MINISTERS PROTEST AGAINST SUNDAY TRAINS TO ST. JOHN

Evangelical Alliance Passed Strong Resolution This Morning—Want a Permanent Thanksgiving Day on Thursday Instead of Monday

At their last regular meeting this morning, prior to the summer vacation, the Evangelical Alliance passed a resolution protesting against the operation of Sunday trains by the Canadian Pacific and Intercolonial railways. There was a representative number of clergymen in attendance and the matter was thoroughly discussed.

The president stated the first business was the advisability of changing the day of thanksgiving from Monday to Thursday. Rev. Dr. Johnston had brought the matter to the attention of the alliance during his recent visit. It was decided to defer the consideration of the matter until a later stage in the meeting.

On motion of Rev. Neil McLaughlin, seconded by Rev. J. J. McCaskill, a grant of $10 was made to the sexton of the St. Andrew's Church. The secretary stated that the appointment of a chaplain for the Industrial Home was on the programme. Referring to the matter, Ven. Archdeacon Raymond stated that the term of the Anglican clergyman had about elapsed.

On motion of Rev. J. J. McCaskill, seconded by Rev. W. R. Robinson, the matter of an appointment was left in the hands of the president and secretary to consider. The president stated that at a recent meeting of the Methodist presbytery a resolution had been adopted favoring the change in Thanksgiving Day from Monday to Thursday.

DID NOT KNOW FOR WHOM THEY WERE FIGHTING

Dominican Revolutionaries Did Not Stop to Inquire—Will be Deported From Haytian Territory.

CAPE HAITIEN, June 7.—The Dominican revolutionaries who last week were driven over the frontier to Haytian territory, have been expelled by the Haytian Government and will leave here on June 14 for St. Thomas. Speaking of his experiences today the leader of the party said: "I was able in two days to get together 240 men. In several encounters we were successful against the government forces, but as soon as the men learned that the movement was in favor of Vasquez they had thought they were fighting for Jimenez—I was betrayed and we had to flee."

ESCAPES GALLOWS THROUGH EFFORTS OF MRS. TAFT

NEW YORK, June 7.—A Washington special to the World says: Through the intervention of Mrs. Taft a Russian named Pavlovich convicted of murder at Fairbanks, Alaska, and sentenced to die, has been saved from the gallows. Actuated by his wife's pleas it is said, he was not inclined to interfere with the carrying out of the death penalty until Mrs. Taft intervened.

FOUND HIS BROTHER ON THE DISSECTING TABLE

Grotesque Discovery of Chicago Man Who Arrived in Montreal to Make Funeral Arrangements.

MONTREAL, June 7.—To come all the way from Chicago to Montreal, take charge of a brother's body—the body of a wayward boy who had run away from home sixteen years ago and had not been heard of since—and to find that body in the hospital dissecting room partly cut up, was the experience of Charles Carson. His brother, John Carson, died June 3 in a destitute state in a stable and was taken to the hospital before death. The hospital ward an address in a letter in his pocket. It proved to be that of a brother and he stated from Chicago immediately to claim the body. When he went to the hospital the knife had already begun to do its gruesome work. When the situation was explained the body was handed over and the funeral took place today.

EXPEDITION WILL GO TO ALASKA AND SIBERIA

Fitted Out by Austrian Coal Operator to Seek Specimens for His Trophy Room.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 7.—Dr. Von Kadic and Leo Mayler, of Vienna, left here last night for Vancouver to prepare the steamer Transit, which has been chartered by Rudolph B. Von Guttmann, a wealthy coal operator, of Vienna, for a four months' hunting expedition to Alaska and Siberia. The party will leave for the north on July 1st. The other members of the party are still in Vienna. The purpose of the expedition is to secure new specimens for Herr Von Guttmann's trophy room. Where duplicates are received they will be given to the Smithsonian Institution, and if a third specimen is secured it will be given to the New York Zoological Society. The Transit is a 2,400 ton steamer.

SEEING THINGS.

BIRMINGHAM, June 7.—At four o'clock this morning a balloon passed over the City of Birmingham at a high altitude, going south. Notwithstanding the bright moonlight the lights of the balloon were plainly visible.

A band of Gypsies on the Red Head Road near the burying ground is attracting considerable attention.

REV. E. L. STEEVES WILL GO TO HARTLAND

Tenders for New University Wing in a Fortnight

Harold G. Black Appointed to Mount Allison Staff—Prof. McClary Writing Text Book.

SACKVILLE, N. B., June 7.—Rev. E. L. Steeves, pastor of the Baptist churches at Middle Sackville and Middleton, has resigned his charge and will accept the invitation to go to Hartland, Mr. Steeves will leave for Hartland about the first of July.

On Sunday next the annual anniversary and decoration service of Myrtle Lodge, No. 71, I. O. O. F., will be held in Dorchester. Oddfellows will decorate the graves of Dr. Church and Mr. G. B. Chandler. The preacher of the day will be Rev. J. S. McPadden, B. D. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Edgar Carvill, with Miss Marie Thomas as organist. Tenders for the erection of the new wing for Mount Allison Ladies College will be called for in about two weeks. The work of construction will be begun as soon as possible after that time.

DEFECTIVE GIRLS IN NEED OF PROTECTION

Instead of Punishment, Says Mrs. Amigh.

In Discussion of Tendencies Which Make Girls Go Wrong—Many Deficient Rather Than Bad.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 7.—The sixth annual conference on the education of Charities and Correction, began its work this morning. Mrs. Orpheila L. Amigh, superintendent of the State Training School for Girls, of Geneva, N. Y., made a plea for the Border Line girl, who is somewhat defective, but not feeble minded. Mrs. Amigh contended that "when girls of this class come before a judge for commitment to an institution, it never occurs to him that they are irresponsible and need constant care to keep them from going wrong. The judge as well as her parents calls such a girl wayward, incorrigible and sometimes vicious, but never defective."

These are the girls who are used in the traffic in the white slave trade, who become the mothers of illegitimate children, and sometimes if possessed of a pretty face, become the wives of men who later regret the confidence with which they entered the matrimonial bond. They are usually fond of excitement, dress and display and with the faculty and energy they possess they are turned in this direction. The power of reasoning out things for their own benefit seems to be an unknown quantity so far as good is concerned and they are easily turned aside from the right path and into the wrong one. They should be considered defective and committed as such."

CORONATION HOUSE HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Charles Mayal's Coronation House on the Loch Lomond Road was in danger of destruction by fire yesterday morning. A forest fire started near the well known hotelery and when within fifty yards of the house it looked so threatening that assistance was summoned from the Ben Lomond House and other places in the vicinity. It was only after hard work that the fire was beaten out.

BOSTON PLANS BIG RECEPTION FOR COUNTESS OF ABERDEEN

MADAME STOESSEL AN EMBEZZLER?

Deficit of $7,500 in Funds of Port Arthur Benevolent Society of Which She Was President.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 7.—The Port Arthur Benevolent Society held a meeting here today and as a result of an investigation found a deficit of $7,500 in the accounts of the society under the presidency of Madame Stoessel, who was in command of the Russian forces at Port Arthur at the time of the capitulation to the Japanese. It was during this period that the deficit occurred.

FILIPINO MURDERERS MADE THEIR ESCAPE

White on the Way to Pay Death Penalty for Killing American Anthropologist.

MANILA, June 7.—The three natives convicted of the murder of Dr. Wm. James, Anthropologist of the Columbian Museum, who was killed while studying the Hill tribes some months ago, escaped from their guards while on the way to this city, where the death sentence upon them was to have been executed, and are at large. The prisoners were being brought overland through the mountains of Nueva Vizcaya province to Pangasinan. During the night they eluded their guards and disappeared into the jungle. As soon as the next constabulary station was reached patrols were sent out to follow the trail and those are still in chase of the fugitives, but their capture is considered doubtful.

