J. E. COLLINGS, Editor.
 FREDERICTON JUNE 3 1880.

The readers of this journal are hereby informed, that Fredericton is the Capital of New Brunswick, and that York Point, and Marsh Bridge, and Reed's Castle, and MacEvoy's, and the old Bell Tower, and Partridge Island, all remain just as they were!

THE FORTUNES OF CANADA
—AND ITS N. P.

PROVINCIAL politics with one or two unhappy exceptions, have come to lose the vital element of Principle. The tendency for many years past has been to Union—Union first of the Provinces themselves, then of the political principles of each Province. We have here the first danger threatening Res- no such thing as party-men—and men without party feeling, are men without principles. It is not enough a man should say,—whether he sits at the Council, or only at the desk,—that he supports this Government or opposes that,—but there should be some principle in his "politics," to him an Article of political Faith, and to which he owed a higher and more sacred allegiance than to any Government. In New Brunswick, we have not yet regret to say it, such an element in our politics as "party." The last principle in our New Brunswick politics was, The right or the wrong of minorities in certain matters, not essential—(it was contended)—to the well being of the state, to control their own matters. It was decided in the adoption of the Free School Law, that minorities had no such right: and that principle found form as a law of the land. Then the Bible was every man's guide and it told "Whoso resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God,"—opposition ceased, the old lines faded away, and one party merged into the other. There is no party now, for that distinction has been lost through a process as in chemistry: where you mix sand, and lime and soda in a vessel—three substances unlike in every way—and the result is a fourth, glass; a substance as unlike any of its component parts as any can be. Who can see the characteristics of a Young, reflected in an Adams, or the "ways" of a Kelly mirrored in a Landry?

THE NATIONAL POLICY.

It is less than two years ago since two great parties appeared upon the scenes, as unlike in this age of ours when parties have a tendency to blend, as parties could well be. The one claimed the salvation of the country depended upon the fostering of its native industries,—that these industries could not be conserved to the people without political protection. The other side contended that trade should be free as the wind that blows, and that every man should have the right to buy where he thought best. The latter party styled themselves Liberals, the former aptly called themselves Conservative. The people had tried the Liberals so called for five years and they were not pleased with them. They talked of reforms, but they never made any reforms. Things went on from bad to worse, because times pressed hard on every hand, but in these same dark days the phlegmatic unimpassioned men of the Mackenzie-Brown school looked on, unmoved considering it impious to try by legislation to stop the current of depression. The manufacturers sat down on the steps of their idle factories with broken hearts, and looked out and saw the American Drummer sell his wares under their very windows. Still Mr. Brown said and Mr. Mackenzie echoed it, "This can't be helped—bide in patience, better times will come."

But the other party said, The time has come when we must stand together and protect ourselves. The material and the ability to make for ourselves, exist in this Dominion, and we must have such a policy as will protect from outside aggression, what we can make to advantage at home. This party were the champions of the National Policy. They expounded that policy before the country, and with an overwhelming majority, put the other side to rout.

THE EFFECTS OF THIS POLICY.

As was quite natural the hired exponents of Free Trade cried down the new policy, and every evil that has since fallen upon individuals or communities they have traced up to the N. P. as they call it. Every man who has left the country for the past two years, they declare was driven away by the N. P.; and one of them, not knowing the circumstances, attributed to the N. P. the departure of a notorious rogue who cleared out to Leadville with his pockets full of his neighbor's money. They have told us the unfortunate state of trade over the Dominion, is due to the N. P., though they know very well that the last year Mr Mackenzie held power, a deficit of $2,000,000 stared us in the face. They made war against the National Policy, because in one year it could not turn the downward course of trade, forgetting that for the five years their party held power there was no progress, but towards the end a sad falling away.

