The London Globe says a dressmaker living in the east end of London has recognized a portrait of Deeming as the name of "Lawson" in the autumn of 1888. She states that they were walking together on the night of Sept. 29, and parted from each other at 11 o'clock. The following morning the shockingly mutilated bodies of the women, Strider and Kidwell, were found in the Whitechapel district. The dressmaker says the net Deeming, or Lawson as he was known to her, on the afternoon of Sept. 30. They had a long conversation on the subject of the Whitechapel murders, and Deeming showed he was conversant with every one of the horrible outrages. A remark was made concerning a suggestion contained in a newspaper that the murders of the night before were committed shortly after midnight. Deeming seemed to forget to whom it was talking, and said to the girl: "Look at a time, I could not have committed the murders."

The girl was very much struck by this unaccounted-for remark, and she has often since thought of it. Throughout the afternoon Deeming was very much agitated, and eagerly read the newspaper comments on the crimes. A few days later he vanished, and the girl never saw him again. Though the remark, inadvertently dropped by Deeming, and his subsequent actions, aroused a suspicion in the girl's mind that Deeming was perhaps the murderer, yet she did not until now connect and associate her suspicions to the police. The Globe says the police have been unable to trace Deeming's exact whereabouts at the time these murders were committed in Whitechapel. It is thought that with the case furnished them by the girl some startling developments may be looked for, and that the Whitechapel mysteries may at last be solved.

Deeming will be tried on April 22. The defense will be general insanity. The prisoner maintained his composure in court, but broke down utterly when he reached his cell. He says he is a moral monstrosity.

A Privileges Case in Parliament.

LONDON, April 7.—Messrs. Buckley, Hawkins, Conacher and Maclure, the last named being a member of the House for the northeast division of Lancashire, and all of whom are directors of the Cambrian Railway, are at the bar of the House to-day to answer summons charging them with censuring one of the railway employees who had testified before a parliamentary commission inquiring into the hours imposed upon railway servants in such a manner as tended to intimidate other railway employees from testifying freely and fully upon the matter the commission is inquiring into. The commission was inquired into. The commission was inquired into. The commission was inquired into.

The debate assumed a partisan color when Sir George Trevelyan, Liberal, succeeding Mr. O'Connor, accused the railway directors of trying to suppress evidence in favor of men by dismissing Hood.

Mr. Milvain (Con.) denounced Sir George for trying to mislead the House.

Mr. Gresham Hardy (Con.) charged Sir George with trying to influence the report of the committee on hours of railway men.

Then a number of members simultaneously tried to catch the Speaker's eye and the House was becoming highly excited, when a sudden it was suggested that the House would go beyond its functions if it forced the railway directors to compensate a man whom they had dismissed from the service, but it was the absolute duty of the House, he continued, to sustain perfect freedom of witnesses appearing before committees. It had been the custom in cases of breaches of privilege to act with mildness and yet with firmness, an apology having been made for a wrong done. The House had generally accepted the apology, and had also punished those who infringed a privilege. Mr. Gladstone recalled the privilege administered to O'Connell, who refused to make an apology. He did not think that the House could do more than to adopt the recommendations of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, who had moved that the directors be summoned to the bar of the House, and to simply admonish the offenders, declaring that it was not a case in which a punishment should be inflicted. Mr. Gladstone spoke for fifteen minutes, and on every point was cheered by the Ministerialists.

Mr. Cromer (Radical) next moved £1,000. Mr. Feunwick proposed to adjourn the debate with the view of allowing the directors to compensate Hood.

Mr. Balfour, the Government leader, urged the members to take Mr. Gladstone's view.

Mr. Howell declared, amid cheers and shouts of derision, that the directors ought to be sent to prison.

The proposal to adjourn was defeated by a vote of 221 to 130, and the debate proceeded. After a long discussion Mr. Balfour moved to apply the closure rule, and the motion was carried, 247 to 186, amid loud Radical protests.

Mr. Pictou's amendment in favor of compensating Hood was rejected 235 to 183.

Mr. Balfour then moved that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's motion that the Speaker admonish the railway directors to compensate Hood be put. The motion was carried by a vote of 249 to 70.

The directors were then recalled to the bar of the House and the Speaker read the resolution, adding that the view of their conduct in accepting the apology they offered and that the privilege of the House was unimpaired, shadowy or unsubstantial.

Sir Wm. Harcourt and other Liberals voted against the closure, but supported the Government in other divisions, the minorities consisting of Irish and extreme Radicals. The spectacle of the sergeant-at-arms bearing the mace to the bar of the House was greeted with a great deal of laughter. The Speaker reminded the delinquents that they had been found guilty of a serious and grievous offense, and he warned them that a repetition would be severely punished by the House.

A New York Mystery.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The remains of a pretty and well-built woman about 25 years of age was found in the bay off Governor's Island, yesterday afternoon, and was without clothing, except a pair of stockings. The woman was 5 feet 2 inches high. On the third finger of her right hand is a plain gold ring, and on the first finger of the left hand is a sapphire and three small stones. In her ears are diamond earrings. Nothing could be discovered that would lead to identification. That the woman belonged to the upper grade of society the police have little doubt. That she may have been chosen from one of the passenger boats going through the Sound is not improbable.

