AFRAID WILSON WILL TREAT THE HUN AS A BEATEN BUT HONORABLE ENEMY

France Believes He Does Not Understand the German as He Really is and Regret That He Has Not Had the Benefit of Residence in Europe—Statesmen Do Not Understand Why the Allies Should, at the Cost of Their Own Inconvenience, Provide Food to Those Who Have Brought on Their Own Impoverishment.

By Sampson Hunt. (Special Cable to the N. Y. Tribune and the St. John Standard.)

Paris, Nov. 24.—While inclined to offer every respect to President Wilson and his humanitarian principles, as exemplified by his evident desire to deal as mildly as possible with the now defeated Boches, Paris finds it difficult to sympathize with what it believes to be the American President's wish to revictualize the hungry Germans at the expense of the Allied peoples, who have had such a terrific struggle in beating them.

Another aspect of the problem before the Allies is suggested by Temps, which, in a careful article, agrees fully with Wilson that although arms being brought to the front, only justice can bring about peace.

But, says the Temps, "justice presupposes good faith. What is the sincerity of the men who speak in the name of the German people?" Hindenburg is still under orders of the Berlin government, the journal points out, and the declarations of that government are signed by him.

What people are rather afraid of is that Wilson may allow himself to be too much inclined to treat the Boche as a beaten but honorable enemy, with whom the Allies may eventually negotiate a resumption of friendly relations as soon as possible.

HAIG PRAISES U. S. TROOPS

American Corps Heartily Thanked for Their Achievement on Leaving British Front.

With the British Army in Belgium, Sunday, Nov. 24, (By the A. P.)—A letter from Field Marshal Haig, the British commander-in-chief, to the commander of the American Second Corps, which served with the British Fourth Army during the closing days of the war, reads:

"Now that you are leaving the British zone I wish again to thank you and all the officers, non-commissioned officers and men on behalf of myself and all ranks of the British army in France and Flanders for the very gallant and efficient service you have rendered during your operations with the British Fourth Army.

Participated with distinction in the great and critical attack which shattered the enemy's resistance on the Hindenburg line and which opened the road to victory.

"The deeds of the 27th and 30th American Divisions, which took Bellecour and Nauroy and gallantly sustained the desperate struggle for the capture of the village of the highest achievements of the war.

POLITICALLY ALL ROUMANIA IS NOW IN THE MELTING POT

The Country Has Been Wholly Evacuated by the Germans and Rumanian Troops Are Invading Transylvania, But Will Not Enter Hungary, as Has Been Stated by Germany—The Outlook in Roumania is for a Readjustment of the Property Law, Under Which Great Estates Will be Broken up.

BY SAMPTON HUNT. (Tribune Cable Service. Copyright, 1918, N. Y. Tribune, Inc.) Paris, Nov. 26.—Despatches received here from Roumania indicate that reports current to the effect that Rumanian divisions are advancing with the intention of invading Hungary proper, are of German origin.

Politically the whole of Roumania is now in the melting pot. No striking change will occur probably until the completion of the work of accomplishing Rumanian unity, which will result in the incorporation of Transylvania and the other regions still under foreign domination as a part of Rumania's kingdom.

For the moment the whole people is content to await this development. At the same time, as in other Allied countries, a definite movement has been started with a view to punishing those who have been guilty of treasonable acts, espionage, and misappropriation and a wholly new programme of radical reforms, political, economic, and especially agrarian, is being developed.

Roumania is a country of large landed proprietors. New laws with the object of breaking up the great eslates had either been passed or were about to be passed when the war broke out. The policy of the Marghiteanu government was not only to delay the coming into force of these agrarian reforms, but to whittle them down by modifications in the interest of the great land owners.

Nov. 26.—The government has adopted the programme framed by the late Albert Bailin, director of the Hamburg-American Line, and the shipowners' unions, binding Germany to build ships exclusively for the Allies at fixed prices, in return for which Germany will retain her merchant fleet, says a despatch to the Daily Express from Amsterdam.

BRITAIN WILL NEED ALL SHIPS

To Bring Her Overseas Troops Home—She Has Carried a Million U. S. Soldiers With a Loss of Less Than Five Hundred.

New York, Nov. 26.—A statement made here today from authoritative sources regarding the part British ships have taken in the transportation to Europe of the American army disclosed the fact that Great Britain may be compelled soon to use all her available transports for the return to their homes of troops of the British Empire.

Discussing what Great Britain has done toward moving American troops abroad, it was authoritatively stated here today that British vessels carried 1,046,087 troops to England and France during the war from the embarkation ports at Newport News, Baltimore, New York, Boston, Portland, Me., and Montreal.

These voyages 563 in number and involving 180 British ships, terminated on September 31, 1918. The record here today is that the Olympia, which transported 53,830 American troops, carried fewer than 500 were lost through mishaps.

TO CURE A SLUGGISH LIVER, TO RELIEVE A DISTRESSED STOMACH, TO FORTIFY YOURSELF AGAINST DISEASE,—USE BERCHAM'S PILLS

A fundamental change in the whole situation has been produced through the fact that the incorporation in Roumania of Transylvania, Njovina and Bessarabia, will result in an increase in the total population from between five and six millions to nearly sixteen millions.

Many of us people now depend entirely upon Marmola Prescription Tablets for reducing our controlling fat. One clever actress tall that she reduced two to four pounds a week by using this new form of the famous Marmola Prescription and now, by taking Marmola Tablets several times a day, keeps her weight just right.