It is only a madman or a knave that will say a public policy in one year can make a general improvement; Sir Leonard Tilley, nor Sir John ever contended there would be any appreciable improvement till the heaven of the Policy had time work. The farmer does not plant his corn to-day, and shell it to-morrow,—it requires its season to propagate. But a year and a little better has gone round now, and the change predicted has come. This Custom House in the Dominion, and examine its receipts for May, and compare them with the receipts of last year. Do they tell a story of a decreasing trade, or a deteriorating population? We shall see. Here is a return for the month just passed, and note what this dreadful N. P., has been doing:

Halifax,	$ 54,034	$ 92,104
St. John,	40,224	81,993
Montreal,	275,127	536,877
Kingston,	20,129	10,400
Quebec,	3,300	5,334
Toronto,	119,064	134,539
Belleville,	4,236	6,931
London,	20,190	25,235

Or an increase for the above ports for the month ended, this year, over the corresponding month of last year, of $382,518. The lesser ports which all tell the same story, are not included it will be seen. Upon these figures the Opposition press is dumb.

THE GRAND SOUTHERN.

The Province will be pleased to learn that the Government have considered its honor and its good faith, rather than the stupid veto of the Legislative Council. The Attorney General has given his opinion to the Government that under the terms of the Law the Company's charter is not void, the Council has approved of that decision, and the Lieut. Governor has ratified it. Mr. Greene will receive at once $80,000 subsidy on Mr. Buck's estimate, and the guarantee of the Government for the conclusion of the work which he will give the company in round numbers about $200,000 more. It will be seen how much of public sentiment those blatant St. John organs who leased themselves for the time being to Mr. Murray Kay to cry down the road represents: it will be seen how much attention intelligent men, and wholesome public opinion pay to the deliberations of women like the Jones and the Robinsons. Finally it will be seen that when an important question comes up before the Council to decide upon, if their decision is not in accord with the popular sentiment it is not worth a brass button and will be neither feared by those against whom it is given, nor respected by the men who govern this country.

It is not above the Grand Southern now that the dread Ichabod waves, but above the St. John & Maine Railway. The glory of the Murray Kay regime in the railroad history of this country has passed away forever: for the day is coming when the grass will grow along that track which he ruled like an empty-headed autocrat. He has squandered money so lavishly in his silly schemes, that those who had the misfortune of sending him to take charge of a business in which he has made a laughing-stock of himself, must either be great simpletons as himself or possessing the wealth of Croesus. All railroad men who can do so without injury to themselves will join in league against this now doomed railroad: the traffic that passed to St. John over the Western Extension will go by the Grand Southern. It serves but right the company who so fatally trusted in Mr. Murray Kay.

"A PUBLIC POSITION THAT SHOULD BE FILLED."

UNDER the above heading the Quebec Telegraph has the following:—

In common with many other of our fellow citizens, we are at a loss to understand why the Ottawa Government hesitates to fill up the vacant appraisership connected with the Quebec Customs, which was successively held by the late Messrs. Macpherson and H. Plamondon. It cannot be that the office is considered useless or superfluous. At least, such is manifestly not the opinion of our importers, who are not at all pleased at the delays and inconvenience they have now to undergo. We have more than once pointed out the forcible claims of Mr. Giblin to this vacant office, and trust now that certain other claimants have been satisfied, that the Government, in the interest of the Quebec trade, will not delay a moment longer in appointing to it a gentleman who has the sympathy, as well as the support of all classes of our citizens. Of Mr. Giblin's exceptional fitness for the position, there never has been and there never can be the slightest question. His experience in the connection is large—indeed, we doubt very much whether the ancient capital includes another citizen better qualified to give the public every satisfaction in it, and we are convinced that his selection for the office would be not only a most judicious one on the part of the Government, but would be extremely popular in the community. Our friends at Ottawa would do well, too, to remember that, in all fairness, the office rightly belongs to the English speaking element and that the late Mr. Plamondon was only named to it by the Liberal party upon the demise of the original occupant, M. Macpherson, because his application was signed and supported by all our leading English speaking merchants. Of Mr. Giblin's claims upon the party actually in power in Canada, it seems altogether needless to speak, but we will say that as ingratitude to their old, long-tried and valuable friends has seldom or never in the past been a characteristic of the grand old Conservative party, the present leaders of that party will not begin this late in the day to make, in its

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A correspondent who does not do us the honor of sending us his name, sends us in instead a short communication attacking Sir Leonard Tilley. Had this correspondent who writes an "aristocratic" hand, who spells well, and tries to sting to me account been reading the Star? If he had we should have thought that it must have occurred to him, that even the name which he holds back would not have insured the publication of his letter.

