CHANCE TO WED AN ARCHDUCHESS. Advertiser that She is Charming and Life in Europe a Miserable Existence.

Paris, Jan. 20—Nobility is going cheap in Central Europe, and any American who is anxious to marry an archduchess can have his chance by answering the following advertisement, which has appeared in a Tyrolean newspaper—

"Charming archduchess, accomplished musician with knowledge of several languages, brought up in luxury and now tired of a miserable existence without money, would marry rich and refined American or English gentleman about thirty-eight years of age. Parvenues and individuals of other nationalities need not apply. The archduchess will willingly emigrate and even, if necessary, change her religion. An interview might be arranged in Switzerland."

Vienna newspapers are full of such advertisements, and the advertisers, despairing of finding suitable matches in their own country, are now beginning to advertise abroad.

JACK LONDON TALE ON SILVER SCREEN

"The Mutiny of the Elsinore" a Splendid Feature at Imperial.

"The Mutiny of the Elsinore," the Metro production of the famous Jack London novel, with an all-star cast, is the feature attraction at the Imperial again today. This picture, which presents the famous London novel of the sea on the screen for the first time, is a special Metro production with an all-star cast. "The Mutiny of the Elsinore" is one of the late Jack London's last and most notable works. It is a strong tale of the sea in which a crew of city gangsters attempt to take over the control of the ship from the officers in charge; and in addition there is a charming love story, the thread of which is crossed by the evil passion of Andreas Mellaire to possess the beautiful daughter of Jason West, a half-owner of the "Elsinore."

EDUCATION.

Dr. J. D. Logan in his address before the Canadian Club quoted two eminent educators as holding views similar to his own in his indictment of the universities. He might have quoted another very distinguished man—Mr. Thomas A. Edison, who recently said:—

"The more experience I have with young men the more I am inclined to think that something serious is wrong with both our common school and our college systems of education. The boys are taught a lot of theories which they seem to learn by rote. At any rate, very few of them are taught to do any thinking of their own. I can very rarely find even a college graduate who can think to any purpose."

"Touching the question of the common schools, and leaving the universities out of the question, Mr. J. F. Carmichael, a school principal in Kitchener, Ontario, made some observations in an address last week that are of particular interest in New Brunswick at the present time. He declares for a more forward policy in education in Canada; and while he would not magnify the commercial aspects of education, but would emphasize that which is congenial to the growth of character, remembering that life is more than meat and the body than raiment, yet he holds every man should be enabled to follow successfully his chosen task in life. The Toronto Globe reports:—

"Mr. Carmichael contended that adolescents should be taken when their minds are most plastic, and given an opportunity of choosing the vocation they felt was to be their life work. Practical education, as he saw it, was not to cram the memory with facts, but to equip a child that what it learned in school would be of everyday use to it in making its way in the world. In making a plan for vocational training in public schools Mr. Carmichael said a boy at the age of adolescence became restless; he wanted to do things, not read about them; he wanted to make things with his hands; not merely hear about them. Hence the need of pre-vocational schools that would train adolescents for mature vocational work. In his own school in Kitchener the establishment of a manual training class and a department of household science had resulted in few pupils leaving school when the age of fourteen was reached. Mr. Carmichael expressed the belief that only half time should be devoted to the study of academic subjects and the other half to vocational work. No pupil could concentrate his mind for a whole day on academic subjects; to do so was too much of a strain."

BETTER TIMES AHEAD.

Despite reports of unemployment, lessened activity in industries, and other evidences of depression, most forecasts of business for the year in the United States are optimistic. The Guaranty Trust Company of New York sums up the situation as follows:—

"Reduced to its simplest terms, the situation is that most other countries, and particularly those of Europe, need the things which America produces, but are unable to pay for them at the present time, an inability which increases as prices rise, and which cannot be overcome entirely until they fall. So long as prices remain at high levels, therefore, both the foreign and domestic demand for American goods will be curtailed. When these prices return to a level that reflects the relation of the demand for goods to the supply of goods, and only that relation, we shall have normal buying and selling again and, considering the losses of the war years and the long time it will take other countries to re-establish their productive and distributive processes, there can be little doubt that the results will be advantageous to this country."

