LONDON, THURSDAY, JULY 27.

MR. PERLEY'S PREDICAMENT.

As one of the evidences that Canada will prosper by reciprocity, Hon. Mr. Pugsley mentioned the other night that the Riddon Paper Company would make $90,000 a year more. Of this company Mr. Perley, the Opposition whip, is vice-president. He professed great indignation that the report of a letter from the company to the Minister of Finance had been thus revealed, and stung by the laughter of the Liberal members at the incongruity between the business support of his company to the pact and his own antagonism to it as a party man, he charged Mr. Pugsley with being unable to understand any principle above the promptings of his pocket. But Mr. Perley should reflect that in this reciprocity question the gain of any one man or company is an element of the situation.

And Mr. Perley or his company does not stand alone. Mr. Flavell, as president of the Davies Packing Company, has been depicting the future of that concern in the rosiest hues, while as a politician he has prophesied blue ruin. It is the same thing with Mr. Foster and Mr. German. As directors of a great Ontario fruit company, they have been advertising in Great Britain its unrivalled prospects, while as politicians at Ottawa they warring their hands over its impending destruction by the reciprocity pact. Not long ago Hon. Mr. Hanna spoke at Sarnia on the great developments bound to come in the canning industry, without considering for a moment the setback which as a politician he professes to fear, should the agreement become law.

Rumors of war send even British consuls down to low record marks these days, but do rumors of reciprocity affect adversely the subscriptions to Canadian stocks and allotments, the prospectuses of Messrs. Foster, Flavell, etc., or the price of C. P. R.? Quite the contrary, all goes well in our stock markets, and as business men our anti-reciprocity politicians are all looking for increasing profits. Mr. Perley as a politician rather sinks below than rises above his pocket. Through each business unit seek gain ahead, he has a strange nightmare that the sum of these units, the country's business at large, is going to suffer loss. Would any one put such an arithmetician into power?

THE HALSBURY DINNER.

The Halsbury dinner was perhaps robbed of some eclat by the publication of Mr. Balfour's letter, declaring his intention to stand or fall by Lord Lansdowne in the policy of moderation. The no-surrender men showed themselves anxious at any rate not to break through each business unit seek gain ahead, he has a strange nightmare that the sum of these units, the country's business at large, is going to suffer loss. Would any one put such an arithmetician into power?

It is curious that the hie-bound patriots find themselves allied with the tariff reform leaders of the House of Commons. The backwoodsmen look to the Brummagem men for support and comfort. Messrs. Austin Chamberlain and F. E. Smith, who have premisses aspirations and chafe under the warring guidance of Mr. Balfour, find an outlet for their energies in patronizing the revolt of the extremist lords. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the high priest or saint of the tariff reform cult, sent his blessing to the banquet. For a time Joseph did represent his people in Pharaoh's court, but he has gone over to the Egyptians altogether since his final retreat to the shrine at Birmingham.

Goldwin Smith once spoke, with a reference to Disraeli, of "the stupid party" that has always welcomed as its leader "an adventurer with brains." The dictum is amply illustrated in Great Britain today. Not only do the last-ditchers throng with a touching confidence to Messrs. Chamberlain and Smith for encouragement, but among themselves they put the plebeian Earl of Halsbury upon the pedestal of honor.

Hardinge Stanley Giffard, who was born in 1825 in the old corn-law days, is the son of a once well-known newspaper man. He worked his way to the bar in 1850, and to an Oxford degree in 1855 at the mature age of 30. He rose to be solicitor-general in 1875-1880, and from 1877 to 1885 was a member of the House of Commons. In 1885 he was created Baron Halsbury, and in 1898 Earl of Halsbury. From 1895 to 1896 he was Lord Chancellor. Such, in brief, is the career of the man whom the insurgents follow as their condottiero. The man from the ranks commonly is the greatest stickler for privilege once he has attained to it, and the hereditarians make use of his superstitious brains and energy.