For the moment the whole people is content to await this development. QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTTER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Most forms of strain which excite the kidneys, thus become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick.

ALCOHOL AND EXPOSURE THE CAUSE OF SAMUEL EMERY'S DEATH
Finding of Coroner's Jury Last Night—Recommended Restriction in the Sale of Lemon Extract—No Evidence of External Violence Found by Post Mortem Examination.

"We, the jury empaneled to enquire into the death of Samuel Emery, find:
"That the deceased came to his death on the night of November 23, 1918, on the Mispec Road, about six miles from the city of St. John, by accidentally falling from a wagon into the water while in an intoxicated condition, due to over-indulgence in lemon extract."
"We strongly recommend that the proper authorities restrict the sale of lemon extract."
"J. A. Kennedy, foreman; Charles Donald, P. E. Piewelling, George Reynolds, Fred Cook, J. M. Northrup, Samuel Wood."

Dr. H. L. Abramson.
Dr. H. L. Abramson who performed the post mortem was the first witness. On examination he had found bruises on the face and on the nose and chin dried blood, with two small abrasions on the shins. The organs of the body were fairly normal. The liver was full of blood, the spleen showed evidences of congestion. From the stomach came a strong odor of lemon extract, and the lining of the stomach was thick. In the intestine was a smell of stale liquor, and the membrane of the brain was congested. There was no sign of fracture of the skull or neck, and no evidence of external violence which would cause death. From the conditions presented he would say the probable cause of death was alcohol and exposure.

Sergt. I. P. Edwards.
Sergt. I. P. Edwards, who was the first to discover the body of the deceased, said that on Sunday afternoon between two and half past five he was going on the Mispec Road in an automobile, when he saw the body in the brook. He got out of the car and found the body of a man sitting up in the brook with a robe over his face and shoulders. The body was lying on its back and he saw that it was that of Emery, whom he knew by sight. He also saw wheel tracks and a man's hat, and a carriage whip a short distance from the body. On recognizing the body he had telephoned to the military police, and awaited the coming of the coroner. He sent the phone message from the house of a Mr. Anthony. The body was held in a sitting position by the bough of a tree. The brook was about ten feet away from the road, and had about six or eight inches of water in it. He did not think the body could be thrown from a carriage while the carriage was on the road and land where Emery was found. The rug was over the head and the hands inside it.

Cyril Moore.
Cyril Moore, East St. John, knew Emery. The deceased had called at his home on Saturday evening about half past eight, and stayed about ten minutes. There was a man with him who he understood was Mr. McBride. Witness could tell that Emery had been drinking. When Emery started to leave the house he had fallen down the stairs and skinned his face. The blood had been washed off his face by the witness and his brother, and Emery and McBride had gone on towards Emery's home. Mr. McBride might have had a drink or two. Emery was driving the horse, and two men seemed to be friendly enough.

James Moore.
James Moore, brother of the previous witness, said Emery seemed to be intoxicated when at his brother's home. He did not see the deceased fall down stairs, but did know McBride. They were in a light driving wagon. He did not see which way they drove.

Samuel J. Thomas.
Samuel J. Thomas, an employe of Grant and Horne, whose home is at Mispec, told of leaving Stephenson's store, Marsh Road, accompanied by two others, at twenty-five minutes to eleven on Saturday night. On the way out they had stopped at Mr. Bond's and Mr. McAfee's. Near the old Cole place they heard loud talk-

TOOK BRONCHITIS AFTER THE MEASLES
Measles is a disease that is very hard on children, and it generally leaves the system in such a debilitated condition that it is liable to attacks of some other trouble. One of the most common of these is bronchitis, which starts with a short, painful dry cough, a feeling of tightness through the chest and difficulty of breathing, accompanied by a wheezing sound from the lungs.
There is a raising of phlegm from the bronchial tubes which is very often streaked with blood.
Bronchitis although not really dangerous, should never be neglected as some serious lung trouble is most liable to follow if it is.
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will loosen the phlegm, soothe and heal the irritated bronchial tubes, and in a short time the bronchitis will disappear.
Mrs. Murdoch McLean, Adanae Arts, Winnipeg, Man., writes: "About two years ago my little girl had bronchitis, took them after having the measles. I tried several cough remedies, and oils of all kinds, but they all failed. At last I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. After using three bottles she has never had any sign of it since. I can honestly recommend it as being a grand medicine."
The genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE MARKET IS MUCH STEADIER

Yesterday's Heavy Opening Was Followed by Speedy Recovery With Gains Along Majority of Lines.

New York, Nov. 26.—Disregarding such widely divergent elements as easier money and reports of additional withdrawals of war contracts, today's stock market speedily recovered from its heavy opening, recording many material advances over the previous session's general decline.

Signs of an early relaxation of money were accorded by the further appearance of time funds from interior banks with offers of six and even seven months' loans at six per cent. Call loans were freely offered at five per cent. on mixed collateral.

Traders seemed to view the railroad situation as precipitated by Secretary McAdoo's coming retirement with less misgivings and confident accumulation of high class transportation results in extreme advances of 1 to 3 points.

Shipments also scored material rallies. Mercantile Marine Preferred advancing almost five points, despite announcement of another rail in the order of order of Washington, allied shares gaining 2 to almost 3 points.

