WAR OFFICE INCAPACITY

Shown by Conduct of Remount Department.

The Government Is Dispatching 13,000 Remounts Monthly.

Great Socialist Plot in Itary Nipped in the Bud-Queen Alexandra Will Christen Battleship.

London, March 4 .- The parliamentary paper on the remount department in South Africa just issued, is considered the strongest indictment of its own incapacity yet isued by the war office, and will go far to explain to the public the reasons why the war office has been so unduly protected. This paper shows centinual conflict throughout the war between the generals at the front, appealing for horses, and the officials of the war office who were endeavoring to limit the number of horses sent out.

When the war broke out the remount department in Cape Colony consisted of one officer and 1,300 animals, and when the British reverses came, a scratch remount establishment was leaders have within a year organized ADVERSE TO MULES. It appears that in August, 1899, Gen. created in every town, and a great Forrester-Walker wired home that the opinion of experts was adverse to class of workmen has its league, and mules. Again, in December, after the mishaps to Lord Methuen, Gen. For- Nearly all the workmen in Italy and rester-Walker suggested that no Am- a large proportion of the agriculturerican mules were wanted. After the ists were gradually enrolled, until the disaster to Gen. Buller, the government leagues themselves numbered 10,000, first began an extensive purchase of remounts and the strain caused chaos to reign in the remount department.

The blue book shows that the percentage of losses in horses during transit by sea was compar-atively small, but great wastage arose from the fact that horses were put to work too quickly after their voyage. After Paardeberg Lord Roberts wired urgently for remounts, adding "without mobile forces

ROBERTS CHANGED VIEWS. Again, on March 9, 1900, Lord Roberts repeated his opeal.

Lord Lansdowne about this time was ressing Lord Roberts to forecast the time when the supply of horses could be diminished. After Pretoria was captured in July, Lord Roberts "thought the supply of horses might be reduced 20 per cent." He soon revised this miscalculation, however, and in August was urging the government to send more horses. In the meanwhile Lord Lansdowne was equally urging the necessity to diminish the demands for animals. CONFLICT OF VIEWS. came upon the scene with representasuggestion "that now the harder portion of the campaign is over," the supply might be diminished. In March, May, June and September of 1901, Mr. Broderick wanted to diminish the supply of horses, Lord Kitchener always replying that this was quite impossipulated by the ply of horses, Lord Kitchener always only desired the open door.

PUNISHMENT OF MISS STONE'S

WASTAGE OF HORSES. The parliamentary paper then sets forth complaints from the war office of the wastage of horses through the inefficiency of the remount department, and Mr. Bredrick wired in November, "we cannot continue indefi-nitely to send from 10,000 to 12,000 re-

In parliament yesterday Mr. Brod-rick announced that the government was still dispatching 13,000 remounts monthly, and according to the Pretoria correspondent of the Times, remounts are still badly wanted in South Africa. QUEEN WILL CHRISTEN BATTLE-

SHIP. Since the period of mourning for Queen Victoria expired King Edward and Queen Alexandra have shown that it is their intention to take a very active part in the affairs of the nation. West England is eagerly looking forward to a visit from their majesties at the end of this week. On Friday the King and Queen will leave Marlborough House for Dartmouth, and his majesty will formally lay the foundation stone for the new naval college there, and the following day they will proceed to Devonport to be present at the launch of the battleship Queen. The christening ceremony will be performed by her majesty. The Prince and Princess of Wales also will visit West England this week in order to take part in public ceremonies. From India comes information that extensive preparations already are afoot for the great durbar which is to be held at Delhi next New Year's Day. GREAT SOCIALIST PLOT.

The world at large has been kept in ignorance of the fact that a civil war -possibly a successful revolution—in Italy has been escaped by the narrow est margin in the last few days. only news sent abroad has been of the mobilization of nearly 200,000 troops, and the government assumption of control on all the railroads in order to avoid a national strike of railroad emalarmist reports would be followed by severe disciplinary measures. Italy is in the presence of a socialist plot of hurriedly got together. This proved itself utterly incapable of dealing with the sudden demands.

all the popular forces of the country, while the government has not attempted any interference, being apparently all the popular forces of the country, ignorant of the real objects of the movement. A chamber of labor was and the total membership more than 1.000.000. The whole of this organization is under the control of a central committee in Rome, which is actually the parliamentary Socialist body. This group gained such strength that it has within its power to send 1,000,000 men into open revolt, and to paralyze in 24 agricultural life of the country.

PREFERENTIAL DUTIES. London, March 4.-Replying in the House of Commons to a question regarding the commercial relations of ire the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael said it was proposed to discuss the whole subject of preferential duties when the representatives of the selfgoverning colonies assembled in London at the time of King Edward's coronatton

In regard to the Ship Subsidy Bill papers would be laid before the proposed select committee on steamship subsidies.

GERMANY AND CHINA. In the Reichstag yesterday the imperial chancellor, Count Von Buelow, said that Germany had only economic, and not territorial interests in China In November of 1900, Mr. Brodrick and Corea, and would not interfere in the quarrels of others. So far as Gertions of financial necessities and the many knew the only effect of the Angio-Japanese convention was to maintain the status quo. Therefore it did not prejudice German interests,

The Vienna Politische Correspondez reports alarming conditions in Albania, European Turkey. A formidable force of rebels is said to be besieging the seaport of Avlona, which is entirely cut off from the outside world. Twenty six Albanian towns have resolved to demonstrate their independence of the rule of the Sultan of Turkey by refusing to pay any more taxes.

The Boer Government Outlining the Proposed Midsummer Campaign.

Unconfirmed Report That Botha Was a Prisoner in British Hands and Escaped.

London, March 4.-A strange story is exciting discussion among military men, although it has been kept out of both press and parliament. It relates dry, at New York, yesterday, what is to alleged reprisals taken by Australian said to be the first memorial to be troops for Boer outrages in firing upon of those who fell during battles in wounded, and the Draconian measures adopted by Lord Kitchener for enforcing discipline. It is stated that the Australian officers and men who took the lex talionis into their own hands were tried by courtmartial and some of Zachary Taylor. The memorial is a them were sentenced to be shot. The statue designed by Hamilton Mcployes. The Brussels correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says, in a dispatch, that Mr. Kruger has received a long report from General Botha affirming the Boer government to be fully determined to continue hostilities, and outlinging the proposed midsummer campaign.

NOVELIST MEREDITH MAKES A

PROTEST. In a letter published this morning in the Daily Mail, George Meredith, the novelist, protests against the shooting of rebels like Commandant Kritzinger as impolitic because it does not take into account the inferior civilization of the Boers. Mr. Meredith contends that the Boers do not fear death and are hours the industrial, commercial and not likely to be terrorized by such methods, which only steel the remainder of their fighting men to a more desperate resistance, a spectacle foreboding and piteous.

There is an unconfirmed story that the famous General Louis Botha had been made a prisoner—and had got away again. The tidings came in a private letter from an officer field, the letter having been mailed by an intermediary at a free port to avoid the censor's scrutiny and certain mu-When Remington's troops made the night attack at Knapdaar, they captured several prisoners and the the men taken was Gen. Louis Botha but the British did not recognize him, and the other prisoners took care to shield him in every possible manner.

HOW HE GOT AWAY. After the pursuit of the fugitives had ended the captured men were divided into groups, and Botha was included in the number that was intrusted to the rear guard. Another force of Boers, hearing of the disaster to the main body, and that their general had been president. He had nothing of especial captured, menaced the British command. In the confusion of the expected attack the British permitted a few of the burghers to escape, and among the number was the redoubtable ter of railways and canals, as follows: Botha. DEWET'S WIFE TALKS FIERCELY

A London dispatch to the Chicago Record-Herald says:
"I would rather die, and would prefer to see my husband buried, than see him surrender to the British. As for his being captured, that is absurd. Gen. Dewet will never be taken alive.' These, say a cablegram received here, were the expressions of Mrs. Dewet, uttered in the concentration camp near Maritzburg, where she is now virtually a prisoner. As she spoke, tears were streaming down her cheeks. She had just been informed that one of her blockhouse line. Another of her sons, it will be remembered, was taken at Paardeberg with Gen. Cronje, and is now a captive on St. Helena. "But there is still hope," continued Mrs. Dewet bitterly. She keenly lamented the restraints of the military camp, and complained because she is not permitted to write to her husband or to receive communications from him. Mrs. Dewet had no gratitude to ex-

Headache is a symptom, an indication | of derangement or disease in some organ, and the cause of the headache is difficult to locate, because so many diseases have headache as a prominent symptom; derangement of the stomach symptom; derangement of the stomach and liver, heart trouble kidney disease, lung trouble, eye strain or ill-fitting glasses, all produce headaches, and if we could always locate the organ which is at fault the cure of obstinate headaches would be a much simpler matter. However, for that form of headache called frontal headache, pain back of the eyes and in forehead, the cause is now known to be catarrh of the head and throat; when the headache is located in throat; when the headache is located in back of the head and neck it is often

CABBY TALKED BACK TO HARDING DAVIS

Didn't know dim-Neither Did the Drummer or the Policemen.

