BRITISH CORNERING THE TURKS IN MESOPOTAMIA

LAST WEEK WORST FOR GERMAN ARMS SINCE WAR BEGAN

Terrific Whipping by French Likely To Be Repeated During Next Seven Days—Two Battles Now Raging.

NIVELLE'S BAG FOR WEEK.

Prisoners	20,000
Guns	100
Villages Taken	20
Ground Won Back	50 Square Miles
Foe's Casualties	100,000

Paris, April 23.—Germany has just gone through the most disastrous week for her in the history of the war.

The French army staff says that the coming seven days are likely to unfold more clearly the nature of the Franco-British offensive. The fighting which is now in progress is of tremendous vital importance.

FRANCE'S BIG SCOOP.

Since Monday a week ago, when the great French offensive began, Gen. Nivelle's forces have accomplished this:

Capture of more than one hundred guns from the Germans.

Taking of twenty thousand German prisoners.

Occupations of twenty large villages—not including hamlets.

Retaking of about fifty square miles of French territory.

Inflicted losses in killed, wounded and missing on the Germans conservatively estimated at one hundred thousand.

Two Battles Raging.

Two great battles were raging today. One is along the Chemin-des-Dames—"The Ladies' Robe"—dominating Loan and the plateau; the other around Moronvillers Heights, dominating the northern Champagne plains.

The fighting, which was in progress today, supersedes in importance any actions on the entire western front. At any moment newer and more important situation may be created.

BALFOUR HOLDS LONG TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT

British Commissioner Cheered As He Goes To White House.

CONFERS NEARLY HOUR

Army and Navy Heads Gather in the Departmental Offices.

Washington, April 23.—Soon after 10:30 o'clock this morning Mr. Balfour accompanied by the British ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring Rice, paid a formal call on Secretary Lansing.

The British ambassador and Hugh L. Gibson of the state department, who has been detailed as Mr. Balfour's aide, remained with Secretary of State Lansing and the British foreign minister only a short time and then withdrew, leaving the two high officials together. Mr. Balfour and Secretary Lansing left the building to cross over to the White House, where the British foreign minister was received by President Wilson.

Balfour Cheered.

As Mr. Balfour left the state department building several hundred employees crowding the stairways and corridors, applauded and cheered loudly Mr. Balfour acknowledged the greetings by bowing and smiling.

Surrounded by a small escort, the British foreign minister and the secretary of state crossed the avenue which separates the state department building from the White House, where President Wilson was waiting.

Naval Officers Meet.

While Mr. Balfour and Mr. Lansing were at the White House the naval officers of the British party, headed by Admiral de Chair, began arriving to call on Secretary Daniels. They were accompanied by Rear Admiral Fletcher and other officers assigned to the party.

The army officers of the British mission at the same time, were arriving at the war department to be received by Secretary of War Baker. General Bridges, accompanied by his aides, were escorted first to the office of Major General Scott, chief of staff, where they were received by a large party of American officers. The British officers were in field uniforms of khaki while the American officers were in the full dress uniforms of blue.

A Long Reception.

The president's reception of Mr. Balfour was quite extraordinary. It lasted three-quarters of an hour, and while surrounded by all the formality which might be expected at such an occasion, the president and the British minister talked freely, and at length. Mr. Balfour then left the White House and accompanied by Secretary Lansing drove to the capital to be presented to Vice-President Marshall.

German Destroyers Sunk By British Of Newest Build

Amsterdam, via London, April 24.—The Maandag Ochtensblad learns that both of the German destroyers which were sunk in the battle off Dover sailed from Zeebrugge and were of the newest type, with four funnels apiece. Two other destroyers were heavily damaged and numerous wounded sailors were brought to Bruges on Saturday.

A squadron of eight vessels is said to have left Zeebrugge about 7 o'clock on Friday night. The greatest activity was apparent along the Belgian base yesterday and today, searchlights were being worked vigorously and rockets were going up at frequent intervals.

CHINESE SENTIMENT IS STRONG FOR WAR; INDIGNANT WITH FOE

Chinese Students Being Detained by Germany.

Pekin, April 23.—The war sentiment in China is increasing daily. The Chinese are incensed over the action of Germany in detaining the Chinese minister in Berlin pending the safe arrival of von Rintze, German minister to Pekin. There is also great indignation over the detention of Chinese students in Berlin and Munich.

The military governors will hold their first war conference in Pekin on April 25. The majority of the governors and parliament favor war, but they differ over the attitude China should adopt toward the Entente. The indications are that China will declare war independently.

The Chinese newspapers reproduce a Washington dispatch from Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Chinese minister to the United States, in which he urges China to declare war by itself and not in partnership with the Entente. Dr. Koo argues that China's position would be stronger if it acted independently, and that it could co-operate freely with the Allies and the United States.

WORKMEN AND SOLDIERS DENY CONFLICTING WITH NEW RUSS GOVERNMENT

Petrograd, Via London, April 24.—M. Tcheidse, president of the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates, protested in a speech yesterday against the suggestion that the council was establishing an authority in conflict with that of the provisional government. He said that it was simply a case of a check on the policy of the Government, similar to that of an opposition party, always necessary under a democratic constitution. His remarks were greeted with tumultuous applause.

TAG DAY TOTAL $1,143 FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Minstrel Show Tonight Will Add Substantial Amount.

The splendid total of $1,143 was reached for the Ypres Tag Day on Saturday, this amount to be divided equally between the Returned Soldiers' Association and the C. E. F. Chapter, I. O. D. E.

Considering that the number of workers was not large, and the rain interfered in the afternoon, Saturday's tag day is considered one of the most successful that has been held in London. The executives of both the Returned Soldiers' Association and C. E. F. Chapter express themselves as delighted and most grateful to the public for the generous response.

With the proceeds of the minstrel show tonight, it is expected that a substantial amount will be added to the treasury of each organization for the carrying on of work for the assistance of returned soldiers and of the families of men who are overseas or have given their lives for the Empire.

DECIDE AGAINST S. P.

Washington, April 23.—The supreme court today decided in favor of the Government in its suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad to regain nearly 2,900,000 acres of Oregon and Washington land worth $80,000,000.

LT.-COL. LEONARD STRUCK DOWN WHILE PREPARING TO MOVE GUNS FORWARD AFTER ATTACK ON VIMY

Lieut.-Col. Woodman Leonard, brigadier of artillery, was wounded while reconnoitering a forward position for his brigade, after the first attack on Vimy ridge by the Canadians. He did not suffer before his death. This is the substance of a cablegram just received by F. E. Leonard, from Lieut.-Col. Ibbotson Leonard of the Mounted Rifles.

It is evident that the brigade of which Col. Wood Leonard was commander had done its part in the assault at Vimy, and that the guns had to be moved up. It was while selecting the place from which the forward fire would be directed that the gallant London officer received his death wound.

Col. Ibbotson Leonard's cable read as follows:

"Wood was reconnoitering forward position for his brigade after first attack on Vimy ridge. All possible was done for him, and am sure he did not suffer."

HEAVY FIGHTING ON FRENCH LINE; BATTERIES BALK GERMAN ATTACKS

Paris, April 23.—Artillery fighting continues along the front of the French offensive, the war office announces. East of Craonne, the Germans, after a fierce bombardment, grouped detachments for an attack. The French guns replied effectively and prevented an attack.

Batteries Prevent Attack.

The statement follows:

"There was very active artillery fighting last night south of St. Quentin and between Scissons and Rheims. East of Craonne a very violent German bombardment was followed by preparations to attack. Our batteries replied effectively and the enemy was not able to launch the attack.

"In the Champagne the Germans at 6 o'clock yesterday evening directed a strong attack against the salient northeast of Mont Saut. It was broken by our artillery and machine gun fire. The enemy renewed his efforts during the night on the ridges which we hold before Moronvilliers. The fighting was very spirited at some points, resulting everywhere to our advantage.

"East of St. Mihiel and in the Woevre we repulsed two surprise attacks made by strong enemy detachments, one in the Ailly wood, the other against the Calonne trench. In the Vosges an enemy attack south of the St. Marie Pass was without success."

GERMANS TRYING TO CUT OFF PETROGRAD

London, April 3.—German transports have left Libau, on the Baltic, south of the Gulf of Riga, for an unknown destination, according to a Central News dispatch from Petrograd today.

A dispatch from Petrograd on Thursday said there were well-founded reports that the Germans were preparing to attack the northern front, massing troops along the Dvinsk-Riga line and concentrating transports and warships in the Baltic Sea ports. A portion of the German fleet was reported to have been sent from Kiel to Libau. The Petrograd dispatch said it was regarded as probable that the plan was to make a descent in the rear of the Russian northern flank, somewhere on the Gulf of Finland, and to cut off Petrograd.

"O CANADA" WON.

Ottawa, April 23.—The Ottawa Women's Canadian Club, which has been undergoing severe internal dissensions regarding whether "O Canada" should be sung at meetings of the club in addition to the National Anthem, had a stormy session Saturday, at which those who opposed the singing of "O Canada" won out by eleven votes.

U. S. Notified That Turkey Has Broken Off All Relations

American Minister To Swiss Sends Word To Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 23.—Official notification of the Turkish Government breaking off diplomatic relations with the United States was received today by the state department in a dispatch from American Minister Stowall at Berne, Switzerland.

KAISER'S CAPITAL FAVORED IN FOOD DISTRIBUTION

Copenhagen, via London, April 23.—While Berlin has been able to furnish increased rations of potatoes and meat to compensate for the reduction in the bread ration, as had been promised by the Government and insisted upon by the striking workmen, other cities are less fortunate. The Hamburg newspapers as an example, announce the rationing for this week on a scale of 1,380 grammes of bread, approximately 3¼ pounds, as contrasted with 1,600 grammes in Berlin, and only 3½ pounds of potatoes instead of the promised 5 pounds. An allowance of butter and margarine will be available only in the middle of the week.

REVENTLOW STILL RAGES

Objects to Germany "Building Hopes on the United States."

Amsterdam, via London, April 23.—Count von Reventlow returns in the Tages Zeitung to his attack on the German official statement that there are no German submarines in the West Atlantic. He says:

"It would seem that Germany is again building hopes on the United States. Two well-known American newspapers are said to have free access to the foreign office. Which enemy power is to be approached next?"

The Koelnisch Volks Zeitung also disapproves of the assurance that no submarines have been sent to American waters. It says: "We can understand why for the present, we refrain from attempting to blockade American ports. Our submarines would be too far from home and we have better use for them elsewhere. But surely we have the right to open hostilities and we do not see any reason why we should not. Anyhow the announcement was not a diplomatic masterpiece."

BRITISH LAUNCH FRESH PHASE OF OFFENSIVE ALONG SCARPE, CAPTURING TOWNS AND TEUTONS

Haig at Dawn Pushes Up Both Sides of the Scarpe, Carrying Several Enemy Positions and Taking Thousand Prisoners.

LAST WORKS OF HINDENBURG LINE NORTH OF THE SCARPE HAS FALLEN

British Headquarters in France, April 23.—More than 1,000 prisoners have been taken today.

ATTACK ALONG THE SCARPE

London, April 23.—The British have opened an attack on a wide front in the regoin of the Scarpe River. The official statement issued today says the battle is proceeding, and that satisfactory progress is being made.

The British completed the conquest of the village of Trescault and gained the greater part of Havrincourt wood. The announcement follows:

"We attacked at dawn this morning on a wide front on both banks of the River Scarpe. Fighting is proceeding, and our troops are making satisfactory progress.

"South of the Bapaume-Cambrai road we captured the remainder of the village of Trescault during the night, and gained possession of the greater part of Havrincourt wood."

A LAST DEFENSE FALLS

British Headquarters in France, April 23.—(From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.)—In their new offensive the British have captured the town of Gavrelle, the last part of the defences of the Hindenburg line north of the Scarpe. They have also taken the village of Guemappe, south of the Scarpe.

AFTER WEEK'S INTERLUDE

London, April 23.—After a week's interlude, during which they had been busy consolidating the gains of the first week's offensive and bringing up their guns, the British at dawn this morning began another phase of the operations against the formidable German defences on the front in Northern France. Gen. Sir Douglas Haig reports that the forces under his command attacked on a wide front on both sides of the River Scarpe, where a portion of the Hindenburg line forms a barrier defending Cambrai, and that they are making satisfactory progress.

CLOSE TO HIGHWAY.

Further south British troops have captured the remainder of the village of Trescault, and occupied the greater part of Havrincourt wood, which formed a two-mile bulge in their line. From this point to St. Quentin the line approaches very closely the Cambrai-St. Quentin road and Canal.

The correspondents at the front had prepared the public for the renewal of the more active operations, which have entered a new phase with each succeeding Monday. The British began their great offensive on Monday, a forte night ago, and the French followed this with their stroke along the Aisne a week ago. The third Monday finds the British again on the move.

A success along the Scarpe not only would threaten the new German line, but would further outflank Lens on the south.

RED CROSS PROTESTS OVER HUN SAVAGERY

Geneva, Switzerland, Via Paris, April 23.—The international committee of the Red Cross has sent an energetic protest to the German Governmnnt against the torpedoing of English hospital ships, specifically against the sinking of the Asturias. The committee declares that it agrees to Germany's right to halt and investigate ships that may appear suspicious, but it denies that a ship may be destroyed under any circumstances without warning.

TURKS FALL BACK BEFORE PRESSURE OF THE BRITISH

Driven From Position On Right Bank of the Tigris.

GETTING CLOSE TO SAMARA

Prisoners and Big Howitzer Are Taken in Latest Success of General Maude.

London, April 23.—The Turks in Mesopotamia have evacuated the Iztabilat position, on the right bank of the Tigris, ten miles below Samara, the war office announces. They are now being attacked at a point six miles nearer Samara.

The announcement follows:

"During Saturday night, the enemy evacuated the remainder of the Iztabilat position, portions of which we had stormed and consolidated on the previous day. At daybreak Sunday our troops pressed on in pursuit, capturing some prisoners and one 5.9 howitzer.

"The enemy was found occupying another position on the right bank of the Tigris about six miles further toward Samara, and at 7 o'clock on the evening of Sunday, when Gen. Maude's telegram was dispatched, this position was being attacked.

"As a result of an air fight on Sunday, a new Halberstadt airplane was brought down. The pilot, who was the enemy's flying corps commander, was killed. The machine fell into our hands."

FIERCE FIGHTING IN SZE CHUEN STREETS BY RIVAL ARMIES

Battle Rages for Two Days and Night.

FOREIGNERS ARE SAFE

British, French and Japanese Consuls Arrange An Armistice.

Cheng Tu, China, April 3.—Fierce fighting has broken out in the streets here between the Sze Chuen and Yunnan troops. The outbreak is the climax to the friction between the two parties which has steadily increased since the Yunnanese forces entered Cheng Tu last April. The direct cause of the explosion was the attempt of the military governor of Sze Chuen, who is a Yunnanese to disband the provincial troops, and strengthen his grip on the province.

The fighting started on Wednesday night, and continued all next day and night. Many houses were burned and trenches and barricades were constructed by both parties. The British, French and Japanese consuls, at much personal risk, have succeeded in arranging an armistice, but the situation is still critical. All foreigners are safe so far.

Cheng Tu is the capital of the province of Sze Chuen. It has a population estimated at 800,000, and it is the seat of eight American and British missions.

APPOINTED TO TOKIO.

Rome, Sunday, April 22—Via Paris, April 23.—Marquis Cusani Confalloneri, former Italian ambassador to the United States, has been appointed ambassador to Italy at Tokio. He will take up his new post shortly, passing through the United States on his way to Japan.

THE WAR SITUATION

British Headquarters in France, April 3—Via London.—The lull in the past week on the British front was broken today by attacks which spread along a wide front. The fighting was particularly severe on both banks of the Scarpe, where the British pushed forward in their initial successes and won the Battle of Arras.

It is only possible at the time of writing to give very indefinite news, but the first reports coming back indicate the capture of Gavrelle, north of the Scarpe, and Guemappe, to the south of that stream.

One Thousand Prisoners Taken.

A big push also was made opposite Croisilles, and from that sector of the front alone comes the report that more than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

Gavrelle is a part of the last definite defence the Germans have before falling back on what is known as the Drocourt-Queant switch to the Hindenburg line.

The British also made progress in the region southwest of Lens, the German garrison of which town daily is facing a more critical situation.

Going Is Good.

The fighting today was under fine weather and a chill northeast wind. The latter, however, dried the ground, and gave the attacking troops the best going they had enjoyed this year. The bombardment of the new German positions which had been going on steadily for two days increased in intensity last night, when the skies were lighted by the continuous flashes of the guns.

Planes Fill Air.

Air planes fairly filled the air over the battle lines today, directing the artillery and co-operating with the infantry. Yesterday, British aviators brought down six German observation balloons.

The first phase of the battle of Arras, which began on Easter Monday, ended with the British in possession of Monchy-le-Preux which, however, remained a distinct salient until today's fighting was taken up. Monchy, situated on a hill, commands the country for forty miles eastward. During the last ten days the Germans delivered at least a score of counter-attacks against that position, against which they brought an ever-increasing gunfire.

Want Monchy Badly.

The desperate attempts to recapture it show how Monchy was regarded as a key position protecting the Drocourt switch line, which has not yet been fortified as strongly as the Germans would desire. Monchy has been one of the bloodiest spots the Germans have known, and when the British advanced from it in the early dawn today, they had to pick their way over thousands of dead men in field grey uniforms. It was estimated that 2,500 Germans were killed in one day's counter-attacks, so closely were the Germans massed.

LABORITES SUGGEST MEASURES TO BALK FOOD PROFITEERS

London, April 23.—The Worker's National Committee, representing a number of leading labor organizations, has made the following recommendations to the British Parliament:

"In the opinion of this committee the real danger ahead is not so much that supplies will be reduced to a famine basis but that foodstuffs will be allowed to be driven up to such prices that the well-to-do will satisfy their needs at the expense of the unprosperous while additional profits will be afforded wholesale and retail traders.

Suggest Measures.

"It therefore is imperative that the local authorities throughout the country immediately take in hand the organizing and distribution of the food supply in their respective areas, that the workers' organizations set up vigilance committees and that the Government take the following measures:

"First—The purchase of all essential foodstuffs.

"Second—The commandeering of all home-grown products.

"Third—To place all such commodities on local markets under conditions which will secure full benefits of the Government's action to the consumer.

"Fourth—To regulate on an equitable basis the consumption of all foodstuffs whereof there is a shortage.

"Fifth—To sell bread during the war at six pence per 4-pound loaf, any loss so involved to be met as part of the general cost of the war."

The committee demands that labor have representation on all local food control committees.

Ottawa, April 23.—John Bright, Dominion live stock commissioner and president of the Central Canada Exhibition Association, died at his home here tonight after an illness of three weeks. He was in his 51st year, and was appointed to the important federal position five years ago. He came to Ottawa from Myrtle, Ont.

THE GERMAN REPORT.

Berlin, April 23—Via London.—"Between Loos and the Arras-Cambrai Railway artillery firing continued Sunday," says the official statement issued today by the German army headquarters. Northwest of Lens, English thrusting troops penetrated our first-line trenches on a width of 600 yards, but were driven back by a counter-attack. The fire remained strong during the night. Early this morning after drumfire infantry fighting recommenced on a wide front.

"Along the River Aisne," the German statement continues, "the artillery fire increased in violence from the afternoon onwards. The Germans set fire to 11 enemy balloons and brought down eleven airplanes on the western front."

BULGARIA DESIRES PEACE, BUT STANDS BY ALLIES

Amsterdam, Via London, April 23.—A semi-official Bulgarian statement which has been received here, referring to the manifesto of the Russian provisional government of April 20, says:

The Bulgarian Government is always ready to support steps calculated to secure peace. On the other hand it is firmly resolved, in union with its allies, to continue the war to a termination which shall guarantee to Bulgaria the complete union of all her nationalities."

CAPTAIN OF CANADIAN WENT DOWN WITH SHIP

Boston, April 23.—Survivors of the British steamship Canadian which was sunk by a German submarine off the Irish coast on April 4, were passengers on a steamer which arrived here from an English port today. They said that four torpedoes struck the steamship. Her captain who remained on the bridge firing distress rockets after his men had taken to the boats, went down with the ship.

DETROITER FINDS CANADIANS THINK U. S. IS APATHETIC

Uncertainty as to Earnestness Dampens Ardor.

SHOW RECRUITS FIRST

Writer Gives Impressions After Return From Trip Into Ontario.

The Detroit Free Press prints the following impressions of a trip into Canada:

Americans who go into Canada with the expectation of finding Canadians utterly unable to contain their enthusiasm over the entry of the United States into the war are doomed to disappointment. Of course, they are enthusiastic and deeply thankful to fortune for aligning another powerful ally with their cause, but their enthusiasm apparently is tempered by much uncertainty as to the amount of earnestness with which the entry is made.

This conclusion was not drawn from a mere superficial examination of conditions as they exist in the border towns, but from those in towns further from the border, where Canadians are less affected by daily contact with American citizens. The brand of enthusiasm on the border seems far different from that in the interior.

Attitude of Indifference.

The first change in the attitude of people is noticed while riding on trains going into Canada. On the border Americans were regarded with indifference, but the further back from the border he got, the greater were the evidences of feeling.

Passengers were mostly women of all ages and elderly men. Everyone looked more or less askance at a young man who wore no uniform. Then they observed the tiny American flag in his buttonhole. Some of them smiled and others pointedly did not.

One woman, of a marked English type, tossed her head rather contemptuously. Whether she did so because she imagined she was being stared at or because of an inborn contempt for Americans, it is impossible to say. At any rate this apparent division of feeling concerning Americans was later explained quite plausibly.

The first person questioned was a young man at a junction point eating-house. To a query as to what he thought of the American war entry, he replied in a broad Cockney accent with much condescension:

"We could have whipped the beggars anyhow, you know, but just the same we are glad the Americans have come in, even if it is almost at the end of the game." Many others expressed opinions similar to the one quoted.

Comments on Situation.

The only man who seemed inclined to discuss the matter at length was one of the secretaries of the Canadian Military Hospitals Commission, with headquarters at Toronto.

"Of course, we are glad the United States are coming in," he replied to the question. Then his cordiality vanished and he looked out of the window contemplatively for a moment. "That is, we are glad if you Americans are in earnest about it."

"How do you mean, 'in earnest about it?'" he was asked.

"From what I have seen and heard, I am inclined to think the Americans do not realize the seriousness of the matter, the great sacrifices the war will necessitate. The war cannot last a great while longer, but the Germans are not whipped yet."

"What effect will the entry of the United States have upon the outcome of the war?"

"It was a hundred-to-one shot that the Germans would be defeated, before the United States declared its intentions," he answered. "Now the defeat of the Germans is an absolute certainty."

"Your answer is not prejudiced by the recent victories scored by the Allies?"

"I think not. None of us now really believes the Germans ever had a chance."

Tells of General Feeling.

"Your duties take you to all parts of the Dominion, so perhaps you can tell me what is the general drift of opinion throughout Canada in regard to the American war entry and in regard to Canada's part in the war?"

"That is a large order, but I can try it. Of course, it will be only one man's observations.

"In regard to the American entry, I think opinion is divided. British-born people are not very enthusiastic. Many of them are still bitter because the United States did not join the Allies at the start. Canadian-born people have always been in closer sympathy with the Americans, and I believe are all happy because of President Wilson's declaration of a state of war.

