THE OPPOSITION AND THE BYE-ELECTIONS.

By the tone of the Provincial Opposition press, the opponents of our Local Government are not feeling well over the prospect of defeat...

Mr. McNeill (Govt.) contended that as Canada had no control over American combinations, it would be the most gigantic blunder possible...

Mr. Lister's speech last night showed that while individual members of the Opposition favored protection to industries in which particular countries are interested...

On the Speaker having brought down the papers in the case of the dismissal of the three French translators, Mr. Laurier moved that they be printed...

Mr. Laurier contended that if part were published in accordance with the Speaker's request, all the pamphlets and clippings should be published...

Mr. Kirkpatrick said that the language used by the translators was such as to make even the Opposition blush.

Mr. Wallace (Govt.) said the history of the national policy had been protecting manufacturers and cheap goods.

Mr. Wallace (Govt.) followed, quoting at length from Lister's speech on June 20th of last year...

Mr. JAMES YOUNG has a carriage of York to R. Bridge, a few days ago, that weighed 740 pounds.

Mr. FROTHINGHAM's letter and much other valuable matter unavoidably crowded out this week.

The Telephone Company of P. E. Island will hold their annual meeting on the 14th inst. See ad.

STANLEY BROTHERS are offering their large stock of dry and fancy Goods, very cheap. See their ad.

TERMINES for steam coal are called for by the Prince Edward Island Railway. See their ad. in another column.

A. McNEIL, Esq., sells at auction some choice furniture, on the 16th inst. Read his advertisement in another column.

PARKER & STERN'S advertise in this day's HERALD, the largest stock of room-paper on this island, at the very lowest prices.

EDGAR FAWCETT's novel, "Olivie DeLapine," now reaching its conclusion in the American edition, is a most interesting work with each installment, and fore-shadows a tragic termination.

We would call the attention of all wishing to buy or rent comfortable and commodious dwelling houses, to the advertisement of Judge Alley, which will be found in another column.

Read the advertisement of Goff Brothers, and you will be persuaded their establishment is the very best in this kind, in which to purchase any kind of boots or shoes, or show-findings of any kind.

L. E. PIERCE received ten cases of stylish Spring Hats, by the last trip of the Northern Light, which he is selling at most moderate prices. Any person wishing to have one should call early, or all will be gone.

NOMINATION for the elections to fill the vacancies in the House of Commons, took place in Prince Edward Island, on the 23rd inst. Both sides had speakers from Ottawa to take part in the campaign.

Dr. S. Z. EARLE, of St. John, N. B. while out driving a few days ago, fell forward in his sleigh and died immediately. He was 65 years of age and was for many years coroner for the city and county of St. John and was at one time mayor of the city.

The Emerald Branch, B. I. S. intend having a grand musical and literary entertainment in their Hall at Kensington, on Friday evening, the 16th inst. No pains will be spared to make this a first-class affair, and we feel sure all who may attend will be well repaid.

A. B. WADSWORTH, Esq., will deliver a lecture entitled, "Scrapes from Canadian History," at Kelly's Cross, Lot 29, on St. Patrick's Day, the 17th inst. The people of that section of the country should not fail to attend this lecture, which, from its very name cannot but prove most interesting.

We observe, with much pleasure, that Joseph Unsworth, Esq., acting Superintendent of the Prince Edward Island Railway, has been elected a member of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers. Mr. Unsworth is an obliging and painstaking official, and we beg to extend to him our congratulations on this well merited honor.

The concert in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening was a grand success. The building was filled to its utmost capacity. The vocal and instrumental music was well rendered. The vocal solo of Mrs. E. McLeod, Misses Knight, Stanton and Earle were excellent. A violin solo by Mr. Yinnicome terminated the concert.

The concert to be given in the Lyceum this evening, by the St. Dunstan's College Club, assisted by some of the best musical talents of the city, promises to be a great success. Read the programme in another column and go early if you wish to secure a seat, for the popularity with which tickets are selling indicates that the Hall will be crowded.

The Benevolent Irish Society of Prince Edward Island will this evening celebrate the Feast of Ireland's Patron Saint in the usual manner, by attending Mass in the Cathedral, etc. In the evening a dramatic entertainment will be given in the Lyceum. The Lyceum Comedians are leaving nothing undone to make this entertainment a success. See the advertisement of the society's proceedings in this day's HERALD.
