PARIS PAPERS ARE NOT ENTHUSIASTIC OVER LEAGUE

Comment on Covenant by Prominent Journals
LONDON PRESS ELATED
Proud That British Work is Visible to Such Extent—Recognition of Dominions as Nations Welcomed as Significant

Paris, Feb. 15.—Comment in representative French newspapers on the constitution of the league of nations as presented at yesterday's plenary session of the League of Nations reveals little enthusiasm over the shape the project has taken. The Figaro says:—

"The commission wisely decided not to rush tomorrow from the eternal and confined itself in making safe the present. The mystic society of nations has, then, become a league of the five great powers who, after the war, and which, having conquered, mean to consolidate both victory and peace. A close alliance will result between Great Britain, France, the United States, Italy and Japan."

The writer, Alfred Caupa, editor of the Figaro, says in addition that "the future is opened to a better scenario, but that naturally is as yet vague and nebulous."

"The Journal, one of the most widely circulated newspapers here, says: "While all are speaking of fraternization and eternal peace, the French people cannot lose sight of reality, and in the vicinity of 50,000,000 humiliated Germans shuddering under merited punishment. It is half of Europe in chaos. When we see evoked, amidst such perspectives, the seductive idea of disarmament, it is our duty to ask plainly who are the guarantors and what is the force which will shelter us from the reaction of tragic surprises. To these questions, a careful reading of the project discloses the society of nations, and the eloquent speeches made at the conference bring but one answer: moral force."

The Socialist newspaper, Humanite, is even less pleased than the bourgeois papers. Deputy Marcel Cachin writes in this publication: "It is impossible to see the impression of disillusionment which a first examination of the proposed covenant makes on us. It is clear to the dullest that we are far from President Wilson's first proposals. We find in the document neither the general spirit of President Wilson's messages or the necessary clear information as to the composition of the society and the role it is to play. The project cannot in any way command the support of democrats and people's parties, which see such hopes in the idea of which Mr. Wilson constituted himself an eloquent defender."

IT WAS TO BE EXPECTED THAT SOME ONE WOULD WANT TO TRY IT AGAIN SOME TIME, BUT HARDLY SO SOON.

TO PENITENTIARY FOR BEAVERBROOK TWO YEAR TERM OPERATED ON

James Durden Sentenced on Charge of Attempting to Steal From C. P. R.—Judge Armstrong Speaks of Conditions

In the county court today His Honor Judge Armstrong sentenced James Durden, on the charge of attempting to steal several cases of port wine from a car belonging to the Canadian Pacific Railway, to a term of two years in the penitentiary, the sentence to commence from Nov. 21 last, the day on which he was found guilty. In this case an appeal was taken to the supreme court at Fredericton by William M. Ryan, counsel for the defendant, the defendant's counsel asking for a reserve case principally on the ground that after the jury had reported to his honor after a two hours' deliberation of the evidence that they had found the prisoner not guilty on two counts in the indictment, that they stood six to six on attempt to steal, his honor said to the jury: "With the evidence before you I do not know what more you want, how you can otherwise find him guilty."

In addressing Durden this morning his honor said Durden had been given a very fair trial and that he had the advantage of having his case well presented by a very able counsel. In dealing with the facts of the case his honor said "that there had been a very large amount of port wine in the car, but by its own employees to try and stop which the railway at great expense is compelled to keep a considerable staff of investigators, detectives and constables. In the present case a car loaded with a large amount of port wine for a licensed vendor had been placed in a position on a siding near Fairville, to which access could be had by the railway employees, where it had been broken into. No doubt this because known to the railway employees. No less than twenty-one cases had already been stolen, some of which were found in the close vicinity of the car, to be returned probably at night-time. The accused was attempting to steal and would have succeeded and probably many more of the cases would have been lost, but for the sudden appearance of the detectives in an automobile. This man was an employee of the railway whose duty it was to guard, not to steal, the company's property. Taking into consideration the recommendation of the jury the term imposed will be far shorter than would otherwise be imposed. The sentence is two years in the penitentiary from the 21st day of November last, the date of the verdict, with hard labor. The reason sentence has been so long delayed is that the case has been before the supreme court en banc on appeal."

J., Feb. 15.—Striking members of silk workers union here, notified with the United Textile Workers, voted unanimously last night to return to work on Monday, accepting the decision of the war labor board in Chicago on Thursday for a temporary working basis of an eight and one-half hour day and a five day week.

KILLS HIMSELF WHEN THREE OF FAMILY DIE

Middletown, N. Y., Feb. 15.—Despondent over the recent deaths of his brother James and his sisters Jessie and Celia, all of whom died from influenza within a week, William Callan, jr., of Searsville, near this city, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. He was twenty-eight years old. Only the father and one son survive of the family of six a few days ago.

WORD BY MARCH 15 THAT HARBOR COMMISSION WILL COOE, OR RATES GO UP

Commissioner T. H. Bullock to The Steamer Men
CONFERENCE THIS MORNING
City Authorities and Companies Both For Commission and For Breakwater Extension—The Difficulty Over Bunkering

An important conference on harbor matters was held in the mayor's office today, when matters relating to the harbor were discussed by Mayor Hayes, Commissioner Bullock and the harbor master, F. D. Alward, for the city, and R. H. Blennerhasset and J. R. Clancy, the C. P. O. S., H. C. Schofield for the Robert Reford Co. Ltd., J. T. Knight of the firm of the same name, and D. W. Ledingham for William Thomson & Co.

The chief matter was the proposed increase in harbor rates according to a schedule prepared by the harbor commissioner. The steamer representatives protested against the increases being put into effect at this time but their arguments were not regarded as sufficiently strong to change the attitude of the city authorities.

An important concession was made, however. Commissioner Bullock informed the steamer men that he would let the rates stand as they are if the harbor were to be put in commission, to leave the new administration free to deal with the matter as they might think best. If there was no immediate prospect of this change he would have to secure the additional revenue in order to meet the increasing expenses of operation.

In view of this, he said that he would delay action until March 15; if by that time authoritative assurance were given that the harbor would be taken over by the dominion government within a reasonable time, he would not introduce the new rates; if no action has been determined upon at that date, the new schedule would go into effect.

TWO ACCIDENTS.

George Morgan, second officer on the White Star line steamer Cufic, was seriously injured internally at No. 7 shed last night while going on board the steamer. On account of the rise and fall in the tide the gangway had been gradually slipping, and when he stepped on it, it slipped and the project struck him in the abdomen and pinned him against the shed door. Dr. F. H. Neve was summoned and went on board the steamer. It was pointed out that existing conditions had led the imperial authorities to do all their bunkering at Halifax, which meant a considerable loss of money to the port as well as the damage done to its prestige.

URGES WOMEN TO DO WHAT BUYING THEY CAN IN DOMINION
Food Board Chairman Sets Forth Reasons
Help to Give Employment and Lessen the Financial Pressure Caused by Enormous Burden of War

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—In reply to an inquiry from a woman's organization as to what can be done, H. B. Thomson, chairman of the Canada Food Board, says that the co-operation of women in the immediate peace readjustment is as valuable as it was in the numerous war activities.

Now that the necessity for food conservation is less urgent, the women of Canada can perform a service in other directions of national importance equal to that accomplished by them during the last few years. For the present and the future there is an obligation to see that their purchases shall be of strictly Canadian produce and products for the following definite reasons:

"To give employment in all lines of national industry and in all forms of production to returned men, and others formerly occupied in war work. To lessen the financial pressure caused by the enormous burden resulting from the war. Every dollar sent out of the country for commodities that can be produced here is bound to affect the situation immediately and adversely. It is estimated that the women of Canada purchase about ninety per cent of the commodities used in this direction."

SCHIEDMANN OUTSPOKEN IN GERMAN ASSEMBLY

Weimar, Germany, Feb. 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Philipp Schiedemann, chancellor of the new German government, yesterday showed himself able to handle conflicting demonstrations in the new national assembly with no sign of being intimidated by the wildest opposition, or moved by the most severe heckling. No speaker since the meeting of the national assembly was opened has been so outspoken toward his opponents.

ONE DECISION FOR HIM; ANOTHER AGAINST

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 15.—Federal Judge Pollock, yesterday sustained action for the dismissal of a $250,000 damage suit of Alexander P. Macaulay, of Toronto, Canada, against the Six Bar and Fuller Dry Goods Company and overruled motions for dismissal in his suit against the famous Barr Company for $500,000. Macaulay is suing on charges of false arrest, alleging employees of the companies identified him as a check forger in 1917 after several of the famous "Christmas Knocks" forgeries had been passed on the establishments. Macaulay later was exonerated.

World's Financial And Economic Relations

NEXT BUSINESS IN PARIS

These Matters to be Taken up Now That League of Nations is Arranged for—Reparation on Basis of All That Enemy Can Safely Pay

Paris, Feb. 15.—With the subject of the league of nations now out of the way for some time to come, the biggest problem before the peace conference at present is believed to be the readjustment of the world's financial and economic relations, which have been torn to pieces by more than four years of war.

Three organizations have been created to deal with these subjects, and they have been so hard at work while the conference has been struggling with the central idea of the league of nations that already some of their conclusions are ready for consideration so soon as the conference is willing to receive the reports, although the body created in this connection dates back only to February 8.

INCREASE OF $700 A YEAR FOR REV. F. P. DENNISON

The Times-Journal of St. Thomas, Ont., says:—"A special meeting of the members of Centre street Baptist church, held at the close of the morning service on Sunday, an increase of $700 was enthusiastically voted to the salary of the pastor, Rev. F. Patrick Dennison, as a mark of their appreciation and esteem. During the evening service Mr. Dennison gratefully thanked the congregation, saying that such an unexpected act found him almost at a loss for words of appreciation."

