

It is scarcely worth while to take notice of the opposition slanders regarding this work, but when a newspaper makes the temporary stoppage in the construction of the bridge the excuse for an unwarranted attack on Engineer Wetmore, it is time that somebody should be heard in his defence. A local publication in this city has proclaimed to the public that it is now found that by the Engineer's mistake the superstructure for the bridge is a span short, and much more such rubbish is put forth to mislead the public and manufacture political capital. Of course there is no truth in the statement, but there may be a few gullible people ready to believe it. There is no doubt that work for the present on the superstructure is at a standstill, but that is the fault of the contracting company, not of the government or its engineer. But stop, it is to a certain extent the result of the Engineer's action early in the construction. So careful has Mr. Wetmore been that the company shall meet all the requirements of his plans and specifications, that he has placed in the bridge company's shops at Montreal, a most competent engineer, and all work for the bridge must pass his inspection before it is shipped to Woodstock. No doubt this has delayed somewhat the progress of the work, for the Government, through Mr. Wetmore, are insisting on the materials and workmanship being right up to specification. This course was adopted without prejudice to the bridge company, which it may be said so far have carried on their work to the satisfaction of the superintending engineer, except perhaps they have not made as rapid progress as the Government and Mr. Wetmore would like to observe. However, the work is a heavy one, and it is better to have it thoroughly done even if the Carleton people have to wait a few weeks longer for the completion of their bridge.

We suppose the enemies of the work here and elsewhere, however, will keep up their lying until it is no longer feasible to continue that course.

J. FRED. HUME M. P. P.

THE HERALD is pleased to note the success of a Fredericton boy in British Columbia in his first attempt to enter public life. On the 17th inst. J. Fred. Hume, son of the late George Hume and brother of Mrs. Wesley VanWart, was elected as the opposition candidate to the British Columbia legislature from West Kootenay, polling nearly a two to one vote over his opponent, G. O. Buchanan, formerly of Truro, N.S. The final returns were not in when the Victoria Colonist from which we derive our information was published, but sufficient was known to indicate that Hume's election was a certainty. At that time he had 403 to his opponent's 245, with only two small polling places to hear from, and from this the Colonist concluded that "the election of Mr. Hume may be accepted as a certainty." The returns from over the province give the government 20 seats and the opposition 11, with two seats yet to be heard from. It may be stated that in the last days of the campaign Hon. Mr. Davie the premier took a hand on the stump against Mr. Hume, but the latter's personal popularity and strength carried him to victory. Mr. Hume M. P., has only been in British Columbia a few years, but he has met with great business success at Nelson where he is engaged in mercantile pursuits. He is yet a young man and his political career will be watched with interest by his many friends in Fredericton.

WHY THIS DIFFERENCE.

Mention is made in our local columns of the effort Major Cropley is making to turn out a creditable guard of honor for the Governor General's reception, and we refer to the matter here to give Col. Marsh to do his whole duty in the affair. We have no desire, to unduly excite the Colonel and to needlessly imperil his health during the approaching dog days, but candidly we do feel that he should handle himself more in the line of duty which he has marked out for himself, with no doubt call down upon themselves the severe displeasure of the Horse Guards. Col. Marsh will therefore see to it that every mother's son of the volunteers are hearty and sincere in the support they extend to Major Cropley, and if even becomes necessary to summon the harry militiamen from St. Marys, Stanley, Keswick and Fredericton Junction to ensure Major Cropley a respectable and successful command, the thing has got to be done. THE HERALD thus gives Col. Marsh and all others whom it may concern, an early and positive warning of what the country expects.

DR. CATHELL an eminent writer in the Maryland Medical Journal expresses the opinion that many persons though not sick, keep below par in strength and general tone, by fasting during the long intervals between supper and breakfast. He says that the complete emptiness of the stomach during sleep, adds greatly to the amount of emaciation, sleeplessness, and general weakness we so often meet. As bodily exercise is suspended during sleep, with wear and tear correspondingly diminished, while digestion, assimilation, and nutritive activity continue as usual, the food furnished during this period adds more than is destroyed, and increased weight and improved general vigor are the results.

THE City Council have proved themselves equal to the public demand in the matter of voting money for the Governor General's reception. With the sums placed at the command of the general committee and the fire department, those bodies will be able to make creditable arrangements for the celebration, and the amount will scarcely be felt when it is levied on all the tax payers of the city.

