

ELEVATOR AND HOMES DESTROYED BY FIRE.

One Man Injured and Horses and Pigeons Killed in Raging Blaze in Buffalo.

Bodies of Nuns Turned to Stone After Twenty Years.

Buffalo, Oct. 22.—Several families were rendered homeless, three horses and a pony killed and one man was burned in a fire that did more than $50,000 damage to property in the vicinity of Broadway and Fillmore avenue yesterday afternoon.

Besides more than a hundred pigeons were smothered to death. The wind fanned the flames so that they spread with such rapidity that the fire companies were unable to check them for nearly two hours.

The buildings burned like kindling wood saturated with oil. Great quantities of hay and shavings in Samuel Angert's grain elevator at 701-751 Fillmore avenue made easy fuel for the blaze.

The fire was discovered by a clerk in a nearby store. It raged for two hours, spreading to several nearby buildings. Smoke was first seen coming from the doorway of a grain elevator in the rear of Samuel Angert's property, 701-705 Fillmore avenue, but before an alarm could be turned in the flames were spreading to surrounding property.

The terrified neighing of horses imprisoned in the walls of flame prompted Henry Luttman, of 248 Gibson street, to rush into the burning building, and, breaking the halter of the first horse, rescued the animal. Luttman's hands were severely burned.

Three horses and a pony perished in the flames. These were the property of Samuel Angert.

A. Powlowski dared the flames in rushing to the left to liberate a flock of 124 pigeons. He was unsuccessful, the heat and smoke forcing him back. The rear of the two-story frame building at Nos. 701-705 Fillmore avenue was next attacked by the flames. This building was occupied by Frank Winch as a branch factory and retail department for the waist and skirt manufacturing store conducted by him at No. 45 North Division street.

The upper storey was occupied by Samuel Angert and his family and was divided into two flats, his aged father occupying the rear. This part was entirely destroyed and the aged man escaped with difficulty.

Petrified Bodies. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22.—Two among the twelve bodies buried for more than twenty years in the little private cemetery beside the Seminary of the Ladies of the Sacred Heart have been touched by the mystic hand of nature and petrified.

Recently the graves of the cloistered nuns, most of whom had spent the greater portion of their lives within the walls of the brick building at West Taylor and Lyle streets, were opened, and all that remained of their bodies was removed to a permanent resting place in Calvary. But the undertakers met a different state of affairs when the graves of Mother Galway, the founder of the Chicago Seminary, and Mother Gauthreaux, her successor, were opened. Both Mother Galway and Mother Gauthreaux had been buried in metallic caskets. An increased number of assistants was obtained by the undertaker in charge on this account, but when the men sought to raise the coffins the task was one which taxed their strength to the utmost. Neither casket had survived the test of time perfectly, and that in which Mother Gauthreaux was buried was badly crushed. Because of the tremendous weight the caskets were opened and a startling state of affairs discovered.

There was the body of each woman almost exactly as it had appeared the day the casket had been closed and lowered into the earth beside the seminary. When a member of the Ladies of the Sacred Heart is buried she is clothed in the same black habit she wore during life. Instead of the silver cross on her breast a small wooden one is placed there, and nothing metallic is allowed to remain. Then the folds of the black veil are carefully drawn across the face of the dead woman.

When the wondering nuns looked upon the bodies of Mother Galway and Mother Gauthreaux the little wooden cross was gone with the passing of the years, and the features looked upon for the last time when the veil was placed over the face were no longer visible. But the outline of the figures was there as perfect as ever.

Every line of the body that had been visible twenty years ago was still there, and the color of the black habit gave the sombre hue of the solid figure weighing more than 1,000 pounds, where as that of the women had been but slight in stature during life, and weighing hardly more than 100 pounds.

The Man In Overalls

New story on Thursday.

Did you see the Lieutenant-Governor? An old-timer and a perfect gentleman.

I suppose we'll all have to be vaccinated again.

Leader MacKay, the man who makes Whitney sit up and take notice, will be here on the 2nd. Don't miss him.

How is that committee making out with its purchase of the face of the mountain?

If Col. Gibson does not stick to his guns we will have to fall back for help upon the Salvation Army captain.

This snatching of purses on the mountain side is growing monotonous. If I could get off for half a day, I think I could nail the thief myself.

With Weaver and Nelligan both threatening law, this should be a busy season with the lawyers.

The lawn mowers are back again in the camphor bags.

When is Sir John's monument to get a gall on?

Our new story is a real love story, but not a mushy one. It's healthy, clean and interesting.

As the Magistrate remarked, it's foolish to interfere with the police. It only makes it worse for the prisoner afterwards, to say nothing of the interferer getting into jail himself.

Jim Livingston says the people are more to blame for bribery at elections than are the candidates. Did Jim carry the bag?

Leader Borden had pretty plain sailing out west until he landed in Saskatchewan, and ran up against Aleck Aikin, who gave him a bad quarter of an hour. The Phoenix's report of the meeting shows that Mr. Borden brought the trouble upon himself.

Mr. Whitney is a long time in giving us the patent for the west end marsh. Wonder what he has got against Hamilton.

Rudyard Kipling is going home to write a book about Canada, and he hasn't even seen Hamilton.

Rather than have the city reduced by the Toronto soldiery, we will throw the Tigers into the breach.

The Brockville Times is still patting itself on the back under the delusion that it was it that carried the constituency instead of the constituency carrying it.

The outside of the City Hall is beginning to have a decidedly disreputable appearance, and I think it would be a costly job to make it look decent.

John Patterson forgot to mention that Dundurn Castle would be just the thing for his terminal station. Is it too late to put it in the by-law?

$100,000 in the hands of a landscape gardener would make the face of the mountain one of the wonders of the world. Any citizen got that amount to spare?

Come again, Mr. Clark.

STRUCK BY AUTO.

Col. Ingersoll and Mr. John Patterson waited on the Beach Commissioners this morning in regard to the park which the Canadian Amusement Co. proposed to build before the Commissioners passed the by-law prohibiting paid amusements on the sand strip. The latter told of the importance of the project, which was to supply innocent amusement for the citizens. He said the park was desired by a majority of the citizens, and, as far as he knew, there were few Beach residents opposed to it.

While Chairman Van Allan still maintained his high and mighty attitude, it is understood that Commissioner Morden was more reasonable and intimated a willingness to consider an application for a license from the amusement company. He said Col. Ingersoll was largely to blame for not appearing before the Board at the outset and outlining his proposition. The Board, he said, simply passed the by-law as a means of protection against objectionable amusements. Before retiring Col. Ingersoll promised to at once file an application for permission to establish a park containing paid amusements, outlining the nature of the various attractions.

Col. Ingersoll declined to be interviewed for publication today, but he will at once confer with the local directors of the company, some of whom have hoped that the Beach Board will grant the necessary permission. Mr. Ingersoll has declared he will build the park on the Beach or not at all. He thinks that is the only suitable place for a park such as he has projected.

JOHN LENNOX HURT.

Hamilton Wholesaler Injured in an Accident at Buffalo.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. John Lennox, the well-known wholesale boot and shoe merchant of King street west, had a narrow escape from being killed in an automobile accident. Mr. and Mrs. Lennox were in Buffalo visiting, and the host took Mr. Lennox out for a ride in his car. While going at a good speed along Delaware avenue the car containing Mr. Lennox, his friend and the chauffeur, was struck side on by a car crossing the road, also going at a fast rate. Mr. Lennox was thrown into a tree and fell to the pavement. He was picked up unconscious and taken to a hospital, and there recovered sufficiently to come home to-day. Mr. Lennox will be well before long. His friend and his driver were not injured as badly as Mr. Lennox.

RECEPTION TO THE LIEUT.-GOVERNOR.

Sir William Mortimer Clarke Given a Civic Welcome This Morning.

He and Sir Frederick Borden and Party at Stoney Creek Battlefield.

Sir William Mortimer Clarke, LL. D., K. C., Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, came to Hamilton to-day to officiate this afternoon at the burning of the mortgage on the historic Stoney Creek battlefield, and was accorded a civic reception this morning by Mayor Stewart and the aldermen. It was the first time during his term of office that an opportunity has presented itself of Hamilton doing him honor, and although his stay was brief the welcome was none the less sincere. Sir Mortimer was accompanied by his daughter, and Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, and Lady Borden.

Mayor Stewart, Chairman Dickson, Ald. Bailey and Kirkpatrick, of the Finance Committee, and Hon. J. M. Gibson and Mrs. Gibson were at the Grand Trunk street station to meet the 10:55 Toronto train, on which the party arrived. They proceeded in automobiles to the City Hall. There was quite a representative society gathered in the council chambers when the distinguished guests arrived. The platform was banked with palms.

Mayor Stewart presented the Lieutenant-Governor with a beautifully illuminated address, the artistic work of Mr. Wm. Bruce, and extended a hearty welcome also to Sir Frederick and Lady Borden. The Mayor read the address, which was as follows: To Sir William Mortimer Clarke, LL. D., K. C., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario: Sir.—The Council of the Corporation of the City of Hamilton heartily welcome Your Honor upon the occasion of your first official visit to this city; and take this opportunity of congratulating you upon the distinguished honor of Knighthood conferred upon you by our beloved Sovereign his most gracious Majesty King Edward the Seventh.

We have been greatly pleased with the broad and statesmanlike views expressed by Your Honor on many public occasions, which have given us the assurance that the affairs of our Province will be well directed and administered during your term of office. The great prosperity enjoyed by the Province which is shared by the sister Provinces of the Dominion is no doubt a source of great gratification to you, the rapid development of our natural resources display the great wealth stored up for the people of this country, the possibilities of which we are unable at present to fully realize. During your brief stay in our city we trust that you will find it convenient to visit some of the large manufacturing industries, Hamilton, known as the "Electric City," has had the advantages of unlimited electric power, which has been the means of inducing many of these to locate within our borders. We sincerely trust that the visit of Your Honor and Lady Clarke will be very pleasant, and we assure you that you carry with you the esteem and best wishes of the citizens of Hamilton.

Mayor Stewart, replying to the Mayor's remarks, expressed the pleasure it gave him to visit Hamilton, more especially because his life partner lives here for a number of years. Touching on Canada's great prosperity and vast resources, he emphasized that it was a good thing for the Dominion, entering on a new era, that its laws and institutions were firmly established on sound foundations and that it had enjoyed a period of consolidation, so as to be in a position to assimilate the large foreign immigration constantly flowing into the country. He wished Hamilton a continuance of the prosperity and growth it had enjoyed in the past. Sir Mortimer expressed his regrets that Lady Clark was unable to be present.

Sir Frederick Borden spoke briefly, thanking the Mayor for his references to Lady Borden and himself, and expressing their appreciation of the city's hospitality.

Chairman Dickson presented Miss Clarke with a large bunch of chrysanthemums tied with yards of Tiger colors and City Clerk Kent made a similar presentation to Lady Borden. Sir Mortimer held an informal reception at which those present were presented to him.

It was after 1:30 when the function at the City Hall was over. The ladies went for a drive to Dundurn Park while the Lieutenant Governor and Sir Frederick were escorted by the Mayor, aldermen and some of the city officials to the manufacturing district. The guests had luncheon at Hon. J. M. Gibson's residence at 1 o'clock and left early this afternoon for the Stoney Creek battlefield.

ROWE RELEASED.