Perhaps a word further to that large body in every community, correspondents in general, would not be amiss. We have made it a rule not to accept anonymous correspondence. We shall not be induced anymore to break that rule. But we shall now tell our anonymous correspondents what we will do, and let them understand too that we are in earnest: Every communication from this day forth which reaches this office without the name of the writer accompanying it, unless the familiarity of the writing to the editor make the name unnecessary, we shall paste upon the wall, that all who come in may see it. If we are not worthy the confidence of those writers, conversely they are not worthy of ours. It is a mean person and we do not care who he or she may be, whether high or low, whether parson or private, who will write against another, and have not the courage to own the authorship to one whose honor binds him to keep it a secret. Let this be sufficient.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

This is the name of a meeting convened for the purpose of nominating a President for the present campaign. The convention is a Republican one. The following candidates have been put up:—Grant, Blaine, Sherman, Edmunds, Washburne, Windom, Garfield, Harrison.

The 28th ballot stood as follows: Grant.....307
 Blaine.....278
 Sherman.....92
 Edmunds.....31
 Washburne.....35
 Windom.....10
 Garfield.....2

As will be seen by our despatch in another column, Garfield, the lowest on the count, has received the nomination. He will probably be the salvation of the Republicans.

THE telegrams state that a delegation from the Central of the German Reichstag, waited on the Pope, pressing him to break negotiations with Bismarck. It is stated the Pope received them unfavorably.

THE condition of his Honor the Governor, was yesterday considered quite serious, but to-day, the Doctors say, he is out of danger. His illness is congestion of the lungs.

We publish in another column a letter which states some appalling facts. On this subject a word another day.

NOTICE TO MACHINIST-CONTRACTORS

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned (Secretary of Railways and Canals) and endorsed "Tender for Lock Gates, Welland Canal," will be received at this office until the arrival of the Eastern and Western Mails on THURSDAY, the 5th day of JUNE next, for the construction of Gates, and the necessary machinery connected with them, for the new locks on the Welland Canal.

Plans, Specifications and General Conditions can be seen at this office on and after THURSDAY, the 20th day of MAY, next, where forms of tender can also be obtained.

Parties tendering are expected to provide the special tools necessary for, and to have a practical knowledge of works of this class, and are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and—in case of firms—except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the same; and further, an accepted bank cheque for a sum equal to $250, for the gates of each lock, must accompany each tender, which sum shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted. For the due fulfilment of the contract the party or parties whose tender it is proposed to accept will be notified that their tender is accepted subject to a deposit of five per cent. of the bulk sum of the contract—of which the sum sent in with the tender will be considered a part—to be deposited to the credit of the Receiver General within eight days after the date of the notice.

Ninety per cent. only of the progress estimates will be paid until the completion of the work.

This Department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

REV SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pain, quiet sleep and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething stage, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Brown's Household Panacea. Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood, whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly RELIEVE PAIN, whether chronic or acute, rheumatic, neuralgic, or any other kind of pain, and is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation. It cures pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, and ALL ACHES.

THE GREAT RELIEVER OF BRONCHITIS. "Brown's Household Panacea" should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will BREAK UP A COLD. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MUCH SICKNESS. Undoubtedly with children, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by Worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfit, or Worm Lozenges, although effective in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty-five cents a box.

DELICATE WOMEN, Pale-faced, Sickly Children, the Aged and Infirm, alike are benefited by the Strengthening and Blood Making Power of "Hanington's Quinine Wine and Iron." It stimulates the circulation, improves the Appetite, and removes all impurities from the Blood. It is the best medicine you can take to give you lasting Strength.

Local Matters.

Bear Killed. Mr. H. Turnbull, of Stanley, shot a fine Bear on the 4th, in the woods on Taxin. When he fired the bear was 100 yards from him, but he dropped dead. The animal was very large.

Purchase of Property. The St. Martin's Head property which embraces a large extent of land, has been sold to the Planet Manufacturing Company. The Proprietors intend driving the logs out on this property through the Grand South Shore, where they will raft and tow them across to St. John. A rather risky operation should think.

Gene Rome. Mr. Speaker Stevenson who has been in town the past few days probably went home today delighted at the success of the Grand South Shore. Mr. J. E. Lynott who has worked "like a Briton" on this road from the first, arrived here yesterday and is very jubilant that the road has come through with flying colors.

