 Two Years, But the Period
 May be Extended—The Duchess Will Accompany Him.

A DISTINGUISHED LIST.

The governors-general of Canada, with the date that they assumed office, have been: Right Hon. Viscount Monck, K.C.M.G., July, 1867; Right Hon. Lord Lisgar, G.C.M.G., Feb. 2, 1868; Right Hon. the Earl of Dufferin, K.P., K.C.B., G.C.M.G., June 25, 1872; Right Hon. the Marquis of Lorne, K.T., G.C.M.G., etc., Nov. 28, 1878; Most Hon. the Marquis of Lansdowne, G.C.M.G., etc., Oct. 23, 1882; Right Hon. Lord Stanley of Preston, G.C.B., June 11, 1888; Right Hon. the Earl of Aberdeen, K.T., G.C.M.G., Sept. 18, 1892; Right Hon. the Earl of Minto, G.C.M.G., Nov. 12, 1896; His Excellency Earl Grey, G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., 1904, and H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, 1911.

THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT.

WOULD THROW US BACK TO AMERICAN CHANNELS

Major Beattie, M.P., Comes Out
 Strongly Against Reciprocity—
 Different from Days of '66.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Major Beattie, M.P. for London, comes out as a strong opponent of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States. He is a recognized authority here on trade questions.

"We want no change in our trade relations at the present time," he said to The World. "The country is prosperous, and our citizens, both manufacturers and agriculturists, are thoroughly satisfied with the present conditions. We had a reciprocity treaty in former days, but in 1866 the United States thought proper to abrogate it. At that time all our channels of trade were pretty much thru American ports, and our goods in Britain were not known as Canadian, but as American. Since that time we have established our own connections with Great Britain thru Canadian channels, and we are entirely independent of the United States. They have become well aware of that."

"In those days we had no C.P.R., nor had we steamship lines sailing from Canada to Britain as we have them to-day. I estimate the present value of trade in Canada to be the value of the trade in the United States, and the value of the trade in the United States to be the value of the trade in Canada. Any change at this time will throw us back into American channels, which I consider would be a fatal mistake—fatal to our national welfare. Our present lines of commerce, now thoroughly developed, would be destroyed. In fact it seems to me that the Liberal party is simply trying to renew their old commercial union policy, which the greatest Liberal we have had, Hon. Edward Blake, denounced as dangerous to our independence, and that it would lead in the end to annexation with the United States."

MACWHIRTER DEAD

A Brilliant Painter of Wild Scottish Scenery.
 LONDON, Jan. 29.—John MacWhirter, the Scottish landscape painter, died to-day. Born at Slateford, near Edinburgh in 1839, he was educated at the Edinburgh School of Design, becoming an Associate of the Royal Scottish Academy in 1864, and the British Academy in 1879. MacWhirter was intensely national in sentiment and was a brilliant member of the Scottish school, excelling in his depictions of the wild scenery of the highlands. One of his specialties lay in the drawing of the mountain birch, that graceful tree inspiring many of his finest canvases. His diploma works were "Nature's Archway" and "June in the Austrian Tyrol," purchased out of the Chauxby bequest, is now in the Tate Gallery in London. The deceased artist married in 1872, Katherine, daughter of Professor Menzies of Edinburgh University.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 29.—Marysville, across the river from here, was visited this afternoon by a disastrous fire, which did damage to the amount of about $70,000. It destroyed the handsome Methodist Church and the residence of W. T. Day, principal of the Marysville School. The church cost $65,000 and was insured for $10,000. The dwelling house was valued at $20,000 and was insured. The destruction of Marysville Methodist Church took place on the 28th anniversary of its dedication.

AMENDMENT MAY KILL MEASURE IN CONGRESS

Taft so Determined to Carry Reciprocity That He Will Call a Special Session
 if That is Found to Be Necessary—Its Hope in Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—To carry into effect the terms of the reciprocity agreement concluded by representatives of Canada and the U. S., the first move was made to-day when McCall of Massachusetts, a member of the ways and means committee of the house, presented the administration bill on the subject. The bill was referred to the committee on ways and means, which will take it up next week.

The introduction of the bill by the Massachusetts member instead of Mr. Payne of New York, chairman of the ways and means committee, occasioned some comment. It is interpreted in many quarters to indicate that Mr. McCall will take a prominent part in steering the bill thru the committee and in engineering its progress on the floor of the house.

While members of the committee decline to discuss their prospective attitude on the measure, it has become fairly well established that the McCall bill will pass thru committee and come out on the floor of the house within a comparatively short time.

The first move will be to take up the bill at a meeting early in the week and determine if any hearings will be held upon the measure. It is the opinion of several members of the committee that if certain delegations representing industries seriously affected by the lowering of the tariff rates wish to be heard by the committee, an opportunity will be afforded before any final action is taken.

There will be no extended hearings, however, and no opening of the bars to all the tariff arguments that might be introduced for and against the terms of the new arrangement. Members of the committee believe the facts upon the various items were fully elicited in the hearings held during the preparation of the Payne-Aldrich bill; and that to renew extensive hearings upon the reciprocity agreement would needlessly and dangerously delay its consideration by the house.

DOCTOR BURNED OUT

Disinfecting Apparatus Set Fire to His Clothes.
 BARRIE, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Fire which did damage to the extent of about $2000, broke out about eleven o'clock Saturday night in the beautiful home and offices of Dr. W. A. and Fred Ross on Dunlop-st. The fire started in the disinfecting cabinet in the basement, Dr. W. A. Ross having been called out on a case during the evening which was thought to be contagious, on returning home removed his clothes, placed them in the cabinet and started the disinfecting apparatus. After the doctor had been upstairs but a short time, it was discovered that the clothing had caught fire, and in turn had set fire to the building. Some of the family, who had retired for the night, were quickly gotten out and removed to safety in neighboring houses.

ORGIES OF LLOYD-GEORGEISM.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—J. L. Garvin, editor of the Observer, in an article in that paper to-day, says that British democracy is likely to pay dear for the "Orgies of Lloyd-Georgeism."

OFFICES OF STEEL CO. BURNED.

WELLS, Jan. 28.—At 6:30 to-night fire destroyed the offices of the Ontario Iron and Steel Co. here. The building was completely destroyed. The fire was finally got under control before buildings adjoining were damaged. The new office building is not yet completed. The loss is small.

PENSION FOR MANUEL.