George Rowe, the young man who was sent to jail yesterday on a two-week sentence for common assault upon Edward Fenton, was released this morning. Rowe's friends consulted Mr. A. C. Beasley yesterday afternoon and represented that his mother was in a critical state of health, and that his aunt, who lives with his mother, had been taken to the Hospital for an operation, leaving no one to look after his mother and the laundry business. These representations by Mr. S. D. Biggar, this morning, and he issued an order for Rowe's release. The young man was not represented by counsel in court yesterday, and admitted striking Fenton, because the latter refused to pay any money he claimed to be due him. In place of imprisonment a fine was imposed.

N. Y. BANKS ALL RIGHT.

All Danger Passed, Says Controller of the State.

The State Assisted the N. Y. Clearing House.

New York, Oct. 22.—"New York city banks are all right. If there was any danger it has passed, and other State officials and myself charged with the custody of the public moneys feel confident that the large sum the State has on deposit in New York city is safe."

This statement was made by Martin H. Glynn, controller of the State, concerning the local financial situation.

"The situation is improving every day," said the controller. "Immediately on hearing the first rumors that the New York clearing house deemed it necessary to take radical action to force certain banks to put themselves in sounder condition, it became our duty to co-operate with its committee, and we have done so, with the best results. Our responsibility was great, as the State never had so much money on hand as now. Counting the general fund, the canal fund, that of the inheritance tax, the forest preserve money and all the other smaller sums, we have in charge as officials about $18,000,000, deposited in State depositories all over the State, about $5,000,000 being in institutions in this city.

"It is true the State is safeguarded by surety companies, which bond all State depositories far beyond the amount of the State money deposited with them, so the danger of loss of public money through bank troubles is not great."

It was learned that at no time did the officials suggest that they might withdraw any of the State funds from the city, but it is said there was some shifting of deposits by unanimous agreement after the first day's report by the bank examiners. This also was done with the approval of the members of the clearing house committee.

Cortleyou Ready.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely to-day said: "My advices from New York this morning are reassuring, and the situation has broken, and the damage is known without any failures of the National banks, which have lately been criticized. The clearing house confirms my reports that these banks are all solvent and is standing by them. Their debit balances at the clearing house this morning are less than expected, and I understand one bank paid the balance without help. The National banks of the country generally are in strong shape and there is not the slightest occasion for any alarm in regard to them. This is a time for coolness and prudence, not for alarm."

Secretary of the Treasury Cortleyou to-day declined to discuss the financial situation in New York. It is known, however, that he stands ready to meet any situation that may develop, and that he is in a position to do this.

At about 11:30 a. m. the firm tone in the market disappeared under renewed heavy selling. Union Pacific broke to 112-1/2, a decline of 4-3/4; Reading fell to 80-1/4, a loss of 5-3/8; while St. Paul sold at 109, a decline of 4-1/4 from last night.

Home Folks. Oh, Riley, with your home folks you've won my heart entire; I wander with them by the creek, I join them at the fire.

They do not shame my shyness with any worldly show— The plain folks, the kind folks that you have made me know.

I met them and spoke them when I was but a boy, But never saw the pure gold, only the alloy.

For I was keen to take the road that led towards the town, Beyond the range of purple hills to where the sky came down.

There were the great folk, the powerful, the wise; We were but the toiling hands, they the watchful eyes.

The Town's ways were strange ways, un-civil and un-kind; Grace they had but not the grace of them I had behind.

For pride I bide among them and make their ways my own; And in their work am one of them, but in my heart—alone.

House have I and wife have I and babes to bear my name; I think it like my father's house, but it is not the same.

A hunger, deep, unsatisfied, is urging me to roam— The long road, the lost road, the end of which is Home.

The old home, the old scene—I long for them in vain; The dear hearts, the true hearts I shall not meet again.

MARKETS AND FINANCE

Tuesday, October 22.—The market was rather dull this morning and prices remained unchanged. Grapes were very plentiful, but the frosts have nearly finished them. Farmers whose vines have thick foliage were able to bring their newly gathered grapes to market. Those who have had their grapes frosted are selling them for wine.

The rest of the produce was unchanged, but butter and eggs were firm. The grain market was rather dull, and prices were generally unchanged.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

TUESDAY, OCT. 22, 1907.

A VICIOUS SYSTEM.

The Brockville Recorder points out that the method adopted by the Ontario Government through which the University of Toronto gets a very large amount of public money each year, without consulting the people's representatives in the Legislature, is a direct violation of the spirit of the constitution of this country.

It does not object to the giving of financial aid to this great Provincial seat of learning, but it unreservedly condemns the plan by which that aid is granted.

And the Recorder is undoubtedly right in that condemnation. The clause in the act which gives the pecuniary assistance to the University is thus framed:

For the purpose of making provision for the maintenance and support of the University, and University College, there shall be paid to the board out of the consolidated revenue of the Province yearly and every year, a sum equal to fifty per centum of the average yearly gross receipts of the Province from succession duties.

Briefly set forth, the affairs of the University are turned over to a commission over which the people have no control, save through the Government, and in whose deliberations they have no voice.

Several instances have been brought under my notice of Canadian manufacturers repudiating business contracts, obviously on account of an increase in demand and higher rates ruling elsewhere.

This is not an arrangement in keeping with the principles of responsible government, or of the theory which underlies it, that no money of the people shall be voted by the Legislature till the representatives of the people shall have had an opportunity to be heard on the subject.

That all the words after the word "that" be omitted, and the following be substituted: "The bill be not now recommended to a committee of the whole House, with instructions to amend clause 145, first, by striking out the words 'a sum equal to 50 per centum of the average yearly gross receipts of the Province from succession duties,' and inserting the following: 'Such sums as may be appropriated by the Legislative Assembly on report of the board, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.'"

It was voted down, and those who did so sought to present its supporters as unfriendly to the University. The true friends of the institution are those who would aid it in a constitutional manner, and who would consult the people, and require the University Commission to take them into its confidence.

A SWINDLE THAT FAILED. A very extensive and ingenious swindle has been recently attempted on investors in mines by some Wyoming sharks.

There is no need for alarm over the presence of small pox in Oakville. The health authorities there are exercising care in the matter of quarantine, and our health department is taking proper care of the patient discovered here.

Our Government does well to invite the Indian Government to take steps to discourage Hindu emigration to Canada. If the conditions prevailing were known to the people there they would not wish to come.

Leo W. Broom, a Chicago junk dealer, bought an old gas stove for 50 cents. Falling to sell it at a profit he broke it up, and in doing so found $7,000 in United States bonds wrapped in a newspaper of date of three years ago.

Mr. Fielding, in his Halifax speech, claimed that in eleven years of Liberal rule there had been surpluses totalling ninety-five million dollars; but stated that in the same time there had been an increase of the debt of five millions.

We think it would be possible to improve on the system, but it is the one that has always been followed in Canada. The surpluses exist, of course—and with fine gold by some means. The job was well done, and at enormous cost. The risk taken may have involved $100,000, but the amount at stake, and the swindlers was away up in the millions; and only a chance word dropped aroused the suspicions that led to the discovery of the swindle attempted. Already the Greenoughs had bought up farm lands necessary to control the water supply at a cost of $125,000, and in a few days more the shapers would have been in possession of a payment of $1,500,000.

There is a hint in this for the unsophisticated chap who so cheerfully parts with his coin for paper representing shares in all sorts of mythical and other prospects. Even the sharpest men, thoroughly familiar with such deals, sometimes get bitten. The ordinary man at the desk or bench or counter or plough has need to exercise all the intelligence and discretion he can command, if he is going to embark in such speculations, if he would not be literally "skinned."

IS THE TRADE WANTED?

Commissioner Ross, who is making great efforts to build up trade with Australia, has a grievance against our home manufacturers which calls for immediate attention and reform.

The very slow delivery of orders placed with Canadian manufacturers is operating seriously against the development of trade with Australia. I am aware of orders having been sent from Melbourne to Canada in June, 1906, and no advices have yet been received that the goods are shipped.

Several instances have been brought under my notice of Canadian manufacturers repudiating business contracts, obviously on account of an increase in demand and higher rates ruling elsewhere.

This is a state of things that should not exist. If Australian trade is worth having, orders should receive prompt attention; if it is not desired, we may as well stop paying public money to drum it up.

The Dominion has made books for the blind post free. The Province has placed us under the supervision of the Education Department and voted us for this year $200, which must be wholly expended in books, but for rent, office expenses, etc., we must depend on private aid.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

This is a great day for the Woman's Wentworth Historical Society.

The lessons Magistrate Jelfs is teaching these days are those of good order. Heed them.

Kipling sees in Canada "the spirit of national life." Kipling is a gentleman and a scholar; also a bit of a blarney.

Hanna got no moose. If he wants to run up against a bear, however, he might visit Toronto registry office, where Dr. Beattie Nesbitt makes his den.

The Toronto News' correspondent says Borden addressed seven meetings in the west, the total of the audiences being "about 7,000." That does not spell wild enthusiasm.

For the year ending June 30, 1907, the emigration of persons from the United States to Canada was 56,518, as compared with 190,520 of other nationalities.

There is no need for alarm over the presence of small pox in Oakville. The health authorities there are exercising care in the matter of quarantine, and our health department is taking proper care of the patient discovered here.

Our Government does well to invite the Indian Government to take steps to discourage Hindu emigration to Canada. If the conditions prevailing were known to the people there they would not wish to come.

Mr. Fielding, in his Halifax speech, claimed that in eleven years of Liberal rule there had been surpluses totalling ninety-five million dollars; but stated that in the same time there had been an increase of the debt of five millions.

We think it would be possible to improve on the system, but it is the one that has always been followed in Canada. The surpluses exist, of course—and with fine gold by some means. The job more, has been put into works for the development of the country—canals, public buildings, railway aid, etc., and set down as capital account expenditures. If they are worth their cost to the people they are still a real gain to that much to the country.

The bill providing for the regulation of electric power export will come into effect on Oct. 28th. By adopting the policy of licensing and controlling the export of power the Dominion Government indicates its determination to see that Canadians are not wronged by the big power companies operating in Canada.

The New York Sun is apparently growing alarmed at the war talk and the situation created by the sending of the United States fleet to the Pacific. It characterizes the sending of the fleet as an "insane project," and says that although the Executive cannot declare war, it can create a state of affairs that Congress would have no choice but to declare war, or, it might have said, the other party might be in a similar predicament.

The correspondent of the Montreal Herald who accompanies Mr. Borden in his Northwest tour says the leader of the Opposition "has not discussed the tariff since he went west." The correspondent of the Toronto News, who is very friendly to Mr. Borden, says he is "keeping industriously quiet about it."

We have received a copy of "The Quest," an annual published in the interest of the blind, by E. B. F. Robinson, M. A., Markham, Ont., together with a circular from the Canadian Free Library for the Blind at the same place.

The Dominion has made books for the blind post free. The Province has placed us under the supervision of the Education Department and voted us for this year $200, which must be wholly expended in books, but for rent, office expenses, etc., we must depend on private aid.

The Canadian Cannery, Limited, have called the attention of the Victoria Collier to the injustice done the Canadian canning trade by the wide reproduction of some very grave reflections credited to Dr. H. H. H. of the Provincial Board of Health, and the Collier explains that it printed the despatch in good faith and without any desire to do injury.

A good musical programme was given as follows: Solo by George Collins, who was the leader of the church 25 years ago; ladies' quartette, by Mrs. Thomas Allen, Mrs. Cameron Begg, Miss Bertha Carey and Mrs. P. London Free Press: Men of fortune with sons to train for a life of the highest usefulness and independence, now look to the farm rather than the factory or the professions. It is a career in which no amount of competition can down a man, or force him to a faster pace than he chooses.