IDENTITY OF THE TRAIN WRECK VICTIM REVEALED

By Letter Found in His Pocket—Is Julia N. Corniar, of St. Mary's—

MONCTON, N. B., June 7.—Word was received here early this morning of the death of Julia N. Corniar, who was killed by a train at Oakland, Me. He was a son of Napoleon Corniar, of St. Mary's. Identification was made through a letter from Alma Lager, 126 Botsford street, Moncton, and on enquiry his name became known.

Death came suddenly to Mrs. Udo-phus Mitchell at her home on Dominion Street here this morning. She was hanging out clothes when she was seized with a fainting spell and fell to the ground. A neighbor noting her fall, ran to pick her up, but the unfortunate woman was dead, death being caused by heart failure. She was sixty-five years of age and leaves three sons and two daughters. Two shunting engines had a warm dispute in the I. C. R. yard here this morning. Both were running in the same direction but one was going faster than the other and collided tender first with the result that the cab of the first engine was lifted from its position on to the tender. The other engine was not hurt at all.

NEW STEAMER FOR LABRADOR SERVICE

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 7.—The Reid Nfld. Co. has secured in Glasgow the steamer Dromedary, which will perform the Labrador mail service this summer in place of the lost Virginia Lake, the Government having approved of her for this season. It being the intention of the Reid Co. to build a new ship for next year. The Dromedary is a fine boat, somewhat larger than the "Lake," but of less draft, which will make it easier for her to enter the Labrador harbors; she is also faster, making more than 12 knots, and has more passenger accommodation, while she is also fitted up in most modern style. It is electricity and otherwise splendidly adapted for the service she is to undertake. She is to leave for here about Tuesday, and a crew will be shipped on the spot to bring her out.

Arrives This Afternoon and Will be Entertained by Boston Canadians and Others—Coming to Canada Later—Fighting Tuberculosis

BOSTON, June 7.—On the arrival in Boston this morning of the Countess of Aberdeen, wife of the Earl of Aberdeen, Sir John Campbell Gordon, ex-governor general of Canada, she will be welcomed by more than one thousand persons representing every class of the social and business life of Boston. Hundreds of Boston-Canadians will be in the throng that will meet her at every turn.

Tomorrow a great reception will be tendered Lady Aberdeen at the St. Somerset, where Prince Henry of Prussia was entertained and where the nobles who have visited her in the last decade have been cared for. On this occasion nurses of the Boston Consumptive Hospital will act as ushers in honor of the purpose of Lady Aberdeen's visit, which is to describe the conditions of consumptives in England and the fight against tuberculosis which is being waged under her leadership.

Lady Somerset is due to arrive at the South Station late this afternoon from New York city. She will go at once to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Worcester, at Waltham, a suburb of the city. The wife of the Mayor of Boston will give the countess a breakfast at the Algonquin Club early tomorrow morning. The reception at the Somerset will follow at four in the afternoon. Every day that the countess is here some entertainment of the ordinary has been planned for her. Members of the Boston Gaelic School, at a meeting here yesterday, claimed that Lady Aberdeen does not represent Irish industries as has been maintained. After her stay in Boston Lady Aberdeen will start for Canada. On Wednesday evening she will be entertained by the Canadian Club.

COREY DENIES STORY OF AGREEMENT

Between U. S. and German Steel Trusts— Says His Visit Was Personal One.

PARIS, June 7.—William E. Corey, President of the United States Steel Corporation, today authorized a denial of the report current Saturday that he is conducting negotiations with the Deutscher Stahlwerke Verband, the German Steel Federation, with a view to arranging an agreement on behalf of the United States Steel Corporation regarding the steel imports and exports in the two countries. He said that his recent visits to the Thyssen works in Germany were purely personal.

SIX DROWNED WHEN LANDING COLLAPSED

Sad Tragedy on Arrival of Steamer at an Unused Wharf.

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 7.—No more bodies have been found in Lake Pontchartrain at Mandeville, La., where the wharf gave way while the steamer Margaret was making a landing last night, and it is believed that the deaths will not exceed six. For some reason the boat landing has been changed to a wharf which had not been used for several months. Scores of people crowded upon the landing upon the approach of the Margaret and it was only when the vessel drew a few feet alongside that the crash came. Men, women and children went into the water and it looked for a time as though scores would be drowned.

MANDEVILLE, La., June 7.—By the collapse of a frail wharf here, upon which about 65 people had rushed early yesterday evening to board the excursion steamer Algrout on her return trip to New Orleans, ten persons are thought to be dead, and a rescue party today is searching for the bodies of seven other persons who are missing.

If cooked meat is ready for the table before it is required, place in a dish and set over a pan of boiling water placed on the back of the range and covered with a cloth. The steam will keep the meat hot without drying it or drawing the juices out.

The river steamer Majestic, of the Star Line, has been below the Falls for repairs during the past few days. The over-hauling has been completed and she will resume the route tomorrow.

HAD A HARD TIME TO THROW NEDEF

MONTGOMERY, N. B., June 6.—It took Dan McDonald of Sydney, C. B., champion middleweight wrestler of Canada, twenty-six minutes and twenty-two seconds to throw Geo. Nedef, Assyrian strong man, in a bout in the Grand Opera House here Saturday night. The programme arranged was to throw five men. Only two appeared, McDonald, St. John, and Nedef. McDonald first tackled McLeod and it only took him thirty seconds to floor the St. John man. The Cape Breton champion then took on Nedef, and the three hundred spectators present witnessed a hard struggle before the champion was given the decision.

MONTGOMERY TAKES THE MYRTLE STAKES

GRAVESSEND, N. Y., June 5.—The disagreeable weather kept the attendance at 4,000 at Gravesend today. The feature of the card, the Myrtle stakes, one and an eighth miles, a selling stake, resulted in a victory for the one to two favorite, Montgomery. The winner was bid up to $2,000 when Sam Hildreth said $3,000 and kept the horse. Raquet and Arasee made the pace in the stretch when Montgomery took command and won by four lengths. Star Bottle won the Great American stakes.

RACES TO BERMUDA STARTED SATURDAY

NEW YORK, June 5.—Nine feet little vessels, five sailing yachts and four boats, left New York today in two separate continents for Bermuda. The sail-driven craft got off in the morning and the motor boats followed this afternoon. Both starts were made from the Atlantic Yacht Club at Sea Gate, L. I. The motor boats are competing for the Bermuda challenge cup, presented by the New York Yacht Club. With Hamilton, B. W. I., as the objective point, the four diminutive cruisers will follow the trail blazed for them by the sailing yachts dispatched earlier in the day, and should overtake the slow-going of these, sometime Monday. There was some delay at the start. In addition to a slight mishap to the Nerides II, owned by F. C. Rogers, which caused a delay of 30 minutes putting off the hour of the start until the thickening fog almost hid the channel marks from view, the start was marred by the filing a protest by Capt. Thomas Fleming Day, navigator of the Elys, over the time allowance of 4 hours, 15 minutes and 33 seconds given him by Richmond Levering's Heather, the scratch boat. The four boats crossed the line practically on even terms. William Proctor Insep, racing under the colors of the Shelter Island Club, claiming Cincinnati as her home port, was first over the line, crossing at 4:20.30, three starts ahead of Nerides II, which starts with a time allowance of 7 hours, 25 minutes, 24 seconds. The Elys, flying the flag of the Yachtmen's Club of Philadelphia, went over at 4:20.15, the heater followed 15 seconds later. Soon after crossing the line, the Elys crowded on all her power and passed the other two. Fast time by the motor boats is expected. The Atlas, racing in 1897, made the distance from New York in two days, 17 hours and 48 minutes. The schooner Lehigh, winner of the New York to Bermuda, made the distance in three days, 15 hours and 15 minutes.