LESLION, Jan. 29.—The Diario de Noticias announces that the government has decided to pay a monthly pension of $3000 to the deposed King Manuel. Cheques for the months of October, November and December have already been sent to the former ruler of Portugal.

Reciprocity Faces Defeat in Congress

New York American Took a Poll of the Two Houses
 —The Stand-Patters Solid
 in Both Parties—Taft Concentrates
 His Energies on the Large Non-committal Vote.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The American's Washington correspondent thus sizes up the reciprocity situation: "Canadian reciprocity faces defeat in the present temper of congress. A poll of the two houses taken to-day by The New York American discloses such opposition to the reciprocal trade agreement which President Taft made public yesterday as to suggest that all the force of the administration will be necessary to secure action at this session."

"The committees to which the agreement has been referred—finance, in the senate, and ways and means, in the house—are apparently in agreement against the plan. By delaying a report on the agreement either can defeat action."

"Arranged on the side of the members of these committees are most of the stand-patters in both branches of congress. The Republican leaders have learned nothing as a result of the November elections. On the other hand, the Democrats are almost solidly in favor of the agreement."

"An extra session of congress looms up in consequence. President Taft is averse to this action, but there is reason for believing to-night that if assurance could be given that the Democrats will ratify the reciprocal agreement as submitted without attempting to tack on to it amendments that would upset the plan, the president would consent to the extra session."

"A large non-committal vote in both branches of congress is disclosed by The New York American's poll. President Taft is concentrating all of his efforts on this matter. The members, who hold the key to the situation, are Representative McCall of Massachusetts, a member of the ways and means committee, and the administration bill to carry out the reciprocity agreement. The bill was referred at once to the ways and means committee."

"An analysis of the poll. In the senate only six Republican members would consent to declare themselves for the agreement. The same number of Democrats also gave a feeble reply. Ten Republicans and one Democrat declared themselves against the agreement. Of the non-committal, twenty-seven are Republicans and twenty-two Democrats."

"In the house 74 Democrats avow themselves as favoring the agreement, as do also 29 Republicans. Only one Democrat is openly against, while 22 Republicans vote 'No.' There are 57 Republicans, however, who declare themselves non-committal as yet, and 32 Democrats."

"Summed up, the Republicans are opposing the agreement on the ground that it is an opening wedge against the protective tariff. The Democrats favor it because it is in line with their promises to reduce the cost of living. Republican opposition comes largely from the farming sections, and the farm and manufacturing interests, long in a close combine to keep up their Canal."

B. C. WILL NOT ALLOW FREE EXPORT OF LOGS

Vancouver Sawmill Men Convinced
 Reciprocity Will Not Pass
 in Present Form.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 29.—That the proposed reciprocity agreement will never be passed, at least not in its present form, is the opinion advanced by a number of sawmill men in Vancouver. One of the men declared to-day that the fruit interests of the province would never submit to a reduction of the duty on American fruit. In addition to this there would be a great difficulty in getting the government of this province, he thought, to allow the free exportation of logs from British Columbia, even in return for the removal of certain restrictions at present working against the interests of the lumbermen here. He declared that Canadian shingles going free across the line would be beneficial, but it remained to be seen if shingles would be put in the classification as lumber, and thus made a contingent of the free export of logs from the various provinces. If this were the case, he said, that it would not matter much what was done about shingles or any other varieties of manufactured lumber, as it was probable that the provincial government would not permit the removal of the duty on exported logs.

A SERIOUS MATTER.

Commercial Men Ask Better Hotel Accommodation.
 Local option may make things easier for the preachers, but, as things are run at present, anyway, it makes it rather awkward for the commercial traveler, who, wandering far from home, finds not the necessary straw on which to lay his head. ## HALF A MILLION OFF CONTRACTS

Overclassification and Allowance for Overbreak Will Be Deducted From Cost of the Transcontinental.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—Half a million, approximately, is to be deducted from contracts on the eastern division of the National Transcontinental Railway, in respect to overclassification and allowance for overbreak.

This is the effect of the award of the arbitrators—Gordon Grant for the Transcontinental commissioners; B. B. Kelliker, for the Grand Trunk Pacific, and Collingwood Schreiber, C. M. G., chairman. The report has been sent to the government, and represents several months of work, in which the different sections were examined and notes taken on each cut.

The finding of the arbitrators does not say in so many dollars how much is to be deducted, but it takes each particular part of the work complained of and lays down a ruling as to what the measurements and allowances should have been. This will be compared with what was allowed, and if the latter is in excess of the arbitrators' findings, deductions will have to be made accordingly. As stated, about half a million dollars will be taken off contractors and sub-contractors. It will come out of the drawbacks held by the government.

The complaints were made by the contractors who have the right to appeal to the exchequer court. The contracts involved are about $80,000,000.

The press has been most favorable in its criticism of the musical success "When Sweet Sixteen," which will be produced for the first time here to-night at the Princess Theatre. ## WILL DIVIDE THE COLONIAL OFFICE

Imperial Conference to Discuss
 Differentiation of Self-Governing Dominions From Crown Colonies—The Fiscal Preference an Item on the List.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Tribune's London cable says: "While court officials are striving to make the colonies more conspicuous at the coronation, the ministers are seeking to pad out the program for the imperial conference, so that tariff reform and preference will not be missed. Military and naval matters were discussed exhaustively at the last conference, and imperial federation remains a baffling problem, like the squaring of the circle. The new subject is the reconstitution of the colonial office by differentiating the crown colonies from the self-governing dominions and placing the prime minister at the head of a special department dealing with the second class. The crown is already a binding together the overseas dominions, and the prime minister would be the King's right hand in protecting their interests."

Another question will be the expediency of ratifying the declaration of London, and this will require prolonged discussion when Sir Edward Grey's detailed statement is produced. Even more time will be needed if Gibson Bowles' proposals are considered, with a reversion to the principles of Chamberlain and Pitt and the practice of Midshipman Easy, and with the resuscitation of the declaration of Paris and the doctrine that a neutral flag covers an enemy's goods which are not contraband. The government, apart from giving the colonies a more prominent place in the declaration of the declaration of London in advance of parliament. Neutral rights will mean more to the colonies than belligerent rights, and the acceptance of the declaration by the conference may insure its ratification without a critical division in the commons.

