"THE PLEASANTIES OF PUBLIC LIFE."
—The Y. M. C. A. have made arrangements with Mr. J. W. Bengough, cartoonist of Grip, for the delivery here on the 29th inst. of his humorous illustrated lecture. Particulars in advertisement to-morrow.

THE EARLY BIRD CATCHES THE WORM.
—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. George Jeffrey. He has been favored with a continual rush of business for the last ten days. Those who really wish for genuine bargains should pay him a visit early.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Sabbath School Association for the County of Wellington will hold its annual Convention in Knox Church, Harrison, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 23rd and 24th insts. The first session will be held on Tuesday evening. All the Sabbath Schools within the county are cordially invited to send delegates.

T. G. & B. RAILWAY.—The Harrison Tribune learns from good authority that the Government have extended the time of contract to the above road, and that Mr. Robinson has concluded arrangement with the Company, and will proceed at once to finish the road. We hope now that the last obstacle has been removed, and that the building of the T.
G. & B. Railway through Howick to Teeswater will soon be a fact.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The pupils in Miss Walker's Senior Girls' School will give an exhibition in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening first. There will be French and German Dialogues, Essays, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Readings, &c. Mr. Bruner will also give a German Recitation. The programme is a most attractive one, and we doubt not many of the parents and others interested in the education of the young will be present. The proceedings commence at eight o'clock.

FOR THE OLD COUNTRY.—On Wednesday Mr. James Massie, Mrs. Samuel Wood and three children, and Miss Margaret Palmer; and on Thursday Mr. John Hogg; and Mr. Robert Buchan left Guelph for Quebec, where they take the Allan Line Steamers for Liverpool. The gentlemen go home on business, so that the Alma Bick will be well represented in the British and foreign markets this season. All the above produced their tickets from Mr. Oxnard agent for the Allan Line in Guelph.

AN ANCIENT SHOE.—We saw yesterday in the shoe store of Messrs. R. MacGregor & Co., a pair of lady's satin shoes a hundred years old, with marvellously small heels, which completely throw into the shade the heels of the present day, small though they are. The shoes are of French make, but were worn by a lady in Scotland a hundred years ago on the occasion of her marriage, and have been in Mr. MacGregor's family ever since. The heels are whitened down till they are scarcely an inch in length or width.
How any one could walk on them is a marvel to us. The follies of fashion in those days were even more ridiculous than now.

The Vote on the By-Law.
The voting on the By-law for the issue of debentures to enlarge the butchers' market and Town Hall was very languid all day, only 479 votes having been recorded in all the Wards. At two o'clock there was a slight majority against it, and this becoming known a few who were in favor of the By-law bestirred themselves, and the consequence was that at five o'clock when the poll closed there was a majority of 25 for it. With the exception of a few who were pretty apathetic on both sides, there was a general apathy in regard to the matter, and nothing like the excitement there was on the previous voting. The following is the record of the vote polled in each Ward:—

For.	Against.
East Ward.....	100 14
West ".....	27 115
North ".....	30 88
South ".....	95 10
Total.....	252 227

Majority in favour 25.

Local and Other Items.

LONG WOOL.—The Brussels Post has seen a sample of wool from a sheep belonging to Mr. Walter Govenlock, lot 5, con. S. Grey, which measured 17 1/2 in.
length!

The Court for the County of Waterloo sat only one day last week. This is the first time that the business of the Court was ever disposed of in one day since this county was set apart.

LARGE SHIPMENT.—On Saturday last there were taken from Mr. McLean's Galt Cheese Factory no less than ten waggon loads of cheese for shipment to Liverpool, England, by the Grand Trunk Railway.

LARGE MOTHS.—Mr. Wm. Esson, lot 19, con. 10, East Garafaxa, captured two very large moths last week. The wings are of a brown or slate color, with some pink and white spots and greyish edges, and measured over six inches from tip to tip.

THE DAWSON ROUTE.—This route is now open, and passengers in large numbers are going through. Over 400 had passed to the height of land when the Ontario left Prince Arthur's Landing.
The water is very low in the Sault Ste Marie Canal and the river.