"At the beginning of the war, English-born men were the first to enlist. I think this was because they were brought up to believe war a matter of course and a daily possibility. The Canadian-born were slower to enlist for the same reason the United States has been slow to enter the war. A warlike attitude was foreign to their training.

"Although this gave rise to some feeling early in the war, I believe since the Canadians and British have come to understand and like each other better. They know our mettle now.

"We have come to realize that the pose of indifference maintained by Britishers is only another phase of the feeling expressed by Americans through their unwillingness to take anything seriously. The British soldier goes to his death unmoved, while the American goes with a laugh on his lips. Both ways are admirable.

Undercurrent of Seriousness.

"Many British people fail to realize the facts I have outlined and consequently think the Americans are not taking the war seriously. On the surface perhaps the Americans are not, but Canadians everywhere, I think, feel the undercurrent of seriousness.

"Let the Germans sink just one American battleship and American recruiting offices will be filled."

FIRST TIME SINCE 1776 TWO FLAGS ARE UNITED

Rev. Dr. McCrae and Rev. Dr. Silcox Preach at First Church.

The stars and stripes were entwined with the Union Jack on the pulpit of the First Congregational Church, the American flag having been received by Dr. Silcox from Capt. Harris, the only soldier of the north for whom Mrs. Jeff Davis interceded as he lay in prison. Dr. Silcox voiced his deep appreciation of the union of the flags—the first union since 1776, saying that he was proud that the United States had joined in the great struggle for liberty and freedom.

Rev. Dr. McCrae preached in the morning, his subject being "Every Man To Receive His Just Due," or "Measure for Measure." He called attention to the 26,000 people in London who, week after week refused to honour the Sabbath day, and to the wonderful gifts and powerful eloquence of Dr. Silcox, on account of which every seat in the church should be filled. "We should all be in the House of God these days, for verily this war to me is but the chastening of the Lord and his work will be carried on in spite of the terrible disregard and defiance of his commands. Throughout the whole teaching of Jesus, we find this law repeated again and again, that with what measure a man metes it shall be meted to him again.'"

Dr. McCrae pointed out how many people treated the universe as a hotel, as a market or as a museum, showing that, as they treated it so they reaped, some getting bed, dinner and billiards, others commodities and cash and others amusement, how the man of generous heart and the man of brute force will each be repaid in his own coin, and how the kaiser and his clique shall be measured with his own bushel measure.

The evening service was taken by the minister who preached on "The Democracy of the Bible."

"My proposition is that the Bible is at the root of and everywhere nurtures that sort of government," declared Dr. Silcox. In the history of England, he instanced Queen Victoria's action as she handed a copy of the Bible to a foreign prince, telling him that there he would find the secret of her nation's pre-eminence, and King George's words to his people at the tercentenary of the authorized version of the Bible, when he called it "the first of the national treasures." He also pointed out the significance of Greene's "History of the English People," in which he traces back to the Bible the great political revolution in the days of "Puritan England," maintaining that the Puritans aspoused civil liberty because it was the cause of religion. "The Puritan was a politician because he was a saint," said Dr. Silcox. "It was because he believed so tremendously in God and God's laws, that he believed so tremendously in man, and in man's rights. His theocracy was at the root of his democracy. His democracy was the outcome of his theocracy. A democracy without a theocracy has no permanent foundation. The welfare of the human soul, here and hereafter was the great truth of divine revelation which the Puritan learned from the pages of the sacred scriptures."

"President Wilson in his address the other day, said that his great nation had linked itself with England because the world must be made safe for democracy. The fatherhood of God is the only logical and reasonable basis for the doctrine of the brotherhood of man. The people of the British Empire and of the American Republic do well to remember that they owe their liberties, civil and religious to men who were nursed into intelligent, stalwart manhood, at the bosom of this Bible. All honour to the Puritans, for they were men of character and conscience, who were the creators of our modern democratic institutions."

PRESENT CONDITIONS MUST END WITH WAR

Big Change Coming in Canada Before Long.

That the feeling is rapidly becoming prevalent in Canada that the political, industrial, moral and spiritual conditions which existed in this country before the war cannot be allowed to go on after the war, was the statement of Rev. Dr. Flanders, speaking on "The New Canada Movement," at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening.

"Canada is full of different camps antagonistic to each other," said Dr. Flanders, and as an example he referred to the struggle for bilingualism, which he characterized as the struggle for another nation to assert itself, and as "an everlasting ambition for another nation that shall dominate all things." There were two political parties that were struggling for their own interests rather than the interests of Canada, and dissatisfaction existed between capital and labor, and even in the church.

A Republic of God.

Out in the west, men of all classes and denominations were getting together on a common platform for the realization of ideal Canada. There was a feeling that a bold movement was necessary to purify and alleviate the national life, and to set a republic of God in this country.

The war had rudely awakened Canadians to the realities of life, and the eyes of the nation have been lifted from sensual and material things. People were learning that the old superficial, unreal, unsatisfied life did not matter, and that nothing mattered but God. In spite of the grief and the sorrow the war had brought a great renaissance, a rebirth, an awakening to Canada.

Spirit of the Trenches.

"In undertaking to realize this discovery of a new Canadian nation we should go out in the spirit of the men who are in the trenches," added the speaker, "for there is among those splendid fellows who are fighting for us, the spirit of unity of purpose, and of self-sacrifice." Continuing, he said that that spirit is sweeping back to Canada in a great revival wave from the trenches, and that Canadians should identify themselves with the movement and seek to realize this ideal of Canadian life.

Referring to the anniversary of the Battle of Ypres, he said that various methods had been proposed to commemorate the heroes of the war, and asked what more fitting memorial, in the light of Ypres and Vimy, could be chosen than to make Canada ideal.

DEFENDS SOLDIERS BY STATISTICS ON TORONTO BIRTHS

Controller McCarthy Says Those Out of Khaki Worst.

PRESENT LAW A FARCE

Few Fathers of Illegitimate Children Contribute to Support.

Controller Jesse McCarthy of Toronto at Askin Street Church, yesterday presented the claims of the social and evangelistic department of the Methodist Church in Canada. In his evening address he replied with emphasis to those who are in the habit of making statements reflecting on the character of Canadian soldiers.

"I'm tired," he said, "of the prattle about the immorality of our soldiers. If one-half of that talk were directed to improving conditions in our towns and cities it would be better worth while. The 400,000 men who have donned the khaki in Canada are better men, morally, on the average, than those who have not donned the khaki, and the facts prove my statement.

"Last year I had a list of 208 unmarried young women who gave birth to children in Toronto institutions. I had the names and addresses of the fathers in 138 of these cases. Only three were soldiers. I'm tired and heartsick of this prattle about the immorality of soldiers.

"There is a commandment, 'Thou shalt not kill,' and we back it up on our statute books. There is a commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal,' and we back it up with a law of the land. There is a commandment 'Thou shalt not commit adultery,' and we make no effort to back it up. I grieve to tell you that in the 138 cases I spoke of, the authorities made only eleven of these fathers contribute toward their financial responsibility. The laws of the country in this respect are a farce."

BOY OF 9 AMAZES ALL BY GRASP ON HEAVY KNOWLEDGE

Jack Lonergan Seems To Know Almost Everything.

MEMORY IS RETENTIVE

Gets Mental Grasp On a Fact and Never Does Let Go of It.

Fond-du-Lac, Wis., April 21.—"Jack" Lonergran, 9-year-old Jefferson school boy, proclaimed by his teachers and all who have come in contact with him to possess the most remarkable specimen of what is known as the "retentive" mind, has set his goal. Twenty years hence Jack aspires to be an authority on international law.

What a notion for a third grader!

In short, Jack is a prodigy. His wealth of general information, obtained for the most part from newspapers, has astonished his tutors, while it is a daily occurrence for Jack to answer in machine gun fashion questions that ordinarily would stagger a college graduate. Specialists who have "interviewed" the youth declare that never before have they seen a child so young with a mind which grasps and retains so much information of a varied nature.

Jack's specialty is political economy, historical facts and dates. He cannot only relate in detail the history of the Revolutionary, Civil, Spanish-American and Mexican wars, but can tell you the whys and wherefores of the present European trials. Why they are fighting, the consequent developments from the very origin, principles involved, importance of the Dardanelles to Russia, just how a submarine proceeds to blow up an English ammunition ship, why the Japanese situation is critical, the importance of the Panama Canal, who was king of the gods and who was Jupiter's wife—it's all easy to Jack.

Why it is perograd, instead of St. Petersburg; how the Philippines became the property of the United States; describe the battles of Verdun, Bunker Hill, Gettysburg; just what constitutes an "overt act"; incidents in the lives of Washington, Lincoln, Roosevelt, Bryan, Caesar, Shakespeare, Cervantes, Burns, and a score of others, roll off his tongue.

Young Lonergan is proficient in many banches of sport. He can tell you who Dave Fultz is; why it is that Jess Willard clings to his championship, and that Bill Clymer, wizard of the minors, has been overlooked by the magnates of the big leagues as possible managerial material of worth.

It seems impossible, let alone improbable, that a youngster 9 years old, scarcely nine hands high, can answer even in part questions pertaining to the above. But Jack has stood the text. One could go on for an hour or more ransacking his brains for a question that would stump him.

Jack has a reasoning faculty as well, and can keep up a most interesting argument on most any subject of current importance. He reads considerable, is observing, and when told a thing remembers it. He is of rather quiet, thoughtful disposition, but romps and plays with the rest of the village youngsters of his age and is every bit as healthy as the lad next door.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lonergan, the father a machinist, the mother a homebody, neither of whom claims any credit for the development of Jack's most wonderful brain.

Jack while not at school is employed by the International News Service as a "copy boy" in the Wisconsin State bureau at Fond-du-Lac.

35 RECRUITS SECURED BY IRISH CHAPLAIN

KITCHENER, April 22.—Rev. S. Boal, Irish orator, delivered a recruiting address tonight before an audience which crowded the Grand Theatre, and as a result of his personal appeal for recruits 35 young men volunteered for service, and went up on the platform amid the greatest applause ever heard in a local theatre.

W. E. Gallagher acted as chairman. Enthusiastic applause greeted the entwining of the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes, the latter being spoken of as our neighbors' flag.

DEATH SHOCKS HARRISTON.

HARRISTON, April 22.—A gloom was cast over the town Saturday when the news of the death of Pte. Thomas Sutherland was announced. Flags are flying at half mast in his honor. "Tom," as he was familiarly known, was the only son of David Sutherland, shoe merchant of this town, and up to the time he enlisted with the 153rd Wellington Battalion he had been attending the high school here. For the past three months he has been in the military hospital at London, Ont., with spinal-meningitis, and had been reported improving, thus the news of his death was a great shock to his parents, who have the sympathy of all. Tom was a general favorite here.

Dual Deserter Sent to Reformatory for Year.

WINDSOR, April 22.—A sentence of one year in the provincial reformatory was meted out in police court here yesterday to Pte. James McPherson, charged with desertion from the 241st Battalion. McPherson ran away two months ago, and was arrested in Detroit by a United States immigration officer.

McPherson married a young girl in Sandwich a week after his enlisting, then deserted both the girl and the battalion. He admitted in court having a prison record.

BUSY TIME AHEAD OF SARNIA COUNCIL

Many Important Questions Before It Tonight.

SARNIA, April 22.—Indications point to an interesting session at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening, with much important business to be decided and new business advanced. The awards of the various committees in regard to the successful tenders for the reconstruction of the Peterson building into the new market building, and the construction of the new 30-foot pavement on the London road from Christina street to Russell street, will be made known, and the successful contractors will commence operations at once. Six tenders are in the hands of the market and printing committee for consideration, and it is understood that a decision was reached on Saturday afternoon, and the result will be made known at Monday night's meeting.

It is also understood that a like number of tenders for the pavement contracts have been in the hands of the city engineer, the contract being of much larger magnitude than has been let for some time past. This pavement fills a long-needed want in the minds of the residents of the north end of the city, and their initiative in petitioning the council successfully, has stirred the residents of several other streets to action, and it is probable that another petition for a pavement to be constructed on the 60-40 basis, that is, the ratepayers to pay 60 per cent and the city 40 per cent of the cost, will be presented to the council for their approval.

Sarnia's perpetual problem, namely the Point Edward waterworks, will also come in for discussion by the city fathers. A deputation visited the town of Kincardine last week, and examined the waterworks plant and system there, where it is stated that the prevailing conditions are similar to the local plant, and the results of this investigation will be made known by Councillor L. McAdams, chairman of the fire and water committee, under which head this plant is operated.

Twenty-two basins constructed at an expenditure of a considerable amount of money, have failed to produce a flow of water sufficient to supply the daily consumption in the city, and to maintain the pressure for fire protection as demanded by the Underwriters Association, and for the past year or so, the council has been wrestling with this problem, but until the present its efforts have proved futile, hard pan and rock formation at the base of the wells being the chief obstacle in the way of success.

The Advertiser was informed a short time ago, that the council would make a strenuous effort to overcome these difficulties during the present summer, and with the advent of the favorable weather several projected schemes will be forthcoming, and the most plausible method adopted.

Echoes of the newly drafted bylaw regulating and licensing pool and billiard rooms in the city, have been heard during the past week and it is rumored that the council has not as yet heard the last word, from the proprietors. The owners of the buildings have not as yet complied with the clause of the bylaw which necessitates the removal of the partitions and frosted windows, and the license committee may have something to report in respect of this disregard of the law. All in all an interesting and eventful meeting is looked for.

POINT EDWARD SERVICE STARTS.

SARNIA, April 21.—The ferry Antelope has resumed operations between Point Edward and Fort Gratiot, making regular trips, the first boat leaving in the morning at 6:30 and leaving Point Edward at 11 o'clock on the last trip. Capt. Ekbert is in charge of the ferry.

153RD COMPANY TRANSFERRED.

SARNIA, April 22.—At 7 o'clock Saturday morning, the company of the 153rd Battalion which has been stationed in this city for the past few weeks, entrained and departed for St. Thomas. Although it has been rumored that the company would move out Saturday, local citizens were quite unaware of the fact that it had departed until the afternoon, when the familiar khaki figures failed to make their appearance on the streets, and the news spread round that the company had departed for St. Thomas.

Though its stay in the city has been brief, this company has conducted itself well, and the only trouble encountered was caused by the Russian members of the company, his company had the distinction of being the first to cross the St. Clair to Port Huron, after the rescinding of the law barring the entry of Canadian soldiers, and its initial trip to Port Huron caused a flurry of excitement among the citizens who were unaware that the bars had been let down. Although nothing has been given out officially, it is stated that a detachment of the special service company, London, will take up the quarters deserted by the 153rd.

MRS. (COL.) TOWERS SAFE.

SARNIA, April 22.—Word has been received in the city, that Mrs. R. J. Towers and family, and Mrs. Malcolm McKenzie, have arrived safely in Halifax, and will reach this city, the first of the week. Some anxiety was expressed in this city during the week, owing to rumors that the ship carrying these Sarnia ladies had been torpedoed, but their safe arrival relieves this anxiety.

ON WAY HOME.

SARNIA, April 22.—Mrs. Wade, 301 Cameron street, of this city, has received a message from her son, Walter Wade, announcing his safe arrival in Halifax. Private Wade enlisted with the 70th Battalion, and was wounded in September, 1916, and has been invalided home. A brother, Pte. Robert Wade, has been reported missing since September, 1916, and another brother, Alfred Wade, is in the hospital at London, having been wounded on September 3 last, and returned to Canada on February 27.

VETERANS OF HALF-CENTURY.

STRATFORD, April 22. — A year ago many of Stratford's returned soldiers faced the foe at the famous second battle of Ypres. Today, with others of their comrades, who were wounded either before or after them, they gathered and commemorated that day in their first annual church parade. The veterans assembled at their quarters, and, headed by the Grand Trunk Employees' Band, marched to St. James' Church, where they listened to a strong sermon by Rev. W. T. Cluff, chaplain of the 28th Regiment.

The service was a notable one, gathering together as it did veterans of various battles half a century back. Old men, their locks white and their forms bent, men who saw service at the time of the Fenian raids, veterans of South Africa and India, all united with the heroes of the great war in their service. For those unable to march carriages were provided, and the church was packed to the doors by citizens.

STRATFORD, April 22.—Week-end casualties received here told of the death in action of Pte. Harold Battersby, and the wounding of Gunners Wilson Dyer, Frank McInnes and Pte. Norman Edwards. Pte. Battersby was a son of James Battersby, who formerly resided here, but later went to St. Paul, Minn. He was killed on April 19.

Gunner Dyer was admitted to a hospital severely wounded in the head and shoulder. He enlisted here and had been in France since late in January. He attended public, collegiate and Normal school here, and later taught school in North Easthope.

Gunner McInnes joined the Mounted Rifles at Hamilton and had been overseas for some months. He is now at No. 8 Stationary Hospital at Wimereux suffering from contusion.

Pte. Norman Edwards is in No. 3 General Hospital at Boulogne, having a gunshot wound in the knee.

KINDY TRIED TO PUT OVER DRAFT FOR COOL $10,000

Detroit Crook Presented Fake Paper at Stratford.

HAD THE TRAP BAITED

Opened Account and Deposited Small Drafts, But Didn't Know Ropes.

Before he was sent back to Detroit, where he was sentenced to a term in Jackson Prison, as a result of the astuteness and quick action of Detective Egelton and Down, Albert Kindy, alias C. R. Howard, attempted to cash a forged draft for $10,000 on the Bank of Commerce at Stratford. The manager of the London branch, A. D. McLean, was notified by Stratford, and advised that cash for the draft be refused.

Present $10,000 Draft.

Kindy apparently made his home in Stratford for a short time, and after having opened an account at the Stratford branch, he commenced to deposit drafts for various amounts. He had purchased these drafts and familiarized himself with the manner in which they were made out. On December 18th last he presented a Seattle draft for $10,000 to the Stratford manager and asked for the cash.

The Stratford manager hesitated, and called Mr. McLean befcre cashing the draft. The moment Kindy heard him go to the telephone he made out the door with the remark that "he had to see a man."

Kindy Identified.

That was the last seen of him until the Stratford manager came to London the time of Kindy's arrest on March th, and identified him as the man ho attempted to cash the $10,000 aft The draft had been proved thless on investigation.

Kindy did not understand that banks were advised when drafts were made out, and this together with the caution of the bank authorities prevented the draft from being cashed.

BYRON PEOPLE ASK FOR SUNDAY SERVICE

Also Want Cars un Houry All Year Around.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, but residents of Byron and vicinity lightly turn to thoughts of Sunday street cars and a better service on the Springbank line.

A deputation from Byron, headed by W. R. Wadsworth, will shortly wait on Manager King of the street railway, and a petition is being prepared asking for a Sunday service to the city's park.

"We want the street railway to extend their Springbank line as far as the Bpron bridge," said Mr. Wadsworth today. "It would be a decided convenience to those who have friends at the Sanatorium and a greater inducement for city people to make their homes at Byron.

"The street railway could make a fair revenue hauling coal, too. It is estimated that the Sanatorium uses 30 carloads of coal every year, which have to be hauled from Hyde Park. All the Byron residents would be glad to buy their coal at the gates of the village, so to speak, while there are a number of market gardeners close by who use vast quantities of coal during the winter to heat their greenhouses.

"The Byron people are firm in their demands on the street railway. They feel that they have a good case, and if it is necessary, we will take the matter up with the Ontario Railway board. We should have an hourly service on the Springbank line all the year round, and we are going to get it."

CHANCE FOR EVERY MAN TO DO BIT IN SOME WAY

Reorganization of All Military Units Opens Wide the Gate.

Militia units embracing every branch of the service are to be re-organized and brought up to full strength according to orders received at district headquarters today. The equipment and personnel of the militia units have been put into good shape, and now an effort will be made to utilize all the militia organizations available in order to get every man that can be secured at work. Cavalry, infantry, engineers, artillery, medical services and all possible, brought up to active militia strength.

Letters are also being sent to the reserve battalions of regiments which are recruiting C.E.F. units, in an effort to have them recruit up to strength, along with the other militia units. This will give an additional opportunity to the citizens to do their bits as far as they are able, for if a man is unable to serve in the expeditionary force, or in the defence force, he can at least serve in the reserve battalions of the militia, or in the regular militia regiments.

"The personnel and the equipment of the militia units have already been thoroughly gone over," said Lieut.-Col. Brown, A.A.G., at headquarters today, "and now we will make an effort to make use of the services of every man who is available either for overseas home defence or ordinary militia work."

SECOND-STORY WORKER ENTERS TWO STORES

A "second-story" thief, believed to be a professional at his work, succeeded in gaining entrance to the store of Thomas Rowe, Dundas street, where he robbed the cash register of its contents at an early hour Sunday morning, and later broke into Boomer's confectionery, but obtained nothing. The individual entered Rowe's store from a rear window, to which he gained access from the roof. He pried this up and came down the stairway and removed $4 in silver from the cash register. That he was no amateur at the work is indicated by the fact that he rang up the Ame amount on the cash register as stood there when the store was closed Saturday night. This was done, it is believed, so as not to arouse suspicion.

At Boomer's he tore iron bars from an upper back window reaching them from the roof. Once inside he heard the night watchman and made a hurried exit. The watchman heard him run, but did not see him. The matter is in the hands of the detectives, who are investigating.

AN INTERESTING CONTEST.—A most interesting contest took place on Friday night in the Adelaide Street Baptist sunday School hall when twelve of the scholars undertook to recite perfectly the eighth chapter of Romans to secure an award of five dollars offered some weeks ago by D. H. Gillies, teacher of the Men's Bible Class. The contest took place in the presence of the following judges: D. H. Gillies, A. J. Watson, A. E. Brown, J. L. W. Baldwin and Henry Watson, together with numerous teachers, scholars and friends: and the following competed: Misses Ella Arnold, Stella Parker, Jean Metcalf, Katie Caton, Eva Renwick, Frances Short, Marjorie Piercy, Madeline Graham, Kathleen Graham, Gladys Marsh, Lilian Wild and Stanley Morton. At the close of the recital the judges found that Miss Ella Arnott and Miss Stella Parker had each secured 100 per cent for memorizing, expression, etc., and it was decided to give each a first class award. Ed. Noel, superintendent of the Sunday school, providing the second five dollars. All the others were awarded consolation prizes. Yesterday afternoon the awards were presented by D. H. Gillies in the presence of the whole school after all the competitors had recited the chapter in unison, the recital making a deep impression upon the other scholars.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

WOULD THEY HAVE FLOGGED THE PREMIER'S SON?

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

We were pleased to read the suggestion of Ronald A. Emery re the advisability of a Government department being appointed to deal especially with the moral training of boys.

Is it not possible for our educationists to consider this matter in the light of our recent experiences, and devise some method by which we can aid and reform moral degenerates?

We do object most strongly to your correspondent's suggestion that flogging be administered "on the quiet."

The community is responsible for the well-being of prisoners whom their representatives of "law and order" punish, and it is desirable that they shall know what is being done in their name.

The newspaper is the medium by which the citizens keep in touch with conditions in this city, and through which they can help to create a healthy public opinion. We are indebted to the papers for permitting all sides to express their opinion on this particular matter.

One of your correspondents suggested I had "little respect for the law." I have to frankly confess that I have very little knowledge of it. I thought it was a specialized branch of knowledge acquired by men who wished to make a living out of other people's ignorance, and have sometimes thought I might study it in my very few spare moments, but have found "universal laws" for which I have a profound respect so much more absorbing. Thank God, his laws are indiscriminating. The sun shines and the rain falls on the moral and immoral alike.