Fiscal preference will be an awkward theme for a free trade government at the conference, but it cannot be avoided after the reciprocity arrangements made between Canada and the United States, even if Canada extends to Great Britain and the empire the same terms accorded to imports from the United States. The Washington government will not grant equality of treatment to certain classes of Canadian products, and goods will have lower rates on preferential terms in the American market over the same classes from the mother country or any other section of the empire.

The agreement will certainly be disapproved by the imperial conference, since it relaxes the existing British preference in favor of Canada and arms the Dominion with the superior benefits of American preference.

Tariff reformers are supplied with fresh arguments for a change in the fiscal system, yet they do not succeed in explaining how England can grant preference to Canadian goods if the American and Dominion markets are united under the Washington trade arrangement, nor how the superior forces of continentalism and gravitation toward the nearest market can be counteracted by the sentimental considerations of loyalty and the half-measure proposed. There are signs of confusion and bewilderment, but the free trade press is fairly well satisfied, since it assumes that the Washington agreement, if ratified by congress and the Ottawa parliament, will post one indefinitely the adoption of Mr. Chamberlain's policy of preferential trade with the colonies.

From this point of view, President Taft is credited here with having done a great stroke of business for the trade interests of the American continent, as well as increasing his own popularity with the main body of consumers, and obtaining strong advantages of position for the Republican party in meeting the attack from the next Democratic house and clearing the ground for a presidential election.

HAMILTON, Jan. 29.—(Special).—Burlington Bay claimed one more victim this morning. Fred Smith's body was found later.

Prof. Halliwell of Knox College addressed a men's meeting at Knox College this afternoon on the subject of "The Church Opposed to the Workingmen." He objected to the church's championing the particular causes of the workingmen, and stated that there should be no class distinctions in churches such as there were now, the presence of which he thought might explain the alienation of the poorer classes from the institution.

TIME RIPE FOR A CHANGE
DECLARES MR. BOURASSA

Nearly Five Hundred Present at Le Devoir Love Feast—Mr. Monk on Reciprocity.

MONTREAL, Jan. 29.—(Special).—Henri Bourassa, M.L.A., at the Le Devoir anniversary dinner at Windsor last evening, declared before five hundred of his compatriots that the time was now ripe for a change of regime, both at Ottawa and Quebec, and his sentiments were cheered to the echo.

Yesterday 486 bankers, business men and professional men and clerks sat down after paying $2 apiece for the pleasure of having the Nationalist leader, all showing what a hold he has obtained upon the people.

Le Devoir was founded a year ago and now Mr. Bourassa announces that its future is assured, also stating that before the advent of Le Devoir there was not an English or French newspaper in Montreal that discussed public questions with absolute freedom. He declared that the paper was absolutely free from every sort of control, and, except in the interest of good government and purity in public affairs, no pact had been made with the church or any other body, and any priest could have an opinion contrary to that of Le Devoir, without being suspected of being sold or bought. He said that no government should be in power too long.

F. D. Monk, M.P., was present, but did not intimate what attitude he would take in the Washington arrangement. He said that, however, ever, that its adoption would endanger our relations with the motherland, which all wished to remain in statu quo. The schedule, however, should be carefully considered for there were many defective spots. For instance, he said, the interest of the market gardeners on the Island of Montreal had been completely sacrificed, when they had been told that they would not be interfered with a year ago.

A strong feature of the evening was a very eloquent speech from John Boyd, who, while declaring his firm adherence to Mr. Ender and the Conservative party, gave very great credit whatever to Anglo-Saxon interests in this country by the success of the Nationalist movement.

MRS. WARD IS DEAD

Well-Known Author and Lecturer Succumbs to Illness.

NEWTON, Mass., Jan. 28.—Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward, author and lecturer, died at her home at Newton Centre last night, after a short illness at the age of 67. Her husband, Herbert D. Ward, was in the south when she was taken ill, and reached home only to-day.

Mrs. Ward was born in Boston Aug. 31, 1844. She began to write for the press when but 13 years of age. She was the author of "The Expiary series" of four volumes appearing in 1865. From that time until very recently, hardly a year passed that a book from her pen was not published.

Public Amusements

Terry in Repertoire.

The week's engagement at the Royal Alexandra Theatre of the distinguished English comedian, Mr. Edward Terry, who will during his visit, present a number of delightful comedies, will commence to-night. His first offering will be that charming play, "Sweet Lavender," by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. Mr. Terry will be seen in the role of Dick Phenyl, a character he has played with much success over 4000 times. He brings with him his own company, direct from Terry's Theatre, London.

Mr. Terry's engagement in Toronto has the aspect of being somewhat of a social event, as already reservations have been made for a number of large theatre parties. This is no doubt due, in a measure, to the attention shown this noted actor by their Excellencies Earl and Countess Grey, during his visit to Ottawa last week. At the Wednesday matinee Mr. Terry will present "The Toy-maker of Nuremberg," and in the evening R. C. Carton's well-known comedy, "Liberty Hall."

"The Jolly Bachelor."

Pleased at the reception accorded his presentation of Marie Dressler in "Tillie's Nightmare," at the Royal Alexandra two weeks ago, Lew Fields is sending his largest and most expensive show, "The Jolly Bachelors," to that playhouse next Monday, for a week's engagement. Some of the scenic surprises promised in the course of this somewhat widely diversified entertainment are: a magnificent ocean liner with passengers thronging her three decks; a four-story college dormitory with rolling students peering from the windows on each floor, and of the interior of a big drug store.

The company which will present the piece here is headed by that most irresistible of comedians, Stella Mayhew, probably the best singer of "coon songs" now in captivity. Others in the company include Lucy Weston, long a popular London music hall singer; Al Leech, grotesque dancer and comedian, and Harold Crane, who was popular hereabouts some years ago as a cabaret singer.

"When Sweet Sixteen."

The latest musical success of the season, "When Sweet Sixteen," written by a noted composer and the distinguished writer, George V. Hobart, will be the attraction presented at the Princess Theatre this evening, and for the entire week. Much interest has been evinced here in the presentation of "When Sweet Sixteen," for it not only marks a departure in the matter of musical attractions, but it also proves that the public taste demands plays that are thoroughly coherent, liberally sprinkled with musical gems. The name of Victor Herbert is in itself sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the music of "When Sweet Sixteen" and the name of George V. Hobart is also a guarantee of the merits of the book of lyrics.