New York, March 4.-Perhaps if Henry O'Donnell, the hansom cab driver, had known that he had the distinguished honor to be engaged by Richard Harding Davis, he would have been less strenuous, but O'Donnell didn't know him from an ordinary "fare," O'Donnell and Davis came together

Friday afternoon on Broadway. "Hi!" said the novelist. "Engaged?"
"Nope," answered the cab driver. "Then I'll engage you-by the hour." "How long will you want me?"
"Oh, I cawn't say. Maybe an hour—maybe two—maybe all the awfternoon."
"Get in." said O'Donnell, exactly as though he were addressing a plain, everyday man. Drive me to the Gilsey House," said

Davis in a languid tone.

The Gilsey House was about forty feet away, and O'Donnell drove there and stopped. Davis went into the hotel. At the same moment a man who looked like a drummer and who carried a traveling bag hurried out of the hotel, made straight for the hansom cab, and threw his bag into it. He told O'Donnell he was in a hurry to get to the Grand Central station.

"Get in," said O'Donnell.
Then Davis returned to the scene. He commanded the drummer to desist, and informed him that it was his cab and his man. O'Donnell, as a free American citizen, resented the implied proprietorship. He said things. So did Davis. The drummer hastily took s

Not the Reason.

It is not because Pyramid Pile Cure is so expensive that many people decline to give it a trial, but because they find it too great a tax on their credulity to believe that the published letters bearing testimony to the merit of this remedy are genuine and bona fide: especially to those who have realized the suffering incident to piles is it incredible that anyone who has been afflicted twenty-fire or thirty years with the worst form of protruding and bleeding piles should be cured by the application of a simple remedy, when their physician has assured them that the only relief is in a surgical operation. They could only devote their energies to saving surrounding property. Ald. Cooper could not get a seconder for his amendment, and it was all off with the fire hall for one more year.

On the recommendation to file the purchase of a chemical engine at a cost of $4,525, Ald. Jolly moved that the matter be laid over till the estimates are brought in. He pointed cut that the cost of the engine would soon be paid by the reduction in insurance rates. His amendment carried.

NO SALARY INCREASES. On the recommendation that salary increases totaling $495 per year be given the chief, foremen and seventh year men of the fire department, Ald. McMechan moved in amendment that the clause be struck out. It did not become the council to increase these salaries when it had not money for the building of a fire hall or the purchase of a chemical engine. danger in using it freely, for there is no turpentine or ammonia in it. A whole barrelful of it would not burn or blister the tenderest skin. Children like to have their mothers rub it on them, because it smells so nice and is such a beautiful green color. It is a pure vegetable oil lini-

Finds Favor at a Conference of Clergymen and Citizens Who Favor Temperance.

Toronto, March 4.- In the discussion which followed Earl Grey's address, delivered here on Saturday, explaining "no profit" liquor movement in England, Mr. R. D. Noble strongly indorsed Earl Grey's scheme, and recommended its adoption by the people of Canada, as it had been demonstrated in the past that prohibition has not succeeded in any part of the world. The earl pointed out that the trust companies' movement was simple, and he thought that if it was launched in Canada it would bring about just as good results as in England.

THE PLAN OF OPERATION. At present the trust movement is operating in thirteen counties in England, and the nominal capital of these trust companies is placed at £585,000. brief, the main object of Earl Grey's scheme is to secure the issuing of licenses for selling liquor to those who will have no financial object in pushing the sale. The earl explained that these trust companies were formed on a simple plan, with responsible men as directors to apply for any new licenses that were to be issued. The licensed premises were managed by capable men, who were given a commission on the sale of all refreshments end of each year the profits are given to public improvement, except that 5 per cent goes to the directors of the company, as interest on the capital. In conclusion Earl Grey said that when he entered Canada he was glad to know that Canadians were actively engaged in temperance reform. thought his scheme was superior to the principles of prohibition.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED. The following resolution, moved by Rev. C. L. Ingles, and seconded by Mr. G. Weston Wrigley, was passed: "Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting the time has come for the formation of a league to secure the elimination of private interests in and profit from the liquor traffic, and to bring the whole trade under public ownership." After the conference ended a meeting was called, and Canon Welch was voted to the chair. Some of those present thought a committee should be appointed to prepare a report on the resolution. It was finally decided to THE ADDRESS. hold a special meeting, when it is expected further action will be taken. Bishop Sweatman occupied the chair and among those present were: Premier Ross, Dr. Parkin, C.M.G., Rev. Prof. Clark, Rev. J. Pitt Lewis, Canon Welch, Mayor Howland, Robert D'Oyly Noble, Rev. Mr. Davenport, G. Kirkpatrick, Rev. Oswald Rigby.

Paine's Gelerg Compound Makes Sick People Well and Strong.

A House-to-House Canvass Would Show That Thousands Are Being Cured.

The people who have not heard in ome way of Paine's Celery Compound and its wonderful triumphs over the diseases and ailments of life, cannot be counted as newspaper or magazine readers, nor are they amongst those who are in touch with the medical progressiveness of the times. A house-to-house canvass (if that were possible) of families where Paine's Celery Compound is being used during these early spring days, would disclose an overwhelming amount of evidence regarding the implicit confidence that is placed in this greatest of all spring medicines. It would show the enormous number of people who are being cured of some form of nervousness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, headaches, kidney and liver diseases. Now is the time that Paine's Celery Compound can show astonishing and happy results to the sick. Now that spring is with us, giving a promise of fine weather and new beauties, it should lend encouragement to the work of getting well and strong. The use of Paine's Celery Compound for a few weeks will truly astonish every debilitated, weak and sickly man and woman. The change from a muddy and sallow complexion to a fresh, healthy color, with bright, sparkling eyes, unclouded brain, the enjoyment of refreshing sleep, clear, fresh blood coursing through the body, will be the sure reward of every user of Paine's Celery Compound. Accept no substitute or imitation. See that the name

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

Bringing Liquor Traffic Under Adopts an Address to Prince Henry of Prussia.

> Prohibition Bill Comes Up for Its Second Reading on Wednesday.

Toronto, March 3 .- Almost immediately after the legislature assembled yesterday afternoon, Premier Ross rose and moved that an address be presented by the legislature to Prince Henry of Prussia on his arrival at Niagara Falls, on Wednesday next, and that Hon. Mr. Harcourt and Messrs. Breithaupt, Bowman, Kribs, Cross, Matheson and Carscallen be a delegation to present it.

Speaking to the motion, the premier said that they were glad to welcome his royal highness among other things for his relationship to the English royal family, which had planted its members on some of the most illustrious thrones of Europe. But besides this they were glad to welcome him because so many of his race were citizens of this province. The premier spoke in the highest terms of their fine qualities, and declared that by their industry and frugality they had been an example to the rest of the population. He spoke moreover of the debt which the world owes to Germany other than intoxicating drinks. At the for her advances in science, and particularly of the benefit which Ontario had derived from the German educational system, which had served to some extent as a model for our own.

Mr. Whitney seconded the motion, and in doing so acquiesced in everything which Mr. Ross had said regarding the excellent qualities of the German race. It was only right, he declared, that when the opportunity offered they should show their appreciation of that fine people, who formed no inconsiderable part of our own population.

he would have invited him to Berlin and there have shown him what a German colony had achieved in a new world. Mr. Cross suggested that the whole house partake in the welcome, but the premier thought a small delegation would be the best and the motion was

Mr. Briethaupt regretted that the prince's visit was so short, otherwise

Following is the address adopted:

"To His Royal Highness Prince Henry "May it please your Royal Highness, -We, the Legislative Assembly of the House of Ontario, in Parliament assembled, beg leave to approach your royal highness for the purpose of pre-senting to you the congratulations of the Legislative Assembly on the occasion of your visit to this province "We hail with joy the presence on dant of our late beloved Queen, and we assure your royal highness that in no part of the British Empire are the cordial relations which exist between the various branches of the Teutonic races regarded with more satisfaction than

"We have in this province many thousands of citizens who regard with praiseworthy affection the German Empire as their fatherland, and we have pleasure in assuring your royal highness that they exemplify in this comparatively new country those ways of frugality and industry and respect for law which are characteristic of the race to which they belong. "As Canadians, irrespective of nationality, your royal highness will be pleased to know that we rejoice in the achievements of German leadership in science and research, that we appreciate those elements of national character to which the German Empire owes in a large measure its national prosperity, and we are glad to believe that the influence of the empire in the councils of the nations tends to the advancement of the highest civilization and the liberty of the human race. "We regret that your royal highness' official arrangements will not allow you to make an extended tour of country. We trust, however, that an-other occasion may be found for becoming acquainted with the national resources and political institutions of a country to which we will be glad to welcome your fellow-subjects who for any reasons might wish to make Canada their future home. "Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario."

The following bills were given a third reading and passed: Bill to amend the act incorporating the Woodstock, Thames Valley and Ingersoll Electric Railway Company. By Mr. Pattullo. Bill respecting the town of Peterboro. By Mr. Blezard. Bill to incorporate the Peterboro

The Temiscamingue Railway.

The provincial railway project continues to be a subject of paramount importance in the legislative discussions. The Opposition tried last week to stir up feeling and to elicit sympathy from some of the business men of Ottawa, who would naturally prefer that Mettawa be the southern terminus of the new railroad. With Mettawa as the terminus, the tendency would be to turn the trade of Northern Ontario in the direction of the Dominion capital. However, in the event of North Bay, as at first proposed, being chosen as the southern terminus, the route will not be greatly averse to the interests of the city of Ottawa, as there is already a branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, some 40 miles in length, running from Mettawa to Lake Keepawa, which is near the New Ontario regions. To run another railway line northward from Mettawa would be to parallel the lines for a considerable distance, and this seems to us quite unnecessary. The North Bay terminus will of course divert much of the northern trade directly south over the Canadian Pacific Railway line running from Toronto to North Bay. It would cost the Province a great deal more to construct a road from Mettawa than from North Bay, owing to the unevenness of the territory through which it would have to pass.