THE local Government have granted the use of Parliament Square for the big farmers' gathering here on the 10th of August, and all will recognize the suitability of that spot for the celebration. The programme of the entire vice-regal reception will be officially published next week, and it will be substantially as given in THE HERALD last week.

CHINA AND JAPAN HAVE gone to war over their dispute in Corea.

ALTHOUGH the Prohibition Commissioners finished their work some months ago, their report has not yet been presented. Considering that the Commission cost the country the enormous sum of $120,000, its members might have had their report written out and handed in before this late hour.

SIR A. P. CARON and Hon. Mr. Ives, of the Dominion cabinet, are off to London to attend a banquet to be given there in honor of the colonial delegates to the recent conference at Ottawa. No doubt the country will have to pay the bills for this ministerial holiday jaunt.

REVISION of the Dominion voters' lists will be commenced September 1st, and completed the last of next February. As the new list will be the one used in the next Dominion election, the Liberals should see that every available name is properly placed.

ROADMASTER McKay should see that Queen street is thoroughly cleaned before the vice-regal visit. In the gutters and especially around some of the sewer works and stables in profession. Will Mr. McKay give this matter his prompt attention?

CANADA has a minister of justice a deputy minister and a solicitor general, yet for legal fees last year the enormous sum of $141,424 was paid to tory lawyers in various parts of the country.

MILITARY CHANGES. The Royal Regiment of Infantry Enlarged and Major Cropley's Forces Under Arms. General Herbert's rapid and kaleidoscopic changes in military matters make it rather difficult to follow him and keep up an understanding of the position of the permanent and volunteer forces under his command. The latest innovations are in connection with the Royal Regiment of Canadian Infantry. Contrary to expectations the D.A.G.'s, such as Col. Mansell, who have had added to their regular duties the oversight and command of the schools in their respective districts, for the future will not be relieved of the latter duties, and the commanding officers of the companies, as in the case of Major Gordon here, will remain in their former positions. Col. Mansell and the other D. A. G.'s will, as usual, be largely shouldered from day to day with the interior economy and management of the schools.

INCREASE IN THE PERMANENT FORCE. The R. R. C. I., which is composed of four companies, stationed respectively at Fredericton, St. John's, Quebec, Toronto and London, is to be increased to five companies, and it is presumed that the new company will be stationed at Montreal, where the citizens offer a free site for the barracks and a bonus of $25,000. The permanent force will then consist of five colonels, five majors, fifteen lieutenants, five sergeants—the usual complement of N. C. officers—one band of forty-eight pieces in command of Sgt. Hayes, formerly of this city, now of Toronto, a total of all ranks of 592. It is presumed that the band will serve a portion of each year at the several garrisons, and it is said also that the companies may exchange locations at the conclusion of the permanent camp to be held at Lewis, Quebec, next month. All the companies of the R. R. C. I. have been ordered to concentrate at Lewis on Aug. 15th, and it is probable that Fredericton corps will leave here on the 13th for the camp, which will probably continue for six weeks. General Herbert is to be in command. Nothing further has been heard from Ottawa regarding the city's proposition to purchase the military property here, but the military authorities seem to be strongly of the opinion that the offer will be accepted.

THE HOME CONTINGENT ABROAD. The absence of the R. R. C. I. from Fredericton during the Governor General's approaching visit, will necessitate the calling out of the local companies of the 71st Batt. to form a guard of honor to His Excellency. Already Major Cropley has anticipated this and has commenced to drill his company. Capt. Pinder will probably move in the same direction, and there is some talk of inviting the Boys' Brigades of this city and Marysville to unite with the militia in furnishing the guard. Such a combination under the command of a zealous and enthusiastic officer like Major Cropley, would form an attractive feature of the vice-regal celebration. While the drill might not be perfect, there is no doubt that otherwise the aggregation would present a good appearance, and it would show the Governor General that on parade days, at least, this country can meet the requirements without the aid of the permanent force. No doubt Col. Marsh and the other officers of the 71st Batt. will assist Major Cropley in turning out a guard that will reflect credit not only on the military genius and traditions of that distinguished officer, but also on the battalion itself. It is to be hoped that between this and the 15th of August the boys will attend promptly to drill, and thus encourage their commanding officer in the task which the public and the demands of the service has imposed upon him.