Most of the steel and equipment registered substantial upward progress with copper, the latter issues ignoring rumors of further price cutting. Oils pursued their usual independent course, which was mainly higher.

Tobacco was moderately active but firm and fertilizers, utilities and sundry specialties closed at variable gains, though these were slightly reduced on realizations for 1918 shares.

Exchange on allied centres was dull and unaltered, but remittances to neutral points, particularly Stockholm, also hardened.

DAIRYMEN ARE TALKING IT OVER

Conference in Ottawa May Result in Standardized Methods of Grading Shipping and Selling.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—The conference of the dairy interests now being held at Ottawa, under the auspices of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, at its second session took up the question of the grading of Canadian dairy products in relation to the requirements of domestic and foreign markets.

The systems of grading and marketing adopted in various provinces were discussed. The dairy commissioner for Alberta, Mr. C. Marker, outlined the procedure followed by the grading and marketing service in that province. Mr. E. Borbeau, general manager for the province of Quebec, discussed the relationship of grading to successful marketing.

SUFFERING DUE TO PROFITTEERING

Austrian Farmers Feed Their Pigs on Milk Needed by the Sick—Speculation in Bread Causes Distress.

Vienna, Thursday, Nov. 21.—The food situation still is a general topic of conversation. It is evident that there is plenty of food in the hotels and restaurants for those persons who are able to pay the equivalent of from two to five dollars for each meal. The poor have been unable to obtain rice and macaroni. That this class of the population is still alive is due simply to their endurance.

According to Dr. Walter Otis, an American, food conditions were never so bad as now, both in Vienna and the country districts. On the farms there still are a certain number of hogs which are being fattened with milk. This milk, Dr. Otis said, was really needed for the sick, but the farmers earned more money by feeding it to their hogs.

John Arthur Weiss, another American, says there is possibly enough bread for another two months. Speculation in food during the war has been one of the chief causes of the poor suffering. It is said that Archduke Frederick, uncle of the former emperor, speculated in the milk produced on his large farm near Vienna. He is now a fugitive and his great palace in the Albrecht Platz is closed.

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM SPEAKS WITH AMERICAN NEWSPAPER MAN

Thanks the U. S. Soldiers for the Manner in Which They Have Conducted Themselves During the Campaign and for the Care Which They Displayed in Protecting Belgian Property—Great Welcome to the King in Redeemed Cities.

By Wilbur Forrest. (Special Cable to The N. Y. Tribune and The St. John Standard.)

With the American Forces, Audenarde, Belgium, Nov. 25.—I met King Albert today in the desert of Flanders. Moving the great inter-Allied Belgian-French-American-British army toward the Rhine across railroads, telegraph and telephoneless, flat, war-torn waste, such as exists south and west of Brussels today is a stupendous task. In the ancient city of Audenarde, on the Scheldt, the king, in the Flanders desert captured by American troops—I talked to one of the world's few remaining monarchs, who holds his greyer head high as a commander-in-chief of the inter-Allied troops in Flanders which freed Belgium of the invader.

These half million men under King Albert are now filling every road in the forward march. I reached Audenarde after a sixty-hour journey from the vicinity of Lorraine, partly afoot, partly by rail and pickup motor rides. The waste of war, which has left this once populous rich country of Belgium a horror for travel, is slowly being repaired. As they retreated before the armistice was signed the Germans blew up every railroad and destroyed every wire.

King Albert, whose erect, uniformed figure, is now being seen again in Belgian cities as fast as they are evacuated, came to Audenarde today personally to thank Major General William H. Johnston, for the part western troops took in breaking the resistance of the Germans. Entering the city unattended except for two aide-de-camps accompanying him in an automobile, he walked into the general's post command in a former private house on one of Audenarde's side streets, introduced himself, apologized for his inability to come before and then in slow, halting English, praised the work of the American troops who fought their way across the Scheldt at Audenarde just before the armistice halted hostilities on the eleventh of November.

After his conversation with the General, I asked the King if he desired to send me word to the American public. Belgium's democratic monarch answering without hesitation, said: "You may tell the American people for me that I have so much admired their soldiers and have been so much gratified to see them in battle here in Belgium. They have conducted themselves both in battle and otherwise as one would expect of citizens of such a great nation. Everywhere on the front they have contributed admirably to the great victory." Turning then to Brigadier General H. C. Price of Pittsburgh, commanding the Pennsylvania Artillery Brigade of the Ninety-first Division, the King said: "You are the man who took Audenarde, are you not?" General Price replied modestly that his artillery had aided in the capture of the city. "I cannot tell you how I appreciate that you did not rest on Audenarde," Albert added, "I understand you directed your shells over the city, but not an American shell fell among the buildings or the civilians. The last time I visited Audenarde here the people did not recognize me. It was still held by the Germans. I few over in an airplane. This time they are aware that I am here."

The King's last remark was directed toward the street, where a growing number of his people were gathered, crying constantly the time-honored motto, "Vive le Roi!" As the King stepped into the street, the American 107th Field Artillery Band gathered together an hour before to play for two French generals, who had called to pay their respects to General Johnston, hastily reappeared, and played the Belgian National Anthem. Following the King's automobile to Audenarde Square, where is found the most ornate City Hall (with the exception of that of Brussels) remaining in Belgium today, the band played the national airs of all the Allied nations as the King entered the square, built in 1320, and conversed with the Audenarde's Burgomaster and the city officials. Great crowds, hearing of the King's presence, filed the square, at times almost drowning the notes of the band with constant cries.