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

The proposed covenant of the League of Nations shows a sincere desire on the part of all the powers which have participated in the conference to prevent a recurrence of war. Mutual concessions have been made which would have been quite impossible before the war.

their citizenship a menace to the best interests of the province, it is not their fault but the fault of our educational system, which left them, during the most vital years of their development, to drift out on the sea of life, exposed to the reefs and rocks that are destroying our citizenship until the soul of our country is sick with death.

The conditions complained of in Ontario exist in an accentuated form in New Brunswick. A census of the boys and girls who have left school in St. John before they passed the sixth grade would show how lax we have been and are in this city.

Representatives of many of the leading newspapers of Canada will be in St. John on Monday. They should be given such a welcome as will make them think kindly of our people, and they should be given so clear a knowledge regarding St. John harbor and the national importance of the port as will enable them to deal with any false charges or insinuations made against St. John.

BOLSHEVISM IN CANADA

The Toronto Globe directs attention to some leaflets scattered about Toronto during the past few months, telling how "the workers' republic" will be conducted when the present system in Canada has been overthrown.

THE WORK OF THE SCHOOLS.

Not a restricted, but a wider use of school buildings is what we need in Canada, and such an awakening of the people to the need and the value of education as will ensure more regular attendance of children for a longer period at school.

Discussing the housing problem the Toronto Star says: "In England, where the government faces problems and does not run away from them, lands are expropriated for building purposes. The other difficulty, as to the high cost of building, is also met and faced. It is provided that if, within five years after money has been spent in housing, it is found that building prices have gone down the builder shall be recompensed to the amount of the difference, and shall be paid the excess cost which at the present time is imposed on him by building now.

At the very first meeting of the South End Improvement League in the King Edward school building the attention of those present was directed to the evening school downstairs and they were urged to tell working boys of their acquaintance about its value to them. Reference was also made to the need of a better piano for the building. It was in this spirit the League entered upon its work. Now, at the instigation of the superintendent and teachers, it has been thrown out of the building.

St. John extends to Halifax its sincere sympathy. Sir Ashley Sparks, K. B. E., says the big steamers should go to New York instead of Halifax because of the prevalence of fog on the Canadian coast. St. John has also been called "the foggy city," and has resented it, for the fog-bank extends along the whole Atlantic coast. Halifax is quite right in resenting the remark of Sir Ashley Sparks.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH MURDER RELEASED ON BAIL AS SHE IS VERY ILL

Lawrence, Mass., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Bessie May Skeels, who has been under arrest here since last August, charged with the murder of Florence W. Gray, was released on $1,000 bail yesterday and permitted to go to the home of her fiancé, Alfred J. Lundgren, in Andover. The security was furnished by the county probate officer.

The release of Mrs. Skeels was ordered by Chief Justice Alken of the Superior Court because of her serious illness. At the same time officials announced that her trial, set for March 3rd, had been indefinitely postponed. Mrs. Skeels was employed as a nurse in the home of Miss Gray, in Andover, at the time of the latter's death from poison.

The Late Wellington Hoyt. St. George, N. B., Feb. 12—Many will mourn with sincere regret of the sudden death of Wellington Hoyt, which occurred at San Diego (Ca.), on January 6 at 11:15 (N. B.), in the year 1866.

Hoyt was the youngest son of the late D. J. and Annie MacLean Hoyt, a man in this community ever accorded a greater measure of respect of fellow men than did he. From early childhood he manifested a desire for business, and at the age of fifteen, entered employ of Andrew McGee, Bank

FLOUR EXPORT MOVEMENT.

Flour and grain shipments are going forward from Canadian Atlantic ports with considerable despatch, and prospects for a continuance of a favorable ocean freight movement are considered to be good.

BRASS EXPORTS SMALLER.

Old and scrap brass was in much lighter demand for export during 1918 than was the case in 1917. Exports decreased from 695,000 cwt. in 1917 to 61,840 cwt. for last year. The value of the exports decreased from $9,615,627 to $1,454,451.

WOOL INDUSTRY READJUSTS.

For the past three months the woolen industry has been undergoing a readjustment to peace conditions. The cancellation and adjustment of war orders has occupied chief attention. This is now about completed, inventories have been taken, and the mills are generally back on a peace basis.

Accorded to the London Electrician.

The Japanese government has decided to establish a laboratory for the study of questions relating to the fixation of atmospheric nitrogen. Hitherto 20,000,000 years' worth of ammonia for fertilizer has been imported, and it is hoped to make Japan independent of foreign supplies.

World's Wool Stocks.

There are large stocks of wool on hand in Australasia and South Africa, including the present year's clip, but the shortage of ocean freight space is so acute that English opinion fears that it will be impossible to bring these wools on to the market to fill the demand now coming in evidence. The result will be that as soon as free wools are more available in Great Britain and throughout Europe prices are likely to advance.

French Ships From Canada.

Twelve 821-ton mine-sweepers built during 1918 for the French government by the Canadian Car & Foundry Company, Fort William, were constructed on six berths at ocean freight space is so acute that English opinion fears that it will be impossible to bring these wools on to the market to fill the demand now coming in evidence. The result will be that as soon as free wools are more available in Great Britain and throughout Europe prices are likely to advance.

Copper Price Reduction.

A reduction in price of 46c. per pound on copper to 18 1/2c. by the leading producers of the United States has resulted in an awakening of activity in the market for this product. A number of domestic orders, involving a considerable tonnage, were placed as a result of the downward movement of prices. The outside producing interests, which had fixed their price slightly under 19c. during the dull period, met the cut of the larger producers by making offerings at 19c. Business at the close of last week following the price reduction on the red metal, was solely for domestic account.

Coal Import Charges.

While the total imports of coal held relatively steady in the last two calendar years, according to the figures submitted by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, there has been an increase in the value of bituminous shipments and a corresponding increase in anthracite. For 1917 anthracite imports amounted to $28,109,586 and bituminous to $42,492,771, while for the last calendar year hard coal figures in the imports to the extent of $26,007,888 and soft coal to $45,642,695.

Asbestos Prices Higher.

Enhanced prices which asbestos commanded during 1918 were responsible for an increase of close to 50 per cent in the value of exports of this mineral from Canada as compared with the 1917 total, while there was a contraction in the quantity of asbestos shipped out of the country. The volume of asbestos exported decreased from 146,020 tons in 1917 to 141,598 last year, while the value increased from $5,334,282 to $8,014,769.

Rubber Production Gains.

Canadian rubber industries are taking care of a larger proportion of the domestic requirements for manufacturers of this commodity and the Dominion is figuring more prominently as an exporter of rubber. Figures prepared by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show that imports of guat-percha and rubber decreased from $14,078,122 for 1917 to $12,066,033 for 19

THE NEWSPAPER MEN. It is B. B. Cook, not Fred Cook, who will be in charge of the western newspaper party to come here on Monday.

LIFTING QUARANTINE. A house that has been under quarantine on account of smallpox is expected to be released on Monday.

TRUANCY CHARGE. A session of the juvenile court was held this morning and some boys were dealt with on the charge of truancy.

A LITTLE BETTER. The condition of Lieutenant Carr and Miss Irvine, who were seriously injured recently in an automobile accident, is said to be slightly improved today.

DEARER SHOES? Footwear may go higher. The latest development is that English buyers have come over to pick up all the available supplies of leather, and prices have advanced. Leather formerly got in Germany is now being sought on this side, hence the keen demand.

WARMLY WELCOMED. Members of the citizens' committee and of the V. A. D. made it very pleasant for the Nova Scotia soldiers passing through the city yesterday. The men were given a hearty welcome, and served with food and comforts. Those unable to walk to the depot dining room were served in the train.

VALENTINE DANCE. The St. Mon's Irish Social Club held a valentine dance in the Knights of Columbus hall last evening. The event was a success and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of young people, who participated in a lengthy dancing programme. Refreshments were served.

FOR HALIFAX. Major-General John Hughes, who has been in St. John inspecting M. D. No. 7, has completed his inspection and will carry out the annual inspection of M. D. No. 6.

SLIPPERY STREETS. The sand man was a very popular personage today. The drizzling rain made the streets so slippery that people were forced to take the middle of the street to escape some dangerous stretches of sidewalk. Today's wet is the first break in a marvelously pleasant long run of moderate winter weather—really an island winter-time, as one observant caller remarked to the Times.

MISS CARLA FREDRICKA LARSSON. Miss Carla Fredricka Larsson, eighteen year old daughter of Carl Larsson, of 8 King street, West St. John, died yesterday afternoon at her home after a lingering illness. She was born in Norway and was a bright young woman, beloved by all who knew her. Besides her father, she is survived by her step-mother, one brother, Carl, and one sister, Margaret. Friends will deeply sympathize with them in their loss.

TO SKATE IN WINNIPEG. Harry Thom, a former St. John boy, who has made a name for himself as a speed skater in the United States and Upper Canada, has been selected to represent Ontario in Winnipeg on next Monday in the western championship races. He left Toronto last evening. His friends here will wish him every success, and will await the result of the races with keen interest.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. The home of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Dalton, 384 Main street, was the scene of a happy gathering yesterday when sixteen little boys and girls assembled to celebrate the fifth birthday anniversary of Laurence Valentine Dalton. Master Dalton was the recipient of a large number of very beautiful presents. The house had been artistically decorated for the occasion and the function was a great success.

NEW VESSELS. The schooner Randolph, which was recently launched from the ship yard of the Marine Construction Company, Chesley street, is being fitted up at the company's wharf, near the site of the launching. The vessel will be ready to make a trial trip in two or three weeks. Satisfactory progress is being made on the new vessel which is being built by Grant & Horne. It is expected that the vessel will be launched in six or eight weeks.

MRS. MAUDE GARNETT. The death of Mrs. Maude Ella Garnett, wife of Private Gordon C. Garnett of the C. A. M. C. in this city, occurred on Friday night at her home, 14 Summer street, West End, after a short illness. Her death was due to influenza and pneumonia. Mrs. Garnett, who was only nineteen years of age, is survived by her husband, her father, James Buckley, four sisters, Misses Annie and Hilda, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Shonoman, and two brothers, John and Norman, all of West St. John. The funeral will take place at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon from her late residence.