Ottawa Free Press: Now just listen to British Columbia how about "the Japanese invasion!" The first baby born in Prince Rupert is the child of Japanese parents. What's the use of anything after that?

Toronto News: "O give me a drink of tobacco sauce," said the fellow out of breath, "I rode down town in an open car. And I'm frozen half to death."

Toronto Sun: If girls who wanted to get married would also advertise for husbands they wouldn't have to burn coal and gas for months finding out the intentions of a gentleman caller.

Ottawa Citizen: Toronto troops will attempt to capture Hamilton on Thanksgiving Day, and you can bet that Hamilton will put up a fight that will make the defence of Saragossa look like a post-nuptial reception.

Montreal Star: A snake five feet long was killed in Toronto. The temperance movement is spreading. There was a time when Toronto could see a dozen snakes that long.

Peterboro Examiner: If the Church in general, to-day, made as energetic effort to reach the hearts of the masses, as it does to reach the pockets of the millionaires, its work would more speedily regenerate society.

Brantford Courier: They say that Lomeix is in a terrible stieux as to the vieux of the Mikadieux.

London Advertiser: Statistics show an increase of 60 per cent. in drunkenness in Ottawa in ten years. The Ottawa Citizen will not fail to point out that ten years ago the Laurier Government took office.

Our Exchanges

Banded Together. (Toronto News.) Hamilton is a cluster of houses about the Thirtieth Band.

His Fine Figure. (Toronto News.) Mr. Hendrie says that the Ontario Cabinet is united on the Power Question. Sarcastic sniffs at this statement by Dr. Beattie Nesbitt will have no influence. Mr. Hendrie is a fine figure of a man; and figures cannot lie.

Toronto's Hydro-Electric Outlook. (Toronto Globe.) The best offer made to the city by the Government's Commission is $17.75 per horsepower, and the city to be bound to take and to pay for 15,000 horsepower. The Electric Light Company, according to its manager's statement, gets all the Niagara power it requires at a rate which works out at $8.75 per horsepower, and it pays for only what it sells to its customers.

Disturbed His Meal. (Toronto News.) What is it worth to take a cinder from a pipe? Not a very large sum, one would naturally say, but it might depend to a certain extent on the time or trouble spent in the operation.

A young lady who is a teacher in one of the city schools, while walking along the street, had a cinder lodge in her eye, and finding a difficulty in getting rid of the painful little intruder, went to a physician on Carlton street. This reliever of human pain had just sat down to dinner, but he arose, and simply by using the corner of a handkerchief, had the cinder extracted in a very short time.

The patient was, of course, delighted to be relieved of the cinder so speedily. "What is the fee?" she inquired. "Two dollars," was the quiet reply. "I nearly took my breath away," said the young lady afterwards, when referring to the incident.

It was worth something to have the little operation successfully performed, but the fee seemed slightly large.

A FINE LECTURE. Close of Charlton Avenue Church Silver Anniversary.

Last night Rev. S. Cleaver, D. D., of Toronto, closed the silver anniversary of Charlton Avenue Methodist Church with a lecture on Jean Val Jean. The church was filled to overflowing to hear this popular divine give his celebrated lecture, and none were disappointed.

Dr. Cleaver is a man of broad ideas, and his lecture, though given here before, has been improved in the composition, and in material since his last visit. A silver collection at the door netted the church a good sum.

A good musical programme was given as follows: Solo by George Collins, who was the leader of the church 25 years ago; ladies' quartette, by Mrs. Thomas Allen, Mrs. Cameron Begg, Miss Bertha Carey and Mrs. P. Griffin; solo by Miss Bertha Carey, and organ selections by Miss Clara Morris. Rev. R. H. Bell, the pastor, was the chairman.

He was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge that on Saturday night he did cut and wound and do grievous bodily harm to Fred Jagard, Cathcart street. Through A. M. Lewis he pleaded not guilty and declined to elect. Jagard stated that on Saturday last he was in the Flamboro House at 6.50 in the evening, and that he had been there only a minute or so when he saw the proprietor throwing a man into the trough in front of the bar. He made a remark on the way the man was being used, and a stranger, after asking him if he was looking for trouble, walloped him on the side of the head and five or six pined on. He got to his feet and was trying to hold his own with his back to the bar when Barker, he swore, grabbed him and pulled him half over the bar. A Plastow, a man who was with him, pulled Barker off and then he suddenly felt a crack on the head and the blood started to flow. He turned around and saw Barker with a knife, which witness had to guard against, and in trying to prevent Barker from stabbing him, he got a nasty jab in the arm. Plastow and J. Hogg corroborated Jagard's testimony. Dr. Wickett said he dressed Jagard, two cuts and three took ten stitches. His opinion was that a knife had done the work.

Constable Brown stated that he was called to the hotel on Saturday night, but the trouble was all over then. He took Jagard away, as he appeared to be very mad and wanted to get back and settle Barker.

Mr. Lewis withheld the evidence of the defence and the prisoner was committed for trial.

Thomas Steel, London, was arrested by G. T. R. Constable Darroek yesterday for trespassing at the T. R. depot. He was seen several nights sleeping at the depot, and had been warned away dozens of times. He stated he was sixteen years of age, and that his parents were living in London. The Magistrate gave him a chance to go to work and dismissed the charge.

The police got a tip from a number of descriptions of the man who has been doing the purse snatching on the mountain side of late, and as Steel answered the descriptions he was charged with vagrancy, but the police found out that he was too young to hold for vagrancy, and he was let go.

John Novak, charged with the theft of a number of articles belonging to William Stroud, hide dealer, was further remanded till Friday this morning, and bail in the sum of $200 was fixed.

Herbert Foster, 75 Walnut street south, was charged by Mrs. McManus, a next door neighbor, with willfully and unlawfully shooting her dog. He pleaded not guilty. Mrs. McManus said defendant had blocked up a hole in the fence and locked the dog in his yard and that he had then shot it and killed it. Foster did not deny shooting the dog, but said that he caught it stealing some of his chickens, and went to chase it and it chased him instead. He then saw it. A man named Spence, from whom Foster borrowed the gun, was not present, and the case was adjourned till the morning to get him.

John Lacy, Mary street, and Fred Shaw, Merrick street, were each fined $2 for being drunk.

AT THE ARMORY.

It's Week's Special at the Popular Roller Rink.

Prof. W. E. Genno and Miss Kathleen Patterson, billed as the world's famous team of roller skaters, opened a week's engagement at the Armory roller rink last evening and gave an interesting exhibition of skill to a large gathering of skaters and spectators. Three bands at different intervals played for their performance, which is of a graceful and refined nature. The couple are the originators of a series of skating acts, several of which they gave last evening. An entire change of programme will be given each evening, which includes wonderful exhibitions of waltzing and two stepping on high still skates, rolling the barrel with skates, racing on toes and heels against all comers, hurdlings, jumping (long and high) and other tricks, fancy, acrobatic and sensational stunts. Their clown act, or "learning to skate," is very amusing and will be put on later in the week. The professor wears several medals and thousands have witnessed his records of one-quarter, one-half and one mile racing and jumping, while Miss Patterson is open for race with any lady in America.

A SOCIAL EVENING.

Advance Lodge, Canadian Order of Oddfellows, held the first of a series of social events last evening, the members enjoying cards and cigars after the business of the meeting. There was a good attendance of members and a very pleasant time was spent. These social features will be continued during the winter and other lodges will be invited to participate in them.

Wonderful. (Argonaut.)

Soon after his first baby was born his wife went upstairs one evening and found him standing by the side of the crib and gazing earnestly at the child. She was touched by the sight, and tears filled her eyes. Her arm stole softly around his neck, and she rubbed her cheek caressingly against his shoulder. He started slightly at the touch. "Darling," he murmured, dreamily, "it is incomprehensible to me how they can get up such a crib as that for 99 cents."

UNION MEETING.

W. M. S. Had Fine Gathering at Centenary.

A union meeting of the City Auxiliaries of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was held in Centenary Church school room on Monday afternoon. There was a large attendance and a deep interest was taken in the proceedings. Mrs. Atkinson presided.

Two missionaries from Japan, Miss Killam and Miss Cunningham, were present and addressed the meeting.

Miss Killam spoke of the difficulties experienced in making the women understand the gospel.

Miss Cunningham, who has given twenty years of service to Japan, spoke of the educational work, and of the far-reaching influence of the teaching and training secured by the girls. She paid a well-deserved tribute to Miss Cartmel, the pioneer missionary to Japan.

Mrs. Harrison presented a report of the meeting of the General Board recently held at Woodstock. The records of the past year show advance in every department; a deepening interest, additional membership and increase in funds. The sum of $97,501.98 was contributed to the W. M. Society during the past year.

Miss Adelaide Smith and Miss Edith Carey sang very acceptably during the meeting.

WIRE DID IT.

Ottawa Departmental Building Had Narrow Escape.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 22.—The Western Departmental building on Parliament Hill had a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire this forenoon. Two electric wires which passed around an iron gas pipe burned the pipe right through and ignited the gas, creating quite a blaze. The city brigade was quickly on the spot and had it extinguished with the aid of a couple of fire extinguishers. This is the second time that the electric wires have started fire in about the same place.

A COUGH IN THE FOREST

May Sometimes Scare a Deer Away, Sometimes Save a Life.

Saranac Lake, N. Y.—In spite of the fact that deer are very plentiful in the Adirondacks this fall comparatively few have been brought in. The efforts of some of the Saranac Lake hunters have been defeated by physical ailments.

"I am not a success at still hunting," declared a New Yorker who is at Saranac Lake for his health. "I was walking through the woods the other day when this was brought forcibly to my mind."

"I was in the midst of innumerable deer runs and the signs of deer were fresh. I was constantly on the alert, probed with as little noise as possible and as the leaves and debris on the ground were thoroughly wet, I thought that I was doing very well indeed."

"But suddenly the old tickling came in my throat and I coughed. I could not help it. It is my physical weakness, and that is why I am here."

"But the instant I coughed there was a crash and a whistle to the left of the trail ahead of me. My coughing alarmed the deer and it got out of the vicinity as though a hound was after it."

"Coughing at the right time, however, once saved my life. We were camping down in the Pitchfork Pond country. Antoine Storey, the guide, was in charge of the camp and his wife did the cooking."

"Nearly every day Antoine would take one or two members of the party and still hunt deer. Sometimes I went with the boys, but on this particular day I remained in camp until late in the afternoon."

"It occurred to me that it would be good exercise and a pleasant thing to take a

TROUSERS OF RECENT ORIGIN.

A Hundred Years Ago Methodists Thought Them Immoral.

The modern custom of wearing trousers was taken from the military dress introduced into the army by the Duke of Wellington during the Peninsular war, says the Tailor and Cutter. In early days these were known as Wellington trousers, after the duke.