Miramichi Drives. This drive is at Hovey Islands, four miles below Boileston; the water is falling fast. Mr. T. Lynch who was here on Saturday, thinks if the drive passes these Islands, it can be brought into the boom without any rise of water. There are about 200,000 of logs in it; every thing has been driven clear from Hovey Islands and upon all the branches of the south West, with the exception of a million feet, which we mentioned were left in Salmon Brook.

Mussel Mud as a Fertilizer. As a number of our readers know at the mouth of the Magaguadavic, there is a vast bed of mussel mud, which has been discovered this mud, which is a bluish black, makes an excellent fertilizer, and is used in various parts along the river. This year every one who can get mussel mud, is getting it. It is a very good fertilizer, and is used in various parts along the river. This year every one who can get mussel mud, is getting it. It is a very good fertilizer, and is used in various parts along the river.

Law Examination. There is not the slightest indication just now that this Province is likely within the present generation to run out of lawyers. At the present term the students who present themselves for examination, to wit: Mr. Fravis, St. John, "Fruman, do, "Davis, do, Mr. A. A. Davidson, Newcastle, "Richard Adams, do. The examinations commenced to-day, and will be ended probably to-morrow. In this connection we cannot forbear saying a tribute to the industry of our law students, and the slightest doubt, have a set of new questions prepared for every term. It is hard going through the spirit of those legal tests and constructing such nice questions so frequently!

Interesting Bear Story from Oromocto. Mr. Charles Ward of Ward Settlement, Oromocto, kindly sends us the following: After breakfast Sunday, my brother, son, and a neighbor, went out to a back pasture to look at some colts. Standing looking over a fence at my colts. I saw walking leisurely along what I at first took to be a colt, but instantly discovered it was a very large bear, having been placed in the direction of the house came up to the bear about a quarter of a mile in a straight line from where the first shot was fired. As I approached him he rounded up to make battle, when I again fired, placing another ball through his body; starting on he followed me closely, overtook him, and as he turned again to do himself, I let him have the contents of a gun for the third time. He was nearly again at a slow pace, but soon lost his equilibrium and fell to the ground. With considerable difficulty we removed the bear to a wood road and hauled him home. Strange to say, the bullet in every instance passed entirely through his body, the skin showing six bullet holes. The body measured 5 feet 6 inches 6 feet 8 inches from the rump to the nose, the arm below the elbow measured 18 inches; weight not less than 500 lbs. before being skinned. He had a scar on his hip, indicating he had been shot at, and wounded. He also had a mark on his foot, most probably by the teeth of a steel trap. During my absence from home another bear showed itself quite near the house and would have been fired at by my daughter, a girl of 15, had not her mother prevented her taking out the gun a double barreled one loaded with balls.

An Outrageous State of Affairs.

DISGRACEFUL SCENES, PORTRAYED IN LIVING COLORS BY OUR CORRESPONDENT.

A Spectacle to Make Angels Weep, and "Moral Reformers" to Gird on their Armor.

DEA SIR:—I promised you when passing through your city on my tour up-river to send you occasionally some items of what I saw passing along. Since I have seen you, I have reached no farther than Central Kings. Being determined to take the world easy and to combine a little business with pleasure, I concluded to see my old acquaintances up here, whom I was glad to recognize and apply to as cordial recipients. I have not as yet been able to tear myself away. I knew however, that you and your respected readers are not overfond of poetry, inserted in country correspondence, and will therefore not burden you and them with the task of following me in my rambles about affairs that bear perhaps no interest to anyone but my glorious self. I will, as a consequence, therefore say something of a general nature.

