TIGHTNESS OF MONEY MARKET

W. T. Shannon Gives Important Opinion On Financial Situation

He Thinks the Money Famine May Spread to the Smaller Cities

Yesterday, many of the metropolitan dailies, editorially and otherwise, commented on the growing tightness of the money market. This has been felt in the financial world for some time, but apparently, instead of getting better, conditions are becoming worse all the time. Some are inclined to view the coming crisis with alarm, and all agree that it is worth noting and taking heed thereof. In a recent interview John D. Rockefeller, the king of oil magnates, stated that there was no cause for immediate alarm, but it would pay for all financial institutions to be careful. This seems to be the sentiment which prevails among moneyed men the world over. A Planet reporter, in a chat with Manager W. T. Shannon, of the local branch of the Standard Bank, asked him if the banks had any grave apprehensions as to the outcome.

"The tightness of the money market is not properly appreciated outside of the large centres," he replied. "It is a feature which, though not at present alarming, may eventually result more seriously than some would think."

"The cause is due to the immense amount of improvement going on in the world to-day, where capital is tied up for a time and is not yet making returns. The banks, however, have no fears. It is capitalists, speculators and others who may suffer. Another snowbound winter in the west would mean a great calamity to the money market in Canada. Last winter's blockade is partly responsible for the scarcity of money in this country at the present time."

"Do you think that the money famine will spread out to the smaller cities later on?"

"Yes, it is already being felt to some extent, and will be felt more later on."

"What would be the general effect of the money famine?"

"Building operations and industrial improvements would have to be suspended to a great extent for a time. Manufacturers more particularly would feel the stringency."

OFFICERS INSTALLED

At the regular meeting of Western City Lodge, No. 93, I. O. O. F., held last evening, the following officers were duly installed into their respective chairs for the ensuing term, by D. D. G. M. Joseph Furub, of Wallaceburg, assisted by Past Grand A. McCormick, W. J. Easton, Alex. McDougall, A. Heath, Harry Smith, J. Taylor and William Potter:

N. Pritchard, Jr., P. G.
D. Hanley, N. G.
A. L. Brown, V. G.
H. Gallagher, Rec. Sec.
G. H. Willard, Treas.
R. Chrysler, Fin. Sec.
Albert Chrysler, Warden.
S. McCormick, Conductor.
Geo. Park, R. S. N. G.
Arch. McCormick, L. S. N. G.
Jas. Kendall, R. S. V. G.
S. B. Arnold, L. S. V. G.
Reg. Taylor, I. G.
Chas. Bowers, O. G.
John Taylor, Chaplain.
Dr. W. R. Hall, Physician.

Western City Lodge has had a most prosperous term in every regard. A number have been added to the membership roll and the finances are in excellent condition. With its new set of officers even greater things are expected and a year second to none in the history of old 93, confidently looked forward to.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to D. D. G. M. Furub for very able manner in which he performed the ceremony of installation.

At the conclusion of the evening's labors the brethren repaired to Smith's restaurant, where a most enjoyable and happy hour was spent in a social way.

CELEBRATION FOR 'BURG

Wallaceburg, July 8.—Unquestionably the best celebration ever held here will be the Provincial Firemen's Demonstration and Tournament, which will be held here on August 5, 6 and 7. Five brigades from all over Ontario will be here in force, and a large crowd and grand celebration are expected.

St. Catharines, Merriton and Aylmer have signified their intention to be present, and each will bring a brass band, while acceptances have been received from a large number of other departments. Lithographs will be issued in a few days, giving the program and list of events and prizes. A gala day is looked for and no doubt Wallaceburg will have a greater crowd than has been.

TWO P. M. ENGINES MEET IN HEAD-ON COLLISION

Serious Smash-up Occurs Just Outside The City Limits—Engines Are Derailed But Fortunately No One Is Injured—Line Now Clear

A serious smash-up occurred on the Pere Marquette Railway, just outside of the city limits, last evening about six o'clock, the result of a collision between two freight trains. Through freight, Extra No. 206, in charge of Engineer Couse and Conductor Pook, was coming south from Sarnia. The local yard engine, in charge of Engineer Rhienigen, was going north just over the river bridge, to get on to the siding, out of the way of the passenger train which was preparing to leave the station en route to Sarnia. The yard engine had about ten cars attached to it and the through freight had about forty.

Before the yard engine could get on to the siding the through freight came flying around the curve in the tracks at this point, and it was then too late to avoid a collision. The two engines met, head-on. The freight engine was not injured to any extent; in fact, after the crash was cleared away it was able to continue its trip south. The yard engine was slightly damaged. Both engines, however, were derailed. The cars remained on the track, but one of the flat cars belonging to the G. T. R. was broken in two. The auxiliary from the city was soon on the scene of the smash-up and by ten o'clock the track was clear, and the freight continued south, being delayed only a very short time.

The passenger train which was about to leave Chatham at the time of the accident was delayed about half an hour.

No one was injured.

ARRIVAL OF CORNELIUS BROS.

Says There Will Be No Favoritism As To Site

Building Of New Brass Factory To Commence At Once

President L. A. Cornelius and Secretary-Treasurer H. C. Cornelius, of the Wolverine Brass Mfg. Co., whose Canadian factory will soon be established and in running order in this city, arrived in Chatham this morning. Their business in the Mple City is to select a site for their factory here, and complete arrangements for the construction of the building and the installation of the plant.

L. A. Cornelius was seen by a Planet reporter at noon to-day, at Hotel Garner, where the brothers are staying.

"Yes, we made a tour around the city this morning," he replied to the reporter's query. "There is an abundance of property offered—some very good sites, too, at that. Can't say that we favor either the North or the South sides in particular. It is purely a business proposition with us, and what we are looking for is a good site for our factory irrespective of sentiment or anything else."

"How long will you remain in the city, Mr. Cornelius?"

"I shall stay here till every detail for the construction of our factory is arranged," he replied. "We are anxious to get started as quickly as possible."

"I understand that you have already ordered some of the material for the building of the factory?"

"Yes, the timber for the factory has already been shipped. While you are here, I would like to express our thanks and appreciation for the manner in which the people carried the by-law. The Industrial committee and the Board of Trade did excellent work. The papers also put up a great fight."

DRAINAGE DISPUTE

The appeal by Treasurer Cummings of the Township of Chatham, and about twelve other ratepayers of Dover, against an assessment for bridges crossing the Boyle drain, was heard before Judge Bell this morning.

The appellants contend that the cost of these bridges should be borne by the Township at large, and not by the drainage area.

After hearing the first witnesses, Judge Bell enlarged the case until Tuesday, Sept. 10, so as to enable all the other parties assessed on the drain to be notified of the appeal, that they may attend and oppose it. Matthew Wilson, K. C., is solicitor for the Township of Dover, and O. L. Lewis is acting for the appellants. The respondents will most likely also have a solicitor at the next hearing.

RIFLE WENT OFF

Comber, Ont., July 8.—What might have proved a fatal accident occurred at Stoney Point. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bussey, of Detroit, are visiting friends in Stoney Point, and while the former was examining a rifle it accidentally discharged, the bullet entering the side of Mrs. Bussey, striking a rib just over the heart. The bullet followed the rib to the back and lodged in the clothing of the unfortunate woman. Dr. McNiven, of Comber, dressed the wound, and unless complications set in Mrs. Bussey will soon be well again.

GAS ENGINES FOR POWER

Ald. Potter's Electric Light Scheme Is Gaining In Public Favor

He Claims it Will Reduce The Cost Of Lights To Less Than $50 Each

When Ald. Potter is through with his present negotiations over Electric Light and Gas Engines, he will be an expert on such matters, if anyone is. During the last few weeks the time of the chairman of Property has been fully taken up with the study of the Electric Light Plant, and from present appearances, the time spent in the consideration of this important question, will be shown to be hours well employed in the interests of the citizens. The present outlook for the Electric Light Plant is very hopeful. All of the statistics, plans and drawings which have been received by the Property Committee have now been forwarded to the Municipal Board, in the hope that that Board will grant the city permission to issue debentures for $15,000, without making an appeal to the people. This expenditure, it has been shown, is entirely necessary to place the plant in a proper and satisfactory condition.

