THE ANGLE LAMP

There's danger in the ordinary oil lamp—the lamp that sits on the table, but the Angle Lamp is different. It is a beautiful, brilliant light everywhere. It cannot explode, can be filled while lighted and is always out of the way. It burns "old-fashioned" kerosene giving an intense, clear, soft light. Its soothing rays invigorate the skin and rest the eyes. It is always ready, easy to operate, no smoking, no odor, no glassware to remove in lighting or extinguishing. A better light at one-eighth the cost of other illuminants. Instead of the trying light and dangers and trouble of Gasoline and Acetylene use the soft, cool light of The Angle Lamp to work or play by. 20 style.

A LIVELY SKIRMISH FOUGHT IN CUZA.

Government Forces Drove Insurgents From a Town.

Worked Their Way Through the Streets Where the Rebels Occupied Houses—Only Nine Were Killed.

HAVANA, Sept. 12.—Col. Avalos' report of the capture of Consuelo del Sur, Sept. 8th, which was effected in conjunction with a movement of arms, was received last night by General Rodriguez, commander of the Rural Guard. It is the first report of one of the liveliest fights of the present war. Col. Avalos with 400 cavalry and infantry approached the town at eight o'clock Sunday morning. The cavalry advanced first, the infantry entering the town from both sides and steadily driving back the insurgents, whose force is estimated at 1,500. The insurgents were entrenched in the quarters of the rural guards and occupied positions in the church and city hall and behind pillars and porches. The insurgents were slowly subdued. Col. Avalos says that the triumph of the government forces was due partly to the disorganized condition of the insurgents. Seventy wounded and nine dead bodies were found after the fight. The two lieutenants and four rural guards were wounded. The government forces captured 150 horses and many accoutrements.

HAVANA, Sept. 12.—It is reported that the rebels near Cienfuegos are planning a concentrated attack on the city. They claim to be several thousand strong. The government is taking precautions.

GRAND JURY MAY INDICT PHILIPS

Head of York County Loan Charged With Conspiracy Only.

TORONTO, Sept. 12.—At the opening of the general session today Judge Winchester, after Miss Alice May Tower, in their duties, said: "There is another case I must speak to you about. I do not know if the principal is in the city, but it is against Joseph Phillips. He was manager of the York County Loan and Savings Co. and is charged with conspiring with others to take wrongfully and use to his own ends, money put into the company by depositors. He is not charged with taking money, but with conspiracy. The term conspiracy is wide. It consists of two people agreeing together to do an unlawful action; it does not matter whether the action is done or not. This one will be in hand and the case will be brought before the grand jury. The company will be before the grand jury and the crown attorney may have another charge or charge to bring. If so, they will be added to the list."

ANOTHER EXPEDITION TO THE SOUTH POLE

BRUSSELS, Sept. 12.—At the session of the Polar Congress here today Dr. Jean Charcot announced that he was organizing an expedition to the south pole, and Charles Benard, president of the Belgian Geographical Society, stated that the society was organizing an expedition to the North Pole. The two expeditions will operate in concert.

NATIONAL CONGRESS MET THIS MORNING

Mayor Searns Read an Address of Welcome.

Told the Delegates Who Understood English What a Nice Place St. John Is—Visitors Pleased with the Reception

The fourth annual convention of the National Trades and Labor Congress opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the M. N. A. hall. President Mee called the meeting to order and introduced Mayor Searns.

The mayor said that he did not feel a stranger among the delegates, nor did he intend to greet them as strangers, but he wanted to consider them as companions (cheers). His worship then read the following address of welcome:

It has been my pleasure to have greeted many representatives during my civic career, but I assure you, to none have I ever extended a warmer hand or offered a more sincere welcome than I now do to you, knights of labor as you are called together from many distant points in our loyal city to consult over matters material to your mutual interests and pertinent to the establishment of labor and capital as shall promote harmony and provide for the reduction of friction in the machinery of our economic organizations.

You have come, my friends, to a city, born as it were upon the battlefield—used to dangers and to privations—that has undergone many trials and has come unscathed out of many conflicts. It has had to learn its lessons under severe discipline, and to measure its rewards as result of direct effort and unflinching determination.

Muscle, pluck, brains and application have evolved much for us, and it is up to us today to determine what our future development shall be.

Energy is the controlling force in the world. Education must determine its application and measure its bounds. So with you, workers, come to this table, another refuge states that on Saturday night the doctors at the Jewish hospital in Silesia treated the gas in that institution preparatory to operating upon the wounded who had been brought in, who numbered seventy, when, without warning the soldiers in the street opened fire upon the hospital, and the doctors and nurses were included one soldier and one policeman. Two other policemen were seriously wounded. A great number of arrests have been made.

SILESIA, Sept. 12.—The town which was comparatively quiet today. People are beginning to move about in the streets and the shops are opening again, although occasional shots lead to temporary renewals of the alarm. Some reports of the revolt last December, when soldiers fired from a garret this morning drove a volley from troops but no casualties ensued.

About three hundred wounded persons have been cared for in the hospitals or attended by ambulance surgeons.

MOSCOW, Sept. 12.—Vladimir Mazury the leader of the Moscow section of the "Young group" and his principal lieutenant have been captured after a running fight with agents of the secret police in the courses of which Mazury was wounded. Mazury is a mere youth and when he was caught he begged the officers to kill him immediately, recognizing that he would undoubtedly be executed. He was the directing spirit in the bank robbery committed here last March by Belen-zoff, and he is accused of the murder of Co. Von Loshnikov, of the secret service, during the revolt last December. He is considered to be one of the most important leaders of the entire terrorist group.

WARSAW, Sept. 12.—The soldiers on duty here engaged at the continuance of the revolutionaries are taking energetic steps to prevent an attack on the Jews who are in a state of panic. Silesia is reported quiet today.

BURNS MEMORIAL.

Frederick Monument Will be Placed in Front of the Boating Club House.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 12.—The committee on the Burns memorial, with a committee of the city council, this morning selected the site for the monument. The spot chosen is in front of the boating and bicycle club house on "Penney Avenue" and just in rear of the band stand. The latter structure will be removed at once. The committee expect to proceed with the erection of the pedestal without delay.

The remains of the late Miss Margaret Prith Smith were taken to St. John this morning for burial. J. J. McCaffrey of this city and Miss Scovell of St. John, accompanied the body.

FIRE THREE SHOTS

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 12.—Nettie Hicks, a colored woman, attempted to murder her husband last night, through jealousy. She fired three shots at him from a 38-calibre revolver, and although each bullet hit him no serious injury was done.

Royal Mail Steamship Empress of Britain reported sixty miles east of Belleisle at 5 a. m. today.

RUSSIAN SLAUGHTER STILL CONTINUES.

Correspondent Tells of Conditions at Siedlce.

Starving Women and Children Tramp the Streets—Evidence Everywhere of the Brutality of Soldiers

WARSAW, Sept. 12.—With the sanction of the authorities who provided an armed guard for the mission, the Associated Press correspondent this afternoon visited Siedlce, the scene of the murderous events of September 8th, 8th and 9th. The railway station was crowded with Jews, among whom were many starving women with infants in their arms. When there fell upon the ears of the frightened people the sound of a volley being fired in the town, half a mile away, a panic ensued, and the Jews fled in all directions, imploring the soldiers for mercy, anticipating the slaughter of their loved ones and themselves.