The French Government will ask a credit of 2,225,000 francs to be expended in dispatching reinforcements to Porto Novo and Kotonou, the French settlements in the West of Benin, which have been threatened by King Behanzin of Dahomey.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

The Brilliant Young Congressman from Nebraska.

William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, now by reason of his tariff speech on Wednesday, one of the famous orators of the United States House of Representatives, has just attained his 32nd year, having been born March 19, 1850, in the little town of Salem, Marion county, Illinois. In 1870 he was married to the daughter of a Lincoln district. He made it a fighting campaign in favor of tax reduction from the start, and won by a majority of 6,817. Mr. Bryan was married at the age of 24. His young wife, with the view of the more thoroughly putting herself in sympathy with his aspirations and making herself service to him, studied law after her marriage and was admitted to the bar. She has never practiced her profession, but her husband boasts of her great assistance to him in all the successes he has achieved.

howling, hissing. The band began to play "Rally Round the Flag," cried Mr. Fortune.

"Mr. Chairman," cried Mr. Fortune.

"Sit down!" "Put him back!" "Throw him out!" "Catch him!" were some of the things shouted back at him.

"Be still, friends," cried Dr. Derrick, as he worked his way around through the crowd until he was between Mr. Lynch and Mr. Fortune. No attention was paid to him.

The cheering and howling continued. Three men laid hold of Mr. Fortune and dragged him back. There was a wild howl and a cheer from the crowd.

Some of the women became frightened. The band finished "Rally Round the Flag," and started off on "Marching Through Georgia."

"Sing! Sing!" screamed several of the women, and they began to sing. Others joined them and sang as though their lives depended on it. Slowly but surely they began to drown the cheers and howls. It took three minutes. Every minute the chorus swelled and the howls died in three minutes every man save those who were struggling with Mr. Fortune on the stage were singing and the trouble was apparently over.

Dr. Derrick rapped on the desk for quiet.

"I've just discovered an iceberg," he shouted, pointing to Mr. Lynch, who through it all had stood leaning on the desk.

Then Mr. Lynch resumed his oration, saying: "While I didn't say anything that I didn't mean, I didn't know I was treading on anybody's toes." He finished his speech without any more interruptions.

At the end the cheering lasted three minutes.

Gen. O'Brien was introduced, and took occasion to help the Harrison boom.

When he finished a reporter asked Dr. Derrick how much longer the meeting would last. It was then 11 o'clock. "As long as there's wind left on the platform," he answered, and he introduced another man. They got through at 11:30.

The Bill Respecting County Officials' Fees Passed.

Four Opposition Amendments Successively Voted Down.

Canadian Apples Sent to England Are Not Injured by Arsenic—Game Law Amendments.

(Special to the Advertiser.)

TORONTO, April 7.—The Law Committee this morning made an important change in Mr. Balfour's bill to provide for the admission of women to the study of law. The bill made it compulsory upon the Law Society to admit women to equal privileges with men, but the amended bill provides that the Law Society may make rules to permit women to practice as solicitors.

The committee was opposed to women practicing as barristers.

Upon the motion for the third reading of the bill respecting the fees of officials, Mr. Wood (Hastings) moved an amendment to provide that any surplus income derived from these offices may be paid to the municipality and applied to the reduction of registration fees.

Mr. Ross said that the counties in the past five years had received $250,000 from this source, and it would be unfair to expect the Province to provide all the machinery for these offices and not be reimbursed. The amendment was lost on a vote of 22 to 12.

An amendment in almost the same terms moved by Mr. Kerns was defeated on the same division.

Mr. Clancy moved another amendment that any surplus income derived from the various branches of the law, instead of being paid to the municipalities, should be placed in a fund for the benefit of the poor. This amendment was also defeated.

WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT. A. Beamsley, formerly a lawyer in Brantford, died in California a few days ago of la grippe.

The business of the Toronto Type Foundry has now been made into a joint stock company, and T. M. Harris, of Brantford, is one of the directors. J. T. Johnson, Toronto, is managing director.

There were 49 prisoners confined in the Brant county jail during the quarter ending March 31. Total number of days served, 540, showing an average cost of 6.33 cents per day for each prisoner. This means that prisoners are fed for 45 cents per week, and they come out fat and sleek.

In the suit of Cook vs. Cook, recently tried at Brantford, which was an action brought by the widow of the late George Cook, ex-M.P.R., for an account against E. O. Cook, has resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff and $14,000.

ELGIN. Charles Outman, of Cornell, sought to recover $60 damages against the C. S. R. for damages sustained by the destruction of his wheat by fire, originating from one of the company's engines. The Mayor Secord, of the Division Court at Tilsonburg on March 17, when the company consented to a verdict for $60, subject to certain law points raised by them as to their liability. These questions have been decided in the company's favor, and the verdict has been set aside, and a new one entered with costs to be paid by the plaintiff.

The scheme for carrying the Brantford and Tilsonburg Railway to Port Burwell is being actively prosecuted. Towards the end of the present week a deputation consisting of the promoters of the scheme, and a deputation including the Mayor Secord, of Brantford, will go to Ottawa and interview the Government in regard to obtaining a subsidy for the construction of the line to Port Burwell.