It is the intention to build an annex, back of the waterworks plant, and vacate the room which the Electric Light department has occupied in the Water Works building. This will have a double benefit. The Electric Light plant will be more up-to-date, and the Water Commissioners will be able to use the present Electric Light room, for the installation of a new filter, which is very urgent. In this way both the Electric Light and the Water problems will be satisfactorily settled.

What Ald. Potter is devoting the most of his time to, however, is the proposed scheme to install gas engines for power in the new Electric Light station. The committee has received tenders for gas engines from reliable firms and these, too, have been sent to the Municipal Board. It is figured that by using gas, the power the cost of the electric lights can be reduced to less than $50 per light. The saving which the city will be able to accomplish will more than pay the interest on the debentures issued to defray the expenditure necessary to carry out the proposition.

It is a significant fact that the United States Steel Corporation, according to the latest press despatches, are throwing out all of their engines and putting in gas engines to provide the power for their plants. They realize that gas is cheaper than coal.

"If we install gas engines in our new plant," said Ald. Potter yesterday afternoon, "there is no doubt that our plant will be the finest in the Dominion, for the firm that gets the contract will do their very best to secure the most valuable 'ad' out of it. It would be to their interests to make it go well, for it is a he winning, and it it proves successful, others will want it."

CRAZY WITH THE HEAT

New York, July 9.—Becoming suddenly insane, probably from heat, while at work on the new building of the Trust Company of America, at 37 Wall street, yesterday, a plasterer ran amuck with a hatchet among his fellow-workmen.

He attacked three of them, two of whom were probably fatally injured. All the average woman demands of a man is that he be a good listener.

DETROIT MAN WAS HELD UP

Albert Thompson Was Relieved of his Watch and $25 In Money

Three Colored Men Did the Job on The Aberdeen Bridge Last Night

Albert Thompson, who claims to travel for the Good Luck store of Detroit, met with an experience in Chatham last evening which he is not likely to forget for some time. Thompson, who is a Frenchman, was wandering around over the Creek near Adelaide street about twelve o'clock last evening, when he met a couple of late home-goers and asked where Mr. Trudell lived. He said that Trudell was a laboring man whom he knew well, and he would like to get to his home to spend the night. In the course of the conversation, his story leaked out.

He said he arrived in town at 11.30 last night and started at once for the Aberdeen Hotel. He had been in Chatham before and had always stayed at this hotel. There were not many people on the street at the time, and when he was crossing the Aberdeen bridge, he was accosted by a colored man, who demanded his money. Thompson refused and a tussle ensued. The colored man's two pals were evidently waiting to see how the game would work out, for when they noticed Thompson getting the better of the fight, they sprang out to their friend's assistance.

The result was that Thompson was relieved of his gold watch and $25 in paper money. When the robbers got their booty they ran across the bridge and went down Emma street. Thompson followed them far enough to see them get into a rig and drive out towards the country via the House of Refuge.

The unfortunate traveller then set out to find a policeman and he met Henry Darr, who gave him a very patient and sympathetic hearing. It was impossible, however, in view of all the facts to start out immediately into the country to find the thieves, but the matter will be investigated to-day. After unloading his mind to the policeman, Thompson started out to find his friend's home. How he got over the Creek is a mystery, as it was plainly evident from the man's appearance that he had not been drinking. Thompson said that he had been in the Cohit for his firm last week, and after his trip to Chatham and Wallaceburg, he intended to go to Chicago and San Francisco.

"I have a permit to carry a revolver," he said, "but I had no idea that I would have to use it in Chatham, so I did not bring it with me. I have often been here before, and this is the first time that I have held up. If I had been prepared for them, those men would never have my money, for I would have killed the whole three of them."

Judging from the dangerous glitter which came into his eyes when relating his experience, Thompson no doubt would have carried out his vicious threat had he been given half a chance.

DR. S. A. KING DEAD

Detroit, July 9.—Dr. Sidney A. King, 65 years old, one of the richest men in Essex, reputed to be worth a quarter of a million dollars, died yesterday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock of Bright's disease, following an illness of three months. He was a resident of Kingsville, where he started the practice of medicine when 25 years old.

Fifteen years Dr. King retired from active practice of medicine and turned his time and attention to business. He was instrumental in bringing natural gas from the South Essex field to Windsor and Detroit and organized the Ontario Natural Gas Co., of which he was president. Dr. King sold out his interests to a New York syndicate two years before the natural gas supply ran out. The name of the concern was changed to the United Gas Co.

He was financially interested in oil wells at Bothwell, Ont., and in Kent and Essex counties. He was managing director of the Girardot Wine Co., of Sandwich, and director of the Windsor City Gas Co.

In politics Dr. King took but one long leap. He was a candidate in 1888 for member of Parliament from South Essex, but was defeated by his opponent, M. K. Cowan.

Dr. King was captain of the Kingsville troop of the First Hussars. He left two sons, Charles and George, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Reid, of London, Ont.

Dr. King is well known in Chatham. He has many warm personal friends in this city who will be sorry to hear of his demise.

ADVICE TO WORKERS.

We are accustomed to look upon John D. Rockefeller as merely the incarnation of wealth, an industrial juggernaut that crushes the life out of everything that comes in its way, but there is something very human about the old man after all, says the Detroit Journal. That was shown by the talk he had with the reporters just before he left Chicago. Being asked if the present prosperity was likely to continue, he answered their question with another:

"Do you men save any money?" That was in his mind, the key to the situation. If the people are saving money they may look to the future with confidence. If they are living up to the last dollar they make, then there is some reason, Mr. Rockefeller thinks, to regard the future with apprehension. Then he went on to give them the secret of his own success:

"Men, I want to tell you that systematic saving and self-denial with a good deal of hard work is the foundation of every large fortune. That has been my experience."

That is the advice that any father might give his son. It may be said that a man might save for a hundred years, if he lived so long, and then not have more than an independence, but that is not what Mr. Rockefeller meant. If a man lays aside a few hundreds each year he will soon have a little capital, and when an opportunity offers itself he will be in a position to grasp it. No one knows better than the great financier that wealth is made from investments, not from savings. But the greater benefit to be derived from systematic saving is the benefit to the individual. It requires both hard work and constant self-denial to lay aside a portion of one's salary, and the man who exercises these qualities, day in and day out, for years, cannot help building up an admirable business character.

The opportunities for acquiring wealth are as great to-day as ever they were, said Mr. Rockefeller, and however much one may be inclined to dispute this dictum, still he is in a position to judge. If he were divested of his wealth to-day is it at all likely that he would be a pauper ten years hence? The late Hiram Walker made a second fortune in his old age, after divesting himself of the enormous wealth he had accumulated in his earlier years. Rockefeller would probably do the same. He added:

"Don't fear or envy those who progress or push ahead. We all get the benefits. No one can get ahead unless you and you (designating each reporter by a friendly poke in the ribs), get the benefit."

If by this Mr. Rockefeller meant that all were to get an equal opportunity he has perfectly right, for our interests nowadays are so intertwined that no one class can be benefitted without benefitting the mass of the population; no one city can be benefitted without the whole country sharing in the prosperity. A raise of wages in one field of labor tends to raise the standard of living for the whole community. But if it is meant that one shall get the part of the robber baron and levy tribute upon all the others, as Mr. Rockefeller himself is accused of doing, his success will not be a benefit, but a detriment to the nation.

Mr. Rockefeller's advice may well be taken to heart by young men who in the magnificence of youth are apt to despise small savings. Mr. Rockefeller's great business was built up by saving a mill here and cent there in the different processes, the enormous output making every these-pare economy amount to millions.

Economies that are not despised by a Rockefeller need not be looked down upon by a young man starting life.

NEW METHODIST PASTORS ARE FAVORABLY RECEIVED

Something About The Men Who Will Direct The Destinies of Victoria Avenue And Park St. Methodist Churches During The Next Three Years

Sunday last was a memorable day for the Methodists of the Maple City. It was marked by an important incident which will have a direct bearing upon their future growth and spiritual welfare—a change of pastorate.

During the last few years especially, the Methodists of this city have been very fortunate in securing the services of pastors who have not only been a credit to that particular church, but also to the city at large. For that reason, if for no other, the arrival of their successors has been looked forward to with a great deal of interest. It is safe to say after the splendid services in both churches Sunday, that the first impressions have been more than favorable, and it is expected that the Methodist churches in this city will continue to grow and prosper under the management of the two new pastors which have been allotted to them.