On the streets of Warsaw stores and shops were closed and showed signs of having been plundered. Pictures of saints were hanging outside the windows of many houses, mute appeals to the four of which the Kaiser spent there on the eve of the manoeuvres when the most elaborate precautions were taken to protect him. It is not explained why they were not arrested then, as they are alleged to be known as more dangerous than others who are reported to have been arrested or expelled from the country. A dozen police entered a house which was their rendezvous on Posener street today. They had a hard fight to capture the desperadoes, who savagely resisted with knives and daggers, but after a long tussle in which the furniture of the room was wrecked, the police, who were handcuffed them. It is stated that the papers found in the house established the fact that the three men were constantly communicating with the terrorists group, for whom they were acting as agents. Papers indicated their intention was to throw a bomb at the Emperor while he was riding in an automobile between certain points of the manoeuvres.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A Berlin cable to the Sun says, according to the Tageblatt, the Kaiser was just saved from being the victim of an anarchist plot by the timely arrest at Breslau of three foreigners who had been committed by the International terrorist organization to assassinate his majesty during the military manoeuvres he is now attending in Silesia. The prisoners are an Italian, by the name of Maccio, or Macclini, an Austrian, known as Flegner, or Friedling, and a Pole, named Landenberg, or Lendenberger. Maccio was expelled from Italy two years ago. Since that he has associated with the Russian terrorists in Geneva. He shared in recent outrages in Poland.

The three arrived at Breslau at different times. They were watched by the detectives for several days, including the four of which the Kaiser spent there on the eve of the manoeuvres when the most elaborate precautions were taken to protect him. It is not explained why they were not arrested then, as they are alleged to be known as more dangerous than others who are reported to have been arrested or expelled from the country. HEARST PARTY STANDS
BY A STRAIGHT TICKET

William Also-Ran-Rolph Hearst Nominated For Governor of New York by Independence Party.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The advocates for a complete ticket were jubilant because the convention of the Independence League last night put itself on record as favoring the nomination of William Hearst, of New York, as a straight ticket and instructed the committee on resolutions to inform W. J. Conners and other delegates to the Democratic state convention. The convention will meet again at eight o'clock tonight when a full ticket will be nominated. From talks with many of the delegates and with the leaders of the movement it appeared today that the following ticket is preferred:

For Lieutenant-Governor—Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, of Dutchess.
For Secretary of State—Reuben R. Lyon, of Stuten.
For Controller—Isaac Rosenbloom, of Onondaga.
For Attorney General—John Ford, of New York.
For State Treasurer—Dr. C. H. Axel, of Erie.
For State Engineer and Surveyor—No candidate decided on.

FIRE STILL BURNING AFTER

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to a morning paper from Pottsville, Pa., says:

"The fire in Anchor Colliery of the Reading Co., which started thirty-seven years ago is still burning as fiercely as ever.

When the fire got beyond control of the fire fighters, the mine was closed and filled with water. It has been filled since that time. Recently it was desired to pump out the water in the hope that the fire had been extinguished, but yesterday when much of the water had been taken out it was found that it was still burning.

The New Brunswick Telephone Co. today opened a new long distance line between Newcastle and Campbellton thereby giving terms on the North Shore direct communication with all parts of the province. HALIFAX AWAKENED

Early Morning Events Got the People Out Before Breakfast

A Dozen Happy Couples Started the Journey of Life Today—Church Weddings Most of Them

(Special to the Star.)
HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 12.—There were many weddings in Halifax this morning, and today a dozen young couples left on honeymoon trips. Crowds were at the depot at the departure of morning trains to see off the newly married friends. In the early morning hours carriages with white ribbons attached to whips were moving in all directions throughout the city and rose and confetti were in great demand.

At 7:30 the North Baptist church was the scene of a wedding in which many Halifax people were interested and numbers were at the church to witness the ceremony. The groom was Rev. John Irwin Pitkin of this city, but latterly of Tusket, Yarmouth, and the bride Miss Margaret Kierstead, daughter of W. K. Kierstead, and up to two months ago a valued member of Alexandra school teaching staff. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Jenner, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lawson of the West End Baptist church. O'Connor Co., and the Britannia Manufacturing Co., to Miss Lillian Lila Stay, daughter of Geo. Stay, took place in the Tabernacle, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. Vincent.

At St. Matthew's church at 7 o'clock the marriage took place of Lieut. George W. Murray, bookkeeper of the Acadia sugar refinery, and Miss Jennie Anderson Rowe, daughter of John Bowes. Rev. T. Fowler officiated.

There was a Hebrew wedding at the A. O. H. hall at 7 o'clock last evening, the provincial organizer's office, and Bridgewater and Miss Jennie Komarsky of Digby. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Schorr.

Sison performing the ceremony. Miss Allen, a brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Margaret Eakin of Yarmouth as bridesmaid.

The marriage took place at St. Stephen's chapel at 7:10 a. m. of Howard P. Reese, manager of the Union bank branch at North Sydney, and son of Rev. W. W. Reese, to Miss Beale Sutcliffe of Amherst and Yarmouth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hind, and the bride and groom were unattended. The bride wore a tailor made suit of blue cloth with trimmings and blue hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses and flowers. POOR DOCUMENT MC 2034

ST. JOHN'S STAR, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1906

AUSTRALIA'S LAST TARIFF CHANGES.

How Canadian Export Trade
Will be Affected.

Increase of Duty on Farm Implements
Will Injure the Manufacturing Industry Here.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Canada's agent at Melbourne, Mr. D. H. Ross, reports that owing to the disclosure of the Australian Government's intention to increase duties on agricultural implements anticipated orders here sent out as a consequence the Australian Government has decided to increase the duties from 12 to 15 per cent. above previous rates upon almost every trading line of agricultural implement and machinery. In some cases these which have been free are now made at from twenty to twenty-five per cent. There duties were at one time enforced but may be modified as they have to go before the Australian Parliament for confirmation. The work of the tariff commission has been completed but beyond improvements the only customs increases are upon wines and spirits.

On stripped harvesters, stump jump plows, strippers, disc cultivators, winnowers, horse or other power, old rate 12 per cent; new rate, 25 per cent. Other plows, plow shares, harrow, chain cutters and horse gear cultivators other than disc, scuffs, malles and other castings for agricultural implements, old rate, 12 per cent; new rate, 20 per cent. Combined corn sheller, husker and bagger and combined corn sheller and husker, old rate varies, new rate, 25 per cent. Flour mill, old rate, 15 per cent; new rate, 20 per cent. Hand worked rakes, and plows combined, hay tedders, maize harvesters, maize binders, maize planters, board board plates in the rough, and not cut into shape, potato sorters, potato raisers or diggers, are continued on the free list.

Mr. Ross says the net amount of duty payable is more than is superficially expressed for the reason that one per cent. is added to the invoice value of goods before the duty is completed thereon. Thus a duty of 15 per cent. net works out at 25 per cent. net and a duty of 20 per cent. net actually means 25 per cent. net.

Mr. Ross says Canada has hitherto supplied the bulk of the agricultural implements and machinery imported into Australia. It is premature at this juncture to express an opinion as to what the effect of the increased duties will be upon the trade, but until the trade is settled upon the new basis of duties it will be hard to interest importers in new lines of implements unknown to the trade.

He also says quite a number of orders have come under his observation for the usual lines of Canadian manufacturers. Hardware supplies and heavy goods received the greater portion of the business. Manufacturers' agents report that the uncertainty regarding the revision of the Australian customs tariff and also the impending general elections has prevented the closing of some interests of considerable value. Orders in some instances are subject to cabinet confirmation.

TORONTO, Sept. 11.—Confirmation of the statement that the duty on harvesters has been placed at 25 per cent. by the Australian Government, comes from a Canadian Associated Press despatch from London which says: "The Times has a Melbourne cable stating that the Federal House of Representatives placed a duty of 25 per cent. on harvesters and on ploughs."

Toronto has an interest in this action of the Australian Parliament as there is a large export trade in agricultural implements from this city to the Island Continent. The Massey Harris Company have for years done an extensive business in that direction. Senator L. M. Jones, President of the Massey Harris Company, who was asked on Saturday regarding the situation, said:

"From what I have seen in the despatches I should say that it is an enormous increase, I figure out that on our clipper harvesters, which is one of our most perfect and favorite machines, handling 25 to 30 acres, the crop in one operation from the standing grain to the bag ready for the mill, the increase will be from fifteen per cent. (the present duty) to thirty-five per cent. on the import value, and it will mean an increase of at least ten per cent. on our implements."