THE Big Circus. One of the largest crowds in Sullivan for a number of years was here Monday, despite the dust and heat. The attraction which brought so many people to town was Cook & Whitney English circus and American Racing Association, and the 6,000 people who attended each performance felt well repaid, as the circus is without doubt the best and most meritorious ever seen in our city. The parade was in the language of the bills, a gorgeous pageant, and the bands taking part in it played high grade music in an artistic manner. The menagerie was good and the circus superb. If we were to select any special features as being particularly worthy of mention we would be obliged to print the entire program and space prohibits that. Suffice it to say that the different acts were unparalleled as regards Sullivan, and the races were true contests of speed, such as are seldom witnessed in any similar entertainment, and the riding of the great African Lion was a spectacle long to be remembered, and was alone worthy many times the price of admission. The circus was larger and far better than Barnum's and that is the best we can say for it. The aerial acts of the trapezists and the performances by the Japanese, were wonderful sights and deserve special mention. After the circus a concert above the average grade was given. In conclusion the News takes the responsibility on behalf of Montreux county, to invite Messrs. Cook and Whitney to make Sullivan a visit next season. What better commendation can we give?—Sullivan (Ill.) News.

THE Bankers and Lawyers played again the ball on Scully's field Wednesday afternoon, and the former suffered another rout, scoring 22 to 16. There was some lively coaching during the match. Second baseman Neill, of the bankers, accepted pitcher McCullough, of the legal team, of having a glass arm, and when Bunker Jones, the catcher of the bankers, was challenged for qualification, it was alleged that he was cashier of the River bank.

THE military, married vs. single, played a cricket match on Officers' Square, Thursday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the latter by an inning and 13 runs. Colonel Mansell and Surgeon McLearn took a hand with the married men, the Surgeon showing excellent form at bowling.

DALTON MCCARTHY

Thanks God he Does not Belong to Thompson's Party.

He Reviews the Parliamentary Session.

Dalton McCarthy, M. P., delivered a political address to his constituents at Creemore, Ontario, Monday. Mr. McCarthy said he could not admit that the recent session had resulted in much legislation being placed on the statute books which was beneficial to the people of this country. He would say that acts had been passed, and transactions tolerated, which would, in the future, compel us to hang our heads in shame. Taking up first the Northwest school question, he accused the Government of postponing the consideration of their bill dealing with the Territories until Hon. Mr. Clarke Wallace got out of the country. As a representative Orangeman Mr. Wallace would have been compelled to vote for the bill, but as a Cabinet Minister he would have to vote against it. He gave an explanation of his statement about what the Conservative press has been making a clamor, that he would rather have separate schools than secular schools. A secular school system was one from which the word of God was excluded. This was a Christian country, and it would be a scandal, he said, if there was no opportunity given to have the religion common to the whole people taught in the schools. Speaking of the Carleton bridge scandal, he characterized it as the worst piece of robbery he had ever known.

Since he Entered Public Life. "You remember the pious ejaculation of Sir John Thompson?" Mr. McCarthy said, "when he thanked God that I was no longer a member of his party. Today I can return that pious ejaculation! And I do thank God that I am no longer a member of that party, in which such gigantic frauds are carried on!" Mr. McCarthy went on to speak of the public debt. Then he turned to the Premier and recalled his professions in 1891, that he would punish all who would be guilty of malfeasance of office, be they high or low. "I have no great admiration for Sir John Thompson, and he has no great admiration for me, so there is not much admiration lost between us. But I did think he was an honest man. I knew he was once a judge, and I heard his declaration in 1891. I will not say that I have changed my opinion," said McCarthy, "but I will say that I am alarmed at some things that have happened in Ottawa during the last session. No man is fit to sit on the bench unless he is above partisanship and unless he is willing in every case to do justice between the parties in a case, no matter what their station."

The Clearest Possible Manner. Mr. McCarthy said that he should be the guardian of the honor of Parliament, and his obedient majority voted to the charges and confirmed Mr. Turcotte in the seat he had forfeited. With regard to the French treaty, he voted against it, because it had given Canada too little for France too much. Then there was the fast line. Parliament had voted $750,000 a year to that line; he had voted against it. He said that there were already more steamers sailing out of Canada than could find freight of passengers. In all these matters he had opposed the government. In fact, he had voted so often against the Government, he had no shred of reputation left as an old-time Conservative. He, however, regarded himself as a free lance party man. He was not a member of the party, but he was free to vote as he pleased on his convictions and the interests of his constituents. Taking up the tariff question, he opened this branch of his speech with the declaration: "I was, as you all know, a National Policy man, and now I tell you that I am for much Free Trade as we can get. We would be all the better if we could have it."