The crowd followed Albert across the war-battered square to the ancient convent hospital where guns and aged inmates have been German prisoners within their four walls for four years. Then Albert's subjects noted he cheered him to this automobile, wherein he departed.

This is Albert's popularity in Belgium in most direct contrast to the royal refugee across Belgium's border in Holland, who fled the wrath of the people he butchered in an effort to dominate the world. Everywhere Albert has appeared since the German army began to evacuate his kingdom under the pressure of the army in Flanders, his people have enthusiastically welcomed him back with cries of "Vive le Roi!"

SOCIALIST GERMAN PRESS CALLS FOR PUNISHMENT OF WILHELM

Ex-Emperor and Crown Prince May be Brought Back to Stand Trial Along With Holweg, Von Jagow and Zimmermann on the Charge of High Treason.

London, Nov. 26.—It is understood that the question of the extradition of the former German emperor is being considered by British law officers of the law, who are working in close cooperation with the French authorities. Action in the premises was taken immediately after the flight of the former emperor to Holland.

Berlin, Monday, Nov. 25.—"We demand the immediate convening of a revolutionary tribunal for the purpose of passing sentence on the Hohenzollerns, father and son, and on Von Bethmann Holweg," says the Red Flag, the organ of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, in commenting on the disclosures made in Munich concerning the complicity of Germany in bringing about the war.

"William II. must be commanded to return and give an account before this tribunal," the Spartacus organ also demands a reckoning with the Socialist leaders Ebert, David, Molkenbuhr and others for participation in propaganda that led to the overthrow of Germany from responsibility for causing the war.

"We have been told that Germany had no knowledge of Austria's ultimatum to Serbia. It was a lie," says the Vorwarts. "Berlin was said to have admonished Vienna to go slow; it was a lie. On the contrary Berlin incited Vienna."

"In the course of his proclamation, William II. declared 'in the midst of peace we are attacked by the enemy.'"

Rescued from Huns to Die of Starvation!

Hideous Flight of Belgians Demands Immediate Help

Peace does not mean Plenty in Stricken Belgium! Germany's hellish policy has been too thoroughly administered for Belgium to be able to feed and clothe herself again—at least, until the Government has been thoroughly organized on a permanent basis.

Little children, thousands of them, are hungry for a slice of bread, shivering in their worn-out rags. YOU can help to feed and clothe them. They haven't a cent to buy even what supplies are available.

The destitute Belgians need your help about as badly as a human creature could need it.

TURKEY TRIES TO SQUIRM OUT

Heir to Throne Blames Former Ruler and Others of the Bunch for Bringing on the War Which Has Made so Many Enemies.

Constantinople, Sunday, Nov. 24.—

"This last war was the most disastrous in the history of Turkey, not because she was beaten but because it made enemies of nations naturally our friends," declared Abdul Medjid Effendi, heir to the Ottoman throne, to the correspondent of the Associated Press, when he received the correspondent today.

"The present Sultan and myself," he continued, "denounced the proposal that Turkey enter the war. Mohammed V., who was then reigning, showed weakness before a clique of adventurers like Talaat Bey and Enver Bey, then cabinet ministers and now fugitives, whom Germany had fed with dreams of power."

"I am more ashamed of the Armenian atrocities committed during the war than of anything in our history, but I must insist that we were against the will of the present Sultan and the nation as a whole. They were instigated by unpatriotic ministers who were glibly misled in their places by their services to German militarism."

PERU AND CHILE FRIENDS AGAIN

Peruvian Gov't Sends An Apology—There Was No Need for the Fracas in the First Place.

New York, Nov. 24.—Difficulties between Peru and Chile, which resulted yesterday in the recall of consular representatives by each nation from the principal cities of its neighbor, have been overcome by an apology on the part of the Peruvian Government.

Carlos Castro Ruiz, consul general for Chile, announced here tonight that a cabinet minister of the Peruvian Government had received tonight by Mr. Ruiz, according to his statement, from the Chilean minister of foreign affairs.

The message, the consul asserted, authorized him to announce that the Peruvian officials admitted that in making public reports of outbreaks against their citizens in Iquique and Antofagasta, Chile they had acted on misinformation. This was furnished, he said, by the Peruvian consul at Iquique, whose authority had been cancelled for this reason by the Chilean government. The apology, sent from Lima, Mr. Ruiz added, was wholly satisfactory to the Chilean officials, and "brought the misunderstanding to an end."

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 24.—The newspapers, in discussing the withdrawal of the Peruvian consuls from Peru, declared that the withdrawals were made in order to avoid very serious difficulties. The manifestations which caused the withdrawals, they say, were without any real reason in either country.

The governments of both countries are advised by the newspapers to proceed quickly to the carrying out of the treaty of 1883, and to solve the open question of the definite possession of the provinces of Tacna and Arica.

Luis Borzono, the new foreign minister, is urged by the majority party in the Chilean parliament to propose a draft in order to clarify the questions between Peru and Chile. The Chilean foreign office declares that the Peruvian consul at Iquique was accompanied aboard a steamer on Sunday by his friends.