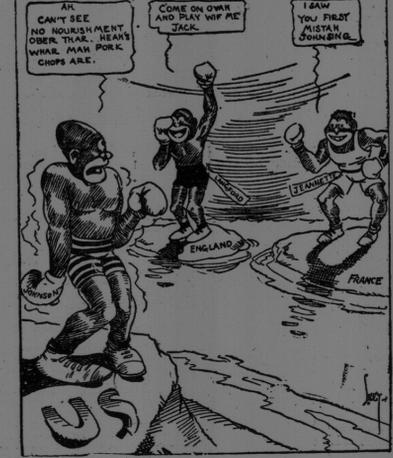

FIRST GAME OF SERIES PROVES A CLOSE ONE

The first game of the series between the Marathons and the Clippers was played on the Victoria grounds Saturday afternoon and proved a victory for the Marathons by a score of seven to six. About a thousand spectators witnessed the game, which was a thoroughly interesting exhibition from start to finish, and one that satisfied the fans as far as good, clean, fast ball is concerned. It was an even contest and was played in the fast time of 1 hour and 23 minutes. The scores made, however, were glaring ones and were costly to both sides, but to offset these the men who made them followed with brilliant plays. Every play was on his toes and there was not an idle moment from the time Umpire McAllister called "Play ball" until the last ball was pitched. The hits were clean, while the Marathons had nine to their credit, the Clippers had eight. Howard, the southpaw of last season's Portland, was on the slab for the Clippers and had eight strikeouts to his credit, and like Nesbett, the Marathons twirler, his work was steady and on the whole the support given the pitchers was good. There is just enough rivalry between the two teams to put the players on their mettle and their followers in a position to do a lot of thinking. Spectators of Saturday's contest cannot as yet foresee a winner of the series. In all fifteen games are to be played between the teams and the game to take place this evening is looked forward to with considerable interest. James McAllister is the umpire chosen for the series and his work on Saturday's contest was highly respected, as he had a number of very close decisions to give and gave them right.

HORSE SHOW IS OPENED UNDER HAPPY AUSPICES

LONDON, June 5.—The international horse show, which has become an annual event of the London social season, was opened at Olympia this afternoon under the most happy auspices. The big building was fairly well filled with spectators, who were aroused to enthusiasm over the several keen competitions among American and British horses in which the American, in a majority of cases, came out with flying colors. In the competition for novice tandem exceeding 15 hands Judge William H. Moore of New York carried off the first and fourth honors. E. H. Stotesbury of Philadelphia took first and second places in pair of light harness hobs, four years old or over, roadsters or trotters, unadorned; third and fourth honors in these competitions went to American bred horses owned by Walter Winans. The greatest interest, however, was taken in the judging of 29 novices, single harness hobs, over 14 and not exceeding 15 hands. England has heretofore been supreme in this class. The 29 entries were finally weeded out until it was a question whether first money should go to Judge Moore's mare Phyllis or to Mathias, a brown stallion owned by Alexander Bowie of London. The judges, after a long consideration, declared in favor of Mathias and gave Phyllis second prize. The splendid display of American horses and the elaborately decorated quarters provided for them have called for the loudest of praise from the local newspapers and the visitors to the show.

Fights O' London Town.

Broadway is bright and cheery. The crowds are gay and free. But Johnson looked toward London; Said, "Dat's de place for me." He bought a steamer ticket And said, "I'll get a fight. De English cough up freely, To fight, black or white." O dressey clubs of London, who lay your money down, What trouble lie within you, O fights o' London town. The face of Johnson clouded. When the morning papers told That two black husky fighters Jeansette had whipped all comers; Sam Langford took Hagus's goat, So Johnson phoned the captain, "Guess Ah won't take that boat." O dressey clubs of London, who lay your money down, "Deyste mahtry risky business, dese fights o' London town."

ST. JOSEPH BEAT THE ST. JOHN THE BAPTISTS

In an exciting contest on the Shamrock grounds Saturday afternoon the St. John the Baptist team were defeated at the hands of the St. Joseph's by a score of 9 to 3. During the entire nine innings play was close and the winner of the match was in doubt until the last St. J. B. man was down in the first of the ninth inning. There were about 600 spectators in attendance. The match could safely be called a fair one, as there were a number of spots where excellent fielding was shown. As seen by the tabulated score both pitchers were hit freely, while the error column was not too large for a nine inning game. Callaghan and Howe were the opposing box artists. Harris, I. F., was 5 to 2 in 1.0. Brit, I. B., was 3 to 1 in 1.0. Doherty, C. F., was 5 to 0 in 2.0. Kelly, I. F., was 5 to 0 in 3.0. Kuller, I. B., was 4 to 2 in 3.0. Mills, C., was 4 to 2 in 1.0. Conboy, S. TALAHASSEE, Fla., June 6.—Dangling from a limb of a tree in the county jail yard and within sight of the dome of the Florida State capitol, the lifeless body of Matt Morris, a negro, met the gaze of the people of this city this morning. Condemned to death for the murder of William Langston, late sheriff of this county, the negro would have, within a few weeks, legally paid the penalty of the crime. A mob of not more than fifteen men, about four o'clock this morning, dragged Morris from his cell in the jail and strung him up to a tree within the jail enclosure. The masked band then emptied a round of cartridges into the corpse and rode away unmolested. When the mob arrived at the jail, they brought the jailer to the door with the use that they had a prisoner, overpowered him and took his keys. After securing the negro they locked the jailer in Morris' cell and soon accomplished their work. Sheriff Houston was in Georgeville at the time. Morris had been acting strangely, and it is believed that fear that the negro might escape the gallows by feigning insanity, prompted the act of the mob.

UNIVERSAL DEGREES.

In these days when all sorts of colleges are freely conferring their degrees upon all sorts of men, it is but fair to ask what practical use is served by these collegiate titles. It is possible to understand the value of the degree to the undergraduate. It represents something to work for. It simply marks the goal towards which he strives. It seems to the freshmen to be far away and well nigh impossible of attainment, and perhaps because of that of supreme importance. Even at graduation a student may regard his parchment with a bit of pardonable pride, but the subsequent advent into the world of men reveals to the college man that he is of much greater value than his parchment and that men are impudently regardless of his degree if he cannot make good.

It is a significant fact that the real college man manifests a tendency to drop his degree, except in cases where it denotes special technical skill. And in such cases it is retained because it serves as a useful and respectable professional advertisement. The modern popularity of honorary degrees is in itself an interesting sign of the times. There is in the practice much that is commendable. It is appropriate that the university should in some way recognize men of scholarship and ability. It is, however, significant that the honorary degree of the university should be, almost invariably, the doctor's degree. It is, of course, well understood that in the university community an A. B. or A. M. degree is esteemed of greater value than any merely honorary distinction. But the doctor's degree has a value outside the university community that the less pretentious A. B. or A. M. degree cannot possibly possess. It would seem that men retained a good deal of that "lost infirmity of the human mind," that men preferred the doctor's degree to a plain A. B. or A. M. because it distinguished them outside the world of letters. By the vote of a university senate and the free gift of a magic parchment a man passes from the common crowd of men. Henceforth the plan and degenerate title "Mister" is supplanted by the honorable if honorary title "Doctor." The man belongs to a recognized aristocracy, if not of letters, at least of titles.

As matters now stand the doctor's degree does not give a man any academic standing. To discover that it is necessary to examine the degree, and university conferring it, and finally the man. The popularity of the degree rests finally upon its practical use. It is the only degree that the man of the street recognizes. It may be that universities will in time come to see that it is not their business to provide honorary titles that shall have a common value on the street. To provide a man with a new handle to his name may be a coarse way of doing a commendable deed. But there ought to be a more dignified and suitable way of conferring a desirable distinction. For the present, however, we may believe that universities will not mend their ways. The magic parchment has value. Men seek it, yet accept it.

FOREST FIRES.

