members of the council of four—Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and President Wilson. The knotty question regarding Fiume and the Dalmatian coast, over which the council is at odds, did not come up for discussion, only questions of principle being taken up. Two hours were taken up in the council, which was believed to have considered fully the question of prestige involved in the publication of President Wilson's statement on the Italian situation. While Signor Orlando is returning immediately to Italy, there to lay the details of the peace conference before parliament, Signor Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, and the other Italian representatives will temporarily remain in Paris. The situation as regards Italy's claim is still acute. There apparently

MUNICH SPARTACANS SECURE SIX TRAINED OFFICERS TO LEAD THE RED GUARD

First Indication of Other Than Lowest Classes Joining Rising—Under Their Command Have Fortified Krupp Works North of City and Attacked Government Troops—Tales of Terrorism. Berlin, April 24.—The Munich Spartacans have secured the services of six military officers as leaders of the Red Guard. They are Cola, Staubwasser, Langlois and Baron von Zoller, who led the revolution during the war; Major Parauquin, who joined the majority Socialists after the revolution and led the revolutionary student body at the University of Munich; and the transition of the university into a people's high school; Capt. Zwickl, a well-known Bavarian cavalry officer, who led the Krupp works at Freilman. The adherence of these men to the Spartacan ranks is the first indication that other persons than of the lowest classes were participating in the uprising against law and order. Spartacans under their command have fortified the Krupp works at Freilman, north of Munich, and attacked the government troops near Pfaffenhofen, with a loss of several killed and some men made prisoner. The Red Guard newspaper is appearing regularly in Munich, with reports from the front. They resemble

NEED NOT DELAY SIGNING OF TREATY

Germany in No Way Concerned With Adriatic Question, Says Temps. Paris, April 24.—"The difference between the United States and Italy must be commented on in a spirit of conciliation," says The Temps in an editorial today. "Such is our duty as allies and hosts. The French government with the British have striven to the utmost for four days to prevent the explosion. It has searched for a compromise which perhaps would have been easier to find had the Italians continued to participate in the deliberations. It has endeavored to delay publication of President Wilson's document. The Temps then describes the present situation of the Adriatic problem, which it says in no way concerns Germany and hence the signing of the peace treaty by the German plenipotentiaries need not be delayed. "If Premier Orlando returns to Rome," the newspaper continues, "Italy can sign the treaty. The treaty with Austria-Hungary remains to be drawn up. The text of the 1918 treaty must represent Italy's territorial rights. On the other hand this treaty has no application as regards the United States, which neither signed it nor has recognized it."

BRITISH LABOR SUPPORTS WILSON

Praises Declaration for Peace Based on the Fourteen Points.

London, April 24.—Prominent British labor leaders have sent a telegram to President Wilson congratulating him on your magnificent declaration for peace based on the fourteen points, and adding:

"We are certain that the Italian workers will associate themselves with the international workers in supporting you."

Among those signing the telegram are Arthur Henderson, former member of the war cabinet; Charles W. Bowerman, secretary of the Trades Union Congress; John Hodge, former minister of pensions; George Lansbury, former Socialist member of the house of commons; Robert Smillie, the miners' leader; James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and Sidney Webb, economist.

A message was also sent to Premier Lloyd George, commending him for the support he was giving to President Wilson and another telegram was sent to Deputy Turati, leader of the Intransigent Socialists, at Rome, appealing to the Italian workers to support the president of the United States.

DISREGARD ADVICE OF THEIR LEADERS

Twelve Thousand Dockworkers Out at Liverpool Over Forty-Four Hour Week.

Liverpool, April 24.—With the exception of the coastal trade, the docks of Liverpool were silent today, owing to a dispute between the dock workers and the shipping companies over the operation of the new 44-hour week. Twelve thousand men are out against the advice of their leaders, one of whom, James Sexton, general secretary of the National Union of Dock Laborers, described the action of the malcontents as "mischievous and dangerous with a Bolshevik tendency and founded on a policy of terrorism."

The new forty-four-hour week agreement applies to all parts in the United Kingdom. The Liverpool workers object to mustering at 7.45 o'clock in the morning to begin work at 8 o'clock. Instead, they want to arrive at 7.55. The men also disapproved of the new supper hour arrangement by which men who are given an hour for supper, must work later in the evening.

The Baltic, with Canadian troops, and other transatlantic liners were unable to sail because of the strike. Both the White Star line and the Cunard line are suffering from the strike.

The strike, however, was settled this evening. The grievance of the dock workers are to be arbitrated.

ASTONISHING RECORD OF WORK IN THE AIR

London, April 24.—The air ministry has published an astonishing record of the work of the air force during the war. It states that before the war the air force consisted of 272 machines, 187 officers and 1847 men, while in October, 1918, there were 22,171 machines, 27,906 officers, and 268,842 men.

From July, 1916, to the armistice, the air force on the western front brought down 7084 enemy aircraft, dropped 6042 tons of bombs, and fired over ten and a half million rounds at ground targets.

MONTREAL PROMISES END TO CARTERS' STRIKE

H. Ashton, international organizer of the brotherhood, to which the men belong.

Germany's Counter Proposals To the League of Nations

Draft Suggests World Parliament to Be Elected From Parliaments of All Contributory States--Proposes Reduction of Armaments.