"When Sweet Sixteen" has met with flattering receptions in the large cities, where it has been heard, and it goes to Chicago after this week for an extended engagement at one of the leading theatres of that city. The cast of artists to be heard in "When Sweet Sixteen" is a notable one, and includes such favorites as Eugene Cowles, Scott Welsh, Frank Doane, Harriet Stanton, Florence Nash, Gipsy Dale, May McCabe, Louis Franklin, R. M. Dolliver and Frances Gordon.

The "Sweet Sixteen" chorus is composed of young and pretty girls, and a lavish stage production is promised by the management. An augmented orchestra, including soloists from the Victoria Herbert Symphony Orchestra of New York, will be used for the entertainment. The direction of Augustus Kleinske.

Al. H. Wilson at the Grand.

Al. H. Wilson, the German dialect comedian, will be seen as Metz von Arheim, in his latest play, "A German Prince," at the Grand Opera House this week. Like good wine, Mr. Wilson's reputation improves with age. He does also his wonderful singing voice, which will be heard to advantage in several songs that were written and composed especially for this play, among the most notable of which is probably "My Queen of Dreams" and "Love Thoughts." Of the play itself much of interest can be said, for it contains so clever a blending of mirth, humor and pathos that it is sure to please the most exacting of amusement seekers. The comedy element is mostly supplied by the star in the character of the German prince, who, to escape from the clutches of an aged admirer, assumes the disguise of a courier, and meets with many humorous adventures while guiding a party of American tourists thru the Austrian Tyrol.

Gus Edwards' "Song Revue."

Gus Edwards' Song Revue heads the bill at Shea's Theatre this week. This company numbers 39 youngsters, headed by Gus Edwards. The act occupies almost an hour. Its success has attracted producers of musical comedy, and Mr. Edwards had two handsome offers to convert the act into a full production.

The special extra attraction is Bert Levy, the cartoonist of New York. Other features included in this week's bill are Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker in their musical flirtation, "Uncle Lem's Dilemma"; Fred St. Onge and Company; Michael E. Fitzgerald and his club juggling girls; Williams and Segal, and the Kinetograph.

Sam Howe's "Lovermakers."

Sam Howe and His Lovermakers are the attraction at the Gayety Theatre this week, presenting the two-act burlesque, "Love Makers in Africa," which is replete with gorgeous ballets, interesting specialties and brilliant spectacular effects. Of course, Sam Howe is the feature and his leading fun maker, the number of other entertainers, all unexcelled in their field, have been engaged by Sam Howe to support him. Some of them are Sam Howe's old minor, Bob West, Oscar Sydney, Lippon and Lanier, De Wolfe, Vera Desmond, Libby Blondell, The four Harmonists and the Dudna Sisters, and a large and pretty chorus and an extra added party ballet of "Ju-Ju."

Tom Miner's Burlesquers.

Andy Gardner, known thruout the country for his interpretation of the role of "Fatsy Bolivar," is still the principal comedian with Tom Miner's Bohemian Burlesquers. Gardner is seen to greater advantage this season than he has been for some time. As usual, he sings a funny topical song that is good for seven and eight scores at every performance. "The Bohemians" will be at the Star all this week.

The Second Chance.

College-street Methodist Church is to be congratulated in having secured the clever young artist, Miss Maude E. KING WILL BRING LIBEL ACTION AGAINST MYLIUS

Determined to End Once For All Slandereous Rumors Circulated For Years.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The News of the World says that King George's advisers have instituted criminal libel proceedings, with the object of ending once for all rumors which have been freely circulated for years that his majesty, when Prince of Wales, was morganatically married to a daughter of an admiral at Malta.

The defendant in the case is Edward F. Mylius, who is said to be connected with the paper, The Liberator, published in Paris, which printed the statements on which the libel charge is based. Mylius was arrested some weeks ago, charged at Bow-street, committed for trial and sent to jail.

In the ordinary way the case should be tried in the central criminal court, but on application of the crown it will be brought up in the high courts of Wednesday next, before Lord Chief Justice Alverstone and a special jury.

According to a statement in The Liberator, the defendant intends to file a plea of justification and also subpoena the King as a witness. The constitutional law, however, makes it impossible for his majesty to give evidence in his own courts, notwithstanding that he may be anxious to do so.

Practically all of the London morning papers publish stories of the intention of the King's advisers to carry the case to the courts on the charge of criminal libel. It is noteworthy that The Morning Post, referring in a recent article to the arrest of Mylius, on Dec. 28, said that he was charged with being concerned in the publication of seditious statements, but the paper made no reference to the alleged morganatic marriage, merely saying that the alleged seditious statements referred, among other things, to the policy followed by this country in Egypt and India.

The Post also published a long article on the constitutional law in such an unusual case, saying that as it was during a legal vacation, the advisers had abstained from charging Mylius in a police court according to the usual procedure. Application was made to the vacation judge in chambers, who issued a writ of habeas corpus, and then committed him to custody, fixing bail at $100,000, which the prisoner was unable to furnish. The result of this action by the police was that Mylius was legally committed without publicity, and until recently the London papers have made but brief reference to the case.

It is understood the proceedings in the suit are brought under a statute 200 years old.

No. 4 About the Flexotype--- Part Three--The Flexible Form

The Flexible Flexotype Form.

THIS is the vital feature of the Flexotype--- the flexible, tempered steel form, in which the type is placed line by line as it is set up. It is only a quarter of an inch thick when filled with type.

THIS feature of the detachable flexible form is alone sufficient to place the Flexotype out of reach of comparison with any other office printer.

THE form can be filed away, if desired, like a letter. Any number of forms may be used. A set goes with the machine. To detach one form from the printing cylinder and put on another is the work of a moment. Set up half a dozen letters if you wish; run what you need of one, then slip on another form.

THE Flexotype is a machine of unities--- the printer, the type-setter and the flexible form. This rational principle gives it the widest possible range of uses.

SAMPLES of Flexotype work and booklet describing the machine in detail, sent upon request to the Flexotype Department.

We have no particular objection to taking a Flexotype right down to your office and showing you.

Public Amusements

Terry in Repertoire.

The week's engagement at the Royal Alexandra Theatre of the distinguished English comedian, Mr. Edward Terry, who will during his visit, present a number of delightful comedies, will commence to-night. His first offering will be that charming play, "Sweet Lavender," by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. Mr. Terry will be seen in the role of Dick Phenyl, a character he has played with much success over 4000 times. He brings with him his own company, direct from Terry's Theatre, London.

