CHAOS IN AUSTRIA. London, Nov. 10 .- A letter received here from Vienna says the published reports of the political situation in the Austrian empire convey no adequate idea of the chaos prevailing. "Badeni must go," is the general war cry now, and his downfall is considered inevitable, regardless of the outcome of the present fight between the Germans and the Czechs. The letter adds: "No one can foresee how it will end. If the Germans win there may be bloodshed in Bohemia, and if the Bohemians are persistent the Germans will have to fight with their sharpest weapons to assert their prerogative and save the Austro-Hungarian duality. The danger, however, lies in the active participation in the fight by the Germans over the border. Britain's Policy,

Mayor's Banquet.

The Tanglea West African Question Dealt With by the Premier-Britain Looking for Markets Will Not Allow Herself To Be Overridden.

London, Nov. 10 .- The brilliancy of the gathering at the Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guild Hall last evening, was somewhat marred by the tokens of mourning for her royal highness the late Duchess of Teck. A majority of the laures present wore gowns of black or dark gray.

After the usual loyal and formal toasts, the Marquis of Lansdowne, secretary of state for war, responded for the "Army." In the course of his speech he eulogized "the gallant work being done on our Indian frontier, especially by the troops of those native rulers who have long wished to stand shoulder to shoulder with us.' He then proceeded to point out the necessity of an increase of the army to meet "the requirements of imperial expansion.'

The Marquis of Salisbury, on rising, was greeted with several minutes of continuous cheering. He began by deploring the engineers' dispute which, he said, "involves the future prosperity his companion McKenna, and how he or disaster of the country." But, he cut open the bundle and found the was a "renewed prospect that the about eight inches square cut off the to express how deeply her Majesty body.

(Prolonged applause.)

His lordship then passed on to speak of the situation in the east. He said the history of the past year was that the European concert had failed to prevent Greece from going to war, but had succeeded in preserving the peace of Europe. It was, he submitted, a great and praiseworthy achievement for the concert to avert that calamity. He continued: "Had the concert exerted all its force to prevent Greece from going to war, the responsibility might have rested upon it of erasing Greece from the map." Frequently his lips became dry and parched, and occasionally he would moisten them same stolid look of indifference which it has worn all through, but his eyes were unrestful. When he was not gazing at his accuser he was casting furtive glances around the court room and up into the galleries, which were crowded with men and women. Mrs. Nack told of the purchasing of the oilcloth and other wrappings, and identified some letters which she got from Thorn. A telegram was put in evidence, which purported to be from Guldensuppe to Mrs. Nack, telling her to go to the Turkish baths and tell his employer that he had gone away, and would write his reasons later. The prosecution tried to get the witness to identify the writing on the telegram as Thorn's, but Mr. Howe objected, and he was sustained by the court.

GULDENSUPPE WHIPPED THORN. Mrs. Nack, in the earlier part of her evidence, said Guldensuppe was known as her husband. Thorn came to board with them at No. 439 Ninth avenue. Thorn and Guldensuppe had a fight, and Guldensuppe licked Thorn. Guldensuppe kicked Thorn down stairs. "He got no work, and I gave him money," said Mrs. Nack, in broken English. "When Thorn went away I promised to pay his board bill until he could get work. I met Thorn after this at Twenty-third street and Ninth avenue, when I gave him $20. Thorn was very bitter against Guldensuppe and wanted to kill him. Thorn said:
'Woman, I love you.' I said, 'I am a

BASEBALL.

TORONTO'S TEAM. Toronto World: Manager Irwin telegraphs that he has signed Jack Carney for 1898. Carney's record in the Western League has been an enviable one. In 1856 he played 134 games at first base for Grand Rapids, and led the first basemen of the league, with an average of .989, accepting 1,437 chances out of 1,453. In the same year his batting average was .330. In 1897 he played for Kansas City, and managed that team in the early part of the season, but a broken ankle caused his retirement, and subsequent release, after participating in but 41 games, where he fielded .980 and batted out an average of .348. CEEDINGS. Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—The annual meeting of the National League was opened at the Hotel Walton yesterday. The first meeting was that of the board of directors, which, according to a statement given out by Secretary Young, was brief and unim-portant. Following this the national board of arbitration went into session to dispose of matters unfinished at last meeting. Then came the first session of the National League and American Association of Baseball

Clubs, or "The Big League." President Young was authorized to establish an office in the business section of Washington for the transmission of league business, and the Boston club was officially awarded the championship of 1897.

The most important subject before the board of arbitration was the peticess 1, Zamari 2, Parthemax 3. Time, tion of the class A leagues for a modification of the drafting clauses of the national agreement. The petition met with no opposition, and it was decided that its provisions should be recommended to the National League for adoption. The suggested change provides that no player can be drafted by the National League unless he shall have at least served two years in the class A league from which the handicap. Sixteen horses ran. FOOTBALL. FOOTBALL LIBEL SUIT.