POLICE COURT

A man was in the police court this morning charged with being drunk and annoying persons in Carleton street by trying to get into several places. The police officer said that in the early morning there were two telephone calls to the police station to the effect that there was a man trying the doors of houses and annoying people. At 4.30 the police arrested this man, who was a soldier, and brought him to the police station. On being questioned there, he would not answer. The magistrate asked him where he had got liquor and he said from friends. He was remanded for sentence.

One man was charged with being drunk. He was fined $8.

James Morgan was charged with lying and lurking and not giving a satisfactory account of himself. Policeman Gibbs last night about 12 found a man in a back yard of Coleman's Grocery in Main street. When the man was questioned he said he was from Halifax, and that he had come here yesterday. On being asked what was in a parcel that he had in his hand he said it was a lunch, but the policeman discovered it was a large stone, and that his pockets were filled with smaller stones. He told the magistrate this morning that he thought the stones were valuable minerals. The magistrate said he thought that a lunch of that kind would not be very nutritious. He was remanded to jail for sentence.

A man was brought before Magistrate Ritchie this morning charged with discharging a gun, and also with trespassing on property owned by the C. P. R. The charge of trespass was dismissed, but he was fined $8 on the other charge.

Letter of Interest and Group Picture From Sergeant Major Eric G. Thompson

Few survivors of the army service corps which left St. John in April, 1915, still are in the field, as a picture of No. 1 Division Train, the name under which they have seen service, shows. Alexander Thompson, assistant post office inspector, received from his son, Sergeant Major Eric G. Thompson, one of the originals, a group picture of the company taken last month in Troisdorf, Germany, in front of the castle of Baron Von Lee, where they were quartered. In almost four years of service the former members have dropped out one by one, until today very few of Sergeant Thompson's comrades who enlisted with him still remain. He has refused a commission on three occasions, preferring to stay with the boys, but has been given the highest rank attainable without taking a commission. In a recent letter he tells of their Christmas dinner. Turkey was not available but geese made a fine substitute and the company, 180 strong, sat down together in a former German beer garden and enjoyed their holiday banquet hugely. He remarks that there is some feeling among the men over the fact that the last man to enter the service are the first to receive their discharge, with the possibility that this will make it harder for the veterans to find places in civil life when they are released from their military obligations.

MONEY OFFERS TOWARD FUND FOR PROTESTANT HOME FOR CHILDREN

The fact that the need for additional accommodation for homeless Protestant children in this city is recognized by the citizens is shown by the hearty support which the suggestion has received. There have been many favorable comments on the proposal to secure another building for this purpose and there is more than sentiment behind the idea. A gift of $100 from a working man as a nucleus for a fund has been announced and since then other offers of gifts of $100 and $50 have been made. This would seem to indicate that any effort to secure funds for the purpose would meet with a ready response.

SENDS ONE HELMET OF SLAIN GERMAN OFFICER AS A SOUVENIR OF WAR

John LeCain of St. Andrews street, has received from his son, Private John LeCain, who now is in Germany with the 4th Field Ambulance in the second division, a very fine souvenir in the form of a German officer's helmet. The helmet is made of metal, apparently polished steel, with brass mounting. The former owner was killed in action. Private LeCain went overseas in the first contingent with the field ambulance corps commanded by Major Duval and was with the latter when he was killed in action. After two years service at the front he was given three months furlough which he spent at home. On his return to the other side he was assigned to hospital duty, but last July again took his place at the front with an ambulance corps.

MANY ATTENDED Tea in Portland Methodist Church Very Successful

The room was artistically decorated in red and white drapings and numerous hearts and cupidus produced a very gay appearance. WOMEN DISCUSS PICTURES TODAY

A special meeting of the executive of the Local Council of Women is being held this afternoon to discuss moving picture censorship and other matters of that kind in which a special group of members have been interesting themselves for some time. The council, it is understood, wants a woman appointed to the board of censors and several names have been mentioned as candidates for the position. It is said this afternoon's meeting will especially discuss a picture recently allowed by Judge Crockett of the Supreme Court on appeal from the decision of the Board of Censors. None of the ladies have seen the production in question and therefore it was expected controversial complications might arise as to the true character of the picture.

REPATRIATION. (Rev. George Scott.) Aye, bring them back in their thousands.

Those sons who went forth from me, For I nursed them on my bosom, And taught them how to be free.

nourished them on my prairies As far as the Arctic rim, Iose stalwart sons of the battle So ready of brain and limb.

sared them up in my forests, They swung the axe on the pines, Acre through the night of gripping frost ey came from the snow-capped Rockies, The Skelrds and Kootenays, They hunted bighorn and grizzlies, High up amid treacherous ways.

The golden shelves of the Klondike Had straightened their many backs, Through the rugged pass of Whitehorse They carried their miners' packs.

They sang in the camps of Cobalt By the blue Tenagami, They hewed in the hills of copper Near the Lake Superior sea.

They came from New Brunswick valleys, From the river of St. John, From where the woods of Chapeau Dieu Peer down from their cloudy throne.

From the colleries of Sydney They came with never a fear, Angelina's land of orchards Gave them back a ringing cheer.

And these are sons of my rearing, I smiled as they marched away, And now I call ye to witness Were any braver than they?

Do you wonder I am calling My stalwart sons to my side? High upon my watchtower standing, With my eager arms stretched wide.

'es, bring them back in their thousands, Thrice welcome are they to me, He sons whom I nourished so truly, Who strongly dared to be free.

war. From the highest admiral to the smallest boy in the stockhold the whole nation owed a debt of gratitude to the navy which could never be repaid. "We must inculcate in every child the idea that Great Britain must retain the power of the sea," he said.

Speaking of the great part of the mercantile marine, Mr. Wright said: "I sincerely hope the public, especially the ship-owners, will give the men of the mercantile marine greater consideration in the future than they have done in the past."

"The Hearty British Cheer" of tradition was demanded by Mr. Wright for the British Navy and Mercantile Marine when he put his toast, and a roof-lifting roar rent the air. Gospel of Discipline. Rear-Admiral Colomb, R. N., replying to Mr. Wright's toast, had a word of thanks to say to the Navy League of Canada for its help to the sailor, and a special word of thanks to the Navy League of Victoria for help to the men of H. M. S. Lancaster. One thing he suggested that the Navy League might preach: the gospel of discipline, a thing which had done so much to win the war both in the navy and the army.

The band of H. M. S. Lancaster dispersed popular patriotic and marching airs, an innovation being introduced in the singing by the diners of the choruses of such songs as "Tipperrary," "Land of Hope and Glory," "O Canada," etc. The navy was further introduced in the fact that the stewards were all lent for the occasion by H. M. S. Lancaster.

The Bishop of Columbia pronounced the blessing before the guests sat down. A. C. Flumerfelt, provincial vice-president, occupied the place of chairman at the head of the table, and a little after 9 o'clock called for the first toast, "The King," responded to by the whole company standing and singing the national anthem.

Proposing the toast to the Dominion Council, C. H. Dunbar, chairman of the Kamloops branch, indicated how great was the confidence of the small local branches in the men who were at the head of the Navy League of Canada. The great ability which had brought these men to public attention was enough to assure the organization as a whole that the work which they would give the Navy League would be beneficial to the whole body and through the whole body to the empire itself.

W. G. Ross, Dominion president, opened his reply to the foregoing toast with a word of thanks on behalf of the Dominion Council to those who were their hosts. Afterwards he went on to speak of the great part which the late Sir Clive Phillips-Wolley had played in the Navy League work of the Dominion. It was to be regretted that he had not lived to attend such a gathering to see how the organization to which he had given such support was growing.

"The Dominion Council of the Navy League can only be strong if the divisions are strong, and in just so far as your provincial branches are strong will the council be strong. We must expand our organization. We must have such strength that we will be able to bring pressure on the government to do what is right and do it quickly. We know the Dominion Council will get your strong support out here in the west." A tribute to the help given by the women was given by the speaker before he sat down.

Loud and long was the applause when Peter Wright of the British Seamen's and Firemen's Union stood to propose the toast of the British Navy and Mercantile Marine, to which duo he added the name of the army. Forcefully and with a picturesque humor this speaker told of some of the great things which he had seen done by the men of the British navy and mercantile marine services during the late

"JUST A SPASM"

Former St. John Newspaper Man, Now Soldier, Puts Men's Sentiments Into Tune'ul Verse

"JUST A SPASM" When mud and slime was lace-deep The guns sank out of sight, And gas and shells and bombers made Things hellish day and night;

Now the Boche has thrown his hand in And the final victory's won, And the job we left our homes to do Is finished, and well done; Little Belgium rules herself again, The French revenge is sweet, And the Kaiser, dirty coward, lies Grovelling at our feet.

So farewell to mud and shot and shell, Farewell to jam and cheese, And pay attention to our plea, Dear Reader, if you please: Just charter every ship in sight That sails across the foam; And get us back to Canada, The soldier's Home Sweet Home.

This bit of ringing military verse is the work of Bomber William H. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell of this city. Mr. Campbell has had enough experience in active service to qualify him to express the sentiments of the men in the field when the hostilities ceased, as he evidently does, here, and he does so in a most effective manner. The grim determination which carried the men through unimaginable hardships and horrors, the spontaneous humor and cheerfulness which made it possible for them to stand up through year after year of the most terrible warfare the world ever has seen, their willingness to carry on until their task was finished and their joy at the prospect of a happy home coming with their work well done, all are expressed in a vigorous and natural way and in a singing, swinging rhyme.