ACCIDENT.—A few days ago Mr. Wm.
Grove, Wellesley, was going for a load of lumber with a span of rather spirited and unmanageable colts he ran away. Mr.
Hayes got thrown from the waggon and got one of his legs broken between the knee and ankle. The break is a bad one, both bones being fractured.

TRIP.—This notorious character was in the Paul, Minnesota, on the 28th ult., and in conversation there stated that he would not accept the nomination for Provecher. In this determination Mon-telli has evinced an amount of intelligence for which we are well prepared to give him credit.

PAINTED ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last week a six year old daughter of Robert Elliott, butcher, Brantford, while playing in the yard in which was a boiler of hot water, tripped on a board and fell head foremost. Her head, back, shoulder and side were fearfully scalded, but there are hopes of her recovery.

FIRE IN MANHEIM.—The saw and shingle mill owned by Mr. Bricker at Manheim, Township of Wilnot, was destroyed by fire on Monday last, and the great mill adjoining, which was also totally destroyed, with the greater part of its contents. There was no insurance on the property.

FUTILE.—A laborer in Hamilton, named John Brandon, attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself, on Thursday. He used an old horse pistol, and being slightly inebriated didn't take good aim, and the result was that he shot entered his left arm. The doctor was called, and extracted the shot, and the would-be suicide is recovering.

A THIEF.—Mr. Wm. Schneider, Listowel, placed a considerable sum of money in his till in the desk in his store the other day, and on examining the roll on Friday evening he was surprised and shocked to find that some person had been helping himself to the extent of ninety dollars. No trace has been found
of the thief.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident occurred on Tuesday last week, near Brussels. A boy named Albert Long, whose father lives on the 11th con. Grey, was
of the thief.

THE ONOXIOUS POLL TAX.—Several young men in Listowel who are over age, possibly refuse to pay the poll tax, and the Overseer thus talks to them:—
"Now, boys, it is no use getting wrathful about it, because it must come, and if you don't pay it willingly our chief will have you up before the infurnal of law and justice, and you will have to liquidate his little bill for his kindly attentions to you, and also fork over the $2 poll tax."

ARTESIAN WELLS IN MANITOBA.—A well has been sunk at Point Douglas, from which flows a constant stream of water. The well is only fifty-two feet deep, and the water is very clear and pure—much more so than that found in the Red River. Already the value of property in the vicinity has been considerably enhanced, and a number of Winnipeg lads changed hands, owing to this discovery, at advanced prices. The comparatively insignificant depth at which flowing water may be found, will prove a great boon to the citizens.

THE FUR TRADE.—Most of the tro-blers from this Province and the Rocky Mountains are now in, and it is quite manifest that the catch of this year in prairie furs has not equalled that of last year, and in consequence there have been fewer robes—wolves, red and kilt foxes, and badgers, than of yore. The wood land furs are already scarce, and there is a larger yield of lynx, otter and fisher, than last year. There has been keen competition here this year on prices, but so far, after the Hudson Bay Company, Dr. Schultz has bought the largest quantity. One of his purchases this week from Lac La Poudre, trader, being 1461 robes, 128 wolves, 445 red fox, 75 shunk, 136 buffalo leather, 846 kilt fox, together with a quantity of beaver, lynx, wolverine, cross fox, and smaller furs.—Nor' Wester.

THUNDER BAY PROSPECTS.—It has been stated that the Silver Islet Company have struck upon a new vein of ore holding $5,000 to the ton. And this comes upon the back of sinister rumors of a few days before that the Islet was "played out." The much-talked of 3 A Mine seems to be undergoing an equally significant piece of good fortune, news having just reached Toronto that another vein has been hit on the 1st level, east of No. 2 which, from existing appearances, promises great things. The fact that the Thunder Bay district is one of the richest silver-bearing localities yet discovered is undeniable, and there seems to be no geological reason why discoveries equally rich but vastly more probable than that incident to the Islet, should not be found on the main land.

In the States there is one doctor to France and England there is only one to every 2,000.

Lecture on the Jewish Tabernacle.

The Young Men's Christian Association having engaged Rev. George Rogers to deliver his now famous lecture on the "Jewish Tabernacle," that gentleman appeared on Thursday evening before a good audience. The lecture was given in the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Mr.
James Hough occupied the chair, and after singing and prayer, introduced the lecturer.