REV. DR. DANIEL.

Rev. George Daniel, Ph. B., M. A., Ph. D., the new pastor of the Park street Methodist church, is one of the distinguished men of the Methodist ministry. He was born in July, 1852, of English parentage. He came to this country when he was a small boy, and commenced to preach at the early age of 16 years. Two years later he was received by the conference and was established in the Adelaide Circuit, O. T. He was ordained in '76 in St. Catharines after attending Victoria University. Soon afterwards he was moved to Niagara, where he remained for four years. He then went to London, whence he went to Winnipeg in 1883, where he was pastor of the Bannatyne street church, which at that time was the most important charge in that city. In 1886 he received an invitation to Regina, the capital of the Northwest Territories. In 1889 he was again moved to Portage la Prairie, after which he went to Brandon. At the close of his ministry in Brandon, he received an invitation to the Queen's avenue church of London, one of the most important Canadian charges in Canadian Methodism. During the last years of his ministry in the West he was District Chairman and Examiner in history and literature, and Secretary of the Board of Examiners for the Manitoba and Northwest Conference. After leaving Queen's avenue church in London, he went to the Central church, Sarnia, and was chairman of the Sarnia District for three years. He was then invited to the North street church, Goderich, where he was also chairman of the district during his term of pastorate. He then went to the Colborne street church, which is situated on the corner of Colborne street and Rickardville, London. He spent the time from '94 until the present year as pastor of that church.

Mr. Daniel has been in the ministry for 30 years, and during all of that time he has continually filled charges in cities and towns. He has spent 17 years in cities, and it will be seen from the above that he has had a wide experience. At the age of sixteen, when he commenced his ministry, he filled pulpits in the Arkona district. He was stationed in Forest doing evangelistic work, when he was accepted by conference. Dr. Daniel has been an earnest student all of his life, and has won many scholarships from the best colleges which he attended. He first started his training for the ministry in Victoria University, and completed his course in the Illinois Wesleyan University of Chicago. It was there that he won his degree of doctor.

Dr. Daniel is a man of striking personality, and a very pleasant speaking voice. It is not hard to learn that he has a kindly sympathetic nature, and he will no doubt meet with more than the usual amount of success as pastor of the Park street Methodist church.

In a short interview with The Planet yesterday, Dr. Daniel spoke in glowing terms of his first impressions of the Maple City.

"You have a very beautiful city," said he, "and I am sure that I will enjoy my residence here. We Methodist ministers always try to like new towns when we are changed, but I am sure that in my present case it will require no effort on my part to fall in love with Chatham. We are already particularly charmed with the cordiality and geniality of the people here, and I am sure that we will enjoy ourselves more the longer we stay."

REV. W. H. GRAHAM.

Rev. William H. Graham, B. A., the new pastor of Victoria avenue Methodist, is a young man of prepossessing appearance, and of frank, hearty manner, that should make him quickly popular with the growing and appreciative congregation of that church. Before coming to Chatham, he had won for himself a name as being one of the rising young Methodist ministers of the Western Ontario. When a Planet reporter called on him yesterday, he was busy superintending the placing of his household effects in the parsonage on Grand avenue.

Rev. Mr. Graham was born in the County of Perth, near St. Mary's, where his parents at present reside. He attended Public school near his home, and later the Collegiate Institute at St. Mary's. His education was completed at Victoria University, where he graduated in Arts and Divinity.

He graduated in 1898, and was ordained in the same year, but he had seen considerable service in the cause of Christianity previous to his ordination, first taking up the Lord's work in 1891, when he took his first charge on the Erin circuit, near Guelph. The second charge taken by him was at Rulitort, and his first charge after ordination was at Camlachie, where he spent three years. From there he went to Sparta, where he remained three years, and lastly to Goderich, where he was pastor for the past four years. By these facts it will be seen that he has had much experience in his chosen and sacred calling.

"I feel that I will like Chatham," he told a Planet reporter, during the course of a short conversation yesterday. "We like our new home and that I had a very favorable impression of Victoria avenue Methodist congregation during the two services Sunday, despite the heat which prevailed."

Undoubtedly this talented young clergyman and his family, like all others who come to the Maple City, will grow to like Chatham more and more as they get better acquainted with the people and the surroundings.

LITTLE CANADIAN CAPITAL

In the course of a two column article sent to his paper after a visit to the Tibury oil fields, J. Ross Munro, of the Toronto Globe, makes the following statement:

"It may be said that the owners of the wells receive $1.68 1-2 cents a barrel for the oil. Of this 56 1-2 cents a barrel is a bonus from the Canadian Government. And, notwithstanding this bonus there are not more than two or three Canadian syndicates on the field. Most of the wells are owned by men who have interests in Ohio fields. They have made no efforts to advertise East Tibury, but, on the contrary, they seem to desire to keep the oil movements as much in the dark as possible. Such a course of action helps them to obtain other leases more cheaply should the field show any marked extension. They have met with considerable success in keeping the secret of the oil deposits, to such an extent, in fact, that it is doubtful if 75 men from Chatham, the nearest city, have ever been within sight of the derricks. The oil is in Canadian territory, and it is difficult to see why nearly all the profits should be allowed to go to the other side of the line. Mr. Michael Egan, the pioneer of the Tibury oil industry, says there are plenty of openings for Canadians yet, but fast work will have to be done in order to get ahead of the Ohio men. These experts from the States estimate that it costs $3,000 to sink each well in Tibury."

Trouble Was Not Serious.

Liebow, July 8.—It is officially stated that the trouble at Angra de Heroismo, in the Azores, where the troops were reported to have refused to march against the manifestants was not serious. Order was restored with the summoning of reinforcements from Ponta del Ode.

CATARRH CAN BE CURED

Kill the Germs by Breathing Hy-o-mel—Gives Quick Relief.

Many people who have suffered with catarrh for years naturally feel that the disease cannot be cured, and become discouraged.

Their failure to get relief is due to the fact that they have not used the right remedy. Catarrh is an affection of the head, throat and lungs, and cannot be cured by stomach dosing.

The only scientific and natural treatment for this disease is Hy-o-mel, which is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, so that its healing medicated air reaches the most remote air-cells, kills all catarrh. Hy-o-mel is the only cure for catarrh that has ever been sold with the understanding that it was to cost absolutely nothing unless it cured. C. H. Gunn & Co. sell Hy-o-mel in this way and are always ready to refund the money if it does not relieve and cure catarrh.

The healing and antiseptic balsams of Hy-o-mel perform their purpose to perfection, and by using this remedy for a few times each day, you can soon cure yourself of any catarrhal troubles.

A complete Hy-o-mel outfit, consisting of a bottle of Hy-o-mel and an inhaler, costs but $1.00.

Diplomacy consists largely in not giving advice unless you know exactly the kind that is wanted.

THE JULY CLEARANCE

A Room of Bargain Buyers
OUR JULY CLEARANCE SALE

This sale is mighty good for you—it secures you needed wear-things at very little sums—it saves you a hard and a half of regular prices.

It's good for us. We are overstocked. Sales have been retarded by inclement weather. Goods have accumulated in every department—and accumulation is the stagnation of trade—

This sale moves out all accumulations and overstocks with no uncertain hand. It loses us money, but it insures us against greater loss of carrying goods over.

DREADFUL MINE ACCIDENT.

Chain Runner's Mistake Brings Awful
Death to Three Men.

Halifax, N.S., July 8.—A shocking accident by which three miners were instantly killed at No. 4 colliery of the Nova Scotia Steel Company's Sydney mines is one of the worst which ever occurred in that district of the Cape Breton coal fields. The dead are: John W. Nicholson, aged 22, leaving a wife and four children;
Dennis Pendergast, single, aged 35 years, and Richard Broderick, 27 years, who leaves a wife and two small children.

The three men were working in the deep, when, without a moment's warning, a loaded box came crashing down the bank and into the pit, giving the unsuspecting men not the slightest chance to get out of the way.