When "Billy" left the local high school he took up newspaper work and for several years was a valued member of the reporting staff of The Star, the evening paper which afterwards was absorbed by The Times. In the search of wider fields he went west and after further experience in journalism, he took up ranching. A little before war was declared he had been seriously injured in an accident and came home to recuperate. So soon as he was able to pass the doctors he offered his services. Back in 1906 he had qualified as a lieutenant and acting captain in the militia but, without claiming the privileges of his commission, he enlisted in the ranks and joined the artillery on Partridge Island, going over with the first heavy battery in 1915 as reinforcement for Major Magee. He has been wounded on three occasions, but each time returned to the front and was in at the finish. Now he is in Belgium.

LINGERING WEAKNESS FOLLOWING DISEASE

Banished by the Wonderful Tonic Powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

In almost every case the victims of the grippe, influenza, fevers or contagious troubles, are left weak, ailing and despondent after the disease itself has disappeared. They do not pick up strength as they ought, and remain tired and listless and discouraged. The one and only reason for this is that the blood has been impoverished by the ravage of the disease through which the victim has passed. Strength and full activity will not return until the blood has been restored to its normal condition. The blood can be enriched and purified by no other medicine so quickly and as surely as by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves is the whole mission of these pills, and thousands have found them beneficial in bringing strength and energy after disease had left them weak and run down. Miss Beatrice Cassidy, Vroomont, Ont., says: "From my own experience I can speak in the highest terms of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was seized through a severe attack of scarlet fever, from which I did not regain my strength after the fever itself had passed. I was left very weak, pale and frail looking, and although I was continuing to take medicine, I did not improve. At this time a friend advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and following the advice, I soon felt the pills were helping me, and after taking them for about a month I found myself fully restored to my old time health and strength. I therefore strongly advise anyone who feels weak or run down to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and I feel sure they will not regret it." Rich red blood is the whole secret of good health, and from the first to the last dose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and purify the blood. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Other members seemed to favor the idea of a municipal building. Commissioner Bullock, however, seemed to think the cost too great and suggested that an annex be built to city hall if the quarters were too cramped there. Mayor Hayes and Commissioner Thornton were appointed a committee to interview Premier Foster to find what assistance the government is prepared to give for the reconstruction of the court house on the present site or for the erection of a new municipal building. A committee composed of Commissioner Thornton and the county secretary was appointed to adjust the fire loss and the committee was empowered also to take up the matter of insurance on all municipal buildings and to make arrangements for a guarantee to be carried. It was pointed out at the close of the meeting that discussion was fully through the question and there were no definite suggestions. It was understood at the time that the city should make a survey of the site. Since the time Alderman McGoldrick sat in the council and proposed the erection of a five-story municipal building at Market square, there has been a "joint municipal buildings committee" appointed for considering this very question, but so far it has done very little. It is expected the committee will now be called upon to investigate the question. The county secretary and the chairman were authorized to seek new quarters for the county and suppress offices temporarily. Police Magistrate Ritchie, through the county secretary, tendered the use of his court by the county and supreme courts until permanent quarters are built.

TO INVESTIGATE FIRE UNDER OATH

Court House Matter Discussed at Length Yesterday

A RESOLUTION

Building's Committee of the Municipal Council Asks City Authorities to Report to it on Their Requirements—Some Members Strongly in Favor of Municipal Building.

The situation arising out of the destruction of the court house by fire and the advisability of reconstructing the present building or erecting a new municipal building, was discussed yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the buildings committee of the municipal council called for the purpose. It was decided to hold an investigation into the fire under oath so soon as possible and at the convenience of the committee, the provisions of the municipalities act being invoked for the purpose. Various aspects of the situation were discussed and there was an understanding that the city should survey its needs and make a report on the situation to the committee later. Commissioner Thornton, chairman of the committee, presided, and there were present, besides the county secretary, J. King Kelly, K.C., Mayor Hayes, the other commissioners and Councillors Carson, John O'Brien and J. E. Bryant. At the outset Commissioner Thornton explained the purpose for which the meeting was called. It should consider, he thought, whether it was advisable to rebuild at the old site or have a new building for all municipal and city purposes. Discussion first turned to the cause of the fire and a resolution was adopted to have an investigation under oath when the whole committee will sit and hear the evidence. A Resolution. Commissioner Jones moved the following resolution: Whereas, the court house of this city and county has been destroyed by fire, necessitating on the part of the municipality the repairing of the old building on the present site, or the erection of a new building, and Whereas, it appears by the necessity of the times that all the city offices, city and county alike, with the law courts, should, if possible, be assembled together as near to each other as possible, and Whereas, it is necessary to consider this matter in the light of present day needs and conditions; Resolved, that a committee be appointed to fully consider the many interests involved and that they report specifically thereon for the consideration and action of the municipality on the different aspects with a view to arrive at the best solution of this matter. A Municipal Building. Other members seemed to favor the idea of a municipal building. Commissioner Bullock, however, seemed to think the cost too great and suggested that an annex be built to city hall if the quarters were too cramped there. Mayor Hayes and Commissioner Thornton were appointed a committee to interview Premier Foster to find what assistance the government is prepared to give for the reconstruction of the court house on the present site or for the erection of a new municipal building. A committee composed of Commissioner Thornton and the county secretary was appointed to adjust the fire loss and the committee was empowered also to take up the matter of insurance on all municipal buildings and to make arrangements for a guarantee to be carried. It was pointed out at the close of the meeting that discussion was fully through the question and there were no definite suggestions. It was understood at the time that the city should make a survey of the site. Since the time Alderman McGoldrick sat in the council and proposed the erection of a five-story municipal building at Market square, there has been a "joint municipal buildings committee" appointed for considering this very question, but so far it has done very little. It is expected the committee will now be called upon to investigate the question. The county secretary and the chairman were authorized to seek new quarters for the county and suppress offices temporarily. Police Magistrate Ritchie, through the county secretary, tendered the use of his court by the county and supreme courts until permanent quarters are built.

SWEDE TO TRY OCEAN FLIGHT IN FEW DAYS

From Bayonne to Newfoundland, Leaving There Next Day—Great Circle Route for Favorable Currents—One Passenger

New York, Feb. 14.—Captain Hugo Sunstedt, a Swedish aviator, whose plan to fly across the Atlantic has just become known, announced at Bayonne, N. J., where his giant seaplane has been assembled, that he and three companions hoped to start on the first stage of the flight to St. John's, Newfoundland, in a few days. "If the seaplane comes up to expectations, as I have no doubt it will, preparation will be made at once for the first leg of the flight to St. John's, Newfoundland. We shall start from Newark Bay at dawn of the morning and will be selected. In ten hours we hope to be at St. John's. We will remain there all night, and then at four o'clock in the afternoon of the next day start on the second leg of the flight across the Atlantic ocean. "We expect to reach Ireland by one o'clock the next afternoon, and then if our gasoline supply has held out, to continue the journey without stopping to London."

The big craft was resting on its pontoons in Newark Bay today, in front of the Pavonia Yacht Club, from where the start will be made. Air Currents Helped. Captain Sunstedt explained: "I expect to take the plane up tomorrow afternoon, but the hour will depend on weather conditions and other things. I see no reason why a successful flight across the Atlantic cannot be accomplished now. "A study of aerial charts shows that there are air currents, at this time of the year which are extremely helpful to a trans-Atlantic flight. "After leaving Newfoundland, we expect to use the Great Circle route which is farther north than the North Atlantic route used by steamships. "We will fly at an altitude of 15,000 feet, where there is a steady west to east air current of about fifty miles an hour. This, with the seventy-five miles per hour capacity of the two big Liberty motors, with which the seaplane is equipped, ought to assure a speedy trip across the Atlantic now."

By enriching the blood and creating thousands of new blood cells, it quickly transforms the flabby flesh, toneless tissue and pallid cheeks, of weak, anemic men and women into a glow of health. Increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances. It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually in this country alone are taking Nuxated Iron. Such astonishing results have been reported from its use both by doctors and laymen, that a number of physicians in various parts of the country have been asked to explain why they prescribed it so extensively, and why it apparently produces so much better results than were obtained from the old forms of inorganic iron. Extracts from some of the letters received are given below. Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York Physician and Medical Author, says: "The iron men or healthy rosy checked women without iron. Falter means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men is pale, the flesh flabby. The muscles lack tone, the brain fags and the memory fails and they become weak, nervous, irritable, peevish and melancholy. When the iron goes from the blood they are really going from their cheeks. I have strongly emphasized the fact that 'Nuxated Iron' is the best iron to prescribe more organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for their nervous, run-down, weak, haggard looking patients."

Do This Each Morning, You Won't Need Cascarets

Great exercise! Keeps Stomach, Liver and Bowels active. Nothing like it! Splendid! But if you insist upon taking your exercise in an easy chair you simply must take a laxative occasionally. The very, very best laxative is Cascarets—10 cents a box. "They work while you sleep."

Nothing else works the bile, sour fermentations and poison from the liver and bowels like harmless Cascarets. When Headache, Bilious, Constipated or if Breath is Faint, Complexion Sallow, Stomach Sour, just take a Cascarets at night, or in the morning, and you will be up and feeling fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken. Cause no inconvenience! played great confidence in talking about the proposed flight. The seaplane, he said, would carry 100 gallons of oil, 750 gallons of gasoline, and ten days' rations for four men on its cross-sea journey. His companions, he said, would be two mechanics and a passenger, whose name he would not divulge. The two Liberty motors with which the seaplane is equipped have 230 horsepower each, making 1,600 revolutions a minute. They are capable of carrying 7,000 pounds at a speed of seventy-five miles an hour. The seaplane was designed by the Hall-Scott Company, of San Francisco. It is equipped with a cabin, much of it enclosed by glass, capable of carrying four persons. The two front seats can control the machine without changing his place. "As much of the flight will be made at night, we will use the stars as guides," Captain Sunstedt said.