An official despatch from the Peruvian foreign minister, given out in Buenos Aires, Monday, declared that a draft was being prepared by the Chilean foreign office. The Chilean foreign office declares that the Peruvian consul at Iquique was accompanied aboard a steamer on Sunday by his friends.

A base, impudent, bottomless, shameless lie. "And does this band of mass murderers, who, in the progress of the revolution, and through the generosity of the German people, managed to escape unhurt really believe it can once more establish its blood-stained, blood-soaked rule?"

The organ of the Independent Socialists, Die Freiheit, says: "They committed high treason. We cannot lay hands on William and his son, but it is to be hoped that they will yet be brought to justice. Their fortunes, however, must be confiscated. Dr. Von Bethmann Holweg, former chancellor, and Von Jagow and Zimmermann, former German foreign secretaries, who were their tools, must forthwith be arrested and brought to court."

The Conservative Tagliche Rundschau asserts that the disclosures not only are inopportune, in view of the negotiations, "for a revision of the armistice conditions," but primarily are intended to stimulate a revolutionary sentiment.

Count Reventlow, in the Tages Zeitung, says that neither Bethmann Holweg, nor his associates, desired a world war, and that they were not prepared for it. The count adds: "It is not to be denied, however, that their fumbling was responsible for complications which ultimately involved Germany."

VIVID PICTURE OF THE ADVANCE OF THE ARMIES OF OCCUPATION

Mile Upon Mile Through Every Road in the Country Belgian, French, British and American Troops Shake the Ground With the Tread of Their Marching Towards the German Border, and Everywhere They go Through Belgium Are Scenes of Desolation.

By Wilbur Forrest.

(Special to N. Y. Tribune and The St. John Standard.)

Brussels, Nov. 26.—Belgian troops, thousands strong, have been marching to and from Ghent and Brussels for the past ten days. Other roads not many miles southward are filled in like manner with the American olive drab while again, further south, one sees more roaming with the French blue or the British khaki. All the roads, like spokes on a wheel, seem to lead toward the Belgian capital.

French cavalrymen on well-kept steeds and in metal helmets on cross-hairs, long black lances strapped upright on saddles, are leisurely dispersing with the marching columns of foot.

If you ride a few miles across these wheel-spokes, you see British Tommies marching in columns of fours, led by spic and span officers whose orders they will not flinch from.

Every road leading back into liberated Belgium are Belgium's liberated—the same refugees who just about fifty months ago fled before the German hordes as they swept down Albert's kingdom. Belgian soldiers and refugees alike then came down the spokes of the wheel toward the rim.

I saw Belgians today in perfect column, a few abreast, miles long, heads erect, a few sitting along cobble roads, with firm rhythmic tread, their brown uniforms, guns and equipment seemingly so new that they appeared as a handbox army on parade marching towards Brussels. Officers and men alike, springing their shoulders with something akin to swagger, this Belgian army seemed to maintain the same spirit that made the world adore them until it banded with the fat, treeless, sombre Flanders landscape into obscurity.

Batteries and artillery mingled occasionally in line, and greater things hung on caissons in strictest military parade form. Forage wagons drawn by horses and motor supply trucks followed their units here and there, while occasionally a staff automobile purred along past the seemingly endless column of men and war material, every face headed towards Brussels.

Belgian peasants in the fields and at the roadside stood open-mouthed as this army of their countrymen passed. They had been led to believe by the Germans that the Belgian army was irreparably crushed in 1914. Possibly the only contrast to Belgium's army on the march was the German flood of troops that same road towards Ghent fifty months ago.

Belgium's representation amounted to ragged, weary groups of soldiers dragging tired feet in flight towards the Channel ports, the Belgian coast. Today, after four years of fighting in tiny strips of territory on the coast, all that remained of Albert's kingdom, the Belgian army today over a hundred thousand strong, is marching back.

It was the possibility of seeing this marching Belgian army which drew me toward the Flanders desert, for virtually all Belgium south and west of Brussels is devoid either of rail or wire communication. Telegraph poles, formerly carrying scores of wires, have been cut to the ground or appear as a frowsy woman's head. The double track railway lines have been dismantled with their thorough care, rails sticking skyward in grotesque forms, holes in roadbeds, many ten and twenty feet deep.

Narrow paved roads are filled with refugees returning home from God knows where, either afoot or riding army supply wagons. The city of Audenarde, captured by the American Ninety-first Division will remain one of the last monuments to the German nation's wanton destruction in the war. The bloody German knife plunged into the historic old Flemish city almost on the eve of the enemy's capitulation. For years Audenarde had remained intact, though occupied by the Germans. As the American Ninety-first Division fought their way across the Flemish plain to the river Scheldt, the enemy commandant placarded the city with announcements of the contemplated retirement of the German forces and advising the people to remain calmly in their homes as no German shot would be fired on the town. Young and old from surrounding villages thereupon look refuge in the city and the Germans withdrew to a low ridge on the heights at its western edge. Then before the American soldiers entered, the Germans opened direct, short range fire at the Audenarde buildings, employing both gas and high explosive shells. Many civilians were torn to pieces, more than forty were killed in their homes with gas. All bridges over the Scheldt and the four canals criss-crossing the city were blown up and fire was especially directed on the wonderful city hall, which is almost a replica of that of Brussels and was designed by the architect who created the Royal Palace of Brussels.

