First Nfld. Regiment

CALL FOR RECRUITS

Your KING and COUNTRY Need You

WILL YOU ANSWER YOUR COUNTRY'S CALL?

At this very moment the Empire is engaged in the greatest War in the history of the world.

In this crisis your Country calls on her young men to rally round Her Flag and enlist in the ranks of Her Army.

If every patriotic young man answers Her Call, Great Britain and the Empire will emerge stronger and more united than ever.

Newfoundland has already equipped and sent to the front her First Contingent, 540 strong. But we must not stop at this. Further drafts are urgently needed to reinforce our numbers on the battle line, and must be sent forward at the earliest possible moment.

Suitable Recruits between the ages of 19 and 36 will be accepted and trained in drill and shooting so as to fit them for military service. They will then be formed into regular companies of the Regiment, and will be given the option of volunteering for service abroad, if required, on the same terms and conditions as the men of the First Contingent. Pay will commence when men are actually enrolled for service abroad.

Recruiting Offices will be opened in St. John's, and at the offices of the different Magistrates, and at other suitable places in the Colony, (as to Recruiting, in case of doubt write to the Recruiting Officer, St. John's). Where not less than fifty men offer for enlistment at any recruiting centre, a drill instructor will, if possible, be sent to the District to train them.

Men of The Ancient and Loyal Colony, Show Your Loyalty NOW. GOD SAVE THE KING.

The Sealing Commission

The three judges of the Supreme Court have been appointed as a Commission to enquire into the great Sealing Disaster of last Spring. Hon. R. A. Squires and Mr. W. F. Lloyd are also in attendance. Capt. Keen of the Newfoundland, and George Tuff were examined this week.

There seems to be some difference of opinion as to the selection of the Commission and other matters. The loss of our brethren was a very serious matter, and we expect the earnest hope that the enquiry will be made as full as possible. No matter what is done now, the men who died in such a tragic manner cannot be restored to their loved ones, but if anyone is found to have been guilty of negligence they ought to be punished or severely reprimanded, and laws should be made giving the fullest protection to our toilers who tread the frozen pans and risk their lives.

Surround our sealers with the same protection as though it was Sir E. P. Morris, the Judges of the Supreme Court or any other prominent man in this country who had to go to the icefields hunting seals, and if this be done the dangers will be greatly reduced. No ship should be allowed to go to the sealfishery without wireless.

Christ's Call to Service

'Christ's Call to Service' was the subject at Central Methodist Church on Sunday evening last. It was based on the text, 'Son, go work to day in my vineyard.' The preacher asserted that the Law of Service is one of the fundamental laws of the Universe. 'No man liveth unto himself.'

This has been seen in the recent call to arms—to service for King and Country. There is a constant call for Evangelists, Teachers, Medical Missionaries, Y. M. C. A. Secretaries in the fields abroad. But these fields make just as strong and insistent demands for Christian Traders, Engineers, Editors, Mechanics, etc. who by sterling Christian lives will offset the influence of the unholy lives of many in the past.

In the home field the ministry of the Church demands a constant supply of recruits to meet the ever-expanding need. There is the call of the Sunday School to 'Feed my lambs'; the need for Lay Helpers; the sacred calling of the doctor and nurse for the relief of human suffering. But Christ's call to service is broader still. He gives scope for the employment of the most limited talent and ability.

The well-to-do may serve Him by helping those less fortunate; the healthy and happy by assisting the sick and sorrowful.

Christ's standard at the judgment (Matt. 25) will be naked, the serving the hungry, thirsty, sick, prisoners, etc. He calls for service for the betterment of social and industrial conditions. The great need is for men of all ranks who will regard their particular profession as service for God and humanity.

Women's Patriotic Association

It was decided at the Patriotic meeting on Wednesday last to forward 200 pairs socks about Dec. 10th. Over 175 pairs have been received, and the organization would be pleased to receive all the socks out as soon as possible.