CHILD GETS SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

Look at tongue! Then give fruit laxative for stomach, liver, bowels. "California Syrup of Figs" can't harm children and they love it.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle. Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Better Housing The First Essential

(Halifax Echo.) One of the lessons the war has taught is that human beings must be well housed and well-fed if they are to be of any military service. But that is easily the least important part of the lesson. Military service is but an occasional demand in a democracy. Here in Canada it does not occur once in a decade, nor usually in several decades. The real thing to be remembered is that human beings must be well housed and well-fed if they are to be fit for industrial and social service. That is extremely important part of the lesson the war has taught, and there is no more serious trouble if the lesson is not heeded. Wherever social conditions have become so bad, disease and crime so prevalent that men can no longer figure them, investigation has revealed that wretched housing has been the root of all the evil. No community can hope for a healthful prosperous condition unless insanitary housing is the rule among the wage-earning class. Before there can be public health, physical or moral, the mass of the people must live in clean, light, sanitary houses. There are those who pretend to believe that the laboring masses prefer dirt and dissipation to cleanliness and sobriety. But these people are only the modern version of "Mr. Ponderby" and their opinion really carries no more weight. It has been proved that even the pig, the common synonym for dirt and squalor, thrives better when kept clean, and does not prefer the filth in which human beings keep him. It can hardly be contended that the pig is in this respect superior to the mass of men.

Most of the dissipation so much talked of as common among the wage-earning workers, is due to the necessity of getting out of the impossible tenement for a little recreation and change after a hard day's work. The one place always open hitherto has been the rum-shop. There were lights and companionship other than crying children or a tired woman still bending over a steaming wash-tub. Habits thus formed are hard to break, but that is no reason why even the ardent prohibitionist should close his eyes to the initial cause. At least seven times out of ten drunkenness originally grew out of poverty and wretchedness rather than caused them. Now that the saloons are officially closed, and at least dare not openly attract men into their "gayly lighted interiors," it is full time that something definite was done to improve the housing conditions. A sober man is not going to be satisfied with a hovel. He is going to realize that his family are suffering in health and morals from the same cause that drove him nightly to the saloon. Anything that will improve the sort of place where the wage-earner is now compelled to live, will more than pay for itself in the improved physical and moral health of the community. It will do more than this. It will save the spread of Bolshevism and prevent the civilization man has so painstakingly built up during the last twenty centuries from being completely wrecked.

The war has taught us many things if we but heed them, none of which is more important than that labor must hereafter get a big enough share of its own product to provide for sanitary housing, good food, proper clothes and that degree of education which will fit it to carry the industrial life of the world to the high plane where it rightly belongs. Housing is the first essential here. Let us see to it at once.

Responsibility Of Crown Prince

An Object of Destination Or Ridicule Views Still Differ

American Journalist Tells of Interview With Kaiser's Son During Early Days of the War

What responsibility must be borne by the ex-Crown Prince for beginning the war? There is more difference of opinion as regards William the younger compared with William the elder. Everybody knows that if the Kaiser did not plot the war he had it in his power to keep out of it, and that if he had stood aside there would have been no war. The case for hanging William Hohenzollern senior is conclusive. But about the former Crown Prince there is more doubt. Is he a fire-cater, a man delighting in slaughter, a sinister figure who aimed to make himself popular in Germany by great military triumphs, and who drove his father into war by trying to outbid him for the regard of the German army and the German aristocracy? Or is he a rather empty-minded young man, more interested in sports and dissipation than in conquest, who knew little that was happening at the German foreign office and cared less, who has no military ability, and is good-natured and weak rather than powerful and malevolent?

Interview With Crown Prince. It is the latter picture that is drawn for us by Karl Wiegand, an American correspondent who was in Germany in the early years of the war, and who is probably the only journalist who had an interview with the former Crown Prince while the war was raging. Mr.

Cuticura For The Skin

The Soap to Cleanse and Purify The Ointment to Soothe and Heal. These fragrant, super-creamy emollients stop itching, clear the skin of pimples, blotches, redness and roughness, the scalp of itching and dandruff, and the hands of chaps and sores. In purity, delicate medication, refreshing fragrance, convenience and economy, Cuticura Soap and Ointment meet with the approval of the most discriminating. Ideal for every-day toilet uses.

Wiegand had the interview, which was extended over several days, at the headquarters of the Fifth German Army at Stenay, France, in the winter of 1914. He had to exercise considerable ingenuity to meet the Crown Prince, for when he made known his desire through the usual channels he was told that the Crown Prince was wanted to fight and not to talk, and it was plain enough that the foreign office dreaded what William might say to an American journalist.

Whether the interview was reported by Mr. Wiegand at the time we do not know, but it is recalled by him now in the New York Sun in order to prove that the former Crown Prince is rather an object of ridicule or of sympathy than of detestation. Admitted the English. He spoke excellent English, with what appeared to the fascinated correspondent to be an English accent, and expressed the greatest admiration for the English people and their institutions, openly confessing the doubt that German diplomats and statesmen would ever approach the English standard. At the same time he admitted that for initiative the French soldier was much superior to the individual German. Hanging from the chandelier in the dining room at the Crown Prince's headquarters was a number of little effigies or mannikins representing soldiers of the nations then at war with Germany, and once in the course of conversation somebody expressed curiosity as to the nationality of the next soldier that would have to be thus suspended. A general answered that certainly it would not be American. The Crown Prince was dubious, much to the astonishment of the other diners, for at that time the idea of the United States entering the war was certainly not entertained by a handful of Germans. But the Crown Prince insisted that it was more than a possibility, owing to the stupidity of the German diplomats.

He also declared that his father was surrounded by men who permitted him to know only what would serve their own interests, that he was never favored with an honest opinion that might conflict with his own views or desires. He admitted that the Kaiser was partly to blame for this, since he did not always want to hear the truth, especially if it happened to be unpleasant. "If I say anything I am represented as trying to interfere and told to keep my mouth shut," he said. Speaking of the origin of the war, he insisted that Germany was obliged to fight in her own defence, but he confessed that the blunders of German diplomacy had made this inevitable. He spoke only of blunders, but he confessed that the blunders of the foreign office was heartily reciprocated. There he was suspected of a desire to "butt in," and it was well recognized that as soon as he succeeded his father he would make a clean sweep of the statesmen then in control, with the single exception of Zimmermann.

A Nominal Leader. Mr. Wiegand says that the idea that the Crown Prince directed the Fifth German Army, that of Verdun fame, is an illusion. He commanded the army in the same sense that King George rules the British Empire. Nor is it reasonable to suppose that such a tremendous task as the proposed capture of Verdun would have been entrusted to the least experienced of the German field leaders and by many years the youngest of them. The Verdun plan was worked out by von Falkenhayn, and the general who was supposed to realize it was General Knobelsdorff, attached to the Crown Prince as chief of staff. Of course the idea was that the Crown Prince should reap the glory of the achievement, and it may be that the attempt on Verdun was prompted by dynastic as well as by military considerations. Some great military victory was necessary for the Crown Prince's Kaiser's gift of making an imposing figure in the limelight. On the con-

GERMAN OFFENSIVE AGAINST POLES HALTTED BY ARMY DISSENSIONS

Berlin, Wednesday, Feb. 12.—(By the Associated Press)—The German offensive against the Poles has come to a halt as a result of political dissensions among the troops, according to a dispatch to the Tagblatt from Bromberg. The soldiers' council refused to recognize an order recently issued by the minister of war. The troops on the other hand accepted it, and elected new military chiefs.

Ban Receptions To The Canadians

Owing to illness among the troops demonstrations are taboo in Portland

A Portland, Maine, despatch says: Following an announcement this morning that all demonstrations and receptions for returning Canadian wounded soldiers landing here, for which elaborate preparations had been made, must be stopped and were prohibited under penalty of a committee of citizens and newspaper men called upon Mayor Clarke to demand an explanation of such a drastic order. During the interview, letters from the Grand Trunk officials were shown which requested rather strongly that such action be taken on the ground that the greater number of Canadian wounded to land here were far from well and such demonstrations as local organizations and private parties had planned for them would be decidedly out of place. It was also stated that the matter had been taken up with the governor with the same argument put forth.

World Be Harmful. Being pressed for further information the mayor said that on one of the ships now on its way to Portland eight of the sick and wounded Canadians have already died and that more than two-score of the men are in such delicate condition that any demonstrations would cause a great deal more harm than good. A compromise, however, was reached to the effect that a band would be allowed to accompany a small official committee to the pier and play a few selections of a cheery nature.

GOOD TIME FOR THE TELEPHONE STAFF

The employees of the New Brunswick Telephone Company had a most enjoyable Valentine's entertainment and dance in the Schofield building, Prince William street last evening. The entire top floor was beautifully decorated for the occasion. O. J. Fraser, the general superintendent, was in charge of the affair. The evening was most enjoyably spent in dancing, songs and choruses. A solo entitled "Love Moon" was given by Ernest Till and was much appreciated. A reading entitled "Paddy's Reflection on Cleopatra's Needle" was given by Miss Pearl Wynn, and was greatly applauded. Miss Edna Knox then sang "The Blue Bird" most effectively, while a vocal solo by Miss Eva Spencer was much enjoyed. Miss A. B. Campbell, of the Central Baptist church choir, then rendered "Roll On, Beautiful World, Roll On," which was greatly enjoyed. Later in the evening refreshments were served, and needless to say they were one of the "hits" of the night. Mrs. J. J. Fraser, and Miss E. Marshall were the chaperones, and the following committee were in charge of all the arrangements: O. J. Fraser, I. Messerang, J. W. Dunham, S. E. Ebert, Miss C. F. Reed, Miss M. Driscoll, Miss A. Constipation Cured in His 78th Year Without Drugs