A proposal from the Conservative side of the House has been advanced that it would be better to place the construction of the Temiscamingue Railway in the hands of Mackenzie & Mann, who already hold a charter from the Dominion Government for the construction of the James Bay Railway. Premier Ross, however, assured the House that it was the intention of the Government to begin the construction of the railway as soon as possible, and that the road, when built, would be suitable for heavy traffic, and would be in all respects as good as the Canadian Northern or the Canada Atlantic. He rightly opposed the idea of placing the route into the hands of a private corporation, which would mean the surrendering of the key to the railway situation in New Whitney's Attitude.

The Montreal Witness expresses it self in accord with the attitude of the prohibitionists of this city who approached Mr. Whitney on the subject, asking him what his party would promise them in the matter of prohibition of the liquor traffic. The Wit-

"Mr. Whitney's reply was that the matter was under advisement with his party, and he was not yet prepared to say what he would promise. certainly to begin with a very different reply from the frank, unreserved prom ise given five years ago by Sir Oliver Mowat, with his two successors present and consenting. Whether a greater chariness in promising signifies a greater or less assurance of perform ance is a matter for every man to judge. If responsible ministers giving solemn promise could not be trusted, what would be to be hoped for from the promises of members of an Opposition, promises of the latter class be ing proverbial for their pie-crust character? We can hardly look for a very outspoken promise from a party which, after all that has passed, has yet to consult as to where it stands on the

Russia's Expansive Policy. The past decade has been for Russia a period of territorial expansion, and that without encountering hostile armles on the battlefield. On the 19th of May, 1891, the first stone, so to speak, of the "uninterrupted line of railway across the whole of Siberia," was laid. The object was primarily to connect Biberla with the rest of Russia's domains. But the railway has not stopped with Siberia. It has been pushed on further and further towards the Pacific coast. Its former terminus was Vladivostok, on Russian territory. Now the terminus is Port Arthur, and the tailway passes through Manchuria, in the northern part of China. The permission to extend the railway straight across the middle of Manchuria was granted Russia by the Chinese, largely a matter of gratitude for the position she assumed as a negotiator of beace in the Chinese-Japanese war. The circumstance also demonstrated China's helplessness. Of course, along with the right of way went concesdons in mining rights. Port Arthur has been in the hands of the Russians since 1897. She is supposed to hold the harbor and adjacent territory by a treaty signed in 1898. But the posession of Port Arthur means more than is implied in the treaty. It being the only stronghold capable of dominating the southern half of Manchuria, virtually places that portion of the province in Russia's hands. Russia is sasured of the control of railway commerce throughout Manchuria, and when the projected lines are built, her Thus Manchuria will become a province of Russia through the agency of basis, and to that extent make it easthe trans-Siberian Railway and its ier to establish the industry on a per-

Prince Henry's Visit to Ontario.

It was proper and graceful on the part of the Ontario Government and a unanimous Legislature, to prepare an address of cordial and dignified greeting to Prince Henry, brother of the Emperor of Germany, on the occasion of his expected visit to the Canadian side of Niagara Falls. It was fitting, too, that the deputation should show the unanimity of the welcome in being composed of prominent Members from both sides of the House. The metals. Sugar.

The United States consul at Bremen has drawn up a report upon the sugar cently been issued by the United States Government. The report is based upon returns supplied by the International Union for Sugar Statistics, which the consul explains is a combination of manufacturers of sugar in all continental countries. In October of each year, every sugar refiner sends to the headquarters of this union all the information obtained during a given week as to the amount and condition of the beet sugar crop, etc. This process is repeated during another week in December when the season is practically over. The consul holds that this system of collecting the sugar statistics is almost perfect, and that its results must be trustworthy. The following table sets forth both the returns and the estimates:

PRODUCTION	V OF BEE	TS.
Country. Germany Austria France Russia Belgium Holland Sweden Denmark	Tons. 1901-2. 15,630,410 8,944,700 9,278,400 8,304,545 2,509,000 1,483,000 876,000	Tons. 1909-1. 13,252,291 7,498,000 8,717,439 6,496,024 2,463,000 1,225,000 865,500 398,258
PRODUCTIO	N OF SUG	AR.

The consul is of the opinion that the overproduction of sugar in Europe now amounts to a million tons a year, and that the stock to be carried over next season my be half as much again. He also gives some attention to the competition of Cuba, which he says, is generally feared on the conbecause of the fact that the United States rate of duty on Cuban sugar has not yet been fixed. Further discussing the effect which this may have on the sugar market, he says that as early as 1893 Cuba produced not less than 1,160,172 tons of sugar, which is about half the amount consumed by the people of the United States today. The troublous war times reduced the sugar crop to 281,420 tons in 1899, but it has risen in the face of financial difficulties to almost treble that quantity within two years, and at the end of another year it is possible it may reach again one million tons. With plenty of capital and labor, and with improved machinery, in the consul's opinion, there is every reason for the German fear that Cuba will beome the largest producer of sugar in the question of starting beet sugar factories is up for serious discussion. It has been suggested that a special import duty of one cent a pound should be imposed on all sugar comng from countries that give a bounty to their sugar producers on all sugar exported to other countries. This was the proposal made to the government the other day, but it is a somewhat erious matter to ask the Finance Minister to put this impost on sugar, and to tax the consumer to prevent his getting this necessary commodity at a w price. Already the government have given the beet sugar industry special consideration by permitting the mportation, free of tax, of all machinery required for the refining of eet sugar. And though the beet sugar factory proprietors promise after they get their business well started that sugar of home production will be as cheap here as is now the case when it is imported, the experience of European countries is against the assumption that bounty-fed sugar producers are ever willing to give up the privieges that they obtain. For years, Great Britain has been complaining of the unfair competition of Germany, France and other continental nations who, while granting bounties on all sugar exported, keep the price of the home-consumed commodity much higher. Lately, the British Government have been demanding that these sugar bounties should be abolished, under threat that unless this is done, countervailing duties will be collected on all sugar imported into Great Britin from the countries granting these ounties. It is interesting to learn from have agreed to adopt a conciliatory atitude towards Great Britain, and to ystem. This agreement, if carried out, may solve the sugar question, and t may somewhat increase the price to the consumer, it may make it easier political control will doubtless be felt. for our beet sugar factory promoters to begin operations on a non-hothouse

Africa's Resources.

The British-Boer war has had the effect of turning the eyes of the world to what has been hitherto the Dark Continent. Under the searchlight of civilization Africa, that vast, compact continent, the "graveyard of reputations," is being opened up with great rapidity. From travelers and explorers we learn of the existence of valuable mineral deposits and of precious difficulty of European races to become acclimated to tropical conditions. Of course, the final result of the Boer war will be the transference of a large portion of the southern part of the continent to the possession of the British. Grand opportunities will be afforded for the most daring Britishers of the Empire to go in as pioneers of this new country. A valuable copper field has been discovered about 150 miles north of the Victoria Falls, and, it is stated that the new Cape-to-Cairo Railroad, which is to be completed in 1903, will pass through it. A few railways, together with the vast navigable rivers of Africa, which are the grandest in the world, would make the resources of the continent easily access-

LEGISLATORS WORK BY RULE,

And Rules Everywhere Confront the Ottawa Visitor.

How the Men of the Press Are Treated-Radical Change of the Past Few Years.

Had the gentleman who observed that "of the making of books there is no end" been able to project himself down through the intervening ages, and lodged in the capital of Canada, "rules" would probably be included in his sententious remark. Or he might have changed it still further and said that of the meeting with rules there is no end. As becomes the dignified and important institution within which the are slashed down the side, they wil law-making of a state is conducted, know that it is they themselves who management of the parliament buildings, for in the vocabularies of the speaker of the house and the sergeantat-arms, there is no such word as of his father. chance. It is the business of a prospering nation which is being transacted. And as in every busy business, time is money, and irregularity is the thief of time. To those whose daily duties are associated with the house, its etiquette has become a part of them, and they a part of it, so that they hardly realize, so smoothly and decorously does everything run, that all about them is a nicely adjusted system, the result of which is order. It is not for these that rules are made, or printed; but for the new-comer, the visitor, who, like the poor, is never exactly non-existent. He may be French or English, so the rules are printed in both languages. He usually comes in These facts are of great moment to the morning, seeking, most often, the member for his constituency, who at Canadians at the present time when that hour is probably sleeping the sleep of the man whose waking hours are spent in dodging office-hunters, and his sleeping hours in dreaming of departmental seekers after salary reases. The stranger inspects the building at will, walks across the floor of the house, goes over to the senate, admires its voluntuous-colored chamber, and wonders who were the old gentlemen in oils, who look down upon him from the walls of the corridor. He invariably finishes his tour in reading-room, and is delighted to find a copy of the paper from his town on But it is here that his freedom is restricted, and the rules, which were never made to be broken in the parliabuildings, become operative, There is a low-voiced conversation of a half-minute's length between him and an attendant, in which the words, "Very sorry, sir, but only the members

But it is in the library that the pleasantest evidence is given of a great change which has been the gradual growth of many decades. The rules here say that all the privileges which are enjoyed by a member of the house are allowed also to a member of the press gallery. He may enter and leave the reading-room at his pleasure, use it as much as he likes, and as many times in the day as he may choose. He may pass within to the magnificent abode of books, a trezsure land that is year by year fortified by the works of the world's writers, and if he desires, he may have any book he names, to use there or take away to read at leisure. This is only one instance, but as has been said, the most appreciated, of the privileges which the government has granted to the press men. The only right that a member has which is not joyed by the members of the press gallery, is the right to be upon the floor of the house when it is in session. In this there is no denial, as they he Vienna Neue Frie Presse that the have their own gallery with an attend-Austrian and German Governments ant at the door to guard it from intruders, and pages whose services will be secured by the touch of a bell-but-One has only to read the books agree to the abolition of the bounty of history that are upon the library's system. even in Canada since confederation position in the parliament buildings has not always been as comfortable as it is today. But now their quarters are better than those of the leader of the opposition, and, as the rules say, they share "all the privileges which are enjoyed by members of the House of Commons.'