Chatham, Nov. 10 .- At a meeting of the city football club Monday night the situation in re the Peninsula League emeute was discussed for two hours. President Piggott reported having forwarded a letter to the Mail and Empire resenting the imputations cast upon the club from sources, anent the recent match here, and fully explaining the true position of affairs. Turning to the reports published in reference to the match ast Saturday, it was formally decided to serve at least one paper, the St. Thomas Journal, with natice of a suit for libel; the Windsor Record, Detroit Free Press and other journals are to be considered later on. In the case of the Journal the officers of the Chatham club complain that they were singled out and charged with the grossest and most scandalous conduct.

Montreal, Nov. 10 .- Anyone who intends to go to Klondike hereafter will find it impossible to get insurance companies to give them a policy. This is what Mr. Gwilt, Montreal agent of the London Guarantee and Assurance Company, said yesterday. The accident companies have decided not to accept any more risks on merchants, miners or others going to the Klondike. They will, however, pay up claims for accidents happening in the Klondike on policies taken out before the holder had decided to go there. Asked about the case of the late Fred Cope, ex-mayor of Vancouver, who died in the Klondike, holding a policy for $5,000 in the London Guarantee and Accident Company, he stated there was no truth in the rumor that the policy would not be paid. All similar claims will be paid, but they will not take any

A GOLDEN ISLAND. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 10 .-There is an island several miles from the Soo down the old channel from St. Marys, where gold has been discovered. The island is owned by R. B. Durnion, of this city, and H. E. Leland, of the Canadian Soo, who purchased it from the Canadian government about a year ago. Mr. Durnion was aware of there being a vein of gold-bearing quartz on the island when it was purchased, and had assays made of the surface rock, which showed enough gold to warrant a further investigation. In company with Donald McLean, an old miner, of St. Paul, who had been in the Rainy Lake gold country, and who had just returned from the Michipicoten region Mr. Durnion left for the island to look over the find. They put a couple of blasts into the vein, and brought back quartz to be assayed. The quartz is of a decomposed, white, sugary nature, and is a good indication of gold in large quantities. The assay compares favorably with anything yet discovered in the vicinity of Wawa Lake.

One Well Producing Five to One Hundred Barrels a Day.

Toronto, Nov. 10.-The Ontario department of mines has received news Wallaceburg, and went nome minus from the county of Lambton, near Florence, about six miles north of Bothwell. The news announces the discovery of another oil field where seven wells have been driven and one running from 5 to 100 barrels a day. Toronto capitalists are interested in

At the same time his shanty was blown up, the explosion being caused by the concussion from the first, it is supposed. Flying wood struck him on the back and knocked him down; but he was not hurt nearly so badly as Marks, whose face, hands Sergt. Robinson happened to be

THE WESTERN DAIRY SCHOOL

Made a Grand Record for the Past Season-Some Interesting Facts Noted.

This school has made a great record for itself this past summer in the creamery markets of Canada, which record reached what may be looked upon as a climax in the returns for the month of October. For this month Superintendent Sleightholm, after deducting all charges for making, marketing, etc., paid nine out of his sixty patrons one dollar or over per 100 pounds for all the milk they delivered durng that month. Twenty-six more received ninety cents or over, and only six received less than eighty cents. Besides this 90 pounds of skim milk was returned for each 100 pounds delivered. It is worth while to record that not one complaint was received regarding the quality or condition of this skim milk during the whole summer. Rigid inspection of the milk received and careful and thorough pasteurization

Western Dairy School creamery butter has won a high position in the markets of Canada and England. It is now being sold in Canadian markets at 1/2c to 1c per pound more than is being paid for the great bulk of creamery butter, and this has been the case throughout the whole season. These and like matters give some idea of the excellence of the character of the work done at that institution, and bespeak high things for the instruction imparted to attending God's in His heaven. All's right with the world. -Browning.

London, Wednesday, Nev. 10, 1897.

Need of an Insolvency Law. A London cablegram says that Hon. W. S. Fielding, Dominion Minister of Finance, who is now in Great Britain, has been much impressed with the importance of the British demand for an effective insolvency law in Canada. "It is," the telegram adds, "the one remaining obstacle to a greater Anglo-Canadian trade."

Our commerce with Great Britain is hampered by the lack of a fair insolvency law, operated in all parts of the Dominion, and thereby promoting the confidence of old world business men in our stability as a trading community. The relations between debtors and creditors at the present moment are more systematically taught in the pubdifferent in every part of the country, unfair preferences are possible, dishonrity, and the general lack of uniformearliest opportunity.