"Of course the duty is put on to encourage the local manufacturers but whether they will be able to supply the trade or not remains to be seen."

"Will it likely lead to your firm establishing a branch factory in Australia?"

"Oh, I don't think so," said the Senator, "but really we do not know yet just where we are at and until we hear from our Australian manager we cannot of course say definitely just how it will affect us."

Mr. Bruce Addison will lecture on temperance in the S. A. Hall, Brindley street, Thursday evening, Sept. 13th. Mr. Addison is an interesting speaker. There will also be a musical program consisting of vocal and instrumental music.

Business is nourished by constant and judicious advertising, as the earth is enriched by fertilizers, and both cause bountiful crops.—J. Walter Thompson, N. Y.

(Montreal Star.)

In a New Brunswick coast village a small industry was established some years ago. The proprietors, who were their own managers, produced an article which acquired a provincial reputation and ultimately found a market in Ontario, where it came into competition with the output of much larger industries. So large was the demand at length that after a fire had destroyed some of the shops it was thought best to rebuild on a larger scale in a more convenient distributing centre. Accordingly, additional capital was called in, a joint stock company was organized and the new plant was soon producing on a much larger scale than the old concern.

A meeting of the shareholders, held last week, resolved to sell the plant and wind up the business of this company, though it had been organized only three years ago. The press announcement gives two reasons for this action. It is stated that the company lost heavily by its first year's operations, and has never quite recovered from this misfortune. The other cause of trouble to which attention is here directed, Explanation is made that the business suffered by the withdrawal of one of the original partners, who retired from management, two or three years ago to become collector of customs for the port of St. John. This gentleman was one of many aspirants for the collectorship. His personal and political claims were strong. He had been a successful and honorable business man. As the most influential Liberal in his neighborhood he had done his party good service from the time he was old enough to vote until he took office. For several terms he sat in the Legislature and he was one of the senior members of the provincial administration. All these political and official duties did not interfere with his private business which continued to grow and prosper so long as the original firm remained.

No fault has been found with the administration of the St. John Custom House by the present collector. The duties are not the important factor, but the collector himself, who has seen his old business come to this crisis; then, when shareholders have given satisfaction as collector of customs, and some of these could, perhaps, have been well spared from other affairs. But the statement published by the local press conveys the impression that it was not so easy to fill the place of the fortunate applicant in the business position he had previously occupied.

Whether the appointment was fortunate, thirty years ago the position of postmaster of Halifax became vacant. The Mackenzie Government had a large choice among citizens desiring the office. Finally the appointment was given to a man well qualified for the position, and entitled to it by party service so far as that establishment claim. He was one of three brothers, who were proprietors of a newspaper and a printing office. They were all young men and were then probably taking in profits and earnings less than the salary of the postmaster. At the time the appointment was made the brother who received it would doubtless be considered the most fortunate of the three.

Mr. Hugh Blackader is still postmaster of Halifax. His salary is several hundred dollars larger than it was at the beginning, but is still short of $3,000. He has been a good officer, and probably has no reason to complain of the treatment he has received from the Government or the public. But it is obvious that he cannot live well and acquire a competence out of his salary.

The other brothers took over the newspaper and printing business and gave it their exclusive attention. One of them died a few years ago, leaving an estate, which, as an investment, yields two or three times the salary of the Halifax post office. The other retains the newspaper and printing business. He is besides a large real estate owner, a bank director and has numerous investments. It is known that he has refused a senatorship, and it is believed that he might, had he chosen, have been Lieutenant-Governor of his own province. He may be worth a quarter of a million or more. His life, especially during the last ten years, has been quite independent in the sense that he has been able to travel when and where he pleases, to live according to his inclinations and to give generous assistance to public and private charities. Yet a quarter of a century ago this man would have been congratulated if he had received a $2,000 appointment and had abandoned all his other activities and prospects.

In the civil service at Ottawa scores of officials may be found who are trying to maintain a respectable establishment, as things go in that city, on an income barely adequate; while their brothers, who did not seek or could not obtain public appointments, are enjoying greater comforts, more independence and acquiring much property. A young departmental officer who has not advanced more rapidly than the average, but is still receiving less than $1,500 a year, remarked the other day that his two younger brothers, who were deemed less fortunate than he at the time of his appointment, had started business afterwards without capital, and, though still young men, were now worth $40,000 or $50,000.

Two officers were for political or other reasons retired from the railway department after the last change of government. One of them, thrown upon his own resources, is said to have made some $50,000 in real estate transactions during the last two or three years. The other, who is well known as an able engineer, has received for his services in two successive years, paid him in any ten years of his official life.

It would be offensive to the moral standing of the reader to draw a moral for him from these examples. But it does double the desire for public employment will continue, even though the lesson were still more plain. Though it were written large over the door of every public building that he who entered left hope behind, the avenues would still be crowded.

TALKING POST CARD

THE LATEST FAD
Communication Recorded on a Disc Which
Can be Made to Repeat It.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—An ingenious device is at present all the rage in France, and bids fair to become as popular in England as it is there. It is a talking post card.

The cards are about three times the thickness of an ordinary card, and are fitted with phonographic discs, instead of writing your communication in the ordinary manner, you make it verbally at the office where you purchase the card. It is recorded, the address is written in the other side, and it is then posted. The recipient places it in an ordinary phonographic machine and hears the voice of his or her friend.

The inventor, or the adapter, of the phonographic disc to the use of every day life through the post claims that the use of the phonograph is only in its infancy. He sees no reason why, in addition to a signature or a cheque, there should not be, for the banker's protection, a phonographic record of the amount, and the name in the voice of the signer.

Then, again, a young fellow in love would far rather hear the voice of his charmer than receive a letter from her. She sends cards numbered on the outside one, two or three, and so on, and he has in years to come, if he keeps them, a constant record of her voice.

Dr. Karl Broul, in a recent address at Cambridge University on the use of phonographs, expressed the hope that it would not be long before it would be possible to take away from a meeting postcard records of fine portions of impressive speech.

I do not expect to ever find anything better as an advertising medium than the daily newspapers.—John C. Paige, Insurance, Boston.

THOUGHTFUL GEORGE.

A young man had been visiting his sweetheart on a certain evening and, wishing to make a good impression, had attired himself in his very best clothes, tan shoes, light hat, etc. While at his lady's house, the weather became suddenly changed, and in a little while a terrible rain and thunder storm was going on. This kept up until it was time for the young man to leave.

His young lady looking out of the window and then at his new gray suit said, "George is not worth your while going home in this rain and ruining all you have on; my brother is coming to spend the night, and you can have his room. I will go up stairs and get it ready for you."

George thanked her from the bottom of his heart, telling her how considerate she was, etc. etc.

She had not been up stairs more than a quarter of an hour, when she returned to the room and found George was not there, she could not think where he was, and was about to start a search of the house, when, suddenly, the front door burst open, and George, looking and dripping from head to foot, with his clothes, hanging on him like rags, fell into the house.

She was very much frightened, but managed to gasp out, "Why, George, where in the world have you been?"

"Oh, darling, answered George, almost smothering, I have just been home for my night shift."

Continuous advertising is necessary, because in continuity is strength, and because if it pays to advertise a part of the time it ought to pay better to advertise all of the time.—Nathl. C. Fowler, Jr., Boston.

NEARLY A MILLION DOLLARS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS

American Commissioners Announce That the Year Just Closed Has Been a Record One.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.—The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, which closed its fiscal year today announcing the largest receipts in its history, $913,169. This is a gain over the previous year of $100,000. The board has reduced its debt during the year from $176,527 to $85,407. The effort to conduct the work of the year and also clear the board of debt by raising a million dollars did not succeed, but the effort is not ended as subscriptions aggregating $40,000 have been made, conditioned on the entire debt being raised. The officers of the board have from now until the annual meeting, October 9, to secure the needed balance of $44,757.