A slight mistake was made regarding the directions for the knitted belt. The following is correct. Size 1—Needles No. 16, cast on 284 stitches, knit 1 plain, 1 puri for 3 inches, then with No. 10 needles knit 1 plain, 1 puri for 8 inches. Take No. 18 needles again and knit 1 plain, 1 puri for 3 inches. Cast off.

There will be a meeting of Colby's Point Branch on Thursday, Dec. 10th. There will be no Patriotic meeting in the Court House until December 23rd.

Any person wishing to make a shirt, belt or muffler may obtain same by calling at the residence of Mrs. (Dr.) Richards.

General Louis Botha, Premier of South Africa, who is said to have broken up De Wet's rebellion. He is shown wearing a Windsor Uniform, an act for which he was severely criticized by some of the irreconcilables.

Missionary Meetings

During the previous week Missionary Meetings were held at the different Methodist Churches on this Circuit. Owing to unforeseen circumstances the deputations at each place was different from that originally planned, but this did not detract from the interest or successful issue of the gatherings. The audience were encouraging in point of numbers, and went away considerably lightened of cash. The deputations to Central and Spaniard's Bay shrank (physically) to much less than half but Rev. Mr. Guy proved a host in himself and gave the audience a rare treat.

Reva Maddock and Jackson at Coley's Pt. excelled in their treatment of their subjects and won high encomiums. At Shearstown Mr. Jackson's address on 'The War and Its Relation to Missions' gave a splendid resume of the situation and furnished much food for thought. Whether final financial results are on a par with previous years or not, the information and inspiration imparted will long linger with those who attended.

Letter From a Country Road Boy

Salisbury Plains, Eng., Nov. 13, 1914. (Editor the Guardian).

Dear Sir,—I think it would interest the readers of your much esteemed paper, the Guardian, to know that dear old Newfoundland is so well represented in the defence of the Mother Country against the foe. Beside the gallant little 500 directly from home, there are many others in our regiment alone.

In the Canadian Divisional Ammunition Column there are 17 Newfoundlanders, and I am personally acquainted with about 84 Newfoundlanders among the other regiments camped close by us here.

If they are distributed all over camp as they are close by our lines, then I can truthfully say that if the Canadian Expeditionary Force was lined up in squads of 100 men each, from each line could be picked at least six men who would proudly say, 'I'm from Newfoundland.'

Thanking you for space and wishing you and your readers the compliments of the season, I remain, yours truly,
HAROLD A. RUSSELL.

With the First Canadian Expeditionary Force in England.
(Note—Harold is a son of Isaac and the late Elizabeth Ann Russell, Country Road. He left here about five years ago, and when volunteers were called for, he joined the Canadian Contingent in St. John, N. B.—Editor.)

Sedition in Ireland

Six Pro German Papers Being Printed in Dublin.

Irish despatches to London say that six seditious newspapers, pro-German and anti-British, are being printed in Dublin and distributed throughout the West of Ireland with the primary object of stifling the recruiting campaign which is now being carried on there.

The police have raided the office of one of the newspapers, the 'Irish Freedom,' a monthly newspaper. They have also prevented the distribution of another newspaper of similar tendencies. Meetings have been held recently in New York by Irish-Americans who are hostile to John Redmond.

Bareneed Notes

On Saturday night about 40 of our Conception Bay Naval Reserve boys came home to see their friends. They enjoyed themselves immensely forming around singing Tipperary. One of the number, Hedley Bartlett, was taken sick since he came home, and was unable to return to H. M. S. Calypso by Monday morning's train with the other boys, but will return when he is well again.

A new Orange Hall has been completed here. It is one which is a credit to the people of this little town, and one that shows itself to be about the best in Conception Bay.

Mr. William Boone of Isaac returned home by Saturday night's train from Sydney, where he had employment for the summer.

Mr. John Ford of Cupids, came over on Wednesday and is a guest of Mr. Frank Bartlett. CORRESPONDENT.