THE CANADA TEMPERANCE ACT. Knowing this country of yours to be under the moral protection of the prohibitory law as far as the traffic in liquor is concerned, I have been entirely scandalized by the shameful manner, in which this law, the outcome of 300 years of the cultivation of the noblest and most liberal of consciences, is openly violated up here. It seems, that this spot, so charmingly situated on the banks of the majestic St. John, is to be turned into a receptacle for all the filth and scum of your city the Capital. Oh nature, how are you outraged!—think of beauty in all its splendid primitiveness confounded with all, that is vile and degraded! It seems, that this village is to become the seat of the extravagance of a fanatical Capital. The zeal and fervor with which the denkeepers of Fredericton are prosecuted, a zeal and fervor by the way, which would do no harm if also applied in other directions, drives the latter out to the country to carry on the rum-traffic, which the watchful eyes of the guardians of the law in your city prevent them from pursuing there. In one word, if the low and disgraceful rable, that formerly were allowed to keep low and disgraceful catch-penny shops, trading in fighting stiffs, are denied at present the pursuit of their trade, they remedy their loss by moving occasionally out to the country where they carry on unnoted their hideous revels. Of late it has become a frequent occurrence, that certain low and notorious characters of your city come up here with a load of proscribed rum and sell it openly on the highroad, creating among the respectable citizens of this place a howl equal only by pandemonium. About the Eleven Mile House seems to be the place where they exhibit their charms. They seem to go quiet coolly and unconcernedly about their business, and open up shop, if refused the use of the Post Office, in some barn handy to the road. A lot of your townsmen commonly came up with this degraded rable, and have been told that among them are some, who have great pretensions to appear straight total abstinents. In fact some of them, as the people have it, in good old McKenzie's times sported the blue ribbon en masse; the same individuals would perhaps feel ashamed, if their hypocrisy were to be revealed by inserting their names in your paper.

HOW THE MAGISTRATES FIGURE IN IT. But the worst of all comes yet; all this outrageous business is transacted under the very eyes of magistrates and other law officers, with whom this country, thanks to a kindly decreeing Providence is literally swarming. One of the magistrates, who I was told, presided at every McKenzie meeting held out here and who has been a member of the blue ribbon since its unmeasurable dimensions, which he took great delight in showing when travelling about, is fully cognizant of these outrages on law and morality; yet, untrue to his sworn principles, he remains all of it with a laissez faire, which is simply disgusting. This individual I saw the other day with my own eyes passing along the road, where the liquor traffic was booming, and where there was a genuine hum of vitriol and water in its second stage of formation, that of fighting, kicking and blaspheming among our townies and seduced natives; yet he did not feel it his duty to stop one of Her Majesty's law-preservers and as a very-much blue ribboned advocate of moral suasion by prohibition, to interfere and make an example of the public transgressors.

IS THERE NO OTHER PROTECTION. In the name of justice Mr. Editor, it is because the people have only sham representatives of law and order here, that they will be left entirely without protection and must be openly insulted by the scum of your city, by a lot of vile hypocrites, who dare to walk your streets with protruding breasts, frowning down upon their honest fellowmen, yet who are not ashamed to practice their secret immorality and r-yvels, among a poor, peace-loving people, for whom their dirty character, turned inside out, they think quite good enough. Is the zeal of your reformer-men confined to the city? Can your great Apostle of moral suasion prohibition, the great preacher, who the other day, as I have seen in your paper, before a large and no doubt appreciative audience swore "by the Eternal God," that he would "fight the rum-traffic" to his last breath; could not he, I say, direct his energies a little farther from home to a peaceful country, which bears to him such dear grounds, as old Bill at the lower Hotel has it, he formerly was in the habit of making his hunting grounds? Can it be, that Kingsclear shall be shut out entirely from the great and lasting benefit of the Anti-run-Crusade? Surely not! What a field here for your great anti-rum-lawyer! One visit up here would pay him well, not only pecuniarily, for that would be with him the last consideration, but also morally in having the consciousness of having added one more effort to root out the immorality of the rum-traffic. It is certainly a shame to see the manner in which the good people up here are neglected and left to the mercies of town-prescribed tumblers.

Dear Sir! I must close for the present; if I stay here much longer, you will hear me again, perhaps upon this same subject. Do you think it advisable to hand you for insertion a list of the names of your townsmen, such great blue ribbon men when with you, but who follow the disgraceful tribe of shebeen-keepers, that infest these most respectable streets? They were unmasked it might do them some moral good. Ministers also are passing to and fro by the score up here. I think one of your clergymen from town a Catholic Priest, also pays an occasional visit to his people, but they seem unable to be unable to grapple with this law-breaking rable from town. Hoping that you will give this a space in your column, and beg your pardon what lies in your power to aid the good people up here, among whom by the way you have numerous and warm friends, to free themselves from the outrageous and unchristian traffic of the present subject. I am sure that a word from you to the proper authorities will have its desired effect.

