The Civic Deadlock.

Ald. John Marshall's temporary absence from the city, on business, supplied the excuse for nine out of the eighteen members of the City Council attempting to make political capital out of their supposed advantage.

It was known to outsiders last week that the attempt was seriously contemplated by the Conservative bosses, and a number of them took a hand in arranging the "slate," which it was resolved, if possible, to force through the Council. The desperate nature of the plotting may be understood when it is stated that several applicants for Dominion Government offices were called on to act as go-betweens in the endeavor to seize whatever of political advantage there was in controlling the two principal committees of the Council. The "slate" submitted by Ald. Pritchard, representing the Conservative caucus, was as follows:

No. 1 (Finance)—Ald. Pritchard, Powell, Skinner, Cooper, Bennett and Parnell.

No. 2 (Board of Works)—Ald. Taylor, Douglass, Carrothers, Garratt, Dreaney and McCallum.

No. 3 (Fire, Market and Light)—Ald. J. Heaman, O'Meara, W. Heaman, Armstrong, Nutkins and Marshall.

It will be observed that by this arrangement the Liberal aldermen are practically hived on No. 3 committee. On the Finance Committee they were given Ald. Bennett and Parnell, with four Conservative associates. On the Board of Works, the most important of all committees—the great spending committee—these most generous, fair-minded aldermen permitted Ald. McCallum, of No. 6 ward, to have a seat—the solitary Liberal on the committee.

This unfair distribution was resented by the Liberal members on the striking committee. Their proposition was that the committees would give better and more satisfactory service to the taxpayers if formed as follows:

No. 1—Ald. Pritchard, Powell, Carrothers, Armstrong, Bennett and Marshall.

No. 2—Ald. Taylor, O'Meara, W. Heaman, Cooper, Dreaney and Parnell.

No. 3—Ald. J. Heaman, Douglass, Skinner, Garratt, Nutkins and McCallum.

By this arrangement, three of each of the political parties are on the respective committees, the intention being to have absolute fair play as between citizens of every class.

We believe that national politics should not enter into municipal affairs, but so long as it does, in any degree, those in authority are warranted in checkingmate any and every attempt to make partisan capital at the expense of the taxpayers. This was the motive which inspired Mayor Little to vote so as to negative the proposed packing of the City Council committees. Mayor Little takes the view that as the aldermen are equally divided in politics, so it is in the public interest that the committees shall be made up in similar proportions. This is an unassailable stand. It is in accord with every act of Mayor Little's public record. No one can charge that he has not held the balances justly as presiding officer, or that his every official act has not been in accordance with the public well-being.

His stand now in promoting the observance of even-handed justice at the Council Board will meet with the approval of every fair-minded taxpayer in London. Mayor Little has voted, as he had a right to do under the Council bylaw governing such situations, to secure fair play for all parties, and his view will doubtless prevail.

The Mayor, as a reward for his faithful conduct last year, was returned by the unanimous voice of the people for another term, and he but carries out his mandate, in this crisis, as an upright umpire in a delicate, yet perfectly plain, situation.

Cape Town, Jan. 21.—At a meeting of the German residents of Salisbury, capital of Mashonaland, a resolution was passed condemning Emperor William's dispatch to President Kruger as an act of interference with South African affairs.

KING PREMEH A PRISONER.

London, Jan. 21.—A dispatch from Coomassie says that King Premeh of Ashanti, the Queen Mother, two of the envoys who were recently in England, and several chiefs, have started under escort for Cape Coast Castle, where they will be treated as prisoners, pending the settlement of the indemnity to be paid to Great Britain by Ashanti.

COREA'S MURDERED QUEEN.

Yokohama, Jan. 21.—Viscount Muira, formerly Japanese Minister to Corea, and the others charged with complicity in the Korean coup d'etat have been acquitted. The viscount was believed to have been in some degree responsible for the outbreak at Seoul, which resulted in the murder of the Queen of Corea. He was recalled with the entire Japanese legation and was indicted for the murder of the Queen.

PORTUGAL WON'T SELL.

Paris Jan. 21.—Senator Rosa, the Portuguese Minister, is reported to have said in an interview that there was no foundation whatever for the rumor that Portugal is to sell Delagoa Bay to England. "In the first place," said Senator Rosa, "the Portuguese Government will never sell Delagoa Bay, nor any other portion of Portuguese territory. Moreover, the British Government knowing this to be the fact, could never have made to Portugal any proposition for purchase."