Forest fires are not a novelty for the people of this province. Every year-valuable property is destroyed and lives are endangered and lost by this recurrent scourge. There has been of late a good deal of attention paid to the matter, but there still seems ample room for improvement. Dangerous and disastrous fires still start and continue to burn. There is a very generally accepted theory that these fires originate because of the carelessness of sportsmen. The farmer is not apt to persist in his carelessness. There are doubtless still a few men who run great risks in burning off new land. But the farmers have learned by expensive experience that it is well to make haste slowly. The farmer lives on the spot and must pay the bill of carelessness. The man from town or city is the man usually responsible. Ignorance and drunkenness together make a difficult combination to fight. The fact is that there are scores of men who go into the country for a day's sport who are criminally careless with fire. So long as fools and drunken men are permitted to carry matches just so long will we be compelled to fight fire. In dealing with this problem it seems to be necessary to adopt some method which will compel the fool to pay the bill of his folly. Doubtless it would be difficult to discover the origin of most of the disastrous fires. But any man who has followed the trail knows that it is not difficult to find evidence of carelessness that might have resulted disastrously. A rigid enforcement of a stringent law would have a sobering effect upon irresponsible sportsmen. It is difficult to fight these fires once they are well begun. They will be started so long as fools carry matches. And it is easier to fight the fire than the fool. But a term of enforced retirement from society works wonders even for men who fool with fire.

SALARIES.

It has been very generally recognized that teachers and professors were not properly paid for their services. There is, however, today a manifest tendency to remedy that defect. For instance, it is stated that Dalhousie University has increased the salary of its professors from $2,000 to $2,500 per annum. It would be interesting yet were it possible to discover just what influenced the governors of Dalhousie in this matter. It is not for a moment to be supposed that in this case there is an abundance of money which must be disposed of, nor do the governors in this case belong to a nationality prodigal in the expenditure of cash. It may be that there is a recognition of the needs of the professors and the just response to that need. But there is very good reason to believe that the governors of Dalhousie gave primary consideration to the welfare of the university. They have a progressive college occupying an enviable place among Maritime and even Canadian institutions. They naturally desire to maintain that position. In increasing the salaries of their professors they help to increase the efficiency of the institution. They make it possible for men of first-rate ability to look forward to a chair in Dalhousie as a desirable position in which to work. And they make it possible for their professors to devote their whole time to the work of the college. An underpaid professor will usually be a poor professor. He will be compelled to worry over the matter of household expenses. He will usually be forced to supplement his income by outside work and thus divide his interests. He will finally be forced to move on or enter the poor house. Common-sense and not charity is the incentive for the commendable increase.

A GRAVE.

(By Edith Wharton.)

The life should come
With all its marshaled honors, trump
To proffer you the captaincy of some Resounding exploit, that shall fill
Man's pulses with commensurate thrill.
And be a banner to batle days
For truth to shove, for duty to
What would your answer be,
O heart once brave?
Seek charivari for me,
I watch beside a grave.
To to some shining festival of thought,
The sages call you from steep citadel
Of bastioned argument, whose rampart gained
Yields the pure vision passionately sought.
In dreams known well,
But never yet in wakefulness attained,
How should you answer to their summons, save?
I watch beside a grave.
The Beauty, from her fane within the soul
Of fire-tongued serps descending,
Or from the dream-let temples of the past.
With feet immortal wending,
Illuminate grief's ante-chamber and vast
With half-veiled fact that promises
the whole
To him who holds her fast.
What answer could you give?
Sight of one face I crave,
One only while I live;
Who elsewhere, for I watch beside a grave.
The love of the one heart that leaves
you best,
A storm-tossed messenger,
Should beat its wings for shelter in your breast,
Where clung its last year's jet,
The nest you built together and made fast.
Let envious winds should stir,
And winged each delicate thought to minutiae,
With sweetness far-ammassed
To the young dreams within—
What answer could it win?
The nest was whelmed in sorrow's rising wave,
Nor could I reach one drowning dream
to save.
I watch beside a grave.

ENGLISH TROOPS TO ATTACK THE MULLAH

His Treatment to Tribes Friendly to Great Britain Calls for Another Campaign.

ADEN, June 7.—Colonel Gourb, according to present arrangements, will begin military operations this month against the Somaliand Mullah, who has continued to harass the friendly tribes. It is understood that the operations will take the form of flying columns, composed of mounted infantry and irregulars, which will endeavor to round up the elusive enemy. Practically everything is now ready, and ample native troops on the spot are being supplied with white officers. The chief difficulty is, as it has always been, transport. British agents have been buying animals all along the Red sea, but prices have been high, particularly for camels. The Emperor Menelik has, moreover, forbidden the export of these animals from his territory. It is thought that Sir Reginald Wingate, who has arrived in the country from Cairo, will, from his experience of Sudan "drives," be able to give Colonel Gourb some useful advice. Berbera is the base of the new operations which will cover a wide area in the northwestern Somaliand border. The British government has for some time been collecting information as to the situation, particularly with reference to the Somaliand border, and the authorities are very hopeful of success.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Five Miles in 4.46 2-5—King Says
Murphy is Joking—Chicago May Join Eastern Hockey League.

SAN BARNABINO, Cal., June 7.—Paul Dorkum, of Los Angeles, lowered the world's record for motor cycle yesterday by riding five miles in a competitive race in 4.46 2-5, standing start.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 7.—"Murphy was joking," said John Kling yesterday when shown a Chicago despatch yesterday saying he had won the $10,000 bonus by riding five miles in a telegram and I defy Murphy to produce one. I won't report this month or even in December. I have no idea of going to Chicago. Have made no proposition and am not considering any. That is all there is to it."

CHICAGO, June 7.—Plans for a hockey league uniting Chicago with western cities in this sport were discussed yesterday definitely at a meeting this week between the Superior team and Eastern Hockey Union, who is manager of the East Side rink, left for a trip of inspection last night.

NEWS OF THE AERONAUTS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 6.—Two of the nine balloons entered in the national distance race for the trophy of the Aero Club of America and the Aero Club of Indiana yesterday, were sighted near Shelbyville, Tenn., about fifty miles south of Indianapolis, this afternoon. The balloons, No. 1, going south. The balloon, No. 2, which was in the afternoon, dropped a message signed by Baldwin and Fisher. It followed: "Aboard St. Louis III. Weather is fine up here. How is it on earth? No per se scarce. Just had lunch. Expect to light when champagne gives out." The balloon Chicago with C. A. Coyle and assistant, landed about half a mile from Scottsville, Ky., at 1.30 o'clock today. The balloon Indianapolis, with Dr. Link and R. J. Givin, came to earth at Westmoreland, Tenn., at 2 o'clock today.

PARIS, June 6.—The French Aerial League has perfected plans for lines of dirigible balloons from Paris, Bordeaux, Lyons, Pau and Rouen. Five dirigibles will be employed in this service. Their length will be between sixty and eighty metres. Two of them will have a capacity of 2,500 cubic feet; one of 3,000 and two of 7,000 cubic metres. All of them will be capable of an average speed of 30 kilometres (31 miles) an hour.

One of the dirigibles, which has been named "Villie Nancy," has already been constructed and the Paris-Nancy line, with a daily service in good weather, will be inaugurated in September.

PARIS, June 6.—Walter Wellman, who is about to undertake another expedition in search of the North Pole, and Melvin Vaniman, his engineer, have added considerable improvements to the dirigible balloon, which is to be taken along with them. It has been equipped with an extra set of propellers, capable of being shifted while in motion, so that the balloon may be forced up or down at will. They have also perfected an ingenious sun compass, upon the principle of the sun dial, and have devised a float by means of curves. The party will leave Spitzbergen in about a fortnight, and the start for the Pole is expected to take place about August 1.

"Is your husband a vegetarian?"
"No, indeed. I can't even get him to eat the lawn, let alone dig a garden."

Common, Everyday Rice---Do
You Realize Its Possibilities?