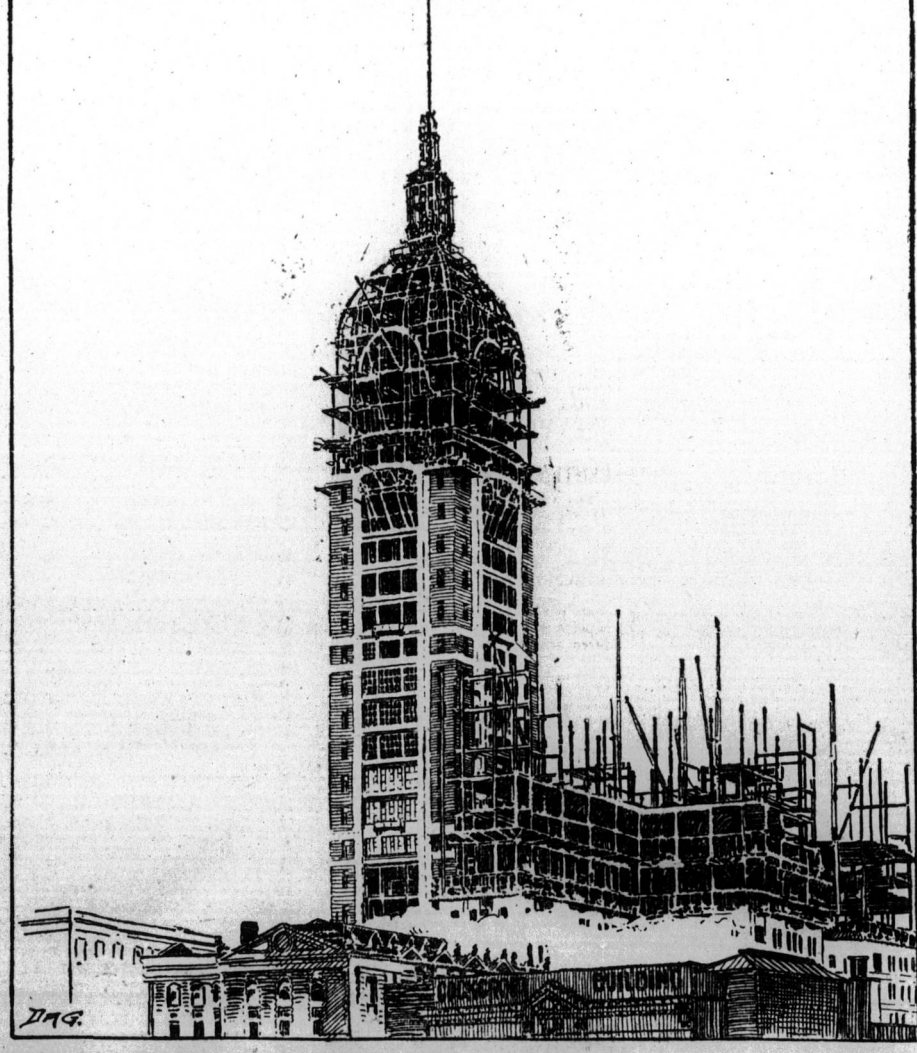

When they were coming into general use at the commencement of the nineteenth century, the religious world and the fashionable were most determined in their opposition. A clause in the original trust deed, dated 1820, of a Sheffield Nonconformist chapel provided that "under no circumstances whatever shall any preacher be allowed to occupy the pulpit who wears trousers."

But this was not all. Some doubts were expressed in many quarters concerning the question whether a man could be religious and appear in trousers. One of the founders of the Primitive Methodist body remarked to a colleague in the ministry that "trousers wearing, beer drinking so and so will never get to heaven."

Father Rice, a famous Methodist minister, twice president of the conference (born in 1765, died in 1850), could not be induced to adopt trousers, and among the Methodists was the last to follow popular fashion in this respect.

STEEPLEJACK CAPELLE ON THE SINGER BUILDING FLAGSTAFF, OVER SEVEN HUNDRED FEET ABOVE BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

LOWER Broadway, New York, enjoyed a sensation the other day when Ernest Capelle, a steeplejack, climbed the flagpole of a new skyscraper, the Singer building. The flagstaff at the peak is 703 feet above the level of the street and is sixty-two feet above the apex of the giant tower that rises high above all other buildings of the city. Perched upon it, with the city, the country and the ocean spread out before him until distance was lost in a haze, Capelle affixed a golden ball to the peak

Saw Burglar in a Dream.

From Melbourne comes a strange but apparently quite authentic story of how E. Pascoe, of Bendigo, who recently lost the sum of £1,700 through a robbery from the local mint, saw the theft re-enacted in a dream.

He says that in the dream, as he stood outside the walls of the mint, suddenly he became as transparent as glass, and through them he saw a certain man whom he recognized as an inhabitant of Bendigo take the key of the safe from the clothing of a constable kept in the building. The thief then quietly opened the safe door, passed out three bars of gold to another man African Colonies

GREAT FIELD BEFORE THEM

As Shown By Report at Orphan Asylum Annual.

Mrs. N. D. Galbreath presented the annual report. It was a very complete and comprehensive one, and contained much of interest from which the following extracts are taken:

This institution is maintained for the care and comfort of orphans, and hecatered aged women, who have, in a majority of cases, no friends to care for them, and seldom any means of support. The work is inspired by a spirit of love, and self-sacrificing willingness to be of service in making life easier and brighter for those whose lives have fallen in less pleasant places.

The object of this institution is well known to our increasing multitudes. The reports of the management given annually, are satisfactory to the many friends, and supporters. The aged women have continued in excellent health throughout the year, considering their increasing infirmities. There has been the usual amount of care and anxiety, necessary to the well-being of a family, composed of so many frail people, some of whom are very feeble, and require much attention.

The past year has been one of such encouragement and blessing, that the work has been marked by signs of increased activity. One encouraging feature has been the demands which so far exceeded our possibilities. These facts reveal to us what the future of this work might be. The building has proved quite inadequate to the requirements of the work, and a large number of applications are before the committee, which in the meantime cannot be accepted, owing to lack of room.

The boys are doing well at school, bringing home good reports to the matron. They had a few pleasant outings during the summer months, under the care of Ida Crawford, who was one of our orphans, years ago, and is now a trusted employee in the Home. In reviewing the work of the House Committee for the past year, there is little to be recorded beyond the fact that the Home has been kept in good repair. Several rooms have been painted and lath-work done. The kitchen and basement have also been plastered and ceilings whitened.

The furnace and boilers, which were a source of trouble through the latter part of last winter, were taken charge of by the trustees, and put in thorough order, which will ensure more satisfactory heating throughout the Home. The fencing in rear of the Home was renewed, and some old sheds, which had become unsightly, were repaired.

The increased cost of all articles of food has made it necessary to exercise the strictest care in the purchase of supplies. In renewing our contract for butter, an advance of two cents per pound had to be made. Our milk has cost us $35 in excess of last year, meat $27, butter $29 and vegetables $55.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society still continues to give relief to a number of sick and aged ones and has for this purpose expended this year $120.

The same, though some have dropped out, others have been glad to fill the vacancies. Although the Home has been free from any epidemic during the year four deaths are recorded.

Deep regret was expressed at the resignation of Mrs. A. R. Kerr, who for seven years was secretary and convener of the Admission Committee. A great surprise was given the committee at their December meeting, when the announcement was made by the president, Mrs. Fenwick, that Miss Frank L. Davis, seeing the great need that the Home should own a piano, had, by unthoughtful perseverance, been able, through the generosity of friends, to purchase a new and handsome instrument, which she presented to the Home as a New Year's gift.

It was a matter causing real regret to the management when our late treasurer, Mrs. Stuart Strathy, was compelled to resign, owing to her removal to Toronto.

Mrs. F. B. Greening was appointed to the office, and has given efficient service. It is sad only to record the death of one of our oldest and most beloved members, Mrs. Edward Zealand. She has left a highly honored name, and a sweetly cherished memory.

The young ladies of the Musical and Reading Clubs have added very much to the happiness of the aged women, both by reading aloud and cheering them with music regularly. The inmates greatly delight in the visits of their youthful entertainers.

Mrs. W. E. Sanford, Mrs. Frank Malloch, Mrs. R. L. Gunn, Sir Thomas Taylor, the Mission Circle of St. Andrew's Church, Mrs. and Mrs. French, and others were thanked for kindnesses extended to the Home. In conclusion, the report said:

We believe we have a model Home, and we intend to keep it up to a high standard, so as to merit a continuation of the generous response of our friends, which has made it possible to carry on the work. With the splendid achievements of the year just closed, may we not hope for a decided advancement? The outlook was never brighter. The work and its mission entitle it to most liberal support. We hope our citizens, when making their wills, will remember our Home, as there is no sweeter charity in the world to-day. That the year 1908 may prove to be one of the best in the history of the Home, let us work, and pray, and expect from the God of all grace, wisdom, inspiration, strength, peace and prosperity.

The report of the financial secretary, as read by Mrs. W. J. Waugh, showed that the receipts for the year amounted to $4,830.2, leaving a balance on hand of $214.71.

This concluded the business for the afternoon, and the meeting adjourned. Five o'clock tea was served.

POWER PRICES.

They Are Not as Simple as Some People Imagine.

Mr. Cecil B. Smith is quoted as saying that the Electrical Development Company floated its bonds in London on the strength of figures that proved the existence of contracts to deliver electric energy at the tap in Toronto for $16.80 per horsepower. The Electrical Development Company had and still has a contract to supply power to the Street Railway Company at a flat rate of $25 per year at the tap in Toronto. It has a contract with the Toronto Electric Light Company to supply power at meter rates on the basis of payment for the maximum flow of power, measured each hour. The price was to be $35 per horsepower per year. In actual practice this works out at $8.75 per horsepower, and Mr. Cecil B. Smith knows it or should know it. If he does not he is a very unsafe guide for the Government and people of Ontario.—Toronto Globe.

END OF THE WORLD.

Walter A. Sellen Makes Explanation of Sermon.

For several weeks past the secular press have been giving more or less extended notices of a sermon that I preached at Fort Wayne, Indiana, on the "Second Coming of Christ." Most of these notices have been either seriously exaggerated, or have misrepresented what I said in that sermon. The following is a sample of these notices. I did not "predict the end of the world within a few months," nor did I make any prediction whatever, as I did say, I thought we were living in the "last days," and that Christ would soon come the second time, and I gave some reasons why I thought so, but I emphasized the fact that it was only my opinion and that I could not prove it. I also warned them against the heresy of setting any particular date or time for Christ's second coming. It will be noticed that anything along the line of Christ's second coming wonderfully moves people, and it is to be hoped that the incident and the extended notice that has been given it may do some good.

BEER BUILDS BODIES

PURITY. Lazy stomachs run down people in a poor digestion—they don't work hard enough to extract the good of one's food. Beer is a food-drink that makes the stomach do its work better, because it increases the flow of the digestive juices and gives the stomach muscles more strength to do their work.

FOOD-VALUE. Boiled potatoes contain not nearly the nutriment that is in pure beer; milk will not feed most folks so well, nor digest so thoroughly. Beer is better for run-down people than medicine, and for thin-blooded people nothing else will enrich the blood so surely and quickly. Ask your own doctor if you hadn't better drink beer with your meals.

BEER is a term which covers lager, ale, porter, and stout. In the United States, the word "beer" is used to designate the under the world's best, top, and pure water.

Beauty and Health in Fruit Juices.

Apple juice acts directly on the liver, increasing the flow of bile, and this bile, entering the intestines, causes the bowels to move regularly.

Orange juice softens and beautifies the complexion, stimulates the action of the skin glands, and thus assists in purifying the blood.

Figs and prunes—free of seeds and skins—soothe the stomach and bowels and strengthen the digestion. A fruit juice is about 90 per cent. water and 10 per cent. solid. The solids are made up of nine-tenths sweet and one-tenth bitter material. It is this small quantity of bitter material that acts medicinally.