PLAYING WITH FIRE

German Torpedo Squadron Made a Dash for the British Coast.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—According to the correspondent at Hamburg of the Daily Mail, during the German naval manoeuvres the night of September 10, thirty-six torpedo boat destroyers accomplished the sensational feat of dashing for and reaching the British coast, returning without having been detected. The nominal purpose of the raid across the North Sea was to carry out the search for the German fleet which, however, the torpedo boat officers knew was lying off Heligoland.

AUSTRALIA'S PROTECTION.

The Australian Government has increased the import duty on certain lines of manufactured articles, thus upholding the doctrine of protection which has met with such good results in other countries. In Canada, free trade journals referring to this action, are rather sneeringly suggesting that this country will now receive a dose of her own medicine. A protectionist policy adopted in Canada has assisted in holding the home market for the home producers. The same will be true in Australia. Canada by her tariff shut out from close competition articles which are required here but which can be manufactured within the country. Australia is doing the same. Canada paid no attention to the complaints of the United States that the export trade from that country would suffer by a policy of protection here. Why should Australia, seeking to uphold her own industries, worry over a possible commercial loss to Canada excepting in so far as Imperial commerce is affected? Export trade from the Dominion will be affected to a certain extent by the increase in the Australian tariff on farming implements. The value of such goods sent by us to that country last year was $701,825, and now this important branch of trade, which it has taken years to develop, receives a very serious blow. Nothing else could be expected. If this action was not foreseen by manufacturers, it should have been. Surely exporters did not believe that after the example set by the United States and Canada, it was likely that Australia with her great possibilities for expansion of home industries would allow that market to be flooded with imported goods. Australia has a perfect right to protect her own producers, and the issue will no doubt prove that the recent action is a wise one. Canada, of course, will suffer, but these things must be expected. It is foolish to argue, as has been done by some, that an industry in Australia is just as good as one in Canada. Even the most ardent Canadian imperialists will scarcely go that far. It may be good for the empire as a whole, but the true imperialism will never be reached by one colony working in the interests of another and to its own neglect.

THE WAY OF A MAN WITH A MAID.

In her face or in her figure
Trace of beauty none could find,
But I told her that I loved her
For her qualities of mind.

I declared that beauty faded,
Leaving naught to take its place,
While the heart both true and loving
Lasted out the pretty face.

Then I pitied foolish fellows,
Took occasion to deride
Those with eyes for but the casket
Not the gem that lay inside.

Net result of my proposal:
The paper of our town
I headed the glaring headline:
"Pretty Girl Turns Smithers Down."
—New York Sun.

A NATURAL MISTAKE.

An Irishman in Boston, Mass., who had made money in the contracting business, sent over to Ireland for a younger brother who landed at Charlestown, and was taken around to see the sights. Passing through a park the greenhorn saw a parrot that had escaped from its cage, and was perched in the limb of a tree.

NATIONAL GAME IN MISSOURI.

(From the Missouri Democrat.)
The long eared, cross eyed, knock kneed, bow legged, pigeon toed, pin headed idiot that draws fifty cents a day for writing the sporting column for the Chillicothe Constitution comes out in a half column write up of what the Athletics will do to the Mobley Signals today and tomorrow. It will be a sad story that he will have to tell when the games are over. The Yellers from Mudville have no more of a chance to win either game from the Signals than Mexico has got a show factory.

BOSTON & MAINE PRESIDENT AGAINST GOV'T OWNERSHIP

Lucius H. Tuttle Thinks There Would be Great Confusion if Bryan's Ideas Were Adopted.

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Sept. 11.—Lucius H. Tuttle, President of the Boston & Maine R. R. gave a brief and informal talk before the Tedesco Country Club tonight on "Government control of railroads." President Tuttle said in part:—

"In a country like this there are people looking for a new issue to bring up at every election, and who attack the successful corporation, other corporate powers, and finally the successful person. If the government controlled the railroads of the country, what would happen?"

"You would have to dance attendance upon Congress and support an efficient political manager at Washington, and also there would have to be a change in the constitution of the United States. The railroads now have thousands of claims in regard to transportation, etc., to transact in the courts. What would happen if these claims had to be settled by congress?"

President Tuttle cited an instance during the civil war when all the railroads and in what form the license for interstate commerce might be granted when such a change is made?" he asked.

SCHOOL TEACHER MISSING, STUDENTS ARE SEARCHING

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 11.—A special to the Telegram from South Ashburnham says:—

"Because Professor Harold P. West, a teacher in Cushing Academy disappeared this morning, Prof. H. S. Cowell, principal of the academy, ordered the boy students this afternoon and caused a search to be made of the woods till late tonight.

"Prof. West is 25 years old. He came to South Ashburnham to teach French. His home is in Auburn. He was last seen at 7 a. m. about the academy building."

While driving from St. Marys Ferry to the last stage, Rev. Mr. Berrie, Methodist minister at the latter place, had the misfortune to meet a Canadian who was driving a serious accident; but fortunately the reverend gentleman escaped with a slight shaking up, a narrow culvert in front of Mr. Willis McPherson's machine shop, and the dark night are responsible.

The culvert not being wide enough for two teams to pass, Mr. Berrie's team was crowded off, one wheel dropping into the ditch and throwing the reverend gentleman and his son out. Mr. Berrie escaped without serious injury, but his son was quite badly hurt.—Gleaner.

British Post Office Sends Only Specialty

Marked Mail Matter via New York

MONTREAL, Sept. 11—A special London cable says:

The London correspondent of the Birmingham Post says the result of the Hon. Frank Oliver's official investigation into the special immigration propaganda carried on in the Canadian office here under the direction of W. T. R. Preston has been distinctly favorable to that gentleman.

The Dundee Advertiser says the order issued by the post office authorities that the mails for Canada are to be sent by the Baltic, sailing on Wednesday, unless specially marked via New York, is one which will well be made permanent with advantage to the public. The advertiser says the mails leaving Liverpool on Friday by the Allan liner Virginian will be delivered in advance of those of the Baltic.

A Yorkshire builder in a long letter to the Yorkshire Post complains that United States citizens by purchasing a land seeker's ticket can travel in any part of Canada at a cent a mile. The Englishman pays three cents. Sometimes Englishmen obtain this concession but in most cases it is obtained through a so-called American citizen.

The Sheffield representative in parliament have undertaken to bring the question before the commons upon its re-assembly next month. While it is hoped that the British government will at least make friendly representations to Ottawa and Toronto, it is hardly hoped to induce the prosecution of the fraudulent Canadian firms, as recently done here under the merchandise marks act.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A cable to the Times from Brussels says: The village of Chene Le Long in the Luxembourg is in mourning. The young people of the commune are engaged to be married. It was held in the hall room of the court house. The room was lit up by coal oil lamps, which exploded with terrific force. The explosion sent others of the lamps crashing to the floor. Dancers and ball room were in a few seconds a mass of flames. There was a mad rush for the door. Women and girls were badly trampled and their condition is serious. Much gallantry was shown by a farm laborer, the lover of a café waitress. He was in flames when he rushed to her and put them out and managed to swing her out of the window. He himself was horribly burned and has lost his sight. Five women and three men died from injuries and three other men lost their sight. Forty people were more or less seriously injured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The Herald will say tomorrow:

James B. Reynolds, who was one of the President's commissioners to investigate conditions in the packing houses in Chicago, is at work on Ellis Island, under personal instructions of Mr. Roosevelt, inquiring into conditions there.