However, it is not even a forlorn hope which Halsbury leads and out of which Messrs. Austin Chamberlain and F. E. Smith seek to make capital. The insurgent movement is simply a spectacular assertion of principle to no purpose and also at no sacrifice to the assertors. As the Times editorially remind them, they have no power of any kind except the power to damage if not to break the party to which they belong.

Whether they will yet largely back down is a question. The Government seeks guarantees from Lord Lansdowne that the veto bill will be passed, intending, if they are not forth-coming, to forestall a defeat and a coming to an immediate creation of peers sufficient in number to beat the extremists no matter what they do.

WHY NOT REDRESS THE BALANCE?

There is an American cry also of "let well enough alone." In regard to American-Canadian trade, the American exports to Canada are nearly treble the imports, and both keep growing. In the American fiscal year ending June 30 last, United States sales to Canada were $270,000,000, and Canadian sales to the United States $100,000,000, according to American official returns. Why then conclude an arrangement which would disturb things and especially this American preponderance? In answer the New York Sun says:

"This view is narrow and indefensible. The currents of commerce have been checked by obstacles for whose removal Congress has now done what it can. If the Canadians agree to the removal of those impediments, as in all probability they will, the natural forces of trade will come into operation as they have not hitherto. It is particularly to be hoped that with freer play of these forces the controversy now in the mind of merchandise will be considerably enlarged."

Of course, as the Sun says, this increase of Canadian exports southward is just what frightens the American enemies of the pact, who will now be intriguing and lobbying in Canada. But it ought to induce every Canadian to induce every Canadian to support reciprocity. We need the great United States market to bring about a more even balance of trade. The Sun observes that the whole surplus products of Canadian farms and waters, valued at about $150,000,000, would not be enough to feed those who are yearly added to the American population so much for the capacity of the American market. Access to it will develop this country at a rate never yet dreamed of.

The Sun thinks that the increase of Canadian exports to the United States will continue the increase of our imports from the United States. "The United States can increase its purchases from Canada by $50,000,000 with material nations here, and to its industries, and interests, and by such increase so add to the purchasing power of the Canadians that they will be able to buy from an economic standpoint the Canadian opposition to the agreement is as short-sighted as the opposition on this side of the line."

"The issue of an election, says the Sun, 'will probably end in Canadian approval of the agreement. Meanwhile we shall continue to sell the Canadians some $25,000,000 worth of merchandise every month and buy from them about $10,000,000 worth. Is it for the Canadians to decide whether these purchases shall be appreciably increased?'"

Why not call it the Disunionist party? Outside of Toronto, who can name half a dozen prominent Liberals opposed to reciprocity?

The international trust has become familiar, but the international lobbyist is quite a new development.

General Garcia promises grape fruit at five cents apiece under reciprocity with Cuba. Hurrah for reciprocity with Cuba!

Mr. Monk assails Sir Wilfrid in the House for "lending himself to the development of closer imperial ties." Jingo jingo please copy.

"Let Laurier finish his work," and then follow the hearse with the "white plume" to a cemetery of national obscurity. Stratford Herald.

The Toronto News calls the rowdiness in the British House of Commons "determined firmness." The News has lately become unique in its subject lunacy.

Pte. Clifford deserves the honor in store for him. It is not necessary to know the winner of the King's prize at Biele to know that he has taken care of himself. A steady nerve and unsteady habits do not go together.

Mr. Bristol, M. P., Toronto, says reciprocity is not the policy of decent Liberals. Perhaps Mr. Bristol thinks the only decent Liberals are the eighteen Toronto plutocrats who signed the anti-reciprocity manifesto.

The Winnipeg Telegram, the Conservative organ there, sees in reciprocity merely a dodge to head off the agitation for lower duties on manufactured goods. The eastern opponents of the pact say it is the first step toward handing the Canadian market over to the United States manufacturers. Even the falsehood behind the opposition to the pact is two-faced.