Just at the present time the citizens of the capital have equal rights with members of both the commons and the press gallery in the disagreeable privilege of experiencing Ottawa's peculiarities during a time of thaw. When snow lies firm and white along the streets, and hyperborean winds keep it crisp and dazzling, Ottawa is exceedingly beautiful, and visitors burst into superlatives over the sleighing and the climate, and the lovely snow. Then a meandering warm spell wanders along, and daubs slush and sloppiness all over the pretty picture. An average thaw, working eight hours a day, can spoil Ottawa's appearance in a re markable degree. Londoners are habitually groaning about the condition of their sidewalks when the snow begins and that is to make our tariff to suit to melt, but one experience of a healthy Ottawa thaw would make them think that London never saw slush. Even the main streets are uncleared, and when the snow on the road melts, the capital's reputation as a city in which it is pleasant to live is washed away in streams of slushy water. And yet, with extreme fidelity, the good citizen of Ottawa has an unshaken belief that his streets are not deserving of criticism. Besides, he asks, what can be done since they get so much snow that it is impossible to clear it

Ottawa is more metropolitan in its boarding-house system. Here it does not let circumstances control, but controls circumstances. There is an extremely large boarding population in the city, especially during the parliamentary session, and the views that obtain among boarding-house keepers are peculiar to Ottawa. Only rarely is a house found in which one may board entirely. The rule which is almost invariably followed, and as may be judged, it has unpleasant possibilities, is to provide a room only, and let the boarder get his meals elsewhere. course, the plan has its good features, as the most disagreeable plans some-times have. ECHOES OF THE CONVENTION

Which Has Just Closed Its Sessions at Toronto.

Interesting Facts Brought Out and Practical Suggestions Made at the Great Gathering of Students.

Toronto, March 4.-Inspiring meetings, morning, afternoon and evening, in Massey Hall, the Metropolitan Church and Cook's Church and eight conferences held in different churches and halls in the afternoon practically completed the business sessions of the most successful convention ever held by the Students' Volunteer movement. INCEPTION OF THE MOVEMENT.

At one of the sessions Mr. Michener directed the attention of his hearers to the magnitude and importance of the Students' Volunteer Movement. The immense body of students at present assembled in Toronto was, he said, a significant demonstration of the greatness of the movement. Less than twenty years ago, he pointed out, this movement, the influence of which was being felt the world over, had been STARTED BY D. L. MOODY and a small band of students from the colleges of Canada and the United States, at the home of the great evangelist, at Northfields. So rapidly had the movement spread that the present

At the present time next four years. there were 200 men needed who could not be secured.

THE PRINTED PAGE.

Mr. John W. Wood, one of the secretaries of the Protestant Episcopal Church mission board, dealt with the iffusion of knowledge by means of orinting, and, as one of the editors of Spirit of Missions, he had nothing to say but good about the printed page. The book went where persons could not, and spoke after the voice had ceased. Reference was made to the great increase of translations by the Bible societies, so that now twelve ndred million people could read the Scriptures in their own tongue. Mr. Wood ascribed a large part of the increased interest in missions to the widespread publication of missionary books and literature.

A DEAD CHURCH. Rev. Dr. Junius W. Millard, of Balmore, wanted co-operation in which the pastor would supply facts and force and the laymen would supply the means. The church had been dead to its real work, and, instead of $19,000,-000 per year, should be raising ten times that amount for the conversion of the heathen. He enforced his remarks by an ironical description of a dead church, which never gave anything to home or foreign missions never had any new members, and which always wound up its annual report with the words, "Pray for us, brethren, that we may continue faithful unto the end." (Laughter.) This picture, he said, fitted too many churches, the members of which believed that their only duty was to

STOP SQUABBLING ABOUT NON-ESSENTIALS.

At Jarvis Street Baptist Church, where four sections of the Baptist Church met, a very enthusiastic meeting was held. One returned missionary, Rev. Geo. Brock, of India, caused a smile by urging the young men and women present not to stop in small towns and villages in this country, squabbling with Presbyterians and Methodists, but to come out to where God had great fields waiting for them.
At the close of the meeting those willing to go to the foreign field were asked to stand, and between 60 and 70

135 VOLUNTEER MISSIONARIES. An impressive feature of one session was a general profession by those who intend leaving for the mission fields within the next twelve months. They numbered about 135, and were mostly young men and young women. On the instance of the chairman they arose, and each mentioned briefly the country in which they intended laboring and the reasons which prompted them to go into the work. At the conclusion the great audience bowed in prayer for the success of the intending mission-

He took as his "The Supreme Lordship Son of God, as taught in the Epistle to the Colossians." He said there were vice-royalties in the Kingdom of Christ; he was pre-eminent. This preeminence was shown in the fact that he was the one universal characterthe world's brother, the friend of man, the contemporary of all ages. He was the world's conscience and had inspired all movements for the alleviation of the suffering of mankind. He had founded all schools and colleges and built all orphanages and homes.

LIVERPOOL. Dairy produce market, for week ending Feb. 21, reported for Abraham Hodgson & Sons. New York:

Cheese—Although the inquiry cannot be called brisk, there has been a quiet, steady demand from the country dealers, and no speculative buying. The consequence is, that with small shipments grocks are being reduced and a ments, stocks are being reduced, and a reduction of say 20,000 boxes on this month appears probable. Country buyers appear bare of stock, and as the weak holders here are getting fewer, the price is hardening, and 49s for finest Septembers has now changed from an asking price to a buyers' price, and 50s is quoted for fancy selected lots. There is also more inquiry for cold stored Augusts, at 45s to 47s, and for white medium at 42s to 44s, but these are scarce. Medium colored, old full cream, and mild half-meats are offered at 40s to 45s, and sell

Butter-Another week of severe wintry Butter—Another week of severe wintry weather (now broken up, however), has caused a reduction of continental supplies, and with decreased stocks of all kinds there has been a further general advance in prices of 2s to 3s per cwt; but notwithstanding bare markets everywhere there is some feeling that at this season of the year any further advance will be dangerous. will be dangerous and cause trouble later on. Russian shipments are expected to be resumed almost immediately, and small receipts of new Irish and English will commence and increase in quantity each week. We quote: Freshmade Canadian creamery, in 56-lb boxes, 105s to 109s; fine June creamery, States and Canadian, a quick sale, at 90s to 100s; fine imitation creamery and best idles, 80s to 90s; old Canadian dairy and sian, none here, nominally 100s to 108s.

Bilious Dyspepsia.

A DREADFUL COMPLAINT AC-COMPANIED BY HEADACHE, SICKNESS OF THE STOMACH. VOMITING THAT CAN BE PER-MANENTLY AND QUICKLY CURED BY FERROZONE.

Some persons have attacks of Bilious Dyspepsia very frequently, and feel as if they were about to die. The whole system seems to collapse. The tongue becomes coated, the face a sallow pallor, and a bitter taste is always noticeable in the mouth. At times the bowels are very constipated, occasionally acute diarrhea is caused by the accumulation of bile in the system. It is highly dangerous to allow such a condition to imperil your life. It must be cured, and the simplest and surest remedy is Ferrozone. It digests every particle of food eaten, and prevents the waste products from clogging up the system.

Ferrozone restores all deranged organs to a healthy, vigorous condition. It keeps the bowels well regulated, makes the kidneys eliminate all poisons from the blood, and supplies the ne-cessary elements to build up and strengthen the entire body.

Mr. Louis Meehan, one of Peterboro's most enterprising and well-known business men, during the past three years was an unceasing sufferer from Billous Dyspepsia. He was cured permanently by Ferrozone and is so anxious that others may profit by his experience that he gives the following testimonial:

"About three years ago," says Mr Meehan, "I had the Grippe, which left me in a very run-down condition that finally developed into Dyspepsia. was unable to eat but a few things. and had a craving for acid. I gave up treating with the doctors because they did not help me, and on the advice of a friend used Ferrozone. It not only cured me of Dyspepsia and Biliousness out has built up my strength to what it was before I had the Grippe. I can recommend Ferrozone as an ideal re-

Ferrazone is canable of digesting all classes of food, and contains in a highly concentrated form the elements necessary for strengthening and reconstructing, and nourishing the stomach and other digestive organs. It is a builder of blood, muscle and fat and makes sickly, weak disheartened people strong and well. Ferrozone gives you force, energy, vim and spirit and cures every time. Sold by all drug-gists. Price 50 cents per box or three of beef. Calves—Receipts, 303 head; market 50c higher on light supply; veals, $4 boxes for $1 25. By mail from N. C. to $8 50; barnyard calves, $2 75 to $3 50; Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

LOST WITH CREW OF TWENTY MEN

British Steamer Thought to Have Foundered.