Yesterday afternoon the Coroner, visited the scene, where it was ascertained the accident was largely due to the carelessness of a chain runner, Arthur Pearo, who, before shifting the switch to divert the car to the bank, detached the car from the haulage rope and allowed it to return at terrific speed down into the pit, where the men were at work, a distance of four hundred feet. When Pearo noticed his terrible mistake and saw the car pass from him and shoot into the mine he ran after it and shouted at the top of his voice to the men below, but they could not hear him.

When the victims were discovered they were buried under a ton of coal which had been thrown out by the force of the impact. The three men were taken to the surface. Broderick was dead, a large hole in the top of his head exposing the skull.
Nicholson and Pendergast lived a short time. Doctors marvelled how they could live any time, in view of their terrible injuries. Pendergast was badly injured about the body and both legs were broken in several places.
Arthur Pearo, who failed to shift the switch, is almost distracted. He makes no attempt to shift the responsibility, but blames himself for the whole thing.

JAPAN HASN'T COIN FOR WAR.

Britain Placed In An Embarrassing Position.

London, July 8.—The present tension between the United States and Japan is exciting the keenest interest among all the European diplomats.
None of them, however, believes that it will reach the stage of war, because the heavy burden of debt Japan is carrying as a result of her failure to obtain indemnity from Russia forbids her embarking on a similar costly enterprise in the next decade. It is recognized, nevertheless, that the United States economy of money which may prove a handicap in the event of trouble with any other power.
Great Britain finds herself in an embarrassing position also, because she is obliged to stand between her colonies and ally in the matter of anti-Japanese laws. There has just been put into operation a law regulating the entry of Asiatics, which applies to Indian subjects, as well as to the Japanese and the Chinese, and which compels them to submit to an examination and registration with thumb prints, like criminals, which is exceedingly irritating to them. Australia threatens further legislation on the same lines.

Killed While Sleep-Walking.

Montreal, July 8.—A peculiar accident, resulting in the death of Joseph Robert, 15 years old, son of the chief of police of Lachine, is reported from Oka, near the city.

The boy was at school and was in the habit of walking in his sleep, and during the night, when in one of his sleep-walking fits, he went to a window and jumped out, falling a distance of over 50 feet.

His dead body was not found until the following day.

Charged With Shooting.

Edmonton, July 8.—As a climax to the Fourth of July celebration here, Charles Smard, formerly proprietor of the St. Elmo Hotel, is lying in his home at the point of death, and Frank Mikola is under arrest, charged with shooting him. The bullet was fired through a basement window.

Drowned While Fishing.

Kingston, Ont., July 8.—Elmer Ondra, 9 years of age, fell through the beams of an open pier alongside the "Moose" elevator at the foot of Gore street, while fishing Saturday evening, and was drowned. The body was recovered by a diver before midnight.

Jew-Baiter Assassinated.

Yokohama, Japan, July 8.—
Captain Pushkin of the gendarmes was assassinated on the streets of this town yesterday. He was unfavorably known as the organizer of the anti-Jewish attacks at Valogda in 1905, when many lives were lost.

Prudence supplies the want of every good.

Winnipeg, Man., July 8.—Word was received yesterday that Joseph Wynn, who is charged with attempting to kill J. Storoy and who last week escaped from the jail at Grandview, Man., was captured at two o'clock yesterday by a posse which had been chasing him a week.

Cloth Balls to Remove Grease.

Cloth balls are very handy to have in the house, and, though they can be bought at the chemist's, they can quite easily be made at home and of course are cheaper. Take half a pound of dry fuller's earth and moisten it with a little lemon juice. Then add half an ounce of finely pulverized pearl ash and work it into a thick paste. Roll into small balls and set them in the sun or a little distance from the fire to dry, says Woman's Life. In a few hours they will be ready for use. When required the stained cloth should be moistened with warm water and rubbed with the balls. Place in the sun to dry and then brush off the powder or wash it out if necessary.

HAYWOOD TO TAKE STAND.

Examination of Accused Murderer
Will Likely Be Long.

Boise, Idaho, July 8.—Counsel for the defence in the Haywood murder case held a long conference Saturday both at the downtown offices and in the cell of Haywood, Moyer and Petibone at the county jail, and it was said afterward that it would be next Wednesday before Haywood would take the oath as witness in his own behalf.

The program as it now stands is to begin Monday morning by reading the depositions taken at San Francisco as to the explosion at the house of Fred Bradley. These depositions are to be supplemented later with the evidence of an expert in explosives.

It is contended by the defence that if 10 pounds of dynamite had been exploded, as Orchard swore were contained in the bombs, he used, that amount would have blown Bradley into pieces and destroyed the whole front of the building.

Additional testimony will be given to show that before he fled from the Cour d'Alene in 1899 Orchard attempted to sell his interest in the Heronia Mine. There will be a showing also as to the movements and actions of Jack Simpkins when he went to Denver in the fall of 1905 after having parted with Orchard at Caldwell.

This will about conclude the case, except for the testimony of Haywood and Moyer. It is believed that Moyer's testimony can be reached by Tuesday afternoon.

Steve Adams will not be called by the defence. To call him would open the way for the state to get his repudiated confession before the jury, and it is deemed the better strategy to avoid this.

The direct examination of Haywood, according to the statement of counsel for the defence, will be long. He will give a sketch of his life which will embrace all of its important events, including his connection with the Western Federation of Miners.
It is said that opportunity will be given for the fullest and widest cross-examination that the prosecution may decide to make. Haywood will explain that the $100 sent to Jack Simpkins was for the purpose of securing the release of the latter from the state prison, and that the remainder of a federation expense account which Simpkins left with Haywood to be forwarded to him at his home in Spokane.

The presentation of the states' rebuttal will probably begin on Thursday next, and be carried over into the succeeding week.

Serious Damage by Frost.

Chatham, Ont., July 8.—J. B. Stringer & Co. have received the following letter from their agent, W. McKenzie, Thamesville, regarding damage to crops by the late frost:

"Farmers are confirming the reports of serious damage by frost.
Many at first thought that much of the crop would recover, but to-day they claim it is not doing so. Corn and beans will be less than half a crop. There was a large acreage of beans, too, and they looked most promising on Tuesday."

Strong Note to Sultan.

Tangier, July 8.—It is understood the British Minister to Morocco, G. A.
Lowther, is preparing to send a strongly-worded note to the Sultan on the subject of the capture of Kaid Gen. Sir Harry MacLean, commander of the Sultan's bodyguard, who recently was made a prisoner by the bandit Raisuli.

The Kness tribesmen, fearing the hostility of the Sultan, are considering the advisability of opposing Rai-suli.

Toronto, July 9.—11 a. m.—Fresh northwesterly winds, fine. Wednesday, northwesterly winds, fair and cooler.

LOCAL

Willie Hoig has returned from Owen Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Thomson are spending the afternoon in Wallaceburg.

Mrs. Albert Doyle and daughter, Harvey street, are spending a week with friends in Raleigh Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Green, of Grand Rapids, have returned to their home after a visit to friends in this city.

The Misses Aileen and Nona McLean, accompanied by Miss Minnie Cummings, spent yesterday and last evening at the Eau.

Dr. J. L. Bray will return this evening from Kingston, where he has been attending the meeting of the Ontario Medical Council.

The town clock arrived in the city a week ago and is not yet in place. Ald. Potter says if it is not up by Monday next, the city will charge up the company with the damage.

The Young Briton's fife and drum band had a good practice on the lawn of James Fritchard, Grand avenue, last night. Thursday evening they will hold another practice at Geo. Fritchard's, Centre street.

"I understand that there will be a very large attendance of Orangemen in our city on Friday," said a citizen this morning. "In view of this, it would be only fair and right that our people should show their appreciation by doing a little decorating for the occasion."

The number of dog tags taken out in the city so far is 526. This is the total number taken out last year, but Officer Dodson says that there are still more to follow. This is the last week, and dog owners who do not take out tags, are liable to be summoned to court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayward, and Mrs. W. C. Eberts, attended the shooting of oil well No. 8, on the Matt Campbell farm Monday. This well is the property of Messrs. O'Keefe & Drew, and is since proving to be one of the best paying wells in the district. The fuse was dropped into the well by Mrs. Eberts, and the shot, according to oil men, was most successful in every detail.

SUCCESSFUL LAWN SOCIAL

A very successful lawn social was held last evening on the church lawn at South Buxton. The evening was all that could be desired, and a large attendance was the result.