Mr. Terry's engagement in Toronto has the aspect of being somewhat of a social event, as already reservations have been made for a number of large theatre parties. This is no doubt due, in a measure, to the attention shown this noted actor by their Excellencies Earl and Countess Grey, during his visit to Ottawa last week. At the Wednesday matinee Mr. Terry will present "The Toy-maker of Nuremberg," and in the evening R. C. Carton's well-known comedy, "Liberty Hall."

"The Jolly Bachelor."

Pleased at the reception accorded his presentation of Marie Dressler in "Tillie's Nightmare," at the Royal Alexandra two weeks ago, Lew Fields is sending his largest and most expensive show, "The Jolly Bachelors," to that playhouse next Monday, for a week's engagement. Some of the scenic surprises promised in the course of this somewhat widely diversified entertainment are: a magnificent ocean liner with passengers thronging her three decks; a four-story college dormitory with rolling students peering from the windows on each floor, and of the interior of a big drug store.

The company which will present the piece here is headed by that most irresistible of comedians, Stella Mayhew, probably the best singer of "coon songs" now in captivity. Others in the company include Lucy Weston, long a popular London music hall singer; Al Leech, grotesque dancer and comedian, and Harold Crane, who was popular hereabouts some years ago as a cabaret singer.

"When Sweet Sixteen."

The latest musical success of the season, "When Sweet Sixteen," written by a noted composer and the distinguished writer, George V. Hobart, will be the attraction presented at the Princess Theatre this evening, and for the entire week. Much interest has been evinced here in the presentation of "When Sweet Sixteen," for it not only marks a departure in the matter of musical attractions, but it also proves that the public taste demands plays that are thoroughly coherent, liberally sprinkled with musical gems. The name of Victor Herbert is in itself sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the music of "When Sweet Sixteen" and the name of George V. Hobart is also a guarantee of the merits of the book of lyrics.

"When Sweet Sixteen" has met with flattering receptions in the large cities, where it has been heard, and it goes to Chicago after this week for an extended engagement at one of the leading theatres of that city. The cast of artists to be heard in "When Sweet Sixteen" is a notable one, and includes such favorites as Eugene Cowles, Scott Welsh, Frank Doane, Harriet Stanton, Florence Nash, Gipsy Dale, May McCabe, Louis Franklin, R. M. Dolliver and Frances Gordon.

The "Sweet Sixteen" chorus is composed of young and pretty girls, and a lavish stage production is promised by the management. An augmented orchestra, including soloists from the Victoria Herbert Symphony Orchestra of New York, will be used for the entertainment. The direction of Augustus Kleinske.

Al. H. Wilson at the Grand.

Al. H. Wilson, the German dialect comedian, will be seen as Metz von Arheim, in his latest play, "A German Prince," at the Grand Opera House this week. Like good wine, Mr. Wilson's reputation improves with age. He does also his wonderful singing voice, which will be heard to advantage in several songs that were written and composed especially for this play, among the most notable of which is probably "My Queen of Dreams" and "Love Thoughts." Of the play itself much of interest can be said, for it contains so clever a blending of mirth, humor and pathos that it is sure to please the most exacting of amusement seekers. The comedy element is mostly supplied by the star in the character of the German prince, who, to escape from the clutches of an aged admirer, assumes the disguise of a courier, and meets with many humorous adventures while guiding a party of American tourists thru the Austrian Tyrol.

Gus Edwards' "Song Revue."

Gus Edwards' Song Revue heads the bill at Shea's Theatre this week. This company numbers 39 youngsters, headed by Gus Edwards. The act occupies almost an hour. Its success has attracted producers of musical comedy, and Mr. Edwards had two handsome offers to convert the act into a full production.

The special extra attraction is Bert Levy, the cartoonist of New York. Other features included in this week's bill are Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker in their musical flirtation, "Uncle Lem's Dilemma"; Fred St. Onge and Company; Michael E. Fitzgerald and his Sidelights.

The Benettes and Toronto General Bowlers, are men a side, rolled for fivepin honors at the T. B. C. Saturday afternoon. Two games were rolled, with the "Benettes" coming out on top in both. "Col." White, of the latter, was the class of the engagement. The Red Trust, composed of the following, will now be taken on by the Benettes for the fivepin championship: General Jackson, C. P. Smith, W. Pearson, Ed. Sullivan and Percy Balfour. This match should be worth coming miles to see.

MURPHY UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED PRESIDENT

Will Be First Salaried Official of N.L.U.—Foran of Ottawa Will Revise Playing Rules.

MONTREAL, Jan. 28.—Jas. Murphy of Montreal, manager of the Toronto team, was unanimously elected on Saturday as first salaried president of the National Lacrosse Union for a three-year term. Only one other name was mentioned, that of Joe Lally of Cornwall, who was proposed by the Capitals and seconded by the Shamrocks, but Mr. Lally stated that he had been named without his consent. Mr. Murphy's selection was thereupon made unanimous. There was a brisk fight over the reserve question. Cornwall complained that for years it had been the milch cow of the league, and Mr. McPhee demanded that it be finally decided that until April 1 all intermediate teams in Ottawa and Cornwall should be considered as intermediate teams. This will render all their players until that date available to the home senior teams. After April 1 outside teams may draft from the intermediate clubs in these cities. The playing rules are to be revised by Mr. Wm. Foran of Ottawa and on the reserve question, Cornwall complained that for years it had been the milch cow of the league, and Mr. McPhee demanded that it be finally decided that until April 1 all intermediate teams in Ottawa and Cornwall should be considered as intermediate teams. A New Idea on The Cause of Colds

PNEUMONIA, LA GRIPPE AND CONSUMPTION, AND A REMINDER OF THE PHENOMENAL AND CONTINUED SUCCESS OF DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE.

Scientists have a new explanation for the great prevalence of colds, la grippe and pneumonia. They tell us that when we pass out of doors we enter an atmosphere where the humidity averages about 70 per cent. when it might have been as low as 30 in the house or office.

The sudden change from the dry and over-heated air of the house to the cold and more moist air of outdoors is a shock to the mucous membranes which induces colds, la grippe or pneumonia.

This evil is largely due to modern methods of heating, and can be overcome by keeping the air moist in building. But there are colds to be cured, sufferers from la grippe that require treatment, and every day these ailments are developing into pneumonia and consumption.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine... 25 cents a bottle; family size, three times as much, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Edman, Bates and Co., Toronto.

CURES

- Whooping Cough. Severe Chest Colds. Bronchitis. Asthma. Pneumonia. La Grippe. Throat Irritation. Tickling in the Throat. Soreness and Dryness in the Throat. Irritation and Inflammation of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs.