Their present visit to Toronto, which will extend over several weeks, is a following out of his Excellency's general plan, which has proved so acceptable in every part of the Dominion.

When Lord Aberdeen, in the near future, returns to his British home. and to his responsibilities as a British statesman, he will be so equipped with knowledge of the great land in which he has represented her Majesty that he will prove a most valuable ally of Canada, and will be able, as opportunity offers, to dispel any misgivings as to the extent and variety of our

The Consular Journal says that the cost of living in Japan has nearly doubled in four years, and that wages have gone up accordingly. The result is that Japanese coal mine owners are importing laborers from Corea. The Journal thinks that Japanese competition in industrial lines is a myth, and that as the Japs increase their industrial capacity their demands for better pay and their power to consume both home and imported products will be vastly increased.

The False Prophets.

Messrs. Brown & Wigle, Kingsville, announce that their business has so much increased in recent months that they are compelled to run their woolen mill night and day all winter. This firm is one of many which are falsifying the prognostication of Opposition politicians, who were cocksure for years that Liberal Administration meant closed factories. The fearful fellows are now engaged in another line of prophecy-wholesale and retail. They are saying that unless the Ontario Government is defeated, this country will be face to face with direct taxation. The same cry was raised in 1879, and has been falsified by results all these years. And it is doomed to a similar fate in the years to come. The peop:e simply decline any more to listen to the Prophets of Disaster to Come. They know them and their ways.

The Toronto Bye-Election

The Dominion Government has taken steps to promptly fill the vacancy in the House of Commons created by the resignation of Mr. Lount, M. P. for Center Toronto. Nomination day will be on Nov. 23, and the polling, if any, a week later. The Liberal convention will be held on the 15th. It is understood that Mr. George H. Bertram, of the Bertram Engine Works, will be the Liberal candidate. He is a large employer of labor, an able business man, and a more than usually attractive public speaker.

The New York Medical Record has an article headed "The Benefits of a Good Cry." No one recognizes "the benefits of a good cry" more than Mr. Whitney, leader of the Ontario Opposition; but after almost herculean efforts to obtain one with which to face the province at the ensuing general election, he finds himself baffled.

The Gold Democrats have given up the fight in Kentucky. The recent elections showed that silver was right on top in that state, and henceforth it is to have its own way in the Democratic party, win or lose. A change may come, but at present there is every indication that the contest for the Presidency of the United States in 1899 the one great issue will be money-gold standard of gold and silver, with silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 of gold.

B. B. The "Dead Line" at Fifty.

A good deal has been said about an alleged clerical dead-line at fifty, under which congregational preference is said to be reluctant to take clergymen who have passed ten times five birthdays. I presume the truth is there is no rule in the matter. Some clergymen have crossed "the dead line" at thirty or forty; others have not passed it at sixty or even seventy. In many cases the trouble is that the clergyman has ceased reading and thinking, or his mind may be vegetating, through lack of the attrition that comes from familiar. unstilted intercourse with improving minds. I have known clergymen who have reaped great incidental advantage and kept their thoughts fresh by membership in private conversational discussion clubs-one means of defense against "the dead line" that seems to me to be open to any clergyman who so resolves.

Potato Plots for the Poor. There are many acres of vacant land in the city, especially in the outlying portions, which will not be required for building purposes for years to come. At present it yields only grass, thistles, weeds-and taxes. It cannot yet be sold at a profit, and it involves a yearly outlay for which the return is distant and uncertain. The owners hope to realize upon it when the approach of the building area will give it higher value. Much of this land has been offered to the Charities Society for cultivation by the deserving poor. As the society is supported by private beneficence, its funds are limited and precarious, and it cannot accept the responsibility of extending the potato patch scheme, which was so successful this year. It has, through its president, urged the City Council to adopt the idea of opening vacant lands to the city poor. The owners of these plots only ask that the taxes shall be paid. As such property is usually assessed at farm rates, the taxes would be slight in proportion to the value of the products of the soil. The promoters of the scheme make strong claims for it. They say that it imposes no great outlay of public funds, that ithelps the poor to help themselves instead of teaching them to be paupers, and that by making honest labor the price of relief, it discriminates between the idle and the industrious indigent. The proper treatment of the needy is an important function of municipal government, and any practical plan like this merits the attention of the city fathers.

[Inspector Seath reports that the London Collegiate Institute must have more teachers, and that carpets and rugs must be furnished for the teachers' room.]