As It Is In England. But that is impossible, and so I say that what this country needs now is to get down to a tariff for revenue. The future of Canada, McCarthy said, is in agriculture. He would like to see manufacturers, but he did not believe that 90 per cent. of the people should be taxed for the support of 10 per cent. In conclusion, he said it looked as though Parliament was about to be dissolved in the expiring hours of the session. He cited that the "frugal government," with a deficit in the treasury of a million and the public employes not paid their salaries, after giving $750,000 a year to a fast line of steamers and throwing off $80,000,000 a year of taxes on wine, $4,000,000 of the people's money in bonuses to railways to go into wild cat speculation. Such lavish expenditure generally heralded an election.

He would say to his constituents that he would sooner go down in the next election, crushed by their ballots, than to gain their good will as a thick-and-thin party man, voting for what he could not approve of in his conscience and for what was not in the interests of the country.

An Official Visit. (From the Advance.) The Chief Commissioner of Public Works, Hon. H. R. Emmerson, has been paying an official visit to the North Shore during the past week. He arrived on Wednesday, accompanied by T. B. Winslow, Secretary of the Department, and on Thursday proceeded by way of the shore route to Gloucester County, being joined by Hon. Surveyor General Tweedie, who, as well as Mr. Emmerson, addressed a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting at Tabusintac on Thursday night. The reception accorded to the hon. gentleman shows that the people of Annapolis at least are very appreciative of good government and abundantly satisfied with the efficiency of their present representatives in the Assembly.

From Tabusintac the party proceeded to Tracadie and Pokemouche, being joined at the latter place by John Siveright, Esq., M. P. The principal object of the Chief Commissioner's visit to the North Shore during the past week was to make an official investigation of charges preferred against Hugh Cowan, supervisor, Isaiah Landry, Doctie Goodin and three other by-road commissioners, for misappropriation of moneys in 1893. A full enquiry was made and the testimony taken is to be fully considered by the Chief Commissioner on his return to Fredericton.

The Chief Commissioner examined the new iron bridge at Douglastown and has also visited the parishes of Derby and Nelson. He paid a visit on Monday to Bay du Vin, leaving Chatham in Mr. Miller's steamer, Laura, and was accompanied by about twenty ladies and gentlemen, including Hon. Mr. Tweedie and Messrs. O'Brien and Robinson, M. P. P.

The military, married vs. single, played a cricket match on Officers' Square, Thursday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the latter by an inning and 13 runs. Colonel Mansell and Surgeon McLearn took a hand with the married men, the Surgeon showing excellent form at bowling.

It shot out towards Foyle, and before he could dodge, it struck him in the breast, going clear through his body and piercing the wall of a house on the corner. Death was instantaneous.

At Windsor, Ontario, Wednesday, Dr. Coventry, Medical Health Officer, had a severe attack of cholera, whose face and hands were badly broken out with rash. The doctor diagnosed it as a well developed case of smallpox. When the negro heard this, he made a dash to get out of the office, and succeeded in getting out before the doctor. Both engines were demolished and coaches telescoped, but fortunately not one of the passengers was hurt, although badly scared and shaken up. Four train hands were injured, one of whom cannot recover. The excursion train was running slow at the time, having just left a station, but the special was bowling along at a great rate. The financial loss will be large.

George Cocker, sixteen years of age, son of Alex. Cocker of Kilmarnock, Victoria Co., was kicked by a horse and killed a few days ago. The lad was found lying on the ground near the entrance to the pasture, unconscious. Over his eye there was a deep wound, cause, it is thought, by a kick from one of the horses. The boy never regained consciousness. The father was in Fredericton at the time of the accident and did not arrive home until after his son's death.

Various reports about the suspension of work on the bridge are not well founded. Work has been retarded for want of material, but the Press is informed that a supply of needed material will be on hand in a few days, when work will go on again. The report that the railway company had put an injunction on, restraining the bridge company from carrying iron across the track, probably grew out of an notice of caution from the railway company. [The notice is from the Woodstock Press, an opposition paper, and it will be seen that the last weekly copy of the paper published by a local paper are substantially contradicted.—HERALD.]