Copenhagen, April 24.—The German counter-proposals to the league of nations are outlined in a long despatch from Berlin.

The German draft proposes that the league shall embrace all belligerent states and all neutral states which were signatories of The Hague treaty; other states to be admitted by the consent of a majority of the members of the league but the Holy See to be admitted without this condition.

It is proposed that the league shall function through a council of states and world parliament, the former to be the chief administrative body comprising representatives with equal rights of all the governments. The world parliament is to be elected from the parliaments of each state, one representative for every million inhabitants, but representatives to send more than ten

PREMIER ORLANDO REBUKES WILSON

The small number concerned would mean the admission that the criterion of justice to peoples varies according to their territorial extent. Premier Orlando then points out that Antwerp, Genoa and Rotterdam are international ports serving as an outlet to divers peoples and territories without having to pay for the privilege by sacrificing national conscience, and continues:

Claim Not Excessive.
"It is impossible to qualify as excessive the Italian aspiration toward the Dalmatian coast, Italy's boulevard through centuries, which Roman genius and Venetian activity made noble and grand, and whose Italian character, defying for centuries implacable persecutions, still shares the same thrill of patriotism with the Italian people."

The principle proclaimed with reference to Poland that denationalization based on violence does not create rights, the premier contends, should be applied to Dalmatia. "Passing to the argument of 'cold statistical statements,' the premier affirms that among the national reconstructions occupying the peace conference none of the reconstructed nations will count within their frontiers a relatively slighter number of persons of alien race than would be attributed to Italy, and asks why only Italy should be suspected of imperialistic cupidity. The history of the negotiations, he declares, will show that the Italian delegation acted not only with firmness, but with a grand spirit of conciliation.

He concludes his statement as follows:
"The presidential message ends with a warm declaration of America's friendship for Italy. I reply in the name of the Italian people, and I claim the right and honor to do this as one, who in the most tragic hour of this war, proclaimed the cry of re-union at all costs. This cry was heard and replied to with courage and abnegation, of which there are few more striking examples in the world's history.

"Italy, thanks to the most heroic sacrifices and purest blood of her children, was able to ascend from the abyss of misfortune to the radiant crest of most glorious victory. In the name, therefore, of Italy, I express with all my power the sentiment of admiration and profound sympathy which the Italian people profess toward the American people."

Rockaway Beach, N.Y., April 24.—When American naval aviators leave Newfoundland on their attempt to fly across the Atlantic, they will be guided by buoys dotting the transoceanic course. It was learned at the naval air station here today. These buoys, it is said, have been constructed so as to emit smoke by day and illumination by night.

BIBLE SOCIETY DEDICATE HOUSE

To dedicate the Bible House, 14 College street, and to unveil the portrait of Jesse Ketchum, delegates from all parts of the Dominion were present at the meeting of the board of the Canadian Bible Society, yesterday. Among those present were: N. W. Hoyle, K.C., I.L.D., Toronto, chairman; A. M. Denoyan, Toronto, recording secretary; Rev. W. B. Cooper, D.D., general secretary; Rev. T. R. O'Meara, D.D., Toronto; Rev. Prof. Gilmour, D.D., Toronto; Rev. A. B. Chambers, D.D., Toronto; Wm. Garfield, Toronto; T. Mortimer, Toronto; A. M. Featherston, Toronto; G. W. Holmes, Toronto; H. E. Redford Mulock, K.C., Winnipeg; Rev. J. K. Smith, Edmonton; W. A. Geddes, Calgary.

The annual report submitted by Rev. W. B. Cooper, M.A., D.D., the secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, showed one of the best years in the history of the society, and indicated that during the past year $270,338.33 had been raised in Canada for the work of Bible distribution. As the total amount raised ten years ago was $105,204.50, the rate of progress has been marked. At the same time the members of the board feel that there is still a very great deal to do, and the aim which is believed to be both desirable and just is that for the work of Bible distribution an amount equal to ten per cent. of the churches in the Dominion should be contributed by the people of Canada.

Fitting recognition was made of the services of the Very Rev. Dean Davis of London, Ont., whose recent death removed one who had been for years an active and valued member of the Canadian Bible Society.

GET A BICYCLE!

THINK OF THE EXHILARATION of a trip to the country on a bicycle! Up and down hills, through villages you have never seen before, past beautiful fields, through the woods, and, best of all, to rest under a shady tree or by "a bubbling brook" or a lovely little creek, and partake of the welcome lunch.

If artistically inclined, think of the wealth of material for inspiration—the quaint farm cottages, the ravines, the woods, and you're there in no time on a "wheel," setting up your easel and sketching to your heart's content.

Think of what it was like last year when the fellows all took their wheels on a Saturday afternoon and went far out into the country to the swimming hole, while those without a wheel were left at home to roam around and wish for a bicycle.

Then on a week day what a relief to be independent of street cars, with a bicycle to carry you to and from work. Think of the car fares. There's a saving of time and money. And the bicycle of today is the acme of comfort and easy riding. No bumps—the new springy saddle accounts for that.