On Sunday anniversary sermons were preached, and the collections were in aid of the church and manse funds, as was also the receipts from the social.

After an excellent supper of cake and strawberries, the crowd gathered into the church, where a good program was given. Rev. Mr. Mowat occupied the chair very ably, and after a short address called upon Dr. Oliver for a solo. The doctor sang several Scotch songs, all of which received the hearty appreciation of those present. Miss Verlyn Lamont made a deep and lasting impression upon her hearers, and after her sentimental number, "On the Other Train," she was congratulated and favorably commented upon by the chairman.

Rev. Mr. McQuarrie, of Valetta, gave a short and spicy address, after which J. D. McAlpine sang a solo.

A duet by Mrs. Jas. E. Miller and Dr. Oliver was ably sung. The program was much applauded throughout, thus showing the appreciation of the audience. The proceeds of the evening were $75.

IT RINGS IN YOUR EARS.

That same cough is everywhere you go, deep and hollow because consumptive. First it was catarrh, which could have been cured by Catarrhose. Moral, never neglect a cold, never trifle with catarrh, go to your druggist and get Catarrhose. It's instant, certain, cures them in a few minutes. Hard trouble and catarrh disappear as by magic. Catarrhose is the great throat, nose and bronchial remedy to-day. Thousands use it, doctors prescribe it—why, because it does relieve quickly and cure thoroughly. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00, at all dealers.

HELPS MEN TO WORK HARD.

That's what Ferrozone does; it supplies the additional strength that enables a man to maintain health under difficulties. "Last spring I was so completely fagged out that I could not work," writes J. W. McNichol, of Turnbull, Man. "In the morning I was tired—limbs ached all over. Had no appetite, was sleepless, nervous and unhappy. Ferrozone put new life into me. Now I eat heartily, nerves are strong, I sleep well. I know the joy of real health." It's by supplying nourishment and good blood that Ferrozone builds up; try it—50c. per box at all dealers.

Come and Hear The Unrivalled Nordheimer Tone

A cordial invitation is extended to you to come in and hear the unrivalled tone of the celebrated "NORDHEIMER" Piano.

Run your fingers over the scale or play a selection and listen to the beauty of the "NORDHEIMER" tone.

Piano salesmen may talk about the various mechanical contrivances of a piano until they are "blue in the face", but all the talk in the world will not alter the tone-quality of a piano.

It is not necessary to take a "NORDHEIMER" piano to pieces and go into ecstasies over its wonderful mechanical features to prove that it possesses an unrivalled tone. It is there in reality. Your own ear tells you it is there—a tone so sweet and sympathetic, so clear and pure, and so rich and powerful—a tone that is of such rare beauty and quality that it lifts "NORDHEIMER" pianos above the commonplace and places them on a pinnacle of perfection in the musical world.

In after years you will congratulate yourself on the wisdom of your choice if the piano you buy happens to be a peerless "NORDHEIMER".

The One Price System assures a safe, satisfactory and square deal to you. Same price to all, and easy terms if you so desire.

Our Mr. R. V. Carter will visit Chatham frequently in our interests and will be pleased to furnish you with any information you may desire. Correspondence addressed to him in care of the Garner House will receive careful attention.

In the June number of McClure's appear the opening chapters of Memories of My Childhood, by Ellen Terry. It is charmingly written and many little incidents are related in such a natural manner that the reader can imagine he is holding a conversation with the popular actress.

Rochester's Pure Milk Campaign, by Samuel Hopkins Adams, is an account of the action the city of Rochester has taken to supply pure milk to the population. During the summer months milk is sold by this city authorities, and though this is done at a financial loss, it has been found that the death rate of children under five years of age has been more than cut in half since this plan has been adopted.

By Airship to the North Pole, by Walter Wellman, describes the attempt he is going to make this summer to reach the North Pole, and the airship in which it is to be made.

The Life of Mary Baker Eddy, The Fight of the Copy Kings, and Reminiscences of a Long Life, are continued, which, in addition to five stories and a couple of poems, combine to make a very attractive number.

Perhaps the article in the June number of the Journal of Modern Construction, which will be of most universal interest is Septic Tank Sewage System Constructed of Concrete, by D. A. Wiley. It is an account of the sewage system which has just been completed at Marshall, Texas.

The Man, Method and Materials, by H. H. Holt describes some new mineral building materials that appear as if they were going to be invaluable to the building trade.

Some examples of Concrete Construction work for Railroads are given by D. A. Wiley.

The House plan with description and Detailed Plans and estimated cost this month, is for a small house of the kind for which there is such a demand at the present time.

Correct measurement of floors and walls for tiling, and Practical uses of the steel square are very valuable practical papers.

The Departments are exceedingly good this month.

Published by Max L. Keith, Minneapolis, at $2.00 per year or 20 cents a copy.

Rod and Gun has celebrated its ninth birthday by issuing an especially attractive number, in which boating and summer recreations are given the uppermost place. Canoeing; Our Yachting Cruise in the Georgian Bay; Camping Among the Thousand Islands; Our Fishing and Hunting Trip in Northern Ontario; To Hudson Bay by Canoe; Good Fishing and Camping Points and New Brunswick's Sporting Advantages are some of the interesting articles which are given.

A Young Canadian in East Africa gives the experience of a young Canadian who went off to South Africa with the last Canadian Contingent, and had the unusual experience of shooting two lions in one night.

Every phase of out-door life is dealt with in Rod and Gun, which is published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ontario. In the eight years of its existence this bright publication has not only won for itself the first place among Canadian Magazines, but now stands on the same plane with any sporting magazine published on this continent.

Our doors with a Camera, which appears in the June number of the Home Magazine, will suggest to many readers a pleasant occupation for vacation time. Dainty Hats of Paper describes the making so explicitly that anyone can follow the directions without difficulty.

There are articles on gardening, house-keeping, entertaining and other subjects of interest, in addition to stories, that are well written, which all contribute to make a very delightful number.

SOCIALIST HEADS THE POLL.

Will Represent Jarrow in British House of Commons.

Jarrow, Eng., July 7.—Peter Curran, a Socialist and trades union official, was elected Thursday to represent Jarrow in the House of Commons, in succession to the late Sir Charles Palmer, the shipbuilder, who had represented this constituency since 1885.

Mr. Curran had a majority of 763 over Patrick Ross-Innes, Unionist, a lawyer and tariff reformer, his closest competitor.

S. L. Hughes, Liberal, was next, 456 votes behind Mr. Ross-Innes; Ald. John O'Hanlon, Irish Nationalist, received the lowest vote.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, but they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success to the stomach and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and salivary complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

HOW SEALS ARE CAUGHT

EXCITING SPORT OBTAINED IN STALKING THESE ANIMALS.

Method Involves No Cruelty — Dog Seal Often Cowardly — Leaves Pups to Their Fate—Mother More Courageous—Will Bite Badly—The Art of "Batting"—Risks Are Great But Losses Few.

The following description of the manner in which the seals are hunted and killed, from the pen of a noted hunter, will prove interesting:

"Writers who have personally seen nothing of the seal fishery, and who ought to know better, have imagined that all sorts of cruelties are practiced on the seals. This is a great libel. As a fact, there is very little suffering inflicted, considering the immense number of seals annually slaughtered. Each animal is completely stunned by the first blow, and the second kills it.

"When the seals are approached by man, the dog, or male seal, is the first to lose his nerve. Off he goes head-first down the blow-hole. The mother remains by her pup a little longer, but pretty soon she too comes to the conclusion that 'it is time for disappearing,' and she takes her head.

Then Stampede Begins.

"Then begins a stampede, and it is very funny when two or three of these fat animals meet at a blow-hole, when the water is covered with ice, and where there is only room for one, and all try to get down at once. The little seals are thus left alone to their fate.

"Occasionally the dog, which is both plucky and strong and almost as large as an ox, will wait and face his attackers; and the mother sometimes will not desert her pup while it is young and helpless to escape, but will stay and die in its defence. "She, too, is a large animal, though as the pup grows fatter she grows steadily thinner; she will turn on her adversary and growl and bite fiercely, and it is necessary to be decidedly wary in getting close to her; but when a blow on the head will quickly kill her.

"Men have often been bitten badly and occasionally divested of important portions of their nether garments as the result of an encounter with a mother seal. As soon as the pup can get into the water, the mother loses her affection for him, however, and quickly leaves him to shift for himself.