The church of Saint Walburga, erected in 1650 and "Our Lady Peneleme Church," the most beautiful religious edifice in Belgium, built in 1256, and other aged buildings were holes through repeatedly by enemy missiles. Audenarde is the home of the famous Gobelin tapestry weavers, who were transported to Paris by Louis XIV, who built up the great industry now owned by the French government.

Armies of men are today working on the Belgian railroads and telegraphs behind the advancing armies. In the meantime the problem of feeding half a million men advancing toward the Rhine is a gigantic task wherein motor trucks are working in constant streams from the nearest railhead. In accordance with army schedules Allied troops should reach the Rhine bridgeheads about December twelfth. But crossing the Belgian desert is the greatest task of all.

Pure, Rich Indian Tea and Fine Young Ceylon Leaves—this is all that enters the Morse's package.

That is why it makes so many cups of strong yet delicately flavored Tea.

Better Value for Your Money

THE size and the resources of the producer have a big effect upon values. A large volume of business reduces the cost per unit of product. Great buying power means the ability to secure materials well in advance, and at lowest prices.

Ames Holden McCready supply the shoe requirements of a large part of the Canadian public. More than 5,000 dealers, in all sections of the country, sell A.H.M. shoes. No other Canadian shoe house has anything like this volume of output.

And in financial resources this company occupies the same dominant position. It is able to place contracts for materials far in advance of actual requirements, and at better prices than would be possible for smaller purchases. These facts are important in normal times; they are doubly important now.

The A.H.M. trade-mark on a shoe is a warranty of value based upon the large output and greatest buying power.

A.H.M. War-Time Selections offer Special Service Value for Men, Women and Children. Ask your dealer for them.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $1, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of grape-leaf "red-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get such real curative power as there is in this simple "home-made" cough syndich is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Take from any drugist 2 1/2 ounces of honey (50 cents worth), pour it into a 2-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated syrup, clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 10 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made, and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never fails.

This Pineapple Syrup preparation is the cause of a cough and throat inflammation. It loosens phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle, and heals the sore, irritated membrane so gently and easily that it is remarkably soothing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.
To avoid disappointment ask your drugist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

Rexton, Nov. 26.—The funeral of Miss Joanna Chrystal took place on Saturday, upon the arrival of the K.
N. R. to South Branch, where interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

A quiet but interesting wedding took place this morning at the Catholic church at South Branch, when Miss Stella Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burns, of that place, was married to Charles Connors, of Shediac. The bride wore her travelling suit of navy serge with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Miss Helena. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Joseph. After partaking of breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Connors left for their home in Shediac.

No Cause for Alarm.

Patient (after operation)—Oh, doctor, will I get well?
Young Surgeon—Without a doubt.
Why, every organ that I removed was perfectly healthy.

PROGRAMME COMPLETED.
The following tentative programme for the entertainment of the Governor General has been prepared: Arrival at nine o'clock by special train; visit to hospitals, war work institutions, military quarters, etc.; at noon lunch by the Canadian Club; at four o'clock in the afternoon public reception, and in the evening a dinner.

AWARDED DECORATION.
The undermentioned officers have been awarded the Colonial Auxiliary Forces Officers' Decoration, under the provisions of the Royal Warrant, dated the 18th May, 1919, and General Order 132 of November, 1907: Lieut.-Col. H. Penley, 2nd Regt.; Capt. (Bt.-Major) Herbert S. Jones, 74th Regt.; Hon. Maj. and Chap. Thos. F. Fullerton, 82nd Regt.

THE CANADIAN CLUB.
A meeting of the Canadian Club executive was held yesterday afternoon to arrange for the address before the club by His Excellency the Governor General, which will take place at noon on Wednesday, December 4. The following were elected members of the club: Brigadier-General Macdonnell, Rev. W. B. Armstrong, Rev. G. H. Loveth, H. G. S. Adams, and Donaldson Hunt.

THE DINNER AT SUSSEX.
The organization in Sussex, having in charge the dinner to be given to Kings County returned soldiers, has found it impossible to carry out the original plan fixing the date of this affair for December 6th. The date has been changed to December 10th. At that dinner Gen. J. H. Macdonnell will be one of the guests. If there are any Kings County boys whose names do not appear on the list in possession of the committee, and thus may not receive an invitation, it is urged that they make their presence known and attend the dinner. This dinner has been arranged for the purpose of giving the G. W. V. A. a start in Kings County, and also to formulate plans for the provision of a soldier memorial in the form of a hospital or home.

THREE ALARMS OF FIRE.
The firemen were called out shortly after twelve o'clock yesterday to extinguish a small grass fire in a field of Victoria street. Some person fearing that it would spread and catch fire to one of the nearby houses, sent in a call from box 131, at the corner of Victoria and Elgin streets. Shortly after one o'clock an alarm was rung in from box 135, situated at the corner of Sherbrooke street and Strait Street, to extinguish a fire which broke out in an attic of a large wooden tenement house. The chemical was quickly on the scene and the blaze was extinguished before it had made any headway.

An alarm was rung in from box 412 shortly after one o'clock yesterday afternoon for a slight fire in a house in Forest street. The fire broke out around the water pipe. When the fire apparatus arrived the fire was practically extinguished.

The Annual Meeting of the Associated Charities will be held in the Board of Trade Rooms, Wednesday, Nov. 27th, at 4 p.m. Mr. W. F. Burditt will deliver an address on "Better Housing," and reports of the year's work will be presented. Public cordially invited.