Men lose their lives in great storms at sea regardless of their worth and ability. Our best and dearest are blown to pieces at the front side by side with the weak and depraved.

It is only man's little, trivial, pettifogging brain which makes laws which permits one child to have opportunities for a right environment, while another is deprived of it.

If this boy who was flogged was the son of the premier of Canada, would he have been flogged? I submit without fear of contradiction that he would not have been, even if his crime had been doubly awful. Poverty in this particular boy's case is an extra handicap to him.

Russia has abolished the knout. Are we going to glorify it?

Laws there may be to protect property. What we need are wise, progressive laws for the development and the unfolding of our child-life, simple laws which are imbibed in our consciousness quite early in life, and are not confined to musty law courts, or written in legal phraseology which the average mind does not readily absorb.

We are not in the habit of making a fetish of something we do not understand, nor are we respectors of persons, but we think to give honor where it is due, and when we cannot give respect, we know that the law of causation is at work, and try to bring our consideration, comprehension and love to bear on the facts which have produced the evil, with a view of remedying it.

To flog is to follow the line of least resistance, and merely demonstrates that humanity has still a good bit of the old Adam in its composition.

FABIAN.

FOUR REPORTED AS DIED ARE WOUNDED, DECLARES OTTAWA

Mistake in the Casualty Lists Causes Gravest Anxiety.

RELATIVES HAD NO WORD

Only Knew That London Boys Had Been Injured in Fighting.

What appears to have been an error made in telegraphic transmission or copying of the casualty lists sent out from Ottawa, caused a period of the most severe anxiety to three London and one Broughdale families. According to latest advices Ptes. J. E. Pugh, F. Thompson and J. Robinson of London, and Pte. J. Barnes of Broughdale, who were reported in the casualty lists reaching the London newspapers late Friday as "Died of Wounds," should have appeared merely as "Wounded." At the present time an investigation is being held to ascertain how the error was made, for the seriousness of the matter has come home to all.

All Reported "Wounded."

The Advertiser published the casualty list containing the names on Saturday night, and the names had previously appeared in a tabulated list in the morning edition. Ottawa was wired in an endeavor to confirm or deny the news, but no response was received until today whehn each of the men was reported "Wounded."

Relatives in the meantime had in some cases given up their loved ones as lost, but others were certain that as they had been reported wounded a few hours before, an error had occurred, and this proved to be the fact.

The Usual Procedure.

Invariably, before the casualties are given to the press and sent over the wires, relatives have been notified. On this occasion it appeared as though the authorities had been lax in failing to notify the next of kin, or that a grave mistake had been made. The Advertiser, of course, had no means of knowing, at the time the list was first published, that relatives had not been notified. It was explained in the article containing the names that relatives had received no telegrams, and that there was doubt as to the authenticity of the report.

The Canadian Press operator who copied the casualty list in question is making an investigation during today.

RUSH TO BUY SEEDS FOR GREATER PRODUCTION CAUSES STORE TO BAR OUT PUBLIC

The Tremendous "Drive" On Stocks Indicates That Thousands Are Preparing To Plant Back Yard Gardens.

The greater production campaign in London and Western Ontario has been an unqualified success, at least so far as arousing interest is concerned.

Never in the history of local seed dealers has there been such a demand of every description. Especially is this true of the "garden sass" variety for backyard gardens in the city. So great has been the rush of orders that, with the inadequate transportation facilities of the present, it has been difficult to fill these at the time requested. With the advancing season, the stocks in some varieties of roots, such as parsnips, beets and carrots are almost depleted.

While all indications point to the fact that production is to be argely increased, on the farms in the way of cereals, it is also apparent that there will be more and larger farm vegetables gardens than hitherto.

Force to Lock Doors.

J. W. Hunter of Darch & Hunter, referring to the experience of his firm this season, said today: "On Saturday night we were obliged to lock the doors at ten minutes to 10 o'clock in order to prevent any more people from coming in. We had all the customers inside we could possibly wait upon. At that, it was 11 o'clock before we had things straightened out. Our staff is doubled, and we find it difficult to attend to customers coming in and get our our mail orders. With our increased forces, we are working practically day and night. March was the biggest month we have ever known in our business.

"Not only are the city and town people and the farmers going in for greater production, but the market gardeners are planting much more than formerly.

"This is evidently directly due to the greater production campaign of the past few months and the gardening propaganda in London. In December and January our travelers reported that the orders of the market gardeners were much smaller than in former years. A number had gone into munitions and other work and they didn't intend to plant this year on their former scale. All this has been changed, however, and they, too, have fallen in line with the greater production movement.

"A number of farmers are going in extensively for growing peas and beans. This is especially a patriotic production, owing to the need of these legumes for the feeding of the army. From the beginning of the war, I have recognized the importance of pea-growing and have urged it upon the farmers. They are easily grown and easily harvested.

Earlier the Better.

"A number of farmers make the mistake that peas should be sown in June to escape the pea weevil. The earlier they are planted the better. Peas are cold-blooded plants, and can be "mudded in," just the same as spring wheat.

"Planting in June to escape the weevil also means escaping the big crop. The bug doesn't do any more harm when the peas are planted early than when they are planted late. Western Ontario is a fine country for growing peas and beans, and both of these crops enrich the soil."

Seed dealers state that there has been an unprecedented run on commercial fertilizers, as well as on seed this season.

ENTIRE PRUSSIAN LINE PANICKY; SENDS OUT YELLS FOR SUCCOR AT SLIGHTEST MOVE OF BRITISH

By William Philip Simms.
(Special Cable to The Advertiser.)

With the British Armies Afield.—All along the 50-mile front from Lens to St. Quentin the Germans are panicky. The slightest movement of the British troops results in a feverish flare—up go "S.O.S." rockets from the Germans summoning aid. The British having now turned the Hindenburg line for a distance of several miles to the southeast of Arras, the enemy undoubtedly is preparing for further setbacks.

Calls for Help.

Today the battle opened with a dawn that was bright and cold. The night had been ablaze with gun flares, the roar reaching drum fire tensity. Just as the edge of the sun reached the horizon and peeped over the infantry moved forward as a single unit over a number of places nearby. It was supported by artillery and machine gun fire. So the Prussians wouldn't know what was happening the British artillery and machine gun fire was loosed along practically the entire fifty miles of front for a brief period. Not knowing where the infantry was to strike the Germans frantically signalled all along the line.

SHELL RIPS FLOOR BENEATH SLEEPER WITHOUT INJURY

One of Queer Tricks Turned by War Game.

[By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press.]

Canadian Headquarters in France, April 23.—Here is a story showing what queer things happen in war. In a dressing station that was under heavy shell fire and from which for two days other cases had been removed by the efforts of a little group of volunteers without a single case of additional wounding, there remained the two surgeons downstairs and an orderly in the attic. The shelling continued and increased in intensity. The surgeons took up positions in the corner furthest out of the line of fire. A tremendous explosion in the room overhead blew a huge hole in the ceiling and completely gutted the upper part of the building—an ancient chateau. While the doctors were still engaged clearing their throats of the flying plaster, they saw with amazement a pair of legs, followed by a man's body and outspread arms, appearing from the direction of the ceiling. It was the orderly, unharmed, who had been caught asleep by the shell, which, bursting in the second story, had ripped out both floors and left him 30 feet in the air, without a scratch. His appearance was so grotesque that despite the fact that they were in momentary danger of death, the surgeons could not refrain from greeting him with laughter. He landed unhurt and almost fully awake. It was a wonderful escape.

SUPREME CONTROL OF THIS NATION MUST BE IN HANDS OF CANADIAN ELECTORATE

John Cottam Addresses People's Forum on Imperial Influences.

"Canadian Imperialism" was the subject of a fine address at the People's Forum last evening by John A. Cottam. The meeting was well attended, and at the close of Mr. Cottam's address a keen discussion of the points he had made took place.

"So far as Canada being in control of her own affairs," said Mr. Cottam, "the bald truth is that in 1914, invisible hands reached across the sea, and like clay in the hands of the potter was Canada in the hands of the British cabinet or, if you will, in the hands of destiny.

"Canada has withheld neither life nor treasure. This subtle influence has tremendous potentialities, but it is very unhealthy housekeeping for a self-governing nation. Sinister eventualities can only be avoided by return to electoral control, which has been abandoned since 1914.

"Self-respecting Canadians will not leave the way open so that quite incidental to the imperial purpose beyond our ken, our kinsmen across the seas are again having to exercise supreme control of Canada's resources without foreknowledge, but with no responsibility to Canada's electorate. There are three courses of escape: first, Canada could declare her independence, merge her identity with the United States, or Canada may, as she inevitably will, accept the invitation of the British Government to maintain more intimate relations with other parts of the Empire, and involve Canada's participation in shaping British foreign policies."

CLEANSE THE LARGE INTESTINE

Present War Cry of Advanced Physicians.

Some of the leading surgeons of the world have gone so far recently as to remove part of the Large Intestine in cases so serious as that of Tuberculosis and restored the patient to perfect health by so doing.

The New York American has recently said:

"During Constipation the poisons in the Large Intestine often become so great as to form a serious menace to health and even to life. Through the walls of the Intestine they enter the blood and consume the healthy blood cells, impoverishing the blood, and if this process is continued long enough an acute poisoning is produced.

It is impossible under our present-day mode of living for the Intestine to rid itself of all waste, and it is easily proven that there is an accumulation, no matter how regular we are.

Drugs, if taken regularly, form a habit, but Internal Bathing by means of the "J. B. L. Cascade" cleanses the Lower Intestine its entire length with pure warm water and makes it clean, sweet and healthy.

At the same time it regulates the system and makes one feel that every function is working smoothly and naturally—and indeed this is so.

This letter will convey a message of good cheer to many:

Welland, Ontario.

Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell,
163 College Street, Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—We heartily indorse the J. B. L. Cascade, as we find in our work that a loaded colon means a poisoned system, which, in turn, means ligamentous contraction of the spinal muscles, against which our work is directed.

Anything helping us in gaining relaxation we consider a boon, both to ourselves and our patients.

Most sincerely,
Drs. Hoxsey and Garland.

Over five hundred thousand are now enthusiastic users of the "J. B. L. Cascade," which is now being shown and explained at any Standard Drug Company store in London. Ask or write now, while you think of it, to Chas. A. Tyrrell, M.D., 163 College street, Toronto, for free and interesting booklet, "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient."

GERMANS APPLY TORCH TO LARGE SECTION OF LENS

Destruction Is Carried Out in Thorough and Systematic Manner.

VALE A CHARNEL HOUSE

Shells Churn Up Bodies of Those Killed in 1915 Drive.

(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press in France.)

Canadian Army Headquarters, April 23.—The burning of Lens by the enemy is a most thorough and systematic process. Beginning in the southern end of tended operations to the northern district. Simultaneously Avion and other centres of the mining district adjoining Lens are being destroyed with all the appliances of the enemy. Where he has been driven out and can no longer apply the torch he neglects even our working parties to make targets of the overhead plant of mines and the houses of miners.

Hold on To Destroy.

A trip up the Souchez valley today through the mining region furnished evidence that the enemy is hanging on solely for the purpose of completing his destruction. Everywhere in the valley are ruin and desolation, some of it caused by our guns before the taking of Vimy Ridge, but much of it by the enemy. In this hurried flight he left many unburied dead and many others hastily interred whose bodies have been again brought to view by German shells. The narrow valley between Lorette Ridge and Vimy Ridge is a charnel house of the bones of thousands of both sides who died during the great French offensive of 1915. Once more the tide of war has swept up the valley and added horror to horror.

Nowhere is the utter ruin made by heavy guns so apparent as at Souchez, which is itself crumbling into heaps of unrecognizable rubbish. A board placed on a mound proclaims that spot as Souchez Square.

Assorted Ruins.

All over this region one hears the roar of our guns and encounters groups of enthusiastic British and Canadian gunners, who work overtime in the mining villages in the valley between Souchez and Lievin. No two cases of shell effect on the houses are alike. These mining villages present a far wider assortment than one may see at Arras itself. The enemy can still observe here the effect of his fire without the use of aeroplanes. His aerial observers have an increasingly unhealthy time of it. This morning two of his planes tried to destroy one of ours which was being used for observation rather than for fighting. One was destroyed and the other left the vicinity hurriedly. Of 26 enemy aeroplanes seen yesterday only five crossed our front.

Our patrols out on the Douai plain are keeping the enemy jumping by pushing near his outposts in the night. During these affairs the enemy makes a fearful row with his barrage fire, being in nightly fear of an attack in force. His trouble may be diagnosed as a bad case of neurosis Vimyana.

A True Story.

In reference to the case of the young American, believed to be a Texan, who enlisted in a Canadian battalion and carried the Stars and Stripes on his bayonet up the Vimy heights, and who fell wounded in the action—the first American to carry the flag of his country as a belligerent in the European war—I am authorized by the senior Roman Catholic chaplain of the Canadian corps to state that he heard the story in an ambulance from the lips of the wounded man himself. The case was a stretcher one—that is, a serious wound—and the wounded man expressed the hope that he would survive and return to the United States to tell his story. The senior chaplain did not take the name of the man, who was perfectly rational when he made his statement. If he survives he will no doubt make his identity known.

VON BISSING WRECK SINCE THE MURDER OF EDITH CAVELL

Imagined Ghost of the Slain Woman Haunted Him.

London, April 21.—The Berne correspondent of the Observer telegraphs as follows:

"A fortnight ago I met a diplomatist just returned from Brussels. In conversation the murder of Edith Cavell was mentioned. 'Von Bissing,' said the diplomatist, 'had never been the same man since Miss Cavell's murder. He could not sleep, and was a nervous wreck. He imagined her ghost was haunting him, and once he exclaimed: I can state before God that I was not responsible for her execution. It was Berlin.'"

An Exchange telegram from The Hague says that the German press comments at length on the death of Gen. von Bissing. The Berliner Tageblatt says:

"We are not permitted by the censor to pass judgment on his work as governor of Belgium, but we can say that most of the measures taken under his governorship created a worldwide sensation and aroused a worldwide interest. They were not taken by him, but in spite of his effort to prevent them."

This is an indirect reference to the putting to death of Edith Cavell, over which General von Bissing tendered his resignation to the kaiser, as he personally disapproved of her execution, and also to the deportation of Belgian workmen. Both of these measures were ordered from the kaiser's headquarters, says the Tageblatt.

AUSTRALIA WILL GIVE MAN'S LIVELIHOOD TO ALL BACK FROM WAR

Liberal Provisions Provided For Men Who Fought.

Sydney, Australia, April 21.—(Through Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—The Commonwealth Government's repatriation scheme for returned and maimed soldiers, a feature of which is the liberality of its provisions, has been further outlined by Senator Millen, vice-president of the executive council. Senator Millen states that the Commonwealth has accepted the full responsibility for securing to every returned soldier a man's livelihood, by providing an avenue for civil employment.

Land Settlement.

The sum of £22,000,000 will be provided, which will be advanced to the Australian states in connection with land settlement for returned soldiers, enabling soldier settlers to secure advances for improvements up to £500 for each man. Occupation will be provided upon arrival, not as at present upon military discharge. Three permanent officials in each state will be responsible for all executive work, while subordinate officers will be appointed throughout each state, insuring the necessary decentralization and repatriation.

Help For Maimed.

Local committees will be established to encourage soldiers in each district. A special branch will deal with provision for maintenance and artificial limbs for all the permanently maimed, who will be afforded every opportunity to supplement their pensions by establishment of especially-equipped workshops. An amelioration fund will be maintained in order to insure temporary assistance to New South Wales returned soldiers by a conference of the executives of existing funds. Amelioration work will be controlled by the Government and administered by a board of trustees whose chairman will be a minister of the crown.

LIEUT. ROOKS NOT OF WATFORD.

WINNIPEG, April 222.—Lieut. L. G. Rooks of Estevan, Sask., has died of wounds at Vimy Ridge. He enlisted with a Regina battalion. It was an error in official list that he came from Watford, Ont.

33,000 GEAMANS GAPTURED AND 330 GUNS BETWEEN APRIL 8TH AND TWENTIETH

For Every Hundred Prisoners a Field Gun or Howitzer Has Been Captured in Dri ve Which Broke the Hindenbu rg Line.

In the various statements issued since Friday night, continuous progress is recorded for the French forces, while the record is also a series of German failures in attack.

The progress of General Nivelle is not as spectacular as featured the beginning of his drive, but is of great import.

Surely the stoutest and most dangerous enemy positions on the St. Quentin-Rheims front are being gnawed and will soon break down, leaving the way open for another grand sweep forward.

In the statement issued by the French war office Saturday night it was stated that from April 8 to April 20 the number of German prisoners taken by the French and British exceeded 33,000, and the number of cannon, exclusive of machine guns and trench mortars, taken in the same period was 330.

On Sunday active artillery fighting took place south of St. Quentin and north of Urvillers between the Somme and the Oise Rivers.

The Germans violently bombarded Rheims, especially the quarter in which the cathedral is located. In Champagne Sunday was marked by a series of enemy attacks on the heights, which the French hold in the vicinity of Massif and Moronvillers. A violent attack against Mont Haut was positively checked by the French, whose counter-attack and machine gun fire inflicted sanguinary losses on the enemy. At 5 o'clock a German battalion was badly shot up and dispersed west of Mont Haut. Another attempt against a height farther to the east was repulsed.

French infantry Saturday night pushed forward in the region north of Sancy and Jouy and the St. Quentin Rheims front. The artillery bombardment south of St. Quentin was violent. There was grenade fighting in the region of Hurtebiz, on the plateau north of Sancy, where good progress was made.

In the Champagne there were numerous clashes among patrols and also grenade fighting.

Berlin says the fighting near Hurtebiz and in the Champagne cost the French dearly.

NOWHERE CAN GERMANS RECOVER LOST GROUND.

[From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.]

GRAND HEADQUARTERS OF THE FRENCH ARMY ON THE FRONT, Saturday Evening, April 21.—Smashing artillery duels marked today's fighting all along the front from Craonne Plateau to Auberice, interspersed here and there with forward drives by the French infantry. Night and day the Germans were incessantly harried.

All the positions carried by the French have been reorganized, and in places further extensions have been made. Nowhere did the Germans succeed in retaking any point. Hurtebis, where the French are solidly astride the Chemin-des-Dames, which gives to them the opportunity of reaching Laon Plateau, was the point where the Germans today directed their strongest effort to eject them, but in vain.

Bands of Germans Isolated.

The clearing up of the reconquered ground behind the advancing front was extremely perilous owing to the presence of small bodies of Germans, in farms, valleys and woods, who do not realize that they are entirely cut off, and continue to fight in the hope of relief. Some of these were brought in today.

Atmospherical conditions have again turned in favor of the Germans, the heavy mists hindering French observation. The French generals are sparing their men as much as possible; they never send them forward until the objective has been subjected to a terrific bombardment, calculated to paralyze the occupants. The advances have thus far been carried out with comparatively small losses.

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORTS.

PARIS, April 22.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads:

"Between the Somme and the Oise very active artillery fighting took place during the course of the day south of St. Quentin and north of Urvilliers. Between Soissons and Rheims the artillery actions were intermittent in various sectors. The enemy violently bombarded Rheims, especially the quarter in which the cathedral is located.

"In Champagne the day was marked by a series of enemy attacks on the heights which we hold in the Massif of Moronvilliers. A violent attack directed against Mont Haut was entirely checked after a spirited engagement. Our machine gun fire and counter-attacks inflicted sanguinary losses on the enemy.

"A German battalion reported about 5 o'clock this afternoon northwest of Mont Haut was caught by our fire, and dispersed, leaving dead on the ground. Another attempt against a height further to the east was likewise repulsed.

"On April 21 three German airplanes were brought down.

"Belgian communication: Artillery actions occurred particularly near Steenstraete, where there was also lively bomb fighting."

St. Quentin-Rheims Again.

French infantry forces last night again pushed forward in the region north of Sancy and Jouy on the St. Quentin-Rheims battlefront, says the official statement issued today by the French war department. Further east there was hand-grenade fighting in the sector of Hurtebiz.

HEAVY FRENCH LOSSES ARE CLAIMED BY BERLIN.

BERLIN, April 22, via London.—On the Aisne-Champagne battle front, says the official statement issued today by the German war department, there were battles last night near Braye and Hurtebiz farm, on the Rheims Neufchatel road north of Prosnus, and on the western bank of the River Suippus, all of which ended with heavy French losses. The statement says:

"Front of the German Crown Prince: On the River Aisne and in the Champagne, the fighting was limited almost everywhere until evening.

"Near Braye, at Hurtebiz farm, on the Rheims-Neufchatel road, north of Prosnes and on the western bank of the Suippus, there were engagements which terminated with heavy enemy losses South of Riponta a French advance was repulsed.

Five 'Planes Shot Down.

"The enemy lost six airplanes yesterday. Of these, five were shot down by Baron von Richthofen's chasing eschalon.

"Naval aviators off Nieuport brought down an enemy airship, which fell into the sea in flames.

No great activity on the battle fronts in France is reported in the German supplementary statement issued Saturday evening. The statement is received here says:

"On the Aisne and Champagne battlefronts there was less activity on the whole, but near Braye-en-Laonnois and the Hurtebiz farm (Aisne), and northwest of Auberive (Champagne), the activity increased at times."

HAIG HAS GAINS NEAR LOOS AND ARRAS.

LONDON, April 22.—The British troops fighting in France have made additional gains between Arras and St. Quentin and also southeast of Loos, in the latter district taking prisoners, according to the official communication issued tonight. The statement says:

"Our troops have made further progress east of the Havrincourt wood and have carried the southern portion of Prescault village.

"Sharp fighting occurred throughout the day southeast of Loos. We gained further ground in this area and captured some prisoners.

"There was considerable activity in the air yesterday, and much fighting, in which four German machines were brought down and six driven down out of control. In addition a hostile machine was brought down by our anti-aircraft gun. Four of our airplanes are missing."

Many German Dead.

A German counter-attack against the British holding the village of Gonnelcu was repulsed, and many German dead were left in front of the British position, according to the official report from British headquarters Saturday night. Further advances are recorded east of Fampoux and southwest of Lens in the same statement.

The text of Saturday night's British statement reads:

"Today the enemy made an unsuccessful attempt to recover the village of Gonnelcu, captured Friday night. His attacking troops, caught by our artillery fire, were driven back, leaving many dead in front of our position.

Advance Near Lens.

"We gained ground during the day by local fighting along the north bank of the Scarpe, eastward of Fampoux, and advanced our lines slightly northwest of Lens. In this latter area two other German counter-attacks were successfully beaten off.

"During the night a small party of the enemy raided one of our crater posts south of Ypres, a few of our men are missing.

"The somewhat improved weather enabled our airplanes to carry out useful work yesterday. One hostile machine was brought down. Two of our machines have not returned."

VIOLENT ARTILLERY DUEL IN ARRAS-LENS REGION.

BERLIN, via London, April 22.—The German official statement today says that on the British front in the Arras-Lens region, the artillery duel "increased to the most extreme violence."

German aviators shot down near Nieuport an Entente airship, which fell blazing into the sea.

The text of the statement reads:

"Western front: At various points on the Flanders and Artois front the artillery duel increased yesterday in intensity and extent. North of the River Scarpe it increased at times to the most extreme violence. Movements of enemy troops were caught under our destructive fire. A strong English reconnoitering advance on the north bank of the Scarpe was repulsed by a counter-attack.