FISHERY GEAR.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS OF THE GILL NETS, used by Messrs Job, Brothers & Co. in the Straits this year. They have been successful at a time when traps had partially failed. We make them in all sizes to order.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS OF COTTON DRIFT NETS, such as are used in the North Sea Herring Fishery. As the catch of Herring will be interfered with during the war, a good opportunity occurs for use of these Nets in Newfoundland.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS OF THE celebrated STANDARD brand of Herring Nets, which is universally acknowledged to be the very best Net on the market. We are now making the CRESCENT brand Herring Net, which is the best and strongest low-priced Net made. It is mounted just the same as the Standard Net, and it is barked for preservation, not merely dyed like other cheap Nets.

WE ARE MANUFACTURERS OF SQUID TRAPS, which are now legal. We make them in any size required, to order.

We manufacture TARKED COTTON LINES, all sizes, for Bankers use; strong, durable and easily handled.

We make COD TRAPS, COD SEINES, CAPLIN SEINES, etc., to order, in all sizes.

All the above fishery gear we can strongly recommend, and we would urge our fishermen to patronize articles of home manufacture, in order to give employment, which is so much needed this year.

The Causes and the Progress of the Great War

Being a Lecture delivered by His Excellency Sir Walter Edward Davidson, K. C. M. G., Governor of Newfoundland, etc.

All this time you may note that the Germans held on to the line of navigable canals connecting the Azores and the Oise, and the Sambre and the Meuse; for it is by those waterways that the Germans can transport all their heavy supplies of food and ammunition, on big barges of 600 tons each, the whole way from Germany.

On the sea, the course of the war has been as satisfactory as we had expected. German submarines have been driven off the seas. The high sea fleets are lying under the shelter of their land fortifications where they are safe from attack, for the present. If the fleet come out to fight, I believe they will be destroyed. If they are kept in port, they ultimately will be taken or sunk by a combined movement by land and sea. Meanwhile, many small fast cruisers had been stationed in all the seas ready for the pie-concerted signal for war to commence on August 4th, and some few of them have achieved some success in sinking unarmed merchantmen. The skill and forethought shown in the supplies of fuel and ammunition have alike been admirable; and their system of wireless information has been really good. We have lost a few ships through the attacks of their well-designed submarine ships; it is not generally known here that these submarine ships have a displacement of 800 tons, with engines capable of 1000 horse-power, a radius of action of 2,000 miles, and a speed of 17 knots on the surface and 12 knots when submerged. Their four torpedo tubes can launch an explosive torpedo of a diameter of nearly 20 inches. The complement of men is 32, picked men and highly trained. Their other interests at sea are mainly directed to chartering vessels flying neutral flags and destined to neutral ports, whence their cargoes can be safely conveyed to Germany.

I have given the Germans credit for their wonderful organization and supplies, and the fine fighting of their corps of officers, and the discipline of their men at sea. But I hardly dare to let myself speak of their utter savage brutality, and their disregard for all feelings of humanity. They rob and they plunder the houses in towns and villages; perhaps the officers cannot wholly help that, though I remember a fine answer which the British officer in command sent to the Frenchmen when they wished to plunder in St. John's. They asked that their private property should be respected. The answer was: 'His Britannic Majesty's troops never pillage.' (Frowde's History, page 414).

They destroy property wantonly. They levy huge requisitions on undefended towns and hamlets. They actually have demanded $140,000,000 in towns in Belgium alone, besides foodstuffs. They detain the leading men in each place as hostages (the Bishop of Liege is still, I believe, a prisoner). They take the hostages out and shoot them if any drunken soldier is molesting. They mutilate non-combatants, very many instances having been conclusively proved by the formal enquiries of independent persons of position. They have permitted (and do not punish) murder of young and old—old men, women and children, out of other war-torn countries or cruelty. If any one such case were known in the British Army, the offender would be shot by court martial, or tried before the civil courts and hanged. They destroy the glorious monuments of these beautiful towns, which have been respected for hundreds of years by every army in the world, and by even the most savage races. They burn to the ground whole towns and villages.