While you are wondering, just as every housewife does these days, what in the world you are going to cook next that will be both appetizing and inexpensive, do you ever think of rice—plain rice? There are so many ways one can use cold boiled rice. A favorite dish with the Italian housewife, and one that is well worth trying, for it is both economically and easily prepared, is called Risotto. Cover the bottom of a well-buttered bake dish with finely chopped onion, and put over it a thick layer of the cooked rice, then a layer of plinnet, or sweet Spanish pepper cut small. Then another layer of rice, and a sprinkling of chopped onion. Cover with milk and bake slowly for an hour. Take out of the oven and sprinkle over the top a half-pound of grated cheese; bake for 15 minutes more, or until brown. Then serve. San Francisco received from the diplomatic report of France a great gold medal conveying a sister Republic's acknowledgment of a heroic achievement, when Jean Jules Jusserand, ambassador of the French Republic, presented to a nation's appreciation. Mayor Taylor presided over the presentation ceremony with the French ambassador at his right and Governor Gillett at his left. At the ambassador's right were several representatives from all over the world. The ceremony closed with an informal reception.

TONIGHT'S MEETING MAY HAVE IMPORTANT RESULTS

Athletes Gather to Discuss Future Relations
With M. P. A. A. and Formation of Provincial Association.

Considerable interest is being demonstrated in the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening, to further discuss the formation of a New Brunswick union to control athletics. A feature of the meeting will be the presence of James C. Lithgow, president of the M. P. A. A. Various city clubs will be represented at the meeting and communications will also be read from outside clubs. A. W. Robb will occupy the chair and D. B. Donald will act as secretary. Mr. Donald stated to a Star representative this morning that he had acted in compliance with the desire of the recent meeting and sent communications concerning the matter to outside clubs. Prediction has addressed a letter in response declaring that they prefer breaking away from the M. P. A. A. and would favor any steps taken to form a New Brunswick union.

While the formation of such a body may not be completed this evening, the plans may be further advanced. Mr. Robb stated that President Lithgow went attended at the invitation of the recent meeting. The question will be thoroughly considered before any drastic action is taken.

HEARING OF ELECTION
PETITIONS ADJOURNED

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., June 7.—The election petitions filed by Lewis P. Tanton of Charlottetown, against Lemuel E. Frowse, M. P., which commenced Friday morning before the chief justice and Justice Fitzgerald, was adjourned on Saturday until the 14th of September next. Friday was taken up almost entirely with arguments by counsel for the petitioner and respondent. The particulars in the action, delivered to the respondent under the order of the chief justice were very general in their nature, and did not contain with reasonable precision the time when the alleged offences were committed. Some of them ranged from 1907 until after the election, and it was contended by the respondent that these particulars conveyed no information at all, and he asked the court to strike out that portion of the particulars which did not fix a definite date, and did not give the names of the persons supposed to be bribed or treated.

The court granted the application of the respondent's counsel in almost every instance and the particulars were amended. An objection was taken by the respondent's counsel that sufficient notice of trial was given to the 4th of June. After argument this point was reserved, and the court proceeded to hear evidence, until one o'clock.

My Dear Dr. Flanders,—Permit me to send you a few lines to thank you very heartily for your great kindness in making my stay in St. John so extremely pleasant and interesting. I think I saw as much as it was possible for a person to do in three days, and thanks to your foresight I met many of your most prominent citizens. I was greatly struck with the business capacity and the buoyant hopefulness of the business men of your city and it says much for the future prospects of St. John that its fortunes are guided by such capable citizens.

The reception at your church was a very charming function. I only wish there was case for British Methodism and British commercial enterprise had been put by a more qualified advocate than I can pretend to be. I thank you most sincerely. Yours faithfully, ROBERT W. FERKS. (Sgd.)

Boggs—I'd like to have my face on the $10 bill.
Cogg—'I'd prefer to have my hands on them.

Mrs. Hicks—My husband has been just lovely to me all day.
Mrs. Wicks—H'm; what was it you caught him doing?

When the case was adjourned until the above date eight witnesses were examined but nothing of importance was brought out. The next election petition to be tried is that against A. L. Fraser, M. P., Conservative, of Kings.

SMALL BOY
DROWNED IN
FROG POND

Charles Carle, a young lad of eight years, was drowned on Saturday while bathing in a small pond of Bellevue avenue.

On Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock young Carle and three of his chums, Chas. Hawkhurst, age 6, Holland Sears, aged 7, and Cecil Carling, age 8, left their homes with lunches and intended going for a swim in a small pond about a quarter mile from their homes. Upon reaching the pond the three other young lads refused to go into the water and sat down while young Carle undressed and waded in. The boy played in the water for about ten minutes, when he got beyond his depth and immediately sank. His companions, seeing him disappear, began to shout and all ran for help. The first to hear them were Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Hector, but when they arrived the boy had sunk for the last time and could be seen in about six feet of water about ten feet from a very steep bank. By this time Edward Treacraft and Harry Hector, who had heard the cries of the lads, arrived, and after about ten minutes succeeded in bringing the body up to the bank. They did everything possible to restore a spark of life while waiting for Dr. McIntyre. The body was carried to his home and the father, Thos. Carle, was summoned from his work at Stetson & Cutler's mill. While they were ostensibly making purchases at a jeweler's shop at Maximilian street it was noticed that one of them concealed a valuable jewel beneath the folds of her cloak. They were followed and handed over to the police.

The police found that their trunks contained many other jewels, which the Baroness Rotz confessed had been obtained by thefts.

LOCATE EIGHTEEN OF THE MISSING VESSELS

ST. JOHN'S, June 5.—With the exception of two fishing vessels, all of the 20 schooners which have been overdue for a week have been located. The missing schooners are owned by Roberts and Hunter, of this city. The owners express the opinion that the vessels are hemmed in by the ice, or else have harbored in some inlet remote from a telegraph station.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

PROFESSORS ELIGIBLE

NEW YORK, June 5.—The University of Wisconsin, the University of Michigan, the University of Minnesota, and the University of Toronto have been admitted to participate in the professor-award system of the Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching, according to an announcement made here tonight. This decision was reached at a recent meeting of the executive committee and was made known tonight by the secretary. These are the first state institutions admitted to the endowment.

TWO BARONESSES ARRESTED.

Charged With Perpetrating Extensive Theft of Jewels.

MUNICH, June 5.—Two women of noble birth—the Baroness Albertine von Seegan, aged 57 years, and her cousin, the Baroness Rotz, aged 52—were today arrested at Munich on a charge of perpetrating extensive thefts of jewels.

HE WORKED. He was feeling sulky, there was no doubt of it. He walked up and down, back and forth, with lowered head and muttered to himself in a haphazard manner that, how dissatisfied he was with his lot in this material world.

IT SEEMED FAMILIAR. Mr. Robert Mantell, when he was playing in the West, some months ago, on his arrival in a certain town, was driven to the best hotel in the place. On reaching the hostelry he discovered he was not in funds and told the hackman to come inside and get his fare.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL - OF COURSE. When the Manhattan Opera Company were playing in Montreal some few weeks ago, the management received many letters from persons of both sexes who sought positions in the chorus.

ONE MORNING THE MANAGER received a letter asking for a trial, and the writer was so modest in enumerating his qualifications that the manager thought he would take any notice of the communication. However, he did answer the letter, and the next morning the actor, accompanied by two lady friends, showed up on time.

MYSTERIES OF ROYAL BIRTHS.

Mysteries in connection with royal births furnish a large share of the most interesting stories found in the annals of the reigning houses of the Old World. This may be surprising to those who recall all the constitutional precautions adopted at Madrid on the occasion of the birth in 1807 of the little Prince of Asturias, to avert any malignant insinuations that might be circulated by foes of the dynasty. When Cabinet Ministers and Secretaries of State are present as representatives of the people at royal nuptials in Spain, England and other monarchies of Europe sometimes with adjoining rooms with the intervening door open, and sometimes even in the royal women's apartment itself, it would certainly seem that no loophole was left for any suspicion as to fraud. Yet it is a fact that there are few historical records of the blood in history, modern as well as ancient, the authenticity of whose origin has not been made the subject of doubt. And the stories based on the latter, no matter how unfounded or convoluted, always leave an impression of uncertainty on the public and are calculated to affect the status of the nation. It is in the same way that the same old stories based on the latter, no matter how unfounded or convoluted, always leave an impression of uncertainty on the public and are calculated to affect the status of the nation.