"On the English front, northwest of St. Quentin, there were minor encounters in the morning. South of the Somme there was only lively artillery activity."

The German official communication issued this evening says:

"There have been violent artillery duels on some sectors of the Arras front. Infantry fighting in proceeding near Loos."

AMERICAN MINE EXPERTS WORKING ON APPARATUS TO COMBAT THE GASSING

Washington, April 23.—Experts of the bureau of mines are designing an apparatus to combat noxious gases, which it is declared promises to be superior to any now in use on the European battlefields. Details of the invention, however, are being withheld for obvious reasons.

Bureau experts declare that the wearing of the present types of oxygen rescue apparatus involves grave danger, owing to the fact that the makers have as yet failed to meet satisfactorily certain mechanical and physiological needs in construction.

"While this report is primarily of interest to the mining industry, and is meant as a measure for the improvement in the oxygen apparatus used in saving life at mine disasters," said the statement, "it comes at such a time as to be of great value to the army and navy in their need of apparatus to protest the lives of their men in warfare."

BISSING'S SUCCESSOR.

Amsterdam, Via London, April 23.—According to a Hanover newspaper received here, Colonel-General Baron von Falkenhausen has been appointed governor-general of Belgium, in succession to General von Bissing, who died several days ago.

BALFOUR SAILED BY FAST CRUISER, AND KEPT GOING SECRET

Official Party Has Reached Washington Safely.

SUSPENSE IN U. S. CAPITAL

Special Train With Steam Up Ready for Five Days.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Arthur J. Balfour, Great Britain's foreign secretary, and the British high commissioners, sent to confer with American officials, arrived safely at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They were welcomed at the union station by Secretary Lansing and the British ambassador.

The American capital today extended a simple but heartfelt welcome to the British minister for foreign affairs, and the other members of the British commission, which has come to Washington, as Mr. Balfour himself expressed it, "to make co-operation easy and effective between those who are striving—with all their power—to bring about a lasting peace by the only means that can secure it, namely, a successful war."

Event Treated Seriously.

The only touch of color was lent by the three large flags, the American, British and French, which were hoisted on the three great masts adorning the plaza. Nor was there any music to greet the visitors, the original plan, including the presence of the marine band, having been amended to conform to the view expressed by President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing, that this was a grave and serious event in history, and not to be lightly treated or regarded as a social and festive affair.

On the plaza and overlapping the great building at either wing were gathered some 5,000 persons waiting patiently for a glimpse of the nation's guests, restrained at a proper distance by hundreds of policemen and by two troops of cavalry.

Detectives Everywhere.

Within the station lines had been drawn separating the traveling public from the space at the eastern end of the concourse, across which the visiting party was to pass on the way from the train shed to the president's room. All of the police captains of the district had been ranged here in a double line as a guard of honor and to keep back intruders. Detectives swarmed everywhere through the crowds and at various angles where any danger might lurk. Altogether, the precautions taken to insure safety of the nation's visitors exceeded anything ever known in the history of the district.

Aside from the guards only a very few persons had been permitted to enter the train shed. Those included Secretary Lansing, Frank L. Polk, counsellor for the state department; William Phillips, assistant secretary of seate; Hugh Gibson, secretary of the American legation at Brussels, who distinguished himself by his extraordinary efforts to save the life of Edith Cavell, and several other state department officials.

The British Party.

Representing the British Government were Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador; Colville Barclay, counsellor for the embassy; Thomas Spring-Rice, Mr. Hohler, Lieut.-Col. Murrough O'Brien, Commodore Guy Gaunt, secretaries tnd attaches of the embassy.

As the special train stopped the minister for foreign affairs descended, hat in hand, and was immediately presented by the British ambassador to Secretary Lansing. The two secretaries exchanged a hearty hand clasp and chatted for a few moments.

As the party started on its way up Massachusetts avenue, the crowds burst into cheers and applause, to which Mr. Balfour and the others responded by bowing right and left. The route lay up Massachusetts avenue to Sixteenth street, to the palatial MacVeagh homestead just beyond the crest of a hill and within a few hundred yards of the French embassy building. Passing the latter the visitors were greeted by Ambassador Jusserand, who, with Madame Jusserand, and the full staff of the embassy saluted them from the portico over the entrance. The salute was returned by the entire party.

A detachment of regular soldiers will remain on guard constantly around the MacVeagh residence during the stay of Mr. Balfour and his party. Tents for their use have been pitched near the house. A police captain, who is a native of England, will be in charge of the police detail.

Left Britain Secretly.

The British commissioners stole secretly away from England April 11 on a fast cruiser, protected in every possible way from German spies who might have got out word to lurking submarines. The voyage was entirely uneventful, however, and the party arrived at Halifax Friday. Crossing to St. John, a special train took them to the little Canadian town of McAdam.

Meanwhile, the American reception committee slipped out of Washington last Sunday night under the impression that the British started two days earlier than they did. With a five-car special train standing with steam up at the station, the committee waiting anxiously from Monday until Friday afternoon, when the word came from Halifax which sent them in a night ride to the border.

At 9 o'clock Saturday morning, the party arrived at Vanceboro.

To this place the special train which had gone on to McAdam, returned two hours later, bearing England's eminent statesmen. As it drew across the bridge into the station, Secretary Long and his party mounted the rear of the observation car and disappeared inside to welcome the commission formally to American soil.

No Pause Made.

In less than ten minutes the train was under way for the capital, with the various British and American officials settling down to simple and informal talks, which continued throughout the long journey. Mr. Balfour passed frequently in and out of the observation car, making acquaintance of the American officials and placing everyone at his ease.

Mr. Balfour, while unwilling to speculate on what form American participation in the war might take, said he had no doubt that America's efforts would astonish the world, particularly Germany. He indicated that it was his opinion that if Germany had foreseen how fully the United States would enter the struggle she would not have precipitated a war between the two countries.

More and more it has become evident that the commission, aside from any technical aid it may render to this country, has come over for a general and broad understanding of the whole American point of view, without as yet having outlined a specific program in its own mind.

HARD COAL MINERS CONFER WITH OPERATORS, HOPING TO SECURE MORE WAGES

New York, April 23.—Representatives of 175,000 anthracite miners resumed here today the conference with a committee of operators which the men hope will result in a wage increase equal to the 20 per cent advance recently granted workers in some of the bituminous fields.

President John P. White of the United Mine Workers of America is hopeful that a basis of agreement will be reached within two or three days. He and his colleagues take the position that "miners who are now working for a wage which does not enable them to feed themselves" should receive an increase "commensurate with the phenomenal cost of living in the last year."

BALFOUR STIRRED WITH EMOTION ON REACHING CANADA

Ypres and Vimy Have Endeared Sons to Empire.

IMPERIAL RECOGHITION

Sir George Foster and Sir Thomas White To Attend Conference.

OTTAWA, April 22.—Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, in a message to the governor-general while at Halifax en route to Washington, voiced the highest appreciation of the splendid heroism of Canada's sons and the part the Dominion is playing in the war. His message says:

"I am glad that owing to the chances of war a diplomatic mission from Great Britain to the United States should first set foot upon American soil in Canada and that it should fall to me, a Scot by birth, as so many thousands of your fellow-citizens, to bear witness to the heroism and the patient sacrifice of your sons and daughters. The roll of honor of the British Empire has many names upon it which kindle our imagination and in the mention have power to knit us all together.

Ypres and Vimy Great Names.

"Upon that roll the names of Ypres and Vimy Ridge will bear witness to the world that, when the cause was just and the peril great, Canada would spare nothing of what in peace time men hold dear. I know well that heroism and sacrifice are not confined within the limits of the battlefield. Sir Robert Borden has had a story to tell in Great Britain of effort prodigally offered to the imperial cause in every township from ocean to ocean, of the prudent counsels of your provinces and their statesmen in matters of administration and finance; of the contrivance of your men of business; of the munitions work that your men and women have performed. Finally, but not least, I would not have forgotten in the Empire the service of Canada to the work of the Red Cross.

Utmost Energy Shown.

"You have combined to the utmost limit of your powers, energy and mercy in your prosecution of the war. In times of reconstruction such as these men form the only foundation upon which empires can be built that have any service to offer to mankind. I have been sent upon a mission to your neighboring state. I think of it as your mission as well as ours and I trust that a representative of Canada will join me in Washington."

The following statement was issued by the Dominion Government today:

"The mission sent by the British Government to Washington is headed by the foreign secretary, Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, and comprises a varied staff of able and expert men representing all the principal branches of the British military and naval service, with others eminent in financial and business circles. Equally distinguished is the mission sent by the French Government headed by the eloquent ex-Premier Viviani and the famous General Joffre, and seconded by a staff of experienced and able men.

Most Important Event.

"No more striking or picturesque event has happened within the range of history than this voyage of representatives of two of the oldest and most powerful civilizations of Europe worn by the strain of almost three years of warfare, across an ocean strewn with deadly peril, to take counsel with the most powerful of the young democracies of the world for concerted action against a common foe in defence of liberty and human rights.

"One purpose of the conference is to collaborate plans and co-ordinate resources both of man power and material and which shall best affect the speedy and successful conclusion of the war. The British mission numbers among its members two representatives of the Canadian Government, the Right Hon. Sir George Foster, and Hon. Sir Thomas White, who have been appointed by His Majesty's Government.

Imperial Recognition.

"In this respect the precedent sometime since set by the British Government of recognizing the overseas dominions as integral parts of the Empire has been followed. The economic conference in Paris last June the British delegation comprised Mr. Bonar Law, Sir George Foster and Premier Hughes. In the war conference now proceeding in London the overseas dominions and India are represented and have equal voice in council and conclusion. So in this unique and important conference which convenes in Washington next week, two members of the British mission are chosen from the Dominion of Canada. Sir George Foster will proceed at once to Washington to meet the other members of the mission; Sir Thomas White will follow later when the budget is well under way. It is not probable that both of these gentlemen will be absent at the same time as both departmental and parliamentary duties render this inadvisable, in-so-far as it can be avoided.

"It is not known how long the conference will last, but the range and importance of the matters to be discussed will call for some time and hard consecutive work."

CONGRESS IS DEBATING U. S. CONSCRIPTION BILL

Washington, April 23.—The administration bill to create a big war army by selective draft was under debate in both houses today. It was taken up in the House for the first time and in the Senate debate was resumed.

The House bill, as reported by a majority of the committee, provided for volunteer enlistment with conscription only as a last resort, and the fight for this measure was led by Chairman Dent of the military committee, whose supporters felt sure that they would make a good showing. A strong element in the House, however, backed the selective conscription plan advocated by the army general staff and recommended by the military committee minority, led by Representative Kahn, of California, a Republican.

In the Senate the bill under consideration was to be followed by five minute talks.

SEEING SILVERWOODS GROW.

The famous story of the beanstalk that Jack planted is rivalled by the truthful chronicles of the remarkable development in the past half dozen years of a leading London industry, Silverwoods, Limited.

Five years ago, to meet the demands of the time and prospects for future expansion, Silverwoods was moved from an unpretentious building at the corner of York and Ridout streets to the warehouse which is a part of the present imposing plant. Five years ago one small room sufficed for the manufacture of outter for the Silverwood trade. Four years ago a four-story reinforced concrete creamery was erected, and by the same the public knew that Silverwoods was progressing. Five years ago Silverwoods velvet smooth ice cream was an epicurean dream that had not yet come true. Four years ago, prior to the opening of the creamery plant, Silverwoods pure ice cream was manufactured in a room 12 by 20 feet.

Along with all the other "last words" in the way of equipment for the treatment of the cream and manufacture into ice cream and butter installed in the new creamery was the machine which turned the "velvet smooth" trick, a "homogenizing plant," and no less, the first of the kind to be used in Western Ontario. When the high-sounding named machine got on the rampage, it didn't do a thing but pummel the cream like a cyclone until there wasn't two cream globules left that could recognize one another as such, or gather themselves together in a grand effort to defeat intentions and turn up in the ice cream in the form of butter.

Perfect pasteurization and handling under only the most sanitary conditions entitle the products of Silverwoods Limited, to a leading position in any pure food show

ENTENTE MILITARY WORKS DAMAGED, SAYS VIENNA

VIENNA, via London, April 21.—An official statement issued today says that in connection with Entente air raids on suburbs of Triest, which caused no considerable damage, a squadron of Austrian naval airplanes before daybreak on Friday dropped bombs on the military works at Sancanziano, southwest of Gorizia.

A large fire was caused, the statement adds, and all the machines returned safely.

RED CROSS CONCERT.

FOREST, April 22.—The musicale given in the town hall Friday evening in aid of the Red Cross by the piano and violin pupils of Mrs. Arthur Dunlop, A.T.C.M., was a musical triumph, and reflected great credit on both pupils and teacher.

The Forest orchestra of nine pieces contributed two splendid selections. Miss O'Connor of Ridgetown, and Miss Tuck of Thedford, each gave a delightful vocal solo, and a quintet of small boys gave two amusing numbers. The stage was decorated with flags and bunting, and the entire proceeds will be given for Red Cross work. This is the second musicale Mrs. Dunlop has given in aid of the Red Cross.

ELECTRIC COOKING INSURES FOOD PURITY.

What possible relation can a hydro-electric range bear to a pure food show?

No trouble at all to answer this question. Foods can only be pure when cooked under the most sanitary conditions, and food cooked by electricity is sweet, clean, free from dust, gases, smoke and soot, hence the entire propriety with which the city hydro calls special attention to the hydro-electric range in one of the most inviting corners of the Pure Food Show all this week.

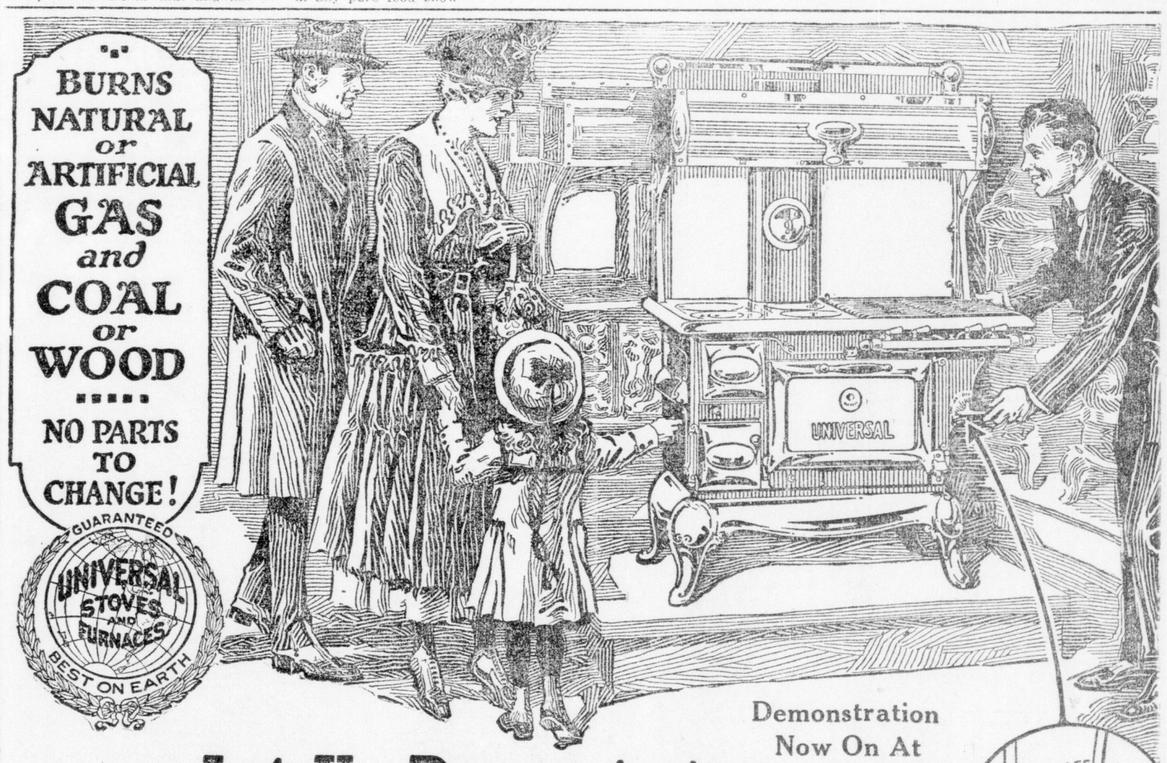

The hydro-electric range has several other convincing arguments in its favor. For example, the kitchen where it is used is cooler and more comfortable in summer time, and the risk of fire is lessened at any time because there are no open flames.

Another modern improvement which solves in an ideal manner the problem of warmth and comfort between seasons or on a damp and chilly summer evening is the electric heater, which makes for sanitary, hygienic conditions in the home. The electric vacuum cleaner cleans in the only really "clean" way. Old-fashioned cleaning days, with their wearisome chaos, are but unpleasant memories after this best and most tireless of domestic helpers has been installed.

Electric cooking appliances, irons, washing machines are among the many other interesting features of the hydro-electric exhibit.

PORT SAID'S TRANSFORMATION.

THERE is a direct confutation of the commonly-made statements, that morals in the army are bad, and that the presence of many soldiers in a city makes for immorality, in the recent history of Port Said. It is a record which speaks volumes for the temperance, in a broad meaning of the word, which obtains where soldiers are gathered together.

For many years, Port Said had the unchallenged reputation of being the worst city in the world. There the scum of the universe congregated, and passions were as unbridled as among the beasts of the forest; lawlessness was the rule, not the exception, and crime held sway.

Today, according to those who have returned from that district, Port Said is almost a model city. Vice is suppressed, laws are observed and crime is punished surely and swiftly. Here is gathered a British army, or a portion of one, and the cleaning-up is due to it and its officers. There is no claim made that the city is one big Sunday school, but it is a place of temperance, where freedom is no longer a synonym for license, and where decent people may live and enjoy life. Surely this should counterbalance some of the less authentic stories so eagerly told about the temptations of army life.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE.

IT IS PREDICTED in Liberal circles that Reeve John R. Ross of Lucan will accept his nomination as Liberal candidate for East Middlesex in the next federal election, and those who know him are delighted that he will be the standard-bearer.

Mr. Ross is one of the most widely-known and popular men in the riding.

A general merchant in business, he is in constant touch with the farmers of the district. He knows their needs, has learned their views and, in the event of his being elected, they may be certain of his most sympathetic support of all measures introduced in the House, tending to benefit them or the community at large.

The nominee is and has long been a student of politics, well-informed and up-to-date, a real "live wire." If he accepts the call of his party and is elected, East Middlesex will have reason to be proud of her representative.

ARE WE UNDEMOCRATIC?

IT WAS some years ago. A young Canadian was applying for a position with a "big" American concern. The head of the concern was "sizing" the Canadian. He spent some time on the scrutiny. He talked of many things.

"Do your provinces look after the asylums and schools or does the federal administration?" he asked casually.

The Canadian knew the correct answer, and he was pleased to give the information. Unconsciously, he scored a point for himself. Other "casual" inquiries came along. The man who was answering didn't pretend to know too much, but when he had specific information he gave it. Then he gradually told about his selling record. He had been doing a "stiff" territory in Ontario, and he had made good. Was it hard selling? Yes, it was. But it was selling.

"Put her there, my boy; you're hired," said the head of the concern suddenly. "I worked that country myself, selling plumbers' supplies, and I want to tell you that anyone who can sell goods in Ontario can sell them anywhere. It's the toughest proposition in North America, and a moderate Ontario success is worth a whoop of a drummer in New York State."

The story was repeated to The Advertiser the other day. It seemed to have a psychological value. Are we so hard to "sell"? Are we crusty and close in our commercial enterprises? Do we haggle and refuse to buy, simply because we are suspicious of anyone who wants to sell us? And, inversely, do we, when we bite, bite so hard that we get the three hooks of the snare and the gaff as well?

A man who is hard to sell isn't usually a whale of a salesman himself. A crusty gentleman who rushes up and down his store, scowling, and who "makes busy" every time a traveler comes along, isn't likely to be able to induce customers to buy beyond their barest requirements.

Are we too hard to sell? It may make good commercial travelers of the men who tackle us, but it may also make them cross the line to the United States, where the same energy brings greater rewards, and more "decent" treatment.

Go into the average Ontario "big" man and you will find him hedged about with secretaries and bodyguards. He is difficult to reach. His attitude often is that he doesn't want to see the public. The human plug of electrical contact is to be connected with the underlings on most occasions. Many of our businessmen are inclined to be "uppish" for a fact.

If you ever have occasion to go into a New York bank, and you have legitimate business with one of the vice-presidents, you will find him accessible the moment he is alone. And you will find him working with the rest of the force, as a captain works with his men in the trenches. He will not waste time with you, but he will not waste his own time in bumptiousness. We are less accessible in Canada, and more bumptious. Perhaps that is because we have not learned to regard our work as a great romance, to dramatize and to get as close as possible to the other characters in that drama. Perhaps it is because we are insular, self-centred, unresponsive to appeals that try to reach public spirit, indifferent to the other fellow.

The older men need to "loosen up." The iciness of Ontario business, especially Toronto business, has driven thousands upon thousands of the best of our men into the United States, or "out west." We shall get few of them back. Ontario needs them, needs them badly, needs them more than the United States or the west needs them. Let the spirit of pure friendship and business democracy be invoked to keep the next generation in Ontario.

VAIN PRAYERS.

THE PEACE service held at Vienna by the Austrian Emperor was the sort of Hun blasphemy and hollow mockery of sober truth that we have long got used to. In the prayer offered up by Emperor Karl, composed, we may easily believe, by the well-named Cardinal Piffl, who officiated at the ceremony, God is in the opening sentence reminded of His promises to the patient, of how patient "we" had been in peace time "towards our enemies," and of the fact that the war was forced by them (the Serbians, doubtless) upon Austria.

The only patience shown by Austro-Hungarians towards their Serb subjects and neighbors before the war consisted in continual bullying without actual extermination. Patience was mostly the other way round, observed by the downtrodden Serbs towards the Hun oppressors, because they had not the strength to resist. On top of lie number one follows then in Hunnish profusion the old infernal and obvious lie that the Serbs forced the war on Austria. It is a simple fact that Austria declared war on Serbia because Serbia humbly asked to have the Austrian charges submitted to arbitration at The Hague.

In the second sentence of Karl's, or Piffl's, prayer this assertion is repeated, to God and at the congregation. There is a certain truculent defiance of tone in such an immediate repetition of the falsehood. "I repeat, Sir (and let Socialists, Szechs, Slovaks and malcontents in this congregation take note that Hapsburg sticks to his story), it's the Serbs and their friends did it first. It may seem strange, doubtless, that the whole world except Potsdam sides with the Serbs and takes their view, but it is none the less true that we were the long-suffering and they started it, for you see, Sir, I state the case this way again and again, and so does Kaiser Wilhelm. Believe me, Sir, and not those Allies."

Shame, Karl! When Cain killed Abel he did not lie to God like these Teuton blackguards over the matter. He took his medicine. Which is preferable, Karl or Cain?