A QUERY FOR MR. SIFTON.

(Hamilton Times.)
Mr. Clifford Sifton has just come back from England, and Sifton might inform the country why he permitted the use of his frank for mailing, at the cost of the country, the reciprocity literature of the Canadian National League in his absence, thus enabling it to cheat the postoffice.

CANADIAN AVIATOR BREAKS THE RECORD

Johnstone Remains in the Air for Space of Four Hours.

[Canadian Press.]
Minneapolis, N. Y., July 27.—St. Croix Johnstone, the Canadian aviator, broke the American endurance record for monoplane and biplane today when he remained in the air for four hours and 15 minutes, during the aviation course of about five miles 29 times. He was compelled to alight before his fifty gallons of gasoline were consumed because of engine trouble.

The previous American record, made at San Francisco on Jan. 10 last, was made by Barnhart, his record being 3 hours 29 minutes 49 seconds. Counting gasoline, oil and accessories with his own weight, Johnstone carried about 600 pounds of weight in his flight, which was made at a rate close to sixty miles an hour, and about 200 feet above the ground in a gentle breeze.

Johnstone now resides in Chicago.

WOMAN'S SHOT TRAPS
BLACK HAND AGENT

Mrs. Sottosanto Prepared for Visitor
Who Had Hounded Husband.

New York, July 27.—An unidentified woman, believed to be an agent of the Black Hand, was shot and seriously wounded by Mrs. Sottosanto, 2215 Westworth avenue, early last evening.

The man, whose identity has been carefully concealed, had written repeatedly to Sottosanto demanding various sums of money in the name of the Black Hand. Monday night he visited Sottosanto and made personal demand for more money, warning his intended victim that death would surely follow a refusal.

Sottosanto, who keeps a saloon, was out when the fellow returned last evening. Mrs. Sottosanto, with the bartender, were alone in the saloon. The man demanded money and was handed a considerable sum by the bartender.

He then turned and beat a hasty retreat, followed by Mrs. Sottosanto. Once outside, the man turned and started south on Westworth avenue at a rapid pace. Mrs. Sottosanto pursued him, firing as she ran.

The police of the Twenty-second street station found the man shortly afterward within a few rods of the saloon. He was taken to the hospital, where it is believed he may die.

The Sottosanto saloon has for months been a target of particular delight to the agents of the Black Hand. Letter after letter has been received by the saloon-keeper, who has kept his business close to himself, refusing to turn the evidence over to the police.

Failure to pay the sums demanded has led to violence, with the result that within the past three months the saloon has been partially wrecked on two occasions.

GERMANY FINANCING
HAYTIAN REVOLUTION
Washington Fears Serious Complication, Cruiser Sent on Cruiser from Berlin.

Washington, July 26.—Serious complications with Germany are threatened as the result of the revolution in Haiti. A special cabinet meeting may be called to consider the question, not only of the revolution, but of the state department to-day that German bankers are financing the revolution, but it was also said that the state department had information that the German government itself had a committee to consider several years ago to the revolution in Haiti. The committee was to consider the possibility of certain privileges, including a tax exclusive use of the Haitian coast, and to allow no commercial interference with German trade. The committee was to consider the possibility of certain privileges, including a tax exclusive use of the Haitian coast, and to allow no commercial interference with German trade.

In line with this move is the action of the German bankers, who are said to be turning money for the revolution with the understanding that German commercial interests in Haiti will be protected and that they will have a monopoly in the island republic to the exclusion of Americans.

On top of this, the German government has an official Berlin cable that the German cruiser Bremen, now at Montreal, has been ordered to proceed to Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

The story of the alleged agreement between Germany and Haiti has come to the attention of officials here. It dates from 1914, when Gen. Lescotte, minister of finance and a candidate to succeed President Simon, his provisions have been strikingly important in the light of present events, that they can be effected with relative pending investigation.