"Fruit-atives"—those wonderful tablets that are curing so many people—arise from the action of the fruit juices, concentrated and intensified. An Ottawa physician discovered a process, by which an additional quantity of the bitter principle of the orange peel could be forced into the juices. This formed a new compound—many times more effective as a medicine than the fresh fruit juices—and without any of the indigestible pulp or fibre. In order to further improve it, tonics and antiseptics were added and the whole compound put into tablets. BANKERS WORRIED.

DEPOSITION OF MRS. CHADWICK MAY CAUSE FINANCIAL PANIC.

Is Now in the Personal Charge of a Judge to Avoid Present Publicity—Many Are Implicated.

Pittsburg, Oct. 21.—Chief Justice James Mitchell, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, to-night has personal charge of the famous Cassie Chadwick deposition, in the case of Broker James W. Friend. His taking possession of the papers resulted in its not becoming public to-day, and to-day's court session ended in a clash between attorneys for Friend and Mrs. W. C. Julte, who is suing Friend and Frank Hoffstad, his business partner, to recover possession of stocks and bonds valued at more than $100,000, which Mrs. Julte declares were obtained from her husband when he was insane. Friend's attorneys formally asked the Supreme Court to seal the papers, while Mrs. Julte's attorney demanded publicity. To-day, A. Leo Well, attorney for Mrs. Julte, filed the balance sheet which Mrs. Julte declares was insolvent on the part of the Pearson, of the Supreme Court. Pearson handed the papers to Chief Justice Mitchell, who took them. It is hinted a financial scandal involving prominent bankers all over the country would result if the public gets a look at the papers.

The affair has caused a bigger sensation than any since the Chadwick case was started. Coming in connection with the sealing of the deposition of Banker Beckwith, of Oberlin, it has caused talk. The man who was indicted for more than $800,000 by the Federal Grand Jury, is said to be worried almost sick.

Talk of Mrs. Chadwick's deposits in a Pittsburg bank has put every banker of prominence in the city practically under suspicion. To-night, men high in finance, whose skirts were clean, hope that the Supreme Court will rule the papers public and save them from unjust suspicion. Fear that a financial panic would result if the paper becomes public is also expressed, as it would tend to show that many other whose names have never been mentioned before in dealings with the woman, loaned money.

HOSPITAL ROMANCES.

Wedding Celebrated at Windsor—Left for Peru. Windsor, Oct. 21.—Dr. Kingsman, of Brooklyn, and Miss Edna Pollette, of Detroit, were principals in a hospital romance which culminated in marriage at Windsor. They met at the Andrew Green hospital in the hospital at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Dr. and Mrs. Kingsman left this afternoon for South America, the groom having been appointed superintendent of a hospital in Peru.

PARIS STRIKE ENDED.

Eight Hundred Employees Decide Upon a Compromise. Paris, Oct. 21.—The strike which has tied up the Penman Mills here for the past week was declared off to-night, when the hands at a mass meeting held in the rink decided to return to work to-morrow morning.

The terms of settlement have not as yet been definitely arranged, but it is understood that a compromise will be effected. The hands will be required to work Saturday afternoons for some time at any rate, and they may have to work overtime to make up for time lost during the strike.

The final settlement will probably provide for 50 hours' work per week, so arranged as to allow Saturday afternoon off.

Kier Hardie's Fallacy.

London, Oct. 21.—Mr. Morley, in the course of a firm speech on Indian affairs at Arbroath, said that Kier Hardie's recent statement at Calcutta, "If self-government is good for Canada it must be good for India" was the grossest fallacy in all politics, and he would never lend himself to that doctrine.

Slender Suit Failed.

Orangeville, Oct. 21.—The Assizes opened this afternoon, with Justice Magee presiding. The civil suit brought by A. White and his wife against Johning his wife's illness, and it was alleged slander, was heard by a jury. Mrs. White, who is not 20 years of age, was at one time housekeeper for Lusty during his wife's illness, and it was alleged he had accused her of theft of some quilts at the time of her marriage. The jury, after being out half an hour, gave a verdict for the defendant.

Doctor Sues Company.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—In the jury Assizes yesterday, Dr. G. Davis, of Welland, brought suit to recover $1,000 damages for alleged wrongful dismissal from the employ of the Ontario Lumber Company, at French River, on Nov. 17, 1906. Dr. Davis claims he was engaged by the company until the end of 1907. He was let go after five months' service, and wants damages for the amount he would have earned. The company will try to prove that there was no length of time specified.

DUGALD ROSS HOME.

TELLS REAL STORY OF HIS RECENT DISAPPEARANCE.

A London Newspaper Offered Him Fifty Dollars a Day to Keep Away and Give It Details—Story of the Disappearance.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—"I was offered $50 a day by one of the London papers to stay out of the way, to go to Paris or any other place, and to keep the paper informed of my movements, so that it could write about them."

This was the statement of Dugald Ross, the young Streetsville man whose disappearance has caused such a stir on two continents a few weeks ago, and who returned to Toronto yesterday, apparently in the best of health and spirits. Mr. Ross is a shrewd-looking young man, and apparently regards his "mysterious disappearance" as more of a joke than anything else. He arrived in Montreal on Saturday morning on the Virginian. He stated that he was suffering slightly from the effects of a motoring accident in France some weeks ago. Regarding the Kimberley mining deal he said:

"The March I went down to New York at the time that the great slump in stocks took place, and there met three men, who informed me that they were forming a syndicate to purchase the Silver Bird diamond mine in Kimberley. There were fifteen men in the syndicate, in addition to the three New Yorkers and myself there were three from Berlin, three from Amsterdam and the remainder from South Africa. The mine was producing, and during the summer went out in machinery to the value of $28,000. The mine was sold on September 21 to the De Beers Company for $500,000 cash. The money was deposited in the Bank of Africa in London to the credit of the syndicate, and we each received checks for the De Beers Company, mine amounting to £37,000. On the day of receipt it was too late to cash the check, and on my going to the bank next morning I found the Secretary of the syndicate had drawn the balance which Mrs. Julte declares was missing. Instead of informing the Scotland Yard people I was so bewildered and humiliated at the loss that my only thought was to conceal it and get back to Canada. I wanted to get a rest, so went down to Denver, where I remained until the press men found me there."

Mr. Ross said he had sold horses to the Japanese Government last May to the value of $30,000, and had been offered a good agricultural position with that Government, which he had refused.

YORK LOANS CLAIMS.

WAS THE COMPANY SOLVENT OR INSOLVENT?

Question of the Actual Date Will Be of Importance in the Case—The Long and Costly Struggle is Now Going on Daily. Toronto, Oct. 22.—The question of whether the York Loan Company was solvent or insolvent prior to the actual winding-up order entered into the hearing before Referee Kappeler yesterday of the claims of various classes of shareholders. "How about the actual date of insolvency?" asked the referee.

Mr. W. H. Hunter for some of the claimants thought that point should be at once argued, and added that no company was insolvent so long as it went on meeting its obligations.

Mr. Kappeler pointed out that the question that would likely arise would be as to whether the stoppage of business constituted insolvency. The claims dealt with yesterday were those of holders of shares payable on demand or within a year prior to the date of liquidation and of shares which were withdrawable at any time on thirty days' notice. In regard to certificates under clause B, which provides for the withdrawal of principal and interest at four per cent. per annum by giving 30 days' notice, Mr. W. H. Hunter for the claimants said the liquidator's contention was that the winding-up order destroyed the right of withdrawal, that one-half of the funds were subject to the right of withdrawal, and that that half had been applied to previous withstanding claims.

The provision requiring a man at the time of giving notice of withdrawal to surrender his pass book and certificates altered the status of the applicant. Further argument was adjourned until Monday next.

PETERBORO MAN INSANE.

Attempted to Take His Life at Rochester, N. Y. Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 21.—John Connelly of Peterboro, Ont., became suddenly insane in a New York Central train this afternoon. He imagined that some one intended to murder him.

Producing a knife, he began to jab himself in the throat. Passengers took to work overtime to make up for time lost during the strike. The provision requiring a man at the time of giving notice of withdrawal to surrender his pass book and certificates altered the status of the applicant. Further argument was adjourned until Monday next.

ENGINE BROKE THROUGH BRIDGE.

James Hudson Pinned Underneath and Killed. Amherst, Oct. 21.—James Hudson, of Glasgow Station, was driving a traction engine to the farm of William McComb, in McComb township, when the engine crashed through a bridge into a gully about 70 feet deep. The unfortunate was pinned beneath the engine and killed instantly.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN CAMP.

Peterboro Boy Lost Both Legs and Death Ensued. Peterboro, Oct. 21.—Word reached here to-day that George Hefferman, aged 19, son of Patrick Hefferman, of this city, had both legs cut off in Turner's lumber camp, north shore of Lake Superior, and expired shortly after being taken to the hospital at Blind River. Hefferman left here last June.

Supposed Bank Burglar Sentenced.

Welland, Oct. 21.—The two yegg men, arrested at Niagara Falls for having explosives in their possession, and who are supposed to have blown up the Royal Bank at Chippewa, and who, it is believed, were on their way to Irgersville to do a burglary there, and who were arrested when they were leaving Niagara Falls, were to-day sentenced by Judge Wells. Harding received 18 months in Central Prison, and Parquette three months in jail.

Pimples & Face Sores

are a common trouble. Impurities which should be thrown off from the body have a tendency to remain in the system, thus clogging the pores and giving rise to all sorts of unsightly skin troubles. Zam-Buk applied to the skin has the most wholesome effect. It stimulates the skin to throw off its impurities and restores the skin to a healthy state. Zam-Buk is the best household balm ever brought into a home. Such is the opinion of Mrs. Sarah McDonald, of Brim, Ohio. She says: "My little girl had a severe and obstinate rash on her skin. I applied Zam-Buk a few times and the skin troubles which had defied all other remedies, went away like magic."

KIPLING'S SPEECH. REBEL SULTAN WINS BATTLE.

THERE IS REAL NATIONAL LIFE IN THE DOMINION. MOROCCAN TROOPS DEFEATED AND EIGHT GUNS CAPTURED.

Commander-in-Chief Also Captured—To Kill Kaid Sir Harry Maclean by Inches—French Party Ambushed, and Warship Squadron Steaming South. Tangier, Oct. 21.—The first conflict between the forces of the rival Sultan, Abd-el-Aziz and Mulai Hafid, occurred Oct. 17th, near Hettat, between Shawia and Mequinez, according to reliable reports received here from Mazagan, with the result that the troops of Mulai Hafid, defeated the forces of Abd-el-Aziz and captured Kaid Busha Bagdani, commander-in-chief of all the imperial forces in the field, who had with him eight pieces of modern field artillery. The favorable effect of this victory, to the standing of Mulai Hafid is incalculable.

During the night of Oct. 17, some of Mulai Hafid's men made a third raid on the Customs house at Mazagan and seized 100,000 cartridges, and on the following night they made a fourth raid on the same place and captured 200,000 more cartridges.

The first division of the Imperial troops, consisting of 800 men, destined for Mogador, arrived at Tangier to-day, communication with Mogador is interrupted. The official at Mazagan has received information to the effect that Mulai Hafid started on Oct. 19th for Chabab, the district between Tangier, Rabat and Fez. Hafid has issued notice to the effect that he guarantees the protection of all the foreigners at Morocco City, inviting certain engineers who have gone to Mazagan to return to Morocco City and resume their business there, and ordering his representatives to furnish them with everything necessary in order to enable them to make the return trip to the capital of the south.