Did you ever know any person who was permanently cured of Constipation by taking drugs of any kind? Drugs seem to assist Nature at the time, but as time goes on larger doses are necessary until the trouble becomes chronic. Internal Bathing is the only real cure for Constipation. It keeps the Colon or Lower Intestine free from accumulation. Soon the system performs its regular functions unaided, and there is no further trouble. Mr. A. McLean, of Conger Lumber Co., Pary Sound, writes: "I have been troubled with Constipation for the last 35 or 40 years, and could not pass one day without taking medicine. I have used the J. B. L. Cascade since getting it 21 days ago, with wonderful results. Will recommend any person to use it." De. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York invented and perfected the "J. B. L. Cascade" for Internal Bathing, which is today the only efficient means of accomplishing the desired results. Dr. Tyrrell has published an interesting book on Internal Bathing, called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Constipated," which can be had free for the asking at E. Clinton Brown, Druggist, corner of Union and Waterloo streets, also F. W. Munro, Dispensing Chemist, 387 Main street, St. John. They will also be pleased to show and explain the "J. B. L. MUST CONTINUE WORK OF RELIEF

Canada had raised $500,000 for the patriotic fund, Sir Herbert Ames announced at a meeting of the St. John executive of that organization held at the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon. Those present included Judge Forbes, who presided; H. E. Rankin, G. S. Mayes, Senator Thomas, Richard Bell, J. H. Frink, in introducing Sir Herbert Ames, Judge Forbes referred to the fact that the patriotic fund would soon be depleted. Sir Herbert told the executive that it is on hand at the present time $10,000,000 and that half a million more is in sight. He spoke of the necessity of those who have not paid their subscriptions in full doing so in order that justice might be done those who have paid in full amounts. The maximum expenditure of a month totalled $900,000 and the sum on hand is sufficient to carry on the work for two months. "There was a falling off in the amount paid out of $25,000 in January. A total of $255,000 has been received since that time. The demand would be increased somewhat by overseas marriages and new families. Sir Herbert asked the relief organizations to keep themselves intact. Mr. Morris had come here from the west when such aid is needed. He announced that it would not be necessary to call upon the citizens of St. John again for funds. Mr. Morris will write a history of the patriotic fund and the various branches which they can give. The history will be for the war libraries of the world. Of the $500,000 raised in Canada for the patriotic fund not a cent had been disbursed through defalcation and there had been but little criticism of the administration of the fund. The civic hospital was kept intact for relief work, the employees being paid from interest on deposits in the banks. Sir Herbert favored the formation of a auxiliary organization to alleviate pressing cases of distress and want. The work of Mr. West and the local executive was greatly appreciated. The meeting tendered Sir Herbert and associates a vote of thanks.

Miss Jessie Church, though today she is no longer president of the Y. W. P. A., has some tangible tokens that personally and officially both the Y. W. P. A. and the employees of the Imperial Theatre have a very high regard for her. At the special meeting of the Y. W. P. A. last evening in the Veterans' hall Miss Church was the recipient of a handsome gold wrist watch and a small leather bag containing a gift and the gifts of the Y. W. P. A., and from the G. W. V. A. she received parting tokens in the shape of a beautiful solid silver vase twelve inches in height, a bouquet of flowers and a very fine fitted leather writing case with fountain pen and all complete. The gift of the vase was presented by the Imperial was responsible for a quite unexpected event. Miss Fairweather, the first vice-president of the Y. W. P. A. and the present acting president until the return of Miss Nan Brock, the newly elected president, made the presentation to the Y. W. P. A. gifts and Sergeant Puddy and Mrs. Tiltton the presentation of the G. W. V. A. gifts. The association itself received a heavy carved gavel from St. George's Society as a token of appreciation of its services.

Says Indigestion comes from an excess of hydrochloric acid.

A well known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids, and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful three or four times a day before breakfast while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, reverse the gas-making mass start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

GOOD HOMES NECESSARY

Housing Problem Depends on Land Problem, Says Prof. Sissons

Social Welfare Session — Many Speakers Urge Reforms and Education of Opinion

(Toronto Globe.)
 "All your education fails, all your hoarded money fails, unless you have growing up everywhere throughout the country happy families of children comfortably housed in attractive surroundings," said Professor C. B. Sissons, secretary of the Ontario Housing Commission, giving the first address at yesterday afternoon's session of the Social Welfare Congress, held at 21 McGill street, with D. B. Harkness of Winnipeg presiding. Professor Sissons outlined the history of the movement for better housing in Ontario. In the course of this sketch he referred to the recognition of state responsibility in the United States by the appropriation of $175,000,000 toward war housing; of the recognition of state responsibility in England as far back as 1851, and of the appropriation on Dec. 2 of $25,000,000 for housing in Canada. In the United States, he said, the grant was simply a war measure, but in Canada it shows that in peace as well as in war the government recognizes its responsibility.

A Progressive Act.
 The Ontario housing and accommodation act of 1914, Professor Sissons said, was one of the most progressive acts on the statute books of any country. Only one company has, up to date, been organized under the provisions of that act, and that is the Toronto Housing Company, whose enterprises on Spruce street and Bain avenue are very creditable, and whose 242 apartments and eight houses are always occupied and have also a long waiting list. "You can never settle the housing problem until you do something to settle the land problem," said the speaker, and spoke of the laying out of streets and the placing of houses and of the iniquity of having apartment houses on the outskirts of the city, outside the city limits, where every family ought to have its own home and its own plot of ground. Attractive, convenient and sanitary homes, he said, ought to be within the reach of the ordinary wage-earner, some of whom were now paying 40 per cent of their income for rent, when much of it ought to be spent for other things. In England 20 per cent was considered the maximum proportion of the income that could just be spent for rent.

Will Remember the Reactionaries.
 Mrs. A. M. Huestis recommended that the women's organizations of Toronto concern themselves with the housing question. Eleven years ago a group of women got busy and made a survey which revealed some dreadful housing conditions. If Toronto had taken the right action then, on the information these women placed before them, it would have saved millions of dollars. There wouldn't have been the crowded centres, and there wouldn't have been the 50 per cent advance in the cost of building that now have to be contended with. As to the men who voted against a housing commission for the city of Toronto, Mrs. Huestis said:

 "Now that we have a vote, we're going to remember them."
 Mrs. Huestis described also the Local Council of Women's Housing Scheme for business women, where, on Bain avenue, sixty-five young women have comfortable homes, where eighty-six could be comfortably accommodated, and where, by doubling up, 150 could be housed.

Responsibility of Citizenship.
 "The greatest service which your council can render to Canada today is to give the people a sense of their responsibilities as citizens," said G. Frank Beer's paper, which, in his absence, was read by Professor Sissons. Social progress, he said, is governed by the measure of responsibility attached to citizenship. We need many things, but above all we need a new attitude toward community life. As long as we look upon social service as philanthropy or as an adjunct of religion, we will not get that new attitude. We must approach it not as altruists or reformers, nor from the standpoint of uplift, but as our plain duty as citizens.

"I maintain," said Sam Carter, M. P. of Guelph, "that the government should not trust to companies, but should take charge of the building of houses for working men. A $2,000 house, he said, could be paid for in instalments, and at $20 a month would be less than rent, and would complete the purchase of the property in ten years. Mr. Carter would have the government also stop the gambling in land. There should be no temporizing with the thing. The necessary land should be expropriated. The railways do it, they take our home and they run through our sacred ceremonies, and why shouldn't the government do the same for our workers?"

Standing Committees.
 A resolution was brought in by Mrs. C. Hamilton of Ottawa, head of the Victorian Order of Nurses, providing that the congress ask the social service councils of Ontario and Canada to consider the question of housing at their business sessions, and, if thought wise, to appoint standing committees to promote by such measures as they see fit the movement for better housing. This was passed after a number of short speeches had been made in support of it.

Dr. Peter Boyce thought something composite ought to be done in the way of an organized attempt to bring opinion to bear upon the government in the matter of land reform. Thousands of acres are out of cultivation around Toronto, and has anything been done as yet to remedy the matter from a legislative standpoint? If the land speculators are allowed to take up the land that is needed, the whole community will have to be taxed for workingmen's houses.

Hugh Dobson of Regina spoke of the necessity of housing going hand in hand with careful town planning, and said he would like to see Mr. Adams, at Ottawa, set aside wholly for town planning and all our cities given the advantage of his advice.

Some "company" towns, Mr. Dobson said, were so filthy that we wouldn't allow our cattle to live under such conditions.

COVENANT ESTABLISHING LEAGUE OF NATIONS PRESENTED TO PEACE CONFERENCE

Paris, Feb. 14.—President Wilson was the central figure of the plenary peace conference today when in person he read the covenant establishing a League of Nations. There was added interest in the session as it was the largest gathering of the delegates prior to the president's departure as well as being the occasion of presenting the document with which his name is identified.

The president was received with military honors as he arrived at the foreign office and the large crowds which had congregated gave him a cordial welcome as he passed through. The delegates were already assembled when the president entered the council chamber.

When he entered the chamber, the president was greeted by Premier Clemenceau, Foreign Secretary Balfour and Viscount Milner, of Great Britain and the American delegates at the head of the table. There was little formality. Premier Clemenceau, who is presiding at the conference called the conference to order, and President Wilson rose and addressed the gathering.

"I have very great pleasure," said President Wilson, as he began, "in presenting the report of the committee which has framed the constitution of a League of Nations. I am particularly happy to be able to say it is a report signed by the representatives of all the powers on the committee."

President Wilson spoke earnestly, but without oratorical effect. "The best report I can make," the president continued, "is to read the document itself."

Thereupon he read from a printed sheet the constitution of the League, while the assembly followed his reading with the closest attention.

The results, said President Wilson, represented the judgement of fourteen nations represented on the commission, and these fourteen nations were a representative group of the conference itself.

"There is a union of will in a common purpose," the president proceeded. "It is a union which cannot be resisted, and I dare say, one which no nation will attempt to resist."

The president pointed out that the document was no "straight jacket." It was elastic, and not a vehicle of might, he said.

It is yet to be developed, and as yet care should be taken as to the clothes put on it. While elastic, yet it was definite.