"Although the dog, when danger approaches, will generally leave his wife and child on the ice, he does not desert them, but keeps bobbing up in the water, stretching his neck and gazing anxiously at the spot he has left; and sometimes returning on the ice when he finds the business that is toward him, he will fight for his family until he too lies beside them; nor is he any mean antagonist, for he weighs four hundred to five hundred pounds, and is a good match for three men unless armed with rifles.

"These dogs have a large and very tough bladder, extending from the nose to the back of the neck, which they can inflate at will, and which renders their heads absolutely impervious to blows, while it gives them when at rest rather a comical appearance.

Stalking Is Difficult.

"When fighting they rear themselves up to a considerable height, and as they turn quickly and bite very savagely, the assailant has to be on his guard continually. The only way to 'bat' them is for one man to hit the seal hard on the tail, and as the animal rears and turns to go for him, another gets a blow in on the throat. It is, however, very seldom that they are successfully 'batted.' Stalking them is as fine a sport as any one need want. To approach near enough to get accurate aim without alarming them requires the greatest care. It is necessary to keep out of sight, and this is by no means an easy matter on a background that betrays at once every dark speck and every movement. In order to skirt the seas of open water that probably lie between the ice-sheets in winter and the islands in summer, or to avoid such ice as it is unsafe to walk on, long detours and roundabout routes have to be taken and every pinnacle and hummock utilized, and there is a greatly added zest in the imminent risk one is all the time running of getting a wet jacket; for traveling over this ice is, quite by itself, rather exciting and requiring both activity and judgment.

Quick Shooting Necessary.

"After the dog takes to the water you can generally get a chance at him if you are patient, but quick and accurate shooting is necessary to get him as he bobs up in an unexpected direction; it is necessary also to have a man ready to run and grab him as soon as his or you will certainly lose him. The dog will carry away an immense quantity of lead if not lodged in the right place. Russian seal-hunters array themselves in white, which no doubt greatly facilitates stalking. They often have to walk many miles to reach the seals, and at times have to drag them long distances. The risks run seem very great, and yet the losses from the large number of men who annually go to the fishery are very few, notwithstanding that ice and weather are both liable to prove very treacherous. The men are sent out at daylight and take as a rule nothing with them besides their weapons but some hard biscuits."

Dumas and His Money.

Dumas the elder was not in the habit of counting his money, but did once, leaving it on the mantel when he left the room for a few minutes. When he returned and was giving some instructions to a servant he mechanically counted the pieces over again and found a louis missing. "Well," he said, with a sigh, "considering that I never counted my money before, I can't say it pays."

DISBELIEVE THE STORY.

Do Not Think Sending Ships to Pacific Was Dewey's Plan.

Tokio, July 6.—The report from Washington attributing the proposed sending of 16 battleships to the Pacific coast to Admiral Dewey's private plan, is generally disbelieved here by those whose knowledge and experience entitles their opinion to some attention.

The United States is not known to possess naval bases in the Pacific adequate for such purposes, and the impression prevails that the sending of so large a squadron where sufficient rendezvous does not exist would simply mean that the vessels would be an easy prey to torpedo boats and destroyers.

Should 16 battleships be so employed as to disprove this impression, a record-breaking naval feat will have to be accomplished.

In a Time of Peace. Oyster Bay, July 6.—On leaving Sagamore Hill yesterday afternoon, Rear Admiral Bronson said the cruising plans of the battleships fleet were merely mentioned at the president's luncheon. The admiral said he would like to emphasize the point that there was no time more propitious to ascertain just what a battleship fleet could do in making an extensive cruise than a time of profound peace, such as prevailed now, when, he said, the United States had not an enemy in the world.

LEGEND OF SCREAMING SKULL

Weird Story of Famous Old Country Mansion in England.

The Screaming Skull of Burton Agnes Hall, the seat of the Boynton family, is one of the weirdest of the many weird and fascinating old legends that are told of the famous houses of Britain. An account, authenticated by Sir Griffith Boynton, the present head of the family, is published in Pearson's Magazine.

The story goes that in her dying moments a certain Anne Griffith made her sisters promise that her head should rest for ever in the family mansion, but that after her death this was looked on as a mere dying fancy, and the promise disregarded.

Then comes the weird part of the legend. "About a week after the funeral, on the night of the week as that on which Anne died, just as the inmates of the house were retiring to bed, they were startled by a loud crash in one of the upstairs rooms. Concluding that a picture or some furniture had fallen, two men-servants went up the room to find out the cause of the noise, but everything was quite undisturbed. Full of anxious fear, the family kept vigil; but the night wore on without any further sounds, and the next morning there was no evidence of any disturbance."

"On the same night of the following week, at exactly the same hour, several of the heavy doors in the house began banging violently, with apparently no cause. The alarmed household, terrified nearly out of their wits, rushed on masses in the direction of the sound, but as fast as they searched one part of the Hall the doors in another part would begin banging and crashing, only to be found fast closed, and in many cases securely locked. At last the noise ceased, and the household, feeling relieved, was about to retire to bed. At the same night, the Hall was alarmed by the footsteps of a large number of people hurrying through the rooms and corridors, while heartrending screams and shrieks broke the stillness of the night. This time the terrified household dare not leave their beds, but lay shivering with dread under the bedclothes. On the following day every woman servant had fled from the house."

"The two sisters, horrified beyond measure, consulted with their neighbors, Sir William Quentin and the vicar of Burton Agnes. They confessed tearfully that Anne in her dying moment had laid on them a solemn injunction which they had promised to perform, but had afterwards ignored, and they also told of her threat that unless her body, or some part of her body, should remain in the house, she would haunt Burton Agnes till the Judgment Day."

"After hearing their story the vicar suggested that some light might be thrown upon the matter if Anne's coffin were to be opened, so this was accordingly done. When the lid was raised a ghastly spectacle presented itself. The body, it is true, lay peaceful and undisturbed, but the head had fallen to decay, and a grinning skull, already severed from the trunk, struck terror to the hearts of the beholders. This was at once accepted as the sign for which the vicar had hoped."

"Let the skull be brought to the Hall," said the sisters, "for until that is done the soul of our dear sister will never rest in peace." The grisly relic was accordingly brought, with due reverence, to the Hall, and placed upon a table, and with its advent the ghastly nocturnal sounds ceased to alarm the sisters, and all was peace once more."

OUTRAGES IN IRELAND.

Deplorable Methods of Agrarian Agitators—Animals Being Maimed.

Several outrages are reported from Ireland in connection with the agrarian agitation that is being carried on. A cruel case of horse maiming is reported from Abbeyville, Queen's County, in which the neighbors there have lately been considerable agitation against grazing lettings made for the accommodation of shopkeepers and small householders of the town. A two-year-old filly was discovered to have been disembowelled and left to die in agony. The animal was the property of a poor widow residing on a farm forming part of the estates of Viscount De Vesel, and her offense was that she had refused to surrender her farm lands—which her husband had taken 25 years ago—at the demand of the agitators.

From Tipperary comes a report of another case of the intimidation of the holder of a grazing ranch. Since the last days of April—when a large farm twelve miles from Roscrea, the property of a Mr. Luttrell, was cleared of all its stock—the place has been pestered constantly by the police. Notwithstanding this vigilance, however, the constabulary were outwitted the other day, when a mob assembled and drove off all the horses, cattle, and sheep, running close on 400, and dispersed them a dozen miles over the country. When the police appeared on the scene they were powerless to cope with the crowd.

War Gods of Samoa.

In Samoa the kingfisher, heron, owl and bat are worshiped as war gods, and in times of war their actions are supposed to determine success or defeat. If the kingfisher flies before the troops, it is a good sign, but if it comes flying toward the people as they are preparing to start the oncoming fight, it is a bad sign. Should an owl fly about overhead while the troops are waiting along, that is a good sign, but if it flies away in the direction of the enemy it is supposed to have left the one party and gone to join the other and therefore to signify a calamity.

A Freak of Nature.

STATE REGALIA STOLEN.

Dublin Castle Visited by Thieves Who Carry Off Jewels.