Just why Mr. Reynolds is sent there is not known at this time, but it is known that charges reflecting on the treatment of immigrants have reached Washington, and complaint also has been made as to the manner in which some of the contracts have been administered. Mr. Reynolds arrived at the island last Friday, accompanied by a Mr. Patton, during the absence of Robert Walthorn, commissioner of immigration, and has been busy ever since.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE
ALARMS VALPARAISO

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A Valparaiso cable to the Herald dated yesterday says: Another violent earthquake shock at a quarter past eight last evening caused a terrible panic. The people fearing another catastrophe, spent the whole night in the parks and open spaces. The quakes continued at short intervals but were less violent.

CHAMPLAIN DISABLED.

While on her down trip from Bellefleur this morning, the steamer Champlain met with an accident to her rudder, which caused her to be totally disabled. A telephone message was sent to Indianopolis for a tug and the Varing was immediately dispatched to the steamer's assistance. The tug is now towing her to this city and it is expected she will arrive some time this afternoon, when repairs will be immediately begun.

It is not known how long before she will be able to resume her trips again as the telephone message did not state how much damage was done or how the accident occurred, but it is understood it was caused as the result of the water in the Belisle being so very low.

MONTGON CONSTABLES
CHARGED WITH COMPROMISE

Papers Served in Action Against them for Trying to Settle a Scott Act Case

MONTGON, N. B., Sept. 12.—At 10 o'clock this morning the wedding took place of Miss Margaret, daughter of Joseph Casey, the wedding took place in the Catholic church.

An interesting event takes place here this evening when Miss Maude, daughter of I. C. R. conductor John Nickerson, will be married to Alexander Stronach, a well-known brickman. It will be a home wedding and Rev. E. B. Hooper, rector of St. George's church, will perform the ceremony.

Papers have been served on Duncan Stevenson and A. W. Belyou, two local constables, charging them with being concerned in a compromise of settlement of a Scott Act case with D. Bourgeois, hotel proprietor. The papers in the cases were issued by Geo. P. Thomas, but all parties concerned deny any attempt at compromise. Belyou is a constable who has been very active in prosecuting the Scott Act here.

N. S. MINES ARE MAN-HUNTING.

(Montreal Herald.)

Hon. William Mitchell returned to Montreal today, after an extended visit to Nova Scotia, which was partly devoted to business and partly pleasure. He spent some time at Chignecto Mines, the headquarters of the Maritime Coal, Railway and Power Company, of which he is President. In the course of a brief interview, he confirmed the reports that the coal mining industry of Nova Scotia was enjoying unusual prosperity. A few years ago several of the mines were running with half staffs. Today the trouble was to get a sufficient number of miners. Senator Mitchell stated that through recent improvements at Chignecto Mines the management needed much more help, and had advertised for two hundred more men. The contract for several new miners' houses was let last week.

He also announced that the line to transmit power from the company's property to Amherst would be completed by February 1, and that contracts for power had been made with the Robb Engineering Company, Rhodes Curry Co. and others, the supply of power to begin on that date.

TOPICS OF THE STREET.
Conversation in a broker's office the other day centered on a local gentleman who has a wide and lasting reputation for meanness.

"He reminds me," said the broker of a story I once heard as coming from Chas. M. Schwab, who asserted that it was an absolutely true one.

"According to Mr. Schwab there was a miser near Loretto (a mining camp) who lost a pocketbook containing $1,000.

"The pocketbook was found after some days by a poor farm hand, and he, as soon as he discovered the name of the owner, returned it to him. The miser, on getting back his money, counted it again and again. 'What's the matter,' said the farm hand anxiously, 'isn't it all right?' 'Right! No,' growled the miser. 'Where's the interest?'" — Montreal Star.

CANADA'S RECORD IN EXPORTS.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—Some highly interesting figures as to Canada's export of cheese and butter for the year are given in a report received at the Department of Trade and Commerce from Mr. W. A. G. Macdonald, Canadian trade agent at Bristol. Quoting from the Colonial Daily Produce Review, Mr. Macdonald says that, out of total imports of 190,000 tons of cheese from Great Britain during the past year, Canada supplied 25,000 tons. This was over eight times the quantity received from the next largest exporting country, which was Holland, during the year the exports of Canadian butter to Great Britain totalled 15,145 tons, an increase of 2,300 tons. This constitutes a new record for the highest record being 13,200 tons. As a result of the hot and dry summer, the production of English butter was curtailed, and, as a result, the trade agent says the Canadian trade can look forward to an increasing demand at excellent prices.

ADVANCES ARE ARTIFICIAL.
Henry Clews, who has been tipping off the market pretty correctly for the last three months, says that the "future of the market is increasingly uncertain. It is useless to deny that the general situation is very favorable. We seem as certain as possible of another good business season and consequent good earnings for the railroads.

"It must be remembered that the market is manipulated by operators of great skill and unprecedented power. The weak element in the situation is that they are quietly distributing stocks, and that monetary conditions are increasingly adverse. The uncertainty as to their success and as to how long they will stay on the bull side renders it advisable to take profits on all good advances.

"Reasons are becoming more frequent and the advances more and more spasmodic and artificial. It is significant also that the crops have been a failure and that the export of cotton, corn and other products.

GRANBY'S OUTPUT SMALLER.
In July and August the Granby Co. was forced to reduce its output somewhat because of a shortage of Canadian coal, and the output was reduced to 100,000 tons, against 120,000 tons in the same months of the previous year.

There were heavy increases all along the line with the gains being by Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg being notable, especially Winnipeg's.

The eight months' figures are as follows:

	1906.	1905.
Montreal	892,626,917	849,102,150
Toronto	775,235,423	688,172,439

CANADA DRAWING ENGLISH MONEY.
The extent of England's interest in Canadian enterprises will astonish those who do not follow financial matters very closely.

While it would, of course, be impos-

ble to estimate the actual amount of money invested here, it is nevertheless a guide to the matter to look over the capital stock of Canadian companies listed on the London Stock Exchange. The figures have recently been compiled, and it is seen that whereas in 1894 the Canadian bonds and stocks listed in London, only amounted to $250,780,000, the total is now $308,523,000.

Here are the totals in detail:

Loans (£ sterling).	1906.	1905.
Government	241,451,000	241,000,000
Provinces	8,747,000	13,613,000
Corporations	8,827,000	8,489,000
Paid-up Capital.	125,199,000	102,524,000
Railways	10,969,000	18,932,000
Land and	720,000	6,988,000
Finance	4,000,000	6,150,000
Navigation	822,000	1,025,000
Gas	102,000	2,000,000
Electric	8,035,000	541,000
Collieries	215,000	400,000
Telegraphs	600,000	3,623,000

Miscel.	1,231,000	5,048,000
Total	250,780,000	298,588,000

The above figures were compiled as the result of Sir George Drummond's recent observations in regard to English investments in Canada.

DEMERARA ELECTRIC.
The gross earnings of the Demerara Electric Company for August, 1906, amount to $19,565. The net earnings amount to $4,406.

The increase in gross earnings over the corresponding month of last year amounts to $377, and the increase in net earnings to $124 over the corresponding seven months of last year.

LEOPOLD GOING OUT OF THE RUBBER BUSINESS.
BRUSSELS, Sept. 12.—It is stated on good authority that the Anglo-Belgian Rubber Trust has decided to discontinue the exploitation of its concessions on the Congo, and it is believed that J. Pierpont Morgan is disposed to form a syndicate to carry them on.

It is considered to explain the recent interview between Mr. Morgan and King Leopold at Dover, the King was talking in all the firms in the United Kingdom except one Cityside concern. It is stated that the Anglo-Belgian producers are supporting the combine.

It is expected that an advance in prices will soon be announced as it is believed that the combine will carry out its plan.

TO AVOID COMPETITION.
GLASGOW, Sept. 12.—It is announced that a combination of Scotch and English steel tube manufacturers to regulate the home and export business has been formed with a view to abolishing the competition.

The industry has suffered incalculably since the previous agreement between the firms in this line was cancelled 18 months ago.