What is true of her neighbor is true of Canada. There is a shortage of goods in many countries, but inability to buy and pay for them is the pressing problem, and, as along with high prices, the stumbling block in the way of an industrial and commercial revival on a large scale. That revival may be deferred a little longer, but the readjustment is only a matter of time, and Canada is perhaps in a better position to wait than any other country.

Ontario mourns the loss of the old-fashioned winter. The Toronto Globe says: "These are rare days for the youth of the countryside," says the New York Herald. "Every boy and girl with a pair of skates is tasting the wine of life in the open on the ponds." But in a large part of Ontario the usual hockey schedules have been put out of joint by the absence of natural ice.

BOY CRIMINALS

The Times yesterday published startling figures showing the increase in the number of crimes by boys in Canada during the past few years. The morning papers carry a story about four Chicago boys who were responsible for more than a hundred hold-ups in that city. Such facts should concentrate public attention upon the boy question and stimulate every effort that is being made to turn their minds from evil ways and encourage and aid them to develop a strong and self-respecting manhood. There is always a certain percentage who are born with vicious tendencies, but even in such cases proper environment and training may prevent those tendencies from wrecking the future of a boy. Given favorable conditions for growth, however, the vicious inclinations in time dominate his life, and he becomes a menace or a burden instead of a productive and helpful unit in society. In every city there are groups of boys who come under the domination of a stronger mind, and if it is a vicious mind and they are not withdrawn from its influence evil results are certain to follow. It follows, therefore, that parents and society as a whole should be deeply concerned in what use the boys are making of their leisure time.

AUSTRIA'S MISERY.

The situation in Austria is very bad. Business is at a standstill. Food is scarce, and it is said starvation threatens great numbers of the people. The workers are making charges of profiteering and are threatening to take matters into their own hands if the government does not act. The government in turn declares its helplessness because it lacks the funds to give relief. The paper money of the country is of no value. The Allies have been urged to render financial aid, but have not yet decided to do so, although it is said the question will be considered at the next meeting of the Allied premiers. The Austrian finance minister intimates that union with Germany may have to be sought as a way out, but on the other hand it is asserted that Germany is not in a financial position to help Austria. Such a union would not be regarded favorably by the Allies. On the surface it would seem that only by giving Austria financial aid can the matter be settled without serious complications. There has also been a report that a strong faction in Hungary is laying plans which would not find favor with the Allies, but for the moment Austria's plight commands the attention of the Allied statesmen.

Forbes Magazine, New York: The scramble for "protection" and "government aid" and similar artificial measures to bolster up prices for the benefit of certain classes is regrettable from every viewpoint. Such tactics are likely to end only in disappointment, just as are attempts by farmers to "hold wheat for $3" and by cotton-growers to "hold cotton for 30 cents." Because governments used strong-arm methods to control prices during the World War emergency, the notion has become widespread that the law of supply and demand can be thwarted at any time and all the time by anybody that has a mind to. It can't, as those who try will learn to their cost in the long run.

The independent hockey league which was organized because some professionals were not restored to amateur standing is not having any great degree of good fortune. The Halifax team has been withdrawn, and a substitute is being sought. Meanwhile amateur hockey, where there are rinks on which to play, is getting along very well. The players who refused to link up with the professional or semi-professional game were wise, and they have done a good thing for clean sport.

The strike of shoe operatives in four New England cities to resist a cut in wages brings the matter to a test. Each day brings news of wage cuts by industries or railroads, and there is also the fight for and against the open shop. A considerable period of industrial unrest seems assured. Both sides appear to be determined not to yield.

The United Farmers of Quebec ask the government to grant a million dollars a year for colonization. In that province great success attends the continuous campaign to get more people on the land.

The United Farmers of Alberta have decided to go into provincial politics and be ready to contest every constituency when the next provincial elections are held.

HARDING GIVES UP NEWSPAPER POST WHILE PRESIDENT

Marion, Ohio, Jan. 20.—President-elect Harding resigned last night as president of the Harding Publishing Company and thus relinquished the active direction he has exercised for thirty years over the editorial policy of the Marion Daily Star.