Why do they commit these appalling crimes? Why does the Kaiser sanction such horrors? They frankly reply:—'We intend to render it impossible for any of the races whom we conquer to rise up against us. Any who resist we kill. Any who dare to be against us we destroy. We mean to cause such terror that we shall have no more trouble in holding them under for ever.'

Hence Louvain; hence Rheims. You would say, surely these crimes are unknown to the Emperor. If he knew, he would step it. But he does know.

and does not stop it. Here are his words. It is difficult what to say when we read the words of the Kaiser who, after the infancy of Louvain, wrote: 'My heart bleeds that such measures should have been unavoidable, and at the thought of innumerable persons who have lost their homes and their property as the result of the criminal and barbarous action of the Belgians.' Peckham is forever decried from his eminence as a type of sanctimonious hypocrite, in favour of this imperial expert.

What, then, is to be the outcome of this cruel and murderous infraction of all law, human and divine? Is there to be no end to this bloody reign of terror? Is there really to be conquered by those inhuman brutes? Can we possibly be in the wrong, and deserve such brutal oppression?

We are not in the wrong. No nation can be in the wrong whose King can address his subjects in such words as these:

'During the past few weeks the people of my whole Empire, at Home and Overseas, have moved with one mind and purpose to confront and overthrow an unparalleled assault upon the continuity of civilization and the peace of mankind.

'The calamitous conflict is not of my seeking, my voice has been cast throughout on the side of peace. My ministers earnestly strove to ally the causes of strife, and to appease differences with which my Empire was not concerned. Had I stood aside when, in defiance of pledges to which my Kingdom was a party, the soil of Belgium was violated and her cities laid desolate, when the very life of the French nation was threatened with extinction, I should have sacrificed my honor, and given to destruction the liberties of my Empire and of mankind. I reject that every part of my Empire is with me in this decision.

'Paramount regard for treaty faith, and the pledged word of rulers and people, is the common heritage of Great Britain and of the Empire.

'My people in the self-governing Dominions have shown beyond all doubt that they wholeheartedly endorse the grave decision which it was necessary to take.'

Wedding Bells

Mr. Russell Kearley, secretary of the Halibut Fishermen's Union, and Miss Martha Mary Monk, were married at St. James' Church, Vancouver, B. C., by the Rev. H. Edwards Monday evening, Nov. 10th. Bride and bridegroom are daughter and son respectively of Newfoundland fishermen. Mr. Kearley, who has been a resident in Vancouver, both as a fisherman and as an official of his union, for upwards of ten years, has made himself esteemed, and there was a large attendance of fishermen at the church and afterwards at the residence of the bride's parents, where several of the local skippers added their congratulations. Mr. A. Cavanah acted as best man and Miss Annie Snider was bridesmaid. The many presents of which the pair were made recipients included a handsome gift from the Halibut Fishermen's Union.—Vancouver World.

Well Provided

The following story was told by a certain bishop who shall be nameless, of the time when he was a guest at the house of a friend who had two charming daughters. Accompanied by the two young ladies, the bishop one morning went out in the hope of catching some trout. An old fisherman out for the same purpose, wishing to appear friendly, called out, 'Catching many, pard?' The bishop drawing himself to his full height, replied, 'Brother, I am a fisher of men.' 'You've got the right kind of bait, all right,' was the fisherman's rejoinder.

'What's the war news today? Is the price of flour gone down yet? When a man's interest in the present conflict amounts to only the above questions he is not aiming at any honors from King George. So far as some people and some sections are concerned, one wouldn't know there was a war raging at all.

The indifference and apathy on the part of certain people in reference to the present conflict ought to stamp them as being the most remarkable men of the 20th century. They are among the class who always and ever knows what should be done and how it should be done, but are never found either attempting to do it themselves or assisting others. They usually are found in the seat of the orbit and the scorchful.