Wreckage and Life Buoys From the Tiber Found Near Halifax.

Halifax, March 4.-The British steamer Tiber, from Louisburg, B. C., for Halifax, with a cargo of coal, is thought to have foundered with her captain and crew of twenty men. She left Louisburg Wednesday afternoon and should have arrived here on Thursday night, as the run is only 170 miles. Today at the western entrance to Whitehead harbor fishermen picked up a steamer's house with pieces of deck plank attached, and fishermen at Port Felix have secured a large wheel, articles of furniture and one side of a ship's boat. They also saw wreckage drifting about the bay. Tonight the owners of the steamer received word from Goldboro, Guysboro county, that life buoys bearing the name "Tiber" had been found there.

The Tiber was on the route between Montreal, Charlottetown, Halifax and St. John, and was commanded by Capt. Henry Boulanger. She was booked to go from here to Philadelphia. She was owned by Charles Archibald, of Halifax, and Mr. Dobell, of Quebec, and was valued at $50,000.

FURTHER INQUIRIES ABOUT CANNED BEEF.

Old Question of Commissariat Supplies May Be Re-opened.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, March 3 .- Among the noices of motion which will come before the house on Wednesday is one made by Mr. Boyd, of Macdonald, Northwest Territories, which is provoking general surmises among the lobby politicians, some of whom infer that it is the intention of the opposition to reopen the question of commissariat supplies for the soldiers in South Africa. Mr. Boyd will ask what quantity of canned beef was sent from Canada to South Africa for the Imperial Government during the past year. His further questions will be: "Was any quantity of the said material returned to Canada by the order of the Canadian Government, and why was such an order issued? Was the said material inspected after being returned to Canada, and what was the report upon the inspection? What firm or firms of Canadians furnished the material so returned, and which firm's goods was found to be good and which bad, if any, of the ma-

A MOTOR SLEIGH

Propelled by a Steel Wheel Like a Paddlewheel.

London, March 4. - A Berlin correspondent of the Daily Graphic writes: There have been heavy falls of snow in Prussia this winter, and sleighing has been very popular. The latest novelty is the automobile sleigh, which is similar in construction to the motor cars in use for passenger transport, save that the wheels have been done away with and the vehicle is placed on runners, while the motor is connected with what looks like a paddle-wheel of a steamboat in miniature. The wheel, which is constructed entirely of steel, catches in the frozen snow, and so drives the sleigh forward. motor sledges travel at twice the speed of a sledge drawn by horses, and so a new and exciting pastime is provided.

INTERESTS OF LABOR

Discussed by Mr. T. H. Preston, M.P.P., Before the Mulock Club at Toronto.

Toronto, March 4.—The members of the Mulock Club last evening had as their guests Mr. T. H. Preston, M.P.P., and Mr. Thomas Blezard, M.P.P. The president of the Club, Mr. R. C. Steele, introduced Mr. Preston, who outlined the provisions of his bill now before the legislature for the settling of labor disputes.

Mr. Preston reviewed the various measures in the interests of labor passed by the Dominion and Provincial Governments, under Liberal administration, and pointed out that with the exception of the provision for Labor Day as a public holiday the different Conservative administrations had done nothing to promote the interests of organized labor. He said that the present machinery for settlement of strikes, as provided by the Dominion government, had proved of great value, but he believed that the legislation initiated by the Ontario government along this line should be continued. His bill provided for immediate attention to be given to any labor trouble by the secretary of the labor bureau, and also gave power to the mayor or reeve of any municipality or any employer or five employes to call upon this secretary to act as a referee in the settlement of a dispute. The speaker believed that compulsory arbitration was out of the question.

OVERDUE ETRURIA HEARD FROM AT LAST.

Had Arrived at Fayal in a Disabled Condition-All Well on Board

London, March 4. - The British steamer Ottawa, from Philadelphia, for London, has arrived at Fayal, Azores Islands, and reports having sighted the Cunard Line steamer Etruria, in tow of the British steamer William Cliff, 400 miles west of Fayal. The Etruria had lost her propeller.

Another report says the Etruria was picked up when 500 miles from Fayal, west-northwest of that port. All were well on board the Cunarder, which, according to this report, had her propeller shaft broken. She was otherwise rison and the members of the reception

The Etruria will probably reach the Azores tonight or tomorrow morning. The officials of the line are arranging to have tugs proceed to Fayal and tow the disabled liner home.

A PERMANENT CURE.

A Plattsville Lady Cured of a Very Severe Case Four Years Ago.

Plattsville, Ont., March 3 .- Mrs. J. Barnett, whose remarkable case has been reported in nearly every newspaper in Canada, still continues in good health.

In the spring of 1898 she was a physical wreck and a few weeks' treat-ment of Dodd's Kidney Pills made her a well woman. Many people then believed that her improvement was only temporary, but all such have now been silenced, for she is today in the thankful enjoyment of a splendid health. Her former symptoms have been described as follows: Nervousness, rheumatism in the left arm, pains in the small of the back, up spinal column, and back of the head through the eyes, the left side of the body and occasionally the right side as well, no appeptite and could not sleep at night." Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

PRINCE WOULD ARRIVE INCOG

Wants No Military Reception at Niagara Falls.

At Chicago He Receives an Address of Welcome and Attends Ball at Night.

Chicago, March 4.-Prince Henry of Prussia upon his arrival in this city last evening was given an enthusiastic welcome. At 6:30 his train arrived at the depot of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, where he was met by Mayor Harcommittee.

The prince was driven to the Auditorium Hotel, and shortly after 8 o'clock left for the armory, where fully 6,000 people were gathered. An address of welcome was tendered.

In the evening the prince attended a ball given in his honor in the Auditor-

WHEN HE GETS IN CANADA. Ottawa, Ont., March 4.—A communica-tion has been received from Prince Henry of Prussia to the effect that he does not want any military reception when he visits Niagara Falls tomorrow. He desires to cross to the Canadian side incog. Accordingly the guard of honor, royal salute, etc., will not take place. Major Maude will leave for the Falls tonight to greet the prince on behalf of the governor-general.

CHICAGO BY DAYLIGHT. Chicago, March 4.- The Chicago which Prince Henry of Prussia saw last night by the glare of many lights was pre-sented to him today by the clearer light of the sun. The welcome which he received last night was repeated and emphasized, and he was given further opportunity to enjoy his expressinder oil, Western Oil Company; en- ed desire to meet American citizens at close range. During the day he listened to an address from the Central Bund of St. Paul, placed a wreath on the Lincoln monument in Lincoln Park, and enjoyed a luncheon and reception at the Germania Club. The presentation of the address by Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, was the first detail of the day's official programme. By 11 o'clock all those who were to accompany the prince during the day assembled at the Auditorium. Without delay the party entered the carriages, waiting to convey it to Lincoln Park, and the Germania Club. In the carriage with the prince were Mayor Har-rison, Rear Admiral Evans and Former Secretary of War Robert T. Lincoln. In nearly every door and window along the streets where the prince passed, curious faces were to be Handkerchiefs were waved at him from the windows, and the crowds along the streets shouted a greeting. The prince was kept busy touching his cap in response. While decorations along the route were not profuse, they were sufficiently in evidence to give the streets a semi-holiday appearance A dense crowd was gathered about the statue of the great emancipator when the prince and those accompanying him came upon the scene. The prince entered the plot of clearly swept ground surrounding the monument and laid at the feet of the image of the martyred president the floral token of respect. The whole ceremony lasted but a few moments. official party The prince and his quickly re-entered their carriages, and started at a brisk trot for the Germania Club. A burst of music from a brass band heralded the prince's coming, and in a few minutes the "Prince Henry" of last night was "Unser Heinreich" among an enthusiastic congregation of German-Americans.

How a Big Toronto Audience Greeted George Grossmith.

The Toronto Globe of today has the following appreciation of the recital of Mr. George Grossmith, who comes to the New Grand tonight: "The learning, the wealth and the fashion of Toronto, and a multitude of the undistinguished, assembled last night in Massey Hall to be entertained by Mr. George Grossmith. No description of Mr. Grossmith's recital would be adequate, because his humor is as much in how he says it as in what he says. One of his numbers very well illustrates this. He tells how was induced by a man who took advantage of the entertainer's sentiment for his great-great-grandchildren —the plea being that Grossmith's voice might be handed down to them—to sing into a graphaphone. He sang a few lines of a song of his own, 'How I Danced the Polka'; then rendered it as the graphaphone would hand it down to his descendants. No description in print could approach nearer to Mr. Grossmith's portrayal than the graphaphone did to his voice. The naturalness of his work was nicely illustrated by a little incident which occurred last night during the concluding part of a new musical sketch. 'Somebodies and Nobodies.' He was delineating a peculiarity of college students, and addressing the imaginary student, asked him to bring up a chair to the piano. Upon his repeating the request, a tall, middle-aged gentleman in the second or third row from the front rose and was going to do his best to oblige Mr. Grossmith, when a nearby friend induced him to sit down. The audience had, however, "caught on," and the laughter was so general that the entertainer had to stop, and he leaned over the piano to enjoy the joke himself. Mr. Grossmith's humor is all-pervasive. The audience did not laugh spasmodically, they laughed all the time, and frequently the great gathering was fairly convulsed." So successful was Mr. Grossmith's Toronto appearance that he has been engaged to appear there again on Saturday night.