The M. C. R. has purchased 75,000 tons for the purpose of double-tracking the road through Canada the coming season. The Chester Henderson Watson's Corners, sold his clover seed for $7.25 per bushel. Mr. Henderson may well count himself lucky, for he had 65 bushels.

Joe Yearley, a member of the notorious bootleg brigade in the East Elgin, West Huron, London and South Perth election, has taken his departure from his home in St. Thomas, leaving numerous creditors, it is said, to mourn his absence. He was discharged some years ago from the M. C. R. shops, and has since been employed only a portion of the time. His wife asserts that he has not left the country, but is unable to say where he has gone. He was an applicant for the custom of the Excise, and was just being gobbled up by the brother of the man whom Yearley helped to elect.

ESSEX. Melvin Maynard, of South Gosford, dying without heirs, his $6,000 estate reverts to the Crown.

Jim Butler, now in jail at Sandwich, was acquitted of the charge of killing his liberator by crawling through a chimney. He was caught in the act and returned to his cell.

HURON. Dr. J. Campbell is taking a six weeks' course of visiting at the hospitals of Philadelphia with special instructions on the eye, ear and throat, and will return to Seaford on April 16. The doctor is a popular practitioner, and loses no opportunity to keep pace with the latest discoveries in the medical world.

The Presbyterian College of Montreal has conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity on Rev. J. K. McDougall, M.A. of Florence, Italy. The same degree was also conferred upon Rev. D. H. Paterson, of St. Andrew's, Que., and Rev. A. D. Macdonald, of Seaford.

KENT. F. E. Arkell, the absconding mayor of Berlin and president of the Conservative Association, will be prosecuted criminally by Mr. Hobson, a prominent farmer and father of a young woman of high character, whom it is charged Arkell had wronged under promise of marriage. Arkell's present whereabouts are unknown.

MIDDLESEX. Campbell & May, of Toronto, are paying dividend of 50 cents on the dollar to the creditors of H. S. Rose, the Strathroy insolvent, who failed for $15,000.

OXFORD. The Stationing Committee of the Niagara Conference of the Methodist Church will meet in the Methodist Church in Tilsonburg on May 30. The special ministerial session will commence on June 1. The Niagara Conference of the Methodist Church will hold its ninth session in the Methodist Church in Tilsonburg, commencing June 2.

PERTH. A Good Templar institute for Perth county, in connection with the educational work of the I. O. G. T., was held in Stratford a few days ago by Grand Secretary Lawless, assisted by Past Grand Chief Templar Wilson. The attendance was good, members being present from all parts of the county. Several instructive papers were read and discussed and much useful information was elicited. The working of the license law and the duty of Good Templar voters received special attention.

WATERLOO. Mrs. Jacob Sauer, the young Berlin woman who was burned last week by her clothes catching fire while boiling soap, has been found to have been injured worse than was at first supposed. She is still confined to her bed and has medical attendance.

The third annual spring show of all the horses under the management of the Wilmet Agricultural Society was held in Baden on Wednesday. The show was a grand success, the weather being favorable and the attendance large. There were 26 entries.

WENTWORTH. The will of the late John Crooks Aikman, brother of the late Mrs. Heslop, of Ancaster, has been entered for probate. The estate is valued at $13,909, $12,000 being realty.

Stanton & O'Heir, on behalf of John Rogers, an employee of the Hamilton Cotton Company, have issued a writ against the company on behalf of Rogers, claiming $2,000 damages for injuries inflicted to his hand from an accident in the dye house.

WELLAND. The unexpected demise of the brothers Samuel and John Baker within a few hours of each other, recalls a little event in the same locality some years ago, when Benjamin and Rufus Beam, father and son, were likewise laid on the same day in the same grave.

WELLINGTON. Curph is going to build a $36,000 fire rail.

At the Elora cattle fair quite a number of cattle were brought in, but there were few offered for sale, the majority having been bought up before and on delivery for shipment. The prices ruled from $5 to $4 cents. Perhaps the finest lot was five head delivered by ex-Warden Murtie to L. O. Barber. They averaged 1,300 pounds and cost $2 cents.

Mr. Davison, B.A., mathematical master at the Guelph Collegiate Institute, has been "seared," and has accepted the head master-

AMONG THE SOCIETIES.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS. The meeting of London Lodge, No. 33, on Wednesday evening last, was more than usually interesting to the members of the order in London, and this lodge in particular, visitors from all the city lodges and some from Detroit being present. The grand chancellor of Ontario, Bro. F. J. Fitzgerald, paid his first official visit to this young lodge and conferred the rank of page and esquire on the lodge was concluded with a grand chancellor gave a very neat resume of the growth and advancement of the order in Ontario, and in a speech of over half an hour encouraged the officers and members of London Lodge with good and wholesome advice regarding the conducting of lodge business, care of finances, etc., for which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to him. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to S. D. G. C. Alex. Gardner of an address and a purse by the officers and members of London Lodge for his work in organizing and instituting the lodge, to which Bro. Gardner responded in a brief speech.