"We recognize the blessings of peace," prays Karl, in the tone of one making a concession, so please "give us peace in our days." He seems to say, for the benefit of the pious and submissive congregation, "We have believed in the beauties of war and the advantages to be gained by it (provided you win), and we are winning, of course, though slowly, and we still stick, mind you, to our inspired and infallible views on war in general; but there's no use denying that there are two sides to every question, peace too has its advantages, such as they are, and indeed this particular war may very likely be a sort of exception that proves the rule. Yes, dear Lord Woden, we'll take peace any minute you will grant it to us." Karl need not worry about getting "peace in our days." It will probably come sooner than he is ready for it, and there will be a bloody peace of reckoning for those who have broken the laws of nations by their inhuman conduct of the war.

It is amusing, almost, that the Viennese head of the several-headed Teuto-Turkish monster winds up his prayer by a lavish promise or bribe to his Lord, to build a church to Our Lady of Peace, going into some tempting particulars about its services de luxe. The Lord needs no Hapsburg bribe. He will send the Huns their peace and quietus, and we hope He will not be very much longer about it. Karl in his panic is wasting money! But no; Austria is about bankrupt, and the emperor does not state just when he will build the promised church. This time another year he will probably be in the same boat with Nicholas Romanoff and Manuel late of Portugal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Press censorship for the United States. Hard luck, Hearst.

Machine guns needed to keep German soldiers and sailors from deserting. Morale is a vanishing quantity there.

Britain should give a hearty welcome to the first of those ex-German, now-American ships, to arrive with supplies.

Ideas are like the other bugs. We catch them one from another by infection, as measles and diphtheria are communicated.

Again the prospect of having to do without Sunday cars for a while looms up in the city. Who is asleep? Is it the council or the company?

Is it not strange that in all Britain's curtailment of foods and luxuries, tobacco consumption has not been appreciably touched?

What an interesting story that published Saturday from the Canadian war records office, on the Vimy battle, would have proved if issued ten days earlier.

Evidently there are some people who like dogs and cats and some who don't. The controversy is on. It was a Frenchman who said: "The more I see of men, the better I like dogs."

SUB PUTS 19 PRISONERS ON HER DECK AND DIVES, LEAVING THEM TO SWIM

Five Americans Are Participants of This Little Diversion.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A state department dispatch today told how a German submarine several days ago sunk an unarmed freight steamer, whose name was not given, placed the crew of 19, including five Americans, on the submarine deck, and when a British patrol boat was sighted, dived suddenly, leaving the nineteen to struggle for their lives in the water. The men managed to reach a boat and an hour later they were picked up by the patrol.

The master of the ship had been kept prisoner aboard the submarine.

The submarine fired a torpedo at the freighter without warning, but missed, and then gave chase, shelling the vessel until she stopped. The crew took to boats and the ship was sunk by a bomb. One American was slightly wounded during the shelling.

MINISTER KILLS WIFE AND MOTHER-IN-LAW BECAUSE PRO-GERMAN

Also Wounds Sister-In-Law, Then Commits Suicide.

YONKERS, N. Y., April 22.—After a quarrel about the war with his mother-in-law, a native of Germany and his wife, Rev. Robert F. Berry, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in East Yonkers, early today shot and killed both women, wounded his sister-in-law and then committed sucide. He left a note contained only two words—"Insane Prussians."

From Miss Caroline Bahr, the clergyman's sister-in-law, the police say they learned that Rev. Mr. Berry purchased a pistol several days ago, saying he had joined the home defence guard. There had been frequent quarrels, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Caroline Bahr, 72 years, and his wife, Matilda, 35 years old, being strongly pro-German and he arguing that the United States was justified in entering the war against Germany.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK IN SMASH OFF SANDY HOOK

NEW YORK, April 22.—The British ship Durley Chine, bound in ballast from a Canadian to an American port was sunk in collision at 1:30 o'clock this morning by the British freight steamer Harlem, 65 miles east of Sandy Hook. The Harlem, her bows bent and making water, returned to port here today with the captain and all the 28 men of the crew of the Durley Chine.

The Harlem, which sailed yesterday afternoon, was heavily loaded. She struck the Durley Chine amidships, cutting her almost in two. The Harlem was so badly damaged that she will be forced to lighten her cargo and go into drydock for repairs.

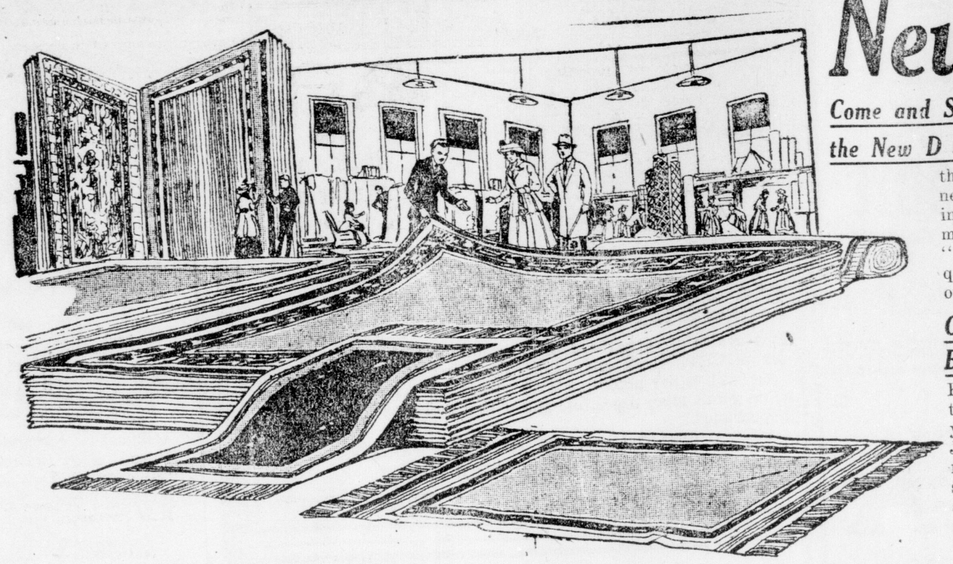

BERLIN LIES SOME MORE ABOUT RAIDS IN CHANNEL

LONDON, April 22.—A German official statement describing the recent naval raids in the English Channel says that a British outpost vessel off Dover was destroyed, that a British scouting vessel off Dover was destroyed, that a British scouting vessel was sunk by a torpedo and that several others were heavily damaged, and one probably sunk.

The German statement also says that as no enemy warships were encountered south of the Thames, the German destroyers had to be content with bringing in some prisoners from merchantmen. The Germans admit the loss of two of their destroyers.

With respect to this statement, the British admiralty says that no British vessels of any sort were sunk or even seriously damaged, and that the Germans captured only three men of an abandoned barge.

The Final Need of a Newly Cleaned House

Perhaps it's unnecessary to speak of the value of a really good, artistic rug. Everybody admits it. But not everybody knows that it is an economy, too. It saves time in cleaning and it saves strength. Old matted carpets catch and hold dust; the wiry fibres of a crisp, new rug prevent the small particles from settling. Our rugs have the all-wool nap that gives both elasticity and strength. They are so firmly woven that good wear is assured. The colors used are chosen for their original beauty and for their lasting qualities. No amount of usage will harm them. All the beautiful Persian, Oriental, Two-tone and Floral designs are here.

Beautiful New Draperies Are Here At Exceptionally Low Prices

Make your home the most inviting spot on earth, the place where the family will love to linger and will be proud to invite friends to. Nothing is more depressing than an everyday environment of slovenliness and dinginess.

At no time in all the year does wear and tear and fade in rugs and draperies show up to such disadvantage as when the bright sunshine of springtime floods every chink and corner with light.

Freshening up the house to "greet the spring" and be in harmony with the great outdoors world, fortunately, does not imply large expenditure. Manufacturers are offering a wealth of beautiful fabrics in marvelously rich and harmonious colorings, at prices to suit every pocket.

Nothing is more effective in brightening the home than the dainty chintzes and cretonnes, the rich tapestries and wonder-hued shadow cloths for covers and side-curtains. Even a new pair of voile or marquisette curtains will accomplish an unbelievable improvement.

Let your home be a reflection of your inherent good taste. The new individual touches within your means will permit you to throw high your shades and invite the keen inspection of springtime unafraid.

THE GREAT VALUE OF BIRDS.

Many gardeners, especially amateur gardeners, who have not had practical experience in all the phases of the producing trade, are unaware that they have invaluable allies in the birds. The great plan of nature is so perfect that all things work together, and nothing is independent of others. Man is very powerful on the face of the earth, and seemingly independent, yet if it were not for the birds, man would be unable to exist. And why? Because without them the great family of insects would soon devour the whole living world and then die. Artificial means of checking these tiny, and yet, by virtue of their number, infinitely powerful creatures, would be pitifully impossible. When one thinks of the magnitude of the areas in which these creatures dwell, and the rapidity with which they multiply, man, with his reasoning mind, becomes but a weakling, a mere incident in the world, helpless to cope with the gigantic enemy, capable of devouring his sustenance in almost the twinkling of an eye. And what is it that protects him from this great enemy? It is the birds.

Out into the forests they go, far from the habitations of man, where spraying pumps and poison solutions are unknown, and there, nesting among the leafy branches of great trees, they war upon the insects. The war in Europe fades into insignificance when compared to this war between bird and insect, for without it nothing could be, not even the war in Europe. And why do the birds carry on this war? Not because they are eager to kill for the sake of killing, but because nature in her great wisdom, and perhaps in her care for man, has given them a taste which relishes insects above all other food. So the great forest trees are preserved. But why preserve these trees? Their lumber is essential to man, but that is not all. These forests preserve moisture in the soil, and were all the trees eliminated from the earth, agriculture would be impossible, and man, without food, could not live.

Why, then, does man, in direct defiance of the laws of nature, just as if his chief object on earth were to bring about his own destruction, go out into the forests and deliberately and methodically and scientifically set to work to kill the very creatures which are instinctively working for his preservation? Merely that a delicate palate may be gratified, or that my lady's hat shall have a chance of trimming. Truly man has a queer conception as to what are the fundamental and what are the superficial things in life.

The birds go out into the garden and meadow, eating all the caterpillars and insects and many harmful weeds, which would otherwise destroy the growing food. They may take an occasional seed, it is true, but what of that? Do you expect any human workman to come into your garden and work for nothing? Then why grudge the birds their little wage? Indeed, if one species of cutworm alone were not kept under control by the birds, soon there would not be a particle of green stuff above ground. The orchard is the place where the bird is apt a provoke in us the greatest anger, for besides being fond of the caterpillars, he is also very partial to the fruit. Yet why be unreasonable about this? We are apt to grumble at the man who demands a fairly big wage, but when we cannot do without him, we pay. Likewise we cannot do without the birds, and we must be willing to pay them, too. If all fruit growers went out into the orchards with shotguns and chased away the birds, they would have no fruit at all. Surely some—and a big some, at that—is better than none.

The animal world, besides indirectly owing its food to the birds, also owes much to them directly. Live stock could not be kept were it not for the birds, who alight on the backs of the cattle and catch troublesome flies on the wing. Human beings who have suffered much from black flies and mosquitoes will appreciate the good work continually being done by the birds in this direction. Then, too, man's health is greatly dependent on these winged scavengers, who are quite willing and anxious to eat what would otherwise breed disease.

Instead of setting about to destroy birds, one of man's chief aims should be to do everything possible to preserve them. And this year, when there is to be so much gardening done in the city, it should be the aim of citizens to try and keep as many as possible of the insect-eating birds in the city. Be ready to supply them with water, and have tiny houses ready in which they may be coaxed to build their nests. Their assistance in the garden will more than compensate for any trouble which they may cause. Bird-catching cats should be abolished. There are many of the "pussy hood" which are content to leave the birds alone, and then there are other whose chief occupation seems to be bird-chasing. These "others" should be forbidden the freedom of the city streets, for the economic value of birds is so great that nothing which will injure them in any way should be tolerated.

—THE GIRL WITH THE HOE.

FOR BELGIAN RELIEF.

AILSA CRAIG, April 22. — "The Mountain Waif," a four-act drama, put on by the young people of Parkhill for the Young Ladies' Club, drew a good house, and only for the storm coming up the hall would have been crowded, as the townspeople turned out well, but country people could not possibly face the storm. Those that were present enjoyed the play and the orchestra of eight pieces. Each one taking part in the play is considered as deserving of great credit. During the evening Mrs. A. T. Edwards, secretary of the Red Cross of London, motored out with a party of friends, and gave an interesting address on the Byron Sanatorium and the work the Young Ladies Club of this town has done, and is doing, and also explained fully about all there is for people to do, especially for the returned soldiers.

Mrs. Edwards is also treasurer for Belgian relief, and impressed on those present the special need at present for this fund, and the ten girls are now working for money for the Belgians and sending eggs and fruit weekly to London for the hospital. The guests were entertained by the club at their homes, and altogether the evening was a grand success. Proceeds were for the Belgians.

WEST ZORRA WOMAN DIES FROM TERRIBLE BURNS

Managed to Extinguish Fire Caused by Spark, But Dies In Hospital.

EMBRO, April 21.—Mrs. Hugh McPherson, aged 63, of the third concession of West Zorra, died today from burns she received when a spark flew from the stove at her home last night and set fire to her dress. She was standing with her back to the stove, and her clothes were aflame before she knew the spark had struck her. She was alone in the house, but rushed outside and jumped into a big tub of water, quenching the flames. Making her way back in, she sank unconscious to the floor, and was found by her son when he returned some time later.

Medical help was at once called, and she was taken to Woodstock hospital. She rallied greatly for a time, but later suffered severely from the burns and shock, and died today.

Besides her husband she leaves three sons, Murray and Mack at home, and Howard of Woodstock. Mrs. McPherson was a member of the Congregational Church, and the funeral will be held from there on Monday afternoon to the North Embro Cemetery.

RUSSIAN ADVANCED POST DRIVEN BACK IN RUMANIA

On Front In Russia Two German Attacks Are Repulsed.

PETROGRAD, via London, April 23.—The official statement issued from Russian headquarters Sunday reads:

"On the western (Russian) front, in the direction of Vladimir-Volynski, in the region of Chelvov, an enemy company supported by artillery took the offensive, but was repulsed. In the region of Zbornor the enemy endeavored to advance on our trenches, but we checked all his efforts with our fire.

"South of Brzezany the enemy blew a mine, and an explosion occurred in "No Man's Land." On the rest of the front there were the usual firing and reconnaissances.

"On the Rumanian front, in the direction of Kezvi, and Vasanghai, the enemy drove back our advanced outposts."

CANADA MUST CEASE CALLING U. S. LABOR

Sir George Foster Honors Appeals From Minnesota.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Efforts to attract labor from the United States to Canadian farms under promise of high wages and exemption from military service, and other inducements by means of advertisements inserted in newspapers in this country, have been ordered discontinued, Sir George Foster, acting prime minister of Canada, Saturday telegraphed Senator Kellogg of Minnesota to this effect, in response to a message from the senator calling attention that thousands of laborers have gone to Canada as a result of the propaganda conducted in this country with the consent of the Dominion Government.

Sir George's telegram follows:

"Your telegram of yesterday received. The advertisements referred to by you have been withdrawn and instructions given for labor canvass."

BUSINESSWOMEN ARE INVITED TO ST. LOUIS

Associated Advertising Clubs Arranging Convention To Be Held in June.

Whisking the whiskers off of Russia is the chief business of one of the advertising women of the United States, and there will be a lot of business women attending the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world, at St. Louis, June 3 to 7, who will go expecting to learn how Miss Olive A. Cole, advertising manager for one of the most widely-advertised safety razors, is getting on with her plans to make a larger market for her goods in Russia. Her advertising, it is admitted by all mere men, has had a great deal to do with the fact that whiskers are tabooed in America. And now her company is determined to make photographs of groups of Russians look less like bunches of brooms as they stand, bandie gown, in the corner grocery. They will learn at St. Louis that she is succeeding admirably—that in spite of the war the company has received orders for 60,000 razors in Russia this year, which is almost as many as have been sent into that country in ten years before. Mr. D. McEachern, chairman of the committee of the London Advertising Club, which is promoting attendance at the St. Louis convention, received word yesterday urging him to let the business women of this city know there will be a special conference for women engaged in advertising and selling work, and to invite them to join the local delegation of advertising men for the St. Louis trip. It is anticipated to be 200 or 300 women who earn their living in the advertising business in attendance among the 5,000 or 6,000 people who will gather at St. Louis in June. b

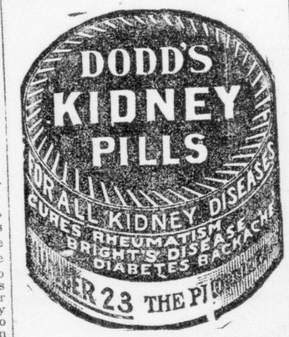

"RIGHT WORD" OFTEN HARD TO CHOOSE

Inability to choose the right word often places a speaker in an embarrassing position. Many businessmen lose much valuable time because they find it difficult to express what they want to say when they dictate their correspondence. Greater freedom and accuracy in speaking and writing can be acquired by studying a dictionary. A few minutes devoted to the study of words and their meaning each day will in a short time result in great benefit to anyone who will put that practice to a test.

The New Universities Dictionary being offered to readers of this paper is particularly adapted to aid those who wish to acquire greater familiarity with the English language. It contains all the new words which have come into common and proper use in recent years. Its definitions are simple and accurate, making it possible to choose words that will best serve the purpose of correct speaking and writing. Many of the new words that have been brought into use through such specialized activities as war, aviation, golf, baseball, and other forms of sports have been conveniently classified in supplementary dictionaries.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio., April 23.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks, but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

"A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 2844 W. 12th Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International Sunday School Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Jesus Welcomed as King." John, xii., 12-26.

Golden Text—"Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel." John, xii., 13.

1. Verses 12-13—How is Jesus regarded today by the common people; what is the opinion of the masses concerning him?

2. From a religious standpoint, how would you describe the character of this throng of people?

3. If a vote could be taken of every adult person on the American continent as to who is the greatest man in history, what proportion, in your opinion, would vote for Jesus?

WOMAN'S WORK

(Engineering.)

THE EFFICIENCY OF WOMEN ENGINEERS.

Mr. Kellaway quotes that "a prominent engineer has expressed his firm conviction that, given two more years of war, he would undertake to build a battleship from keel to aerial in all its complex detail entirely by women labor." Those who see the work at the present exhibition and realize that it is only a minute fraction of what could be brought together by the technical section of the ministry, had they the space requisite, will perhaps appreciate that the idea is neither fantastic nor a vision of Jules Verne or H. G. Wells. The woman who has trained for the trapeze can find her vocation at the giddy heights of a Scotch crane, and the girl who is proficient at dancing is well equipped for undertaking work involving movement of position. The ministry has found cases where these specialized abilities have been successfully applied to industry. Only a small modification of the gear of the heavy forging press or of the appliances in the molding shop would be necessary to decrease the muscular effort required by one-half and to increase the distance of the operator from the hot metal or furnace by the equivalent. There are, in fact, some operations in the smiths' and press shops in which the aptitude of women for correct appreciation of time intervals shows to great advantage. The motion study has been a favorite subject with American factory organization experts for several years, and the sequence of movements made by the operator is a theme which would bear careful investigation. This sense and its influence on industrial processes was alluded to by Jules Verne some thirty years ago in "The Begum's Fortune"; today, by the aid of the cinematograph, it can be investigated on a scientific basis. It is to be hoped that any further exhibition held under the auspices of the ministry may be undertaken on a larger scale and supplemented by a series of films illustrating good examples of motion study; films which the photographic section of the ministry should know best where and how to obtain.

In the training of the army of women labor the part of the employer, the intermediary and workman has been recognized; it is, however, equally necessary to consider the effort of the individual women workers, for the results obtained from their labor and the shortness of the time in which they arrive at proficiency have exceeded all expectation. This can be explained by various causes; some special to war conditions, such as patriotism, the personal factor involved by relations or others at the front, or the need of the pecuniary reward; or, others special to the natural aptitude of a large majority of women for manual work, and last, but not least, the special efforts made to train woman labor by efficient methods.

The ordinary apprentice learns to file flat in the course of years of more or less close personal application. Many a woman worker can be taught to file as flat in less than one-tenth of the time, provided she is instructed by a really capable and painstaking demonstrator.

Much is already known as to the methods of selection of labor, and some instances which appear quite anomalous have been investigated, for example, the selection of operators for rifle-barrel straightening is primarily by the color of the eyes, grey or blue having been found to provide the highest percentage of efficient workers.

WOMEN'S WORK ON MUNITIONS.

The exhibition of women's work at the Royal Colonial Institute, which was opened on the 26th of March by Mr. Kellaway, M. P., will bring home to manufacturers, engineers, foremen and tradesmen the magnitude of the field now covered by women labor. The exhibits include parts for internal combustion engines; aeroplane engines of the rotary, vee and vertical types; magnetos, sparking plugs and accessories; aeroplane fittings and woodwork; toolroom work; guns and gun components; small arms and machine-gun parts; optical work; medical and surgical apparatus; welfare types of overalls, suits and clothing for special industries; light body armor and steel helmets; while those classes of munition work with which women labor is popularly associated—shot, shells, fuses, gaines, grenades and bombs—are also represented. The range of processes and occupations involved in the production of the parts shown is so wide that it may be said to cover all branches of the engineering trade—mechanical, electrical and chemical.

In the speech made by Mr. Kellaway, the magnitude of the work done since the ministry of munitions was established in May, 1915, was shown by data of increase in output as follow: 18-pounder guns, 28 times; machine guns, 27 times; 4.5-inch field howitzers, 52 times; high explosives, 70 times; medium guns and howitzers, 71 times; and heavy howitzers above 6 in., 423 times.

The manner in which these results have been brought about is more striking when it is noted that of the men engaged in the trades concerned, at least 25 per cent have joined the army. In July, 1914, the women munition workers numbered 221,000; in January, 1917, their number had increased to 691,000, and even this figure is now probably greatly exceeded. The utilization of this army of labor, however, would not have been possible, as Mr. Kellaway points out, had it not been for the co-operation of the employers as well as of the working men with whom these women had to work. The co-ordination of this work, effected by the dilution officers of the ministry, also received graceful recognition.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Who Remembers These?

Miss Cynthia Grey,—Will you very kindly give me answers to the following:

1. Date of Desjardins Canada accident (G. W. R.) in 1856, I think.
2. Date of first G. W. R. train into London.
3. Date of first G. T. R. train into London.
4. Date of opening of L., H. and B. line.
5. Date in August, 1893, of London West flood.
6. Date of St. George's (G. T. R.) accident in February, 1889.

And oblige, BRIGHTELMSTONE.

Ans.—Brightelmstone, you have certainly become inquisitive, and if I can judge correctly, quite a railway enthusiast as well. With the help of a few dictionaries and encyclopaedias, and histories and railway chronicles and I don't know how many other things, I have finally elicited the information which you require.

1. Desjardins Canal accident took place on March 12, 1857. The train broke through the bridge and 70 lives were lost.

2. The first Great Western train came into London from Hamilton on December 15, 1853. A very interesting account of this written by Mr. Wm. Bowman, who, in company with leading officials of the company made this first trip, appeared in The Advertiser of December 19, 1903. Before this time the only communication to London was by stage coach. This train likewise appears to be the first train in the province of Ontario.

3. The first G. T. R. train must have run into London some time during the year 1858, as a branch of that railway was opened between Toronto and Sarnia during that year. However, the first G. T. R. train was really identical with the first G. W. R. train, for in 1882 the two companies amalgamated.