"IT IS DEFINITE," continued President Wilson, "AS A GUARANTEE OF PEACE. IT IS DEFINITE AS A GUARANTEE AGAINST AGGRESSION. IT IS DEFINITE AGAINST A RENEWAL OF SUCH A CATASTROPHISM AS HAS JUST SHAKEN CIVILIZATION."

The president spoke with especial emphasis as he referred to the wrongs committed against helpless peoples. "There is one especially notable feature in this document," he said. "We are done with annotations of helpless peoples, at times accomplished in the past for the purpose of the exploiting of those peoples. In this document we recognize that these helpless communities are first to be helped and developed and that their own interests and well-being shall come before any material advantage to the mandatory entrusted with their case."

Too often in the past, the president added, the world had seen the lands of helpless communities appropriated for selfish purposes.

"AND SO," he said, "WHILE THIS IS A PRACTICAL DOCUMENT, IT IS ABOVE ALL A HUMAN DOCUMENT. IT IS PRACTICAL, AND AT THE SAME TIME IT IS DESIGNED TO PURIFY, TO RECTIFY, TO ELEVATE."

President Wilson closed his address at 4.30 o'clock, having read and spoken just one hundred minutes. An interpreter then proceeded to render a discourse, which occupied another hour.

BEER BRUTALIZES.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—Observation, covering a period of years, as well as the testimony of scientific men and others, leads all candid men to declare that beer is brutalizing.

Someone was insisting that beer did no harm—it could not. An army officer, a colonel, overhearing the remark, replied: "You may be right, but I lived in the same apartment house once with a German who came home from chunder every Sunday bringing on his shoulder an 'eight' leg of beer. He drank it till night, and then he always wound up by kicking his wife downstairs."

Another of the men suggested that the beer-drinking habits of German people might account for atrocious tendencies among German soldiers. A gentleman in the group, intelligent, well-informed, and frank, said: "You may not know that I have been a drinker myself, in an occasional moderate way, a beer drinker. For a while I took a glass of beer when it was handy, or I was invited to do so."

Just a glass of beer at one time, because I chose to, and had no scruples against it. But by and by I discovered that for a day or two after the one glass I felt differently. A kind of brutal feeling possessed me, at which I first wondered, but which I could not immediately throw off. Then I began to study over it, trying to think it out. After a number of experiences, making a fair test, there was but one conclusion—the beer had a brutalizing effect upon me. It made me want to do brutal things. I stopped it entirely and the brutal tendency stopped.

No other word fits the case. The brutality of the German army in France and Belgium has shocked the civilized people.

Yours to victory.

SPEAKS OF ST. JOHN N N

Under the caption of "Who's Who" in Metropolitan, Boston, is published the following:

The Merchants' Paper (The Druggists' Link) speaks of the success of Paul C. Klein Drug Co., who owns and operates two busy drug stores, one in the heart of Boston, at the corner of Essex and Washington streets, and the other in Wollaston, Mass., both stores handling a heavy volume of business. The Klein Drug Co. is known throughout the theatrical world as proprietors and manufacturers of the famous "Yang Kiang Creams." The Essex and Washington street store was opened in 1907 with two St. John men on the staff, Gleason H. Allan, manager Fairville Drug Co., Ltd., and Percy M. Ross, whose family is now residing in Saskatoon. Mr. Allan, who was serving as an apprentice in the Klein Drug Co's Tremont street store, while studying in the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, was honored from among twenty-seven employees to turn the key in the new branch, which is today one of, if not Boston's leading drug stores. The first manager was Mr. Ross, who was a former employee of S. McDiarmid of the Royal Pharmacy, King street. Mr. Ross on the outbreak of war returned to Canada and was granted a commission and proceeded overseas as quartermaster in a western medical unit. It is obvious that optimism and success have and will travel hand in hand with both employers and employees.

The trip has been arranged by the Railway War Board, and, if the C. P. O. S. steamer Metagama is not in, the visitors are to be given a trip around the harbor and shown the docks, sugar refinery, the big steamers and other points of interest. If the Metagama is in they will be shown how returning soldiers are handled at this port.

An effort is being made to induce the writers to stay over another day before they proceed to Halifax. A telegram was sent asking them to make a change in their programme, and a reply has been received saying they will be glad to do so if it can be arranged. According to the original plan they were to leave Monday night for Halifax.

They will be tendered a banquet Monday evening at the Union Club by the board of trade. Fred. Cook, of Ottawa, is in charge. He is an old Press Gallery man and was once Mayor of Ottawa. After leaving Halifax the editors will go to Quebec.

The electrical contractors of the city held a second meeting last night at the rooms of the Retail Merchants' Association to consider the proposed revision of the by-laws relating to wiring, etc. There was a large attendance.

FOOD WILL PREVENT DISEASE

Food is always a better preventive of disease than serums, toxins or other drugs—but be sure the food is pure, clean, nourishing and easily digested.

Shredded Wheat

is the most thoroughly cooked cereal in the world. It is the whole wheat boiled in steam, drawn into filmy, porous shreds and then baked crisp and brown in coal ovens. Epidemics of disease may be traced to under-nourishment. Keep yourself fit by eating foods that fortify you against disease. Serve Shredded Wheat with hot milk or cream and fruits.

A Tribute to the Hardest Worked Merchants in Our Country

HAVE you ever considered the important part played by the grocer in our daily life?

From early morn and often until late at night the grocer keeps open for our convenience.

Whether we want a 5-cent bar of soap, a package of tea or a sack of potatoes he is there to serve us—and with a cheerful "thank you."

You trade with him almost every day. You look upon him as a friend. He treats your children kindly when you send them to the store.

When sickness, accident or unemployment occurs, it is the big-hearted grocer who supplies the home with the necessities of life and often waits a long time for his money.

He has had many trials during the past four years. Government regulations have hampered his business. Goods have been difficult to procure. Help scarce. Profits small. He sells on a closer margin of profit than probably any other line of retail trade.

For nearly twenty-five years, the T. H. Estabrooks Company has been distributing millions of pounds of Red Rose Tea through the grocers of Canada. Our relations with them have been very intimate and very friendly. We, therefore, know something of their difficulties and something of the services they are rendering, which we think deserve recognition and appreciation.

Canadian Meat for Huns. There has been a tentative agreement between the Allies and German representatives as to furnishing food to Germany, dependent upon the acceptance by the Germans of the armistice terms to be submitted. Canada has a direct commercial interest in the impending settlement as it is understood that twenty per cent of the meat products shipped to Germany are to be Canadian.

A sad case has come to light in connection with the return of the soldiers and their families. Private Copeland arrived on the Metagama three weeks ago with his wife and two children on their way to their home in the west. During the voyage his wife and children became ill, with influenza and were placed in the hospital on their arrival here. The mother and one daughter died and just as the other, a baby girl one year old, was about ready to proceed, the father became ill and was removed to the military hospital. The father is now recovering and arrangements are being made by relief organizations to care for the child until he is ready to travel.

nary on the outbreak of the war, trusting the conveyance of their thousands of troops to the sailor. The Navy League, he felt certain, would see to it that the country was educated to the sentiment and uses of navy power.

Toronto Speaker. Commodore Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, proposed the toast to the Provincial Division, and pointed out some of the places where British Columbia and Victoria especially in one or two special instances—had pioneered movements which were now part of the propaganda of the Navy League of Canada.

In this connection he instanced the Naval Brigade. Nowhere else in the Dominion were there finer Seamen's and Sailors' Institutes than in Victoria.

William McNeil, who replied to this toast, said he hoped that that gathering would be the nucleus of a greater membership campaign.

The Army. Mr. Justice McPhillips proposed the toast to the Army, mentioning some of the great generals who had led the fighting units which had helped to bring victory to the Allies. Personally he was for a state of preparedness. He did not rank himself among those who believed there would be no more wars.

In replying, Major-General Leckie, C. M. G., G. O. C., referred to the continued uses of the army, which was still required for occupation of Germany and for the policing of the railways in Russia.

Women's Work. Mrs. Blackwood Wileman, president of the Women's Institutes of British Columbia, in a brief pithy speech proposed the toast to "Women's Work in the Navy League," promising the wholehearted support of womanhood as she knew it to the interests of this great Imperial service.

The reply was by Mrs. Hanington, of Ottawa, chief superintendent of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, who referred to some of the big lessons which women had gleaned from the war. It was when the First Canadian Expeditionary Force in October, 1914, started on their danger-beset voyage to Europe that the women of Canada had first realized that the Navy meant to Canada and to the Empire.

The last toast of the evening was "The Province," moved by W. J. Bowser in a very short address, and replied to by Hon. Dr. J. H. King.

The toast list was headed by that honored by tradition, "The King," proposed by A. C. Flumerfelt, Hon. Vice-president and chairman. There followed six others, proposed and responded to as quoted: "Dominion Council," C. H. Dunbar, chairman Kamloops Branch. Reply, W. G. Ross, Dominion president.

"British Navy and Mercantile Marine," Peter Wright (councillor), chairman Seaman's Union. Reply, Rear-Admiral Colomb, R. N. N. "Provincial Division," Commodore Jarvis, S. S. D., president Ontario Division. Reply, Wm. McNeil, of Vancouver. "The Army," Hon. Mr. Justice McPhillips. Reply, Major-General R. G. E. Leckie. "Women's Work in the Navy League," Mrs. Blackwood-Wileman, president Women's Institutes of British Columbia. Reply, Mrs. H. C. Hanington, of Ottawa, president Canadian Order of Nurses. "The Province," The Hon. W. J. Bowser. Reply, Hon. Dr. King.

The list of those invited to the banquet includes the names of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Allan of St. John, C. B. Brydson-Jack, C. W. Halloran, Rt. Rev. Bishop Schofield, Rt. Rev. Bishop MacDonald, and Hon. W. J. Bowser, M. P.