Bro. Gardner fairly took the breath of the members away, when he stepped forward and on behalf of Past Chancellor Bro. Wm. Smith, presented the lodge with a sword and belts for the master-at-arms, as this was entirely unexpected by the members, and this portion of the programme greatly needed by the lodge. Bro. Smith was warmly thanked by the chief commander and others for his kindness and generosity.

London Lodge has now obtained a firm footing in the southern suburb, and is growing rapidly. Its affairs are in the hands of capable and efficient officers, and will be carefully looked after. A large increase of membership is expected.

Pythianism is not obtrusive. It does not force itself upon the people. Those who wish to wear its honors must seek them by merit. But its bond of friendship is as everlasting as the hills and mountains of creation. No worthy brother need suffer.

Grand Lodge meeting in St. Thomas in June promises to be a very enjoyable reunion of representatives. The knights of the Railroad City are making preparations to entertain the members in a manner hitherto unsurpassed.

Efforts are being made to establish a lodge in Stratford.

A new lodge is shortly to be instituted in Oil Springs. Bro. George E. Van Tuyl, P.C., is at the head of affairs, and it will undoubtedly be a success.

Prospect Lodge, No. 10, at its last two meetings had work in the three ranks—two for page's rank, three for esquire's rank, and four for knight's rank. The next meeting will be for first and third ranks.

Mizzan Lodge, No. 12, had three for first rank and three for knight's rank. The next meeting they will have four for esquire's rank.

Myrtle Lodge, No. 2, at its last meeting was favored with a visit from Bro. Tigne, who will locate here.

ANCIENT ORDER OF FORESTERS. The official organizer of the order, Bro. A. J. Stevens, has been working in this district lately, and the first result of his work will be the opening of a court in Lobo village this evening.

A number of the brethren from the city will go out to assist the opening ceremonies.

Only eighteen assessments issued during the year 1891. The past year has been the most successful in the history of the association.

INDEPENDENT ORDER FORESTERS. Dr. Orontyatekha, S.C.R., returned from Wisconsin Monday.

On the evening of the 31st March the doctor and Mr. John Gilliver, S.S., instituted the High Court of Wisconsin, at Madison.

During the past few days the following new courts have been reported to the supreme office as having been instituted: Court Starlight, No. 1,024, at East Saginaw, with 26 members; Bond Head, No. 1,025, at Bond Head, Ont., with 14 members; Minerva, No. 1,026, at Appleton, Ont., with 22 members; Fleming, No. 1,027, at Fleming, N. W. T., with 22 members; Stockholm, No. 1,028, at Chicago, with 26 members, and Monday a new court was reported from Prince Albert, with the large charter list of 115 members.

MASONIC. The M. W. the Grand Master has selected the following committee to make arrangements for the celebration of the centennial of the Freemasonry in Canada: V. W. Bro. G. S. Byers, M.D.; R. W. Bro. W. Roaf, W. Bro. B. Allen, W. Bro. C. A. B. Brown, Bro. H. A. Collins, R. W. Bro. E. T. Malone, Toronto; R. W. Bro. J. M. Gibson, M. W. Bro. H. Murray, R. W. Bro. J. Hoodless, Hamilton; R. W. Bro. Geo. C. Davis, London; R. W. Bro. Fred. Walsh, Kingston; R. W. Bro. D. F. MacWatt, Barrie; R. W. Bro. J. C. Hegler, Ingersoll; R. W. Bro. J. H. Burritt, Pembroke; R. W. Bro. Fred Cook, Ottawa. This is a representative committee, and doubtless its efforts will be crowned with success.

A meeting of the Masonic pastmasters of Hamilton was held Monday evening, John Hoodless, D.D.G.M., in the chair. It was decided to tender a banquet to Gavin Stewart on April 22 on the occasion of his departure from the city to take up his residence in Woodstock.

Woodstock's gain. R. W. Bro. Stewart is a fine specimen of a Mason.

Dr. Henry R. Cannon, past grand master of the Masonic Order in New Jersey and one of Elizabeth's tax commissioners, died Friday night of pneumonia.

LEGAL QUERIES. A gave B a chattel mortgage and failed to pay it, and B executed the mortgage, but did not realize the full amount of the note, which was signed by both B and his wife. Can A hold one cow, one set of tools, one horse and rig used in his occupation, but not included in the mortgage, without being liable to seizure by B for balance due on the note, and can B seize if A offers to sell or trade any of his property? MRS. OWENS STILL LIVES. Looks and feels like a "new woman." A splendid example of what the forward march of science is accomplishing for the "gentler sex," even where all hope seems gone, and in its place only despair. If you would avoid the rocks which will surely wreck, and the deep waters which will surely sink your now frail craft, listen to the warning "Suffering Ladies of Toronto and elsewhere," advising you to try the Histogenetic System of Medicine. It has done more for me in four months than I can do more for me in four years. My husband's hard-earned money seemed worse than wasted on me. I was six months in the hospital at one time, and suffered dreadfully also with a diseased ear. Three months ago a complicated female weakness made my case still more hopeless. At last, I believe just in time, I heard of the Histogenetic System and consulted Dr. Rear of Toronto. He assured me that my case was beyond remedy, and complete recovery. I took the treatment, and in a few days my system was restored to its normal condition. I am sound and well. I have walked nearly two miles to-day and feel none the worse for it. It is a grand treatment. Try it, you will not regret it.