4. The London, Huron and Bruce Railway was opened in January, 1876.

5. There may have been a London West flood in August, 1893, but this is not known as the great flood. That took place on July 10, 1883.

6. The railway accident at St. George took place on February 27, 1889. There were ten lives lost.

Ans.—Referred the "Innocent" who I hope will send the information.

VERSE

NEW AND OLD

JUST AS THE SUN WENT DOWN.

(Published by Request.)

After the dim of the battle's roar,
Just at the close of day,
Wounded and bleeding upon the field,
Two dying soldiers lay.
One held a ringlet of thin grey hair;
One held a lock of brown,
Bidding each other a last farewell,
Just as the sun went down.

Chorus—
One thought of mother, at home alone,
Feeble and old and grey;
One of the sweetheart he had left in town,
Happy and young and gay.
One kissed the ringlet of thin grey hair,
One kissed the lock of brown,
Bidding "Good-bye" to the dear old flag,
Just as the sun went down.

One knew the joy of a mother's love,
One of a sweetheart fair;
Thinking of home, they lay side by side,
Breathing a farewell prayer:
One for his mother, so old and grey;
One for his love in town,
They closed their eyes to the earth and skies,
Just as the sun went down.

Then came the news from a comrade's lips,
One who survived the fight:
Sweetheart and mother are listening there,
Oh, most pitiful sight!
Two hearts nigh broke, two noble lives lost,
Fighting, defending the crown;
Still they were proud of the heroes who died.
Just as the sun went down.

WHEN YOU CAN'T SLEEP

YOU SHOULD USE

MILBURN'S

Heart and Nerve Pills.

Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged.

Perhaps too much worry has gotten on your nerves, perhaps you have overworked yourself, or have been excessive in your use of tobacco, but whatever the cause, the nervous system must be built up again before restful sleep can be assured.

Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed can have their old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. John Sloan, Haley Station, Ont., writes: "Over a year ago I was very nervous. I could not sleep at night, and I would faint at the slightest fright. I tried several doctors, but they did me practically no good. I noticed your advertisement, and immediately tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am proud to say they cured me."

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating, and acting naturally—look, mother! See if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of its little bowels, without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full direction for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups, printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

TRY IT AND SEE!

Lift your corns or calluses off with fingers! Doesn't hurt a bit!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone and it now can be had in tiny bottles, as here shown, for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callous and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callous so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Genuine freezone has a yellow label. Don't accept any except with the yellow label.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Stamford, Conn., Nurse Tells How She Found Health.

Stamford, Conn., April 23.—"I am a nurse and suffered from a nervous breakdown. I had no appetite and could not sleep at night, and nothing seemed to help me. By chance I heard of Vinol, and after taking the first bottle I noticed an improvement, and four bottles made me well and strong, it gave me a hearty appetite, so I can sleep soundly night or day. I consider Vinol a wonderful tonic." Edith R. Forbes, Stamford, Conn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in overcoming such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and goes to the seat of the trouble. It is the greatest strength creator we know—due to the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates which it contains, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine.

We have seen so many wonderful recoveries like this right here in London caused by Vinol, that we feel perfectly safe in offering to return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit.

LOCAL JUNIORS ARE O.A.B.A. CHAMPIONS

"Y" Juniors Win Basketball Final From Kingston Kids by 72 to 22.

TORONTO, April 21.—To A. T. Taylor, physical director of the "Y.," and his hardworking collection of basketball stars, the "Y." Juniors, belongs the honor of bringing the first O.A.B.A. championship to London. The Forest City kids came down here Saturday afternoon and proceeded to wipe, beat up and otherwise wallop the Kingston youngsters 72—22 in a sudden-death game for the championship. It was sudden death for the stone-breakers, for they were confident that they had it over the Londoners several million ways.

The snow-under (and it was some storm) started 30 seconds after Referee McLeod of Hamilton blew his whistle. The London forwards crisscrossed up the big Central "Y." floor and Art Gillies did the deed on a pretty shot. Before the eastern lads could get near the London end "Taylor's Pets" had rolled up an even dozen points. This seemed to take the steam out of the Kingston five, and the struggle they put up was more or less half-hearted from then on.

Excellent Combination.

The half-time score read, London 41, Kingston 7, with the westerners working like a smoothly-oiled machine. Their combination was superb and their shooting deadly from all angles and positions. They completely outplayed the heavier and larger Kingston gang all the way through.

Mascara did the heavy artillery work for the winners. He garnered 23 points, enough to beat the losers by his lonesome, and got them all in the first half. Gillies piled up 14, while Lightfoot and McGeech grabbed an even dozen. Dunk McLean, a graduate of the London high school league, took Mascara's place in the second half and played a strong game. He got nine points. Easson looked to be the best man on the Kingston team. He worked hard, but his efforts were quickly smothered.

The London team has won an enviable reputation under the managership of Mr. Taylor, and with the exception of James, who was not used in the final game, the team will be intact for next year. The Londoners took part in 32 games during the season, winning 29. The lost two of their city league fixtures by one point and lost a game to St. Kitts in the semi-finals by six points. The line-up:

Gillies 14..... L. F.....Steen 9
Mascara 23... R. F.....Erwin 0
McLean 9..... R. F.....Baker 0
Lightfoot 12.... Centre.....Easson 6
Cline 2..... L. G.....Thompson 7
McGeech 12...R. G.....McKelvie 0

Totals—London 72; Kingston 22.
Referee—McLeod, Hamilton.
Timekeeper—Tune, Toronto.
Official Scorer—Beresford, Toronto.

LONDON SOLDIER IS FAST LIGHTWEIGHT

Wins Battalion Championship From Field of Fourteen.

Lance-Corp. C. Hanks of the 142nd Battalion, who resided at 31 Craig street before enlisting, won the lightweight championship of the 4th Reserve Battalion (Western Ontario), Canadians several weeks ago. There were fourteen contenders. Lance-Corp. Hanks beat Pte. Bennett in the semi-finals and outpointed Pte. Russell in the final go, which was fast from bell to bell. The winner played on the 142nd football team and was one of the stars.

The soldier, who inclosed a program of the events, stated that the corporal was due to take part in several fights before the boys went overseas, and that London soldiers were backing him freely.

WALTER JOHNSTON IS IMPROVING WITH AGE

Griffith's Star Going Great Guns at the Present Time.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—Mackmen easily can account for not hitting Walter Johnson, as opinion appears unanimous that Walter Johnson is a better pitcher today than he was five years ago. Only Amos Strunk and Stuffy McInnis, veterans of the A's, can attest to this. All the youths had to say when this topic was discussed was to the effect that if Johnson were a better pitcher than five years ago, they are perfectly satisfied they did not break into the American League at that time.

A brave scribe told the Mackmen that he heard Johnson has been practicing on a "spitt'r" this spring, and would foist it on the batsmen in the near future. This started something. A volley of comment followed. Stuffy McInnis asked for the floor and this is what he said about Johnson, his present day pitching and the unbaptized spitter:

Murder In First Degree.

"It will be murder in the first degree when Walter starts shooting that spitter at us. He is not the most pleasant guy in the world to meet at present, and, so far as we are concerned, we won't register a single kick if he doesn't improve.

"Take it from me, it takes a lot of nerve to stand up there and face that fast one of his, and it will take more when he uses the spitter and the ball shoots in all directions. As it is, we are happy when we get a few fouls off Walter, who is better than ever this year, and needs no spitter to help him out."

McInnis is not alone in declaring the speed king better than ever this year. Clarke Griffith, Johnson's manager, brought out this same point during a fanning bee yesterday. "Johnson never has looked so good at this time of the season, and I venture the prediction that he has the greatest year of his sensational career, barring possibly, 1912," said Manager Griffith.

"I know Johnson is better because he never reached first-class condition in the spring before without weakening himself. For three years he has lost a lot of his 'stuff' by working too hard in the training camp.

Tries Out New Method.

"This spring I tried a new method of conditioning Johnson, and must say that it has worked out great. In other years Walter was the hardest worker in camp, but this spring I would not let him throw a ball for two weeks, excepting in fielding bunts and returning fly balls. He just loafed about the fields, but took off the excess weight without taxing his strength.

"The result is that he returned home stronger than at any time in his career, and will put on weight and get still stronger as the season progresses. Johnson has not been able to get his speed until June or July in recent years, but I want to say that he was faster yesterday than he has been at any time in the last five years, and I think McInnis and Strunk will bear me out.

"Johnson has something now that he never had when he was a kid—a curve ball. And believe me, he has a beauty this spring. Remember my prediction that Walter will have a wonderful year. With Johnson going at his best, we are likely to fool a few of the critics. They are all underrating my ball team, and will wake up to that fact in a few weeks."

AL RYCKMAN'S TIGERS BEAT SANFORD'S STARS

Al Ryckman's Tigers won from Sanford's All-Stars in a fast game of baseball Saturday afternoon on the north end diamond. The score was 5 to 4 when Umpire Feeney called the last man out in the ninth.

The teams were evenly matched, and both came strong in the last inning. The Stars put across a counter in the ninth, when J. Miles romped home, but the Tigers roared forth with two, and won out. Gowdy rapped out a three-bagger with Jim Gray on third. Paul Belanger won the game for the Tigers when he brought home Gowdy with a sizzling two-bagger to left field.

Both batteries did excellent work, and helped keep the score down.

The teams lined up as follows:

Tigers—Catcher, A. Ryckman; pitcher, W. Head; first base, P. Belanger; second base, C. Wood; third base, W. Reeves; shortstop, J. Gray; fielders, F. Stone, J. Connors and C. Gowdy.

All-Stars—Catcher, J. Miles; pitcher, S. Sanford; first base, W. Williamson; second base, C. Thompson; third base, T. Sanford; shortstop, M. Claire; fielders, C. Milligan, D. Laird and E. Stone.

DYSPEPSIA

MOST DIFFICULT TO CURE BUT B. B. B. DOES IT

Dyspepsia is one of the most difficult diseases of the stomach there is to cure.

You eat too much; drink too much; make the stomach work overtime. You make it perform more than it should be called on to do. The natural result is that it is going to rebel against the amount of work put on it. It is only a matter of time before dyspepsia follows.

That forty-year-old remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, will cure the dyspepsia, and will cure to stay cured, as we can prove by the thousands of testimonials we receive from time to time.

Mr. Neil A. Cameron, Kiltarlity, N. S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what your great medicine Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I was troubled very much with dyspepsia for the past two years. I was recommended all kinds of medicines, but they did not help me any. At last a friend advised me to try a bottle of B. B. B. I took four bottles and was totally cured. I will gladly recommend it to all sufferers."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TRIS NOT MISSED

When Tris Speaker was sold to Cleveland last year, Boston fans threatened to boycott the Red Sox.

What chance did Bill Carrigan have? None, thought the high-browed Back Bayite. But Tris never dispayed more talent than his successor, "Tillie" Walker, has this season. Against the Yankees in two days "Tillie" grabbed two triples, one double and three singles. Also he made a pair of catches in centre field that robbed home boys of sure hits.

SOX BUY MERKLE

CHICAGO, April 21.—The most historic of what baseball calls "tonehead plays" was recalled today with the announcement that Fred Merkle of the Brooklyn Nationals had been purchased for cash by the Chicago team to play first base in the absence of Vic Saier, who broke a leg in a recent game.

It was Merkle's failure to touch second base that cost the New York Nationals, with which he then played, the league championship in 1908.

CHILD'S SEVERE STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Corby, Harriston P. O., Ont., writes: "Our little girl was weak from birth, and though we tried doctors' medicine and other things she got no better. They have been worth their weight in gold to us, for we were just giving up hope of saving our little daughter. I don't think there is any other medicine for children like Dr. Cassell's Tablets. SWEDEN IS THREATENED WITH REVOLUTION; MOB MENACES ROYAL CASTLE

STOCKHOLM, Saturday, April 21.—Via London, April 22.—A crowd of workmen, estimated to number 5,000, this evening congregated before the Riksdag building to emphasize their demand for the stoppage of all exports of food, for a better distribution of foodstuffs and for an immediate commercial agreement with Great Britain.

Hunger demonstrations are reported from several points in Sweden. More than 5,000 laborers formed a procession in Vesteras and visited the city hall. In Norrkoeping 1,200 persons are said to have taken part in a similar demonstration.

Throughout the delivery of the speeches in the Riksdag the crowds outside were quiet, but occasional cries for a republic and a revolution were to be heard.

This demonstration has caused an enormous sensation in Stockholm and rumors of a revolution are persistently circulating throughout the country. Fresh demonstrations of a far more serious character are expected on May 1. The royal castle is being strictly guarded by a corps of marine infantry.

BRITISH FLOUR MILLS TAKEN OVER BY GOVT.

LONDON, April 22.—Baron Devonport, the food controller, today issued an order for the taking over of all flour mills in the United Kingdom on April 30 by his department.

It is presumed that the mills will continue to be operated by their present owners under the supervision of the food controller.

Couldn't Keep Back Tears

When the Nervous System Broke Down—Queer Feelings in Back of Head Caused Much Alarm.

Midland, Ont., April 23.—Collapse or breakdown of the nervous system leaves one in a most pitiable condition. Strong, healthy-looking women, and men, too, will weep from helplessness and despair.

The case reported here was a most severe one, as is indicated by the hysterical condition, the pains in the back of the head and the futility of the many treatments used.

This is further evidence that the regular and persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for a reasonable length of time will positively restore the most exhausted nervous system.

Mrs. S. Sharp, Midland, Ont., writes: "About eleven years ago I had a serious nervous breakdown, and was so bad at times that I could not keep back the tears. I also had a queer feeling in the back of my head. Sometimes I seemed to be going backwards. I could not do any sewing, and finally could do no work at all. I tried other remedies and doctors' medicines, but they only gave me temporary relief. Last Fall I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and had not taken very many until I found I was getting better. I kept on taking them, and am at present greatly improved. I am now able to do my work, and they have strengthened me splendidly. I can highly recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for nervous trouble of any kind."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, on Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Military Situation Most Encouraging, Says Earl Curzon

End Not Near, But Approaching—"Watch Mesopotamia."

LONDON, April 22.—The military situation at the present moment is distinctly encouraging to the Allies, declared Earl Curzon, member of the war council, in an address at Derby Saturday. The Government leader in the House of Lords said that he did not wish his hearers to go away with the idea that the end had come just yet, but there was no doubt that the operations during the last fortnight on French soil constituted a very considerable military victory.

These operations have shown the wonderful superiority of British artillery, which had fired 4,000,000 rounds of ammunition into the ranks of the Germans. Earl Curzon said that in his opinion the military power of Germany was not sufficiently broken to induce her to accept any terms which the Allies might consider reasonable.

Referring to the operations in the east, Earl Curzon said: "Keep your eye on Mesopotamia."

THREE BILLION ACRES PASTURE TO BE PLOWED

LONDON, April 22.—The board of agriculture has decided that 3,000,000,000 acres of pasture land in England and Wales must be plowed for wheat growing in the coming autumn. The order embraces land in addition to the pasture land already plowed.

CHARGES MURDER

DETROIT, April 22.—Patrolman Frederick C. Dubs, who shot and killed Edward Brown, 23 years old, a former resident of St. Thomas, Ont., a few days ago, will have to answer to a charge of murder. Dubs was arraigned in police court on a warrant sworn out by Samuel Brown, Jr., a brother of the victim, charging the police officer with murder. Dubs pleaded not guilty, and will come up for examination on Tuesday. Brown was a member of the Typographical Union, and the printers will press the charge.

BURST THROUGH MILL

Blyth, April 22.—What might well have been a serious accident occurred at the sawmill here when a flywheel on an engine burst and parts were driven through the floor and out through the roof. Others were sent through the side of the building. Luckily no person was injured. The mill will be shut down for a few days until a new flywheel can be secured.

The town had another fire scare on Thursday morning, when fire broke out in the tannery. The firemen responded in five minutes. The blaze, which was in the basement and caused by the ignition of gasoline, was soon under control and the resulting loss was small.

The maple syrup season is over, and the farmers are now getting on the land for the spring work, but they have been delayed somewhat by the rains, but these are what are needed by the fall wheat and clover. These crops are already showing the benefits, and if the weather does not get cold again these will not be damaged so much as was feared earlier in the spring.

INGERSOLL MOURNS DEAD.

INGERSOLL, April 22.—A solemn memorial service in honor of the Canadian heroes who made the supreme sacrifice at the battle of Ypres and St. Julien, was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Baptist Church. The attendance taxed the capacity of the edifice. The order of service was arranged by the Ministerial Association, the president of which, Rev. L. W. Hill, presided. Appropriate addresses were given by Rev. Ronald MacLeod, former chaplain of the 168th Battalion, and Rev. J. A. Neill of Salford, who has two sons at the front.

A parade arranged by the Ingersoll Great War Veterans Association, was held from the Soldiers' Home Club to the church.

In addition to the returned soldiers there were members of several of the fraternal societies in line, marshalled by the Salvation Army band, and the Noxon pipe and drum band.

Rev. Jos. Kanes, J. G. Scott, R. J. M. Perkins and Capt. Taylor of the Salvation Army, took part in the service. Reference was made to a number of the soldiers from this town and vicinity who had made the supreme sacrifice.

PROPELLOR LOST.

Halifax, N. S., April 22.—The British steamer Benin, bound for a port in Quebec, was reported in distress in the gulf of St. Lawrence in signals which were picked up by radio stations on the Nova Scotian coast today. The message said the steamer had lost her propeller, and it was presumed she had encountered ice. The position given by the Benin is north west of St. Paul's Island. Immediate assistance was required, it was stated, and two steamers were dispatched to her aid by the Dominion marine department.

MANGLED BY ENGINE.

Toronto, April 22.—H. Dickson, brakeman, of 107 Claremont street, fell from the running board of a switch engine in the C. P. R. yards at Parkdale this morning, and was so badly mangled that he died three hours later.

MEATLESS DAY FOR PARIS.

Paris, April 23.—One meatless day each week has been officially decided on instead of two as a measure of economy by the minister of supplies. All restaurants will be prohibited from serving anything in the nature of meat, poultry or game for the evening meal. All butcher shops will be obliged to close their shops at one o'clock in the afternoon.

PRUSSIAN GUARDS SHOW COWARDICE ON SINKING SHIP

Rush Boats When Huns Torpedo Hospital Ship.

BRITISH AT ATTENTION

Two More Vessels Carrying Wounded Are Sunk Without Warning.

LONDON, April 22.—The British hospital ships Donegal and Lanfranc, with many wounded on board, have been torpedoed without warning. They were sunk on April 17.

Of those on the Donegal, 29 wounded and 12 of the crew are missing.

The Lanfranc carried German wounded as well as British. Of those aboard, 19 British and 15 Germans are believed to have perished.

The chancellor of the exchequer, Andrew Bonar Law, announced on April 19 in the House of Commons that there had recently been further losses of British hospital ships, which would be published soon.

Another Birkenhead Story.

The story of the sinking of the hospital ship Lanfranc will rank with the undying history of the Birkenhead and Tyndareus, according to a British officer. The British soldiers stood at attention while the ship was slowly sinking beneath them. Their conduct was in marked contrast to that of the Prussian Guardsmen aboard, who in the moment of danger rushed for the lifeboats.

"The Lanfranc was attacked by a submarine about 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening," said the officer. "The crash shook the liner violently, the explosion sending splinters of wood and glass flying in all directions. Within a few minutes the engines stopped and the vessel seemed to be sinking rapidly, but to our surprise she steadied herself, and after a while remained motionless. We had aboard prisoners of the Prussian Guard and many British wounded, including some serious cases.

Prussians Are Cowards.

"The moment the torpedo struck the Prussians made a mad rush for the lifeboats. When they were ordered to await their turn, many showed cowardice by dropping on their knees and imploring pity.

"The crew and staff went to their posts. The stretcher cases were lowered first to the boats. Meanwhile, in response to distress calls, many vessels came hurrying to our assistance. Even while wounded and helpless Tommies lay unaided in their cots, the cowardly Prussian prisoners made another attempt and managed to crowd into a lifeboat, which, however, toppled over directly it was lowered. Then they fought with each other to reach another boat containing some gravely wounded.

Sing in Face of Danger.

"I shall never forget the behavior of our own lads. They tried to sand at attention, crippled as they were, while the graver cases were being looked after. The crew and staff remained at their posts until the last man was taken off. Some doffed their garments and threw them to those in the lifeboats wanting warm clothing, and in the midst of the distress and tragedy our men were able to strike up some popular ditties."

Official Statement.

Today the secretary of the admiralty issued the following statement:

"On the evening of April 17 the steamships Donegal and Lanfranc, while transporting wounded to British ports, were torpedoed without warning. The Donegal carried slightly wounded cases—all British. Of these, 29 men, as well as 12 of the crew, are missing, and are presumed to have been drowned.

"The Lanfranc, in addition to 234 wounded British officers and men, carried 167 wounded German prisoners, a medical personnel of 52, and a crew of 123. Of these the following are missing and are presumed to have been drowned: Two wounded British officers, 11 wounded British other ranks, 1 Royal Army Medical Corps' staff, 5 of the crew, 5 wounded German officers, and 10 wounded German other ranks.

Risk Lives to Save Enemies.

"One hundred and fifty-two wounded German prisoners were rescued by British patrol vessels at the imminent risk of being themselves torpedoed.

"Owing to the German practice of sinking hospital ships at sight and to the fact that distinctive markings and lighting of such vessels render them more conspicuous targets for German submarines, it has become no longer possible to distinguish our hospital ships in the customary manner. One of these two ships, therefore, though carrying wounded, was not in any way outwardly distinguished as a hospital ship. The distinctive markings of the other had not yet been removed. Both were provided with an escort for protection.

Savagery Unparalleled.

"The illegal and inhuman submarine warfare which Germany has waged upon merchant shipping has for some time been openly adopted against hospital ships flying the Red Cross flag and otherwise acting in complete conformity with the requirements of the Hague Convention. This culmination of savagery has brought the world face to face with a situation that is without parallel in civilized warfare. It has no justification in any conceivable distortion of international law, nor in the most brutal creed of necessity.

"The British Government in considering fully the measures to be adopted in these circumstances has in review the entire facts upon which the Government claims to have acted.

Hague Markings Fail.

"The markings agreed upon at The Hague Convention, which hitherto guaranteed immunity to hospital ships from attack, rendered them no longer inviolable. The custom of showing all navigation lights and of illuminating distinctive markings at night only afforded a better target for German submarines.

"It was therefore decided that the sick and wounded, together with the medical personnel and supplies, must in the future be transported for their own safety in ships carrying no distinctive markings and proceeding without light in the same manner as ordinary mercantile traffic. Notice has accordingly been given the German Government that the British Government has withdrawn certain vessels from the list of hospital ships published by them in accordance with international law and they will no longer appear thereon.

"During the recent fighting on the western front a very large number of wounded German prisoners have fallen into our hands. These wounded officers and men have to be transported to England for treatment by the same means that our wounded are brought over, and practically all the ships transporting wounded are bound to carry a proportion of German wounded. These will natually share with the British wounded equal risks from attacks by German submarines.

"Whether the policy of the German Government is likely to be deflected from its abominable course by the knowledge that it can only be pursued at the expense of their own wounded remains to be seen. . . . In the light of recent events it seems reasonable to suppose that the hospital ships Braemar Castle and Britannic were also torpedoed in November, 1916, although the evidence at the time was not considered conclusive as to whether their losses were occasioned by mines or torpedoes."

RAISE FULL $500.