I am one of many teachers, In a leading institute, Where they have (as special features) Learned men of great repute, And the wisdom of all ages There they teach to Jill and Jack

(At the highest rate of wages), Yet but one thing still they lack. Now the wisdom of this college Is indeed beyond compare, And the wideness of its knowledge

But though learning pours like Out of many open jugs, Yet its fame is doomed to slaugh-

Why? Because it has no rugs!

Is not equaled anywhere.

Oh, how seldom do they reckon (Those who sit at home at ease) Of how many hardships beckon, Of how many trials tease The poor specialist who teaches, And the scientist who trains,

And the pedagogue who reaches

I've a chair (with not a few dents), In a bare and rugless room! They have no respect for science, And no rug for wisdom's feet. But a cushionless appliance For a professorial seat!

But now all these things must alter, And all our wrongs must cease; The inspector will not falter, He will give the board no peace. Until all the scrimping creatures He has wholly put to rout, Until all the staff of teachers , Is complete beyond a doubt.

Until carpets vie with learning At John Seath his stern behest; For we teachers all are spurning Rugless antonyms of rest; We will have our number larger, We will have our comforts snug, Led by Seath upon his charger,

With our oriflamme a rug. We will conquer in the battle, We will conquer in the fight, We the school trustees will rattle Till our wrongs be made all right; For Inspector Seath has said it;

Let the citizens succumb; Let them pay and save their credit, Let them pay it and be dumb. So that when our tasks are finished, And the 'ologies are done, And our brain cells are diminished, And we want to have some fun;

Then the taxpayers must furnish Gorgeous rugs and carpets fine, And the janitor shall burnish, And the lights shall brightly

And the teachers all shall meet Each shall rugs and science talk, And shall have a cushioned seat there.

And on carpets gaily walk: Thus our brains shall learning And our work be ably done. And the L. C. I. shall flourish,

And its rating be A1. Maybe I'm a brute. But I believe thoroughly in the subjection of women," writes F. G. Mather to the New York World. Take your own case, Mr. Mather. Who is under subjection in your house-is it you or your wife?

Pounding and Expounding.

Rev. W. T. Hill said on Sunday last that many ministers had so little respect for the Bible that they pounded it with their fists, as if it were an anvil. Hereafter let all such be ex-pounders.

London as an Egg Center.

I had an interesting chat with Mr. Benjamin Higgins on the train the other day about-eggs. Mr. Higgins is the representative in this city of the largest egg-dealing firm in Great Britain or the world, and sends abroad a vast number of hundreds of dozens of eggs during the season. Mr. Higgins says no part of Canada produces better eggs than the neighborhood of London, and he attributes it to the fact that much attention is given hereabouts to the production of good breeds of hens. So here is a strong pointer in favor of poultry fancying and poultry exhibitions. The yellow-shell eggs are better and larger on the average than those with white shells; better also for shipping, the shells being stronger. The moral is that it will pay all egg-producers to get the best breeds of poultry as fast as possible. Mr. Higgins considers the market in Great Britain for good Canadian eggs practically unlimited, and that a vast and increasing sum of egg-money will continue to flow into Canada. But the eggs must be good, exactly as represented, and packed with great

Ethics of Church Musical Attractions.

The question was discussed a few days ago, pro and con, to what extent churches were justified in providing special musical attractions. The two main conflicting arguments were somewhat as follows: (1) The adverse view: That the whole service, from beginning to end, including the offering, was an act of worship, and that nothing was

WELL KNOWN VIOLINIST

Traveled Extensively Throughout the Provinces - Interesting Statements Concerning His Experience.

STELLARTON, N.S .- James R. Murray, a well known violinist, of this place, who has traveled extensively throughout the Provinces, makes this statement:

"I was running down in health and my weight fell off from 175 to 150 pounds. Prescriptions did me but little good. My trouble was called nervous dyspepsia. I resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and after taking five bottles I was greatly benefited. I feel as well now as ever in my life, and have increased in flesh so that I now weigh 177 pounds. I am well known in this part of the country, having followed my profession, that of a violin musician for the last 26 years. I gladly tell my friends what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. Before I began taking the medicine I did not have any ambition, but now all is changed and my dyspeptic trouble perfectly cured." JAMES R. MURRAY.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute. Be sure to get Hood's.

Toronto, Nov. 9 .- At the Toronto cattle market today trade was dull; receipts were light, being 84 cars, including 660 sheep and lambs, 700 hogs, 8 calves and 14 milch cows and springers; export cattle were in small sup-ply and not many were wanted; prices ere low, at $3 50 to $3 85 per cwt. Butchers' Cattle-The offerings were light and the demand was slow: the quality was not very good: picked cattle sold at 3½c to 3¾c per lb; good medium at $3 30 to $3 35 per cwt, and inferior at 2½c to 2%c; ordinary loads sold at 3c; one load of heifers and cows sold at 21/2c; the demand from the local butchers was slow, and there was scarcely any buying for Montreal; nothing was taken for Buffalo.