MRS. OWENS, "38 Bond street, Toronto." Free books; free examination. Just the actual cost of the medicine supplied. Experienced physicians prescribe for you free. Remember, all chronic and acute diseases treated, and you have only the medicine to pay for. Question sheets sent to outside patients, who are treated successfully at their homes. Will you believe the statements of your neighbors? Will you wish to get well? Try once more. If this fails all else will, for it is the latest and greatest achievement of medical science.

NOT A MIRACLE. In these days there are no miracles. People are not cured by them or deceived by statements to that effect. Indigestion, sour stomach, dyspepsia, in fact all stomach troubles are produced by the fermenting of the food, the result of which must be acid that decomposes the food, involving gases which act on various nerves by pressure. Neutralize the acid and the disease ceases. That is what Brunton's Curative Fluid will do. Being composed of a combination of potasses, it neutralizes the acid, assist digestion and purifies the blood. 50c and $1 at drug stores.

A washout without the help of Pearlina, is a wash that has been done with hard work. The clothes have been wrenched and twisted; the woman who washed them is tired out. Pearlina does it better, and does it safely. It takes the dirt away too easily to call it work. It gets twice as much done; it gives half as much to do. Beware of imitations. 253 JAMES PYLE, N.Y.

MRS. OWENS STILL LIVES. Looks and feels like a "new woman." A splendid example of what the forward march of science is accomplishing for the "gentler sex," even where all hope seems gone, and in its place only despair. If you would avoid the rocks which will surely wreck, and the deep waters which will surely sink your now frail craft, listen to the warning "Suffering Ladies of Toronto and elsewhere," advising you to try the Histogenetic System of Medicine. It has done more for me in four months than I can do more for me in four years. My husband's hard-earned money seemed worse than wasted on me. I was six months in the hospital at one time, and suffered dreadfully also with a diseased ear. Three months ago a complicated female weakness made my case still more hopeless. At last, I believe just in time, I heard of the Histogenetic System and consulted Dr. Rear of Toronto. He assured me that my case was beyond remedy, and complete recovery. I took the treatment, and in a few days my system was restored to its normal condition. I am sound and well. I have walked nearly two miles to-day and feel none the worse for it. It is a grand treatment. Try it, you will not regret it.

NOT A MIRACLE. In these days there are no miracles. People are not cured by them or deceived by statements to that effect. Rev. James P. Stone of Lower Cabot, N. H.

A Faithful Pastor

Is held in high esteem by his people, and his opinion upon temporal as well as spiritual matters is valued greatly. The following is from a clergyman long influential in New England, now spending well earned rest in Cabot, N. H.: "I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in my family for many years past, with great benefit. We have, with confidence, recommended it to others for their various ailments, almost all of whom have certified to great benefit by its use. We can honestly and cheerfully recommend it as the best blood purifier we have ever tried. We have used others, but none with the beneficial effects of Hood's. Also, we deem Hood's Pills and Olive Oil to be the best of their kind. REV. J. P. STONE, Cabot, N. H."

Better than Gold

Mr. Geo. T. Clapp, of Easton, Mass., says: "I am 82 years of age, and for 30 years have suffered with running sores on my legs. A few days ago I received a box of your pills, and after using them I was suffering from gangrene and had but little chance of recovery. I have now a better health than I have had for many years. I have taken no other medicine, and I owe all my improvement to your pills. REV. J. P. STONE, Cabot, N. H."

A Short Time to Live

Eight months ago a neighbor urged me, I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. The whole lower part of my leg and foot was a running sore, but it has almost completely healed. I can truly say that I am a better man than I have been for many years. I have taken no other medicine, and I owe all my improvement to your pills. REV. J. P. STONE, Cabot, N. H."

is better than gold. I cheerfully verify the above statement of Mr. Clapp, whom I have known 30 years. J. M. HOWLAND, Druggist, Easton, Mass.

Cardinal Points in Bee-Keeping.

First, adaptability of the bee-keeper to his business; second, suitable location; third, best strain obtainable in numbers suited to the location; fourth, hives which secure comfort to the bees and convenience and economy to the bee-keeper. To these may be added the four cardinal virtues—temperance, fortitude, prudence and justice. Temperance gives one the mastery over self and qualifies one to master his profession. Fortitude is that steady purpose of the mind that enables him to meet the objectionable points of the business—the losses, the disappointments, losses by wintering, etc. Prudence influences him to attend to the wants of the bees and apary, cut down expenses to the lowest point consistent with successful management, at the same time investing such sums as promise remunerative results, such as securing serviceable hives, tin-roofed and painted, foundation, section-cases, extracting tools, etc. Everything provided and ready for use before they are needed. Justice may be said to be the golden mean between parsimoniousness and extravagance, either of which, controlling the bee-keeper, ends only in loss and disappointment. By it he is induced to be just to his bees, supplying their every want at the right time, and to see to it that they are not impoverished. Should they lack stores for winter, supply them with a generous amount of food early enough so they may ripen and seal it for winter, regarding it not as a gift, but as the interest on the debt he owes them. Yes, lend them a few pounds of sugar syrup, and you will be paid back tenfold, besides having the satisfaction of having performed a humane act. The really just man cannot fail to secure his reward if his actions are directed by prudence, fortitude and justice. Besides the points spoken of—the points are many—the details must all be attended to if success follows. The largest cash return is only realized by placing on the market the nicest honey in the best possible shape.—J. B. Hains, in American Bee Journal.