SPAIN'S NEW GENERAL.

Madrid, Jan. 21.—General Valeriano Weyler, the newly appointed captain-general of Cuba, left this city yesterday evening on his way to assume his new duties at Havana. A large crowd of people greeted him at the depot, to whom he said he strongly hoped soon to announce the complete re-establishment of the sovereignty of Spain over Cuba. The Queen Regent has cabled her thanks to Marshal Martinez de Campos for his services rendered to Spain as Captain-General of the island of Cuba.

BRAZIL'S DEMAND ON BRITAIN.

London, Jan. 21.—The Westminster Gazette, referring this morning to the dispatch from Buenos Ayres, which announced that a cable message from Rio de Janeiro, had received there saying that Senator Carlos Carvalho, Brazilian Minister for Foreign Affairs, is preparing a note demanding the immediate restitution of the island of Itaipu, occupied by Great Britain, to Brazil.

It is, indeed, rather to be welcomed, because it affords a useful test of the sincerity with which the Government of the United States intends to discharge its self-elected duties as Lord Chief Justice of the American continent. For in the present dispute England is pressing for arbitration, and Brazil refuses it unconditionally and imperiously. What will the United States do?

AWFUL HOLOCAUST.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21.—A dispatch from Ekaterinoslav, capital of the government of that name in South Russia, gives the details of a fire in a theatre there, causing the loss of life. Forty-nine bodies have already been taken out, and a number of persons who are known to have been in the theatre are still missing. The fire says: "There is no doubt that a performance was going on. Spectators became panic-stricken and made a wild rush for the exits. Many of them were knocked down, trampled under foot and rendered unconscious. The heat was so great that the fire spread with great rapidity. Before all the terror-stricken people could get outside the theatre was a mass of flames. Every effort was made by those outside to save those in the burning building, but the heat was so intense that it was impossible to approach the structure for some time. After the ruins had cooled off sufficiently a search was commenced for the dead."

THE FLYING SQUADRON.

London, Jan. 21.—Nothing definite has been given out regarding the destination of the British flying squadron.

A UNIQUE WEDDING.

London, Jan. 20.—The announcement is made that Henry Somerset, son of Lady Henry Somerset, is to be married next Thursday to the daughter of the Duke of St. Albans, and that the ceremony will be marked by the unusual ceremony of a public welcome to the young people in the market place of Reigate, where an address is to be presented. These ceremonies are comparatively common in the rural parts of the kingdom, where the spirit of feudalism still prevails, but in large towns like Reigate they are rare.

CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS.

Madrid, Jan. 21.—Owing to dissensions in the Shoan camp, Emperor Menelek is suing to the Italians for peace. He has asked Gen. Baratieri, in command of the Italian forces in Abyssinia, to appoint a plenipotentiary for the purpose of arranging the terms of peace. The Shoans had 500 killed in the fighting at Fort Makalle on Jan. 11.

Rome, Jan. 21.—The Government does not expect that any result will follow the negotiations with Menelek. King of the Abyssinians, who has invested the town of Makalle, which is garrisoned by an Italian force. Gen. Baratieri, the commander of the Italian forces in Erythraea, is unable to assist the troops at Makalle, the three approaches to that place being now almost impassable from natural causes, besides being guarded by 50,000 Abyssinians.

CHAMBERLAIN'S GREATEST TASK.

London, Jan. 20.—With Cecil Rhodes actually at sea racing homeward to begin the fight for the Chartered Company before Parliament meets, English attention will be speedily concentrated on the domestic aspect of this great upheaval. As matters stand to-day, it is thought probable that a majority could be found in the House of Commons for revoking the charter altogether. What the feeling will be a month hence, it is difficult to predict. Thus far this queer people have been able to keep quite distinct their aversion for Jameson and their enthusiasm for Chamberlain. These two emotions, flatly contradicting each other, have existed, so to speak, in water-tight compartments side by side, but when Rhodes appears on the scene it is obvious that he cannot also be a national hero unless Chamberlain is to be abandoned. The latter was evidently within bounds the other day, when he warned a cheering Birmingham crowd that his work was by no means ended yet. His fight with Rhodes, and the whole tremendous social and financial South African combination behind him, will strain him to the very utmost. If he emerges victorious, he will indeed be a great man.