AILSA CRAIG, April 22.—The ten girls who started to raise $500 for an Ailsa Craig ward at Byron Sanatorium a few weeks ago, have handed in all this amount to London, and are now working to raise money for Belgian relief and the returned soldiers. The girls who comprise this club are: Misses Alma and Kathleen Robinson, Charlotte and Lena Stephenson, Ada and Sadee Munro, Florence and Annie Leitch, Maude Morton and Mary Craig.

BLYTH'S PATRIOTIC CONCERT.

BLYTH, April 22.—The pupils of the Blyth continuation class held a successful patriotic concert in Industry Hall on Friday evening. There was a large attendance despite the wet night.

The program consisted of musical selections and drills, and of the play, "A Kentucky Belle."

MADE A LIEUT.-COLONEL.

Stratford, April 22.—Official word has been received in the city of the promotion to the rank of lieutenant-colonel of Lindsay Malcolm, son of Geo. Malcolm, vice-principal of the collegiate institute.

ENEMY DRIVEN FROM POSTS ALONG RUMANIAN FRONT

Petrograd, Via London, April 23.—A supplementary statement issued tonight from Russian headquarters said:

"On the Rumanian front by successful counter-attacks we drove the enemy out of the advanced posts he had occupied and re-established our first lines. In the region of Cotalung, northwest of Braila, our heavy artillery successfully bombarded an enemy battalion. On the rest of the front there was the usual firing and reconnaissances.

"Persia: Persians and Kurds demolished telegraphs and telephones in the rear of our troops."

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

London, April 22.—"A German wireless message on the 20th of April," says a statement given out by the British official press bureau, "accuses the French and British Governments of employing vessels for attack on submarines under the ruse of the distinctive markings carried on the Belgian relief ships. The allegation is entirely untrue x x x and evidently is intended as a pretext for torpedoing Belgian relief ships at sight and thus further reducing the mercantile tonnage of the world."

HEROES OF YPRES LEAD PARADE TO MARK GREAT DAY

Returned Men of London March To St. Paul's.

THRONGS LINE STREETS

Men Who Participated in the Fight To Save Calais in Front Rank.

With brilliant sunshine, bands playing and flags flying, Ypres Day is being celebrated in London. Throngs of people lined the market square and streets in the vicinity as the hour of 3 o'clock approached to view with smiles akin to tears the parade of veterans of the war, the men who had been through the fight and safely returned to home and country, even if battle scarred.

The Hussars' Band led the way, and nearly three hundred in all lined up, the veterans of Ypres taking the place of honor in the procession immediately behind the provost marshal, Major Osborne, who was mounted. Next came the veterans, being represented according to the seniority of their battalions. Lieut.-Col. W. E. Coles marched at the head of the 1st Battalion veterans, Mayor Stevenson walking beside him.

Autos for Disabled.

For those who were unable to march, automobiles were provided by the Ontario Motor League, a dozen in all in the line of parade, which wended its way along King street to Wellington, north to Dundas, west to Richmond and thence to St. Paul's Cathedral, where headquarters staff awaited to receive the veterans.

Music was furnished by the A. M. C. Kilties Band and the Hussars Band.

Pupil's Raise Flag.

Pupils at the Talbot Street Public chool marked Ypres day by a flagsing on the school grounds. The chiln were addressed by Pte. Parker, a urned man who fought at the Battle Ypres. Verses of "We'll Never Let e Old Flag Fall," "The Maple Leaf" nd "God Save the King" were sung and three cheers were given for the flag and the king.

The Service at St. Paul's.

Seldom has a service held in the city equalled in impressiveness that which took place in St. Paul's Cathedral in commemoration of the battle of Ypres and attended by practically all the returned men of the city, and a great many citizens. The order of service was as follows:

Hymn—"O, King of Kings."
Lesson.
Hymn—"O God, Our Help in Ages Past."
Creed and prayers.
God Save the King (Played by the band).
Address—Rev. Dr. Tucker.
Hymn—"Forever With the Lord."
Burial prayers, comfort for the sorrowing, second part of service, conducted by the Lord Bishop of Huron.
Last Post—Sounded by Sergt. Nanfan.
Recessional Hymn—"To All the Souls."

By way of introduction to his stirring address, Rev. Dr. Tucker briefly sketched the part played by the Canadians in the present war, which has meant the introduction of Canada into the universal sphere, as Paardeburg meant her introduction into the imperial.

When They Saved the Day.

Touching upon the heroism of the Princess Pats at St. Eloi, the gallant conduct of the Canadians at Festubert, Givenchy and Vimy Ridge, the speaker dwelt at special length upon the engagement at Ypres, when the Canadians saved the day.

A glowing tribute of honor was paid to the noble men who had made the supreme sacrifice and sympathy expressed for the bereft. The need was emphasized of extending help to the returned men, to help them to help themseuves. In conclusion, allusion was made to the principles for which Britain and her allies are fighting and a call was sounded to be worthy of the great sacrifice that has been and still is being made for principles of civilization, righteousness, liberty and justice.

153RD BATTALION ORDERED TO MOVE EAST ON TUESDAY

ST. THOMAS, April 22.—The 153rd Battalion of Wellington County, in barracks at this place, will leave St. Thomas for the east on Tuesday morning. Orders were first received to depart on Monday, but late Saturday evening these were countermanded, and Tuesday substituted.

The arrangements for departure have not been completed, but in all likelihood the battalion, about 700 strong, will march from the barracks to the L. and P. S. R. depot, and go to London by a special troop train, transferring to another railway upon there arrival there.

The 25th Regiment Band, the mayor, city officials and others will participate in the send-off. The local chapters of the Daughters of the Empire will pack a lunch for each member of the battalion, to be given them when entraining.

Several of the officers will not accompany the battalion, but will go to London, and probably be attached to other regiments. Following is a list of the officers who will go with the unit: Commanding officer, Lieut.-Col. R. J. Pritchard; senior major, James Justice; adjutant, Capt. R. A. Paul; quartermaster, Capt. C. S. Wood; paymaster, Capt. G. Butler; medical officer, Capt. A. R. Perry. Commanding officers of companies: A Company, Capt. J. L. Potter; B Company, Major J. B. Grieve; C Company, Major R. J. Bennett; D Company, Capt. J. D. Doughty. Machine gun officer, Lieut. W. B. McMullen. Other officers going with the battalion are Capt. C. W. Scott, Capt. G. M. Pinkerton, Lieuts. F. L. Goodman, J. G. Smith, R. G. Chambers, O. B. Brown, S. McLaughlin and D. Nickle.

The battalion was formed in November of 1915.

Lieut.-Col. Pritchard, the O. C., began soldiering as a private in the 30th Wellington Rifles at Elora on June 12, 1893. His home is near Fergus, Ont.

GREATER LABOR PARTY TO BE FORMED IN CITY

Trades and Labor Men Plan to Make Workers a Political Force.

The Trades and Labor Council at the next session will discuss the advisability of organizing a Greater Labor Party in London.

There is a similar organization in Toronto, and efforts will be made to get it going in this rity.

The matter has been discussed informally by some of the labor leaders here, but no action towards that end has been taken as yet.

The idea is to cement the workingmen into a political unit. Where it is deemed advisable, candidates will be run, but where it is not deemed advisable, only the candidate supporting the labor platform will be indorsed and supported.

GLASS BULLETS USED BY GERMANS AGAINST RUSSIANS ON THE NORTHERN FRONT

Petrograd, April 23—Via London.—The Germans on the northern part of the Russian front have been firing glass bullets from their rifles at the Russian lines, says today's war office announcement. The statement reports exceptionally bad weather both in the Carpathians and on the Rumanian front, where blizzards have prevailed in the mountains and rain in the valleys.

Hostile activities by Kurds against the Russians in Persia are increasing, according to the announcement, which reads:

"Caucasus fron: Hostile activity towards our military on the part of the Kurds has increased in Persia. On April 15, at Cheraban, 25 versts southeast of Kizil-Rabat, Arabas fell upon our squadron escorting an English military agent. The squadron forced a passage to Bakuba. On the remainder of the front there has been rifle firing and scouting with aerial activity.

"In the region of Lake Miadzol our artillery brought down a German airplane. Enemy airplanes threw bombs on the hamlet of Turetz."

WOULD HAVE EVERYONE BECOME "BUG ON BIRDS"

W. E. Saunders Tells Rotarians of Practical Benefits.

W. E. Saunders, the latest member of the Rotary Club, addressed the club at noon today on "Birds and Businessmen." His exposition of the subject was brief, owing to the time limit.

He wanted to make every member a "bug on birds." He declared that it would repay every minute of the time spent on the subject, and would give all an interest in life never before had. The bird enthusiast might not get up at 5 o'clock in the morning, although he would miss much by not doing so, nor need he take long tramps into the country, but he would be profited by this exercise, with the added interest that the birds would give.

He spent some time discussing the humming bird, showing the many peculiarities of flight and feeding that these pretty little fellows are expert at. He also showed the Kentucky cardinal, a very beautiful bird, and gave its call, and explained its methods of life and living. The fallow bird, found on the western prairies, was also shown. The female is the regular suffragette among the bird family. The male must build the nest, and hatch the eggs, and rear the young.

Grant Milligan played a most enjoyable violin solo. Howard Thurston, magician, did some interesting card tricks.

W. R. Yendall, chairman of the committee in charge of the back yard garden campaign, explained what had been done. The city was being circularized, and good results were being obtained. More would be accomplished.

RETURNED UNOPPOSED.

Fredericton, N. B., April 23.—All the ministers of the Cabinet of Premier Foster, who submitted themselves to their constituencies after taking office, were returned unopposed in the byelections today. Premier Foster, who was defeated in St. John County in the general election at which Permier Murray's Government was defeated, was elected, and their constituencies are:

Hon. P. F. Veniot and Hon. J. P. Byrne, Gloucester Hon. Robert Murray, Northumberland; Hon. E. A. Smith, Westmoreland; Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Victoria.

The new Provincial Government has arranged with Price, Waterhouse & Co., Montreal, accountants, to make a thorough examination of the accounts of the province to ascertain the exact financial conditions.

YPRES ANNIVERSARY SOLEMNLY MARKED IN DISTRICT CHURCHES

St. Thomas, Woodstock, Galt, Ingersoll and Other Places Commemorate Victory.

GALT'S ST. JULIEN DAY.

GALT, April 22.—Today was St. Julien Day, anniversary of the battle in which Canadians won great honor, and in which many soldiers of the maple leaf fell in battle or were wounded. This anniversary was marked in Galt by the Great War Veterans' hold-Church, where a large crowd gathered, including many relatives of soldiers. A most impressive and patriotic service was held, with stirring addresses by Revs. F. M. Wootton and J. Strachan of Galt, and Rev. Neil Leckie of Kirkwall. Special music was rendered by the choir. The service was proceded by a parade of the returned soldiers, boy scouts and automombiles containing relatives of men who have given their lives and others who are still at the front.

IMPRESSIVE WOODSTOCK SERVICE.

WOODSTOCK, April 22.—Solemn and impressive was the service held in Knox Church this afternoon under the auspices of the Great War Veterans Association in commemoration of the national memorial day which was observed all over the Dominion in honor of the memories of the Canadians who have fallen in the great war, and in memory also of the battle of St. Julien at which the Canadian forces first established their record as worthy sons of the Empire. The returned soldiers and the veterans of the Fenian Raid combined in a parade to the church, and the city council also attended in a body. Of the general public so many were present that the big church, with a seating capacity of some 1,400, was barely capable of providing adequate accommodation.

Rev. R. H. Shaw presided, and practically all the local ministers took an active part in the service. Captain Spencer, a returned officer of the old 71st Battalion, read out a list of the names of all the local men who have died in the service of their country, a list containing 52 names. Lieut.-Col. McMullen, who went overseas with the 168th Battalion, followed with a short description of the battle of St. Julien, explaining why the veterans of the great war had thought that the anniversary of this battle would be the most appropriate day for a national memorial day.

Rev. Dr. Crews made the address of the afternoon. The men who had died, had given their lives in the most noble cause for which men ever fought. He believed thatt heir bereaved mothers, fathers, sisters and sweethearts could find real consolation in the knowledge that they had played men's parts and had not been found wanting when the call of duty came.

The service concluded with playing of the Dead March in Saul by the organist, the whole congregation meanwhile remaining standing.

ST. THOMAS CHURCH TOO SMALL.

ST. THOMAS, April 22.—St. John's Church was not only filled to capacity this morning for the special services in commemoration of "Ypres Day," but many were turned away, including a company of the 153rd Battalion. The Returned Soldiers' Association, Veterans of '66 and South Africa, and the collegiate cadets, led by the 25th Regiment band, paraded to the church.

Appropriate music was rendered by a full choir.

Rural Dean W. F. Brownlee, rector of the church, preached from the text, "There was a very sore battle that day," Samuel, 11-17.

The service, he said, was unique in that it was commemorating events in a war before that war was over. The rector spoke of the fitness to give thanks to God for the strength, courage and endurance of its young men, and in terms of affection referred to the fallen, and with pride to the returned heroes. He then spoke of several of the incidents in the battle of Ypres which characterized the great heroism of both officers and men in holding back the hordes of the German army.

"The battle was great in its intensity and in its issue," said the speaker. "The Canadians have instilled a wholesome fear into the German troops, as evidenced also at Festubert, Givenchy, and recently by the splendid victory at Vimy Ridge."

Remember Returned Men.

The speaker pleaded that citizens should remember the returned soldiers on Ypres day, giving them material assistance as their due for the splendid work and sacrifice accomplished.

"Enlisting has its fascination, active service has companionships and consciousness of those looking on, but the returned man is apt to be forgotten. This must not be."

Dean Brownlee also spoke a few words to the veterans, all men ripe in years, of the memories of '66, and to the cadets, as those who have their life and manhood still before them, concluding with the message that our country and empire is still calling for men to fill the ranks and make up the C. D. F., adding, none who follow the path of duty will regret the sacrifice.

Soldiers Could Not Get In.

The rector spoke regretfully of the fact that a company of the 153rd Battalion were unable to gain admission to the service, the church being filled to capacity before their arrival, of which he had not received previous notice.

80 VETERANS MARCH.

BRANTFORD, April 22.—The Brantford branch of the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada held a parade and commemoration service in St. Jude's Church this morning, in memory of their fallen comrades, and to commemorate the day on which the Canadians held the line at the second battle of Ypres. About 80 returned men participated in the parade, which included the 215th Battalion. There are about 150 returned men here and 31 veterans of the 4th (Mad Fourth) Battalion, which was at Ypres.

Capt. Rev. C. E. Jeakins, late chaplain of the 58th Battalion, delivered a stirring address to a gathering which was packed in the church, and which included a number of civic and women's organizations. Last evening on the market square in the presence of a large crowd the returned men were presented with their colors, a handsome flag, by the Women's Patriotic League and the three chapters of the I.O.D.E.

SOLDIER'S BODY EXHUMED OVER "ACCIDENTAL" DEATH

Quebec, April 23.—It will be remembered that last October, Pte. T. Gagne of the 167th Battalion was found dead at the foot of a three-hundred foot cliff at Levis with a fractured skull. Foul play was then supposed, but a verdict of accidental death was rendered. Today a year later, the body has been exhumed at St. Joseph, Chicoutimi, and the skull has been sent to Ottawa by the military authorities. At the inquest last week, there were five physicians present, three from Ottawa and two Quebecers.

LATE ORDERS CACEL MOVEMENT OF TROOPS

All Departures for Day Have Been Postponed.

A number of units and drafts from units in this district, which were expected to leave for eastern training points today, will not do so, orders cancelling the date of their depa... having been received.

Among those who were expected to leave were the members of drafts from the 63rd Battery, and the Division Ammunition Column, Queen's Park; the 153rd Battalion at St. Thomas, and the 241st Battalion at Windsor.

BATTERY MAN SPEAKS.—Driver "Bill" Illingsworth of the 63rd Battery will have full charge of the services at the City Mission this evening. This will be his last opportunity to address the gatherings there, and a full attendance is requested.

Financial, Market and Commercial Section

THE LOCAL MARKET

An increase in potatoes to $4.10 and $4.50 a bag was the principal feature of today's local market. The supply was small, and 75c a peck was the prevailing retail price. For seed potatoes, as much as $1 a peck was paid, bushels selling for $4 and $5. Other varieties of vegetables remained firm, as the supply is still limited. Green onions, radishes, and lettuce heads all sell for 40c to 50c a dozen. Single bunches bring 5c. Seed onions are still offered at 20c to 25c a box, while Dutch sets bring 35c a quart. Carrots and parsnips each bring $1.50 to $1.75 a bushel, and rhubarb has a brisk market at $1 a dozen bunches.

Eggs were steady, the prevailing retail price being 34c a dozen. Crate lots brought 31c a dozen, and basket lots 32c.

Hay was firm at $12 to $13.50 a ton, but oats registered a five-cent increase, selling at $2:25 a cwt. Wheat was steady. Live hogs were easier at $15 to $15.25 a cwt., and fat sows at $12.50 to $12.75 a cwt. Dressed hogs took a corresponding drop and sold for $19 to $20 a cwt.

GRAIN.

Chicago, April 23.—Material declines in the price of wheat resulted today, chiefly from a noticeable falling off in speculative buying orders and from reports of improved crops Southwest. There were also estimates current of a probable 10 per cent increase of seeded acreage in Canada this season as compared with 1916. Discussion of peace posibilities tended likewise to favor the bear side.

Opening prices, which ranged from 2⅛c off to ½c advance, with May at $2 31@2 32½, and July at $1 96¾@1 98, were followed by a slight rally, and then a sharp setback all around to well below Saturday's finish.

WALL STREET.

New York, April 23—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The mixed changes which have characterized recent operations in the stock market were again observed on the resumption of trading today. First quotations tended toward higher levels, especially in equipments, munitions, shippings and standard industrials. Ther ewas recurrent heaviness, however, in motors, Industrial Alcohol and utilities, Ohio Gas making a drop of 4 points. United States Steel soon forfeited its slight gain, and metals inclined downward on light dealings, accompanied by irregularity in rails, Harvester and oils.

Noon.—Operations proceeded with extreme caution, this being most evident in the insignificant turnover of the morning. Offerings were tentative, and the demand equally narrow. Prices hardened very generally in the first hour, effacing most early losses and adding moderately to initial gains, but the rise was stubbornly opposed by the professional element. United States Steel made an extreme recovery of about a point, and other leaders moved in like manner, but coppers and specialties made little resistance to further pressure, the list yielding again before noon. Bonds were irregular.

1:30 p.m.—Coppers were almost the sole exceptions to the marked improvement of the afternoon. Early losses of 2 to 5 points in specialties were more than retrieved, and representative industrials and shippings showed underlying strength.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

London, April 23.—Money and discount rates were a shade easier today. Bills are still scarce, as most of the recent treasury offerings were taken by banks and financial institutions.

The stock market maintained a cheerful tone on the war news. Gilt-edged and allied stocks were harder, and industrials were good on north country buying, especially explosive shares on the forthcoming amalgamation. Much activity prevailed in mining and rubber stocks and Chinese issues, but Brazilians were weak on disturbing political reports. American securities were slack, and only a few of the low-priced shares received attention. Mexicans closed better.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE SOCIAL.

TILBURY, April 22.—The third of a series of Women's Instittue socials was given at the home of Mrs. J. A. Magee on Thursday evening, and was a distinct success. The receipts of the evening were $11.75, which sum included the proceeds of a grab bag and candy table. The program consisted of several excellent instrumental numbers, contributed by the following local performers: Two piano and violin selections, Mrs. Adams and Miss Gertrude Toggart; piano solos, Misses Dorothy Smith and Alice Magee; piano duets, Misses Ada Vickerman and Irene Cowan, Mrs. Adams and Miss Ward. Mrs. Louden (formerly Miss Effie Sloan) of Montpelieo, Ohio, contributed an enjoyable reading. A couple of contests, a potato contest and a literary contest, afforded a deal of merriment. Mrs. Edmonds and Miss Effie Sloan) of Montpelier, Ohio, contestants and were awarded a china hair received and towel, respectively.

Mrs. Ainslie, president of the local branch, presided. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

YPRES DAY AT ST. MARYS.

ST. MARYS, April 22.—Saturday was "Ypres" tag day, and the townspeople as well as hundreds from the countryside did not escape attack from the girl taggers, who took up positions on all the main thoroughfares of the business district of the town.

Reports say that the canvass was a most successful one, and the patriotic fund will reap the benefit accordingly.

The play, "The Minister," was cleverly presented at the opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings by local talent. The proceeds were for patriotic purposes, and the handsome sum of $325 was realized.

PRESTON'S "ONE HUNDRED" CLUB

PRESTON, April 22.—The women of Preston, who in the past have performed a noble part in Red Cross and patriotic work, and also given of their time and substance in relieving the sufferings of the unfortunate Belgians, have followed the example set by citizens of other towns in forming a "One Hundred" Club. Officers have been elected and a committee consisting of Mesdames Cornell, Pollard and Hahn appointed to secure the full membership, who will contribute one dollar a month to a fund to be devoted to the relief of the Belgians.

DISTRICT MARKETS

Upward Trend of Wheat and Flour Feature of Western Ontario Market Trade.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, April 21.—The feature of the market today was the big demand for all the produce offered, a demand which cleaned out the available supply in short order, the result being a considerably shorter market than usual. Potatoes were up to $4 a bag, but otherwise prices were not sensational. Butter prices ranged from 42c to 45c per pound, and eggs were sold at from 30c to 32c a dozen. Poultry again was very scarce, and dressed chickens commanded prices from 70c to $1.50 each, in some instances being sold at 30c per pound. No lamb or mutton was offered in the meat market. Fresh pork was 25c; veal and beef, 17c to 25c; pork sausage, 25c. Vegetables were fairly plentiful at the following prices: Cabbage, 5c, 10c and 15c a head; turnips, two for 5c; green onions, water cress and lettuce, 5c a bunch. A considerable quantity of maple syrup was offered, but at $1.75 per gallon, the demand was not very brisk. Hay still sells for $13 and $14 a ton, and hogs during the week brought $15.75. per cwt.

SARNIA.

Sarnia, April 21.—Prevailing prices on the week-end market in this city showed no material changes over last week's quotations, with the exception of the continued upward trend of wheat and flour prices, the former product reaching the abnormally high figure of $2.15, and the latter retailing at $11.30 and $12.40, and wholesaling at $10.70 and $11.80, a big transcendency over last week's lists. Oats were firm at 68c per bushel; barley advanced 5c per bushel, being quoted at $1.05 per bushel, and bran and shorts sold at $40 and $42 per ton. Hay prices varied from $11 to $12 per ton, with the latter figure predominant. In the diary products line, eggs sold at 35c per dozen, and butter at 42c per pound. Chickens were scarce, and sales were recorded at 30c per pound. Potatoes showed a slight decline, being listed at 75c per peck, or $3 per bag.

EMBRO.

Embro, April 21.—Potatoes, $3.75 a bag; beans, 18c a pound; oatmeal, 5c a pound; good dairy butter, 40c a pound; creamery butter, 45c a pound; eggs, 31c a dozen; cheese, 35c a pound; maple syrup, $1.50 a gallon; flour, $5.50 a cwt.; bran, $2 a cwt.; shorts, $2.10 a cwt.; wheat, $2.10 a bushel; chicken wheat, $2.30 a cwt.; Manitoba oats, 80c a bushel; buckwheat, $2.50 a cwt.