NAPOLEON III. AND EUGENIE.

In the same way, the late King Jerome Bonaparte and his son, Prince Napoleon Jerome, uncle of the former Attorney General of the United States, were among the loudest in declaring that Napoleon III. had none of the blood of Bonaparte in his veins, and that he was the son of Queen Hortense and a Dutch admiral. They based their assertions on declarations made by Queen Hortense's own husband, King Louis Bonaparte of Holland, and there is evidence to show that he was prevented from publicly disclosing his paternity only by pressure exerted by his brother, the great Emperor Napoleon, who pointed out that, as the child was not an heir, it was of no importance to him. If there is doubt as to the parentage of Napoleon III., still greater mystery attaches itself to the origin of Empress Eugenie, and there are many who to this day believe that she was the daughter of the late Queen Hortense and a Dutch admiral. They based their assertions on declarations made by Queen Hortense's own husband, King Louis Bonaparte of Holland, and there is evidence to show that he was prevented from publicly disclosing his paternity only by pressure exerted by his brother, the great Emperor Napoleon, who pointed out that, as the child was not an heir, it was of no importance to him.

ANOTHER WOMAN SECURED.

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 99, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, unless she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and restorer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ill, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as for the sake of those you love, give it a trial. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

BEAUTIFUL SPRING CLOTHES OF RICH NEW YORK SOCIETY WOMEN

MRS. ROBT. GOBLETT. Two of New York's richest and most popular young matrons were photographed the other day at a garden party for charity, as they were wearing "flowers to sell." Ultra-fashionable gowns were worn by these two. Mrs. Woodward's being a broken and skull fractured. The body was taken to Waterville, where the only means of identification found was a letter dated May 23 and written in French by Almer Lester, of 125 Bedford street, Moncton (N. B.). The letter was friendly and contained no clue to the name or residence of the one to whom it was addressed. A valuable watch, toilet kit and ring were also found on the body, but no money.

THAW MUST REMAIN IN THE ASYLUM

Supreme Court Confirms the Decision—Patrick's Appeal Also Refused.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Harry K. Thaw must remain in the state asylum for the criminal insane at Matteawan under a decision rendered today by the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn. Thaw's application for a writ of habeas corpus releasing him from the asylum was dismissed by a justice of the supreme court several months ago. He then appealed to the appellate division which today sustained the lower court and dismissed the writ. NEW YORK, June 4.—Albert T. Patrick's application for a writ of habeas corpus releasing him from Sing Sing prison, where he is under life sentence for the murder of William Marry Rice, was denied by the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn today. Patrick's fight for life is the most remarkable of its kind ever made in this country. No other person was ever confined so long in a death house awaiting execution as was Patrick. For more than four years and half he has lived within the shadow of the electric chair. During that time he was present when several other unfortunate men were taken from their cells and marched along the narrow passage which separates the condemned cell block and the execution chamber.

FATALITIES OF A DAY ACROSS THE BORDER

OAKLAND, Me., June 6.—An unknown young man was killed by a freight train here at 11:10 tonight. The engineer saw the man hit something and stopped the train. The body was found in a plowed field about forty feet from the track where it had rolled after being struck. The neck had been broken and skull fractured. The body was taken to Waterville, where the only means of identification found was a letter dated May 23 and written in French by Almer Lester, of 125 Bedford street, Moncton (N. B.). YOUNG WOMAN SWELLS AWE

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 6.—After an hour's struggle in the swirling waters of Niagara River between Second and Third Streets in the city, a young woman was rescued. Her young wife's attempt at self-destruction, was forced, from sheer exhaustion, to loosen his grip on his wife's unconscious form while being dragged ashore to safety, and the young man went away to her death. Her body was later recovered.

PEASANT AS KING OF ITALY.

If popular and widespread belief is not throughout Italy, but also at the various courts of Europe, is well founded, the present King of Italy, Emperor Victor Emmanuel II., was not the son of King Charles Albert of Sardinia, and his consort Archduchess Maria Theresia, but the illegitimate son of a peasant and his wife, the latter having been engaged as wet nurse to the young Prince of Savoy. The story goes that the royal Prince was accidentally burned to death in his cradle, and the Duke of Austria, his father-in-law, substituted in his stead, either with or without the knowledge of the King and Emperor. The evidence in the Imperial archives of Vienna, in the hands of the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, is associated with one of the most romantic mysteries affecting the succession of the royal house of England, a mystery that had a curious and little known episode during the reign of Queen Victoria, not long before the death of her husband, the late Prince Consort. The Duke who is one of the greatest nobles of the British Empire, is descended on his father's side from the illustrious family of Sir Walter Scott. "The Lay of the Last Minstrel." It was his descendant, Anne, Countess of Buccleuch in her own right, and the greatest heiress of her time, who married King Charles I. by Lucy Waters. Their son at the time bore the title of Duke of Monmouth; but on his marriage he assumed his wife's patronymic name, and was created Duke of Buccleuch. The Princess survived her husband's death on the scaffold (he was condemned for high treason in heading an abortive attempt to rescue James V. from the prison-like control of the Earl of Argyll from the hands of Sir Walter Scott's "The Lay of the Last Minstrel.") But there is startling evidence to show that the late King Milan was not really entitled by birth to the throne of Serbia, which he occupied with so much ignominy. Eczema Salt Rheum.

Eczema or Salt Rheum, as it is often called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. It manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat, are almost unbearable. The pre-eminent success which Bardock Blood Bitters has met with in permanently curing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleaning and purifying properties. No other remedy has done, or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible tortures, as our thousands of signed testimonials can bear witness to. Mrs. John O'Connor, Burlington, N.S., writes:—"For years I suffered with Eczema. I tried a dozen different medicines, but most of them only made it worse. I was advised to try Bardock Blood Bitters. I got a bottle and before I had taken half a dozen doses I could see a change in my condition. Its use and now I am completely cured. I cannot say too much for your wonderful medicine." For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Lines to be Established Between German Cities.

HERLIN, June 7.—The managing director of the Zeppelin Airship Construction Company, Herr Colmann, yesterday delivered a lecture at Strasburg on Count Zeppelin's future plans. He stated that the count intended to establish a number of airship lines for the regular conveyance of passengers between different towns. Count Zeppelin had already been in communication with various municipalities, and had received promises of support from some of the most important towns in Germany.

The town council of Cologne, for instance, is willing to invest $25,000 in the new company for the inauguration of a line of airships which will establish aerial communication between Cologne and other important centers of population. The municipality of Dusseldorf is also willing to subscribe a substantial sum toward the capital of the new company.

In some cases regular lines of airships will be established, while in other cases pleasure cruises will take place at regular intervals.

Herr Colmann stated that 300 days per year are suitable for aerial voyages. The Zeppelin airships which will be used for this purpose will carry a crew of six including the engineer and will be capable of conveying twenty passengers. It is intended that each voyage shall last about seven hours, except in the case of long-distance cruises from certain fixed towns to other towns.

Two airships for the conveyance of passengers will be completed by the early spring of next year, and two more will be ready by May.

The first regular line of airships will be established between Dusseldorf and Lucerne, with Cologne, Bonn, Mayence, Frankfurt-on-Main, Carlsruhe, Stuttgart, and one or two other towns as calling stations. Other lines of airships will be established to connect other towns with stations on the direct route between Dusseldorf and Lucerne.

Herr Colmann added that the German War Office has promised a subsidy in support of the line connecting Dusseldorf with Lucerne in view of the military advantages of establishing aerial communication in this part of Germany.

Herr Colmann concluded by stating that fares for aerial passengers would be somewhat expensive at first, owing to the heavy cost of the upkeep of the airships. The costs would, however, naturally diminish in proportion to the general development of aerial navigation, so that in course of time aerial voyages would no longer be a pastime for the wealthy, but an ordinary means of communication, at any rate for the middle classes.