THE TRANSVAAL.

London, Jan. 21.—Experts in the law of the South African republic concur in the belief that if the penalties for treason are enforced in full the Boer Government will make a rich haul through the confiscation of property of those who are convicted of that crime. Among those arrested is Lionel Phillips, who is the registered holder of Rand shares to the amount of $3,750,000.

Calculations based on knowledge of the properties of the other prisoners show that the total money value of the property liable to be confiscated is $70,000,000. The clemency shown by the Boers to Dr. Jameson and the other raiders is suspected to cover their intention to keep their grip on the better spoil. The holdings in the Rand of Cecil Rhodes, the ex-Prime Minister of Cape Colony, are estimated at $35,000,000.

Boers coming to England to defend the interests of the British South Africa Company, in which he is the ruling spirit, and of Dr. Jameson, Mr. Rhodes is concerned in a project for the purchase from Portugal of Delagoa Bay, East Africa, by an English syndicate. Portugal will be tempted by the offer $600,000,000. In the meantime the hand of the British Government, which cannot now be seen in the deal, will be disclosed if Portugal consents to dispose of the territory in question.

The Chronicle has a dispatch from Bloemfontein confirming that dated Jan. 12, in which it was said there had been a plot to stir up the savages to invade the Transvaal and murder the white men. Documents to this effect have been seized.

The Charge Against Harry Dropped, and He Is Called as a Witness.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—When the remanded charge against Harry and Dallas Hyams of conspiracy to murder Mrs.
Harry Hyams was taken up Crown Attorney Curry read a letter from O.
St. Marie, who acted as agent for the Sun Life Insurance Company in connection with the alleged transaction.
St. Marie is in Virginia, and refuses to come back unless he is indemnified for his expenses and time.

The magistrate said no dependence could be placed on a man who wrote in this strain, and asked Mr. Curry what he intended doing. Mr. Curry said that under the circumstances he would ask to have the charge against Harry Hyams dismissed, and the information amended to read against Dallas Hyams alone.

The magistrate consented, and Harry Hyams was then called as a witness against his brother on the conspiracy charge.

E. F. B. Johnson, counsel for the Hyams brothers, informed the magistrate that he had advised Harry Hyams to refuse to answer any question, even if he were committed for contempt of court, in view of the fact that a charge of forgery still hung over him.

Counsel then asked one or two formal questions of Harry Hyams, to which the latter responded. Being asked, however, where he had resided a year ago, witness refused to answer, and the magistrate thereupon adjourned the case until Wednesday, when he will decide what course to take with the recalcitrant witness.

St. Andrew's Church.

What Its Many Societies Have Done
During 1895.

Nearly $2,800 Raised For Missions Alone
—What the Pastor Would Like to See—The Sunday School and Other Reports Presented.

The adjourned annual meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was held last night, but compared with the meeting of Wednesday night last, the attendance was rather small. The meeting, nevertheless, was equally as interesting as the preceding one, as reports were presented from over a dozen organizations in connection with the church.
Each and every one had the same story to recite—that the year had been most prosperous, under the guidance of the new pastor, Rev. Robert Johnston, and that still greater prosperity was confidently looked for in the future. A rather remarkable fact was brought to the attention of the congregation by Mr. Johnston after the presentation of the reports. It was that during the year $2,795 60 had been raised for mission purposes alone, by the different societies and bands, an amount which far exceeded the fondest expectations of the workers. The announcement led the pastor to remark:
"I think our watchword should be one of hopefulness. As the reports have been read, it has been shown that encouraging progress was accomplished all along the line.
It is the beginning of better things. But we must not be content; do not rest satisfied by that. I hope that by the year 1900 we may have revenue of at least $9,000, with half the amount for missionary schemes. I do not think that is too much to expect—at any rate, we should have $8,000 with $4,000 for outside work. I think we can easily reach that mark, and it seems to me that we are going to pass the $6,000 mark for missions this year. We have to thank God that he has prompted us to reach out our hands to the Northwest, to China and other parts of the world to advance his kingdom. "Better things" still let our watchword be, and may the reports for 1896 show that we have been enabled by God to go forward and do valuable things for him."