THE WORKERS.

Railway Section Men Strike—Powderly's Distinguished Enckers.

The section men of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad at Clayton, Mich., struck because the company hired them at $25 per day, and when the pay cut came they were allowed only $1 for their labor. They were out several hours until word came from official headquarters that the matter would be rectified. T. V. Powderly, general master workman of the Knights of Labor, will lecture on April 13 at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. The committee have arranged to secure the presence at the lecture of Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, Dr. McGlynn, Henry George, Hugh O. Pentecost and Father J. O'S. Huntington, the Protestant monk.

ALONG THE RAILWAY LINES.

The traffic on the C. P. R. for the week ending March 31 amounted to $311,000, for the same week last year $497,000. The statement of the New York Central Railroad and leased lines for the quarter ended March 31, shows gross earnings to be $10,404,559; increase, $1,416,383. The Grand Trunk has decided to replace the present wooden bridge over Mill Creek, near the Dumfries Mills, Galt, with an iron structure during the coming summer. In 1856 the first structure built there gave way as a gravel train was passing over it and three poor fellows went down in the wreck to instant death. Strangely enough, the engine got safely across.

End of the New Germany Murder Trial—Reinhardt Found "Not Guilty."

BERLIN, Ont., April 7.—The New Germany murder case closed today. The Crown was represented by Colin MacDougall, Q.C., while the prisoner was defended by B. B. Osler, Q.C., of Toronto. It was alleged that the prisoner, Martin Reinhardt, and the deceased, Michael Haus (both farmers), were out on a night carousal when the stabbing took place which ended in the death of Haus. The accused is a German, 67 years of age. In summing up the evidence the judge charged against the prisoner. The jury retired at 12:30 and were out till 6:40, finally bringing in a verdict of "Not Guilty." The judge thereupon addressed the prisoner and discharged him, remarking that he trusted he would live the rest of his life a better man.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Full returns are now in and Dr. Colter's majority in Carleton county, N.B., is 256. The Liberals have taken proceedings to contest the election of Mr. McMillan, M. P. for Vaudeville. The first Dominion Conservative caucus for this session was held Thursday morning, Mr. Stephenson, of Peterboro, presiding.

By Eating Church Social Ice Cream and Two Die.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 7.—At a church luncheon held yesterday a number of persons were poisoned by eating ice cream. H. S. Doer, a prominent farmer, C. W. Russell and John W. Rath, merchants, together with a number of young girls, became dangerously ill and had a desperate fight for life. The doctors were kept busy until late at night. Some 50 cases are reported. It is supposed that the poison came from the lining of the freezers. John D. Hudson and Miss Mattie Goodwin died.

He Pulled the Drum-Major's Whiskers.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., April 7.—Private Clifford, of the cavalry detachment at the West Point Military Academy, pulled the whiskers of Drum-Major Anthony. Both are said to have been drinking before the scrap commenced. Clifford's arrest and trial followed. It is a great crime on the part of a drum-major, and it is said that Private Clifford is the first soldier in the history of West Point who has ever been found guilty of committing such a grave offense. He has been sentenced to six months imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

The Right of Canada to Make Her Own Commercial Treaties

Able Presented by the Hon. David Mills, and Eloquently Advocated by the Liberal Leader.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, April 7.—The only important matter in the House to-day was an amendment to supply moved by Hon. David Mills, of Bothwell, affirming the right of Canada to make her own commercial treaties. He supported the motion in an able argument, speaking for two hours and a half. Mr. Mills was followed by the Minister of Finance, who argued that our present position was satisfactory. He violently attacked the Opposition for annexation proclivities.

Mr. Laurier replied in an eloquent speech, declaring that the resolution did not aim at independence, though in his own opinion that was the ideal of the ultimate destiny of Canada, always retaining the good will of Great Britain. There was, however, no desire for any change in our colonial status at present, but there was a desire to improve our present status, and this motion was in the direction of improvement.

Col. O'Brien advocated Imperial Federation. A division was taken resulting in 62 yeas to 106 nays, a Government majority of 44.

Mr. Speaker announced that he had issued his warrant for a writ for a new election in North Perth, and the House adjourned at 12:15.

"THE UNSIGHTLY POLES."

Action Taken by the Board of Works—Several Minor Matters Dealt With. At the regular weekly meeting of the Board of Works last evening, Ald. Garratt, Bartlett, Shaw, Jones, and O'Meara, Commissioner Owen, Secretary Bell, and the city engineer were present. The engineer will report on the advisability of continuing Marshall street to Lyle. Mr. Graydon reported that the city was not responsible for the accident to John McKay's horse, and his communication setting forth a claim of $110 was filed. Ald. Jones moved that in accordance with the recommendation of the city engineer's report on artificial stone walks, the tender of A. Gardner & Co., Toronto, be accepted. Carried.