Stockers and Feeders-In fair demand from distillery men and farmers, but practically nothing was taken for Buffalo today; light stockers sold at 2%c to 3c; feeders were about the same as last week; there are some bought for the Walkerville distillery, at 31/4c to 3½c for good steers. Bulls-Export bulls were dull, at 31/4 c to 3%c per lb; stock bulls were in fair demand, at $2 25 to $2 60 per cwt. Sheep and Lambs-The market for lambs was weak, at $2 50 to $3 50 each. or about 4c per lb; some good lambs were left unsold; shipping sheep were dull, at 3c to 34c per lb; bucks, 21/2c; butchers' sheep were slow, at $2 to $8. Calves-The offerings were light, and the demand steady, at $2 to $8.

Milch Cows and Springers—There were not many offered, and there was a good demand from dairymen for newly-calved cows; prices were firm, at $25 to $45 each. Hogs-The best selections of bacon hogs sold at 4c per lb, weighed off the cars; thick fat hogs sold at $3 80 to 90 per cwt; stores and light hogs, $3 90 to $4 per cwt; stags, 1%c to 2c per lb, and sows for breeding purposes,

MONTREAL. Montreal, Nov. 8 .- The only news of interest in local export live stock circles today was the more encouraging cable advices from Liverpool and Lon-don on both cattle and sheep, and prices show an advance of 1c since figures shippers state that cattle are losing money and sheep just about letting out. The receipts of live stock at the east end abattoir market this morning were 750 cattle, 350 sheep, 400 lambs, 20 calves and 20 hogs; there was a strong-er feeling in the market for good to choice stock, and prices ruled slightly higher; trade was more active than it was last Thursday, and a good clearance was made; the demand for expert was again slow, and no sales on Wholesale and Relation with the sales of this account were reported; a fair neighbor advised me to try Dr. trade was done in young steers and common bulls for shipment to Buffalo wife had used it for a throat trouble export account was slow, there being only a few small bunches of good stock offered, which were bought at 3c, and local buyers paid 2½c to 2¾c for culls per lb, live weight; lambs were in active demand and prices were maintained; good to choice stock sold at 4c to 44c, and lower grades at 3½c to 3%c

The run of live stock at the Point St. Charles cattle yards was 200 cattle, 500 sheep and lambs, and about 100 hogs; a fair trade was done on the basis of 2½c to 3½c per lb, live weight; good sheep met with a fair sale on export account at 3c per lb, and lambs sold at 3½c to 4c per lb; the tone of the market for live hogs was firmer, at $4 50 to $4 60 per 100 lbs.

OLD COUNTRY PRICES. London, Nov. 8 .- There was a much better feeling in the market for Can-adian stock, and prices for both cattle and sheep advanced 1c, owing to smaller supplies and an improved demand. States and Argentine stock were unchanged. Choice Canadian cattle sold at 101/2c; choice sheep at 11c, and lambs Choice States cattle brought 11¼c, and Argentine, 10c. Liverpool, Nov. 8.—The market was

A private cable received from London reported sales of Canadian ranch stock at 9c, which figure shows an advance of 1/2c since this day week. Messrs. John Olde & Son, live stock salesmen, of London, England, write, under dates of Oct. 25 and 28, as follows: A slightly better inquiry prevailed today both for cattle and sheep, with, however, but little difference in prices. For sale were: 1,547 States cattle, at 5½d to 5¾d, strong, per lb; 398 Canadian cattle, at 4½d to 5d per lb;

5d; 1,911 South American sheep, at 51/4d per lb.
The trade at Deptford was a little lower today both for cattle and sheep; 937 States beasts made 5¼d to 5½d per lb; 453 Canadian ranch cattle at 4½d to 4%d per lb; 202 South American cattle at 41/2d to 43/4d per lb; 987 South American sheep at 5d per lb.

DISCOVERED FIRE CLAY.

Rich Fine Made by Thos. Whittaker, of London, in the Nipissing

Mr. Thomas Whittaker, of 135 Bathurst street, and a former member of the city police force, has made a discovery that may net him thousands of dollars, and open up a new branch of industry in Canada.