Dublin, Ireland, July 8.—A portion of the state regalia, valued at $50,000, has been stolen from Dublin Castle. The safe in which the regalia was kept was forced. The jewels stolen were those used in the ceremony of investiture in the Order of St. Patrick, the professional cross studded with diamonds, and the jeweled sword which is borne in procession at the investiture of the knights.

Lord Castletown, Knight of St. Patrick, was to have been chief of the state ceremony on the visit of King Edward to Dublin, but it is officially announced that the ceremony will be postponed. Sensational developments are expected.

MARCH ACROSS SAHARA

ROMANTIC STORY OF JOURNEY THROUGH AFRICAN DESERT.

Old Arab Caravan Route—Fanatical Hatred of Natives—People Live in Underground Dwellings—Stretches of Petrified Forest—Danger From Senussi Sect—Lively Fight With Tuareg Band—Tubbs Cowards.

Some interesting details have just come to hand of the remarkable trans-Saharan journey undertaken by Mr. H. Vischer, one of the Protectorate Residents in Bornu, and through the forbidden hinterland of Tripoli to Lake Chad. The distance covered by Mr. Vischer was nearly 1,700 miles, and the actual marching time two and a half months. The whole journey was from a geographical and from a political point of view the journey will prove of the greatest interest. Mr. Vischer, who was formerly a member of the Church Missionary staff in Northern Nigeria, joined the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria. He conceived the daring idea of Tripoli of returning to his post in Northern Nigeria by way of the Sahara and the old Arab caravan route from Tripoli to Kano. His departure was considerably retarded and his journey across the vilayet of Tripoli and Fezzan rendered much more difficult owing to the fanatical hatred of the inhabitants. Although permission was obtained from the Turkish Government, through the intervention of the British Foreign Office, for him to make his hazardous journey, every obstacle was placed in his way in the matter of obtaining camels and men. Mr. Vischer, however, left Tripoli in July last accompanied by Mecca pilgrims from Northern Nigeria, who were on their way home. The British Resident was well received by the Arab traders, who welcomed his journey as implying the re-establishment of the old trade route, and in many quarters the fact that a British official should have assisted the Mohammedan pilgrims across the desert created a great impression. In the Mountains of Gharian Mr. Vischer found people living in subterranean dwellings. Through entrances, which were long and one yard broad he came upon a square courtyard, which was in reality a Great Hole Open to the Sky.

Upon this all the rooms and stables converged. The rooms were very dark, and there were no windows, but the most absolute cleanliness prevailed. Beyond the entrance to the courtyard, where fig and olive groves lay among Roman ruins and underground villages. Nearing Murzuk, Mr. Vischer came upon stretches of petrified forest. Among the most important results of his journey is the information Mr. Vischer has been able to acquire regarding the Senussi. Mr. Vischer declares as a result of his inquiries that this great sect is constantly losing ground owing to the late Senussi who have died of the plague, and his opinion is that the danger from the Senussi movement lies chiefly in the fact that there is at present no leader strong enough to control the various factions. Kufra, the headquarters of the sect, is not only a regular arsenal, but a rendezvous for all kinds of fugitives and other people holding anti-foreign views. The arms there are transported from the coast of Tripoli, and a band of raiding Arabs whom the expedition encountered near Beni were all armed from Kufra. Mr. Vischer is of opinion that the great number of arms carried from the coast to the Senussi headquarters forms a serious menace to the position in Northern Nigeria. He reports that just beyond the waterless road and the wild Tummo Mountains he came into contact with

A Tuareg and Arab Band, who had come out to attack him or endeavor to get into the desert ahead to wait for him. With regard to this Mr. Vischer says: "I at once made necessary preparations by putting all my men on guard, and patrolling myself on horse back round the camp. In the morning I left the camp in charge of my boys, and went to attack the Tuareg before they could get at me. I found them, after much difficulty, entrenched in a position which enabled them to see me, while they were absolutely hidden by some large shrubs. I sent a Tubbu to ask them to come out and fight me. They answered back that they would come out when it suited them and wipe me out and take my loads. I then fired, and they answered with a well-kept-up fire from about twenty modern rifles. Their shots went all over my head or into the ground ahead, so that I was able to approach within about 200 yards. I killed one man and four of their camels, and then went back to my camp, six miles away. In the afternoon I attacked again, this time with all my ten rifles; while I left the camp in charge of the women and some friendly Tubbus. I killed four of their men and sixteen camels, which had the desired effect, driving them back north and keeping away the Tubbus, who are all cowards. The great following of Arabs which had come with Tuareg had kept away to see the result of the fight, and then disappeared. I was not attacked again on the road."

Damping Their Spirits.

A little Scottish boy was reading in his history an account of the battle of Bannockburn. He read as follows: "And when the English saw the new army on the hill behind their spirits became damped." The teacher asked the boy what was meant by "damping their spirits." The boy, not comprehending the meaning, simply answered, "Pittin' water in their whisky."—Christian Register.

ice Drivers' Strike Off.

New York, N.Y., July 6.—The strike of the American Ice Co. drivers, which had already been hopelessly broken, was formally declared off at a meeting of delegates from the Drivers' and Helpers' Union yesterday.

The action followed a final refusal by President Oler to treat with the strikers. Mr. Oler said, however, that he would be glad to take back the men and to hear and adjust any grievances presented by active employees.

QUEBEC'S SURPLUS.

Provincial Exchequer Is Reported to Be $500,000 to the Good.

Montreal, July 8.—A special from Quebec says: "The fiscal year which closed June 30 last has been a most lucrative one for the Province of Quebec, and the treasurer is enabled to place to the credit of the province a surplus of $500,000."

The revenues from the different sources, but more especially from licenses, duties on successions, and taxes on commercial corporations, were in excess of preceding years.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, prolapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for women's use. The ingredients of this "Favorite Prescription" is composed of the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do, as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

Take care of the present and the future will take care of itself.

The tourist's season is now on, and we are advised by W. E. Ripin, general passenger and ticket agent, that he has some especially attractive tours for the present summer season, reading to all the summer resorts of Canada, including Muskoka Lakes, the Temagami District, Georgian Bay, Superior, River St. Lawrence, and Gulf and Atlantic Coast points, and would be very pleased to furnish information to any intending passengers.

CONGO ATROCITIES.

Bishops Urge Steps Towards Immediate Reform.

The subject of Congo misrule was discussed in the Upper House of Convocation of Canterbury, the Primate of all England presiding.

A series of resolutions were passed, expressing profound regret and indignation at the methods of administration in the Congo Free State, declaring that the members of that house felt keenly the burden that was cast upon the consciences of England, as one of the powers by whose consent the Congo Free State was established and its neutrality guaranteed, and stating that the gravest responsibility will lie upon the consenting powers to bring to an end, in some way, abuses which are so crying, and which may be of the most sinister effect upon the relations between white and colored races throughout the African continent, and upon the work entrusted to the Christian nations of Europe for the service of civilization and humanity.

British Government Responsible.

The Bishop of Southwark, in introducing the subject, said the Congo State began on commercial, philanthropic and civilizing principles. The British Government had considerable responsibility for it, and there was ample evidence that things had gone seriously ill.

Dr. Talbot went on to allude to the suppression of the evidence of the royal commission, and directed attention to the facts contained in Mr. More's book on "The Rubber and Ivory Trade in the Congo." No doubt a condition the most barbarous and terrible existed. To get a certain amount of rubber out of the poor natives, the most horrible methods had been resorted to, such as cutting off the hands and feet, and there was a great system of hostages, these hostages being largely women. No responsibility rested upon Belgium itself in the matter. If all the powers were keen about it, a very summary result, he said, could be obtained.

The Bishop of Bath and Wells said the Free Church Council in their honor, had been far before the Church of England in trying to arouse public attention, but this might be partly explained by the existence of so many Baptist missionary stations, from which information had come.

Described an Abomination.

The Bishop of Exeter spoke in general support of what had fallen from the Bishop of Southwark, and the Bishop of London pleaded for increased British consular representation in the Congo Free State. They ought to be prepared to back up the Government in any further step which they might wish to take with the view to wiping away this abomination from the face of the earth.

The Primate, in summing up the debate, said the House had discharged an imperative duty in calling attention to the well-established facts. In the last decade we seemed to have fallen into something which rivaled if it did not exceed, the horrors of the old slave trade. He could not suggest what diplomatic action should be taken, but they desired the countenance to know that he cared so much about this matter that they did not intend to let it alone.