You know something of the value of turpentine as a medicine. You know something of the healing and soothing properties of linseed, or flaxseed as it is most commonly called. In Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine these ingredients are so combined with half a dozen others as to make a treatment which is at the same time pleasant to the taste and of most exceptional curative power.

But you need not accept this medicine on theory, or on what we say, for it has been before the people for many years, and each year has witnessed a great increase in the quantity used. Ask your friends and neighbors about it. Ask the mothers who have saved the lives of their children when in the clutches of croup. Ask the men and women who have shaken themselves free from the grasp of la grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis or asthma by its use. Ask the thousands of people who have learned to trust to this great medicine to cure coughs and colds and prevent such deadly diseases as consumption and pneumonia.

HALL WAS PACKED FOR FINAL SUNDAY MEETING

Over Four Thousand Hear Dr. Chapman—An Appeal to the Young Man.

Last night's meeting in Massey Hall was in itself an answer to those who would like to claim that the campaign in Toronto has not "taken hold" as others have. Disappointed crowds of people lingered around the doors after the 4000 seating capacity of the hall had been filled and the doors closed.

The King's Business

Evangelistic Meetings. For Monday, Institute of Christian Service, Metropolitan Church. 10.15 a.m.—Song service. 10.30 a.m.—Address, Dr. A. S. Probert. "The Down Town Problem."

At Walmor Road. Walmor-road Baptist Church was also the scene of great evangelistic activity. Dr. E. W. Weaver, D.D., presided at the piano. The speakers were Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander.

Spoke to Women. At the Metropolitan Church Mrs. Alexander addressed a gathering of women in the afternoon, upon them the necessity of not only being Christians, but of living the Christian life, but of bringing the people with us, and helping them to the acceptance of the Christian faith.

The Closing Days. To-day and to-morrow there will be a great influx of people to the Metropolitan Church to hear the many well-known speakers who will address the "Institute of Christian Service" in connection with the evangelistic campaign.

Laid on the Colors. "It seems to me," said the evangelist, "that people get to a fatal place where we begin to think of sin only as an error or as a mistake. I tell you that any minister who minimizes sin soon forgets the atonement, telling people that if they do their best that will be enough. But the Bible is full of warnings that tell us we may do our best, and yet not reach the goal."

HIS OPULENCE SUSPICIOUS

Albert Stanley's Rise to Wealth Lands Him in Police Net. Because Albert Stanley, 202 Duchesne-street, was flashing money around since Friday night, before he was considered a stone broke, Albert Farr, 46 Hamburg-avenue, suspected him in connection with the disappearance of his (Farr's) horse and buggy, which was taken from the corner of Spadina and Queen-sts. Detective Newton arrested Stanley Saturday night on Farr's warrant.

BURNED TO DEATH

HALIFAX, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Weaver, wife of the steward of the steamer A. W. Perry, running between Halifax, St. John and Boston, died at the hospital this morning, from burns received while preparing food for her baby, at 4 o'clock in the morning. In some way her clothing took fire at the open grate. She screamed, but before help came she was terribly burned. Nothing could be done to save her and she died in the hospital.

ONTARIO IS THE MOST BACKWARD IN THE TRANSCONTINENTAL LINES

But Now the Roads Are About to Catch Up and Eight New Cities Are in Sight.

The question of a transcontinental railway, or railways, rather, across Canada had the source of its origin and certainly its main support in the Province of Ontario more than any other section of Canada. We of this province have been talking transcontinental railways and improved transportation every day of every year since confederation was inaugurated. Next to our bread and butter, it has been our daily topic.

And yet now, when you come to size up the situation, you see that the Ontario section is really the one incomplete section of these propositions. We have three railways, the Canadian Pacific, the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Northern, all of transcontinental aspirations, and they have all taken more less shape, and are all doing more or less business, excepting those portions of them that cross this Province of Ontario, and especially that crossing that portion of this province known now to all the world as New Ontario and here there is an almost universal falldown. (See the map above).

An Incomplete Policy.
It is true that the Canadian Pacific has an all-rail road from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and therefore has an all-rail route across Ontario. But it has the only one, and its policy in regard to the Province of Ontario is at this moment incomplete. Besides its passenger and freight line from Winnipeg to the eastern system, which lies this side of the Georgian Bay, there is yet to be completed an all-rail line (and the whole spirit of all the transcontinental roads is based on the idea of handling wheat from the wheatfields to Port Arthur by rail), from Port Arthur to a Georgian Bay port, by boat during the months of navigation, and then by rail from the Georgian Bay to the water at Montreal.

This requires what is now called a wheat line from the Georgian Bay to Montreal, and such a wheat line to be effective must be standard built, and especially built with regard to grades. The Canadian Pacific has the elevators at Port Arthur and the elevators at Victoria Harbor on the Georgian Bay, but at present has only a single-track line of indifferent grade from the Georgian Bay to Montreal. But it is working at the proposition in a very earnest way, and the contracts are now let for the first section from Victoria Harbor to Bethany, near Peterboro. Two years will see this big line completed, and then for the first time the Province of Ontario will be properly served as far as one railway is concerned in the direction of a genuine transcontinental service.

What About the G. T. R.?
But what about the Grand Trunk? It will be twenty months yet before its all-rail line will have reached Cochrane, where it will get connection with the east line from the "Millskämig & Northern Ontario Line." But it, too, has a wheat line in view, and it has not yet even a good working arrangement of its railway from Winnipeg to Port Arthur by way of Superior Junction. This, however, will soon be put in good shape, and on the opening of navigation the Grand Trunk will be able to store western wheat in its elevators at Midland and Parry Sound. From Midland it will have some kind of wheat line to Montreal, and like the Canadian Pacific, it will gradually improve it.

But what about the Canadian Northern? It is now at Port Arthur, but it will be some two years before it can hope to get an all-rail line from Port Arthur to Port Lake, which is its present end of steel north of Sudbury. It has a harbor on Georgian Bay at Key Inlet, but it has no line from Key Inlet to Montreal across the peninsula. Its requirement, therefore, is a wheat line like what the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific will have and are likely soon to have, and that is a high-class road from Key Inlet to Montreal. It is, therefore, asking aid for a line from Key Inlet to Ottawa, and from its present end of steel at Port Lake, north of Sudbury, to its proposed line from Key Inlet to Ottawa, passing through the Town of North Bay. Not that the Canadian Northern is not able to handle grain now from Edmonton to Montreal, for it is able to have its steamers accept shipments of wheat from its cars or elevators at Port Arthur and to put them away at Montreal by way of the Welland Canal; but this is not the cheapest, nor the best, nor the most reliable way. A wheat road across Northern Ontario is the thing.