About three and a half years ago Mr. Whittaker took up 200 acres of government lands in the Nipissing. He did some work on it, but found nothing of any special value on the wild lands. He returned to the farm last winter, to view a large amount of pure fire clay. On Mr. Whittaker's property there Onicago, Nov. 10.—12:30 p.m.—Wheat, May. 90jc; Dec., 93jc. Ailsa Craig, Nov. 10 .- News has been personal representative of Wm. Mc-Kenzie, deceased. McKenzie had a ticket from Ailsa Craig to London and return. On the journey — it was a stormy in winter and having left his wife in London, he was anxious to get home to his children-he got off at Lucan crossing, a station without access, except by the track, or across private property. While walking along the track to the highway, a freight train came behind and killed him. The Divisional Court reversed Chief Justice Meredith and held, that, as deceased was lawfully on the track, he was enbell, required by section 256 of the Railway Act, to be sounded 80 rods before a train reaches a crossing. Judgment was entered for plaintiff for $3,-000. The appeal was dismissed with costs.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

Affecting Parties in Caradoc, Goderich and Other Points.

The following, among other cases, were disposed of yesterday at Osgoode Hall, Toronto: Township of Caradoc vs. township of Ekfrid; township of Metcalf vs. township of Ekfrid: Judgment on appeal by plaintiffs in both actions and from report on decision of Mr. Britton, when drainage reference, in favor of defendants, the initiating township, dismissing an appeal from the report of an engineer upon a drainage scheme affecting the three townships. The principal question was as to the construction f section 75 of the act of 1894. The court held that the defendants had jurisdiction to initiate the work. The majority of the court, however, held that the of five other murderers who have been course pointed out by the statute in assentenced to death, but whose execupeal allowed with costs, Burton, J. A., dissenting. Osler, Q.C., and T. G. Mere-(London) for appellants, the

roy) for appellants the township of Metcalfe. M. Wilson, Q. C., and J. B. Rankin (Chatham) for defendants. Johnston vs. Town of Petrolia-Judgment on appeal by defendants the corporation of the town of Petrolla from judgment of Meredith, J., in favor of the plaintiff against appellant, in action to restrain defendants from fouling a stream, called Bear Creek, flowing past plaintiff's farm, and for damages, and on appeal by plaintiff from the same judgment in so far as it dismissed the action against the other two defendants. Both appeals dismissed with costs. Aylesworth, Q. C., for defendants the Town of Petrolia. W. R. Riddell and Weir (Sarnia) for plaintiff. W. Cassels, Q.C., and T. G. Meredith (London) for defendants the Imperial Oil Company. McCarthy, Q.C., and Shau-

Rogers & Co. McMicking vs. Gibbons—Judgment on appeal by plaintiff from judgment of Meredith, C. J., after the trial at Goderich, in so far as it declared that the defendant, James Cunningham, a first mortgagee, was entitled on being redeemed by the plaintiff, a second mortgagee, to the full amount of arrears of interest due, and was not restricted to six years' arrears. The chief justice so decided on the authority of Delaney vs. C. P. R., 21 O. R. 11. Plaintiff contended that this case was not an authority upon the point, or if it was that it was contrary to other authorities, and should be overruled. The court held that the same rule applied in redemption as in foreclosure, and that the arrears were confined to the six years mentioned in the statute. Appeal allowed without costs. Garrow, Q.C., for appellant. Holt (Goderich) for defendant James Cunningham. Holwell vs. Township of Wilmot .-

Judgment on appeal by plaintiff from judgment of Ferguson, J., who tried the action at Stratford, dismissing it with costs. One A. Kaufman, who was the treasurer of the defendant township, being in default for moneys col- girl. lected by him, mortgaged his chattels to one Irwin, and on the 27th of February, 1896, received a check for $3,400 from Irwin's solicitor. The same day or the next morning he indorsed the Commerce at London, who, on the 29th of February placed it to the credit of the "township of Wilmot; A. Kauf-man, treasurer," in the books of the bank. Kaufman was insolvent prior to the 24th of February, 1896, and on the evening of the 28th February he made an assignment to the plaintiff for the general benefit of his creditors under the statute. The plaintiff claimed the check or its proceeds for the benefit of his creditors. It was held below that no right to the money passed to the plaintiff by the assignment, having special regard to the language of sec. 43 of the Postoffice Act, R. S. C., ch. 35, and that there was no preference of the township which could be attacked by the plaintiff. The court held that plaintiff was not entitled to succeed; that the money had gone beyond revocation before assignment. Appeal dismissed with costs. W. Nesbitt for appellant. Aylesworth, Q.C., for defendants.