It is understood that the new combine is wider in its scope than the old one, and that the firms in the United Kingdom except one Cityside concern. It is stated that the Anglo-Belgian producers are supporting the combine.

It is expected that an advance in prices will soon be announced as it is believed that the combine will carry out its plan.

NEW RAILWAY DEAL.
NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Times today says: The purchase of the Virginia and Southwestern Railway by Southern Railway Company of which rumors have been current recently was announced yesterday from the stockholders in the Virginia and Southwestern, it was learned that the company had agreed to sell the Virginia and Southwestern stock paying therefor $200 a share or a total of $4,000,000.

NEW PIPE LINE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The Union Oil Company of this city has just completed its pipe line across the Isthmus of Panama and within 48 days it will be supplying Atlantic seaboard cities with California fuel oil.

The pipe line is to be operated in connection with the tank steamers on both the Atlantic and Pacific sides.

In length the pipe line is 55 miles. Oil will be pumped over the California gate at the rate of 25,000 barrels a day.

IT COSTS $20 TO CHOKO A GIRL.

McGrath Fined for Assaulting Maude Delay.

Evidence Heard in Court Today—He Had Given the Girl a Bad Fright—The Reason for His Action

In police court the hearing of the case against John McGrath, charged with assaulting Maude Delay, on Brussels street on Monday night, was held before Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

Maude Delay was the first witness. She said that on Monday night about 9 o'clock, she was looking out of one of the windows in her house, McGrath who lived downstairs was also looking out of one of his windows. He called up to Miss Delay that if she came downstairs he would choke her. Witness said that in a few minutes she heard a scuffling in the hall downstairs. She became frightened and went to lock the door in her room.

By that time McGrath had got upstairs, and when witness went to close the door, he sprang at her and caught her by the throat. She screamed, and he pulled her along the hall and pushed her up against the window. He tore her waist and injured her face slightly.

Witness said that she had never spoken to McGrath in her life. She didn't remember anything after McGrath choked her. On two previous occasions on the night of the assault, McGrath had spat upon her from his window. She did not resent these actions by replying.

While giving her testimony, it was noted that she was seized with a weak spell, and had to be assisted to a chair.

Dr. Berryman said that he was summoned to Miss Delay's house on Monday night. She found her in bed. She was hysterical and had been subjected to a great shock. He found no evidence of violence on Miss Delay. The doctor was sure that she had been given a great start from something.

Dr. Robert Crawford was called. A telephone message was sent to Central station on Monday night, asking that an officer be sent to No. 2 Brussels St. McGrath had assaulted Miss Delay in her bed. She was crying and seemed to be greatly agitated over something. She told him that McGrath had choked her. He went downstairs and asked the man if he had assaulted Miss Delay. He denied the charge. The officer then arrested him.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, grandmother of Miss Delay, said that she was out when the assault was committed. When she returned, her grand daughter was in bed.

Mrs. Mary McGrath, wife of the prisoner, said that she was sitting in her room with her husband when the assault was committed. Witness did not see McGrath.

The delay girl had been complaining to the landlord about disturbance made in the house. She had been creating trouble for some time. On one occasion she had thrown a brick through the window of McGrath's room.

Florence Davis, sworn, said that she went out with Maude Delay on Monday evening. She saw the prisoner and his wife sitting by a window in their house. When she passed the window McGrath spat upon Miss Delay's waist.

Miss Delay was recalled, and asked as to whether she had once threatened to do to McGrath. She replied that she had not.

Daniel Mullin, appearing for Miss Delay, said that every witness for the prosecution had clearly shown that McGrath did assault Miss Delay. Magistrate Ritchie said that there had been a great deal of contradictory evidence. If McGrath had spat upon Miss Delay he was liable to a penalty.

The witnesses for the prisoner say they saw McGrath spit.

The prisoner was perhaps tempted to make the assault, but even so, he was not licensed to choke a woman. Magistrate Ritchie fined the prisoner $20 or two months in jail.

In police court the hearing of the case against John McGrath, charged with assaulting Maude Delay, on Brussels street on Monday night, was held before Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

Maude Delay was the first witness. She said that on Monday night about 9 o'clock, she was looking out of one of the windows in her house, McGrath who lived downstairs was also looking out of one of his windows. He called up to Miss Delay that if she came downstairs he would choke her. Witness said that in a few minutes she heard a scuffling in the hall downstairs. She became frightened and went to lock the door in her room.

By that time McGrath had got upstairs, and when witness went to close the door, he sprang at her and caught her by the throat. She screamed, and he pulled her along the hall and pushed her up against the window. He tore her waist and injured her face slightly.

Witness said that she had never spoken to McGrath in her life. She didn't remember anything after McGrath choked her. On two previous occasions on the night of the assault, McGrath had spat upon her from his window. She did not resent these actions by replying.

While giving her testimony, it was noted that she was seized with a weak spell, and had to be assisted to a chair.

Dr. Berryman said that he was summoned to Miss Delay's house on Monday night. She found her in bed. She was hysterical and had been subjected to a great shock. He found no evidence of violence on Miss Delay. The doctor was sure that she had been given a great start from something.

Dr. Robert Crawford was called. A telephone message was sent to Central station on Monday night, asking that an officer be sent to No. 2 Brussels St. McGrath had assaulted Miss Delay in her bed. She was crying and seemed to be greatly agitated over something. She told him that McGrath had choked her. He went downstairs and asked the man if he had assaulted Miss Delay. He denied the charge. The officer then arrested him.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, grandmother of Miss Delay, said that she was out when the assault was committed. When she returned, her grand daughter was in bed.

Mrs. Mary McGrath, wife of the prisoner, said that she was sitting in her room with her husband when the assault was committed. Witness did not see McGrath.

The delay girl had been complaining to the landlord about disturbance made in the house. She had been creating trouble for some time. On one occasion she had thrown a brick through the window of McGrath's room.

Florence Davis, sworn, said that she went out with Maude Delay on Monday evening. She saw the prisoner and his wife sitting by a window in their house. When she passed the window McGrath spat upon Miss Delay's waist.

Miss Delay was recalled, and asked as to whether she had once threatened to do to McGrath. She replied that she had not.

Daniel Mullin, appearing for Miss Delay, said that every witness for the prosecution had clearly shown that McGrath did assault Miss Delay. Magistrate Ritchie said that there had been a great deal of contradictory evidence. If McGrath had spat upon Miss Delay he was liable to a penalty.

The witnesses for the prisoner say they saw McGrath spit.

The prisoner was perhaps tempted to make the assault, but even so, he was not licensed to choke a woman. Magistrate Ritchie fined the prisoner $20 or two months in jail.

SUSSEX EXHIBITION IS NOW IN FULL SWING.

Management Greatly Encouraged by Yesterday's Results—Exhibits Are of High Standard and Booths Are Very Attractive -- Attendance Last Night Was Large and Big Crowds Are Expected Today.

SUSSEX, N. B., Sept. 11.—The Sussex exhibition which, it is hoped, will be the most successful ever held here, was opened Monday evening, but not until noon today were all the booths in readiness. There are a number of new features this year which add much to the attractiveness of the fair. The pike, with its altitudes, is a new thing in Sussex, and last evening was well patronized by those willing to stake their money on a straight eye and steady aim. In point of view of exhibits, this year's fair in many respects surpasses that of previous years. In a few cases the quality is below the average, but the quality is good. Potatoes and turnips and other roots are considerably smaller than those shown last year, owing to the dry season, but the quality is claimed to be far superior.

The more attention has been devoted to the fair, the more it is appreciated for this exhibition and consequently some excellent hand work is displayed. An entirely new feature this year is the exhibit of writing and drawing shown by the primary department of the Kings county school. All the specimens are very creditable. It might be stated that the ladies are taking a great interest in this exhibit of the school children.