With this in behalf of the good people of Central Kings, I am, Sir, your obedient servant, and remain yours respectfully, au revoir. FRANK.

Newcastle Items.

[From our own Correspondent.] The people of this town at one time believed they possessed some rights of the kind which they have since lost. Hiram exercise twin ownership. When will it be done?

Jack Fish was fearfully exercised over the items of my last letter. Well, Jack is one of that kind, when he is left alone. Senator Mulheads mill was burned down last night. The loss to Mr. Mulheads is quite heavy, and some 100 men will be thrown out of employment. All classes of our people join in their expressions of regret, and more especially all those who have not been in the enjoyment of good health for some time past. The mill was insured for $14,000. Value of property destroyed, about $35,000.

C. C. Watt's new vessel is gradually getting ready for cargo. Mr. Watt is now the owner of two fine sailing ships. Some strange fatality led him to christen them "Premier McKenzie" and "Richard Hutchinson." Two more unfortunate names could not have been selected. They cannot bring "good fortune."

It is said "Dennis" intends taking a hand with the Marquis this summer. The war is to be waged on the Resignation waters. Stakes $50 a side. Mack is good with the fly, and never takes stock in him. Dennis never caught a fish less than 75 lbs weight.

John Murphy is creating a new store fronting the R. Davidson property. It will be when finished one of the richest looking structures in the Town. Jonas is the Architect.

R. R. Call and C. Sergeant have purchased the Ballast Wharf of Messrs Lawson, Fife and Co. They will make a good pull this summer.

The fishing at Indian Town has not been so far successful as of late. However, even if a catch is good, as Frank the general Proprietor, can entertain him with good stories, and his talk and accommodation are first class. Frank "lites" a four pounder the other day.

The Great Road from here to Indian Town is wretched. What does your great man Adams do in the Green room? He gets credit for running the Board of Works Department here. He had better give this his attention, and let the Emigrants go for awhile.

Salmon are scarce as yet, and our Fishermen are disappointed. D. G. Smith has a law ruffianly squib in Mr. Snowball's paper, the Advocate, on your libel suit. Can't you take a hand at him, and shut his mouth for another year? BARK.

[We are afraid our correspondent asks too much. Whoso toucheth pitch shall be defiled: and even though we saw the publication referred to we should not have any reply. We are not "straight laced" in the STAR Office at all, and talk very little about our "purity," but we think we can say without vaingloriousness that we never allow any obscene prints into our Office. We have not seen the paper Mr. Snowball has the misfortune of having his name connected with for some time; though indeed its Editor of whom we know nothing did often send us his paper through the Post Office. We did not like to forbid him sending it, being first because it is so obscene as the paper was, the sending was a courtesy. But our readers will remember the time when two other vile papers, named the Boston Express and Zionist, made respectable persons shudder for their fair name, and virtuous young women to keep their houses for days, so monstrously had their names been dragged into it. We at once directed that these papers be suppressed and through us the time had arrived when we should refuse to have the Chatham publication come to us, so we directed the editor not to send it anymore. We felt keenly having to do this, because the paper had never published any of its obscene paragraphs relating to us, on the contrary, time and again from the bent of some of its paragraphs it used for our good wishes. But there was a duty which we owed to ourselves, and also to public decency which forbade us to interchange editorials courtesies with the paper in question. We have never cared more for its obscene paragraphs abusing us, than we cared for the abuse we received from the Zionist and an Express Editor after having their papers suppressed here. There is not a copy of the Chatham paper reaches this city, or we should ask the magistrates and the police to carry out the law relating to immoral prints, but its suppression or its toleration in Chatham is a matter for the people of Chatham, though we think that there as here the interests of public decency should be protected at all hazards. CHICAGO CONVENTION

GARFIELD GETS THE NOMINATION.

THE DARK HORSE AGAIN WINS.

OHIO WEARS THE REPUBLICAN PLUME.

[Special to STAR.] CHICAGO, June 8th.—2.30, P.M.