FAILURES IN FEBRUARY. New York, March 4.—Commercial in-solvencies in February, according to re-ports to R. G. Dun & Co., were 1,104 in solvencies in February, according to reports to R. G. Dun & Co., were 1,104 in number, with an aggregate indebtedness of $11,302,029. In the same month last year there were 1,024 defaults, amounting to $11,287,211. The moderate increase in number was mainly due to misfortune at the south, where bankruptcies were numerous in general stores, although the amount of money involved was not large. Manufacturing failures during February were 238 in number and $4,915,015 in amount, compared with 212 last year for $4,308,741. In the class covering banks, trust companies, three fallures were reported during February, involving but $145,000, compared with seven last year for $432,132. Canadian failures during February numbered 124 with total liabilities of $1,094,774, of which 15 were in manufacturing for $36,300, and 107 in trading for $900,974, while of other commercial insolvencies there were two awaying $152,000.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Will Introduce Resolution on Wednesday. [Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, March 3 .- The government having decided to grant pensions or gratuities for officers of the Northwest Mounted Police, and to their widows and children, Sir Wilfrid Laurier will, on Wednesday, propose a resolution by which this purpose will be accomplished. It provides that five per cent shall be deducted from the pay of officers towards making these pensions good. To an officer compulsorily retired for any cause other than misconduct or inefficiency, after twenty years' service, or retired voluntarily after 35 years' service, a pension not exceeding one-fiftieth of the pay and allowances of his rank at the time of his retirement for each year of service will be allowed; and twenty per cent less than this is granted to an officer who retires after 25 years' but less than 35 years' service. retiring on acount of infirmity, or retired to promote efficiency or economy in the service, a gratuity not exceeding one month's pay for each year's service will be given, and three months' pay for every two years' service to an officer retiring on account of an injury received in the discharge of his duties. The bill makes provision for money gratuities to widows and children of officers whose death oc-curs while they are in receipt of full pay or of a pension. EIGHTEEN MEN ESCAPED. Lockport, N. S., March 4 .- The Gloucester schooner Reliance belonging to John Pugh & Son, stranded on Indian Point, Little Harbor, Sunday night, about 8 o'clock, during a thick fog. The crew of eighteen men escaped in dories. The cargo consisted of 20,000

PRESBYTERY OF LONDON

Regular Meeting Held in First Presbyterian Church.

The Motion to Hold All Meetings in London in Future Meets With Opposition.

The Presbytery of London met at 10:30 a.m. today in the First Presbyterian Church.

The minutes of the last regular and of special meetings at Springfield and Ilderton were sustained.

Rev. S. Lawrence was elected moderator for the ensuing six months, The retiring moderator, Dr. Johnston, was thanked for his services during the last six months. The Presbytery of Minnedosa gave notice that that presbytery would apply to the next General Assembly for leave to receive Rev. John McMillan, Ph.D., a minister from the church of the United States.

A communication was read from Rev. Malcolm Kay, stating that the congregation at Crumlin had increased their share of the minister's salary $25, making their total $400. This creditable action on the part of the congregation was gratefully recognized by the presbytery. A communication was received from Rev. S. Carruthers, secretary of the Toronto Ministerial Association, asking that in the case of people moving to Toronto, ministers should notify him. It was resolved to acknowledge Mr. Carruthers' communication, and commend it to the members of presbytery.

The clerk notified a number of congregations that he had not as yet received their statistical reports. Mr. Geddes moved that in future all regular meetings of presbytery be held in London, and that if any change is contemplated in future it be not made except by a two-thirds vote of those present. The motion was lost. in regard to traveling expenses in attending meetings of presbytery. His statement showed the cost of attending all the regular meetings, and a rate of assessment which would meet such expense. He moved that such assessment be made, and his motion was duly seconded. Mr. Henderson moved in amendment that we receive the report and send it to the sessions for discussion. Mr. Currie moved in amendment to the amendment that further discussion of the matter be delayed until the next regular meeting of the presbytery. The amendment to the amendment was voted down. Dr. Johnston then moved, in amendment to the amendment that the attention of sessions and boards be drawn to the rules of procedure which direct that congregations should see to it that expenses of representatives to presbytery be met. This was lost, and the amendment to the original motion was carried and declared the judgment of the court.

The Rev. Orr Burnett, was introduced and invited to sit as a corresponding member. It was decided that the permanent record of presbytery should be kept in writing.

Mr. Wilson reported having visited the congregations of Komoka and High Park, and that they require the same grant of $130 from the augmentation fund for the ensuing year. Mr. Lawrence was asked to take the place of Mr. Courtenay on the com-mittee of statistics and prepare the

AN ANSWER TO MRS. BOOMER'S

APPEAL. Mrs. Boomer: Dear Madam,-Your appeal on behalf of the young women is a worthy one. Your request is a modest one, and had it been for $10,000 in place of $100, I would think it still far below high-water mark. Outside of the church the Y. W. C. A. should have a deeper hold on the hearts and sympathies of the citizens than any other organization, and I have no doubt, but if an appeal were made to the public through the proper channel the young women would soon have a building equal to or better than the young men. I take pleasure in acceeding to your request for the small sum of $25 towards the erection of a building for those who do so much to cheer and comfort the heart of man.

Lake Erie and Detroit Road May Mr. M. R. Cowan's Bill Read the Break Off Negotiations.

Made a Mistake in Not Accepting Lease.

An Advertiser representative this morning interviewed ex-Mayor Rumball and Mr. C. C. Young, local agent of the L. E. and D. R. R., in reference to statements made by President Frank Walker, of the Lake Erie, to the effect that the Walkers did not care whether the city signed the lease or not, and that the Lake Erie board had decided to build their new coal hoist at Rond Eau and bring in all their coal at that port instead of Port Stanley.

Ex-Mayor Rumball said he was sorry advantages which it would have gained by the acceptance of the lease. He considered the lease a good one and did not understand why it had not been signed by the shareholders. He personally did not care whether the lease was signed or not, as he had no axe to grind in the matter, but he had tried to get a lease favoring the city's interests, and he believed that he had done so-one as far ahead of the old lease as day is different from night. Mr. Rumball did not think Mr. Walker's utterances an attempt to bluff the city into accepting the lease. The city would certainly be a loser by the delay

Mr. C. C. Young's remarks were quite in a line with Mr. Walker's statements. He said he knew that Mr. Walker was thoroughly in earnest in all he had said. It was important to the company that the matter be dealt with quickly, for the building of the new hoist must be proceeded with as soon as possible. The company having obtained a good start in the coal business, it did not wish to lose ground by delays in providing such facilities for coal handling as the new coal hoist would prove. Only prompt action on the part of the city could secure the advantages which the signing of the lease would bring, while it might be already too late. The company could distribute coal and freight to the G. T. R. and C. P. R. at St. Thomas and Chatham, and to the M. C. R. at St. Thomas as they could to the G. T. R.

at London. Solicitor Meredith would not discuss the lease or Mr. Walker's statements, this city, but now a resident of To- save to say that as the Walkers had ronto, was in the city today. The locals can put up in their own rink. Under such conditions a hotly contested game is looked for. Indeed, the best exhibition of hockey this season will be witnessed at these games. The team indulged in a very heavy practice last night, and undoubtedly the best of the season. Every man was present, and all season. Every man was present, and all showed up much better after their recent rest. The forwards devoted most of the time to repeated rushes against the fense, each man keeping his position and passing the puck at every oppor-tunity. McMahen and Lawlor, the center forwards, have developed some nice combination work. Bishop, in goal, is without doubt the best in the business; his stops astonish everyone. If he dis-plays the gilt edge form of last night, there is not much chance for Waterloo to score. Waterloo was the only team that defeated London on their own ice for several years, and they naturally feel confident of doing so again. The sale of tickets for both games is very encouraging, and a large crowd is expected to cheer the boys to victory.

DRAINS ACROSS RAILROADS

Second Time.

Ex-Mayor Rumball Thinks City Has It Places Railway Companies in the Same Position as Other Landholders.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, March 3.-The house sat this afternoon only for an hour and a half. It was private members' day, and the brief session was consumed in answering questions, put chiefly by the opposition, and in learning of an important bill for which Mr. Walton K. Cowan, member for South Essex, secured a second reading. It deals with the question of drainage on and across the property of railway companies. The difficulty that he seeks to efface is that the city was likely to lose the one that has caused an almost endless amount of annoyance and expense to the farmers, especially in the flat lowlying counties of Western Ontario. Put briefly, the trouble is this: In the counties, notably Essex, Lambton, Kent, and portions of Elgin, great amounts of artificial drainage is necessitated by the nature of the country, which is drained into the lakes and the Thames River. The railroads run east and west and must be crossed to secure an outlet. As the law is at present, the railway companies have the power to prevent the construction of drains across their property, the only methods by which the farmers may secure their construction being by an appeal to the railway committee of the Privy Council, or by bringing the railway company to agree to it. Cowan believes that the former method frightens them, and that in many cases of agreement with the company the latter is an exacting bargainer. He claims that the result has been dis-astrous to the agriculturists of these western districts. The power of the railways forces upon them a direct and recurring taxation-the cost of expensive drains. It frequently results also in the loss to the farmer of his whole crop, which, in a period of wet weather, is ruined by the undrained water upon the surface of the land. Mr. Cowan proposes to place railway companies in the same position as other land holders. He would give one property owner the right to drain across their land to the same extent and by the same proceedings as he has, by law, to cross the property of any individual. This right would be somewhat restricted. The engineer in charge of the work must notify the railway company of it, so that it may consider the location, the specifications and costs, and the proportion of the cost to be borne by the railway company, which is to be based upon the increase of cost caused by the construction and operation of the railway. If the engineers of the two parties fail to agree-and here is the vital portion of Mr. Cowan's bill-the matters in question shall be referred to a judge, who will determine them. This does away with the necessity of appealing to the railway committee of the Privi Council and permits the utilizing of the provincial law. In a word, it simplifles the machinery and cheapens it. The judge's decision will be final, and if the railway company's representative fails to confer with the drainbuilder's engineer, it will be binding property, the company shall have the option of doing it at the amount of its estimated cost. The only objection to the bill was raised by Hon. John Haggart, who said that on constitutional grounds it was unwise to grant to the provinces powers which now rest within the jurisdiction of the Federal Government; but the attorney-general assured him that there was nothing in the bill which should not be granted by the Dominion. It goes now to the railway committee, which Chairman will convene for business for the first