FRED HALL HAD SKULL FRACTURED

West End Carpenter Fell into Steamer Hold Last Night—Married Man With Wife and Family.

The first and only accident of this season on the winter port steamer, occurred at 10.46 o'clock last night and the victim was Fred Hall, a carpenter who resides at 61 Guilford street, West St. John.

He was employed on board of the C.P.R. steamer Holbrook at No. 4 berth and his duties called him into the hold of the ship. He missed his footing on the iron ladder and fell down the hatch a distance of about twenty-five feet. Fellow workmen rushed to his assistance, and he was tenderly lifted up and made as comfortable as possible. Dr. F. H. Neve was summoned and on making an examination found that the man had received a fracture of the skull, and was in a very serious condition. The doctor ordered his removal to the General Public Hospital, where he was conveyed in the ambulance.

Fred Hall is a man of about fifty years of age and well known in the West End, and has a wife and children.

At an early hour this morning, he was reported in a critical condition, and little hopes were entertained for his recovery.

SECOND SESSION
HELD ON FRIDAY

Fair Price Committee Will Continue Enquiry on Price of Milk—Minister of Health and Producers to be Present.

Commissioner Fisher, chairman of the fair price committee, who are dealing with the price of milk, announced that a second session of the enquiry will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at City Hall. At this session it is expected that representatives of the Kings County Milk and Cream Producers' Association will be present.

Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health for the province, is also expected to attend and will in all probability make a statement as to the policy of the health department in connection with the sale of milk. The department has formulated a course of action in this regard and will likely make a public announcement at the session.

POLICE COURT CASES YESTERDAY

The case against Private Russell, charged with stealing a bicycle from one of the Western Union messengers was dismissed in the police court yesterday morning. Private Laidlaw called stated that defendant and he were walking down German street when the messenger accosted them and told defendant that he wished to sell the wheel in order to purchase a pair of shoes.

Fred Smith, charged with stealing a rain coat from Thomas Davis, while both were at work on Thursday last in the Sisson; Cutler's mill was given his freedom on the grounds of insufficient evidence to prove him guilty. A boy appeared charged with attempted break into the premises of Colwell's store German street. The same lad was before the court about one year ago charged with breaking into the premises of J. & A. McMillan. The lad was allowed to go with a severe reprimand.

WORKMAN TELLS HARD LUCK STORY

Had Savings Amounting to $140 Stolen from Him and Then Lost Case in Court.

A workman in the city tells a hard luck story. Reaching the city a time ago he, by strict economy, managed to save the sum of $140, and one evening, after receiving his wages he counted the sum in the presence of his room-mate, an elderly man. Upon retiring he placed the money in his wallet under the pillow, intending to go to the bank and deposit a greater portion of it the next day, reserving the remainder to forward to his daughter at home to help the family to meet the high cost of living.

PERSONAL

Major E. H. Spearing, Ottawa, accompanied by his wife, reached the city yesterday on a short visit, leaving again in the evening. Mayor Collins of Grand Falls, is a visitor in the city on business, reaching here yesterday. He returns to his home today. Little Walter Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren, 117 Pitt street, has been seriously ill with pneumonia and his friends will be pleased to learn that he is recovering.

PICKED UP ON BATTLEFIELD

German Propaganda Printed in English and French Dropped on October 29 Sent Home by Geo. Noble.

A letter has just been received at his home, Victoria street, from Geo. Noble, one of the soldiers with the Canadian forces, the letter being dated at Valenciennes. In addition to talking about conditions at the front, the St. John soldier enclosed a German Propaganda which he picked up on the battle field, that was dropped there on the night of October 29th, either from an airplane or from a small balloon used. It has purposes. The propaganda which is printed in both English and French is as follows:

The German People Offers Peace
The new German democratic government has this program: "The will of the people is the highest law." The German people wants quickly to end the slaughter. The new German popular government therefore has offered an Armistice, and has declared itself ready for Peace on the basis of justice and reconciliation of nations.

It is the hope of the German people that it should live in peace with all peoples, honestly and loyally. What has the new German popular government done so far to put into practice the will of the people and to prove its good and upright intentions?

(a) The new German government has appealed to President Wilson to bring about peace. It has recognized and accepted all the principles which President Wilson proclaimed as a basis for a general lasting peace of justice among the nations.

(b) The new German government has solemnly declared its readiness to evacuate Belgium and to restore it.

(c) The new German government is ready to come to an honest understanding with France about Alsace-Lorraine.

(d) The new German government has restricted the U-boat war. No passenger steamers carrying troops or war material will be attacked in future.

(e) The new German government has declared that it will withdraw all German troops back over the German frontier.

(f) The new German government has asked the Allied governments to name a commission by which the practical measures of the evacuation of Belgium and France.

These are the deeds of the new German popular government. Can these be called mere words, or bluff, or propaganda?

Who is to blame if an armistice is not called now? Who is to blame if daily thousands of brave soldiers need to have to shed their blood and die? Who is to blame if the hitherto undestroyed towns and villages of France and Belgium sit in ashes?

Who is to blame if hundreds of thousands of unhappy women and children are driven from their homes to hunger and freeze? The German people offers its hand for peace.

HARRY HOOPER
IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Atlantic Refineries Superintendent in Hospital With Pneumonia—Reported Better Last Night.

Harry Hooper, one of the popular superintendents of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, now lies in the General Public Hospital in a very serious condition, as the result of pneumonia.