The engineer reported that he had examined the city bridges, and that Victoria and Clark's bridges needed re-roofing, and that the mill race bridge needed repairs. Tenders will be called for the latter. Mr. Hunt offered to pay the cost of widening the bridge. The report was laid over until a further report is received on the stone work of the bridge. The City Council will be requested to order the C. P. R. authorities to erect gates at the Adelaide street crossing. A petition for repairs to Cartwright street between Dufferin and Princess avenues was referred to the engineer. Contractor Howie set forth a claim, moral but not legal, for extra payment for the Dundas street pavement put down by him last year. The matter was before the Council last fall and was referred to them again. The engineer was instructed to get the solicitor's opinion regarding the Emery street drain. Mr. Graydon advised that 65 or 70 feet pole be erected in the city on which to hang all the telegraph, electric light and fire alarm wires. On account of the induction of the telephone wires they would have to have separate poles. The representatives of the different companies interested will be notified to be present at the next meeting of the committee. A deputation of ratepayers was present regarding improvements to Dufferin avenue, between Quebec and Ontario streets. The engineer will report on the matter. Ald. Shaw moved that the Council be recommended to have the breakwater at Victoria bridge raised seven feet. The engineer will prepare specifications and bid out the price for the work. The street railway company are paving between their tracks on Dundas street from Adelaide street to Queen's Park, and the contract for drawing the gravel away was let to G. Hartley at 25 cents per running foot. A communication from C. R. Howell regarding moving a sidewalk on Adelaide street was laid over, as was also one from Thos. Conford regarding graveling and grading Chalmers street. Ald. Garratt moved that the Council be recommended to rescind the present bylaw for granting permits for tapping sewers. Carried. The committee laid over the matter of a remedy for streets bearing the same names. The committee decided to call for tenders for block pavements on Waterloo street between Queen's and Dufferin avenues, Clarence street from Dundas to the G. T. R., and Hyman street from Waterloo to Wellington. Accounts were passed and the committee adjourned.

When the merits of a good thing are considered, it only requires proof like the following to convince and settle any doubt.—Constantine, Mich., U. S. A., Feb. 10, 1887. "Was troubled 20 years with pains in the back from strain; in bed for weeks at a time; no relief from other remedies. About eight years ago I bought St. Jacobs Oil and made about fourteen applications; have been well and strong ever since. Have done all kinds of work and can lift as much as ever. No return of pain in years. D. M. REARICK."

Human reason borrowed many arts from the instincts of animals.—(Dr. Johnson. Every judge should have the courage of his convictions.

IN CONGRESS. The Free Wool Bill Passed by the House—How to Work Off the Surplus Silver. WASHINGTON, April 7.—The free wool bill passed the House of Representatives by 194 to 60. Representative Williams, of North Carolina, suggests a method of disposing of the silver bullion in the treasury in a bill introduced in the House to-day. He proposes to coin all the bullion now on hand, and thereafter to be purchased, and reserving one-third of it as a redemption fund for the remainder to the States in proportion to their population as a loan without any interest charges. Fryer, conductor No. 9, last night telegraphed that there was one passenger for London. No. 9 was a little late, and the London train was held. When the train arrived at the well-known Hotel St. Thomas 3-year-old, who was en route from Buffalo to London in charge of the conductor.—(St. Thomas Journal. —Every alternate morning about 6 o'clock the central fire brigade may be seen "laddering" the roofs of the buildings in the city. They practice an hour or so on the large buildings in that vicinity, such as the London furniture factory, Reid Bros., McKay's and McClary's establishments, the Mechanics' Hall, etc. The boys have become expert at running up the ladders, the longest of which, by the way, does not nearly reach the roof of any of these places. —The ladies attending the W. C. T. U. meeting yesterday afternoon had a very pleasant and profitable time. Mrs. Thornley, president of the London W. C. T. U., was present. She is a pleasing speaker, and kept the audience interested for nearly two hours. She is quite at home while speaking on the different branches of work taken up by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, being an enthusiastic temperance worker. The success of the temperance work in London is largely due to her efforts.—(Woodstock Sentinel-Review, April 7. —The Ancient Order of United Workmen have for some time been desirous of extending their membership in the Northwest Territories and British Columbia, in the hope of being able to set that territory apart as a separate jurisdiction. With this in view, Mr. John Milne, past grand workman, of Essex, was lately solicited to visit that country and establish lodges. He consented to do so, and will shortly start for Manitoba. The arrangements were finally concluded at a meeting held in St. Thomas Wednesday, in the office of Grand Recorder Carder. There were present: G. M., W. Inwood, of Toronto; G. M. Examiner Colton, of Lambton Mills; Col. Dawson, London; T. C. Irving, Toronto; H. B. Taylor, Whitby, the finance committee and Mr. Milne. The Art Recital To-Night. The advance sale for the art recital in Victoria Hall last night assures its financial success, independent of the large number who will buy their tickets at the door. The fact that the ladies of Alma College, St. Thomas, will furnish the programme is also a guarantee of its artistic excellence. It was partially pronounced at the Opera House, St. Thomas, Tuesday, and press and public there have been sounding its praises. The performance is varied in nature, the tableaux being particularly charming. The evening Lodge, A. F. and A. M., is the promoter of the recital. To-Night's Show. Those who admire refined and legitimate comedy will find in "Dr. Bill," which will be produced at the Grand Opera House to-night, something to their taste. The Doctor's medicine is described as a first-class tonic for low spirits. The Albany Express says: "A large and demonstrative audience saw the first production of 'Dr. Bill' at the Albany Theater last night, and laughed immoderately over the amusing complications and mishaps, which the author, Hamilton Alde, has invented for his characters. After the surfeit of insane farce-comedy which has lately deluged the stage, such a performance as that of last night is to be hailed with delight. The heartiness with which the piece was received would seem to indicate that Albanians have tired of the inanity and vulgarity of farce and are ready to welcome something of true comedy." Looking After the Schools. Messrs. Cook (chairman), Jeffery, Craig, McElhannon, Tanton, Brady, Turner, D. W. Blackwell and Secretary Abbott attended last evening's meeting of No. 2 Committee of the Board of Education. An hour and a half was spent in passing the accounts, after which the reports of principals of schools in re the janitors were next taken up. Several janitors will receive notifications to attend more carefully to their duties. Tenders will be called for cupboards in several of the school rooms. Messrs. Blackwell and Tanton will provide a stove for Lorne avenue school for scrubbing purposes. The matter of appointing an architect for the Board other than the city engineer was laid over. The engineer was instructed to prepare specifications for cloak rooms on ground floor of the Collegiate Institute. Several minor repairs will be made to King street and Queen's avenue kindergarten schools. The principals of all the schools will be asked to furnish the committee, before June 1, with written statements of any repairs needed. DEADLY PARALLEL NO. 2. The best evidence of the soundness of the position of the Liberal lawyers that the notices served on the bogus voters were perfectly valid is to be found in the attitude taken on them by the judges before whom they were brought. For the purposes of comparison, we give the names of the judges for and against the validity of the notices: Declared the Liberal notices good. In Court of Queen's Bench: Chief Justice Armour, Mr. Justice Street, Mr. Justice Falconbridge, Mr. Justice Hagarty, Mr. Justice Burton, Mr. Justice Maclean. In County Courts: Judge Price, Kingston, Judge Wilkinson, Napawan. Declared the Liberal notices bad. In County Court: Judge Elliot, London.