Wheat Lines to the Sea.
As a consequence, you see the three great roads, making every effort toward traffic arrangements so that they will have an all-rail passenger and freight service from Winnipeg to their lines in Eastern Ontario, and have the highest class of wheat lines from the Georgian Bay ports to the sea at Montreal.

These are now the great propositions before this province, and prove what we said above, that until Ontario has had these lines built she will be still the least forward of any of the provinces in the way of rail and other equipment for transcontinental business.

New Ontario today is the most outstanding section of Canada in regard to development. There is in New Ontario greater mineral wealth than in any other portion of Canada. That we believe to be true.

It has also an immense amount of the timber, and it has agricultural lands, and especially that portion known as the clay belt, which promise enormous yields to the settler who will go in there and clear the bush. It may be discouraging these days to think about clearing a bush farm, but we have our own view of the matter, that eventually the bush farmer is going to find the prairie to get a crop of wheat. But we do not intend to encourage rivalry of this kind so much as to direct the public attention to the large amount of work that remains to be done in this province to complete our transcontinental railway outfits.

Eight Great Centres.
With these greater projects before Northern Ontario in connection with three transcontinental roads, there suddenly comes a great advance to a number of places that are now important points, but which are immediately destined to become places of much greater standing in Ontario, namely: Port Arthur, Sudbury, Cochrane, North Bay, Parry Sound, Key Inlet, Midland, Victoria Harbor—eight new centres of an enormous and growing trade. All of these places are first with a new zeal. Take a good look at the map and you will see what is to make these new centres of trade of the course, Port Arthur has already arrived, but it is to be much greater.

MEMO BOOK DISCLOSES BANK'S EARLY HISTORY

Missing Evidence Now in Crown's Hands—Testing Sanity of Travers.

The lost has been found, and now the crown feels much better regarding the Farmers' Bank prosecutions. It is a little book in which are said to be entered the minutes of the meeting of the provisional directors, at which their permanent successors were appointed. It was at this meeting that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was made president, and the book may have bearing on the doctor's position.

AGED MAN BREAKS COLLAR BONE.
Elijah Saunders, 24 Inkerman-street, 63 years of age, was knocked down by a street car at Bloor and Yonge-streets Saturday afternoon. His collarbone was fractured and he was removed to St. Michael's Hospital in a police ambulance.

Could Not Walk Ten Yards Without Resting.
WEAK HEART WAS THE CAUSE.

Mrs. Robinson Collette, Rogersville, N.P., writes: "I am now enjoying the best of health after having used your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart and was afraid to draw a long breath for the pain it would cause me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. I had used many other pills, but they did me no good. I am now able to do my work on the verge of death and yet do not know it."

Thousands of people go about their daily work on the verge of death and yet do not know it. Little attention is paid to the slight weakness of the heart for the simple reason that one thinks it will right itself, but there is where the mistake is made. It is only when a violent shock comes that the weakness of the heart becomes apparent.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will soon produce a quick and permanent cure.

At the Art Museum

Something of what may be expected from the activities of "The Art Museum of Toronto" may be inferred from the excellent loan exhibition of pictures in the public library on College-street. The collection represents an effort to bring together selected examples of the work of deceased painters, either native Canadians, or men identified with the art of Canada.

Altogether 22 artists are represented, and the eclectic nature of the work warrants the expectation that Canadian art will not be itself up into any one tradition. The great work of the greatest of the American prophets was "Leave all free." The spirit of freedom is the great of all great art, and these past masters of Canadian painting worshipped truly.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER FOR FARMING SECTIONS

Hon. Adam Beck Promises Cheap Light and Power to the Farmer

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Speaking before the Canadian Club here to-day Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, said: "The people of the Province of Ontario are indebted to the public spirit manifested by the city council of Toronto in the early stages of the hydro-electric cheap power movement."

Power for Farmers.
Mr. Beck outlined a project which will make hydro-electric power available to Ontario farmers for farming purposes. The possibilities of the employment of electricity on the farm were marvelous in view of the results obtained from experimental work in the agricultural districts of Germany and the United States.

of the whole situation, pointing out that it was essentially a project of the people and by the people, and the present success was due entirely to the confidence and support which the public had given to the commission. Mr. Beck is in Ottawa at the invitation of Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of the Conservation Commission, and complimented that gentleman on the value of the advice which the commission was able to give. He answered the criticism that the Hydro-Electric Commission should have been composed of men not affiliated with the government by saying that owing to the immense responsibility involved in view of the large expenditure it was necessary for the party in power to assume that responsibility in the legislature.

Fair Dealing.
He paid a tribute to the fair dealing of the Ontario Power Company, and declared that the saving to the province in the cost of heat and light would be sufficient to compensate for the expenditure on the distribution system if a horse power was never transmitted. He felt that the time would come when by reason of water power development in Ontario there would be smokeless cities and towns, in contrast with the "smoking chimneys" promised under the national policy in 1878.

A PRESENTATION
To W. L. Edmonds, Who Leaves the MacLean Publishing Company.

The Toronto and Montreal staffs of the Maclean Publishing Co. on Saturday afternoon, presented Mr. W. L. Edmonds, general manager of that company, who is severing his connection with that organization, to go into partnership in the trade newspaper publishing business with Mr. D. O. McKinnon, with a pair of house chairs for himself and Mrs. Edmonds, as a memento of the pleasant relations existing between himself and the members of the staff under him. Colonel J. B. Maclean, president of the company, on his own behalf, presented Mr. Edmonds with a magnificent upholstered desk chair. The colonel, in his address, paid splendid tribute to Mr. Edmonds' worth and incidentally recounted the work done by Mr. Edmonds during the 18 years of his connection with the company. Mr. Horace Hunter made the presentation on behalf of the staffs. Mr. Edmonds made a very feeling reply.

HAD TO STAY OUTSIDE
Allan Liner Coriscan Runs Into Big Gale Off Halifax.