The new model of the Road King is especially suited for city work. It is light, yet very strong, and will stand no end of hard usage. It is fitted with studded tires guaranteed for two years, extension handle bars, roller chain, three-coil saddle, steel mud guards and a guaranteed coaster brake. These machines are guaranteed for one year. They're assembled in our own workroom, and we recommend them. The price is $37.50.

Equally well suited for city work, but better suited for work on the rough country roads, is our Speedwell Truss Frame Model. The double cross-bar and truss fork give added strength to this model. The frame is enamelled black, with a gilt stripe. The mud-guards are of the motorcycle type with drop sides. It is fitted with the well-known Kelly handle-bars and leather grips, a high-grade roller chain, an easy-riding, three-coil saddle, Dunlop Traction-Tread tires and an Eddie coaster brake. This bicycle is also equipped with a tool-bag, containing wrench, oil-can and a repair outfit. The price is $50.00.

And You'll Come Often

It's such a big, airy place, so delightfully embowered in vines and trees, that, what with the real birds singing, the real flowers blooming and the summertime informality of it all, the illusion of the out-of-doors is quite irresistible.

SPECIAL MEETING COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Consider Revised Constitution and Vote Ratios for Societies.

At a special meeting of the Local Council of Women, held yesterday afternoon at the Sherbourne House Club, the principal matter of business was the consideration of the draft of the revised constitution, which will be presented at the meeting of the national council in Regina.

Among the points raised as coming in for change, was the question of representation of local councils by vote, the proposed amendment being that a council having less than 20 societies in affiliation should have three votes, a council with less than fifty societies, five votes, and a council with fifty or more should have seven votes.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 25.

Italy in the Balance.

It might have been thought that kings would have learned much from the last five years of history, but apparently there is a limitation in the royal intellect. The King of Italy is the latest example of this defect. It is reported that he commends the policy of placing Italy in antagonism to France, Britain and the United States, of violating even the treaty of London, and of repudiating the principle of self-determination as applied to the Jugo-Slavs of Dalmatia.

General Guglielmo, when speaking here two months ago on behalf of Italy, asserted that Italy was prepared to be most generous to the Jugo-Slavs and to give them the best part of the Adriatic and a great stretch of Dalmatia. Apparently his principals in Italy are now of a different view, and as the Jugo-Slavs, according to their representative, Mr. Savic, who was here in February, and prepared to fight for their rights, and Italy declares she will occupy the disputed territory with military force, we are on the verge of a new outbreak of war. It is certain that if this comes to pass a revolution in Italy is certain. "The captains and the kings," as Mr. Savic declared in February, at least in Italy, learn nothing and forget nothing.

It is perhaps the design of providence or the world-consciousness or whatever power sways the affairs of men, to have royalism abolished on the continent of Europe. Another war for Italy certainly means the fall of the throne.

It is difficult at this distance to estimate the effect of President Wilson's participation in the situation. There was a growing disposition in France and some other places to regard it as sinister, or at least ill-adviced.

One report declares that the Italians were prepared with a compromise proposal to abate the Adriatic tension, by which the suburb of Plume, Susak, across the river Racino, and the Dalmatian coast, apart from the islands, would have been given to the Jugo-Slavs, when President Wilson's statement upset everything.

At the address, this statement, which is sufficient intimation that the captains and the kings may depart in Italy if they have a mind to, but that it would be wiser for them to stand by and play the game. Mr. Wilson is most courteous to Italy and fully recognizes her services in the war, and the close ties that unite her interests with the United States, but he adds that America "trusts Italy and in her trust believes that Italy will ask nothing of her that cannot be made unmistakably consistent with those sacred obligations."

And then, in weighty words, every one or which Premier Clemenceau has said he endorses, and which are approved by Lloyd George, he declares: "The interests are not now in question, but the rights of peoples, of states, new and old, of liberated peoples whose rulers have never accounted them worthy of a right; above all, the right of the world to peace, and to such settlements of interests as shall make peace secure."

Italy cannot afford to ignore this appeal. She may be sure of justice, and all that arises from it if she will face the new spirit that awaits the abandonment of old-world methods of diplomacy. Italy cannot afford to defy the world, even with the support of Germany.

Postal Rates Should Be Restored.

Uniformity in continental practice arising out of general conditions, is not a matter of reciprocity or any other principle than plain common sense. The Manitoba Free Press points out that the adoption of summer time by ten men makes it awkward for business on a different time schedule. Those who refused to adopt daylight saving are laboring under greater disadvantages than if they had fallen into line.

On July 1 the United States reverts to the two-cent postage rate for letters and one cent for postcards. Printed circulars will be carried over to the United States and mailed for two cents apiece if we continue to charge three cents. It is doubtful if the matter has been considered in Ottawa yet. What they need in the cabinet is a man with a periscope who can see around a bit.

There ought to be similar action with regard to postage in Canada as in the United States. Judged from a revenue standpoint, the three-cent rate is not so profitable as the two-cent rate. The cheaper rate attracts business, and the more letters are carried at two cents, the bigger the profits.

Here is another suggestion for the postoffice authorities. It ought to be possible to send small sums up to nine cents by affixing the amount on a postcard in stamps, the sum to be collectable at any money-order office in the usual way. It is possible to enclose a one-cent or two-cent stamp or more in an envelope with a letter and pay letter postage on it, but it is too heavy a commission, and interferes with much business introduction when samples and postage charges are required.