Hafid is showing a strong hand in controlling certain Moorish sects which are demanding the proclamation of a holy war, to which he is opposed.

Some of Raisuli's followers have deserted him and come to Tangier. The native report of the occurrence gives as a reason for the desertions that Raisuli, in retaliation for the French interference in the steps taken to secure the release of Kaid Sir Harry Maclean, "intends to kill Maclean by inches."

The ambush of a French reconnoitering party while proceeding yesterday from Casablanca to the city of Taddert, resulting in the killing of Captain Jandey and a private of the Classeurs d'Afrique and the wounding of six men, will, it is said, result in the resumption of hostilities on the part of the French troops, commanded by Gen. Drade.

The importance of the disturbance in the southern part of the empire is proved by the departure from here to-day of the French squadron. The warships are running south under full steam. They were mobilized by means of the wireless telegraph.

FOUND IN TIME.

Another Plot to Kill the Czar of Russia. St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—A supposed plot against the life of the Czar has been frustrated by the discovery of a plan to undermine the railway near Tsarsko-Selo. General Kristi was hunting in the forest eighteen miles from St. Petersburg and close to Tsarsko-Selo, when his dogs stopped and began scraping the earth at a spot four hundred yards from the Pavlovsk Railway, connecting St. Petersburg and Tsarsko-Selo. The general had his hounds remove the soil from the spot, which showed signs of having been recently disturbed. They found beneath the soil a quantity of straw, which covered planks. These were removed and the entrance to a tunnel was disclosed. A number of sapping tools were found. The hounds descended into the tunnel and found two men engaged in driving a shaft toward the railway. They were arrested and handed over to the gendarmes at Tsarsko-Selo. The prisoners had the plan of a mine and telegrams asking how they were progressing with the work.

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

Ben Greet and his company, in "The Merchant of Venice," as Shakespeare wrote it and presented it in the Elizabethan manner, did not attract a large audience to the Grand Opera House last evening. The faithful students of the great dramatist were there, but the peculiarity of the stage presentation did not evidently appeal to others outside of the Shakespearean circle. The stage appears as a close set, with plain walls of a fawn color, two small doors at the rear, and in the centre of the stage an archway, with large green curtains. On each side of the stage was placed a chair. At right and left, near the footlights were two attendants, carrying weapons, whose sole purpose it was to mark the end of each act by crossing the stage and reversing positions. The curtain remained up during the whole course of the play, and any changes in stage appointments were made by the two pages. The only pauses in action were after Jessica's flight, and also before and after the trial scenes.

The whole effect was quite strange to the audience, accustomed as it was to the usual modern stage scenery and accessories. Another peculiarity was that the programme did not contain the name of the players, the characters only being given, and it is not possible to refer individually to the players. The part of Shylock, presumably played by Ben Greet, was cleverly done, the strong points of the character being well brought out. Portia's part was finely played, especially in the casket scene and trial scene. The parts of Jessica, Neuss, Bassanio, Antonio and the Gosses were the best of the remainder of the cast. The applause was frequent, and the performance evidently pleased the audience.

other ways showed great abnormal strength for a woman. Most of the performers were in evening dress, and they made a big hit.

Grace Hazard, the former operatic star, was another of the advertised headliners, that made a hit. She appeared in a pleasing musical novelty, entitled "Two Feet of Comic Opera." She made six or seven rapid changes of costume before the audience, and sang selections from well known operas. Her rendering of "Marble Halls" and "Fra Diavolo" were the numbers most enjoyed. Miss Hazard is already established as one of this week's favorites at the Merrick street playhouse.

One of the daintiest novelties seen here this season—living pictures of hunting scenes—was given by Mlle. Chester and her English setter dog. The dog showed wonderful intelligence and patient training.

Francis Dooley and Corinne Soles appeared in a singing, talking and dancing turn which took well; Eddie Girard and Jesse Gardner presented their side-splitting farce, "Dooley and the Diamond;" Carl Siegfried, a one-legged athlete, did some wonderful jumping stunts, and the Kentons appeared in a new acrobatic and comedy turn, which brought down the house. New motion pictures closed the excellent show.

Funny Show To-night.

Evelyn Frances Kellogg, a niece of the one time famous Clara Louise Kellogg, has followed in the footsteps of her talented aunt and adopted the stage as a profession, and is now appearing in "The Gingerbread Man" in the part of Jack Horner. Miss Kellogg is a native of Hartford, and has long been one of the recognized soprano soloists of that city. Longing for the stage seized her in her childhood, however, and could not be shaken off, and she presently hid herself to New York. Unlike most novices, she began to play parts immediately, appearing first in "The Girl From Kay's," and later as Cerise in "Mlle. Modiste," in which company she also understudied the star, Fritz Scheff. Upon the occasion of Miss Scheff's illness, Miss Kellogg appeared in the leading role with success. Miss Kellogg and a large company will be seen at the Grand to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

Bennett's New Bill.

This week's bill at Bennett's Theatre is one of the best of the season and the performances should pack this popular playhouse for the run of the bill. The programme has enough variety to please the most exacting lover of vaudeville, and includes some good acting as well as a wealth of fun making. Edwin Forsberg, a very capable actor, with good support, made a hit in a playlet "The Card Party." The piece, which was handsomely staged, has an agreeable mixture of tragedy and comedy, far above the average in merit. It tells in a most realistic way, the story of an after-dinner dream, and the making of the dreamer, the interest centering in a card game in which the dream stakes are a large bank roll, a man's honor, and a beautiful woman. Grant Gardner and Marie Stoddard are an exceedingly frivolous pair on the stage and because of their extreme frivolity, they get a continuous laugh during their musical turn. Gardner is very much at home as a drawing room comedian and Marie Stoddard's "Sis Hopkins" stunts is very much to the good. "The Coal Strike" is the title of a funny skit that gives Mark and Mrs. Murphy many opportunities for putting up a fair brand of Irish humor and they take advantage of all their opportunities. Frank McNish, one of the old school of burrunt cork artists, assisted by Tom Peafold, gets off a lot of mirth provoking patter and a clever portrayal of the old time knockabout dancing.

Wills and Hassan, equilibrists, do some astonishing acrobatic feats, their head balancing turns approaching the marvelous. Fred and Mrs. Lucier have a funny sketch entitled "A Rustic Romeo" in the course of which Mr. Lucier does some capital trick violin playing. Lella Taylor who has a good voice, sang some pretty songs, which are illustrated by some of the finest stereopticon views ever shown in Hamilton, many novel effects being introduced by that well-known song illustrator, W. L. Wenden. Elsie Harvey and the Field boys, with songs and some new clog dances, and the Bennettograph with several comedy scenes and a lot of pictures of steeple chasing, complete the bill.

"The Right of Way."

In working out the scheme for the dramatization of Sir Gilbert Parker's "The Right of Way," which will be produced for the first time in the city at the Grand Opera House on Thursday and Friday, Mr. Eugene W. Presbrey, the dramatist, declares that he does not care for the beauty polish conventions of correctness, but that he deliberately tries to get the primal struggles of man with himself, "I don't want facts, I want symbols."

The two great scenes in the play are the interior of the Cote Dorion on the banks of the St. Lawrence and the burning of the Church of the Holy Cross at Chandevie.

The exceptionally powerful English company engaged includes many well-known Hamilton favorites. Amongst the most prominent are: Mr. Guy Standing, Mr. Theodore Roberts, Mr. Alexander Kearney, Mr. Henry Wenman, Miss May Buckley, Miss Alice Leman, Miss Mignon Beringer and Miss Paul. The sale of seats opened this morning, and there was a big demand.

ANNUAL SOCIAL.

Wentworth Baptist Church Celebrated Tenth Anniversary.

Wentworth Street Baptist Church held its tenth anniversary services in the church on Sunday and last evening. The edifice was tastefully decorated by the young people. Rev. H. H. Bingham, of Paris, preached at both services on Sunday. In the morning he took for his subject "The Glory of the Church." The church was glorious because of the foundation on which it rested, and because of the object for which it was founded. Other institutions might rise and fall, but the church was bound to triumph and unfold into the full kingdom of God.

In the evening Mr. Bingham held a crowded audience to hear his treatment of the theme, "Christ the Water of Life." He contrasted it with the waters of the temporal world, which, if a man drinks, he thirsts again, and then went on to show how the ever springing water of life satisfied the deepest longings of the human heart. He closed with an able and earnest appeal for all to partake of the waters of life.

Last evening the members held their annual social, tea being served by the ladies of the church. The pastor, Rev. A. L. Huddleston, who acted as Chairman, congratulated the ladies on the way they had provided for the tea, and the young people on the way they had decorated the church.

Among those taking part were: Miss White and Mr. and Mrs. Benner, a trio. Mr. Wilson, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, congratulated the ladies of the Social Committee, and spoke of the need of more energetic church workers.

After a solo by Mrs. Stevenson, Rev. Hugh McDermid, of Herkimer Street Baptist Church, a former pastor, but who resigned on account of illness, spoke on the way the church was progressing and its prospects, and wished it success.

Miss White and Mr. and Mrs. Benner sang a trio, and Mr. Moffat and Mr. Parsons spoke of the way the church had progressed and was progressing. Then came a solo by Mr. Main.

The last speaker of the evening was Mr. Hodde, the Superintendent of the Sunday school, and chairman of the Finance Committee.

The social was closed by singing, but not by "Onward, Christian Soldiers," as verse of Hamilton, Christian Soldiers.

INTERESTING TALK

Given By Mr. Ben Greet at the Collegiate Institute.

A very interesting and instructive address on "Shakespeare and the Theatre of His Time" was given in the Assembly room of the Collegiate Institute yesterday afternoon by Mr. Ben Greet, whose players held the boards at the Grand last night. There was a large audience present—about 1,000—composed largely of students and teachers. At the outset Mr. Greet explained how it was that there are so many versions of Shakespeare's plays. He said that the Globe Theatre, in which Shakespeare was interested, was burned down, and no doubt the plays were burned with it. In those days, however, it was customary for students to write down the declamations of actors and these being practically no "stage business," or scenery to shift, the actors would speak faster than "the reporters of 1609" could write down the notes. Consequently some of the author's words would be left out, and the reports would differ. But for these 300 years, however, what would secure Mr. Hodde, the Superintendent of the Sunday school, and chairman of the Finance Committee.

The social was closed by singing, but not by "Onward, Christian Soldiers," as verse of Hamilton, Christian Soldiers.

Very Dishonest.
(Halifax Chronicle)

It now stands clearly proved that by dual and sometimes triple repetition of certain items Mr. Hazen, either ignorantly or maliciously added $2,152,945.00 to the estimate of the provincial liabilities. One item of $66,822.25 was repeated three times; one of $280,000 twice; another of $83,000 twice; another of $107,500 twice and another item of $21,000 was added without warrant or excuse. Considering that the true figures were easily obtainable from the blue-books and that each item had been fully explained in answer to opposition inquiries in the legislature, Dr. Pugsley's belief that the falsification was deliberate and willful on Mr. Hazen's part is certainly well founded.

The petition to submit a local option by-law in the township of York has not yet received sufficient signatures.

CITY WILL SET GOOD EXAMPLE.

BY PLACING SMOKE CONSUMER ON CITY HALL FURNACE.

Inspector Must Report First as to Condition of Boilers—Contracts Let for Printing and Iron Work.

The Markets Committee last night decided to begin in earnest the campaign for an abatement of the smoke nuisance and as a good example to others a smoke consumer will be placed on the City Hall chimney.