The attendance to date has been rather disappointing to the management, as with the extra inducements held out over previous years they had good reason to expect much larger crowds. Tomorrow, however, they are looking for a record breaking attendance, as they hold the best drawing card ever offered to the public in Sussex. It is predicted that the track record will be broken when the first horse race is held in the forenoon. The forenoon assembly on the track tomorrow afternoon. If the weather proves fine, the management still expect to make a good financial showing, at least as good as previous years.

The exhibition "bag" is very prettily decorated with flags and bunting and the booths are tastefully and artistically arranged, so that the whole is beautiful. Music is provided in the afternoon and evening by the Harrison orchestra of St. John. The orchestra of this place, yesterday afternoon the performance of the orchestra was listened to with pleasure by a fairly good audience.

In the middle of the building facing the main entrance is a very fine showing of steel ranges and stoves of different makes. This booth is occupied by St. H. Hayden of Sussex. Directly behind and to the right D. MacRae, of the department of agriculture, Ottawa, is showing a fine line of fur, including ladies' jackets in astrachan, grey squirrel, mink and Persian lamb, a range of coats and stoles as well as gentlemen's fur and fur lined coats.

The Sussex Mercantile Company have a good display of pieces and organs side by side with the assortment of stoves. Directly behind the Mercantile exhibit the Sun Printing Co. of St. John have a pretty booth with the copies of the morning Sun neatly arranged in an attractive manner in the efficient charge of W. K. McQuigton. This is one of the most popular booths in the building and is well patronized, for few leave without taking a glance at the pages of the Sun, and all who visit carry away copies.

Facing the stage is a large booth occupied by the W. H. Johnson Co. of St. John, who have on exhibition a number of beautiful pianos and organs. Around the sides are some very pretty booths, including H. M. McDonald's display of wire jewelry, which looks very unique, two souvenir post cards, the one on the right being occupied by George H. Sutfren of Sussex and the other on the left by a Montreal.

One of the prettiest booths is the floral display made by H. E. Gould, of Sussex. The floral booth is one of the most attractive. In this is shown some very beautiful eyelet embroidery, shadow embroidery, Mexican work and art work.

The grain and root products are well up to the standard in quality. Dairy cows are far in advance of those on exhibition in previous years. The Kings county farmer is turning his attention to raising dairy stock with the fixed purpose of improving the stock, and not without result. Some years ago Kings county produced some of the finest horse flesh in the province. This year the showing in horses is much better than in recent years, thus demonstrating the fact that the farmer in Kings county is keenly alive to the importance of raising a good serviceable breed of horses.

So far there has been no judging but it will be commenced the first thing in the morning. The judges hope to conclude the major part of their work by Thursday night.

There was a good crowd at the Exhibition here tonight the largest that has yet assembled. The Exhibition building was crowded, and excellent music was provided by the orchestra. Outside the main entrance was kept busy until late at night. The Pike which was quiet all day presented a lively scene when the amusements were well patronized. Judging commenced in the agricultural department this evening. No list of the prize winners has yet been prepared.

Below is a list of the judges:

Cattle—Mr. Standish, Walkerton, Ont.

Sheep and Swine—C. M. MacRae, of the department of agriculture, Ottawa.

Poultry—John Lloyd, Hampton.

Fruit and Produce—W. Wetmore, Clifton.

Fancy Work—Miss Margaret, I. Everett, St. John.

Art—John C. Myles.

CLAIMS $1,000 FROM D. A. R.

John Cullinan, Whose Scow Was Damaged by S. S. Yarmouth, Has Appealed to Courts

An action for one thousand dollars damages has been brought by John Cullinan, the stevedore, against the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company. This amount is claimed by Mr. Cullinan for injury done to one of his scows by the S. S. Yarmouth. The scow was fast beside the Eastern S. S. Co.'s steamer, which was being discharged at Yarmouth in docking collided with the scow and damaged it to such an extent that it filled and sank. The scow was again and repaired and Mr. Cullinan estimates the damage done to the scow and the cost of repairs at the sum for which he has brought action. Negotiations have been going on between the two parties ever since. No satisfactory agreement could be reached, and Mr. Cullinan finally decided to appeal to the courts.

GENTLEMAN BURGLAR SENT TO PENITENTIARY

MONTREAL, Sept. 11.—Judge Piche had a busy morning in the court of sessions today. John Woods, gentleman burglar, who pleaded guilty to breaking into the house of Mrs. L. Desautels, 35 Durocher street, and stealing about $200 worth of goods, was sent to the penitentiary for five years. With Woods the disappearance within the walls at St. Vincent de Paul, the last of the famous Feldman gang of expert burglars, passes from active life in the outside world.

Miss McKim, sister of Rev. R. P. McKim, a returned missionary from Persia, who is home on a furlough, gave an address before the Women's Auxiliary in Trinity church yesterday afternoon. The meeting was very well attended and the address proved most interesting to the ladies. After the address an informal discussion was indulged in by those present. Miss McKim will leave shortly for Persia to take up her missionary work again.

REV. MR. DICKER WILL ACCEPT CALL

He States That His Relations Here Have Been Happy, and He Will Leave With Great Regret

Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, when interviewed last evening, regarding the possibility of his removal to St. Luke's church, Toronto, said that he had not yet received any official communication from the board of the church, but that he could not speak definitely of the matter until he receives word from the church authorities.

Several weeks ago he was asked to allow his name to be submitted, and acquiesced, not thinking that there was any likelihood of being chosen. However, Rev. Mr. Dicker will accept the call, but he is not happy in his present charge and will greatly regret leaving St. John.

Mr. Dicker is one of the best known of the city clergy. His residence in St. John has been of such duration as to make him widely known and his removal will be a distinct loss. Mr. Dicker is pastor of St. Paul's (Valley) church, a position which he has filled with earnestness and a keen conception of duty for the past thirteen years. He succeeded the late Canon DeVeber as pastor. Mr. Dicker was ordained in 1887 by Bishop Temple, later Archbishop of Canterbury, and was for a while curate to Bishop Dunn, of Quebec, who was then stationed at South Acton, near London. He was subsequently made pastor of St. Paul's, which he has since been rector of St. Paul's church.

BIBLE STILL IN ADVANCE OF SCIENCE

Interesting Addresses at Meeting of E. Sunday School Teachers' Association

There was a fairly large attendance at the meeting of the E. Sunday School Teachers' Association held in St. Paul's church last evening. Canon Richardson, as president of the association, was in the chair. He introduced Mrs. Davidson, who then proceeded to read a very original and instructive paper, entitled "Knowledge of the Bible as a Teacher's Secret of Success." She said that the teacher could not expect to properly instruct a class without the habit of daily reading of God's Word. "In this case knowledge is indeed power," concluded Mrs. Davidson.

Referring to higher education she called attention to the remarkable way in which the Bible in advance of the modern discoveries have only corroborated the Bible. The speaker showed by some striking examples how the power of the Holy Spirit produces wonderful effects than any other known force in the world.

APPOINTMENT OF COADJUTOR BISHOP

Bishop Kingdon Discussed the Matter With Messrs Fairweather, Oty and Knowlton Yesterday

Messrs. A. C. Fairweather, G. O. Dickson Oty and E. J. G. Knowlton returned from Fredericton last evening. They had gone up to see Bishop Kingdon, as there was a meeting of the committee of the Cathedral chapter, and they thought this time would be opportune to see his Lordship.

Mr. Fairweather said that the matter of the appointment of a coadjutor was touched upon but he did not care to go into details. The election will occur on the first Tuesday in October, and unless some of the names of present candidates are dropped, the deadlock will probably continue. Mr. Fairweather said that in the event of such an occurrence no steps have yet been taken, but he thought the matter would be decided before the next election without the continuance of the deadlock, as the candidates would probably narrow down to Rev. Canon Richardson and Archdeacon Neale.

His Lordship Bishop Kingdon was resting easily during the visit of gentlemen and appeared to be very keen intellectually. He is able to enjoy short drives about town and was in the best of spirits.