Bread went up today to 9c a loaf.

ST. MARYS.

St. Marys, April 21.—The Saturday market report shows marked advances in many products: Wheat, standard, $2.25; oats, 75c; barley, $1.25; peas, $2; flour, per cwt., $5.75@6.75; bran, per ton, $40; shorts, per ton, $42; honey, in 10-lb. can lots, 12c per lb.; dairy butter, per lb., 37c; eggs, per dozen, 30c; chickens, dressed, per lb., 18@20c; Ontario potatoes, per bag, $4; do, per peck, 70c; apples, per peck, 40@50c; maple syrup, per gallon, $1.50@1.75; hides, per lb., 15c; hay, per ton, $10@11; live hogs, per cwt., $16.

INGERSOLL.

Ingersoll, April 22.—A drop of three cents a pound in the price of butter was one of the outstanding features of the market Saturday. The offerings were large, and despite brisk buying the prices were much easier than last week. It is seldom that there is a uniformity in butter prices on the local market. A week ago the prices ranged from 45c to 48c, but Saturday 45c was general for both dairy and creamery makes. Eggs were offered in very large quantities and sold at 32c to 33c a dozen. Chickens were comparatively scarce and the sales generally were made at 25c a pound. Early varieties of seed potatoes sold at 80c a peck. Cabbages continue to be a luxury, 25c per head being the average price.

KITCHENER.

Kitchener, April 21.—The market today was attended by a goodly number of citizens and farmers. There was an average supply of produce. A pleasing feature was the drop in price in eggs, which were offered at 30c. At a comparatively late hour there still was a fair supply available.

Butter was sold at 43c. Maple syrup was offered at the former price of $2 per gallon. The wood that was offered was by the wagon load, the price being $5.

WATERLOO.

Waterloo, April 21.—The attendance of both farmers and citizens at the regular weekly market this morning was large. There was no change in any of the prices since last Saturday, butter bringing 42c per lb. and eggs 35c per dozen. Maple syrup sold at 50c per quart while other produce sold at the usual prices. Next Saturday will be the last Saturday that the market will open at 8 o'clock, for commencing May 5, the doors will open at 7 o'clock.

STRATFORD.

STRATFORD, April 22.—Continued advances in the price of flour featured today's market, prices being from 80c to $1.10 higher than a week ago. Quotations were $6.80 for Chief, $6.50 for Juliet and $6.30 for special. Wheat is up 25c to $2.25.

Eggs sold for 31c to 34c and butter from 34c to 40c.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, April 21.—There were practically no potatoes for sale at this morning's market, and before 9 o'clock they could not be purchased. Eggs were in abundance, and sold for 30c. Some of the prices were: Eggs, 30c; butter, 45 to 48c; chickens, $1 to $1.25. A few potatoes were sold at $4.50 a bag.

DEATH OF PTE. SUTHERLAND.

Members of the visiting committee of the Red Cross today sent a floral red cross to the family of Pte. Thomas Sutherland at Harriston. The young soldier, a member of "C" Company of the 153rd Battalion, with which he enlisted at his home town, died at the military hospital here on Saturday. He had been ill for several months with spinal meningitis, and last week contracted pneumonia, which caused his death.

The body was forwarded to Harriston and flags there flew at half-mast on Sunday in his honor. He was the only son of David Sutherland, shoe merchant at Harriston, and had been attending high school before enlisting. A ..., Miss Jean Sutherland, survives him.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous.
"Acid" stomachs are dangerous, because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a simple antacid, taken in a little hot or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acid is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause distress may be eaten without danger if the meal is followed with a little bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy.

WILL RECRUIT MEN FOR RAILWAY UNIT

Capt. F. H. Stewart, until recently connected with the 235th Railway Construction Battalion, has been appointed by the militia department to recruit for drafts to proceed overseas at an early date.

For construction work, men who have been refused because of other physical disabilities will be accepted for service in these units. Capt. Stewart will have his offices at the armories.

PREPAREDNESS.

The great advance in price of everything used in building a good shoe will be markedly plain and clear to everyone when they come to buy boots and shoes ordered at this year manufacturers' prices. We are pleased to say to our regular trade that we bought heavily of many different lines last fall, and most of these goods have only recently come into stock. The styles are all strictly up-to-date, in either women's or men's boots and shoes, and the prices and quality will be found equally attractive. HUSBAND HELD HER, SAYS WIFE, WHILE GIRL STRUCK BLOW

Young Boarder and Tailor Are Alleged To Be Friendly.

ADVISED TO BE FRIENDS

Third Party in "Triangle" Told To Bestow Affections Elsewhere.

Charging that he had held her while a young woman boarder, Lillian Partridge, had assaulted her, Mrs. Edith Patten had her husband, Alfred Patten, tailor, 643 Richmond street, and the young woman summoned to appear in police court today.

According to the story told by Mrs. Patten in the magistrate's office, the young woman boarder and the husband were too friendly. Mrs. Patten claimed that when she remonstrated with her husband, he and the young woman had assaulted her. Magistrate Graydon talked to husband and wife and suggested a reconciliation. Miss Partridge was advised to lavish her affections elsewhere. The case was adjourned for two weeks in order to permit husband and wife to think it over.

Peter Berasuck, a Russian, 63 Maitland street, was charged with a breach of the Ontario temperance act. He is charged with keeping for sale liquor without a license. It was at his residence that a drunken fight occurred a week ago, when one Russian was badly injured. The case was adjouorned for one week in order to secure further evidence.

William Henderson, a livery employee, who was bailed a week ago on a charge of disorderly conduct to appear today, failed to show up. A warrant will be sworn out for his arrest.

A young maiden, whose parents reside on the Indian reservation at Muncey, pleaded not guilty to intoxication. The policeman who made the arrest said he found her in a cafe and considered that she was drunk. She claimed she was taking the car for her home when arrested. Magistrate Graydon discharged her with a warning.

475 CHILDREN ATTEND EMPRESS ANNIVERSARY

46th Birthday Most Successful in School's History.

The forty-sixth anniversary of the Empress Avenue Sunday School was yesterday and was the most successful of its long history. The pastor, Rev J. D. Richardson, addressed the children in the morning using the word "watch" as an acrostic. In the afternoon Rev. J. E. Holmes gave an address dealing with the influence of the home and Sunday school upon the child. The installation service was conducted by the pastor when the board of management of both Kensington and Empress Avenue Sunday Schools were installed. The attendance was the largest in the history of the school, 475 being present. The offering amounting to over $10 Superintendent William Gibson presided. Norman Wade and James Michelitree, the past and present superintendents of Kensington School respectively, also took part. Rev. Mr. Ashton of Wellington Street Church preached a most helpful and inspiring sermon in the evening on the duty and responsiblity of parents toward their children. A concert tonight and the school tea Tuesday night will conclude the anniversary.

SEVENTY-YEAR-OLD CONTRACTOR WANTS TO GET INTO KHAKI

George Roberts, Old Soldier, Wants To Do His Bit.

WOULD WALLOP HUNS

Stirring Appeals Made at Big Sunday Evening Meeting in Theatre.

Following impassioned appeals for recruits by John Cottam and Corp. Harry Edwards at the Majestic Theatre last evening, George Roberts, 45 Briscoe street, a building contractor came to the stage platform at the conclusion of John Cottam's address and offered his services to the Empire in any capacity in which he might be required.

"I am just 70 years of age; I have been a soldier, but I am past military age now, and if they won't let me fight, then let me do something," he said, in a brief address. "Even at that, I think I could put up a pretty stiff scrap against a German if the Government gives me a chance."

The meeting was held under the auspices of Overseas Chapter, I. O. D. E., which has directed more Sunday night recruiting meetings than any other chapter in the city. This particular chapter is fortunate in having members who have been exceptionally active in the cause of recruiting, and as a result of the Sunday night meetings held under the auspices of Overseas Chapter, more recruits have been secured at their meetings than any others.

The band of the First Hussars, under the leadership of Roselle Pocock, provided music. Miss Cora Brennan gave three violin solos, and Corp. W. G. Scott and Miss Eula Kennedy entertained with songs.

Corp. Harry Edwards, an American citizen, known as the steel workers' evangelist, was the first speaker of the evening. He is at present connected with the 7th Regiment, C. E. F. Company. His son is with the 149th Battalion, and he himself would now have been overseas but for the fact that he was found to be physically unfit for active service.

A Strong Appeal.

He made a strong appeal for recruits and expressed the opinion that hundreds of young men who were found in stores as clerks and other occupations should be in khaki. He took a rap at preachers who had been criticizing the conduct of the Canadian boys at the front.

"If ministers of the gospel have anything to say let them put on the khaki and go across to the fighting ground and there tell it," he said. "We are not fighting today a bottle of rum; we are fighting the mad dog of Europe."

He paid a high tribute to returned soldiers. "If there is any man in all this world today that I admire and envy, it is the man with the little button on his coat that shows that he has done his bit," he said.

"Some people may say as a man who has been an evangelist, I should not advocate brutality when I say we must fight. It is not brutality to take a crack at Fritz. It is muscular Christianity, the same kind that was used by the greatest character of all the ages, when he drove the money changers from the temple."

He concluded his address with a recruiting song of his own composition entitled "Get Into Khaki Everyone."

Mr. Cottam's Speech.

Owing to the lateness of the hour when called upon, John Cottam spoke briefly.

"I don't believe there is a young man of military age in Canada but would enlist if each and every one recognized his personal responsibility in this great struggle," he said.

Outlining the causes of the war, he said, that the world for years had been divided into two camps, and the Serbian instance served only as the match that had started the conflagration. He dwelt upon what might have been the case had Great Britain not entered the war. France, he said, might be occupied today, by the Germans had Britain not entered on the side of liberty and justice.

He eulogized the men who had left London and fought for their country. Many had returned wounded, but many others were buried today on the fields of France. He made reference to the brave and courageous action of Lieut. Eric Zeigler in his last stand before the Germans.

In closing his address he made a stirring appeal for recruits. He predicted that conscription would be resorted to in Canada at an early date.

Other prizes were: Electric lamp, offered by the 7th Regiment Chapter, and won by Mrs. W. T. Clarke; cake, won by Mrs. Ross. The holder of ticket No. 26 is the winner of a corsage yoke offered by the Overseas Chapter. It may be obtained by notifying Mrs. W. J. Ashplant at phone 1977. A Brussels lace handkerchief offered by the Janey Canuck Chapter, was won by Mrs. McWatters, a table reflector by Mrs. McLaughlin, and a knitting bag by Miss Nellie Grant.

EARLIER LAKE TRAFFIC.

DETROIT, April 22.—Early season passenger traffic between Detroit and Cleveland this year has been somewhat in excess of the business during the same period a year ago, according to officials of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company.

The two boats of the line—the Eastern States tnd the Western States—have been in operation on this run since April 2. Besides an increase in passenger business the line has handled large shipments of automobiles and trucks, together with the usual amount of package freight.

MAYOR WILL OPEN BIG SHOW TONIGHT

Pure Food Exhibits at Winter Garden.

SPACE AT PREMIUM

Executive Planning Surprises for Entertainment of Visitors.

London's second annual Pure Food Show under the auspices of the Retail Grocers' Association will be officially opened this evening at 8:15 o'clock. His Worship, Mayor Stevenson will speak the made words, though doubtless throngs of people will refuse to wait for this formality before satisfying their curiosity by a visit to the exhibition and inspection of the booths during the earlier part of the day. Monday afternoon will be very much like the opening day at the Western Fair. Exhibits will be in their places, though it is possible the finishing touches will not be completed in decorations. The earlier days of a show, as everybody knows, are the ones when souvenirs and demonstration tid-bits are most lavishly distributed and the best opportunity is afforded for obtaining information.

Saturday's Big Operations.

A whole army of workmen laid hold upon the Princess Winter garden on Saturday at the behest of the Grocers' Association. Booms sprang up like magic and plumbers, gas fitters, electricians and decorators stepped quickly in line to keep their part of the contract, in preparation for the grand drive of exhibitors early Monday morning.

Huge packing boxes arrived in the city Saturday and continued to come in all day yesterday from exhibiting manufacturers of Montreal, Toronto and other large centres.

Doubling Their Space.

Every inch of booth space in the whole circle has been contracted for and the special territory on the dancing floor, as well. "Doubling the space" is one of the eleventh-hour stunts put on by several of the exhibitors. After realizing the valuable advertising possibilities of the Pure Food Show and the appeal such an exhibition could not fail to make to the public, they lost no time in contracting with the powers in authority for twice their original space.

Surprise Features for Visitors.

It is rumored that the committee is planning "stunts" of its own as surprises for the public during show week. The Princess Orchestra will furnish a fine musical program each afternoon and evening, but it is understood that there are to be features not yet announced.

Backed by other members of the Retail Grocers' Association the executive committee is putting forth every effort to make the Pure Food Show of genuine educational value in awakening housewives to the importance from a health and thrift standpoint of investing only in foods that are guaranteed to be pure and to give the nutritive value for money expended.

Apart from this, the exhibition promises to afford agreeable opportunity for seeing friends, social intercourse and relaxation.

The members of the committee are: President, Thomas Shaw; 1st vice-president, J. McLeod; 2nd vice-president, John May; secretary, R. H. Harley; treasurer, ex-Ald. Adam Palmer; Ald. Gordon B. Drake, Frank Pearce, Cyril Hayes, W. V. Charlton, T. McCormick, P. H. Ranahan, C. J. Farr, and N. Bilyea.

REITHDORF STIRS CONGREGATION TO GREAT APPLAUSE

German-Born Professor Now in Canadian Army.

TELLS WHAT PRIVATE IS

Man Who Should Enlist and Won't Holds a Lower Rank.

A patriotic outburst, the like of which never before has been enacted in Trinity Methodist Church, Toronto, occurred on Sunday evening at the conclusion of the sermon by Rev. Dr. Hincks, when he called Pte. E. V. Riethdorf, formerly professor at Woodstock College, and a German by birth, to the platform. Dr. Hincks had just concluded a stirring address, which was dedicated to the United States on her entry into the war, his theme being the slogan taken from the battle of Lexington, "Wake up, America."

Greeted With Applause.

It was the first time Pte. Riethdorf, who formerly spoke in London and many parts of the province, under the auspices of the Speakers' Patriotic League, appeared at a public meeting since he donned khaki as a member of the Army Medical Corps. The moment he reached the front the large congregation spontaneously broke into applause. This was repeated at intervals throughout the address.

What Is a Private?

"I am going to fight for liberty," declared Prof. Riethdorf enthusiastically. "I left Saxony in order to escape the hateful domination of the Prussians. I am going over to make myself useful in any branch of the service that the authorities may place me. I am going, though a graduate of a university, as a private," he continued. "The other day my little daughter asked me if there was anything lower than a private and I said, 'Yes, one thing else, and that is a man who ought to be in khaki and is not.'"

Pte. Riethdorf expects to go overseas in a few days.

TICKETS SOLD TWICE BY SOME CONDUCTORS

Story That Counterfeits Were Used Is Spurious Itself.

A story to the effect that conductors recently dismissed from the services of the Grand Trunk had been circulating and selling counterfeit tickets, is characterized as "absurd" by the railway's officials.

So far as has been ascertained by "spotters" employed on the road, the only method of fleecing the company discovered was the time-honored one of neglecting to turn in tickets and re-selling them. Thus the tickets carried two or more passengers before being turned into the audit department. Had counterfeit tickets been used they would have been detected at once, both by number and by certain marks of recognition.

Local officials deny that any conductor was stripped to the skin and searched in this city. It may have occurred on another division but not here, according to Superintendent Forrester.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

PRAISE FOR MUNICIPAL ARTICLES

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

The articles by J. H. Fowler re municipal administration are readable, pertinent and really models of truth clearly and excellently expressed.

If municipal ownership be desirable—which many eminent thinkers do not admit—is the expenditure in the proper hands? Is it subjected to proper checks?

Is it proportioned to the monetary ability of London?

We should all like to know how the burden of taxation is distributed.

Many small capitalists are unable to sell at the assessed value. House property is so "mortgaged" by the council that there is no inducement to outsiders to move in, or for "inside" residents to erect buildings for rental (a sine qua non if the city is to grow).

But for Sir George Gibbons our taxation would have been three of four mills higher this year.

Speaking of hospitals, they are, among other defects, used too much as convalescent homes, increasing the expenditure very much.

I hope Mr. Fowler may continue his observations.

AN OLD RESIDENT.

A PET LOVER SPEAKS UP.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Permit me to use your columns in answer to a letter published in the local press, written by one signing himself or herself "A Lover of Flowers," and denouncing the cat and dog as a pest that should be taxed to such a high figure that the average citizen would have to do away with their pets. After reading the letter I was amused, but my amusement turned to pity when I thought it over—pity for a man who could not boast of a love for animals.

To me the love of my dogs is something I would not drive away for any price; it is something I am proud of. I know it is genuine and if I didn't deserve it I wouldn't get it. My dogs are my pals; whatever I do they think it is all right, no matter if the whole world of misunderstanding humans condemn it. My dogs seem to understand everything I say to them, and I believe they do. Then why should I be forced to destroy them because some other fellow, from a class of dog-haters that is away in the minority, say they are a pest. But dogs, as a class, the largest majority of our own city dogs, are not a pest, and I am going to prove to those of my readers who have a sound reasoning power that the advantages of dogs in the city are far greater than the disadvantages.

To begin with, how many owners of dogs are there that cannot tell of one or more incidents that the dog of the house has not proven himself the protector of the household against robbery or other misfortune? How many dog-owners with a family of small children are there that cannot tell us of some way in which the faithful canine has kept the little ones from harm. Before war news crowded out the local news in the newspapers there was hardly a week that the public was not presented with some story of the gallantry and faithfulness of some dog. Think over all the true stories you have read or heard of where a dog has been instrumental in saving the life of its master or some other human.

Come with me a minute to "No Man's Land" in far-off Belgium or France, where the blood of our nation is paying for the freedom of humanity. A wounded soldier has just regained consciousness. He lies where he had fallen in the great charge for the trench ahead. The night has come on. A storm of rain and sleet has taken the place of the heavy firing. Red Cross men are searching for the wounded. There are many out there in this vast "No Man's Land" and the soldier thinks his chance to be found in the darkness is a small one. He knows that if he is left till dawn it will be useless then. He is almost giving up when a cold nose rubs against his cheek and a dismal howl sounds over the night. It is the Red Cross dog, the nose of the army. The howling keeps up till the stretcher-bearers locate the animal and his precious charge. This is not fiction; it is truth. Ask any returned soldier, many of them owe their lives to the army dogs of France and Belgium. A few years ago these dogs were street curs, but with less sentiment than a soldier needs before he is fit for the front they are made invaluable to the cause of humanity. What if some crank had started a campaign in Europe to do away with the dogs? Think of the mothers' sons that would have perished on "No Man's Land!"

"Lover of Flowers" complains that his garden and his neighbor's garden are ruined by dogs. Admitted. Dogs do quite a bit of damage to gardens that are left open. But children and men and women do far more. Why not put a tax on every child? My neighbor's little girl spoiled a plant that I had spent months caring for, so that I could save the seed and have more of that variety the next season. The little boys that live next door had a baseball game on my front lawn and knocked "fouls" into my flower beds that made them look as if a cyclone had struck them. I warned the youngsters not to do it again, but a couple of days after they had a football match on the street and some way or other that ball got kicked into my flower bed more than in any of the other neighbors'. A lady that lives not far away from me helped herself to all my nasturtiums and sweet peas the first time they came out. So far this spring I have one tulip, or maybe two, that have been spoiled by my dogs, but there will be more. I have it fixed so that the dogs won't be able to walk on the tulip bed. When the flowers come out I will have to chain my dogs in the yard to keep the children and some of the adults in the neighborhood from opening the gate and helping themselves to my flowers. You see I have a fence around my backyard. Why doesn't "Lover of Flowers" get one. I am sure they are the best way to assure a good garden and then he wouldn't make himself miserable thinking up nasty things to write to the paper and trying to antagonize his neighbors. It would be safer for the neighbors in his neighborhood to put a fence up for him, then they would be sure their dogs wouldn't be poisoned and their children would not be terrified of the "crank" in the block. An inexpensive and ornamental wire fencing specially manufactured for flower beds is a safeguard against the dogs, if placed around the exposed beds on the front lawn they are just the thing. I love flowers and I think we can't have too many of them, but I love my dogs better, because they can show me they appreciate the care I take of them and reciprocate my love and protection.

If one dog among the hundreds in London is instrumental in preserving the life of one human being during its life time, then we should spare the hundreds to be sure we don't destroy that one particular dog. The life of one mortal, no matter how lowly, is more precious than all the flowers on the face of God's earth.

Just a word to you, "Lover of Flowers." Wouldn't this be an odd old world if everything can just the way we wanted it to? We've got to have a little hell on earth to make heaven worth while when we get there. There will be lots of flowers, we hope, in heaven, and here's hoping you get planted in the centre of a rose garden; but I couldn't picture heaven without a dog or two for every dog-lover, and the dog will be given his speech from the beginning to tell the names of the creatures that set poison out for him, and if you are one of the culprits I can imagine those rose bushes will prick you just a little now and then to make it interesting. Let's all mind our own business, "Lover," and protect what is our own in the easiest way without making others unhappy. Here's hoping that London will become famous for its fine flowers and good dogs. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, and patient readers, I am,

PHOTOPLAY NEWS

AT THE PATRICIA.

At the Patricia Today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Marguerite Snow, the well-known screen favorite, has the honor of being George M. Cohan's leading lady in his first Artcraft photoplay, "Broadway Jones," in which she portrays the role of Josie Richards, the pretty stenographer at the Jones gum factory, who shows the wild youth the right path. Born in Savannah, Ga., and educated in Denver, Colo., Miss Snow became an actress at an early age. Following a notable stage career, she achieved wide prominence in motion pictures, her characterization of the Countess Zudora in "The Million Dollar Mystery" being well remembered. Miss Snow makes an ideal "Josie" in "Broadway Jones," which is released by Artcraft Pictures, and her portrayal in this subject will prove one of the features of the photoplay.

EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS.

SARNIA, April 22.—The response to the appeal of the board of the General Hospital has exceeded all expectations, the treasurer reports that up until the present, $350 has been donated, with contributions still coming in. This appeal was issued some time ago, by the board, to replenish the linen stock fund, and the generous response has been gratifying to the hospital directors.

Chi-Namel Demonstration
Will Continue All This Week At Purdom's Hardware

We have arranged with the factory to allow the expert lady demonstrator to stay with us this week. This will give anyone an opportunity of securing information as to GRAINING, STAINING or VARNISHING.

You can ask the demonstrator to show you any Chi-Namel product you may be interested in, actually applied.

For instance—White Enamel, Porch Furniture Enamel, Gold and Aluminum Paint, Floor Wax, Furniture Polish, Metal Polish, Colored Varnishes, Automobile and Carriage Color Finish, etc.

She will not merely show you the package containing these materials, but show it in the brush—in fact, you can take the brush and apply it yourself.

You can see the actual color—see how easy it is to apply—how all brush marks disappear before it hardens.

This will be a demonstration worth while for any one who is responsible for the care and good appearance of the interior woodwork and furniture of a home.

By asking for a demonstration of any particular Chi-Namel product you will not place yourself under obligation to buy; this demonstration is to acquaint the public with the use and economy of Chi-Namel in the home.