The Grain Growers of Saskatchewan have adopted a novel scheme to support the patriotic movement. The central organization has recommended that the various units discuss the question of whether or not each member should give the crop off one acre of land each year to the patriotic fund, and without exception, as far as can be learned, the ideas of the central organization are to be followed out. In addition to the 'patriotic acre' scheme, the farmers are being requested to make cash donations, and are responding readily.

Amatite Roofing!
You'll Never Need a Paint Brush.

When you lay Amatite on the roof you're through with it. You don't have to paint it every year to keep it from leaking. It has a real mineral surface which does not need painting. Most of the old-fashioned, 'smooth surfaced' or Rubber Roofing, which requires painting, costs more than Amatite and you have all the extra cost of paint. It looks easy now to give your roof an occasional coating in the future. But do you realize that in 1913 you must paint it, and in 1915 you must paint it, and in 1917 you must paint it, and in 1919—that far-away year—you must still be painting that outworn old Rubber Roof. Why, a new Amatite Roof will cost less than the paint alone. Send to us for free samples and booklet explaining all about it. Ask your dealer for Amatite Roofing.

Missionary Meeting at St. Matthew's

The annual meeting of the C. of E. Missionary Society was held in St. Matthew's Church on Monday evening, Nov. 23rd, when an interested audience gathered to hear those who were chosen to speak on that occasion. Those who were present were not disappointed but were fired with greater zeal than ever before to labor for the cause of missions in the foreign fields. The first speaker was the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, of Briggs. He took for his subject: 'Japan, its people, its customs, its trade, its religion, and the work the Christian Missionary has to do in the land of the Rising Sun.' The second speaker was the Rev. C. W. Holland, of Carbonear. Mr. Holland took for his subject: 'Intercession.' He went on to show how in this, the greatest war this world has ever seen, money was a factor we could not possibly do without. Men were willing to lay down their lives if used for the cause of the Empire, for King and Country. But greatest of all was intercession, the power of Prayer. Prayer to the One who overrules all the powers of this world. We need to pray in such a crisis as this and also to pray for the Missionary Cause. A great many of our students who were studying for the Mission Field have heard their Country's call and have gone to the front. Some of them will never return.

Then it is our duty to 'Pray to the Lord of the Harvest that He may send forth more laborers into his vineyard.' To raise up young men and women to fill the places of those who have answered their Country's call and laid down their lives for the cause of Right.

Rev. Canon Bolt was the next speaker. His subject was: 'This War, a challenge to Christianity.' He referred to Germany as a nation of Culture, Science, Religion. But what kind of Religion? A Religion that has for its motto, 'Might is Right.' A Religion that heeds not the cries of innocent women, little children and heavy hearts, that lays waste and destroys homes and beautiful land which was part of God's great universe.

Is this the Religion we are to carry to the heathen who know not God. Better by far to let them worship their gods of wood and stone than to burden them with such a Religion. The Religion of Jesus Christ that he gave to His disciples when he sat them forth saying 'Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel,' that is the Religion we want to send to China, Japan and all the nations that have not yet heard the Gospel message.

Supreme Court on Circuit

(Standard, Nov. 23.)
The Supreme Court on Circuit opened here on Tuesday last at 11 o'clock, the Hon. Mr. Justice Johnson presiding.

There were some few civil cases for hearing, but nearly all were settled between the parties, but no criminal case to be considered.

W. Carson vs. Willis Davis—Action for $300 as wages. This case was partly heard, but was settled between the parties before the Court again met.

A. W. Hierlby vs. Jenima Gosse—Contempt. The plaintiff, a deputy sheriff, alleged that he had been assaulted and obstructed while in the discharge of his duty. The defendant was acquitted. Mr. Hunt for plaintiff, Mr. McNeilly for defendant.

A Grand Jury was summoned and attended Court, where they

Newfoundlanders Arrive

The Newfoundland contingent has now joined the Canadians on Salisbury Plain, and is encamped in an area which has been named after the gallant little Colony from which it has come. It was originally intended to send 500 men as a first contingent, but recruiting was so brisk that it was possible to increase this number, and more will be forthcoming if they are needed.