The lecturer said: About 350 years before the birth of Christ, or about 4,000 years ago, a company of three million pilgrims left Egypt and went to the wilderness and encamped in the plain at the foot of Mount Sinai, 7,500 feet above the level of the sea. Here they people heard the voice of God, and were afraid, for their faith worked by fear, and they begged that God would speak to Moses and not to them. After this God gave Moses patterns of the tabernacle, and the court of the tabernacle, and vessels that he wished to be made, and he said to them, Make me a tabernacle that I may dwell therein. In Exodus viii, 2, God required the people to bring the offering of every man who gave willingly, of gold, silver, brass and pewter; and in a short time they had brought more than Moses could use. That fact is a weighty argument in favour of the voluntary principle of giving, and as the tabernacle was a type of Christ, he came on the voluntary principle to earth, and by his resurrection has consecrated a new, brilliant, living pathway from this world right up to the right hand of God. The tabernacle was the dwelling place of God, and so "Christ was in God reconciling the world to himself." It was the meeting place for the people; so Christ is the medium through which we must approach God. Lead of the tabernacle in Exodus 25 chap, then Leviticus 1-9 chaps., and numbers 1-10 chaps., in the light of a good commentary, and see the beauty of the description of this building. The best commentary you can get is the Epistle to the Hebrews; but for that it was impossible to understand the typical meaning and spiritual application of the tabernacle and its services. In the Old Testament we have the buds and blossoms, but in the New the fruit; in the Old we have the seed, and in the New the rich crop to gather and obtain blessing from.

The tabernacle stood in the open court, about 60 yards in length and 30 yards wide. It was supported by 60 pillars, about 11 feet high, and from the silver hooks on these, curtains of white linen were suspended. When a person came with his sin offering, the first thing he would see would be the white linen. In Rev. xix, 8, white linen represents the righteousness of the saints and the purity of Christ as a man. Even in the gate there was the linen; and so on every side of Christ you get the purity of his life. These pillars are types of principles. The pillars were set up first, and the linen suspended from them; so principle precedes practice, and if a man has strong, sound principles of honesty, truthfulness, &c., the tops of the pillars were covered with silver, about 11 feet above the ground. Each of the 48 boards of the tabernacle stood in two blocks of silver; each board was set in the redemption money of 40,000 men.
Allusion is made to this by the Apostle Peter, who says, "We were not redeemed by silver and gold," &c. The gate was made of blue and purple, and suspended from hooks. The gate and veil were made of the same material, and represented the same thing. Within the gate stood the altar of burnt offering; about 5 feet in height and 9 feet long, made of brass. The sin offering was laid here, but on account of the sin it had to be carried to the outside of the camp and burned. No one could come within the gate without bringing an offering to do for sin in his stead. The measure of acceptance accorded to the offering was the measure of acceptance accorded the sinner. Cain's offering was not accepted because sin laid at the door; and this applies to us unless we bring Christ, whose resurrection is the evidence of his acceptance with God. And the measure of Christ's acceptance is the measure of the believer's acceptance. Some people in the 7th chapter of Bompa's while they should be living in the 8th chapter, where there is no condemnation. If you see this point it will take you out of Ecclesiastes where "all is vanity" and put you into Solomon's Song, where all is lovely and pleasant. Between the brazen altar and the door there was a laver made of brass obtained from the looking-glass which the women contributed.

The tabernacle was covered with badger skin, a very hard sort of skin, which was also used for making shoes (Exodus 18 chap.) Viewed from the outside, the tabernacle would not look very well, but inside there was beauty. So those who saw Christ in his humiliation saw nothing to be desired in him. A piece of goat's cloth hung over the door to remind the people of the goat which took away their
sin. There was only one door to the tabernacle.

In the first room there were three pieces of furniture—table, golden candi-lestick and altar. The lights burned day and night, and the High Priest trimmed the lamps, and kept them supplied with oil. In the Holiest of Holies there was but the Ark of the Covenant, the only thing belonging to the tabernacle that was carried into the temple which Solomon built 480 years after the tabernacle was set up. There was no seat for the priest, for his work of mediation was never done; but there was a seat where God dwelt, and that symbolized his presence. The boards of the tabernacle reserved for making shoes (Exodus 18 chap.) Viewed from the outside, the
sin. There was only one door to the tabernacle.