ANTI-TOBACCO. Crusaders say their plans are ripe, they've hitched their wagons to some stars, and soon they'll take away my pipe and shut me off from long cigars. When I am smoking I am mild, I never raise a fuss or rant, I am as gentle as a child, and harmless as my maiden aunt. But when they take my pipe away I fear I'll train with savage men; I really am afraid to say what tragedies may happen then. Our lives are full of ugly curses and what we suffer no one knows tobacco soothes the tired man's nerves, and gives his jaded soul repose. There's peace in forty million homes because Tired Fathers puff and puff; with wreaths of smoke around their domes, they know tobacco is the stuff. They do not care to beat their wives or break the crockery and chairs; for smoking calms their troubled lives, as it would heal sore heads of bears. In moral fits, at divers times, I've thrown my trusty pipe away; then I wrote pessimistic rhymes and scrapped with neighbors every day. I'd sternly say "No stack of puff will ever make me smoke again," and then I'd sit and hate myself, and also hate my fellow-men.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

EARLY P. E. I. CATHOLICS.

In the year 1772 Captain John MacDonald, Lord of Glenaladale, espoused the cause of the Scots who for allegiance to Prince Charles Stuart had found it necessary to quit Scotland. He purchased a large estate in Prince Edward Island and in June of that year he arrived there after a voyage of two months. Two hundred and ten exiles were ready to step on the land he had secured for that purpose. Their arrival was a source of great joy to the French who had already taken up land in the island for their spiritual needs. The colony had been promised a priest to minister to their spiritual needs. The colony had been without one since Father Maillard had died ten years earlier. He had suffered great hardships at the time of the expulsion of the Acadians; in fact he was the only priest left in the French colony by the sea after that event. In 1785 he was a great friend of the Indians and so when the question of his exile was considered after he had been captured by the savages, he was allowed to remain with them. The authorities of the time were forced to give way to the redskins' demands.

With the Scottish Catholic exiles of 1772 there came as priest the Rev. Father James MacDonald who spoke English, French, Gaelic and Italian. Until 1785 he was the spiritual leader of the little colony and exhausted himself in his attempts to better the condition of the people who sought a new home in the western world.

At his death the settlers petitioned the bishop at Quebec to send them a new priest, and to secure one so John Doucet of Justice, P. E. I., was appointed by Bishop Gégis to baptize and marry in the colony.

Later, however, from Scotland came the Rev. Father Donald MacDonald for the services in the new world.

LABOR TO PRODUCE THE BEST.

(Rev. George Scott.) Labor to produce the best, Let no maner thought expand, Be the passion in the house of God, Resolute with purpose grand!

He who delves, as he who spins, He who works with hand and brain Only high achievement wins Through the conflict of his pain.

He who ploughs and he who sows, Worn by the summer heat; He who smites the avil knows Restful nights of slumber sweet.

Labor to produce the best, Let thy discontentment still Drag thy task unto the dust, And the purpose of thy will.

Seek not sordid wealth or fame, Seek not ease or mortal praise, Let thy passion like a flame, Urge thee still to higher ways.

Labor to produce the best, Though thy days be bleak and hard, Though thy couch deny thee rest, Thou shalt reap a great reward.

And thou shalt be satisfied, With the goodness of thy peace, Thou shalt lodge on every side, Happiness that shall not cease.

LIGHTER VEIN.

The police court of a certain town is situated near a shipbuilding yard and proceedings in the court are frequently interrupted by the noise.

On a recent occasion the judge ordered a policeman to go and ask the manager of the yard if he couldn't do something to lessen the din. The manager was in an irritable mood and expressed a ready but sarcastic willingness to please his honor. The sarcasm, however, was lost upon the policeman.

"Did you deliver my message?" asked the judge as the officer returned to the court to the tune of a hundred hammers. "The noise is as intolerable as ever."

"Yes, sir," answered the officer. "The manager said he would order the men to get out their India-rubber hammers at once."

"It's quite a secret," said Maureen, "but I was married the other day to Pat Sullivan."

"Indeed," retorted Jane, "I should have thought you'd be the last person on earth to marry him."

"Well, I hope I am."

"Now, there's your husband coming," Mrs. Candour, said Mr. Funniman. "Let's make a little surmise for him. Mrs. Funniman and I will hide behind the curtains here and you can tell him that the expected guests haven't come. Then we'll step out and surprise him."