Mr. Hooper for a time did not feel in good health, and kept at his duties with his usual ardor. However, late last week he became quite ill and a doctor ordered his removal to the hospital where he might have that care which alone could pull him through.

Yesterday the lighter weight coats warmly interlined. A wonderful collection—coats that reflect the cleverest of New York models in their novel lines. Some trim their swinging panels with bands of lovely lustrous fur. Others employ it on cuffs and collar. Others just the collar, which are square cape-like high muffling styles of these becoming peltries. All the important colors, all sizes—first floor. Ready-to-wear section. A. D. Dykeman's.

AND THE WAGES

Representatives Are Confering With Shipping Federation at Montreal—Men Do Not Expect a Strike.

A rumor that there is considerable uneasiness among the members of the Longshoremen's Association has been going the rounds to the effect that they are about to demand a higher wage, but nothing definite could be learned from some of the members last night. Two representatives of the Association are in Montreal to confer with the Shipping Federation, relative to the highest wages which could be given to longshoremen at this port and accordingly the members of the Association are awaiting the result of this conference before any action is taken.

It is stated that certain provisions govern the Longshoremen and these will all be made fully known to the members at a meeting when the two representatives return to the city. Members of the union when spoken to last night said that they did not expect that there would be any strike, as it was not their intention to hold up the work in the port, and that all matters concerning wages would be arranged without any trouble.

SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN CROININ

Employee in J. A. Turner's Restaurant Dropped Dead While Serving a Customer Last Night.

John Cronin, aged 66 years, dropped dead while at work last evening in J. A. Turner's restaurant, 15 Charlotte street. Mr. Cronin was apparently in the best of health, as he was engaged in his usual duties yesterday, and went home in the early evening feeling in his usual health, returning soon after.

About 9.4 o'clock while employed in the shop, he was serving a customer, and fell apparently in a fit. The ambulance was hurriedly summoned, as was a physician, but all efforts to resuscitate Mr. Cronin proved fruitless and the end came immediately. Coroner Kenney was at once communicated with; he was at that time conducting an inquest into the death of the late Samuel Emery. The coroner arriving soon afterwards, decided that an inquest would be unnecessary, and gave permission for the removal of the body.

The deceased was well known in the city, and his hurried death will be a great loss to his many friends who extend to the surviving relatives their deepest sympathy.

For the past couple of years Mr. Cronin had been employed at the Lyric Theatre and had only been working for Mr. Turner for the past three weeks. He leaves to mourn, his wife, five sons, Frank, John, Leo, Harold and William of this city; three daughters, Misses Florence, Ethel and Marion, residing at home; and four sisters, the Misses Mary and Ellen Cronin of this city, and Mrs. Saporita, New York, and Mrs. James Durney, Lynn, Mass.

WEEKLY CONCLAVE OF TUXIS BOYS

About Eighty Boys Attended Y. M. C. A. Last Evening—Meeting of Boys' Council Held and Officers Chosen.

The regular weekly conclave of Tuxis boys was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. About eighty boys were present. The ladies of St. Mary's Church assisted by a committee of ladies from the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary and the Young Ladies' League, served supper at 6.30 o'clock, after which the boys enjoyed a short time with songs.

Rev. R. W. Williamson gave a pleasing address on "Brains and Brawn," after which the boys divided off in various squares for the mid-week Bible study. Following this they went on the gym floor for physical activities and then they enjoyed a swim in the tank.

At 9.30 o'clock the first meeting of the Boys' Council was held. This council is composed of representatives from various clubs who are taking the co-operative boys' work in the Y. M. C. A. Ronald Shaw was elected Mayor, Donald Humphrey, Recorder, and then there are four commissioners representing the four standards of the Canadian Efficiency training programme. Horace Wetmore is the intellectual commissioner; Roland Rothwell, physical commissioner; Harry Coleman, devotional commissioner, and George Purdy, the social commissioner. This council meets on the last Monday of each month, to arrive for the various details of the programme.

HUDSON SEAL — RACCOON —
MUSKRAT — SABLE — OPPOSSUM — KOLINSKY — TRIMMED COATS.

Peltries such as these, trim, these cosy Velour Coats, happy combinations of Fur and Fabric that rule the vogue in Women's Winter Coats.

And here at Dykeman's are Tailor-made models galore, attractive enough of themselves to account for their high place in fashionable circles. Notable also for unusual value in quality, cut, and finish. They are an emphasis of Dykeman's leadership in exceptional value-giving.

Developed in fine quality, Kitten's Ear Velour, Barrymore and Auburn silks, the lighter weight Coats warmly interlined. A wonderful collection—coats that reflect the cleverest of New York models in their novel lines. Some trim their swinging panels with bands of lovely lustrous fur. Others employ it on cuffs and collar. Others just the collar, which are square cape-like high muffling styles of these becoming peltries. All the important colors, all sizes—first floor. Ready-to-wear section. A. D. Dykeman's.

THE MONTHLY MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the St. John Branch of the Engineers' Institute of Canada was held last night. A. Gray in the chair. The evening was devoted to the discussion of a draft of an act which it is proposed to present to the provincial legislature making it obligatory on all engineers to pass an examination and become registered before practicing their profession in the province. Like action is being taken in all the provinces and it is the intention of the institute to, if possible, have a uniform act in each province.