It was thought well first to have the boiler inspected to see if the boilers would stand the pressure of fifty pounds of steam necessary to operate the device.

There has been some squabbling around the Central Market Hall since the cold weather arrived over the ways the doors at the centre of the hall are left open.

The tender of R. G. Olmsted to put iron stairs in the jail at a cost of $100 and iron railing at a cost of $133 was accepted.

The Times tender of $180 for printing 250,000 coal tickets was accepted.

There was a little argument at the beginning of the meeting as to whether the minutes should be read.

"Are you sure they are correct?" he asked when the other aldermen insisted that they be taken as read.

"I don't know, and I don't care," said Ald. Dickson.

Ald. Lees voted against it.

MEN REQUIRE NERVE AND BLOOD TONIC.

How Are Your Nerves?

The daily grind of life burns up a man's vitality faster than he renews it.

He gets shaky, starts at trifles, tosses in his sleep, is ready to fly off the handle any minute.

The nervous man is nervous because his blood is so thin his nerves are starved to death.

He needs Ferrozone! Its first action is upon digestion.

It stimulates secretion of gastric juice, ensures perfect digestion, prepares the food so it can be at once assimilated.

Hence the blood is nourished, is fortified, made redder, richer, stronger.

To the whole organism is imparted a vim, endurance and reserve of vigor that the nervous man never knew before.

The restorative power of Ferrozone is marvelous. In a month it will make you feel like new, just as it did Mr. Karl E. Newsome, of Rothesay, who writes: "I owe a debt of gratitude to Ferrozone, which saved my life after a severe siege of nervous prostration."

About a year ago my health gave out. I was in such a weak, irritable condition I couldn't work, and found that three doctors did nothing for me.

My druggist recommended Ferrozone as the best preparation for nervous troubles, so I commenced with one tablet at meals.

Every box of Ferrozone I took did me more good than the previous one, and it wasn't very long before I was strong enough to move around again.

In three months I was completely cured. Ferrozone braced up my nerves, gave me a strong, healthy constitution, and is certainly a marvelous restorative and tonic.

HIT WITH HAMMER,

DESPERATE CONVICTS ATTEMPT JAIL DELIVERY.

Friends of Notorious Billy Miner Almost Murder Chief Inspector at New Westminster—Prisoners Overpowered and Placed in Solitary Confinement.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 21.—A desperate attempt at a jail delivery was made at the penitentiary in New Westminster late on Saturday afternoon. The ring-leaders were George Stone and T. Walker, former close companions of the notorious Billy Miner. Chief Inspector Ingham narrowly escaped being murdered, and will have to remain in bed many days on account of his injuries.

The two convicts, followed by others, then made a break for the fence. A moment later Assistant Warden Stewart appeared and held them up with his drawn revolver. The desperate men were cowed, especially when another convict named Campbell came to the assistance of the officers. Stone and Walker were overpowered and have been placed in solitary confinement.

SUMMER RESORT FOR GALT.

Land Purchased on South Bank of the Speed.

Galt, Oct. 21.—It is learned from an authentic source that several New York men of wealth have purchased a large portion of land on the south bank of the River Speed, near the junction of the Grand, for the purpose of erecting summer homes.

A well-known lady of this district, who resides in New York during the winter months, is interested in the purchase and has had engineers engaged in the survey, laying out the property. The land that has been purchased is one of the beauty spots of Ontario. The scenery of Muskoka is by no means more attractive. The location is ideal, situated, as has been stated, on the very banks of the Grand and the Speed, with the famous County Club, and all modern conveniences located in the immediate vicinity.

MUST NOT CHEW GUM NOW.

Ottawa Minister Assails Vicious, Villainous, Ruminous, Degrading Habit.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The chewing gum habit was handled without gloves last night by Rev. G. I. Campbell in a stirring sermon in Bell Street Methodist Church. The habit was declared by the preacher to be almost as great an evil as the tobacco habit. In some respects it was worse, for while the tobacco user could indulge his appetite only in certain places it is by no means more attractive. The location is ideal, situated, as has been stated, on the very banks of the Grand and the Speed, with the famous County Club, and all modern conveniences located in the immediate vicinity.

On Thursday night he blew out the gas in an hotel, and in the morning life was extinct. His remains were sent here and taken to Brewer's Mills for burial.

Pale, Anaemic, Sickly Girls

Anemia is most common among young women and is marked by pallor, weakness, indigestion, irritability, spells of dizziness and fainting, heart palpitation, severe headaches, and feelings of extreme lassitude.

The blood is lacking in the elements which go to form energy, vigor and strength, and demands such assistance as is best supplied by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great food cure sharpens the appetite, invigorates the nerves, which control the digestive fluids, strengthens the heart's action and naturally and gradually restores the sufferer from weak blood to health, strength and vigor.

The headaches and eyesaches of pale, nervous school girls, of office girls and of factory employees are largely the result of thin, watery blood and will disappear when the blood is enriched and the system built up by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Put this great restorative to the test by getting your increase in weight while using it. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

RUSSELL UNDER THE BAN.

Montreal Player is Set Down by Interprovincial League.

Toronto and London Newspaper Opinions of the Tigers and the Tiger Seconds—Many Entries for the Montreal Road Race on Thanksgiving Day.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Secretary Dr. W. B. Hendry, of the Interprovincial Rugby Union, has written the Montreal Club to the effect that Ernie Russell, over whom the trouble with the C. A. A. U. arose, had better not figure in any more games. The stand taken arises from the recent election of Russell to the captaincy of the Wanderers hockey team in the face of his affidavit to the effect that he would not again take part in games with and against professionals.

The Argonauts feel that they are not being fairly dealt with by the Montreal Club in this matter, and do not care to jeopardize their standing in the amateur world any farther. The matter will come to a climax when Montreal meets Argonauts here on Thanksgiving Day. Prominent members of the Argos say that Montreal insists on playing Russell there will be no game. However, it is up to the union, and their letter-to-day sets forth what stand they will take.

TO INVESTIGATE WESTMOUNTS.
Montreal, Oct. 22.—It is stated that the Kingston football team, before leaving Montreal on Saturday, intimated that they intended to make a little investigation into the standing of the Westmount team. This decision, it seems, was reached because some one told them that Snowdon had played against Ernie Hamilton at basketball, and at the time when Hamilton, through his connection with the Montreal lacrosse team, was, according to the C. A. A. U. definition, professional, because of the C. A. A. U. rules: a man who plays with or against professionals is ineligible.

ONE OPINION FROM TORONTO.
This is what the Toronto Telegram has to say about Saturday's game here between the Argos and the Tigers:
In history there is but one event that may be likened to Argonauts' retreat from Hamilton, Ont., on Saturday, the 19th, and that is possibly when Napoleon II. did a Marathon from the ancient city of Moscow, minus the incidental music that goes with the two-step. With flare of trumpets and in a C. P. R. chariot went the Argos with the avowed intention of beating the Tigers. Indeed, there were some poor, deluded, sanguine souls who looked for a bull market and bet their money accordingly. More's the pity, for never had an aggregation less chance of winning than the bargain counter remnants that played under the colors of the Argonaut Rowing Club.

The foregoing may seem unkind, though to anyone who witnessed the struggle last Saturday, if struggle it may be called, it would not seem unreasonable. Argos, so said the wisecracks, would break through the Tiger halves had a chance to handle the ball, though watching the first five minutes of the game would quickly disillusion the ordinary observer. Against Montreal, for their work out with Argos they simply romped and acted kittenish like the much touted Argonaut wings, alas, were fiascoed.

Tigers, of course, played a good game, but bless your heart in their opponents they had the most luscious kind of meal. They pounced upon the visiting brethren like a royal Bengal with a new lamb, and showed about as much pity. In football you know Argos were never any great shucks when it came to head-work, excepting possibly the year when Fred Thompson handled the men and then played Ottawa College the second game against his advice. On Saturday there were three men on the bench, conditioned men who might have filled a long-felt gap, but no, this trio of Wright, Thompson and Taylor were absolutely overlooked.

How were the Argos beaten so badly, you ask, with evident astonishment. Well, that is a very simple question. They were beaten in every department. For Tigers out-punted and out-tackled them. Pete Flett, for instance, who is capable of playing an excellent game, threw away two beautiful chances during the third quarter.

Pete's dive near at the present juncture is a little more work on the field. Argos' tackling was abominable; in fact, only once during the game did Maguire, for instance, get Simpson.
Of the Tigers, they all played well, though they will not have the same easy picking they had Saturday. He is sure of that. Their back division was superb, especially the playing of Gordon Southam. Once during the first of the game he fumbled the ball and Argos set, whereupon some in the grand stand set up a cry like a flock of geese at work. Southam, who has just returned from Europe, had decided to give up football, but with three days' notice agreed to help out the Tigers. Outside this one fumble he played a beautiful game, his

SHRUBB ANSWERS LONGBOAT.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—It would seem now that the open question as to which, Shrub or Longboat, is really entitled to wear the laurels of champion long-distance runner is within measurable distance of being definitely settled. Yesterday Shrub received a challenge from his Indian rival to run from Oakville to Toronto, a distance of 22 miles, just to decide all comparisons. Longboat to start one hour after Shrub, and lapse of time to be reckoned at finish. When seen this evening by a correspondent, Shrub said he had not yet had time to consider it fully, but it appeared like a tricky defy. He, however, wired as follows: "Will accept on condition that Longboat shall start level with me. My last and only proposition is that we shall run a series of four matches of five, ten, fifteen and twenty miles respectively, on a measured track, and then a final race of 25 miles distance on the road. The entire gate receipts of the first five-mile race to be given to the Sick Children's Hospital Toronto."

Not Money Enough Subscribed to Build 90 Footer.

Stockholm, Oct. 22.—The Secretary of the Swedish Legation at Washington, A. Ekengren, cabled to the Royal Swedish Yacht Club yesterday to the effect that the New York Yacht Club "certainly would not accept a challenge for the America's Cup with a 70-footer."
Contrary to expectations, not enough money has yet been subscribed to provide for building a ninety-footer, so the Board of Directors of the Swedish Yacht Club, after a three-hours' session, yesterday deferred the question of a challenge for the America's Cup to an extraordinary meeting of all the members of the club, which has been called for Oct. 30. In the meanwhile, the proposition list, which is headed by the Crown Prince, Gustavus Adolphus, is being circulated.

WON AIR RACE.

Mr. Kapferer Leads Race of French Aero Club.

Paris, Oct. 22.—M. Kapferer, pilot of the air ship Ville de Paris, has won the regular autumn competition of the Aero Club of France. Four balloons sailed away from St. Cloud on Sunday in this competition. Before starting each pilot handed to the secretary of the club a sealed envelope in which was the name of the place where he proposed to land, the winner to be the man who came down nearest to his objective point.
M. Kapferer landed within four miles of the place he indicated.

RIDING CLUB'S RUN.

The Hamilton Riding and Cross Country Club had a most successful run on Saturday afternoon. The members met at the head of James street and followed the master for about twelve miles through beautiful meadow land, where the best of fencing was found. The following were in the saddle: Mr. George Hope (master, on Wiley Buckles; Miss Van Wagner, on Jocelyn; Miss Phyllis Hendrie, on Babe; Miss Elsie Doolittle, on Duke; Miss Ruth Quarry, on Romeo; Miss Colman, on Ben; Gordon J. Henderson, on Thomson; Stanley Robinson, on Big Bear; Geo. J. Robertson, on Harvey; Norman Boyd, on Doodles; Jas. Thompson, on Virtuous; Geo. Shambrook, on Judy; A. Lyall Scott, on The Kid; Harlow Lewis, on Dilans; James Moolie, on Sir Robert; Jas. L. Kilgour, on Land's End; G. F. Crawford, on Kingsmill; Stewart McPhie, on Mac; Anthony J. W. BALLOONS ARE COMING THIS WAY.