The C. P. R. had a special car attached last evening containing the delegates to the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. conference in Toronto. They will be joined at McAdam Junction by a number of delegates from Aroostook county, Maine.

U.S. WARSHIP FOR CUBA; INTERVENTION LIKELY

American Army and Navy Ready to Take Part in Cuban Insurrection -- Conditions Growing More Dangerous--President Roosevelt Anxiously Watching Developments.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The critical situation in Cuba is absorbing the attention of the administration to the exclusion of all other foreign topics as indicated by the activity of the officials in the state, navy and war departments. The president at Oyster Bay is keeping in close touch with every department of the revolutionary movement.

The development of the day was the admission that the American cruiser Des Moines, which sailed yesterday from Norfolk, has gone southward to Keywest, with the ultimate purpose of proceeding to Havana. If developments within the next two days seem to warrant such action. At Keywest the Des Moines will be about eight hours' run from Havana, and while waiting there Commander Halcyon will be in close communication with the navy department, prepared to immediately carry out any request from the department of state. There is no intention in this movement of the Des Moines of showing any partiality by the American government towards one side or the other in the present conflict in Cuba. The ship will be at Havana to serve as a platform for the insurance of public interest was deeper and discussion more animated and earnest than on any previous day. The government's outright declaration that the war will be prosecuted to a finish was everywhere the sole topic of conversation. That fighting of a far more desperate character will result as soon as the news shall have spread throughout the provinces is not doubted in any quarter. The fear of an attack by the insurgents on Havana is spread by the state of affairs, and there are rumors more or less authentic from all directions of new uprisings in various quarters.

AWFUL WORK OF SOLDIERS AND ARMED MEN IN WARSAW

WARSAW, Sept. 11.—With the sanction of the authorities who provided an armed guard for the mission. The soldiers in advance of the afternoon visited Siedlce, the scene of the murderous events of September 8, 9 and 10. The railway station was crowded with Jews, among whom were many starving women with infants in their arms. When there fell upon the ears of the frightened people the sound of a volley being fired in the town, half a mile away, a panic ensued, men trembling with fear and women imploring the soldiers for mercy, anticipating the slaughter of their loved ones and themselves.

On Warsaw street stores and shops were closed and showed signs of having been plundered. Pictures of saints were hanging outside the windows of many houses, mute appeals to the deities and looters to spare the inmates. Everywhere in the streets were to be seen soldiers ready to fire on the least provocation.

The streets were littered with Jewish hats, torn clothing and damaged goods. In Piotrkow street the houses were riddled with bullets. Cows and goats which had escaped from their pens were running in the streets, and many of them were killed.

At the Victoria Hotel, the interior of which had almost been demolished, the correspondent was obliged to turn back, shooting having recommenced. He was made prisoner by soldiers, but shortly afterwards released by the commandant's order.

It is asserted that paid private agents so contrived matters that on Saturday afternoon the soldiers began shooting in the streets and bombed houses, the occupants being forced to flee. It is reported that soldiers killed the Jewish proprietor of a fruit store, put his body under the table and ate his provisions as they were spread upon it. Another refugee states that Saturday night the soldiers at the Jewish hospital in Siedlce lighted the gas in that institution preparatory to operating upon the wounded who had been brought in, who numbered seventy, when, without warning, the soldiers in the street opened fire upon the hospital, killing two of the inmates.

As a man was taking his wife and newly born child to a hospital they were fired upon by soldiers, and the wife and child were killed. In many cases the soldiers spared the lives of Jews upon the payment by the menaced persons of $5.

By actual count 140 corpses were picked up in the streets, and it is stated that many more bodies are hidden in cellars. Only one Christian is known to have been killed, and so far no Jew has been learned, no soldiers were killed.

Train loads of fugitives are leaving Warsaw for the south. A Jewish child who begged permission of a military officer to search for his parents was kicked away by the officer.

NICHOLS-WEBBER Christopher Nichols and Miss Helen Webber, daughter of Mrs. M. H. Webber, of German street, were united in matrimony at the cathedral yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Meahan and was witnessed by a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

A wedding supper was given at the home of the bride's mother last night. The happy couple left on the late express for Halifax and will make a tour of the provinces before returning to the city.

Evidence of the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. Nichols was given by the large numbers of presents received. Among others was a check for a substantial amount, which was presented last night by a delegation from Mr. Nichols' fellow employees of the I. C. railway. Col. H. H. McLean's gift was a Bible.

NICHOLS-RECORD The wedding took place yesterday afternoon at half-past five in the church of St. John the Baptist of Wm. Oliver Finney and Miss Annie Louise Record, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Record. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Gaynor. WILL SAY FAREWELL

A Mass Meeting of Baptists to be Held on Friday Evening

A mass meeting of the Baptists of this city will be held on Friday evening in German street Baptist church when a number of missionaries will speak.

A collection will be taken in aid of the foreign mission fund. The missionaries who will be present and most of whom will shortly leave for their respective fields, are: Miss Chambers, who goes in the near future to India; Dr. Zella Clark, of Bay View, P. E. I., who enters the Indian mission field; Rev. and Mrs. Telford, who were recently ordained; Miss Mabel Archibald, who is back from India enjoying a furlough; Miss Gaunce, who is also returning to India; Rev. and Mrs. Hardy, and Rev. and Mrs. Gullison. The speakers will tell of the conditions now existing in Japan, China and India, and the addresses will no doubt prove very interesting. Rev. Mr. Gullison will not go to India for some time, owing to poor health.

POLICE COURT.

Three prisoners faced the magistrate in the police court this morning. Wm. Moore, drunk on Marsh road, was fined eight dollars or two months in jail.

PREPARING TO GO INTO THE WOODS.

Lumber Crews Now Being Organized for the Winter.

No Scarcity of Men—Supplies are Not High—Millmen Expect Some of the Hung Up Logs to Come Out Soon.

Lumbermen are now making their plans for the coming season in the woods, and while it is still a little too early to make any definite statement, the present outlook is for a profitable winter. Contractors are sending in their preliminary reports, showing what is being done in the different districts, and from all accounts the operators are so well satisfied with general conditions that the cutting will be carried on quite as extensively as in other years, and perhaps on even a larger scale. In spite of the serious drain on the laboring element in the provinces through the exodus to the west, there seems to be no scarcity of men for the woods, or at least no complaint of such a scarcity has yet been heard. Usually there are enough waiting for jobs when work starts, and this year even when contractors on other lines are at their wits end to secure laborers, the lumbermen do not anticipate any such difficulty. There is no change in the wages, the rates being from twenty-four to thirty dollars, the same as paid last year. Supplies are also about the same in price, but the crops of hay and oats in Quebec have been exceptionally good, there is reason to believe that the cost of these will be less than last year. Pork, beans and flour have varied but slightly, not sufficient to notice.

Already some few gangs have gone into the Maine woods, but in New Brunswick and Quebec the work will not really get started for three weeks, although certain contractors are now engaged in planning the season's operations. Last year's cut was quite a heavy one, and in spite of the gloomy stories told during the early summer the millmen as a rule have had a successful season. Up till the first of the month about 100,000 feet had been rafted from the booms, and there are in the vicinity of 200,000 feet more to be sent down. The work will continue until the end of the month when the rafting season will come to a close unless a rise of water takes place. Just below Grand Falls there is a drive of 5,000,000 feet hung up, and a short distance above the falls other rafters are in town, swarming like a hive of bees. The local millmen are living in the hope that the early fall rains will bring all these down, and if this happens the rafting season here will be later than usual.

In addition there are about 15,000,000 feet, chiefly logs owned by Cushing, hung up on the upper waters, which will not come out until next spring. Leaving these out of the question, lumbermen hope that the output of the river will, before the snow flies, reach a total of 16,000,000 feet. Practically all that has gone through the mills this summer has met with a ready sale in spite of the fluctuations of the markets, and now the stocks carried in the province are very small.