(Enter Mr. Candour. Mrs. Candour obeying orders.)—"Well, John, our guests have disappointed us. Mr. and Mrs. Funniman haven't come."

"I'm glad of it," responded Mr. Candour heartily.

Coddling the Cook. "If I take the place, mister, kin I eat with the family?" "Eat with the family?" exclaimed Mr. Subbubs. "My good woman, we'll give a dinner in your honor every week."

Mistake Somewhere. "Ma, did you ever hear a rabbit bark?" "Rabbits don't bark, dear."

"That's funny! My story-book says that rabbits eat cabbage and bark."—Wichita Beacon.

EASIER TO GET TO PRIVY COUNCIL

Permission of One Judge of King's Bench Enough Under New Quebec Bill.

Quebec, Jan. 20.—(Canadian Press)—Two government bills were given final reading in the legislative assembly yesterday. Both were presented by Premier Taschereau. The first will facilitate the procedure of obtaining permission to appeal to the privy council. Up to the present it has been necessary to secure permission from the full court of king's bench to appeal from a decision from that tribunal to the privy council. By this bill the permission of one judge of the court of king's bench will suffice. The second measure provides that in any district where the office of coroner is held jointly by more than one person, each may alone do any act which the coroner may or is bound to do, in the exercise of his functions, according to the law.

TAKE ISSUE WITH THE GOVERNMENT

Matter of Short Time on British Government Works.

London, Jan. 20.—Because of the government's attempt to enforce short time in the dock yards, arsenals and other government establishments as a remedy for unemployment, the workers' section of the joint industrial councils for settling disputed points, has decided to withdraw from the council. The contention is made that the government, by failure to consult the Whitley councils, which were organized for settling disputed points has violated the Whitley principle. The government is endeavoring to have the decision of the councils reconsidered.

MONEY GONE; FROZEN BODY IS FOUND ON MONTREAL WHARF

Montreal, Jan. 20.—The body of an unidentified man found frozen on a wharf here yesterday has been recognized as that of J. B. Giroux, fifty, of 589 Fullum street. It is said that he left his home on the morning with $14 in his pockets and that when the body was found the pockets had been turned inside out.

COMMON COUNCIL

Most of the postponed session of the common council, held yesterday afternoon, was occupied with ferry matters. Following the receipt and adoption of the committee of the whole the council went into committee when Mr. Bullock read a report of the accident to the east side floats that occurred recently. The report told of measures being taken for temporary protection to the floats. The superintendent of ferries and the city engineer were present and explained plans of a proposed wharf for the protection of the north wing of piers. It was proposed to erect the wharf on the property of W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., and a considerable expenditure would have to be made. Mr. Bullock said it was absolutely necessary to have the wharf if the work was to be permanent. The question of harbor commission entered in the discussion and there was some doubt expressed as to the city being reimbursed for this property in case the harbor was taken over.

The committee adjourned to the site of the proposed wharf and the commissioner of ferries and the solicitor were asked to prepare a resolution to be presented to the council this morning.

A communication from the Portland Free Public Library was read, asking for an increased grant of $200. It has received $1,000 annually. The request was laid on the table.

MOUNT ALLISON DRIVE.

A meeting of Methodist ministers and lay delegates from the maritime provinces in Sackville, yesterday, plans were made and arrangements completed for the $200,000 endowment fund for Mount Allison University which is hoped to be raised during the week of February 7 to 13. Most of the St. John Methodist ministers were present, and after the devotional exercises were held, Col. F. B. Black and Rev. J. W. McConnell delivered inspiring addresses. At the evening session Rev. Dr. Graham gave a stirring address. It was announced that already $150,000 is in sight.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

A short session of the municipal council was held yesterday afternoon, when the business of the meeting was cleaned up. The report of the finance committee, which was received and adopted, said that arrangements had been consummated for an overdraft to the extent of $300,000, and that the county not pay out any monies that had not been collected from the taxpayers without special consent of the committee. The reports of the assistant auditor and the registrar were also received and filed.

The Canadian Trade Commission is to complete its work in the next few weeks.