Gunn have taken charge of the Springfield hotel it has been very greatly improved and now offers every comfort and facility to its guests. All the rooms have been re-furnished and made as attractive as possible, and the table would do credit to a pretentious hostelry in a large city. A great many Fredericton people are patronizing the hotel this summer, and all praise the treatment they receive at the hands of the hostess and her help. Attached to the hotel are boats in which the guests may row off to the islands and spend a pleasant afternoon.

THE EDITOR OF THE GLEANER

Must Stand Trial at Woodstock for Criminal Libel on Registrar Leighton. James H. Crockett, editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, was arrested in this city Wednesday evening by Deputy Sheriff Foster, of Carleton Place, on a warrant issued by Police Magistrate Dibble, of Woodstock, charging him with publishing a defamatory libel against John S. Leighton, Registrar of Carleton. Crockett was taken to Woodstock Thursday morning, and in the afternoon had his preliminary examination before the Police Magistrate. The libel complained of is contained in the Daily Gleaner of July 14th. The article says that Joseph Vandine, of Centerville, Carleton County, borrowed $600 from Leighton, Registrar of Carleton, on mortgage; that Vandine subsequently paid Mr. Leighton the full amount of the mortgage taking his receipt; that Vandine recently discovered that the mortgage was not discharged. Estabrooks in reply to the demand of Vandine why he had not discharged the mortgage, wrote he would be very glad to do so when he got his money. The article further says that Estabrooks had appointed Leighton his agent, and it was only fair to assume that Leighton kept the interest paid as it came due, otherwise Vandine must have learned of the true state of affairs earlier. Mr. Leighton in his evidence in court stated he never was Estabrooks' agent, nor ever received money from Vandine, and that the statements in the Gleaner were utterly untrue as far as he was concerned. He was subjected to a rigid cross-examination but nothing was brought out implicating him in any way with malfeasance. John S. Leighton, Jr., Deputy Registrar, was called by the defence. He completely corroborated his father's statements, saying his father had nothing to do with the money transaction between Vandine and Estabrooks. He (the son) was agent for Estabrooks and as such had accounted to him for all moneys received from Vandine. The statement in the libel as to retaining the principal paid on the mortgage and paying Estabrooks interest thereon was also applied to him. He had in July 1890 furnished Estabrooks with detailed statements showing all the money he had received from Estabrooks, and the Vandine mortgage had been paid in full principal and interest. It would seem, if any one was at fault in the transaction, it would be that Estabrooks neglected to discharge the mortgage as soon as he should have done. Crockett was committed for trial in the Supreme court which will be held at Woodstock in October. Bail was fixed at $500, and two securities for $250 each, and Crockett was released. S. B. Appleby appeared for the prosecution and A. B. Connel for the defence. THE CITY COUNCIL. Voted Two Hundred Dollars for Abercrombie's Receptacles. His Worship the Mayor presided at the special meeting of the City Council on Thursday evening, called to take steps towards the reception of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, and the Aldermen present were, Gilman, Farrell, Rosborough, Macnutt, and the Mayor. After His Worship had stated the object of the meeting, Ald. Macnutt moved that the City Corporation present an address to the Governor General and that a committee be appointed to prepare the same. Carried. On motion of Ald. Farrell, the committee was selected as follows: The Mayor, Ald. Macnutt and the City Clerk. It was suggested that a reception committee should be appointed, but