Sunday Recreation.

"Don't let us turn Sunday into a day of misery; it's a bad advertisement for Christianity," declared Father Vaughan at a public meeting held in the Dome, Brighton, on the question of Sunday observance.

"When I built a club in the north of England, and let men play at billiards between the services, I was pelted in the streets. What an amazing thing," declared the preacher, "to tell a boy, 'God wants you to sit on that chair like an ornament on a mantelpiece.' He wants a boy to be a boy and a good boy, and when he has looked after his soul the best thing for him and his soul is to let him go to cricket or football, or something of that."

The masses, Father Vaughan went on to explain, wanted rest and recreation on the Sabbath day. And those who wanted recreation should have it. "Who, for instance, could object to men taking their week-ends in the country?"

He would not stop trains or trams or omnibuses on Sundays, but would give them who worked them every other Sunday off, pay them extra when they were on, and give them time to have rest during the week.

African King's Joke.

Sir John Kirk, who possesses three distinct knighthoods, is one of Britain's retired consular rulers. His chief service was in Zanzibar. On one occasion the Sultan of that country, having a very savage chained lion, thought to get rid of it by offering it to Sir John. Struck by a happy thought, he reminded the British Consul that the lion formed one of the supporters of the Royal Arms above the gate of the Consulate, and that the presence of the real brute would therefore be highly appropriate! Sir John got out of the difficulty neatly. "I am sure that your highness would never make an incomplete present," said he, "and when you are able to accompany the lion with a unicorn, I shall be delighted to receive your munificent offer."

An Imperial Post.

The Czar also, it appears, should be ranked among the intellectuals. He is credited with three different titles to the distinction. He is a poet, that is, to be precise, he writes verses; he is a musical composer; anyway, he sets his own compositions to music, and he sings very prettily. Such are the claims advanced on his behalf by a French admirer, who says that His Majesty's verses are not only weighty in construction, but full of a sweet melody, while the music which he writes is marked by a tone of melancholy fatalism, as is appropriate in a land given over to pogroms. The Czar's voice is tender. It is powerful, but it has a sympathetic quality, and an instance is recorded where he sang with what is described as delicate feeling Massenet's melody, "Mignonne veine l'Avril."—London Globe.

If the weather proves favorable, Friday next, July Twelfth, the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne, will be a memorable one in Chatham. Gigantic preparations for a fit and proper celebration of the event have been made by the local Orangemen, who are sparing no pains in getting things in shape for the entertainment and pleasure of their visiting brethren.

"I was over in Detroit recently," Hugh Gallagher told a Planet reporter yesterday, "and everything over there looks good to me. There will be forty visitors from the Ladies Lodge alone, as well as a couple of hundred men. They will meet at the lodge rooms in Detroit at 6.30—slow time—and the gentlemen's and ladies' lodge members will march in a body to Windsor, where they will be joined by the Windsor and Walkerville lodges. All will then embark by special train for Chatham."

PAVED ROADS FOR COUNTRY

Kent County Will Be First To Establish Rural Pavements

Proposal to Build Bitulithic Road From City To Charing Cross

A gigantic proposal, which may result in Kent County being one of the first in Ontario to have a paved country highway, is at present being discussed by the residents of the Gravel road between Raleigh and Harwich, along which the C. W. & L. E. will pass on its way to the Lake.

The proposal is to pave the road, which will then be known as Queen Street, from the termination of the present city pavement at the G. T. tracks to Charing Cross with bitulithic pavement. Under the new legislation the cost of the pavement would be borne, one-third each by the Government, the townships and the residents on the road.

What this big scheme will mean to Chatham, if realized, will be readily recognized by the business men of this city. It would also mean the commencement of paved county roads in this section, and a new era of progress for Kent County. The paving of one road would be quickly followed by the paving of others, and this would mean that muddy and impassable highways—the greatest hardship which the country people of Kent have to bear with—would be a thing of the past.

Certainly the scheme is one which should be commended and receive every encouragement. It will at once be appreciated by all those of forethought and good judgment as a move in the right direction.

FORWARD DETAILS TO THE MUNICIPAL BOARD

A special meeting of the chairmen of the Property and Finance committees, along with the City Solicitor and the City Engineer, was held yesterday in Harrison Hall, to consider the best steps to be taken with regard to the local electric light and waterworks question.

The committee followed out the plan outlined then by the City Council at that body's last meeting, and forwarded the details of the situation to the Ontario Municipal and Railway Board. The committee expect that the matter will be taken up and dealt with by the Municipal Board at once.

ATTACKED BY DOGS

Ivan Glenn, son of R. Glenn, River Road, Harwich, while taking a message to J. R. Cote, a few miles up the river, who keeps a large dog kennel, was severely bruised and bitten by a number of dogs yesterday morning. The young lad was near the house of Mr. Cote when a pack of seven or eight vicious and wild dogs came rushing out at him and pounced upon him like hungry wolves.

Had it not been for the timely aid of Mr. Cote, who came to the rescue, it is quite probable that the boy would have been killed.

DR. R. V. BRAY HAS RETIRED

Executive Officer Of Children's Aid Society Resigned Office

Rev. W. A. Gunten Appointed To Fill The Vacancy—Special Meeting

At a special meeting of the Board of the Kent Children's Aid Society, held yesterday afternoon in Harrison Hall, Dr. R. V. Bray, executive officer, tendered his resignation on account of want of time to devote to the work.

There were present, Messrs. D. S. Paterson, W. Somerville, Dr. R. V. Bray, Messdames Goodland, Sheldon, Teffa, E. Taylor, Newberry, Wells, Simon, Fraser, Stephenson, Young, Williams and Miss Young.

After numerous expressions of surprise and regret, the following resolution was carried unanimously: Moved by W. Somerville, seconded by Mrs. Sheldon, that the Advisory Board of the Kent Children's Aid Society accept with great reluctance and regret the resignation of Dr. R. V. Bray, the executive officer of the society for the past eight years and a half, and desire to express its unqualified admiration and appreciation of the rare good judgment, tact, zeal, diligence, mastery of details, and charitable spirit by which he has honored the position he now vacates.

While others have been seeking their own pleasure or their own gain, he has spent many hours and even days, every year, in unravelling the tangled skein of the family life of the poor, the vicious, and the unfortunate, and has always, with admirable patience, kindness and firmness done the best possible under often very trying circumstances. "Inasmuch as he has done it unto the least of these my brethren, he has done it unto me."

The Board feels that whatever success the society has had has been largely due to his executive and administrative ability, and is pleased to know that he will continue to be a member of the Board and take an active interest in its proceedings.—Carried.

After discussion, it was moved by Mrs. Fraser and seconded by Mrs. Stephenson, that Rev. W. A. Gunten, of Wallaceburg, be offered the position, his duties to begin on September 1st.—Carried.

The Board considers it singularly fortunate that Mr. Gunten's services are available. He has already done some excellent work for the children of the county, is a lover of children, and is energetic, enthusiastic and fearless in maintaining their rights. It is expected that Mr. Gunten will soon be a resident of the city.

At this meeting also, resolutions of sympathy were passed to Messrs. Fred Stone and Hugh Macaulay, the Treasurer and Vice-President of the Board, respectively, on account of their severe illness.

A discussion as to how best to assist the immigrant families coming into the city, led by Mrs. Fraser, concluded the business of the meeting.

COMMITTEE TALK OF REDUCING THE STAFF

The Internal Management and Supply Committee of the Board of Education met last night to consider the Kindergarten question, which was referred to them at the last meeting of the Board.

Nothing definite was decided upon, but the committee will at the next meeting bring in a recommendation to reduce the Kindergarten staff at the two public schools. Their recommendation will be to the effect that the Kindergarten staffs of the Central and McKeough schools be reduced to one directress and one assistant.

A special meeting of the Board of Education to deal with the matter may be called this week.

Lighthouseman Killed.

Montreal, July 9.—The lighthouse off Valois, in the St. Lawrence, a mile and a half from shore, in Lake St. Louis, was dark Sunday night. On investigating the cause it was found that Joseph Chevier, the keeper, had fallen off the platform of the lighthouse into shoal water and fractured his skull. He had apparently met with instantaneous death.