Increase of 100 Cases a Day in Toronto Since New Year's. (Toronto Globe.) More than 8,000 families are now receiving assistance from the city. Walking Ticket by Education Commissioner.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Membership in the Communist party of America was held to be sufficient ground for the dismissal of a public school teacher by Frank B. Gilbert, acting Commissioner of Education, in a decision made public recently.

In dismissing an appeal by Julia D. Pratt from the action of the Buffalo Board of Education in removing her, Mr. Gilbert held that public avowal by a teacher of the principles advocated by an organization like the Communist party would show "such a mental and oral condition as to make her unfit as an instructor of the children of public schools."

Miss Pratt was a teacher in Buffalo for 17 years. Charges were preferred against her by the superintendent of schools in February, 1920, and her dismissal by the Board of Education came the following April, after a hearing. It was charged that by engaging in the party's activities she had violated her duty as a teacher, "rendering herself an unfit person to inculcate the principles of patriotism in the minds and hearts of her pupils."

It was not shown that she had ever attempted to teach Communist principles to her pupils, and she eventually resigned from the party.

FOR CARNIVAL COMPANIES

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 20.—In the belief that the majority of carnival companies from the United States which tour Canada every summer are immoral in their tendency and exploit women in degrading roles, the board of license commissioners of Hamilton yesterday refused an application from the central branch of the G. W. V. A. of this city for permission to bring a carnival company here next summer.

Miss Ella Johnson
Tells How Cuticura
Healed Pimples

"My trouble began as small pimples and in a few months they got worse and my forehead was just a mass of large pimples. They were hard and red and caused me to scratch, and I was disfigured for the time. They made me embarrassed when out in company. I tried sassafras tea but it was of no help. I saw a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent for a free sample. After using them I bought more, and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment for about a month I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Ella May Johnson, Box 65, Camas, Idaho, March 9, 1920.

Proposal to Federal Government Being Considered at Winnipeg Convention.

Winnipeg, Jan. 20.—A proposal that the federal government should be urged to float a $250,000,000 housing loan by the sale of government bonds is being considered at the convention of the Association of Canadian Building and Construction Industries, which opened here yesterday. Another matter receiving attention is the proposed establishment of an apprenticeship system in the building trades throughout the dominion. Both questions were favorably reported upon by the National Joint Conference Board, formed as a result of discussions with representative labor men, and committees were struck to bring in definite resolutions.

GALLI-CURCI WEDS HER ACCOMPANIST

"Happy," Says Prima Donna
After Her Marriage to Homer Samuels.

Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci, coloratura soprano, and Homer Samuels, pianist and composer, her accompanist, were married on last Saturday in Minneapolis. At an altar of ferns and roses, in an arch draped with an American flag, their wedding vows were said before the Rev. Harry P. Dewey, pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Samuels, Mr. Samuels' parents, at Edgebrook in St. Louis Park. Simplicity characterized the marriage ceremony. In accordance with their wishes, there was no music, and only members of the Samuels family and members of their concert company witnessed the ceremony.

Mme. Galli-Curci wore a wedding dress of pearl gray silk, trimmed with lace and kolinsky fur. She carried an arm bouquet of orchids. They were unattended at the altar. The ceremony was solemnized with a ring completing the "circle of love." It was handed first to Madame by her fiancé, then to Dr. Dewey who returned it to Mr. Samuels. He placed it upon the finger of his bride at the words "with this ring I thee wed." &c.

At the Samuels home it was a double

The couple spent a happy afternoon with home folks today opening messages from their friends and admiring wedding gifts that came from friends everywhere. world is before us. Together we shall work hard to give back to the world what we may of for the good things it has given to us."

Amelita Galli-Curci has been a conspicuous figure before the American musical public since she first appeared at the Chicago Auditorium, where the late Cleofonte Campanini had engaged her for a popular-price Saturday night performance in "Rigoletto," on Nov. 18, 1916, and the singer woke up next morning to find herself famous. The date happened to be the twenty-seventh anniversary of her birth, which was in 1890 at Milan.