Horticulture. THE APPLE SCAB. The apple scab is a parasitic fungus growing upon the leaf and fruit and flourishing in cool, moist weather. It has been known to botanists for a long time and throughout the eastern and central States one is almost certain to find it in every orchard, and it is also frequent in California. The effect of the scab is to cause a large proportion of the fruit to drop while quite small, to greatly disfigure the size and market value of that which matures, and to injure the vitality of the tree by causing a premature falling of the foliage. Under ordinary circumstances there are some varieties which escape the scab, but in some seasons, however, it respects neither condition of soil, mode of culture, nor variety of fruit. So also varieties notably free from disease in one section may be badly in some other locality more or less remote. It has been demonstrated by experiments made by and under the direction of the Ohio station, that the growth of scab fungus may be checked by spraying the tree at proper times during the spring with several of the copper compounds commonly used as fungicides. So far as tested the most satisfactory compound is dilute Bordeaux mixture containing 4 pounds of lime, 4 pounds of copper sulphate and 50 gallons of water. As directed by Mr. Green, the horticulturist of the station, the first application should be made before or about the time the leaves open, the Bordeaux mixture being used alone. The second spraying should be made immediately after the blossoms fall. In this Paris green or London purple may be combined with the dilute Bordeaux mixture to destroy the apple worm. The third application may be made a week or ten days from the time of the second and with the same materials. The fourth and last application for the season should be made in about two weeks from the time of the third, and dilute Bordeaux mixture alone used. For early ripening varieties the fourth application may be omitted, to avoid leaving a coating of the mixture on the fruit when ripe. It appears that spraying greatly increases the market value of all the varieties experimented upon, and in the case of Newtown pippin the value was more than doubled. The difference was also quite marked with Beilflower and Smith's cider, but less so with Baldwin and Greening. The effect of indolent spraying with fungicides is to check the dropping of immature fruit in the spring, to cause it to grow to larger size and more free from blemishes, to cause it to hang better to the tree while ripening and to cause a higher color and to improve its keeping quality. A CHEAP GRATING WAX. Take equal parts good clay and fresh cow manure. Mix thoroughly and it will be ready for use. Tie a cloth or rag around the trees when applied to prevent rain from washing it off. Experiment with the above last spring with good success. I will use it again this spring. Try it.

KEEP COVER UP ON ORCHARDS. The orchard is one little field that nearly every farmer has that helps to increase or decrease the income of the farm. It cannot be rotated many years as other fields. There is no kind of grass seed when sown that will do the trees much good. Clover is the one special grass to which land, when sown in orchards with fruit trees the clover takes up the saltpetre and other floating ingredients from the atmosphere that are so essential to the growth of the growing trees, so much so that if kept continually in clover four or five years without feeding the ground with manure or fertilizer the trees will not only cease growing but will become blighted and soon die for want of nourishment. After sowing the orchard for potatoes or for a general truck patch while the trees are small, seed down to orchard or some other kind of good grass, and when the trees show signs of fruiting begin to feed the ground well every winter with some good manure.