"Could you play anything at sight, Mademoiselie?"
She wished for the floor to open and Ewallow her. "Ernest," s said Monsieur Prosper, "just run downstairs and bring up a roll of sie and my violin-case. What new torture was she to under-

This is a duet, Mademoiselle, that I have just been composing for violin and piano. Would you see what you can make of your part?" The notes seemed to swim before her eyes; but she attacked them mechani-

Ah slower than that, Mademoiselle. One, two, three, four, one—oh, forte, Mademoiselle, for the sake of heaven!— that's it—one, two—faster—lighter—the time there-mark the time, sacre nom de Dieu! So-oh, horrible! with grace, Mademoiselle, with grace! Oh, misericorde, don't you know what legato means? Not the pedals there, I implore you—are you mad? Sacre nom de Dieu! Now, then—keep on so. Oh, faster, faster—prestissimo. Mille diables. Sacre nom— Tonnerre d'enfer—cent cochons. Eacr-r-r-re!

And so, for a whole half hour, which seemed to her to be three hundred years at least, her ears were filled, until, what with the music itself, and the shouting and stamping and swearing in which her tyrant indulged when the impressario side of his nature was lost in that of the composer, and what with her own nervousness, she almost lost her senses. But Monsieur Prosper showed her no mercy. No sooner had she struck the last loud chord than he, having worked himself into that state so well known to and feared by the friends of all poets and composers, in which a man cannot restrain his appetite for his own works, when he has once tasted them, began to

It need not be said that she had to through it all again with him or that scolding she received was something terrific. "What do you think of that, Mademoiselle?" he said at last, as he returned the violin to its case.

DOCTOR SAID

Excruciating Pains in the Back and Loins-A Plaster Cast Necessary for Temporary Relief-How a Cure Was Found in

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

We leave Mr. Demers to describe his own case as he wrote it in a letter to us. Few human beings are ever called upon to suffer as he did from kidney disease. You cannot wonder at it that he is now enthusiastic in the praise of have given him a new lease of life. Mr. S. O. Demers, Conception Station, Labelle county, Que., writes: "I am writing you in order that others who suffer as I did may profit by my experience. For three years I was obliged to give up all work on account of severe pains in my loins, back and I had become so stiff in my body that I could not lean over without suffering the most excruciating

"I consulted several doctors and specialists, but all of them pronounced me incurable, and could not even give me relief. One had me incased in plaster in order to support the body, for I suffered dreadfully, but this only gave me temporary relief, and I thought myself condemned to die without being able to find a cure.

'About this time I received one of Dr. Chase's books, and found my case described exactly. The sample of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills which came with this book gave me marked relief, so I bought some more and continued the treatment. Gradually the sharp pains in the back and sides grew less severe, and my bowels became regular and active-constipation had been one of my worst symptoms. "I had also suffered from indigestion and gas on the stomach, pains between the shoulders, in the back, loins and sides, frequent desire urinate, and pain in making water, stiffness of the body, and all the suffering accompanying derangements of the liver and kidneys.

"Since using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills these ailments have become less and less, until now they have entirely disappeared. I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and they have done so much for me that I cannot say enough in their praise. The people in this county are surprised to see me so well again, and no wonder, for my cure has been almost miraculous." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills; one

What! she asked to play Monsieur
Prosper's own work in public at Monsieur Prosper's own request, and in the place of a celebrated professor! Surely there must be some mistake! But no, the note was only too clear, and only too ainly directed to her, and to no other. That in the world should she do? Her first thought was to refuse at once. But then, how could she dare to offend this terrible Monsieur Prosper? At last, after much unhappy meditation, she made un hap mind to wait till the she made up her mind to wait till the morning. Perhaps by then her persecutor might have thought better of his extraordinary request. Would it might prove so! Meanwhile—for she was weary of this new exercise of thinking about herself—there was nothing to do but sit down and finish darning. Fleurette's down and finish darning Fleurette's stockings. When this was finished she went and looked at the children and then went back to bed, where the music of the duet came back to her in the most terrible form of all. Queen Mab was not kind to her that night. CHAPTER XI. And so Marie entered upon a week of wretchedness, for Monsieur Prosper, now that he had once obtained a hold upon her, showed his promised gratitude in a most ungrateful fashion. He not only made her a slave to the duet, but treated her as his pupil without the least reference to what might be her own wishes and views, or even consulting her

Besides, his own affairs were absorbing his attention more and more. He was bringing the same industry and perse-verence to bear upon his new study of the common law of England by which he had already made Greek and mathe-matics pay so well. The only difference in his style of study was that he found more pleasure in his work now than at Cambridge, and like it better for its own sake. Blackstone was far more congenial to his nature than either Newton

And so, on the very evening on which And so, on the very evening on which his wife was undergoing the nervous tortures of her debut, he sat in his chambers in the Middle Temple, of which Inn he had become a member, thinking, not about her, but about himself. He was taking stock of his position, for he was practical even when the Middle Temple port had obliged him to put off was practical even when the Middle Temple port had obliged him to put off his evening spell of work for an hour or two and the work with a purpose when two, and thought with a purpose when another would have dreamed; and on comparing what he was now with what he was even so short a time since as when he had been Hugh Lester's com-panion on the Redchester coach, he was by no means dissatisfied with the result. But still there was one hard fact of which it was impossible to get rid, which went far to spoil all his self-gratulation. He was by no means given to useless regret or to crying after spoiled milk, and certainly not given to calling nimself a fool; but now, as he balanced his account of profit and loss, he could his account of profit and loss, he could not help almost thinking himself one.
"It is a hard case that a man should be punished for the mistakes that he commits in his boyhood. I shall now have to go through life with a burden from which I shall never be free, when freedom from every kind of burden is absolutely necessary. Luckily she is not a woman who will interfere with me more than she can help, or perversely more than she can help, or perversely stand upon her rights. But that will not prevent my having all the disadvantages of having a wife, combined with those of keeping a mistress, without having any of the advantages of either. I believe that if I were free and played my cards decently well, I might try for the New Court stakes, and not be last in the betting. As it is, I suppose the prize will fall, as usual, to that ass Lester, who seems to have nothing to do but open his mouth and the good things fall into it of themselves. I don't suppose into it of themselves. I don't suppose that he was born richer than I: an clearly not with more brains. And yet, without any trouble or merit on his part, first because he becomes heir to one of the finest estates in the country; then, again, without trouble or merit wn, without even caring about it, drops into a seat in parliament; without having to look for then, without having to look for her, there is an embodiment of all the virtues ready made to his hand. And I, at his age, have had to fight with fortune to wrest from her some three hundred a year. I have borne the whole heat of a contested election for the sake of another, and I am chained for life-well, to another embodiment of all the virtues. Perhaps it would be better if she were not quite so immaculate. Yes, it is certainly a hard case! If I were only free, I do not see why the master of New Court should not be as successful against Earl's Dene as for it; and then

This exclamation was caused not by a tap at the door, but by a sound as though the door was being attacked by a battering-ram. He turned round as he spoke, and, to his horrer, beheld the form of his old acquaintance, Dick Barton.

I do not wish to discourage you, but I feel certain that the Columbia will lick you." Mr. Post said that to race both vachts with American crews would not decided whether American or British yachtsmen were superior. He maintained he said that an American crew could get better results from the Shamrock, and that a British crew would get less speed from the Columbia. He thought that under these conditions the Shamrock would win. He said he would send a representative to London to complete averagements with Sir Thomas Liston. arrangements with Sir Thomas Lipton.

Sickness steals more savings than the burglar. Slowly, coin by coin, the money that has been so hardly earned is paid out for drugs and doctors. MR. GORDON HUNTER, K.C.

Appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Ottawa, March 4 .- Mr. Gordon Hunter, K. C., of Victoria, has been appointed chief justice of the supreme court of British Columbia. The appointment was made on the recommendation of the members of parliament for the province.

Mr. Gordon Hunter, who is a son of Mr. John Howard Hunter, Toronto, of the Ontario civil service, took a most distinguished stand at Toronto versity, where he graduated in 1885. His success at Osgoode Hall was equally marked. After being called to the bar of Ontario, Mr. Hunter was with McCarthy, Osler & Co. for a time, and also in partnership with his brother, Mr. W. H. Hunter, at Toronto.