Mascagni, who was a friend of her father, a Milan banker, encouraged Galli-Curci to adopt a stage career; she made her debut at the Costanzi Theatre, Rome, in 1910 as Gilda in Verdi's "Rigoletto." She was married on Feb. 24 of the same year to Luigi Curci, an Italian Marquis and painter, from whom she was divorced last year. Galli-Curci sang in opera at Cairo, Barcelona and Madrid, Milan, Naples, Petrograd and finally Buenos Aires, where she appeared with Caruso. She made a sensational success in the west, followed nearly two years later by her New York debut

DOG SAVES FOUR LIVES

Loses His Own in Fire—Barking Awakens Family, But He is Strangled by Smoke.

Quincy, Mass., Jan. 20.—Another name must be added to the long list of faithful dogs that have laid down their lives for their friends. Mickey, a Quincy dog of 1808 Hancock st. saved four lives, but lost his own, and as a result, in one family this morning there was thankfulness mingled with gratitude to the family friend and grief at his loss.

Mickey's heroism, like that of so many other dogs, consisted in discovering fire in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Myatt. They were awakened by Mickey's frantic barking to find the room full of smoke, and on going to the windows discovered that the whole rear of the house was a mass of flames, from which there was little time to escape.

Arousing their two little daughters, Margaret, 7 years old, and Florence, 4, Mr. and Mrs. Myatt, with some difficulty, made their way to the street and found refuge with a neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Bruce.

It was supposed that Mickey escaped with them, for when they left the apartment he followed behind, choking and coughing in the thick smoke. When Capt. Faircloth of Engine 1 and a crew of men went through the rooms, however, eliminating the last traces of fire before the all-out sounded, they discovered the body of Mickey lying where he had dropped and strangled, too overcome with smoke to follow to safety those whose lives he had saved.

The fire caused damage estimated at $600 to the apartment occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Myatt, and to the periodical and newspaper store beneath it, occupied by Abbie S. Feltis, where the fire apparently started. The building is of wood and is the center of a nest of wooden business blocks, constituting a danger which kept the firemen busy preventing the spread of the blaze. Their difficulties were doubled by the high wind, and all those who neared extinguish the blaze suffered considerably from ice, cold and smoke.

John Barton, one of the firemen, was almost overcome by smoke, but after re-insisted on going back into the building and finishing the fight. Because of the danger of the spreading of the fire the men had to work at close quarters and most of them were soon covered with ice.

Mr. and Mrs. Myatt said this morning they felt certain Mickey followed them to the street, and expressed the opinion that when the firemen went up the stairs into the living apartments the dog must have followed after them.

It developed when daylight came that the fruit store of P. K. Koury, adjoining the Feltis store, was the worst damaged. All the stock of fruit was ruined and hundreds of baked apples with their jackets split open on account of the heat were strewn about, as were baked bananas and potatoes. A marble soda fountain was badly damaged and Mr. Koury estimated his loss at $4000.

The loss in the Myatt apartment was about $800, and the damage to the Feltis store was estimated by members of the firm at $1000. Miss Abbie Feltis, proprietress of the news store, said the stove in her apartment was fixed for the night when she left and she doubted the fire started in her place.

The Myatt children were inconsolable today because of the death of their friend. Mickey's playmate Mickey, who shared the family from being burned to death and then lost his own life.

CHORUS STRIKES ON SMOKING.

New York, Jan. 20.—The latest thing in strikes came from the chorus of "Jimmie" at the Apollo Theatre when six girls objected to smoking cigarettes in the cabaret scene and vowed they would throw up their jobs before they puffed the noxious weed. A compromise was affected whereby they agreed to smoke a brand that is even less than one-half of 1 per cent. tobacco.

MEASLES DIE OUT

It was learned this morning at the board of health that the number of measles cases being reported had considerably subsided. For the week ending January 18 the number of cases of this disease, reported to the local authorities, for this county, totalled 132. Last week only one case was reported and so far this week, only one. It might be said, however, that of the 132 cases reported for the first week of this year, 129 were from St. Martins, and it was thought that this included several old cases that had not been previously reported.

KNOX CASE IN COURT TODAY

The case of Knox vs. Smith et al was commenced in the circuit court this morning before His Honor Judge Chandler. It is a claim for $20,000 for alleged libel against the following defendants—J. Willard Smith, Robert T. Hayes, William A. Lockhart, Frederick G. Spencer, Miller E. Agar, F. W. Daniel, Robert Reid, Theodore H. Estabrooks, George E. Barbour, Lewis W. Simms, members of the executive directing the prohibition campaign in the city last year. The action arises from the publication of the picture of three children of whom the plaintiff is the father as part of the advertising campaign conducted by the prohibition forces, it being alleged that the publication discredited the plaintiff, who is a returned soldier.