Subsidizing the Opposition Leader.

The Hamilton Herald joins the general chorus against the payment of an opposition leader, and considers it ludicrous to pay a man "for opposing you and finding fault with everything you do."

Mr. Proudfoot, says The Herald, will get paid by the government for doing his best to prove that the government is unworthy of public confidence. And besides, why should Mr. Proudfoot get $5,000, and Mr. Allan Studholme get nothing?

Mr. Studholme, asserts The Herald, and we can thoroughly endorse the testimony, is a keener critic and a more industrious one than the officially recognized opposition leader. Should Mr. Studholme come back some day with a score or more of supporters under the labor banner will he then get Mr. Proudfoot's $5,000 or another $5,000?

Or was Sir William Hearst merely making provision for the evil days when the opposition will be led by himself?

WHY THE HOUSING COMMISSION WAITS.

After seven years of unremitting study of the housing problem and the practical working out of it it is a pity to know something about it. A few observations on the situation in Toronto might not be out of place.

Money will not solve the housing problem, but it will help. Therefore, recent legislation by which the federal and provincial governments advance money to the municipalities at 5 per cent, is wholly a palliative measure. To be at all effective action under it should be with the utmost energy and despatch. It is said the recent legislation, the Ontario Housing Act, is not suitable to Toronto. Why? My information is that the gentlemen named for the Toronto commission thought there was too much of it. If Sir William Hearst promises the close supervision provided by the act, if Sir William Hearst promises the supervision which will await upon him if the gentlemen named for the provincial supervision in regard to Toronto, he is less political wisdom and administrative wisdom than the gentlemen named for the Ontario Housing Act, it is high time that kind of supervision was begun here.

If the gentlemen who have been named for the Toronto commission had had the experience hundreds of families are having trying to rent a house or find one to buy that is within the means of an ordinary wage, they would not have worried about the supervision of the municipal director. Instead, the first batch of houses would have been on their way to completion.

It is not six-roomed houses that are wanted, it is five-roomed and four-roomed, a lot of four-roomed and some six.

Another thing: The Toronto commission was named by Mr. Bradshaw. Mr. Bradshaw is a very able financier; that is his business, and he thinks financiers can solve the housing problem. The history of the housing movement proves him wrong. There are three divisions in the housing question, and finance is one of them; but it is the last, rather than the first. The financial problem is to provide cheap money; the government has done that. What Toronto needs right now is a commission of a few practical men with enough public spirit to take their coats off to this job of building small houses, with no other consideration than the best interests of the community.

To conclude, the housing question is a trinity—land, finance, regulation.

The land problem will be solved by adequate town-planning legislation, properly enforced; and the injection of a little common-sense into our system of taxation.

Cheap money. We have made a good beginning. The federal government should furnish all that is required.

Regulation. Housing cannot be solved without efficient housing laws, building laws and sanitary laws, properly enforced.

W. S. B. Armstrong.

THAT HALF-HOLIDAY.

Editor World: Appearing in this morning's paper was a letter signed "A Toronto Manufacturer." I was, indeed, very much surprised to read such a letter from a business man. Does everything he plans turn out just to the minute? I would most awfully hate to be one of his employees. How could our noble mayor know that the trade was so good and it is very hard to please everybody. How many of the people of Toronto would like to work when they knew that the brave men who saved our country and France were marching thru the streets? Not one.

Let this man try to fill the place that Tommy Church has filled this last four years, and see what a muddle he will get into.

I wonder how many returned men he employs?

I hope when we get our next holiday it won't hurt him so.