HALIFAX, Jan. 29.—The Allan liner Coriscan, which arrived in port Saturday night from Liverpool with the English mail and five hundred passengers, encountered terrible weather off Halifax in a blizzard Saturday morning. Captain Cooke arrived off the harbor at 8 o'clock, and ran into the worst storm of the winter. The wind was blowing fifty miles an hour, and after several attempts to make the harbor the captain decided to anchor until the evening, when the wind shifted. The blizzard that swept the coast last night was one of the worst for years. It is remarkable considering the fierceness of the storm, how little damage was done.

WANT A RAILWAY.
On Tuesday evening a deputation about one hundred and twenty strong will arrive in the city, to ask the government to guarantee the bonds of a railway line from the present C. N. O. railway line, about twenty miles north of Parry Sound to North Bay. The proposed line would run thru a district which is at present some forty miles from a line of railway.

Gave Over $10,000.
Ven. Archbishop Cody announced in St. Paul's Church on Sunday morning that the congregation had contributed over $10,000 to the missions of the church.

A PLEA FOR FATHER.

"There ought to be a little more masculine influence about the house to keep the boy away from the streets and the man away from the club. Make a place in the home for father," was the entreaty of Rev. Byron H. Stauffer in Bond-street Congregational Church last night, which was crowded to the doors. "Not only make him a place in the home, but a big place also in your respect. Honor your father's code of ethics, for even if he is a little of a back number in fashion, he is never a back number in the matter of honor and honesty, and his advice is always a thing to be considered." He concluded by pleading, even if the father had brought shame on the family, honor him for what he had been and treat him with kindness and respect.

DYSPEPSIA-PROOF

How Any Meal Can Be Thoroughly Enjoyed By Any Stomach. Costs You Nothing to Try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. Their antagonists turn on the searchlight, and the proof of merit will lie in being able to stand the flash.

It was only in this way that Mr. White ever knew that dyspepsia was one of Mr. Black's worst enemies. Sitting face to face at a two-by-four table he handed his afflicted friend the bill of fare:

Oyster Cocktail. Stuffed Olives. Boston Clam Chowder. Strained Gumbo. Sirloin Beef with Mushrooms. Boiled Ox Tongue and Sauerkraut. Lobster a la Newburg. Baked Pork and Beans. Combination Crab Salad. Pineapple Fritters.

Mr. White ordered a "little of each." Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I'll just take a bite to keep you company." But Mr. White could not be deceived: "I am afraid you can't stand the feast, Mr. Black. Why don't you say you have dyspepsia and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look anyhow as long as you have dyspepsia. Now listen. My stomach really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly all the work it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't get along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package." Yes, it is true: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloaty feeling and all eruptions and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. They cheer you up, and make you get all the good there is in your food. You will forget you ever had a stomach to worry you.

SUBURBAN AND YORK COUNTY HAPPENINGS

North Toronto Still Waits For Board of Control—Odd Accident Near Claremont.

NORTH TORONTO, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Whether thru want of interest in matters municipal or thru lack of knowledge of the fact that a public meeting had been called for Saturday night, few enough were present in the town council to constitute a quorum, and the whole thing was called off. President Banton stated that something would be done to future developments whether another meeting would be called in the near future or not. The townspeople are anxiously awaiting the long-deferred visit of the board of control, and incidentally chafing under the delay.

SCARBORO OLD BOYS. A meeting of the executive of the Scarboro Old Boys was held at the Clyde Hotel on Saturday afternoon.

ON WALL-STREET

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: The general stock market had a firm undertone to-day, with numerous active speculators. The stocks that advanced most yesterday, reacted a little at the close on profit-taking. On the whole, the market was distinctly broader, indicating increased confidence on the part of investors...

New York Bank Statement

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks held $28,062,425 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent. reserve rule. This was an increase of $2,809,000 from the previous week...

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Revival of buying in lower volume than attended 1910. The market was generally active and strong. An enormous expansion of loans in the actual condition of the bank statement, amounting to $15,500,000, was reported. The actual cash gain of $12,500,000, slightly in excess of forecasts, but not as much as the market had anticipated. Together favorable, showing, as it did, only a very slight reduction in the actual cash reserve.

MEETINGS

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

Notice is hereby given that the 64th Annual General Meeting of the Canada Life Assurance Company, Ltd., will be held at the company's Head Office in the City of Toronto on Thursday, February 23rd, 1911, at 11 o'clock, forenoon, to receive the report of the directors, to transact any business which may properly come before the meeting, and to elect directors for the ensuing year.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the members and shareholders of the York Fire Insurance Company, Ltd., will be held at the company's head office, 151 Bay Street, Toronto, on Thursday, February 23rd, 1911, at the hour of 2 p.m. for the purpose of receiving the directors' report, the election of directors, and to discuss the advisability of changing from cash-mutual and stock to a joint stock company, and for other general business as may come before the meeting.

Cotton Gossp.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: The local market continues to show the lack of speculative interest, prices holding slightly under the 10c level, with business dull and featureless, and neither bull nor bear disposed to take the initiative. Some talk is heard regarding a falling off in the English trade, owing to overproduction, a further decline in silver which affects the buying power of the far east, and there is a more general disposition to fall back on supplies, pending any favorable developments in the new crop situation. It is the general feeling here that the market will continue quiet until a change is recorded in the spot situation. Would advise sales on all bulges.

The Last Day of the January White Goods Sale. The Best Day for Bargains

When a Woman Goes Shopping

It is generally the outcome of mature deliberation on her part, lasting over a period varying according to the importance of the purchase she is about to make. Perhaps on the way to the store she decides to wait for a sale, and contents herself with a packet of hairpins. This "thinking out" usually results in comparison, which is advantageous to us. Thousands of Toronto women know by experience that the bargains they are in search of will most likely be in the Simpson Page; and perhaps the very one you waited for is here to-day.

Of course you know all about the White Goods Sale, but we would remind you that many departments are stock-taking, and that new stocks are arriving daily, so that the shopper at this season of the year reaps this double advantage.

When a Man Goes Shopping

It is generally because it has been pretty forcibly brought to his notice that he must have something at once, and he hurries off to get it.

But every year a larger percentage of men are "getting the habit" of reading the current advertisements, and refusing to pay half as much again for the same quality as the next man does. To-day this is remarkably noticeable in men's clothing; and every day the number of men who come hustling here, and go away surprised and satisfied, is on the increase, and once our customer, always our customer.

Men's English, Terry and Austrian Blanket Bath Robes. Sizes 36 to 44. Regular prices $6.50 and $7.00. To clear before stock-taking, $3.95.