His Mother Believes in His Innocence -The Supreme Court's Decision Clears the Way for Five

More Executions. San Francisco, Nov. 10 .- The news that the United States Supreme Court had decided not to interfere with the execution of Durrant spread quickly over the city, and crowds of interested people read the announcement eagerly. The decision of the supreme court was not unexpected here. Warden Hale, of San Quentin, who is in Washington, wired the news to Warden Edgar. At 11 o'clock Mr. Edgar had not notified Durrant of his fate, and had not decided when he would do so. The decision of the supreme court has paved the way for the execution tion has been deferred pending the decision of the Durrant case. the are Train Wrecker Worden, Harvey Allender, of San Jose, and E. Banks, of San Diego, who butchered an aged couple. Durrant's parents were notified yesterday morning of the court's decision, and were deeply affected. Mrs. Durrant wept, but said her son was innocent, and that she did not yet give up hope that he would be vindicated and his innocence proved. District Attorney Barnes stated that the only thing the attorneys for Durrant could do now was to appeal from the order of the supreme court, but that he thought they would not try this, as they were sure to fail.

DANCE PARTNER FELL ON HIM

Edward Mackin Fatally Injured Whi Dancing the Waltz.

New York, Nov. 9 .- Edward Mackin. 30 years old, a peddler, of 117 Mott street, owes his death to the fact that he was passionately fond of dancing. Mackin, who at one time kept the news stand in front of the Morton House, went to the Independence Club ball, which was held in Webster Hall on Saturday night, Oct. 30. He danced every number on the programme, and at 1 o'clock in the morning, when the orchestra struck up "The Blue Danube," Mackin singled out a partner who weighed about 190 pounds. After about ten minues of fast waltzing his head grew dizzy, and Mackin fell to the ground, dragging his partner with him. She fell squarely on his abdomen, and Mackin groaned in agony. He was taken home in a passing wagon and was attended by Dr. M. J. Burke, of 164 Hester street. Mackin died yes-Holt | terday afternoon.

By the Murder of U. S. District Attorney Jones.

Shot Dead by a Boy of 16, Who Thought His Father's Life Was Threatened.

Carson, Nevada, Nov. 10 .- The entire state was startled at the murder late yesterday of Charles A. Jones, United States district attorney, by Julian Guinan, the 16-year-old son of a wellknown local physician.

The statement of the youth, who is now in jail, is to the effect that immediately prior to the shooting he had bserved his sister talking to Jones, with whom his father had forbidden association. When he saw Dr. Guinan approaching, believing trouble to be inevitable when the two men should meet, the boy procured a Winchester rifle and stationed himself at a window for the purpose, as he says, of protecting his father. Upon encountering Jones, Dr. Guinan said: "This is the last time I shall ever warn you against keeping company with my daughter." Jones jeered at the doctor in comment upon his warning, and slipped his hand into his right-hand often heard his father threaten to kill Jones, and having been informed that the district attorney always carried a revolver, which he believed from Jones' motion was about to be drawn, the ward dead, the bullet from the rifle having entered above the right eye and passed out of the neck behind. Miss Guinan, seeing Jones fall, threw herself upon him and embraced the dead body.

Phoebe laughed-though in a rather spiritless manner—at her cousin's quai. t imitation of Mr. Slimp's attitude; and then Honore turned the subject delicately from that complaint which Phoebe delighted to outpour.

"Stop a moment, Phoebe. Give me time to get down from the bed, and I'll give you a rare representation or Theo's manners tonight; especially of her reception and her farewell." The ceremony of greeting and speed-

"If you and I were rich," mourned Phoebe, plaintively, "and could dress and talk grandly, they would behave quite differently to us, Honore. They wouldn't invite us to Deergrove just on sufferance, one at a time, as they do now when they have a place vacant, to make us small and patronize us, and pretend they are doing a very noble and compassionate sort of thing to their poor relations.

"That will do, Phoebe. Never mind that old grudge," returned Honor, served Phoebe, shaking up her pillow. brightly. "I never let them treat me like a poor relation, and I can often

"I cannot," sighed Phoebe; "they quench me entirely. I always come home miserable, and wishing I was rich, and beautiful, and admired, that I might pay back Theo for her scornful ways. Honore, do you ever have day dreams about being rich?"

"Often. Such gorgeous dreams they are; and I'm so beautiful in them, and wear such matchless dresses, and have horses, and carriages, and servants, and a magnificent castle of my own, and I feed all the poor, and have all the sick cured, and everybody idolizes me, and I'm presented to the Queen -so," explained Honore, sweeping her muslin skirt along the shabby drugget, in the performance of a wonderful courtesy; "and all the ladies and lords in waiting whisper that there never "Have you not?" asked Honore, always such a gentle, helpful receiver of these lugubrious and spasmodic expressions of Phoebe's anxieties respecting her wardrobe, and the deficiencies therein. "How is that? I thought we should wear the dresses we had for the bazar at Somerson Park.'

"You can; yours looks all right," whined Phoebe; "and of course you will, because everybody said that it suited you; but I cannot. Rev. Dr. Talmage Shows How Impending Dangers May Be Averted.