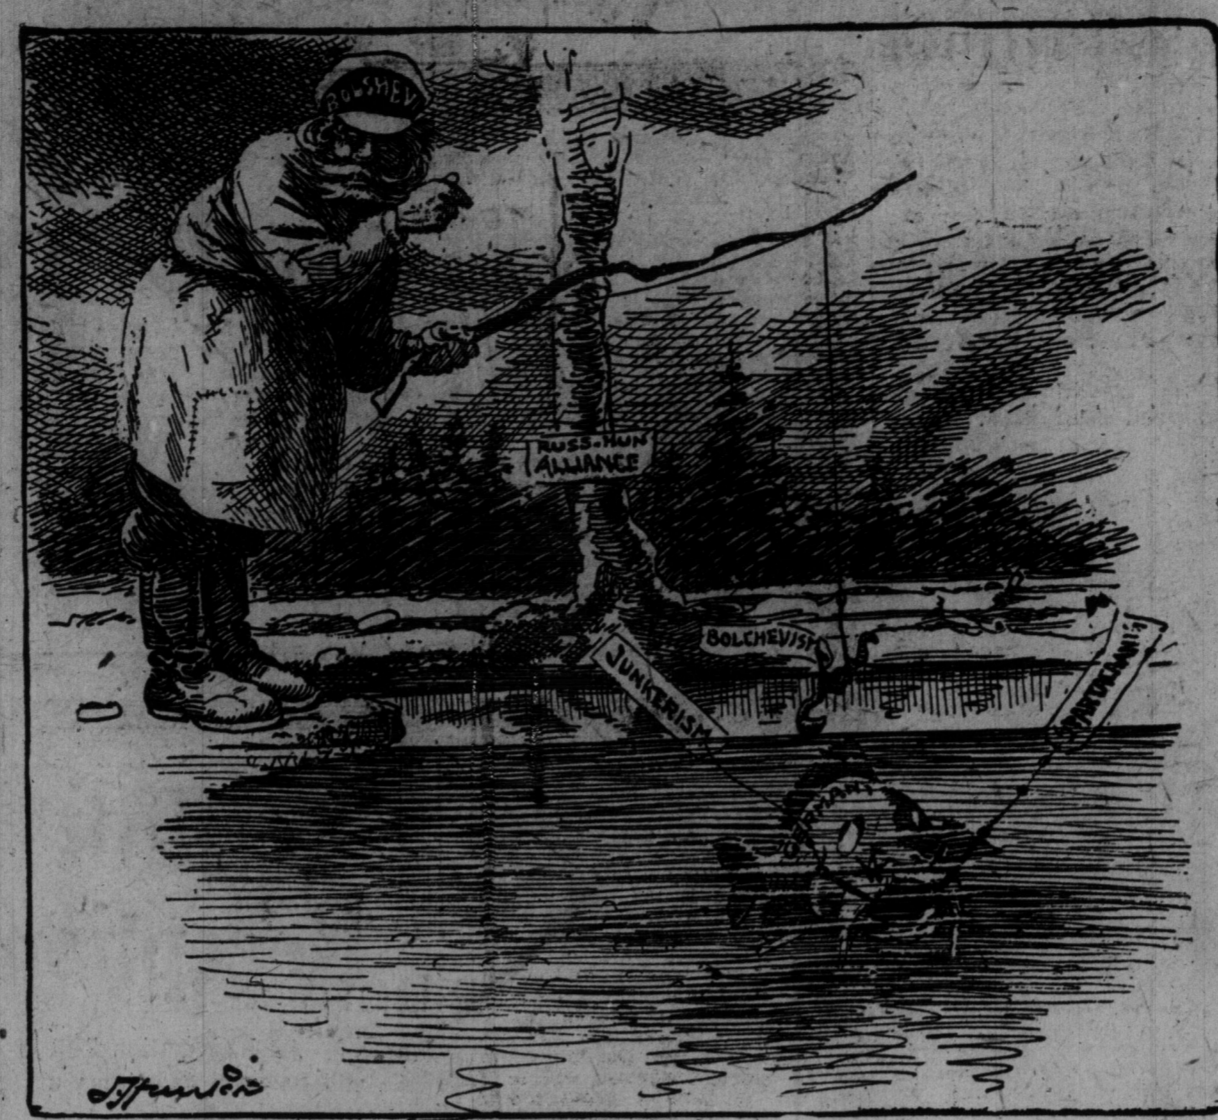

J. McNeal.

THE McCULLOUGH REWARD.

Editor World: I note the government is offering $1000 for the man who gets McCullough, who escaped from the condemned man's cell. How much can the government afford to offer for the arrest of our friend, Moyes, and his imprisonment for life? If Studholme was any good, he would force the hand of all the governments.

An Unexpected Visitor.

CHAPTER LXVIII.

I wept bitterly after Neil had gone. For over an hour I cried and sobbed before I could reason myself into calmness. Then I barked my swollen eyes and wondered how should I ever get thru the day. Neil had been so disagreeable, he might be still more so when he found out that I had made a second visit to his office asking to look at his letters. I could set myself at nothing. Even my boy-argument with his childish questions, usually so interesting, I had just about decided to order the car and take him with me for company, and slide out into the country, when the telephone rang.

"Hello," a masculine voice called. "I should like to speak to Mrs. Forbes."

"I am Mrs. Forbes."

"This is Mr. Frederick speaking. I just got in and found your telephone number in my box with a request to call. You are in no trouble, I hope?" real anxiety in his voice.

"No—not anything much—I am glad to hear your voice. Won't you run up and lunch with me? I will call Neil and ask him to come home."

"I shall be delighted to come. One o'clock."

"Yes—one o'clock."

I immediately called Neil. Not until I had him on the wire did I think he might wonder why Mr. Frederick should come up to luncheon with me, instead of remaining down town with him, as he often did, neither did I think that it might look queer to Neil that Mr. Frederick had called me up.

"What is it?" he asked, shortly. I had told the operator who I was.

"Can't you come home to lunch, Neil?" I asked.

"I was about to say 'I have asked Mr. Frederick' when he interrupted me gruffly.

"No I can't! I am going elsewhere to luncheon. Good-bye!" The click of the receiver effectively prevented my saying more. My eyes filled again at his tone, yet I also experienced a feeling of relief. I would have to talk alone with Mr. Frederick.

I had not decided to confide in him. Really I thought I would say nothing of my awakened doubts of—not Neil, but his business methods. I would just chat of impersonal things, and forget I was unhappy.

It came promptly, and seemed so glad to see me, he held my hands in his so warmly, that I had all I could do not to again burst into tears. I was so nervous, upset because of my worry, my sleepless night, Neil's manner toward me, and my fear that I should not be able to make him understand my motives. So the hearty greeting of this great-hearted bluff westerner touched me deeply.