That German capitalists have long been eyeing everything in their power to increase German prestige to the detriment of their American and French rivals in the island republic is well known.

ANOTHER "NEAR-FIGHT" IN BRITISH HOUSE

O'Brien and Lundon Nearly
Come to Blows Following Heated Exchange.

[Canadian Press.]
London, July 27.—There was a lively interlude in the Nationalist benches in the House of Commons this afternoon in the form of an exchange of compliments which, had it occurred anywhere else, certainly would have led to a personal encounter.

William O'Brien, leader of the Independent Nationalists, complained to the speaker that he had been insulted by questions put by Thomas Lundon, Nationalist for the East Division of Limerick, who asserted that O'Brien was the descendant of the most blackguardly informer that ever appeared in Ireland.

When Lundon refused to retract the statement, O'Brien shouted: "You are an infamous liar and a scoundrel. Lundon made a dive for the Independent leader, but the speaker seized his coat and the incident was closed. It indicated, however, how baseless are all reports of a truce between the Nationalist factions."

FULLER PLEADS GUILTY TO TWO THEFT CHARGES

Boy of 17 Gives In and Admits His Guilt at Police Court.

Frank Fuller, alias Henry Doyle, alias Fred Fuller, the 17-year-old Irish boy who last week denied absolutely that he knew anything whatever about the theft of two bicycles that it was proven he had sold and swore to all sorts of statements in the box today admitted that the whole story he had told was a fabrication, and that he stole both wheels.

Several days ago the magistrate had Inspector Sanders write to the headquarters of the Barnardo Home in Toronto, and a letter from them received today gave full particulars regarding Fuller. He admitted that all the facts were correct. The letter stated that the boy was brought to England in 1915, was 5 years old, and sent out to Canada in April, 1915.

After working on a farm in Muskoka for a couple of years, he was recalled and sent with a Mr. Best in Oxford County. From there he disappeared about a year ago, and no trace of him was found until he turned up here.

"I was prepared to sentence you today for stealing," said the court, "but we may be able to put you on your feet again by sending you with the home people instead of to prison. We will write to the superintendent and he will come up on Monday, and we will then discuss what we will do with you. I will remand you until then."

Montreal, July 26.—Montreal is suffering from a plague of rats, and the trouble has become so serious that the municipal authorities have been asked to take a hand.

The trouble is felt especially by owners of warehouses along the harbor front, who claim that a constant stream of rodents is coming from the sewers and from the vessels in port, causing them heavy losses.

DEMAND FOR BUTTER AND EGGS IS STRONG

Hay Is Somewhat Lower in Price
—The Fruit Market Was Small Today.

The mid-week market today was fairly active. The demand for butter and eggs continued unabated. Good butter sold this morning at high as 27 cents per pound. Eggs are selling at 22 cents per dozen. Spring chickens sell at from 90 cents to $1.75 per pair. Old fowls bring 9 cents per pound, live weight, and 10 cents per pound dressed. Spring chickens are worth 10 cents per pound.

Hay is somewhat lower on the local market. Only a few loads were sold today, but owing to an over-supply yesterday, the price fell as low as $11.50 per ton. Some sold as high as $14 per ton, however. The market for fruit was small today.

The fruit market this morning was small. A few cherries sold at $1.50 per basket. Miniature baskets of peaches brought 20 cents each. Black currants sold at 15 cents per bushel. Apples are lower in price, and now sell at from $8 to $9 per cwt. Dressed hogs have climbed up to 10 to 12 cents per cwt.

BOYS MAKING TROUBLE FOR THEIR PARENTS

Lads Insist on Sleeping Out at Nights, and Police Are Notified.

The police state that they are in receipt of numerous complaints in the last few days from parents who state that their boys will not come home at night, but are staying out and getting their food by stealing it and living as vagabonds. The police are charged with the duty of finding the boys and bringing them home. It is likely that some of the boys may be arrested shortly and charged with vagrancy if they do not mend their ways.