this was left over till the regular monthly meeting in August. Ald. Rosborough brought up the question of finances, and moved that $200 be granted for the reception. Ald. Macnutt moved in amendment that the sum be $125 for their proper fire works display and torchlight procession. This was seconded by Ald. Anderson and carried without division. Ald. Rosborough figured that $75 be granted the citizens' committee who have in hand the farmers' picnic to be held during the Governor General's visit. Ald. Farrell moved in amendment, seconded by Ald. Macnutt, that the amount be $100, but this was voted down and Ald. Rosborough's resolution carried, 4 to 2. Adjourned. A FAMILY QUARREL. Henry Crockett Committed for Trial on a Serious Charge. For some time there has been bad feeling between George and Henry Crockett, brothers, living at Queensbury, which originated over some property dispute. Last fall George laid an information against Henry for allegedly to have been committed at the hearing of a civil suit in a justice's court in Queensbury. Henry was arrested, but his preliminary examination before Police Magistrate Marsh in this city resulted in his discharge. Word has come from Queensbury that George had Henry arrested again, this time for attempting to shoot him with intent to kill. It is alleged that on July 1st while George was in his farm driving some of Henry's cattle off his premises the latter went over and commanded him to cease, that when George refused to cease Henry threatened to kill him, and that in pursuance of this threat the latter went to George's farm the following day and discharged a shotgun at him. None of the shot, it appears, took effect. George laid information charging his brother with the offence above mentioned. The preliminary examination took place before Squire Whitehead at Queensbury Tuesday, and Henry B. Burt, Esq., appeared for prosecution. The Magistrate has committed Henry for trial at the next County Court. Henry came to town and swore out two informations before the Police Magistrate, one against his brother George for wilfully, maliciously, etc., cutting down and destroying a number of maple trees in his sugar camp, and the other against Henry for shooting a dog that was chasing his sheep when George came up within reach of his gun, and George alleges that he and Wood man cut the trees to build up a line fence. Sudden Death at Sheffield. The many friends of Whitehead Barker, of Sheffield, Sunbury, will be pained to hear of his somewhat sudden death which occurred at his home Tuesday evening. The deceased had been in his usual good health up to the latter part of last week, when he drank a large quantity of ice water which overhauled from work in the hay field. He caught cold, pneumonia developed and his death followed. Mr. Barker was one of the best known and most popular residents of Sheffield, and his acquaintance was general throughout Sunbury. He was a brother of Judge Barker, of St. John, and Mrs. Carrier of this city. One of his daughters is the wife of Dr. Kierstead of Woodstock. The funeral took place Thursday forenoon and was very largely attended. Will Fight it Out. The Globe says that J. Fraser Gregory is preparing to fight the suit which Mr. Beaman, of Boston, has taken against him for alienating the affections of Mrs. Beaman. Wednesday special bail was furnished on Mr. Gregory's part through his solicitor, A. P. Barnhill. The bail are W. H. Murray, millowner, for $20,000, and J. R. Warner, millowner, for $30,000. An affidavit of justification was furnished with the bail. The bail need not have been entered into until August 5th, but it enables the prosecution to go on with the case by at once filing their declaration. The Globe has been given to understand there is no likelihood of a settlement in this case. It will be fought out in the courts and Mr. Gregory expects to show that the intention is blackmail. The Citizens' Band are prepared to undertake engagements entrusted to them.