Fortunately luncheon was all ready, and we immediately sat down. I told him Neil had a previous engagement so could not join us. "In fact he was in such a hurry I did not have time to tell him you were to be here," I told him, then blushed to think he might imagine I didn't wish Neil to know since he would not join us.

"I can understand that, he has been away, has he not? I saw his name in a Chicago paper as a guest at one of the hotels."

"Yes, he only came home last night," I replied, then we chatted of ourselves. He told me of much he had done, where he had been. He admired the new furnishings, and I explained that I also had been very busy. I had almost forgotten that I longed to tell him my suspicions, almost forgot that Neil was angry with me, so pleasantly did the time pass. But after we had finished luncheon and were sipping coffee in the library, I saw my anxious thoughts returned to me. The cause, a question he asked:

"You have been crying, little lady. May I ask if you are in trouble, and if you are, is it anything I can help you bear?"

A Line of Cheer Each Day of the Year

A RECIPÉ.

A real good joke at breakfast and a hearty laugh at noon
And 'twixt your lunch and dinner-time some catchy little tune,
And when the shades of nightfall shall obscure the smiling sun
An hour or two of thinking on the good that men have done.
And just before your bedtime just a little word of praise.
For all the beauty of the world for Him who molds our ways;
And then a smiling "good night" ere to dreamland on we press
Will make a day all golden in its perfect loveliness.

The Abuse of Private Cars.

London Free Press, April 24.

The private car is undemocratic. The average minister meets the common people all too little with the result that he assumes too much. He becomes exclusive in manner and action. He fails to grasp the popular will. There is nothing like a little conversation among the occupants of a smoking compartment in a railway coach to enlighten one as to what is passing in the minds of busy and wide-awake men. They gather here from every where, and with all shades of opinion and much originality of thought. The minister occupying a whole railway coach at the end of the train is missing something and gaining nothing. We would suggest that some of these private cars be turned into sleepers or day coaches for the general public. How on earth can national railways be expected to pay when they are hauling three private cars on a single train?

Drop the Bag.

In all frankness it needs to be said that Canadians are not to be blamed for resenting the presence in imported American vaudeville "acts" of that rather low thing called "spread-eagleism." If on our own stage the performers must too often forget that for more than three years other peoples were laying the costly foundation for the triumph America only helped in the last few months of fighting to attain, let them by all means remember it when they cross the border. It is distasteful to right-thinking Americans, who tolerate it as they tolerate a great many other cheap devices to provoke applause; it is nothing short of an insult to Canadians who were shedding blood while Americans were being exhorted to remain neutral in thought as well as in deed.

The tawdry mummery of it was bared by The World's Toronto despatch reporting the device used by one ingenious American manager to make his peace with the Toronto public. The word "Canadian" was merely substituted for "American" in a topical ballad intended to immortalize the soldier who had never been "licked." Fortunately the words "German" and "Turk" have not enough syllables to fit the rhythm of a song that was adapted originally for Americans, so we may hope to be spared news that the song is having a run in enemy lands after peace is declared outside talent.

To absorb the Canadian point of view we have only to imagine the spectacle in our own theatres of actors in Canadian uniform singing and shouting bombast proclaiming that Canadians were just about all there was to the resources of the allies. Too

IDA TALKS OF CITY GRANTS

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

The members of the board of control very wisely turned down the opportunity to request for making a grant toward the fund which is being started for the purpose of getting some sort of a bust as a memorial to the late Dr. Torrington.

If there is one thing which has been run to death in Toronto it is the taking up of collections. Every time the slightest excuse has been offered some one has rushed to the city hall for a grant, and in numbers of cases they have gone to the school board.

There have been thousands of dollars collected and there are still hundreds of that amount that have never been put to any use, so far as the general public knows. Of course with this new venture for Dr. Torrington the cause is undoubtedly a most worthy one and it is quite likely that the persons interested in the project have every intention of carrying it thru to a successful finish, but just now while the plans are somewhat hazy it was the correct thing for the board to refuse to listen.

The citizens of Toronto can find any number of ways to spend their money, but when they are good enough to contribute to this collection or that one they very naturally like to know what takes place and how far the scheme progresses.

For instance, the money which was collected through the schools for the bronze bust of Edith Cavell has never to date been utilized for that purpose, and although there should not be any doubt but what the money is resting in some bank yet at the same time the people should be told what is being done with it.

We mention this one instance because at the present moment we happen to remember it, and we also remember that on one other occasion we asked thru this column for some explanation relative to the collection, but so far as we know there was nothing given, that is thru the press, which was the means we desired to have employed.

However, lest you get the two Cavell collections confused we would like to tell you that the money which was raised for the purpose of building a wing to the Western Hospital was entirely different and it was engineered by different persons. Neither one of the collections was exactly a success, that is, there was not enough money donated to finish the objectives, but the committee looking after the hospital Cavell business has been rendering public statements annually since then.

And that is just what every committee should do. People give their money to some cause and that is the last that is heard of it. Certainly if one invests money in anything a statement is not only looked for, but in the case of business persons it is demanded. Public collections are in that class. As for this monument scheme, the money was taken from school children, whose parents in some instances were not in a position to give, but the cause at that time appeared to be so very worthy that they did their best, and now that years have elapsed and the bronze bust is still something which has not materialized, the persons who donated want to know when they may expect to see it.