MONCTON WANTS AN ENLARGED HOSPITAL. At a meeting of the Moncton Hospital Board on Wednesday President Chapman spoke of the recent increased work of the hospital. Rooms were at a premium. Some more should be made at once to provide accommodation or else go out of business. He thanked Mrs. Doyle for her interest in getting Mr. Stevens, a New York architect, to remain over and attend the meeting in connection with proposed extension to the hospital. The city council representatives were present and he hoped would work together with the board. He believed the citizens were in favor of assessment pro rata for provision of additional accommodation.

Mr. Stevens, on motion, was heard. He had been deeply interested in the welfare of hospitals. He believed in considering the needs of patients first and all others second. The environment of the patient must be as pleasant as possible. He would place himself at the disposal of the board and would help in any way possible.

President Chapman read a letter recently written by Mr. Stevens, in which the latter suggested that if a new wing was added that it be called a "Soldiers' Memorial Wing." The board could do nothing better than follow the plan. President Chapman added. It was certainly up to the city to erect a lasting memorial to the boys who defended our liberty.

Mr. McClure said he felt the city was soon to have a campaign along hospital lines and he believed the citizens would enter it with enthusiasm. The bodies he represented certainly would do their share. Mr. Stevens was heard further in support of such a campaign.

J. A. Marven said the need for more hospital room was apparent. The drawback was that the city had to pay more than its share. He believed Westmorland county and adjacent ones should do their share. Personally he would do all he could to assist any move made to help the hospital.

Dr. Coleman said the placing of maternity and isolation wards should be considered. If they were going to do anything they should do it right. He believed the various churches, instead of putting in memorial windows, etc. would take a big part in erecting a more fitting memorial such as a hospital wing.

This suggestion was very favorably commented on by the board members.

Coun. C. B. Keith said he was certain Westmorland county council would do their fair share in any project like the one mentioned. The council had said so.

COMPLETING INSPECTION. Major-General John Hughes, who is now carrying out the annual inspection of Military District No. 7, New Brunswick, returned yesterday on the noon train from Fredericton, where he had been looking over the machinery of the district depot and other military buildings there. Upon his return here, General Hughes was taken by motor car to the various points of interest about the city in company with General Macdonell, G. O. C. local headquarters. The visiting officer expressed himself as being greatly pleased with St. John and its facilities, and showed keen interest in all the places he had seen. He will complete the inspection of the district today, and this evening he will leave by the late train for Halifax, where he will conduct the annual inspection of M. D. No. 6. It is understood that General Hughes is well satisfied with the manner in which things are being carried out here by General Macdonell and his efficient staff of officers.

NORTHCLIFFE ON A HOLIDAY

Outstanding Figure in This Century's Journalism

He Defeated Germany?

Opinion of Colonel George Harvey Who Credits Him With Changes That Led to Victory

Commenting on the retirement of Lord Northcliffe from the management of the score or more newspapers and periodicals which he owns, Colonel George Harvey, one of the most brilliant of American publicists, expresses the opinion that Northcliffe cannot really retire. "He will die with his boots on," says Harvey. He also expresses the opinion that to Northcliffe and the London Times England owes the fact that Germany was defeated. Northcliffe was aware of the German peril. In 1912, in the course of a conversation with Harvey, he predicted that there would be war with Germany within three years. In 1915 he said that the war was not being won, and that it would be lost unless Lloyd George could be put in Asquith's place. He said that Lloyd George was the one man in England for the tremendous task. Those who believe that the war was being lost under Asquith and that the tide was turned by the coalition government must admit that Harvey's tribute to Northcliffe and the Times is justified, for to Northcliffe and the Times was due the downfall of Asquith.

Greatest of Journalists. Lord Northcliffe is easily the outstanding figure in the journalism of this generation. He started with nothing, and in little more than thirty years made himself many times a millionaire—in pounds sterling—won for himself a peerage, and another for his brother, secured control of the most important newspaper in the world, the London Times, which he had the rare judgment not to either debase or uplift, and bought up a score of other papers and periodicals. He has made and unmade governments, and altered the policy of the war. It is not so long ago when Northcliffe was the best hated man in England. This was when he was attacking Lord Kitchener for sending shrapnel instead of high explosive shell to the front. Kitchener was the British idol. He had been made secretary of war largely at Northcliffe's behest. Now he was being accused of imperilling the British army because of his failure to understand that shrapnel was useful only for use against troops advancing in the open. Northcliffe was burnt in effigy in a hundred English towns. His papers were destroyed, and publicly banned with bell, book and candle. Yet he held on, and the high explosive was sent out.

Northcliffe and His Men. A veteran journalist who worked on one of the Northcliffe papers for years and came often into contact with Northcliffe, says that he was the best employer a newspaper worker ever had—if the newspaper worker had the goods. Since Northcliffe entered the field of daily journalism in London, some twenty odd years ago, the wages of writers have doubled, largely because Northcliffe paid large salaries to attract the men he wanted. It used to be said of him, as it has been said of his American counterpart, Hearst, that he lured men by high wages, squeezed them dry in a few months and then tossed them aside. To this it may be said that men are not squeezed dry of ideas in a few months. Thomas MacIver, editor of the Daily Mail, who succeeds Northcliffe as chairman of his various publishing interests has been editor of the Mail for twenty years. He evidently was not tossed aside. The journalist quoted, Frank Dilnot, says that the reason Northcliffe turned drift so many writers after a short trial was because they did not make good. They were "shines," mere flashes in the pan.

Didn't Want Cheap Content. Northcliffe, he tells us, in the New York Sun, was always available to the men who worked for him. He encouraged them to make suggestions. Those who had good ideas were generously rewarded. If they were ill they were sent on long voyages until they recovered. Money was no object. He used often to stop his reporters and editors and question them. One young fellow who had been with him for three months was questioned one day on the stairs as to how he liked his job. He said everything was fine, he was perfectly contented and happy. "How much are you earning?" asked Northcliffe. "Five pounds a week," was the answer. "Then you are not the man for me," was the retort. "I don't want any member of my staff to be happy and contented with five pounds a week." The writer does not say whether the contented young man was fired or given a raise.

Secrets of Success. Mr. Dilnot tells a curious story about a motor accident in which the London Daily Mail offered a large reward for the discovery of the driver of an automobile which killed a child and then escaped before its number could be discovered. He sent his special reporters to work on the case, and after some clever sleuthing they learned that the car was owned by his brother, Hildebrand Harnsworth. However, the car had been taken out by the chauffeur for an unauthorized joy ride, and Hildebrand was found guiltless. On the same night there was a sensational murder, and when it was suggested that the Daily Mail ought to offer a reward, Northcliffe hesitated, and said, half aloud, "But where was my brother Hildebrand on that night?" One of the secrets of Northcliffe's success has been his ability to concentrate his mind on a single problem to the exclusion of all others. Thus, if one of his papers was not making good, he would take no rest and give no rest to his advisers until he had located the reason, and had taken steps to remove it. Apart from this he knows "What the public wants," and this, after all, is the secret of everybody's success.

MONEY WASTED IN SHIP CANAL

Waterway From Great Lakes to Montreal Would Not be a Success, in Opinion of N. Y. State

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 14—The contention that a ship canal from the Great Lakes to Montreal would not be a commercial success and that Congress, upon investigation, would find that any money spent in bringing it about would be wasted, was made by Lewis Nixon, superintendent of public works, in a letter to Governor Smith and submitted by the executive in a special message to the legislature. Mr. Nixon called attention to the amendment to the River and Harbor bill now pending in congress which would provide that the International Joint Commission created by treaty between the United States and Great Britain be requested to investigate what further improvement of the St. Lawrence River between Montreal and Lake Ontario is necessary to make it navigable for ocean-going vessels, together with the estimated cost, and report to the governments of Canada and the United States with its recommendation for cooperation of the United States in the improvement of the river. The State of New York could not urge stoutly a selfish opposition on the ground that even if the proposed route proved desirable, it might injure cities or localities of the state while benefitting the nation as a whole, the letter pointed out. Consume Too Much Time. Opposition to the amendment was based largely by the superintendent of public works on the ground that great ships, built for the open sea or Great Lakes, would not find it profitable to use the proposed canal because of the much greater time which would be necessary in traversing the shallow and narrow waters than the open water. The big ships, it was stated, run at about the rate of ten miles an hour, while a speed of five miles an hour would be the maximum for them to operate in the canal waters. Taking into consideration that lake vessels, costing large sums of money can earn returns for only seven months, they must make as many trips as possible, it was stated. A cargo of grain from Duluth to Buffalo could be made in about eight days at a cost of $1,000. Assuming a high lake freight,

The trip would pay the vessels $10,000. The return trip with coal would pay the ship's expenses back. But if the ship cost about $1,500, and she would have no coal to take back. "Instead of making twenty trips the owner could count on only about ten," wrote Superintendent Nixon, "so unless he could secure twice the freight from Duluth to Chicago, he would not engage in such service. "We are looking forward to when government control of traffic ceases and the carrying of grain by steamer and three 18,000 bushel consortos to reduce the cost from Buffalo to New York to one and one-half cents a bushel. We may dismiss the idea of ocean-going vessels using the Montreal-to-lake route. They cost more to run than lake vessels and the loss of time in restricted channels as compared with the open sea would mean a serious cut in earnings."

Candy not a Luxury

IT would be folly indeed if a belief detrimental to the public welfare—and proven false—was allowed to last any longer. That false belief is that candy is a luxury.

Candy is food in one of its most useful and attractive forms.

All elements used in the composition of Candy are recognized useful foods.

Candy contains large quantities of sugar, some fats such as butter; also nuts, fruits, corn syrup, chocolate and flavoring.

Combine these ingredients in proper proportions and you have a balanced ration—the high food value of which is recognized by all leading food and medical authorities.

Sugar supplies the bodily demand for fuel. Fruits and nuts produce essential nutriment; chocolate is a most nourishing fat food and delightful stimulant. The flavorings stimulate the digestive organs and increase the flow of saliva and gastric fluid.

Eat more candy!

Medical science has established its value as an energy-producing food.