Mr. Johnston presided, and after the usual opening exercises called for the reading of the reports. The movers and seconders of their adoption were allowed five minutes each in which to make any comment or offer suggestions as to the best method of conducting the work in future.
Many flattering remarks on the successes of the year were uttered, and numerous valuable hints were given. The reports from the missionary societies—five in number—were first taken up.

The missionary association reported that the receipts for the last six months were largely in excess of those of the previous year. The increase in the number of contributors was one of the most pleasing features of the year. The receipts were $1,868 56; disbursements, $395 60; balance, $1,472 92, to be distributed among the home, foreign, French evangelization and other mission boards. The number of contributors in 1894 was 230; in 1895, 331; the amount contributed in 1894, $1,078 28; in 1895, $1,868 56; increase $790 28. The officers of the association are: Honorary president, Rev. Robert Johnston; president, Wm. Stevely; vice-presidents, R. A. Little and Donald Fraser; treasurer, C. R. Somerville; secretary, W. B. Gillespie. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has a membership of 48, and the average attendance during the year was 25, a slight increase over 1894. The receipts were $164 15, and after all expenses were paid $155 80 was handed over to the Presbyterial Board. A box of clothing valued at $157 was sent to the Northwest.

The 30 members of the King's Messenger's mission band collected $74 48; the Murray mission band—organized in September at the north end Sunday school, as a memorial to Rev. J. A. Murray—reported progress with its membership of 33, and the Outlook band, with 42 members, had raised over

The spokesman for the Sunday school complimented Mr. Johnston on his earnest labors in behalf of the scholars who assembled every Sunday afternoon. There was an increase of 99 in the average attendance, (exclusive of the pastor's Bible class), nearly one half of which was credited to the primary class. The attendance of Chinese had fallen off, owing to the removal of several from the city. The total mission collections were $298 46; the school receipts $504 37; the expenditure $886 52; balance, $117 85. The mover and seconder of the adoption of this report spoke in very complimentary terms of Mr. A.
S. Macgregor, who was for nine years superintendent of the school. They expressed regret at his being compelled to resign, and hoped that his successor, Mr.
Somerville, would prove equally as successful in the position. The north end school has thirteen teachers and officers, an average attendance of 100 scholars and a balance on the right side. The London West school held in the temperance hall, has 45 scholars and ten teachers and officers. It raised $60 31 in the year.

The pastor's Sunday afternoon class for Bible study was shown to have experienced a wonderful growth since it has been taken charge of by Mr. Johnston in May last.
It then had only a small number on the roll, but now the average attendance is about 140, while the membership is 180.
The Y. P. S. C. E. has 60 active and 19 associate members, and has undertaken to raise $100 for Knox College Missionary Association. The Women's Visiting and Aid Society spent $255 65 in numerous useful ways, and has still a balance of $53 43.

The choir, ushers, and prayer meeting committee also made pleasing reports, and the meeting was closed with the benediction at 10:30. The message from the session will be taken up at a future meeting.

A LEOPARD LOOSE!

Exciting Times in a Railway Baggage Car—The Handsome Beast Enjoys a Good Meal of Oysters.

Corry, Pa., Jan. 21.—A leopard broke loose in the baggage car of the westbound passenger train on the P. and E. Railroad yesterday morning, and when the train drew in here there was the wildest sort of panic among the passengers on board. The animal belonged to the Walter Maitland, and was being shipped to winter headquarters at Geneva, O.

The brute's cage was pushed up in the corner of the baggage car. As the train was passing through Kane the beast managed somehow to break through the bars. The baggage master saw the animal making for him, and dashed for the door. By the time the train reached here the beast had discovered several large tins of oysters and had swallowed the contents.

A freight car had to be taken from the yards and used to carry baggage from here to Erie, as no one has been found so far who has the courage to attempt handling the brute.

"Lost, a small calf, his two hind legs is white. He is a she calf. Everybody who finds him gets five dollars." A Dutch farmer posted this advertisement in a Pennsylvania tavern.
Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup stands at the head of the list for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It acts like magic in breaking up a cold. A cough is soon subdued, tightness of the chest is relieved, even the worst case of consumption is relieved, while in recent cases it may be said never to fail. It is a medicine prepared from the active principles or virtues of several medical herbs, and can be depended upon for all pulmonary complaints.