So that taking it all in all it was a good idea for the board of control to defer all action until such time as the memorial for the late Dr. Torrington is practically a reality. Unfortunately experience is often a rather tough teacher and it often makes the path hard and thorny for others.

PROROGATION ENDS IMPORTANT SESSION

HOUSING SOLUTION

Also Receives Royal Assent and Congratulatory Comment.

Two or three ministers, twice as many members, a couple of dozen officers in uniform and a corresponding number of ladies in street attire witnessed the prorogation of the legislature yesterday afternoon by Lieutenant-Governor Hendrie.

A list of one hundred and twenty-nine acts ready for the royal assent was read, and duly assented to. Then the lieutenant-governor read an address, declaring the measures of the session closed to be "far reaching and important." The legislature was commended for interest shown in every effort to increase industrial and commercial activities in the province and for carrying on various emergency undertakings. The housing act was referred to as "designed to ensure employment for labor and provide a means of bringing about the solution of the housing problem. The following reference was made to the educational bills:

"Additional facilities for vocational and industrial training for girls and boys beyond the stage of elementary instruction have been provided by the adolescent act, and thereby an epoch in our educational advancement has been marked. The act to consolidate rural schools, and the act to ensure the attendance of all pupils in elementary schools, will confer lasting benefits upon the youth of the land. By the increased grants in aid of rural and technical education you have helped materially to strengthen and to extend our educational facilities in their essential features."

Explicit Declaration.

The address referred to the right granted to women to sit in the legislature and devoted the following paragraph to the O.T.A.:

"In pursuance of the undertaking given when the Ontario temperance act was adopted, provision has been made for an early referendum of that measure to the people. The electors will be given an opportunity to register their will as to the continuance of the act and on other proposals which are in the public mind. It is earnestly to be hoped that a full and explicit declaration from the people will be elicited on the questions submitted so that the policy of the province may by common consent be firmly established."

Road building, community halls, the appointment of a minister of labor "who will have an opportune time arrives take over the administration of the labor department," the workmen's compensation act amended, the improvement of the mining law, the passing of the war tax and other points in the record of the session were referred to. The address concluded with the hope that under the blessing of Providence the new era of peace upon which we are entering will be accompanied by a better understanding among all classes of the community.

DOCK STRIKE DELAYS CANADIAN TRANSPORT

Number of First Division Troops Obligated to Remain in England.

London, April 24.—A number of first division troops ready to sail for Canada, must remain in England owing to the dockworkers' strike at Liverpool, which held up the departure of the White Star liner "Baltic" upon which they were to make the trip. A singular incident marked the departure yesterday of the Metagama from Liverpool for Quebec with five hundred wives, two hundred and fifty babies and husbands and fathers from Buxton. The stokers threatened to hold up the sailing of the ship by refusing to put the baggage on board. Arrangements were quickly made for a false party, among the married soldiers to get the baggage of the wives and children on board. It was safely stowed away without loss of time, many on the ship being unaware of how nearly their voyage had been delayed, or canceled altogether. Colonel E. E. Eve and his wife, and Colonel A. S. Rennie, are aboard the Metagama. The Tunisian sails Friday and will be almost wholly filled with munition workers.

There was some diversion of opinion but no serious differences materialized. It is stated that no more than passing mention was made in the caucus of the tariff and the franchise. The tariff will stand over until after the absent western members have returned to the capital. It is understood that the matter of the proposed increase of social indemnity for members of the commons and senate was referred to in the government caucus this morning and that it was officially intimated by ministers in attendance that the government was not disposed to sanction any change in the indemnity at present. The proposed increase was from $2,500 to $4,000 per annum.

Copenhagen, April 24.—The Rumanian troops continued their advance toward Budapest on April 22, on the entire line between the Danube and Maros rivers and in the evening were before Debreczin, about 120 miles east of Budapest, according to reports from Budapest today. This attitude on the part of the troops led to the withdrawal from that city. On Tuesday evening the Rumanians had occupied Kila, Jeno, on the Haroz river, and Mate-Szalka, northeast of Debreczin. South of Debreczin they were advancing on Nagy-Szalenta. The Hungarian soviet government has appointed People's Commissioner Wilhelm Boehn as commander-in-chief of the army beyond the Theiss. Sharp Reaction Follows Denial of Report of Prospective Change of Control.

Montreal, April 24.—The activity of North American Pulp was a feature of the trading on the Montreal Stock Exchange today. Over 5,000 shares changed hands at 8 1/2 to 6 1/2, with the close at the latter a net loss of 1 1/2. In the forenoon the stock reached 8 1/2 for a board lot, but the report that the international Paper Company had denied endeavoring to purchase control, caused heavy selling. Among the listed stocks most actively traded were: National Breweries touched a new high at 75, but immediately sold off to 73 1/2. Canadian Cottons at 8 1/2, Car preferred at 88, Canada Cottons at 85 1/2, Dominion Glass at 48, Montreal Power at 29 1/2, Borden at 120 1/2, and Steel of Canada at 62 1/2, were each a fraction lower.