LECTURE ON JOHN BUNYAN
BY REV. JAMES CRISP

A very interesting lecture on John Bunyan was delivered in Zion Methodist church last Friday evening by Rev. Jas. Crisp. The following is a brief synopsis:

John Bunyan was born in the year 1628, in the third year of the reign of Charles I. and died in the year 1688, in the first year of the reign of William and Mary. This he was 20 years of age when the Commonwealth began. Cromwell presided 9 years. Charles II. came to the throne in 1660 and reigned 25 years. James II. came to the throne in 1685 and reigned 3 years, and William and Mary began to reign in 1688, in which year John Bunyan died.

These were stirring and wonderful times. John Bunyan lived through 60 years of the most changeable and exciting period in English history. Under Charles I. there was great oppression and no little disgrace. Under Cromwell there was certainly much prosperity and the people enjoyed many liberties.

The Nerve of Joe

By D. C. LAWLESS.

"Well, of all the soldiers I ever knew," growled the Manager of the Acme Wagon Works, as he entered the office from the factory, "that cursed Joe's the limit!"

"Why, what's the matter now?" asked the bookkeeper, placing his foot on the checker that had dropped to the floor when his colleagues secreted the board.

"Matter!" exclaimed the Manager, coming into the railing and drawing out his morning cigar. "That miserable half-breed to his 'dot' capers again! I've had all kinds and conditions of men working under me in all kinds of places, but for unsatisfactory service and pure shiftlessness that fellow heads the pay-roll. I've been over to that paint-shop to-day this week, and I've found some hard-luck story saved him. He's thought of his poor little slip of a wife taking in washing to support the family."

"The Manager blew out a cloud of smoke and reflected for a moment on the checker's past of the culprit. But the demands of the present were urgent."

"No!" he exclaimed. "He's got to go now! . . . Daily! Daily! Where's the Daily? Show me a limit to charity. Work's slack this winter, and there's no excuse for keeping him at all. There's plenty of time before spring to paint the few orders we have on hand. Anyhow, it's no charity to his wife. She never sees a cent of his money. It's all dumped into that confounded Emporium. Oh, Daily! 'Where's the painter?'"

"He was working this morning when I went to the factory," said the bookkeeper. "Well, I've been in that shop every day this week, and I never see him. He's got to go to a stop to this. You go over and tell him he's out of a job this afternoon. I'll be there to see you."

"The speaker thumped the desk to let it be known that that order was not a joke. He was standing at the door, and he said to the Manager, 'I'm not going to let you get away with this. I know Joe's the best painter in town, but he's got to go. It's no use when the cards are stacked against him. I'll be there to see you.'"

"The next morning when the chief clerk arrived at the office, he found the Manager sitting within the railing of the chief clerk, he kept his coat to go to dinner. 'What are you doing here?' I asked. 'Working,' says he. 'Working,' said I. 'I thought you were dead.' 'What for?' he asked. 'Because I can never find you here,' I told him. 'I've been in this shop a hundred times and never saw you.' 'Oh,' says he, 'I'm working. Whenever you see my coat hanging on that hook, you'll know I'm working.' That made me get out of here and stay out, says I; and don't ever let me find you here again, or I'll have you arrested for trespassing. You can call at the office for your time this afternoon, and after that I don't want to see any more of you!"

McLaughlin should draft a resolution in the matter. Rev. J. J. McCaskill thought the alliance and those who use it should have the matter. The time would arrive when the country would desire Sunday trains. He considered that the railway was endeavoring to enforce and observe the Lord's Day was more or less abortive. The running of the river boats had been stopped, but the owner of a yacht or automobile could enjoy himself. He considered that a protest coming from the alliance would be ineffective. The condition of the country would make Sunday trains essential. The alliance has not sufficient knowledge to consider the subject at present.

Rev. W. Robinson stated it was difficult to see the necessity of a train made up in St. John. He thought the railway and the larger railway to work on Sunday. The Evangelical Alliance would protest against either in the United States or in Canada. The railway was running a train or any connection being made by the Intercolonial railway.

Rev. W. Robinson also expressed a strong protest against the running of the trains. The matter was a most important one and the Alliance should place itself on record as being against the Sunday operation of trains. The proceedings of the recent meeting of the Alliance were referred to by Rev. J. J. McCaskill. He declared that a number of the clergymen were then and there in agreement to sign a protest against the running of the trains. He considered it inexpedient to act at the present upon the grounds mentioned.

Rev. W. R. Robinson stated that in the United States the larger railway unions were crying out against Sunday trains. The church must not act in isolation. The Alliance was of the opinion that the running of the trains would be a great loss to the public. The numbers in addition to the railway men, the postal clerks, express drivers, coachmen, etc., would be compelled to work.

The following resolution was then introduced, which was adopted upon the motion of Rev. W. R. Robinson: "Whereas this Alliance has learned that the C. P. R. intend to run passenger trains into and out of this city during the summer season on the Lord's day, and that the same are likely to be introduced in the train schedule of the Intercolonial railway; therefore resolved that the Evangelical Alliance do enter their earnest protest against the same, and do declare their opposition to the same, and do request a large number of railway employees on the Sabbath rest as well as the opportunity of worship as well as to secure the same. The Alliance apprehend that the proposed Sunday trains may lead to the running of suburban street cars which they believe to be unnecessary and undesirable in the interest both of the railway employees and community in general."

On motion of Rev. J. C. B. Appel, seconded by Venable Anderson Raymond, the Alliance upon adjournment, decided to discontinue their sessions during the summer months and meet again on the first Monday in October.

At St. Peter's Church at six o'clock this morning, Mr. Harry A. Pierce and Miss Gertrude R. Maloney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maloney, Charlestown street, were married by Rev. Martin Maloney, C. S. R. Nuptial high mass followed. The charming bride was attended in an Empire gown of cream silk embroidered with green and blue. Miss Maloney wore a gown of red and green silk, and large lorgnettes. The groom was in a tuxedo. The wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents followed.

A large number of beautiful presents were received by the bride. The groom is Vice-President of St. Joseph's Young Men's Society, and enjoys a wide popularity. The bride is a member of St. Vincent's Alumnae Association, for some years past, associate editor of the St. John Monitor, and a general favorite. The happy couple left for a trip to Boston, Providence and New York on the afternoon of the 6th. The bride's return, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will live at 116 Main street.

Turnips that are too small to pare and also economically before cooking may be utilized by boiling whole in their jackets. When done the skin may be rubbed off with the hand, the same as beets. By this method the economical housewife is able to use turnips that otherwise would go to the cattle. Those who have tried this way with turnips say that the small turnips are sweeter and have a better flavor when so treated than the larger ones cooked in the usual way.

FOREST FIRES STILL RAGING NEAR CAPITAL. FREDERICTON, N. B., June 7.—Reports from outlying districts are to the effect that the forest fires are still raging, but the populace is fighting the flames on every hand and the prospects are that their further onslaught will be stemmed in. On the Kennebec stream, an area of over ten miles long and four miles wide has been swept. The house and barns of Moses Haines, valued at $2,000, situated at Dorris Ridge in this vicinity, have been entirely destroyed and other places are in great danger. The fires on Cains and Little River are still burning rapidly but there is every hope that the large force at work there will be able to control them. There is every appearance of rain this afternoon and its coming will be gladly welcomed.

POVERTY. "She has no friend to speak of." "Good heavens! What does she talk about?"