The new chief justice was also prominent in Young Liberal organizations in Toronto. On moving to Victoria he soon gained a high position at the bar, especially in criminal work. and was appointed by the Davie Govrnment provincial crown attorney.

Afterwards a partnership was formbetween the late Chief Justice Davie and Mr. Hunter. On the retirement of Mr. Fawcett from the post of gold commissioner in the Yukon Territory Mr. Hunter was offered the post, but he preferred to remain in Victoria.

WOMEN STUDY PATRICK CASE.

Delegation From a Woman's League in Attendance.

On the Same Day Five Telephone Girls Gave Testimony in the Famous Case.

New York, March 4. - Next week may see the close of taking testimony in the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the alleged murder of William Marsh Rice, although the prosecution has still some witnesses to be heard, and the defense has yet to produce its testimony, of which there will be a great deal.

The defense will endeavor to show that Rice was not murdered at all, but died a natural death. Some of the star witnesses for the prosecution, among them Valet Jones, will be discredited as far as possible. The telephone girl has had her day in the trial, summoned by the prosecu-

Five of the pretty sisterhood from the "hello girl" to the "checker" and the "ringer-off," were in attendance. It would not have done to have asked any of the pretty girls how much she had heard of conversations the wires between Jones and Patrick. Such testimony would have a "tendency to degrade." Therefore the sum of the testimony given by the tel-ephone employes amounted to no more than that on the fatal Sept. 23, 1900, somebody living in the Berkshire apartment house (otherwise No. 609 Thirty-eighth street), had called up "1,314A Columbus" (otherwise Albert

The girls were demure and modest, inclined to speak low and to favor their left ears, that are always covered by the receiver. None of them was cross-examined. During the session the court attended by a delegation from the Women's League for Political Education. Among the party were Mrs. H. M. Sanders, the president of the club; Mrs. Robert Abbe, Miss Louisa A. Bangs, Mrs. Winthrop Codwin, Dr. Mary Putnam-Jacobi, Mrs. W. J. Le-Moine, Mrs. Ben All Haggin, Miss Helen McDowell, Mrs. Hamilton, Wright Mabie, Mrs. Mario Sutrie Price. Mrs. C. A. Runkle, Miss A. L. Snelling, and Miss L. V. Day.

They came to study Patrick and to form their own impressions of the appearance of a man on trial for his life. Many of the women pronounced him good-looking, and two declared him handsome. New York, March 4. - A. B. Cohen, one of W. M. Rice's agents in Texas, who was on the stand when court adjourned Friday, was recalled yesterday. He told of delay in his pay checks of July and August. He corroborated the story told by Charles F. Jones that there was such delay. Jones testified that he held back the checks at Patrick's direction, and that he finally sent to Mr. Cohen two checks handed him (Jones) by Patrick.

sacrificing heroine and her husband, since deceased, spent many years of faithful pastoral work in different parts of the continent. Elizabeth H. Varney, relict of the late Levi Varney, is now 73 years of age and is living in quiet retirement here. She is a member of the Society who is singing in grand opera in this city, has been notified of the death of simple neace-loving society never had simple, peace-loving society never had a more humble or more worthy mem-

It is of her work among the Doukhobors in our own Canadian Northwest that she loves most to speak, and many and vivid are her recollections of this peculiar people.

One of the greatest difficulties this devoted woman had to contend with was disease among her poor people. But she had armed herself with a remedy that was as unfailing as her own charity-Dodd's Kidney Pills were the weapons she used to drive out sickness.

Some years before she had tried and proven the value of this great medicine in her own case when threatened with Dropsy and suffering with Rheumatism. They had completely restored her, and when she found that the prevailing trouble among the Doukhobor people was Kidney Disease and Dropsy she knew that Dodd's Kidney Pills would be her most valuable aid in her good work. She tells of one poor young woman among this people who was suffering so severely with the Dropsy that she was terribly bloated all over and confined to her bed. The Lady Missionary left a few of Dodd's Kidney Pills and immediately sent for three more boxes.

She was rewarded for her efforts by the complete recovery of the young woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills have received this worthy woman's most emphatic indorsation.

"The Tide of Life" at the Grand Opera House.

"Good melodrama, with interpolated specialties," was what the patrons of the New Grand were promised in the presentation of "The Tide of Life" last night, and the majority of those in attendance seemed satisfied with the of-fering. Frank Kilday gave a clever delineation of the villainous Dan Gillette. The two most sensational episodes of the play-the heroine's leap from an overhead bridge to a pa freight, and the assistant villain's death by accidental electrocutionwere well presented. Geo. B. Raymond's specialties caught the house. The balance of the company was fair.

GROSSMITH TONIGHT .. Ever be troubled with a pain, soreness or stiffness in your back, that made rising up or sitting down excruciating agony? Rubbing on liniments won't do much good, for the pain in the back is from the kidneys. They're out of order, clogged up, can't filter the blood properly, and they let you know of their trouble by making your back ache.

Just go to their assistance with Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tabletsthe quickest, surest cure for sore, stiff backs and all kidney troubles.

Here is an experience to profit by: William H. Risk, 286 Dalhousie street, Brantford, says: "I drive a baker wagon and am out in all kinds of weather. The top of the wagon was none too high and it kept me in a stooping position. This and exposure affected my back and kidneys. I did not stop work, but it was pretty tough at times, the pain and stiffness was so bad. Straighten up I could not, despite rubbings and plasters. I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and they acted like magic. The pain, soreness and stiffness is all gone, and I am feeling as well as ever." Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a bottle, or 3 bottles for $1 25, at all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Company, Toronto, Ont.

> GET MAD When Friends Tell the Truth.

Many people become coffee topers before they realize it, and would be angry if thus described even by a close friend. It will pay anyone to examine carefully into whether or not coffee has gained the mastery over them. A coffee toper may suspect that his or her Years ago he was manager of the Anglo Mortgage Company, which was bought out by the Dominion Securities Company, of London, England. He ease to some other cause, for right down in the heart they realize that its acted as superintendent for the latter down in the heart they realize that it company for some time. He was also vice-president of the Hamilton Brass up coffee, so they hope against hope Company. Mr. Wood was born in Beverly township, and resided in Dunon with its work just the same and the result is complete collapse and the result is complete collapse and nervous prostration, lasting sometimes for years, unless the poison that causes the disease is discontinued. There are hundreds of thousands of illustrations of the truth of this statement. Any person addicted to coffee can make the change from common coffee to Postum Food Coffee without trouble provided the Postum is properly prepared so as to bring out the color, flavor and food value. It has a rich black-brown color and changes to the golden brown when good cream is add-

CRUSHED BY A FALLING WALL

Samuel Cochrane Died Two Hours After Being Injured.

Lost Presence of Mind and Stepped in Front of Descending Mass of Bricks.

Samuel Cochrane, a laborer employed by Contractor John Nutkins, was so severely injured yesterday by being caught under a falling brick wall that he died about two hours after the accident. Cochrane and Melvin Taylor, Lake station, north of Pemborke. They of Central avenue, were pulling down the walls of a brick house, gutted by fire three months ago, on the southeast corner of Wellington road and the Baseline road, just south of the city limits. The men were working at either end of the north wall, and had removed a number of bricks from the foundation, when Contractor Nutkins' son. William, noticed that the wall was swaying, and called to the men to run. Taylor moved back, but Cochrane walked at an angle in front of the Nutkins called to him again, but before Cochrane could escape the wall crashed out, burying Cochrane to his hips in the brick and debris. The injured man was extricated as rapidly as possible and carried to a nearby house. Dr. Moore was summoned, but Cochrane died shortly after his arrival. The injured man was conscious till within a few minutes of his death. As soon as the news of the accident came, the family hurried to his bedside, but not before he had expired. The injuries consisted of a broken leg and general bruises, with probably a fatal injury to the base of the brain The remains were brought to Harrison's undertaking establishment. Coroner McLaren viewed them there and decided that an inquest was unneces-

BOARD OF HEALTH REPORT FOR JANUARY

Municipalities Fail to Send in Their Figures -Smallpox Cases During February.

Toronto, March 4.-The report of the provincial board of health month of January shows that scarlatina, measles and whooping cough were on the increase at the period dealt with. A comparative statement is not very satisfactory, in view of the fact that only 644 municipalities reported for January, 1902, whereas 705 sent in returns for the corresponding month of the previous year. The deaths were in part as follows: For January, 1902 and 1901, respectively-Scarlatina, 28-16; diphtheria, 47—49; measles, 18—9; whooping cough, 7—2; typhoid, 29—43; consumption, 151—201. Total from all causes, 1,946-2,320.

SMALLPOX CASES. There were 707 new cases of smallpox in Ontario during last month, five of them being in York county. Quite a number of new smallpox cases were reported to the provincial medical health officer today. Five cases have appeared at Beaver Stone camp, in Nipissing. New cases are also reported from No. 1, of the Helen mines Blind River, Nipissing and Maple Creek, on the Algoma Central. Twenty lumbermen suspected to have the dis-ease among them, who crossed over to the Ontario side of the Ottawa River from Quebec, have been held at Moore

JEWELRY SALE A SUCCESS

Crowds Attend Thos. Gillean's Opening Dis count Sale-Choice Bargains in Gold, Silver or Plated Ware.

London's leading jeweler has demon strated that the people have faith in his announcements. Mr. Thomas Gillean on Saturday inaugurated special discount sale for one month of 5 per cent on everything kept in stock, and the opening day was ar emphatic success.