Great Britain, France, Germany and U. S. in Race.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—Drifting along in a direction just west of north, when lost to view in the dusk, and with a freshening southeast breeze behind them, nine big balloons competing for the honors attaching to the second international aeronautic cup race. A brilliant moon is shining, and throughout the middle west conditions seem excellent for a record-breaking flight.

A stiffer wind would have been more welcome to the occupants of the wicker cars, but the five-mile breeze in the lower air stratum this evening gave promise of splendid racing currents in the upper altitudes. The Germans start the race and English aeronauts were more conservative, and selected a middle course, while the Americans raced away at an altitude when seemed just to clear trees and mounds of earth.

On the wings, the locals had the Cubes whipped forty ways. On the back lines, however, there was another tale to tell. We've got to hand it to Nibbs Harrison and Potticarry. They both had something on Jackson in kicking, although the latter outshone anything on the field in the way of line-plunging. "Big Bear" Sage, too, was in the game every moment, as in fact were all the rest of the boys.
London appeared to have a trifle on the Cubes in weight, but the experience of the visitors was too much of a handicap to overcome, and the inevitable took place.

The local forward line was very good, and several times Hamilton lost the pigskin on downs.
It is a fact that the utility man on a baseball game is not able to think as rapidly in a game as the player who works regularly, and the same applies to football.
The locals have been practising faithfully each night, but have not had the advantage of having a team like the Senior Tigers to stack up against as have had the Cubes, and consequently the ability to think and act quickly which comes only of much experience in hard battles was a small army of players out last night, who indulged in light practice, consisting of running, passing and kicking. The three teams were all represented, and they all got down to work early. This will be a strenuous week for them, and on the result of their games on Saturday depends a lot of the success of the club at the close of the season. The game with Dundas here should be a dandy. Twenty-five cents will admit to the grounds and stand.

TWO GAMES HERE SATURDAY.
There will be plenty of football on Saturday in this city to supply interest for the fans, even though the senior team will be in Montreal. There will likely be two games at the Cricket Grounds for the one admission, Tigers III, and Waterdown are scheduled for a Junior O. R. F. U. championship game and Tigers II, and Dundas are scheduled for an Intermediate Inter-Provincial game. There will also be a telegraph key at the field, and a megaphone man will give the scores and plays in the Montreal game, so that the spectators will really have three games for the one admission. It is likely there will be a large number of supporters go with the team to Montreal, and the club is trying to arrange a special rate. If a party of a hundred can be secured they will get a very cheap rate, and any one who thinks of going might let Dr. Thompson know at once.

WINTER QUARTERS

Secured for the Members of Hamilton Rowing Club.

A general meeting of the Hamilton Rowing Club was held in the Board of Trade rooms to discuss the question of obtaining winter quarters for the club. A proposition was submitted whereby the members might use the gymnasium of Chas. Powis' school, and it was accepted. A committee was appointed to secure a sufficient number of the club members to agree to subscribe the nominal fee required to enable the club to accept the proposition, and it is expected that the members interested will notify the secretary not later than Wednesday afternoon of their approval and personal co-operation.
In view of the fact that the Rowing Club expects to put at least three crews in the Henley regatta next year, it is absolutely imperative that the men get to work at once, in order to get in proper shape, and the facilities offered by the club rooms referred to, in the shape of rowing machines, boxing, fencing, and wrestling, together with efficient instructions in all these sports, if taken advantage of, will alone make the winning of these events at Henley possible. It is also essential that the members of the Rowing Club get together occasionally to talk over the affairs of the club and having winter quarters should establish an esprit-de-corps that is necessary to the success of the club.

A LYNX HUNT NEAR PARIS.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Yesterday a large lynx was seen down at the plaster mines of the Alabastrine Company, about one mile from Paris, and this morning Roy Martin went down to see if he could get a shot at same. He was fortunate at noon, seeing the lynx, and chased it up a tree, when it was an easy shot. Had the lynx not been killed outright, "Tip" might have had to put up a harder fight, as they are of a treacherous nature and will attack a person quite readily. The animal weighed 36 pounds, and measured from nose to tail 3 feet 1 inch and 18 inches around the chest.
ALLEGED ROBBERS.
Ten Employees of West Shore Held for Grand Jury.
New York, Oct. 22.—Ten conductors and brakemen employed by the West Shore Railroad were held in $1,000 bail to-day to await the action of the grand jury at New Durham, N. J. They are charged with the theft of goods from freight cars in the yards at New-Hawken, N. J. Cars in these yards have been broken into frequently of late and quantities of lace, silks and furs have been stolen.
In order to apprehend the thieves, W. A. Humphrey, chief of the railroad's detectives, and a number of assistants disguised themselves as tramps and spent several nights in the yards, living part of the time in freight cars in true tramp style. As a result of their investigation the ten men were arrested and arraigned to-day.

BEVERLY WEDDING.

Marriage of John Quillman and Miss Mitchell.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Wm. Mitchell, on the tenth concession of Beverly township, county of Wentworth, when his daughter, Orpha Gertrude, was given in marriage to Mr. John Quillman, of Toronto Junction, in the presence of about 75 guests. At 3.30 p. m. the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. E. J. Haines, of Freelon. After hearty congratulations were extended to the newly wedded couple, and a brief time spent in social conversation, the guests were invited to partake of a feast of good things generously provided by the genial host and hostess. A toast was proposed to the bride by the minister, and responded to by the groom. The remaining part of the evening was spent in carrying out an informal programme of impromptu addresses, solos and instrumental selections by guests and friends of bride and groom.

The many beautiful and costly gifts to the bride showed the respect in which she is held by her many friends and neighbors. The honeymoon days are being spent in visiting friends in Hamilton and Pennsylvania.
BROKE HER NECK.
Boy Breaks Into House to Find Mother Dead.
Eric, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Viola Waltz, wife of John A. Waltz, met a tragic death at her home, 21 East 23rd street, this afternoon. She stepped off the upper landing of the stairs and fell headlong to the floor below. The woman's 14-year-old son came home and was surprised to find the house locked up. He finally gained entrance by a rear window and made the awful discovery. His mother lay at the foot of the stairs apparently dead. He called his father, who is a blacksmith employed nearby, and Dr. Kern was summoned, but when the physician arrived the woman was dead. It is believed that she had a fainting spell and fell, breaking her neck, causing her death.

DEAD FOR HOURS.

Buffalo, Oct. 22.—Aquiline Baier, 54 years old, who has been an inmate of the Erie County Almshouse since December 16, 1906, cut his throat yesterday afternoon. He was found dead under an elm tree in the rear of the institution, 400 feet away, by Superintendent Heilbronn, shortly before dusk last evening.

Baier had been in good spirits all day. It was said by the hospital officials, in fact he had not been melancholy since the day that he was sent to the institution by the city poor department.
He arose yesterday morning at the usual time and ate a hearty breakfast with the other inmates. Then he started out for a walk. That was the last seen of him alive.
Baier, it is said, had relatives in this city.

FRANCIS JOSEPH

Passed Poor Night and Losing Strength.

Vienna, Oct. 22.—Emperor Francis Joseph did not pass a good night as usual, owing to frequent attacks of coughing. He rose before 4 o'clock, and when he was examined by his doctors they found that the catarrhal symptoms were unchanged, that there had not been sufficient expectation and that his strength was less satisfactory than yesterday, but he was not suffering from fever. In brief, his malady is pursuing an irregular, fluctuating course.

Not great Vesuvius, in all his ire,
Nor all the centuries, could hide your shame;
There is the little window, where you came.
With eyes that woke the demon of desire,
And lips like rose leaves, fashioned out of fire;
And from the lava leaps the molten flame
Of your old sins. The walls cry out
Your name.
Your face seems rising from the funeral pyre.

There must have dwelt, within your fated town,
Full many a virtuous dame and noble wife,
Before whose bloom yours was a star to sun;
How strange the centuries have handed down
Your name, fair Julia, of immortal life,
And left the others to oblivion.

OAKVILLE HAS DONE ITS DUTY

Made Ample Provision for Handling Smallpox Outbreak.

Committee to Consider the Firemen's Benefit Fund Scheme.

Technical Students Will Visit the Disposal Plants.

Dr. R. W. Bell, Inspector of the Provincial Board of Health, who was sent to Oakville to make inquiries in regard to the smallpox outbreak there, told Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, over the long distance phone at noon that he had never seen more ample measures taken for the suppression of the disease than the Oakville authorities had taken.

At the meeting of the Fire and Water Committee to-morrow night Chief TenEyck will lay a scheme before the aldermen which may result in establishing a benefit fund for the firemen. A company proposes giving an entertainment, under the auspices of the department, turning over part of the proceeds. The chief thinks if the scheme meets with approval the money derived might form the nucleus of a fund. Other business for the committee includes: Water supply to township.

Application of W. F. Cote for water supply on Maple avenue in Township. City Engineer re sand dredge. Solicitor and Engineer re electrolysis report. Reports re electrical expert. Dundas re water supply. Tenders for repairs to dredge. Water rates on Mountain View Hotel.

Albert Bongard re loss at fire on city dredge.

An official of the School of Practical Science, Toronto, called up City Engineer Barrow this morning and asked him if he could arrange to show the students who will visit here to-morrow, the old and new disposal works. A visit to these places will be included in the programme.

Chief Ten Eyck wants the old hook and ladder truck painted and overhauled. He says it is in bad shape at present. Chief TenEyck will recommend the Fire and Water Committee to appoint W. McDougall to the fire department.

GOOD DOG STORY.

Imported Animal Will Guard the City Engineer's House.

City Engineer Barrow is something of a dog fancier, or at least he used to be. He has a daughter who is also fond of dogs, and in view of the robberies on the mountain she decided she wanted a St. Bernard dog to guard their home on the hill. After consulting a kennel paper she got into correspondence with a Philadelphia dealer, and sent him $25 for a male of that famous breed. An animal arrived in due course, with $17 express charges. It was a great Dane, a female, and was big and ferocious enough for Al. Martin, No. 1, Uncle Tom's Cabin Co.

She was amply and getting no satisfaction from the dealer she placed the case in the hands of Mr. J. G. Farmer. The dealer then agreed to take the animal back. In the meantime a veterinary surgeon had declared the animal to be the best great Dane he had ever seen, and she also received a handsome offer for it. Then she decided not to part with it, and wrote to the vendor, telling him to furnish the pedigree and she would retain it. Yesterday the pedigree arrived and lo! and behold, it was the pedigree of a male Dane.

Mr. Barrow now thinks the ways of dog men are as dark as well, some of the aldermen.

HOUSE BREAKERS.

H. M. Marsh's Place Entered and Valuables Stolen.

The gang of housebreakers the police imagined had been sent away from the city have broken out again. Last night, in the absence of the family, they stole to the residence of H. M. Marsh, Cannon street and West avenue, and ransacked it, obtaining two rings and some silverware. A lot of silverware was lying around loose as if they had been interrupted and had been unable to take all the swag. The police are investigating. The same gang, the police report, paid a visit to H. B. Greening's residence in the afternoon and stole a lot of stuff, including watches and necklaces and $10 in cash.