A model of the tabernacle, with all the furniture, was exhibited during the lecture.

The lecturer concluded his interesting discourse by referring to the work that he was doing in Minnesota, where a colony had been formed. The church was small, and out of the reach of many Advantages in the shape of reading matter, being 200 miles beyond the last bookstore. They were building a chapel, and needed money, and took this means of raising it.

A collection amounting to about $45 was then taken up, after which a vote of thanks was given to the lecturer, to which he made a very appropriate reply, and the meeting separated.

Rome, June 18.—Cardinal Antonelli is suffering from a severe attack of the gout and is very weak.

Rome, June 18.—At the reception of the Cardinals by the Pope on Tuesday His Holiness mentioned that proposals had been received emanating from exalted political personages looking to reconciliation between the Papacy and the Italian Government. He declared, however, that

The Market House Extension.

As we anticipated, the vote on the Market House extension by-law was very small. Very little interest was manifested either by its opponents or friends, and had it not been for the efforts of three or four on both sides, not half the vote would have been polled that was. Some may object on this account to the Council proceeding with the work, because there was not a sufficient expression of opinion on the part of the ratepayers. But then the ratepayers themselves are to blame. The by-law was duly advertised, along with the day on which the vote was to be taken, and if the matter was not of sufficient importance to call them out to vote either for or against it, then the fault is entirely their own.

We believe, however, that, generally, there is a feeling of satisfaction that the question has been at last settled, and settled too in that shape which commends itself to most of our citizens who are willing to take a fair and dispassionate view of the subject, who concede the necessity for, and are desirous of, our market and hall accommodation being extended, but at such a reasonable expenditure as will not bear too heavy on the ratepayers, but will yet be sufficient to accomplish the object sought for. It behoves the Council therefore to go prudently and carefully to work, to procure the opinion of thoroughly experienced and practical men on the best plan to be followed, and to carry it out with every regard to economy as well as efficiency. If this is done, we are confident that all the accommodation the town wants for twenty years to come can be secured at a reasonable cost without destroying the architectural proportions of the building. If the Council fail to do this, and without due consideration or enquiry rush into lavish expenditure, the ratepayers will hold them responsible for their reckless and unwise policy, and they will have to answer for it to their constituents.

Progress of the Reciprocity Treaty.

We are glad to learn from the Globe that the Reciprocity Treaty has passed through several important stages during the last few days. Our contemporary says:—"It has received the sanction of Her Majesty, of President Grant and his Cabinet, and of the Government of the Dominion. The President has now sent the Treaty to the Senate for advice. If that body accepts its provisions, the President will sign it, and it will go back to the Senate for ratification. We may add that it is not intended that the Treaty shall go into operation till July, 1875, and in the interim the legislation which it will render necessary must pass Congress and the Parliament of the Dominion."

NEW BRUNSWICK ELECTIONS.—The struggle in this Province over the school question may be said to be virtually over with the elections which came off on Thursday. It has been very intense, and fought out with great determination, and in many cases with considerable bitterness. In every County tickets were formed of those in favor of the Government and their non-sectarian School Act, the Opposition consisting of those in favor of separate schools, and those who advocate the repeal of the present Act. The religious element played a heavy part in the campaign. Appeals were made to Protestants and Catholics, as if the existence of religion was at stake. The elections so far gave twenty-four in favor of the School Act, and two against.

Advertisements will be at once issued by the Public Works Department, inviting tenders for the construction of a telegraph line across the continent. This announcement will be welcomed by both British Columbia and Canada.

A despatch from Fort Garry says that Lepine's trial is postponed for a special term of Court, there not being time to complete it this regular term. Chief Justice Wood is winning golden opinions in Manitoba.

THE ONTARIO VETERINARY COLLEGE.—It will be seen by the report of the Agricultural and Arts Association, that the Hon. David Christie's resolution was carried for transferring to the Provincial Farm at Guelph the Ontario Veterinary College, and an appropriation was made for providing suitable accommodation for the same at the Farm.