Washington, Nov. 7 .- Dr. Talmage's text is Psalm 80: 13:-The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

By this homely but expressive figure, David sets forth the bad influences which in olden time broke in upon God's heritage, as with swine's foot trampling, and as with swine's snout uprooting the vineyards of prosperity. What was true then is true now. There have been enough trees of righteousness planted to overshadow the whole earth, had it now been for the axemen who hewed them down. The temple of truth would long ago have been completed, had it not been for the iconoclasts who defaced the walls and battered down the pillars. The whole earth would have been an Eschol of ripened clusters, had it not been that the boar had wasted it and the wild beast of the field had devoured it." propose to point out to you those whom I consider to be the destructive classes of society. First, the public criminals. You ought not to be surprised that these people make up a large proportion of many communities. In 1869, of the 49,000 people who were incarcerated in the prisons of the country, 32,000 were of foreign birth. There are in our cities people whose entire business in life is to commit crime. That is as much their business as jurisprudence or medicine or merchandise is your business. Added to these professional criminals, American and foreign, there are a large class of men who are more or less industrious in crime. Drunkentheft, since it confuses a man's ideas that of the poor German girl, of property, and he gets his hands on things that do not belong to him. Rum is responsible for much of the assault and battery, inspiring men to sudden bravery, which they must demonstrate, In these American cities, whose cry though it be on the face of the next gentleman. You help to pay the board of every criminal, from the sneak-thief who snatches a spool of cotton, up to some man who enacts a "Black Friday." More than that, it touches your heart in the moral depression of the community. You might as well think to stand in a closely confined room where there are 50 people and yet not breathe the vitiated air, as to stand in a community where there are so many of the deprayed without being contaminated. What is the fire that burns your store down compared with the conflagration which consumes your morals? We are all ready to arraign criminals. With great gusto we put on the handcuffs and the hopples; but vagrancy and hunger and nakedness what preparation are we making for that dashes against our front doorstep; the day when the handcuffs and the I wonder if you hear it and see it as hopples come off? Society seems to say much as I hear it and see it! I have to these criminals, "Villain, go in there been almost frenzied with the perpetuand rot," when it ought to say, "You all cry for help from all classes, and are an offender against the law, but from all nations, knocking, knocking, we mean to give you an opportunity ringing, ringing. Aye, we want more than sermons on the Sabbath Society must impress these men with the fact that it does not enjoy their suffering, and that it is attempting to reform and elevate them. I have no sympathy with the executive clemency which would let crime run loose, or which would sit in the gallery of a court room weeping because some hardened wretch is brought to justice; but I do say that the safety and life of the community demand more potential influences in behalf of these offenders. Many of the jails are the best place I know of to manufacture footpads. vagabonds and cut-throats. In this class of uprooting and devouring population are untrustworthy "Woe unto thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes drink in the morning!" It is a great calamity to a city when bad men get into public authority. Why was it that in New York there was such unparalleled crime between 1866 and 1871? It was because the judges of police in that city, for the most part, were as corrupt as the vagabonds that came before them for trial. These were the days of high carnival for election frauds, assassination and forgery. We had the "Whisky ring," and the "Tammany Ring," and the "Erie Ring." There was one man during those years that got $128,000 in one year for serving the public. In a few years it was estimated that there were fifty millions of public treasure squandered. In those times the crminal had only to wink to the judge, or his lawyer would wink for him, and the question was decided for the defendant. You know on vice, and saying to the young criminals of this country: "What a safe thee thing it is to be a great criminal." Let tears. the law swoop upon them! Too great leniency to criminals is too great severity to society.

Among the uprooting and devouring classes in our midst are the idle. Of course, I do not refer to the people who are getting old, or to the sick, or to those who cannot get work; but I tell you to look out for those athletic men and women who will not work. When the French nobleman was asked why he kept busy when he had so large a property, he said: "I keep on engraving so I may not hang my-I do not care who the man is he cannot afford to be idle. They are a very dangerous class. Let the public authorities keep their eyes on them. Among the uprooting classes I place the oppressed poor. Poverty to a certain extent is chastening; but after that, when it drives a man to the wall, and he hears his children cry in vain for bread, it sometimes makes him desperate. These places are the sores of the city, which bleed perpetual corruption. They are the underlying volcano that threatens us with a Caraccas earthquake. And there are only two outlets-the police court and the Potter's Field. In other words, they must either go to prison or to hell. There is another layer of poverty and destitution, not so squalid, but almost as helpless. You hear their incessant wailing for bread and clothes and fire. Their eyes are supken. Their cheekbones stand out. Their hands are damp with slow consumption. Their flesh is puffed up with dropsies. Their breath is like that of a charnel-house.