CHANGED FAITH.

Rev. Dr. Alexander and Prof. Stockley Have Renounced the Church of England, and Gone Over to Rome. The news from Montreal this week regarding the two Fredericton gentlemen whose names are at the head of this article, surprised nobody. Ever since Dr. Alexander was formally discharged from the Cathedral by the Bishop, it public have been looking for the announcement contained below, and when it was known with Prof. Stockley he had gone to Montreal seeking spiritual light, all hope that the two would remain in the Anglican communion, was abandoned. The following is the available information on the subject as follows: A Montreal despatch of Monday says: A very important and interesting ceremony took place this morning in the private chapel of the Archbishop's palace. Rev. Mr. Alexander, late Dean of Fredericton, and Professor Stockley of the same place, were formally received into the Roman Catholic church, His Grace Mgr. Fabre officiating. After the learned New Brunswickers had thus made a public profession of their new faith they breakfasted with the Archbishop and a number of persons high up in the church and state. The two converts had been here for some time receiving instruction from Rev. Father Jones, of the Society of Jesus. The sponsor for Rev. Mr. Alexander was John Meagher, merchant of this city, while Rev. Canon Bruchesi acted in the same capacity for Professor Stockley. The ceremony was carried out in the most solemn and impressive manner, the sacrament of penance, conditional baptism, the sacrament of penance, concluding with low mass and communion. A later despatch says: Rev. Dr. Alexander and Prof. Stockley, who embraced Romanism yesterday, could not be found to-day. Mr. Alexander has been the guest of Dr. Kingston, a leading physician, and Prof. Stockley of John Meagher, a merchant, but it is understood that they have left for the Jesuits' college at Sault au Recollet. There is now no room for doubt on the matter. Yesterday morning these two gentlemen formally renounced their former faith and took their first vows in the Catholic church before His Grace Archbishop Fabre. The two gentlemen mentioned have been in Montreal for about two weeks receiving religious instruction at the hands of Rev. A. Jones, of the Society of Jesus, a professor in St. Mary's College. When the news of their formal abjuration was received the college was closed, and on no pretext could the Rev. fathers be seen. The whereabouts of the two gentlemen has been kept secret, and it is understood that they wish to avoid having the matter made public in this press. Consequently neither of the gentlemen could be found. At the Archbishop's palace no one was desirous of going against the will of the two new converts. However, the Gazette obtained a confirmation from a gentleman whose authority cannot be doubted. Seeing that the matter was known he did not desire longer to conceal it. Everything being in readiness for the formal embracing of their new faith, this ceremony took place in the palace early yesterday morning. Mgr. Fabre officiating in person. The sponsor for Rev. Mr. Alexander was John Meagher, of Meagher Bros. wine merchants, 14 St. Brule street, while Rev. Canon Bruchesi acted in a similar capacity for Professor Stockley. The ceremony took place in the following order: A public abjuration of the faith formerly professed, the sacrament of baptism in the form "If you have not been baptized, I baptize you;" the sacrament of penance, followed by low mass and communion. The Rev. Mr. Alexander has a wife, now living in New Brunswick, while Professor Stockley is a widower. The Montreal Witness says that what position they will hold in the church is yet doubtful. The Rev. Mr. Alexander is married. There is talk of an arrangement being made whereby his wife may enter one of the religious communities and he join the priesthood. Prof. Stockley will probably enter the priesthood at once. (The information concerning Mrs. Alexander is, of course, only guess work, as the public have no evidence that she will follow her husband in his changed faith.—Herald.) POETRY.

APPRECIATION.

They strewed flowers so thick above his grave...

Yet he had lived among them many years, Nor had he ever known...

They had been very quick to note the flaws That marred his daily life...

What did it matter that he nightly grieve Or that against great odds, he still believed...

And longed for loving smiles? Unhappily they let him climb life's steepest ways...

Then did they speak him fair; Did all their wakened kindness could devise...

Oh friends, if in your hearts there is to-day Some little love for me...

Give me while living, of the love I crave, And if ye must condemn...

I shall not need your praise then, but now Ever a tender touch...

Bury me if you will in poor estate, I shall not count it wrong...

SELECT STORY.

ZILLOH ST. CLAIR.

CHAPTER VI.

AFTER TWO YEARS.

CONTINUED.

"You are all the world to me Bruce," she murmured softly...

Zilloh had been ill after this for a week or two; the shock of the news had quite prostrated her...

It was a scene that any artist might have taken to paint...

"By Jove! what a splendid picture it is!" exclaimed the Spaniard...

"What is it Bruce?" she always called him Bruce; it was the name she had first known him by...

"Why Zilloh to tell the truth, I want to settle what I was speaking about the other day...

"Ah! but my dear, you would not accompany me to England; you would stay here."

There had only been one trouble to oppress her; the fact that she still insisted on the necessity for keeping their marriage secret...

In the village she was known as Mrs. Bruce Delmar; the house in which they lived, Olive Grove it was called, was the only good one in the place. The rest were mere peasant's cottages...

"The pater of little feet roused Zilloh from her painful reverie...

"Car! can't find me!" hissed the child in her sweet baby accents...

Zilloh too, looked across to the entrance of the verandah, and saw, though she had already guessed...

Lord Bruce kept a horse for his own riding, and a little carriage with a pair of ponies for Zilloh...

"Come and find her Carl. Come and see if you can find little Lella."

"Then I should have killed you," she said with proud contempt.

"But that is not the question. I am your wife, and as such, I am not to be set aside from obtaining my rights...

to love; that already others have taken the place I used to hold in your sickle fancy."

"Do not trouble yourself with either protestations or denials; they are powerless to shake my conviction of the truth."

"The devil you will! If I choose it, you shall remain," exclaimed Lord Bruce...

"You have told me again and again that our marriage need only be kept secret for a few months..."

"And if I refuse?" he questioned, in a tone that was half sneering, half sullen...

"Then I should have killed you," she said with proud contempt.

"But that is not the question. I am your wife, and as such, I am not to be set aside from obtaining my rights...