WILL LOOK INTO PLATINUM FIND

Platinum was reported from Matachewan last fall and quite recently the metal has been found in a sulphide dike in the Township of Eby, the southwestern extension of the Kirkland Lake district, which has several features in common with Matachewan. Great interest has been added to the situation by J. F. Hickling of the Standard Smelting and Refining Company, Chippawa, Ont. Mr. Hickling owns property in Eby adjoining the Baldwin gold mine. Yesterday he called on Messrs. Tanner & Gates of the Baldwin gold and reported that a strong sulphide dike runs from his property across the Baldwin in a northwesterly direction. He is convinced that the material in this dike carries platinum, and he ought to know.

SPECIALTIES LEAD IN LOCAL MARKET

Spanish River, Tuckets and Maple Leaf Strong—N. A. Pulp Erratic.

Local tobacco and milling stocks advanced the bulk of the interest on the Toronto Exchange yesterday. There was little in the course of the New York market to give an upward bias to prices in general, but for special reasons, there was quite spirited buying of Spanish River and North American Pulp, the latter in the United States, Tuckets, and Maple Leaf, the most striking advance being scored by the last-named by a two-point return to 139 1/2. Orders had not been sufficient to stimulate the milling industry in Canada more than mildly for some time, but there appear to be indications of a larger movement of flour overseas. Trading in Spanish River in Montreal yesterday was on a broad scale, more than 1100 shares changing hands, although the price range, there as in Toronto, was comparatively narrow. Locally 432 shares were dealt in, the high being 19 1/4, showing a net advance of 1-1/4. The flurry in Tuckets was attributed to a report that negotiations for the acquisition of the company by the Imperial Tobacco Company were in a tentative stage. A high point for the year was established at 29 3/4, but in the afternoon there was a reaction to 29 1/4, reducing the net gain to a point. Dominion Cannery was again rather active, but at 39 showed no net change. The steel stocks were neglected. In the utility group a feature was the strength of Mackay which was in good demand at 75 3/4, a net advance of 5/8.

INTEREST IN OFFERING OF WEST TREE STOCK

Indications Point to the Issue Being Largely Over-Subscribed.

Considerable interest has been aroused by the announcement that an offering will shortly be made of the stock of the West Tree Mining Company, which has taken over the Caswell property in the West Shining Tree camp. The samples brought from the Caswell have exceeded almost anything sent out from the northern quarter, and have attracted special attention on the New York curb. The first offering of treasury shares, it is understood, will be made next week at an initial price of about 30 cents. The World was informed yesterday that one house associated with the underwriting had already received applications for nearly one hundred thousand shares. The public offering will probably be made by the brokers interested simultaneously in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Montreal and Toronto, and it is fully anticipated that the amount available will be largely oversubscribed.

BANK OF FRANCE.

Paris, April 24.—The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows the following changes: Gold in hand increased 508,589 francs; silver in hand decreased 615,944 francs; notes in circulation increased 3,271,640 francs; treasury deposits decreased 17,174,287 francs; general deposits increased 60,450,589 francs; bills discounted decreased 2,759,962 francs; advances decreased 15,823,716 francs.

BETHLEHEM STEEL EXTRA.

New York, April 24.—The Bethlehem Steel Corporation today declared an extra dividend of three-quarters of one cent on both A and B of the common stock in addition to the regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/4 per cent. The extra dividend is a reduction of one-half of one cent from the extra quarterly dividend declared three months ago.

ANOTHER DIVIDEND PASSED.

New York, April 24.—The Green-Cananea Copper Company today announced the suspension of its quarterly dividend due at this time. The company three months ago declared a dividend of $1.50 per share and six months ago $2 a share.

HOLLY'S BUOYANCY MARKET FEATURE

Leading Gold Stocks, Dome Excepted, Remain Firm—Silver Leaf's Flutter Over.

While the volume of transactions on the Standard Exchange yesterday showed contraction when compared with the record of the previous day, the total of 98,531 shares indicated a very fair degree of activity, and prices were in the main well maintained. The buying for some time past has been of a distinctly investment character, and it can be readily seen that, with the development of the speculative side of the market, a material appreciation in values should be the outcome. Some disappointment is being expressed that the course of the market has not reflected to a much more pronounced extent the trend of events in the north since the signing of the armistice, particularly in the gold camps. It is pointed out that the number of mine workers in the Porcupine field now exceeds the total number engaged in mining at Cobalt, and it is believed the number during the next few months will be increased by possibly fifty per cent. As a result of the gold camp is booming, Housing capacity is taxed to the utmost, and quite inadequate to meet the demand. Also, real estate values have been increasing rapidly and instances are on record where the advance has exceeded two and three hundred per cent. during the past 12 months. The great gold camp in April, 1918, experienced one of the dustiest periods in its history and real estate became a drug on the market. In sharp contrast, the camp of today is booming from end to end.

A Friend of the Family? THE OLD-FASHIONED Executor was often a family friend with the family's interests at heart. Few wills distributed estates so as to satisfy everyone. So the Executor, used to suffer both from the worries of administration and from harassing pressure of conflicting interests. He was lucky if he escaped lasting antagonism. A trust company is close enough to its client to understand fully his motives and intentions; yet it is removed from the immediate circle of his family and friends. It can therefore act on the broadest grounds for the good of the estate without giving undue weight to the sometimes conflicting opinions of others. Write for our booklets.