ADULTERATION OF TEA.—English tea dealers are being summarily dealt with under the Adulteration Act. A grocer carrying on business at Birkenhead, who had been convicted of adulteration, his green tea having been faced with Prussian blue and gypsum, appealed to the Court of Queen's Bench in London. On his part it was shown that the tea as sold by him was in the same state as when it came from abroad; and it was stated that the "green" tea imported from China was invariably painted and faced in this manner. Mr. Justice Blackburn said a tradesman could only be protected by putting up in his shop, "I sell tea from China adulterated with Prussian blue and gypsum," or he should tell the purchaser that he was selling such. The conviction was affirmed.

The farmers in Illinois are importing Norman horses. The animals are heavily built, and are specially adapted for agricultural purposes.

Harper's Magazine, July, 1874.

Harper's Magazine for July contains over 100 illustrations, and a bewildering variety of the most interesting reading matter.

Harriet Prescott Stoddard opens the Number with an illustrated poem, "Left Ashore," one of her happiest efforts. It is a fit companion to John Chadwick's description of Marblehead.

Porte Crayon in the ninth instalment of his sketches of Western Virginian mountain character, is in one of his most characteristic moods—rollicking in almost extravagant humor. The illustration, "Bishop Gilbert Haven contributes a second paper, profusely illustrated, on Mexico."

William C. Wyckoff contributes, under the title of "The Net Result," a popular account of the work of the United States Fish Commission, illustrated by 25 engravings.

In "A Glimpse of Seventy-six," Chas. D. Dasher reproduces for us a vivid picture of the domestic life of the Revolutionary period.

Commander William Gibson's poem, "Persephone," is published in this number, with a beautiful illustration. Richd. Roaf contributes a poem of much force and beauty, entitled "My Slain."

James Parton, in a paper entitled "Falshood in the Daily Press," gives some interesting specimens of journalistic extravagance and inaccuracy.

Miss Mulock's serial, "My Mother and I," is concluded in this number. "The Living Link" will be concluded in the August number; and the commencement of a brilliant new serial, illustrated by Fredericks, is announced for September.

Two short stories, "John and I," and "My Wife's Editorial," with the five Editorial Departments, complete a number of unusual attractiveness and interest.

SIR CHARLES FOX.—This celebrated civil engineer died on Tuesday. He was originally trained for the medical profession, but his devotion to mechanical science led him to adopt engineering as a calling. His greatest triumph was the construction of the building, of iron and glass, in Hyde Park for the original Great Exhibition of 1851, for his services in connection with which he received the honour of knighthood. He afterwards superintended the construction of the Crystal Palace; at Sydenham, and has executed many other important works. He was senior partner of the firm of Sir Charles Fox & Sons, civil engineers.

CRICKET MATCH TO-DAY.—The Galt Club plays Guelph to-day on the grounds of the Guelph Cricket Club. The Galt players are Messrs. Young, Peck, Fitzsimmons, Crozier, Hague, Blain, Simons, Simpson, Kay, H. Jaffray and G. Jaffray. Guelph meets them with the following players—Messrs. Nichols, Mitchell, Macdock, Crombie, McConkey, Oliver, Palmer, Sharpe, Evatt, Grange and Chadwick. We will give the score to-morrow.

BERLIN AND WOODSTOCK RAILWAY.—Meetings have been held in various places, and the villagers and farmers generally are agitating a line from Berlin to Woodstock by way of Bright, on the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway. To shippers it will be a great benefit, cutting off about forty miles to reach Buffalo from Waterloo County, besides passing through many villages that have no railway communication. Great complaints from the northern stock dealers are rife, as at present they have to go round by Stratford to Buffalo.

DEATHS. BRENNAN.—In Toronto, on Saturday, the 13th of June, of small-pox, Joseph Brennan, aged 22 years.

LUCKITT.—In Pilkington on the 16th inst. George Luckitt, formerly of Northamptonshire, England, aged 75 years.

DR. WHEELER'S ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES and Calissay—After having used your Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calissay for over two years in my daily practice, I must give it my unqualified approval. During a practice of over twenty years, I have used many scientifically prepared compounds, made so full of the same therapeutical indications as your Elixir, but none of them proved with me as valuable as yours. To the medical profession and the public, I would especially recommend it as the best remedy with which I am acquainted for the successful treatment of the large and constantly increasing class of cases of over-worked and nerve-exhausted women. Yours truly,
 N. WALKERS BEEL, M.D.