WHAT SHE THOUGHT OF THE STAGE. A good story is told of Mr. Beecham Tree, whose "Pinnacle and the Palace" contributed largely to London's Christmas enjoyment at His Majesty's. The famous actor was once prevailed upon in kindness of heart to engage a servant girl out of the workhouse. She was desperately untidy, and after various attempts to teach her method, Mrs. Tree told her husband that it was no use, the girl must really go. "Oh, try her a little longer," urged Mr. Tree. And she was granted a respite. However, it was all in vain, and one day, as he had engaged the girl, fell the task of getting rid of her. He told her that if she did not improve in her ways she must return to the workhouse. "Oh, no, I shan't," she snapped rudely. "I'll get on as best I can." "But I cannot give you a character," returned the actor, "and you will find it very invidious in another situation without a character." "Perhaps" was the insolent retort. "At the worst, I can always go to the stage."

REMARKABLE REASONS FOR DUELS. Colonel Montgomery was shot in a duel about a dog, Colonel Ramsey in one about a servant, Mr. Featherstone in one about a reaper. Ramsey's father in one about a goose, and another gentleman in one about a bottle of anchovies. One officer was challenged for merely asking his opponent to pass him a goblet. Another was compelled to fight about a pinch of snuff. General Barry was challenged by a Captain Smith for declining wine at a dinner on a steambath, although the general pleaded as an excuse that he was invariably made him sick, and Lieutenant Cowther lost his life because he was refused admittance to a club of club of pigeon shooters.

IN 1777 a duel occurred in New York between Lieutenant Featherstonehaugh of the Seventy-fifth and Captain McPherson of the Forty-second British regiments in regard to the manner of eating an ear of corn, one contending that the eating was from the cob and other contending that the grain should be cut off from the cob before eating. Lieutenant Featherstonehaugh lost his right arm, the ball from his antagonist's pistol shattering the limb fearfully, so much so that it had to be amputated. Major Noah lost his life in 1877 at the duelling ground at He-boken in a simple dispute about what was trumps in a game of cards.—London Chronicle.

THE LEAGUE LEADERS MEET THIS EVENING

Good Game Promised Between St. Peter's and St. Joseph's—Marathon-Clipper Game Tonight.

A fast game is promised for tonight on the Shamrock grounds, when the St. Peter's and St. Joseph's will clash. The former team is at present leading the league, while the Josephs have developed considerable strength. The match should attract a large number as good ball is being furnished by the teams. Donovan will occupy the box for the St. Joseph's. He may prove a puzzle to the North Enders, who will twist for the St. Peter's and can be counted upon to give a good account of himself. The remainder of the make-up of the teams will be practically the same as in Saturday's games. The St. Josephs express confidence in their ability to defeat the leaders, while the St. Peter's are equally determined to defeat their rivals.

The second game of the series between the Marathons and the Clippers takes place this evening at seven o'clock. Both teams will have their strongest teams on the diamond.

DR. CAMPBELL CALLED TO SACKVILLE

Asked to Succeed Rev. J. L. Dawson as Pastor.

Rev. Dr. George M. Campbell, of this city, field secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, has received a call to the Methodist Church at Sackville. He has been asked to succeed Rev. J. L. Dawson at the expiration of the latter's term July 31, 1910.

Dr. Campbell has not as yet decided whether or not he will accept the invitation.

Dr. Campbell studied at Mount Allison University before his ordination and in 1908 was given honorary degrees of Doctor of Divinity by the university. He was baccalaureate preacher in 1903.

PROBATE COURT

Estate of Margaret Matilda Kinner, widow, Petitioner of Frank A. Kinner, accountant, sole executor, praying for passing of the accounts and for order for distribution under the recent amendment to the Probate Court practice whereby executors and administrators may finally close up their estates immediately after the lapse of twelve months from date of their appointment. Citation issued returnable Monday, 12th July at 11 a. m. Messrs. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, proctors.

Estate of Emma Jones, widow, intestate. This case was concluded this morning. Evidence was taken on a prior day. The husband survived the wife some three months and died without having taken out administration. A brother of the deceased sought for administration claiming practically all the estate under a donatio causa mortis. After argument the court remarked that the Ecclesiastical Court at the time considered itself bound in case the wife died intestate and afterwards the husband to grant administration to the next of kin of the wife and not to the representatives of the husband, but by the modern practice administration should be granted to the husband's representatives unless the property belonged to the wife's next of kin—that there was not as yet sufficient evidence to clearly establish the donatio causa mortis so that it would be better until the claim was finally adjudicated upon, that the monies in dispute should be placed in the hands of an independent person, and following the authority of Partington v. Attorney General, L. R. 11, L. E. & L. app. at pages 109 and 115 the court ordered a grant of administration of the wife's estate to Winney O. Dunham, the administrator of the husband's estate. Mr. J. Joseph Porter for the brother. Mr. J. M. Baxter, K. C., proctor for the husband's representatives. Mr. John Willett, K. C., proctor for the wife's other relatives.

ERIN STREET THE SCENE OF A LIVELY ROW

Saturday Afternoon and Evening Witnessed a Couple of Free Fights—A Knife Used.

Proceedings were lively late Saturday afternoon at the head of Erin street, when a number of men and women attempted to settle their differences by resort to physical force. The fight was a bitter one, and some of the combatants received nasty wounds. Not content with the afternoon performance the parties gathered in the vicinity in the evening and once again started to arouse the neighborhood by their actions.

The first meeting took place about 5:30 o'clock. After the first blow had been struck a dozen or more intoxicated persons were soon in the fray. Hundreds of nearby residents were attracted to the scene of the fight, but the police were not in evidence.

A family named Levine were among the parties in the combat. After the fight had progressed for some little time one woman withdrew to her home and shortly afterwards emerged with a large knife, which she threatened to use. Another man in his reactions dropped a bottle of gin, which was soon discovered on the road by a number of youngsters.

The evening affair was also witnessed by several hundred. The disturbance was finally quelled. Witnesses say that the actions of these people are a menace to the community.

TOOK OFF HIS CLOTHES AND WENT TO BED ON STREET

John Shea Thought Nelson Street Looked Like Home—Magistrate Wants Information.

In the police court this morning three drunks who were arrested on Saturday evening were dealt with.

Mary Ann Brookina, an old offender, was sent to jail for two months in default of paying a fine of eight dollars. John Shea was found lying drunk on Nelson street about two o'clock. He was probably imagined that he was reposing in bed for when found he had his hat, coat and boots off. He informed the court it was his first visit to the court in two years. He went to jail for a month in default of paying an eight dollar fine.

Joseph McQuaide was found intoxicated on Haymarket Square and was fined $5.

In all the cases the magistrate inquired of the policemen if they knew where the offenders obtained the liquor that caused their intoxication; he said it was very important to find out if they got it after five o'clock, for the person who gave it to them would be the offender and the defendants would become the witnesses.

George Carquidale, the steam driver, who was arrested Thursday night on the charge of wandering about and soiling a satisfactory account of himself, and entering the home of Mrs. Lennox, on corner of Douglas Avenue and St. John street, this morning. He was given a severe reprimand and allowed to go with his signature on the payment of a four dollar fine.

SPITTING ON SIDEWALKS A DANGEROUS PRACTICE

Chief Clerk Reports Citizen for This Offence—The Law Not Always Observed However.

To expectorate on the sidewalk, street, cars, ferries, etc., is an offence that is punishable by law, and for each such offence there is a fine of two dollars, and in default of payment of such fine the guilty person is liable to a term behind the doors of the common jail. This spring Magistrate Ritchie gave a number of warnings to the public to desist from the habit, stating that disease was the probable result. Chief Clerk has addressed the force on the subject and gave instructions that all offenders be reported.

Some weeks ago Sergeant Baxter reported a man for expectorating on the Water street sidewalk. The man was fined for drunkenness, but excused for the expectation on account of his intoxication, but he was warned to never violate the law in this respect again. This was the only report made until this morning, when Chief of Police Clark noticed a most glaring case. Many damp spots have been noticed on the sidewalks by the officers, but the persons expectorating were not caught in the act. This morning, however, the Chief while walking along Charlotte street, caught John Walsh, of St. Patrick street, making a cuspidor of the sidewalk and has reported him. Walsh will now have to face the magistrate and give reasons for the violation of the law.