The Convention to-day nominated Garfield. Mr. Conkling on behalf of Garfield's friends in moving to make Garfield's nomination unanimous congratulated the republican party upon the good temper exhibited and the selection made and he trusted that the fervor and unanimity of the scene in the Convention might be translated to all our nation. Mr. Logan seconded the nomination and congratulated the Convention. Hall further seconded it on behalf of the friends of Blaine. The republican party will now go before the Country with a man at its head whose chances for winning are the brightest. The nomination of Grant or Blaine would probably have lost the Country to the republican party: as the Independents would not have pinned their faith to either.

THE ABBOT OF GOOD-WILL.

In the ancient city of Middleburg the Capital of Zealand, so far back as the year 1580, there existed a brotherhood whose pious deeds and meritorious self-abnegation might well be followed in these days of gaudy pageants and expensive feasts. Among the splendours and altitudes of which the duties of man have been so much forgotten and neglected, the following extract from the venerable document which inaugurated the Society explains its end and object—"As it is thus that the Eternal One, our good God, commands us all to hold in consideration his poor members, and to minister to their poverty, calamity, and misery, and to cherish and comfort the afflicted, bearing this in mind, have in time past, for the relief and comfort of the said poor, introduced a very praiseworthy and most holy custom among them, for several years faithfully observed, as well in this City of Middleburg as in the City of Antwerp, by which the excessive expenses that formerly were made on banquets given by the Merchants and traders of the French nation, bearing this in mind, have in time past, for the relief and comfort of the said poor, introduced a very praiseworthy and most holy custom among them, for several years faithfully observed, as WELLAND CANAL

NOTICE TO BRIDGE BUILDERS

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned (Secretary of Railways and Canals) and endorsed "Tender for Bridges, Welland Canal," will be received at this office until the arrival of the Western mails on TUESDAY, the 13th DAY OF JUNE next, for the construction of swing and stationary bridges at various places on the line of the Welland Canal. Those for highways are to be a combination of iron and wood, and those for railway purposes are to be of iron.

Plans, specifications and general conditions can be seen at this office on and after MONDAY, THE 11th DAY OF MAY next, where forms of tenders can also be obtained. Parties tendering are expected to have a practical knowledge of works of this class, and are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and in the case of firms—except there are attached the actual signatures, the nature of the occupation and residence of each member of the same; and further an accepted check for a sum equal to $250 for each bridge, for which an offer is made, must accompany each Tender, which sum shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into contract for the work at the rates and on the terms stated in the offer submitted.

The cheque thus sent in will be returned to the respective parties whose tenders are not accepted. For the due fulfilment of the contract the party or parties whose tender is proposed to accept will be notified that their tender is accepted subject to a deposit of five per cent. of the bulk sum of the contract—of which the sum sent in with the tender will be considered a part—to be deposited to the credit of the Receiver General within eight days after the date of the notice.

Ninety per cent. only of the progress estimates will be paid until the completion of the work. This department does not, however, bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By Order, F. BRAUN, Secretary.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observance of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime, will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable specifics, in a form perfectly palatable, and acceptable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement that Scott's Emulsion is being used with better results and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption—and the diseases leading to it, such as Chronic Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrophula, Anæmia, General Debility and the Wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet, is truly marvellous.

See What Physicians and the People Say About It. Messrs. Scott & Bowne: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, September 2, 1876.

GENTS,—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrophulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious. Yours truly, A. H. SAXTON, M. D., Baltimore.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in diseases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach; which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrophulous cases. October 15, 1879. Yours respectfully, J. SIMONAUD, M. D., New Orleans, La.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—Within the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind that has ever been brought to my notice; in affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly agreeable and elegant form. December 10th, 1878. Yours truly, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—In September, 1877, my health began to fail, and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last, I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning coughs, night sweats and short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil and I used various preparations, but they did me no good. I lost all hope of life and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and was so taken I afterwards bought a dozen bottles with the following results: Coughs subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pains in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 115 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently meet some friend on the street who asks, "What cured you?" and I answer, "Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, etc." I have a friend who has not spoken aloud for 15 months, and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle and he bought two more, then got a dozen, and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago, but he is improving. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine. January 10th, 1879. Very truly yours, R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—I got a bottle of your Emulsion and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live longer than a few weeks at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that went down my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose, and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk, and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already tried it. I am gratefully yours, L. M. GIBSON, M. D.