SPEND $500,000 ON
AUTO FIRE APPARATUS

New York to Take the Horses Off Pay Roll.
New York, July 26.—The New York fire department will spend half a million dollars during the next twelve months in "automobile" equipment. As a first step in the replacing of the horse-drawn apparatus with motor-driven equipment, an order will be placed for about 150 horseless, hook and ladder outfits and fire engines.

A year has been spent in testing ten automobile trucks purchased for experimental purposes. The tests are declared to demonstrate fully the superiority of the proposed service. The cars have been driven at high speed through hilly roads in which horses could make little headway, and through snow three feet deep. The commissioner holds also that the removal of the restriction of apparatus to a tonnage that three horses can draw is bound to work out in favor of lighter power throughout.

If the 150 pieces of apparatus soon to be purchased prove satisfactory, the horse-drawn fire engine or hose wagon will be banished from New York streets within a year or two. The 150 automobiles to be purchased will include 20 engines, 60 hose-cars and 70 hook-and-ladder outfits.

Right in your busiest season, when you have the least time to spare, you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by all dealers.

THE man who carries a HOWARD Watch finds himself in good company.

Leaders in American affairs since Lincoln's young manhood have relied on the HOWARD. "Howard Time" has been a determining factor in every phase of the nation's advance.

The first HOWARD was also the first American watch. It was made in 1842 and the finest models cost $500. To-day the price is lower—and the watch is better.

Every HOWARD is made and adjusted at a fine watch. Cased and timed in its own case at the factory and a printed price ticket attached. Price $4.95 to $10.00.

When you need a good watch, step into either store and talk with our watch-makers. What they say is reliable.

THE COCAINE HABIT

Use of the Drug on the Increase at Montreal. Montreal, July 26.—The feature of the annual report of the superintendent of police for the year 1910, which has just been made public, is the letter dealing with the increasing use of cocaine in Montreal. The commissioner says in part: "In submitting the annual report of the operations of the police department for the year 1910, I have to draw attention to the increasing use of cocaine which is spreading amongst the younger element of the city especially."

"Since July last the police of Montreal have made over 150 arrests on charges of using and selling the drug. This number is alarming, and the attention of the authorities is drawn to this fact particularly."

Offences are reported to be more than alarmingly numerous, and this is due to the facility with which one can procure the poison, and the brazenness of those who sell this pernicious product."

Dr. Louis Wood, Just Realizes British Street Will Be War and G

Lately arrived from Germany, Louis Wood, of Central Ave., asked by The Advertiser to discuss the situation in Morocco.

Dr. Wood manifested considerable interest in the situation, and said that affairs have so rudely taken a threatening turn.

"When I left Hamburg a month ago, there wasn't a cloud on the horizon, but now it's a different story. The iron-clad weapons of which Germany has been equipped for years or so are evidence of the way to trouble."

"Germany knows that she is in a dangerous position in European politics, and she is utilizing her position to her advantage. I am confident that when she realizes the situation, she will seek some settlement of the affair."

The feeling in Germany regarding a war? was asked. "That is somewhat hard to say," Dr. Wood replied. "The military situation in Germany has so many prerogatives that the man giving little of what is going on, however, being handed out that people must soon engage in a war to plant the Black Eagle in the lions."

Against this manifest aim of the bureaucracy there are opposing influences. On the one hand, there is the rise of the democratic politics, which shows the increasing power of the Reichstag. On the other hand, there is money. German commerce is wonderful strides, but the army.

RICHMOND ST. UP DURING

London Street Railway Time the Form

The London Street Railway is a source of discussion at the Board of Works, and the session was no exception to the rule. The trouble was about the street section. For some time the company has been engaged on the track up, but the rate of work has been very slow.

City Engineer Wright reported the work would not be completed for the Old Boys, and arrangements should be made for a temporary repair.

"Mr. King assured me that the work would be completed by the end of the month," he said.