Evidence was given this morning by Rev. George Scott and A. M. Welding of the Children's Aid Society, in whose custody the children were placed, and W. H. Coleman and E. G. Alexander of the Globe office staff. The case was adjourned to noon. Daniel Mullin, K. C., appears for the plaintiff and H. A. Powell, K. C., and J. C. McIlroy for the defendants.

AN INDUSTRIAL TOUR OF PROVINCE

Suggestion in Connection With Proposed C. M. A. Annual Convention Here.

In conversation with a Times reporter this morning, H. R. Thompson, of Amherst, in reply to a query, said that it was practically assured that the convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association would be held in this city next June. As Mr. S. Fisher was the vice-president of the national body, and was slated for the presidency, it was thought that he would be elected in his own city. The matter, however, would be definitely decided at a meeting of the executive in Toronto the latter part of this month.

When asked as to what steps would be taken in the way of entertainment he said that the matter had been referred to a local committee. While not wishing to obtrude his views in the matter, he personally thought it would be an opportune time to have an industrial tour of the province similar to those conducted in some of the western provinces.

In Alberta, for instance, Mr. Thompson said, industrial development tours had taken place from time to time, and they were found very beneficial to all concerned. Something along these lines would help to a clearer understanding between the various parts of Canada, as, if the convention is held here, representatives would be present from all parts of the dominion.

In regard to the ways and means, it was thought that the provincial government, boards of trade and other organizations interested in the matter, would collaborate.

HAD REVOLVER

As a result of the activities of the police during the night Harris Gordon, Sidney Allan and Watson Cook were in the police court this morning on a charge of wandering about and not being able to give a satisfactory account of themselves. Sergeant McLeese made the arrest. It is said Cook gave his name as Reginald McDonald and said that he and his companion hailed from northern Ontario. On searching the accused a 38-calibre revolver, four cartridges and a screwdriver were found in his pockets, as a result of which he was charged with having concealed weapons in his possession. They were remanded to jail and a further hearing will be given later.

MOTHERS' DAY

Boys of Y. M. C. A. Show Them What They Do There.

The hearts of many mothers were made glad this afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building, where the annual Mothers' Day reception was held under the auspices of the Boys' Work division of the association. The entertainment consists of a gymnasium exhibition by the boys, followed by tea and refreshments, served in the board and reading rooms, by the ladies' auxiliary of the association. An inspection of the boys' work division was also made so that the mothers of the boys would be able to know just about what takes place when they say, "I want to go to the Y today." Preparation was made for about 150 visitors.

The whole idea is to promote closer harmony and co-operation between the home and the institution and get the sympathy and aid of the mothers in the work that is being undertaken by the boys' division.

The entertainment was under the direction of Nelson E. McEwan, boys' work secretary, and Herbert A. Morton, associate secretary. The fathers have not been forgotten and a like day will be held for them, probably some time next month.

The annual training of the various militia units throughout this district is being carried on and for the most part the strength and preparations are being made for the general inspection, in February, by Lieut-General Sir Henry Burtall, K. C. M. G., C. B., D. S. O., inspector-general for Canada. The 12th brigade artillery, commanded by Lieut-Colonel S. B. Anderson, C. M. G., D. S. O., is carrying on its annual training at local headquarters of batteries; brigade headquarters and 8th battery at Moncton are up to strength, while the 90th battery at Newcastle is up to strength in gunners, and the 89th battery at Woodstock is rapidly approaching full strength. Classes in training are carried on by the 8th Princess Louise New Brunswick Hussars, commanded by Lieut-Colonel A. J. Markham, and the New Brunswick Dragoons, commanded by Lieut-Colonel C. H. McLean, D.S.O., at the drill of the St. John Fusiliers the regimental band, under Bandmaster Perk's late of the depot battalion, is in attendance and adds greatly to the work. The 3rd heavy brigade artillery band assists in the training of that unit.