In addition about 100 members of the Newfoundland Naval Reserve are serving in the Canadian cruiser Niobe, which, besides performing convoy duties, has been assisting the vessels of the Royal Navy in their search for the elusive German cruisers in the Atlantic.

Newfoundland's population is only a quarter of a million, nearly all engaged in the fisheries which form the staple industry of the island, and the community is not a wealthy one. The equipping and maintaining of a regiment for service in Europe are, therefore, a striking proof of the enthusiasm of the islanders for the Allied cause.

Italy's Attitude

Rome, Oct. 31.—The Idea Nazionale, the new organ of the Nationalist party, which has always urged the participation of Italy in the European conflict, says that Italian inaction, after the attitude of Turkey, would be simply absurd blindness. The Turkish intervention, it declares, brings forward the question of the partition of Asia Minor as a definite solution of the Oriental question which has influenced Mediterranean policy for over a century.

Furthermore, Turkish action against Egypt will threaten also Libya, Italian Somaliland and Erythraea, and therefore it is necessary to act.

For Italy, the paper continues, 'it is now no more a question of the European conflict, but a conflict eminently Mediterranean. It is no more a question of solving the Adriatic problem but the Mediterranean problem, which comprises the whole national existence.'

An Atrocious Assault

(Harbor Grace Standard.)

An atrocious assault on a little girl of very tender years—not yet five—took place here this week. It appears that a man named William Bransfield, lately returned from Labrador, and somewhat it is said under the influence of strong drink, met on Thursday afternoon two little girls on Harvey Street, near the Death Hill Coopers, and asked them to come up the hill with him to get a cent to buy some apples. One refused, saying she was not allowed to do so. The other child, with all the innocence and confidence of childhood, went with him. When this became known and the little one did not return a search was immediately made by her father and friends, and she was found about 6.30 o'clock in a barn on the Look-out lately used as a day shelter for sheep.

The man received some rough handling from the angry and horrified search-party, which in a less law-abiding community would have meant the application of that rough but generally mistakenly used justice known as Lynch law. The offender was taken to jail, indicted, and on pleading guilty, sentenced by Mr. Justice Johnson to five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary with hard labor, which His Lordship considered after deliberation on all the circumstances met the ends of justice, and which it is hoped will prove to be adequate as a deterrent and reformatory for an offence which in the eyes of many is more to be dreaded than death itself. The prisoner is 54 years of age, not a native of the town but has resided here a number of years.

Lobster Industry

Germany being Largest Customer, Trade Hard Hit

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 23.—The canned lobster industry of Newfoundland and Canada has been hard hit by the European war. As Germany is the largest consumer of this product, the principal market has been cut off. A case of forty-eight tins, which brought $24 in Newfoundland before the war, now cannot be sold for more than eight or ten dollars. As one merchant put it:

Canned lobsters are as great a drug on the market in Canada and Newfoundland as bales of cotton in the United States.

Ordinarily the returns from the industry amount to about $3,000,000 a year in Canada and half a million dollars in this colony.

Many of those interested favor the enforcing of a close season on lobsters during the whole of next year, thus taking advantage of the opportunity to replenish the fisheries, which have been greatly depleted by extravagant methods of lobster taking.

Messrs. Albert Badcock and Isaac Bebbin arrived from Boston, Mass., on Thursday, Nov. 23rd.

Now that Turkey has entered the war zone, Austria should no longer feel lonely. She will now have a partner to share her many defeats.

"The questions which are dealt with in the 'Self and Sex Series' of books are always being asked, and if the answer is not forthcoming from pure and wise lips it will be obtained through vicious and empirical channels. I therefore greatly commend this series of books, which are written lucidly and purely, and will afford the necessary information without pandering to unholy and sensual passions. I should like to see a wide and judicious distribution of this literature among Christian circles."
